PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 19. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, MAY 11, 1852. Whole number 799.

BY MILTON P. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 214 Broad-street, Washington Hall Buildings,

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical lepine, verge and detached lever Watches; cards, polished lepine, verge and detached lever Watches; cards, polished and Swiss Guard Chains; fob and vest Chains of all patterns; silver, gold and rose-cut card cases; gold and silver, engraved and plain Pencils; Ladies' sin-gle stone, cluster, and mosaic, cameo, cornelian, jet, enamelled, mourning and plain Brooches; Gent's cluster, enamelled and plain Studs; Finger Rings of all patterns; Ladies' plain gold, chain and hair Bracelets; Bracelet Snaps of all kinds; Ear rings of the latest style; Gents' diamond, ruby, emerald, hyacinth, and all styles of Breast Pins; gold lockets and Miniature Cases; Gold Pens; Hearts and Crosses; gold Pod and Guard Keys; gold and silver Thimbles; silver Spoons and Butter Knives; gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Bonnet Holders, tablets, hair pins, scissors, knives, tin boxes, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, paper and bag clasps and slides, chess men and boxes, chequer boards, backgammon boards, letter folders, sewing cases, pearl work baskets, watch stands, burner cases, pearl work baskets, watch stands, burner cases, pearl work baskets, watch stands, burner

From Arthur's Home Gazette.

The Flowing River.

Down within an olden valley,
Where the shadows are at play,
Glides a brooklet, musically:
All the live-long summer-day;
There the sweetest murmurs dally
In the dewy morn of May.

Down its winding course it floweth,
To its parent in the deep,
Like a silver flash it gloweth,
When the sunbeams o'er it creep;
Starry nights its music knoweth
When the world is rocked in sleep.

And the fairy tune it singeth
Trembles in the upper air;
And an echo ever ringeth
From the forest everywhere,
Telling all it only bringeth
Echoes to a holy prayer.

Thus the soul is flowing ever,
Breathing music's under tone,
Down the valley of life's river,
Where the phantom shadows moan,
And its echoes seem to quiver
Upward to the holy One.

And it floweth upward, onward,
To its parent, still and broad;
And its breathings, gliding sunward,
Are its whispers unto God;
Which the fagler scattered downward,
But to sanctify the sod. W.

AN INCIDENT.

A correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, writing from Springfield, Mass., relates the following:—Wm. Kossuth and companions were at Widdin, Bulgaria, in September, 1849, a Turkish officer of rank was sent to them by the Grand Vizier, from Constantinople, to inform them that a majority of the Divan had decided to surrender the refugees, and that the only means for them to preserve their lives was to renounce Christianity and embrace Mosleminism. Kossuth's heroic answer is well known; but feeling that it was the duty of the patriot to make every honorable effort to preserve his life, he determined to write to Lord Palmerston a letter, explaining to him the dangers by which himself and associates were surrounded.

Capt. Henningsen, of the English army, who had left England to aid in the Hungarian struggle, found Kossuth an exile at Widdin. With him Kossuth consulted as to the manner of sending the important letter to Palmerston. He said he was a poor man, and the letter must reach England in ten days.

In Kossuth's room, during this consultation, an English traveler had been sitting. He was on his way from the East Indies to England, and had come to Widdin out of curiousity, to see the Hungarian refugees. He was grave looking and silent. He sat for hours with his umbrella under his arm, biting his finger nails, without speaking, and seldom paying any attention whatever to what was passing around him.

When Kossuth asked Henningsen how he should dispatch the letter to Palmerston, after a moment's reflection, Henningsen said, "This man will take it," pointing to his silent countryman.

"No," answered Kossuth; "I have no claims on him."

"But I have, as an Englishman," returned Henningsen: and stepping up to his countryman, he tapped him on the shoulder. The traveler looked up deliberately and said,

"Well, sir."

Henningsen informed him of Kossuth's wish to send an important letter to England; and when he understood the nature of its contents, he inquired abruptly,

"Where is the letter?"

Henningsen handed it to him. He rose from his seat, said laconically "Good bye, sir," and was gone.

The letter reached Lord Palmerston in ten days. It has been published in the English papers, and the readers of The Tribune know the part England took in the protection of Kossuth and companions.

At Hartford, Connecticut, on Friday last, when the cars stopped, a man put into Kossuth's hand a book. He did not look at the man, and scarcely knew what was given him, in the midst of the confusion of the crowd at the depot; but when the cars were again in motion he examined the book and found it to be a copy of C. L. Brace's Travels in Hungary, with a note written on one of the leaves, signed "Casement," informing him that the giver was the man who from Widdin, Bulgaria, had borne the important letter to Lord Palmerston within the required ten days.

Kossuth was much affected at this information, expresses deep regret that he had not at least shaken the man's hand and thanked him. He feels himself highly indebted to him, and would acknowledge that indebtedness. He hopes he may again meet this man who signed himself "Casement."

PLANTING PEAS WITH POTATOES.

The best method of raising good peas with which I am acquainted, is to drop the peas in the rows with the potatoes. In this way I have succeeded at all times in gathering an excellent crop, sound, well filled and free from bugs, when those sown broadcast or in drills by themselves, have been light and infested with vermin to an extent that renders them wholly worthless except as a feed for swine.

The peas in the potato rows get an early start, and are not at all in the way while working the latter. They are also easily "pulled" and do not appear to be the slightest injury to the potato crop. In this way a farmer can produce enough peas, of superior quality, for family use at slight expense; it is much better than sowing them and if he is careful in selecting, he may feel mortally certain of a crop. The potato vines afford a chance for the peas to climb, and they are thus kept from the dirt, and preserved perfectly clean till harvest. When wanted for "green peas," the pods can be gathered with great facility, even in damp weather, and the vines need not be lacerated or broken in pulling them. Where a large piece of potatoes is cultivated, a fine crop may be obtained in this way. The practice of growing them thus, is now quite common in many places, and it deserves to become universal, as the yield is more than two to one compared to the "Old System" of cultivating them by themselves.—Germantown Telegraph.

The immigration at New York last month, is reported to be 10,149 persons.

THE UNION

Plainfield, N. J. May 11, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, at New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

THE NEW JERSEY WHIG STATE CONVENTION, Will meet at Trenton on Wednesday, June 2nd, to appoint delegates to the National Convention at Baltimore, June 16th.

The Democratic State Convention, to appoint Delegates to the National Convention at Baltimore, assembled at Trenton, on Thursday last. Quite a majority of the delegates were in favor of Gen. Cass as the candidate; but Com. Stockton had some friends there, which caused not a little turbulence and exciting debate. The noisiest supporter of the Commodore was Isaac Watts Crane, of this place, who to the astonishment of the Essex delegation presented himself as a delegate; his credentials being a newspaper report, which by some were not deemed satisfactory.

Resolutions were adopted, approving of the Baltimore platform of 1848, and of the Compromise Measures; approving of the course of Senator Stockton and other democratic Congressmen; and instructing the delegates to vote for Gen. Cass, as long as his name was before the National Convention.

The 7 delegates to Baltimore were then chosen.

Presidential.—The Newark Mercury thinks that Gen. Scott is the only whig candidate that can carry New Jersey—that Webster or Fillmore would be beaten by from 3 to 5,000 majority. From New York, and the great West we have conflicting accounts as to the popularity of Gen. Scott and Mr. Fillmore, which we hope the National Convention will reconcile.

The lower House of the Rhode Island Legislature have passed the Maine Liquor Law by over two to one. It is said the majority for it in the Senate will be from 4 to 8. Three of the New England States are sure of the law this year and the three others will have it next. A law which prevents so much crime, misery and poverty cannot but commend itself to an intelligent community, which makes laws for itself.

Congress.

The proceedings of Congress last week can be given in few words: The Senate were occupied mainly with the Deficiency Appropriation Bill; and Mr. Cass ably advocated an additional appropriation to the Collins line of steamers.

The House talked about the Homestead Bill and President-making and the Congress Printing, but did nothing note-worthy.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The steamship Crescent City arrived at New York on Sunday 2d inst. with dates from San Francisco, to April 5th, 4 days later. She had 500 passengers and $2,400,000 in gold, in both cases, the largest arrival yet.

The intelligence is highly encouraging in every way. The weather had become settled, the supply of water was abundant, and a greater degree of activity prevailed at the mines than was ever known. Gold was coming in to San Francisco at an unprecedented rate, and it is expected $4,000,000 will be shipped to New York on the 1st of May.

The arrivals at San Francisco exceed 4,000 a month, and the demand for all kinds of mechanics is reported to be general. The houses are nearly all taken, and others are constantly in demand. Carpenters and blacksmiths can get employment at almost any price they may ask.

The Eruption at the Sandwich Islands.—The jet of burning lava where it first broke forth on the side of Mauna Loa was 500 feet high and 100 wide. In some places the river of melted lava is a mile wide, and has filled up ravines 100, 200 and 300 feet deep! and was still flowing on. It watered a heavy forest, and the growth of centuries was cut down like grass

Mr. Clay, it is supposed, cannot long survive. He had a severe attack last week, from which, it is not expected he will ever recover. The President visited him early in the week. His son having been sent for, has arrived at Washington and is in constant attendance on the dying statesman.

Great Loss of Life.—A fire occurred in New York on Saturday morning, in Catharine street, near Cherry, among a lot of wooden buildings, and 10 or 12 persons burnt it is supposed. 8 dead bodies have been recovered, 4 being from one family, a wife, 2 daughters and a son of one of the 4th ward police.

Dreadful Railroad Accident.—Last Friday, on the Rome and Watertown R. R. a party of ladies were amusing themselves with a hand car immediately after the passenger train had passed, not knowing that a freight train was to follow. The latter consequently came upon them unexpectedly, and four of the young ladies were instantly killed! The head of one was completely severed from the body, and thrown a distance of two rods. The limbs of two others were severed from their bodies, and the fourth was dreadfully crushed. The hand car was not thrown from the track.

Arithmetical Curiosity.—Multiply the numbers 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 by 9, and the product will be all 1s; multiply the same by 18, and it will contain only 2s; multiply it by 27, and it will give all 3s in the answer. The other digits may be obtained by using greater multiples of 9.—Stud't

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Collins steamer Pacific arrived at New York on the 21 last. with 4 days' later news from Europe, 83 passengers, and £13,250 in gold.

The Europa arrived at New York Thursday evening, with three days' later news.

The political news is not important, but the markets were more encouraging. The Bank had reduced its rate of discount to 2 per cent. Cotton and breadstuffs had advanced somewhat.

A dispatch from Vienna states that the mother and sisters of Kossuth, were to be allowed to come to America.

The laborers employed on the drainage works in Galway, have adopted the novel scheme of an emigration lottery. The 300 men employed contribute 6d each when they receive their wages, the sum thus collected serving to ship off one or two of their number fortnightly to America.

The Asia sailed for Liverpool from New York on Wednesday, with 110 passengers and $130,500 in specie, chiefly silver.

The Rahway Republican says "We are pleased to learn that Chancellor Williamson has appointed Bethuel Ward, Esq. of Piscataway, Master-in-Chancery. Mr. W. is a high-minded, intelligent and thorough-going business man, and his appointment will be highly pleasing to his numerous friends.

The Paterson Guardian thinks that about $200 will be raised for Kossuth in that city.

That Earthquake at Washington.—We have been expecting it for some time. We have said but little on the subject, but any man of common sense must understand that things in Washington cannot go on as they have done for any length of time. There will be more shocks soon, if Congress does not attend to its legitimate business, and forward to a greater extent the interests of the country. President making is none of their concerns, and they may understand the recent shocks as a warning. It is no wonder that the Clerks at Washington were seized with such sudden fear on that occasion. They too will be apt to feel something more giving way after a while. —Newark Mercury.

The President has notified the Utah Judges now in Washington, to return immediately, otherwise their successors will be appointed.

Governor Bigler vetoed all the bank bills passed by the Pennsylvania legislator.

Capital of Connecticut.—A proposition is before the people of Connecticut to abandon the plan of two capitals, and to fix the Legislature and the Government permanently at one place.

Vigorous Old Age.—Mr. Simeon Marble, of New-Haven, has a monthly rose bush, with some thirty flowers upon it. This bush has blossomed regularly for forty-eight years, and is still as vigorous and hardy to all appearance as in the days of its juvenility, notwithstanding much severe usage, and several hair-breadth escapes.

The receipts of the sub-marine telegraph across the English channel are now more than five hundred pounds a month, while the expenses are not more than two hundred.

The late fire in the baggage car on the Pennsylvania Railroad, is supposed to have originated in a box of lucifiers carried in the trunk of some foolish passenger. Passengers should be particularly careful to avoid carrying matches, except in tight metallic boxes. The loss is estimated at from $6000 to $8000.

A son of Rev. Mr. Williamson, a Universalist minister of Louisville, hung himself last week at his father's house. He had recently been reading Andrew Jackson Davis's book on clairvoyance.

CURIOUS.—It is a somewhat remarkable circumstance that the Amazon and the equally illfated Birkenhead commenced their voyages on the same day; the Amazon having left Southampton and the Birkenhead Portsmouth on Friday, the 2d January. Friday is generally regarded by sailors as an unlucky day on which to begin a voyage.

Fowl Precocity!—A hen belonging to Dr. J. H. Hero, of the Water Cure at Athol, Mass., layed within 24 hours, three good sized eggs.

A Promising Haul of Herrings.—One hundred thousand herrings were taken at a single haul at the Tump fishery on the Potomac.

A scamp out west, ran away with an old man's daughter. The father advertises him, and requests "all editors friendly to young girls, widows, old maids, and heart broken fathers," to publish the villain to the world. His (the runaway's) name is David Epping.

☞ A respectable elderly lady of Rochester, recently received a telegraphic dispatch purporting to be from her husband, who was in Buffalo. She read it carefully, and then returned it to the messenger with the remark that it could not be from her "legs lord," for it was not in his hand writing! No explanation could convince her of her mistake.

The Hightstown Gazette says that a colored woman in the emigrant car, who was bound for Bordentown, but neglected to get out at the station, inquired of a fellow-passenger the distance to the place above mentioned, and when he told her the train had passed it, she picked up her bundle and sprang from the car, which was running at the rate of 30 to 35 miles per hour. She fell on her head and right shoulder, the former striking first, thereby obviating any serious injury. She may thank Providence for giving her race thick skulls.

☞ Dr. Bailey, of the National Era, says to his correspondent:

"When you write for the press, use black ink; clear, good paper, write on one side only, in letters large and plain enough to be read like print; and if you suspect defects in style, grammer, or punctuation; get a friend to correct it, and do not call upon the editor to do it. He has no time, and it is not his business."

The Erie Railroad Company have laid hands on the rum-drinking on the line of their road after the fashion of the Maine law. At a meeting of the Directors, March 31st, they resolved that no person shall be retained in their employment, in any department, who is known to be in the habit of using intoxicating drinks; that the selling or disposing of intoxicating drinks in any station or building belonging to the company is positively forbidden, and that the violation of this resolution shall be considered a sufficient reason for removing the party from the use of the station for the sale of refreshments.

A shop-keeper who had stuck up a notice in glaring capitals, "Selling off!" "Must close on Saturday!" was asked by a friend, "What, are you selling off?" "Yes; all the shop-keepers are selling off, aint they?" "But you say you must close on Saturday." "To be sure; would you have me keep open on Sunday?"

For the Plainfield Union.

PARTS OF SPEECH.

Denmark, a small Kingdom of Europe, standing back about a thousand years, is a word meaning marshes; it being situated on the coast.

Europe, the most distinguished grand division of the globe, for the last thousand years, is a word meaning white-faced.

Egypt means land of darkness.

Philippi, a city of Macedon, was named after Philip, father of Alexander the Great.

Italy was named after Atalus, king of Sicuil.

Astoria, 18 miles south of the mouth of Columbia River, Oregon, was named after John Jacob Astor, its founder.

Sierra Leone means Lions' Mountains, an English colony on the west coast of Africa.

Bhering's Strait separates North America from Asia, and is 40 miles wide; named from Capt. Bhering, its discoverer.

Rahway is an Indian name, signifying Man's Place; quite complimentary.

Afghanistan means mountainous; the name of a country between Persia and Hindostan.

Camptown in Clinton township, near Newark derived its name from the circumstance of the American army being encamped there during the Revolution.

Olympus, in Greece, was named after Olympia the mother of Alexander the Great. The Olympic Games were celebrated here every four years —hence Olympiad came to be used as a period of 4 years, and a date from which events were reckoned. These games commenced 753 years before Christ.

A leaden ball an inch in diameter weighs 3-14ths of a pound.

Aurora Borealis means Light of the North.

The word School means loisure retirement.

Youth means days of choice.

Education means to draw out.

Whiskey is derived from "usque," part of the Irish word "usquebagh," madness of the head.

Newstead Abbey was founded by Henry 2d in 1170. It was the residence of Lord Ryron, who sold it in 1818 for £100,000.

An Example.—The Rev. Dr. John McLean, Vice President of the College of New Jersey, at Princeton, and professor of the Greek Language and Literature, preaches occasionly, at least, to a congregation of colored people, in a neat little church, established much by his own liberality. How much to his honor thus to imitate Him who said, "To the poor, the gospel is preached!"

Boiling Mush.—It is very common to make mush by boiling only a few minutes. This is all wrong. It should be boiled one or two hours, and if longer will do no harm. It will be necessary occasionally to add some hot water, to keep the mass thin and prevent burning, and it must be often stirred.

Judge Atchison tells a good story of a Kentuckian, who enquired of him, on his way to Washington, who these Magyiers (Magyars) were, with whom Austria had so much trouble; adding, without waiting for an answer, that if they were the Maguires who left the Green River county a few years ago, he was not astonished that Austria had to call on Russia to help her put them down.

A Draw Game.—We learn from the Chicopee Telegraph that a certain G. M. Bigelow, in that town, and Edgil Miller, of Springfield, on Friday, for saying that he had been drunk every day for two months. It was proved on the trial however, that Bigelow was not drunk every day, but nearly; and the jury thought that one cent would repay him for the damage done his character by the slander, which they awarded; and compelled each party to pay his own costs.

It is said that the famous bankers, the brothers Rothschild, are worth in the aggregate the enormous sum of $735,000,000! We pray that we may never may be as rich, and from present indications we are not particularly uneasy about it

It is said that the fibre of New Zealand flax are double in strength to those of common flax, and a third more so than hemp.

Administrator's sale.

THE Subscriber, Administrator of the Estate of ABRAHAM PARKER, deceased, will sell at Public sale, on Second Day (Monday) the 12th day of July next, at 2 o'clock P. M. on the premises, the Real Estate belonging to said deceased, viz: one Two-story House with Lot and Garden situated on the east corner of Second and New Streets, in Plainfield, N. J.

Any information that may be required by reference to said property, will be cheerfully furnished by calling on the subscriber, or Smith W. Parker, on the premises.

SALE POSITIVE. ZACHARIAH WEBSTER,
Plainfield, May 6, 1852. Administrator.

Chilled Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES PACKWELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 25 cents a piece, (doing the walls and paste included.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to 24 per piece. A Room papered in 4 hours.

J. P. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers.
Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852.

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st Day of May, will remove his store to No. 16 Maiden Lane to the store formerly occupied by him.

He respectfully begs to call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him:—James Hemming & Son's celebrated Needles—Richard Grosvenor and other Needles.—Pearl Buttons, Combs, Steel Pens, Pencil Cases and Pencils, Gilt Binding Tape, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c.

RICHD RICHARDS.
Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods.
April 26, 1852.—13m. 16 Maiden Lane New York.

SELECT SCHOOL.

MISS JEWETT, who has had much experience and success in teaching, will open in Second st near Mechanic, on Wednesday the 12th inst. a

SELECT SCHOOL,

For Girls and Young Ladies, in which will be taught all the branches of Philosophy, and the English Education, together with the Latin and French Languages.

Application may be made at Rev. Mr. Sheldon's, Second street.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1852—tf

Excelsior Chemical and Color Works.

SAMUEL TRUESDELL,

MANUFACTURER OF

PAINTS & COLORS:

Chrome Green,	American Vermilion,
Chrome Yellow,	Chinese Blue,
Prussian Blue,	Paris Green,
Paris Blue,	Rose Pink, &c. &c

No. 141, Sullivan Street, New York.

IMPERIAL GREEN PAINT IN OIL.

April 18, 1852.—3m.

PEARL PEAS.—The Imperial Pea, Genuine article, for sale by Farmers generally.

For sale by JAS. M. DUNN.

German Washing Powder, & Fluid.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

Annual Ford Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Flour,	$4,12 to 4,62
Corn	3,31 to 3,31
Rye, Jersey,	3,25 to 3,25
Wheat,	96 to 1,—
Rye,	70 to 71
Oats,	91 to 92
Oats, Jersey,	29 to 29

Dr. Hostetter's German Bitters.—This celebrated medicine is one of the very best in the country, and its good qualities only need to be known, to give it preference over all others now in use. We have seen its good effects lately after the total failure of many others. This is saying more than we can for any other medicine within our knowledge, and we felt it a duty to recommend the Bitters to the notice of our friends. The genuine is prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Phila.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Camphor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

WHEN WE CONSIDER

That 150,000 human beings die of Consumption annually, in the United States alone, the importance of a medicine which will cure all the Pulmonary affections leading to this complaint, and even arrest the Destroyer after it has indicated its presence in the system, must be admitted to be beyond estimate. This wonderful remedial power is claimed to be possessed by and the voices and signatures of a multitude of recovered patients, ratify the claim. We say, read the evidence. Read the letters containing the names and residences of the writers, published in the pamphlet to be had of the Agents, and the list of attested cures which is continually lengthening in the columns of the newspapers. Conviction will then be not a matter of choice but of necessity.

Dr. Boyer's Syrup of Liverwort Tar and Canchalagua

CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on the buff wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. B. SCOVILL & CO.

For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Clothier Hall, 216 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.

Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING

PRICE—In large bottles, $1.00, or 6 bottles for $5.00.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

R. Richards, N Y: $4,14; James Puckroll, 3,69; J. Vreeland, 4,60; Isaac L. Otis, 3,00; Henry Roberts, 2,00; A Hewson, Warrenville, 1,50; Dr. C. H. Stillman, 1,31; Z. Webster, Esq. 1,00; Wm. Gamberton, 1,00; John C. Moore, 75; Wm Sutton, 50.

MARRIED,

In this place, April 15th, by Rev. S. J. Drake, Mr. Stelle Giles to Miss Mary Albro.

On the 3d inst. at Elizabethtown, Rev. L. R. Dunn, Mr. Benj. P. Marsh, of Rahway, to Miss Margaret Dunn, of Plainfield.

DIED.

In this place, April 28th, Emily, daughter of James and Mary Leonard, aged 10 years, 1 month ... d 20 days.

Farewell, ye friends, whose tender care
Has long engaged my love;
Your fond embrace I now exchange
For better friends above.

I. S. DUNN.

HAVING taken up his residence in this place near the railroad in Centreet reet, nearly opposite Rev. D. T. Mills, offers his services to the public generally, as a practical Surveyor and Clerk, by the week, day or job, on reasonable terms. Deeds, Mortgages, Leases, Wills, and othe. Legal Instruments carefully drawn.—He will attend to collections, also, and receive all similar orders, at his residence, at any time, excepting the evening after 6th day and on 7th Day. Having had considerable experience, he hopes to give satisfaction.

Plainfield, May 10, 1852.—1m I. S. DUNN.

A CHOICE ASSORTMENT OF

GARDEN, FIELD and FLOWER SEEDS,

—WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.—

WILLIAM CARNS

INFORMS his friends and the public that he has succeeded Mr. John Eadie, in the Seed Store, 141 MARKET-STREET, NEWARK.

W. C. flatters himself that his long experience in the Seed business, and his constant care in procuring the best quality of SEEDS grown in this country and in Europe, coupled with punctuality and strict attention to business, will secure to him a liberal share of patronage.

W. C. has laid in his stock of new seeds for the season, to which he invites the attention of purchasers.

Catalogues forwarded to post paid applications.

Greenhouse Plants, Fruit, Ornamental Trees, &c. furnished to order. / New York reference by unknown correspondents.

N. B.—Jobbing punctually attended to by the day, month or year, by practical men.

May 3d, 1852.—2m.

JOHN JELLIFF'S OLD ESTABLISHED

Furniture Warehouse,

301 & 303 Broad Street, Newark,

Great Improvements in his Store—New Spring Goods.

Mr. J. having remodelled and enlarged his Warerooms is happy to say he is now ready to receive calls; and invites those interested to personally examine his Stock, prices, and all in the pursuit of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, to call and see his wares. Having catered to the wants, convenience, and luxury of Essex county for the last Fifteen Years,

In the way of Cabinet Furniture, and his wares having received satisfactory tests during that time, he does not consider it necessary to say more as to the quality of his goods. They speak for themselves. To the enduring comforts and the solid utility universally characterized them. He would invite attention to his

NEW SPRING STYLES,

And, without question, he considers his FINE LACES Rooms contain the

Largest, Most Complete and Extensive Assortment

That can be found in the State, and for beauty of design and neatness of execution, he challenges competition. They are out of the reach of

ANCIENT AND MODERN STYLES.

Comprising all the varieties of rosewood and fancy woods, in the sofa or otherwise, of Parlor, Chamber, Dining and Dining Room, and Kitchen Furniture usually called for, including Mattresses, Palliasters, and Cushions of all descriptions.

Churches, Lodges, Saloons, Halls, Counting Houses, Offices, &c. &c. furnished at short notice.

Cheap, Cheap, Very Cheap Furniture!!

No necessity of going to New York, or the Jonk Shops for cheap Furniture, as I will sell you the same goods just as cheap, and you will be saved the expense of cartage, freight, breakage, and trouble of going after it.

A Large Stock of Very Low-Priced Furniture.

Sofas within $20; Mahogany Chairs $2,50; Cane seat do. $8 etc.; Common do. $4 etc.; Cane Settees, $5; Bedsteads $2,25c. Tables, Stands & Looking Glasses at all prices. Every thing else in the same proportion.

JOHN JELLIFF, 301 and 303 Broad st.

May 5, 1852.—1yr Newark, N. J.

RAGS, Bones, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any thing you may have to sell, or want to buy, call on us in exchange for Goods.—Cash paid for Rags.—DUNHAM & CO.

Hoover's Black Ink.

TEN Feet in one, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

A counterfeit has been issued on the Trenton Banking Co. of the following description; 5's, vignette, man on horseback, and drove of cattle. The word "five" is printed in red across the centre of the note.

A mad dog created some consternation in N. Y. last Friday, and after biting one gentleman was finally killed.

Omnibuses are beginning to be constructed of iron. They are said to be lighter, stronger, and more commodious than those of wood.

Fruit Trees.—At Rochester, N. Y., last year, the sale of fruit trees, from the nurseries, amounted to $350,000.

A Quaker vindicating the pertinacity of his sect in refusing to give titles to men, gave this philosophical account: "Until the honors of nobility have become so common as to be of no account, they are to be considered as badges of servility and meanness, and the more titles a man has, the more he is a slave. Titles are to honor what counterfeit money is to gold and silver—they debase it."

Jane—Just called you Patrick, to inquire whether your mamma knows you are out, said an upstart to an Irishman at work. She dos, sir, and she give me a penny to buy a monkey with. Are you for sale, sir?

Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's, Boys' and Youths' Hats and Caps of all kinds, free from imposition, selling all the qualities usually wanted for the city and country, all of which are made at their own manufactory by white and other journeymen workmen. Purchasers who may select or order other dissimilar articles will find, and obtain their real value being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as favorably as at any establishment in the country. 352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

May 24, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, by the box.
May 4, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

LIGHTNING RODS !

A. M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 132 East Twenty-Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and affix to buildings their improved Lightning Rods; which have now been in use seventeen years, without a single failure to protect buildings to which they were attached. Mr. A. M. Quimby has made Electricity the study of his life, and his rods are always put up in accordance with such rules only as he has proven by an extended use, and the result of his experience. And adherence to these rules he has found to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and composed as regards lightning, and require a different arrangement of the rods, to suit the peculiar features of the case, which is the reason so many of the common rods have failed heretofore; being put up by persons ignorant of the laws by which electricity is governed, they are not arranged on buildings in such a manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Quimby's rods have been placed on the houses of Mr. D. Rockwell, C. Bolce, Esq. Mr. M. Stelle, and others in Plainfield; and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church and others in New York; church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders at the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—6m*

BARAGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received, for sale by JAS. M. DUNN.

1852.

SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

WE would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have now had another still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not praise our Goods with a view of trying to induce the people to believe that they are cheap, but, first intend that their style and quality shall speak for themselves. Delaines from 10cts to 48.; handsome Berage de Laines new styles from 18d to 62d.; plain and watered Poplin Silks from 38c to 10s. per yard; Prints say variety from 4 to 14 cts.; a good lot of Ladies' Brown Linen Sheeting from 10 cts to 25; Bleached and Brown Muslins very cheap from 4 cts. to 25, and more than a thousand other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloths, plain and fancy Cassimers, a first rate assortment of Vestings any or all of which can be cut and made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Gents furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods from the

Plainest and Cheapest

To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it an object to Cash purchasers from 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we are entirely in the Dry Goods trade and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

SILKS ! SILKS ! ! SILKS ! ! !

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also Gents Plaids new Spring Styles to which the attention of Ladies is particula ly requested, at ROCAP & SHEPPARDS

May 24, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY.

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street,

Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

Central Rail Road of N. J.

Extension to Clinton, 8 miles.

An Extra Accommodation Train.

Spring Arrangements,

Commencing Monday, May. 3d, 1852.

This Road is now completed by steamers Red Jacket Pier No. 1 North River, and connects at Elizabethtown with trains on the N. J. Railroad, which leave New York from the foot of Cortlandt-st., at the SAME HOURS.

Leave New York,

At 9 o'clock, A. M. at 1 P. M. (freight) and 5 P. M.

Trains to New York Leave

Elizabethtown, at	8.15,	5.40 and 8.40 A.M.	1.40 P.M
North Branch,	8.30	5.50	1.50
Somerville,	8.40	6.00	2.00
Bridgewater,	8.50	6.15	2.15
Plainfield,	9.10	6.40	2.40
Westfield,	9.20	6.55	2.55
Elizabethtown,	11	10.15	5.15

☞ Stages will be in readiness on the arrival of the Perket train from New York, at White House, to convey passengers to Easton, Wilkesbarre, Bethlehem, Allentown, Quincy, Phoenixville, Pottsville, Pennington, Princeton, Clinton, Milford, Bethlehem, Bloomsbury, N. J., and to New Hampton, Washington and Belvidere, N. J., on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; also from Somerville for Flemington and Pittstown, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

N. B. All Baggage at the risk of the owners until delivered into the actual possession of the Agents of the company, and checks or receipts given therefor.

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at
L. B. DUNHAM & CO.'S.

FLOOR OIL CLOTHS

At 50 Pine Street, New York

E. E. RICE,

MANUFACTURER and Dealer in every description of

FLOOR AND TABLE OIL CLOTHS,

Having established a Depot for the sale of his Goods at the above place, most respectfully invites his old Customers and Dealers generally to call and examine his Stock.

E. E. RICE.

March 6, 1852.

Notice.

THE Notes belonging to the late firm of FRENCH & RUNYON have been left with the subscriber for collection. The makers of said Notes are requested to call at the store of Berry & Runyon, and settle the same on or before 5th day.

ABM RUNYON.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—1m*

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS.

DANIEL BULLMAN,

is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Spring Patterns; Domestics of every grade and price; Silks, plain and figured; Ginghams, Alpaccas, &c. suitable to the season; Linens, White Goods of all kinds, Cloths, Cassimeres, Sattinets, Kentucky Jeans, Hosiery, Gloves, and all other articles in the dry goods line, necessary to make a perfect, full and complete establishment and can be found in these parts, and they will be sold as cheap too. Try us and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing these articles, will find that we can sell as low as the lowest prices and sell them as cheap as any man can. Our customers cannot help being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY.

Some very beautiful, and some very cheap; a large and varied assortment, to suit all tastes, constantly on hand. Also, Lamps, in great variety.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell the same goods as cheap, and save you the trouble and expense of going there for. Also, Looking-Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

VARIETIES AND FANCY ARTICLES.

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call, and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it, very likely. A portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited.

D. BULLMAN.

April 26, 1852.

Cheap, Cheap store ! !

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Earthen and Stone Ware, also Boots and Shoes, &c. My stock has been selected with great care, and an eye to cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints, Cashmeres, Gingham, Cassimeres, Summerstuffs, Delaines, Sattinets, Fustians, &c. And all styles of goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boys' wear. Muslins bleached and unbleached, colored cambrics, shirtings, sheetings, buttons, thread, cotton batts, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas, Rice, Sugars, Candles, Flour, Coffee, Corn Starch, Soap, Indian Meal.

PROVISIONS.—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef, Pepper, Spices, Cheese, Hams, Pork, &c. Pepper sauce, Honey, tumbles, prunes, pails, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all both old and young, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to call the second time.

SILKS ! SILKS ! SILKS ! !

The subscriber has a so on hand a good assortment of Black and changeable silks, which will be sold low.

May 4, 1852. J. W. ARROWSMITH.

Lawrence's Gallery,

203 Broadway, 3 doors below Fulton-STREET, NEW YORK.

THE proprietor having built this establishment expressly for Daguerreotypes, with a view to obviate many of the difficulties that surround the Daguerrian Artist, and having had a year's trial, that his ex pectations have been fully realized. The arrangement of light is new, and produces uniformly soft and bold pictures, with the middle, or neutral tints, so long looked for by Artists. The price of the rooms is arranged with particular reference to taking family and other groups. Fifty persons can be taken with great facility. The proprietor has had many years of the most extensive experience and skill, and none but good likenesses will be sent out. Mr. L. has been the first to produce Daguerreotypes in the city of New York, colored by means of a Camera of immense size, and on plates three times larger than ever before used, producing a Picture having all the softness and delicacy of the finest Miniature. Pictures taken of deceased persons with perfect accuracy. Children of all ages taken Stormy or cloudy weather no detriment to taking good pictures. The public are invited to call and visit the Rooms, which are free to all.

THE PRIZE MEDAL, A PRIZE MEDAL, was awarded at the late exhibition, at the WORLD'S FAIR IN LONDON, for the BEST Daguerreotypes. Enough said.

April 20th, 1852.—3m.

M. M. LAWRENCE.

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in Main street, of posite Webster & Marsh's store, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, &c.—Having purchased her goods at the late Auction sales, she is prepared to sell Ribands, Gimps, Gloves, Silk Laces, Collars, Muslins, Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and every thing in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from Somerville, she is prepared for orders in all the various branches of Dress Making. Cape and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 5, 1852.—6m.

Something New ! !

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to Brown's Wagon Shop, recently occupied by French & Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, keeps on hand Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Cozine's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the vicinity of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of Goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns Delaines, Silk and other Cloths, Hosiery of all kinds, Gloves, Ribbons, Trimmings for Summer Goods, Colenades, Needles, Pins and Cotton.

GROCERIES.

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, Rice, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders, Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Peaches.

Stone and Wooden Ware,

Tubs, Buckets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, Whisks, Shoe brushes, Cloth and Hair.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.

LIME, Rhein Island and Glens Falls.

☞ All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods.

JAMES M. DUNN.

April 20, 1852.—1y.

REMOVAL.

STRAW GOODS.

THE subscriber having removed from No. 12 to No. 10 John Street, first floor, respectfully invites the attention of Milliners and Sellers to his new and desirable stock of which comprises the most desirable styles, adapted to Fashionable Millinery Trade, all of which will be sold at the lowest market prices.

STRAW BONNETS,

L. CHAPIN.

April 12, 1852.—2m. No. 10 John-st.

100 BBLS. 95 per cent. Alcohol, suitable for making Burning Fluid or Spirit Gas, for sale by the manufacturer. JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,

March 23, 1852.—3m. 32 Dusling Slip, N. Y.

IMPERIAL BURNING FLUID—In barrels and half bbls., for sale by the manufacturer.

JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,

March 23, 1852.—3m. 32 Dusling Slip, N. Y.

Furniture and Chair WAREHOUSE.

W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS,

203 Market-st., Newark, N. J.

(A few Doors West of Broad.)

WE invite the attention of our friends and the citizens of Elizabethtown, Plainfield, Rahway, as well as the surrounding country, to the largest, best, cheapest assortment and quality of Furniture, Chairs, Mattresses, &c. ever offered in this State, a fact of which all may fully satisfy themselves who will favor us with a call. Our stock consists of all the various styles of Parlor, Dining room Bed-room, Library, Hall and Kitchen Furniture, &c. viz: Sofas, Tete a Tetes, Divans, Ottomans; Mahogany and marble top Centre Tables, Side Tables, Card Tables, Easy Arm and Rocking Chairs, Parlor Chairs, Italian Hair Seat do. &c.

Book Cases, Wardrobes, Writing Desks and Secretaries, Bureaus, Dressing Bureaus, Dressing Stands, Cottage Bedsteads, plain do., Inclosed and Plain Washstands, &c. &c., also about 40 dozen Walnut and Maple Cane-seat Chairs of our own manufacture, and warranted superior to anything of the price.

Mattresses of Curled Hair, Husk, Moss and Straw. We have also a large stock of New York Furniture, which we sell at New York prices, and save purchasers trouble, time, freight, risk, &c., which is attendant on purchasing in New York.

N. B. Persons residing within six or seven miles of Newark, who purchase furniture of us, can have their furniture delivered at their residences free of charge, where bills amount to $25 or over, as we keep a large furniture car for that purpose, and that we shall not be responsible for our wares until they are safely lodged in your own residences. We do this in order to induce persons coming to Newark instead of going to New York. Don't forget the number, 119 Market-st., Newark, N. J. W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS.

April 20, 1852.—3m.

FIRST PREMIUM MILLINERY Establishment and STRAW BONNET Manufactory, No. 564 Broadway, near Niblo's Garden, New York. THE MISSES SIMMONS return their thanks to her numerous patrons and the public that she is now prepared to exhibit at her Show Rooms a splendid and unique assortment of Millinery and Straw Goods of her own importation, which are considered, in the modern improvements, latest styles and fashions, together with magnificent selections of Paris Millinery, which for its variety of patterns, colors and tasteful finish, transcends immeasurably all former importations. Also, a large and interesting invoice of Lace, Straws, Straw Blondes, and an endless variety. Merchants and Milliners supplied on Eastern Business.

Mrs. WM. SIMMONS, 564 Broadway,

April 20, 1852.—3m. New York.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the new stand on Somerset-st., next to the corner of Front street, and near French's mill, where they are prepared to sell all articles in their line cheap as the cheapest and good as the best, including Flour and Feed, also Crockery and Earthen Ware.

Produce of all kinds wanted in exchange for groceries, which they will sell as low as any establishment in town.

☞ Mrs. Yoe's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaint.

JOHNSON & LYON.

N. B. All persons indebted to the subscriber are requested to call and settle without delay.

April 3, 1852.—1y. CHARLES JOHNSON.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of I. S. Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with silver work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches and Jewelry repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and wood taken in exchange for Clocks.

Plainfield, April 13, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

BOOTS & SHOES.

A. D. GALE,

MANUFACTURER AND WHOLESALE DEALER,

HAS constantly on hand about every thing in the line at the lowest rates, by the case or dozen. Pirates call and examine.

A. D. GALE,

225 Pearl st., corner Platt-st.

March 16, 1852.—6m. New York.

NEW PROVISION AND FISH STORE,

227 Washington-st., New-York.

THE subscriber, wholesale dealer, invites the attention of grocers and others to his stock of

Smoked Beef and Tongues,

Smoked Hams and Shoulders,

Smoked Salmon and Herring,

Also, Mess Pork, Lard, Mackerel, &c. by the barrel, half Barrel, and in kits, in lots to suit purchasers.

PHILEMON D. HAIGHT,

227 Washington-street, New York.

April 13, 1852.—3m.

Land Warrants of 1812 Wanted.

100 of 160 acres each,

200 of 80 acres each,

250 of 40 acres each.

For which the highest price will be paid. Also Land Warrants collected by THOMAS & HUTCHINS.

April 12. 1m* 81 Wall st. New York

BRIDITT'S Double Refined Powdered Edinburgh Chemical Yeast Powder in the house.

" Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, Elizabethtown, (a short distance from the depot,) would inform his old friends, and all who are in want of a good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call.

His stock comprises some of the most desirable styles in the summer and fall wearings all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay. JOHN KELLY.

April 20, 1852. d1.y.

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant, do. Sanative Pills Also,

Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops. These drops are an agreeable, effectual remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholic, Pains and pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Atwood's Spinal Elixir for the spine disease. Also, Hunt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. Dailey's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by

April 20, 1852. JAMES. M. DUNN.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. If not attended to soon, they will be put in the collector. As I don't like to dispense on any one, I give this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, April 9, 1852

NOTICE TO THE LADIES

OF PLAINFIELD AND VICINITY. Those ladies wishing to obtain their supplies of Gaiter Boots and Shoes for the coming season, can do so at

J. B. MILLER'S

134 Canal street, New York.

French Morocco and kid Slippers, Ties and Buskins of the first quality, at 9 and 10 shillings per pair; second quality Slippers and ties at 6 shillings, and Buskins at 7 shillings per pair, (all of my own make and warranted good.) Ladies' gaiter Boots of the best manufacturers, 12, 16 and 18 shillings the pair. This beautiful article of ladies' wear are warranted equal to any in the city. Misses' and children's gaiters and shoes of all kinds, (the largest assortment of any in New York;) white and black satin, black and Bronze French kid Slippers for evenings. Ladies who wish good shoes, at moderate prices, will please call and examine for themselves at J. B. MILLER'S,

134 Canal street,

(Between Thompson and Laurens streets.)

March 23, 1852.—2m.

House and Lots for Sale,

Situated on the corner of Fifth and Centre Streets, the house is nearly new, filled in with brick, five rooms on first floor, six on second, with garret and cellar—fruit trees of different kinds, and a never failing well of water. Said premises is well located for private residence. For particulars apply to WILLIAM SUTTON.

Plainfield, Feb 24th, 1852.

NEW GOODS.—Brooks' Royal Patent 6 cord cotton thread, warranted, wound on an improved principle. I. S. DUNHAM & CO

The Place to Buy Dry Goods !

JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.

No. 227 Greenwich Street, NEW YORK,

(One Door below Barclay Street,)

Offer to Buyers the Largest, Most Varied, and Cheapest Stock of

DRY GOODS, in Green wich St. and one of the Largest in the CITY, for both WHOLESALE and RETAIL Buyers to select from.

The First Floor is devoted to our Retail Sales, and the Second, Third and Fourth Floors are exclusively for our

WHOLESALE TRADE.

We particularly invite the attention of COUNTRY MER HANTS,

To our Stock, from which they can select almost any article they want, thereby saving much time. We pay particular attention to the selection of the very best styles in Dress and other Goods. Cash Buyers will save MONEY by an examination of our prices, as our expenses are small, we can and will sell a profit cheaper than most Houses. All we ask is, TRY IT.

JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.

New York, March 1st, 1852.—4m

A GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES

AT THE CELEBRATED LARGEST AND CHEAPEST

CARPET ESTABLISHMEN

In the United States, No. 99 Bowery,

HIRAM ANDERSON'S

EIGHT SPACIOUS SALESROOMS,

FOR WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

Sales Room No. 1.

CONTAINS the Largest, Handsomest and Cheapest assortment of English and American Floor Oil Cloths, to be found in the city, from

TWO SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE

To One Dollar the square yard, of one to eight yards wide,

Sales Room No. 2.

Contains the most beautiful and variegated assortment of English and American superior Ingrain Carpeting, at unparalleled low prices, Five Shillings to Six Shillings and Sixpence per yard—new and elegant figures for Spring Sales.

Sales Room No. 3.

Is fully stocked with an unrivaled assortment of English and American Imperial Three-ply Carpeting, of new and elegant designs, manufactured expressly for the city trade, at a reduction of twenty five per cent from former prices. 5s 6d, 7s, and 8s per yard, and upwards.

Sales Room No. 4.

Contains one hundred and fifty pieces of fine Ingrain Carpeting, new fall styles, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s, 3s 6d, and Four Shillings per yard.

Sales Room No. 5.

Displays a great variety of English Druggets, from one to four yards wide, from three shillings and sixpence per yard and upwards. Also, an elegant assortment of Rugs, Mats, &c., at very reduced prices.

Sales Room No. 6.

Is fully stocked with every variety of Stairs and Hall Carpeting, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s 6d, 4s, 5s, and 6s per yard.

In Sale Room No. 7,

Are the Patent Factory Ingrain Carpets exhibited at the World's Fair, formerly sold at nine shillings per yard, now selling at

SIX SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE PER YARD.

Sales Room No. 8.

An extensive assortment of Table and Piano Covers, Window Shades from 6s to $10 the pair. Table Oil Cloths, Stair Rods, Tapestry Carpetings, Brussels Stair Carpet, Plated and Brass Stair Rods, Parlor Door Mats, &c. &c., all of which are offered at 25 per cent. less than at any other establishment in this city.

HIRAM ANDERSON,

No. 99 Bowery, N. Y.

All goods packed and sent free of charge. feb5.

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

THE RAZEE MARSH returns thanks to his numerous patrons for their liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many friends he has enlarged his stock of Paints, and has now in partnership with Washington Marsh. The business will be continued at the old stand, opposite the Second Presbyterian Church, where will be kept constantly on hand Dry Colors, Linseed Oil, Rosin, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., &c., as cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to House, Sign and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging. Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES.

Mixed Paints constantly on hand. Advice gratis.

Jan. 5, 1852. F. MARSH & SON.

J. A. Woodland & J. Corbett,

HOUSE, SIGN AND

DECORATIVE PAINTERS,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

☞ The above are prepared to execute all orders in their line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Paper-Hanging Department, with punctuality, neatness and despatch, and at prices considerably less than those usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.

March 23, 1852.

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by P. Mosher, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting !

Also PAPER-HANGING, all of which will be promptly executed, with the most reasonable terms.

The undersigned hereby returns thanks to his customers for their liberal patronage the past year, and will endeavor by faithfulness to merit and secure a continuance of their favors.

☞ Orders may be left at the Union Office, also at Mr. Ira Preston's store.

CHARLES TAYLOR.

April 1, 1852.—y

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES.

CARPETINGS, FLOOR OIL CLOTHS, &c.

SMITH & LOUNSBERY,

48 Pearl St., New York, (Opposite William.)

HAVE now in store an extensive and varied Stock of CARPETINGS, received direct from Foreign and Home Manufactories, to which they will be daily adding large supplies, from the same sources, and from the frequent sales from Auction Sales, they have a large and desirable assortment of the Latest Styles extant, and will be sold at very reduced prices.

Velvet Tapestry	10s	Tapestry Ingrain	6s to 9s
Brussels	5s to 10s	Superfine do	5s to 6s
"	7s to 10s	Extra fine do	4s to 5s
3 Ply	7s to 9s	Cot. & Wool do	3s to 4s

English and American Floor Oil Cloths, A large assortment varying in widths from 3 to 24 feet.

A full assortment of Venetian, Brussels and Tapestry Stair Carpets, Rugs, Mats, Matting, Druggets, Stair Rods Table Covers, Piano Covers, &c. from 10 to 20 per cent less than last year's prices.

SMITH & LOUNSBERY,

48 Pearl Street, opposite William.

March 23, 1852.—2m.

REMOVAL.

THE Subscriber has removed to the Shop in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Ellsworth, Dunn & Co's Store

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE,

Saddle and Harness-Maker,

Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute orders in all the branches of the above business, as well, as quick and as cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge for yourselves.

Nov. 11, 1851.—tf

PAINTS, &c.

AMERICAN PATENT ATOMIC DRIER, Graining COLORS—Anti-friction Paste, Gold Size, Zinc Driver, Stove Polish, and Black Varnish for Iron Work.

QUARTERMAN & SON,

Painters & Chemists,

4 114 John-Street, New York.

March 9, 1852.—1y.

TRIPLE REFINED CAMPHENE—A very superior article, in bbls. and half bbls., for sale by the manufacturer. JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,

March 23, 1852.—3m. 32 Dusling Slip, N. Y.

NOT FOR THE GOLD MINES!

GIVE ME THE SILVER!

WHILE many are going to California to dig up the gold in abundance, if they can find it, I take the opportunity to say to the public at large and to my customers in particular, that I shall continue to have a full set to them a stock of goods, at small profits and quick returns, equal to any for style and quality. Said stock consists of a general assortment of every thing kept in a Village Store, viz:

Dry Goods, Carpets, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, Boots, Shoes,

&c. &c.

Among the Dry Goods are Muslins and Prints from 4d to 1s. and 1s 6d.; DeLaines and Cashmeres; cambric and jaconet, book and Swiss muslin; a good assortment constantly on hand of Ribbons, Gloves, Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Kid gloves, belts, veils, crape and bombazine for searfs. Cloths, plain and fancy cassimeres, doeskins, satinets, Jeans, cords, edgings, insertings, thread, lace buttons, &c.

GROCERIES.

Green and Black Teas of the best quality, molasses at 22c, and 5c. per gallon, sugar of every style and quality from 3c. to 5c. 6d for 1s. Rice, pepper, spices, soap, candles, lamp oil, raisins, coffee, rice, and of other groceries a complete stock of the best quality.

CROCKERY, of Every Style and Quality,

Both fancy and plain, always on the purchaser.

PROVISIONS.

Pork, Fish, salt, hams, shoulders, lard, butter, cheese, beef, &c. &c. &c.

BOOTS and SHOES, of Every Style and Quality, for Ladies', gentlemen's and children's wear at low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Furniture and coach varnish, turpentine, white lead, pure and extra; lamp black, yellow ochre, Venitian red, red lead, chrome yellow, Paris green, Prussian blue mixed and dry, lamp black, litharge, brown japan and nearly every thing for painters' use.

Flour, Meal, Feed and Grain,

A real assortment constantly on hand:

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, March 15, 1852.

Sheriff's Sale.

By Chancery N. J.

Between Edward Adams, Complainant,

And Henry A. H. Martin and wife, and others, Defendants

Fi. Fa. for sale of mortgaged premises.

BY virtue of the above stated writ of fieri facias to me directed. I shall expose for sale at Public Vendue, at I ving's Hotel, Plainfield, on Wednesday, the 12th day of May next, at 12 o'clock, noon, all the following described lands, tenements, situate, lying and being in the village of Plainfield, Essex Co., N. J., and is butted and bounded as follows: Beginning at a stone in the centre of Front-st., and corner of George Thorn's Land, then along his line south 45 deg. W. 2 chains and 87 links, to a stone and corner of George Thorn's land, then along the line of lands belonging to the Presbyterian congregation, N. 43 deg. W. 2 chains and 87 links to a stone and corner of Jarvis B. Ayres' land, then along the line of other lands of Henry A. H. Martin N. 43 3-4 deg. E. 2 chains and 87 links to the centre of Somerset-st., then along the centre of said street S. 46 deg. E. 2 chains and 87 links to the place of beginning, containing 24-100 of an acre of land.

Newark, Feb 28, 1852. W. PIERSON, Sheriff.

HORACE SEATON,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN LACE GOODS,

354 Broad Street, Newark.

☞ Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Tulle, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Sleeves, Mantillas, Gloves and Hosiery, Millinery articles, Combs, Brushes, Otto, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the stand building a superb stock of Gent's, Ladies and Children's fancy dress Shoes and Gaiters. o23 1y.

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at R. GLENN & Co's Manufactory, 194, Fulrose st., (west of Broadway.) A General Assortment of Mahogany and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

R. GLENN & CO., 194 FULTON-STREET.

Oct. 7, 1851.—1y New York.

CARHART & NEEDHAM.

Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

With Recent important Improvements.

Price from $60 to $200.

No. 75, East Thirteenth Street,

J. Carhart, E. P. Needham. } NEW YORK.

N. B. ☞ Reeds constantly on hand. ☜

Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

BAKERY.

JOHN S. PHELPS,

SUCCESSOR TO U. F. WARD,

Celebrated Cracker, Cake, and Large Bread Bakery, Wholesale and Retail,

No. 64 VESEY STREET, NEW YORK.

THE well known and universally approved Crackers of U. F. Ward have been manufactured for upwards of 25 years, and in that time have gained a reputation in quality above all others, and it is the intention of the present proprietor to manufacture an article every way equal to his predecessor. The Bread and Cake departments have recently been added to the above business, and can be had in all its branches, together with U. F. Ward's New Yorker Cake, which is offered at 10 cents per pound, and needs but a trial to be appreciated.

Butter Crackers,		Walnut Crackers,	Milk Biscuit
Sugar	"	Pic Nic	" Eggs
Boston	"	Lemon "	" Wine "
Graham	"	Cup "	" Water "
Water	"	Sliam Biscuit,	" Boston "
Shell	"	Soda "	" Shell "
Fancy	"	Abernethy "	" Ginger Snaps,
Jersey Lily	"	Navy "	Bread,
Cake, &c. in every variety.

☞ All orders promptly executed at short notice.

Dec. 8th, 1851.—6m

D. M. KNIGHT & CO.,

Importers and Wholesale Dealers in

ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN

FANCY GOODS,

No. 59 Cedar-street, (up stairs.)

(Between William and Nassau sts.,)

D. M. KNIGHT, } NEW-YORK.

A. S. ROSS. }

COMBS—Shell, buffalo, and horn back Combs in 6 gross variety; twist, dressing and ivory Combs.

Buttons. Pearl, gilt, lasting, mohair, twist, bone, metal, silk, thread, agate, &c.

Brushes. Hair, Tooth, Nail, &c.

Perfumery. Lubin Extract, Spanl Cotton, Needles, Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Hair Pins, Elastics, Whalebone, Lines and Cotton Tapes, Liven and Cotton Bobbin, Scissors, Thimbles, and a great variety of Fancy Goods, Fans, &c. all cheap for cash.

March 4, 1852.—3m.

BREWSTER'S EMBROCATION,

THE BEST REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED FOR

SPRAINS, BRUISES, RHEUMATISM

Stiffness or Weakness of the Joints and Limbs, Contraction of the Muscles, Neuralgia of the Face, Side or Back, Gout, Head-Ache, Tooth-Ache, &c.

Also, an Invaluable Remedy for Wounds, Strains, Stiffness, Lameness, and Galls on Horses.

This Embrocation is prepared of ingredients which form a very active, yet entirely safe and pleasant vegetable for Rheumatisms, &c. &c. Hundreds of the most respectable persons and families have given their testimony in favor of its superiority. It operates in many cases very quickly, and persons who have been suffering under extreme pain in the side or limbs, or from bruises and sprains, have found instant relief from a thorough rubbing in this most excellent article.

From a long experience in the Drug business and constant applications to prescribe remedies for varied diseases, the proprietor has had ample opportunity to witness the effects of the different preparations for Rheumatism, &c., and before this composition was offered with so much confidence, it was satisfactorily and effectually proved to be the very thing it is represented. Try it, and you will not be disappointed.

Price, 25 cents per Bottle.

Certificate from Ambrose Pancoast, Esq, Atlantic co. N.J.

Pancostville, N. J. July 31, 1849.

Mr. F. G. B. swrer—

Dear Sir,—I have been an extensive dealer in horses for 30 years past, and have had great opportunities to witness the various diseases to which they are subject, and of testing the various remedies in use.

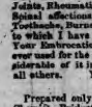
About 15 years since I was induced to make use of your Embrocation, and since that time I have used no other remedies for the diseases for which this noble animal is subject, viz. Ringbone, spavin, strains of the joints and sinews, shoulder strains, swiney in the shoulder, lameness in the stifle and hocks, galls on the shoulder, and every disease of a like nature.

I have also used, and known it used for the various diseases to which mankind are subject, as Rheumatism, Gout, Sprains, Bruises, cuts, corns, Spinal affections, pains in the Face, side and back, Toothache, Burns, Scalds, and especially the Embrocation to which I have been subject for all my lifetime. Your Embrocation is the best and safest Remedy I have ever used for the above complaints; I have also sold considerable of it in my store, and believe it to supersede all others. Yours withrespect,

AMBROSE PANCOAST.

Prepared only by F. G. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Bridgeton, N. J., and for sale wholesale by Brewster's Natural Mixture, and Cholera Mixture, by Dr. L. CRAIG, Druggist, agent for Plainfield; C. W. Badger, Newark; Dr. D. C. English, New Brunswick, and by dealers throughout the State.

May 1, 1852.—1y.



MARBLE & STONE YARD

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUMENTS, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates, Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful Free Stone Quarry, from which I will furnish to order every variety of stone for building purposes, ornamental or plain. All of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.—1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

ANDREW M WEBSTER,

Attorney at Law and Solicitor in Chancery.

OFFICE—No. 153 MARKET STREET,
May 17 1850. NEWARK N J.

DR. H. DAYTON

Surgeon-Dentist,

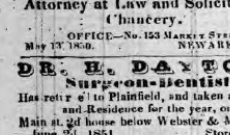
Has retur ed to Plainfield, and taken an Office and Residence for the year, on

Main st. 2d house below Webster & Marsh's.

June 24, 1851. Store.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE,
PHYSICIANS,
NO. 259 GREEN STREET, NEW YORK,

Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late



FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other organs, all Nervous and Female Complaints, particularly those arising from or attendant upon debility, Scrofulous, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous diseases, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say, that they have repeatedly performed permanent cures in cases long standing, where their having been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will receive prompt answers to all letters by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. Jan6 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUSE, Hay, Flour and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not liable to get out of order.

Manufactory 89 Greene street, New York,

Also For Sale at 387 Hudson street,

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

S. B. DICKOX, J. SNYDER, J. ROBIDOUX

Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

HOWS IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

[IN MEN]

Rheumatism, Sprains, Bruises, Sore Throat, Swellings, Cuts, Sores, Frosted Feet, Weakness in the Back, Breasts, Limb & Joint.

[IN HORSES]

Bruises, Sprains, Ringbone, Poll Evil, and all Warbles, Splints, Spavin, Fistula, diseases of Horses, Curb, Scratches, Thoroughpin, where an Embrocation Windgall, Saddle Galls, tion can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOW, CHEMIST,

No. 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, have used How's improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Moore, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barney McSherry, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel R. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton Joseph Hamsitt, John H. Weeks, Trenton. C. W. Brown, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG. In Somerville by Culver Bro's. &c. &c. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

Ground Plaister,

A FRESH supply on hand, for sale at my mill.

STELLE RANDOLPH

Green Brook, March 27th, 1852.

CARPETING

At a great reduction from former prices.

PETERSON & HUMPHREY,
307 Broadway, corner of White Street,
NEW YORK.

BEG leave to call the attention of their friends in this vicinity to their elegant stock of

ENG. ISH AND AMERICAN CARPETINGS,

which, owing to the reduction by the English manufacturers, will be disposed of at the following extremely low prices:

Royal Velvet Carpet, from 12s to 16s per yard.

" Tapestry " 9s to 12s "
" 8 4 Brussels heavy, 7s to 9s "
" Superfine 6s to 7s "
" Good, all Wool, 4s per yard

OIL CLOTHS,

from 3 to 24 feet wide, at prices equally low.

STAIR RODS AND MATTINGS,

4-4, 5-4 and 6-4, Plain, Fancy and Check; Stair Rods, Druggets, Table and Piano Covers, Rugs, Mats of all kinds, together with all other goods found in Carpet Stores. They are the only firm connected with the Carpet Establishment in the Union. We, therefore, challenge the whole trade to show such an extensive stock, at such low prices.

N. B. Singes from Courtlan't-st. next Ferry to our store.

March 16, 1852.—3m.

PROLAPSUS UTERI

This malady arises primarily from a debilitated state of the muscular fibre of the abdomen and pelvis, and consequently the bowels suffers them to bear with their weight upon the womb, inducing a falling condition of the organ (i.e. Prolapsus Uteri.) Secondarily from debility of the muscular and broad ligaments of the natural supporter of the womb which, being weakened, yield to the pressure of the bowels and suffer the falling to take place. The ligaments broad ligaments, are the natural and upward lifting force to the muscles of the abdomen so as to cause them to sustain the weight of the bowels, and consequently the womb, which is naturally its weight, but how is this support to be obtained, not with belts or braces, although miscalled supporters, for the abdomen is rounded, having its lower boundary placed between the points of the ilia, hence the natural tendency is lifting it are just inside of the tense (Poupart's) ligaments, dividing the thighs from the abdomen, and above semi-lunar lines of Home and the Peritonæum, and slowly backward and under the fullness of the abdomen, and not to be reached by a belt or brace passing over it.

The Improved Supporter Pad invented and patented by the subscriber, is adapted to the peculiar form of the abdomen, having its outer and under edges raised so as to produce two forces, by the one, the bowels are uplifted, and by the other borne inward toward the centre of the body, and are made to support the womb, vagina and rectum, by being inspected around them, giving their greatest lifting force from beneath upwards, and thus restoring them to their proper position.

The recently patented Supporter Pad, invented by Frederick M. Butler, embodying the above requisites of constipation and obstruction, has been numerously tested, and being more efficient than any hitherto applied, has been adopted in the Hull Trus's Office.

The Supporter is completed with a Perineal strap, having a proper sufficient duty to perform.

FREDERICK M. BUTLER, Proprietor.

Office, No. 4 Vesey st., opposite St. Paul's church, N. Y.

Ladies fitted by a female. Every variety of size and distinct rooms for their accommodation. m2m.8

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing astonishing potent virtues, which is adapted to the relief of those diseases, in its ability to arrest pain, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Coughs and Colds, we think it has no equal. It is very good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Contusions, Head, Ear and Tooth Ache, Chilblains, Worms, Ague and Fever; as a Cholera prevention or remedy it cannot be surpassed. In short we consider it to be the most valuable medicine, till they have used the same. We have used it with great success, and do most cheerfully recommend it to those who may be afflicted, as a safe and sure and unless remedy. It is highly recommended by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge, Brooklyn. John Comstock, Brklyn st. H. Hendrickson, Newark. John Crocker, Engineer "Prof. Whiting, Wmsburgh, Steamboat. "Wm. Hon. G L. Martence, Dr'klyn. Lawrence Mann, R'ckl'nd S. Sprague, Ex-Mayor, " Jordan Wooley, L. Branch Alderman, " Hosted " Dwight Burgess, Brklyn. H.C Conkling, Ex-P.M., " Aaron Kingsland, Brklyn. J. Dorland, ferry master " Addison Jayne, New York. David Wyckoff, Wmsburgh. Jane Mitchell, Flatbush A. Wise, Bullshead hotel, Justice D. Hixon, " Peter Bisewelt, T.'s Ferry, E. Packer, " Joseph Chelick, W. Market, Rainer S. Veldran. "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are inserted to the above certificate. Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.

FRANCIS B. STRYKER,
Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 192 Walker Street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING. Jan. 2, 1852

"THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE,"

is the Language of Scripture

DR. HALSEY'S

FOREST WINE.

From its own merits and great works, this wine is fast becoming the favorite medicine of the present generation, and is rapidly working its way into the favor of people. Known as the most efficient remedy for general Debility, Nervous Affections, Consumptive Decline, Spasmodic Affections of the Kidneys, Lungs, and above all for diseases arising from impure Blood as an inmate of the system, eminent members of the Medical Faculty have sanctioned and adopted the use of it.

FAMILY.

A celebrated Physician in a letter from Princeton, New Jersey, dated November 16, 1849, declares that in all his experience he had never seen anything to compare with the Forest Wine and Pills, at the same time relating several cases of constitutional Debility and Scrofulous affections which it cured in an incredible short time. Among the members of the Medical Faculty of New York, who have witnessed the great results of the Forest Wine, and recommended it in numerous complaints, will be found the names of the celebrated Dr. M. T. Goodrich, Dr. S. L. Mott, Dr. L. Dewitt, Dr. Chilton, Dr. William Brown, Dr. Marvin, Dr. J. M. Moreau, and others.

TESTIMONY

Of Johnson Burke, a highly respectable citizen of Waverly Place, New York:

DR. HALSEY—

Dear Sir,—I esteem the Forest Wine as the King of Medicines. It has done for me in five weeks what three Physicians failed to do in as many years. In 1846, I became dreadfully reduced by Dyspepsia and Nervous affections, which have been growing on me ever since, until I procured your Forest Wine and Pills, although I had wasted away to a skeleton, and was confined to my chamber. During the last two years I was obliged to keep my house nearly all the time, and gave up business in consequence of my ill health. I had lost nearly all hope of recovery, my constitution was so far shattered under the "nature sinks and life becomes a burthen." Seeing your Forest Wine advertised I concluded to give it a trial, and in less than two months I found myself a very different person, and was able to resume business again, entirely cured by taking five bottles. For the benefit of those who are afflicted with similar complaints you are at liberty to publish this. Yours &c.

JOHNSON BURKE, Waverly Place, N. Y.

HEMPSTEAD, Dec. 1, 1847.

Dr. Halsey:—A bottle of your Forest Wine and box of Pills, which I procured of Mr. Jones, (your agent for this place,) has done wonders for me. I had been in a state of decline for more than a year, afflicted with a distressing pain in the breast, general debility, and loss of appetite. I became emaciated to skin and had been unable to leave my room for more than two months; my friends told me I had the consumption, and despaired of my recovery. I am now restored to perfect permanent relief from any medicine I had taken, or my physician, until your Wine and Pills were procured.—The first dose of the Pills brought up from my stomach, much phlegm and greenish matter, and my stools were perfectly black. I then commenced taking the Forest Wine three times a day, my appetite began to return immediately, my cough left me, and in less than two weeks I was almost well. I now enjoy better health than I ever did before, having increased twenty five pounds in seven weeks. Your Forest Wine and Pills are highly valued in this vicinity, and I owe my recovery entirely to their virtues.

Yours, respectfully, MARTIN CALDWELL.

Dr. Halsey's Office, No. 25 1-2 Spruce-st., New York. The Forest Wine in large square bottles at $1 a bottle, six bottles for $5. Gum coated Forest Pills 25 cents per box. For sale by M. F. CUSHING, and DR. L. CRAIG, appointed Agents for Plainfield.

Sept. 9, 1851. 1y.

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

THE most safe and speedy remedy ever discovered for the destruction of worms in children or adults, being so safe and pleasant that it can be given to the most delicate infant. The operation is performed gradually by this syrup, should satisfy all of its great merits and virtues, as no parent will be without it after once giving it a fair trial. This Syrup is entirely vegetable and recommended by the head physicians of the country as the safest and most effectual remedy according to the recommendations, the money is refunded. I would further say, do not let your children go to a premature grave when so safe and pleasant a remedy is at hand, as which has failed to give satisfaction in cases of worms or bowel complaints. When your children are afflicted with blindness under the eyes, picking at the nose, disturbed sleep, nightly, sudden starting from sleep, then is your time to use this remedy, it being for sale by every respectable storekeeper in the country, where you can obtain a pamphlet of its wonderful cures, as well as of other medicines.

LIVER PILLS.—These Pills being composed of Roots and Plants for diseases of the Biliary organs, Liver complaint, &c.

The function of the Liver is known to exist from an indination to vomit being present, bitter taste in the mouth, yellow furred tongue and thirst, the skin not unfrequently assuming a yellow tinge, the eyes also, then is your time to use this remedy, it being for sale by every respectable storekeeper in the country, where you can obtain a pamphlet of its wonderful cures, as well as of other medicines.

LIVER PILLS.—These Pills being composed of Roots and Plants for diseases of the Biliary organs, Liver complaint, &c.

The function of the Liver is known to exist from an indination to vomit being present, bitter taste in the mouth, yellow furred tongue and thirst, the skin not unfrequently assuming a yellow tinge, the eyes also, then is your time to use this remedy, it being for sale by every respectable storekeeper in the country, where you can obtain a pamphlet of its wonderful cures, as well as of other medicines.

THEY ARE ENTIRELY VEGETABLE

And Free from Alcoholic Stimulant, and all Injurious Ingredients.

And are pleasant to take, safe and mild in their operation and will remove impurities from the body and give health and vigour to the frame.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, of Philadelphia, has had the means of obtaining the genuine recipes of the great medical discoveries of Germany, and from them all these invaluable medicines are prepared with the utmost care at the German Medicine Store. The bitter mixture—Hoofland's German Bitters—the result of many years study and experience by the great inventor, and known and prized in Europe as an infallible remedy for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. Dr. C. M. Jackson's name is a sufficient guarantee that this remedy is the same celebrity in this Western World. The testimonials and unanswerable confirmations of thousands of the most severe and difficult cases cured, is ample proof of this. The medicines compounded by Dr. C. M. Jackson have produced the very effects and same happy results, which the imaertial inventor indicated and intended, and consequently now offer to the suffering millions

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtue in the rectification of diseases of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching power in re-enkindling the functions of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain, and pleasant.

A Case in Camden.

A Bateman, Esq. at Elwell's Railroad Hotel, Camden, cured of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in their worst form. He had been very seriously afflicted for 3 years. We can but note his case here. Call and see him; you will pronounce his case a real one.

Cure of Jaundice and Extreme Case.

Mr. George W. Metz, merchant, 317 Market st. cured of Disease of the Liver and Chronic Diarrhœa, of 15 years standing. He had been under the best medical treatment in Philadelphia for the time, and visited the springs of note throughout the Union, without permanent benefit, and was at last permanently cured by the use of a few bottles of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.

JOHN MOORE, Jun. Esq, Editor of the "Daily News said, October 31, 1849:

"Hoofland's German Bitters.—We are trying this renowned medicine for a stubborn disease of the bowels, and can say with truth and sincerity to its efficacy. We have had on 2 bottles, and we have derived more benefit than we derived previous by four years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our first physicians.

Three More Cures.

Philadelphia, 24 mo. 20th, 1850.

Respected Friend: I had for several years been afflicted with Dyspepsia and occasionally a General Debility, from which I could find no relief until my medicine, and in the first place upon a daughter, she having a severe sickness. Thy Hoofland's German Bitters had such effect that by the general debility, I was induced to try myself, and I have got a bottle, and used it according to directions, and it relieved me more than anything had before used, giving tone and strength to the stomach and bowels. My wife, also, had a very severe attack of Diarrhœa, which continued for some time. My life, for aught I could perceive, was gone. Thy Bitters again being used with happy success upon the stomach and bowels, soon relieved her from that great pain she suffered, and gave general health to the system. I consider it, doctor, one of the most valuable medicines I ever used, and shall take great pleasure in recommending it to others.

Very respectfully thy friend, SAMUEL HUTTON.

No. 5 Jennings' Row, Cattarine, above Third.

Dr. C. M. Jackson, Arch above Seventh street.

That this medicine will cure the foregoing diseases, no one can doubt, if they use it as directed; it will act specifically upon the Liver, Stomach and Nerves. It is preferable to calomel, as all its fine properties are retained in solution, and they do not prostrate the system.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS

This medicine has attained that high character which it is necessary for all medicines to attain, to induce counterfeiters to put forth spurious articles, at the risk of the lives of those who are innocently deceived.

Look well to the Marks of the Genuine.

For the protection of invalids against fraud, the signature of C. M. JACKSON will be in the front of the outside wrapper, and his name blown in every bottle.

Ir Purchasers will please observe that all genuine and; all others are Counterfeits—OFFICE ADVICE given gratis upon all diseases.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at the principal depot,

GERMAN MEDICINE STORE;

No. 120 Arch street, (a few doors below 8th), (formerly 278 North 2d st.) Philadelphia. Pa., and by respectable dealers generally throughout the United States, the Canadas and the West India Islands.

PRICES REDUCED!

To enable all classes of Invalids to enjoy the advantages of these Celebrated Medicines.

Single Bottles, 75 cts.—Three Bottles, $2,00,

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.

Aug. 11, 1851.—1y

Cheaper Yet!

THE Subscriber having a very large assortment of Goods on hand, and constantly increasing by New Arrivals, has resolved to reduce his stock by Selling off at Unusually Low Prices.

And solicits a call from the public to examine for themselves, and they will find that they can get

MORE GOODS FOR LESS MONEY,

Than at any other Store in the country.

Nov. 17, 1851. ISA PRUDEN.

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N. J. containing from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on Mt. Vernon, Madison, Union and Main sts; also a good sized lot with a Dwelling House built and finished for the accommodation of two families, and is a valuable location, very nigh the centre of the business part of the village. Also a Building Lot on Somerset st. on a very short distance from Titsworth. Dunn & Co's Store

Jan. 19 1852—tf BENJAMIN SMITH

OILS, TALLOW CANDLES AND OTHER MINERAL PAINT.

300 Barrels MACHINERY OIL. 75 cts. per gal.
2500 Gallons do. in casks of various sizes, at same price.
200 Barrels ROILED PAINT OIL, 65 cts. per gall.
5600 Gallons do. in casks of various sizes, at same price.
350 Barrels PURE WHALE OIL. Various kinds and qualities, from 35 to 60 cents per gallon.
1500 Gallons in casks of various sizes. Various kinds and qualities, from 35 to 60 cents per gallon.
50 Tons TALLOW GREASE for Heavy Machinery, and Coarse Machinery, in barrels or casks, of any consistency required. Price 6 cents per lb.
150 Tons OHIO MINERAL PAINT, in barrels, at the lowest market price.

Machinery Oil, warranted not to chill in the coldest weather, and considered by those using it equal to Sperm Oil.

Boiled Paint Oil, equal to Linseed Oil, other than for white.

I am constantly receiving large supplies of the above named articles, and my motto is, "Small profits and quick returns."

E. F. FORD,
56 Water st (under the Pearl Street House.)
Dec. 22, 1851. NEW YORK.

Hope's Express.

For Newark, Elizabethtown, Westfield, Plainfield, Boundbrook, Somerville, White House, Clinton and Easton, Pa.

Leave New York daily at 9 o'clock, arrivingat Plainfield at 10 1-2 o'clock, A. M. Leave Plainfield at 3 o'clock, arriving in New York at 4 1-2 o'clock, P. M.

JOHN HOPE, Agent for Plainfield.

A. D. HOPE, 41 Courtlandt-st., New York.

☞ This Express has been systematized, and all orders will be executed with safety and despatch.

Pla'nfield, Nov. 19, 1850.

DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS

Prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON, at the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch st. Philadelphia.

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, and Diseases of the Kidneys, arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines; such as Constipation,

Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Flut'ering in the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Web before the Sight, Fever and full Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits

THEY ARE ENTIRELY VEGETABLE

And Free from Alcoholic Stimulant, and all Injurious Ingredients.

And are pleasant to take, safe and mild in their operation and will remove impurities from the body and give health and vigour to the frame.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, of Philadelphia, has had the means of obtaining the genuine recipes of the great medical discoveries of Germany, and from them all these invaluable medicines are prepared with the utmost care at the German Medicine Store. The bitter mixture—Hoofland's German Bitters—the result of many years study and experience by the great inventor, and known and prized in Europe as an infallible remedy for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. Dr. C. M. Jackson's name is a sufficient guarantee that this remedy is the same celebrity in this Western World. The testimonials and unanswerable confirmations of thousands of the most severe and difficult cases cured, is ample proof of this. The medicines compounded by Dr. C. M. Jackson have produced the very effects and same happy results, which the imaertial inventor indicated and intended, and consequently now offer to the suffering millions

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtue in the rectification of diseases of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching power in re-enkindling the functions of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain, and pleasant.

A Case in Camden.

A Bateman, Esq. at Elwell's Railroad Hotel, Camden, cured of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in their worst form. He had been very seriously afflicted for 3 years. We can but note his case here. Call and see him; you will pronounce his case a real one.

Cure of Jaundice and Extreme Case.

Mr. George W. Metz, merchant, 317 Market st. cured of Disease of the Liver and Chronic Diarrhœa, of 15 years standing. He had been under the best medical treatment in Philadelphia for the time, and visited the springs of note throughout the Union, without permanent benefit, and was at last permanently cured by the use of a few bottles of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.

JOHN MOORE, Jun. Esq, Editor of the "Daily News said, October 31, 1849:

"Hoofland's German Bitters.—We are trying this renowned medicine for a stubborn disease of the bowels, and can say with truth and sincerity to its efficacy. We have had on 2 bottles, and we have derived more benefit than we derived previous by four years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our first physicians.

Three More Cures.

Philadelphia, 24 mo. 20th, 1850.

Respected Friend: I had for several years been afflicted with Dyspepsia and occasionally a General Debility, from which I could find no relief until my medicine, and in the first place upon a daughter, she having a severe sickness. Thy Hoofland's German Bitters had such effect that by the general debility, I was induced to try myself, and I have got a bottle, and used it according to directions, and it relieved me more than anything had before used, giving tone and strength to the stomach and bowels. My wife, also, had a very severe attack of Diarrhœa, which continued for some time. My life, for aught I could perceive, was gone. Thy Bitters again being used with happy success upon the stomach and bowels, soon relieved her from that great pain she suffered, and gave general health to the system. I consider it, doctor, one of the most valuable medicines I ever used, and shall take great pleasure in recommending it to others.

Very respectfully thy friend, SAMUEL HUTTON.

No. 5 Jennings' Row, Cattarine, above Third.

Dr. C. M. Jackson, Arch above Seventh street.

That this medicine will cure the foregoing diseases, no one can doubt, if they use it as directed; it will act specifically upon the Liver, Stomach and Nerves. It is preferable to calomel, as all its fine properties are retained in solution, and they do not prostrate the system.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS

This medicine has attained that high character which it is necessary for all medicines to attain, to induce counterfeiters to put forth spurious articles, at the risk of the lives of those who are innocently deceived.

Look well to the Marks of the Genuine.

For the protection of invalids against fraud, the signature of C. M. JACKSON will be in the front of the outside wrapper, and his name blown in every bottle.

Ir Purchasers will please observe that all genuine and; all others are Counterfeits—OFFICE ADVICE given gratis upon all diseases.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at the principal depot,

GERMAN MEDICINE STORE;

No. 120 Arch street, (a few doors below 8th), (formerly 278 North 2d st.) Philadelphia. Pa., and by respectable dealers generally throughout the United States, the Canadas and the West India Islands.

PRICES REDUCED!

To enable all classes of Invalids to enjoy the advantages of these Celebrated Medicines.

Single Bottles, 75 cts.—Three Bottles, $2,00,

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.

Aug. 11, 1851.—1y

Cheaper Yet!

THE Subscriber having a very large assortment of Goods on hand, and constantly increasing by New Arrivals, has resolved to reduce his stock by Selling off at Unusually Low Prices.

And solicits a call from the public to examine for themselves, and they will find that they can get

MORE GOODS FOR LESS MONEY,

Than at any other Store in the country.

Nov. 17, 1851. ISA PRUDEN.

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N. J. containing from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on Mt. Vernon, Madison, Union and Main sts; also a good sized lot with a Dwelling House built and finished for the accommodation of two families, and is a valuable location, very nigh the centre of the business part of the village. Also a Building Lot on Somerset st. on a very short distance from Titsworth. Dunn & Co's Store

Jan. 19 1852—tf BENJAMIN SMITH

OILS, TALLOW CANDLES AND OTHER MINERAL PAINT.

300 Barrels MACHINERY OIL. 75 cts. per gal.
2500 Gallons do. in casks of various sizes, at same price.
200 Barrels ROILED PAINT OIL, 65 cts. per gall.
5600 Gallons do. in casks of various sizes, at same price.
350 Barrels PURE WHALE OIL. Various kinds and qualities, from 35 to 60 cents per gallon.
1500 Gallons in casks of various sizes. Various kinds and qualities, from 35 to 60 cents per gallon.
50 Tons TALLOW GREASE for Heavy Machinery, and Coarse Machinery, in barrels or casks, of any consistency required. Price 6 cents per lb.
150 Tons OHIO MINERAL PAINT, in barrels, at the lowest market price.

Machinery Oil, warranted not to chill in the coldest weather, and considered by those using it equal to Sperm Oil.

Boiled Paint Oil, equal to Linseed Oil, other than for white.

I am constantly receiving large supplies of the above named articles, and my motto is, "Small profits and quick returns."

E. F. FORD,
56 Water st (under the Pearl Street House.)
Dec. 22, 1851. NEW YORK.

Hope's Express.

For Newark, Elizabethtown, Westfield, Plainfield, Boundbrook, Somerville, White House, Clinton and Easton, Pa.

Leave New York daily at 9 o'clock, arrivingat Plainfield at 10 1-2 o'clock, A. M. Leave Plainfield at 3 o'clock, arriving in New York at 4 1-2 o'clock, P. M.

JOHN HOPE, Agent for Plainfield.

A. D. HOPE, 41 Courtlandt-st., New York.

☞ This Express has been systematized, and all orders will be executed with safety and despatch.

Pla'nfield, Nov. 19, 1850.

Looking Glasses—A Large number

JUST RECEIVED,—from 25 cents to $7. each, by

D. BULLMAN

Gentlemen's Furnishing Store,

No. 222 Greenwich st., corner of Cameron,

NEW YORK.

(One block from the Hudson River R. R. Depot, and two blocks from the Erie R. R. Depot.)

THE subscribers have in store a general and complete assortment of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, for the Spring trade, manufactured in the best manner, and sold wholesale and retail at the lowest cash prices; among which are

Fine Shirts,	Cravats,
White & Col'd do. Scarfs,	Dressing Robes,
Under Shirts,	Ties,	Suspenders,
Drawers,	Bosoms,	Traveling Bags,
Stockings,	Gloves,	Portfolios,
Half Hose,	Satchels,
Collars,	Handkerchiefs, Trunks,
&c.,	&c., &c.

Together with a good assortment of

ENGLISH & GERMAN HOSIERY,

Of all sizes, for Ladies and Children.

The principle upon which the business is conducted is that of one price only, for cash, and in proportion to the quality, as cheap as can be found at any other establishment in this country.

The attention of gentlemen and ladies who desire to procure such articles on the best terms, is respectfully invited. THOMAS M'LAUGHLIN.

New York, March 5, 1852.

☞ Our FINE SHIRTS are cut by experienced hands and made up in a superior style, and when specially ordered, will be supplied to, fit the customer at short notice. may16 4y.

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, by calling at the Clothing Store, and coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap as they can be purchased in any other place, where; thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and prices which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of tailor's trimmings, also a large assortment of Hats, Caps, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a complete Gent's furnishing store.

Friends will you favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves?

Cutting, trimming, and making done at the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Plainfield, Dec. 1.

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Heart Corrector,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-dyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Cathar. Pills
Nervine,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific
Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil,

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of

Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, &c. &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Plated Steel Spring Shoulder Braces.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES

ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF

Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health to a Healthy and Old age.

This Book should be in every family. To the consumptive it points out the only REASONABLE hope for relief. To mothers, the directions it gives for the care and education of children are invaluable. 75,000 copies of this Book have passed through the press, and the sale continues unabated.

For Sale by S. S. FITCH & CO., 707 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

READ! READ! READ!

All Storekeepers and Druggists in Somerset County, in the State of New Jersey, and the U States, in consequence of the great demand, keep for sale

DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS.

Near 600,000 Boxes were sold the past year in the U States, and at least 30,000 boxes were sold in the state of New Jersey alone.

YOUNG AND OLD, MALE AND FEMALE, can always take them with safety, without fear.

IF PILLS BE NECESSARY

or purging or cleansing the stomach and bowels and purifying the Blood and Habit of the body, take no other, for no other pills produce those combined effects which contain no sarsaparilla in them.

Eat, Drink and Live as Usual, and pursue your usual occupation whilst taking them, without fear of taking cold in any kind of weather.

FORTY PILLS ARE IN A BOX!

and sold at Twenty Five cents a box, with directions and such other advice accompanying each box.

They have no taste or unpleasant smell.

Free from dust or powder of any kind,

Do not gripe the stomach or bowels,

Produce no sickness, nausea or bad feelings,

And adapted to most diseases common to mankind

BEWARE! BEWARE!

of other pills called by names nearly similar, represented as the same or as good, as a trick to impose on the public.

DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS are the safest, best and most efficacious Pills known,

AS FOUND BY EXPERIENCE!

☞ Principal Depot, Dr. LEIDY'S Dispensary, No. 114 North Fourth st. Philadelphia—and sold in every town in New Jersey.

BENJAMIN SANDY, Esq. is the Travelling agent for the state of New Jersey.

M. F. CUSHING, and E. KIRKPATRICK, Agents for Plainfield. July2-1y

APPLE TREE BLIGHT!

Medical Rose established Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. A. D. HOPE,

N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of unsurpassed and extensive practice and experiment in that city have rendered Dr. H the most expert and successful practitioner for the cure and treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat or legs, pains in the head or bones, mercurial rheumatism, st

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XIX—No. 20. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, MAY 28, 1855. Whole No. 968.

BY MILTON P. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 214 Broad-street, Washington Hall Building.

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments, at WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical, lepine, verge and detached lever Watches; curb, belcher, and Swiss Guard chains; Gold and steel Chains of all pattern; silver, shell and gold mount card cases; gold and silver enamelled, engraved and plain Pencils; Ladies' single stoned, cluster, and mosaic, cameo, turquoise, and single stoned, mourning and plain Studs; Finger Rings of all patterns; Ladies' plain gold, chain and hair Bracelets; Bracelet Snaps of all kinds; Ear studs of the latest styles; Gold, set with diamond, ruby, emerald, hyacinth, &c.; gold styles of Breast Pins; gold lockets and Miniature Cases; Gold Rims; Hearts and Crosses; gold Pencil and Guard Keys; gold and silver Thimbles; silver and Steel Butcher Knives; gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Bonnet Holders, tablet hair pins, scissors, knives, tea bells, purses, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, tea bells, purses, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, parasol bag clasps and slides, chess men and boxes, cheese boards, backgammon boards, letter folders, morgar cases, pearl and twin buttons, watch stands, bugle cases, pearl and twin buttons, watch stands, bugle cases, pocket combs, cigar cases, pocket combs, cigar cases, pocket combs, cigar

Plainfield, N. J. May 18, 1852.

Throw Thy Mite!

BY E. H. SEARGENT.

He who gives little from his store,
If little be his means,
Treads on as far the heavenward shore
As he who gives ten times the more,—
If ten times more his gains.
He may be useful here who would,
And walk within a zone of light;
There is a treasury of good :—
Cast in thy mite!

Thou may'st not have one piece of gold
To bless the poor man's palm ;
But angels will with joy behold,
If of what bless words which can be told
His troubled heart to calm ;
For kind words are as honied streams,
And he, the walker of the sod,
Who gives them to his brother, seems,
A messenger from God ;

If thou dost see the fatherless,
And watch the widow's tear ;
Dry up the fountains of distress,
Be thou the father quick to bless,
The husband ever near :
Though down they slide Misfortune's slope,
They have a treasury of hope :—
Cast in thy mite!

THE SUN FLOWER. A WORD TO FARMERS.—The sun flower is destined to be one of our greatest agricultural products, yet but few know its real value. I have raised and tested it. No farmer who has much land should be without it for feeding various animals, and the oil it produces. It has yielded me from 90 to 100 bushels per acre, manuring the same as for corn. I plant in drills, between three and four feet apart in the rows and using from four to five quarts of seed per acre.

When ripe, as the large heads begin to shell out, I cut it up and leave it scattered in rows to dry, and when thoroughly cured, draw it into the barn, handling carefully and placing it on an airy scaffold. When wanted the seed will nearly all shell out by throwing down, and needs little pounding. Clean in a common fanning mill.

One hundred pounds of the seed will yield 40 pounds of oil. I have had it made into oil at a common oil mill and used it for burning in lamps and tested it well for painting. Our house has been painted a long time ; and it wears fully equal to those where linseed is used, and the walls are left more glossy, as though a little varnish had been applied.

The oil cake is nearly equal to any other, and there is nothing better to feed hens in winter than sunflower seed ; they did not know what it was at first, but by mixing it with oats they gradually grew fond of it, and produced eggs more abundantly than on any other food. The seed is well known to be good for horses, and is well worth 50 cents a bushel to farmers. I hope they will find it profitable to raise their own oil, &c, as I have done.—Moore's Rural New Yorker.

Liability of Inn-Holders.—A case was decided recently in New Orleans, which renders innholders liable for money or property stolen from the inmates. Two returned Californians, having locked their trunk and the door of their room, returning from dinner, found the room had been entered, and $5,925 taken from the trunk. They recovered a verdict for the full amount with interest, against the landlord.

Among the wonders of this office-seeking age, may be recorded the fact that Judge Brown was unable to hold the April term of his court in Grayson co. Va. because no person would accept the office of clerk.

At the annual exhibition of the Junior class at Yale College last month, the highest prize for English composition, was awarded to Yung Wing, a native of China.

A Substantial Platform.—The Pennsylvanian learns that the Chairman of the committee of Arrangements for the reception of the National Convention of the Democracy, that 20,000 feet of prime hickory boards for the construction of the Platform upon which the Convention is to hold its deliberations, has been ordered direct from the Hermitage. As the Democratic and Whig Conventions meet at Baltimore in the same Hall, it is proposed that in order to save expense, both Conventions use the same platform.

A horse shoe that is put on without nails has been invented by Herr Driesbach.

A well digger at Norwalk came out of the well at 11 o'clock, one day last week, to get his todly, and while he was drinking, the well caved in, burying the young man who was his assistant, and he lost his life. "Well" said the well digger, "If I had been a teetotaller, I should have been dead and buried : so you see, friends, rum will save as well as destroy life."

The young folks of Detroit had a May party on the first. The queen was attired in a 'Mackintosh,' and had a wreath of gutta percha flowers ; her swain was in snow shoes with an umbrella. An immense fire occupied the place of the May pole, and the line—was chanted in beautiful taste by a choir of tender maidens, with a full and effective accompaniment of chattering teeth.

"Come gentle Spring, ethereal mildness come,"

A gentleman, says the Register of 3d inst., handed us a file of papers which he brought from Liverpool on Saturday, in the Pacific—having left this city only four weeks ago, and spending a week with his friends on the other side of the pond.

Coming Down.—The State Convention of S. Carolina has solemnly " declared and ordained" not that they will secede, but they have a right to secede if they choose. Then they adjourn intimating that they will magnanimously abstain from exercising "the right" So each secession

A ewe in England has produced five lambs at a birth, all doing well.

Belgium together have 25,000 square miles, and 7,000,000 inhabitants

The emigration of the Chinese to California is said by advices from Hong Kong, to be on the increase.

The Duke of Wellington is eightythree years old, enjoying excellent health, large honors, and plenty of money.

The transportation of political offenders to Cayenne has already cost France eighty millions of francs.

The young man who "once saw the day" when he scorned to associate with mechanics, is now acting as book keeper to a manure wagon. Queer reverse of fortune, that.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

THE NEW JERSEY WHIG STATE CONVENTION.—Will meet at Trenton on Wednesday, June 2nd, to appoint delegates to the National Convention at Baltimore, June 16th.

The Whigs of Warren township will meet at I. C. Allen's, on Saturday, 4 o'clock, P. M. to choose 5 delegates to the State Convention.

Bernards township, 1st Liberty Corner, same time, 5 delegates.

We are indebted to Ths. S. Allison, Esq. Secretary of State of New Jersey, and to Mr. Bell, M. C. from Tennessee, for valuable public documents.

ESSEX COUNTY BOARD OF FREEHOLDERS.—The Old Board met on Monday of last week. Several reports from committees were received, the most important being in relation to the jail. 756 commitments to jail during the year, 340 Irish, 149 other foreigners and 267 Natives.

The new workshop system works admirably. In the quarter ending Oct. 31, the prisoners earned $226 52, and by a regulation concerning food $302 60 was saved, making a total saving of $529 12.

During the year 2401 weeks' board of prisoners, with the Keeper's salary, amounted to $3,224 18 ; reduced by their nett earnings to $2,553 63. The same board under the old system would have been $4,201 75, being $1,648 12 in favor of the new system ; and this notwithstanding the high price of provisions.

The religious services at the jail are highly commended, and the chaplains speak well of the moral bearing of the prisoners, their thankfulness and attention for instruction received. They are encouraged, and have great confidence in the good results of the new system, in a moral point of view.

The New Board met on Wednesday morning Ira Dadd, of Bloomfield, was chosen Director, and Cyrus Baldwin, Clerk.

The salary of the Collector was fixed at $700. Mr. Zachariah Webster was elected to that office. The Collector was directed to report each year the financial condition of the County.

The Director was authorized to sign a petition for paving Newark, the County to pay its share of assessments.

It was resolved to raise $30,000 the coming year, as County tax.

Whig Candidate for the Presidency.—The Whigs of New York city held their primary meetings to elect delegates, last Thursday. Some Fillmore and some Scott men were chosen, but which has the majority is not yet known.

The Newark Mercury says : "Scott is a long way ahead of the other candidates, and the evidence is increasing that the South will cheerfully support his nomination."

The Washington correspondent of the National Democrat, writes as follows :

With regard to the Whigs, the question may be considered as already settled. Scott will be the nominee, and very likely upon the first ballot, and upon a moveable platform, like that of Gen. Taylor, barring the letter-writing, after a very powerful sort of Kane letter accepting the nomination. It is estimated that, excepting Georgia, and, perhaps Louisiana, Gen. Scott can carry every State that Gen. Taylor carried, and Ohio besides, which will be enough to elect him, It becomes, then, the policy of the Democrats to play a sure game for two of the three great States of New York, Pennsylvania or Ohio. How that is to be done remains to be tried."

A correspondent of the Tribune writing from Washington says :

The Delegates are beginning to drop in from distant States, and Scott is a head and shoulders ahead of any other man. The Democrats are in a terrible worry, and fear Scott more than is dreamed of. Gen. Houston and Com. Stockton are more likely to be his competitors than either Cass, Buchanan or Douglass.

The Carrollton (Illinois) says Fillmore is the favorite candidate in that region ; Illinois, however, is a democratic State.

☞ The N. J. Dem. State Convention adopt ed a resolution, declaring Gen. Cass to be its first choice, but did not instruct. No preference was expressed for any other candidate.

Congress.

The House passed the Homestead Bill on Wednesday, after some weeks' debate, 107 to 56. By this Law, every citizen, head of a family can enter a quarter section of land free of cost, if not at the time the owner of land.

The Senate continued the discussion of the deficiency bill, without concluding.

The Late Canal Law of New York, has been declared unconstitutional by the Court of Appeals, which causes much excitement among all the friends of the enlargement of the canals.

Collision.—An engine on the Central Railroad coming from Elizabethport on Thursday evening ran into the side of a N. J. R. R. car, which was standing across the track, cutting it completely through and dividing it into two parts. The passengers had left but a few minutes before or there must have been quite a loss of life.

An infallible criterion, so far as it goes, of a good inn, is a clean mustard-pot. If that is in proper order, you may be sure that the beds will be well aired, the sheets clean, and all the attiras properly looked after.

The Whigs of Essex county assembled in convention yesterday morning, at Newark, and organized with Sl. Day as President.

The Convention met again in the afternoon, with a full delegation present, and proceeded to the nomination of candidates for Governor, Senator, Congressmen, Assembly, Sheriff, Clerk, Surrogate, Freeholders, and Coroners. The ticket was completed in the evening, and is as follows :

For Governor, JOHN DUNN, of Essex.
For Senator, JOHN C. ROSS, of Essex.
For Congress, 1st District, JOHN T. NIXON, of Essex.
For Congress, 2d District, JOHN R. THOMPSON, of Essex.
For Assembly, ISAAC CRANE, of Essex.
For Assembly, JOHN W. MILLER, of Essex.
For Sheriff, JOHN C. VAN HORN, of Essex.
For Clerk, JOHN H. CRANE, of Essex.
For Surrogate, ISAAC H. WILLIAMSON, of Essex.
For Freeholders, ISAAC BALDWIN, of Orange.
For Freeholders, JOHN MEEKER, of Newark.
For Freeholders, JOHN MOORE, of Newark.
For Freeholders, JOHN MOORE, of Bloomfield.
For Freeholders, JOHN MOORE, of Bloomfield.
For Coroners, JOHN MOORE, of Newark.
For Coroners, JOHN MOORE, of Newark.

The Democratic Convention of Essex county assembled at Newark, on Wednesday, and nominated the following ticket :

For Governor, JOHN DUNN, of Essex.
For Senator, JOHN C. ROSS, of Essex.
For Congress, 1st District, JOHN T. NIXON, of Essex.
For Congress, 2d District, JOHN R. THOMPSON, of Essex.
For Assembly, ISAAC CRANE, of Essex.
For Assembly, JOHN W. MILLER, of Essex.
For Sheriff, JOHN C. VAN HORN, of Essex.
For Clerk, JOHN H. CRANE, of Essex.
For Surrogate, ISAAC H. WILLIAMSON, of Essex.
For Freeholders, ISAAC BALDWIN, of Orange.
For Freeholders, JOHN MEEKER, of Newark.
For Freeholders, JOHN MOORE, of Newark.
For Freeholders, JOHN MOORE, of Bloomfield.
For Freeholders, JOHN MOORE, of Bloomfield.
For Coroners, JOHN MOORE, of Newark.
For Coroners, JOHN MOORE, of Newark.

DEATH OF MR. DODGE.—David L. Dodge, Esq. formerly a prominent and wealthy merchant in this city, died recently, at the advanced age of 78 years. Mr. D. had been for years a warm and munificent friend of religion and religious institutions, and of late years, earnestly devoted to the study of the Scriptures. He was a man of great energy of character, and eminent success in business, the results of which were faithfully consecrated to the Master. He was of the founders of the Tract Society, and has had an important agency in the origin or early history of nearly all the benevolent societies which centre in the metropolis.

The above is from the N. Y. Evangelist of April 29. Mr. Dodge was well known here having resided in this place for some years, after he retired from business, and more recently has spent some time here.

Kossuth meets with more success in Boston, in his efforts to get material aid than he has, probably, in any other city. Though his bonds are not to be redeemed till the very uncertain period of Hungarian independence, and pay no interest until that time, yet he has succeeded in getting rid of $27,000 in that city. The Transcript says he will carry away about $30,000 from Boston.

☞ Extensive Forgery.—We understand that James A. Harris, of this city, a harness maker, has lately committed forgeries to an extent not yet fully known, but probably amounting to more than $2,000. He has absconded, and his family have also left. Other particulars will probably transpire hereafter.—Newark Advertiser.

Congressional.—The following telegram is in the Lantern.

Telgram from Congress.—Ten o'clock, a. m. —Doin' nothin'. Two o'clock, p. m.—Restin' for nothin'. Six o'clock, p. m.—Getting pay for nothin'.

There is a negro named Wood in prison in Troy, on a charge of grand larceny, who has two white women after him, each claiming to be his wife.

The N. Y. Board of Aldermen have appropriated $2,000 for their next 4th of july celebration.

It is calulated that our of every hundred persons who have gone to California, fifty have been ruined, forty no bettet than they would have been had they remained at home, five a little better, four something better still, and one his made a fortune. This seems to be a fair proportion of the California adventurers.

Another whale was taken off Southampton, L. I., on Friday last, which made about 40 bbls. This is the third whale taken off that place within a few days.—Another was struck off Wainscott, but escaped.

Letters from Nineveh state that Col. Rawlinson, who is now conducting the excavations abandoned by Mr. Layard, " has opened out the entire place of sepulture of the Kings and Queens of Assyria. There they lie," we are told, " in huge sarcophagi, with ponderous lids, just as they were deposited more than 3000 years ago."

In 1800, the raw cotton imported into Great Britain, amounted to 50,000,000 pounds—in 1851 to 700,000,000.

☞ There is no end to the new purposes for which iron is beginning to be used. At Cincinnati, they are taking up the broad flag stones which are laid down for foot passengers at the crossings of the streets, and substituting iron plats. The Cincinnatti Commercial says :—The broad iron plates which are laid from the side walk over the intersections of many of the streets form one of the best investments the city ever made. If physicians and others who have much driving to be about town, do not appreciate the comfort of these plates , the springs of their wagons do."

The Marriage Relation.—The celebrated English writer, Adison, has left on record the following important sentence :

" Two persons who have chosen each other, out of all their species, with a design to be each other's mutual comfort and entertainment, have in that action bound themselves to be good humoured, forgiving, patient, and joyful, with respect to each other's frailties and imperfections, to the end of their lives,"

An inquisitive priest having asked a young female her name, whilst in the confessional, she replied, with as much wit as modesty, "Father, my name is not a sin."

Psalms and Hime.—A maiden lady, suspected her female servant was regaling her beau upon the cold remains of the larder, called Betty and inquired whether she did not fear some one speaking with her down stairs ? " No, ma'am," replied the girl, " it was only me singing a psalm !" "You may amuse yourself, Betty," replied the maiden, "with psalms, but let's have no hims, Betty. I have a great objection to hims." Betty curtsied, withdrew, and took the hint.

The number of streets in London is said to be 10,000. There are 1,900 miles of gas pipes laid down in the city and suburbs, and 1,700 miles of streets within an area of 90 square miles.

Pain, poverty, infamy, are the natural product of vicious and imprudent acts ; as the contrary blessings are of good ones.

Punch says the danger of abolishing the property qualification for members of Parliament is this : that if some of our legislators were to be without their property qualifications, they would have no qualifications whatever.

The Cincinnati Commercial says that the evening of the 4th inst. was ushered in there with 84 guns, and the day morning.

The Commercial says that on Saturday and Sunday last, there arrived at New York, from Panama, with a million and a half in gold dust, and $300,000 in specie.

The steamer Northerner, from Panama, arrived at New York on the 3d inst. She brought $1,500,000 in gold dust, and $300,000 in specie. The specie money was first coined there.

The standard gold was first established by James 1st of England, being the length of his arm.

The Winchester Bushel is so called because the standard measure was formerly kept in Winchester, Eng. It is 18 1-2 inches in diameter, 8 inches deep, containing 2150.42 cubic inches, and must hold 80 lbs. of rain water.

Window is derived from wind-door.

Cap of Liberty. Among the Greeks and Romans slaves were always bare-headed, only freemen were allowed to cover their heads. Hence, when a slave was emancipated, a cap was placed on his head as one token of his freedom. Hence the term " Cap of Liberty."

Veto is a Latin verb, signifying I forbid. The veto power was exercised twice by Washington, 4 times by Madison, once by Monroe, 5 times by Jackson, and 4 times by Tyler.

The word caucus is said to have been coined in one of our Eastern cities from an assemblage cauliers for consultation.

The first steamboat in Great Britain was built in Glasgow in 1812, the Comet, of about 25 tons, and plied upon the Clyde between Glasgow and Greenock.

The dahlia was first discovered in Mexico by Humboldt, in 1789, and sent by him to the Botanic Garden at Madrid, where it received its name in honor of the Swedish Botanist, Dahl.

The population of New York city is 540,000 ; the average number of persons in each house is 14. Brooklyn 100,000 and 10 in each house. Williamsburgh 40,000 and 8 in each house. Philadelphia 410,000 and 7 in each house. London has 8 in each house, Paris 34.

It is estimated that during the last 65 years in the U. S. the military establishment has cost $950,000,000, and the Navy $90,000,000.

Light is an inconceivable number of particles from a luminous body, flying at the rate of 164,000 miles per second—taking 8 minutes to come from the Sun to Earth. It is composed of the 7 primary colors.

The winter, which is drawing to a close in California, has been quite a severe one. Great quantities of rain have fallen, and the rivers have been higher than ever known before. The mountain heights are buried in snow, and the summer will be one of full rivers, and hence of prosperous operations to the miners.

Carpets are now manufactured in large quantities, both in England and the United States, the figures of which are stamped, not woven. These are produced by a pressure of 500 tons on each block, or stamp. The carpets are very beautiful, but do not wear well, and we regret to say that the dealers, do not always let their customers know the difference, though the price is well kept up.

The Earl of Derby, the British Premier, is opposed to further acquisition of territory in India. He thinks policy, as well as justice, demands the system of aggression shall now stop ; but in this opinion he is not supported by all the English statesmen, some of whom believe that British power must recede in India, if it does not continually advance.

FARMERS' AND PLANTERS' BOILER OR LAUNDRY KETTLE.—A new article, designed for the use of farmers, planters or manufacturers, or for any purpose where the common cauld as has heretofore been used. It consists of a sheet of iron, designed for hanging long wood, brush or chips, to which a cauldron is so adapted that the flame is spread in a thin sheet around the bottom and sides of it, using it equally over every portion of the fire so as to get the same time, thus greatly economizing in the use of fuel, and ensuring the utmost expedition in its operation. For sale by PARTRIDGE & BENT, Jr., 220 Water Street, New York.
May 17, 1852.—1m*

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE,
SADDLE & HARNESS
MAKER
Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods to his like. Also

A CHOICE ASSORTMENT OF
GARDEN, FIELD and FLOWER SEEDS,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.
WILLIAM CAIRNS
INFORMS his friends and the public that he has succeeded Mr. John Eadie, in the Seed Store, 141 MARKET-STREET, NEWARK.

W. C. flatters himself that his long experience in the Seed business, and the facilities he has of procuring the best quality of SEEDS grown in this country and in Europe, coupled with punctuality and strict attention to business, will secure to him a liberal share of patronage.

W. C. has laid in his stock of new seeds for the season, to which he invites the attention of purchasers.

Orders forwarded to postpaid applications.

Greenhouse Plants, Fruit, Ornamental Trees, &c. furnished to order. New York reference by unknown correspondents.

N. B.—Jobbing punctually attended to by the day, month or year, by practical men.
May 3d, 1852.—2m.

Cheap Paper Hangings!
10 Cents a Piece!
JAMES FACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, in Dwelling House, (saving the walls and panels closed,) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Plain grounds and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to 24 cts. a piece. All Orders left at Mason-Lisle New York Store, will be punctually attended to.
J. F. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers,
Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852. 4weeks

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.
REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of May, will remove his store to No. 10 Maiden-Lane, to the store formerly occupied by him.
He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him, James Henming & Son's celebrated Needles—Richards' Gravel less and other Needles—Pearl Buttons, Combs' Steel and Gold Pencil Cases, Tortoise Shell Dressing Cases, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c. RICH'D RICHARDS,
Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods,
April 26, 1852.—13m. 10 Maiden-Lane New York

TRIPLE REFINED CAMPHENE.
This article, in bbls. and half bbls., for sale by the manufacturer, JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,
March 26, 1852.—3m. 92 Barling Slip, N. Y.

Wheat, per bush. 94,00 to 1,07
Corn, " 2,21 to 2,27
Rye, " 2,25 to 2,30
Oats, " 1,00 to 1,09
Beef, per cwt. 73 to 74
Pork, " 61 to 64
Lard, " 06 to 07

☞ Hundreds of our citizens complain of disease of the spleen, derangement of the liver and stomach, want of appetite, &c. ; they are frequently the result of too close application to business, and when we are informed by a thousand other cases that we would say to all so afflicted, do as we have done—get a bottle or two of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. Jackson, and our word for it, you will be cured We recommend this medicine knowing from experience that it is much superior to the generality of patent medicines we would say to our readers, purchase none unless prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Camphor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.
For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

DIALOGUE IN A SICK MAN'S CHAMBER.
SICK MAN.
Alas! this Cough grows stronger day by day,
As I grow weaker All the weary night,
Bathed in cold sweat, and breathing painfully,
I never sleep in vain.
VISITOR.
Banish Despair!
Thousands who thus have suffered, now restored,
Smile at their former fears.
SICK MAN.
Ha! can it be!
But no! those Lungs inflamed and overtasked,
With phegm oppressed, scathe the laboring breath,
And every thick pulsation seems the knell
Of Hope, the Comforter.
VISITOR.
Ah! say not that.
Behold a CURE in whose bland elements
Abides life-giving balm. A Syrup rare,
Of potent herbs, and roots, and healing TAR,
Composed with wondrous skill. The suffering owe
To Dr. Rogers this Hygean boon—
Take it and live.
SICK MAN.
Thanks! Hope revives—
I crave the remedy!

CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on the half wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. B. SCOVILL & CO.
For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Gothic Hall, 316 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.
Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.
PRICE—In large bottles, $1,00, or 6 bottles for $5,00.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.
Dr. W. H. Shadgett, $5,00 ; I. S. Dunn, 2,00 ; Ths. H. Force, 1,50 ; Archibald I. Codington, Mount Horeb, 1,50 ; Alex. Stelle, 50 ; John Stine, 50.

THE STAMPEDE MIXTURE,
A PERFECT ROOT OR NEVER-FAILING CURE FOR FEVER AND AGUE,
AND OTHER BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, AND FOR WEAKNESS.
This Medicine is purely a Vegetable Compound, and can in no possible manner be classed with nostrums of the day.—The proprietor Dr. Edward Bleecker, is well known, and the properties of this medicine have been ably and fairly discussed, and fully tested in private practice and as sovereign remedy in Chills and Fever.
CERTIFICATES.
NEWARK, April 10th, 1852.
Mr. G. Bancs—Dear Sir : Having used Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture in cases of Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, &c., of which you are Agent, it gives me pleasure to state that I have experienced the most immediate results from it. I have tried many specific remedies, among the rest Dr. Osgood's Cholagogue, without affording me any relief. I was afflicted with the Dumb Ague for more than a year ; I tried one bottle of your medicine and it effected a perfect cure. In fact I never enjoyed better health in my life. Any person desirous of knowing the particulars in the above case, can obtain them by calling at my place of business where they will be cheerfully given.
GEO. V. HANKINS, 314 Broad-st., Newark, N. J.
NEWARK April 10th 1852.
Mr. G. Bruen—Dear Sir : It gives me pleasure to learn that you have accepted the Agency for that justly celebrated medicine, Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture for the cure of Fever and Ague, and Chills and Fever, and I can with confidence say that I tried it, and it effected a perfect cure when all others failed. I cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted with the Fever and Ague, as a most excellent medicine, and one that must naturally come into general use.
HENRY J. YATES, Firm of Vail & Yates.
corner River and Centre sts., Newark, N. J.
DR. LEWIS BLEECKER, Agent for Plainfield. may18-6w

JOHN JELLIFF'S OLD ESTABLISHED
Furniture Warehouse,
301 & 303 Broad Street, Newark,
Great Improvements in his Store—New Spring Goods.
Mr. J. having remodelled and enlarged his Warerooms is happy to say he is now ready to receive calls ; and invitations are herewith respectfully given to his friends, patrons, and all in the pursuit of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, to call and see his wares. Having catered to the wants, convenience, and luxury of Essex county

For the last Sixteen Years,

in the way of Cabinet Furniture, and all wares having received satisfactory tests during that time, he does not consider it necessary to say more as to the quality of his goods. They speak for themselves, in the enduring comfort and the solid utility they universally accomplish. He would invite attention to his

NEW SPRING STYLES,

And, without egotism, he considers his FINE LINES in each contain the

Largest, Most Complete and Extensive Assortment

That can be found in the State, and for beauty of design and neatness of execution, he challenges competition. They are just out in the most approved

ANCIENT AND MODERN STYLES,

Comprising all the varieties of useful and fancy goods, in suites or otherwise, of Parlor, Chamber, Library, Sitting and Dining Room, and Kitchen Furniture, specially called for, including Mattresses, Palliasters, and Cushions of all descriptions.

Churches, Hotels, Steamboats, Halls, Counting Houses, Offices, &c. &c. furnished at short notice.

Cheap, Cheap, Very Cheap Furniture ! !

No necessity of going to New York, or the Junk Shops for cheap Furniture, as I will sell you the same goods just as cheap, and you will be saved the expense of carriage, freight, drayage, and the trouble of going after it.

A Large Stock of Very Low-Priced Furniture.

Sofas within $20 ; Mahogany Chairs $2,50 ; Cane seat do. 88 cts. ; common do. 44 cts. ; Card Tables $7 ; Bedsteads $2 ; Tea Tables $1 ; Looking Glasses as all prices. Every thing else in the same proportion.
JOHN JELLIFF, 301 and 303 Broad st.
May 3, 1852—2m. NEWARK, N. J.

SELECT SCHOOL.
MISS JEWETT, who has had much experience and success in teaching, will open in Second st. near Mechanic, on Wednesday the 2nd inst. a

SELECT SCHOOL

For Girls and Young Ladies, in which will be taught all the branches of a thorough and finished English education together with the Latin and French languages. Application may be made at Rev. Mr. Sheldon's, Second street.
Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—tf

Hoover's Black Ink.
The Best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

of the Second Ward Bank Co. of Newark, on the 12th inst., the following named persons were elected Directors for the ensuing year: John T. Bonnell, Wm. H. Dodge, John C. Green, Wm. S. Waterman, John O. Stearns, Benjamin Williams, George Vail, Fred'k T. Frelinghuysen, Fred'k R. Smith.

At a subsequent meeting of the Board, John T. Johnston was elected President, Fred'k R. Smith Vice President, and George H. Pegram Secretary and Treasurer.

A foreign vessel is now lying at Liverpool which has iron instead of wooden masts, 70 feet high.

The Corporation of Galway, Ireland, are preparing a block of marble for the Washington Monument.

English steamers will hereafter not be permitted to go to sea, without a due proportion of iron life boats, signal lights, and fire engines.

An editor at a dinner table being asked if he would take some pudding, replied, in a fit of abstraction, "Owing to a crowd of other matter, I am unable to find room for it."

I. S. DUNN.

HAVING taken up his residence in this place near the Railroad Depot, offers his services to the public generally, as a practical Surveyor and Clerk, by the week, day or job, on reasonable terms. Deeds, Mortgages, Leases, Wills, and other Legal Instruments carefully drawn. He will attend vendues, take inventories, and receive all similar orders, at his residence, at any time, excepting the morning after 8th day of each month. From his long and considerable experience, he hopes to give satisfaction.

Plainfield, May 10, 1852.—1m I. S. DUNN.

Administrator's sale.

THE Subscriber, Administrator of the Estate of ABRAHAM PARKER, deceased, will sell at Public sale, on Second Day (Monday) the 12th day of July next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. on the premises, the late Homestead belonging to said deceased, it is a one Two-story House with Lot and Garden, situated on the east corner of Second and New Streets, in Plainfield, N. J.

Any information desired may be obtained by reference to said property, until he cheerfully furnished by calling on the subscriber, or Smith W. Parker, on the premises.

SALE POSITIVE. ZACHARIAH WEBSTER, Plainfield, May 6, 1852. Administrator.

Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

IN HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's, Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising the following qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, all of which are made at our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction. Purchasers who may select or order can rely upon being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as favorably as at any establishment in the country.

352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

May 31, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by May 4, 1852 JAS. M. DUNN.

LIGHTNING RODS !

A. M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 182 East Twenty-Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and erect all buildings their improved Lightning Rods' which have now been in use seventeen years, without a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. Mr. A. M. Quimby has made Electricity the study of his life, and his rods are always put up in accordance with certain rules which he has formed and adopted as the result of his experience. An adherence to these rules he believes to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and exposed as regards lightning, and requires a different arrangement of rods to suit the peculiar features of the case, which is the reason why so many of the common round rods have failed heretofore; being put up by persons ignorant of the laws by which electricity is governed, they are not arranged on buildings in such a manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Quimby's rods have been placed on the houses of Mr. D. Rockwell, C. Boice, Esq. Mr. M. Stelle, and others in Plainfield, and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church and other New York churches, the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—6m*

BARAIGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received, and selling off cheap.

Calicoes, fast colors, for 6 cents per yard

May 3, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

1852.

SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S.

WE would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not praise up our Goods with a view of trying to make the people believe them to be what they are not, but intend that our style and quality shall speak for themselves. We have from 16 to 18 pieces of Mouse Berage de Laines new styles from 16d to 3s. 6; plain and watered Poplin Silks from 2s to 10s. per yard: Prints any variety from 4d to 1s 6d: a good lot of Ladies' Gloves from 10 cts to 75: also Gents Gloves, Bleached and Brown Muslins very cheap, Ginghams from 10 cts. to 28, and more than a thousand other articles that we have not room to mention here.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloth, plain and fancy Cassimers, a first rate assortment of Vestings any or all of which we will make to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Gents furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods from the

Plainest and Cheapest

To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it an object to Customers to come 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we are entirely in the Dry Goods trade, and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

SILK! SILKS!! SILKS!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also Canton Plaids new Spring Styles to which the attention of Ladies is particularly requested. ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

May 31, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store,

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.

Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

D. M. KNIGHT & CO.,

Importers and Wholesale Dealers in

ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN

FANCY GOODS,

No. 52 Cedar-street, (up stairs,)

(Between William and Nassau sts.,)

D. M. KNIGHT, A. S. SOAR 3m* NEW-YORK.

COMBS—Shell, buffalo, and Horn back Combs in great variety; twist, dressing and Ivory Combs.

Buttons—Pearl, Jet, Horn, Mohair, twist, bone, metal, silk, thread, agate, &c.

Brushes—Hair, Tooth, Nail, &c.

Tapes—Linen, Thread, Spool Cotton, Needles, Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Hair Pins, Elastics, Whalebone, Linen and Cotton Tapes, Linen and Cotton Bobbin, Scissors, Thimbles, and a great variety of Fancy Goods, Fans, &c. all cheap for cash.

March 16, 1852.—3m.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any thing we can eat, or do anything with, taken in exchange for goods. I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

PEAS! PEAS!—The Imperial Pea, Genuine article. Dwarf Marrowfats, do do

For sale by JAS. M. DUNN.

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at I. S. DUNHAM & CO.'s

NOTICE.

THE Cotton belonging to the heirs and of FRANCIS BUNTON, deceased, is hereby notified to pay the subscription to the stock of the Plainfield Cotton Manufacturing Co. on or before the 1st day of June next, or the stock will be sold at public sale as they fall due. ABM. BUNTON.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—1m*

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS.

DANIEL BULLMAN,

Is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of every grade and description of Prints, Ginghams and Muslins, Plain and figured Lawns, Plain and figured Delaines, Berages, &c. &c. suitable for the season; Linens, White Goods of all kinds, Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Hosiery, Gloves and all other of the dry goods line, necessary to make us varied, full and complete assortment. It can be found in these parts, and they will be sold as cheap too. Try us and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

We have also in the way of purchasing these articles will find my store just the place. I buy for cash and sell them as cheap as any man can. Our customers cannot help being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY.

Some very beautiful, and some very cheap; a large and varied assortment, to suit all tastes, constantly on hand. Also, Lamps, in great variety.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell the same goods as cheap, and secure you freight, breakage and trouble of selling after it. Also, Looking-Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all the best and qualities, at very low prices.

VARIETIES and FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call, and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it, very likely. A portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited. D. BULLMAN.

April 26, 1852.

Cheap, Cheap store !!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Earthen and Stone Ware, also, Boots and Shoes, &c. My stock has been selected with great care, and an eye to cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints, Ginghams, Cassmers,
Berages de Lane, Gloves, Summerstuffs,
Linens, Hosiery, Fustians, &c.

And all styles of goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear, including the largest and best assorted cambrics, stitchings, shootings, buttons, thread, cotton bats, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas, Rice, Sugars, Candles, Flour,
Coffee, Corn Starch, Soap, Indian Meal.

PROVISIONS.—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef,
Pepper, Spices, Cheese, Hams, Pork, &c.
Pepper sauce, Honey, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all both old and young, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to buy. Call the cheap store.

SILKS? SILKS! SILKS!!

The subscriber has also on hand a good assortment of Silks and Changeable silks, which will be sold cheap.

May 4, 1852. J. V. ARROWSMITH.

Lawrence's Gallery,

203 Broadway, 3 doors below Fulton-

STREET, NEW YORK.

THE proprietor having built this establishment expressly for Daguerreotypes, with a view to obviate many of the difficulties that surround the Daguerrian Artist, and having after a trial of two years, all his expectations have been fully realized. The arrangement of light is new, and produces uniformly soft and bold pictures, with the shadow, or neutral tints, so long looked for by the Artist. One of the rooms is arranged with particular reference to taking Family and other groups. Fifty persons can be taken with great facility. The Operating Department is conducted by persons of much experience and skill, and none but good likenesses will be sent out. Mr. L. has been the first to produce Daguerreotypes of colors. They are produced with the colors of immense size, and on plates three times larger than ever before used, producing a Picture having all the softness and delicacy of the finest Miniature. Returned Pictures exchanged or cash with perfect accuracy. Children of all ages taken, Stormy or cloudy weather no detriment to taking good pictures. The Premium Medal, and visibility are invited to visit the Rooms, which are free to all.

THE FIRST PREMIUM, a MEDAL, was awarded to Mr. LAWRENCE, at the WORLD'S FAIR in LONDON, for his DAGUERREOTYPES. Kinsley new.

April 20th, 1852.—3m. M. M. LAWRENCE.

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in the Main street, opposite Webster & Marsh's store, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, &c.—Having purchased her goods for cash, and quite recently, she is prepared to sell Ribands, Gimps, Gloves, Silk, Laces, Collars, Muslins, Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and everything in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from Somerville, she is prepared for orders in all the various branches of Dress Making. Caps and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 5, 1852.—6m.

Something New !!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John R. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite Smith's Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, Saddle and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Drake's new building in Somerset st., first door from Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the vicinity of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns DeLaines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds. A great assortment of new Summer Goods, Calicoes, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES,

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Crackers, Hams in large supplies, Cotton Bands and Shoes for the coming season, can find at

J. B. MILLER'S

134 Canal street, New York.

French Morocco and kid Slippers, Ties and Buskins at the first quality, at 9 and 10 shillings per pair; second quality Slippers and ties at 6 shillings, and Buskins at 7 shillings per pair, (all of which are warranted a good article.) Ladies' gaiter Boots of all the fashionable colors, 12, 16 and 18 shillings the pair. This branch of assortment is very complete, and of the first quality. Misses' and children's gaiter Boots and Shoes of all kinds (the largest assortment of any in New York) of white and black satin, black and bronze French kid Slippers for dress wear. Ladies wishing to purchase at moderate prices, will please call and examine my stock themselves at J. B. MILLER'S

134 Canal street, New York.

(Between Thompson and Sullivan sts.)

March 23, 1852.—3m.

House and Lots for Sale.

Situated on the corner of Fifth and Center streets, the house is nearly new, and in a good state of repair, with a good cellar, well and cistern pumped, with garret and cellar. Said lots are of the first kind, and a never failing well of water. Said property is well located for private residence, or for business purposes to WILLIAM SUTTON.

Plainfield, Feb 26th, 1852.

NEW GOODS.—Broche Royal Paisley Cord patterns thread, worsted, worsted on cot ton and cotton prints. I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

Furniture and Chair

WAREROOMS.

Sofas, Mahogany Chairs, Parlor Tables, Marble Slabs, Bureaus, Wash Stands, Work and Book Cases, Wardrobes, Writing Desks and Stands, Ottomans reading Tables, Dressing Bureaus, French and Cottage Beds, Mattresses, Feather Beds and Pillows, Looking Glasses, &c. &c., also a large assortment of Rosewood and Maple cane-seat Chairs of our own manufacture, and warranted superior to anything of the style.

Mattresses of Curled Hair, Husk, Moss and Straw. We have also a large stock of New York Furniture, which we will sell at New York prices, and save you the trouble, time, freight, risk, &c., which is attendant on purchasing in New York.

N. B. Goods delivered within six or seven miles of Newark, who purchase furniture of us, can have their furniture delivered at their residences free of charge. Purchasers of goods to the amount of $25 or more at our furniture wagon expressly for that purpose, so that we are responsible for our wares until they are safely lodged in your own residences. We do this in order to induce persons to call and see the same goods as cheap, and save you freight, breakage and trouble of selling after it.

Also, Looking-Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all the best and qualities, at very low prices.

VARIETIES and FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call, and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it, very likely. A portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited. D. BULLMAN.

April 26, 1852.

Cheap, Cheap store !!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Earthen and Stone Ware, also, Boots and Shoes, &c. My stock has been selected with great care, and an eye to cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints, Ginghams, Cassmers,
Berages de Lane, Gloves, Summerstuffs,
Linens, Hosiery, Fustians, &c.

And all styles of goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear, including the largest and best assorted cambrics, stitchings, shootings, buttons, thread, cotton bats, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas, Rice, Sugars, Candles, Flour,
Coffee, Corn Starch, Soap, Indian Meal.

PROVISIONS.—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef,
Pepper, Spices, Cheese, Hams, Pork, &c.
Pepper sauce, Honey, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all both old and young, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to buy. Call the cheap store.

SILKS? SILKS! SILKS!!

The subscriber has also on hand a good assortment of Silks and Changeable silks, which will be sold cheap.

May 4, 1852. J. V. ARROWSMITH.

Lawrence's Gallery,

203 Broadway, 3 doors below Fulton-

STREET, NEW YORK.

THE proprietor having built this establishment expressly for Daguerreotypes, with a view to obviate many of the difficulties that surround the Daguerrian Artist, and having after a trial of two years, all his expectations have been fully realized. The arrangement of light is new, and produces uniformly soft and bold pictures, with the shadow, or neutral tints, so long looked for by the Artist. One of the rooms is arranged with particular reference to taking Family and other groups. Fifty persons can be taken with great facility. The Operating Department is conducted by persons of much experience and skill, and none but good likenesses will be sent out. Mr. L. has been the first to produce Daguerreotypes of colors. They are produced with the colors of immense size, and on plates three times larger than ever before used, producing a Picture having all the softness and delicacy of the finest Miniature. Returned Pictures exchanged or cash with perfect accuracy. Children of all ages taken, Stormy or cloudy weather no detriment to taking good pictures. The Premium Medal, and visibility are invited to visit the Rooms, which are free to all.

THE FIRST PREMIUM, a MEDAL, was awarded to Mr. LAWRENCE, at the WORLD'S FAIR in LONDON, for his DAGUERREOTYPES. Kinsley new.

April 20th, 1852.—3m. M. M. LAWRENCE.

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in the Main street, opposite Webster & Marsh's store, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, &c.—Having purchased her goods for cash, and quite recently, she is prepared to sell Ribands, Gimps, Gloves, Silk, Laces, Collars, Muslins, Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and everything in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from Somerville, she is prepared for orders in all the various branches of Dress Making. Caps and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 5, 1852.—6m.

Something New !!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John R. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite Smith's Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, Saddle and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Drake's new building in Somerset st., first door from Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the vicinity of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns DeLaines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds. A great assortment of new Summer Goods, Calicoes, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES,

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Crackers, Hams in large supplies, Cotton Bands and Shoes for the coming season, can find at

J. B. MILLER'S

134 Canal street, New York.

French Morocco and kid Slippers, Ties and Buskins at the first quality, at 9 and 10 shillings per pair; second quality Slippers and ties at 6 shillings, and Buskins at 7 shillings per pair, (all of which are warranted a good article.) Ladies' gaiter Boots of all the fashionable colors, 12, 16 and 18 shillings the pair. This branch of assortment is very complete, and of the first quality. Misses' and children's gaiter Boots and Shoes of all kinds (the largest assortment of any in New York) of white and black satin, black and bronze French kid Slippers for dress wear. Ladies wishing to purchase at moderate prices, will please call and examine my stock themselves at J. B. MILLER'S

134 Canal street, New York.

(Between Thompson and Sullivan sts.)

March 23, 1852.—3m.

House and Lots for Sale.

Situated on the corner of Fifth and Center streets, the house is nearly new, and in a good state of repair, with a good cellar, well and cistern pumped, with garret and cellar. Said lots are of the first kind, and a never failing well of water. Said property is well located for private residence, or for business purposes to WILLIAM SUTTON.

Plainfield, Feb 26th, 1852.

NEW GOODS.—Broche Royal Paisley Cord patterns thread, worsted, worsted on cot ton and cotton prints. I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

The Place to Buy Dry Goods !

JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.

No. 227 Greenwich Street, NEW YORK,

(One Door below Barclay Street,)

Offer to Buyers the Largest, Most Varied, and Cheapest Stock of

DRY GOODS, in Green with St. and one of the Largest in the CITY, for both WHOLESALE and RETAIL Buyers to select from.

The First Floor is devoted to our Retail Sales and the Second, Third and Fourth Floors, are exclusively for our

WHOLESALE TRADE.

We particularly invite the attention of COUNTRY MERCHANTS,

To our Stock, from which they can select almost any article they want, thereby saving much time. We pay particular attention to the selection of the very best styles in Dress and other Goods. Cash Buyers will save MONEY by an examination of our prices, as our expenses are small, we can and will sell a profit cheaper than most Houses. All we ask is, TRY US.

JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.

New York, March 1st, 1852.—4m 227 Greenwich Street.

A GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES

AT THE CELEBRATED LARGEST AND CHEAPEST

CARPET ESTABLISHMENT

In the United States, No. 99 Bowery,

HIRAM ANDERSON'S

EIGHT FRAMED SALES ROOMS,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

Sales Room No. 1.

CONTAINS the Largest, Handsomest and Cheapest Assortment of English and American Floor Oil Cloths, to be found in the city, from

TWO SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE

To One Dollar thesquare yard, of one to eight yards wide.

Sales Room No. 2.

Contains the most beautiful and variegated assortment of English and American superior Ingrain Carpeting, at unparalleled low prices, Five Shillings to Six Shillings and Pence per yard—low and elegant figures for Spring Sales.

Sales Room No. 3

Is fully stocked with an unrivaled assortment of English and American Imperial Three-ply Carpeting, of new and elegant designs, colors and patterns, which for style, transcends immeasurably all former importations. Also, a large and interesting invoice of Lace, Straws, Straw Bleached mat as cheap as twenty. HENDRICKSON & LYON.

Mrs. Wm. SIMMONS. 564 Broadway, April 20, 1852.—3m New York.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the new stand on Somerset-st., next to the corner of Front street, and near French's Hotel, where they will constantly keep all articles in their line cheap as the cheapest and good as the best, including Flour and Feed, also Crockery and Earthen Ware. Produce of all kinds wanted in exchange for groceries. Thankful for past favors, asks a continuance of the same.

Mrs. Voy's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaints.

JOHNSON & LYON.

N. B. All persons indebted to the subscriber are requested to call and settle without delay.

April 5, 1852.—1y. CHARLES JOHNSON.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of D. Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles together with silver work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and Wool taken in exchange for Clocks.

Plainfield, April 12, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

BOOTS & SHOES.

A. D. GALE

MANUFACTURER AND WHOLESALE DEALER,

HAS constantly on hand about every thing in the BOOT & SHOE line, at reasonable rates. Call and see. Please call and examine.

A. D. GALE,

229 Pearl-st., corner Platt-st.

March 16, 1852.—3m. New York.

NEW PROVISION AND FISH STORE.

227 Washington-st., New-York.

THE subscriber, would most respectfully, invite the attention of the public generally, to his stock of

Smoked Beef and Tongues,
Smoked Hams and Shoulders,
Smoked Salmon and Herring,
Also, Salted Salmon, Mackerel, &c. by the barrel, half Barrel, and in kits, in lots to suit purchasers.

PHILI MON D. HAIGHT,

227 Washington-street, New York.

April 13, 1852.—3m.

Land Warrants of 1812 Wanted.

100 to 160 acres each,
200 of 80 acres each,
250 of 40 acres each.

For which the highest price will be paid. Also Last Warrants Collected by THOMAS J. PRATHARD.

April 12. 1m 31 Wall st. New York

BERTH'S Bechic Refined Powdered Salaratus.

" Chemical Yeast Powder in tin boxes.

" Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, Ellisabethtown, (a short distance from the depot,) would invite his friends, and the public at large, to call and see a good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call.

His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, for the money. Thanking for past favors, he hopes to receive a continuance of the same.

April 20, 1852 tf. JOHN ENGEL.

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant.

do. Sanative Pills Also,

Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Cordial, which in cases of Cholera, is a powerful remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Chollc, Cramps, pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Atwood's Spinal Elixir for the spine diseases. Also, Hoyt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by April 20, 1852. JAMES. M. DMNN.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. Thankful indeed to those who will be passed over for collection. As I don't wish to put expense on any one, I give this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, April 9th 1852

NOTICE TO THE LADIES

OF PLAINFIELD AND VICINITY. Those ladies wishing to obtain their supplies of Cotton Bands and Shoes for the coming season, can find at

J. B. MILLER'S

134 Canal street, New York.

French Morocco and kid Slippers, Ties and Buskins at the first quality, at 9 and 10 shillings per pair; second quality Slippers and ties at 6 shillings, and Buskins at 7 shillings per pair, (all of which are warranted a good article.) Ladies' gaiter Boots of all the fashionable colors, 12, 16 and 18 shillings the pair. This branch of assortment is very complete, and of the first quality. Misses' and children's gaiter Boots and Shoes of all kinds (the largest assortment of any in New York) of white and black satin, black and bronze French kid Slippers for dress wear. Ladies wishing to purchase at moderate prices, will please call and examine my stock themselves at J. B. MILLER'S

134 Canal street, New York.

(Between Thompson and Sullivan sts.)

March 23, 1852.—3m.

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by P. Monner, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

Also PAPER-HANGING, all of which will be promptly, punctually and in the most approved style executed.

The undersigned hereby returns thanks to his customers for their liberal patronage the past years, and will endeavor by faithfulness to merit and secure a continuance of the same in future.

Orders may be left at the Union Office, also at Mr. Im. Pardee's store. CHARLES TAYLOR.

April 1, 1852.—y

Excelsior Chemical and Color Works.

SAMUEL TRUESDELL,

MANUFACTURER OF

PAINTS & COLORS:

Chrome Green, American Vermilion,
Chrome Yellow, Chinese Blue,
Prussian Blue, Paris Green,
Paris Blue, Rose Pink, &c. &c.

No. 141, Sullivan Street, New York.

IMPERIAL GREEN PAINT IN OIL.

April 19, 1852.—3m.

German Washing Powder, & Fluid

For Sale by M. F. CORNING.

NOT FOR THE GOLD MINES!

GIVE ME THE SILVER!

WHILE many are going to California to dig for the gold in abundance, if they can find it, I take the opportunity to say to the public at large and to my customers in particular, that I shall remain here and attend to them a stock of goods, at cash prices, and on such terms, equal to any for style and quality. Said stock consists of a general assortment of every thing kept in a Village Store, viz:

Dry Goods, Carpets, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, Boots, Shoes,

Among the Dry Goods are Muslins and Prints from 4d to 1s. and 1s 6d., DeLaines and Cashmeres; cambric and lacenet, book and Swiss muslin, a good assortment of Ginghams, Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinets, good flannel, black gloves, both veils, crape and bobinette lace, sewing Clothes, plain and fancy cassimere, shoeking, satinet, Jeans, cords, edgings, trimmings, linens, lace, tapes, &c.

GROCERIES.

Green and Black Teas of the best quality, molasses at 5d per lb, per gallon, sugar of every style and quality from 5s 6d to 6d for 1 lb, rice 4d per lb, sugar-house syrup, raisins, coffee, rice, and of the best quality.

CROCKERY, of Every Style and Quality,

Both fancy and plain to suit the purchaser.

PROVISIONS.

Pork, Fish, salt, hams, shoulders, lard, butter, cheese, beef, &c. &c.&c.

BOOTS and SHOES, of Every Style and Quality, for Ladies', gentlemen's and children's wear at low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Furniture and coach varnish, turpentine, white lead, pure and extra, Linseed oils, yellow ochre, Venetian red, red lead, chrome yellow, Prussian blue, green, Rowman blue, mixed and dry, lamp black, Ultramar, brown japan and nearly every thing for painters' use.

Flour, Meal, Feed and Grain,

A good assortment constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, March 16, 1852.

Central Rail Road of N. J.

Extension to Clinton, 8 miles.

An Extra Accommodation Train.

Spring Arrangements,

Commencing Monday, May 3d, 1852.

This line leaves New York by steamboat Red Jacket Pier No. 1 North River, and connects at Elizabethtown with trains on the N. J. Railroad, which leave New York from the foot of Courtlandt-st., at the SAME HOURS.

Leave New York,

At 9 o'clock, A. M. and 4 P. M. (Freight) and 5:30 M.

Trains to New York Leave

	Freight	Passenger	Passenger's
Whitehouse, at	5.15,	5.40 and	8.40 A.M. 1.40 P.M.
North Branch,	5.20	5.50	8.50 1.50
Somerville,	5	6.00	9.00 2.00
Bound Brook,	4.20	6.15	9.15 2.15
Plainfield,	5.10	6.40	9.45 2.40
Scotch Plains,	5.50	7.05	10.5 2.55
Elizabethtown,		7.15	10.40 3.15

Stages will be in readiness on the arrival of the 9 o'clock train from New York, at White House, to convey passengers to Easton, Wilkesbarre, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Penn.; and to Flemington, Lebanon, Clinton, Milford, Bethlehem, Bloomsbury, N. J., and to New Hampton, Washington and Belvidere, N. J., on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; to Lambertville, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

N. B. All Baggage at the risk of the owners, until delivered into the actual possession of the Agents of the company, and checks or receipts given therefor.

HORACE SEATON,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN LACE GOODS,

854 Broad Street, Newark.

Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Velvet, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Embroideries Muslin, Gloves and Hosiery, Millinery articles, Gimps, Braidery, Gilts, Trimmings, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Carhart's, Ladies and Children's fancy dress Shoes and Gaiters. 23 1y.

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at E. CLEMENT'S Manufactory, 194 Fulton-street, (west of Broadway) A Great Assortment of Mahogany and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

E. CLEMENT & CO., 194 Fulton-street, Oct. 7, 1851—1y New York.

CARHART & BEEDMAN,

Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

With Recent Important Improvements.

Price from $60 to $200.

No. 76 East Thirteenth Street,

J. Carhart, } NEW YORK.

E. F. Beedman. }

N. B. Melodeons constantly on hand.

Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

BAKERY.

JOHN S. PHELPS,

SUCCESSOR TO U. P. WARD.

Celebrated Cracker, Pilot, and Large Bread Bakery, Wholesale and Retail,

No. 64 Vesey street, New York.

THE well known and universally approved Crackers of U. P. Ward have been manufactured for upward of 25 years, and in that time have attained a high degree of quality above all others, and it is the intention of the present proprietor to manufacture an article every way equal to the former. The Bread and Cake departments have recently been added to the above business, and can be had in all their variety, together with U. P. Ward's New Years' Cake, which is offered at 10 cents per pound, and needs but a trial to insure a continuance of their patronage.

Butter Crackers,	Walnut Crackers,		Milk Biscuit
Sugar "	Pic Nic "		Lgt "
Boston "	Lemon "		Wine "
Graham "	Cup "		Sweet "
Water "	Graham Biscuit		Boston "
Soda "	Soda "		Pilot "
Pantry "	Saratoga "		Ginger Snaps
Fancy Lind "	Navy "		Bread,
Cake, &c. in every variety.

Family and country orders executed at short notice.

Dec. 31st, 1851.—6m

PAINTS, &c.

AMERICAN PATENT ATOMIC DRIER. Grinding Oil, COLORS and VARNISH. Chrome Green, Gold Size, Blue Dryer, Stove Polish, and Black Varnish for Iron Work.

QUARTERMAN & SON,

Painters & Chemists,

Mch 9, 1852.—1y. 114 John-Street, New York.

THE BEST REMEDY IN THE WORLD FOR

SPRAINS, BRUISES, RHEUMATISM,

Stiffness or Weakness of the Joints and Limbs, Contraction of the Muscles, Neuralgia of the Face, Side or Back, Gout, Head-Ache, Tooth-Ache, &c.

Also, as an Embrocation for Horses, Cattle, Dogs, &c.

This Embrocation is prepared of ingredients which have a very active, yet entirely safe and pleasant prop-erties. It is known as the "Great Indian Cure" for Rheu-matism, and before this combination was offered with so much confidence, it was satisfactorily and effectually proved to be the very thing it is represented. Try it, and you will be convinced of its virtues.

Price, 25 cents per Bottle.

Certificate from Ambrose Pancoast, Esq. Atlantic co., N. J.

Pancoastville, N. J. July 31, 1849.

Mr. S. G. B owers:

Dear Sir,—I have been an extensive dealer in horses for 20 years past, and have had great opportunities to witness the various diseases to which they are subject, and of testing the remedies in use.

About 16 years since I was induced to make use of your Embrocation, and since that time I have used no other remedy for the following diseases to which this noble animal is subject, viz. Ringbone, spavin, strains of the sinews, shoulder strains, swinny in the shoulder, lameness in the stifle and shoulder, galls on the shoulder, and every disease of a like nature.

I have also used, and known it used for the various diseases to which mankind are subject, such as Swelled Joints, Rheumatism, Contraction of the muscles, cramp, spinal affections, pains in the Face, side and back, Toothache, burns, scalds, and especially the headache, to which I am subject. I can say from my purchase in Your Embrocation is the best and safest Remedy I have ever used for the above complaints; I have also sold con-siderable of it in my store, and believe it to supersede all others. Yours with respect,

AMBROSE PANCOAST.

Prepared only by F. G. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Bridgeton, N. J., and for sale together with Brewster's Liniment Mixture, and Brewster's Pills, by Dr. L. CRAIG, Druggist, agent for Plainfield; C. W. Badger, Newark; Dr. D. C. English, New Brunswick, and by other druggists throughout the State.

May 1, 1852.—4m

MARBLE & STONE YARD.

THE subscriber would respectfully an-nounce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONU-ments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates, Vases and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of busi-ness. I have also a beautiful Free Stone Cu-rry, from which I will furnish to order every variety of work, finished, plain, or ornamented, the style of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and as prices as low as they can be had else-where. Orders and work for repairs are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.—1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

ANDREW M WEBSTER,

Attorney at Law and Solicitor in Chancery.

OFFICE—No. 153 MARKET STREET,

May 13, 1850. NEWARK, N. J.

DR. E. DAYTON,

Surgeon-Dentist,

Has returned to Plainfield, and taken an Office and Residence for the year, on

Main st. 2d house below Webster & Marsh's Store.

June 21, 1851.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE.

PHYSICIANS,

NO. 259 GREEN STREET, NEW YORK,

Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

Mc ELL & MOTT,

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DIS-EASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bladder and other vital organs and Female com-plaints, particularly those arising from or attended upon debility, Scrofulous, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous dis-eases, has generally known that it is consid-ered unnecessary to repeat it here. Suffice to say that they have repeatedly performed permanent cures in cases of long standing, after their having been unsuccessfully treated by many instances respectfully and incurable by some of the most eminent in the medi-cal profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRA-TED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will re-ceive advice gratis in enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to the residence of Dr. Drake.

Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. jan6 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 82 Fulton street,

Manufacturers every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUSE, Hay, Flour and Portable Platform Stand, Gold and Counter

Spring Beam Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not liable to get out of order.

Manufactory 82 Fulton street, New York.

Also, For Sale at the Depot, Cornwall, Orange co., N. Y.

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

S. B. DE MOTT, J. SNYDER, J. SEARING.

Nov. 26, 1851.—1y

HOWE'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

	[IN MEN]
Rheumatism,	Sprains,	Weakness in the
Burns,	Bruises,	Back,	Breast,
Sore Throat,	Frosted Feet,	Joints & Limbs,
	[IN HORSES]
Bruises,	Sprains,	Weakness in the
Ringbone,	Spavin,	Foll Evil,	and all
Windhalls,	Scratches,	Fistula,	diseases of
Thoroughpin,	Strains,	Sore Throat,
Saddle Galls,	where an Embroca-tion can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY E. HOWE, CHEMIST,

No. 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Lin-iment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Moore, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Bur-ney McGarty, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel B. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander McConaughy, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton; Joseph Hemmitt, John A. Swart, Trenton. A. W. Brown, Bordentown; Jacob Campbell, Matawhen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIN CRAIG. In Somerville by Cutler Bro's. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

Ground Plaister,

A FRESH supply on hand, for sale at my mill.

STELLE RANDOLPH.

Green Brook, March 25th, 1852.

CARPETING,

At a great reduction from former prices.

JEFFERSON & HUMPHREY,

No. 301 Broadway, corner of White Street,

NEW YORK,

HAVE now in store a large and well selected stock of CARPETINGS, which they offer to the trade at very low prices. Purchasers will be accorded at the following extremely low rates, viz:

Royal Velvet Carpet, from 12s to 16s per yard.

" Tapestry " 9s to 12s "

" 3 Ply extra heavy, 7s to 9s "

" Ingrain, 5s to 7s "

" Good, all Wool, 4s per yard

OIL CLOTHS,

from 3 to 24 feet wide, at prices equally low.

MATTINGS,

4-4, 5-4 and 6-4, Plain, Fancy and Check; Stair Rods, Druggets, Table and Piano Covers, Rugs, Mats of all kinds, together with all other goods found in Carpet Stores, for sale full ten per cent less than any other Carpet Establishment in the City. We invite and challenge the whole trade to show such an extensive stock, at such low prices.

N. B. Stages From Courtlandt-street Ferry run by our store.

March 16, 1852.—3m.

PROLAPSUS UTERI

This malady arises primarily from a debilitated state of the muscles of the abdomen which by permitting gra-dual relaxation of the ligaments of the womb, with their weight upon the womb, inducing a falling condition of the organ (i. e. Prolapsus Uteri.) Secondarily from de-bility of the ligamentous bowel ligaments, the natural supporter of the womb which, being weakened, yield to the pressure of the bowels and suffer the falling to take place. The object of a supporter is to give an inward and upward direction to the displaced organ. Holdom's so as to cause them to sustain the weight of the bowels, and thus relieve the womb from the bearing down weight, and how to adapt it to every case requiring it. Bolster bracer, although unscalled supporters, for the abdomen is rounded, having its lower boundary placed between the hip bones. The Female Supporter has pincheon in lifting it are just inside of the tenas (Poupart's) liga-ments, dividing the thighs from the abdomen, and above the crous bone of the Pelvis. Consequently lying deeply the womb is held in its place, and the bowels kept back and not to be reached by a belt or brace pasting over it.

The Improved Supporter Pad invented and patented by the subscriber, is adapted to the figure of the abdo-men, having the lower part of the pad thicker and to produce two forces, by the one, the bowels are uplifted, and by the other borne inward toward the centre of the body, and so to support the womb, the bladder and rectum, by being impacted around them, giving their greatest lifting force from beneath upwards, and thus restoring the organ to its true position.

Holdom's Female Supporter Pad, invented by Frederick M. Butler, embodying the above requisites of configuration and adaptation, has been numerously tes-ted, and being in its fidelity to every case, hitherto applied, has been adopted in the Hull Truss Office.

The Supporter is completed with a Perineal strap, having a proper adjustment for fidelity to perform.

FREDERICK M. BUTLER, Proprietor

Office, No. 4 Vesey st., opposite St. Paul's church, N. Y.

Ladies attend by a female, having separate and distinct rooms for their accommodation. mDec8

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing astonish-ing healing properties, which is adapted to a larger class of diseases, in the fidelity to every case, than any rem-edy we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Coughs and Colds, we doubt if it has an equal: it is very good for Cholera, Bruises, Sprains, Rheumatism, Head-ache and Tooth Ache, Childbirth, Worms, Scarlet Fever &c. as a Cholera prevention or remedy it cannot be sur-passed. No one can appreciate the worth of this excellent medicine, till they have used it. We can use it in cases with great success, and do most cheerfully recommend it to those that are or may be afflicted, as a safe and har-mless remedy. It is highly approved of by many res-pectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge, Brooklyn, John Comstock, Brooklyn " H. P. Hopkins, Newark, John Hickbeck, Engineer " Prof. Whiting, Wmsburgh, Steamboat "Warren," Hon. J. Vanderpool, Long Island, Rev. Mr. Read St. Sprogue, Ex-Mayor, " Jordan Wooley, L. Branch Alderman S. L. Husted " David B. Salters, Bergen H. C. Coddington, M. M. " Assessor Kingsland, Bergen J. Dorland, ferry master " Addison Layne, New York David Travis, Somerstown, Jane McCullick, W. Market A. Wise, Ballshead hotel, Justice D. Hiscox, " Peter Hilton, Ferry, E. Farmer, " Joseph Chedick, W. Market, Rainer S. Veldrea, "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above certificate. Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.

FRANCIS B. STRYKER, Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 194 Walker street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING.

Jan. 2, 1852

"THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE,"

Is the Language of Scripture

DR. HALSEY'S

FOREST WINE.

From its own merits and great works, this wine is fast becoming the favorite medicine among every class of society. It is highly recommended for the gen-eral Debility, Nervous Affections, Consumptive Decline, Complaints of the Kidneys, Heart, Lungs, and above all for diseases arising from impure Blood and habit of the system. Many members of the Medical Faculty have sanctioned and adopted the use of it.

D. J. A. STANLY,

A celebrated Physician of Medicine from Princeton, New Jersey, dated November 10, 1849, declares that in all his experience he had never seen anything to com-pare with the Forest Wine and Pills, at the same time relating several cases of most distressing, deplorable and Scrofulous affections which it cured in an incredible short time. Among the members of the Medical Faculty of New York, who have witnessed the great results of the Forest Wine and recommended it in numerous com-plaints, will be found the names of the celebrated Dr. M. T. Goodman, Dr. S. I. Mott, Dr. L. Cheeseman, Dr. Chilton, Dr. William Brown, Dr. Marvin, Dr. J. M. Mo-reau, and others.

TESTIMONY

Of Johnson Burke, highly respectable citizen of Waverly Place, New York:

DR. G. W. HALSEY,—

Dear Sir,—I esteem the Forest Wine as the King of Medicines, and place it in the hands of all those that Physicians failed to do in as many years. In 1845, I became a victim of the Heart Disease and Nervous Affec-tions, which was fast bringing on me ever since, until I procured your Forest Wine and Pills. Although I had wasted several hundred dollars for medical attendance. During the last two years I was obliged to keep my bed most of the time, and was up but a few days in con-sequence of my ill health. I had lost nearly all hope of recovery, my complaint was of that class under which I cannot describe, but the coming on of the Heart. I saw your Forest Wine advertised I concluded to give it a trial, and before finishing the third bottle I felt like a different person, and was able to resume business again, entirely free from pain. Considering the great benefits those who are afflicted with similar complaints are sure-ly at liberty to publish this. Yours, &c.

JOHNSON BURKE, Waverly Place, N. Y.

HEMPSTEAD, Dec. 1, 1847.

Dr. Halsey:—A bottle of your Forest Wine and box of Pills, which I procured of Mr. James Carr, proved a great fact with me, for in a few weeks from use, I had been in a state of decline for more than a year, afflicted with a dreadful cough, pain in the breast, general de-bility, and loss of appetite. I became almost a skeleton, and had given up all hopes of recovery, and continued two months; my friends told me I had the consumption, and despaired of my recovery. I could not obtain any permanent relief from any medicine I had taken, or my physician, until your Wine and Pills were procured. The first dose of the Pills brought up from my stomach, much phlegm and greenish matter, and my stools were perfectly black. I then commenced taking the Forest Wine three times a day, my appetite began to return immediately, my cough left me, and in less than five weeks from the time I took the Pills, I now enjoy better health than I ever did before, having gained thirty pounds in seven weeks. Your Forest Wine and Pills are highly valued in this vicinity, and I owe my recovery entirely to their virtues.

Yours, respectfully, MARTIN CALDWELL.

Dr. Halsey's Office, No. 25 1-2 Spruce-st., New York. The Forest Wine in large square bottles, $1 per bottle; also bottles for half a dollar. The Forest Pills 25 cents per box. For sale by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. L. CRAIG, appointed Agents for Plainfield.

Sept. 9, 1851. 1y

HOMEOPATHY.

THE subscriber has just received a large assortment of Homeopathic Medicines, which he offers for sale at the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch st., Philadelphia.

The above Medicines are prepared by Dr. Jacobi, of the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch st., Philadelphia, and are warranted pure.

Dr. Jacobi has been engaged in the practice of Homeopathy for the last 15 years, and has been very successful in the treatment of Chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, Urinary Organs, Female Complaints, Diseases of the Skin, Scrofula, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Piles, Worms, Fevers, Inflammations, Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nervousness, Sick Headache, Fits, Epilepsy, Hysterics, Diseases of the Heart, Palpitation, Trembling, Fluttering at the Heart, Shaking or Suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Diseases of Wo-men, Pain or Weakness in the Back, Chest, Limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, con-stant longings for food, and Great Prostration of Spirits

THEY ARE PURELY VEGETABLE.

And Free from Alcoholic Stimulant, and all Injurious Ingredients.

And are pleasant in taste, and safe, and mild in their op-eration, and may be administered to the tenderest babe and give health and vigour to the frame.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, of Philadelphia, has had the means of obtaining the genuine recipes of the great med-icines of Dr. Jacobi, of the German Medicine Store, and has been prepared the very effects and same happy results, which the celebrated inventor indicated and intended, and con-sequently can recommend them to the afflicted.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the liver and lower glands, exercising the most search-ing power in the purification of the blood and all the or-gans, they are without rule, certain, and pleasant.

A Case in Camden.

A Bateman, Esq., at Elwell's Railroad Hotel, Camden, cured of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint of their worst forms. He had been very seriously afflicted for 2 years. We can last note his case here. Call and see him; you will pronounce his case a lost one.

Another Extreme Case.

Mr. George Wood, grocer, 317 Market st. cured of Disease of the Liver, and Chronic Diarrhea, of 10 years stand'g. He had been under the best medical treatment, and tried all the noted Mineral Springs of note throughout the Union, without permanent benefit, and was at last permanently cured by the use of a few bottles of "Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters."

JOHN MOORE, Esq. Editor of the "Daily News" said, October 31, 1849:

"Hoofland's German Bitters.—We are trying this re-nowned medicine in a stubborn disease of the bowels, and can only say that it is effecting a cure. We have used on 2 bottles, and we have derived more benefit than we derived previously from years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our best physicians."

The Most Pure Cures.

Philadelphia, 24 Nov. 20th, 1850.

Respected Friend: I had for several years been afflic-ted with Dyspepsia, and occasionally a General Debility, I accidentally tried thy medicine, the "German Bitters," in the first place, upon a daughter who herself was sickness. They "Hoofland's German Bitters" had such effect upon her general debility, that I was induced to try it myself. I then got a bottle, and used it according to directions, and it relieved me more than anything I had before used, giving tone and strength to the stomach and system. In fact I had a very unexpected of the Bitters, which continued for a time. My life, for a time, was despaired of. Thy Bitters again being used, acted very happily upon the stomach and intestines, and restored me to health. I am willing to certify to their general health to the system. I consider it, doctor, one of the most valuable medicine I ever used, and shall take great pleasure in recommending it to others.

Very respectfully thy friend, SAMUEL HUTTON,

No. 5 Jennings' Row, Catharine, above Third

Dr. C. M. Jackson, 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.

That this medicine will cure the foregoing diseases, no one can doubt who reads the above letters, for it has done so officially upon the Liver, Stomach and Nerves. It is preferable to calomel, in all B ilious Diseases; its effect is immediate, and it leaves no prostration of the system.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS

This medicine has attained that high character which it is necessary for all medicines to attain, to induce coun-terfeiters to put forth spurious articles, at the risk of the lives of those who are innocently deceived.

Look well to the Marks of the Genuine.

For the protection of invalids against fraud, the signa-tures of C. M. JACKSON, M. D. will be upon the outside wrapper, and his name blown in every bottle.

If Purchase once without these marks of genuine-ness; you are deceived.—OFFICE ADVICE given gratis upon all diseases.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at the principal depot,

GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

No. 120 Mulberry or Arch st. one door below 8th st., (formerly No. 21,) Philadelphia, Pa., and by respon-sible dealers generally throughout the United States, the Canadas and the West India Islands.

PRICES REDUCED!

To enable all classes of Invalids to enjoy the advantages of these Bitters at their great Restorative Power.

Single Bottles, 75 cts.—Three Bottles, $2,00.

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.

Aug. 11, 1851.—1y

Cheaper Yet!

THE Subscriber having a very large assortment of Goods on hand, and constantly increasing by New Arrivals, has resolved to reduce his stock by

Selling off at Unusually Low Prices;

And solicits a call from the public to examine for them-selves, and feels confident he will find it to

MORE GOODS FOR LESS MONEY,

Than at any other Store in the country.

Nov. 17, 1851. IRA PRUDEN.

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the Subscriber at low prices, a num-ber of Building Lots in the town of Plainfield, consisting from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on the Second, 3rd, 4th, Madison, Liberty and Williams sts.; a good chance for any one wishing to erect a Dwelling House will find it very convenient for the accommodation of their families; and is a valua-ble location, very nigh the centre of the business part of town, on the corner of Exchange and Second sts. a very desirable House and Store Tenement, Barn, &c. &c.

Aug. 19 1852—tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

OILS, TALLOW G. BA. E. AND OHIO MINERAL PAINT.

300 Barrels MACHINERY OIL, 75 cts per gall. 2500 Gallons do. in casks of various sizes, at same price.

200 Barrels BOILED PAINT OIL, 55 cts. per gall.

5000 Gallons do. in casks of various sizes, at same prices.

350 Barrels TANNERS' OIL. Various kinds and qualities, from 35 to 60 cents per gallon.

1500 Kegs TALLOW GREASE for Heavy Bearings, and Car Machinery, in barrels or casks, of any consistency required. Price 6 cents per lb.

150 Tons OHIO MINERAL PAINT, in barrels, at the lowest market price.

Machinery Oil, warranted not to chill in the coldest weather, and considered by those using it equal to Sperm Oil.

Boiled Paint Oil, equal to Linseed Oil, other than for white.

I am constantly receiving large supplies of the above named articles, and my motto is, "Small profits and quick returns."

E. P. POND,

56 Water st (under the Peart Street House,)

Dec. 22, 1851. NEW YORK.

Hope's Express.

For Newark, Elizabethtown, Westfield, Plainfield, Bound Brook, Somerville, White House, Clinton and Eas-ton.

Leaves New York daily at 9 o'clock, arriving at Plain-field at 10 1-2 o'clock. A. M. Leave Plainfield at 2 o'-clock, arriving in New York at 4 o'clock, P. M.

JOHN LAING, Agent in Plainfield.

A. D. HOPE, 41 Courtlandt-st., New York.

The Express has been systematized, and all orders will be executed with safety and despatch.

N. B. Also P. New 19, 1850.

Gentlemen's Furnishing Store,

NEW YORK.

One Door from the Corner of Fulton Street.

Embracing a general and complete assortment of White and Colored Shirts, Drawers, Under Shirts, Ties, Travelling Bags, Half Hose, Handkerchiefs, Trunks, Collars, &c., &c.

Together with a good assortment of

ENGLISH & GERMAN HOSIERY

Of all sizes, for Ladies and Children.

The public are invited to call, as the above business is conducted in that of our own prices only; for cash, and in proportion to the quality, as cheap as can be found at any other es-tablishment in this country.

The attention of gentlemen and ladies who desire to procure such articles on the best terms, is respectfully invited. THOMAS M'LAUGHLIN.

New York, March 5, 1852.

☞ Our FINE SHIRTS are cut by experienced hands and made up in a superior style, and when spe-cially ordered, will be supplied to fit the customer at short notice. mar16 1m.

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby in-formed that they can save the amount of their ad-ditional taxes, by paying the same to the Collector in Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times a large and well selected stock of Clothing, Cassimeres &c. cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than else-where; thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods of all kinds, of tailor's trimmings at a low price—also constantly on sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hos-iery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a first class Furnishing Store.

Friends will you favor us with a call before purchas-ing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves? We are de-termined to please every one, and nothing done at the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Plainfield, Dec. 1.

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Heart Corrector,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-Dyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Catharic Pills,
Nervuse,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific

Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil,

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of

Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Rheuma-tism, Piles, &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Plated Steel Spring Shoulder Braces.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF

Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Long Life.

This Book should be in every family. To the con-sumptive it points out the only REASONABLE hope for relief. To mothers, the directions it gives for the care and education of children are invaluable. 25,000 copies of this book have been issued through the press, and the sale continues unabated.

For Sale by S. S. FITCH & CO., 707 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

READ! READ! READ!

All Storekeepers and Druggists in General County, in the State of New Jersey, and the U. States, in con-sequence of the great demand, keep for sale

DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS.

Near 600,000 Boxes were sold the past year in the U. States, and near 30,000 box-es were sold in the state of New Jersey alone.

YOUNG AND OLD, MALE AND FEMALE, can always take these Pills with safety, without fear, IF PILLS BE SUCCESSFUL or purging or cleansing the stomach and bowels and pu-rifying the Blood and Guide of the body, take no others

For sale by druggists throughout the United States, who possess the unparalleled effect which contains no sarsaparilla in them.

Eat, Drink and Live as Usual!

and pursue your usual occupation whilst taking these, without fear of change of diet, as with all kinds of medicine.

FORTY PILLS ARE IN A BOX!

and sold at Twenty Five cents a box, with directions and wholesome advice accompanying each box.

The Pills are purely vegetable and mild.

Free from dust or powder of any kind.

Do not gripe the stomach or bowels.

Produce no sickness, nausea or feelings.

And adapted to most common casualties of mankind

BEWARE! BEWARE!

of other pills called by names nearly similar, represent-ed as the same or as good, 'tis a trick to impose on the public.

DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS are the safest, best and most efficacious Pills known.

Are Purely Vegetable and Mild.

☞ Principal Depot, Dr. LEIDY'S Dispensary, No. 114 North Fourth st. Philadelphia—and sold in every town in New Jersey.

BENJAMIN SANDY, Esq. is the Travelling agent for the state of New Jersey.

M. F. CUSHING, and E. KIRKPATRICK, Agents for Plainfield. July29-1y

AFTER THE RAID!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. L. A. TY,

No. 9, W. corner of 3d and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice upon which city has rendered Dr. L. the most expert and successful practitioner in and near to the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throughout legs, pains in the head or bones, mercurial rheumatism, strictures, diseases arising from youthful excesses or imprudence of the blood, which the constitution has become enfeebled are all treated with success.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. L. may reliably confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confi-dently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions or servants, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, should apply immediately. Weakness and constitutional debility, loss of muscular energy, physical lassitude and general prostration, nervousness, all nervous affections, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, and every disease connected in any way with the discharge of the procreative functions cured, and full vigor restored.

A LADY'S YOUTHFUL MANHOOD!

A Vigorous Life or Premature Death.

Kinkelin on Self Preservation! Only 25 Cents

This Book is filled with useful information on the in-firmities and diseases of the Generative Organs. It ad-dresses itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by every one desirous of avoiding the numerous ills and miseries which the constitution is heir to. The advice warning it gives will prevent years of misery and suffering and save annually thousands of lives. Perso-ns by reading it will learn how to prevent the destructi-on of their constitution.

A remittance of 25 cents, enclosed in a letter address-ed to Dr. Kinkelin, N. W. corner of 3d and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will secure a book, containing the above valuable information, or a distance may address Dr. K. by letter, post paid, and be cured at home. Boarding and Medicine, Directions, &c. forwarded to any part of the United States, packed so as to prevent from damage or curiosity.

Book-sellers, News Agents, Pedlars, canvassers, and all others supplied with the above books at very low rates.

Sept. 2, 1851.—1y

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 21. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, MAY 25, 1852. Whole number 801.

BY MILTON F. COSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 314 Broad-street, Washington Hall Buildings,

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical, lepine, verge and detached lever Watches; curb, polished and Swiss Guard Chains; fob and vest chains of all patterns; silver, shell and hair vest card cases; gold and silver enamelled, engraved and plain Pencils; ladies' single stone, cluster, and mosaic cameo, cornelian, jet, enamelled, mourning and plain Brooches; Gent's cluster, single stoned, enamelled and plain Studs; Finger Rings of all patterns; Ladies' plain gold, chain and hair Bracelets; Speactacle Snaps of all kinds; Ear rings of the latest styles; fancy enamel, ruby, emerald, hyacinth, and all styles of Breast Pins; gold lockets and Miniature Cases; Gold, Pens; Hearts and Crosses; gold Fob and Guard Keys; gold and silver Thimbles; silver Spoons and Butter Knives; gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Bonquet Holders, tablets, hair pins, scissors, knives, tea bells, purses, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, purse and bag clasps and slides, chess men and boxes, sabaquet boards, backgammon boards, letter folders, opera canes, pearl studs, twin buttons, watch stands, bugles, emerys, sealing wax, pen holders, microscopes, razors and razor strops, fancy combs, chess men, segar cases and snuff vases, perfumery of all kinds, tobacco and snuff boxes; tooth, hair, hat, nail, clothes and comb Brushes; silk guard chains; pocket books, a large assortment; Ladies' reticules, combs, pocket combs, scissor sheaths, pocket knife cases, Persian scent bags, smelling bottles, daguerreotype cases, medal and bracelet cases; steel, silk and gilt fob chains; shaving brushes, shaving boxes, &c.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

Piano Fortes from the best makers, Violins, Clarionette, Flutes, Flageolets, Bass Violins, Drums, Metronomes, Violin Bows, Accordeons, tuning forks; Violin, Violincello and Guitar Strings; Trimmings for all instruments; a large assortment of songs, duetts, quartettes, trios &c., comprising all the latest publications; also Instrumental Music, namely, waltzes, quick marchs, marches, rondos, duetts for four hands, and sacred songs; Guitar music. Instruction books for Piano Fortes, flute, fife, violin, accordeon, clarionet, flageolet, &c. &c. all as cheap as can be bought in New York, with a variety of other goods not enumerated in this catalogue, comprising the largest assortment.

WATCH REPAIRING AND CLEANING.

The subscriber, determined to give full satisfaction to those that employ him, has engaged a very superior workman from Switzerland, where he has been engaged for several years in manufacturing all kinds of watches, and is well skilled in repairing and cleaning watches, as testimonials from some of the First watch makers of the city of New York will testify.

Jewelry made to order. Old gold and silver taken in exchange. 48y

Wholesale and Retail

Wine and Liquor Store.

29 Fair Street, Newark, N. J.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has constantly on hand at the above old established stand, a full and choice supply of PORT-OPORTO WINES and Sherries, which he offers at the lowest cash prices, and delivered to order to any part of the city or country. Brandy of every grade, Moder's Swan Gin, Irish, Scotch and Monongahela Whiskies, Cordials and Bitters, Cash Ports, Madeiras, Malaga and Champagne Wines, Losey's Bitters, &c.

Philadelphia Bottled Porter and Pale Ale of the first quality; and every choice article of Bottled Cider (almost equal to Champagne) always on hand.

☞ A continuance of patronage is solicited.

March 1st, 1852.—3m LOUIS L. RELAND.

BOOTS, SHOES, CAPS & FURS.—No. 16 Church-st.

NEW-BRUNSWICK,

WILLIAM V. B. SCHENCK,

Successor to H. H. Schenck & Son,

Respectfully informs his customers and the public, that he still continues at the old stand, No. 16 Church street, and is now receiving a full and general assortment of Fall and Winter Goods, consisting of a large and well selected stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, viz.:

Ladies' Gaiter Boots and Shoes, Ladies' Jagged Boots. Boys' light and coarse Boots and Brogans.

A variety of Ladies' and Misses' Gaiters, Jenny Linds, Excelsiors, and other styles, of his own manufacture.

A general assortment of Children's Shoes, of all styles and colors.

CAPS—A general assortment of Men's and Boys' Cloth and Glazed Caps, of all patterns.

INDIA RUBBER SHOES.—Gentlemen's, Ladies' and Children's India Rubber Shoes, of all kinds.

FURS.—Ladies' Muffs, Victorines and Cuffs, White Dove, Fur Skins, &c.

All to be sold cheap for Cash.

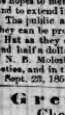
The undersigned, being thankful for the patronage heretofore received, respectfully solicits a continuance of the same.

New Brunswick, Dec. 15, 1851.—6m WM. V. B. SCHENCK.

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.



Is prepared to furnish articles in his line of the most desirable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued, and will pay great attention to orders & hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be supplied with as handsome and serviceable a Hat as they can buy in New York or Philadelphia, and half a dollar each cheaper.

N. B. Furs and Fur Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 23, 1851.—1y

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,

I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Goods on our counter so we lie,

To sell the lowest is our cry.

We paid the cash to buy them cheap,

We'll sell them right to sell a heap.

Ginghams and Muslins Calicos and Cords,

The newest styles we're sure affords;

Delaines and Gaiters, Calicoes too,

Colors of which we'll warrant true.

Cloths and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,

And all the goods which men do use;

Together with a good supply

Of groceries good which will defy

A class of men who live with us,

And twice a year make quite a fuss.

To go to Brunswick with their trade,

Of prices at home they are afraid.

We'll sell to these and all the rest,

For cheapest sum what suits them best.

With Brunswick prices we'll compete,

And she shall tremble in the boot;

So come and see, come short, come tall,

I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Plainfield, May 12, 1852

CAMPHENE AND BURNING FLUID—Of a very superior quality, put up for long voyages, in air tight hermetically sealed, and warranted to keep for 5 years by JOHN S. LOUNSBERY, 32 Barling Slip, N. Y.

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Square and Round Post, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, and Children's Chairs; Also,

Wash and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel do.

March 23, 1852. For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

The Quick-Temper'd Boy.

AN ONLY SON.

About fifty years ago, a boy was born in one of the cities of New England, whose life is a lesson to all the youth of the land, and whose story we are now going to tell for their warning and instruction.

John was a bright boy. He was sent to school early, and although he was not smarter than many others of his own age with whom he was studying, he seemed to take hold with quickness that gave promise of progress. John was known among his school-mates as a clever boy, but one who would get mad very quickly, and when he was mad, he was a dangerous boy to meddle with.

John was an only child. One would think that he would on this account have been watched with greater care, and the bad habits of his early years corrected, before they became so fixed and settled that they could not be broken up. But his parents let him do as he liked. If he wanted to stay home from school, they gave him leave to do so. If he wanted to follow the soldiers through the streets, they let him go. When he came to the table he helped himself to what he liked, and if his father or mother ventured to tell him that this was not good for him, or that he had enough already, he flew in a passion, and then they would give in to him to make him quiet. In this way, he soon found out that he was master of the house, and that his parents must do as he said. Perhaps you think this was all very pleasant for the boy, and wish that you could have your way in every thing. You dislike to be told that you cannot have this, and you cannot go there, when you have set your heart upon it, and you sometimes think your parents are very hard when they require you to do as they think best, and give you no reason for it. Well, John had no such parents. They had but this one child, and so they let him do as he pleased.

Often he came from school with a black eye or a bloody nose, having had a fight with some of the boys in the street, and then his mother was so sorry for her dear child, that some dreadful wicked boy in the street had been beating so terribly. She did not for a moment think that Johnny had been in fault. He was such a dear, good boy, that he could not have made the first attack—but they believed his story, that he was walking along the street, thinking about his lessons, when a great big boy came along and hit him in the face, tripped him up, and then ran off as hard as he could go.

These stories he was in the habit of telling to his parents, whenever he got into trouble. And they believed him, and never took any pains to find out the truth; he was not slow in learning to tell lies. He became a confirmed liar. Perhaps if his parents had punished him for getting angry so often, and had punished him more severely for the lies that he told to hide his faults, they might have saved him from those habits, or at least restrained them in a measure, so that he would not have led to such sad results in his after life.

When he was old enough, he was sent to college. Here, in the midst of young men of his own age, he was distinguished for his ungovernable temper, and often was seized and held fast when he was about to make an attack upon his companions. Such a young man was in a fair way to ruin. He had indeed after he was out of college, and, accustomed to being indulged in every thing that he desired, he gave himself up to the pursuit of pleasure, and plunged into every excess of vice. He returned home. His parents were now dead, and they had left little or nothing for his support. He was obliged to do something for himself. He had had the best advantages for education, and his learning was now all that was left to him. He became a teacher. He married, and a family was gathered around him. But the habits of youth were stronger than his love for wife and children. He spent all the money he could get in the indulgence of his passions. He had not been taught to restrain them when he was young, and now they governed him when he came to be old. But his talents, his education, and his manners gave him a high standing in society. Those who did not know his secret character, respected him as a man of learning and of taste, and his family were admired and loved by all who knew them.

To keep up appearances, and gratify all the desires of his bad heart, he wanted more money. He had a friend who had helped him often, to whom he was indebted for the place he held as a teacher, and which gave him money to support his prudence, and refrained from the indulgence of his sinful passions. But he wanted more money. His friend lent him more. It would have been kind to refuse him. But he had never been refused any thing. He always had his own way, and got what he wanted.

By and by, this borrowed money must be paid. He had no means to pay it. He promised to pay, but he always broke his promise. He had promised to rell lies when he was a boy, and it was easy to tell them now that he was a man. But his friend insisted upon it that his debt must be paid, and that, too, without any more delay.

He wrote to his friend to come to his study at a certain hour, and he would then pay him. His friend came, and there in the study, with the pies just by, he killed him!

He thought nobody would find it out. He hid the dead body, and went home to his wife and children as if nothing had happened. But his friend was soon missed. He had been seen to go into that room, and had never been seen to leave it. The room was searched, and the murdered man was found. The murderer was arrested in the midst of his family, and shut up in jail. He was tried and convicted, and sentenced to be hung. He then confessed his horrid crime, and added these words: "A quick temper has been a besetting sin of my life. I was an only child—much indulged—and I have never acquired the control over my passions that I ought to have acquired early, and the consequence is all this."

"What are the chief ends of man?" asked a Sunday-school teacher of one of his pupils.

"Head and feet," was the prompt reply.

The Welch language, says Cook's Musical Miscellany, however unpronounceable it may seem upon paper, may readily be uttered, if you speak out of both sides of your mouth at once.

Say as little as possible of yourself.—It is a good maxim, experience will show you.

ANECDOTES OF ANIMALS.

Dr. Pelican saw a party of rats around the bung-hole of a cask of wine dipping their tails in and then licking them. Mr. Jesse tells of rats who performed a similar feat with an oil-bottle. But this is nothing in comparison with the acuteness of Dugnadpre's monkey. Left with an open bottle of inflamed brandy, he sucked what he could from it with his tongue and fingers, and then poured sand into the bottle till the rest ran over. Le Vaillant, the African traveler, had with him dogs and a monkey. When the monkey was weary he leapt on a dog's back for a ride. One dog on such occasions quietly stood still. The monkey, fearing to be left behind, would presently jump off and hasten to the caravan: the dog, with studious politeness, took good care to give him precedence. An elephant—we must at once append one tale about the elephant, whose great sagacity makes him the hero of a thousand and one—an elephant belonging to an officer in the Bengal army, was left during the long absence of his master to a keeper; who, as even elephant-eaters will do, cheated him of his rations. When the master came home, the poor half-starved elephant testified the greatest joy; the keeper, in his master's presence, but of course, the full allowance of food before the elephant, who immediately divided it into two parts; one representing his short commons, which he devoured greedily; the other, representing the allowance which he had been defrauded of, for dinners, he left. The officer of course understood the hint, and the man confessed his breach of trust.

We must get rid of another story of an elephant; like the last, perfectly credible. Elephants have more sagacity than dogs, and of dogs few tales that are current are doubtful. This is the tale of an elephant in the Jardin des Plantes. A keeper used to study from the animals in the garden, and was minded once to paint the elephant. But of course he must paint him in an attitude; and even the sagacity of an elephant failed to understand that the artist wished him to keep his mouth open and hold his trunk. The artist therefore got a little boy, and intrusted to his care a bag of apples, which he was to throw into the elephant's mouth one by one, obliging him in this way to keep his trunk upturned. "Throw apples," says Mr. Broderip, "were numerous, but the painter was not a Landseer, and as he had not the faculty of seizing and transferring character with Edwin, a magical power and rapidity, the task was tedious. By the master's directions, the boy occasionally deceived the elephant by a simulated chuck, and thus eked out the supply. Notwithstanding the just indignation of the balked expectant, his good-nature checked his irritetable impatience; and, keeping his eye on the still well filled bag, he bore the repeated disappointment, crunching an apple, when it chanced to come, with apparent glee. At length the last apple was thrown and crunched, the empty bag was laid aside, and the elephant applied himself to his water-tank as if for the purpose of washing down his repast. A few more touches would have completed the picture, but with an overwhelming docuee from his well-adjusted trunk obliterated the design, and drenched the discomfitted painter. Having, by thispractica application of retributive justice, executed judgment on the instigator, the elephant, disdaining the boy, whom he regarded as the mere instrument of wrong, marched proudly round his inclosure, and trumpeting forth his triumph."

We have left that story in the identical words of its accomplished narrator. Mr. Thomson now shall tell us one in his way, which illustrates the faculty of imitation:—"An oran-otan, brought up by Pere Carbasson, became so fond of him, that wherever he went, it always seemed desirous of accompanying him; whenever, therefore, he had to perform the service of the church, he was under the necessity of shutting it up in a room. Once, however, the animal escaped, and followed the father to the church, where, silently mounting the soundling-board above the pulpit, he lay perfectly still till the sermon commenced. He then crept to the edge, and over looking the preacher, imitated all his gestures in so grotesque a manner, that the whole congregation were unavoidably led to laugh. The poor father, surprised and confounded at this ill-timed levity, severely rebuked their inattention. The reproof failed in its effect; the congregation still laughed, and the preacher, in the warmth of his zeal, redoubled his vociferations and actions; these the ape imitated so exactly, that the congregation could no longer restrain themselves, but burst out into a loud and continued laughter." Of course a friend stepped up to acquaint the preacher with the existence of a second person above the sounding-board, cooperating with him zealously. And of course the culprit was taken out by the servants of the church with a face expressive of insulted innocence.

There was a dog trained to run on errands for his master, and was trotting home one evening along a by-road, with a basket containing two pies for his master's supper, when two highway men dogs burst out upon him, and while he dogfully fought one, the other burglariously broke into his basket. The dog who was waylaid saw instantly that fighting would not save the pies; the pies must go, and it resolved itself into a question who should eat them. He at once gave up the conflict with the adversary; if the pies were to be eaten—among dogs, at least—his right was the best, so he immediately darted on the basket and devoured all that remained.

A story of an elephant again comes to the surface. At Macassar, an elephant-driver had a cocoanut given him, which he wantonly struck twice against the elephant's forehead to break it. The poor dog they were passing by some cocoanuts in the street exposed for sale. The elephant took up one, and began to knock it on the driver's head, the result, unhappily, was fatal. Elephants commonly discriminate so well, as to apportion punishment to the offense against them: they are considerate, merciful, and magnanimous. Another story of an elephant, we think, occurs in one of Mr. Broderip's books. A visitor to an elephant at a fair, having given to him one by one a number of good gingerbread nuts, thought it a good joke to end by giving him at once a bag full of the hottest kind. The elephant distressed with pain, took bucket-full after bucket-full of water, and the joker, warned of his danger, had barely escaped over the threshold before the bucket was flung violently after his departing figure. A year afterward, the foolish fellow came again, with gingerbread in one pocket and hot spice in the other. He began with the gingerbread, and then modestly substituted one hot nut. The moment it was tasted by the elephant, the old deed was remembered, and caught up into the air by his clothes; his weight tore them, and he fell, leaving the elephant his coat tails and some part of his trousers. The animal putting them on the floor set his foot upon them, and having deliberately picked out of the pockets and eaten all the cakes which he considered orthodox, he trod upon the rest, and threw the tails away.

A WOMAN IN CALIFORNIA.

We have before us a private letter from a lady, that a hard-working woman in California.—It would interest our readers, we have no doubt, as it has us, were we at liberty to publish it entire. The writer appears to keep a restaurant or eating-house, in a mining village. Among her visiters she accidentally discovered the son of an old Conneticut acquaintance, and finding he was endeavoring to induce his father and mother to visit California, she writes this letter to encourage them forward. After an introductory explanation of who she was, and where they became acquanted with each other, she goes on to say:

"I have made $18,000 worth of pies—about one-third of this has been clear profit. One year I dragged my own wood off the mountains and chopped it, and I have never had so much as a child to take care of me in the country. $11,000 worth I baked in one little skillet, a considerable portion by a camp fire, without the shelter of a tree from the broiling sun. But now I have a good cooking stove, in which I bake four pies at a time, a comfortable cabin, carpeted, and a good many "Robinson Crusoe" comforts about me, which, though they have cost nothing, yet they make my place look habitable. I also hire my wood hauled and chopped. I bake on an average about 1200 pies per month, and clear $200. This, in California, is not thought much, and yet, in reality, few in comparison are doing as well. I have been informed there are some women in our town clearing $50 per week at washing, and I cannot doubt it. There is no labor so well paid as women's labor in California. It is hard work to apply one's self incessantly to toil, but a few years will place you above want, with a handsome independency. I intend to leave off work the coming Spring, and give my business into the hands of my sister-in-law. Not that I am rich, but I need little, and I have none to toil for but myself. I expect to go home some time during the present year, for a short visit, but I could not be long content away from the sunny clime of this valley. A lovelier or more healthy climate could not be, and when I get a few friends about me, I think I shall be nearly happy again. I suppose C. C. B. has described the face of the country to you a hundred times; so I will conclude by wishing and hoping that you will be in California before you are pinched in at the North by the cold of another winter. If you should come, I should be obliged if you could find time to write me occasionally. Your old friend.—Boston Traveller.

L. A. S.

EDITING.

We often hear people express opinions relative to the matter of editing country newspapers; and some individuals who have leisure, books and opportunities, and who perhaps once in a year write a long article filled with the fruits of months of study and laborious investigation, point to it with all the self gratulatihn of a six months' pullet that has lain a good-sized egg, and all the regular editors as ninnies who cannot find time amid their multifarious duties to do the like every week. Now we know many editors who are necessitated to set a good share of their own type, work off edition, do up their papers, settle accounts, &c., during the day, and while others are asleep at night, they have liberty, if they feel like it, to eke out a few hurried jack-knife editorials, which they are themselves surprised to find appear as creditable as they do, by day-light.

Many of this class of editors pray, not as Ajax did for light, but for time. They conceive a thousand great ideas, they cherish high and noble aspirations, and they possess the opportunity, might clothe their thoughts in language as choice as Milton, and drag their sentiments out as long as the "alexandrine," which we read of in school books—they might elucidate subjects by the flow of numbers as smooth and sweet as the notes of an Æolian harp, or Pandian pipes in Arcadian groves; but the printer's devil—that dread presence—cries for copy, these sublimated visions vanish like dissolving views, and in their place appear such practicalities as stock markets, farm for sale, &c.—Meredith Bridge Democrat.

Wife.—Mistress—Lady.—Who marries for love takes a wife; who marries for the sake of convenience takes a mistress; who marries from consideration takes a lady. You are loved by your wife, regarded by your mistress, tolerated by your lady. You have a wife for yourself, a mistress for your house and its friends, a lady for the world. Your wife will agree with you, your mistress will accommodate you, your lady will manage you. Your wife will take care of your household, your mistress of your house, your lady of appearances. If you are sick, your wife will nurse you, your lady will inquire after your health. You take a walk with your wife, a ride with your mistress, and join parties with your lady. Your wife will share your grief, your mistress your money, and your lady your debts. If you are dead your wife will shed tears, your mistress lament, and your lady wear mourning. In your own heart, your death again marries your wife, in 6 months your mistress, and in 6 weeks or sooner, when mourning is over, your lady.

The House of Delegates of Virginia has passed a bill appropriating all of the tax on capital prescribed by the new constitution to purposes of primary and free school education.

It is said that during the late fire at Chilleothe, Ohio, the Catholic church was saved by Rev. W. H. Beecher, Presbyterian, who was the first to ascend to the roof with a bucket of water.

Men are always murmuring at the hardness of the world, yet how they dread to leave it.

There is one class of persons who easily keep out of debt,—those whom nobody will trust.

"SICK IS LIFE."

A clever, and, at the same time, fashionable mode of earning an honest penny, is to borrow a brace of babies, tie your arm in a sling, shut both eyes, and get a good-sized boy to lead you and your family "about town." You can readily earn "three dollars a day and roast beef," besides realizing a snug sum to lay by. Signor Hegapennini, who lately returned to Italy, has purchased an elegant chateau out of the proceeds of just such a fine speculation. Foreign misery is a better paying stock than home industry.

Sad!—The man that was kicked by a sawhorse last week, was obliged to submit to an amputation. His trowsers' legs were taken off just above his boots. His case is a sad one.

Remember.—An unlucky word dropped from the tongue cannot be brought back by a coach and six horses.

The new depot of the New York and New Haven Railroad, now constructing in New York, will cost $75,000, and is the largest building of the kind in the United States.

Fifty sewing-machines, driven by steam, are now in daily operation in New York. By the aid of the sewing machine, one girl can do the work of ten.

A few days ago, a gentleman belonging to the University of Oxford, undertook, for a wager, to row a mile, run a mile, and ride a horse a mile, within eighteen minutes. The first two events occupied fifteen minutes, and the last he succeeded in accomplishing in two minutes and forty-nine seconds, thus winning the wager with eleven seconds to spare!

The gold-fields of Australia are supposed, by the royal commissioners to extend over a surface of two hundred thousand square miles, to be capable of furnishing profitable employment to one hundred thousand men, and of yielding ultimately forty millions of dollars a year.

One million and a quarter of gold from California was melted on Thursday of last week, between seven and three o'clock, in the melting department of the mint in Philadelphia. This is the largest amount ever melted in one day since the establishment of the mint.

"A worthy, but poor minister," writes a friend from the country, "requested a loan of fifty dollars from the cashier of our bank; and in the note requesting the favor, he said he would "pay in ten days on the faith of Abraham." The cashier returned word that by the rules of the bank, the endorser must reside in the State."

A stranger from the country observing an ordinary roller rule on the table, took it up, and on inquiring its use, was answered, "It is a rule for counting houses." Too well bred, as he construed politeness, to ask unnecessary questions, he turned it over and over, and up and down repeatedly, and at last, in a paroxysm of baffled curiosity, inquired, "How, in the name of wonder, do you count houses with this?"

Upon coming into the office the other day, we asked the "devil" his rule for punctuation.—Said he, "I set up as long as I can without a breath, then put in a comma; when I gape, I insert a semicolon; when I sneeze, a colon; and when I want another chaw of tobacco, I make a paragraph." We cannot withhold these rules, so admirable for their simplicity, from the public.

A countryman stopped at a tavern and called for some bread and cheese. It was handed to him. He soon discovered that his cheese was made from the bluest skim milk, and had a chip. He put a slice of it upon his fork, and attempted to melt it, but found that in pot-ble. During this effort the landlady entered the room, when the traveller remarked:

"I say, madam, this is brave cheese of yours."

"Brave!" Why? replied the landlady."

"Because," returned the traveller, "it will sooner burn than run."

Thou canst not joke an enemy into a friend, but thou mayest a friend into an enemy.

Farmer's sons had quite as leam to hold the plow and feed the pigs, than to measure tape and count buttons.

Poultry.—A gentleman informs us that on the first of May 1851, he had 10 hens, valued at 3s, each, and that the cost of their feed till May 1st, 1852, was $8,47. They produced eggs amounting to $21,62, and all of them are still alive, so that his clear profits are $13 15 for the year.

Rise of Labor.—The leading article in the January number of Blackwood's Magizine, is by the celebrated Alison, Alison. In it he predicts the happiest results as likely to follow the recent gold discoveries—both in California and Australia. He says the consequences of an annual supply of $1,000,000,000 will be indescribable in increasing the happiness of mankind. The changes will come gradually, he thinks, but come they will, as sure as any change produced by fixed laws.

There is a Quaker in Philadelphia so upright that he wont sit down to his meals.

Those who take off their gloves to shake hands should take off their boots when they kich a man.

As a fact in favor of deep tillage, General Tillage, General Harman, of Monroe Co., N.Y., who has, perhaps, devoted more attention to wheat culture than any other man in the country, stats that he has traced wheat roots to a depth of four feet; and yet one half the land upon which wheat is sown, is not ploughed four inches deep.

An honest man is believed without an oath, for his reputation swears for him.

A tailor who in skating fell through the ice, declared that he would never again leave a lot goose for a cold duck.

Men are queer people; not over one out of a dozen will do what is for his own good, unless he is forced to it.

A correspondent of the Piscayune paper is afflicted with such a severe cold in his head that he can't wash his face without freezing the water.

Mrs. Rallings recently advertised for assistance, under the head of "Milliner Wanted." A day or two after, a tall, full grown Yankee from Vermont, presented himself as a candidate for the place, and when some doubts were expressed as to his acquaintance with the business, he resolved them at once by assuring the lady that he had tended mill a great many years.

THE UNION

Plainfield, N. J. May 25, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

THE NEW JERSEY WHIG STATE CONVENTION, Will meet at Trenton on Wednesday, June 2nd, to appoint delegates to the National Convention at Baltimore, June 16th.

The Somerset County Board of Freeholders met on Wednesday, the 12th inst. John I. Todd, of Bridgewater, was chosen Director ; John N. Hoagland, of Franklin, Clerk ; Wm. D. Stewart, of Warren, County Collector ; Dr. C. C. Hoagland, and Rev. R. K. Rogers, County Examiners for Teachers. The County expenses last year were about $10,000 ; the present debt, $9000. $12,000 county tax was ordered to be raised the ensuing year.

The Board of County Examiners will meet to examine teachers, in Warren township, at Allen's on Monday, May 31st, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

In Bernards, at Baskenridge, on Friday, May 28th, same hour.

New York.—The 33 delegates from New York to the Whig National Convention, will stand about 27 for Scott and 6 for Fillmore. As this is by elect two other delegates, that will of course; make two more for Scott.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The Daniel Webster arrived at New York on Sunday evening, 16th inst. with 305 passengers, $ 00,000 in gold, and 11 days' later news from San Francisco, to the 16th of April.

The Illinois, with 320 passengers, the mails, and $1,500,000 in gold, arrived Monday morning. On Tuesday morning, the Sierra Nevada arrived, with about 250 passengers and $400,000 in gold. The El Dorado arrived on Wednesday morning, with 40 passengers.

The mining news is remarkably encouraging, particularly in the quartz veins.

We have sad accounts of the renewed hostility of the Indians. At a battle on the Klamath, April 12th, 40 Indians were killed and 2 white men wounded. At San Diego, a party of 7 men were captured by a large body of Indians, and all killed. They are getting bolder and bolder.

604 Chinese arrived at San Francisco in one day, and 522 on another day.

During the month of April, up to the 18th, $3,419,847 had been shipped from San Francisco.

The Panama Railroad is open to a point eight miles below Gorgona. The Illinois came from Aspinwall, at this end of the road to New York, in 7 days and 10 hours, running time ; the quickest yet.

THE MARYLAND WHIG CONVENTION, held last Thursday adopted resolutions regarding the Compromise Measures as a final settlement of the slave question ; approving the administration of Mr. Fillmore, and declaring him their first choice : also that they would support any nominee of the National Convention, if known to be in favor of the Compromise Measures : and endorsing the wise maxims of Washington respecting the foreign policy of our country.

The Somerville papers state that a boy was run over by the cars on the Central Railroad, recently, near Clinton. He had both legs cut off and died shortly after the accident.

The East N. J. Baptist Association will hold its meeting at Piscataway, on June 1st. Opening sermon by Rev. J. Hall, of Hoboken, or the alternate, Rev. J. S. Parker. The Sunday School Convention connected with this Association will be held at the same time and place.—Addresses are expected from Dr. Hague, Wm. D. Ilines, and others.

Congress.

In Senate, on Wednesday, the Deficiency Bill was amended so as to appropriate to the Collins steamers $33,000 for each trip, 26 to 21, and will probably pass in this shape.

Splendid Harness.—We saw last week the finest single Harnes, both in materials and workmanship, we ever noticed. It was manufactured by Mr. Frazee, of this place, for a customer of his in New York ; and conclusively proves that our mechanics can produce an article, which both in beauty and strength, must give entire satisfaction to the aristocracy of the Empire City.

Kossuth reached Albany last Tuesday by Railroad, and was received by several State and City authorities at the Depot. Great enthusiasm was manifested, and Kossuth was welcomed by Mayor Perry and Gov. Hunt, to whom he briefly and appropriately replied.

There are now living in the counties of Somerset, Middlesex and Monmouth, three brothers and one sister by the name of Hoagland, whose united ages amount to three hundred and twenty four years, averaging eighty-one years each—their ages being 87, 81, 79 and 77—the youngest of whom is General Herbert, of this township, with whom we are well acquainted. Curiosity prompted us to make some inquiries relative to their mode of living, &c. The brothers, we were informed, were men of active business habits, not indulging to excess in the use of intoxicating drinks, tobacco, or any other narcotic.—Fredonian.

The Jersey City Common Council have had 171 ballotings to elect a Mayor, and have as yet been unable to choose one.

☞ Precept and example, like the blades of a pair of scissors, are admirably adapted to their end when conjoined ; separated they lose the greater portion of their utility.

THE SOURCE OF THE NILE.—Bayard Taylor, one of the editors of the N. Y. Tribune, is now in Egypt, on his way to Ninevah. He ascended the famed river Nile, and its principal branch, the White Nile, for 2000 miles, to about 13 degrees N. latitude. Even there the river is a mile and a half broad, with a deep and rapid current. He had good reason to suppose, from information obtained there and elsewhere, and from his own observation, that the Nile rises in a high mountain 2 or 3 degrees south of the Equator, and is in all some 4000 miles in length, making with the Mississippi and the Amazon, one of the three largest rivers on the globe. He writes, that if he had the means, he would solve the great problem, by ascending it to its source somewhere in the unknown and unexplored regions of Central Africa. He found the country most densely inhabited, and vegetation most luxuriant.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Collins steamer Atlantic arrived at New York on Sunday evening, 16th inst. a little over 11 days from Liverpool, with 66 passengers and 4 days' later news.

The British steamer Africa arrived Thursday morning, with about 60 passengers, and 3 days later news. Her passage less than 12 days. Her last passage to Liverpool was made in 10 days and 11 hours.

Cotton had advanced during the week 1-8d. with large sales. Flour and wheat declined ; corn remained unchanged.

Ireland.—Electioneering is going on with great spirit, solely between Catholics and Protestants.

Sales of encumbered estates continue to take place. The sales are generally at about sixteen years' purchase.

The agricultural report of the Belfast Mecury says : "It is probable that not less than 250,000 acres will be under potato crop in Ulster by the second week in May."

France.—It is confidently expected that Louis Napoleon would ere long declare himself emperor. A great fete was to occur May 10.

Germany.—The famine occasioned by the failure of the potato crop last year, occasions great distress in many sections. Trade also is at a stand still ; of 18000 looms in one province, not half are at full work. To consummate their wretchedness, whole herds of cattle and sheep are killed by a rapidly spreading disease.

IN ITALY, Piedmont in Sardinia excepted, every 114th man of the population is said to be in prison. Every 400th man of the population is in exile. The ratio would be higher in France, higher still in Hungary, higher still in Poland higher still in Hesse or Baden.

The celebrated President of the criminal court Navarra, died on the 22d ult. His sufferings were extreme, and the Neapolitans look upon his painful death as a visitation of divine Providence

The Baltic sailed from New York for Liverpool on Saturday, 15th inst. with 172 passengers, all that she could accommodate, and $75,000 in gold.

The Europa sailed on Wednesday, with 120 passengers, and $375,000 in gold and silver.

The Washington sailed on Saturday with 70 passengers and $30,000 in specie ; for Southampton and Bremen.

☞ SARTAIN'S MAGAZINE for JUNE has been received, and in all respects equal to any of its predecessors. This number closes the first volume of the present year, and with the July number, which commences a new volume, will make its appearance about the first of June ; a rich treat is promised to the readers of the work. T. H. Chivers, a writer well known to the American reader, will furnish a series of papers, entitled "the Romance of American History." Mr. Headley will commence the series in the July number with an illustrated life of General Andrew Jackson, which will be continued through some four or five numbers of the work, and will be followed by other articles devoted to the most distinguished men who have added lustre to the annals of the nation. This feature of itself will, no doubt, double the subscription list of this popular magazine in a very short time.

Sartain offers a large premium print to all new subscribers. Now is the time to make up Clubs. A specimen copy can be seen at this office.

TERMS.

One copy of the Magazine and one print,	$3
Two copies of the Magazine and 2 of the print,	5
Five copies of the Magazine and five of the print, and an extra copy of each work to the getter up of the Club	12
Or, we will supply the work at 20 cents a number, free of postage, without the print, at this office.

In Germany, the shad is taken by means of nets to which bows of wood are affixed, hung with a number of small bells, which are attached in such a manner as to chime in harmony when the nets are moved. The shad, when once attracted by the sound, will not attempt to escape while the bells continue to ring.

Great Age.—A letter from the Rev. Lewis Raymond, dated Chicago, April 5, says: "You have probably noticed the death of Mr. David Kennison the last survivor of the 'Boston Tea Party.' He died on the 24th, of February, and was buried on the 25th, with military honors. His age was one hundred and sixteen years, three months, and seven days. By his own request, the service of this preached his funeral discourse. He was a good man, and had been a professor of religion for seventy years."

Do you know that those who cry the loudest have generally the least to sell ?

Not so very Much.—The statement that a ton of gold had been collected by the Governor of Van Dieman's Land; and awaited in his tent the sailing of a ship to England, has challenged the belief of many, who thoughtlessly see in " a ton of gold" an untold sum of wealth. Such will be surprised when we assure them that it amounts to but $540,000.

Louis Napoleon was forty-four years old, on the 20th of April. His salary is $6,330 per day.

Recently a woman by the name of Coyle, in North Providence, while in the act of catching her child, a little girl, who had ran from her, fell down stairs and broke her neck, causing instant death.

A woman residing in Decker Township, Indiana, was recently shot and killed by her son-in-law, whom she approached, disguised as an apparition, for amusement!

The Massachusetts Legislature last week passed a Liquor Bill similar to the Maine Law ; but it was vetoed by the Governor. The Legislature passed it again, with amendments, which the Governor signed. It goes into operation in 60 days.

A barn was set on fire in Newark, on Tuesday night, which was consumed with a horse and wagon. Total loss $300 ; no insurance.

They intend to have a Brigade parade at Newark on the 21st of June ; they will probably muster about 15 companies and over 500 men, and it will probably be a brilliant affair.

☞ At this term of the Court at Newark, 12 persons were sentenced to the State Prison.

Jenny Lind gave two concerts in New York last week, which were attended by overflowing houses, and brought in some thousands of dollars. She will give one or two more this week, and sail for Europe on Saturday.

The hills and mountains in the vicinity of Haverhill, N. Y. were profusely covered with snow on Thursday morning.

The British Army Despatch, in a discussion of the militia bill which was recently introduced into the British Parliament, thus incidentally allludes in a complimentary manner, to the militia of the United States :

"In the militia of the United States the greatest enthusiasm prevails. The drill is perfect, and rewards and medals are continually given for shooting at a mark. Some of the local governments furnish them with arms, or money, if they like to compound and expend something themselves in handsomer equipments. It is true that the regular army of the United States is small—not so small, however, as Mr. Gibson states—but America is a long way from France, and a country which for her infancy resisted England, is not likely to be invaded from afar. The truth is, America is at this moment a country whose population is under arms. Would that we were !"

Gold in Wisconsin.—Several lumps of gold were discovered in a ravine in the village of Mineral Point (Wisconsin) on Saturday the 1st inst., worth from $2 to $4. On the Monday following, half the town turned out to search for the "hidden treasure," and in a short time found a "lead," containing gold, silver and diamonds, and before noon, $200 worth of these precious metals were taken from the earth.

The Maryland House of Delegates last Tuesday passed a bill, prohibiting the circulation of notes of a less denomination than $5, and it is now the law. It prohibits the circulation of foreign small notes after October next, and those of their own Banks after next March.

Quakerism is favorable to longevity, it seems. According to late English census returns, the average age attained by members of this peaceful sect in Great Britain is fifty-one years, two months and twenty-one days. Half of the population of the country, as in the world over is but thirty-three years. Quakers, therefore, live a third longer than the rest of us. The reasons are obvious enough. Quakers are temporate and prudent, are seldom in a hurry, and never in a passion. Quakers, in the very midst of the week's business, (on Wednesday morning) retire from the world, and spend an hour or two in silent meditation at the meeting-house. Quakers are diligent ; they help one another, and the fear of want does not corrode their minds. The journey of life to them is a walk of peaceful meditation. They neither suffer nor enjoy intensely, but preserve a composed demeanor always. Is it surprising that their days should be long in the land ?

Sleeping in Church.—It is a matter of record that, about one hundred years ago, an Indian was conducted by a pious Deacon to witness the service of the sanctuary on the Lord's day. When the services were ended, the citizen, on their way h meward, in order to impress upon his tawny friend th superiority of Christianity over heathenism, entered into a detail of the money appropriated by the congregation of which he was a member for the support of public worship, the erection of the house, the salary of the minister, &c. To all this the son of the forest who had observed the drowsy disposition which prevaded the assembly, " Umph ! Indians sleep just as sound under the tree, and not pay any thing."

The Boston Times thinks that the most difficult passage in the Scriptures to understand, is the passage of the Israelites over the Red Sea. So thought Pharaoh and his mighty host.

SERVANTS.

A GREAT variety of well selected Servants are now wasting employment at C. MASON'S Office, 556 Broadway, and 145 Bowery, New York.

Private Houses or Hotels supplied with Servants one year for 50 cents, or with a Servant for 25 cents. Subscriptions respectfully solicited.

N. B.—Men and Boys can be had for any respectable employment without extra charge ; no exertion spared to render satisfactory.

New York, May 24, 1852.—1m.

THE STAMPEDE MIXTURE,

A PERFECT BOLT OF NEVER-FAILING CURE FOR FEVER AND AGUE.

AND OTHER BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, AND ON WEAKNESS.

This Medicine is a Vegetable Compound, and can in no possible manner be classed with nostrums of the day.—The proprietor Dr. Edward Bleecker, is well known as a Physician, and his medicine have been ably and fairly discussed, and fully tested in private practice as a sovereign remedy for Chills and Fever.

CERTIFICATES

NEWARK, April 10th, 1852.

MR. G. BRUSH—Dear Sir : Having used Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture, for the cure of Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, &c., of which you are Agent, it gives me pleasure to state that I have experienced the most beneficial results from it. I have tried many so-called remedies, among the rest Dr. Osgood's Cholagogue, without affording me any relief. I was afflicted with the Dumb Ague for more than a year ; I tried one bottle of your medicine and it effected a perfect cure. In fact I consider it the best health in my life. Any person desirous of knowing the particulars in the above case, can obtain them by calling at my place of business where they will be cheerfully given.

GEO. V. HANKINS, 314 Broad st., Newark, N. J.

NEWARK April 10th 1852.

MR. G. BRUSH—Dear Sir : It gives me pleasure to learn that you have accepted the Agency for that justly celebrated medicine, Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture for the cure of Fever and Ague, and Chills and Fever, and General Weakness, &c. I have tried it, and it effected a perfect cure when all others failed. I cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted with the Fever and Ague, as a most excellent medicine, and one that must naturally come into general use.

MARTIN J. YATES, Firm of Pill & Yates, corner River and Centre sts., Newark. N. J.

DR. LEWIS CRAIG, Agent for Plainfield. my18d6m

NEW GOODS.—Brooks' Royal Patent 6 cord cotton thread, warranted, wound on an improved principle. I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by my4 JAS. M. DUNN.

New York Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Wheat Flour,	$4,00 to 4,31
Rye Flour,	3,25 to 3,31
Indian Meal, Jersey,	3,25 to 3,25
Grain—Wheat,	1,02 to 1,02
Rye,	72 to 74
Corn,	62 to 65
Oats, Jersey,	40 to 42

☞ Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared and sold by Dr. Jackson, at the German Medical Store, 120 Arch street, Philadelphia, daily increase in their well deserved celebrity, for the cure of all diseases arising from derangement of the liver. These Bitters have, indeed, proved a blessing to the afflicted, who show their gratitude by the most flattering testimonials. This medicine has established for itself a name that competitors, however wiley their schemes or seductive their promises, cannot reach. It gained the public confidence by the immense benefits that have been derived from it, and will ever maintain its position.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Cathartic Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

ANOTHER CURE OF CONSUMPTIVE COUGH!

New York, Sept. 9th, 1851.

Gentlemen :—In consequence of indiscreet exposure in the month of February, 1851, a severe Cough set in upon my Lungs, and I soon began to feel all those symptoms which are usually regarded as premonitory of Pulmonary CONSUMPTION. Cough Mixtures and Tinctures, prescribed by my Physician, did me no good and other remedies I knew equally ineffectious. My Cough was pronounced Consumptive, decidedly so. I had heard before of Dr. Rogers' Syrup of Liverwort, Tar and Canchalagua, and said to the Doctor I wished to try it. The reply was : "It will do you no good, though I presume it can do you no harm." So I did try it, and it saved my life ! I have no hesitation in stating this to be my firm conviction, and am ready to avow it freely to any one you may refer to me for information, and also to state particulars, which I have not time to give at this present writing. FRED. BURRIGH, No. 165 Orchard st.

To A. L. Scovill & Co.

CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on the half wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. L. SCOVILL & CO.

For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Dothie Hall, 316 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.

Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING

PRICE—In large bottles, $1.00, or 6 bottles for $5.00.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

Building Com. Baptist Church, New Market, $7,00 ; Rev. Geo. Sheldon, 2,00 ; Miss Jewett, 1,25 ; Otto Van Tuyl, Martinville, 1,12 ; C. L. Waldron, do. 1,00 ; J. H. Mallette, Warrenville, 1,12 ; John Grierson, 1,00 ; Mr. Marsley, 75 ; Jos. Annin, Esq. 75 ; Wm. H. Terry, 75 ; Charles Taylor, 50.

TYPE AND PRINTING MATERIALS.

NEW BUILDING, No. 29 BEEKMAN STREET,

Between Nassau and William Street,

near the City Hall, Park, and Post Office Hotels.

THE undersigned beg respectfully to inform their patrons and the trade, that they purpose moving on the first of May, to their new building, No. 29 Beekman street, between Nassau and William street. They trust, from the facilities there offered by every modern improvement, to meet a continuance of liberal support. Twenty plain Scotch faces, ranging from 100 lbs. to 1,000 lbs. weight will be on hand, as well as a varied assortment of Fancy Letter, and every article necessary for the furnishing of complete printing offices.

The subscribers would beg to call the attention of the trade to their metal, which for durability has not been surpassed, if equalled, by any foundry in the U. States. By a peculiar process, recently arrived at from an experience of 30 years, they are enabled to cast type which they feel assured will last one third longer than that heretofore furnished by any foundry in the country. In proof of this, they would state that the last dress of the New York Herald has a upward of one year, averaging a daily circulation of the year, including Sundays, besides extras, of 82,000 copies, and this on their rotary cylinder presses—thus evidencing exclusively the fact of durability.

JAMES CONNER & SON,

Nos. 25 Ann street, corner Nassau.

☞ Editors and Publishers of newspapers giving the above 3 insertions prior to the 1st of Aug. 1852., and sending us a copy of the same, will be paid for it in our materials, by purchasing four times the amount of their bill for advertising. my24tw

JOHN JELLIFFE'S OLD ESTABLISHED

Furniture Warehouse,

301 & 303 Broad Street, Newark,

Great Improvements in his Store.—New Spring Goods.

MR. J. having remodelled and enlarged his Warerooms is happy to say he is now ready to provide visits ; and invitations are herewith respectfully tendered to friends, patrons, and all in the pursuit of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, to call and see his wares. Having entered to the wants, convenience, and luxury of Essex county in the manufacture of Furniture for the last fifteen Years,

In the way of Cabinet Furniture, and his wares having received satisfactory tests during that time, he does not consider it necessary to say more as to the quality of his goods. They speak for themselves in the comforts and the solid utility universally accorded them. He would invite attention to his

NEW SPRING STYLES,

And, without egotism, he considers his FINE LARGE ROOMS contain the

Largest, Most Complete and Extensive Assortment

That can be found in the State, and for beauty of design and neatness of execution, he challenges competition. They are got up in the most substantial

ANCIENT AND MODERN STYLES,

Comprising all the varieties of useful and fancy wood's, in suites or otherwise, of Parlor, Chamber, Library, Hall, Dining and Dining Room, and Kitchen Furniture usually called for, including Mattresses, Palliasters, and Cushions of all descriptions.

Churches, Halls, Counting Houses, Offices, &c. &c. furnished at short notice.

Cheap, Cheap, Very Cheap Furniture ! !

No necessity of going to New York, or the Junk Shops for cheap Furniture, as I will sell you the same goods just as cheap, and you will be saved the expense of carriage, freight, breakage, and handle of going after it.

A Large Stock of Very Low-Priced Furniture.

Sofas within $29 ; Mahogany Chairs $2,50 ; Cane seat do. $8,00 ; common do. $1,50 ; Card Tables $7 ; Bedsteads $2. Looking Glasses at all prices. Every thing else in the same proportion.

JOHN JELLIFF, 301 and 303 Broad st.

May 3, 1852.—2m. NEWARK, N. J.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE, SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER.

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Tilsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods in his line. He also

Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute all orders in all the branches of the Saddle business, as well as quick and as low as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and see for yourselves.

May 17, 1852.—tf

Hoover's Black Ink.

THE Best in use. For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any thing we can eat, or do anything with, taken in exchange for goods.

I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

The N. Y. journeymen horseshoers have struck for 14 shillings per day.

A lake, one hundred miles in circumference, heretofore unknown to the whites, has been discovered within fifteen miles of St. Anthony.

On Monday, the truck belonging to Mr. Merrill, of Nashville, containing $12,000 in gold dust, from the Robert Rogers, was fished up from the bottom of the Ohio river.

The Norfolk Beacon says that the U. S. steamer Saranac will shortly sail from Pensacola for Nicaragua and Costa Rica, conveying an agent of our own Government, and the British Consul General, having for their objebt the adjustment of our difficulties, so far as the United States and Great Britain are concerned, and with every prospect of the most favorable results.

When a Dutch maid-servant wishes to go to a dance, and has no swain of her own, she hires a cavalier for the occasion; a beau with an umbrella receives double pay.

A gentleman presented a lace collar to the object of his adoration, and in a jocular way said "Do not let any one else rumple it."—"No, dear," said the lady, "I will take it off."

I. S. DUNN,

HAVING taken up his residence in the place near the railroad in Centre street, nearly opposite Rev. D. T. Hill's, offers his services to the public generally, as a practical Surveyor and Clerk, by the week, day or job, on reasonable terms. Deeds, Mortgages, Leases, Wills, and other Legal Instruments carefully drawn.—He will attend ventues, take inventories, and receive all similar orders, at his residence, at any time, excepting the evening after 6th day and on 7th Day. Having had considerable experience, he hopes to give satisfaction.

Plainfield, May 10, 1852.—1m I. S. DUNN.

Administrator's sale.

THE Subscriber, Administrator of the Estate of A. BRAHAM PARKER, deceased, will sell at Public sale, on Saturday, the 12th day of June next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. on the premises, the Real Estate belonging to said deceased, viz.: one Two-story House with L, Barn, situated on the east corner of Second and New Streets, in Plainfield.

Any information that may be wanted in reference to said property, will be cheerfully furnished by calling on the subscriber, on Smith St., near the premises.

SALE POSITIVE. ZACHARIAH WEBSTER, Plainfield, May 6, 1852. Administrator.

SELECT SCHOOL.

MISS JEWETT, who has had much experience and success in teaching, will open in Second st. near Mechanic, on Wednesday the 12th inst. a

SELECT SCHOOL.

For Girls and Young Ladies, in which will be taught all the branches of a thorough and finished English Education, together with the Latin and French Languages.

Application may be made at Rev. Mr. Sheldon's, Second street.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—tf

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES FACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 20 cents a piece, (sizing the walls and paste included.) Second door South of Cook & Hollis, &c. Satin Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to 84 per piece. A Room papered in 4 hours.

N. B. A Specimen Book of Paper Hanging Manufactures sent to any part of the United States.

Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852.

FARMERS' AND PLANTERS' BOILER OR LAUNDRY KETTLE.—A new article, designed for the use of farmers, planters or manufacturers, or for any purpose where the common cauldron has heretofore been used. It consists of a stove or fire box of cast iron, having long wood, brush or chips, to which a cauldron is so adapted that the flame is spread in a thin sheet around the bottom and sides of the kettle, equally and evenly portion of the fire surface at the same time, thus greatly economising in the use of fuel, and ensuring the utmost expedition in its operation. For sale by

May 17, 1852.—1m* HENRY BENT, Jr. 238 Water Street, New York.

A CHOICE ASSORTMENT OF

GARDEN, FIELD and FLOWER SEEDS,

—WHOLESALE AND RETAIL—

WILLIAM CAIRNS

INFORMS his friends and the public that he has succeeded Mr. John Kedie, in the Seed Store, 141 Maiden-lane, New York.

W. C flatters himself that his long experience in the Seed business, and the facilities he has of procuring the best quality of SEEDS grown in this country and in Europe, together with unremitting and strict attention to business, will secure to him a liberal share of patronage.

W. C has late in his stock of new seeds for the season, to which he invites the attention of purchasers.

Catalogues forwarded to post-paid applications.

Greenhouse Plants, Fruit, Ornamental Trees, &c. furnished to order. New York reference by unknown correspondents.

N. B.—Jobbing punctually attended to by the day, month or year, to practical men.

May 3d, 1852.—2m.

Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, all of which are made at our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction. Purchasers who may select or, order can rely upon being fairly dealt with, and obtain Hats as good as favorably as at any establishment in the country.

352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

May 3d, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

BARAIGE DELAINES.—A few pieces Just Received, and selling off cheap.

Calicoes, flat colors, for 6 cents per yard

May 3, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

1852.

SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S.

WE would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not praise up our Goods with a view of trying to make a sale, but will let our Goods and prices speak for themselves. We have in store a large assortment of Men's Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps, which we are determined to sell at prices that will satisfy all speak for themselves.

DeLaines from Rets to 8s.; handsome Barages, the new styles from 18d to 8s.; plain and watered Poplin Silks from 2s to 4s; Prints may variety from 4 to 14 cts.; a good lot of Ladies' Flower Prints, up to 7s; also Gents Gloves, Bleached and Brown Muslins very cheap from 10 cts. to 28, and more than a thousand other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloth, Satin and fancy Cassimeres, a first rate assortment of Vestings and all of which can be cut and made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Gents furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods from the Plainest and Cheapest to the Most Costly.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it an object to Cash purchasers from 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same Goods are generally cut to found elsewhere, as we are entirely in the Dry Goods Cash line and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

SILKS! SILKS!! SILKS!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, in the Cashmere Plaids new Spring Styles to which the attention of Ladies is particula ly requested, at ROCAP & SHEPHARDS

May 3d, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of May, will remove his store to No. 16 Maiden-Lane, in the store formerly occupied by him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him :—James Flemming & Son's celebrated Needles—Richard." Grocve' and other Needles,—Pearl Buttons, Combs' Steel and Gold Pens, Spool and Ball Cotton, Stay Binding, Tape, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c.

RICH'D RICHARDS.

Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods,

April 26, 1852.—12m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York.

NOTICE.

THE Notes belonging to the late firm of FRENCH & BURNTON have been left with the subscriber for collection. The makers of said Notes are requested to call at the store of Sevey & Runyon, and settle the same as they fall due.

ABM. BURNTON.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—1m*

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS,

DANIEL BULLMAN,

is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Spring Patterns; Domestics of every grade and price; Silks, plain and figured; Gingliams, Alpaccas, &c. suitable to the season; Linens, White Goods and Hosiery, short lit.

Also, Looking-Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, Cheap for Cash.

VARIETIES and FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call; and if I have the thing else, we will furnish it very likely. A portion of the public patronage is solicited. D. BULLMAN.

April 26, 1852.

Cheap, Cheap store!!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Earthen and Stone Ware, which he has just opened, and his stock has been selected with great care, and an eye to economy, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints,	Ginghams,	Cassimers,
Barege de Lane,	Gloves,	Summerstuffs,
Lawns,	Hosiery,	Fustiano, &c.

And all styles of goods, suitable to Ladies' and Boy's wear; Muslins bleached and unbleached, colored cambrics, shirtings, sheetings, buttons, thread, cotton hats, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas,	Rice,	Sugars,	Candles, Flour,
Coffee,	Corn Starch,	Soap,	Indian Meal.

PROVISIONS.—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef, Pepper, Spices, Cheese, Hams, Pork, &c.

Tapestry carpets, Honey, brushes, tinwares, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all, both old and young, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to call the second time.

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!!!

The subscriber has also on hand a good assortment of Black and changeable silks, which will be sold cheap.

May 4, 1852. J. V. ARROWSMITH.

Lawrence's Gallery,

203 Broadway, 3 doors below Fulton-

STREET, NEW YORK.

THE proprietor having built this establishment expressly for Daguerreotypes, with a view to obviate many of the difficulties that surround the Daguerrean Artist, has found after a trial of two years, that his expectations have been fully realized. The arrangement whereby the novel and beautiful Skylight is used for taking pictures, with the middle, or neutral tints, so long looked for by Artists. One of the rooms is arranged with superior facilities for taking Family and other groups. Fifty persons can be taken with great facility. The Operating Department is conducted by persons of great experience and skill, and none but good likenesses will ever leave the door. No one has been known to receive Daguerreotypes the size of life. They are produced with a Camera of immense size, and on plates three times larger than those usually used, producing a Picture having all the softness and delicacy of the finest Miniature. Pictures of every description copied with perfect accuracy. Children of all ages taken Stormy or cloudy weather no detriment to taking good pictures. The public of Plainfield and vicinity are invited to visit the Rooms, which are free to all.

The Premium FREZE MEDAL, was awarded to Mr. Lawrence, at the WORLD'S FAIR in London, for the BEST Daguerreotypes. Enough said.

May 3, 1852.—3m. M. M. LAWRENCE.

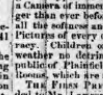
Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in Main street, opposite Webster & Marsh's store, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, &c.—Having purchased her goods at the lowest cash prices, she is prepared to sell Rhands, Gimps, Gloves, Silk, Laces, Edgings, Flowers, Fringes, Hosiery, Ribbons, and everything in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from Somerville, she is prepared to undertake all the various branches of Dress Making. Caps and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 5, 1852.—6m.



Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st. next door to John B. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite French's Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Thorn's new building in Cherry st., 2nd below Dr. Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the citizens of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns D. Laines, Kid and other Gloves, and a variety of all kinds. A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Colonades, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Pork, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders, Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Hollow and Wood Ware,

Tubs, Baskets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, whisk, shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Red Dog Flour, &c.

LIME, Rhode Island and Glens Falls.

☞ All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods.

April 20, 1852.—1y. JAMES M. DUNN.

REMOVAL

STRAW GOODS.

THE subscriber having removed from No. 12 to No. 10 John Street, (first floor) respectfully invites the attention of Milliners and others to his new and desirable stock of which comprises the most desirable styles, adapted to fashionable Millinery Trade, all of which will be sold at the lowest market prices. L. CHIPIN,

STRAW GOODS,

April 13, 1852.—2m. No. 10 John-st.

100 BBLS. 95 per cent. Alcohol, suitable for making Burning Fluid or Spirit Gas, for sale by the manufacturer, JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,

March 20, 1852.—6m. 82 Burling Slip, N. Y.

IMPERIAL BURNING FLUID—In barrels and half bbls., for sale by the manufacturer,

JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,

March 25, 1852.—3m. 82 Burling Slip, N. Y.

Furniture and Chair WAREHOUSE.

W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS,

122 Market-st., Newark, N. J.,

(A few Doors West of Broad.)

WE invite the attention of our friends and the citizens of Elizabethtown, Plainfield, Rahway, as well as the surrounding country to the large, well and most complete, and (quality of goods considered) cheapest assortment of Furniture Chairs, Mattresses, &c. ever offered in this State, a fact of which all may fully satisfy themselves who will favor us with a call. Our stock consists of all the various styles of Parlor, Dining room Bed-room, Library, Hall and Kitchen Furniture, &c. viz: Sofas, Tete a Tetes, Divans, Ottomans, Mahogany and marble top Centre Tables, Side Tables, Card Tables, Fancy Arm and Rocking Chairs, Parlor Chairs, Italian Rush Seat do. &c.

Book Cases, Secretaries, Writing Desks and Secretary's reading Tables, Dressing Bureaus, French and Cottage Bedsteads, plain do., Inclosed and Plain Washstands, &c. &c.; also about 40 dozen Walnut and Maple Chairs Cane seat of our own manufacture, and warranted superior to anything of the price.

Mattresses of Curled Hair, Husk, Moss and Straw. We have also a large stock of New York Furniture, which we will sell at the New York prices, to save the trouble, time, freight, risk, &c., which is attendant on purchasing in New York.

N. B. Persons residing within six or seven miles of Newark, who purchase furniture of us, can have them furniture delivered at their residences free of charge. If the bill amounts to $25 or over, as we keep a large furniture wagon expressly for the purpose, and are always responsible for our wares until they are safely lodged in your own residences. We do this in order to induce persons to give us a call, instead of going to New York. Don't forget the number, 119 Market-st., Newark, N. J. W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS.

April 20, 1852.—3m.

FIRST PREMIUM MILLINERY Establishment and STRAW BONNET Manufactory, No. 564 Broadway, near Nibb's Garden, New York. MRS. SIMMONS respectfully returns her thanks to her numerous patrons and the public that she is now prepared to exhibit at her Show Rooms a splendid and unique assortment of Millinery and Straw Goods of her own Manufacture, in which are combined all the modern improvements, latest styles and fashions, together with magnificent selections of Paris Millinery, which for diversity, richness, manner and quality, stands unrivalled in this country, and transcends immeasurably all former importations. Also, a large and interesting invoice of Lace, Straws, Straw Blondes, and an endless variety. Merchants and Milliners supplied with pattern Bonnets.

Mrs. WM. SIMMONS. 564 Broadway.

April 20, 1852.—3m. New York.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the new stand on Somerset-st. next to the corner of Front street, and near French's Mill, where they are prepared to carry on business a fine cheap as the cheapest and good as the best, including Flour and Feed, also Crockery and Earthen Ware.

Produce of all kinds wanted in exchange for groceries. Thankful for past favors, asks a continuance of the same.

☞ Mrs. Voy's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaint.

JOHNSON & LYON.

N. B. All persons indebted to the subscriber are requested to call and settle without delay.

April 8, 1852.—1y. CHARLES JOHNSON.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment in the store of Mr. D. S. Miller, where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with silver work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and wood taken in exchange for Clocks.

Plainfield, April 13, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

LIGHTNING RODS!

A. M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 182 East Twenty-Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and affix to buildings their improved Lightning Rods, which have been in use upwards of seven years, without a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. Mr. A. M. Quimby has made Electricity a study for his life, and his rods are constructed up in accordance with certain rules which he has formed and adopted as the result of his experience. An adherence to these rules he has found to be the only reliable guide for securing perfect security from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and exposed as regards lightning, and require a different arrangement of rods, to suit the circumstances of the case, which is the reason why so many of the common rods have failed heretofore; being put up by persons ignorant of the laws by which electricity is governed, they are not arranged in any scientific or safe manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Quimby's rods have been placed on the houses of Mr. Isaac C. Bogert, Mr. C. Bogert, Jr., and others in Plainfield, and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church and others in New York; church of the Holy Trinity, City Hall, &c. in Brooklyn.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information sent by the mail, or left at this paper.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—6m*

BOOTS & SHOES.

A. D. GALE,

MANUFACTURER AND WHOLESALE DEALER,

HAS constantly on hand about every thing in the line of Boots and Shoes, at the lowest rates, by the case or dozen.—Please call and examine.

A. D GALE,

225 Pearl st., corner Pearl st.

March 16, 1852.—3m. New York.

NEW PROVISION AND FISH STORE.

227 Washington-st., New-York.

THE subscribers, wholesale dealers, call the attention of grocers and others to his stock of

Smoked Beef and Tongues,

Smoked Hams and Shoulders,

Packed Shad and Herring.

Also, Beef, Pork, Lard, Mackerel, &c. by the barrel, half Barrel and in kits, in lots to suit purchasers.

PHILEMON MOORE & SON.

227 Washington-street, New York.

April 13, 1852.—3m.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, Elizabethtown, (a short distance from the depot,) would invite his former friends, and all who may be in want of a good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call.

His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of living rent to pay. JOHN ZEVELY.

April 20, 1852 d1y.

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.

Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

D. M. KNIGHT & CO.,

Importers and Wholesale Dealers in

ENGLISH FRENCH AND GERMAN

FANCY GOODS,

No. 53 Cedar-street, (up stairs,)

(Between William and Nassau sts.)

D. M. KNIGHT, NEW-YORK.

A. S. CODD ST.

COMBS—Shell, buffalo, and horn back Combs in great variety; also, dressing and fancy Combs.

BRUSHES. Steel, gilt, lasting, mohair, twist, bone, metal, silk, thread, spate, &c.

Brushes. Hair, Tooth, Nail, &c.

PERFUMERY. Spool Cotton. Needles, Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Hair Pins, Elastics, Whalebone, Linen and Cotton Tapes, Linen and Cotton Bobbin, Scissors, Thimbles, and a great variety of fancy Goods, Fans, &c., all cheap for cash.

March 16, 1852.—3m.

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at I. S. DUNHAM & CO.'S.

TRIPLE REFINED CAMPHENE—A very superior article, in bbls. and half bbls., for sale by the manufacturers, JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,

March 25, 1852.—3m. 82 Burling Slip, N. Y.

The Place to Buy Dry Goods! JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.

No. 227 Greenwich Street, NEW YORK,

(One Door below Barclay Street,)

Offer to Buyers the Largest, Most Varied, and Cheapest Stock of

DRY GOODS, in Green wich St. and one of the Largest in the CITY, for both WHOLESALE and RETAIL Buyers to select from.

The First Floor is devoted to our Retail Sales, and the Second, Third and Fourth Floors, are exclusively for our

WHOLESALE TRADE.

We particularly invite the attention of COUNTRY MERCHANTS,

To our Stock, from which they can select almost any article they want, thereby saving much time. We pay particular attention to the selection of the very best styles in Dress and other Goods. Cash Buyers will save MONEY by an examination of our prices, as our expenses are small, we can and will sell at prices cheaper than most Houses. All we ask is, TRY IT.

JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.

New York, March 1st, 1852.—4m 227 Greenwich Street.

A GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES AT THE CELEBRATED LARGEST AND CHEAPEST

CARPET ESTABLISHMENT

In the United States, No. 99 Bowery, HIRAM ANDERSON'S

RIGHT HAND LARGE SALES ROOMS,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

Sales Room No 1.

CONTAINS the Largest, Handsomest and Cheapest assortment of English and American Floor Oil Cloths, to be found in the city, from

TWO SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE

To One Dollar the square yard, of one to eight yards wide.

Sales Room No. 2.

Contains the most beautiful and variegated assortment of English and American superior Ingrain Carpeting, at unparalleled low prices. Five Shillings to Six Shillings and Sixpence per yard—new and elegant figures for Spring Sales.

Sales Room No 3

Is fully stocked with an unrivaled assortment of English and American Imperial Three-ply Carpeting, of new and elegant patterns, manufactured expressly for this city trade, at a reduction of twenty five per cent from former prices, 5s 6d, 7s, and 8s per yard, and upwards.

Sales Room No 4.

Contains one hundred and fifty pieces of fine Ingrain Carpeting, new fall styles, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s, 3s 6d, and Four Shillings per yard.

Sales Room No 5.

Displays a great variety of English Druggets, from one to four yards wide, from three shillings and sixpence per yard and upwards. Also, an elegant assortment of Rugs, Mats, &c., at very reduced prices.

Sales Room No 6

Is fully stocked with every variety of Stairs and Hall Carpeting, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s 6d, 4s, 5s, and 6s per yard.

In Sale Room No 7,

Are the Patent Tapestry Ingrain Carpets exhibited at the World's Fair, formerly sold at nine shillings per yard, now selling at

SIX SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE PER YARD.

Sales Room No 8.

An extensive assortment of Table and Piano Covers, Window Shades from 6s to $10 the pair, Table Oil Cloths, Brasses and Carpetry Trimmings, Stair Carpet, Plated and Brass Stair Rods, Parlor Door Mats, &c. &c., all of which are offered at 25 per cent. less than at any other establishment in this city.

HIRAM ANDERSON,

No. 99 Bowery, N. Y.

All goods packed and sent free of charge. 6w3.

FLOOR OIL CLOTHS

At 40 Pine Street, New York

E. B. RICE,

MANUFACTURER and Dealer in every description of

FLOOR AND TABLE OIL CLOTHS,

Having established a Depot for the sale of his Goods at the above place, most respectfully invites his old Customers and Dealers generally to call and examine his Stock. E. B. RICE.

March 9, 1852.

House and Lots for Sale.

Situated on the corner of Fifth and Centre Streets, the house is nearly new, filled in with brick, five rooms on first floor, six on second, with pantries and closets of different kinds, and a never failing well of water. Said premises is well located for private residence. For particulars apply to WILLIAM SUTTON.

Plainfield, Feb. 28th, 1852.

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

FRAZEE MARSH returns thanks for his numerous patrons for their liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many customers has enlarged his stock of Paints, and taken into partnership his son, Washington Marsh. The business will be continued at the old stand, opposite the Second Presbyterian Church, and will be kept constantly on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., &c., as cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to Graining and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and dispatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES.

Mixed Paint constantly on hand. Various grades.

Jan. 5, 1852. F. MARSH & SON.

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by P. Mosher, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

Also, PAPER HANGING, all of which will be promptly, punctually and honestly executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned hereby returns thanks to his customers for their liberal patronage in the past year, and will endeavor by faithfulness to merit and secure a continuance of their favors.

☞ Orders may be left at the Union Office, also at Mr. Ira Drake's store. CHARLES TAYLOR.

April 1, 1852.—3m

NOTICE TO THE LADIES

OF PLAINFIELD AND VICINITY. Those ladies wishing to obtain their supplies of Gaiter Boots and Shoes for the coming season, can find at

D. S. MILLER'S

134 Canal street, New York,

French Morocco and kid Slippers, Ties and Buskins of the first quality, at 9 and 10 shillings per pair; second quality 8 shillings and ten d; and Misses' and children's Gaiters per pair, (all of my own make and warranted good.) Ladies' gaiter Boots of all the fashionable colors, 12, 16 and 18 shillings the pair. This beautiful article of ladies' wear are warranted equal to any in the city. Misses' and children's gaiter Boots and Shoes of all kinds (the largest assortment of any in New York;) white and black satin, black and Bronze French kid Slippers for evenings. Ladies who wish good shoes, at moderate prices, will please call and examine for themselves at D. S. MILLER'S,

134 Canal-street,

(Between Thompson and Laurens streets.)

March 23, 1852.—3m.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. If not attended to soon, they will be passed over for collection. As I don't wish to put expense on any one, I give this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, April 9, 1852.

NOT FOR THE GOLD MINES, BUT GIVE ME THE SILVER!

WHILE many are going to California to dig up the gold in abundance, if they can find it, I take the opportunity to say to the public at large and to my customers in particular, that I still remain here and offer to them a stock of goods, at small profits and quick returns, equal to any for style and quality. Said stock consists of a general assortment of every thing kept in a Village Store, viz:

Dry Goods, Carpets, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, Boots, Shoes,

&c. &c.

Among the Dry Goods are Muslins and Prints from 4d to 1s. and 1s 6d., DeLaines and Cashmeres; cambric and jaconet, book and Swiss muslin, a good assortment constantly on hand. Also a fine assortment of black gloves, bella veils, crapes and bombazine for mourning. Cloths, plain and fancy cassimeres, doeskins, satinets, Jeans, cords, pilgings, negro cottons, linens, lace buttons, &c.

GROCERIES.

Green and Black Teas of the best quality, molasses at 22 cts. per gallon, sugar of every style and quality from 5s 6d. to 12 cts. per lb. Also an super-house syrup, raisins, coffee, rice, and of other groceries a complete stock of the best quality.

CROCKERY, of Every Style and Quality,

Both fancy and plain to suit the purchaser.

PROVISIONS.

BOOTS and SHOES, of Every Style and Quality, for Ladies', gentlemen's and children's wear at low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Furniture and coach varnish, turpentine, white lead, pure and extra; lamp oils, yellow ochre, Venitian red, red lead, chrome yellow, Paris green, French zinc mixed and dry, lamp black, litharge, brown japan and nearly every thing for painters' use.

Flour, Meal, Feed and Grain,

A good assortment constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the village. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, March 15, 1852.

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the new tax law, by coming to Dunn & Co.'s and purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere; thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and colors, which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of fancy articles, such as Gloves, Hosiery, Cravats, Collars, Suspenders, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gen. l furnishing apparel.

Friends will please call with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves!

Our motto is, cash and one price.

Also a good assortment of Trunks and Carpet Bags at the lowest cash prices.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Plainfield, Dec. 1.

HORACE SEATON,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN LACE GOODS,

354 Broad Street, Newark.

☞ Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Blonde, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Embroideries Muslin, Glove and Hosiery, Millinery articles, Combs, Brushes, Oils, Perfumery, &c. &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Gents, Ladies and Children's fancy dress Shoes and Gaiters. 2 3 1y.

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at H. TOMS' Manufactory, 194 FULTON-STREET, west of Boundway, I. Assortment of Mahogany and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

R. GLENN & CO., 194 FULTON-STREET,

Oct. 7, 1853.—1y New York.

CARHART & NEEDHAM,

Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

With Recent Important Improvements.

Price from $60 to $260.

No. 75, East 2 hirteenth Street,

J. Carhart, E. P. Needham. NEW YORK.

N. B. 200 Reeds constantly on hand.

Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

BAKERY.

JOHN S. PHELPS,

SUCCESSOR TO U. P. WARD,

Celebrated Cracker, Cake, and Large Bread Bakery, No. 64 Vesey street, New York.

THE well known and universally approved Crackers of U. P. Ward have been manufactured for upward of 25 years, and in that time have gained a reputation in quality above all others, and it is my intention of the present proprietor to manufacture an article every way worthy of the predecessor. The Bread and Cake departments have been remodelled, and will be kept up to the above business. Ward's New York Crackers, which is offered at 10 cents per pound, and may be had at retail of

Butter Crackers,		Walnut Crackers,
Sugar	"	Pic Nic	" Milk Biscuit
Boston	"	Lemon	" Wine
Graham	"	Cup	" Water
Water	"	Graham Biscuit,	Soda
Soda	"		Boston
Fancy	"	Albermetly	" Pilot
Jenny Lind	"	Nicey	" Ginger Snaps
Cake, &c. in every variety.			Bread,

☞ All orders promptly executed at short notice.

Dec. 5th, 1851.—6m

Hope's Express.

For Newark, Elizabethtown, Westfield, Plainfield, Boundbrook, Somerville, White House, Clinton and Easton, Pa.

Leave New York daily at 9 o'clock, arriving at Plainfield at 10 1-2 o'clock, A. M. Leave Plainfield at 3 o'clock, arriving in New York at 4 1-2 o'clock, P. M.

JOHN LANG, Agent for Plainfield.

A. D. HOPE, 41 Courtlandt-st., New York.

☞ This Express line been systematized, and all orders will be executed with safety and despatch.

Plainfield, Nov. 19, 1850.

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant.

Do. Sanative Pills Also,

Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops. These drops are a sure, speedy, effectual remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Griping pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Atwood's Spinal Elixir for Rheumatism, Pain in the Side, Back, Hurt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. Also Dalley's Magnetic Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by

April 20, 1852. JAMES M. DUNN.

BREWSTER'S EMBROCATION,

THE BEST REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED FOR

SPRAINS, BRUISES, RHEUMATISM

Stiffness or Weakness of the Joints and Limbs, Contraction of the Muscles, Neuralgia of the Face, Sick or Back, Gout, Head-ache, Tooth-ache, &c.

Also, an invaluable remedy for Sprains, Strains, Stiffness, Lameness, and Galls on Horses.

This Embrocation is prepared of ingredients which form a very active, yet entirely safe and pleasant preparation for Rheumatism, &c. &c. Hundreds of the most respectable persons and families have given their testimony to the value of its superiority. It operates in many cases immediately; and wherever it has been used during under extreme pain in the side or limbs, or from bruises and sprains, have found instant relief from a thorough rubbing with this embrocation.

From a long experience in the Drug business and constant applications to prescribe remedies for various diseases, the proprietor has had ample opportunity to witness the effect of the different preparations for Rheumatisms, &c., and before this embrocation was offered with so much confidence, it was satisfactorily and effectually proved to be the very thing it is represented." Try it, and you will not be disappointed.

Price, 25 cents per Bottle.

Certificate from Ambrose Pancoast, Esq. Atlantic co. N.J.

Pancoastville, N. J. July 31, 1849.

Mr. F. C. B EWSTER,

Dear Sir,—I have been an extensive dealer in horses for 20 years past, and have had great opportunities to witness the best remedies for diseases they are subject, and of testing the various remedies in use.

About 15 years since I was induced to make use of your Embrocation, and since that time I have used no other remedies for the following diseases to which this noble animal is subject, viz. Ringbone, spavin, strains of the joints and sinews, shoulder strains, swiney in the shoulder, lameness in the shoulder, scalds, galls on the shoulder, and every disease of a like nature.

I have also used, and known it used for the various diseases to which mankind are subject, viz. Strains of the Joints, Rheumatism, Gout, Sprains, Bruises, cuts, corns, Spinal affections, pains in the Face, side and back, Toothache, Burns, Scalds, and especially the headache, to which I am free to say it has proved to be a perfect cure. Your Embrocation is the best and safest Remedy I have ever used for the above complaints; I have also sold considerable of it in my store, and believe it to supersede all others. Yours with respect,

AMBROSE PANCOAST.

Prepared only by F. C. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Bridgeton, N. J., and for sale, together with Brewster's Pectoral Mixture, and Cholera Mixture, by D. L. CRAIG, Druggist, agent for Plainfield; C. W. Badger, Newark; Dr. D. C. English, New Brunswick, and by druggists throughout the State.

May 1, 1852.—4m

MARBLE & STONE YARD.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, and is now prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Vaults and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful Free Stone Grave Yard, from which I will furnish to order every variety of stone for building and ornamental purposes, at short notice. All of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.-1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

ANDREW M WEBSTER,

Attorney at Law and Solicitor in Chancery.

OFFICE—No. 153 MARKET STREET,

May 17, 1850. NEWARK N. J.

DR. H. DAYTON

Surgeon-Dentist,

Has returned to Plainfield, and taken an Office and Residence for the year, on Main st. 2d house below Webster & Marsh's Store.

June 24, 1851.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE, PHYSICIANS,

NO. 259 GREEN STREET, NEW YORK,

Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

Mrs. S. M. MOTT,

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston.

HAVING success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, particularly those arising from or attendant upon child-bed, delicate, deranged or irregular menstrual cases, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say, that in all cases she has performed permanent cures in cases of long standing, after they had been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on DR. and MRS. MOTT'S MODE OF PRACTICE, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicine carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. Hand-bills gratis.

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAILROAD, WAREHOUSE, Hay, Floor and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not to get out of order.

Manufactory 20 Greene street, New York.

Also For Sale at 382 ultimostreet,

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

S. R. BURDS, J. BRUDEN, J. ROBIDO.X

Nov. 24, 1851.-1y

HOWS IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

(OR MEN)

Rheumatism, Sprains, Weakness in the Horse, Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Sores, Back, Breast, Sore Throat, Frontel Feet, Limb & Joint.

(IN HORSES)

Bruises, Sprains, Ringbone, Poll Evil, and all Warbles, Splints, Spavin Fistula, diseases of Horses, Curb, Scratches, Thoroughpin, where an Embroca-Windgall, Saddle or Gall, tion can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOW, CHEMIST,

No 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES

We, the undersigned, have used Howe's Improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Morrell, Shabbagee, Freeman Campbell, Harney McCherry, Ralph Stout, John Jukins, Albert H. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. D. Degraw, Princeton Joseph Hamnitt, John A. Wyatt, Trenton. A. W. Brown, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG in Somerville by Culver Bureau. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y

BARKER'S Double Refined Powdered Saleratus,

" Chemical Yeast Powder in tin boxes.

" Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

CARPETING

At a great reduction from former prices.

PETTERSON & HUMPHREY,

No. 191 Broadway, corner of White Street,

NEW YORK.

BEG leave to call the attention of their friends in PLAINFIELD and vicinity to their present stock of which, owing to the reduction by the English manufacturers, will be disposed of at the following extremely low prices:

ENGLISH AND AMERICAN CARPETINGS,

Royal Velvet Carpet, from 12s to 16s per yard.

" Tapestry " 9s to 12s "

" 3 Ply, extra heavy, " 7s to 9s "

" Superfine " 5s to 7s "

" Good, all Wool, " 4s per yard.

OIL CLOTHS,

from 8 to 24 feet wide, at prices equally low.

MATTINGS,

4-4, 5-4 and 6-4, Plain, Fancy and Check; Stair Rods, Druggets, Table and Piano Covers, Rugs, Mats of all kinds, together with all other goods found in Carpet Stores, for all of which they will receive the Carpet Establishment in the Union. We, therefore, challenge the whole trade to show such an extensive stock, at such low prices.

N. B. Stages from Cortlandt-street Ferry run by our store.

March 16, 1852.—6m.

PANCOAST'S UTERI

This malady arises primarily from a debilitated state of the muscles of the abdomen and the consequent prolapsitation of the bowels suffers them to bear with their weight upon the womb, inducing a falling condition of the organ (i. e. Prolapsus Uteri.) Secondarily from the laxity of the round and broad ligaments, the natural supporter of the womb which, being weakened, yield to the pressure of the bowels and suffer the falling to take place. The remedy for this is a bandage to girth on the shoulder, and every disease of a like nature.

I have also used, and known it used for the various diseases to which mankind are subject, viz. Strains of the Joints, Rheumatism, Gout, Sprains, Bruises, cuts, corns, Spinal affections, pains in the Face, side and back, Toothache, Burns, Scalds, and especially the headache, to which I am free to say it has proved to be a perfect cure. Your Embrocation is the best and safest Remedy I have ever used for the above complaints; I have also sold considerable of it in my store, and believe it to supersede all others. Yours with respect,

AMBROSE PANCOAST.

Prepared only by F. C. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Bridgeton, N. J., and for sale, together with Brewster's Pectoral Mixture, and Cholera Mixture, by D. L. CRAIG, Druggist, agent for Plainfield; C. W. Badger, Newark; Dr. D. C. English, New Brunswick, and by druggists throughout the State.

May 1, 1852.—4m

MARBLE & STONE YARD.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, and is now prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Vaults and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful Free Stone Grave Yard, from which I will furnish to order every variety of stone for building and ornamental purposes, at short notice. All of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.-1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

ANDREW M WEBSTER,

Attorney at Law and Solicitor in Chancery.

OFFICE—No. 153 MARKET STREET,

May 17, 1850. NEWARK N. J.

DR. H. DAYTON

Surgeon-Dentist,

Has returned to Plainfield, and taken an Office and Residence for the year, on Main st. 2d house below Webster & Marsh's Store.

June 24, 1851.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE, PHYSICIANS,

NO. 259 GREEN STREET, NEW YORK,

Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

Mrs. S. M. MOTT,

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston.

HAVING success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, particularly those arising from or attendant upon child-bed, delicate, deranged or irregular menstrual cases, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say, that in all cases she has performed permanent cures in cases of long standing, after they had been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on DR. and MRS. MOTT'S MODE OF PRACTICE, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicine carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. Hand-bills gratis.

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAILROAD, WAREHOUSE, Hay, Floor and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not to get out of order.

Manufactory 20 Greene street, New York.

Also For Sale at 382 ultimostreet,

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

S. R. BURDS, J. BRUDEN, J. ROBIDO.X

Nov. 24, 1851.-1y

HOWS IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

(OR MEN)

Rheumatism, Sprains, Weakness in the Horse, Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Sores, Back, Breast, Sore Throat, Frontel Feet, Limb & Joint.

(IN HORSES)

Bruises, Sprains, Ringbone, Poll Evil, and all Warbles, Splints, Spavin Fistula, diseases of Horses, Curb, Scratches, Thoroughpin, where an Embroca-Windgall, Saddle or Gall, tion can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOW, CHEMIST,

No 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES

We, the undersigned, have used Howe's Improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Morrell, Shabbagee, Freeman Campbell, Harney McCherry, Ralph Stout, John Jukins, Albert H. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. D. Degraw, Princeton Joseph Hamnitt, John A. Wyatt, Trenton. A. W. Brown, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG in Somerville by Culver Bureau. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y

BARKER'S Double Refined Powdered Saleratus,

" Chemical Yeast Powder in tin boxes.

" Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

THE most safe and effectual remedy ever discovered for the extermination of worms in children or adults, being as safe and pleasant that it can be given to the most tender infants. The hundreds of cures performed daily by this syrup, should satisfy all of its superiority and value. A trial of one bottle will be sufficient to convince any one of its merits. This Syrup is entirely vegetable and recommended by the head physicians of the day. Those who have worms in their system can be cured according to the recommendations, the money is refunded. I would further say, do not let your children go to a premature grave when so safe and pleasant a remedy is at hand, one which has never failed to give satisfaction in cases of worms or bowel complaints. Whether your children are afflicted with blindness under the eyes, with a bloated stomach, sudden starting in their sleep, then in your time to use this remedy. It being for sale by every respectable storekeeper in the country, where you can obtain a pamphlet of its wonderful cures, as well as of Hobensack.

LIVER PILLS.—These Pills being composed of Roots and Plants for diseases of the Biliary organs, Liver complaint, &c.

Congestion of the Liver is known to exist from an inclination to vomit being present, bitter taste in the mouth, yellow furred tongue and thirst, loss of appetite, a distended full and bounding pulse, are some of the many symptoms which denote that Liver complaint is the cause. Let the afflicted attend to it in time.—These Pills will remove all symptoms either total or partial, they have been found of the greatest benefit in restoring the functional derangements to a healthy action, purifying the blood and other fluids so as effectually put to flight all complaints which arise by disorder of the stomach, such as headache, giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in the side, back, &c. Price 25 cents per box, with directions. Be careful and ask for Hobensack's Liver Pills, as they are the only genuine, all others being a base imitation. Prepared at Hobensack's Laboratory, Philadelphia. For sale in Plainfield.

Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. CUSHING;

And at D. L. CRAIG'S, and C. H. PATRICK'S.

C. Drake, Scotch Plains, Charles Foster, Westfield.

March 23, 1852.—1y.

R. R. R.

Science, by subjecting the laws of Chemistry to the skill of man, has contributed to his health and happiness by the discovery of the most powerful agency of pain in an instant, and cures the most obstinate

CHRONIC COMPLAINTS

IN A FEW HOURS

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

Internally and Externally instantly stops Pain, and speedily cures its cause.

It is warranted to give relief in the following pains in Fifteen Minutes, and to speedily and effectually cure the disease.

Rheumatism,	Colds,	Cramps and Spasms,
Lumbago,	Paralysis,	Stomach Complaints,
Stiff Joints,	Neuralgia,	Soreness in Bones,
Tic Doloreux,	Dysentery,	Pain in the Limbs,
Chill Fever,	Diarrhœa,	Sick Head-ache,
Ague Cake,	HeartBurn,	Cholera Morbus,
Sore Throat,	Colds, &c.

PAIN

IS the warning given of the presence of disease and of the derangement and prostration of the nervous and muscular system. In order to cure disease and rid the system entirely of its cause, our first great desideratum is to destroy pain, then the recuperative powers have greate healthy action—the functions and secretions of every organ in the system; this we accomplish by the marvellous

Strengthening, cleansing, invigorating and powerful pain soothing properties of

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

No matter what the cause of the pain may be—if it arises from nervous prostration, muscular debility, disarrangement of the liver or secretions of the skin, whether it be bloating, weakness, sick or nervous headache, nervous irritability, spasmodic affections, cramps, diarrhœa, bowel complaint, chills and fever whether it originates from local irregularities or constitutional disease,

Radway's Ready Relief taken internally and applied externally, will speedily and effectually stop the pain and cure its cause

RHEUMATISM 100,000 persons cured in 1850.

The most excruciating pain stopped in two hours.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the quickest, safest, and most effectual remedy for the cure of Rheumatism in all its forms now in use; we state only what we know. It will stop the most torturing pains of this excruciating disease, and in a few hours. No one suffering or known it fail in giving instant relief. In every city, village and town of America it has cured some of the people of this complaint, and we say to you, as we have said to others, that it do as stated—it will instantly relieve the sufferer from pain and speedily cure its cause.

SICK AND NERVOUS HEADACHE

100,000 cases cured in 1850.—It will give relief in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief taken according to directions, will speedily and effectually cure this complaint. Taken internally and applied externally it refreshes the senses, cleanses the stomach, stops all irritation in the throat, allays the fibres and secretions of the head and brain, and relieves the sufferer from pain in 15 minutes. It is now curing hundreds daily of the sick and nervous headache

NEURALGIA.—100,000 Neuralgia cases cured in 1850.—It will stop the most violent pains in Fifteen Minutes.

The cruel and excruciating pangs of this distressing complaint are usually arrested by Radway's Ready Relief. The happy and invigorating effects it produces on the nervous system, reaches the seat of pain, and quickly restores the nervous energy and cures the disease. It is the only remedy that has effectually cured Neuralgia in its many forms.

DIARRHŒA.—200,000 persons cured in 1850.—Pains stopped in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief cured more cases of cholera morbus, dysentery, cholic and all bowel complaints the past year than any other remedy in use. On the banks of the Mississippi, Missouri, Illinois and Ohio rivers, in New Orleans, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukie, Galena, and other places where the diarrhœa, cholera and dysentery rage so fatally, Radway's Ready Relief was used with the best success. It will in 15 minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms, impart a genial heat throughout the whole system, and in all parties, also stop the painful discharges and relieve the patient from all pain.

CRAMPS AND SPASMS.

A Teaspoonful of Radway's Ready Relief, taken internally, and by bathing externally, will in a few minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms. In many cases where the sufferer has been in a fit, and has grown cold and numb, the limbs distorted and shrunk, rubbing Radway's Ready Relief has always brought life and action, and a quick and healthy circulation of blood.

BELIEF IN JOURNEYING.

If you have pain in the bones, swelled joints, weakness of the muscles, if you have a sprained limb, swelled leg, bruised arm, sore head, or if you burn or scald your hand, Radway's Ready Relief will take out the fire, remove the pain and swelling, give energy and strength to the muscles and entirely free you from pain.

Jumping Toothache cured in one second.

All aches and pains—back ache, toothache, face ache, pain in the stomach, pain in the bowels, pain in the bones, the feet, the head and arms, Radway's Ready Relief will instantly cure.

PAINFUL ITCHINGS

And all cutaneous eruptions are relieved from all irritation by bathing the parts with Ready Relief.

SPINAL COMPLAINTS.

By bathing according to directions the neck and spine it will strengthen the spine. We have known many cases of posterior and anterior curvature of the spine to be entirely cured, and the physical object to regain his proper shape by the use of Radway's Ready Relief.

CHILL FEVER.

One teaspoonful of Radway's ready relief taken on the first symptoms of chills, and bathe the head, neck and shoulders, if the chill has commenced, and the fever will entirely prevent chill Fever.

Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Flatulency, Bad Breath, Wind, &c. are quickly cured by a dose of Radway's ready relief taken internally. It is a delicious cordial, imparting strength to every organ and function of the body, and health and happiness to the mind.

CAUTION TO DRUGGISTS

Purchase Radway's ready relief only of the authorized agent, whose name is given below. Our travelling agents have a power of attorney signed by us, and when they call upon you ask to see it. Price 25 cents a bottle.

RADWAY & CO., 162 Fulton st. N. Y.

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

Sept. 9, 1851.-1y

Looking Glasses—A Large number

JUST RECEIVED,—from 25 cents to $7. each, by D. BULLMAN

DR. HOOFLANDS

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS

Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON,

at the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch St. Philadelphia,

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines; such as Constipation,

Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering in the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs &c. Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits

THEY ARE ENTIRELY VEGETABLE.

And Free from Alcoholic Stimulant, and all Injurious Ingredients.

And are pleasant in taste, mild in their operation, and will remove impurities from the body and give health and vigour to the frame.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, of Philadelphia, has had the honour of submitting the great principles of the great medical counsellor, "Caristoph Wilhelm Hufeland," and these invaluable medicines are prepared with the utmost care at the German Medicine Store. The bitter mixture—Hoofland's German Tonic or Stomachic Elixir—is the result of many years' study and experience by the great inventor, and known and prized in Europe as an infallible remedy for the cure of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, and Indigestion. Dr. C. M. Jackson's preparation of this medicine has obtained the same celebrity in this Western World. The testimonials and innumerable confirmations of thousands of the most eminent and respectable persons in the United States of the medicines compounded by Dr. C. M. Jackson have produced the very effects and same happy results, which the inventor intended they should produce, and consequently must be compounded with singular accuracy.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtue in the rectification of diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Digestive Organs, and in giving due tone and healthy energy to the vital powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are without safe, certain, and pleasant.

A Case in Camden.

A Bateman, Esq. at Elwell's Railroad Hotel, Camden, cured of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in their worst form. He had been very seriously afflicted for 3 years. We can but note his case here. Call and see him; you will pronounce them a blessing.

Another Extreme Case.

Mr. George Wilmeir, merchant, 317 Market st. cured of Disease of the Liver, and Chronic Diarrhœa, of 15 years standing. He has been under the medical treatment during the time, visited the mineral springs of note throughout the Union, without permanent benefit, and was at last permanently cured by the use of a few bottles of "Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters."

JOHN MOORE, Jun. Esq. Editor of the "Daily News" said, October 31st, 1849:

"Hoofland's German Bitters.—We are trying this renowned article. For a kidney complaint, or the bowels, and can with truth testify to its efficacy. We have taken 2 bottles, and we have derived more benefit than we derived previously from years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our family physician.

Three More Cures.

Philadelphia, 3d mo. 20th, 1850.

Respected Friend: I had for several years been afflicted with Dyspepsia, and occasionally a General Debility. I accidentally met with Hoofland's German Bitters." I was induced to try it myself. I then got a bottle, and used it according to directions, and it relieved me more than anything had before used. It gave me new strength in my stomach and system. Last fall I had a very severe spell of the Diarhœa, which continued for some time. My life, for a time, was despaired of. Thy Bitters again being used, soon relieved me from that distressing complaint, and soon relieved me from that great pain I suffered, and gave general health to the system. I consider it, doctor, one of the greatest blessings ever conferred, and shall take great pleasure in recommending it to others.

Very respectfully thy friend, SAMUEL HUTTON,

No. 5 Jennings' Row, Catharine, above Third.

Dr. C. M. Jackson, Dear Sir—Philadelphia.

That this medicine will prove the foregoing diseases, no one can doubt, if they use it as directed; it will act specifically upon the Liver, Stomach and Nerves. It is preferable to all others, in all Bilious complaints, its effect is immediate, and they do not prostrate the system.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS

This medicine has attained that high character which it is necessary for all medicines to attain, to induce counterfeiters to put forth spurious articles, at the risk of the lives of those who are innocently deceived.

Look well to the Marks of the Genuine.

For the protection of invalids against fraud, the signature of C. M. JACKSON will be upon the front of the outside wrapper, and his name blown in every bottle.

Purchase no others without these marks of genuineness; all others are Counterfeits—OFFICE ADVICE given gratis upon all diseases.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at the principal depot,

GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

No. 120 Mulberry or Arch st. (as door below Sixth, formerly 278 Race st.) Philadelphia, Pa., and by respectable dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, and the West India Islands.

PRICES REDUCED!

To enable all classes of Invalids to enjoy the advantages of their great Restorative Power,

Single Bottles, 75 cts.—Three Bottles, $2,00.

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.

Aug. 11, 1851.-1y

Excelsior Chemical and Color Works.

SAMUEL TRUESDELL,

MANUFACTURER OF

PAINTS & COLORS:

Chrome Green,	American Vermillion,
Chrome Yellow,	Chinese Blue, "
Prussian Blue,	Paris Green,
Paris Blue,	Rose Pink, &c. &c

No. 141, Fulton street, New York.

IMPERIAL GREEN PAINT IN OIL.

April 18, 1852.—3m.

APPLY TO READ!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. KINKELIN,

N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat or legs, pains in the head, nodes upon the bones, nervous irritability, diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled are all invited to call.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, unfitting the unfortunate victim for study, business or society, should apply immediately if they would be restored to health and happiness.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his parents, the darling of his mother, should be snatched from all prospects in life by the consequences of deviating from the path of rectitude, when a few months' attention to himself would restore him to perfect health.

Secrecy and honor may be relied upon.

Dr. K. has lately published a work on the above subject, which should be read by every young man. Price 25 cents.

Dr. K. may be consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. Letters must contain a fee, or they will not be attended to.

Medicines sent to any part of the country.

Nov. 17, 1851.—1y

Gentlemen's Furnishing Store,

No. 202 Greenwich st., corner of Chambers,

NEW YORK.

(One block from the Hudson River R. R. Depot, and two blocks from the Fire R. R. Depot.)

Embracing a genteel and complete assortment of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, for the Spring trade, now opened in the best manner, and sold wholesale and retail at the lowest cash prices; consisting of

Fine Shirts,	Cravats,
White & col'd do.	Scarfs,
Under Shirts,	Ties,
Drawers,	Stocks,
Stockings,	Gloves,
Half Hose,	Handkerchiefs,
Collars,	&c., &c. &c.

Dressing Robes, Travelling Bags, Valises, Satchels,

Together with a good assortment of

ENGLISH & GERMAN HOSIERY,

for Men, Ladies and Children.

The principle upon which our business is conducted is that of one price only, for cash, and in proportion to the quality, a cheap as can be found at any other establishment in this country.

The attention of gentlemen and ladies who desire to procure such articles on the best terms, is respectfully invited. THOMAS M'LAUGHLIN.

New York, March 5, 1852.

Sir Our FINE SHIRTS are cut by experienced hands and made up in a superior style, and when specially ordered, will be supplied to fit the customer at short notice. mar16 4m.

Cheaper Yet!

THE Subscriber having a very large assortment of Goods on hand, which are daily increasing by New Arrivals, has resolved to reduce his stock by

Selling off at Unusually Low Prices;

And solicits a call from the public to examine for themselves, and they will find that they can get

GOODS FOR LESS MONEY,

Than at any other Store in the country.

Nov. 17, 1851. IRA PRUDEN.

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the Subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N. J. containing from one quarter to one acre each, pleasantly situating on 2d, 3d, 4th, Main, Liberty and William sts; also a good sized lot with a Dwelling House built expressly for the accommodation of two families, and in a desirable location; very nigh the centre of the business part of town, on the corner of Exchange and Second sts. a very short distance from Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store

Jan. 19, 1852.—tf BENJAMIN STEELE.

Central Rail Road of N. J.

Extension to Clinton, 8 miles.

Two Extra Accommodation Train.

Spring Arrangements,

Commencing Monday, May 3d, 1852.

This line leaves New York by steamboat Red Jacket Pier No. 1 North River, foot of Liberty st. Elizabethtown with trains on the N. J. Railroad, which leave New York from the foot of Cortlandt st., at the SAME HOURS.

Leave New York,

At 9 o'clock, A. M. at 1 P. M. (Freight) and 5 P. M.

Trains to New York Leave

	Freight.	Passenger.	Passenger.
Whitehouse, at	3.35,	5.40 and	8.40 A.M. 1.40 P.M.
North Branch,	3.30	5.50	8.50 1.50
Somerville,	4	6.05	9.05 2.05
Bound Brook,	4.20	6.15	9.15 2.15
Plainfield,	5.10	6.40	9.45 2.40
Westfield,	9.50	6.55	10.5 2.55
Elizabethtown,		7.15	10.35 3.15

Stages will be in readiness on the arrival of the 9 o'clock train from New York, at White House, to convey passengers to Easton. Wilkesbarre, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Penn.; and Flemington, Lambertville, Lahanca, Clinton, Milford, Bethlehem, Bloomsbury, N. J., and to New Hampton, Washington and Belvidere, N. J., on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; also from Somerville for Pluckemin and Pluckamin, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

N. B. All Baggage at the risk of the owners until delivered into the actual possession of the agents of the company, and checks or receipts given therefor.

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Heart Corrector,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-Dyspeptic Mixture	Anti-Bilious Pills,
Liver Pills,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific

Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil,

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of

Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Rheumatisms, Female Complaints, Piles, &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequaled Patent Silver Plated Anti-Bilious Suspenders.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Shoulder Steel Spring Shoulder Braces.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES

ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF

Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to a good age.

This Book should be in every family. To the consumptive it points out the only Rational Method ever offered for relief. To the medical, the directions it gives for the care and education of children are invaluable. 75,000 copies of this Book have passed through the press, and the sale every month is increasing.

For Sale by S. S. FITCH & CO., 707 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

READ! READ! READ!

All Storekeepers and Druggists in Somerset County, in the State of New Jersey, and the U. States, in consequence of the great demand, keep for sale

DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS.

Near 600,000 Boxes were sold the past year in the U. States, and over 30,000 boxes were sold in the state of New Jersey alone.

YOUNG AND OLD, MALE AND FEMALE, can always take them with equal safety, without fear, for relief. They are purely vegetable, and in purging or cleansing the stomach and bowels and purifying the Blood and fluids of the body, take no others—for no other pills produce those combined effects which contain no calomel or mercury.

Eat, Drink and Live as Usual, and pursue your usual occupation whilst taking them, without fear of taking cold, during all kinds of weather.

CURE FOR FITS.

and cold at Twenty Five cents a box, with directions and wholesome advice accompanying each box.

They have no taste or unpleasant smell,

Can be taken by persons of any age,

Do not gripe the stomach or bowels,

Produce no sickness, vomiting or bad feelings,

And adapted in most cases of complaint to mankind

BEWARE! BEWARE!

of other pills called by names nearly similar, represented as the same or as good, 'tis a trick to impose on the public.

DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS are the safest, best and most efficacious Pills known.

AS THOUSANDS CAN TESTIFY.

Sir Principal Depot, Dr. LEIDY'S Dispensary, No. 114 North Fourth st. Philadelphia—and sold in every town in New Jersey.

BENJAMIN SANDY, Esq. is the Travelling agent for the state of New Jersey.

Sir M. F. CUSHING, and E. KIRKPATRICK, Agents for Plainfield. july29-1y

PAINTS, &c.

AMERICAN PATENT ATOMIC DRIER, Graining COLORS—Anti-friction Paste, Gold Size, Zinc Drier, Stove Polish, and Black Varnish for Iron Work.

QUARTERMAN & SON'S

Painters & Chemists,

114 John-Street, New York.

March 9, 1852.—1y.

German Washing Powder, & Fluid

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 21. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1852. Whole number 802.

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 214 Broad-street, Washington Hall Buildings,

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical, lepine, verge and detached lever Watches: curb, polished and Swiss Guard Chains; fob and vest Chains of all patterns; silver, shell and ivory mounted card cases; gold and silver, shell and ivory mounted pencil cases; gold and silver pencils; Ladies' single and double engraved and plain Pencils; Ladies' single stones, cameos and mosaic cameos, cornelian, jet, engine turned, mourning and plain Brooches; Gents' cluster, single stoned, engraved and plain Studs; Finger Rings of all patterns; Ladies' plain gold, chain and hair Bracelets; Ladies' Snake of all kinds; Ear rings of the latest styles; Gents' diamond, emerald, turquoise, hyacinth, and all styles of Breast Pins; gold lockets and Miniature Cases; Gold Pens; Hearts and Crosses; gold Fob and Guard Keys; gold, silver and steel Spectacles, Spoons and Butter Knives; gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Bonquet Holders, tablets, Ink pins, scissors, knives, tea bells, purses, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, bead bags, clasps and slides, chess men and boxes, bead bags, backgammon boards, Portfolios, Ink stands, Snuff boxes, Work boxes, watch stands, bureau cases, pearl cards, twin Ink stands, microscopes, razors, cases of sailing wax, pen holders, microscopes, razors and razor strops, fancy work boxes, china work boxes and razor strops, fancy work boxes, china work boxes and mantel vases, portfolios, pocket wallets, tobacco and snuff boxes, hair, hat, nail, clothes and comb brushes; silk guard chains; pocket books, a large assortment; dressing combs, beside a complete pocket comb case; steel, silk and gilt fob chains; shaving brushes, shaving boxes, &c.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

Piano Fortes from the best makers, Violins, Clarionettes, Flutes, Flageolets, Bass Violins, Drums, Metronomes, Violin Bows, Accordeons, tuning forks; Violin, Violincello and Guitar Strings; Trimmings for all Instruments; a large assortment of songs, duetts, quartettes, trios and glees, comprising all the latest publications; also Instructional Music, namely, waltzes, quick steps, marches, rondos, duetts for four hands, and sacred songs; Guitar music, Instruction books for Piano Forte, flute, fife, violin, accordeon, guitar, flageolet, &c. &c. All of which can be bought in New York; with a variety of other goods not enumerated in this catalogue, comprising the largest variety in New Jersey.

WATCH REPAIRING AND CLEANING.

The subscriber, determined to give full satisfaction to those that employ him, has engaged a very superior workman from Switzerland, who has been employed by several years in manufacturing all kinds of watches, and is well skilled in repairing and cleaning watches, as testimonials from some of the first watch makers of the city of New York will testify.

Jewelry made to order. Old gold and silver taken in exchange. 38y

Wholesale and Retail

Wine and Liquor Store.

29 Fair Street, Newark, N. J.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has constantly on hand at the above old established stand, a full and choice supply of PORT AND WINES AND BRANDY, which he offers at the lowest cash prices. Families in any part of the city or country, can depend on Brandy of every grade, Meder's Swan Gin, Irish, Scotch and Monongahela Whiskey, St. Croix and Jamaica Rum, Port, Madeira, Malaga and Champagne Wines, Lorey's Bitters, &c.

Philadelphia Bottled Porter and Pale Ale of the first quality; also, a very choice article of Bottled Cider (almost equal to Champagne) on hand.

A continuance of patronage is solicited.

March 14, 1852.—3m LOUIS L. RELAND.

BOOTS, SHOES, CAPS & FURS,—No. 16 Church-st.

NEW-BRUNSWICK.

WILLIAM V. B. SCHENCK,

Successor to H. H. Schenck & Son.

Respectfully informs his customers and the public, that he still continues at the old stand, No. 16 Church street, and is now prepared to offer a general assortment of Fall and Winter Goods, which will be sold at the lowest cash prices.

A full stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, viz.:

Men's fine and coarse and pegged Boots.

Boys' light and coarse Boots and Brogans.

A variety of Ladies' and Misses' Gaiters, Jenny Linds, Excelsiors, and other styles, of his own manufacture.

A general assortment of Children's Shoes, of all styles and colors.

CAPS—A general assortment of Men's and Boys' Cloth and Glazed Caps, of all patterns.

INDIA RUBBER GOODS—Gentlemen's, Ladies' and Children's India Rubber Shoes, of all kinds.

FURS—Ladies' Muffs, Victorines and Cuffs, White Down, Fur Skin, &c.

All to be sold cheap for Cash.

The undersigned, being thankful for the patronage heretofore received, respectfully solicits a continuance of the same. W. V. B. SCHENCK.

New Brunswick, Dec. 15, 1851.—6m

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quality.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome and serviceable an article as they can in New York or Philadelphia, and, half a dollar each cheaper.

N. B. Moleskin or Silk Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 23, 1851.—1y

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,

I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Goods on our counter now so lie,

To suit the mind, to please the eye.

We paid the cash to buy them cheap,

We'll sell them right to sell a heap.

Ginghams and Muslins, Combs and Cords,

The newest styles New York affords;

Delaines and Lustres, Alpacas and Bareges,

Colors of which we'll warrant true.

Cloths and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,

And all the goods which suits them do use;

Together with a good supply

Of groceries good which will defy

A class of men who live with us,

And there's a very large quality a fuss,

To go to Brunswick with their trade,

Of those at home they are afraid.

We'll sell to them and all the rest,

For cheap goods and low prices best.

With Brunswick prices we'll compete,

And the shall tremble in the heat;

So come and see, come short, come tall,

I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Plainfield, May 13, 1850

CAMPHENE AND BURNING FLUID—Of a very superior quality, putup for long voyages, in cans hermetically sealed, and warranted to keep for 5 years by JOHN S. LOUNSBERY, 82 Barling Slip, N. Y.

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Carved Maple Square and Cottage Rocking Chairs, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, and Children's Chairs; Also,

Wash and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel do.

March 27, 1852. For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

From Peterson's Magazine for May.

MY WIFE'S BARGAINS.

My wife has a great notion of making bargains. She occasionally spends a whole day in shopping, when to accommodate her, we have no dinner at home, I dining down town, and the children being put off with a cold lunch.

The other day, when I returned to supper, after one of these excursions, almost the first words Mrs. Jones said, were,

"Such luck as I've had to-day, Smith. Do hurry and eat supper, that I may show you my bargains."

Accordingly the purchases were produced, when the meal had been despatched, and the children put to bed. This last procedure was not effected, however, without some difficulty, for the little ones had heard their mother talking so much of their new spring dresses, that their curiosity was all alive, and they were eager to sit up; but the laws of the Medes and Persians were not more inflexible than Mrs. Jones: and when from pleading the children proceeded to crying, she whipped them all round, and then had them carried struggling to bed.

"Here's some wonderful chints," she said, producing a bit of calico, "its worth a shilling, every inch of it, and I've known the day when I could not have bought it for less than a quarter of a dollar:—what do you think I paid for that?"

I was incapable of answering, my business not lying in that line, and I confessed as much.

"Oh! you men never know anything," she said. "Well, I paid eight cents for it, only think of it, and isn't it pretty?" As she spoke, she held the pattern before her, smoothed it carefully down with her hand.

Next she exhibited some cashmere for the boys' jackets, and drilling for their pantaloons, all purchased marvellously cheap; and finally took up a piece of delaine as she called it.

"There, now there's a bargain," she said, proudly, unrolling the fabric. "I never, in my life, saw anything as cheap as this. Seventy-five cents is the price I was to import this article, so the store-keeper said, yet I got it for—what do you think?—now just guess for once, Jones."

"A dollar a yard, I suppose," I answered, "for that's about a fair profit."

Mrs. Jones laughed outright. At last she spoke.

"No, I bought that for thirty-seven and a half cents a yard; as it was so cheap, I took enough for myself as well as for the children."

"But I thought," I interposed, meekly, "that you had already bought your own dresses."

"So I had," she replied, "but this was so cheap you know: and then a delaine dress is always useful."

"If I don't think there's much saved then," said I, bluntly. "My next spring your dress will be out of fashion, so that it will be a complete loss. I suppose it takes as much stuff for you as for both the girls."

"Exactly."

She spoke shortly; but I went on.

"Then you might just as well have bought delaine at seventy-five cents a yard. Are you sure this is good? See, it looks rotten."

"Do you think I don't know bad delaine?"—she said, and she jerked the goods out of my hand, as if I was unworthy to look upon it.—"But its no use talking to you, or showing you my bargains; you always make fun of them, or find fault."

I saw that the patience of Mrs. Jones was giving way, and on reflection concluded that I had been too severe for her, so I said no more. But I thought of the miserable dinner I had been forced to partake of, down town, at a cheap eating-house; and of the children who had gone crying to bed.

The next morning, Mrs. Jones had a fever, caused by over-exertion the day before. She had walked too far, the doctor said, and neglected to eat anything; a delicate woman, he added, ought never to do either, much less both together.

Mrs. Jones was ill for a fortnight, and the doctor's bill was twenty dollars, so that her great bargains did not amount to much, especially as a seamstress had to be hired, while my wife was still sick, to take her part in making up the children's clothes.

Nor was this all. The boasted delaine proved, as I had feared, rotten. The first dress that gave way was one of the children's, for which the little creature received a severe admonition, and subsequently a whipping, when she ventured to lay the accident on the flimsy character of the stuff itself. But a few days after Mrs. Jones tore her own dress, while engaged in smoothing it down in front, so miserable was the material.

The colors of the cheap calico proved bad, and the drilling turned out to be half cotton. Of all her purchases, the cashmere was the only article in which she was not defrauded, and the reason was, I suppose, that it was a remnant.

Before summer came, new dresses had to be purchased for both the girls, and a new pair of pantaloons a piece for the boys, the other ones not being fit for Sunday wear.

I calculated, when all was over, that I had lost about thirty-five dollars, by that one shopping. Mrs. Jones will not, however, admit this: her sickness, she says, would have happened anyhow.

So that my wife is incorrigible, I fear, on the subject of bargains.

THE MONKEY AND TELESCOPE.—A FABLE.

The monkey of a celebrated astronomer, having seen him continually looking through his telescope, concluded there must be something delightful in it, and one day he gazed through it a long time, but, seeing nothing he concluded his master was a fool, and the telescope all nonsense, and he told Rover, the dog, what he thought of his master.

"I don't know the use of the telescope, nor how wise our master may be," said the dog, "but I am satisfied of two things."

"What are they," said the monkey.

"First," said the dog "that telescopes were not made for monkeys to look through; and second, that monkeys were not made to look through telescopes."

It is now a settled point that the Japanese are the "rest of mankind," which President Taylor so feelingly alluded to in his celebrated message.

Wendell Phillips says "we live under a government of men—and morning newspapers."

From the N. Y. Spirit of the Times.

THE MAN THAT GOT HUMBUGGED.

The stage in which I was a passenger had stopped to change horses, and "feed," the passengers, at a small town in Vermont, and, dinner over, we were awaiting the arrival of the stage upon an interesting route, to proceed upon our journey. Cigars had been lighted, and by way of passing our time, we had commenced a critical examination of the mammoth pictorial posters of Barnum's Menagerie, which covered the walls of the spacious bar-room. Barnum's name opened a fruitful topic of conversation; every one present seemed stored with anecdotes of the "Napoleon of Showmen," and the Woolly Horse, the Feejee Mermaid, and Joice Heth, were not forgotten in the discussion which followed.

Suddenly a long, slab-sided individual, with an owl-like expression of wisdom and dignity, who had been listening to our remarks with an evident desire to take a hand, broke in with:

"I s'pose you think that's an all-fired big concern! Any body would that hadn't seen it."

"Then I suppose you have seen it?" said my legal friends.

"Yaas, I seen it at Springfield," was the reply; "it's a darned humbug!"

"Is it possible?" said the Major, seeing a prospect of fun. "Couldn't you oblige us with a description of the institution?"

"Certainly," said Jonathan; "here's the stage, and as soon as we get started, I'll give you all the items. They can't humbug me very often, and when they do, I cal'late to advertise for 'em till I get square."

In a few minutes we were under headway, and our verdant friend commenced unbosoming himself.

"Yer see, Barnuman was a going to show his caravan down to Springfield, Fourth of July, and I thought there'd be a good chance to see the elephant and celebrate the day, both at one't.—What I wanted to see more than all the rest was the Car of Jugglenot, drawn by a string of elephants."

"Did you meet your expectations?"

"I never seen one into it. Before I got in town, they'd got all through parsdin," and the elephants was unharnessed, and the car of Jugglenot was into a woodshed. I made up my mind right off, then, that the hull concern was a humbug."

"Was Barnum aware," I asked, "that you were to be in town?"

"Not as I know" was the answer.

"If he had known it," added the Major, he would doubtless have waited. "But you visited the exhibition, I suppose?"

"Of course I was bound to do that, if it bust me. That was a bigger humbug than all the rest."

"How so?"

"Why, in the first place I expected to see Jenny Lind."

"Was she announced in the bills?"

"I don't know: I don't read 'em, but I axed the man that stuck up the pictures if she'd be there, and he said yes, and that, she'd sing the bird song standin' on top of a cage of cockatoos and parrots. She wan't there, and I never seen one side of her—and then I know'd the whole consarn was a darned humbug."

"Well, then, I went round and took a look at the elephants—had herd work to get round in; there was mor'n a hundred thousand people in the tent. I got where they was, and the folks was all feedin' 'em with apples and cakes and things. I had some dou'ginuts in my hat, so I held it out to one of the darned things, to see if he'd take one."

"Did he take one?"

"He took 'em all, and the hat to, stuck 'em in his nasty peaked mouth and begun 'eatin. I hollered to the keeper, and told him it was a bran new hat. He said never mind, he'd get it again."

"Did he get it?"

"Yes, he got it, but a hat ain't much account after an elephant's chawed it. Then I'd a sworn the hull consarn was a humbug. Well, I took a look at Tom Thumb, and the Ceylone Chief and the man that fiddled with his toes, and the feller that went with the lions. The wild animals was well enough, but I didn't see as they looked any different from any body else's. I expected Barnum's lions would be twice as big as any others. There was one thing, though, that was fust rate; that was the wax statuatary—especially the 'intemperance family.' I told the man that tuk care of it, I wished every body that ever drinked a drop of sperrits had to stand and look at that about a week—they'd never want to drink again. He said he wished so to."

"Take it all in all, though, I was mad'd I didn't see what I expected, and I didn't like the idea of being humbugged, so I enquired of one of the men that was stirrin' up the monkies where Barnum was, and he pointed him out to me, selling lemonade out of a wagon. I went up to him, and, thinks I, "I'll give him a piece of my mind." Sez I—

"Mr. Barnum—"

"Sixpence a glass," sez he.

I looked at his lemonade; there was just one lone, solitary, second-handed slice of lemon in a whole wash-tub full of it, and he peddlin' it out at sixpence a glass. That made me madder than all the rest, so says I, loud and audibably—

"Mr. Barnum, I think your show's a darned humbug."

"Young man," sez he, "I s'pose you paid to come in?"

"Supposin' I did?" sez I.

"Well," sez he, "supposin' you have; you have paid your quarter, and you're a perfect right to think just what you please."

"Why," said the Major, after the sensation caused by this recital had somewhat subsided, "why did you not demand your money back? You certainly could have compelled them to refund your quarter."

"You see the truth is," said Jonathan, scratching his head, "I didn't pay no quarter—I crawled in under the canvas!"

The man who don't take a paper wants to know if General Scott wasn't killed at the battle of Waterloo.

It is stated that in the town of West Newbury, Mass., there were raised and put up last year, of marketable apples, 14,000 barrels, worth about $28,000.

ANECDOTES OF ANIMALS—Continued.

Of monkey-tricks, the Indians have an amusing fable. A man went on a journey with a monkey and a goat, and he took with him, for his refreshment, rice and curds. Ar ived at a tank, the man resolved to bathe and dine. While he was in his bath the monkey ate his dinner, and, having wiped his mouth and paws on the goat's beard, he left the goat to settle his account. The hide-bound bathed, was accustomed to assist himself often upon the road, by holding to the ass's tail. Once, on their travels, during a severe winter, man and ass were plunged into a snow-wreath near Rule Water. After a hard struggle the ass got out; but knowing that his helpless master was still buried, he made his way to him and placed himself so that his tail lay ready to his partner's hand. The bigger grasped it and duly emerged out to a place of safety. Zoologically speaking, it ought not to be thought disrespectful in a man to call his friend "an ass."

Elephants, again. They show their good taste, and are very fond of children. Dr. Darwin says: The keeper of an elephant, in his journey in India, sometimes leave him fixed to the ground by a length of chain, while he goes into the woods to collect food for him; and, by way of reciprocal attention, asks the elephant to mind his child—a child unable to walk—while he is gone. The animal defends it; lets it creep about its legs: and when it creeps to the extremity of the chain, he gently wraps his trunk about the infant's body, and brings it again into the middle of the circle.

And now we can not clear our minds of an elephant without unburthening a story which we have from a tale-teller with Indian experience, and which we imagine to be now first told in print. It causes us to feel that in a Parliament of animals, elephants would have divided in favor of a ten-hours' bill. There was a large ship's rudder to be floated; men were busy about it one evening, when six of elephants were passing on the way home from work, and it was proposed and carried that an elephant might as well save them their pains and push the thing into the water for them. So an elephant was brought and put his head down, and appeared to push with might, but not a beam stirred. Another was brought to help him, with the same result. And finally, as many elephants as the leader would undertake seemed to be busy and did nothing. So the elephants went home. They had struck, and declined working out of business hours. Next morning, on the way to work, one elephant was again brought, and pushed the rudder down into the water, almost as a man might push a walking-stick.

Stories illustrative of the kindness, gratitude, and kindred feelings of which animals are capable, have so often been shown on another; for in fact, the animals, bird, beast and fish, are all good fellows, if you come to know them properly. A rat tamed by a prisoner at Genf slept in his bosom. Punished for some fault, it ran away, but its anger or its fear died and its love lived on: in a month it returned. The prisoner was released, and in the joy of liberty it did not come into his mind to take his old companion with him. The rat coiled itself up in some old clothes left by his friend, all that was left of him, abstained from food, and died in three days.

A surgeon at Dover saw in the streets a wounded terrier, and like a true man took it home with him, cured it in two days and let it go. The terrier ran home, resolved to pay the doctor by instalments. For many succeeding weeks he paid a daily visit to the surgery, wagged his tail violently and departed. Tail-wagging is dog's money, and when this dog thought that he had paid in his own coin, a proper doctor's bill, the daily visit to the surgery was discontinued.

Massachusetts and Connecticut have sterile soils, but they raise onions, and shoemakers, and statesmen. New York is distinguished for her rugged mountain scenery, her deep, dark valleys, her roaring cataracts. But she has her Erie Railroad, one single mile of which is more perilous, expensive, and fearful than one hundred miles of railroad on the plains of New Jersey. What are some of the fruits of that tremendous enterprise, the New York and Erie Railroad? I will briefly give you a few statistics adapted to the present occasion.

In Rockland County alone, last year, they sent 80,000 baskets of strawberries to New York daily and 20,000 quarts of milk. They realized $3,000 per diem for strawberries alone during the season. It is called the "Strawberry Leaf District." Then they have the "Milky Way," the "Milk District," the "Dairy Region" of Orange Co., a land flowing with milk and butter, and honey also, if properly attended to.

The cultivation of the domestic bee, however, has been strangely neglected there and elsewhere in our country. I can conceive of nothing more profitable or interesting in husbandry. The honey bee is adapted to grass and clover regions to grazing or milk districts and its cultivation ought to be contemporaneous with that branch of agriculture. I direct your attention, gentlemen of the sub-ject particularly, as worthy of special regard in this connection.

But to return—at the "Monroe Depot," alone, on the Erie Railroad, they take in two hundred cans daily, each containing fifteen gallons of milk. These depots are along the road for a hundred and fifty miles beyond Piermont, on the Hudson River, as far as Goshen, from the Imperial Empire-city of the country, noted in New Jersey. The milk business alone, is of sufficient importance to justify a separate and distinct train of cars, called the "milk train."

The contractor in New York bargains with the farmer in those counties for milk delivered at the Railroad depot, at two cents a quart, which is found to be equivalent to butter at 25 cents a pound. The farmers pays 1-2 a cent for carriage, and to any seeking of direction in transfer, at 2 cents a quart in New York, clears 100 per cent. As the value of milk increases, the value of lands progressively advances.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.

Abroad in Broadway, now-a-days. A question from the country says he "wonders where they all come from?" That there are so many handsome women in New York is not in the least a matter of wonder to me, but we often wonder where all the fine things they wear come from. Take Broadway of a pleasant afternoon—say 5 o'clock—and between St. Paul's Church and Union Square, half-a-million dollars worth of jewelry and dry goods will be moving up and down the "West Side." This may seem like a rough estimate; but, good reader, it is an easy matter for a lady to put on ten, fifteen, twenty or twenty-five thousand dollars worth of jewelry—if she has it. And some of them have it! Ball, Black & Co., can tell you the biggest stories on this subject than we dare to print. If you want to see what New York ladies are capable of, in the jewelry line, just step into Ball, Black & Co.'s some pleasant afternoon, and you will come home a wiser, if not a better man. You can easily frame an excuse for calling—you want a sixpenny watch-key, perhaps; or, you want to look at a diamond card-case. In any event, you will be treated with attention and courtesy, no matter how little you buy, or whether you buy anything.

Well, you are leaning against a show-case containing jewelry, say, to the amount of sixty thousand dollars; in come half-a-dozen of the most bewitching creatures you ever saw; the clerks are all attention: out come the costly diamonds, gold jewelry and precious stones; the top of the show-case is covered with them; rings, bracelets, pins and necklaces of dazzling splendor are examined with as much nonchalance as you would tumble over an applewoman's pippins; the various articles are "tried," and you catch yourself wishing that you were made up into necklaces that you might encircle the beautiful necks before you; the selections are made; preparations are going forward to settle the bill; you feel nervous, although it is none of your business; some of the ladies takes out a neat little book, asks for pen and ink, writes a few words, tears out the leaf, hands it to the clerk, who smiles and says "thank you," and the party leave. You cause your neck to get a glimpse of that bit of paper. You nearly cry out with astonishment—it is a check for fifteen thousand dollars! You forget your manners, and ejaculate:

"Is that good? Is it not risky to take that check?"

"Good as gold," bluntly replies the clerk; "those ladies spend fifty thousand dollars a year with us."

You, of course, are quenched, and walk home in quite a desponding mood. There is a vast amount of wealth in New York, and plenty of people that are not afraid to use it.—Musical World.

The New Vernionists.—A ridiculous movement has been going on for the last two years, in favor of a new version of the sacred Scriptures. The Rev. Dr. Williams of the Amity Street Baptist Church, in New York, has published a pamphlet containing the reply of that Church to an application for aid in the new undertaking. The reply is thoroughly decisive, and we should be very imperfectly overwhelming did we not know the substantive stubbornness of those against whom it was directed. It sets forth the pre-eminent merits of the present version—shows that though there may be a few verbal misunderstandings there is no actual need of a revision and that the advantage of it would be but dust in the balance compared with the mischief that might result. It exhibits the presumption of such an undertaking by a little synod of translators whose merits are unknown and whose names even are unpublished, and the absurdity of imagining that denominational interests are to be advanced by such means—and condemns the unorthodox alliances which have been formed in order to advance the enterprise. The letter is pervaded with the genuine Christian spirit, and yet a false feeling sheet in the severity which justice demands. We have before taken occasion to animadvert upon this bible tinkering project and are glad to see such a rebuke of it from such a quarter. We are happy to learn too that it meets with no countenance from the great body of the Baptist denomination. The sincerity of those who are engaged in this strange work, we suppose is not to be doubted. All leaflets are sincere however much bigotry or vanity be intermixed with their zeal, but certainly no one who cherishes a proper feeling toward's the sacred volume can wish it made a mere Sectarian book.—Newark Mercury

POULTRY AND EGGS.—I do a small business in raising and putting up garden seeds, and last fall, a year ago, as I was clearing out some red pepper seeds in my back yard, I threw the shucks and chaff promiscuously about. I soon observed my hens picking them up and swallowing them with great avidity. They soon commenced laying eggs, though they had laid none for a month before. I fed them two or three times a week since then, with red pepper, and they have never yet stopped laying, summer or winter, spring or fall, except while they were hatching their chickens; and I am confident, from more than a year's experience, that, by this method, hens may be made to lay the year round.—Dister Newspaper.

An itemizer, at an evening sewing party, reports that one young lady made the exclamation, "I thought I should have died!" one hundred and twenty-eight times; and she put the inquiry, "Did you ever?"—one hundred and thirty-seven times.

The largest raft, says the Cincinnati Commercial, that ever floated down the Ohio river, arrived at that city a few days since. It contained one million two hundred thousand feet of boards —two thirty rods in length and six rods wide.

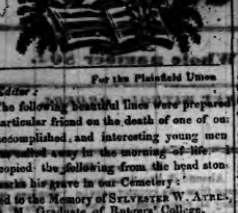
Would it be possible for any body of English scholars to make a translation of the Bible, which would equal, in beauty of construction and force of expression, that which we have received from the hands of our noble King James? The very question excites a smile.

The ostrich eggs of the ringless kind of Madagascar, at the Garden of Plants, Paris, are equal in size to 12 ostrich, 16 cassowary, 148 domestic hen's, or 500,000, humming-bird's eggs.

An hour's industry will do more to beget cheerfulness, suppress evil humors, and reclaim you children, than a month's moaning.

The Union.

Plainfield, N. J. June 1, 1852.



For the Plainfield Union

Mr. Editor:

The following beautiful lines were prepared by a particular friend on the death of one of our most accomplished and interesting young men who was called away in the morning of life. I have copied the following from the head stone that marks his grave in our Cemetery:

"Sacred to the Memory of SYLVESTER W. ANDREWS, A. M., Graduate of Rutgers' College, New Brunswick, who died April 21st, 1847, aged 25 years.

He was lovely in life—Peaceful in death; And now is blest." W.

MIND.

Great minds ever seek with zeal increasing,
For Light and Truth, the vast fields of lore,
And toil their gathered knowledge for increasing,
Life's fleeting joys, at best a scanty store.

HEART.

Tens heart's throbbing pulses ever, ever,
Yearn with sweet charity for all mankind,
Whate'er their bondage, 'tis their firm endeavor,
To strike the chains from body and the mind.

LIFE.

Pure lives are beacon lights, serenely burning,
To guide the footsteps of the wayward youth,
So full of right, they're ever, ever turning,
Maturer erring mortals to the truth!

DEATH.

And death so calm—so full of holy beauty,
When mind and heart and life hath ever been
One constant scene of love and cheerful duty,
Death to all such must be indeed serene.

EULOGY.

All these were his, lamented friend of ours,
Whose death to us his excellence displays,
Too languid are our muse's feeble powers,
To sing in mournful strains his proper praise.

Such was our friend, now tenant of the tomb,
Whose worth we knew not till his voice was hushed,
Like some rare flowers that in life's pathway bloom,
Keep back their sweetest odors till they're crushed.

For the Plainfield Union.

FACTS.—NO. V.

The greatest snow storm in the United States, of which we have a record, was in Feb. 1817. The snow was 8 feet deep.

Milk consists of 4 1-2 parts butter, 3 1-2 parts cheese, and 92 parts whey, to the 100 parts.

A speaker can pronounce about 7 syllables in a second.

There were about 3,000,000 Bibles printed before the Reformation in 40 different languages. Now there is about 40,000,000 in 200 different languages and dialects. 50 years ago the Bible was so printed that about 200,000,000 of people could read it in their own language. Now 600,000,000 can so read it.

The American Bible Society was established in 1816, 36 years ago, since which time 8,000,000 Bibles have been issued. 11,000 have been given to the Navy, and 10,000 to the Army. The Society employs 10 steam presses and 280 persons. Last year it sent $30,000 to print the Bible in Heathen lands.

One pound of Newcastle coal will convert 7 pounds of water into steam.

Sir Walter Scott's Monument in Edinburgh is 200 feet high, cost $16,000; 287 steps conduct to the top of it.

About one quarter of all the land on the globe is inhabited.

Robert Fulton invented the torpedo, a submarine machine to destroy ships.

Port Wine receives its name from the town of Oporto in Portugal.

One hundred and thirty millions of dollars are to be expended on the railways and works in and about Paris.

There are nineteen millions, eight hundred and fifteen thousand, eight hundred and forty-five pounds of bullion in the bank of England.

Sitting to sew by candle light by a table with a dark cloth on it is injurious to the eye-sight. When no remedy presents itself, put a sheet of white paper before you.

A codfish weighing 47 lbs., was caught off Phillip's Beach yesterday. Can the Mammoth Cod Association produce a larger specimen?

Cheap enough.—A Miss Frost, in Massachusetts, has recovered $365 of a gallant, for a breach of promise. He courted her a year, and has to pay at the rate of a dollar a day for it.

Henry.—Catherine Scholey, 34 years of age, and weighing six hundred and eleven pounds, is exhibited at Columbus, Ohio. She is a native of Pickaway county.

The Indiana papers informs us that six patients were admitted into the Insane asylum of that State within the past month, whose insanity has been produced by the Spirit Rappers. It would have been a good idea to have locked the Rappers up with them.

Destructive fires have been raging in the woods in Maine, on the line of the Atlantic and St. Lawrence Railroad, for some time. On Wednesday it was impossible for the cars to run between Greene and Lewistown, and passengers were taken a long circuit in carriages around the fire. At Meckanic Falls, the running of trains was also impeded. Several thousand cords of railroad wood have been consumed, and much damage done to the wood-work of the track.

☞ The lease of the Post Office premises, N. York has been renewed at a rental of $10,000 per annum. The lease runs five years from the 1st of May.

Two aged and very respectable inhabitants of this place, Jared Haines and Mrs. Elizabeth Baldwin, who belong to the same family, being the father and mother-in-law of Judge Haines, and who have for many years resided in the same house, died last night, at an interval of only one hour. They were both in their 86th year, having been only a month's difference in their ages. Their decline has been gradual and peaceful, their faculties being retained in remarkable vigor, and their hearts animated with the consolations and hopes of christianity.—Newark Adv.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is duly authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

THE NEW JERSEY WHIG STATE CONVENTION, Will meet at Trenton on Wednesday, June 2nd, to appoint delegates to the National Convention at Baltimore, June 16th.

☞ The Whigs of Plainfield township held their meeting at Laing's Hall, this (Monday) evening, at half past 7 o'clock, to appoint delegates to the Whig State Convention, June 2d.

The fare on the N. J. Railroad to the Whig convention on Wednesday of this week, will be reduced one half, that is, from Elisabethtown to Trenton and return, $1,75; from Rahway 1,50. Tickets will entitle the holders to go on Tuesday 4 1-2 p. m. train, or Wednesday morning, and return Wednesday evening or Thursday, 7 a. m.

The Democratic National Convention comes on this day, Tuesday, June 1st, and its proceedings are looked for with no little anxiety, by both parties. We hope to be able to inform our readers next week who is to be the chosen leader of the opposition in the Presidential campaign next fall. We cannot now even guess.

Twelve or thirteen of the candidates, about all, have themselves in writing, in favor of the Fugitive Slave Law, and ready on occasion to vote any bill to repeal it.

Kossuth was at Niagara, Buffalo, and vicinity last week, and was greeted with the usual enthusiasm.

RELIGIOUS.

For a month or two past services according to the form in use by the Episcopal Church, have been held in the Seventh-Day Baptist Church, in this place, twice every Sabbath, and are very well attended. This movement must prove beneficial to the place in many respects. A church of that denomination has been wished for in this place by many for some years.

The Roman Catholics of this place have services occasionally, we believe every other Sabbath, in the building on Second Street formerly occupied by the "Village School," a priest from another place being in attendance.

St. John's Church (Episcopal) at Somerville, was consecrated on Friday last.

The Baptists of New Market are about to build a handsome church edifice, 44 by 58 feet, to be located on the plain just this side of the village.

Congress.

The House of Representatives, on Friday, passed a bill, 103 to 74, granting nearly two millions of acres of public lands, for a railroad from St. Louis to St. Joseph, in Missouri. This with political speeches, is about the amount of their doings last week.

The Somerset Whig says that three cows have been killed in that place lately, by the locomotive on the Central Railroad. In neither case were the cars injured.

The wheat crop throughout the western states is spoken of as looking extremely fine.

The same may be said of the grass or hay crop in this section—on the whole, the most valuable crop raised in this country. The weather for some time past has been as favorable for grass as could be desired. Hay is selling here at $16 a ton, and in Newark, at about $26.

The Collins steamship Atlantic sailed for Liverpool on Saturday, with 165 passengers, including Jenny Lind. She took $532,000 in gold.

The Francis Meagher, the Irish patriot and orator, who was banished to Van Dieman's Land for life, has escaped, and arrived in New York last week, after a voyage of four months.

Col. Thos. H. Benton has announced himself as a candidate for Congress from St. Louis, Mo.

The Jersey City Sentinel has taken the name of Mr. Fillmore from the head of its columns and raised that of Gen. Scott in its place. "We set it up ourselves at full, perfect and free request to place at its head of our columns the name of the man whom we now believe will carry, "with a rush," not only the State of New Jersey, but almost every other State in the Union!"

Hon. J. M. Botts of Virginia is out with a letter in favor of Gen. Scott for the Presidency, without pledges. He is willing to trust to his soundness on the Compromise questions, thinks it right, and public fate he should not commit his opinions to writing before the convention is held.

The powder mill and magazine of Laflin & Smith, at Saugerties, New-York, altogether containing several thousand kegs of powder, were blown up on Saturday last. No life was lost, there being no one in or near any of the mills at the time. Seven buildings were blown up. These was not a house left in the neighborhood with a whole window or an uninjured wall. The loss is estimated at $10,000. The shock was distinctly felt in the city of Hudson, and was supposed by the citizens of that place to be an earthquake.

The colored people of Baltimore have adopted a resolution calling for a Convention of delegates from the colored population of the State, with a view to promote colonization in Liberia.

☞ The legislature of Indiana has passed a law making railroad companies liable for all stock killed, unless the roads are properly protected by fences.

A raft was floated down the Ohio River, a few days since which contained one million two hundred thousand feet of boards, was thirty rods in length and six rods wide.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Steamship Cambria arrived at N. York on Saturday morning, May 23, having left Havre on the 9th and Southampton on the 10th. She brings two days' later news.

The Cunard steamship Cambria arrived at Halifax Wednesday morning, having left Liverpool on the 15th inst. with 52 passengers, and 5 days later news.

Cotton 5-8d in large quantities, with a tendency to advance. Breadstuffs were dull.

The Collins steamer Arctic, from New York on the 1st, reached Liverpool on the 12th, and the City of Glasgow at Greenock on the 13th; and the Asia, from Jersey City on the 9th, arrived on the 13th.

The West India steamer Medway, arrived on the 9th with 159 passengers and $1,504,977.—The bullion in the Bank of England was £19,904,400. Gold been discovered in New Zealand, and the accounts from Australia continued favorable.

Two destructive accidents have happened in the Welsh Collieries; the first was an explosion of fire damp, by which eighty persons were killed; the other was the flooding of a pit, by which 28 were drowned.

The Crystal Palace has been definitely bought by the Directors of the London and Brighton Railroad Co., who intend by the aid of a joint stock company to reerect it at Sydenham, about 6 miles from London, and open it as an Exotic Garden by the 1st of May next.

France.—The great fete of May 10th, Bonaparte's birth-day, passed off with great eclat, and without the slightest disturbance. The President reviewed 60,000 troops, presented standards to them, and addressed them, in the presence of near half a million of spectators.

Advices from the Cape of Good Hope to April 1st report horrible cruelties as being perpetrated by the Kaffirs; men were cut up by piecemeal.

Godey's Lady's Book for June has been received, containing 120 pages of useful and interesting original matter by American writers of note. This Magazine still retains its great popularity and most extensive circulation and well merits it. It is well illustrated by numerous steel and wood engravings.

Putnam's semi-monthly Library.—The publisher has sent us numbers, 7, 8, and 9 of his valuable and cheap publications of this title, that we may give our readers our opinion of their merits, and that all interested in this section may have an opportunity of examining specimens of the work.

No. 7, is "Claret and Olives, from the Garonne to the Rhone; or, Notes, Picturesque and Legendary, by the Way. By Angus B. Reach. With Woodcuts." 273 pages. A very lively and well written book of travels through an interesting section of country.

No. 8. A Journey to Iceland and Travels in Sweden and Norway. Translated from the German of Madame Ida Pfeiffer, by Charlotte Fenimore Cooper." 235 pages. Every body has he rd of this celebrated lady traveller a German who has so fearlessly penetrated almost every portion of the habitable globe—and here we have a specimen of her works, translated by a well known female writer of this country. A curious work now first published in English.

No. 9. "Leigh Hunt's Book for a Corner." 228 pages. This consists of short articles, selected from various authors. Entertaining as a newspaper

All the numbers are 12 mo. handsomely and clearly printed on large type and white paper, and sold at 25 cents each, in stiff paper covers, or 40 cents each neatly bound in cloth. They are convenient in size, and cheap enough; and can be read with profit by old or young.

Somerset Orphans' Court.—The Orphans' Court was engaged from Monday afternoon to Friday afternoon of last week, upon a contested will case. The will was that of John M. Schenck, deceased, late of Boundbrook. The ground taken by the caveator, was that the testator was incompetent from loss of mind to make a will. The will was set aside. Tho's A. Hartwell, Esq. for Executors; S. B. Runson, Esq. for caveator.—Messenger.

The Newport Daily News says that during the last twelve months four hundred thousand dollars' worth of real estate has been sold in that town to gentlemen who pass their summers there; some have commenced building upon portions of the land, and others intend to do so soon.

The following notice is taken from a newspaper published thirty years since: "If the members neglect the business of the nation, as in times past, to throw mud at each other like so many scavengers, we shall occasionally pull their honorable noses with our editorial tongs."

A mammoth train of cars passed over the Erie Railroad last Wednesday to Piermont. It consisted of 34 cars, containing 2,877 head of cattle, 936 sheep, and 1,514 hogs. The freight amounted to $3,118, and the train was 1-4 of a mile long.

The extensive iron works at Boonton, N. J. are to be sold at Sheriff's sale. They were commenced soon after the passage of the tariff of 1842, and during their existence have paid out about $250,000 per annum for labor; afforded a market for 20,000 tons of coal annually, besides large quantities of provisions. They were capable of making from 6 to 8000 tons of bar iron or large quantities of provisions. They were capable of making from 6 to 8000 tons of bar iron or 100,000 casks of nails per annum, and had all the best facilities of power, machinery and transportation, but yet could not survive. The reason, it is needless to say, is to be found in the ruinous operation of the present tariff.

Itch Cured in Three Hours.—Dr. Hardy, who has charge of one of the hospitals of Paris, has succeeded in curing the itch in three hours. His method of treatment is as follows:—The patient is first put into a warm bath and rubbed for one hour with yellow soap. He then passes into a clean bath, where for another hour he continues to cleanse his skin. After this the patient is sent away cured.

Never lay a stumbling block in the way of a man who is trying to advance himself in the world honestly and uprightly, for he is likely to walk over and laugh at you afterwards.

A sober man, when drunk, has the same kind of stupidity about him, that a drunken man has when he is sober.

Hon. A. C. Stockton is thanked for a copy of the speech on "Harbor Defences."

The commencement of a "Sea of Tempests" will probably be published in a week or two.

Curiosity.—A letter to the Hon. Truman Smith from the Lake Superior Mines, says:

"We have put in the box a piece of wood, or of a skid that was twenty feet long, when found, lying twenty feet under the surface of the earth, and a mass copper lying thereon, mined out of rein, weighing five tons and one thousand five hundred and forty-two pounds. Every particle of the rock was hammered off from it, and immediately about the mass we found two copper tools that showed copper to have been welded and hardened. A large number of hammers made from stone, were lying around it, and also some coal and ashes, to all appearances, as fresh as though they had been made last year. Vegetable soil to the depth of four or five feet overlaid the whole, on which and in and immediately over this mass of copper, was standing a tree, which proved, on being cut down, to be over five hundred years old."

Fruits of Early Rising.—The preface to the last volume of Rev. Mr. Barnes's "Notes," which has just appeared, mentions a fact which is worthy of being remembered by those who are accustomed to excuse themselves from the performance of any great and useful work for the "want of time." Dr. Barnes has published in sixteen volumes of biblical "Notes," during the composition of which he had charge of a large congregation in Philadelphia; and yet he was not suffered his authorial labors to infringe upon the duties of the pastoral office. These sixteen volumes, he informs us, "have all been written before nine o'clock in the morning, and are the fruits of the habit of rising between four and five, o'clock." From the first, he has made it an invariable rule to cease writing at precisely nine o'clock; and now he finds his formidable task accomplished, and has the satisfaction of knowing that he has been permitted to send forth more than 250,000 volumes of commentary on the New Testament, and that probably a greater number has been published abroad. All this has been accomplished in hours which the majority of men waste in bed, in idle listlessness, or in getting ready for the labors of the day.—New England Farmer.

One of the Women.—The Rhode Island Temperance Advocate tells the following good story of a woman who is worth her weight in gold:

"In Foster, there was an intemperate man who had promised his wife that he would vote for the Maine Law candidates for the Senate and House. On the morning of election day, he was enticed to the tavern, and treated by his anti-law associates till he was drunk. His wife heard of it, searched him out, and got him home. Here she give him an emetic, and got him sober. And then borrowed a horse and wagon and drove him to the polls. He voted for the Maine Law candidates, and his single vote prevented the election of a rum Representative. The result of it is, that we get one, and possibly two Maine Law men from that town."

How many girls have made themselves unhappy by marrying young men who had nothing to recommend them but riches.

"Is he rich?" has been the inquiry when a suitor has presented himself. Foolish girls! Rather—is he intelligent? Is he industrious? is he virtuous? is he temperate? Let these questions be answered in the affirmative, and if he has not a second shirt to his back, we will answer for his course. Wealth may be lost, but the good qualities of the heart remain like the sunshine, to warm and bless. Remember this.

NOTICE

Miss C. Prosch,

WOULD hereby inform her many friends and the generous public that she has be-n attending her suit of rooms, on a much larger and improved plan than any other in this city, and is now ready to furnish Daguerreotypes, per second to none. Family Groups, from two to twenty, taken to give satisfaction; also children of all ages, in a few seconds of time. Portraits of sick and deceased persons taken whenever called upon Also Daguerreotypes colored in Paris tints.

Miss C. PROSCH has no to meet on with any other establishment, and would respectfully wish her friends to bear in mind that she can always be found at 289 Broad-street, only, where she trusts to meet that patronage so long and liberally bestowed upon her.

June 1.—3m 289 Broad-street, NEWARK.

SERVANTS.

A GREAT variety of well selected Servants are now wanting employment at C. MASON'S Offices, 550 Broadway, and 146 Bowery, New York.

Private Houses or Hotels supplied with Servants one year for 50 cents, or with one Servant for 25 cents. Subscriptions respectfully solicited.

N. B.—Men and Boys can be had for any respectable employment without extra charge; no exertion spared to render satisfaction.

New York, May 24, 1852.—1m.

THE STAMPEDE MIXTURE,

A PERFECT REMEDY FOR NEVER-FAILING CURE FOR FEVER AND AGUE.

AND OTHER BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, ARISING FROM WEAKNESS.

This Medicine is purely a Vegetable Compound, and can in no possible manner be classed with nostrums of the day.—The proprietor Dr. Edward Bloecker, is well known, and the properties of this medicine have been long and fairly discussed, and fully tested in private practice as a sovereign remedy for Chills and Fever.

CERTIFICATES

Mr. G. Brush—Dear Sir: Having used Dr. Edward Bloecker's Stampede Mixture, for the cure of Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, &c., of which you are Agent, it is my pleasure to state that I have found it the most beneficial results from it. I have tried many so-called remedies, among the rest Dr. Osgood's Cholagogue. I have suffered long and severely with Chills and Fever. Dumb Ague for more than a year; I tried one bottle of your medicine and it effected a perfect cure. In fact I never enjoyed better health in my life. Any person desirous of knowing the particulars in the above case, can obtain them by calling at my place of business where they will be cheerfully given.

GEO. V. HANKINS, 181 Broadway, N. York, N. Y.

NEWARK April 10th 1852.

Mr. G. Brush—Dear Sir: It gives me pleasure to learn that you have accepted the Agency for that justly celebrated medicine, Dr. Edward Bloecker's Stampede Mixture for the cure of Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, and General Weakness, &c. I have tried it, and it effected a perfect cure when all others failed. I can therefore recommend it to those afflicted with the Fever and Ague, as a most excellent medicine, and one that must naturally come into general use.

HENRY J. YATES, Firm of Vail & Yates.

For sale by G. BRUSH, Plainfield, N. J.

DR. LEWIS CRAIG, Agent for Plainfield. my18-6m

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE,

SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods to his line. He also

Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute all orders in all the branches of the above business, as well, as quick and cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, and you will judge for yourselves.

May 17, 1852.—tf

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any thing we can eat, or do anything with, takes in exchange for goods. I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

Blanks for sale at this Office

New York Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Wheat, flour,	$5,50 to 6,13
" red wheat,	1,12 to 1,19
Indian Corn, Jersey,	1,19 to 1,25
Grass seed,	0,97 to 1,03
Rye,	75 to 76
Oats,	37 to 41
Hay, per cwt,	40 to 42

Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.—That this medicine will cure liver complaint and dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts more finally upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomel in all such diseases; it acts as specifically upon the liver as calomel; calomel prostrates the system—the bitters strengthen and never prostrates the patient, and will give renewed life and health to the debeats invalid, and restores the liver to its functions, and give digestion and appetite in those severe cases wherein the ordinary medicines fail is producing any effect.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Cayenne Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

REMARKABLE CURE OF INFLUENZA.

VERGENNES, VT., June 11th, 1851.

Messrs. Scovill & Co.—Gentlemen: By the use of your inestimable preparation of Dr Rogers' Syrup of Liverwort, Tar and Cowchalogue, I have thoroughly recovered from the worst attack of INFLUENZA that I or as I think, any one else ever experienced. I was aware that the Syrup was invaluable for Coughs and Colds, but had no idea that it would have such magical effect in relieving Influenza, and that too of the worst kind. I had a very dull, heavy, stupid feeling in my head;—my eyes and nose ran constantly, and harassing, prickly sensation in the nose & throat which sometimes marks the disorder, drove me almost crazy. Such was my situation when I commenced taking your medicine. The effect was most extraordinary. The irritation was checked at once; the discharge from the eyes and nose soon after ceased, and the feeling of fullness and stupefaction in the head passed away. These are the simple facts, and you are at liberty to publish them.

With respect, yours, LYDIA CASE.

CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on the leaf wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. L. SCOVILL & CO.

For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Clothis Hall, 316 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.

Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

PRICE—In large bottles, $1,00, or 6 bottles for $5,00.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

Wm. Dunn, 1,00; Theodore Vail, New Market, 1,00; Vincent Barklew, 38; Sarah A. Shreve, 75; Captain Tucker, 62.

MARRIED.

May 18, John J. Clarkson, P. M. to Harriet Dunham, both of Metuchin.

DIED.

At the residence of Samuel Stelle, in Piscataway, on the 19th instant, Mr. Cornelius Y. Dor, in the 48th year of his age.

At New Providence, May 22, Jonathon M. Meeker, Esq. aged 75 years.

Machinery Oil,

75 CTS. A gallon, better than Sweet Oil, at a quarter of the price. For Sale by

June 1st, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

JOHN JELLIFF'S OLD ESTABLISHED

Furniture Warehouse,

$01 & 303 Broad Street, Newark,

Great Improvements in his Store—New Spring Goods.

Mr. J. having remodelled and enlarged his Warerooms is happy to say he is now ready to receive calls; and invitations are herewith respectfully given to his friends, patrons, and all in the pursuit of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, to call and see his wares. Having catered to the wants, convenience, and luxury of Essex county for the last Sixteen Years,

In the way of Cabinet Furniture, for the years having received satisfactory tests during that time, he does not consider it necessary to say more as to the quality of his goods. They speak for themselves, in the enduring comforts and the solid utility universally accorded them. He would invite attention to his

NEW SPRING STYLES,

And, without egotism, he considers his FLAT LABELS Rosewood Chamber Sets, the

Largest, Most Complete and Extensive Assortment

That can be found in the State, and for beauty of design and neatness of execution, he challenges competition. They are got up in the most superb

ANCIENT AND MODERN STYLES,

Comprising all the varieties of useful and fancy goods, in suites or otherwise, of Parlor, Chamber, Library, Sitting and Dining Furniture, and Kitchen Furniture usually called for, including Mattresses, Palliasters, and Cushions of all descriptions.

Churches, Hotels, Saloons, Halls, Counting Houses, Offices, &c. &c. furnished at short notice.

Cheap, Cheap, Very Cheap Furniture!!

No necessity of going to New York, or the Junk Shops for cheap Furniture, as I will sell you the same goods just as cheap, and you will be saved the expense of carriage, freight, breakage, and trouble of going after it.

A Large Stock of Very Low-Priced Furniture.

Sofas within $20; Mahogany Chairs $2,50 Cane seat do, $6 etc.; Sofa Bedsteads $4,44 Cane Seat Tables $7; Bedsteads $2; Tea Tables $2 each; Looking Glasses at all prices. Every thing else in the same proportion.

JOHN JELLIFF, 301 and 303 Broad st.

May 3, 1852.—3m. NEWARK, N. J.

TYPE AND PRINTING MATERIALS.

NEW BUILDING, No. 29 BEEKMAN STREET,

Between Nassau and William Street,

near the City Hall, Park, and Printing Offices.

THE undersigned beg respectfully to inform their patrons and the trade, that they purpose moving on the first of May, to their new building, No. 29 Beekman street, between Nassau and William street. They trust, from the facilities they will have in every modern improvement, to meet a continuance of liberal support. Fonts of plain Scotch faces, ranging from 100 lbs. to 1,000 lbs. weight will be on hand, as well as a variety of the fancy styles, and every other article necessary for the furnishing of complete printing offices.

The subscribers would beg to call the attention of the trade to the Specimen of Fancy Job Types which have been surpassed, if equalled, by any foundry in the U. States. By a peculiar combination of metals, arrived at from an experience of 20 years, they are enabled to cast type which they feel secure will wear much longer than that heretofore furnished by any foundry in the country. In proof of this, they would state that the last dress of the Herald has been in use for 18 months, averaging a daily circulation all the year, including Sundays, besides extras, of 32,000 copies—and this on their rotary cylinder press—thus evidencing conclusively the fact of durability.

JAMES CONNER & SON.

No. 25 Ann street, corner 3 st.

☞ Editors and Publishers of newspapers, giving the above 3 insertions prior to the 1st of June, and sending us a copy of the same, will be paid for it in printing, or purchasing type to the amount of their bill for advertising. my24-3m

NEW GOODS.—Brooks' Royal Patent 6 cord cotton thread, warranted, wound on the spool the opposite way. A. S. DONHAM & CO.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by May 4, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

Hoover's Black Ink.

THE best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

The French ship Bella Amie, which arrived at New Orleans on the 12th inst. brought over among her passengers a number of priests and Roman Catholic nuns, destined for Texas and Missouri.

In 10 years, 3,500,000 copies of the Holy Scriptures, and 16,000,000 tracts have been printed in France. The harvest time it approaching.

In the British army, it is stated, about one-fourth are Roman Catholics; of the other three-forths, one at least belongs in part to the Church of Scotland, in part to other Protestant denominations not in conformity with the Church of England.

N. Y. Crystal Palace. Upwards of $170,000 it is stated, have been subscribed to the exhibition to be opened at Reservoir Square, and it is said that the building will now be positively erected.

A new machine for splitting the timber used in making matches has been lately introduced in Augusta, Ga., by Mr. Aldes, of Philadelphia. It splits with ease twenty thousand a minute, or one million an hour, and turns them out into blocks ready to be dipped.

I. S. DUNN.

HAVING taken up his residence in this place near the railroad in Centre street, nearly opposite Rev. D. T. Hyde, offers his services to the public generally, as a professional Clerk, by the week, day or job, on reasonable terms. Deeds, Mortgages, Leases, Wills, and other Legal Instruments carefully drawn. He will attend vendues, take inventories, and receive all similar orders, at any time, whether it be during the evening after 6th day and on 7th Day. Having had considerable experience, he hopes to give satisfaction.

Plainfield, May 10, 1852.—1m I. S. DUNN.

Administrator's sale.

THE Subscriber, Administrator of the Estate of ABRAHAM PARKER, deceased, will sell at Public sale, on Second Day (Monday) the 12th day of July next, at 10 o'clock A. M. on the premises, the Real Estate belonging to said deceased, viz: one Two-story House with Lot and Garden, situated on the east corner of Second and Front Streets, in Plainfield.

Any information that may be wanted in reference to said property, will be cheerfully furnished by calling on the subscriber, or Benjamin Parker, on the premises.

SALE POSITIVE. ZACHARIAH WHITE,
Plainfield, May 6, 1852. Administrator.

SELECT SCHOOL.

MISS JEWETT, who has had much experience and success in teaching, will open in Second st. near Mechanic, on Wednesday the 19th inst. a

SELECT SCHOOL.

For Girls and Young Ladies, in which will be taught all the branches of knowledge and finishing English Education, together with the Latin and French Languages.

Application may be made at Rev. Mr. Sheldon's, Second street.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—tf

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES FACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 25 cents a piece, (using the walls and paste instead.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Plain and Gilt Borders and Velvet papers from 10 cents to 24 per piece. A Room papered in 4 hours.

J. F. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers.
Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852.

FARMERS' AND PLANTERS' BOILER OR LAUNDRY KETTLE.—A new article, designed for the use of farmers, planters or manufacturers, or for any purpose where the common cauldron has heretofore been used. It consists of a stove or fire box, designed for burning wood, coal, or other fuel, with a cauldron so adapted that the flame is spread in a thin sheet around the bottom and sides forcing it equally over every portion of the kettle in the same time, thus effecting economising in the use of fuel, and securing the utmost expedition in its operation. For sale by

BARTLET BENT, Jr. 238 Water Street,
May 17, 1852.—3m New York.

A CHOICE ASSORTMENT OF

GARDEN, FIELD and FLOWER SEEDS,

—WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.—

WILLIAM CAIRNS

INFORMS his friends and the public that he has succeeded Mr. John Eadie, in the Seed Store, 141 Market-street, Newark.

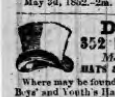
W. C. flatters himself that his long experience in the Seed business, and the facilities he has of procuring the best quality of SEEDS grown in this country and in Europe, coupled with punctuality and strict attention to business, will secure to him a liberal share of patronage.

W. C. has laid in his stock of new seeds for the season, to which he invites the attention of purchasers.

Catalogues to be had gratis on application.

Greenhouse Plants, Fruit, Ornamental Trees, &c. furnished to order. New York reference by unknown our correspondents.

N. B.—Jobbing punctually attended to by the day, month or year, by practical men.
May 3d, 1852.—2m.



Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

HATS & CAPS, wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's, Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted for the city, country trade, all of which are made on our own manufactory on this city under our own particular direction. Purchasers who may select or order can rely upon being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as favorably as at any establishment in the country.

352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.
May 3d, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

BARAGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received and selling off cheap.

Calicoes, best colors, for 6 cents per yard

May 3, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

1852.

SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S.

WE would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not purchase many Goods with a view of trying to make the people believe them to be what they are not, but keeping the style and quality of such goods for their selves. DeLaines from 10cts to 4s, handsome Berage DeLaines new styles from 18d to 2s, plain and Spring Prints from 4 to 14 cts, a good lot of Ladies' sleeve from 10 cts to 75; also Gents Gloves, Bleached and Unbleached Muslins very cheap, Ginghams from 10 cts. to 28, and more than a hundred other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloth, and Cassimere Vestings which we are prepared to make into any or all of which can be cut and made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Boots for sliding goods and very cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods from the

Plainest and Cheapest
To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it an object to Cash purchasers from 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we are entirely in the Dry Goods trade and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

SILKS! SILKS!! SILKS!!!

And we shall endeavor to keep constantly on hand a full assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also Cashmere Plaids new Spring Styles to which the attention of Ladies is particularly requested, at ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

May 3d, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of May next, removes his store to No. 30 Maiden-Lane, to the store formerly occupied by him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him:—James Henschel & Sons' celebrated Needles—Richards' Grooveless and other Needles,—Pearl Buttons, Combs' Steel and Gold Pens, Steel and Ball Cotton, Stay Binding, Tape, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c.

RICH'D RICHARDS,
Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods.
April 26, 1852.—3m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York.

NOTICE.

THE Notes belonging to the late firm of FRENCH & RUNYON have been left with the subscriber for collection. The necessary and Notes are requested to call at the store of Berry & Shurpon, and settle the same as they fall due.

ABM. RUNYON.
Plainfield, April 29, 1852.—3m

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS.

DANIEL BULLMAN,

Is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Spring Patterns; Dress Goods of every grade and price; Silks, plain and fancy; Gingham; Glassings, &c. &c. Suited to the season: Linens, White Goods of all kinds, Clothes, Cassimeres, Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Hosiery, Gloves, and all other articles in the dry goods line, necessary to make a perfect, full and complete assortment as can be found in these parts, and they will be sold as cheap too. Try me and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing these articles, will find my store the place where they can get them, and sell them as cheap as any man can. Our customers cannot help being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY.

Some assorted, and soon very complete, large and varied assortment, to suit all taste, constantly on hand. Also, Lamps, in great variety.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, when I can sell you good articles, and save you freight, breakage and trouble of going after it.

Also, Looking-Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS AND SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

VARIETIES AND FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call, and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it, and likely. A portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited.

D. BULLMAN.
April 26, 1852.

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Earthen and Stone Ware, Glass, &c. &c. His stock has been selected with great care, and an eye to cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints, Ginghams, Cassimeres,
Barege de Laine, Gloves, Summerstuffs,
Laans, Hosiery, Fustiano, &c.
Ribbons of all styles of goods, not adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear, Muslins bleached and unbleached, colored cambrics, shirtings, sheetings, buttons, thread, cotton bats, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas, Rice, Sugars, Candles, Flour,
Coffee, Corn Starch, Soap, Indian Meal.

PROVISIONS.—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef,
Pepper, Spices, Cheese, Hams, Pork, &c.
Pepper sauce, Honey, brushes, brooms, &c. &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all, both old and young, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to call the second visit.

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!!

The subscriber has a to our hand a good assortment of Black and changeable silks, which he will sell as low as the same can be had in Plainfield.

J. V. ARROWSMITH.
May 4, 1852.

Lawrence's Gallery,

203 Broadway, 3 doors below Fulton-street, New York.

THE proprietor having-built this establishment expressly for Daguerreotypes, with a view to obviate many of the difficulties that have surrounded the Daguerreian Artist, has found after a trial of two years, that his expectations have been fully realized. The arrangement of light is new and produces uniformly soft and bold pictures, with the middle, or neutral tints so much sought for by Artists. One of the rooms is arranged with particular reference to taking Family and other groups. Fifty persons can be taken with perfect facility. The Operating Department is conducted by persons of great experience and skill, and none but good likenesses will be allowed to leave. L. has been the first to produce Daguerreotypes the size of life. They are executed with a Camera of immense size, and on plates three times larger than ever before used, producing a Picture having all the softness and delicacy of the finest Miniature. Pictures of every description copied with perfect accuracy. Children of all ages taken Stormy or cloudy days are strictly adhered to. Call and see specimens. The public of Plainfield and vicinity are invited to visit the Rooms, which are free to all.

THE FIRST PREMIUM, A PRIZE MEDAL, was awarded to L. Lawrence, at the Great Exhibition of London, for the BEST Daguerreotypes. Enough said.

April 29th, 1852.—3m. M. M. LAWRENCE.

Mrs. B. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in Main street, opposite Webster & Marsh's store, for the sale of Millinery and Fancy Goods. Bonnets, &c. Having purchased her goods at the lowest cash prices, she is prepared to sell Ribands, Gimps, Gloves, Silk Laces, Flowers, Feathers, Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and everything in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from Somerville, she is prepared for orders in all the various branches of Dress Making. Capes and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 5, 1852.—6m.

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John B. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite French's Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work will be made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Thorn's new building in Cherry st., 2nd below Dr. Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the public of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Laans and Ginghams, and other articles too numerous to mention. A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Colenades, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES.

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Pork, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders, Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Hosiery and Woolen Yarns.

Tubs, Rockers, Rolls, Washing Machines, Brooms, wicks shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.

CASH, Rags, Old Iron and Glass will be taken in exchange for Goods.

April 29, 1852.—1y. JAMES M. DUNN.

REMOVAL.

STRAW GOODS.

THE Subscriber having removed from No. 12 to No. 10 John Street, (first door,) respectfully invites the attention of Milliners and others to his new and desirable stock of which comprises the most desirable styles, adapted to Fashionable Millinery Trade, all of which will be sold at the lowest market prices.

STRAW BONNETS,

L. CHIPIS,
April 26, 1852.—2m. No. 10 John-st.

---

100 BBLS. 95 per cent. Alcohol, suitable for making Burning Fluid or Spirit Gas, for sale by the manufacturer. JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,
March 29, 1852.—3m. 32 Burling Slip, N. Y.

IMPERIAL BURNING FLUID—In barrels and half bbls., for sale by the manufacturer,

JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,
March 26, 1852.—3m. 32 Burling Slip, N. Y.

Furniture and Chair WAREHOUSE.

W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS,

19 Market st., Newark, N. J.,

(A few Doors West of Broad.)

WE invite the attention of our friends and the citizens of Plainfield, Somerville, Bridgewater, Bedminster, as well as the surrounding country, to our large, varied and most complete, and (quality of goods considered) cheapest assortment of Furniture, Chairs, Mattresses, &c. ever offered in this State, a few of which all may fully satisfy themselves who will favor us with a call. Our stock consists of all the various styles of Parlor, Dining and Bed-room, Library, Hall and Office Furniture, &c. viz: Sofas, Tete a Tetes, Divans, Ottomans; Mahogany and marble top Centre Tables, Side Tables, Card Tables; easy Arm and Rocking Chairs, Parlor Chairs; Settees Rush Seat &c. &c.

Book Cases, Wardrobes, Writing Desks and Secretary's reading Tables, Dressing Bureaus, French and Cottage Bedsteads, plain do., Inclosed and Plain Washstands, &c. &c.; also about 40 dozen Walnut and Maple Cane-seat Chairs of our own manufacture, and warranted superior to anything of the price.

Mattresses of Curled Hair, Husk, Moss and Straw. We have also a large stock of New York Furnishings, which we will sell at New York prices, and save you the trouble, time, freight, risk, &c., which is attended on purchasing in New York.

N. B. Persons residing within six or seven miles of Newark, who purchase furniture of us, can have their furniture delivered at their residence free of charge, where to the amount of $25 or more, or for a larger furniture wagon expressly for that purpose, so that we are responsible for our wares until they are safely lodged in the room of purchaser. We do this to induce persons to stop at Newark instead of going to New York. Don't forget the number, 19 Market-st., Newark, N. J. W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS.
April 20, 1852.—3m.

A FIRST PREMIUM MILLINERY Establishment and STRAW BONNET Manufactory. No. 342 Broadway, second floor, New York. Mrs. Wm. SIMMONS respectfully announces to her numerous patrons and the public that she is now prepared to exhibit at her Show Rooms a splendid and unique assortment of Millinery and Straw Goods of her own Manufacture, in which are combined all the modern improvements, latest styles and fashions, together with magnificent Flowers of Paris Millinery, which for diversity of patterns, colors and beauty of finish, transcends immeasurably all former importations. Also, a large and interesting invoice of Lace, Straws, Straw Bonnets, and a splendid variety of Ruchanis and Millinery supplied with pattern Bonnets.

Mrs. WM. SIMMONS. 564 Broadway,
April 20, 1852.—3m. New York.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the new stand on Somerset-st., next to the Somerset Press, and next door to Brown's mill, where they are prepared to sell all articles in their line cheap as the cheapest and good as the best, including Flour and Feed, also Crockery and Earthen Ware, which they have just received in exchange for Goods. Thankful for past favors, asks a continuance of the same.

☞ Mrs. Voy's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaint.

JOHNSON & LYON.
N. B. All persons indebted to the subscriber are requested to call and settle without delay.
April 5, 1852.—tf CHARLES JOHNSON.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment in the store of I. D. Baldwin & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with silver work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Gold will be taken in exchange for Clocks.
Plainfield, April 13, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

LIGHTNING RODS!

A. M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 182 East Twenty-Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and affix to buildings their Improved Lightning Rods, which have been in use upwards of 10 years, without a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. Mr. A. M. Quimby has made Electricity and the laws of it his study for many years, and has put up in accordance with certain rules which he has formed and adopted as the result of his experience. An adherence to these rules he has found to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and expect as regards lightning, and require a different arrangement of rods, to suit the locality. Hence the necessity of the case, which is the reason why so many of the common round rods have failed heretofore; being put up by persons ignorant of the laws by which electricity is governed, they are arranged on buildings in the same manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Quimby's rods have been placed on the houses of Mrs. C. D. Boice, Esq., Mr. M. Bodle, and many others in Plainfield, and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church and others in New York; Church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn; City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—6m*

BOOTS & SHOES.

A. D. GALE,

MANUFACTURER AND WHOLESALE DEALER,

HAS constantly on hand about every thing in the line at the lowest rates, by the case or dozen.—Please call and examine.

A. D. GALE,
225 Pearl-st., corner Platt-st.
March 16, 1852.—3m. New York.

NEW PROVISION AND FISH STORE.

227 Washington-st., New-York.

THE subscriber, wholesale dealer, invites the attention of grocers and others to his stock of

Smoked Beef and Tongues,
Smoked Hams and Shoulders,
Smoked Salmon and Herring.

Also, Beef, Pork, Lard, Mackeryl, &c. by the barrel, half Barrel, and in kits, in lots to suit purchasers.

PHILIMON D. HARRIS,
227 Washington-street, New York.
April 12, 1852.—3m.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, Elizabethtown, (4 short distances from the depot,) would invite his former friends, and all who are in want of a good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call.

His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay.

JOHN ENGEL.
April 20, 1852. d1y.

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, carefully executed and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.
Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

D. M. KNIGHT & CO.,

Importers and Wholesale Dealers in

ENGLISH FRENCH AND GERMAN

FANCY GOODS,

No. 53 Cedar-street, (up stairs),
(Between William and Nassau sts.,)
P. O. Box 2,323. NEW-YORK.
A. L. KNIGHT.

COMBS—Shell, buffalo, and horn back Combs in great variety, at the lowest prices.

Fancy Goods. Steel, gilt, lasting, metallic, twist, bone, metal, silk, thread, agate, &c.

Brushes. Hair, Tooth, Nail, &c.

Sundries. Thread, Spool Cotton, Needles, Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Hair Pins, Elastics, Whalebone, Lines and Cotton Tapes, Linen and Cotton Bobbins, Scissors, Thimbles, and a great variety of easy Goods, Fans &c. &c. all cheap for cash.

D. M. KNIGHT & CO.
March 16, 1852.—3m.

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at I. S. DUNHAM & CO.'S.

TRIPLE-REFINED CAMPHENE—A very superior article, in bbls. and half bbls., for sale by the manufacturer,

JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,
March 26, 1852.—3m. 32 Burling Slip, N. Y.

The Place to Buy Dry Goods!

JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.

No. 257 Greenwich Street, NEW YORK.

(One Door below Barclay Street.)

Offer to Buyers the Largest, Most Varied, and Cheapest Stock of

DRY GOODS, in Greenwich St. and one of the Largest in the CITY, for both WHOLESALE and RETAIL Buyers to select from.

The First Floor is devoted to our Retail Sales, and the Second, Third and Fourth Floors, are exclusively for our

WHOLESALE TRADE.

We particularly insure the attention of COUNTRY MERCHANTS.

To our Stock, from which they can select almost any article they want, thereby saving much time. We pay particular attention in the selection of the very best styles in Dress and other Goods. Cash Buyers will save MONEY by an examination of our prices, as our expenses are small, we can and will sell a profit cheaper than most Houses. All we ask is, TRY IT.

JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.
New York, March 1st, 1852.—4m 327 Greenwich Street.

NOT FOR THE GOLD MINES!

GIVE ME THE SILVER!

WHILE many are going to California to dig up the gold in abundance, if they can find it, I take the opportunity to say to the public generally at large and to my customers in particular, that I shall remain here and adhere to them a stock of goods, at small profits and quick returns, equal to any for style and quality. And constantly on hand a general assortment of every thing kept in a Village Store, viz:

Dry Goods, Carpets, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, Boots, Shoes, &c. &c.

Among the Dry Goods are Muslins and Prints from 4d to 1s. and 1s. 6d., DeLaines and Cashmeres; cambric and jaconet, book muslins, and a good assortment constantly on hand; also, fine gauze flannel, black gloves, satin veils, crape and bombazine for search; Cloths, plain and fancy cassimeres, doeskins, satinets, Jeans, cords, edgings, insertings, linens, lace buttons, &c.

GROCERIES.

Green and Black Teas of the best quality, molasses at 2s, and 6c. per gal on, sugar of every grade and quality from 2s.6d to 5s.6d for 7 lbs. also sugar-house syrup, rai sins, coffee, rice, and of other groceries a complete stock of the best quality.

CROCKERY, of Every Sty's and Quality.

Both fancy and plain to suit the purchaser.

PROVISIONS.

Pork, Fish, salt, hams, shoulders, lard, butter, cheese, beef, &c. &c.

BOOTS and SHOES, of Every Style and Quality, for Ladies', gentlemen's and children's wear at low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Furniture and coach varnish, turpentine, white lead, pure and extra; lamp oils, yellow ochre, Venitian red, red lead, chrome yellow, Paris green, Prussian blue mineral and dry, lamp black, litharge, bagwa japan and nearly every thing for painters' use.

Flour, Meal, Feed and Grain,

A good assortment constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, March 15, 1852.

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the new tax law, by coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere; thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and prices which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of tailor's trimmings at a low price—also constantly on hand.

Friends will you favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves?

Cutting, trimming, and making done at the shortest notice and on reasonable terms. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.
Plainfield, Dec. 1.

HORACE SEATON,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN LACE GOODS,

634 Broad Street, Newark.

Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Tulle, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Embroideries, Muslin, Gloves and Hosiery, Military articles, Combs, Brushes, Oils, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Gents, Ladies and Children's fancy Shoes and Gaiters.

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at E. GLENN & CO.'S Piano Forte Rooms, (west of Broadway.) A General Assortment of Mahogany and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers on liberal terms.

E. GLENN & CO., 194 Fulton-street,
Oct. 7, 1851.—1y New York.

CARHART & NEEDHAM,

Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

With Recent Important Improvements.

Price from $60 to $200.

No. 75, East Thirteenth Street,
J. Carhart, E. P. Needham. NEW YORK.

N. B. ☞ Reeds constantly on hand.
Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

BAKERY.

JOHN S. PHELPS,

SUCCESSOR TO C. P. WARD.

Celebrated Cracker, Cake, and Large Bread Bakery, Wholesale and Retail,

No. 64 Vesey street, New York.

THIS well known and universally approved Cracker of C. P. Ward's, have been manufactured for upward of 25 years, and in that time have obtained a reputation for quality above all others, and it is the intention of the present proprietor to manufacture an article every way equal to his predecessor's. Pilot Bread and Cake department have recently been added to the establishment, and can be had in all their variety, together with U. P. Crackers, of New York Crystal, which is offered at 10 cents per pound, and needs but a trial to be appreciated.

Butter Crackers,	Walnut Crackers,	Milk Biscuit
Sugar "	Pic Nic "	Egg "
Boston "	Lemon "	Wine "
Graham "	Cup "	Water "
Water "	Gra'am Biscuit,	Boston "
Soda "	Soda "	Pilot "
Fancy "	Abernathy "	Sugar "
Jenny Lind "	Navy "	Prize Soda
Cake, &c. in every variety.		Bread,

All orders promptly attended to.

Shipping supplied at short notice.
Dec. 8th, 1851.—3m

Hope's Express.

For Newark, Elizabethtown, Westfield, Plainfield, Boundbrook, Somerville, White House, Clinton and Easton, Pa.

Leave New York daily at 9 o'clock, arriving at Plainfield at 10 1-2 o'clock, A. M. Leaves Plainfield at 2 o'clock, arriving in New York at 4 1-2 o'clock, P. M.

JOHN T. HOPE, Agent for Plainfield.

Agent for HOPE & Co's Express, corner Chatham and Pearl-sts., New York.

☞ This Express has been well established, and all orders will be executed with safety and despatch.

Plainfield, Nov. 10, 1851.

DEVOE

Devoe Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant Anodyne Pain Killing Drops.

Also Devoe's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops. These drops are an approved remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Chills, Cramps, pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Also Devoe's Salad Ointment for Burns, Scalds, Sores, Cuts, Bruises, &c. For sale by Agents throughout the United States, and also by Devoe & Jayne, 108 Nassau-st., New York.

Besides, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by

April 29, 1852. JAMES M. DUNN.

The Great Remedy!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come or send without delay and settle their accounts. If not settled by cash, they will be put in other collection. As I don't wish to put expense on any one, I give this public notice that all may come on and settle.

OLIVER RUNYON.
Plainfield, April 9, 1852.

House and Lots for Sale.

Situated on the corner of Fifth and Centre Streets, the house is nearly new, filled in with brick, five rooms on first floor, six on second, with good well—best kind of different kinds, and a never failing well of water. Said premises is well located for private residence. For particulars apply to WILLIAM SUTTON.

Plainfield, Feb 24th, 1852.

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

FRAZER MARSH returns thanks to his numerous patrons for their liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many friends he has enlarged his stock of Paints, and taken into partnership his son, Washington Marsh. The business will be continued at the stand, opposite the Second Presbyterian Church, where will be kept constantly on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., by the box or single light. They will also attend to House, Sign and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES.

Mixed Paint constantly on hand. Advise gratis.
Jan. 5, 1852. F. MARSH & SON.

J. A. Woodland & J. Corbett

HOUSE, SIGN AND

DECORATIVE PAINTERS,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

☞ The above are prepared to execute all orders in their line, particularly in the Painting, Marbling and Graining Department, with promptness, neatness and despatch, and at prices considerably less than these usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.
March 26, 1852.

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by P. Mosher, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

Also PAPER-HANGING, all of which will be promptly, punctually and honestly executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned returns thanks for the past favors bestowed on him, and hopes by strict attention to business to receive a continuance of their favors.

☞ Orders may be left at the Union Office, also at Mr. Mosher's store.

CHARLES TAYLOR.
April 1, 1852.—7

NOTICE TO THE LADIES

OF PLAINFIELD AND VICINITY. Those ladies wishing to obtain their supplies of Gaiter Boots and Shoes for the coming season, can find at

J. B. MILLER'S,

134 Canal street, New York,

French Morocco and kid Slippers, Ties and Buskins of the first quality, at 9 and 10s; Misses' and Children's, of quality to suit, at 6 shillings, and Buskins at 7 shillings per pair; (all of my own make and warranted good.) Ladies' satin boots of all the fashionable colors, 12, 15 and 18 shillings and upwards. Gaiter Boots of ladies' wear are warranted equal to any in the city. Misses' and children's gaiter Boots and Shoes of all kinds the largest assortment to be found in New York; white and black satin, black and Bronze French kid slippers for evenings. Ladies who wish good shoes, at moderate prices, will please call and examine for themselves.

J. B. MILLER'S,
134 Canal-street,
(Between Thompson and Laurens streets.)
March 26, 1852.—3m.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come or send without delay and settle their accounts. If not settled by cash, they will be put in other collection. As I don't wish to put expense on any one, I give this public notice that all may come on and settle.

OLIVER RUNYON.
Plainfield, April 9, 1852.

BRANDRETH'S EMBROCATION,

THE BEST REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED FOR

SPRAINS, BRUISES, RHEUMATISM

Stiffness or Weakness of the Joints and Limbs, Contraction of the Muscles, Neuralgia, Head-Ache, Tooth-Ache, &c.

Also, an Incomparable Remedy for Sparks, Bruises, Stiffness, Lameness, and Galls on Horses.

This Embrocation is prepared of ingredients which form a very active, yet entirely safe and pleasant preparation for Rheumatism, &c. &c. Hundreds of the most respectable persons and families have given their testimony in favor of its wonderful effects. It operates in many cases immediately, and persons who have been suffering under extreme pain in the side or limbs, or from bruises and sprains, have found instant relief from a thorough rubbing with this embrocation.

Price, 25 cents per Bottle.

Certificate from Ambrose Pancoast, Esq. Atlantic co. N.J.

Pancoastville, N. J. July 31, 1849.

Mr. F. G. B BRETH—

Dear Sir,—I have been an extensive dealer in horses for 30 years past, and have had great opportunities to witness the various diseases to which they are subject, and of testing the various remedies in use.

About 15 years since I was induced to make use of your Embrocation, and since that time I have used no other remedies for the following diseases to which this noble animal is subject, viz. Ringbone, spavin, strains of the joints and sinews, shoulder strains, swiney in the shoulder, lameness in the side and wrist, galls on the shoulder, and every disease of a like nature.

I have also used, and known it used for the various diseases to which mankind is subject, such as Swelled Joints, Rheumatism, Gout, Sprains, Bruises, cuts, corns, Spinal affections, pains in the Face, side and back, Toothache, Burns, Scalds, and especially the headache to which I have been subject nearly all my lifetime. Your Embrocation is the best and safest Remedy I have ever used for the above complaints; I have also sold considerable of it in my store, and believe it to supersede all others. Yours with respect,

AMBROSE PANCOAST.

Prepared only by F. G. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Bridgeton, N. J. And for sale by Druggists and Dealers in Brewster's Pectoral Mixture, and Cholera Mixture, by Dr. L. CRAIG, Druggist, agent for Plainfield; C. W. Badger, Newark; Dr. C. English, New Brunswick, and by others throughout the State.

May 1, 1852.—4m

MARBLE & STONE YARD.

THE subscribe would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business on the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful Tree for Stone, from which I will furnish, to order every variety of stone for building purposes, ornamental or plain. All of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.—ly. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

ANDREW M WEBSTER,

Attorney at Law and Solicitor in Chancery.

OFFICE—No. 163 Market Street,

May 13, 1850. NEWARK N. J.

DR. H. DAYTON, Surgeon-Dentist,

Has returned to Plainfield, and taken an Office and Residence for the year, on Main st. 2d house below Webster & Marsh's.

June 2d, 1851. Store.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE, PHYSICIANS,

NO. 259 GREENWICH ST. NEW YORK,

Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

Mrs. S. M. MOTT,

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Uterus, Bladder, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, particularly those arising from or attendant upon debility, Scrofulous, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous diseases, is so well known that it is deemed by them unnecessary to commen upon it, further than to say, that they have repeatedly performed permanent cures in cases of long standing, after they had been pronounced incurable, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will receive prompt answers to all such by letter (post paid), addressed to their residence as above.

Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. 3and 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUSE, Hay, Flour and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter

Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not liable to get out of order.

Manufactory 89 Greene street, New York.

Also For Sale at 387 ultonstreet.

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

S. B. DEBOIS, } BREDER, } Agents.
J. ROBISON, }

Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

HOW'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

[IN MEN]

Rheumatism, Sprains, Weakness in the Bruises, Bowels, Colics, Pain in the Back, Breast, Sore Throat, Frosted Feet, Limb & Joint.

[IN HORSES]

Bruises, Sprains, Ringbone, Poll Evil, and all Weakness, Splints, Swinny, Fistula, diseases of Corns, Scratches, Thoroughpin, where an Embrocation Windgall, Saddle Galls, tion can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. W. HOW, CHEMIST,

No 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Liniment, and consider it an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Moore, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barney McCherry, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel R. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton Joseph Scudder, John T. Wear, Trenton. A. W. Brown, Stephen Ambler, Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold in Plainfield by M. P. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG

Also, in New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Nov. 24, 1852.—1y.

BRETT'S Double Refined Powdered Saleratus.

Chemical Yeast Powder in tin kegs.

Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

CARPETING.

At a great reduction from former prices.

PETERSON & HUMPHREY,

397 Broadway, corner of White Street,

NEW YORK,

BEG leave to call the attention of their friends in Plainfield, to their elegant stock of which, owing to the reduction by the English manufacturers, will be disposed of at the following reduced prices:

ENGLISH AND AMERICAN CARPETINGS,

Royal Velvet Carpets, from 12s to 16s per yard.

" Tapestry " 9s to 12s "

" Brussels, three heavy, 7s to 8s "

" Superfine 5s to 7s "

" Good, all Wool, 4s per yard.

OIL CLOTHS,

from 9-4 to 24 feet wide, at prices equally low.

NEW YORK, 1852.

4-4, 5-4 and 6-4, Plain, Fancy and Check; Stair Rods, Druggets, Table and Piano Covers, Rugs, Mats of all kinds, together with all other goods found in Carpet Stores, for the full ten per cent less than any other Cirpet Establishment in the Union. We, therefore, challenge the whole trade to show such an extensive stock, at equally low prices.

N.B. Stages from Courtlandt-street Ferry run by our store.

March 16, 1852.—3m.

PROLAPSUS UTERI

This malady arises primarily from a debilitated state of the muscles of the pelvic abdomen; by the consequent privitation of the bowels suffers them to tear with their weight upon the womb, inducing a falling condition of the organ (i. e. Prolapsus Uteri.) Secondarily from debility of the rectum and broad ligaments, the natural supporter of the womb which, being weakened, yield to the pressure of the bowels and suffer the falling to take place. Sometimes the womb is forced in an inward and upward lifting force to the muscles of the abdomen, so as to cause them to sustain the weight of the bowels, and thus relieve the womb from the pressure of the weight, but here the support to be obtained, not with belts or braces, although unscalled supporters, for the abdomen is rounded, having its lower boundary placed between the fullness of the thighs. The most natural means for lifting it are just inside of the tense (Poupartz) ligaments, dividing the thighs from the abdomen, and above the crural arch of the Pelvis. Consequently it cannot be backward and under the fullness of the abdomen. And not to be reached by a belt or brace passing over it.

The Improved Supporter Pad invented and patented by the undersigned, is adapted to the figure of the abdomen, having its outer and under edges raised so as to produce two forces, by the one, the bowels are uplifted, and by the other borne inward toward the centre of the weight, and by the support to be obtained, not with belts or braces, although unscalled supporters, for the abdomen is rounded, having its lower boundary placed between the fullness of the thighs. The most natural means for lifting it are just inside of the tense (Poupartz) ligaments, dividing the thighs from the abdomen, and above the crural arch of the Pelvis. Consequently it cannot be backward and under the fullness of the abdomen. And not to be reached by a belt or brace passing over it.

The Improved Supporter Pad invented and patented by the undersigned, is adapted to the figure of the abdomen, having its outer and under edges raised so as to produce two forces, by the one, the bowels are uplifted, and by the other borne inward toward the centre of the weight, but here

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 23. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, JUNE 8, 1852. Whole number 803.

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 214 Broad street, Washington Hall Buildings,

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical, lepine, verge and detached lever Watches; curb, polished and Swiss Guard Chains; fob and vest Chains of all patterns; silver, shell, and russet card cases; gold and silver enamelled, engraved and plain Pencils; Lodies' enamelled, mourning and plain Brooches; Gent's cluster, single stoned, enamelled and plain Studs; Finger Rings of all patterns; Ladies' plain gold, chain and hair Bracelets; Bracelet Snaps of all kinds; Ear rings of the latest styles; Gents' diamond, ruby, emerald, hyacinth, and all styles of Breast Pins; gold Lockets and Minds, torte Cases; Gold Pens; Hearts and Crosses; gold Fob and Guard Keys; gold and silver Thimbles; silver Spoons and Butter Knives; gold, silver and steel Specta-cles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Bouquet Holders, tablets, hair pins, scissors, knives, tea bells, purses, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, pursenet clasps and slides, chess men and boxes, shopper boards, backgammon boards, letter folders, sewing cases, pearl studs, tuck and watch stands, magnifying glasses, smelling bottles, pen holders, microscopes, razors and razor strops, fancy work boxes, china segar cases and mantel vases, perfumery of all kinds, tobacco and snuff boxes, tooth, nail, hair, clothes and cloth Brushes; silk guard chains; pocket books, a large assortment; dressing combs, back combs, pocket combs, scissor sheaths, pocket knife cases, Persian scent bags, smelling bottles, daguerreotype cases, medal and bracelet cases; steel, silk and gilt fob chains; shaving brushes, shaving boxes, &c.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

Piano Fortes from the best makers, Violins, Clarionettis, Flutes, Flageolets, Bass Violins, Drums, Metronomes, Violin Bows, Accordeons, tuning forks; Violin, Violincello and Guitar Strings; Brimmicas for all instruments; a large assortment of songs, duetts, quartettes, trios and glees, comprising all the latest publications; also Instructional Music, namely, waltzes, quicksteps, marches, rondos, duetts for four hands, and sacred songs; Guitar music, Instruction books for Piano Forte, flute, fife, violin, accordeon, clarionet, flageolet, &c., all as cheap as can be bought in New York; with a variety of other goods not enumerated in this catalogue, comprising the largest variety in Newark.

WATCH REPAIRING AND CLEANING.

The subscriber, determined to give full satisfaction to those that employ him, has engaged a very superior workman from Switzerland, who has been engaged for several years in manufacturing all kinds of watches, and is well skilled in repairing and cleaning watches, as testimonials from some of the First watch makers of the city of New York can testify.

Jewelry made to order. Old gold and silver taken in exchange.

d8-y

Wholesale and Retail

Wine and Liquor Store.

29 Fair Street, Newark, N. J.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has now on hand at the above old established stand, a full and choice supply of FOREIGN WINES AND SPIRITS, which he offers at the lowest cash prices, and delivered to customers in any part of the country. Brandy of every grade. Meder's Swan Gin, Irish, Scotch and Monongahela Whiskey, St. Croix and Jamaica Rum, Port, Madeira, Malaga and Champagne Wines, Losey's Bitters, &c.

Philadelphia Bottled Porter and Pale Ale of the first quality; also, a very choice article of Bottled Cider (almost equal to champagne) on hand.

A continuance of patronage is solicited.

June 1st, 1852.—3m LOUIS L. BELAND.

BOOTS, SHOES, CAPS & FURS,—No. 16 Church-st.

NEW-BRUNSWICK.

WILLIAM V. B. SCHENCK,

Successor to H. R. Schenck & Son,

Respectfully informs his customers and the public, that he still continues at the old stand, No. 16 Church street, and is now prepared to offer a general assortment of Fall and Winter Goods, consisting of a large and well selected stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, viz.:

Men's fine and coarse sewed and pegged Boots.

Boys' light and coarse Boots and Brogans.

A variety of Ladies' and Misses' Gaiters, Jenny Linds, Excelsiors, and other styles, of his own manufacture.

A general assortment of Children's Shoes, of all styles and colors.

CAPS—A general assortment of Men's and Boys' Cloth and Glazed Caps, of all patterns.

INDIA RUBBER SHOES—Gentlemen's, Ladies' and Children's India Rubber Shoes, of all kinds.

FURS—Ladies' Muffs, Victorines and Cuffs, White Down, Fur Skin, &c.

All to be sold cheap for Cash.

The undersigned, being thankful for the patronage heretofore received, respectfully solicits a continuance of the same. W. V. B. SCHENCK.

New Brunswick, Dec. 16, 1851.—6m

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety of quality.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome and serviceable a Hat as they can get in New York or Philadelphia, and half a dollar each cheaper.

N. B. Moleskin or Silk Hats made to order at short notice, and in the latest style.

Sept. 23, 1851.—1y

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,

I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all,

Goods on our counter new to lie,

To suit the fancy, to please the eye,

We paid the cash to buy them cheap,

We'll sell them right to sell a heap

Ginghams and Lawns, Crapes and Corals,

The newest styles New York affords;

Delaines and Gaiters, Calicoes too,

Colors of which we'll warrant true,

Cloths and Cassimeres, Vests and Shoes,

And all the goods which men do use;

Together with a good supply

Of groceries good which will defy

A class of men who live with us,

And twice a year make quite a fuss,

To go to Brunswick with their trade,

Of course to us those they are afraid,

We'll sell to these and all the rest,

For cheapest sum what suits them best.

With Brunswick prices we'll compete,

And the shall trouble in the heat;

So come and see, come short, come tall,

I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Plainfield, May 13, 1850

CAMPHENE AND BURNING FLUID—Of a very superior quality, pastup for long voyages, in cans hermetically sealed, and warranted to keep for 5 years

JOHN S. LOUNSBERY, 32 Bunting Slip, N. Y.

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Square and Round Seat, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, and Children's Chairs; Also,

Wash and Toilet Stands, Bobby Horses, Towel do.

March 22, 1852. For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

COLONEL CRICKLEY'S HORSE.

BY PAUL CRYTO.

I have never been able to ascertain the origin of the quarrel between the Cricklеys and the Drakes. They lived within a mile of each other in Illinois, for five years, and from the first of their acquaintance there had been a mutual feeling of dislike between the two families. Then some misunderstanding about the boundary of their respective farms revealed the latent flame: and Colonel Crickley, having followed a fat buck all one afternoon, and wounded him, came up to him at dark, and found old Drake and his sons cutting him up! This incident only added fuel to the fire, and from that time there was nothing the two families did not do for annoy each other. They shot each others ducks in the river, purposely mistaking them for wild ones, and then, by way of retaliation, commenced killing each other's pigs and calves.

One evening, Mr. Drake, the elder, was returning home, with his "pocket full of rocks," from Chicago, whither he had been to dispose of a load of grain. Sam Barton was with him on the wagon, and as they approached the grove which intervened between them and Mr. Drake's house he observed to his companion—

"What a beautiful mark Colonel Crickley's old Roan is, over yonder."

"Hang is!" muttered the old man Drake "so it is."

The horse was standing under some trees, about twelve rods from the road. Involuntarily, Drake stopped his team. He glanced furtively around, then with a queer smile, the old hunter took up his rifle from the bottom of his wagon, and, raising it to his shoulder, drew a sight on the Colonel's horse.

"Beautiful!" muttered Drake, lowering his rifle with an air of a man resisting a powerful temptation. "I could drop old Roan so easy."

"Shoot," suggested Sam Bartson, who loved fun in any shape.

"No, no, 'twouldn't do," said the old hunter, glancing around him again.

"I won't tell," said Sam.

"Wal, I won't shoot him this time, any way, tell or no tell. The horse is too nigh. If he was fifty rods off, instead of twelve, so there'd be a bare possibility of mistaking him for a deer, I'd let fly. As it is, I'd give the Colonel five dollars for a shot."

At that moment the Colonel stepped from behind a big oak, not half a dozen paces distant, and stood before Mr. Drake.

"Well, why dont you shoot."

The old man stammered in some confusion. "That you, Colonel? I—I was tempted to I declare! And as I said, I'll give you a V for the pull."

"Say an X and it's a bargain."

Drake felt of his rifle and looked at old Roan. "How much is the hoss wuth?" he muttered in Sam's ear.

"Fifty."

"Gad, Colonel, I'll do it! Here's yer X."

The Colonel pocketed the money, muttering—"Hanged if I thought you'd take me up!"

With high glee the old hunter put a fresh cap on his rifle; stood up in his wagon, and drew a close sight on old Roan, Sam Bartson chuckled too.

Crack went the rifle. The hunter tore out a horrid oath, which I will not repeat. Sam was astonished. The Colonel laughed. Old Roan never stirred.

Drake stared at his rifle with a face as black as Othello's.

"What's the matter with you, hey? Fus' time you ever served me such a trick, I swan.

And Drake loaded his piece with great wrath and indignation.

"People said you'd lose your knack o' shooting," observed the Colonel, in a cutting tone of satire.

"Who said so? It's a lie!" thun lered Drake, "I can shoot."

"A horse at ten rods! ha! ha!"

Drake was livid.

"Look ye're, Colonel, I can't stand that!" he began!"

"Never mind, the horse can," sneered the Colonel, "I'll risk you."

Grinding his teeth, Drake produced another ten dollar bill.

"Here!" he growled, "I'm bound to have another shot any way."

"Crack away," cried the Colonel, pocketing the note.

Drake did crack away—with deadly aim too—but the horse did not mind the bullet in the least. To the rage and utter astonishment of the hunter, old Roan looked him right in the face, as if he rather liked the fun.

"Drake," cried Sam, "you're drunk! a horse at a dozen rods—oh, my eyes."

"Just shut your mouth, or I'll shoot you!" thundered the excited Drake. "The bullet was hollow, I'll swear. The man has who says I can't shoot. Last week I cut off a squirrel's head at fifteen rods, and can do it again. By the Lord Harry, Colonel you can laugh, but I'll bet thirty dollars I can bring down old Roan at one shot.

The wager was readily accepted. The stakes were placed in Sam's hands. Elated with the idea of winning back his two tens, and making an "X" in the bargain, Drake carefully selected a perfect ball and even buckskin patch and loaded his rifle.

It was now nearly dark but the old hunter boasted of being able to shoot a bat on the wing by star light, and without hesitation, he drew a sight on old Roan's head.

A minute later, Drake was driving thro' the grove, the most enraged and most desperate of men. His rifle, the innocent victim of his ire, lay with broken stock on the bottom of the wagon. Sam Barston was too much frightened to laugh. Meanwhile the Colonel was rolling on the ground, convulsed with laughter, and old Roan was standing undisturbed under the trees.

When Drake reached home, his two sons discovered his ill-humor, and the mutilated condition of his rifle stock, and hastened to arouse his spirits with a piece of news which they were sure would make him dance for joy.

"Clear out!" growled the angry old man.—"I don't want to hear the news; get out of the way, or I shall knock one of you down."

"But, father, it's such a trick!"

"Blast you and your trick!"

"Played off on the Colonel—"

"On the Colonel?" cried the old man, beginning to be interested. "Gad, if you've played the Colonel a trick, let's hear it."

"Well, father, Jed and I this afternoon, went out for deer—"

"Hang the deer! come to the trick."

"Couldn't find any deer, but thought we must shoot something, so Jed banged away at the Colonel's old Roan—shot him dead!"

"Shot old Roan!" thundered the hunter.—"By the Lord, Jed, did you shoot the Colonel's hoss?"

"I didn't do anything else."

"D—l! d—l!" growled the hunter.

"And then," pursued Jed confident that the joke part must please his father. "Jim and I propped the hoss up, and tied his head back with a cord, and left him standing under the trees exactly as if he was alive. Ha! ha! Fancy the Colonel going to catch him! ho! ho! won't it a joke?"

Old Drake's head fell upon his breast.—He felt of his empty pocketbook, and looked at his broken rifle. Then, in a tuneful tone he whispered to the boys—

"It's a joke! but if you tell of it—or if you Sam Barston—I'll skin you alive. By Lord Harry boys, I've been shooting at that dead horse half an hour, at ten dollars a shot!"

We have been repeatedly amused, on Sunday evenings, when coming out of Church, to see the knot of male humans gathered around the doorway. Knot, we say—not exactly either unless it has the ends spread out pretty well, which this one has. Now there is something rather laughable to a novice, in the modes operandi of this fashionable custom. An eager mouthwatering, watchfulness, that one sees hanging around a gingerbread stand at a western vendue. It is really a novelty in its way to an appreciator. The "bloods" trot down the steps as soon as service is concluded, and take their station along the pavements, before the door; in regular order—each one seeming to have the post by right of usage, as the lawyers say. By the time all are down and cesablished, it is quite a defile—a moment of anxious expectation is passed in sundry grotesque heel-and-toe flourishes on the bricks, proof of a full flow of animal spirits, or equivalent to "if any some punkies, to night." All is quiet, as if by signal and the ladies begin to come down, now the "bucks" are all on the qui vive, and they are forced to run this gauntlet.—How they lean forward and stretch out their necks, looking over each other's sholders, on tiptoe to make certainty sure. It is a little dark—the front row have the advantage, but are obliged to peer down and peep at faces—up goes a head after a recognition.

"O gem your gall, Bob! Slide out," an opening is made, high squeezes through, and grim akimbo.

"That's go'en it—how he holds his head up—twig that Sam, he's some on a plug?"

"Yes Kate's gunney, too—did you see how jointed on?" Tall! Bob's a good egg sin't he?" "I'm some on it goes, one after another, with about such original Jakeyisms bestowed on each as they file off.

Now is it any wonder that these knechigh urchins that we see upon the street corners, and around the confectionaries, drawing manliness from the end of a "long-nine," have such precocious aspirations? We think not—why they can square-off, with head-a-one-side, and talk about dogfights and trotting-Horses, with as much gusto as any of the older members of the family. And the "women"? O, they are perfectly at home on that topic. They know every "gal" about town, like a book, and discourse upon the respective claims of each with all the wisdom of a connoisseur.

There is another species of this same genus that takes our fancy by a storm too. They are distinguished by an air of sweetened reminesnt, have a great idea of a fashionable appearance, a tom look and action, sport standing collars and broad flowing cravats around their goose-necks, monkey coats, and long vests, pants a la mode, with a suple-jack in their delicate fingers to keep at the mouth. Dandies in miniature. These are equal if not ahead of the first, in our humble opinion.—Bordentown Register.

HONEY TREES IN CALIFORNIA. As California has been established a land flowing with gold, it will soon come in for the definition of a land flowing with honey. One of the papers in Stockton states that in the region round, there is to be found an abundance of saccharine matter of double flavor. It is to be found on different descriptions of trees, and in different forms. On the leaves of the willows which grow upon the banks, it is found in a candied form, on the upper surface, early in the month of July. The Indians gather the sugar and at their encampment, enjoy the luxury of chewing the leaves. On the leaves of the white oak, also, there is a clear deposit of honey, which is transparent and fine as the article is ever seen, but is of thicker consistency. Here, also, it collects on the upper foliage until the latter is borne down, when the saccharine matter drops in masses or lumps. Its flavor is exceedingly pleasant. On the secent of the Sierra Nevada there it a species of pine, much resembling the white pine of the Atlantic States, except that the leaves turn down. This tree grows to an enormous size—270 feet in height, and 30 feet in diamiter at the base; and sometimes the trunk runs up 180 feet clear, without a limb or crook. The resinous matter which exudes from the bark has a rich saccharine flavor. The Indians eat it in large quantities.

Porcelain, made in China, is said to be as durable as granite. The great porcelain tower at Nankin has been built 500 years, and yet it is bright and beautiful as ever. The weather has no effect upon it whatever.

Sunday-Observing Hens.—A lady communicates to an English paper a remarkable fact respecting two bantam hens in her possession.—She declares that, for eighteen months, each hen laid an egg every day in the week except on Sunday. On no occasion has either of them failed of its duty on week days, or forgotten to intermit its exertions on Sundays, during all that period. What an example to reputable hens!

A fool may, by chance, put something into a wise man's head.

For the Plainfield Union.

Mr. Editor:

It is well known to all that an extensive combination of men at the present time exists in the United States who are styled the order of the sons of temperance and that the existence of this noble order and its pretensions to usefullness have been vehemently opposed, not merely by those who are ignorant of its great good but by those who make profit by the sale of intoxicating liquors and will drink them, but by gentlemen of sound sense and high respectability in society, also by Ministers of the Gospel who of all others ought to go heart and hand for its advancement. It has been asserted with an air of triumph that there was no need for any such organization as ours and that the society which existed long before the sons of temperance had a name, was competent to accomplish all which can be done in preventing inebriation. Some excuse as of attempting to substitute our association in the place of the church and our principles for the morals and the gospel of salvation The meeting of our divisions weekly they hold to be prejudicial to their convocations for prayer and the fellowship of the sons of temperance to be a disparagement of the fellowship of saints. Others who will apprehend no danger from our extensive combination and who wish success to the attempted revolution of our country on the subject of intoxicating beverages decline all union with us because they profess to be disgusted with our external badges of membership and offices Some have accused us of arguing on the scriptures and political matters, and various other objections are raised without the least foundation only prejudice.

Now against these and all other objections to the order of the sons of temperance we shall respectfully attempt to explain the origin, nature, and advantage of the order of the sons of temperance give its history and convince our readers if we can that it is auxi liary to all other wise means which were ever employed for making and keeping sober and making them respectable, industrious, prosperous and happy, in this life and the life to come. The evils resulting from inebriation to intemperate individuals themselves, to their families and to the community in general have been so vividly depicted by thousands of writers and are so generally known by and experience and every days observation that we shall not here attempt to describe them.

After the Washingtonians had in a great measure overun the country and accomplished their benevolent work in gathering tens of thousands from the grog shops and the gutters into their associations it was discovered that men who promised to be abstemious and temperate needed line upon line and precept upon precept to keep them in a right path, that signing of a pledge must be a continually operating influence and that social organization and influence might secure the blessed results as were not to be anticipated from individual and insulated efforts. Hence it was thought wise to combine the temperance cause with systematic provision for mutual assistance and relief in case of inability to anstain themselves on the part of the associated friends of total abstinence, and hence arose the combination of the sons of temperance. They believe a union, co-operation and mutual countenance tend to strength and efficacy in a good cause. They regard the visibility of their order and all its badges of distinction among their fellow citizens as means of confirmation in temperance, of attracting attention and of propagating their principles of total abstinence. The mutual assistance among all who abstain from intoxicating beverages.

The Constitution and By-Laws of the National Grand and subordinate Divisions of the Sons of Temperance have been published to the world. They faithfully exhibit the objects aimed at by the whole order, and the principles on which they as Sons of Temperance act in promoting the design of their noble & extended organization. The fundamental principle of our organization is one That no member shall make, buy, sell or use as a beverage, any spiritnous or malt liquors, wine or cider; but may make, buy, sell or use these articles, for a religious rite, or for medical, surgical, chemical or manufacturing purposes, and not violate his pledge. We seek to reclaim inebriates, to confirm men in total abstinence from all that can intoxicate, to encourage and sustain in every good work all reclaimed or drunkard, and restain none any longer than they continue faithful to their solemn promise, and to afford assistance in case of sickness or the death of a brother, or the decease of his wife, and to such persons as are by our constitution entitled to the same. Our laws are also intended to be pleasant places of resort and social intercourse, in which young men especially may acquire habits of public speaking and of transacting the business of a popular assembly and by which many who have leisure may be lured from the bar-room and other scenes of dissipation and ruin.

Some good men and others have opposed our fraternity because it is said we constitute a secret society, but they consider all such associations of doubtful propriety if not absolutely sinful in the church or state, or both. The existence of our order is no secret, and instead of concealing, we publish our principles, our meetings, our members and the state of our funds, to the world; and instead of confining our order to a selected few, we invite all men to join us on the basis of our published principles. It would have been doubt we have no secret signs of recognition without our halls, and not an oath is prescribed or administered in any of our proceedings. It is much to be regretted that a some ministers of religion have dressed it their duty openly and secretly to oppose our order, and have exhorted all religious people to avoid our fraternity and even withdraw from it. Those who are looking on us by being members, may be induced by such course to stand aloof, but no initiated member of the order however exalted may be his station in the church will be induced to leave his brotherhood with us by any warnings which are the result of ignorance of the order and prejudice.

As to the general objection to our order, we answer we say: A talk however reviled and abused, but he that is of a faithful and honest heart, master, Prov. xi. 13. A prudent man concealeth knowledge, Prov. xii. 23. Debate thy cause with thy neighbor and discover not a secret to another, lest he that heareth put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn not away. Prov. xxv. 8, 9. If thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone, and if he hear thee thou hast gained thy brother. Mat. xv. 18. When thou doest alms let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth, that thine alms may be in secret, Mat. vi. 3, 4.

Thus we have high authority for asserting that many things should be considered private knowledge of the multitude, and that brothers in any fraternity should keep such secrets a wisdom and prudence require. Many acts of private discipline in families would bear the light, but the disclosure of them would injure the corrected person themselves, and the other members of the family and prevent in a great measure the reformation sought. In private prayer wrong because it seeks the closet? Must all the transactions of our churches be works of darkness which shun the light because some but many are permitted to be present? Are all the publishes of wedded love to be denounced because they seek the private chamber in preference to the house top? If there be any who wish to know in what our secrecy consists they are here can obtain the right so to do if he is of good moral character and will agree to our pledge, and if we do or teach any thing contrary to our published principles he may renounce us and proclaim our turpitude without violating any obligation imposed on him. If we interfere with the political, civil or religious rights and liberties of any of our fellow citizens we may be censured once who can evince it may lawfully expose our misconduct to the community.

(Concluded next week.)

American and French Rifle.—Sir Hyndle Head, in late book on Paris, speaks enthusiastically in favor of the newly invented rifle, which has just been introduced into the French army. The N. Y. Times, in a late article, says: "From the merits of this piece, as compared with those of some of the American patent rifles, and pronounces unhesitatingly in favor of the latter.—Much as had been said about the great range of the French rifle, it does not appear to surpass, in this respect, our own rifles. Several American pieces of this kind send their balls with accuracy to the distance of a mile and a quarter! and this in the utmost range claimed for the French rifle. While our own weapons, therefore, equal those of the French in this respect, they surpass them in the superior lightness of ball, and in being loaded with greater rapidity. An American rifleman can carry three times as many cartridges as a French rifleman, and can discharge his piece thirty times while the French rifle is being loaded once. The French rifle, moreover, is an awkward weapon, and of great weight. America, therefore, still retains her superiority in rifles. Even, however, if she were to lose it, it would not be for long. Yankee genius would speedily invent something still better; and Uncle Sam would remain, as he ought, "the smartest nation in all creation."

A LITTLE FARM WELL TILLED.—We have seldom known a better illustration of this expression, than is given in an account of a farm of 50 acres, belonging to Erastus Littlejohn, of Middlebury, Mass. The farm was selected for the premium offered by the Plymouth County Agricultural Society. The premium was first offered in 1848, payable in 1851—reference being had to the products of the years, inclusive. The 50 acres consists of 22 acres improved land, 12 acres unimproved, (now mostly planted to forest trees,) and 22 acres of woodland. The soil of the cultivated part is described by the committee who examined it, as mostly sandy and gravelly, except several acres of swamp, which have been brought into excellent meadow. Since 1846, it has been raised on the 22 acres comprising the cultivated part of the farm, 438 bushels of Indian corn, at an average cost of 12 cents per bushel; 51 tons of hay, at the cost of $4 per ton; 483 bushels of potatoes, at 20 cents per bushel, besides other vegetables. The report states that the net yearly profit of his farming, after deducting interest on the cost of his farm, labor, &c., 1848	$581 54

1849	592 31
1850	610 81
1851	840 92

A daily account was kept of almost every item of expense on the farm, and every given for products at their market value or realized sale.

Orestes Brownson, the man of All Denominations, now a Papist, says, "we are grieved to see a distinguished Catholic statesman considering that a man may be a Catholic and also loyal to his temporal sovereign. Let us, in God's name, have no more of this."

The Editor of the Wheeling Gazette, lately saw a rare relic of antiquity, in the shape of a Bible in German, 212 years old. It was printed by S. Ott, Esq., of Wheeling, to whom it descended from his grandfather, who paid $250 for it. The original cost at the time of its publication, was probably $2.00. It is nearly a foot in thickness, about twelve inches in length, and must weigh about sixty or seventy pounds. The Bible is gone, and those well done, are several hundred leaves of it. It is truly a relic of the olden times and style of printing.

A man in Charlestown, Mass., has made a repeating rifle capable of being discharged twenty-four times without being reloaded! Why cannot somebody invent a locomotive gun that will load and go off itself, and do its own fighting. What's the use of a wife a man is obliged to load?

The Leaders in Albion were recently summoned by the proper authority of the realm, and almost suffocated them by ordering to read aloud their texts. On complaint of one of the number to the chief of one place, he said: "Take your book and kill a few, you have my leave to do so, and I'll be your bail for it." After you have read the first book of some of them, the rest will not much lose you."

Dr. Sawyer, in his address to the graduating class of Yale College, says: "Be not in a hurry with any matter. Nothing is more unbecoming in a young man than to be in a hurry. Nothing is just our opinion of a man than to be in a hurry. Nothing is just our opinion of a man than to be in a hurry. After Dr. Kirkland chewed a piece of tobacco, he threw the head at an indicated table.

Never attempt to do to-morrow what you can do to-day. Just so sure you do, you will put off to-morrow. So always bring your business to a point, and never suffer it to run over. Let your resolutions be executed, and your work be done, and then you can sit down and rest yourself.

A Prayer.

BY MARCUS R. TROWBRIDGE.

If death, be death, or but natural sleep,
Rounded by visions of eternity,
How short indeed must be the little leap
Between the present and the life to be.

If life is but a span—a little span,
The narrow width of a mere tiny thread—
Upon our breath immortal life began,
And we with God and truth are ever wed;

Then should we call upon our loftiest powers,
And strive the loftiest and the best to be,
In the calm hope that in life's fading hours
Our souls shall grow in whitest purity;

Even as God is pure and undefiled;
So may our hopes thus evermore increase,
And our sad hearts grow calmly reconciled,
And seek the paths of pleasantness and peace.

Grant this, O Father! Let Thy sacred love
Fall on our wearied hearts, like summer rain;
Send through our starless sky Thy holy dove,
Until hope's star shall sweetly shine again.

THERE'S SOMETHING FOR US ALL TO DO.

There's something for us all to do,
In this great world of ours;
There's work for me, there's work for you,
Heaven sends no idle hours,
We have a mission to perform,
A post of trust to fill;
Then rouse the soul, and nerve the arm,
And bend the lofty will.

Fame may not grave our names in brass
On monumental stone;
But virtue's trophies far surpass
What heroes ever won.

There's something for us all to do,
Whate'er may be our lot;
From jeweled royalty unto
The peasant in his cot.
There's ignorance with crime to stay,
And Truth to spread;
Despair and want to chase away,
And hope's bright beams to shed;
And not a man in this wide earth,
Who holds the Christian creed,
But may hand down some deed of worth,
The yet unborn may read.

The Philadelphia Ledger says that "split gold dollar pieces are rapidly multiplying, and caution cannot be too often repeated to be on the lookout for them. The piece, by some fine and ingenious machinery, is split in two, about one-half of the coin extracted, and the plundered sides stuck together again, the face of the piece not at all scarred or injured. A little care will readily detect the fraud. The milling around the sides will be found broken, and very generally a pewter colored cement may be observed protruding from it. The coin, too, is thin in the middle."

Patriotic.—The Finance Committee of the City Council of Savannah have recommended that the Mayor be authorized to transmit annually $100 to the Washington National Monument Society until the work is completed.

The Halifax Sun States that Rev. Robert Mullen, Missionary to the United States on behalf of the Catholic University, endorses, unintentionally, a statement "that of the number of Irish Catholics emigrating to the United States, one-third at least were lost to the Roman Catholic Church." He thinks the number who have been lost to the Catholic church since 1852 is, in round numbers, two millions!

When Louisiana became a State, a brass twelve-pound Spanish gun was forwarded, among other trophies, to Washington, as property of the federal government. When Lieut. Hunter took Alvarado, he captured a gun the exact counterpart of the former, even to the minutest marks and ornaments, the date of each being 1740. The two sisters, so long and strangely parted, are now united again, in the 112th year of their age, at our national capital.

Petitions are in circulation in Rhode Island, addressed to the General Assembly, and praying for the restoration of the punishment of death for murder. The Providence Journal says: "These petitions have been signed by large numbers of people. We do not know what is the sentiment of the other parts of the State, but we think that public opinion in Providence was opposed to the repeal of the law, and is decidedly in favor of its re-enactment."

The Illinois Central Railroad Company advertise for five hundred or one thousand laborers, to be employed at La Salle, at one dollar per day.

2000 passengers, mostly emigrants, arrived at Milwaukie during 48 hours ending on the 20th.

"Have you any travelling-ink-stands?" asked a little fellow of a clerk at one of our stationery stores the other day.

"No ma'am; we have them with feet and legs, but they are not old enough to travel yet," was the pert reply.

Two new steamers, 320 feet long, are to be built for the North River.

Raising Potatoes.—The farmers in the vicinity of Philadelphia are said to be planting an unusual quantity of potatoes this year. One individual, who last year had some thirty acres, in potatoes, from which he sold three thousand bushels, getting over one dollar per bushel, has this spring put in one hundred acres, and his neighbors have increased their planting in about the same proportion.

Disgraceful!—The State Gazette says that two men made a bet on Sunday of last week that they could drive a horse and wagon from Jacobstown, Burlington county, to Camden, and back, a distance of sixty miles, in seven hours. The start "came off" on that day, but before they arrived at the end of the journey, one of the horses broke down; the other accomplished the feat, but dropped dead in the harness.—There is a law of the State against abusing dumb animals, as also for breaking the Sabbath, both of which ought to be put in force against such cases in human shape.

A gentleman in New York has been so pestered by the numerous calls of pedlars, that he has placed a sign over his door with these words, "No cash or business wanted here."

Scripture says that when the law says that a man shall marry his grandmother, or his aunt, or his wife's mother, the law makes an ass of itself; but when a man marries now-a-days, he marries an ass himself.

Kindness is as sweet the most delicate and the most refined of our sentiments; a mere sentiment is, but nothing on earth will kill it.

THE UNION

Plainfield, N. J. June 8, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

FOURTH OF JULY.—The anniversary of our Independence is drawing near, and we learn from our exchange papers that preparations are in progress almost every where for its due observance. That day should never be forgotten. Plainfield, we suppose, will remove bodily for the day to Washington Rock, where ample accommodations will be provided for them. Mr. C. Staats is now building a large hotel there, and preparing for a grand celebration. Hon. C. Chauncey Burr, of New York, one of ablest of orators, will deliver the oration, and the popular band of singers, the Appolonians, will be there to entertain the people with several appropriate songs. After the oration, &c. a real Fourth of July dinner will be served up, as good a one as can be found any where that day, plenty as they may be, and will be well discussed. These are the main features, the filling up as usual, with, may be, some "noise and confusion."

Washington Rock is on many accounts the very best place that could be selected on which to celebrate the day. It is a most popular and interesting place of resort in itself, presenting uncommon attractions in the way of scenery, and commanding an extensive view; patriotic associations, carrying back the mind to our revolution, are also connected with it, that must ever endear that spot to every American heart; besides all which the entertainment anticipated for both body and mind, will furnish a rich a treat for all who may attend.

THE NEW JERSEY WHIG STATE CONVENTION, Met at Trenton last Wednesday, June 2nd, to appoint delegates to the National Convention at Baltimore, June 16th. The delegates from this township were C. Boice and J. Annin, Esqs.

The Assembly was large, composed of our best men. John T. Nixon, of Cumberland, was chosen President, with a Vice President from each county, and Secretaries. The following delegates were then chosen:

Hon. Wm. L. Dayton, Senatorial.
James G. King, do.
P. H. Whitney, Gloucester, 1st District.
P. Vredenburg, Monmouth, 2d District.
James Stewart, Warren, 3d District.
Wm. Neilson Wood, Morris, 4th District.
P. T. Prellinghuysen, Essex, 5th District.

All we believe are Scott men, but no instructions were given, and no preference expressed. The delegates were to use their own good judgment at Baltimore, as to best promote whig principles, and secure the good of the party and of the country.

Six Resolutions were adopted: In favor of protection to American industry, harbor and river improvement for the general good at the general coast; a wise economy in the public expenditure, and strict accountability in the public disbursements; in favor of fulfilling all the requirements of the Constitution; that the whigs of New Jersey will cordially support the nominee of the Whig National Convention; in favor of the administration and the course of our whig representatives in Congress; and expressive of profound grief for the declining health of HENRY CLAY, the great American statesman.

The utmost harmony prevailed, in this respect widely contrasting with those of the opposition.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Convention assembled in the large Hall of the Maryland Institute, Baltimore, last Tuesday noon. John W. Davis, of Indiana, was chosen President, and a Vice President from every State except South Carolina, which was not represented. The nominee was required to have two-thirds of all the votes cast to be nominated. Wednesday was taken up with the appointment of committees, settling the titles to seats, &c.

Thursday, the balloting commenced for the democratic candidate for President.

1st Ballot: Cass 116, Buchanan 93, Marcy 27, Douglass 20, Lane 13, Houston 8, Weller 4, Dodge 3, Butler 2, Dickinson 1.

2d Ballot: Cass 119.

17th Ballot: Cass 99, Buchanan 87, Douglass 50, Marcy 26, Lane 13, Houston, 11, Butler 1, Houston 9, Dickinson 1.

32d Ballot: Cass 123, Buchanan 72, Douglass 60, Marcy 25, Houston 6, Butler 2, Dickinson, 1. Adjourned to Saturday.

Saturday. On the 35th ballot Cass had 131, and Virginia cast her 15 votes for Gen. Franklin Pearce, of New Hampshire.

46th Ballot: Cass 78, Buchanan 28, Douglass 32, Marcy 98, Pearce 41, Houston 5, Dickinson 1, Wm. R. King 1.

49th Ballot: Pearce 293, Cass 2, Buchanan 2, Marcy 1.

General Franklin Pearce, of New-Hampshire, Was therefore nominated almost unanimously. He is not one of the 13 candidates who promised to veto a bill to repeal the fugitive law if passed. He was written to but replied not. The most difficult time the democrats ever had in getting a candidate was thus ended after a noisy session of 5 days. The nominee cannot be a very great man, or he would have been more heard of, and the prospect of his election is very small.

The two-thirds rule was entirely inoperative, for no candidate received anything like even a majority, until the last ballot.

8 steamships left New York on Saturday.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The Sarsfield Light arrived at New York on Wednesday, having left Aspinwall May 30th, with 250 passengers and 19 days' news from San Francisco, up to May 6th.

The United States arrived Thursday morning, with 300 passengers and $220,000 in gold.

The Crescent City arrived on Friday morning with the California mails, 320 passengers, and a million and a half in gold. The Empire City arrived at the same time.

The Winfield Scott arrived at Panama, 21st, 15 days from San Francisco, with 600 passengers. The Columbia had arrived at Panama with 181 passengers and nearly $2,000,000 in gold.

The news is not of striking importance. The Indians are very troublesome. The San Francisco Herald states that the Sheriff of Trinity County, with a posse of citizens, killed nearly 150 Indians for robbery and murder.

There exists great excitement in the country against the employment of the Chinese at the mines. Their employment is considered very detrimental to the interests of American miners.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Collins steamship Arctic arrived at New York May 21st, having left Liverpool on the 19th, with 3 days' later news and 99 passengers.

The Cunard steamship Asia arrived Wednesday morning, 10 days and 17 hours from Liverpool, with 4 days' still later news.

Money continued abundant. Cotton was dull and declining. Bread stuffs about as before.

Another awful colliery explosion has occurred in Lancashire, by which more than 30 lives have been lost.

A duel had been fought between Colonel Romilly and Hon. Mr. Smythe. Neither were injured.

A destructive fire occurred on the banks of the of the Thames at Deckhead on Tuesday. Loss $100,000.

A sailing boat after the model and rig of the yacht America has been made a shipwright at the Devenport Dockyard. It beat all the regular boats of the port, though they carried the most sail.

The produce from the mines at Australia continues to be abundant. Every day new discoveries are being made. Land is of no value in South Australia. Every body is rushing to the gold mines, and a vast change must take place in the whole of the regions of Australia. Great efforts are being made to send out emigrants to fill up the gap in the population caused by the rush of all persons to the mines. Society at present is turned upside down.

The Irish Warned.—On Sunday week, (says a provincial paper) the Rev. Mr. Birmingham, P. P. of Borrisokane, warned his congregation at mass against emigration to America; he read a letter from a Roman Catholic priest living in New York, which stated that the Irish emigrants of his persuasion were largely perverted to heresy and infidelity.

The last count in New York city of the amount of specie in the banks and Sub-Treasury, footed up about $17,000,000; this is more than at any previous time, and about $3,000,000 have been brought in since. Interest is in consequence very low. There is every prospect of a continued abundance of money, for our receipts are double of our exports of gold and silver.

"Facts, No. 6," are necessarily deferred until next week.

Congress.

The Senate passed the Deficiency Bill last week. The House adjourned two days to attend the Baltimore Convention.

The Humboldt sailed for Southampton and Havre from New York, on Saturday, with 150 passengers and $640,000 in specie.

The Crescent City sailed with 350 passengers for California.

Theodore Runyon, Esq. was elected City Attorney by the Common Council of Newark, on Friday evening.

Famine in the Lumber Country.—From private letters, we learn of great suffering from the want of provisions. Not only bread and meat have become exorbitantly high, but potatoes, turnips, beans, &c., were scarcely to be obtained at any price. The scarcity of meat, also had completed the general destitution throughout the lumber region to such a degree as to stop operations among great part of the lumber men before half completed their stock. There was, of course, a great scarcity of food for working cattle. All kinds of grain have been at enormous prices during the greater part of last winter, and hay could not be procured in some parts for love or money. This, we learn, is more immediately confined to one line of that country, some 40 or 50 miles wide—visited last June by a destructive hailstorm, destroying all the grain and meadows in the range of its sweep.—Pittsburgh American.

ORCHARDS.—Is Chiloe the inhabitants possess a marvellously short method of making an orchard: at the lower part of almost every branch, small, conical, brown, wrinkled pouts project; these are always ready to change into roots, as may easily be seen when a any kind has been accidentally splashed against the tree. A branch as thick as a man's thigh is chosen in the early spring, and is cut off just beneath a group of these points, all the smaller branches are lopped off, and it is then placed about two feet deep in the ground. During the ensuing summer, the stump throws out long shoots, and sometimes even bears fruit; I was shown one which had produced as many as twenty-three apples, but this was thought very unusual. In the third year, the stump is changed (as I have myself seen) into a well-wooded tree, loaded with fruit.—Darwin's Researches.

In the process of gold-beating the metal is reduced to laminæ or leaves of a degree of tenuity which would appear fabulous, if we had not the stubborn evidence of common experience in the arts as its verification. A pile of leaf gold to the height of an inch would contain 282,000 distinct leaves of metal! The thickness, therefore, of each leaf is in this case the 282,000th part of an inch. Nevertheless, such a leaf conceals the object which it is used to gild; it moreover protects such objects from the action of external agents as effectually as though it were plated an inch thick.

From the Boston Traveller.

Isle of Wight.—Here is a Presbyterian Church that has been organized by Rev. Jones who is a Welshman, and has been settled over churches in the States of New Jersey, at Martinsville, in the county of Somerset.

Martinsville is situated in Washington Valley, township of Bridgewater, and is about equi-distance (6 miles) from Somerville, Bound-brook, Liberty Corner, and Scotch Plains. From Plainfield it is nine. There are members in the place and vicinity belonging to the Churches in all the aforesaid villages, about forty of whom were of the Presbyterian order; it will therefore be an auxiliary to those Churches, and will be their interest, as well as I hope their pleasure, to sustain and watch over so praiseworthy an undertaking, while the Martinsville state, Mr. Jones, being strong enough to erect a Church and support a Minister at this time, the design is to build a Lecture Room and trust upon getting supplies on Sunday afternoons from neighboring Clergymen. The building is now progressing, and will be completed about the 20th of August next.

Having been well acquainted with the place for some years, and with the interwoven feeling which the citizens have labored under, relative to attending Church, I cannot help coming to the conclusion, that the present plan is one of the very best to insure the establishment and building up of a Church there, and hence prove to be a great blessing both in a spiritual and temporal point of view, to the people of that locality. K.

The Somerset Whig mentions a leaf of Pie Plant, raised by Rynear Vaghte, of the following dimensions: Length of stem and leaf, 4 1-2 feet; length of stem, 1 foot 11 inches; circumference of stem, 6 inches; breadth of leaf, 2 ft. 0 inches.

The Cholera is said to be somewhat prevalent at several points on the Mississippi River.

The Somerset Whig states that McCormick's reaping and mowing machine was tried in that county lately with satisfactory results, in the presence of several practical farmers.

A few hills of the "Wheat Growers' Bank, of Sussex county," an institution nominally located at Newton, have made their appearance in this quarter, and are regarded as quite a curiosity. The bank is a New York concern; yet its issues are good, and we don't care how many of its bills shall come into our hands in the way of business. Dr. Morford is the Cashier, and the bills are redeemed at the Sussex Bank.—Sussex Register.

Quick Passage.—On the 25th inst., the new Coal Engine, No. 31, J. Davis, Engineer, with a large train of cars, H. Crenshaw, Conductor, passed over the Camden & Amboy Railroad from Camden to Amboy, including five stoppages in the unprecedented time of two hours—thus proving that the use of coal upon our railways is as practicable as that of wood.—True American.

The Syracuse Journal says the salt manufacturers have agreed to establish the price of fine salt at one dollar per barrel, and to admit of no change. It has generally varied from 75 cents to $1 50.

Using Cancelled Postage Stamps. Within the last ten days the Post Master at Utica, N. Y., has detected three persons who have used post stamps which has been used on letters, and in two of them pay the penalty of their fraud on the department. The penalty is fifty dollars for each offence.

Sermons not Copyright. Prof. Shank More, in his lectures on Scotch law, has intimated, extempora that sermons and speeches, when delivered and spoken in an assembly, are no longer the exclusive property of the speaker, but pass into the possession of the public, who may print and dispose of them at pleasure.—Glasgow Constitutional

The fares on the Hudson River Railroad are to be reduced to $1 50 to Albany, June 1st.

Foster's Stone-Picker is the latest contribution to the implements of Agriculture that has come under our notice. It weighs about half a ton, is drawn by a span of horses, and picks up the movable stones on a breadth of five or six feet as fast as the horses can walk, depositing them in a box by the side of the machine.

The dust of a puff-ball (Lycoperdon bovista) is a powder so minute that a cubic vessel of a hair's breadth in size, would hold 125,000 of the little spherule grains. There are, in peppermint water, animalcules whose thickness is not the 7800th part of a hair breadth. Their lenght is 10 times greater, or 50 to 1.

☞ There is more happiness in middle life—in absolute mediocrity of station—than anywhere. The very rich, or the very poor are always apt to be very miserable.

☞ Mr. Partington thinks that there will be such facilities for travelling, soon, that we can go anywhere for nothing and come back again.

Machinery Oil,

75 CTS. a gallon. better than Sweet Oil, at a quarter of the price. For Sale by
June 1st, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

JOHN JELLIFFE'S OLD ESTABLISHED

Furniture Warehouse,

301 & 303 Broad Street, Newark,

Great Improvements in his Store—New Spring Goods.

Mr. J. having remodelled and enlarged his Warerooms is happy to say he is now ready to receive calls; and invitations are herewith respectfully given to his friends, and the public generally, to call and examine HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, to call and see his wares. Having catered to the wants, or nuisances, and luxury of Newx county

For the last Sixteen Years,

In the way of Furniture, he flatters himself in having received satisfactory tests during that time, he does not consider it necessarily to say more as to the quality of his Work, leaving it to themselves, in the enduring comforts and the solid utility universally accorded them. He would invite attention to his

NEW SPRING STYLES,

And, without egotism, he considers his PIER LOOK-GLASSES contain the

Largest, Most Complete and Extensive Assortment

That can be found in the State, and for beauty of design and neatness of execution, he challenges competition. They are kept on in the most approved

ANCIENT AND MODERN STYLES.

Comprising all the varieties of warks and fancy woods, in solid mahogany, of Parlor, Chamber, Library, Sideboard and Dining Room, and Kitchen Furniture, so called for, including Mattresses, Palliasters, and Cushions of all descriptions.

Churches, Hotels, Saloons, Halls, Counting Houses, Offices, &c. &c. furnished at short notice.

Cheap, Cheap, Very Cheap Furniture!!

No necessity of going to New York, or the Junk Shops for cheap Furniture, as I will sell you the same goods just as cheap, and you will be saved the expense of cartage, freight, breakage, and trouble of going after it.

A Large Stock of Very Low-Priced Furniture.

Beds at with $20; Mahogany Chairs $2.50; Cane seats .50 cts.; Mahogany Sofas $15; Card Tables $7; Bedsteads $2; Tea Tables $2 each; Looking Glasses at all prices. Every thing else in the same proportion.

JOHN JELLIFF, 301 and 303 Broad st.
Newark, N. J.
May 3, 1852—2m.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by
May 4, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

Hoover's Black Ink.

THE Best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

Wheat Flour,	$5,62 to 4.13
Rye Flour,	3,19 to 3,25
Indian Meal, Jersey,	3,19 to 3,25
Grain—Wheat,	0,98 to 1,15
Rye,	75 to 76
Corn,	63 to 65
Oats, Jersey,	40 to 42

Hoofland's German Bitters.—We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 120 Arch street, Philadelphia. In cases of Liver complaint, Dyspepsia, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered stomach, their powers is not excelled, if equalled, by any other known preparation, as the cures effected in many cases, after the most celebrated physicians had failed. We can conscientiously recommend this medicine, as being what it is represented, and urge our readers who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and they will be convinced of the truth we assert.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Cholera per Lozenges, have been in extensive use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

CLOUDS OF WITNESSES!

There is perhaps no medicine in existence, the value of which is established by such a host of eminent witnesses as Dr. Rogers' Syrup of Liverwort, Tar and Camomile. Hon. A. Foster, the Governor of Connecticut, R. H. Winslow, the well known Banker in Wall st., N. Schuyler, President of the New Haven Railroad Company and many other distinguished citizens declare from personal experience, their confidence in the virtues of Cauchalagua, the famous California Plant, which is one of the main ingredients. The names of hundreds who have been saved by Dr. Rogers' inestimable preparation are now in print, and still the evidence accumulates.—In Consumption, and all affection of the Lungs and Bronchial tubes, as well as in Liver Complaint, it is daily producing effects which astonish even the oldest Physicians. For further information, see pamphlet, to be had of the Agents.

CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on the outside wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. L. SCOVILL & CO.

For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Dothie Hall, 316 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.

Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

PRICE—In large bottles, $1.00, or 6 bottles for $5.00

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

John Marsh, Esq. Rahway, $7,88; G. W. Halsey, New York, 2,50; James Connor & Son, do. 2,00; Rodney & Co. do. 2,00; Jackson Pound, 2,50; Thos. Wallace, 2,00; Webster & Marsh, 1,00; Joel Drake, 1,00; Peter Moore, 1,00; Wm. E. Westerfield, Scotch Plains, 96; Mrs. David A. Freeman, 79; New Market Sunday School, 63; E. W. Runyon, 50.

DR. HALSEY'S

FOREST WINE,

The discovery of the FOREST WINE is the greatest blessing of the age. Put up in Quart Bottles, a single bottle of which will frequently prove sufficient to effect a cure of Disease, then ten bottles of any other Sarsaparilla in use, and guaranteed to take without any expenditure of money or trouble.

The method by which all the Sarsaparilla, and other similar medicines are prepared, is by boiling the Roots or Plants to obtain the extracts. Their medicinal virtues are thus chemically evaporated and destroyed.

It is not to be wondered at then, that ten and even twenty bottles of these Sarsaparilla Compounds have been without any perceptible benefit. Not so with the Forest Wine! By the invention of a wonderful chemical apparatus, a perfect essence is produced without heating; retaining, at the same time, all the primitive healing properties of the rare medicinal plants of which it is composed. In rendering the Forest Wine the most efficient medicine the world ever produced, at the same time the most agreeable.

GENERAL DEBILITY, EMACIATION, WASTING OF THE BODY, &C.

Many persons are conflicted with some one of the above complaints, without being able to refer to any particular cause, and therefore delay the use of the proper remedy until the disease becomes constitutional. These disorders are sometimes characterized by a sense of sinking, or entire exhaustion after exercise. Some cases are of sluggishness, lassitude, and, at times, paleness or fluxing of the countenance, or palpitation of the heart, or like symptoms.

The excellent effects which have ever attended the use of the Forest Wine and Pills, in every species of debility, is conclusive evidence that they are the best medicine of this class of disorders. Many have resorted to these medicines as an ultimatum, and been speedily cure'. For Nervous disorders and Debility the Wine and Pills are taken according to the directions on the label.

AGUE AND FEVER, OR CHILLS

Are caused by the miasmatic effluvia arising from marshes, decayed vegetations, as in low damp situations. The Forest Wine and Forest Wine and Pills are a sovereign remedy. When they have been taken according to the directions, we have never known them to fail in effecting a complete cure. In the first place take a large dose of the Forest Pills in time, and let their operation any subside before the return chill. The stomach being now well cleansed, take three or four large doses of the Wine, at regular intervals of half an hour apart, about two hours before the period for the chill to return. The breaks the ague, after which the Wine should be continued in small doses to restore strength. See full directions around the bottle.

DR. HALSEY'S

GUM-COATED FOREST PILLS

Are an important adjunct to the Forest wine. They are coated with pure gum arabic, an invention for which Dr. Halsey has received the only patent ever granted on Pills by the government of the United States.

The Forest Wine and gum coated Forest Pills unite in accomplishing the same great end, the Purification of the Blood, and restoration of the Stomach and Bowels.

The Forest Wine and Pills are recommended as an efficient and certain cure in the following complaints:—Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Dropsy, Complaints of the Kidneys, Incipient Consumption, Decline of general Health, and Female Weakness, for which it is a Sovereign Remedy; Languidness, Night Sweats, Nervous Disorders, Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, and want of Nervous Energy, Ague and Fever, which it never fails to cure, Scrofula, Erysipelas, Jaundice, Unhealthy Color of the Skin, Weakly and Impaired State of the Constitution.

Dr. Halsey's Office, No. 808 Broadway, New York. The Forest Wine is for sale in large square flint bottles; six bottles for $5. Gum coated Forest Pills, 25 cents per box. For sale by M. F. CUSHING, and DR. I. CRAIG, appointed Agents for Plainfield.

June 3, 1852. 3m

NOTICE.

Miss O. Prosch,

WOULD hereby inform her many friends and the generous public that she has been extending her suit of rooms on a much larger scale than ever has any other in this city, and is now ready to furnish Daguerreotypes second to none. Family Groups, from one to twenty, taken to give satisfaction; also children of all ages, in a few seconds of time. Portraits of sick and deceased persons taken wherever called upon. Also Daguerreotypes copied to perfection.

Miss C. PROSCH has no connection with any other establishment, and would respectfully wish her friends to bear in mind that she can always be found at 256 Broad-street, only, where she trusts to merit that patronage so liberally bestowed upon her.

June 1—3m. 256 Broad street, NEWARK.

The Gazette Court of Common Pleas, has ordered the Sheriff to sell for public sale, about one hundred free negroes, who have neglected to pay their taxes. They are to be hired out at no less than ten cents a day, until the debt is liquidated.

Indians.—The whole number of the Penobscot Indians in Maine is 432; of Passamaquoddy, 283. These once large and powerful tribes have dwindled down to a mere handful, and are obliged to rely, for a precarious subsistence, upon the products of their barren hunting-grounds, ineffective agriculture, private charity, and the bounty of the State.

A vessel arrived lately at Portsmouth, England, on board of which was a plank which is stated to exceed in size any piece of wood yet seen. It was intended for the World's Fair, but was too late for the purpose, no vessel being within reach which could accommodate it. This plank is 248 feet long, 22 inches broad and 6 inches in thickness.

☞ Extravagant people are always penurious. Show us a woman who pays a hundred dollars for a shawl, and we will show you a woman who will run all over town to get her husband's shirts made at a cheaper charge.

Dr. Franklin, in summing up the domestic evils of extravagance, says, "Houses without windows, gardens without fences, fields without tillage, barns without roofs, children without clothing, principles, morals, or manners."

☞ A Yankee peddler recommending a scythe, said that one of the same kind of scythes was so sharp that they hung it on a tree in Kentucky, and its shadow cut a man's leg off!

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES HACKERELL & SON beg to state that they have ready Cheap Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 25 cents a piece, (using the walls and paste included.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Plain grounds and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to 24 per piece A Room papered in 4 hours.

J. F. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers
Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852.—

FARMERS' AND PLANTERS' BOILER OR LAUNDRY KETTLE.

—A new article, designed for the use of farmers, planters or families, or for any purpose where a common cauldron has heretofore been used. It consists of a stove or fire box, designed for burning long wood, brush or chips, to which a cauldron is so placed that the flame is spread in a thin sheet around the bottom and sides so ing it equally over the portion of the fire surface at the same time, thus greatly economizing in the use of fuel, and ensuring the utmost condition in its operation. For sale by

BARTLET BENT, Jr. 238 Water Street,
May 17, 1852—1m New York.

100 DOZ. BBLS. 90 per cent. Alcohol, suitable for making Burning Fluid or Spirit Gas, for sale by the manufacturer. JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,
March 23, 1852.—3m. 32 Burling Slip, N. Y.

IMPERIAL BURNING FLUID—In barrels and half bbls., for sale by the manufacturer
JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,
March 28, 1852.—3m. 32 Burling Slip, N. Y.

SERVANTS.

A GREAT variety of well selected Servants are now wanting employment at C. MASON'S Office, 580 Broadway, and 145 Bowery, New York.

Private Families can be supplied with Servants one year for 50 cents, or with one Servant for 25 cents. Subscriptions respectfully solicited.

N. B.—Men and Boys can be had for any respectable employment without charge; no wanton spared to render satisfaction.
New York, May 24, 1852.—1m.

A CHOICE ASSORTMENT OF
GARDEN, FIELD and FLOWER SEEDS,

—WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.—
WILLIAM CAIRNS

INFORMS his friends and the public that he has succeeded Mr. John Radie, in the Seed Store, 141 Maiden-lane, New York.

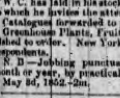
W. C. flatters himself that his long experience in the Seed business, and the facilities he has of procuring the best seeds grown in this country and from all parts of Europe, coupled with punctuality and strict attention to business, will secure to him a liberal share of patronage.

W. C. has slid in his stock of new seeds for the season, to which he invites the attention of purchasers.

Catalogues forwarded to postpaid applications.

Greenhouse Plants, Fruit, Ornamental Trees, &c. furnished to order. New York reference by unknown correspondents.

N. B.—Jobbing punctually attended to by the day, month or year, by practical men.
May 3d, 1852.—2m



Dodd & Berton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail.

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's, Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, all of which are made at our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction. Purchasers are solicited or ordered can rely upon being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as favorably as at any establishment in the county.

352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.
May 3d, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

BAREGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received, and selling off cheap.
Calicoes, fast colors, for 6 cents per yard
May 3, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

THE STAMPEDE MIXTURE,

—A Positive Remedy for NEW-ENGLAND CHILL AND FEVER AGUE.

AND OTHER BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, ARISING WHARRSES. This Medicine is put up in the Vegetable Compound, and can in no possible manner be mixed with mercurius of the day.—The proprietor Dr. Edward Bleecker, is well known, and the properties of this medicine have been fully tested by himself, and in his extensive private practice as a sovereign remedy for Chills and Fever.

CERTIFICATES

Newark, April 10th, 1852.

Mr. G. Brush—Dear Sir: Having used Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture for the cure of Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, &c., of which you are Agent, it gives me pleasure to state that I have experienced the most beneficial results from it. I have tried many so-called remedies, among the rest Dr. Osgood's Cholagogue, without benefiting me any—and I was afflicted with the Dumb Ague for more than a year; I tried one bottle of your medicine and it effected a perfect cure. In fact I never enjoyed better health in my life. Any person desirous of knowing the particulars in the above case, can obtain them by calling at my place of business where they will be cheerfully given.

GEO. WILKINSON, 152 Broad st., Newark, N. J.

Newark (April 10th 1852.

Mr. G. Brush—Dear Sir: It gives me pleasure to learn that you have accepted the Agency for that justly celebrated medicine, Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture for the cure of Fever and Ague, and Chills and Fever, and General Weakness, &c. I have tried it, and it effected a perfect cure when all others failed. I cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted with the Fever and Ague, as a most excellent medicine, and one that must naturally come into general use.

MARTIN J. W. JONES, Firm of Vail & Yates,
Bronze River and Centre sts., Newark, N. J.
DR. LEWIS CRAIG, Agent for Plainfield. my18ow

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE,

SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER,

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods to his line. He also

Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute all orders in all the branches of the above business, as well, as quick as (as cheap as he can be had elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge for yourselves. May 17, 1852.—tf

Blanks for sale at this Office.

Administrator's sale.

THE Subscriber, Administrator of the Estate of ABRAHAM BARKER, deceased, will expose at Public sale, on Second Day (Monday) the 12th day of July next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. on the premises, the real Estate of said deceased, in said Township, viz: one Two-story House with Lot and Garden, situated on the east corner of Second and New Streets, in Plainfield, N. J.

Any information can be had by reference to said property, will be cheerfully furnished by calling on the subscriber, or Smith W. Parker, on the premises.

SALE POSITIVE. ZACHARIAH WEBSTER.
Plainfield, May 6, 1852. Administrator.

1852.

SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S.

WE would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not praise up our Goods with a view of trying to make the people believe them to be what they are not, but intend that their style and quality shall speak for themselves. DeLaines from 10cts to 5s.; Bareges, Berage DeLaines new styles from 18d to 3s.; plain and watered Poplin Silks from 3s. to 10s. per yard; Prints from 3 cts per yard to 14 cts; also a new lot of Ladies Gloves from 10 cts to 75; also Gents Gloves. Bleached and Brown Muslins very cheap, Ginghams from 10 cts. to 28, and more than a thousand other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloth, plain and fancy Cassimeres, a first rate assortment of Vestings, many of which can be had made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Gents furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods from the

Plainest and Cheapest
To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it an object to Customers to call from 5 to 10 per cent less than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we are entirely in the Dry Goods trade and devote ourselves exclusively to this and no other business.

SILKS! SILKS!! SILKS!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Striped Silks, also Canton Plaids new Spring Styles to which the attention of Ladies is most kindly requested, at ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S
May 3d, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Thorn's new building in Cherry st., 2nd below Dr. Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the vicinity of Plainfield to which he has added a stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns Delaines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds. A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Colonades, Nankeens, plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Fork, Cheese, Hocks and Shoulders, Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Tubs, Buckets and Wooden Ware,

Tubs, Baskets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, wicks shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.

LIME, Rhode Island and Stone Pails.

☞ All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods.
JAMES M. DUNN.
April 20, 1852.—1y.

House and Lots for Sale.

Situated on the corner of Fifth and Centre streets, the house is nearly new, filled up with brick, five rooms on first floor, six on second, with garret and cellar—fruit trees of different kinds, and a never failing well of water. Said premises will be leased for, private residence. For particulars apply to WILLIAM SUTTON.
Plainfield, Feb. 24th, 1852.

Lawrence's Gallery,

203 Broadway, 3 doors below Fulton-STREET, NEW-YORK.

THE proprietor having built this establishment expressly for the purpose of Daguerreotyping, and having many of the difficulties that surround the Daguerrian Artist, has found after a trial of two years, that his expectations have been fully realized. The arrangement of light is new, and produces uniformly soft and beautiful pictures, with the middle, or neutral tints, so long looked for by Artists. One of the rooms is arranged with the best apparatus for those who wish to take Groups. Fifty persons can be taken with great facility. The Operating Department is conducted by persons of great experience and skill, and none but good likenesses will be sent out. Mr. L. has been the first to introduce Daguerreotypes the size of life. They are produced with a Camera of immense size, and on plates three times larger than usual. They are of all sizes below. Stormy or cloudy weather no detriment to taking the most pictures. The public of Plainfield and vicinity are invited to visit the Rooms, which are free to all.

The Jury of the PRIZE MEDAL, was awarded to Mr. Lawrence, at the WORLD'S FAIR in London, for the BEST Daguerreotypes. Enough said.
April 20th, 1852.—3m. M. M. LAWRENCE.

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John B. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite French & Hill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at moderate. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms.
THOMAS WORTH.
Plainfield, April 20, 1852—3m.

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant, do. Sanative Pills Also,
Dysentery and Diarrhœa Mixture, do. Dysentery Drops. These drops are an agreeable, effectual remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholic, Cramps, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache or Vomiting. Also a Spinal Elixir for the spine disease. Also, Hunt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by
April 20, 1852. JAMES M. DUNN.

Hope's Express.

For Newark, Elizabethtown, Westfield, Plainfield, Boundbrook, Somerville, White House, Clinton and Easton, Pa.

Leave New York daily at 9 o'clock, arriving at Plainfield at 10 1-2 o'clock, A. M. Leave Plainfield at 3 o'clock P. M. arrive New York at 4 o'clock, P. M.

JOHN LAING, Agent for Plainfield.
A. D. HOPE, 41 Courtlandt-st., New York.

☞ This Express has been systematized, and all orders will be executed with fidelity and despatch.
Plainfield, Nov. 19, 1850.

SELECT SCHOOL.

MISS JEWETT, who has had much experience and success in teaching, will open a School in Second st. near Mechanic, on Wednesday the 12th Inst.

SELECT SCHOOL.

For Girls and Young Ladies, in which will be taught all the branches of a thorough and finished English Education, together with the French and German languages.

Application may be made at Rev. Mr. Sheldon's, Second street.
Plainfield, May 3d, 1852—tf

L. S. DUNN,

HAVING taken up his residence in this place near the Depot, in Centre street, nearly opposite Rev. D. T. Hill's, offers his services to the public generally, as a practical Surveyor and Clerk, by the week, day or job, on reasonable terms. Deeds, Mortgages, Leases, Wills, and other Legal Instruments carefully drawn. He will attend vendues, take inventories, and receive all similar orders, at his residence, at any time, excepting the evenings after 9th day and on 7th Day. Having had considerable experience, he hopes to give satisfaction.
Plainfield, May 10, 1852—1m L. S. DUNN.

NEW GOODS.—Brooks' Royal Patent 6 cord cotton thread, warranted, wound on an improved principle
I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any thing we can eat, or do anything with, taken in exchange for goods.
I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

Furniture and Chair WAREHOUSE.

W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS,

No. 19 Broadway, Newark, N. J.

(A few Doors West of Broad.)

WE invite the attention of our friends and the citizens of Elizabethtown, Plainfield, Rahway, as well as the surrounding country, to the largest, best and most complete and varied assortment, and cheapest assortment of Furniture, Chairs, Mattresses, &c. ever offered in this State, a fact of which all may fully satisfy themselves who will favor us with a call. Our stock consists of all the various styles of Parlor, Dining room Bed-room, Library, Hall and Kitchen Furniture, &c. viz.: Sofas, Tete a Tete, Divans, Ottomans; Mahogany and marble top Centre Tables, Side Tables, Card Tables, Easy Arm and Rocking Chairs, Parlor Chairs, Italian Rush Seat do. &c.

Book Cases, Wardrobes, Writing Desks and Secretary tread Tables, Dining Tables, Breasting Bureaus, Cottage Bedsteads, plain do., inclosed and Plain Washstands, &c. &c.; also about 40 dozen Walnut and Maple Cane seat Chairs of our own manufacture, and warranted superior to anything of the price.

Mattresses of Curled Hair, Husk, Moss and Straw. We have also a large stock of New York Furniture, which we will sell at New York prices, saving the trouble, time, freight, risk, &c., which is attendant on purchasing in New York.

N. B. Persons residing within six or seven miles of Newark, who purchase furniture of us, can have their furniture delivered at their residences free of charge, where bills amount to $25 or over, as we keep a large Furniture wagon expressly for that purpose, and are not responsible for our wares until they are safely lodged in your own residences. We do this in order to introduce ourselves to the people of Newark and New York. Don't forget the number, 19 Market-st., Newark, N. J.
April 20, 1852.—3m. W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS.

FIRST PREMIUM MILLINERY Establishment and STRAW BONNET Manufactory, No. 504 Broadway, near Niblo's Garden, New York.

MADAME DEMOREST respectfully solicits a call from her numerous patrons and the public that she is now prepared to exhibit at her Show Rooms a splendid and unique assortment of Millinery and Straw Goods of her own Manufacture, in which are combined all the modern improvements, latest styles and fashions, together with magnificent selections of Paris Millinery, which for richness of materials, colors and taste of fashion transcends immeasurably all former importations. Also, a large and interesting invoice of Lace, Straws, Straw Bonnets, and Flowers of the newest variety. Horchands and Milliners supplied with pattern Bonnets.

Mrs. WM. SIMMONS, 504 Broadway,
April 20, 1852.—3m. New York.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the new stand on Somerset-st., next to the Store of Peter Cregar, and near French's mill, where they are prepared to sell at rates quite as low cheap as the cheapest and good as the best, including Flour and Feed, also Crockery and Earthen Ware. Produce of all kinds wanted in exchange for groceries. Thankful for past favors, asks a continuance of the same.

☞ Mrs. Voy's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaints.

JOHNSON & LYON.
April 6, 1852—1y. CHARLES JOHNSON.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment in the store of I. S. Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with silver work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Gothic plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Cash paid for old gold and silver, or taken in exchange for Clocks, Plainfield, April 18, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

LIGHTNING RODS!

M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 102 Rose Twenty-A. Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture Lightning Rods for buildings their improved lightning Rods which have now been in use seven years, and without a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. Mr. A. M. Quimby has made Electricity his study for the last 20 years, and has put up his rods in accordance with certain rules which he has found and adopted as the result of his experience. As an inducement to those who have not yet put up rods, he will guarantee for securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and exposed as regards lightning, and require a different arrangement of rods, to suit the peculiarities of each case, which is the reason why so many of the common round rods have failed heretofore; being put up by persons ignorant of the laws by which electricity is governed, they are not arranged in such a manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Quimby's rods have been placed on the house of Mr. Dr. Brown, Bolton, Dr. Mc. Mullen, and many others in Plainfield, and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church and others in New York, church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.
Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—6m

BOOTS & SHOES.

A. D. GALE,

MANUFACTURER AND WHOLESALE DEALER,

HAS constantly on hand about every thing in the line of Boots and Shoes, which he offers at low prices. Please call and examine.

A. D. GALE.
225 Pearl-st., corner Platt-st.
March 16, 1852.—3m. New York.

NEW PROVISION AND FISH STORE.

227 Washington-st., New-York

THE subscribers would beg leave to call the attention of grocers and others to his stock of

Smoked Beef and Tongues,
Smoked Hams and Shoulders,
Smoked Salmon and Herring,
Also, Beef, Pork, Lard, Mackerel, &c. by the barrel, half Barrel, and in kits, in lots to suit purchasers.

PHILEMON D. HAINES.
227 Washington-street, New York.
April 13, 1852.—3m.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, Elizabethtown, (a short distance from the depot,) would inform his friends, and all who may be in want of a good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call.

His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city. Please call and see for yourselves.
JOHN ENGEL.
April 20, 1852. tf.y.

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.
Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

D. M. KNIGHT & CO.,

Importers and Wholesale Dealers in
ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN
FANCY GOODS,

No. 53 Canal-street, (up stairs,)
(Between William and Mercer sts.,)
D. M. KNIGHT. J. A. S. ROBERTS.
COMBS—Shell, buffalo, and horn back Combs in every variety; tuxedo, dressing and ivory Combs.

Buttons. Steel, jet, lasting, mohair, twist, bone, metal, silk, thread, agate, &c.

Braids, Hair, Tooth, Nail, &c.

Jet Linen Thread. Spool Cotton. Needles, Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Hair Pins, Elastics, Whalebone, Linen and Cotton Tapes, Liners and Canvas, Bindings, Thimbles, and a great variety of fancy Goods, Fans, &c., all cheap for cash.
March 16, 1852.—3m.

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at
I. S. DUNHAM & CO.'S

TRIPLE REFINED CAMPHENE—A very superior article, in kits and half kits, for sale by the manufacturers.
JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,
March 23, 1852.—3m 32 Burling Slip, N. Y.

The Place to Buy Dry Goods

JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.

No. 227 Greenwich Street, NEW YORK,

(One Door below Barclay St.,)

Offer to Buyers the Largest, Most Varied, and Cheapest Stock of

DRY GOODS,

in Greenwich St., and one of the largest in the CITY, for both WHOLESALE and RETAIL Buyers to select from.

The First Floor is devoted to our Retail Sales, and the Second, Third and Fourth Floors, are exclusively for our

WHOLESALE TRADE.

We particularly invite the attention of COUNTRY MERCHANTS,

To our Stock, from which they can select almost any article they want, thereby saving much time. We pay particular attention to the selection of the very best styles in Dress and other Goods. Cash Buyers will save MONEY by an examination of our prices, as our expenses are small, we can sell at less profits than most Houses. All we ask is, TRY US.

JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.
New York, March 1st, 1852.—4m 227 Greenwich Street.

A GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES
AT THE CELEBRATED LARGEST ARC DREGHEST
CARPET ESTABLISHMEN

In the United States, No. 99 Bowery,
HIRAM ANDERSON'S
EIGHT EAGLES WAREHOUSE ROOMS,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

Sales Room No 1.

CONTAINS the Largest, Handsomest and Cheapest assortment of English and American Floor Oil Cloths, to be found in the city, from

TWO SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE
To One Dollar the square yard, of two to eight yards wide.

Sales Room No. 2.

Contains the most beautiful and variegated assortment of English and American superior Ingrain Carpeting, from Seventy-five cents per yard. Five Shillings to Six Shillings and Sixpence per yard—new and elegant figures for Spring Sales.

Sales Room No. 3

Is fully stocked with an unrivaled assortment of English and American Tapestry Carpeting, of new and elegant designs, manufactured expressly for the city trade, at a reduction of twenty five per cent from former prices. Ge 3d, 3s, 3s 6d per yard and upwards.

Sales Room No. 4.

Contains one hundred and fifty pieces of fine Ingrain Carpeting, new fall styles, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s, 3s 6d, and Four Shillings per yard.

Sales Room No 5.

Displays a great variety of English Druggets, from one to four yards wide, from three shillings and sixpence to Seven Shillings per yard. Stair Carpeting, of every description.

Sales Room No. 6

Is fully stocked with every variety of Stairs and Hall Carpeting, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s 6d, 4s, 5s, and 6s per yard.

In Sale Room No. 7,

Are the Patent Tapestry Ingrain Carpets exhibited at the World's Fair, formerly sold at nine shillings per yard, now selling at

SIX SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE PER YARD.

Sale Room No. 8

An extensive assortment of Table and Piano Covers, Window Shades, Hearth Rugs, Table Oil Cloths, Brussels and Tapestry Carpeting, Brussels Stair Carpet, Plated and Brass Stair Rods, Parlor Door Mats, &c. &c. All of which are offered at 25 per cent. less than at any other establishment in the city.

HIRAM ANDERSON,
No. 99 Bowery, N. Y.
All goods packed and sent free of charge. 5t.d.w.

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Earthen and Stone Ware, also Boots and Shoes, &c. His stock has been purchased with great care, and an eye to cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly suited to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints,	Ginghams,	Cassimers,
Barges de Lane,	Gloves,	Summerstuffs,
Lawns,	Hosiery,	Fashions, &c.

And all styles of goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear, Muslins bleached and unbleached, colored cambrics, shirtings, sheetings, bottons, thread, cotton bats, &c.

GROCERIES

Teas,	Rice,	Sugars,	Candles,
Coffee,	Corn Starch,	Soap,	Indian Meal.

PROVISIONS—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef, Pork, Cheese, Hams, Shoulders, &c.

Pepper sauce, Honey, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all to call and examine, and feel confident my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to call the second time.

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!

The subscriber has a well assorted a good assortment of Black and changeable silks, which will be sold cheap.
May 4, 1852. J. V. ARROWSMITH.

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in Main street, opposite Webster & Marsh's store, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, Millinery, &c. Having purchased goods at the lowest cash prices, she is prepared to sell Ribands, Gimps, Gloves, Silk, Laces, Collars, Muslins, Fringes, Hosiery, Bidings, and everything in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from Somerville, she is prepared for orders in all the various branches of Dress Making. Caps and Head Dresses made to order.
Plainfield, April 6, 1852.—3m.

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

I. FRAZEE MARSH returns thanks to his friends and customers for their liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many friends he has enlarged his stock of Paints, and taken into partnership his son, W. Washington Marsh. The business will be conducted at the old stand, opposite the Second Presbyterian Church, where will be kept constantly on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c. Window Glass cut to shape.

They will also attend to House, Sign and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging, Painting and Imitation of Wood and Marbleizing in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES.

Mixed Paint constantly on hand, and Orders gratis.
Jan. 5, 1852. F. MARSH & SON.

J. A. Woodland & J. Corbett

HOUSE, SIGN AND
DECORATIVE PAINTERS,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

☞ The above are prepared to execute all orders in their line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Paper-Hanging Department, with punctuality, neatness and despatch, and at prices considerably less than those usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.
March 23, 1852.

NOTICE TO THE LADIES

OF PLAINFIELD AND VICINITY. Those ladies wishing to obtain their supplies of Gaiter Boots and Shoes for the coming season, can find at

J. B. MILLER'S

124 Canal street, New York,

French Morocco and kid Slippers, ties and Bootkins of the first quality, at 9 and 10 shillings per pair; second quality Slippers and ties at 6 shillings, and Bootkins at 7 shillings per pair, (all of my own manufacture warranted good.) Ladies' gaiter Boots of all the fashionable colors, 12, 16 and 18 shillings the pair. This beautiful article of ladies' wear is warranted equal to any in the city. Misses' and children's gaiter Boots and Shoes of all kinds (the largest assortment of any in New York;) white and black satin, black and Bronze French kid Slippers for evening. Ladies who wish good shoes at reasonable prices, will please call and examine for themselves at J. B. MILLER'S,

124 Canal street,
(Between Thompson and Laurens streets.)
March 20, 1852.—3m.

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS.

DANIEL BULLMAN,

a prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Spring Patterns; Lawns, Bareges, Berage De Laines, Silks, plain and figured; Ginghams, Alpaccas, &c. suitable to the season; Linens, White Goods of all kinds, Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Hosiery, Gloves, and all other articles in the dry goods line, necessary to make as varied, full and complete an assortment as can be found in these parts, and they will be sold as cheap low, for cash and produce as possible.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing these articles, will find my store just the place I buy good articles, and sell them as cheap as any one can, for produce cannot help being cheap with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY,

Some very beautiful, and some very cheap; a large and varied assortment, to suit all tastes, constantly on hand. Also, Lamps, in great variety.

Cheap and Good and Cheap. Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell the same goods as cheap, and save you freight, breakage and trouble of going after it. Also, Looking Glasses, Pictures, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

VARIETIES AND FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a store, and too numerous to enumerate. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Butter Knife, or any thing else, we will furnish it, very likely. A portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited.
D. BULLMAN.
April 28, 1852.

NOT FOR THE GOLD MINES!
GIVE ME THE SILVER!

WHILE many are going to California to dig up the gold, I intend to remain at home and seek my fortune by opportunity to say to the public at large and to my customers in particular, that I shall remain here and offer them a stock of goods, at such prices as will surely pay returns, equal to any for style and quality. Said stock consists of a general assortment of every thing kept in a Village Store, viz:

Dry Goods, Carpets, Groceries,
Hardware, Crockery, Boots, Shoes,
&c. &c.

Among the Dry Goods are Muslins and Prints from 4d to 1s. and 1s 6d., DeLaines and Cashmeres; cambric and jaconet, book and Swiss muslin, a good assortment constantly on hand; also, fine gauze flannel, black gloves, (silk velvet gloves for riding;) Cloths, plain and fancy cassimeres; deaskins, satinets, jeans, cords, edgings, insertings, linens, lace bottons, &c.

Green and Black Teas of the best quality, molasses at 2s, and 3s. per gallon, sugar of every style and qualities, from 4d to 8d and 7 lbs. also superfine soap, raisins, cod fish, rice, and of other groceries a complete stock of the best quality.

CROCKERY, of Every Style and Quality

Both fancy and plain to suit the purchaser.

PROVISIONS,

Pork, Fish, salt, lard, shoulders, lard, butter, cheese, beef, &c. &c.

BOOTS and SHOES, of Every Style and Quality, for Ladies', gentlemen's and children's wear at as low prices as

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Furniture and such varnish, turpentine, white lead, pure and extra; lamp oils, yellow ochre, Venitian red, red lead, chrome green, Prussian blue, Prussian blue mixed and dry, lamp black, Rubarge, Brown Japan and nearly every thing for painters' use.

Flour, Meal, Feed and Grain,

A good assortment constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village.
OLIVER RUNYON.
Plainfield, March 16 1852.

HORACE SEATON,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN LACE GOODS,

354 Broad Street, Newark.

Strade and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Tulle, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Ladies' and Gents' Hosiery and Hosiery, Millinery articles, Combs, Brushes, Oils, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the newest fashions.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Gent's, Ladies and Children's fancy dress Shoes and Gaiters. 3t.

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at R. GLENN & Co's Manufactory, 194 Fulton-st., (west of Broadway,) A general Assortment of Mahogany and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

R. GLENN & CO., 194 Fulton-street,
Oct. 7, 1851.—1y New York.

GARHART & NEEDHAM,

Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

With Recent Important Improvements.

Price from $60 to $200.

No. 78, East 3 thirteenth Street's,
J. Carhart, NEW YORK.
E. F. Needham,

N. B. Melodeons constantly on hand.
Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that the time for paying the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the new act of law, by coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere; thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We have now in store a large and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and prices which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also, a large and well made stock of tailor's trimmings at a low price—also constantly for sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Mosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Friends will you favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves?

Garments made and repaired at the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.
Plainfield, Dec. 1.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts, as they must positively be paid over for collection. As I don't wish to put any person on any one, I give this public notice that all may govern themselves accordingly.
OLIVER RUNYON.
Plainfield, April 9, 1852.

BREWSTER'S EMBROCATION,

OR THE BEST REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED FOR

SPRAINS, BRUISES, RHEUMATISM

Stiffness or Weakness of the Joints and Limbs, Contraction of the Muscles, Neuralgia of the Face, Side or Back, Gout, Head-Ache, Tooth-Ache, &c.

Also, an invaluable Remedy for Spavin, Strains, Stiffness, Lameness, and Galls on Horses.

This Embrocation is prepared of Ingredients which form a very active, yet entirely safe and pleasant preparation for Rheumatism, &c. Hundreds of the most respectable persons and families have given their testimony in favor of its superiority. It operates in many cases immediately, and persons who have been suffering under extreme pain in the side or limbs, or from bruises and sprains, have found instant relief from a thorough rubbing with this embrocation.

It has a long currency in the Drug business and constant applications to prescribe remedies for various diseases, the proprietor has had ample opportunity to witness the effect of the different preparations for Rheumatism, &c., and believe this embrocation was offered with so much confidence, it was satisfactorily and effectually proved in the cases in which it is represented. Try it, and you will not be disappointed.

Price, 25 cents per Bottle.

Certificate from Ambrose Pancoast, Esq. Atlantic co. N.J.

Pancoastville, N. J. July 31, 1849.

Dear Sir,—I have been an extensive dealer in horses for 30 years past, and have had great opportunities to witness the various diseases they are subjects, and of testing the various remedies in use.

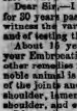
About 15 years since I was induced to make use of your Embrocation, and since that time I have used no other remedy for the following diseases to which this noble animal is subject, viz. Ringbone, spavin, strains of the joints and sinews, shoulder strains, swiney in the shoulder, lameness in the stifle and knee, galls on the shoulder, and every disease of a like nature.

I have also used, and known it used for the various diseases to which mankind are subject, such as Swelled Joints, Rheumatism, Gout, Sprains, Bruises, cuts, burns, Spinal affections, pains in the Face, side and back, Toothache, Burns, Scalds, and especially the headache, for which it has been used in many cases with success. Your Embrocation is the best and safest Remedy I have ever used for the above complaints: I have also sold considerable of it in my store, and believe it to supersede all others. Yours withrespect,

AMBROSE PANCOAST.

Prepared only by F. G. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Haddonfield, N. J. Sold together with Brewster's Pectoral Mixture, and Cholera Mixture, by Dr. L. CRAIG, Druggist, agent for Plainfield; C. W. Badger, Newark; Dr. D. C. English, New Brunswick, and by others throughout the State.

May 1, 1852.—4m



MARBLE & STONE YARD.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he intends to keep constantly on hand

HEAD STONES, MONUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful ROSE STONE CUTTER, from which I can furnish to order every variety of building purposes, ornamental or plain. All of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. To those wishing to purchase I would respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.—1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK

ANDREW M WEBSTER,

Attorney at Law and Solicitor in Chancery.

OFFICE—No. 153 MARKET STREET,

May 13, 1850. NEWARK N. J.

DR. H. DAYTON,

Surgeon-Dentist,

Has returned to Plainfield, and taken an Office for the year, on Main st. 2d house below Webster & Marsh's store.

June 21, 1851.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE,

Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

NO. 259 GREEN STREET, NEW YORK.

MRS. MOFFAT'S

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston.

WHERE she has treated a variety of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, particularly those resulting from or attendant upon debility, Scrofulous, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous diseases, in so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say, that she respectfully solicits a continuance of the confidence in case of long standing, after their having been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOFFAT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES may rest assured, that unfounded as DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

☞ Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. Jan6 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUSE, Hay, Floor and Portable Platform Bank, Gold and Counter

Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct and warranted not liable to get out of order.

Manufactory 39 Greene street, New York,

Also in Blake and Williams' Manufactory

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

A. S. DENGIS, } Agents.
J. HARRISON, }

Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

HOWS IMPROVED LINIMENT

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

	[IN MEN]
Rheumatism,	Sprains,	Weakness in the
Burns, Bruises,	Cuts, Sores,	Back, Breast,
Sore Throats,	Swellings,	Joint & Joint.
	[IN HORSES]
Bruises, Sprains,	Ringbone,	Poll Evil, and all
Warbles, Spavin,	Splint, Pistula,	diseases of Horses,
Curb, Scratches,	Thoroughpin,	where an Embroca-
Windgall,	Saddle Galls,	tion can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY H. HOW, CHEMIST,

No. 205 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Next door opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, have used How's improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved it to our satisfaction.

James Moore, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barnet McCherry, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel R. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick; Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton; Jesse Hammitt, John A. Weart, Trenton, A. W. Brown, South Amboy; Henry Campbell, Metuchen, Jonathan Dunham, Woodbridge.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG in Somerville by Culver Bergen, &c. in New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Jan. 24, 1852.—1y.

BRISTOL'S Double Refined Powdered Saleratus, Chemical Yeast Powder in tin boxes, and Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

CARPETING

At a great reduction from former prices.

PETERSON & HUMPHREY,

397 Broadway, corner of White Street,

NEW YORK.

BEG leave to call the attention of their friends in Plainfield to their elegant stock of ENGLISH AND AMERICAN CARPETINGS, which, owing to the reduction by the English manufacturers, will be disposed of at the following extremely low prices:

Brussel Carpet, from 12s to 16s per yard.

" Tapestry " 9s to 12s "

" 3 Ply, extra heavy, " 7s to 9s "

" Ingrain, " 6s to 7s "

" Good, all Wool, " 4s per yard.

OIL CLOTHS,

from 3 to 24 feet wide, at prices equally low.

MATTINGS,

4-4, 6-4 and 8-4, Plain, Fancy and Check; Stair Rods, Druggets. Table and Piano Covers, Rugs, Mats of all kinds, together with all other goods found in Carpet Stores, for sale full ten per cent less than any other establishment in the Union. We, therefore, challenge the whole trade to show such an extensive stock, at such low prices.

☞ Stages from Courtlandt-street Ferry run by our store.

March 16, 1852.—3m.

PROLAPSUS UTERI.

This malady arises primarily from a debilitated state of the muscles of the abdomen which by permitting gravitation of the bowels suffers them to bear with their weight upon the womb, thus the falling condition of the organ (i. e. Prolapsus Uteri.) Secondarily from debility of the round and broad ligaments, the natural supporters of the womb, being weakened, yield to the pressure of the bowels and suffer the falling to take place. The object of a supporter is to give an inward and upward lifting force to counteract the downward, so as to cause them to sustain the weight of the bowels, and thus relieve the womb from the bearing down weight, but how is this support to be obtained, not with belts or pressure by the hands, but nature's way, by the muscles is rounded, having its lower boundary placed between the two fullness of the ilmtes, and because the purchase is lifting is not just inside of the pubis (Superior) ligaments, dividing the thighs from the abdomen, and above the cross bone of the Pelvis. Consequently lying deeply packed and secure under the folds of the abdomen, and not to be reached by a belt or brace passing over it.

The Improved Supporter Pad invented and patented by the subscriber, is adapted to the figure of the abdomen, having its convex and under edges raised so as to form two hollows, by the use, the bowels are uplifted, and by the other borne inward toward the centre of the body, and are made to support the womb, bladder and rectum, in the most natural manner, giving their greatest lifting force from beneath upwards, and thus restoring the organ to its true position.

The recently patented Supporter Pad, invented by Frederick M. Butler, embodying the above requisites of configuration and adaptation, has been numerously tested, and being more efficient than any hitherto applied, has been adopted in the Hull Texas Office.

The Supporter is completed with a Perineal strap, having a proper and efficient duty to perform.

F. M. BUTLER, Proprietor.

Office, No. 4 Vesey st., opposite St. Paul's church, N. Y.

☞ Ladies fitted by a female, having separate and distinct rooms for their accommodation. Je2m.3

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing astonishing healing properties, which is adapted to a larger class of diseases, in its ability to surpass, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Coughs and Colds, we doubt if it has an equal; it is very good for Rheumatism, Sprains and Rheumatism, Headache and Tooth Ache, Chilblains, Burns, Scalds, Cancer; as a Cholera prevention or remedy it cannot be surpassed. No one can appreciate the worth of this excellent medicine, but those who have used it. We have used it with great success, and do most cheerfully recommend it to those that are or may be afflicted, as a safe and harmless remedy, and it is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge, Brooklyn, John Comstock, Brklyn
" H. T. Hopkins, Newark; John Rickbeck, Engineer,
" Prof. Wilding, Washington, Steamboat "Warren,"
Hon. G. L. Martence, Brklyn, Lawrence Mann, Rich'ld
S. Sprague, Ex-Mayor, " Jordan Wooley, L. Branch
Alderman S. L. Husted " David B. Salters, Bergen
H. C. Goulding, Ex-P. M., " Stephen B. Ryle,
J. Dorland, ferry master " Addison Jayne, New York
David Travis, Sogmerstown, Jane McCollick, W. Market
A. Wyckoff, Bedford Island, D. Hiscox, "
Peter Blauvelt, T.'s Ferry, E. Packer, "
Joseph Chedick, W. Market, Rainer S. Veldran, "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above recommend, and the statement made by them can be fully relied on.

FRANCIS B. STRYKER.

Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 204 Water Street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING.

Jan. 2, 1852

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of May, will remove his store fo No. 16 Maiden-Lane, to the store formerly occupied by him.

The manufacturers will call particular attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him:—James Hemming & Son's celebrated Needles—Richards' Groove, Long Eye Sewing Needles, Buttons, Combs' Steel and Gold Pens, Spool and Ball Cotton, Tailors' Tape, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c.

RICH'D RICHARDS,

Importer of Needles and Variety Goods,

April 28, 1852.—3m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York.

TYPE AND PRINTING MATERIALS.

NEW BUILDING, No. 29 BEEKMAN STREET,

Between Nassau and William Street,

near the City Hall, Park, and Principal Hotels.

THE undersigned beg respectfully to inform their patrons and the trade, that they purpose moving on the first of May, to their new building, No. 29 Beekman street, between Nassau and William street. They trust, from the facilities there offered by every modern improvement, to meet a continuance of liberal support. Fonts of plain Scotch face, ranging from 100 lbs. to 1,000 lbs. weight will be on hand, as well as a varied assortment of Fancy Letter, and every article requisite for the furnishing of complete printing offices.

The subscribers would beg to call the attention of the trade to their metal, which for durability has not been surpassed, if equalled, by any foundry in the U. States. By a careful combination of the metals, agreed at from an experience of 30 years, they are enabled to cast type which they feel assured will last one third longer than that heretofore furnished by any foundry in the country. In proof of this, they would state that the foundress of the New York Herald has started upward of one year, several weeklies and monthlies, issued at from per week, besides extras, of 32,000 copies—and this on their rotary cylinder presses—this evidencing exclusively the fact of durability.

JAMES CONNER & SON,

No. 25 Ann street, corn er Nassau.

☞ Editors and Publishers of newspapers giving the above 8 insertions prior to the 1st of Aug. 1852, and sending a copy of the same, will be entitled to paper materials, by purchasing four times the amount of their bill for advertising. my2d3t

REMOVAL.

STRAW GOODS.

THE subscriber having removed from No. 12 to No. 10 John Street, (first floor) respectfully invites the attention of Milliners and others to his new and desirable stock of which comprises the most desirable styles, adapted to the fashionable Spring Trade, all of which will be sold at the lowest market prices.

STRAW BONNETS,

L. CHAPIN,

April 13, 1852.—2m. No. 10 John-st.

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by P. Mosher, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

Also PAPER-HANGING, all of which will be promptly, punctually and honestly executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned hereby returns thanks to his customers for their liberal patronage the past year, and will endeavor by faithfulness to merit and secure a continuance of their favors.

☞ Orders may be left at the Union Office, also at Mr. Ira Braden's store. CHARLES TAYLOR.

April 1, 1852.—1y

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

THE most safe and effectual remedy ever discovered for the destruction of worms in children or adults, being the safest, pleasant and best cure for worms ever offered to the public. The hundreds of cures performed daily by this syrup, should satisfy all of its superiority over all worm syrups, with or without it after observing it is a fair trial. This Syrup is entirely vegetable and recommended by the head physicians of the country and in all cases where it does not perform according to recommendation the money will be refunded. Should further say, do not let your children go to a premature grave when so safe and pleasant a remedy is at hand, one which has never failed to give satisfaction in the most obstinate cases of worms. When your children are afflicted with blotches under the eyes, pasting at the nose, bloated stomach, sudden starting in the sleep, then is the time to use this remedy, it being for sale by every respectable storekeeper in the country, where you can obtain a pamphlet of its wonderful cures, as well as of Hobensack's

LIVER PILLS.—These Pills being composed of Roots and Plants for diseases of the Biliary organs, Liver complaint, &c.

Congestion of the Liver is known to exist from an inclination to vomit being present, bitter taste in the mouth, yellow furred tongue and thirst, the skin hot and the pules full and bounding, an extra supply of bile is sent to the blood, which is afflicted in a short time. These Pills will remove all symptoms either total or partial. they have been found of inestimable benefit in restoring these functional derangements to their healthy action, cleansing the blood and other fluids so as effectually put to flight all complaints which may arise from bilious irregularities, as headache, giddiness, dizziness, sickness at the stomach, &c. &c. Price 25 cents per box, with directions. Be careful and ask for Hobensack's Liver Pills, as they are the only genuine, all others being a base imitation. Prepared by Hobensack's Laboratory, Philadelphia. For sale in Plainfield,

Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. CUSHING.

And at Retail by ELIAS KIRKPATRICK,

C. Drake, Rodman Priest, Charles Foster, Westfield.

March 25, 1852.—1y.

·R.R.R.·

Science, by subjecting the laws of Chemistry to the skill of man, has contributed to his health and happiness by stamping the most cured and severe pangs of pain with instant, and curing the most obstinate

CHRONIC COMPLAINTS

IN A FEW HOURS

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,

Internally and Externally instantly stops Pain, and speedily cures its cause.

It is warranted to give relief to the following pains in

Fifteen Minutes

and to speedily, and effectually cure the disease,

Rheumatism,	Chilic,	Cramps and Spasms,
Lumbago,	Paralysis,	Summer Complaints,
Stiff Joints,	Neuralgia,	Sorened in Bones,
Tic Doloreux,	Dysentery,	Pain in the Limbs,
Chill Fever,	Diarrhœa,	Sick Head-ache,
Ague Cake,	HeartBurn,	Cholera Morbus,
Sore Throat,	Colds, &c.

PAIN

IS the warning given of the presence of disease and of the derangement and prostration of the nervous and muscular system. In order to cure disease and the pain system entirely of its cause, our first great consideratum is to stop the pain—strengthen the nervous energy—invigorate the digestive and the functions and secretions of every organ in the system; this we accomplish by the marvellous

Strengthening, cleansing, invigorating, and powerful pain seeking properties of

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

No one can say what the cause of the pain may be—if it arises from nervous prostration, muscular debility, disarrangement of the liver or secretions of the skin, whether it be rheumatism, neuralgia, sick or nervous headache, nervous irritability, spasmodic affections, cramps, diarrhœas, bowel complaint, chills and fever whether it originates from internal derangements or external injuries, Radway's Ready Relief taken according to directions, will speedily and effectually stop the pain and cure its cause

RHEUMATISM — 100,000 persons cured in 1850

The most excruciating pain stopped in two hours.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the quickest, surest, safest and only remedy for all pain. Rheumatism in all its forms now in use; we state only what we know. It will stop the most torturing pains of this distressing complaint by one application. Not a single hour has to elapse in giving instant relief. In every city, village and town of America it has cured some of the people of this cruel complaint. In every case we will warrant—it will instantly relieve the sufferer from pain and speedily cure its cause.

SICK AND NERVOUS HEADACHE

100,000 cases cured in 1850.—It will give relief in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief taken according to directions, will speedily and effectually cure this complaint. Taken internally and applied externally it refreshes the senses, cleanses the stomach, stops all irritation in the nerves, carries from the nerves of the head all pain, and effectually relieves the sufferer from pain in 15 minutes. It is now curing hundreds daily of the sick and nervous headache

NEURALGIA.—100,000 Neuralgia cases cured in 1850.—It will stop the most violent Neuralgia Pains in Fifteen Minutes.

The cruel and excruciating pangs of this distressing complaint are usually arrested by Radway's Ready Relief. The happy and invigorating effects it produces on the nervous system, when taken according to directions, quickly restores the nervous energy and cures the disease. It is the only remedy that has effectually cured Neuralgia in the worst forms.

DIARRHŒA.—200,000 persons cured in 1850.—Pains stopped in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief cured more cases of cholera morbus, dysentery, cholic and all bowel complaints the past year than any other remedy in use. In the basin of the Mississippi, Illinois and Ohio rivers, Kentucky, New Orleans, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukie, Galena, and other places where the diarrhœa prevails, Radway's Ready Relief will cure. Every Ready Relief was used with the best success. It will in 15 minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms, impart a genial heat throughout the whole system, allay all irritation, stop painful discharges and relieve the patient from all pain.

CRAMPS AND SPASMS.

A Teaspoonful of Radway's Ready Relief, taken internally, and by bathing externally, will in a few minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms. In many cases where the extremities have been cold, blue, pinched and shrunk, the limbs distorted and shrunk, rubbing Radway's Ready Relief has always brought life and action, and a quick and healthy circulation of blood.

CHILLS AND FEVER.

If you have pain in the bones, swelled joints, weakness of the muscles, if you have a sprained limb, swelled leg, bruised arm, sore head, or if you burn or scald yourself, Radway's Ready Relief will cure you. Rub, rub, rub the pain and swelling, give energy and strength to the muscles and entirely free you from pain.

Jumping Toothache cured in one second.

All aches and pains—back ache, toothache, face ache, ear ache, stomach pain in the limbs, in the muscles, the bones, the feet, the head and arms, Radway's Ready Relief will instantly cure.

PAINFUL ITCHINGS

And all cutaneous eruptions and humors from all irritation by bathing the parts with Ready Relief.

SPINAL COMPLAINTS.

By bathing externally the cords of the neck and spine it will surely cure the pain. We have known many cases of posterior and anterior curvature of the spine to be entirely cured, and the disfigured object to regain his proper shape by the use of Radway's Ready Relief.

CHILL FEVER.

One teaspoonful of Radway's ready relief taken on the first symptoms of chills, and bathe the head, neck and shoulders, if there be any pain experienced, and it will entirely prevent chill Fever.

Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Flatulency, Bad Breath, Wind, &c. are quickly cured by a dose of Radway's ready relief taken internally. It is a delicious cordial, imparting strength to every organ and function of the body, and health and happiness to the mind.

CAUTION TO DRUGGISTS

Purchase Radway's ready relief only of the authorized agent, whose name is given below. Our travelling agents have a power of attorney signed by us to sell. Be careful in purchasing always ask to see it. Price 25 cents a bottle.

RADWAY & CO., 162 Fulton st. N. Y.

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

Sept. 9, 1851.—1y

Looking Glasses—A Large number

JUST RECEIVED,—from 25 cents to $7 each, by D. BULLMAN

DR. HOOFLAND'S

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS

Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON,

at the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch St. Philadelphia,

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach or Blood.

These Bitters are entirely vegetable and contain no alcoholic stimulant; such as Constipation,

Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering in the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs &c. Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits

THEY ARE ENTIRELY VEGETABLE,

And Free from Alcohol in any form, and all Injurious Ingredients.

And are pleasant in taste and smell, and mild in their action, yet powerful over the diseases of the body and give health and vigour to the frame.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, of Philadelphia, has had the means of obtaining the genuine recipes of the great medical counsellor, Christoph Wilhelm Hufeland, and these medicines are prepared in accordance with them, and may be had of the German Medicine Store. The bitter mixture—Hoofland's German Bitters—is the result of many years' study and practice, and is offered to the public with confidence and prized in Europe as an infallible remedy for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. Dr. C. M. Jackson's preparation of this medicine has obtained the same celebrity in Germany as Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and innumerable confirmations of thousands of the most severe and difficult cases cured, is ample proof of this. The medicines recommended by Dr. C. M. Jackson, have produced the very effects and same happy results, which the immortal inventor indicated and intended, and consequently must be compounded with singular accuracy.

A Case in Camden.

Mr. George W. Mintz, merchant, 317 Market st. cured of Disease of the Liver, and Chronic Diarrhœa, of 15 years stand ng. He had been under the best medical treatment during the time, and visited the principal springs of note throughout the Union, without permanent benefit, and was at last permanently cured by the use of a few bottles of "Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters."

JOHN MOORE, jun. Esq. Editor of the "Daily News and, October 29th, 1850.

"Hoofland's German Bitters.—We are trying this renowned medicine for a stubborn disease of the bowels, with success. We have been very much afflicted for seven or 8 years, and we have derived more benefit than we derived previously from years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our first physicians."

Three Cases Cured.

Philadelphia, 3d mo. 20th, 1850.

Respected Friend: I had for several years been afflicted with Dyspepsia and occasionally a General Debility, which rendered me unfit for business. I finally was taken in the first place upon a daughter, she having a severe sickness. They "Hoofland's German Bitters" had such effect upon her general debility, that I was induced to try them myself. I then got a bottle and found it according to directions, and it relieved me more than anything I had before used, giving tone and strength to the stomach and bowels. Also, a son of mine was taken with a severe Diarrhœa, which continued for some time. My wife, for a time, was despaired of. Thy Bitters again being used, acted very happily upon the stomach and intestines, and completely cured them. I have since used the Bitters as a general health to the system. I consider it, doctor, one of the most valuable medicines I ever used, and shall take great pleasure in recommending it to others.

Very respectfully thy friend, SAMUEL HUTTON.

No. 5 Jennings' Row, Catharine, above Third.

Dr. C. M. Jackson, 120 Arch street, Phila.

That this medicine will prevent the foregoing diseases, no one can doubt, if they use it as directed; it will act specifically upon the Liver, Stomach and Nerves. It is prefered by many to all the Bitters in market, its effect is immediate, and they do not prostrate the system.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS

This medicine has attained that high character which it is necessary for all medicines to attain, to induce counterfeiters to put forth spurious articles, at the risk of the lives of those who are innocently deceived.

Look well to the Marks of the Genuine.

For the protection of invalids against fraud, the signature of C. M. JACKSON will be upon the front of the outside wrapper, and his name blown in every bottle.

Remember, all others are counterfeits and worthless; all others are Counterfeits—OFFICE ADVICE given gratis upon all diseases.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at the principal depot,

GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

No. 120 Mulberry or Arch st. one door below 6th st. (formerly 278 Race st.) Philadelphia, Pa., and by respectable dealers generally throughout the United States, the Canadas and the West India Islands.

PRICES REDUCED!

To enable all classes of Invalids to enjoy the advantages of their great Restorative Power,

Single Bottles, 75 cts.—Three Bottles, $2,00.

For sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

Aug. 11, 1851.—1y

Excelsior Chemical and Color Works.

SAMUEL TRUESDELL,

MANUFACTURER OF

PAINTS & COLORS:

Chrome Green,	American Vermillion,
Chrome Yellow,	Chinese Blue,
Prussian Blue,	Paris Green,
Paris Blue,	Rose Pink, &c. &c.

No. 141, Sullivan st. New York.

IMPERIAL GREEN PAINT IN OIL.

April 18, 1852.—3m.

AFFLICTED READ!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. KINKELIN,

N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice spent in the daily unremitted care of the most expert and successful practitioner for and near in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat or legs, pains in the head, nocturnal emissions, gonorrhœa, strictures, diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled are all treated with success.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, should apply immediately. A few of the constitutional debility, loss of muscular energy, physical lassitude and general prostration, irritability and all nervous affections, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, and entire prostration of energy, are the general symptoms of the procreative functions cured, and full vigor restored.

READ!—YOUTH AND MANHOOD!

A Vigorous Life, or a Premature Death.

Kinkelin on Self Preservation Only 25 Cents

This Book is filled with useful information on the infirmities and diseases of the Generative Organs. It addresses itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by all. The valuable advice and impressive warning it gives will prevent years of misery and suffering and save annually thousands of lives. Parents by reading it will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

A remittance of 25 cents, enclosed in a letter addressed to Dr. Kinkelin, N. W. corner of 3d and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will ensure a book, under envelope, per return of mail. Persons at a distance may address Dr. K. by letter, post-paid, and be cured at home. Packages of Medicine, Directions, &c. forwarded by sending a remittance, and put up secure from observation.

Book-sellers, News Agents, Pedlars, canvassers, and all others supplied with the above book at very low rates.

Sept. 2, 1851.—1y

Gentlemen's Furnishing Store,

No. 222 Greenwich st.,

NEW YORK

(One block from the Hudson River R. R. Depot, and two blocks from the Erie R. R. Dock.)

Exhibiting a general and complete assortment of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, of the best description, manufactured in the best manner, and sold wholesale and retail at the lowest cash prices; consisting of Fine Shirts, Collars, Cravats, Scarfs, White & col'd do. Bosoms, Suspenders, Under Shirts, Ties, Traveling Bags, Drawers, Gloves, Pocket Books, Stockings, Threads, Pocket Handkerchiefs, Trunks, Half Hose, Cottons, Collars, &c., &c. &c.

Together with a good assortment of

ENGLISH & GERMAN HOSIERY.

Of all sizes, for Ladies and Children.

The principle upon which our business is conducted is that of one price only, for cash, and in proportion to the quality, as cheap as can be found at any other establishment in this country.

The attention of gentlemen and ladies who desire to procure such articles on the best terms, is respectfully invited.

THOMAS M'LAUGHLIN.

New York, March 5, 1852.

☞ Our FINE SHIRTS are cut by experienced hands and made up in a superior style, and when especially ordered, will be supplied to fit the customer at short notice. mar10 6m.

Cheaper Yet!

THE Subscriber having a very large assortment of Goods on hand, and constantly increasing by New Arrivals, has resolved to reduce his stock by

Selling off at Unusually Low Prices,

And solicits a call from the public to examine for themselves, and they will find that these goods are

MORE GOODS FOR LESS MONEY,

Than at any other Store in the country.

Nov. 17, 1851. IRA PRUDEN

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the Subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, pleasantly situated from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on Park, Second, Main, Liberty and William sts; also a good sized lot with a House on it, which is well calculated for the accommodation of two families, and is a valuable location; very nigh the centre of the business part of the town, on the corner of Second and Somerset sts. at very short distance from Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store

Jan. 19 1852.—tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

Central Rail Road of N. J.

Extension to Clinton, 8 miles.

An Extra Accommodation Train.

Spring Arrangements,

Commencing Monday, May 3d, 1852.

This line leaves New York by steamboat Red Jacket Pier No. 1 North River, and connects at Elizabethtown with trains for Easton, Phillipsburg, Belvidere New York from the foot of Cortlandt st., at the SAME HOUR.

Leave New York,

At 9 o'clock, A. M. at 1 P. M. (freight) and 5 P. M.

Trains to New York Leave

	Freight	Passeng'r	Passeng'r
Whitehouse, at	3.15,	6.40 and	10 A.M. 1.40 P.M.
North Branch,	3.30	5.50	8.50 1.50
Somerville,	4	6.05	9.05 2.05
Bound Brook,	4.20	6.15	9.15 2.15
Plainfield,	5.10	6.40	9.45 2.40
Westfield,	5.50	6.55	10.5 2.55
Elizabethtown,		7.15	10 30 3.15

☞ Stages will be in readiness on the arrival of the 9 o'clock train from New York at White House, to convey passengers to Easton, Wilkesbarre, Bethlehem, Allentown, Manch Chunk, Penn.; and to Flemington, Lebanon, Clinton, Milford, Bethlehem, Bloomsbury, S. J., and Belvidere, Hackettstown and Hardwick, N. J., on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; also from Somerville for Peapack and Pluckamin, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

N. B. All Baggage at the risk of the owners until delivered into the actual possession of the Agents of the company, and checks or receipts given therefor.

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Heart Corrector,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-dyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Catharr Pills
Nervine,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific
	Pure and Medical Blood Pills.

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Nervous Affections, Humors, Stomach Complaints, Female Complaints, Piles, &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Plated Steel Spring Shoulder Braces.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Plated Shaving Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to an old age.

This Book should be in every family. To the consumptive it points out the only REASONABLE hope for relief. To females, this directions is given for the care and education of children of sive hvalids. 75,000 copies of this Book have passed through the press, and the sale continues unabated.

Dr. FITCH & CO., 707 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent in Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

READ! READ! READ!

All Storekeepers and Druggists in Somerset County, in the State of New Jersey, and in U. States, in consequence of the great demand, keep the sale

DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS

Near 600,000 Boxes were sold the past year in the U. States, and near 30,000 boxes in the State of New Jersey, and still

YOUNG AND OLD, SALE AND FEMALE, can always take them with equal safety, without fear, IF PILLS ARE NO CURSARY or purging or flushing the stomach and bowels and purifying the Blood and fluids of the body, take no other —for no other pills produce those combined effects which contain no sarsaparilla in their mass.

Eat, Drink and Live as Usual,

and pursue your usual occupation whilst taking them, without fear of taking cold, during all kinds of weather.

THESE PILLS ARE THE ONLY ONES,

and sold at Twenty-five cents a box, with directions, and wholesome advice accompanying each box.

They have no taste or unpleasant smell,

Free from disease, and safe to all kinds of food,

Do not gripe the stomach or bowels,

Produce no sickness, vomiting or bad feelings,

And adapted to most diseases common to mankind

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION!

of other pills called by names nearly similar, represented as the same or as good, 'tis a trick to impose on the public.

DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS are the safest, best and most efficacious Pills known,

AS THOUSANDS CAN TESTIFY.

☞ Principal Depot, Dr. LEIDY'S Dispensary, No. 114 North 9th street, Philadelphia,—and sold in every town in New Jersey.

BENJAMIN SANDY, Esq. is the Travelling agent for the state of New Jersey.

☞ M. F. CUSHING, and E. KIRKPATRICK, Agents for Plainfield.

PAINTS, &c.

AMERICAN PATENT ATOMIC DRIER, Grinding COLORS—Anti-friction Paste, Gold Size, Zinc Driver, Stove Polish, and Black Varnish for iron Work.

QUARTERMAN & SON,

Painters & Chemists,

114 John-Street, New York.

March 9, 1852.—1y.

German Washing Powder, & Fluid

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

PLAINFIELD UNION

Volume XVI.—No. 24. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, June 15, 1852. Whole Number 804.

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 214 Broad-street, Washington Hall Buildings,

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical, lepine, verge and cylinder Watches; gilt, silver, pearl and fine Dollar Watches; Watch Materials; Lockets, silver, shell and russet card cases; gold and silver Guards; silver Chains; fob and vest Chains of all patterns; silver, shell and russet card cases; gold and silver Guards; silver Chains; fob and vest Chains of all patterns; silver, shell and russet card cases; gold and silver Guards; silver Chains; fob and vest Chains of all patterns; silver-enamelled, engraved and plain Lockets; Lockets of hair, pearl, mourning and plain Brooches; Gent's cluster, enamelled, mourning and plain Studs; Finger Rings, agate stoned, enamelled and plain Rings; Gent's hair Bracelets of all patterns; Lasting plain patent hair Bracelets of all styles; Gents' diamond, ruby, emerald, hyacinth, and all styles of Breast Pins; gold Lockets and Miniature Cases; gold Pens; Hearts and Crosses; gold Fob and Guard Keys; gold and silver Thimbles; silver Spoons and Butter Knives; gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Bonquet Holders, hair pins, scissors, knives, tea bells, purses, letter stamps, medal and gilt books, portmonaies, ladies' elegant silver chess men and boxes, leather boards, backgammon boards, letter folders, segar cases, pearl studs, twin buttons, watch stands, buckles, emerys, seals, pencil holders, microscopes, razors and strops, fancy work boxes, china segar cases and musical vases, perfumery of all kinds, tobacco and snuff boxes; tooth, hair, hat, nail, clothes and comb Brushes; fine gilt guard chains; pocket books, a large assortment; dressing combs, back combs, pocket combs, scissor sheaths,, pocket knife cases, Persian scent bags, smelling bottles, fingering-wire canes, metal and bone bracelet canes, silk and gilt fob chains; shaving brushes, shaving boxes, &c.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

Piano Fortes, Piano Forte makers, Violins, Clarionettes, Flutes, Flageolets, Bass Violins, Drums, Metronomes, Violin Bows, Accordeons, tuning forks; Violin, Violincello and Guitar Strings; Trimmings for all Instruments; a large assortment of songs, duetts, quartettes, trios and glees, comprising all the latest publications; also Instrumental Music, namely, waltzes, quick steps, marches, overtures, operas, &c.; Sheet music, Instruction books for Piano Forte, flute, fife, violin, accordeon, clarionet, flageolet, &c. &c. All these articles can be bought in New York or Philadelphia at very reduced prices. Catalogues can be had, comprising the largest variety in Newark.

WATCH REPAIRING AND CLEANING.

The subscriber continues to give full satisfaction to those that employ him, has engaged a very superior workman from Switzerland, where he has been engaged for several years in manufacturing all kinds of watches, and is well skilled in repairing and cleaning watches. so testimonials from some of the First watch makers of the city of New York will testify.

Jewelry made to order. Old gold and silver taken in exchange.

d8-y

Wholesale and Retail

Wine and Liquor Store.

29 Fair Street, Newark, N. J.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has constantly on hand at his above old established stand, a full and choice supply of Foreign Wines and Spirits, which he offers at the lowest cash prices, and delivered to order to any part of the city or country. Brandy of every age, viz: Cognac, Irish, Scotch and Monongahela Whiskey, St. Croix and Jamaica Rum, Port, Madeira, Malaga and Champagne Wines, Lossy's Bitters, &c.

Philadelphia Bottled Porter and Pale Ale of the first quality; also a very choice article of Bottled Cider (almost equal to Champagne) always on hand.

☞ A continuance of patronage is solicited.

June 1st, 1852.—3m LOUIS L. BELAND.

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the latest fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome and serviceable a Hat as they can buy in New York or Philadelphia and half the cost cheaper.

N. B. Moleskin or Silk Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 23, 1851.—1y

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that I am appointed and commissioned by their additional tax, as imposed by the new tax law, by coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you will find all Garments ready made, clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere; thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and prices which may be made up to order at a brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of tailor's trimmings at a low price—also constantly for sale, Shirts, Hosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Friends will you favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere; and examine for yourself the quality, cutting, trimming and making done at the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Plainfield, Dec 1.

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,
I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all,
Goods cheaper than ever,
To suit the mind, to please the eye.
We paid the cash to be' them cheap,
We'll sell them right to suit a heap,
Gingham and Lawns, Mull Muslins, Combs and Cords,
The newest styles New York affords;
Delaines and Ginghams, Calicoes too,
Colors of white, red, green and blue.
Cloths and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,
And all the goods which men do use;
Together with a supply
Of groceries good which will defy
A class of men who live with us,
And twice a year make quite a fuss,
To get the goods which suit their trade,
Of store at home they are afraid.
We'll sell to these and all the rest,
For cheapest store that suits them best.
With quick prices we'll compete,
And shoe shall tremble in the heat;
So come and see, come short, come tall,
I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Plainfield, May 12, 1850

Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

IN HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's, Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, all of which are made at our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction. Purchasers who may select or order can rely upon being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as thoroughly as at any establishment in the country.

352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

May 24, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

PAY AS YOU GO.

If every man would adopt the cash system—pay for an article when he bought it—pay for a job when it is finished—pay for a paper when he subscribed for it, the community would be all the better off for it. The credit system, as a general thing, is bad for all classes; particularly is it injurious to those who are engaged in mechanical pursuits. We were talking with one of this class the other day, who was engaged on a piece of work. "If I could get my pay for this job when it is completed," he said, "I could do it 10 per cent. less, fifteen per cent. cheaper than what I shall charge for it. And for this reason," he continued, "when my work is done I shall have to wait three or four months for my pay. At the expiration of that time I present my bill. My employer, perhaps, does not find it convenient at that time to pay the bill, and I am requested to call again. After waiting a reasonable time I call anew. I do not find him at his place of business, or he may be short at the time, and I am again disappointed. And so it may be over and over again, subjecting me to a great loss of time which might have been profitably employed. In the meantime I am obliged to obtain credit. I get trusted for my stock. I run up an account with the grocer, the butcher, the tailor, the shoemaker, &c., paying an extra price for what I buy, for there is no man who will not sell some discount for cash on the nail. When my bills are paid, I can pay what I owe: but if my debters disappoint me, my creditors have to suffer by the delay. If my workmen were sure of getting their pay every Saturday night, they would work for considerable less per diem: but as it is, they have to get credited, or perhaps they take an "order," and you know that an order is very different from a good hard bill or silver dollar. The consequence is, they have to pay an extra price. You see how it works; there is an extra price charged all round. There is another evil attending this credit system. A man opens an account. His credit is good, and he finds he has but to order an article and he gets it. He is determined to live enconomically, & within his means. But when his bill is made out at the end of the given time, he finds that he has insensibly run up a larger bill than he intended. The balance is carried forward to a new account, perhaps, and he does not mind it much. But on the next settlement there is still a larger balance. Then come duns—then follow other accounts opened elsewhere—succeeded by other balances and other duns, until the poor fellow is harassed to death, and can hardly hold up his head, as a man should, in walking the streets. Now all this vexation might have been avoided, if he had received his pay when it was due him. With the money in his pocket, he can buy articles to suit him at a less price. He would look at his money twice before he let it out of his hands; and he would closely calculate to make it hold out until the end of the week. He would only what he absolutely needed, so that when pay day came round, he would make both ends meet—more likely have a little fund in store for a wet day.

"You have no idea of all the evils of this abominable credit system," said our friend, who was quite earnest on the subject. "Here is a little job I am doing now, worth perhaps fifty or seventy five cents. Instead of getting my pay for it when it is finished, I shall probably be told to charge it. Well, I charge it, and disliking to dun a man for so small a sum, I let it run for some time, and then I have to go for my pay perhaps three or four times, losing in time twice as much as what I charge for the work. The man for whom I am doing this will probably have his pocket full of change when he calls for it. If I knew he would pay when he took it, I should only ask him fifty cents for it, for it is all that the work is honestly worth. But I know that he will not, and I shall charge him seventy-five cents without any scruples, for the extra twenty-five cents will not pay me for the time and trouble I shall be at in collecting it. These men seem to forget that, to the mechanic, and all who obtain their living by labor, time is literally money. The merchant can lose an hour or so without its affecting him; but time is our capital, and we cannot afford to waste it. Every unemployed hour is a dead loss to us. Very frequently men call on me to do a nine-penny job, for whom, in all probability, I may not do another cent's worth during the year, and yet I am requested to charge it. Well, I am charged, a thousand and such petty jobs in my life, without a thought of collecting them, for they were not worth the time it would take to go after them. The whole system is a complete nuisance, and if I could only write as I think, I should like to give a series of articles on the subject. How much better now in the cash system. As soon as a mechanic finishes his work his money is ready for him. He pays his men, and he and they pay their tailors, butters, shoemakers, grocers, &c., &c., for whatever they buy. If an article at one shop or store does not suit them, they go to another. There is an end to long and doubtful accounts—an end to living beyond your means. Everything is done on the square. And then, again, I tell you what, a man likes something like a man who can walk the streets jingling a spare dollar or so in his pocket, knowing that he does not owe a cent in the world. He can take hold of a job with a spirit and a will, which he is a stranger to who has to cut round corners and through by-streets to avoid meeting a dun. A man sleeps sounder nights, and wakes up brighter and fresher for work in the morning, when he is free from debts, and knows that his labor will bring in the ready cash." Something like this was the language employed by a mechanic the other day in our hearing, and we thought it would not be a bad idea to let our readers have the advantage of it.—Portland Eclectic.

Change of Names.—"Can you tell me where Mr. Mahoney, the man who kaped the big store, is liven now?" inquired a newly imported Hibernian the other day. "I could not," was the reply. "An' shure a bit dos I want yez to, now I cannot me is his name! Och! the blackguard! shure, he's like most all Irishmen, for when they large the ould counthry an' come here, they are changin' their names emadiately. D'ye see thare? That man's name at home was Mohoney, an' now shure, he spells it in mighty big letthers.—Mahogany.

For the Plainfield Union

Sons of Temperance.—(Concluded.)

But here is strong evidence that the institution is a rightious one for among fifteen hundred clergymen in the United States some of them would have condemned it long ere this time. Can the church lawfully discourage any good work? we refer them to the teaching of their great Master of which we have a record in Mark ix. 38, 40, Master, said even the beloved disciple in his misguided zeal, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, just as the sons of temperance cast out evil spirits and he followeth not us, but Jesus said forbid him not for he that is not against us is on our part. It has also been asserted that secret societies were an injury to the church. Now if the order of the sons of temperance is calculated to make men lightly esteem the church privileges, it will follow that the promotion of temperance and benevolence must be hostile to the spirit of christianity. By entering into any human association we are far from intimating that it is better than the church or that we are dissatisfied with any heavenly institution, but on the contrary we contend that it is a means of adding thousands to the church which perhaps otherwise might have been lost both body and soul. This is sound argument and cant be contradicted. Another objection is, the insignia of membership and office among the sons of temperance are regarded by many as furnishing a more serious objection in the minds of dissipated men than any other except that which relates to our alleged secrecy. Some protest that they would be ashamed to be seen in our attire even while they admire the principles of our order. We cannot regard our regalia as they are called for we are all kings and priests by profession in the cause of temperance, as matters of primary importance, but they are certainly innocent if not clearly useful, they certainly have their effect in many minds, for the most reflecting men are creatures of sense and more or less influenced by visible objects, especially when connected with personal appearances. I will here merely state that by putting on our insignia and wearing them we make a solemn public profession of the principles of the order, and pledge ourselves to act in conformity with them. This is designed to have a good on those who would be likely to go astray and disgrace their colors by any violation of their pledge to total abstinance and also to remind every son of temperance of his obligationsto love, purity and fidelity. For our part we would rather wear the star of temperance than the star any queen could bestow for the picking up a garter, we would rather wear the badge of a valient soldier against alcohol than any badge which should signify that we fought bravely under Napoleon or conquered a fleet at the mouth of the Nile.

We submit our remarks for the present to the serious consideration of men of intelligence who hate inebriation, who pity the woes of suffering humanity and who desire the best good of our species, and ask is not the order of the sons of temperance well calculated to accomplish its avowed benevolent object? does it interfere with any commendable association? ought it not to be vigerously sustained by the wise? will not the reader if a male over eighteen years of age join our beloved order? can he connect himself with a better organization instituted by human wisdom for the promotion of the public welfare? There is no single imortality practised in the community which is the parent of so many evils as the use of intoxicating beverages. Drunkness has made more criminals in our happy land more orphans, widows, paupers, degraded characters, thefves, robbers, suicides and murders than any other moral delinquency which can be named. The rich and the poor, the white and the black, the bond and the free, old and the young are its victims. To put down this great evil the good should combine in the use of all proper means and until they can show some better instrumentally we respectfully suggest that they ought to enlist in the cold water army and fight against alcohol even to the death. Let some imagine that the temperance reformation has done its work, it has accomplished much but its enterprise and victories have but successfully commenced. The flood of intemperance has begun to ebb and we must not be satisfied until the deluge of strong drink has retired from our plains as well as mountains and left us the bow of promise that such an overflowing scourge shall never visit the earth again. Then brothers and friends of temperance redouble your efforts and persevere Half a million of the beloved sons of temperance in our happy land by proper exertions in one year bring a million of freemen into our hallowed fraternity where they will be safe from the perfidious destroyer.

June 1852. A SON OF TEMPERANCE.

A LEAP FOR LIFE.

As the supervisor of inland revenue at Aberystwith, in Wales, Mr. Miller, his nephew, and two professional gentlemen, geologists, were examining some strata of rock in the cliffs between Aberystwitch and Llanrhystid, they proceeded along a narrow ledge of projecting stone on the face of the cliff, about one hundred and twenty feet above the level of the sea, which providentially happened to be at full flow.

On passing round a projecting angle, the professors and the revenue officer had rounded the point, and the young man was in the act of doing so, when the rock, suddenly breaking from under his feet, he was whirled round with his face toward the sea; and as he descended, he seized with one hand the ledge beneath his uncle's feet, while he extended the other hand to him, and in the twinkling of an eye revenue office, who held him suspended for fully five minutes, during which time he with great difficuly kept his position, there not being more than six inches to stand upon.

At length, a breathless pause ensued, while Mr. Miller gazed on a projection of rock, about ninety feet below them and on which he concluded the unfortunate youth was doomed to be dashed.

But the uncle, who calls himself "an awful coward," at length said, with all the calmness imaginable, "Tom, there is but one way for it. I'll save you, or we will both perish together;" and with a firm voice, he commanded the young man to loose his hold of the rock, which was mechanically obeyed, with a faint reply, "Yes, uncle,"

At this awful moment, Mr. Miller horizontally sprang into the air, carrying the young man with him; and such was the force with which he leaped, that the check caused them to perform several somersets over each other, as they descended, linked together. With the rapidity of a flash of lightning, they cleared the craggy ledge, which projected more than six feet from the perpendicular of the point over which the youth was suspended.

To the delight of their companions, who were for the moment horror-struck, they rose about twenty yards apart, buffeting the heavy swells of the flowing and returning waves. At length they struck out for a rock that lay about seventy in the sea, on which they were shortly seated, and from which they gave three hearty cheers — Their companions attempted to procure their rescue by obtaining a boat, but owing to the breach in the ledge, found it impossible, and had to proceed onward for more than three hours, before they were able to extricate themselves.

To their delight, the geologists then found their brave companions had swam to an accessible part of the cliff, and returned to Llanrhystid, not a whit the worse from their perilous adventure.

PROFITS OF FARMING.

The New York State Agricultural Society are in the habit of awarding, at their annual meetings, premiums for the most successful management of farms. In 1850, the second of these premiums, a silver cup, valued at thirty dollars, was taken by Daniel T. D. Moore, Esq., of Waterviolet, Albany county. The written statements of his operations, made under oath, is very satisfactory. His success is enough to make the old-fashioned farmers fairly open their eyes with astonishment, and show what skill and energy and perseverance may accomplish. He is growing rich on the same land where others had become poor.

His farm consists of one hundred and eighty-five acres, situated upon the light sandy soil near Albany. For fifty years before it came into his possession, it had been under lease, and for a portion of that time in the market. The tenants held it only from year to year, and consequently had no incentives to make improvements. Each one worked it upon the principle of realizing the greatest profit at the least expense. Under this system of exhaustion, it became so reduced that the last tenant considered it no longer worth the rent of a hundred dollars, for the whole yearly sales of produce were only worth about three times that amount. The buildings and fences were in a ruinous condition; the few fruit trees were old and diseased; and a good part of the premises were allowed to run to waste.

Mr. Moore purchased in opposition to the advice of his friends, and in November, 1845, he took possession. He was unprepared to pay down the whole of the purchase money, so that he has been obliged to pay as interest more than the former occupant had paid as rent. The dwelling-house he sold for fifty dollars, but the barn was worth so little that he tore it down. He then erected comfortable and substantial buildings, and commenced enclosing the tract with good board fence. In five years' time he has succeeded in reducing the soil as fertile and productive as the very best in his vicinity, and, as we have seen above, has taken a premium from the State Society for his good management. The total receipts in 1850, amounted to over four thousand eight hundred dollars; and the profits, after deducting the farm and family expenses, exceed twenty-sixhundred dollars!

Such an instance of success should be known over the whole country. Farming is often looked upon as a poor business, not adapted to persons of intelligence and enterprize. Young men flock to the city in crowds, in the hope of bettering their condition; while those who remain under the paternal roof never take an interest in their occupation, and are content with a mere subsistence. Those who fail in farming would probably fail in other and "more respectable" pursuits; but many that make capital farmers, would prove poor merchants. Commerce is a gigantic lottery, where at least ninety-five out of a hundred draw blanks; the prizes are magnificent, but they are few in number. The soil is a faithful servant, which will restore the five talents, with other five which they have gained. Its rewards are slow, but sure; it gives a living to all, and to skill, forethought, and iron-hard industry, and unflinching perseverance, it offers a competence—moderate, yet sufficient. Let the farmer possess the secret of success—good management—and he need never complain of ill luck, or grumble at the caprices of fortune.—Am. Cour.

"THE CLOTH" AND "THE NAPKIN."—A gentleman in Bath was changing his butler the other day, and among the candidates for the vacant office was one who came with high recommendations from his last place. His qualifications seemed every way desirable, but then came the question of wages. Seventy-five guineas per annum was the sum required. The gentleman remonstrated: "So large a sum; in these times, too, when salaries were everywhere so low; did he know that what he asked was really equal to the stipend of a curate!" The candidate was civil, but firm; he took no offence at the disparaging reference to the other cloth, but with dignified indifference, he maintained his point: "I know it is so. Sir R——, and I am sorry for the gentlemen; but really I cannot do myself an injustice on their account!"

We have finally found out what much talked of individual, the "oldest inhabitant," is. An elderly chap, speaking of his great knowledge of the western country, the other day, said that he had "known the Mississippi river ever since it was a small creek!" He's the man.

"HOME.—The place where children have their own way, and married men resort, when they have nowhere else to keep themselves.—Punch.

Anger is the most impotent passion that influences the mind of man; it effects nothing it undertakes; and hurts the man who is possessed by it, more than the object against which it is directed.

With what musical instrument would you catch fish? Castanet.

The labor attendant upon preparing manuscript copies of volumes prior to the invention of printing has been thus very feelingly described by William Caxton: "Time and I pass book and for as moche as in writing the same my penne is worn, myn hande wery, myn eyne dimmed with over moche looking on the white paper, and that age creepeth on me."

Anciently 50 years were sometimes employed in producing a single volume. At the sale of Sir W. Burrel's books, May, 1793, was displayed a MS Bible on vellum, beautifully written with a pen, and illuminated, which had taken upward of a half a century to perform; the writer, Guido de Jars, began it in his fortieth year, and yet did not finish it till he was upwards of ninety.

A Crooked Canal, and the Reason.—The Canal from Attieh towards Cairo, in Egypt, is very crooked, and the reason for it was thus explained by Mehemet Ali himself:—

"You ask why my canal is not straight. Ye, Wallah! it is owing to a bit of bigotry. The dog who made it was a true believer, and something more. He said to himself, Ya, Seeda, thou art about to make what Giaours call a canal, and Giaours in their impiety make such things straight. Now, a canal is made after the fashion of a river, (Allah pardon us for imitating his works!) and all rivers wind. Allah forbid that my canal should be better than his river; it shall wind, too. And so it does."

Fugitive Slaves in Canada.—Henry Bibb, the somewhat noted fugitive slave writer, to the Detroit Tribune, from Windsor, C. W. in the following strain:

"I have opposed and shall continue to oppose lying and begging, whether carried on by white or colored men, and especially amongst refugees in Canada, with whom I stand identified, and upon whom the whole civilized world are looking to see whether they are capable of taking care of themselves under the anti-slavery government. I know every man in Canada West who will work can make a good living; and it is disgraceful to us as a people to continue sending agents over the country to beg for a living, when we are just as able to work for it as white men are."

The Wag and the Parson—A Metaphysical Anecdote.—A wag who wished to make some fun of the Maine liquor law, told a minister that he could prove by the scriptures, that the priests of olden time used to "imbibe" the ardent. "Give us an instance," replied the divine. "It is expressly stated," said the wag, "that when Zadok the priest anointed Solomon, he took a horn full." "Right enough," said the minister, "but it does not follow that he drank liquor from the said horn. Nevertheless, your argument is ingenious; but I can prove by the Bible, in the same way, that if you followed its precepts faithfully, you would not be here talking metaphysics with me, but would rather be hanged as high as Haman." "Let us hear it," replied the wag. "Very well!" said the minister, "does not the scriptures advise us that Judas went and hanged himself? and in another place is it not expressly said, Go thou and do likewise? and thirdly, What thou doest, do quickly? Now, friend, if you wish to follow scripture advice, depart at once and use the first tree hereabout!"

THE FOOD OF MAN.

A number of experiments have recently been made in Glasgow Prison, Scotland, on various persons, to test the effects of different kinds of food on them. It was found that ten persons gained four pounds of flesh each in two months, eating for breakfast eight ounces of oatmeal made into porridge, with one-half pint of buttermilk; for dinner, three pounds of boiled potatoes, with salt; for supper, five ounces of oatmeal porridge, with one-half pint of buttermilk, which cost two-pence three farthings per day. Ten others gained three and a half pounds of flesh, eating six pounds of boiled potatoes daily, taking nothing with them but salt. Ten others eat the same amount of porridge and buttermilk, without the potatoes, as the first ten, but for dinner had soup; they lost one and a quarter pounds of flesh each; and twenty others, who had less potatoes, but a half pound of meat for dinner, diminished in size likewise. From this, it would appear that potatoes were better diet than smaller quantities of animal food, at least for persons in confinement.

Tough Story.—An Ohio paper tells a curious story of the late freabet. In Sciota county an acre and a half of corn stubble rose to the surface, passed over the adjoining farm, and quietly settled down in the next, without disturbing a single corn-hill. We have read of moving four story brick houses while the families were at dinner, and have even heard of removing a village from one yard into another, but this goes a little ahead of any thing which has ever fallen under our observation. It places the owner of the premises on which the stray field squatted so unceremoniously, much in the predicament of Paddy, who had a swate farm in Ireland, only there was another man's a top of it.

An Irish servant, who was ordered to extinguish a fire with the water in the kettle, very innocently replied, "sure, sir, the water is hot, and you cannot put out a fire with hot water."

Another, which we heard a few days ago, is too good to be lost. The servant was desired by "the master" to bring up the radishes.

"The radishes, surely, sir."

Some time elapsed when she returned with two China plates, and said:

"Sorrn a red dishes can I find, sir, but wot the white ones do as well?"

Vermonters live to a great age, as is well known. There are two men up there so old, that they have forgotton who they are, and there are no neighbors living who can remember.

That state of life is most happy wherein imperfections are not required, and necessaries are not wanting.

Pride destroys all symmetry and grace, and affectation is a more terrible enemy to mien than the small-pox.

The man who believed the big thing on wheels (the street watering machine) "leaked most shockingly," was in town yesterday. He went elsewhere.

THE UNION.

Plainfield, N. J. June 15, 1852.

The following ancient prophecy is from a rare old printed book:

When lesbianes hold juvenile
The love which they themselves have made;
When the parson 'gainst the Bible preached,
And modest virgins wear the breeches;
When woman scorns domestic cares,
And child impede on men's affairs,
Aspiring wife, mistaken pride,
The war horse of the groom to ride—
Then will wild chaos come again,
And Eve, with her old serpent reign,
A second time will pay the price
Of wit, by loss of Paradise.
The world will foremost will advance,
Like frenzied in regenerate France:
By going backwards all come right,
And men grow blind by too much light.

Statement of Receipts and Expenditures of the County of Essex from May 10th, 1851, to May 8th, 1852. Published by order of the Board of Chosen Freeholders and in pursuance of an act of the Legislature.

RECEIPTS.

By cash on hand at the last settlement,		$1,794 78
" received from State Treasurer second instalment of school fund apportioned to Essex County for 1851, - - -	6,044 07
" received for sundry bills of costs and fines imposed and collected by Wm. Peirson Sheriff, and others, $424 30
" received from Wm. Garthwaite, fines collected of discharged prisoners, 241 10 665 40
" received for tavern licenses - -	370 00
" borrowed in anticipation of taxes,	27,508 92
" borrowed in anticipation of school fund for 1852 $ - -	6,961 50
" received for County Bonds issued	7,000 00
" received from Township Collectors amount of County tax, viz:
City of Newark, $11,940 25
Belleville, 1,110 79
Plainfield, 929 27 -
Elizabeth, 2,470 20
Union, 690 28
Westfield, 620 95
New Providence, 335 56
Caldwell, 713 20
Orange, 1,903 90
Bloomfield, 1,119 19
Clinton, 1,097 20
Rahway, 1,244 49
Livingston, 391 97
Springfield, 732 42
	25 000
Total amount of Receipts,		$75,344 67

DISBURSEMENTS.

To paid expenses of building and repairing bridges - - -	8,303 76
" expenses of Elections, - - -	523 70
" sundry bills of costs in cases of inquest, - - - -	869 01
" for support of Lunatics at the N. J. Asylum, - -	2,378 99
" for repairs and fixtures to Court House and Jail, including fuel, - - -	2,589 82
" for support of Prisoners at Jail, including Keeper's salary,	3,110 92
" Clerk of the Board, - - -	50 00
" Physicians attending Jail - -	70 00
" for advertising, notices, &c.,	77 75
" temporary loans, - - -	32, 000 00
" fees of Board and Committees,	181 12
" Members of the Board, their services, - - - -	1,511 90
" expenses of Court, Jurors and criminals, - - - -	6,078 51
" Constables attending Court, -	772 00
" Interest on County Bonds, - -	576 00
" Miscellaneous expenses, - -	758 54
" appointment of School Fund as follows, viz:
Newark in full, 6,911 30
Elizabeth, 934 04
Plainfield, 381 52
Union, 234 64
Westfield, 260 62
Rahway, 601 28
Livingston, 212 84
Clinton, 201 18
Orange 1st instalm't, 382 68
New Providence, 111 11
Belleville, 300 92
Bloomfield, 279 41
Caldwell, 258 39
Springfield, 160 31
	10,615 24
" Commissions allowed Collectors,	1,409 32
" for distributing Laws, Reports, &c.,	20 00
" balance in hands of Collector,	3,449 09
Total amount.	$75,344 67

The above exhibits a correct statement of the Receipts and Expenditures of the County of Essex for the year ending May 8, 1852.

STEPHEN DAY, Jr.,
JOSEPH C. WARD,
Committee of Publication.

Iron.—It appears to be not generally known to what an immense extent the manufacture of this universal metal is carried on in this State.—Pennsylvania now produces as much iron as was manufactured in all Great Britain thirty years ago. Compared to the present manufacture of the article in France, that of Pennsylvania is at least equal—it is more than Russia and Sweden united; and exceeds that of all Germany. Pennsylvania may well be called the Iron State of the Union; and from these mineral treasures, she must build up a prosperity more splendid and permanent than if wrought from gold, for gold is the ultimate product of iron.—Ledger.

The Mississippi and its Tributaries.—The St. Louis Christian Advocate, of a late date, contains a highly interesting article on the "Topography and Hydrology" of the Mississippi Valley, accompanied by a table, exhibiting the Mississippi and its numerous tributaries. The author was unable to ascertain precisely the distance to which each stream was navigable; but he has satisfied himself that the aggregate exceeds twenty thousand miles. From this fact, some idea may be formed of the vast influence which this stream and its tributaries are to exert upon the commerce and industry of the North American continent. The total length of the "Great River," with all its parts, is 51,000 miles.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

The Whig National Convention,

Assembles at Baltimore on Wednesday of this week. We hope and expect that there will be more union and harmony than at the convention of our opponents on the 1st, and that the delegates will be able to unite upon a candidate without being obliged to take up an unknown man.

Democratic National Convention, the Nomination, &c.

The Convention nominated Hon William R. King, of Alabama, for Vice President, a man of talent and influence, and well known over the Union, having long been U. S. Senator. After the nominations, a platform of resolutions was adopted, of but little force or meaning, which is not endorsed by the Presidential nominee, and is already repudiated by the free soilers of New York as of no binding force, and yet they will support the nominee.

The nomination of Gen. Franklin Pierce is received with approbation by the party, North and South, East and West, so far as we have yet heard, and is not considered so very bad a nomination, even by the Whigs; for on him it is supposed both the free soil and the pro-slavery sections of the democracy will unite, asking no questions. In fact they have so united in public assemblies met for the ratification of the nominations; the whigs therefore will have to use their best exertions and all their energies to defeat them.

To the question now often asked, Who is Gen. Franklin Pierce? we have only to say: He is a lawyer of large practice, a decided partisan democrat and was never any thing else, about 47 years old. He has been a member of the New Hampshire Legislature, of Congress, U. S. Senator, and Brigadier General in the Mexican war, but in none of these situations did he distinguish himself. He held no office at the time of the nomination. It is said the nomination was agreed upon by the party leaders over a month ago, and that Gen. Pillow of Tennessee, came to see him at that time in relation thereto.

The New Brunswick Fredonian discourses as follows on these matters:

The selection of Mr. Pierce as their candidate for President, looks very much like another edition of "going it blind," similar to that which the rank and file of the party were called upon to do in 1844. He has nothing, certainly, to recommend him, but his insignificance. In all the public stations he held, he has displayed no talent above mediocrity—was rather less than an ordinary Statesman, and a very common General—and has left his mark nowhere. It seems, however, to be the policy of our opponents, to select as candidates men who are almost, if not entirely unknown to the great mass of the people—whose past life, having been comparatively a cypher, is a guarantee of nothing—and who, in case of an election, having neither exalted talent above mediocrity—was rather less than an ordinary Statesman, and a very common General—and has left his mark nowhere. It seems, however, to be the policy of our opponents, to select as candidates men who are almost, if not entirely unknown to the great mass of the people—whose past life, having been comparatively a cypher, is a guarantee of nothing—and who, in case of an election, having neither exalted talent nor tried political character, can be molded and fashioned to suit the purposes of the hungry horde of office-seekers who control the destinies of that party. The plan succeeded once; but it is a dangerous one to repeat. We shall be woefully mistaken if the enlightened judgement of the American people does not repudiate the trick by a majority unprecedented since the days of Harrison.

Fair, on the 5th of July.

The Ladies of the Methodist Episcopal Church will hold a Fair at Laing's Hall, on Monday, July 5th, to which they invite their friends and all others who wish to celebrate the anniversary of our National Independence in an agreeable and useful manner. The Fair opens at 9 o'clock, A.M. and continues through the day and evening. A pole and arrangements in the way of refreshments, decorations, useful and fancy articles, &c. have been made, as the ladies well know how, to render the Hall on that day very attractive.

We bespeak for them a large attendance.

Building in Plainfield.

Our next door neighbors, Messrs. Asa. D. & E. B. Titsworth, are just finishing one of the largest and most convenient and loftiest buildings in town, being about 30 feet front, 60 deep and 3 stories high above the basement, and is so built as to present a noble appearance, and to add to the evidences elsewhere existing of the growth and prosperity of the business part of the place. The 1st story is divided into two stores, the second into workshops, and the third story, will be thrown into one large fine Hall.

Mr. R. R. Coriell is erecting a three-story building adjoining the above.

On the opposite corner, Messrs. Webster & Marsh are laying deep and broad foundations for a three-story brick building, for a store and shops sufficient for their very large business. They hope to be able to occupy it in September.

E. Kirkpatrick, Esq. will erect a three-story brick store and dwelling house, for himself, adjoining; in about the same time.

Mr. D. Bullman is building a brick dwelling house for himself on Second Street, near the corner of Cherry.

The above is but a part only of the building that is now going on in Plainfield. Carpenters cannot be had for love or money, and must be engaged from 3 to 6 months in advance. We are growing fast, we think keeping a little ahead of the general growth of the country.

John C. Rives says: "I have seen the manuscript writings of most of the great men of this country during the last twenty years, and I think I may safely say, that no twenty of them could stand the test of the scrutiny of one-half the journeymen printers employed in my office."

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The [illegible] Panama from New York on Saturday morning, with 525 passengers, the mails, $1,400,000 in gold dust, and two weeks later news from California, to May 15th. She left Aspinwall on the 6th inst.

Among the passengers was Mr. Gershom Fraser, of this place, who arrived home Saturday evening, in good health.

The news is not of especial importance.

The northern part of the State had been the scene of more Indian difficulties.

The news from all parts of the mining districts was highly favorable. The miners generally receiving good remuneration for their labor, and the average yield per man is evidently increasing.

The Legislature had adjourned after a session of 4 months, having passed 70 bills.

The difficulties with the Chinese continued.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The U. S. steamship Herman arrived at New York last Monday morning, having left Bremen May 21st and Southampton on the 26th. She brought 4 days' later news and 150 passengers.

The British steamship America touched at Halifax Tuesday afternoon, and arrived at Boston Thursday morning, having left Liverpool on the 29th, with 3 days' still later news.

Cotton was 1-8d higher, and Breadstuffs were active at previous prices. Money was abundant.

Large quantities of gold continue to be received from Australia.

A company with a capital of $2,500,000 has been started in London to establish a line of steamers between the Thames and New York, touching at Cork for passengers.

France.—Much excitement existed at Paris on account of a well founded report that Russia, Prussia and Austria had had a conference about Louis Napoleon, and agreed as follows:

In event of Louis Napoleon's becoming actual Emperor, he would be called upon to respect existing treaties, and give assurance that France will keep within her present territorial limits, and to explain the nature of the political doctrines of the Government.

The three powers profess to look upon Louis Napoleon's as a temporary and provisional power, and recognize the house of Bourbon as the sole and legitimate dynasty of France.

Congress.

On Monday of last week, the Senate passed several bills, giving lands to different States.

The House passed similar bills on Tuesday. Also, a resolution to adjourn August 16th.

In the proceedings for the rest of the week, we see nothing of particular interest.

They are making ample preparations at Newark to celebrate the coming 4th of July. On the committees, we notice the names of A. M. Webster, Esq. and Samuel Manning.

The Arctic sailed on Saturday for Liverpool with 160 passengers and about $450,000 in specie, from New York.

Passengers are now conveyed from the city of New York to Burlington, Vermont, a distance of upwards of three hundred miles, in nine hours. The cities of New York and Montreal, distant some five hundred miles apart, are now only fourteen and a half hours from each other, at a cost of only five dollars per passenger.

Dr. Mayo, in his "Philosophy of Living," says that a "spare habit, maintained by intellectual and bodily activity, short of overfatigue and exhaustion, constitutes the wholesomest condition of economy." The "spare habit, is one of the elements of our economy, and we are generally pretty cautious in the matter of "fatigue" of body or mind.—Fredonian

It is stated that the largest church on this continent is the French Cathedral of Notre Dame, in Montreal, Canada. It will comfortably seat ten thousand persons.

The Prince of Wales, a youngster about twelve years old, costs the British government about two hundred thousand dollars a year. Rather a precocious youth, we should say.

The salary of Louis Napoleon is $6340 a day—equal to about five dollars a minute, or minc-pence for every time he draws a breath! The income of the Duke of Devonshire—poor fellow—is only five thousand dollars a day.

The New York Harlem Railroad is making $300 a day freight on milk from the line of the road in Westchester, Duchess, Putnam and Columbia Counties. What consumers of milk the Yorkers must be.

A gentleman writing from Salt Lake City, says: "You will confer a favor on California emigrants by advising them to procure all tobacco they may want before leaving the States, as it is impossible to procure any at this place."

Corn in Illinois, it is seriously stated, may be raised at an actual expense of six cents a bushel, such is the cheapness of land and cultivation, and fertility of soil.

Poverty may in many ways contribute to the health of Body and Soul; but in Debt there is a chilling frost, almost sure to be fatal to every better virtue.

Pleasant are the visits of friends—so they do not flood your house and wife with unmanageable numbers. As the Dutchman said: "Friend is good; but I likes them, like my glasses, trinkle-trankle, and not dabbed down."

A hod-carrier in Troy, who still labors at his calling, has accumulated some $8,000 from the hard service of 20 years.

Lola Montes says that the temperance taverns out west are abominable places, "full of Bibles and bed-bugs." These, we should judge, were better than bad brandy and delirium tremens.

A gentleman was scolding a lad of his for crying. "Don't scold the child," interposed his wife, "he has been sleighing all day, and he is half frozen, the poor child!" "Child!" exclaimed the husband. "Why, he's big enough to carry a night-key!"

An advertisement appeared in a Western paper, which read as follows; Ran Away A hired man named John; his nose turned up five feet eight inches high, and had on a pair of corduroy pants much worn!

Abernethy's prescription for the cure of the gout, was, "Live upon a shilling a-day, and earn it."

For the Friendship Union.

19-20ths of the inhabitants of the United States receive their subsistence in the open schools.

1-80th are foreigners. 1-400th are lawyers. 1-400th earn no read. 1-100th do annually. 1-5th are farmers; 1 25th manufacturers, and 1-100th engaged in commerce. 1 of every 3000 commit suicide. 1-6th are colored.

The dark day was May 19, 1780. Fowls went to roost and people were compelled to light candles as at night.

The battle of Bunker Hill was fought June 17, 1775. The corner stone of the Monument was laid in presence of LaFayette, June 17, 1825, and it was finished June 17, 1843. It is a granite obelisk, 270 feet high.

The mammoth cave in Kentucky is 130 miles from Lexington. It is 11 miles in length. One apartment contains 8 acres, and is overspread with one solid arch of limestone, 100 feet high.

Juggernaut signifies the Lord of the World. It is the name of a Hindu idol, and also of the town which is the principal place of his worship, some 250 miles south-west from Calcutta.

Products to the amount of $80,000,000 were conveyed over the Lakes last year.

A third of the people of the United States live in towns and cities, of which there are 65 containing each 10,000 or more inhabitants.

The corporation of Trinity Church in New York city is the wealthiest in the United States. Its property is estimated at $15,000,000.

In 22,000,000 of the population of the United States, there are more persons who habitually read and write, than can be found in any 150,-000,000, in any other part of the world, in one area, choose where you will.

Rural Arisms. It costs no more to raise a hundred bushels of Baldwins than a hundred bushels of choice apples, or ten barrels of Virgalieus or Bartletts than the same quantity of choke pears.

An axe costing two dollars, with which a laborer may cut fifty cords of wood a month, is a cheaper tool than an axe costing but one dollar, and with which he can cut only forty cords.

A "cheap plow" at five dollars, costing in one season three dollars in repairs, and three more in lost time of teams, men, and by retarding crops, is a dearer plow than one at ten dollars requiring no repairs.

A cow bought for ten dollars, whose milk but just pays her keeping, affords less profit than one at thirty dollars, that gives double the value of milk afforded by the former.

A ten acre field, costing fifty dollars per acre, and ditched, manured, and improved at fifty dollars more, so as to give double crops, is much more valuable and profitable than twenty acres unimproved, costing the same money.

☞ A man named Foster Hart, was arrested by the City Marshal last Monday, charged with violating the Sunday liquor law. He paid his fine of $50, rather than undergo a prosecution, and was released on promise of future conformity to the law.—Newark Adv.

☞ The new Hackensack Bridge is now ready for use, and a material reduction is to be made in the rates between Newark and New York, including the Ferry.

Unparalleled Speed. They are making time on the Hudson River Railroad now, that beats the speed on any of the English Railways. The 6 o'clock train out of New York, Sunday morning, 15th May, made the distance in three hours and one minute. The following is the running time: From Thirty-first street New York, to Peekskill, 50 minutes; to Fishkill, 23 minutes; to Poughkeepsie, 20 minutes; to Rhinebeck, 20 minutes to Hudson, 32 minutes; to Albany, 36 minutes, total 181 minutes. This is equal to about 50 miles an hour.

A Remarkable Fact.—The wife of Henry Clay has never been in Washington, yet Henry Clay has spent the greater part of his life there, and will probably there end it.

Wealth of German Emigrants.—The emigration from Germany to this country is increasing largely. Captains of vessels, recently in New York, state that all their passengers have brought money in coin and bills of exchange, varying from $250 to $400 each. The arrival of German emigrants during last three weeks, it is said, have added $2,500,0.0 to the circulation. These emigrants do not remain in New York, but seem to be well informed as to the point they ought to strike for; and accordingly they proceed without unnecessary delay to their destination.

Building Loan Associations.—One of the most beneficial effects of the Building Loan Associations, may be seen in the facilities which it affords to churches. They get loans, wipe off their debts, and repay the loans in monthly instalments, without any inconvenience whatever.—Three churches in Trenton have already taken this course, and express themselves gratified at the accommodations which they have received.

New Importation.—A recent letter from San Francisco says: "The extensive and well known firm of Hussey, Bond & Hale, of this city, are constructing a large fire proof store; and what is a remarkable fact, they are importing stone from China for the erection of this building. Who could have dreamed of this a few years ago? Now we have not only stone from China, but the workmen to put up our buildings."

Central Railroad.—The town Council of Easton have adopted a resolution to make arrangements for a public celebration of the opening of the Central R. R. to that place, which is expected to be completed about the 1st of July.

One of our exchanges says, that in a recent ride to Peoria, the visiter describes the following placard upon a gate-post: "for Sail a too story Haws And brn the Oner expex to Go To Californy."

A few years since, at the celebration of our national anniversary, a poor pedlar who was present, being called upon for a toast, offered the following: "Here is health to poverty; it sticks to a man when all his friends desert him."

A pretty country miss was tripping along to church, one bright Sunday morning, when she overtook Deacon Smith, a tall, slim, rawboned man, who scowled at the little girl's neat trim. "Where are you going, Netty?" said the deacon. "To church, of course!" was the reply. "You don't look much like church, with that red bodice!" growled the frowning Smith.—"Nay," retorted the girl, "nor do you look much like the steeple, if you are tall and solemn!" The deacon was mum.

The editor of a western paper having lent his ax to one of his subscribers, the borrower unfortunately broke off the handle. On returning it, the man said, "You can easily get it fixed." "Yes," replied the editor, "but it will cost at least a quarter dollar." "Well," rejoined the borrower, "if you sint rather small for an editor! here's the quarter; but I'll thank you to stop my paper at once."

In America, granite is not found higher than 12,000 feet above the sea.

Deposal of Justice.—The Bath, (Eng.) Journal gives the following particulars of the extraordinary dispatch, in the murder arrest, trial, sentence and transportation of a criminal: In the case of murder at Ashridge, reported in our recent intelligence, a most extraordinary succession of events followed with surprising velocity. The act of murder was committed on the 26th of March, death occurred on the 27th; a postmortem examination was held, and the funeral took place on the 28th; the prisoner was examined before the justices and committed for trial, on the 29th; he was sent to Taunton jail on the 30th; a bill was found against him on the 31st; and he was tried, found guilty and sentenced to be transported for life on the 1st of April. Thus the crime, preliminary examination, trial, sentence of the prisoner, and the death and burial of the victim, were all encompassed in the brief space of a walk!

☞ Gov. Ramsey has issued his proclamation, giving official notice that the Maine Liquor Law has been ratified by the people of Minnesota, and went into effect on the 2d ult. The majority for it was 191.

☞ The Apple trees, bearing the most important fruit crop of New England, are now in full blossom, and judging from present appearances, the crop will be a very large one.

A negro boy about ten years of age, belonging Charleston, (S. C.,) being desirous of paying to Wilmington a visit, got under the guard of the steamer Gladiator, took hold of the wheel, and placing his feet on the spindle of the boat, (a large beam near the water line, designed to keep the craft upright and steady,) clasping a brass which stood conveniently near, got over safely. The distance is about one hundred and seventy miles, and the night was quite tempestuous. On being asked whether he slept during night, he replied "Golly! no, massa; didn't have no time."

The following is now debated before the Tilicludem Lyceum: "Which causes a girl the most pleasure, to hear herself praised, or another gal run down." We shall issue the decision in an extra.

If every man was in reality as bad as some person at some time thinks him, the world would be much worse than it is: again, if every man was really as good as he sometimes thinks himself, the world would be much better then it is.

The man out of debt, though with a flaw in his jerkin, a crack in his shoe-leather, and a hole in his hat, is still the son of liberty, free as the singing lark above him; but the debtor, though clothed in the utmost bravery, what is he but a serf upon a holiday—a slave, to be reclaimed at any instant by his owner, the creditor?

New York Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Wheat Flour,	$3,62 to 4.13
Rye Flour	3,19 to 3,25
Indian Meal, Jersey,	3.19 to 3,25
Grain—Wheat,	0,98 to 1,15
Rye,	75 to 76
Corn,	63 to 65
Oats, Jersey,	40 to 42

Hoofland's German Bitters.—These celebrated Bitters prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, 120 Arch street, Philadelphia, are performing astonishing cures throughout the whole country. We can bear witness to the curative powers in the case of a friend of ours who had the Liver Complaint, and who had tried almost every other medicine, but without effect. After taking a few bottles of these Bitters he was entirely cured. To those who are similarly afflicted we recommend them to take the preparation, knowing that they will cure the disease spoken of, and many others to which "flesh is heir to"—There is a spurious article made in Philadelphia. The only place to get the genuine article is 120 Arch street, Philadelphia, of Dr Jackson or his agents throughout the country.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—D. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Camphor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

ANOTHER CURE OF BRONCHITIS!

DR. A. L. SCOVILL—DEAR SIR:—As many, placed in the same painful circumstance that I was, may be thankful to learn the means of certain relief, I will briefly sketch my case, leaving it to you to publish or not, as you think proper. About a year ago, I was attacked with a violent Cold, which soon took the form of BRONCHITIS. A tough, ropy mucus gathered in throat; Bronchial tubes became obstructed; my Lungs seemed oppressed; and I breathed with great difficulty and pain. The ordinary medicines made no impression on the disease, and I was constantly tormented with a tickling cough, and often had a sharp pain right below the collar bone. At this stage of the disease, I was induced by a friend, in whose judgment I placed confidence, to try Dr. Rogers' Syrup of Liverwort, Tar and Canchalagua. The best idea I can give of its effects, is, simply to say I AM WELL. Thereafter as easily as ever; no cough, pain, or obstruction remaining, and for all this I am indebted to seven bottles of your invaluable medicine, for that quantity sufficed. Truly yours,

L. C. KING, 201 High-st

Brooklyn, Sept. 8th, 1851.

CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on their wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. L. SCOVILL & CO.

For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Dodds Hall, 316 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.

Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

PRICE—In large bottles, $1.00, or 6 bottles for $5.00.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

James M. Dunn, $11,00; J. V. Arrowsmith, 6,00; E. W. Runyon, 3,00; John Ayers, 1,58; D. Wiggins, 1,50; Webster & Marsh, 1,00; Thomas Martindale, 1,00; David P. Allen, Warren, 1,02; J. H. Coward, 88; J. O. Manlan, 1.00.

DIED.

In this place, on Tuesday last, 10th inst Mrs. Ann W., wife of David Lenox, aged about 33 years, leaving three children.

In this place, last Wednesday, 9th inst. widow Sarah Ann Jobs, aged about 75 years.

SERVANTS.

A GREAT variety of well selected Servants are now awaiting employment at C. MARCHISI'S, 250 Broadway, and 142 Bowery, New York.

Private Houses or Hotels supplied with Servants one year for 50 cents, or with one Servant for 25 cents. Subscriptions respectfully solicited.

N. B.—Men and Boys can be had for any respectable employment without extra charge; no exertion spared to render satisfaction.

New York, May 24, 1852.—1m.

IMPERIAL BURNING FLUID.—In barrels and half bbls., for sale by the manufacturer,

JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,
March 23, 1852.—3m. 32 Burling Slip, N. Y.

"A numerous swarm of delegates to the Whig National Convention from the South and West are pouring into this city, the number reaching already some 400.

"Webster's chance for the nomination are becoming brighter every moment, and he is now openly talked of as the Compromise candidate.

Strawberries are reported to be quite abundany in the N. Y. Markets 5 to six cents a basket. They are not so sweet as usual, on account of the cool weather.

"Spell eat," said a little girl of five years of age, the other day, to a smaller one of only three. "I can't," was the reply. "Well, then," continued the youthful mistress, "if you can't spell 'eat,' spell 'kitten.'"

Avoid spendings a dollar's worth of time to save sixpence worth of silver.

If you sleep well be happy! Remember, man feeds two lives, his days and his dreams; and if you are safe as to the latter, accept the former as the best that could be allotted you.

Three spoonsful of brandy make one cocktail, three cocktails one go—three goes one spree—three sprees one week—the night police one visit to the watch house—three visits with the night police one visit to a penitentiary. Cut this out and paste it in your hat.

MRS. PRUDEN,

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and on hand a

Large Assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils,

Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning-Fluid,

&c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual.

June 16, 1852.

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES PACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 10 cents a piece. Gilding and paste included. Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to 50 cents a piece imported in a hours.

J. A SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers

Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852.

FARMERS' AND PLANTERS' BOILER OR LAUNDRY KETTLE—A new article, designed for the use of farmers, planters or manufacturers, or for any purpose where the common caulid-on has heretofore been used. It consists of a stove or fire box, capped for boiling long wood, brush or chips, to which a cauldron is so adapted that the flame is spread in a thin sheet around the bottom and sides having it equally exposed to a portion of the fire surface at the same time, thus greatly economising in the use of fuel, and ensuring the utmost expedition in its operation. For sale by

BARKER & BENT, Jr. 328 Water Street,

May 17, 1852.—1m* New York.

100 BBLS. 96 per cent. Alcohol, suitable for making Burning Fluid, Camphene or Gas, for sale by the manufacturers, JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,

March 25, 1852.—3m. 32 Burling Slip, N. Y.

NOTICE.

Miss C. Prosch,

WOULD hereby inform her many friends and the public that she has extended her establishment to the suit of rooms, on a much larger and improved plan than any other in this city, and is now ready to furnish Daguerreotypes equal to none. In early Groups, from three to twenty, taken to give satisfaction; also children of all ages, in a few seconds of time. Portraits of sick and deceased persons taken whenever called upon Also Dagueroscopes of all sizes and prices.

Miss C. PROSCH has no connection with any other establishment, and would respectfully wish her friends to bear in mind that she can always be found at 259 Broad-street only, where she trusts to meet that patronage so long and liberally bestowed upon her.

June 1.—3m 259 Broadstreet, NEWARK.

Machinery Oil,

75 CTS. a gallon, better than Sweet Oil, at a quarter of the price. For Sale by

June 1st, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by

May 4, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

Hoover's Black Ink.

THE Best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. If not attended to soon, they will be passed over for collection. As I don't wish to put extra trouble on anyone, I give this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, April 9, 1852

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.

Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE,

SADDLE & HARNESS

MAKER

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Dunn & Cole's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods in his line. He also Informs his concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute all orders in all the branches of the above business, as well, as quick and as cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge for yourselves.

May 17, 1852.—3m

THE STAMPEDE MIXTURE,

A Perfect Root or Herb Medicine Cure for Fever and Ague, and other bilious affections, indoor weakness.

This Medicine is purely a Vegetable Compound, and can be administered in the most delicate with entire safety. The proprietor—Dr. Edward Bleecker,—is well known, and the properties of this medicine have been ably and fairly discussed, and fully tested in private practice as a sovereign remedy for Chills and Fever.

CERTIFICATES

Newark, April 10th, 1852.

Mr. G. Brush—Dear Sir: I prescribed Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture, for the cure of Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, &c., of which you are Agent, it gives me pleasure to state that I have experienced with the most beneficial results from it. I have tried many so-called remedies, among the rest Dr. Osgood's Cholagogue, without adverting me any relief. I would recommend with confidence the above to the public. I tried one bottle of your medicine and it effected a perfect cure. In fact I have employed other remedies in my life. Any person desirous of knowing the particulars of the above cure, can obtain them by calling at my place of business where they will be cheerfully given

GEO. V. HANKINS, 313 Broad st., Newark, N. J.

Newark April 10th 1852.

Mr. G. Brush—Dear Sir: It gives me pleasure to learn that you have accepted the Agency for that justly celebrated medicine, Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture for the cure of Fever and Ague, and Chills and Fever, and General Weakness, &c. I have tried it, and it effected a perfect cure when all others failed. I cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted with the Fever and Ague, as a most excellent medicine, and one that must naturally come into general use.

Very J. YATES, Firm of Veil & Yates.

corner of Broad and Centre streets, Newark, N. J.

DR. LEWIS CRAIG, Agent for Plainfield. ny18ow

CAMPHENE AND BURNING FLUID—Of a very superior quality, putup for long voyages, in cans hermetically sealed, and warranted to keep for 5 years by JOHN S. LOUSBERY, 32 Burling Slip, N. Y.

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Carved Maple Sopans and Round Post, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, and Children's Chairs; Also, Wash and Table Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel &c.

March 27, 1852. For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

Administrator's sale.

THE Subscribers, Administrators of the Estate of ABRAHAM PARKER, deceased, will sell at Public sale, on Second Day (Monday) the 12th day of July next, at 2 o'clock, P. M., on the premises, the West Jersey property to said deceased, viz: the new Two-story House with Lot and Garden, situated on the east corner of Second and New Streets, in Plainfield, N. J.

Any information that may be required or references to said property will be cheerfully furnished by calling on the subscriber, or Smith W. Parker, on the premises.

SALE POSITIVE. ZACHARIAH WEBSTER,

Plainfield, May 8, 1852. Administrator.

1852.

SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S.

WE would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not praise up our Goods with a view of trying to make the people believe them to be what they are not, but intend that their style and quality shall speak for themselves. DeLaines from 10cts to 25, Ginghams, Berege delaines new styles from 19d to 2s.; plain and watered Poplin Silks from 3s. to 10s. per yard; Prints all patterns from 4 to 14 cts.; superb Kid Gloves, Ladies Gloves from 10 cts to 75; also Gents Gloves, Bleached and Brown Muslins very cheap, Ginghams from 10 cts. to 25, and more than this a thousand other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloth, plain and fancy Cassimere, a first rate assortment of Vestings for Spring and which may be cut to order on the shortest notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Gents furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods from the

Finest and Cheapest

To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it as object to Cash purchasers from 5 to 10 per cent lower than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we are entirely in the Dry Goods trade and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

Sign of the Big Stars!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also Canton Plaids new Spring Styles to which the attention of Ladies is respectfully requested. ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

May 3d, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Thorn's new building in Cherry st., 2nd below Dr. Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the vicinity of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns, Delaines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Colonades, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES,

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Pork, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders. Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Also, Hollow ware, Tubs, Buckets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, whisk shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.

LIME, Rhode Island and Glens Falls.

☞ All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods. JAMES M. DUNN.

April 20, 1852.—1y.

House and Lots for Sale.

Situated on the corner of Fifth and Centre Streets, the house is nearly new, filled in with brick, five rooms on first floor, six on second, with garret and cellar—fruit trees of different kinds, and a never failing well of water. Said premises well located for private residence. Terms liberal. Enquire of

WILLIAM SUTTON.

Plainfield, Feb. 24th, 1852.

Lawrence's Gallery,

203 Broadway, 3 doors below Fulton-STREET, NEW YORK.

THE proprietor having built this establishement expressly for Daguerreotyping, with a view to obviate many of the difficulties that surround the Daguerrian Artist, has found after a trial of two years, that his expectations have been realized. That the requirement of light is new, and produces uniformly soft and bold pictures, with the middle, or neutral tints, so long looked for by Artists. One of the rooms is arranged with particular reference to taking Family Groups, of any size. Fifty persons can be taken with great facility. The Operating Department is conducted by persons of great experience and skill, and none but perfect likenesses will be sent out. Mr. L. has been the first to produce Daguerreotypes the size of life. They are produced with a Camera of immense size, and so plainly three times larger than ever before used, producing a Picture having all the softness and delicacy of the finest Miniature.—Pictures of every description copied with perfect accuracy. Also, all are taken in the shade, so that a cloudy weather no detriment to taking good pictures. The public of Plainfield and vicinity are invited to visit the Rooms, as are free to all.

THE FIRST PREMIUM, A PRIZE MEDAL, was awarded to Mr Lawrence, at the WORLD'S FAIR IN LONDON, for the Best Daguerreotypes. Enough said.

April 26th, 1852.—3m. M. M. LAWRENCE.

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John B. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite Jewett's Carriage Factory, respectfully inform the public of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice, Single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

Dorter Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant.

Also, Alterative Pills. Also,

Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops. These drops are an agreeable, effectual remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholic, Cramps, Pain in the Stomach, Sick Headache, and for giving Ease for the spine disease. Also, Hunt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, &c. &c. For sale by

April 20, 1852. JAMES M. DUNN.

Hope's Express.

For Newark, Elizabethtown, Westfield, Plainfield, Bonnebrook, Somerville, White House, Clinton and Easton, Pa.

Leave New York daily at 8 o'clock, arriving at Plainfield at 10-1-2 o'clock, A. M. Leave Plainfield at 3 o'clock, arrive in New York at 4 1-2 o'clock, P. M.

JOHN LAING, Agent for Plainfield.

A. D. HOPE, 41 Courtland-st., New York.

☞ This Express has been systematized, and all orders will be executed with safety and despatch.

Plainfield, Nov. 19, 1850

A Choice Assortment of

GARDEN, FIELD and FLOWER SEEDS,

—WHOLESALE AND RETAIL—

WILLIAM COLE'S.

INFORMS his friends and the public that he has succeeded Mr. John Eadie, in the Seed Store, 147 Market-street, Newark.

Mr. C. flatters himself that his long experience in the Seed business, and the facilities he has of procuring the best quality of SEEDS grown in this country and in Europe, coupled with punctuality and strict attention to business, will secure to him a liberal share of patronage.

☞ Mr. C. has laid in his stock of new seeds for the season, to which he invites the attention of purchasers.

Catalogues forwarded to postpaid applications.

Greenhouse Plants, Fruit, Ornamental Trees, &c. furnished to order. New York reference by unknown correspondents.

N. B.—Jobbing punctually attended to by the day, month or year, by practical men.

May 24, 1852.—2m.

BARAGE DELAINES—a few pieces just Received, and selling off cheap.

Calicoes, fast colors, for 6 cents per yard

May 3, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling of at I. S. DUNHAM & CO'S.

JOHN JELLIFF'S OLD ESTABLISHED

Furniture Warehouse,

301 & 303 Broad Street, Newark.

Great Improvements in his Stock—Spring Goods.

MR. J. having remodeled and enlarged his Warehouse is happy to say he is now prepared to meet the invitations of one and all, and would respectfully give to his friends, patrons, and all in the pursuit of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, to call and see his warerooms. Having opened to the wants, comforts, and luxury of the country.

For the last Sixteen Years,

In the way of Cabinet Furniture, and his wares having received satisfactory tests during that time, he now considers it unnecessary to say more as to the quality of his goods. They speak for themselves, in the enduring comforts and the solid utility universally accorded them. His would invite attention to his

NEW SPRING STYLES,

And, without egotism, he considers his Flat Lined Rooms combine the

Largest, Most Complete and Extensive Assortment

That can be found in the State, and for beauty of design and neatness of execution, he challenges competition. They are got up in the most approved

ANCIENT AND MODERN STYLES,

Comprising all the varieties of useful and fancy wards, in suites or otherwise, of Parlor, Chamber, Library, Sitting and Dining Room, and Kitchen Furniture usually called for, including Mattresses, Palliasses, and Bedding of all descriptions.

Churches, Hotels, Saloons, Halls, Counting Houses, Offices, &c. &c. furnished at short notice.

Cheap, Cheap, Very Cheap Furniture!!

No necessity of going to New York, or the Junk Shops for cheap Furniture, as I will sell you the same goods just as cheap, and you will be saved the expense of carriage, breakage, cartage, and tumbling of goods about.

A Large Stock of Very Low-Priced Furniture.

Sofas within $20; Mahogany Chairs $2.50; Cane seats, 88 cts.; common do, 44 cts.; Cane Settees $7; Bedsteads $2.50; Spring Mattresses at $3 and upwards, all prices. Every thing else in the same proportion.

JOHN JELLIFF, 301 and 303 Broad st.

May 3, 1852.—2m. Newark, N. J.

Furniture and Chair WAREHOUSE,

W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS,

119 Market-st., Newark, N. J.,

(A few Doors West of Broad.)

WE invite the attention of our friends and the citizens of Plainfield, Dunellen, Plainfield, Scotch Plains, as well as the surrounding country, to the largest, best, and most complete, and (quality of goods considered) cheapest assortment of Furniture, Chairs, Mattresses, &c. ever exhibited in the State, a fact of which all are fully satisfy themselves who will favor us with a call. Our stock consists of all the various styles of Parlor, Chamber, Library, Hall, Bed-room, Library Hall and Kitchen Furniture, &c. viz: Sofas, Tete a Tetes, Divans, Ottomans, Mahogany and marble top Centre Tables, Side Tables, Card Tables, Easy Arm and Rocking Chairs, Parlor Chairs, Italian Hair Cloth do. &c.

Book Cases, Wardrobes, Writing Desks and Secretary's reading Tables, Dressing Bureaus, French and Cottage Bedsteads, plain do., Refaced and Plain Washstands, &c. over a thousand 40 dozen Cane and Maple Cane-seat Chairs of our own manufacture, and warranted superior to anything of the price.

Mattresses of Curled Hair, Husk, Moss and Straw. We have also a large stock of New York Furniture, which we will sell at New York prices, and save you the trouble, time, freight, risk, &c., which is attendant on purchasing in New York.

N. B. Persons residing within six or seven miles of Newark, who purchase furniture of us, can have theirs packed carefully at their residences, and sent for them where bills amount to $25 or over, as we keep a large furniture wagon, expressly for that purpose, so that we are responsible for our wares until they are safely lodged in your own residences. We do this in order to induce persons to stop at Newark instead of going to New York. Don't forget the number, 119 Market-st., Newark. W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS.

April 20, 1852.—3m.

FIRST PREMIUM MILLINERY Establishment and STRAW BONNET Manufactory, No. 564 Broadway, near Nikle's Garden, New York. Mrs. Wm. SIMMONS respectfully announces to her numerous friends and the public that she has prepared to exhibit at her Show Rooms a splendid and unique assortment of Millinery and Straw Goods of her own importation, which are combined with the modern improvements, latest styles and fashions, together with magnificent selections of Paris Millinery, which for diversity of patterns, colors and beauty of style, cannot be surpassed. Constantly all former importations so, a large and interesting invoice of Lace, Straws, Straw Bonnets, and an endless variety. Merchants and Milliners supplied on the Pattern Bonnets.

Mrs. WM. SIMMONS, 564 Broadway,

April 20, 1852.—3m. New York.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the new stand on Somerset-st., next to the corner of Front street, and near French's mill, where they are prepared to sell all articles in their line cheaper than the cheapest and goods in the Store, being Flour and Feed, also Crockery and Earthen Ware.

Produce of all kinds wanted in exchange for groceries. Thankful for past favors, asks a continuance of the same.

☞ Mrs. Vye's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaint.

JOHNSON & LYON.

N. B. All persons indebted to the subscriber are requested to call and settle without delay.

April 3, 1852.—1y. CHARLES JOHNSON.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of I. S. Dunham & Co., for the purpose of carrying on the above articles, together with silver work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

N. B. Gold and Silver Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Cabin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and Wood taken in exchange for Clocks.

Plainfield, April 18, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

☞ Mrs. Vye's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaint.

JOHNSON & LYON.

LIGHTNING RODS!

M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 132 East Twenty-A. Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and offer to the public their improved Lightning Rods: which have now been in use seventeen years, without a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. Mr. M. Quimby having made fifty years study of his life, and his rods are always put up in accordance with certain rules which he has formed and adopted as the result of his experience. An additional advantage we have found to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and exposed as regards lightning, and from the peculiar features of the rods, to suit the peculiar features of the case, which is the reason why so many of the common round rods have failed to protect buildings to any purpose—because of the law by which electricity is governed, they are not arranged on buildings in such a manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Our rods have been placed on the houses of Mr. D. Rockwell, C. Bolce, Esq. Mr. M. Stelle, and others in Plainfield, and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the city of New York; Trinity Church and others in New York; church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Persons containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—6m*

NEW PROVISION AND FISH STORE.

527 Washington-st., New-York.

THE subscriber, wholesale dealer, invites the attention of grocers and others to his stock of

Smoked Beef and Tongues,

Smoked Hams and Shoulders,

Smoked Salmon and Herrings,

Also, Beef, Pork, Lard, Mackerel, &c. by the barrel half Barrel, and in kitts, in lots to suit purchasers.

PHILEMON D. HAIGHT,

227 Washington-street, New York.

April 13, 1852.—3m.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, (Elizabethtown, to their distance from the depot,) would invite his former friends, and all who are in want of a good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call

His stock comprises some of the most fashionable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made at his shop to fit.

☞ Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, the subscriber having no rent to pay. JOHN ENGEL.

April 29, 1852. 4t.y.

The Place to Buy Dry Goods!

JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.

No. 227 Greenwich Street, NEW YORK.

(One Door below Barclay Street.)

Offer to Buyers the Largest, Most Varied, and Cheapest Stock of

DRY GOODS, in Greenwich St, and one of the Largest in the CITY, for both WHOLESALE and RETAIL Buyers to select from.

The First Floor is devoted to our Retail Sales, and the Second, Third and Fourth Floors, are exclusively for our

WHOLESALE TRADE.

We particularly invite the attention of COUNTRY MERCHANTS,

To our Stock, from which they can select almost any article they want, thereby saving much time. We pay particular attention to the selection of the very best styles in Dress and other Goods. Cash Buyers will save MONEY by an examination of our prices, as our expenses are small, we can and will sell cheaper than most Houses. All we ask is, TRY IT.

New York, March 1st, 1852. JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.

327 Greenwich Street.

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS.

DANIEL BULLMAN,

Is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Spring Patterns; Domestics of every grade and quality; Silks, plain and figured; Ginghams, Alpacoas, &c. suitable to the season; Linens, White Goods of all kinds, Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinetts, Cassinetts, Vestings, Hosiery, Gloves, and all other articles in the dry goods line, necessary to make as varied, full and complete an assortment as can be found in any store in this place. All will be sold as cheap too. Try us and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing those articles, will find my store just the place. I buy good articles, and sell them as cheap as any one can. Our customers cannot help being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY,

Some very beautiful, and some very cheap; a large and varied assortment, to suit all tastes, constantly on hand. Also, Looking Glasses, in great variety.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell the same goods as cheap, and save you the trouble and expense and freight of going after it. Bedsteads, Looking-Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

ARIETIES AND FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a store. Call and see. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call, and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it, very low. A portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited.

D. BULLMAN.

April 26, 1852.

NOT FOR THE GOLD MINES!

GIVE ME THE SILVER!

WHILE many are going to California to dig up the gold in abundance, if they can find it, I take the opportunity to say to the public at large and to my customers in particular, that I shall remain here and offer to them a stock of Dry Goods, at such prices as will return, equal to any for style and quality. Said stock consists of a general assortment of every thing kept in a Village Store, viz:

Dry Goods, Carpets, Groceries, . . .

Hardware, Crockery, Boots, Shoes, &c. &c.

Among the Dry Goods are Muslins and Prints from 4d to 1s. and 1s 6d., DeLaines and Cashmeres; cambric and jaconet, book and Swiss muslin, a good assortment constantly on hand; also, a fine assortment of black gloves, bella veils, crape and bombazine for scarfs; Cloths, plain and fancy cassimeres, Sackings, Satinetts, Jeans, cords, edgings, insertings, linens, lace buttons, &c.

GROCERIES,

Green and Black Teas of the best quality, molasses at 2½, and 3s. per gallon, sugar of every style and quality from 5s. 6d. to 10s. 6d. for 20 lbs. also loaf sugar, syrup, raisins, coffee, rice, and of other groceries a complete stock of the best quality.

CROCKERY, of Every Style and Quality,

Both fancy and plain to suit the purchaser.

PROVISIONS.

Pork, Fish, salt, hams, shoulders, lard, butter, cheese, beef, &c. &c. &c.

BOOTS and SHOES, of Every Style and Quality, for Ladies', gentlemen's and children's wear at low price.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Furniture and coach varnish, turpentine, white lead, pure and coarse ground, Spanish brown, Venetian red, red lead, chrome yellow, Paris green, Prussian blue mixed and dry, lamp black, litharge, brown japan and nearly every thing for painters.

Flour, Meal, Feed and Grain,

A good assortment constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, March 15 1852.

HORACE SEATON,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN LACE GOODS,

254 Broad Street, Newark.

☞ Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Tabs, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Embroidery Muslin, Gloves and Hosiery, Fancy articles, Combs, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Lace to be found in the same building a superb stock of Gent's, Ladies and Children's fancy dress Hose and Gaiters. o22 1y.

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at H. GLENN & Co's Manufactory, 194 Fulton-st. (west of Broadway.) A General Assortment of Mahogany and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

H. GLENN & CO., 194 Fulton-street,

Oct. 7, 1851.—1y NEW YORK.

CARHART & NEEDHAM,

Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

With Recent important Improvements.

Price from $60 to $200.

No. 75 East Thirteenth Street's

2 doors from Broadway, NEW YORK.

N. B. Reeds constantly on hand. ☞

Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by Mr. Peter Drake, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

Also PAPER-HANGING, all of which will be promptly, neatly and carefully executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned feels grateful for favors heretofore conferred, together with the Ladies and Gentlemen of this town.

Plainfield, May 24, 1852.—tf

EGGS, Rother, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any kind of produce you can get, or do anything with, taken in exchange for goods. I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

Blanks for sale at this Office

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

FRAZEE MARSH returns thanks to his numerous patrons for their liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year; and in order to more accommodate his many friends he has enlarged his stock of Paints, and taken into partnership his son, Washington Marsh. The business will be continued at the old stand, opposite the Presbyterian Church, where there will be kept constantly on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c. &c., as cheap as can be found in the city. Work will be attended to House, Sign and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES.

Mixed Paint constantly on hand. Advice gratis.

Jan. 5, 1852. F. MARSH & SON

J. A. Woodland & J. Corbett

HOUSE, SIGN AND

DECORATIVE PAINTERS,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

☞ The above are prepared to execute all orders in their line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Paper-Hanging branches, with punctuality, neatness and despatch, and at prices considerably less than those usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.

March 20, 1852.

NOTICE TO THE LADIES

OF PLAINFIELD AND VICINITY. Those ladies wishing to obtain their supplies of Gaiter Boots and Shoes for the coming season, can find at

J. B. MILLER'S

154 Canal street, New York,

French Morocco and Kid Slippers, Ties and Buskins of the first quality, at 9 and 10 shillings per pair; second quality Slippers and ties at 6 shillings, and Buskins at 7 shillings per pair, (all of my own make and warranted good.) Ladies' Fine Goods of all kinds, fashionable colors, 12, 16 and 18 shillings the pair. This beautiful article of ladies' wear are warranted equal to any in the market. Misses' and children's gaiter Boots and Shoes of all kinds (the largest assortment of any in New York;) white and black satin, black and Bronze French kid Slippers for evening. Ladies who wish good shoes, at moderate prices, will please call and examine for themselves at J. B. MILLER'S,

154 Canal-street,

(Between Thompson and Laurens street.)

March 26, 1852.—3m.

BREWSTER'S EMBROCATION,

THE GREAT REMEDY NOW RECOMMENDED FOR

SPRAINS, BRUISES, RHEUMATISM

Stiffness or Weakness of the Joints and Limbs, Contraction of the Muscles, Neuralgia of the Face, Side or Back, Gout, Head-Ache, Tooth-Ache, &c.

Also, an Immediate Remedy for Sprains, Bruises, Stiffness, Lameness, and Galls on Horses.

This Embrocation is prepared of Ingredients which form a very active and powerful combination, possessing the Rubefacient, &c. &c. Elements of the most respectable persons and families have given their testimony in favor of its superiority. It operates in many cases immediately, and in most cases in a few minutes after rubbing under extreme pain in the side or limbs, or from bruises or sprains, have found instant relief from a shortening of the sinews, or contractions.

From a long experience in the Drug business and constant applications to prescribe remedies for various diseases, the proprietor has had ample opportunity to witness the effect of the different preparations for Rheumatism, &c., and before this embrocation was offered with so much confidence, it was satisfactorily and effectually proved to do every thing it is represented. Try it, and you will not be disappointed.

Price, 25 cents per Bottle.

Certificate from Ambrose Pancoast, Esq., Atlantic co., N. J.

Pascataville, N. J. July 31, 1849.

Mr. F. G. B swster :

Dear Sir,—I have been an extensive dealer in horses for 20 years past, and have had great opportunities to witness the effects of many kinds of Drugs &c. are subjects, and of seeing the various remedies in use.

About 15 years since I was induced to make use of your Embrocation, and since that time I have used none other—believing it to be the best preparation to which this noble animal is subject, viz. Ringbone, sparin, strains of the joints and sinews, shoulder strains, swiney in the shoulder, lameness in the shoulder joint, galls on the shoulder, and every disease of a like nature.

I have also used, and known it used for the various diseases to which mankind are subject, such as Scalded Joints, Rheumatism, Gout, Bruises, Cuts, Sprains, Spinal affections, pains in the Face, side and back, Toothache, Burns, Scalds, and especially the headache, which I have found to be a never failing remedy. Your Embrocation is the best and safest Remedy I have ever used for the above complaints. I have also sold considerable of it in my store, and believe it to supersede all others. Yours with respect,

AMBROSE PANCOAST.

Prepared only by F. G. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Bridgeton, N. J., and for sale together with Brewster's Pectoral Mixture, and Cholera Mixture, by Dr. L. CRAIG, Druggist, agent for Plainfield; C. W. Badger, Newark; Dr. D. C. English, New Brunswick, and by agents throughout the State.

May 1, 1852.—4m

MARBLE & STONE YARD.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish,

HEAD STONES, MONUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful Free Stone Quarry, from which I will furnish to order every variety of stone for building purposes, ornamental or plain. All of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere, to those wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.-1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

ANDREW M WEBSTER,

Attorney at Law and Solicitor in Chancery.

OFFICE—No. 153 MARKET STREET,

May 13, 1850. NEWARK N. J.

DR. E. DAYTON,

Surgeon-Dentist,

Has returned to Plainfield, and taken an Office and Residence for the year, on Main st. 3d house below Webster & Marsh's.

June 24, 1851. Store.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE,

HAVE REMOVED TO

NO. 259 GREEN STREET, NEW YORK,

Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

Mrs. S. M. CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN,

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, particularly those arising from or attendant upon debility, Scrofulous, Erysipelatous, or Cutaneous diseases, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say, that many of the most obstinate and long standing cases in cases of long standing, after their having been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on Mrs. and Dr. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. jand 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUSE,

Hay, Floor and Portable Platform,

Bank, Gold and Counter

Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not to get out of order.

Manufactory 30 Greene street, New York.

Also For Sale at 382 ultimo street,

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

S. B. DEBOIS, J. BRYDEN, J. ROSIDOCK

Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

HOW'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

[IN MEN]

Rheumatism, Sprains, Weakness in the

Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Sores, Back, Breast,

Sore Throat, Frosted Feet, Limb & Joint.

[IN HORSES]

Bruises, Sprains, Ringbone, Poll Evil, and all

Warbles, Splints, Spavin, Fistula, diseases of Horses,

Curb, Scratches, Founder, Sore and Injurious

Windgall, Saddle Galls, tion can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOW, CHEMIST,

No. 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Smith's City Hotel.)

BRISTOL'S

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Moore, Engraver; Benjamin Campbell, Banker; McCleary, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel B. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton. Joseph Hamerton, John Weart, Trenton. A. W. Brown, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG. In Somerville by Culver Barcow. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

BRISTOL'S Double Refined Fourfered Imlee'ates, Chemical Yeast Powder in the boxes.

Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN,

DR. HALSEY'S FOREST WINE.

The discovery of the FOREST WINE is the greatest blessing of the age.

Put up in Quart Bottles, a single bottle of which will in many cases cure, and never further in the worst of Diseases. Being entirely vegetable it is as safe as pills to use, and warranted to cure without any nauseous or unseeming effect.

THE method by which all Sarsaparillas, and other similar medicines are prepared, by boiling the Roots or Plants to obtain the extracts. Their medicinal virtues are thus principally evaporated and destroyed.

It is not to be wondered at then, that ton and even pounds of Sarsaparilla, Stillingia, Mandrake, &c., often without any perceptible benefit. Not so with the Forest Wine! By the invention of a wonderful chemical apparatus, a perfect wine is produced without heating; rendering, at the same time, all the healing properties of the rare medicinal plants of which it is composed, thus rendering the Forest Wine the most efficacious medicine the world ever produced, at the same time the most agreeable.

GENERAL DEBILITY, EMACIATION, WASTING OF THE BODY, &c.

Many persons are afflicted with some one of the above complaints, without being able to trace it to any particular cause, and therefore do not know what kind of remedy until the disease becomes constitutional. These disorders are often characterized by a sense of sinking, or pain in the stomach, sickness, sour eructations, watery stomach, lassitude, and, at times, paleness or fluttering of the countenance, or palpitation of the heart, on like symptoms.

The combined effects which have ever attended the use of the Forest Wine and Pills, in every species of debility, is conclusive evidence of its happy results in this distressing class of diseases. Many have been given up as incurable as an ultimatum, and been specially cared. For Nervous disorders and Debility the Wine and Pills are taken according to the directions on the label.

FEVER AND AGUE, OR CHILLS

Are caused by the miasmatic effluvia arising from marshes, decayed vegetations, and low damp situations. In Fever and Ague the Forest Wine and Pills are a sovereign remedy. When they have taken place agreeably to the directions, we have never known them to fail in effecting a complete cure. In the first place take a large dose of the Forest Pills in time, that their operations may be fully before the system calls. The stomach being now well cleansed, take three or four large doses of the Wine, at intervals of half an hour, commencing about two hours before the chill is expected to come on. This breaks the ague, after which the Wine should be continued in small doses to restore strength. See full directions around the bottle.

DR. HALSEY'S

GUM-COATED FOREST PILLS

Are an important adjunct to the Forest wine. They are coated with gum and gold leaf, a method by which Doctor Halsey has recieved the only patent ever granted on Pills, by the government of the United States.

The Forest Wine and gum coated Forest Pills unite in accomplishing the same great end, the Purification of the Blood, and restoration of the Stomach and Bowels. The Forest Wine and Pills are recommended as an efficient and certain cure in the following complaints:—Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Dropsy, Complaints of the Kidneys, Incipient Consumption, Decline of general Health, and Female Weakness, for which it is a Sovereign Remedy; Languidness, Night Sweats, Nervous Disorders, Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, and want of Energy, Ague and Fever, which it never fails to cure; Scrofula, Erysipelas, Jaundice, Unhealthy Color of the Skin, Weakly and Impaired State of the Constitution.

Dr. Halsey's Office, No. 808 Broadway, New York. The Forest Wine in large squire bottles, $1 per bottle; six bottles for $5. Iron coated Forest Pills 25 cents per box. For sale by M. F. CUSHING, and DR. L. CRAIG, appointed Agents for Plainfield.

June 5, 1851. 3m

PROLAPSUS UTERI.

This malady arises primarily from a debilitated state of the muscles of the abdomen which, by presenting gravitation of the bowels suffers them to bear down the weight upon the womb, inducing a falling condition of the organ (U. e. Prolapsus Uteri.) Secondarily from debility of the sound and broad ligaments that support and upward lifting force to the muscles of the abdomen, so as to cause them to sustain the weight of the bowels, and thus relieve the womb from bearing down weight, but how is this support to be obtained? Not by pessaries or braces, although miscalled supporters, for the abdomen is rounded, having its lower boundary placed between the fullness of the ilhia, and hence the purchase by lifting it are just inside of the tense (Pomparts) ligaments, dividing the thighs from the abdomen, and above the groin (Inguinal.) Consequently lying deeply backward and under the fullness of the abdomen, and not to be reached by a belt or brace passing over it.

The Improved Supporter Pad invented and patented by the subscriber, adapted to this figure of the abdomen, having its outer and under edges raised so as to produce two forces, by the one, the bowels are uplifted, by the other, borne inward toward the centre of the body, and are made to support the whole under the rectum, by being impacted around them, giving their greatest lifting force from beneath upwards, and thus comforting the parts in its true position.

The recently patented Supporter Pad, invented by Frederick M. Butler, unbodying the above requisites of construction and adaptation, has been numerously tested, and being more efficient than any hitherto applied, has been adopted in the Hull Truss Office.

The Supporter is completed with a Perineal strap, having a proper and efficient duty to perform.

FREDERICK M. BUTLER, Proprietor.

Office, No. 4 Vesey st., opposite St. Paul's church, N. Y.

Ladies will be waited upon by a female, who will explain and distinct rooms for their accommodation. jc2m:3

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing astonishing healing properties, which is adapted to a larger class of diseases, in its ability to arrest pain, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Coughs and Colds, we doubt if it has an equal; it is very good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Rheumatism, Sore Head, Ear and Tooth Aches, Chilblains, Worms, Ague and Fever; as a Cholera prevention or remedy it cannot be surpassed, and for Summer Complaint in Children and Grown Persons in the early stages of disease, it will prove prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. jand 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUSE,

Hay, Floor and Portable Platform,

Bank, Gold and Counter

Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not to get out of order.

Manufactory 30 Greene street, New York.

Also For Sale at 382 ultimo street,

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

S. B. DEBOIS, J. BRYDEN, J. ROSIDOCK

Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

HOW'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

[IN MEN]

Rheumatism, Sprains, Weakness in the

Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Sores, Back, Breast,

Sore Throat, Frosted Feet, Limb & Joint.

[IN HORSES]

Bruises, Sprains, Ringbone, Poll Evil, and all

Warbles, Splints, Spavin, Fistula, diseases of Horses,

Curb, Scratches, Founder, Sore and Injurious

Windgall, Saddle Galls, tion can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOW, CHEMIST,

No. 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Smith's City Hotel.)

BRISTOL'S

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Moore, Engraver; Benjamin Campbell, Banker; McCleary, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel B. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton. Joseph Hamerton, John Weart, Trenton. A. W. Brown, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG. In Somerville by Culver Barcow. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

BRISTOL'S Double Refined Fourfered Imlee'ates, Chemical Yeast Powder in the boxes.

Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN,

DR. HALSEY'S FOREST WINE.

The discovery of the FOREST WINE is the greatest blessing of the age.

Put up in Quart Bottles, a single bottle of which will in many cases cure, and never further in the worst of Diseases. Being entirely vegetable it is as safe as pills to use, and warranted to cure without any nauseous or unseeming effect.

THE method by which all Sarsaparillas, and other similar medicines are prepared, by boiling the Roots or Plants to obtain the extracts. Their medicinal virtues are thus principally evaporated and destroyed.

It is not to be wondered at then, that ton and even pounds of Sarsaparilla, Stillingia, Mandrake, &c., often without any perceptible benefit. Not so with the Forest Wine! By the invention of a wonderful chemical apparatus, a perfect wine is produced without heating; rendering, at the same time, all the healing properties of the rare medicinal plants of which it is composed, thus rendering the Forest Wine the most efficacious medicine the world ever produced, at the same time the most agreeable.

GENERAL DEBILITY, EMACIATION, WASTING OF THE BODY, &c.

Many persons are afflicted with some one of the above complaints, without being able to trace it to any particular cause, and therefore do not know what kind of remedy until the disease becomes constitutional. These disorders are often characterized by a sense of sinking, or pain in the stomach, sickness, sour eructations, watery stomach, lassitude, and, at times, paleness or fluttering of the countenance, or palpitation of the heart, on like symptoms.

The combined effects which have ever attended the use of the Forest Wine and Pills, in every species of debility, is conclusive evidence of its happy results in this distressing class of diseases. Many have been given up as incurable as an ultimatum, and been specially cared. For Nervous disorders and Debility the Wine and Pills are taken according to the directions on the label.

FEVER AND AGUE, OR CHILLS

Are caused by the miasmatic effluvia arising from marshes, decayed vegetations, and low damp situations. In Fever and Ague the Forest Wine and Pills are a sovereign remedy. When they have taken place agreeably to the directions, we have never known them to fail in effecting a complete cure. In the first place take a large dose of the Forest Pills in time, that their operations may be fully before the system calls. The stomach being now well cleansed, take three or four large doses of the Wine, at intervals of half an hour, commencing about two hours before the chill is expected to come on. This breaks the ague, after which the Wine should be continued in small doses to restore strength. See full directions around the bottle.

DR. HALSEY'S

GUM-COATED FOREST PILLS

Are an important adjunct to the Forest wine. They are coated with gum and gold leaf, a method by which Doctor Halsey has recieved the only patent ever granted on Pills, by the government of the United States.

The Forest Wine and gum coated Forest Pills unite in accomplishing the same great end, the Purification of the Blood, and restoration of the Stomach and Bowels. The Forest Wine and Pills are recommended as an efficient and certain cure in the following complaints:—Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Dropsy, Complaints of the Kidneys, Incipient Consumption, Decline of general Health, and Female Weakness, for which it is a Sovereign Remedy; Languidness, Night Sweats, Nervous Disorders, Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, and want of Energy, Ague and Fever, which it never fails to cure; Scrofula, Erysipelas, Jaundice, Unhealthy Color of the Skin, Weakly and Impaired State of the Constitution.

Dr. Halsey's Office, No. 808 Broadway, New York. The Forest Wine in large squire bottles, $1 per bottle; six bottles for $5. Iron coated Forest Pills 25 cents per box. For sale by M. F. CUSHING, and DR. L. CRAIG, appointed Agents for Plainfield.

June 5, 1851. 3m

PROLAPSUS UTERI.

This malady arises primarily from a debilitated state of the muscles of the abdomen which, by presenting gravitation of the bowels suffers them to bear down the weight upon the womb, inducing a falling condition of the organ (U. e. Prolapsus Uteri.) Secondarily from debility of the sound and broad ligaments that support and upward lifting force to the muscles of the abdomen, so as to cause them to sustain the weight of the bowels, and thus relieve the womb from bearing down weight, but how is this support to be obtained? Not by pessaries or braces, although miscalled supporters, for the abdomen is rounded, having its lower boundary placed between the fullness of the ilhia, and hence the purchase by lifting it are just inside of the tense (Pomparts) ligaments, dividing the thighs from the abdomen, and above the groin (Inguinal.) Consequently lying deeply backward and under the fullness of the abdomen, and not to be reached by a belt or brace passing over it.

The Improved Supporter Pad invented and patented by the subscriber, adapted to this figure of the abdomen, having its outer and under edges raised so as to produce two forces, by the one, the bowels are uplifted, by the other, borne inward toward the centre of the body, and are made to support the whole under the rectum, by being impacted around them, giving their greatest lifting force from beneath upwards, and thus comforting the parts in its true position.

The recently patented Supporter Pad, invented by Frederick M. Butler, unbodying the above requisites of construction and adaptation, has been numerously tested, and being more efficient than any hitherto applied, has been adopted in the Hull Truss Office.

The Supporter is completed with a Perineal strap, having a proper and efficient duty to perform.

FREDERICK M. BUTLER, Proprietor.

Office, No. 4 Vesey st., opposite St. Paul's church, N. Y.

Ladies will be waited upon by a female, who will explain and distinct rooms for their accommodation. jc2m:3

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing astonishing healing properties, which is adapted to a larger class of diseases, in its ability to arrest pain, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Coughs and Colds, we doubt if it has an equal; it is very good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Rheumatism, Sore Head, Ear and Tooth Aches, Chilblains, Worms, Ague and Fever; as a Cholera prevention or remedy it cannot be surpassed, and for Summer Complaint in Children and Grown Persons in the early stages of disease, it will prove prompt and effectual relief. We have used it with great success, and do most cheerfully recommend it to those in want of a medicine that may be afflicted, as a safe and harmless remedy. It is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge, Brooklyn, John Comstock, Br'klyn, H. H. Pierson, Brooklyn, John Rickbeck, Engineer Steamer Fairfield by a female, Brooklyn, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. jand 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUSE,

Hay, Floor and Portable Platform,

Bank, Gold and Counter

Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not to get out of order.

Manufactory 30 Greene street, New York.

Also For Sale at 382 ultimo street,

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

S. B. DEBOIS, J. BRYDEN, J. ROSIDOCK

Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

HOW'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

[IN MEN]

Rheumatism, Sprains, Weakness in the

Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Sores, Back, Breast,

Sore Throat, Frosted Feet, Limb & Joint.

[IN HORSES]

Bruises, Sprains, Ringbone, Poll Evil, and all

Warbles, Splints, Spavin, Fistula, diseases of Horses,

Curb, Scratches, Founder, Sore and Injurious

Windgall, Saddle Galls, tion can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOW, CHEMIST,

No. 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Smith's City Hotel.)

BRISTOL'S

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Moore, Engraver; Benjamin Campbell, Banker; McCleary, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel B. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton. Joseph Hamerton, John Weart, Trenton. A. W. Brown, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG. In Somerville by Culver Barcow. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

BRISTOL'S Double Refined Fourfered Imlee'ates, Chemical Yeast Powder in the boxes.

Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN,

HOSENDACK'S WORM SYRUP.

THIS most safe and effectual remedy is now offered to the public, with the confidence of its proprietor in being an active and pleasant remedy that it can be given to the most tender infant, with the hundreds of cures performed daily by this syrup, should satisfy all of its superiority over all other worm medicines. Parents will be willing to give one trial, after reading the following certificates, before giving it a fair trial.

This syrup is entirely vegetable and is highly recommended by the most physicians of the country and in all cases where it is used, it has proved itself worthy of the confidence reposed in it. It would further say, do not let your children go to a premature grave when so safe and pleasant a remedy is to be had. Worm lozenges have failed to give satisfaction in cases of worms or bowel complaints. When your children are afflicted with disease of the eyes, picking at the nose, bloated stomach, sudden starting in their sleep, tongue clean for days at a time, &c., you can obtain a pamphlet of its wonderful cures, as well as directions for use.

Prepared and sold by M. F. CUSHING.

LIVER PILLS.—These Pills being composed of Roots and Plants for diseases of the Biliary organs, Liver complaint, &c.

Congestion of the Liver is known to exist from an inclination to vomit being present, bitter taste in the mouth, yellow furred tongue and thirst, the skin hot and the pulse full and bounding, an oppressive feeling in the head, and a difficult attend to it in time. These Pills will remove all symptoms either; total or partial, they have been found of inestimable value in restoring the natural derangement of the liver, and to a healthy action, purifying the blood and other fluids so as effectually put to flight all complaints which may arise from female irregularities, as headache, giddiness, pain in the side, back, &c. Price 25 cents per box, with directions. Be careful and ask for Hosenack's Liver Pills, as they are the only genuine. Sold by every respectable storekeeper in the country, where they are not to be found, address Dr. Hobensack's Laboratory, Philadelphia. For sale in Plainfield,

Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. CUSHING.

And at Retail by ELIAS KIRKPATRICK.

Dunellen, Charles Foster, Westfield. March 23, 1852.—1y.

R. R. R.

Science, by subjecting the luxe of Chemistry to the skill of man, has contributed to his health and happiness by supplying the most cruel and fearful pangs of pain in an instant, and curing the most obstinate

CHRONIC COMPLAINTS

IN A FEW HOURS

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,

Internally and Externally instantly stops Pain, and specially cures its cause.

It is warranted to give relief to the following pains in

Fifteen Minutes,

and to speedily and effectually cure the disease;

Rheumatism,	Cholic,
Lumbago,	Cramps and Spasms,
Stiff Joints,	Sudden Colds,
Tic Doloreux,	Soreness in Bones,
Chill Fever,	Pain in the Limbs,
Ague Cake,	Sick Head-ache,
Sore Throat,	Heartburn, Cholera Morbus,
	Colds, &c.

PAIN

IS the warning given of the presence of disease and of the derangement and prostration of the nervous and muscular system. In order to cure disease and rid the system entirely of its cause, our first great desideratum is to stop pain, and then to restengthen the nervous system, to give healthy action—the functions and secretions of every organ in the system; this we accomplish by the marvellous

Strengthening, cleansing, invigorating, and powerful pain soothing properties of

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

No matter what the cause of the pain may be—if it arises from nervous prostration, muscular debility, disarrangement of the liver or secretions of the skin, whether it be rheumatism, sick or nervous headache, dull head or nervous irritability, spasmodic affections, cramps, diarrhoea, bowel complaint, chills and fever whether it originates from indiscretions, derangements or external causes,

Radway's Ready Relief taken internally and applied externally, will speedily and effectually stop the pain and cure its cause

RHEUMATISM 100,000 persons cured in 1850

The most excruciating pain stopped in two hours.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the quickest, safest, and most effectual remedy for the cure of Rheumatism in all its forms now in use; we state only what we know. It will stop the most torturing pains of Rheumatism, and by one application. We will back no person known it fail in giving instant relief. In every city, village and town of America it has cured some of the people of this painful complaint. In every case we warrant it to do as stated—it will instantly relieve the sufferer from pain and speedily cure its cause.

SICK AND NERVOUS HEADACHE

100,000 cases cured in 1850.—It will give almost instant relief in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief taken according to directions, will speedily and effectually cure this complaint. Taken internally and applied externally it refreshes the nerves, circulates the stream, stops all irritation in the nervous fibres and secretions of the head and brain, and relieves the sufferer from pain in 15 minutes. It is now curing hundreds daily of the sick and nervous headaches.

NEURALGIA.—100,000 Neuralgia cases cured in 1850.—It will stop the most violent pains in Fifteen Minutes.

The cruel and excruciating pangs of this distressing complaint are usually arrested by Radway's Ready Relief. The happy effects following the use of this remedy are truly astonishing, rendering the nerves from proof, quickly restores the nervous energy and cures the disease. It is the only remedy that has effectually cured neuralgia in all its forms.

DIARRHŒA.—200,000 persons cured in 1850.—Pains stopped in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief cured more cases of cholera morbus, dysentery, cholic and all bowel complaints the past year than all other remedies in the world. On the banks of the Mississippi, Missouri, Illinois and Ohio rivers, in New Orleans, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukie, Galena, and other places where the diarrhœa, cholera or dysentery prevail, if the Ready Relief was used with the best success. It will in 15 minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms, impart a genial glow throughout the whole system, allay all irritation, stop the painful discharges and relieve the patient from all pain.

CRAMPS AND SPASMS.

A Teaspoonful of Radway's Ready Relief, taken internally, and by bathing externally, will in a few minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms. In many cases of sudden attacks, as with Cholera, Cholic, Spasms, &c., where they were cold and numb, the limbs distorted and shrunk, rubbing Radway's Ready Relief has always brought life and action, and a warm and healthy circulation of blood.

SWELLED JOINTS

If you have pain in the bones, swelled joints, weakness of the muscles, if you have a sprained limb, swelled leg, broken arm, sore throat, or if you have need of power, Radway's Ready Relief will take out the fire, remove the pain and swelling, give energy and strength to the muscles and entirely free you from pain.

Jumping Toothache cured in one second.

All such distressing aches, as Toothache, Face-ache, ear ache, stomache, pain in the limbs, the muscles, the bones, the feet, the head and arms, Radway's Ready Relief will instantly cure.

PAINFUL ITCHINGS

And all cutaneous eruptions are relieved from all irritation by bathing the parts with Ready Relief.

SPINAL COMPLAINTS.

By bathing affected parts freely with the neck and spine it will strengthen the spine. We have known many cases of posterior and anterior curvature of the spine to be entirely cured, and the disfigured form again his proper shape by the use of Radway's Ready Relief.

CHILL FEVER.

One teaspoonful of Radway's ready relief taken on the first symptoms of chills, and bathe the head, neck and stomach well with it, as say pain experienced, and it will entirely prevent chill fever.

Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Flatulency, Bad Breath, Wind, &c. are quickly cured by a dose of Radway's Ready Relief, taken internally. It is a delicious cordial, imparting strength to every organ and function of the body, and health and happiness to the mind.

CAUTION TO DRUGGISTS

Purchase Radway's ready relief only of the authorized agents, whose names have been given below. Some have been attempting to sell a worthless imitation, called

Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods,

April 26, 1852.—12m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York.

NEW GOODS.—Brooks' Royal Patent 6 cord cotton thread, warranted, wound on an improved pring pin I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

TRIPLE REFINED CAMPHENE—A very superior article, in bbls. and half bbls., for sale by the manufacturer, JOHN G. SCHMIDT,

Sept. 26, 1852.—3m. 32 Barling Slip, N. Y

Looking Glasses—A Large number

JUST RECEIVED, from 20 cents to $7, each, by D. BULLMAN.

DR. HOOFLAND'S

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS

Prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON,

at the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch St. Philadelphia,

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach or Intestines; such as Constipation,

Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering in the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits

THEY ARE ENTIRELY VEGETABLE,

And Free from Alcoholic Stimulant, and all Injurious Ingredients.

And are pleasant in taste and smell, and will at their operation, not ill restore imperfect blood to a healthy and give health and vigour to the frame.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, of Philadelphia, has had the means of obtaining the genuine recipes of the great medical discoveries of Hufeland, Von Berger, &c., and these invaluable medicines are prepared with the utmost care at the German Medicine Store. The bitter mixture—Hoofland's German Bitters—is the result of many years' study and observation, and has been used in Germany and prized in Europe as an infallible remedy for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaun iice, Dyspepsia, &c. Dr. C. M. Jackson's Hoofland's German Bitters have produced the same celebrity in this Western World. The testimonials and innumerable confirmations of thousands of the most severe and difficult cases cured, is ample proof of this. The medicines are entirely free from Mercury, but these produced the very effects and same happy results, which the immortal inventor indicated and intended, and consequently are justly recommended as Safe Medicines.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtue in the rectification of diseases of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching power in the secretions, and by the healthy operations, they are withal safe, certain, and pleasant.

A Case in Candon.

A Bateman, Esq. at Bivell's Railroad Hotel, Camden, cured of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint by their worst effects. He has been very much afflicted for 3 years. We can but note his case here. Call and see him; you will pronounce his case a bad one.

Another Extreme Case.

Mr. George Wampole, merchant, 317 Market st. cure* of Disease of the Liver, and Chronic Diarrhœa, of 1 years stand ng. He had been under the best medical treatment, and tried the most noted Springs and Mineral springs of note throughout the Union, without permanent benefit, and was at last permanently cured by the use o a few bottles of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.'

JOHN MOORE, jun. Esq. Editor of the "Daily News, said, October 31, 1849 :

"Hoofland's German Bitters.—We are trying this renowned medicine for a stubborn disease of the bowels, with the best effects. We have had to send in for 2 bottles, and we have derived more benefit than we derived previously from years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our first physicians."

Three More Cures.

Philadelphia, 3d mo. 20th, 1850.

Respected Friend: I had for several years been afflicted with Dyspepsia, and occasionally a General Debility. I accidentally tried thy medicine, the "German Bitters," in the first place upon a daughter, she having a severe sickness. Thy "Hoofland's German Bitters" had such effect upon her general debility, that I was induced to try them myself. I then got a bottle, and used it according to directions, and it relieved me more than anything I had before used, giving tone and strength to the stomach and digestive organs, so that I can now eat my food with comfort. I had a very severe attack of Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, which continued for some time. My life, for a time, was despaired of. Thy Bitters again being used, acted very happily upon the stomach and intestines, and soon relieved me from my illness, and restored me to my general health to the system. I consider it, doctor, one of the most valuable medicines I ever used, and shall take great pleasure in recommending it to others.

Very respectfully thy friend, SAMUEL HUTTON.

No. 5 Jennings' Row, Catharine, above Third.

Dr. C. M. Jackson, 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.

That this medicine will cure the foregoing diseases, no one can doubt, if they use it as directed; it will act specifically upon the Liver, Stomach and Nerves. It is preferable to calomel, in all Bilious Diseases; the effect is immediate, and it does not injure the system.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS

This medicine has* attained that high character which it is necessary for all medicines to attain, to induce counterfeiters to put forth spurious articles, at the risk of the lives of those who are incautiously deceived.

Look well to the Marks of the Genuine.

For the protection of invalids against fraud, the signature of C. M. JACKSON will be upon the front of the outside wrapper, and his name blown in every bottle.

Hoofland's German Bitters are counterfeited by unprincipled persons; all others are Counterfeits.—OFFICE ADVICE given gratis upon all diseases.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at the principal depot,

GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

No. 120 Market st. (one door above Sixth, (formerly 278 Race st.) Philadelphia, Pa., and by responsible dealers generally throughout the United States, the Canadas and the West India Islands

SECRET EDITION.

To enable all classes of Invalids to enjoy the advantages of their great Restorative Power,

Single Bottles, 75 cts.,—Three Bottles, $2,00,

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.

Aug. 11, 1851.-1y

Excelsior Chemical and Color Works,

SAMUEL TRUESDELL,

MANUFACTURER OF

PAINTS & COLORS;

Chrome Green, American Vermillion,

Chrome Yellow, Chinese Blue,

Prussian Blue, Paris Green,

Paris Blue, Rose Pink, &c. &c.

No. 147, Sullivan Street, New York.

IMPERIAL GREEN PAINT IN OIL.

April 13, 1853.—3m.

AFFLICTED READ!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. J. KEELY,

N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice spent in that city have rendered Dr. K. the most expert and successful physician in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat or legs, pains in the head or bones, m

PLAINFIELD UNION

Volume XVI.—No. 25. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, June 22, 1858. Whole Number 805.

BY MILTON P. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY.

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 814 Broad street, Washington Hall Buildings,

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical, lepine, verge and detached lever watches; gent's, patchaul and Swiss Guard watches; 6th and vest Chains of all patterns; silver, shell and russet card cases; gold and silver enamelled, engraved and plain Pencils; Ladies' chain slide stonel, cluster, and mosaic do.; Gent's chain slide stonel, cluster, and plain Brooches; Gent's cluster, enamelled, engraved and plain Studs; Finger Rings of all patterns; Ladies' plain gold, chain and hair Bracelets; Bracelet Clasps of all kinds; Ear rings of the latest styles; Gents' diamond, ruby, emerald, hyacinth, and all styles of breast Pins; gold Lockets and Slides; gold Tooth Picks; Hearts and Crosses; gold Pen and Pencil Cases; gold and silver Thimbles; silver and Guard Keys; gold and silver Spoons and Butter Knives; gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Bouquet Holders, tablets, hair pins, scissors, knives, tea bells, purses, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, pursesand bag clasps and slides, steel pen and boxes, cheaquer board, backgammon boards, letter folders, secretaries, tidal Pens; Hearts and Crosses, and bronze cases, pearl studs, twin buttons, watch stands, bugle cases, pearl studs, twin buttons, watch stands, bugle cases, opera, sealing wax, pen holders, microscopes, reading glasses, fancy work boxes, china segar cases and segar stands, fancy work boxes, china segar cases and snuff boxes; tooth, hair, hat, nail, clothes and shoe brushes; silk and velvet pocket books, a large assortment of dressing cases, back combs, pocket combs, scissor sheaths, pocket knife cases, Parisian scent bags, smelling bottles, fingercrementing tools, steel and brass seals, gilt, silk and gilt fob chains; shaving brushes, shaving boxes, &c.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

Piano Fortes from the best makers, Violins, Clarionets, Flutes, Flageolets, Bass Violins, Drums, Metronomes, Violin Bows, Accordeons, tuning forks; Violin, Violincello and Guitar Strings; Trimmings for all Instruments; a large assortment of sheet music, duetts, quartettes, trios and glees, comprising all the latest publications; also Instructional Music, namely, waltzes, quick steps, marches, rondos, duetts for four hands, and sacred songs; Guitar music, Instruction books for Piano Forte, flute, fife, violin, accordeon, clarionet, flageolet, &c. &c. all as cheap as can be bought in New York; with a variety of other goods not enumerated in this catalogue, comprising the largest variety in Newark.

WATCH REPAIRING AND CLEANING.

The subscriber, determined to give full satisfaction to those that employ him, has engaged a very superior workman from Switzerland, where he has been engaged for several years in manufacturing all kinds of watches, and is well skilled in repairing and cleaning watches, as testimonials from some of the First watch makers of the city of New York will testify.

Jewelry make to order. Old gold and silver taken in exchange. 6m

Wholesale and Retail

Wine and Liquor Store.

29 Fair Street, Newark, N. J.

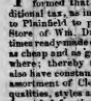
THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has constantly on hand at the above old established stand, a full and complete assortment of Foreign Wines and Spirits, which he offers at the lowest cash prices, and delivered to order to any part of the city or country. Brandy of every grade. Medeira, Sherry, Lisbon, Teneriffe and Monongahela Whiskey. St. Croix and Jamaica Rum. Port, Madeira, Malaga and Champagne Wines. Lowy's Bitters, &c.

Philadelphia Bottled Porter and Pale Ale of the first quality; also, a very choice article of Bottled Cider (almost equal to Champagne) always on hand.

☞ A continuance of patronage is solicited.

June 1st, 1852.—3m LOUIS L. BELAND.

MANNING VERMEULE,



HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quality.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued, and will pay strict attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be furnished with as handsome and serviceable a Hat as they can buy in New York or Philadelphia, and half a dollar each cheaper.

N. B. Ladies' Riding Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 22, 1851.—1y

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

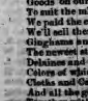
THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the new law, by coming to Plainfield, and purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready-made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, on reasonable terms as better than elsewhere, thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and patterns which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all the kind of tailor's trimmings at a low price. Also constantly for sale, Fabric, Beaver Cloths, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c. In fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Friends will you favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves?

Cutting, trimming, and making done on the shortest notice and at reasonable prices. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Plainfield, Dec. 1.



Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

IN HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Mens, Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade. Our goods are made in our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction. Purchasers who may select or order can rely upon being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as favorably as at any establishment in the city.

352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

May 25, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,

I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Goods on our counter now is lie.

To suit the mind, to please the eye.

We paid the cash to buy them cheap,

We'll sell them right to sell a heap.

Ginghams and Muslins, Combs and Cords,

The newest styles New York affords:

Delicious and Goddess, Calicoes too,

Colors of which we'll warrant true.

Cloths and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,

And all the goods a man needs or has;

Together with a good supply

Of groceries good which will defy

A close of men who live with us,

And twice a year make quite a fuss,

To go to Brunswick with their trade,

Of where at home they are afraid.

We'll tell to them and all the rest,

For cheapest rates what suits them best.

With Brunswick prices we'll compete,

And she shall tremble in the heat.

So come all, come short, come tall,

I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Plainfield, May 13, 1850

Hints to Merchants, Married Men and Bachelors.

BY GRANT HORBURTN.

Esteemed friend—Having heard of your marriage, I send you, with my congratulations, a few hints, which, if followed, will keep the chain of matrimonial felicity ever bright and burnished. Devote your leisure hours to the company of your wife. Leave politics to politicians; they will make as many presidents at one sitting as will serve you for a lifetime. If your circumstances are easy, and thou art fond of outdoor amusement, let your wife be your constant companion. It is natural, unmanly and impolite to leave her at home, while thou art seeking thy own pleasure abroad.

To him whose lot it is to earn his bread by the sweat of his brow, I would say, when the labor of the day is done, spend the evenings at home with your wife, or if no cares prevent, walk together in one of the beautiful parks, or accompany your wife to a public lecture, (where the admission is free.) Thus will you learn something, and make the evening appear short. If your wife is engaged in repairing your garments, or in smoothing your linen, then sit by the same table, and read to her the news of the day—(one candle will answer both.) If your children are to be cared for, stay at home and do your part. If one is fretful, take it upon your knee, and sing it Auld Lang Syne. Do no other attire in the cradle, put your foot on the rocker.—This will lighten the cares of your partner, and cause a smile upon the face of her whom you so fondly admire: verily peace dwells in the house, anger never enters.

I have a word to say to young men of moderate circumstances. You expect to, and no doubt many of you will, become princely merchants in the next generation. I advise you to take a wife as the first and best step in commencing business. If you are in a retail business, if possible have your dwelling under the same roof, and if there is a room at the back of the store, the better. Have the door which opens into the store made of glass, so that when you are out on business your wife can sit and sew by said window, and see what is going on in the store, at the same time. Never leave your store except on business which no one else but yourself can perform.—Horse, foot, hardile, and pony races, fishing, fowling and sailing will never pay the rent, and while you are hooking fish at Harlem, the boys are hooking—hooking gold dust from the money drawers in Cross-street, besides should you meet with an accident, which often occurs on those occasions, your first explanation will be—"What business had I there!"

As profit, pleasure and small capital, never long agree, our fish catching merchants in a few months shuts up two hours earlier than usual—says Dick "what's the matter?" "Hush," says Tom. The sheriff is taking an inventory. He now discovers when too late, that the cheapest fish is caught in the Fulton market with a silver hook.

When you are out on business, hurry home, as fast as possible? I lost thirty dollars one day about fifty years ago by stopping. I was returning from Flymarket, which occupied the space between Pearlstreet and the Eastriver at the foot of Maidenlane. At the corner of William and Liberty stree, I met William Wilson a worthy old Scotchman, "what's the news?" says I. "Willie?" [In those days news from Europe came slow and far between, we had no packets.—In 1816, Isaac Wright sent out the ship Pacific, she was the first Liverpool packet that ever crossed the Atlantic ocean.]

He reported an arrival from London, and spun out a long narration about Bonaparte and the battle of Wagram. As was my wont, when I came home, I said "good wife, has any one enquired for me?" "Mr. Brown, she replied, called to pay his bill, some explanation is wanted." That night he started for Canada; I never saw him more; I wished Bonaparte and his battle of Wagram in the swamps of Hackensack in the Jorseys.

Again, as you are only beginning the world abstain from purchasing costly furniture, and to keep away the plague, all temptation fly, purchase plate. Perhaps your wife will attend a teawater company at the house of Mrs. Van Pelt, whose husband is an old established thriving merchant. On the table is a silver teapot, a silver milkpot, sugar bowl and tongs.

At nine o'clock, you accompany your wife home, (this little incident occurred fifty years ago,) when we had no Italian soldiers and rope dancers, men, boys and women singers, live elephants and monkeys, to keep people out of bed all nights. On the way your wife looks sad, and never opens her lips. Arrived at home, she takes her stand before the looking glass, while untying her hat. Her late, pretty face is now as long as a maypole. You are distressed on her account. In the most coaxing manner possible, you inquire, what is the matter with your dear Maria? She looks as if she had lost all her friends. For a minute she will not speak, and perhaps begins to cry. Now be cool: take it easy, and acquit thyself like a man. Don't look on her tears, you will be shot. These tears are the grape-shot which the ladies always carry in the fountain of their sparkling eyes, with them they mow down their opponents, as fast as did the invincible Napoleon on the plains of Austerlitz. We have whole-hog, half-alligator, and half-horse men in Tennessee and Kentucky. They will stand before Colt's six barrel revolvers without flinching, but there is not ten men between Plymouth Rock and the shores of the Pacific, that can stand the shot from her eyes.

As I hinted above keep cool, move your chair a little closer to her's, cover your face and cry a little by way of sympathy. As soon as she hears you sigh, her tender heart will relent. She will instantly become your comforter. Now you will hear that all this muckle was about nothing, was only a storm in a tea-pot—this hateful tea-pot—this sugar-bowl and milk-pot,—"I'm sure Mr. Snodgrass, you can afford me a silver tea-pot as well as Mr. Van Pelt does his wife." Now another crystal drop is rolling down her beautiful eyes, and look not on her because she is fair, —keep cool. For her sake—for your own sake, and for the sake of your own generation, don't give up the ship.—Draw closer your chair. Commence a mild and soothing speech sprinkled with some of the elegant extracts, metaphor, and sentiments with which you were wont to address your Maria ten days before your marriage.

Begin the exordium mosmewhat after this fashion. "You know my dear Maria, that Mr. Van Pelt has been long established in a sure and profitable business, has made a fortune and is soon on the point of retiring, whereas we are only beginning with a small capital. I can't conduct my business without borrowing money from the bank. When I borrow one hundred dollars from the bank, I pay them seven dollars a year for interest. Should we get a silver teapot, sugarbowl, milkpot, and tongs, they would cost three hundred dollars in twenty dollars per annum.—Now this money would buy you a good hat for summer, and a good hat for winter, and much rather would I look on thy lovely face, under a pretty hat, then to see you pouring tea from a silver teapot to wet the mouths of some envious neighbors, who might go home and laugh at what they would call our extravagance.

She smiled through tears of love and astonishment for never until that moment, had she heard that there was such an article in the world as "bank discount." She introduced her slender arms around his neck, a warm tear fell on his cheeks, and there we leave them. Their hearts knew its own blessedness. Let no stranger, nor cold blooded bachelor intermeddle with their joys. It is thus a woman should be led. She was never made to be driven.

The Horse: his Memory and Sagacity.

An aged and venerable friend, residing in one of the cities on our Eastern sea board, is a gentleman of character and worth, once related to me the following anecdote of the horse; illustrating in a remarkable manner, the sagacity and memory of this animal.

At the close of the Revolutionary war, when every thing was unsettled and in disorder, an acquaintance residing on the Boston road, some thirty or forty miles from New York, lost a valuable young horse, stolen from the stable in the night. Great search and inquiry were made for him, but no tidings of him could be heard, and no trace of him could ever be discovered.

Almost six full years had now elapsed, and the recollection even, of the lost animal, had nearly faded from the mind. At this period a gentleman from the East, in the course of business was traveling on horse back on this road, on his way to Philadelphia. When within four or five miles of a village on the road, the traveler was overtaken by a respectable looking gentleman on horseback, a resident of the village, returning home from a short business ride. Riding along side by side, they soon engaged in pleasant desultory conversation. The gentleman was immediately struck with the appearance of the traveler's horse. And every glance of the eye cast towards him, seemed to excite an interest and curiosity to look at him again, and to revive a recolection of something he had seen before; and soon established in his mind the impression, that for all the world he looked like the horse he had lost some six years ago. This soon became so irresistibly fixed in his mind, that he remarked to the traveler.

"You have a fine horse, sir."

"Yes," he replied, "an exceedingly valuable and excellent animal."

"What is his age, sir?"

"Well I suppose him to be about ten or eleven years old."

"You did not raise him then?"

"No, I purchased him of a stranger, a traveler, nearly six years since."

"Do you reside in this part of the country?"

"No, I reside in the Bay State, and am on my way to Philadelphia, on business. How far is it now to New York?"

"Well, sir, I really regret to interrupt you, or put you to inconvenience—but I am constrained to say, I believe you have in possession a horse that I must claim."

The traveler looked with surprise and amazement, and replied:

"What do you mean, sir?"

"I believe the horse you are on, in truth, belongs to me. Five years ago, the past autumn, a valuable young horse was stolen from my stable. Great search was made for him but no tidings of him ever came to hand. In color, appearance, and movements, it seems to me he was the exact counterpart of the horse you are on. It would be hardly possible I think, for two to be so near alike. But my horse was an uncommonly intelligent, sagacious animal. And I will make a proposition to you, that will place the matter in such a position, that the result will be conclusive, and satisfactory, I think, to both of us. We are now within a mile of my residence, which is on the road, in the centre of the village before us. When we arrive at my house, your horse shall be tied to the east post in front of my door.—The horse I am on, to the west post. After standing a short time, the bridle of your horse shall be taken off—and if he does not go to a pair of bars on the west side of the house, and pass over, and go round to the east side of the barn, and pull out a pin, and open the middle stable door and enter, I will not claim him. If he does I will furnish you conclusive evidence that he was bred by me, but never sold—that he was stolen from me just at the conclusion of the war, about the very time you say you purchased him."

The traveler assented to the trial. The horse was hitched to the post as proposed—stood a few minutes—the bridle was then taken off—he reared his head, pricked up his ears—looked up the street, then down the street, several times—then deliberately and slowly walked past the house and over the bars, and to the stable door as described, and with his teeth and lip drew out the pin, and opened the door, and entered into his old stall. We hardly need to add, he was recognised by the neighbors who fully attested to the facts as stated by the claimant, and that the traveler lost his title to the horse.—Rural Newspaper.

Snooks wants to know why there is always so much gold in "the hands of passengers" when ever a California steamer arrives? Why they don't put it in their pockets or their trunks, or patent safety-beln?

Luxuries soon cease to be sources of pleasure and become mere necessaries" the possession of which gives no enjoyment, but the privation of which is a positive pain.

The three balls usually prefixed to the shops of pawnbrokers are said to have their origin in "to owe three times as much as I am worth."

A Case of Dutch Justice.

It once happened in the good old town of Deerop, (now known as the city of Schenectady,) many years ago, when the great grandfathers of the present generation had not yet begun to think of breeches, that Myndert Van Bummel, in the sum of twenty dollars, being the amount of damage done to the corn. Now, Squire Van Shoebrein, was a good, honest kind of a man, but, like many a better one, couldn't find it in his heart to refuse a gift of lucre, though the course of justice was needed to balance the account. So, on the present occasion, Mynheer Van Kleek having transferred ten bright half dollars from his strong box to the worthy Squire, that there was much an article in the world as "bank discount." She introduced her slender arms around his neck, a warm tear fell on his cheeks, and there we leave them. Their hearts knew its own blessedness. Let no stranger, nor cold blooded bachelor intermeddle with their joys. It is thus a woman should be led. She was never made to be driven.

The Horse: his Memory and Sagacity.

An aged and venerable friend, residing in one of the cities on our Eastern sea board, is a gentleman of character and worth, once related to me the following anecdote of the horse; illustrating in a remarkable manner, the sagacity and memory of this animal.

At the close of the Revolutionary war, when every thing was unsettled and in disorder, an acquaintance residing on the Boston road, some thirty or forty miles from New York, lost a valuable young horse, stolen from the stable in the night. Great search and inquiry were made for him, but no tidings of him could be heard, and no trace of him could ever be discovered.

Almost six full years had now elapsed, and the recollection even, of the lost animal, had nearly faded from the mind. At this period a gentleman from the East, in the course of business was traveling on horse back on this road, on his way to Philadelphia. When within four or five miles of a village on the road, the traveler was overtaken by a respectable looking gentleman on horseback, a resident of the village, returning home from a short business ride. Riding along side by side, they soon engaged in pleasant desultory conversation. The gentleman was immediately struck with the appearance of the traveler's horse. And every glance of the eye cast towards him, seemed to excite an interest and curiosity to look at him again, and to revive a recolection of something he had seen before; and soon established in his mind the impression, that for all the world he looked like the horse he had lost some six years ago. This soon became so irresistibly fixed in his mind, that he remarked to the traveler.

"You have a fine horse, sir."

"Yes," he replied, "an exceedingly valuable and excellent animal."

"What is his age, sir?"

"Well I suppose him to be about ten or eleven years old."

"You did not raise him then?"

"No, I purchased him of a stranger, a traveler, nearly six years since."

"Do you reside in this part of the country?"

"No, I reside in the Bay State, and am on my way to Philadelphia, on business. How far is it now to New York?"

"Well, sir, I really regret to interrupt you, or put you to inconvenience—but I am constrained to say, I believe you have in possession a horse that I must claim."

The traveler looked with surprise and amazement, and replied:

"What do you mean, sir?"

"I believe the horse you are on, in truth, belongs to me. Five years ago, the past autumn, a valuable young horse was stolen from my stable. Great search was made for him but no tidings of him ever came to hand. In color, appearance, and movements, it seems to me he was the exact counterpart of the horse you are on. It would be hardly possible I think, for two to be so near alike. But my horse was an uncommonly intelligent, sagacious animal. And I will make a proposition to you, that will place the matter in such a position, that the result will be conclusive, and satisfactory, I think, to both of us. We are now within a mile of my residence, which is on the road, in the centre of the village before us. When we arrive at my house, your horse shall be tied to the east post in front of my door.—The horse I am on, to the west post. After standing a short time, the bridle of your horse shall be taken off—and if he does not go to a pair of bars on the west side of the house, and pass over, and go round to the east side of the barn, and pull out a pin, and open the middle stable door and enter, I will not claim him. If he does I will furnish you conclusive evidence that he was bred by me, but never sold—that he was stolen from me just at the conclusion of the war, about the very time you say you purchased him."

The traveler assented to the trial. The horse was hitched to the post as proposed—stood a few minutes—the bridle was then taken off—he reared his head, pricked up his ears—looked up the street, then down the street, several times—then deliberately and slowly walked past the house and over the bars, and to the stable door as described, and with his teeth and lip drew out the pin, and opened the door, and entered into his old stall. We hardly need to add, he was recognised by the neighbors who fully attested to the facts as stated by the claimant, and that he traveler lost his title to the horse.—Rural Newspaper.

Extract from Proceedings of Board of Freeholders.

Continued from page 197.

Plainfield, May 4th, 1858.

The Board met pursuant to adjournment.

Present—Messrs. Cushing, Dunham, Force, Hall, Hetfield, Hubbard, Manning, Mathews, Randolph, Runyon, Smalley, Stelle, Stillman, Terrill, Thompson, Vail, Van Cleef, Van Doren, Van Fleet, Van Horn, Van Nest, Van Pelt, Van Wagenen, Vanderbeek, Vanderveer, Wilson, Wood, Woodruff, Wyckoff.

The Board proceeded to examine the bridges and roads in the Borough of Elizabeth, and crossed the bridge at the foot of Broad street, and crossed a branch of the Elizabeth river, over which flows past the Addison Academy.

Below this bridge the road proceeds in a course alongside of another street called Bridge-st running at right angles with Water-st. For the distance of about two hundred feet, and then empties into Elizabeth river. In this part of its course, it flows through a ditch which is now gradually formed by the artificial elevation of the road on each side, caused by the filling up of Bridge-st to a grade higher than the natural surface, as well as by the filling up of the adjoining lots.

Some years ago, the state of this ditch requiring that it should be covered in order to prevent the wall of earth and stones on each side from caving in and causing obstructions to the water, and also in order to make the passage along Bridge-st, more safe for passengers and teams, the Board of Freeholders of the County, on application from the Borough, defrayed the expense of covering the said ditch with stone flagging, and thus converting it into a sewer. The improvements introduced on the grading of various streets in Elizabethtown in late years have gradually increased the volume of water in the brook until at length it has been too great for free passage through the sewer in times of rain and other accumulations of water; and hence it has become necessary to enlarge and re-construct the sewer. The bridge in Water-st is sufficiently capacious for the passage of the water underneath the same, provided it can flow on without obstruction from thence to the river. These are the facts of the case as reported to me by a Committee of the Board of Freeholders charged with the investigation of the case.

The Borough of Elizabeth now calls on the Board of Freeholders to enlarge and re-construct this sewer at the expense of the County and the Board desire my opinion whether or not it is a County charge, belonging to the Board to execute.

OPINION.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, represents the County, and is a corporate body, constituted of members elected by the different townships. It is the office and duty of this Board to execute and carry out all those public duties and obligations which by the common law, or by statute, are imposed on or to be borne by the County at large. The County acts through the Board of Freeholders, in this State, as in England, the Counties there acted through the Justices at their sessions. 3 Harr. Rep. 113.

By the common law the burden of building, sustaining and repairing the necessary public bridges within the County, lay on the County at large; whilst the repair of highways was the duty of the parish;—unless some private person or corporation were charged with the repair of some particular bridge or highway in consequence of some consideration received, or supposed to have been received therefor. Lord Coke, in 2d Inst. 700, 701, after specifying the manner in which private parties might be bound to the repair of bridges, says: "But admit that at all were bounden to the reparation of the bridge, how then? and by whom should it be repaired, by the common law? The answer is, that the whole County, that is, the inhabitants of the County or Shire, wherein the bridge is, shall repair the same; for, of common right the whole County must repair it, because it is for the common good and ease of the whole County." And as to highways, Blackstone, (Vol. 1, page 357) says: "Every parish is bound of common right to keep the high roads that go through it in good and sufficient repair, unless by reason of tenure of land or otherwise, this care is consigned to some particular person." Having no parishes in this State, the repair of highways falls upon our townships.

Thus, then, it is the general duty of the county, by the common law, to sustain and repair all public bridges except those ill e constructed and repair of which belongs, as in the case of canal bridges, for example over the Morris canal, to some private person or corporation.

But at common law the County could not be compelled to make a new bridge, where there was any bridge; but application must be made to the legislature. 2 Inst. 701. This feature of the law is of course, unsuited to a new country like ours, where new bridges are constantly required as new roads are laid out. Hence the Board of Freeholders have full power to erect new bridges where none were before.

This power is implied by the first section of our statute relating to bridges (Rev. Stat. 525.), which gives to the Board authority to consider and decide upon the valuity and necessity of "erecting," as well as re-building and repairing bridges.

Such being the general powers and duties of the Board of Freeholders, the next inquiry is, what incidental powers does the Board possess in order to enable it to carry out its general powers, and what incidents duties arise therefrom.

It has been held by our Supreme Court in the case of Sussex Board of Freeholders, 1 Green's 3 Harrison's Reports, 103, that the duty of building and repairing bridges, to which the County is subject, extends not only to the construction and repair of the bridge proper and its abutments, but includes the filling of it up at its ends so far as is necessary to make it a convenient and safe passage way for the public; so that the traveller may conveniently reach the main part of the bridge from the highway. 3 Harr. 112, 113.

It is also laid down in 1 Hawkin's Pleas of the Crown, Book 1, chapter 77, section 1, as clear law, that those who are bound to repair bridges, must make them of such height and strength as shall be answerable to the course of the water, and of such breadth as the highway requires, and that is now one; and that they are not chargeable as trespassers, for entering on any adjoining land for such purposes, as for taking such timber and materials requisite for such repairs. That is to say, the law looks upon the repairing of bridges, as which are necessary to fill and keep up the road between all parts of the country, as one of the public improvements, that those who have to that duty in charge, are privileged to make a temporary Ordered by the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, that the foregoing Report be published in the Plainfield Union, and that the Clerk of the Board procure the publication thereof.

A true copy of the Report and Order.

Attest, JOHN F. RANDOLPH, Clerk.

THE UNION.

Plainfield, N. J. June 21, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized agent, and is entitled to receive subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

The Whig National Convention.

On Wednesday, the city of Baltimore was crowded to its utmost capacity, and much excitement prevailed through the week. At noon, the Convention was temporarily organized by selecting Hon. George Evans, as chairman.

A committee to nominate permanent officers, and one on credentials were appointed.

The former committee reported, and John G. Chapman, of Md. was chosen President, with a Vice President from each state, secretaries, &c.

Thursday, a committee of 1 from each State was appointed to make a platform.

Friday. The committee on credentials reported, rejecting most of the Scott Delegates whose seats were disputed, and the report agreed to.

The committee reported a series of resolutions as the principles of the convention: In favor of State Rights; in favor of Washington's policy of non-intervention in foreign affairs; a revenue tariff incidentally protective; improvement of rivers and harbors; and in favor of the Compromise measures. This platform was adopted by the convention, 164 to 117.

Six ballotings then took place, as follows:

	1	2	3	4	5	6
Fillmore,	133	131	131	130	133	131
Scott,	131	133	133	134	130	133
Webster,	29	29	29	29	30	29

On Saturday, between 10 and 2 o'clock, 25 more ballottings were taken, with a similar result: Fillmore ranging from 128 to 133; Scott from 130 to 135; Webster from 28 to 31. 149 is necessary to a choice.

We have nothing later as we go to press.

LARGE STRAWBERRIES.—Dr. Stillman sent us yesterday a bowl of strawberries picked from his garden, the largest we have seen in any quantity. The largest was 4 inches in circumference.

Mr. Oliver Runyon gave us some, one of which was 4 1-4 inches in circumference.

This large fine fruit can be raised with very little expense or trouble, and should be found in every garden.

☞ We call the attention of our readers this week to the very able and convincing legal opinion furnished by Mr. Bradley of Newark, to the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Essex at their request, and, by them, directed to be published in five newspapers of the county. Mr. B's argument seems to us entirely conclusive; and we think the learning and ability displayed in it justly entitle his legal opinions to the confidence they command.

The Presbyterian Church at Boundbrook having been enlarged and remodelled, will be opened for worship on Thursday of this week, at 11 o'clock, A. M. Rev. Dr. Magie, of Elizabethtown is expected to preach on the occasion.

Congress.

In Senate, on Tuesday, a resolution directing the construction of a war steamer for harbor defences, was ordered to be engrossed.

On Tuesday, the House adjourned to Friday, to attend the convention ot Baltimore.

The Connecticut Legislature (House) rejected the Maine Liquor Law, last Thursday, by a vote of 114 to 105.

Summer got fairly started last week—hot enough all at once, after a late cold spring. But little news was stirring, except from the Baltimore Convention, and that did not amount to much during its progress, as "large bodies move slow." Besides, we have been favored with an unusual amount of advertising, including the long opinion on bridges, &c., published by order of the Board of Freeholders, with three or four other long advertisements. The consequence of all the above is that some may not find the paper as interesting as usual.

The Cholera appeared at Dubuque, Iowa, on Saturday morning, 5th inst. and swept off 18 or 20 in 2 days. No new cases on the third day. The disease was mostly confined to the part bordering on the Mississippi and which has been partially overflowed.

The Indiana Sentinel of the 10th inst. says: "A number of deaths have occurred recently in the north part of Posey County, from cholera. A German family had all died of this disease.

Boston, June 19th,

Brewer, the Suffolk Bank defaulter, has been sentenced to 10 years imprisonment in the State Prison, and one day solitary confinement.

Fire in South Orange. The house of David Tompkins, formerly the residence of Judge Lindsley was entirely consumed Friday morning between 1 and 2 o'clock. Part of the family barely escaped through the windows. Insured for $700 in the Essex Co. Mutual.

The amazing endorsal of every thing by the Democratic Convention in its Platform, is made the foundation of a capital hit. "You cover a great deal in your resolutions," said a gentleman at Washington to a returning Delegate. "Yes," said the chap, "we would have backed up Christianity as well as other things, but we had a few on the Platform Committee, and he staved it off."

Some of the Boston ship owners have sent a challenge to those of Great Britain, to decide which of the two parties can obtain the highest rate of speed from the same entire company of model, the winning party to receive £10,000.

Whatever any one may think of the Cotton Bill, it is certainly entitled to a reading. The Board of Freeholders have been in the habit of constructing passages or drains to carry off the water from the gutters on each side of the street to fall into the water courses under the bridge. Without doubt this is right. The construction of a bridge across the whole street would then of this system be very proper, and the owners themselves ought to provide a remedy to obviate any such injurious effect upon their property.

If it were happy to adopt a road in the middle of the street, with a level road of gravel on each side of water accumulate along in seasons of rainy weather on one side or both of the raised road; and little stations across the road are then rendered necessary for the escape of the water.

The Board of Freeholders has refused to pay the expenses of these stations. In this they were certainly right. They are not made for the purpose of bridges. They are made for the purpose of drainage. They are made for the township or road district to take care of. This is not the first time we have spoken already and that no further comment on the subject be necessary.

I have been asked to give my opinion on which my opinion has been requested; and perhaps I have written more than I had better give a full exposition of the various points in such a way as to enable those whose duties it is to act to do so with safety, and to understand not only what the law is, but also the grounds and reasons of that law. JOSEPH P. BRADLEY.

Newark, October 17, 1851.

The Trenton Gazette says that the assessments in that place will be about $400,000 less this year than formerly, on account of the separation of the present tax laws. Under-valuations of property are given in, and large quantities of capital have been removed from the State to avoid taxation. This has been done even by those who were influential in having the tax law passed.

The Nantucket Mirror says there are some prospects of a return of the scenes of the early period of whaling, when vessels were fitted out for a few days or weeks to capture whales on the coast. Whales are unusually plenty all along shore this season. About a week ago, three were seen from Siasconnet, several have been taken from Martha's Vineyard, and 5 have been caught off Southampton, Long Island.

Eggs sent from New Orleans to Europe.—100 barrels of eggs were shipped from New Orleans, the Delta says, by the Empire City, on her last trip to New York. This is a curious fact in the history of the trade of that city. Cincinnati eggs to New Orleans, 1500 miles, over the Gulf of Mexico, and up the Atlantic, 1500 more to New York, thence to be shipped three thousand miles further to Europe, constitutes one of the wonders of modern commerce. Such a voyage was hardly contemplated by the respectable hens of Ohio, when they cackled so proudly over their produce in that line.

For several weeks past a challenge has appeared in Bell's life, "none accepting it," to the effect that a member of one of the leading Clubs in London will back a young lady for from £2,000 to £5,000, to ride with any other young lady in England, either on turnpike road, against time, on a course, or after the hounds.

Potatoes.—The Boston Herald says the planting season is over, and a vast stock of old potatoes remain on hand. They may be bought now, in that city at from thirty-five to forty cents a bushel.

It is reported that the quantity of oysters now planted in the waters of New Haven harbor, is 500,000 bushels. Estimating 200 oysters to the bushel, would give one hundred millions of oysters.

The Sabbath.—The Marshal of Indianapolis, Ia., has given the barbers to understand that, hereafter, Sunday shaving will not be tolerated. Druggists are required to restrict their sales on the Sabbath to articles of necessity; and keepers of livery stables are enjoined not to hire horses or carriages for trips of noisy pleasure.

Pilot Knob—In Madison county, Missouri is 700 feet high, and from the elevation of 500 feet to the summit is a naked body of iron ore, free of earth and stone, singularly traversed and inter-laced by cracks or veins, as if in a freak of nature to facilitate the quarrying and removing of the treasure. The property is owned and worked by a joint-stock company, whose possessions extend to 15,000 acres of land.

Curious Well.—There is an Artesian well at a cotton factory in Dallas county, Alabama, which is 710 feet 10 inches in depth, and which discharges 600 gallons of water per minute, or 864,000 gallons in 24 hours—exceeding any well in America. The water flows out with such force that if pieces of stone as large as an egg, or a half dollar, are thrown in, they are immediately ejected. The sand, gravel, &c., made by the augur, are also forced out by the water, which is perfectly clear, limpid, and pleasant to the taste. The diameter of the well is a little over six inches.

Portland, in Oregon, has 20,000 inhabitants. There are four weekly papers and one magazine published there.

The clipper ship Challenge arrived at San Francisco, May, in 33 days from Hong Kong—the quickest trip on record.

Quick Passage.—The clipper barque Flash, built at Newburyport recently, arrived at Vera Cruz, from New York, in a passage of 11 days, which is nearly equal to a voyage by steam

BAD FOR BENEDICTS.—Out of a 100 bachelors, only 41 reach the age of 40 years. Of the same number of married men, 78 reach that age

Tough Story of a Tough Goose.—The Dutchman says: "A Long Island Farmer sold a goose in Washington market, last week, supposed to be over 50 years old. It was a pet of his maiden aunt, to whom it was presented when she was a little girl. She died last February, aged 61 years."

Murillo's celebrated painting, "Conception of the Virgin," sold lately in Paris, for the enormous sum of $117,000!

Beware of men who chew cloves and cinnamon to disguise their breath. It's very suspicious.

The Rich and the poor.—The rich have the most meat, but the poor have the best appetite. The rich have the most wine, but the poor sleep the soundest. The rich have the best bed to die upon, but the poor have the best health. The rich have the most medicine through fear of poverty, but men who have always been poor, laugh and sing, and love their wives and children too well to put their necks into the noose.

"Madame," said old Roger to his boarding house keeper, "in primitive countries, beef is often the legal tender; but madam," said he, emphatically, thrusting his fork into the steak, "all the law in Christendom could not make this beef tender."

A barrel of pop-corn carried in Tuesday, on Wednesday, during many the hands of a widow, and slightly killing two boys who were sitting on it.

"Money makes the mare go," as when you see a mare that won't go, you may set it down as a fact that the driver has no money.

The Cunard steamer Europa arrived on Wednesday evening, with 3 days' still later news.

No material change in the markets. Money plenty, and business active and prosperous over the continent.

The crops in England were luxuriant.

Emigration to Australia was very active

The authorities at Hobart Town offer a reward of £2 for the apprehension of Meagher, the Irish patriot now in New York! They re not very anxious to catch him, it seems.

A consignment of charcoal has been received at Liverpool from Nova Scotia, the first importation of the kind.

France.—Convicts continue to be sent off to Cayenne.

The Kaffir war at the Cape of Good Hope is reported nearly or quite finished.

India.—The fall of Rangoon and Martabran and the capture of 150 pieces of cannon by the British is announced. Martabran was stormed and taken after a conflict of 4 or 5 hours. The Burmese garrison was 3000 strong. Rangoon was next taken after a heavy cannonading and shelling. The Burmese also suffered a heavy loss by the explosion of their powder magazine, by a shell. Several officers and men died from the excessive heat alone. The British loss was but about 150, while that of the Burmese was great. Cholera subsequently broke out among the British.

From the Northwest frontier of India advices are less satisfactory to the British. The revolted Hill tribes keep up a harassing warfare with the outposts.

The Asia sailed for Liverpool on Wednesday noon, with 157 passengers and $923,000 in specie, of which $117,000 was in silver.

The N. Y. Supreme Court have decided that the American Art Union is unconstitutional and illegal, being a Lottery. The Union will carry the question before the Court of Appeals. If the judgment of the Sup. Court is affirmed, their property will be confiscated to the city Alms House Department.

The Great Carpet Establishment, No. 99 Bowery, New York.—If the ladies about visiting the Great Metropolis and intend purchasing Carpets, Oil Cloths, &c. wish to examine an extensive and splendid assortment, let them visit the great Carpet Establishment of Hiram Anderson, No. 99 Bowery, and there walk through the Eight Spacious Sales Rooms. In each department are displayed on every side the choicest productions of our native as well as foreign looms, as also a large collection of rich and beautiful Axminster Rugs, an infinite variety of most brilliant Floor Oil Cloths, from 1 to 8 yds wide; an immense stock of Window Shades from $1 to $10 per pair. Table and Piano Covers, Mats, Matting, Druggets, stair Carpeting, &c.

The vast amount of sales made at this establishment, enables the proprietor to sell at a very low rate of profits, and hence it is that he offers good quality of all wool Ingrain Carpeting for 50 cts. per yard; English 8 ply carpets from eighty one cents to $1 per yard; English Exhibition Tapestry Brussels Carpets $1, $1.12, $1.25 per yard; also good Floor Oil Cloths, only 31 cts. 1 to 2 yards wide.

We believe it to be an undoubted fact that Mr. Anderson buys his goods exclusively for cash and sells them at a rare remunerative price. Those magnificent tapestry 8 ply and patent tapestry Ingrain Carpets, are entirely new style of carpeting introduced by Mr. Anderson and exhibited at the World's Fair, are a great curiosity.

Spring and Summer Dry Goods.

One of the best assortments of thin Summer Goods for ladies' wear in New York, may be found at Hitchcock & Leadbeater's, No. 347 Broadway, corner of Leonard st.—The proprietors of this establishment give their whole attention to the retail trade, one of them being constantly in the market, and everything that is really desirable and cheap they are sure to select, and consequently are enabled at all times to offer their customers the newest and best styles of the season, and always a little lower than at any other establishment. Their advertisement in another column sets forth attractions to the ladies in goods suitable for the present warm season, and one look through their stock will satisfy any lady that they have everything she can desire for her wardrobe, or for family use.

A SENSIBLE LANDLORD.—A little incident transpired some weeks ago at one of our Frankfort, Ky., hotels, which under the present temperance excitement is not unworthy of notice. The names of the parties we shall withhold from the public for shame sake:

A little girl entered the tavern, and in pitiful tones told the keeper that her mother had sent her there to get eight cents.

"Eight cents," said the tavern keeper.

"What does your mother want with eight cents? I don't owe her anything."

"Well," said the child, 'father spends all his money here for rum, and we have had nothing to eat to-day. Mother wants to buy a loaf of bread."

A loafer remarked to the tavern keeper to "kick out that brat."

"No," said the keeper, "I will give her the money, and if the father comes here again, I'll kick him out."

A Frenchman's Yankee.—A French traveler in the United States sends the following unflattering sketch to a French journal: "Picture to yourself, if you please, a lean figure, with bony wrists; feet with dimensions that would forever tarnish the escutcheon of a gentleman; a hat stuck upon the back of the head; straight hair; a cheek swollen, not by an accidental cold, but from morning till night, by a lump of tobacco; lips stained yellow by the juice of the same weed; a black coat, with narrow skirts; a rumpled shirt; the gloves of a gendarme; trousers in harmony with the rest of the equipment, and you have before you the exact portrait of a thorough-bred Yankee."

When a man's conscience begins to get hard, it does so faster than any thing in nature. It is like the boiling of an egg; it is very clear at first, but as soon as it gets cloudy, one minute more and you may cut it with a knife.

Two and Two.—Piron, the French author, was questioned by a haughty police magistrate concerning his profession. "I am a poet, sir," said Piron. "Oh, a poet," said the magistrate; "I have a brother who is a poet." "Then we are even," said Piron, "for I have a brother who is a fool."

New York Prime Cotton, corrected weekly.

Orleans, Fair,	$3,62 to 4,12
Do. Good,	3,19 to 3,25
Do. Mobile,	3,19 to 3,25
Upland, Short Wool,	1,00 to 1,12
Do. Long Wool,	75 to 77
Do. Seed,	62 to 65
Do. Nats, Jersey,	40 to 42

Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.—This celebrated medicine is one of the very best in the country, and its good qualities only need to be known, to give it precedence over all others now in use. We have seen its good effects lately after the total failure of many others. This is saying more than we can for any other medicine within our knowledge, and we felt it a duty to recommend the Bitters to the notice of our friends. The genuine is prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Phila.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Camphor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

INCREDULITY ANNIHILATED!

The accumulated autographs of hundreds of Physicians, Professors, members of the bar, judges, merchants, &c., now in the possession of the proprietors of Dr. Rogers' Syrup of Liverwort, Tar and Canchalagua, proclaim, trumpet-tongued, the priceless value of this medicine, as rapid and radical cure for Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Bronchitis, and all Pulmonary and Hepatic Diseases. Copies of a portion of this voluminous correspondence will be found in the pamphlet kept for distribution by the Agents, and the facts, proofs, and reasoning are commended to the serious attention of all who think.

CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on the outer wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. L. SCOVILL & CO.

For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Jothic Hall, 316 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.

Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

PRICE—In large bottles, $1.00, or 6 bottles for $5.00.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

Wm. Vail, Esq. New Market, $5,00; Theodore Vail, do. ,75; Jas. T. Dunn, New Brooklyn, 2,50; James Leonard, 2,00; Voorhees Randolph, 1,34; Nathaniel Compton, 1,00; J. T. Barton, Union Village, ,75; Danl. C. Shotwell, Greenbrook, ,75; John Stites, ,75; O. C. Pierce, Philadelphia, 7,50; Randolph Runyon, 2,00; Wm. Estelle, 2,00; Wm. Sutton, 2,00; Joel Gamberton, ,72; Wm. Stine, 2,50.

MARRIED,

At Newark, on Wednesday morning, 16th inst. by Rev. Jonathan F. Stearns, D. D., Elisha W. Goble to Henrietta M., daughter of Benjamin Olds, Esq. all of Newark.

In Somerville, on Monday morning, 14th inst. by Rev. Dr. Messler, Mr. Elijah K. Smith, of Elizabethport, to Miss Harriet C., eldest daughter of Mr. Job Squier, of Somerville, formerly of Plainfield.

DIED.

In this place on the 10th inst. Mary, daughter of Levi Hetfield, aged 9 years.

Corrected.—In this place, on the 9th inst. widow Jemima Jobs, aged near 70 years.

12 South Down Sheep

AND FOUR LAMBS, For Sale by the Subscribor. on his Farm, near Plainfield.

June 21, 1852. EDWARD ROACH.

Farms For Sale, or Exchange for a place in the vicinity of Plainfield.

A Improved Farms of 211 acres of best quality Land on the S. W. side of Illinois river, with a House and Barn: fine situation, and a part under cultivation, being 16 miles west of the present termination of the Illinois and Michigan Canal, which will be extended west and run within 5 miles of said farm. Aurora is a thriving place on Fox River containing a population of over 3000.

Also, an unimproved farm of 128 acres lying 6 miles north of Aurora, which is well adapted for a good farm. The neighborhood is well settled.

Also 160 acres of land unimproved, situated on Third Lake, near the City of Madison, the capital of Wisconsin, being only 4 miles distant. For further information apply to the subscriber, opposite the residence of R. V. D. Whitehead. JOHN J. WALLIS.

Plainfield, June 21, 1852 -3w

Sheriff's Sale.

N. J. Sup. Court, Essex. Fi. Fa. for sale, &c.

John Potter vs. Samuel D. Pierson.

By virtue of the above stated writ of Fieri Facias to me directed, I shall expose for sale at Public Vendue, at the Court House in the city of Newark, on Friday, the 23d day of July next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. all the estate, right, title, and interest of the defendant at and to all those tracts or parcels of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being in the township of Westfield, Essex co. N. J. viz.

The 1st, Beginning at a stake standing in the line of the line of the S. W. end of Jonas Williams lot, and the northernmost corner of Epiram Williams, from thence with Jonas Williams line and is bounding thereon S. 50 deg. W. 11 chains 10 links to a stake in Moses DeCamp's line; thence with it and bounding thereon S. 40 deg. 48 min. W. 2 ch. 94 links to John Tucker's corner, thence with his line and bounding thereon N. 50 deg. W. 11 ch. 10 links to another of said Tucker's corners and binding on said Tucker, thence still with said Tucker's land and binding thereon N. 40 deg. E. 3 ch. W. 5 ch. 92 links to another of said Tucker's corners, thence S. 49 deg. E. 3 ch. 60 links to E. Williams' line binding on the residence of the said Samuel D. Pierson and binding thereon, running S. 50 deg. E. 8 chains 33 links to the place of beginning, containing 6 acres, more or less.

The 2d, Beginning at an old oak stump which is the corner of said Sabin's land and James Bell's land, and running S. 49 1-2 deg. E. 35 links to a stake, thence S. 1 ch. 70 links to a stone, thence S. 82 1-2 deg. W. 2 ch. 47 links to a stone in Stephen Sylvanus Pierson's residence and Elizabeth Bell's land, thence N 43 1-2 deg. E. to the place of beginning, containing 1 acre.

The 3d, Beginning on the main road from Elizabethtown to Plainfield, between Sylvanus Pierson's residence and Elizabeth Bell's land, and running thence (1) along the side of the lot 50 feet front and rear by 150 feet deep, it being the house shed lot William Hayes occupied a number of years.

(2) 50 feet south, Beginning at a stone in the S.W. corner and in the side of the road leading from Westfield to Scotch Plains, and at the entrance of the road leading to Bethel Church, and running thence (1) along the side of the said road 6 ch. 22 links to a stake in the side of said road, thence N. 41 deg. E. and binding on said Pierson's line 17 ch. 60 1-2 links to a stake in the side of said Jones' road, thence N. 41 deg. W. binding on said Quimby's 6 ch. 25 links to a stake by the side of the road that leads from Bethel Church to Rahway Plains, thence S. 49 deg. W. binding on said road, 15 ch. 8 1-2 links, to the place of beginning, containing 10 1-2 acres by estimation, excepting therefrom the lots heretofore from 1 to 11, also the following lots 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, and 28, and a triangular piece of land N. of the railroad, as by reference to a map filed in the clerk's office of the county of Essex will more fully appear. W. PIERSON.

Newark, June 21, 1852. Sheriff.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any thing we can sell, or do anything with, taken in exchange for goods. L. S. DUNHAM & CO.

Hoover's Black Ink.

THE Best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

Administrator's sale.

THE Subscriber, Administrator of the Estate of ABRAHAM PARKER, deceased, will sell at Public Sale, on Second Day (Monday) the 12th day of July next, at 2 o'clock P. M. on the premises, the Real Estate belonging to said deceased, viz: one Two-story House with Lot and Garden, situated on the east corner of Second and New Streets, in Plainfield, N. J.

Any information that may be required in reference to said property, will be cheerfully furnished by calling on the subscriber, or Smith W. Parker, on the premises.

SALE POSITIVE. ZACHARIAH WEBSTER.

Plainfield, May 6, 1852. Administrator

1852.

SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S.

WE would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have received, and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not make up our Goods with a view of trying to make the people believe them to be what they are not, but intend that their style and quality shall speak for themselves. We Lalaee from 12cts to 4s, 6 inches; Rivage de Lalines new styles from 12½ to 2s. ; plain and watered Poplin Silks from 3s. to 10s. per yard ; Prints any variety from 4 to 14 cts ; a good lot of Lad'es' Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings; also Gents' Bleached and Brown Muslins very cheap, Ginghams from 10 cts. to 28, and more than a thousand other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloth, plain and fancy Cassimers, a first rate assortment of Vestings any or all of which can be cut and made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Gents furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods from the

Plainest and Cheapest

to the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it an object to Cash purchasers from 4 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we are entirely in the Dry Goods trade and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

Silks! Silks!! Silks!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also, some Plaids new Spring Styles to which the attention of Ladies is particularly requested, at ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

May 3d, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Sto. o.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Cory's building, in Front Street, in Cherry st., 2nd door Dr. Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the vicinity of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting in part of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns DeLaines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds. A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Colonades, Nankeens plain and fancy.

GROCERIES.

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, Crush Loaf, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders, Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Peaches, by the piece.

Hollow and Wooden Ware,

Tubs, Baskets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, whisk shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.

LIME, Rhode Island and Glens Falls.

Also, All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods. JAMES M. DUNN.

April 20, 1852.—1y.

House and Lots for Sale.

Situated on the corner of Fifth and Centre Streets, the house is nearly new, filled in with brick, five rooms on first floor, six on second, with garret and cellar—suit rooms of different kinds, and a never failing well of water. Said premises is well located for private residence. For particulars apply to WILLIAM SUTTON.

Plainfield, Feb. 24th, 1852.

Lawrence's Gallery,

203 Broadway, 3 doors below Fulton-STREET, NEW YORK.

THE proprietor having fitted his establishment expressly for Daguerreotypes, with a view to obviate many of the difficulties that surround the Daguerrian Artist, has found after a trial of two years, that his expectations have been fully realized. The requisite degree of light is new, and produces uniformly soft and bold pictures, with the middle, or neutral tints, so long looked for by artists. One of the rooms is fitted and with particular reference to taking Family and other groups. Fifty persons can be taken with great facility. The Operating Department is conducted by persons of great experience and skill, and none but good likenesses will be sent out. Mr. L. has been the first to produce Daguerreotypes the size of life. They are produced with a degree of accuracy and delicacy of flesh tints never before equaled, producing a Picture having all the softness and delicacy of the finest Miniature.—Full instructions how to sit and plates for the most accuracy. Children of all ages taken in any kind of weather no detriment to taking good pictures. The public of Plainfield and vicinity are invited to visit the Rooms, and examine for themselves.

THE FIRST PREMIUM, a PRIZE MEDAL, was awarded to Mr. Lawrence, at the World's Fair in London, for the BEST Daguerreotypes. Enough said.

April 20th, 1852.—3m. M. M. LAWRENCE.

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John H. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite Frewen & Miller's Carriage Factory, is now ready to accommodate the people of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE, SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be pleased to see his old customers, and show them a good assortment of goods in his line. He also

Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute all orders in all the branches of his business, as well, acquaint and others that he can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge for yourselves.

May 17, 1852.—tf

A CHOICE ASSORTMENT OF

GARDEN, FIELD and FLOWER SEEDS,

—WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.—

WILLIAM CAIRNS

INFORMS his friends and the public that he has succeeded Mr. John Eadie, in the Seed Store, 141 Maiden-lane, New-York.

Mr. C. begs to say that his long experience in the Seed business, and the facilities he has for procuring the best quality of SEEDS grown in this country and in Europe, coupled with punctuality and strict attention to business, will secure to him a liberal share of public patronage.

W. C. has in his stock of new seed for the season, to which he would call the attention of purchasers.

Catalogues forwarded to postpaid applications.

Greenhouse Plants, Fruit, Ornamental Trees, &c. furnished to order. New York reference by unknown correspondents.

N. B.—Jobbing punctually attended to by the day, month or year, by practical men.

May 3d, 1852.—2m.

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant.

Sanative Pills.

Jayne's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters do. Dysentery Drops. These drops are an agreeable, effectual remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholic, Cramps, pains in the stomach or Bowels. Jayne's Spinal Liniment for the spine disease. Also, Hunt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by

JAMES M. DUNN.

April 20, 1852.

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Square and Round Seat, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, and Children's Chairs.

Work and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel do.

March 27, 1852. D. BULLMAN.

JOHN JELLIFF'S OLD ESTABLISHED

501 & 503 Broad Street, Newark,

Great Improvements in his Store—New Spring Goods.

Mr. J. having refitted and enlarged his Warerooms is happy to say he is now ready to show his friends and customers and all in the pursuit of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, to call and look through. Having catered to the wants, convenience, and luxury of Essex county in the way of Cabinet Furniture, and his wares having received satisfactory testimony that time, the test of merit, he is happy to say he is not surpassed by any of his goods. They speak for themselves, in the enjoying comforts and the solid utility universally accepted them. He would invite attention to his

For the last Sixteen Years,

NEW SPRING STYLES,

And, without enumerating, to be satisfied in the Easy Lazies Rooms outside the Parlor, Dining, Chamber, Library, Hall and Kitchen Furniture.

The same can be found in the Rooms, and the beauties of design and neatness of execution, he challenges competition. They are got up in the most approved

ANCIENT AND MODERN STYLES,

Comprising all the varieties of every day wants, in suites or otherwise, of Parlor, Chamber, Library, Sitting and Dining Rooms, and Kitchen Furniture usually called for, Bedding, Mattresses, Palliasters, and Cushions of all descriptions.

Churches, Hotels, Saloons, Halls, Counting Houses, Offices, &c. &c. furnished at short notice.

Cheap, Cheaper, Very Cheap Furniture!!

One necessity of going to New York or Boston Shops for cheap Furniture, as I will sell you the same goods just as cheap, and you will be saved the expense of carriage, freight, breakage, and trouble of going after it.

A Large Stock of Spring-Seat Chairs Rockers.

Sofas within $20; Mahogany Chairs $2.50; Cane seats, 88 cts. ; common do, 44 cts. ; Card Tables $7; Bedsteads $2; Tea Tables $2 each; Looking Glasses at all prices. Every thing else in the same proportion.

JOHN JELLIFF, 501 and 503 Broad st.

May 3, 1852.—2m. NEWARK, N. J.

Furniture and Chair WAREHOUSE,

W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS,

199 Market-st., Newark, N. J.

(A few Doors West of Broad.)

WE invite the attention of our friends and the citizens of Elizabethtown, Plainfield, Rahway, as well as the surrounding country, to the largest, best and cheapest assorting quality of goods manufactured, cheapest assortment of Furniture Chairs, Mattresses, &c. ever offered in this State, a fact of which all may fully satisfy themselves by calling and looking with a will. Our stock consists of all the various styles of Parlor, Dining room Bed-room, Library, Hall and Kitchen Furniture, viz: Sofas, Tete a Tetes, Divans, Ottomans; Mahogany and marble top Centre Tables, Side Tables, Card Tables, 1 say Arm and Rocking Chairs, Parlor Chairs, Italian Rush Seat do. &c.

Bureaus, Secretaries, Writing Desks and Secretary's reading Tables, Dressing Bureaus, French and Cottage Bedsteads, plain do., Inclosed and Plain Washstands, &c. &c.; also about 40 dozen Walnut and Maple Cane seat chairs of our own manufacture, and warranted superior to anything of the price.

Mattresses of Curled Hair, Husk, Moss and Straw. We have also, large stock of Cots, Cribs and Furniture which we will sell at New York prices, and save you the trouble, time, freight, risk, &c., which is attendant on purchasing in New York.

Persons residing within six or seven miles of Newark, who purchase furniture of us, can have their furniture delivered at their residences free of charge, on purchases to the amount of $25 or over, as we have a furniture wagon expressly for that purpose, so that we are responsible for our wares until they are safely lodged in your own residences. We do this in order to induce purchasers to stem at Newark instead of going to New York. Don't forget the number, 199 Market-st., Newark, N. J. W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS.

April 20, 1852.—3m.

FIRST PREMIUM MILLINERY Establishment and STRAW BONNET Manufactory, 351 Broadway, near Niblo's Garden, New York. Mrs. Wm. SIMMONS respectfully announces to her numerous patrons and the public that she is now prepared to exhibit at the Store Rooms a splendid assortment of Millinery and Straw Bonnets, made of her own Manufacture, in which are combined all the modern improvements, latest styles and fashions, together with magnificent collections of the richest Flowers, Ribbons for diversity of patterns, colors and beauty of finish, transcends immeasurably all former importations. Also, a large and interesting invoice of Lace Strawa, Bonnets, Hats, Caps, Bandeaus and Trimmings of Parisian and Millaners supplied with pattern Bonnets.

Mrs. W. M. SIMMONS, 351 Broadway,

April 20, 1852.—3m. New York.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the new stand on Somerset-st., next to the corner of Front street, formerly Frenchs mill, where they are prepared to sell all articles in their line cheap as the cheapest and good as the best, including Flour and Feed, also Crockery and Earthen Ware. Produce of all kinds wanted in exchange for groceries. Thankful for past favors, asks a continuance of the same.

☞ Mrs. Voy's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaints.

JOHNSON & LYON.

N. B. All persons indebted to the subscriber are requested to call and settle without delay.

April 2, 1852.—1y. CHARLES JOHNSON.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment in the store of Lot Dunham, Jr. & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with silver work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine for themselves.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Gold and Silver taken in exchange for Clocks, Plainfield, April 13, 1852.—tf WM. S. WOOD.

LIGHTNING RODS!

A. M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 132 Fast Twenty-second-st., New York, are prepared to put up Conductors and affix to buildings their improved Lightning Rods which have now been in use seventeen years, without a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. They have given the subject of electricity the study of his life, and his rods are always put up in accordance with certain rules which he has formulated from the result of his experiments, and from a reference to these rules he has found effective the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated, and each property requires a different arrangement of the rods, to suit the peculiar features of the case, which is the reason why so many of the conductors erected have failed to protect the property. Many persons ignorant of the laws by which electricity is governed, they are not arranged on buildings in such a manner as to protect in all cases; and under all circumstances. Many rods have been placed on the houses of Mr. D. Rockwell, C. Boice, Esq. Mr. M. Sicllo, and others in Plainfield, and on many of the most splendid churches and private buildings in the city, among which Trinity Church and others in New York: church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—6m*

NEW PROVISION AND FISH STORE.

221 Washington-st., New-York.

THE subscriber, wholesale dealer, invites the attention of grocers and others to his stock of

Smoked Beef and Tongues,

Smoked Hams and Shoulders,

Smoked Salmon and Herring.

Also, Beef, Pork, Lard, Mess Beef, &c. by the barrel, half Barrel, and in kitts, in lots to suit purchasers.

PHILIMON P. HATCH.

☞ Washington-st., New York.

April 13, 1852.—3m.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, Elizabethtown, (a short distance from the depot,) would invite his former friends and the public to call and examine his stock of clothing at a low price, to give him a call.

His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay. JOHN ENGLY.

April 20, 1852. tf

The Place to Buy Dry Goods! JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.

No. 327 Greenwich Street, NEW YORK.

(One Door below Barclay Street.)

Offer to Buyers the Largest, Most Varied, and Cheapest Stock of

DRY GOODS, in Greenwich St. and one of the Largest in the CITY, for both WHOLESALE And RETAIL Be, ers to select from.

The First Floor is devoted to our Retail Sales, and the Second, Third and Fourth Floors, are exclusively for our

WHOLESALE TRADE.

We particularly invite the attention of COUNTRY MER HA TS,

To our Stock, from which they can select almost any article they want, thereby saving much time. We pay particular attention to the selection of the very best styles in Dress and other Goods. Cash Buyers will save MONEY by an examination of our prices, as our expenses are small, we can and will sell a profit cheaper than most Houses. All we ask is, TRY US. JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.

New York, March 1st, 1853 —4m 327 Greenwich Street.

A GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES

AT THE CELEBRATED LARGEST AND CHEAPEST

CARPET ESTABLISHMENT

In the United States, No. 29 Bowery,

HIRAM ANDERSON'S

EIGHT ENGLISH ROOMS,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

Sales Room No. 1.

CONTAINS the Largest, Handsomest and Cheapest assortment of Ingrain, American Floor Oil Cloths, to be found in the city, from

TWO SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE

To One Dollar the square yard, of one to eight yards wide.

Sales Room No. 2.

Contains the most beautiful and variegated assortment of English and American superior Ingrain Carpeting, at unparalleled low prices. Five Shillings to six Shillings and Sixpence per yard, worth $1.25 elegant figures for Spring Sales.

Sales Room No. 3

Is fully stocked with an unrivaled assortment of English and American Imperial Three-ply Carpeting, of new and elegant designs, manufactured expressly for the city trade, at a reduction of twenty five per cent from former prices. 6s 6d, 7s, and 8s per yard, and upwards.

Sales Room No. 4

Contains one hundred and fifty pieces of fine Ingrain Carpeting, new fall styles, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s, 3s 6d, and Four Shillings per yard.

Sales Room No. 5.

Displays a great variety of English Druggets, from one to four yards wide, from three shillings and sixpence per yard and upwards. Also, an elegant assortment of Rugs, Mats, &c., at very low prices.

Sales Room No. 6.

Is fully stocked with every variety of Stairs and Hall Carpeting, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s 6d, 4s 6d, and 6s per yard.

In Sales Room No. 7,

Are the Patent Tapestry Ingrain Carpets exhibited at the World's Fair, formerly sold at nine shillings per yard, now selling at

SIX SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE PER YARD.

Sales Room No. 8.

An extensive assortment of Table and Piano Covers, Window Shades from 6s to $10 the pair, Table Oil Cloths, Hearth Rugs, Canton Matting, Stair Rods, Carpet, Plated and Brass Stair Rods, Parlor Door Mats, &c. &c., all of which are offered at 25 per cent. less than at any other establishment in the city.

HIRAM ANDERSON,

No. 29 Bowery, N. Y.

All goods packed and sent free of charge. 1852.

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Earthen and Stone Ware, Hardware, Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps, selected with great care, and an eye to cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Ginghams, Cassimers,

Berege de Lane, Gloves, Summerstuffs,

Lasans, Hosiery, Fustians, &c.

And all styles of goods, adapted to Farmer's and Boy's wear, Muslins bleached and unbleached, colored cambrics, shirtings, sheetings, buttons, thread, cotton wicks, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas, Rice, Sugars, Candles, Flour,

Coffee, Corn Starch, Soap, Indian Meal.

PROVISIONS.—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef,

Pepper, Spices, Cheese, Hams, Pork, &c.

Tobacco and Snuff, Cigars, Brushes, Brooms, Mats, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all, both old and young, to call and inspect my good prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to call the second time.

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!!

The subscriber has also on hand a good assortment of Dr's. and changeable silks, which will be sold cheap.

May 4, 1853. J. V. ARROWSMITH.

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in Main street, opposite Webster & Marsh's store, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, &c.—having purchased her goods in the Eastern cities, she is prepared to sell Ribands, Gimps, Gloves, Silk, Laces, Collars, Muslins, Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and everything in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from Somerville, she is prepared for orders in all the various branches of Dress Making. Cape and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 5, 1852.—6m.

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

THE subscriber returns thanks to his friends and the public for their liberal patronage and prompt pay due during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many friends he has enlarged his stock of Paints, and taken into partnership his son, Washington Marsh. The business will be conducted at the old stand, opposite the Second Presbyterian Church, where will be kept constantly on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Glass, Putty, Whiting, Paint Pots, &c., &c. as cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to House, Sign and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Rose Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES.

Mixed Paint constantly on hand. Orders gratly. Jan. 1, 1853. F. MARSH & SON.

THE STAMPEDE MIXTURE,

A PERFECT REMEDY FOR THE CURE FOR FEVER AND AGUE,

AND OTHER BILIOUS AFFLICTIONS, AND FOR WEAKNESS.

This Medicine is purely a Vegetable Compound, and never in a single instance has failed to cure the worst case of fever and ague. The proprietor Dr. Edward Bleecker, is well known, and the properties of this medicine have been ably and fairly discussed, and fully tested in private practice as a sovereign remedy for Chills and Fever.

CERTIFICATES.

NEWARK, April 10th, 1852.

Mr. G. Brush—Dear Sir: I have used Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture, for the cure of Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, &c., of which you are Agent, it gives me pleasure to state that I have found many so-called remedies among the rest Dr. Osgood's Cholagogue, without affording me any relief. I was afflicted with the Ague & Fever for more than a year; I tried one bottle of your medicine and it effected a perfect cure. In fact I never enjoyed better health in my life. Any person desiring further information in the above case, can obtain them by calling at my place of business where they will be cheerfully given.

GEO. V. HANKINS, 814 Broad st., Newark, N. J.

NEWARK April 10th 1852.

Mr. G. Brush—Dear Sir: I Rejoice to learn that you have accepted the Agency for that justly celebrated medicine, Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture, for the cure of Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, and General Weakness, &c. I have tried it, and it effected a perfect cure when all others failed. I therefore recommend it to those afflicted with the Fever and Ague, as a safe and speedy remedy, and can most naturally come into general use.

HENRY J. YATES, Firm of Yates & Tates, Newark Daguerreotype Rooms, Broad st.

DR. LEWIS CRAIG, Agent for Plainfield. my18-6m

Miss C. Proch,

WOULD hereby inform her many friends and the public that she has now taken extensive rooms, in a much larger and improved plan than any other in this city, and is now ready to furnish Daguerreotypes second to none. Family Groups, from two to four, taken to give satisfaction; also children of all ages, in a few seconds of time. Portraits of sick and deceased persons taken whenever called upon. Also Daguerreotypes colored to perfection.

Miss C. PROSCH has no connection with any other establishment, and would respectfully wish her friends to bear in mind that she can always be found at 359 Broad-street, only, where she trusts to meet that patronage so long and liberally bestowed upon her.

June 1.—3m 359 Broad-street, NEWARK.

Machinery Oil,

75 CTS. a gallon, better than Sweet Oil, at a quarter of the price. For Sale by

June 1st, 1842. M. F. CUSHING.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by

May 4, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. If not all called to soon, they will be passed over for collection. As I don't wish to put expense on any one, I give this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, April 9, 1852

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.

Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

German Washing Powder, & Fluid

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING

BARAGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received and selling off cheap.

Calicoes, fast colors, for 6 cents per yard.

May 8, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

BREWSTER'S EMBROCATION,

OR GREAT REMEDY FOR CURING AND RELIEVING

SPRAINS, BRUISES, RHEUMATISM

Stiffness or Weakness of the Joints and Muscles, Contraction of the Muscles, &c.

also, Neuralgia of the Face, Side or Back, Gout, Head-Ache, Tooth-Ache, &c.

Also, an invaluable Remedy for Spavin, Strains, Stiffness, Lameness, and Galls on Horses.

This Embrocation is prepared from the purest ingredients which form a happy mixture, yet entirely safe and pleasant preparation for Rheumatism, &c. &c. Hundreds of the most respectable persons and families have given it their full trial, more in favor of its superiority, together with its magical ease immediately, and persons who have long suffering and under extreme pain in the side or limbs, or from tooache, and spread, have found instant relief from a thorough rubbing with this embrocation.

Should the experiences in the Drug business and constant application to prescribe remedies for various diseases, the Proprietor has had ample opportunity to witness the effect of the different preparations for Rheumatism, &c., and before this embrocation was offered with so much confidence to the public, it was proved and effectually put to the test, as the same thing it is represented. Try it, and you will see its superiority.

Price, 25 cents per Bottle.

Certificate from Ambrose Pancoast, Esq., Atlantico, N.J.

Mr. Brewster, Jacksonville, N. J. July 31, 1849.

Mr. F. G. BREWSTER:

Dear Sir,—I have been an extensive dealer in horses for 30 years past, and have had great opportunities to witness the various remedies which they are subject, and of testing the various remedies in use.

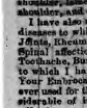
About 15 years since I was induced to make use of your Embrocation, and ever since I have used no other remedies for the following diseases to which this noble animal is subject, viz—ringbone, spavin, strains of the joints, and especially shoulder strains, swinny in the shoulder, lameness of the back, fresh galls on the shoulders, and every disease of a like nature.

I have also used, and known it used for the various diseases to which mankind are subject, such as Swelled Joints, Rheumatism, Gout, Sprains, Bruises, cuts, corns, Spinal affections, pains in the Face, side and back, Toothache, Burns, Scalds, and especially the Neuralgia to which I have been subject almost all my lifetime. Your Embrocation is the best and safest Remedy I have ever used for the above complaints; I have also sold considerable of it in my store, and believe it to supersede all others. Yours with respect,

AMBROSE PANCOAST.

Prepared only by F. G. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Bridgeton, N. J., and for sale by agents with Brewster's Pectoral Mixture, and Cholera Mixture, by Dr. L. CRAIG, Druggist, agent for Plainfield; C. W. Badger, Newark; Dr. D. C. English, New Brunswick, and by others throughout the State.

May 1, 1852.—4m



MARBLE & STONE YARD.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUMENTS, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates, Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful Free Stone Quarry, from which I will furnish to order every variety of stone for building purposes, at short notice. All of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch, and as prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.-1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

ANDREW M WEBSTER,

Attorney at Law and Solicitor in Chancery.

OFFICE—No. 153 MARKET STREET,
May 17, 1850. NEWARK N. J.

DR. H. DAYTON,

Surgeon-Dentist,

Has returned to Plainfield, and taken an Office and Residence for the year, on

Main st. 2d house below Webster & Marsh's.

June 26, 1851. Store.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE,
PHYSICIANS,
NO. 259 GREENE STREET, NEW YORK,
Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

MRS. MOTT,

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all forms of Female complaints, particularly those arising from or attendant upon debility, Scrofulous, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous diseases, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say, that they have repeatedly performed permanent cures in cases of long standing, after their having been unsuccessfully treated by many of the most eminent practitioners of the day.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully infoamed on DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. jan6 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS, CO.

Depot removed to 83 Felton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUS, Hay, Floor and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by this Company will be warranted not liables get out of order.

Manufactory 30 Greene street, New York,

Depot for Sales at 83 Felton street,

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

2 SAWYER, 2 BOSWORTH.

Nov. 24, 1851.-1y

HOWS IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

Rheumatism,	[IN-MEN] Spavin,	Weakness in the Back, Breast,
Burns, Bruises,	Cuts, Sores,	Limb & Joint.
Sore Throat,	Fresh Wounds,
	[IN HORSES]
Bruises, Sprains,	Ringbone,	Pell Evil, and all
Warbles, Splints,	Spavin, Splints,	diseases of Horses,
Corns, Scratches,	Sweeney,	Where an Embro-
Windgall,	Saddle Galls,	cation can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOW, CHEMIST,
No. 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,
(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

CHERRY ST.

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Dogras, John Dogras, Freeman Campbell, Barney McCherry, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel H. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. T. V. Degraw, Princeton, Joseph Hemenway, John L. Went, Trenton, A. W. Brown, South Amboy, Henry Campbell, Metuchen, Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG, in Somerville by Culver Bawsaw. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.-1y

BICARBONATE Soda Refined Powdered Saleratus, Chemical Yeast Powder in tin boxes. Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

FOR SALE!

The Discovery of the FOREST PINE is the greatest Discovery of the age. Put up in Quart Bottles, a single bottle of which will make more than three times further in the cure of Disease, than ten bottles of any Sarsaparilla in use, and warranted to cure without any other medicine.

The method by which all Sarsaparillas, and other similar medicines are prepared, is by boiling the Roots or Plants to obtain the extract. Their medicinal virtues are thus princi ally evaporated and destroyed.

It is not to be wondered at then, that ten and even twenty bottles of these Sarsaparillas is something taken without any perceptible benefit. Now—with the Forest Wine! By the invention of a wonderful chemical process, the medicinal virtues of the Forest Pine, without boiling; retaining, at the same time, all the primitive healing properties of the rare medicinal plants of which it is composed, thus rendering the Forest Wine the most effectual remedy ever discovered, at the same time the most agreeable.

GENERAL DEBILITY, EMACIATION, WASTING OF THE BODY, &c.

Many persons are afflicted with some one of the above complaints, and from the fact that it is not a particular cause, and therefore delay the use of the proper remedy until the disease becomes constitutional. These disorders are often characterized by a sense of sinking, goneness at the stomach, loss of appetite, expressionless sluggishness, lassitude, and, at times, paleness or fluishing of the countenance, or palpitation of the heart, on the slightest exertion.

The excellent effects which have ever attended the use of the Forest Wine and Pills, in every species of debility, is conclusive evidence of its happy results in all cases of disorders. Even in cases in which other medicines as an ultimatum, and been speedily cured. For Nervous disorders and Debility the Wine and Pills are taken according to directions, seldom fail.

AGUE AND FEVER, OR CHILLS

Are caused by the miasmatic effluvia arising from darkness, decayed vegetations, and low damp situations. In Fever and Ague the Forest Wine and Pills are a sovereign remedy. When they have been taken according to the directions, they never fail to cure, or even to fail in effecting a complete cure. In the first place takes a large dose of the Forest Pills in time, that their operations may subside before the return of the stomach has become well cleansed, take three or four large doses of the Wine, at intervals of half an hour, commencing about two hours before the period for the chill to return. This breaks the ague, after which the Wine should be continued in small doses to restore strength. See full directions around the bottle.

DR. HALSEY'S

GUM-COATED FOREST PILLS

Are an important adjunct to the Forest wine. They are composed of vegetable aurable, an invention for which Doctor Halsey has recieved the only patent ever granted on Pills, by the government of the United States.

The Forest Wine and gum coated Forest Pills unite in accomplishing the same great object, the Purification of the Blood, and restoration of the Stomach and Bowels.

The Forest Wine and Pills are recommended as an effectual remedy for the following complaints:

Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Dropsy, Complaints of the Kidneys, Incipient Consumption, Decline of general Health, and Female Weakness, for which it is a Sovereign Remedy; Languidness, Night Sweats, Nervous Disorders, Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, and want of Nervous Energy, Ague and Fever, which it never fails to cure, Scrofula, Scurvy, Rheumatism, Unhealthy Color of the Skin, Weakly and Impaired State of the Constitution.

Dr. Halsey's Office, No. 208 Broadway, New York. The Forest Wine in large square bottles, $1 per bottle; six bottles for $5. Gum coated Forest Pills, 25 cents per box. For sale by M. F. CUSHING, and DR. L. CRAIG, appointed Agents for Plainfield.

June 3, 1851. 3m

PROLAPSUS UTERI.

This malady arises primarily from a debilitated state of the muscles of the abdomen which by promitting gravitation of the bowels suffers them to bear with their weight upon the womb, thereby, by a falling condition of the organ (i. e. Prolapsus Uteri.) Secondarily from debility of the round and broad ligaments, the natural supports of the womb which also, following suit, yield to the pressure of the bowels and suffer the falling to take place. The object of a supporter is to give an inward and upward lifting force to the muscles of the abdomen, so as to cause them to sustain the weight of the bowels and thus relieve the womb from the bearing down weight, but how is this support to be obtained, not with belts or bandages, which, by pressing upon the bowels cause them to be rounded, having its lower boundary placed between the fullness of the limbs, and because the purchase in lifting is are just inside of the tense (Poupartz) ligaments, dividing the thighs from the abdomen, and above the cross bone of the Pelvis. Consequently lying deeply backward and under the fullness of the abdomen, and not to be reached by a belt or brace passing over it.

The Improved Supporter Pad invented and patented by the subscriber, is adapted to the figure of the abdomen, having its outer and under edges raised so as to prevent pressure by the bowels upon the pubis, &c., and by the other borne inward toward the centre of the body, and are made to support the womb, bladder and rectum, being impacted around them, giving their gentle upward lifting force from the upwards, and thus restoring the organ to its true position.

The recently patented Supporter Pad, invented by the subscriber, is adapted to the figure of the abdomen, having its outer and under edges raised so as to prevent pressure by the bowels upon the pubis, &c., and by the other borne inward toward the centre of the body, and are made to support the womb, bladder and rectum, being impacted around them, giving their gentle upward lifting force from the upwards, and thus restoring the organ to its true position.

The recently patented Supporter Pad, invented by the subscriber, is adapted to the figure of the abdomen, having its outer and under edges raised so as to prevent pressure by the bowels upon the pubis, &c., and by the other borne inward toward the centre of the body, and are made to support the womb, bladder and rectum, being impacted around them, giving their gentle upward lifting force from the upwards, and thus restoring the organ to its true position.

The Supporter is completed with a Perineal strap, having a proper and efficient duty to perform.

FREDERICK W. BUTLER, Proprietor.

Office, No. 8 Vesey st., opposite St. Paul's Church, N. Y.

Ladies attend by a female, having separate and distinct rooms for their accommodation. je2m3

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing extraordinary healing properties, which is adapted to a larger class of diseases, in its ability to arrest pain, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Coughs and Colds, we doubt if it has an equal; it is especially good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Rheumatism, Head, Ear and Tooth Ache, Chilblains, Worms, Agues and Fevers; in fact, in whatever invention or remedy it is used it will not be passed. No one can appreciate the worth of this excellent medicine, till they have used the same. We have used it with great success, and do most cheerfully recommend it to those that are afflicted, as we believe it will do as it promises remedy. It is highly approved of by many of our respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge, Brooklyn, John Comstock, Br'klyn, " H. Bonfort, Edwards, Hamilton, Hughes, Engineer " Prof. Whiting, Wmsburgh, Steamboat "Warren," Hon. G. L. Martinez, Br'klyn, Lawrence Mann, R'ch'nd S. Sprague, " Rev. Wesley, L. Branch Alderman S. L. Husted " David B. Smith, Br'klyn H.C.Conkling, Ex-P.M., " Aaron Kingsland, Br'klyn, J. Dorland, ferry-master " Addison Jayne, New York, David Pierce, Steamboat Hotel, Fulton Market A. Wise, Bullshead hotel, Justice D. Hiscox, Peter Rinewalt, T.'s Ferry, E Packer, " Joseph Dodds, " W. Marsh, Rahway, Rev. Cyrus D. Valdran, "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above certificate. Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.

FRANCIS B. STRYKER,
Late Mayor of the city of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 194 Walker Street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING. Jan. 2, 1852

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of June, will remove his store to No. 10 Maiden-Lane, to the store formerly occupied by him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him:—James Hemming & Son's celebrated Needles—Richards' Grevelose and other Needles,—Pearl Buttons, Combe Steel and Gold Pens, Spool and Silk Cotton, Stay Binding, Tape, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c. RICH'D RICHARDS.

Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods.

April 26, 1852.-3m. 10 Maiden-Lane, New York.

NEW GOODS.—Brooks' Royal Patent 6 cord cotton thread, warranted, wound on an improved pi

I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

TRIPLE REFINED CAMPHENE—A very superior article, in bbls. and half bbls., for sale by the manufacturer, JOHN S. LOUNSBERY,
March 26, 1852.—3m 22 Spring Slip, N. Y.

DR. HOOFLAND'S

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS

Prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
at the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch St. Philadelphia,

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Disorders arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines; such as Constipation,

Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering in the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great Depression of Spirits.

THEY ARE ENTIRELY VEGETABLE,

And Free from Alcoholic Stimulant, and all Injurious Ingredients.

And are pleasant in taste, and small and will in their operation expel all the above complaints from the system, and give health and vigour to the frame.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, of Philadelphia, has had the means of obtaining the genuine receipt of the great medicine, called in Germany, Hoofland's German Bitters. This invaluable medicine are prepared with the utmost care at the German Medicine Store. The bitter mixture—Hoofland's German Bitters—is the result of many years study, and during the whole time they have been used and prised in Europe as an infallible remedy for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. Dr. C. M. Jackson, the present proprietor has obtained the same celebrity in this Western World. The testimonials and innumerable confirmations of thousands of the most severe and difficult cases cured, is ample proof of this. The medicine is compounded by Dr. C. M. Jackson, and produced the very effects and same happy results, which the immortal inventor indicated and intended, and consequently they can be compared with other bitters, these Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtue in the rectification of diseases of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most marked influence in the cure of all diseases of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain, and pleasant.

A Case in Camden.

A Bateman, Esq. at Elwell's Railroad Hotel, Camden, cured of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in their worst form, by the use of a few bottles of the Bitters. He says he was given over by his physicians, pronounced by them incurable. We can but note his case here. Call and see him; you will pronounced his case a bad one.

Another Case of Long Standing Case.

Mr. George W. Plett, merchant, 317 Market st. cured of Disease of the Liver and Chronic Diarrhea, of 15 years stand ng. Hy had been under the best medical treatment in this country, and in the most celebrated springs of note throughout the Union, without permanent benefit, and was at last permanently cured by the use of a few bottles of 'Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters."

JOHN MOORE, Jun. Esq. Editor of the "Daily News," said, October 20th, 1851.

"Hoofland's German Bitters.—We are trying this renowned medicine for a stubborn disease of the bowels, and are pleased with the result. We have taken only one or 2 bottles, and we have derived more benefit than we derived previously from years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our first physicians."

Three More Cures.

Mr. Jacob Ritter, of Philadelphia, dec. 20th, 1850.

Respected Friend; I had for several years been afflicted with Dyspepsia and occasionally a General Debility, I accidentally tried thy medicine, the 'German Bitters,' for the first time. I then got a bottle, and used it according to directions, and it relieved me more than anything I had before used, giving tone and strength to the stomach and system. Last fall I had a very severe spell of the Diarrhea, which continued for some time. My life, for a time, was despaired of. Thy Bitters again being used, acted very happily upon the stomach and intestines, and gave speedy relief. I am firmly of the opinion that they general health to the system. I consider it, doctor, one of the most valuable medicines I ever used, and shall take great pleasure in recommending it to others.

Very respectfully thy friend, SAMUEL HUTTON.

No. 5 Jennings' Row, Catharine, above Third

Dr. C. M. Jackson, 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.

That this medicine will cure the foregoing diseases, no one can deny that has ever used it, as a trial of it will specifically upon the Liver, Stomach and Nerves. It is preferable to calomel, in all Bilious Diseases; the effect is immediate, and they do not prostrate the system.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS

This medicine has attained that high character which it is necessary for all medicines to attain, to induce counterfeiters to put forth spurious articles, at the risk of the lives of those who are unknowingly deceived.

Look well to the Marks of the Genuine.

For the protection of invalids against fraud, the signature of C. M. JACKSON will be upon the front of the outside wrapper, and his name blown in every bottle.

Purchase none without these marks of genuineness; all others are Counterfeits —OTTICK ADVICE, given gratis upon all diseases.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at the principal depot,

GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
No. 120 Mulberry or Arch st. one door below 5th, (formerly 278 Race st.) Philadelphia, Pa., and by respectable druggists throughout the United States, the Canadas and the West India Islands.

PRICES REDUCED!

To enable all classes of invalids to enjoy the advantages of their great Restorative Power.

Single Bottle, 75 cts., "Three Bottles, $2.00,

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.

Aug. 11, 1851.-1y

Excelsior Chemical and Color Works.

SAMUEL TRUESDELL,

MANUFACTURER OF

PAINTS & COLORS;

Chrome Green,	American Vermilion,
Chrome Yellow,	Chinese Blue,
Prussian Blue,	Paris Green,
Paris Blue,	Rose Pink, &c

No. 141, Sullivan Street, New York.

IMPERIAL GREEN PAINT IN OIL.

April 18, 1852.—3m.

AFFLICTED READ!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. WINKELIN,

N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice in this city, have established Dr. W. as the most expert and successful practitioner far and near in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat or legs, pains in the head or bones, mercurial rheumatism, blotches, diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled are all cured with dispatch.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TAKE IT FOR A SOLAR NOTICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, should apply immediately, before the entire constitutional debility, loss of muscular energy, physical lassitude and general prostration, irritability and all nervous affections, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, and every other symptom that renders life miserable, and of the procreative functions cured, and full vigor restored

READ!—YOUTH AND MANHOOD!

A Vigorous Life, or a Premature Death.

Kinkelin on Self Preservation Only 25 Cents

This Book is filled with useful information on the insensitive and diseases of the Generative Organs. It addresses itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by all. The valuable advice and impressive warning it gives will prevent years of misery and suffering and save annually thousands of lives. Parents by reading it will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

Bachelors and single ladies, Widows, Widowers and all others supplied with the above book at very low rates.

Sent to any part of the United States, Canadas or Europe, by addressing a letter to Dr. Winkelin, N. W. corner of 3d and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will secure a book, under envelope, per return of mail. Persons at a distance may address Dr. K. by letter, post paid, and be cured at home. Packages of Medicines, Directions, &c. forwarded by sending a remittance, and put up secure from observation or curiosity.

Dr. Winkelin's Office hours, 8 to 10 A. M., 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 P. M.

Sept. 2, 1851.-1y

Looking Glasses—A Large number

JUST RECEIVED, from 26 cents to $7 each, by U. BELDEN.

DR. HOOFLAND'S

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS

Prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
at the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch St. Philadelphia,

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Disorders arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines; such as Constipation,

Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering in the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great Depression of Spirits.

THEY ARE ENTIRELY VEGETABLE,

And Free from Alcoholic Stimulant, and all Injurious Ingredients.

And are pleasant in taste, and small and will in their operation expel all the above complaints from the system, and give health and vigour to the frame.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, of Philadelphia, has had the means of obtaining the genuine receipt of the great medicine, called in Germany, Hoofland's German Bitters. This invaluable medicine are prepared with the utmost care at the German Medicine Store. The bitter mixture—Hoofland's German Bitters—is the result of many years study, and during the whole time they have been used and prised in Europe as an infallible remedy for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. Dr. C. M. Jackson, the present proprietor has obtained the same celebrity in this Western World. The testimonials and innumerable confirmations of thousands of the most severe and difficult cases cured, is ample proof of this. The medicine is compounded by Dr. C. M. Jackson, and produced the very effects and same happy results, which the immortal inventor indicated and intended, and consequently they can be compared with other bitters, these Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtue in the rectification of diseases of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most marked influence in the cure of all diseases of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain, and pleasant.

A Case in Camden.

A Bateman, Esq. at Elwell's Railroad Hotel, Camden, cured of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in their worst form, by the use of a few bottles of the Bitters. He says he was given over by his physicians, pronounced by them incurable. We can but note his case here. Call and see him; you will pronounced his case a bad one.

Another Case of Long Standing Case.

Mr. George W. Plett, merchant, 317 Market st. cured of Disease of the Liver and Chronic Diarrhea, of 15 years stand ng. Hy had been under the best medical treatment in this country, and in the most celebrated springs of note throughout the Union, without permanent benefit, and was at last permanently cured by the use of a few bottles of 'Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters."

JOHN MOORE, Jun. Esq. Editor of the "Daily News," said, October 20th, 1851.

"Hoofland's German Bitters.—We are trying this renowned medicine for a stubborn disease of the bowels, and are pleased with the result. We have taken only one or 2 bottles, and we have derived more benefit than we derived previously from years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our first physicians."

Three More Cures.

Mr. Jacob Ritter, of Philadelphia, dec. 20th, 1850.

Respected Friend; I had for several years been afflicted with Dyspepsia and occasionally a General Debility, I accidentally tried thy medicine, the 'German Bitters,' for the first time. I then got a bottle, and used it according to directions, and it relieved me more than anything I had before used, giving tone and strength to the stomach and system. Last fall I had a very severe spell of the Diarrhea, which continued for some time. My life, for a time, was despaired of. Thy Bitters again being used, acted very happily upon the stomach and intestines, and gave speedy relief. I am firmly of the opinion that they general health to the system. I consider it, doctor, one of the most valuable medicines I ever used, and shall take great pleasure in recommending it to others.

Very respectfully thy friend, SAMUEL HUTTON.

No. 5 Jennings' Row, Catharine, above Third

Dr. C. M. Jackson, 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.

That this medicine will cure the foregoing diseases, no one can deny that has ever used it, as a trial of it will specifically upon the Liver, Stomach and Nerves. It is preferable to calomel, in all Bilious Diseases; the effect is immediate, and they do not prostrate the system.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS

This medicine has attained that high character which it is necessary for all medicines to attain, to induce counterfeiters to put forth spurious articles, at the risk of the lives of those who are unknowingly deceived.

Look well to the Marks of the Genuine.

For the protection of invalids against fraud, the signature of C. M. JACKSON will be upon the front of the outside wrapper, and his name blown in every bottle.

Purchase none without these marks of genuineness; all others are Counterfeits —OTTICK ADVICE, given gratis upon all diseases.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at the principal depot,

GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
No. 120 Mulberry or Arch st. one door below 5th, (formerly 278 Race st.) Philadelphia, Pa., and by respectable druggists throughout the United States, the Canadas and the West India Islands.

PRICES REDUCED!

To enable all classes of invalids to enjoy the advantages of their great Restorative Power.

Single Bottle, 75 cts., "Three Bottles, $2.00,

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.

Aug. 11, 1851.-1y

Excelsior Chemical and Color Works.

SAMUEL TRUESDELL,

MANUFACTURER OF

PAINTS & COLORS;

Chrome Green,	American Vermilion,
Chrome Yellow,	Chinese Blue,
Prussian Blue,	Paris Green,
Paris Blue,	Rose Pink, &c

No. 141, Sullivan Street, New York.

IMPERIAL GREEN PAINT IN OIL.

April 18, 1852.—3m.

AFFLICTED READ!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. WINKELIN,

N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice in this city, have established Dr. W. as the most expert and successful practitioner far and near in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat or legs, pains in the head or bones, mercurial rheumatism, blotches, diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled are all cured with dispatch.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TAKE IT FOR A SOLAR NOTICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, should apply immediately, before the entire constitutional debility, loss of muscular energy, physical lassitude and general prostration, irritability and all nervous affections, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, and every other symptom that renders life miserable, and of the procreative functions cured, and full vigor restored

READ!—YOUTH AND MANHOOD!

A Vigorous Life, or a Premature Death.

Kinkelin on Self Preservation Only 25 Cents

This Book is filled with useful information on the insensitive and diseases of the Generative Organs. It addresses itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by all. The valuable advice and impressive warning it gives will prevent years of misery and suffering and save annually thousands of lives. Parents by reading it will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

Bachelors and single ladies, Widows, Widowers and all others supplied with the above book at very low rates.

Sent to any part of the United States, Canadas or Europe, by addressing a letter to Dr. Winkelin, N. W. corner of 3d and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will secure a book, under envelope, per return of mail. Persons at a distance may address Dr. K. by letter, post paid, and be cured at home. Packages of Medicines, Directions, &c. forwarded by sending a remittance, and put up secure from observation or curiosity.

Dr. Winkelin's Office hours, 8 to 10 A. M., 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 P. M.

Sept. 2, 1851.-1y

Looking Glasses—A Large number

JUST RECEIVED, from 26 cents to $7 each, by U. BELDEN.

NEW YORK.

(One block from the Hudson River R. R. Depot, and two blocks from the Canal Boat Landing.)

Embracing a central and eligible situation, in the immediate vicinity of Canal, Hudson River R. R. Depot, Steamboat Landings, Omnibus Lines, and other conveyances to all parts of the city, and convenient to the best markets, and retail stores of the lower part of the city.

Fine Shirts,	Cravats,	Dressing Gowns,
White & red'd do.	Scarfs,	Suspenders,
Under Shirts,	Stocks,	Pocket Books,
Drawers,	Gloves,	Satchels,
Stockings,	Handkerchiefs,	Trunks,
Collars,			&c.

Together with a good assortment of

ENGLISH & GERMAN HOSIERY,

For Gentlemen and Children.

The principle upon which our business is conducted is that of one price only, for cash, and a determination to be quality, as cheap as can be found at any other establishment in this country.

The attention of gentlemen and ladies who desire to procure such articles on the best terms, is respectfully invited. THOMAS M'LAUGHLIN.

New York, March 5, 1852.—6m

☞ Our FINE SHIRTS are cut by experienced hands and made up in a superior style, and when specially ordered, will be supplied to fit the customer at short notice. mar18 6m.

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the Subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N. J., containing from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on Elm, Fifth, Sixth, Liberty and William sts; also a good sized lot with a Dwelling House built for the accommodation of two families, and is a valuable location, very nigh the centre of the business part of town, on the corner of Rachanay and Second sts., a very short distance from Tidsworth, Dunn & Co's Store.

Jan. 19 1852.-tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

Central Rail Road of N. J.

Extension to Clinton, 8 miles.

An Extra Accommodation Train.

Spring Arrangements,

Commencing Monday, May 3d, 1852.

This line leaves New York by steamboat Rail Jacket Pier No. 1 North River, and connects at Elizabethtown with trains on the Central Railroad of New Jersey for Trenton, Philadelphia, Liberty and Williamsburg, and at the SAME HOURS.

Leave New York,
At 9 o'clock, A. M. at 7 P. M. (freight) and 5 P. M.
Trains to New York Leave
	Freight	Pass'g's	Passeng'r
Whitehouse, at	3.15	6.40 and	8.40 A.M. 1.40 P.M.
North Branch,	3.30	5.50	9.25 2.50
Somerville,	4	6.05	9.05 2.05
Bound Brook,	4.20	6.15	9.15 2.15
Plainfield,	4.50	6.40	9.40 2.40
Westfield,	5.50	6.55	10.55 2.55
Elizabethtown,		7.15	10.30 3.15

☞ Stages will be in readiness on the arrival of the 9 o'clock train from New York at White Houses, to convey passengers to Easton, Wilkesbarre, Bethlehem, Allentown, Manch Chunk, Penn.; and to Flemington, Lebanon, Clinton, Milford, Bethlehem, Bloomsbury, N. J., and to Doylestown, Pennsylvania, on Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; also from Somerville for Peapack and Plucksmin, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

N. B. All Baggage at the risk of the owners until delivered into the actual possession of the Agents of the company, and checks or receipts given therefor.

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Heart Corrector,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-dyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Cathar. Pills
Nervine,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific

Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil,

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of

Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Liver Complaint, Piles, Female Diseases, &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Plated Steel Spring Shoulder Braces.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Jubailing Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF

Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to an old age.

This Book should be in every family. To the consumptive it points out the way REASONABLY, hope for relief. To mothers, the directions it gives for the care and education of children are invaluable. 75,000 copies of this Book have been issued through the press, and the sale continues unabated.

For Sale by S. S. FITCH & CO., 707 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

Hope's Express.

For Newark, Elizabethtown, Westfield, Plainfield, Boundbrook, Somerville, White House, Clinton and Easton, Pa.

Leave New York daily, at 9 o'clock, arriving at Plainfield at 10 o'clock, A. M. Leave Plainfield at 3 o'clock, arriving in New York at 4 1-2 o'clock, P. M.

JOHN LAING, Agent for Plainfield.

A. D. HOPE, 71 Courtland-st., New York.

☞ The Express has been systematized, and all orders will be executed with safety and despatch.

Plainfield, Nov. 19, 1850.

READ! READ! READ!

All Storekeepers and Druggists in Somerset County, in the State of New Jersey, and Others, are cautioned against the use of the great Diamond Sarsaparilla

DR. REID'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS.

Near 600 000 Boxes were sold the past year in the U. States, and near 30,000 boxes were sold in the state of New Jersey.

YOUNG AND OLD, MALE AND FEM

PLAINFIELD

Volume XVI.—No. 26. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, June 22, 1852. Whole Number 806

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY.

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 214 Broad-street, Washington Hall Buildings.

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical, and lepine detached lever Watches; cases, polished and engine turned; Gold and Vest Chains of all patterns; Guard Chains; gold and silver Pencils; gold and silver; silver, shell and rosewood Pencil cases; gold and silver, enamelled, engraved and plain Pencils; Ladies' sin- gle stone, diamond and multiple Rings; Finger Rings of all patterns; Ladies' plain gold, chain and hair Bracelets; Bracelet Snaps of all kinds; Ear rings of the latest styles; Gents' diamond, ruby, emerald, bloodstone and all styles of Breast Pins; Lockets and Miniatures; Gold Pens; Hearts and Crosses; gold Fob and Guard Keys; gold and silver Thimbles; silver Spoons and Butter Knives; gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Rosewood Holders, tablets, hair pins, scissors, knives, tea bells, purses, fine steel pens, and gilt beads, pomatum, snaps and slides, chess men and boxes, backgammon boards, letter folders, sewing boards, backgammon boards, letter folders, sewing boards, twine holders, work stands, portfolios, reticules, reading, writing, pen holders, microscopes, razor and razor strops, fancy work boxes, china sugar canisters and mantel vases, perfumery of all kinds, tooth and nail brushes, nail, beard, clothes, and comb brushes, silk guard chains; pocket books, a large assortment: dressing combs, back combs, pocket combs, silver combs, pocket knife cases, flute and flageolet fittings, pocket knife cases, medal and bracelet hair, portrait and portrayte cases, medal and bracelet chains; steel, silk and gilt fob chains; shaving brushes, shaving boxes, &c.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

Piano Fortes from the best makers, Violins, Clarionettes, Flutes, Flageolets, Bass Violins, Drums, Metronomes, Violin Bows, Accordeons, tuning forks; Violin, Violincello and Guitar Strings; Violin cases for all Instruments; a large assortment of songs, duetts, quartettes, trios and glees, comprising all the latest publications; also Instrumental Music, namely, waltzes, quicksteps, marches, rondeaus, duetts for piano and flute, and sacred songs; Guitar music, Instruction books for Piano Forte, Violin, Violincello, accordeon, clarionet, flageolet, &c. &c. flute, fife, violin, accordeon, clarionet, flageolet, &c. &c. all of cheap as can be bought in the city; with a variety of other goods too numerous to mention in this catalogue, comprising the largest variety in Newark.

WATCH REPAIRING AND CLEANING.

The subscriber, determined to give full satisfaction to them that employ him, has engaged a very superior workman from Switzerland, where he has been engaged for several years in manufacturing the finest kinds of Watches, and is well skilled in repairing and cleaning watches, as the testimonials from some of the First watch makers of the city of New York will testify.

Jewelry made to order. Old gold and silver taken in exchange.

4Cy

Wholesale and Retail

Wine and Liquor Store.

29 Fair Street, Newark, N. J.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has constantly on hand at the above old established stand, a full and choice supply of FOREIGN WINES and BRANDY, which he offers at the lowest cash prices, and delivered to order to any part of the city or country. We have the Latest Vintages from the city as soon as they arrive. Brandy of every grade, Irish, Scotch and Rye Whiskey, St. Croix and Jamaica Rum, Port, Madeira, Malaga and Champagne Wines, Losey's Bitters, &c.

Plainfield Bottled Porter and Pale Ale of the first quality; also, a very choice article of Bottled Cider (almost as equal to Champagne) always on hand.

A continuance of patronage is respectfully solicited.

June 1st, 1852—3m. LOUIS L. BELAND.

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the Latest Styles from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome and serviceable a Hat as they can buy in New York or Philadelphia, and a half a dollar cheaper.

N. B. Moleskin or Silk Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 23, 1851.—1y

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their individual tax, by paying the same by law, by coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere; thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and prices which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also, a good assortment of all kinds of tailoring trimmings at a low price—also constantly for sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Friends will you favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves the truth of the Cutting, trimming and making done at the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's, Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all that is usually wanted for the city and country trade, all of which are made at our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction. Those wishing to select or order can truly rely on being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as favorably as at any establishment in the country.

352 Broad street, Newark,

May 3d, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,

L. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Goods on sale constantly, low or dear,

To suit the mind, to please the eye.

We paid the cash to buy them cheap,

We'll sell them right to sell a heap.

Dress Goods of every Color and Cords,

The newest styles New York affords;

Delaines and Gaiters, Calicoes too,

Colors of which we'll warrant true,

Shawls and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,

And all the goods which man do use;

Together with a good supply

Of groceries that will defy

A class of men who live with us,

And twice a year make quite a fuss,

To go to Brunswick with their broods,

Where at home they are afraid.

We'll sell to these and all the rest,

For cheapest man what cloths shall best

Which the purse proud will dispute,

And she shall trouble in the best;

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,

L. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Plainfield, May 18, 1852.

Crime Detected.

A TALE OF THE FRENCH POLICE.

Previously to the year 1789 but at what precise date I cannot say, the city of Paris possessed as guardian of its safety, and chief minister of police, a man of rare talent and integrity. At the same period, the parish of St. Germains, in the quarter of the Rue St. Antoine, had for its cure a kind, venerable old man, whose whole life was spent in doing good to both the souls and bodies of his fellow-creatures, and whose holy consistency and dignified courage caused him to be loved by the good, and respected by even the most abandoned characters. One cold, dark winter's night, the bell at the old cure's door was rung loudly, and he, although in bed immediately arose and opened the the door, anticipating a summons to some sick or dying bed.

A personage richly dressed, with his features partly concealed by a false beard, stood outside. Addressing the cure in a courteous and graceful manner, he apologized for his unseasonable call, in which, as he said, the high reputation of monsieur had induced him to make "A great and terrible but necessary and inevitable deed," he continued, "is to be done. Time presses; a soul about to pass into eternity implores your ministry. If you come you must allow your eyes to be bandaged, ask no questions, and consent to act simply as spiritual consolor of a dying woman. If you refuse to accompany me no other person can be admitted, and her spirit must pass alone."

After a moment of secret prayer, the cure answered, "I will go with you."

Without asking any further explanation, he allowed his eyes to be bandaged and leaned on the arm of his suspicious visitor. They both got into a coach, whose windows were immediately covered by wooden shutters, and then they drove off rapidly. They seemed to go a long way, and many doublings and turnings are the coach drove under a wide archway and stopped.

During this time, not a single word had been exchanged between the travelers, and ere they got out, the stranger assured himself that the bandage over his companion's eyes had not been displaced, and then taking the old man by the hand, he assisted him to alight and to ascend the wide steps of a staircase as far as the second story. A great door opened, as if of itself, and several thickly carpeted rooms were traversed in silence. At length another door was opened by the guide, and the cure felt his bandage removed. They were in a solemn looking bedchamber; near a bed, half veiled by thick damask curtains, was a small table, supporting two wax lights which feebly illuminated the cold, dead-like apartment. The stranger (it was the Duke de ——) then bowing to the cure, led him towards the bed, drew back the curtains, and said in a solemn tone:

"Minister of God, before you is a woman who has betrayed the blood of her ancestors, and whose doom is irrevocably fixed. She knows on what conditions an interview with you has been granted her; she knows too that all supplications would be useless. You know your duty, M. le Cure; I am sorry to fulfil it, and will return to seek you in half an hour."

So saying he departed, and the agitated priest saw lying on the bed a young and beautiful girl, bathed in tears, battling with despair, and calling in her bitter agony for the comforts of religion. No investigation possible, for the unhappy declared herself bound by a terrible oath to conceal her name; besides, she knew not in what place she was.

"I am," she said, "the victim of a secret family tribunal, whose sentence is irrevocable! More I cannot tell. I forgive mine enemies, as I trust that God will forgive me. Pray for me!"

The minister of religion invoked the sublime promises of the gospel to soothe her troubled soul, and he succeeded. Her countenance, after a few minutes, became composed, she clasped her hands in earnest prayer, and then extended them towards her consoler.

As she did so, the cure perceived that the sleeve of her robe was stained with blood.

"My child," said he, with a trembling voice, "what is this?"

"Father, it is the vein which they have already opened, and the bandage, no doubt, was carelessly placed."

At these words a sudden thought struck the priest. He unrolled the dressing, allowed the blood to flow, steeped his handkerchief in it, then replaced the bandage, concealed the stained handkerchief within his breast, and whispered:

"Farewell, my daughter, take courage, and have confidence in God!"

The half hour had expired, and the step of his terrible conductor was heard approaching.

"I am ready," said the cure; and having allowed his eyes to be covered, he took the arm of the Duke de ——, and left the awful room, praying, meanwhile, with secret fervor.

Arrived at the foot of the staircase, the old man succeeded, without his guide's knowledge, in slightly displacing the thick bandage so as to admit a partial ray of lamp light. Finding himself in the carriage gateway, he managed to stumble and fall, with both hands forward towards a dark corner. The duke hastened to raise him, both resumed their places in the carriage, and, after repassing through the same tortuous route the cure was set down in safety at his own door.

Without one moment's delay, he called his servant.

"Pierre," he said, "arm yourself with a stick and give me your support, I must instantly go to the minister of police."

Soon afterwards the official gate was opened to admit the well-known venerable pastor.

"Monseigneur," he said, addressing the minister, "a terrible deed will speedily be accomplished, if your are not in time to prevent it. Let your agents visit, before day-break, every carriage gateway in Paris; in the inner angle of one of them will be found a blood-stained handkerchief. The blood is that of a young female, whose murder, already begun, has been miraculously suspended. Her family have condemned the victim to have her veins opened one by one and thus to perish slowly in expiation of a fault, and she is more than punished by her mortal agony. Courage, my friends, you have already some hours. May God assist you—I can only pray."

That same morning, at 8 o'clock, the minister of police entered the cure's room.

"My friend," said he, "I confess my inferiority; you are able to instruct me in expedients."

"Saved!" cried the old man, bursting into tears.

"Saved," said the minister, "and rescued from the power of her cruel relations. But the next time, dear abbe, that thou wantest assistance in a benevolent enterprise, I wish you would give me a little more time to accomplish it."

Within the next twenty-four hours, by an express order from the king, the Duke de —— and his accomplices were secretly removed from Paris and conveyed out of the kingdom.

The young woman received all the care which her precarious state required; and when she perfectly recovered, retired to a quiet country village where the royal protection assured her safety. It is scarcely needful to say, that next to her Maker, the cure of St. Germains was the object of her deepest gratitude and filial love. During fifteen years, the holy man received from time to time the expression of her grateful affection; and at length, when himself, from extreme old age, on the brink of the grave, he received the intelligence that she had departed in peace.

Never until then had a word of this mysterious adventure passed the good cure's lips. On his death bed, however, he confided the recital to a bishop, one of his particular friends; and from a relation of the latter, I myself heard it.

This is the exact truth.

Speed of Horses.—The feats of celebrated horses are duly chronicled in books devoted to sporting subjects, and we shall merely notice them incidentally. The most extraordinary instance, perhaps, of the stoutness, as well as speed of the racehorse, was afforded by Quibbler, who, in December, 1786, ran twentythree miles round the flat at Newmarket, in fifty-seven minutes and ten second! In 1772, a mile was run by Firetail, with nine stone, four seconds less than Flying Childers over the Beacon Course (four miles, one furlong, 138 yards), in 7 minutes and 30 seconds! Sept. 26th, 1838, a trial of speed took place between the Oural Cossacks and the Kerguise Kaisaks, over a course of 18 versts, said to be equal to 13 and a half English miles. The race was run by many horses of great speed, but gained by twins, who ran neck and neck the whole distance, arriving at the winning post in thirty-four minutes thirty-five seconds! And it is said that the Sultan's son rode a Kerguise Kaisak black horse over the same course in 19 minutes.

In 1745, Mr. Thornton rode from Stilton to London, back, and again to London, making 215 miles, in eleven hours, on the Turnpike road and uneven ground! And, when the comparatively unfavorable roads at that period is considered, the feat was truly remarkable.

Perhaps the most singular struggle on record was that between Tarrago, Handel, and Astbury, at Newcastle Under-Lyne. Of the first three heats there was no winner, Tarragon and Handel being each time nose and nose; and although Astbury was stated to have been thrice the first heat, yet the men nearly got level with the other that there was a difficulty in placing him as such. After the second heat the steward requested two other gentleman to look with him steadily as they came, to try to decide in favor of one of them, but it was impossible to do so. In the third dead heat, Tarragon and Handel had struggled with each other until they reeled about as if they were drunk, and could scarcely carry the riders to the scales. Astbury, who had lain by after the first heat, then came out and won.

One of the most celebrated race-horses this country has seen was the Godolphin Arabian, who was bought in France when actually engaged in drawing a cart. Between this noble animal and a cat a most loving friendship existed. When in the stable, puss always either sat upon his back, or nestled as closely to him as she could; and at his death she refused her food, pined away and died. Mr. Halcroft gives a similar relation of a racer and a cat, whom the horse used to take in his mouth and mount on his back without hurting her, she perfectly understanding this singular mode of conveyance.

There was another celebrated horse of yore called the Chillaby, from his great ferocity and ungovernable temper. This horse—Chillaby by name—savagely tore in pieces the figure of a man purposely placed in his way, and could only be approached by one groom. Yet with all this ferocity, he evinced the most tender affections for a lamb, who used to employ himself for many an hour in butting away flies that annoyed his friend.

Every well known bow thoroughly racers enter into the spirit of the course. Of this a noble horse called Forrester presented a remarkable illustration. Forrester had won many a hardly contested race, but in an evil hour was matched against an extraordinary horse called Elephant. It was a four-mile course, and at the distance-post the horses were nose to nose. Between this and the winning post Elephant got a little ahead. He used every possible effort to recover this lost ground, until, finding all his efforts ineffectual, he made one desperate plunge, seized his antagonist by the jaw, and could scarcely be forced to quit his hold. A similar incident occurred in 1753, when a fine horse belonging to Mr. Quin was rendered so furious by finding his antagonist gradually passing him, that he seized him by the leg, and both riders were obliged to dismount and combine their efforts to separate the animals.

Cheap Recipes to Insure Health.—1. Rise early. Walk or ride for an hour or two, then eat a hearty substantial breakfast. Let your dinner meal be moderate; and use exercise freely, (by walking, shopping, or in any other way), before going to bed. This recipe has been recommended in strong terms, by Sir Astley Cooper, and many others of the most eminent physicians and surgeons in London. Its first direction is consistent with Franklin's known maxim: "Early to b.d and early to rise, will make a man healthy, wealthy, and wise." Its direction equally agrees with a well known couplet: "After dinner sit a while, (i. e., a few minutes), after supper walk a mile."

2. Keep your feet warm, (i. e. by exercise), your head cool, (i. e. by temperance), and your body open, (i. e. take care to avoid costiveness). This was the golden rule of Boerhaave, the most eminent physician in modern, or probably ancient time, who concluded his advice by saying something to this effect: "If people would only observe these simple rules, and avoid a current of air as they would an arrow, physicians would be altogether an useless class of beings."

3. For children:—"Give them plenty of milk; plenty of flannel; plenty of air, and let them have plenty of sleep; and they will seldom, if ever, all say thing." That is, milk is their best diet; they must be warmly clothed; must be much out of doors; and must always be allowed to sleep on till they waken of their own accord.

From the Knickerbocker Magazine.

In the eastern part of Delaware county in this State, there resides a man named B——, now a Justice of the Peace, and a very sensible man, but by common consent the ugliest-looking individual in the whole country; being long, gaunt, sallow, and awry, with a gait like a kangaroo. One day he was hunting, and on one of the mountain roads he met a man on foot and alone, who was longer, gaunter, uglier by all odds than himself. He could give the Squire fifty and beat him.

Without saying a word, B—— raised his gun and deliberately levelled it at the stranger. "For God's sake don't shoot!" shouted the man in great alarm. "Stranger," replied B. ——, I swore ten years ago, that if I ever met a man uglier than I was, I'd shoot him, and you are the first one I've seen." The stranger, after taking a careful survey of his 'rival,' replied: "Well, guess, if I look worse than you do, shute! I don't want to live no longer!

Here is a "Tribute to Woman," from a note to the editor, the justice of which few will dispute. "There is something about woman that is curious, isn't there? A morning I swept the school-house. I felt proud. Presently some girls come in; and one, true to the instinctive sense of neatness characteristic of her sex, took the broom. She swept after me—and good gracious, what a mess. It seems as if—well, I can't tell! but when she had got done, I had a very poor opinion of my housekeeping powers, I assure you. The stovehearth, the wood by the stove, all, every thing, put on that look which only woman can give. What in creation is it that makes them give such an air to things?

Curious, but not Agreeable.—I have no sympathy for machinery; the action of machines of great power terrifies me by its impassibility. There are some, above all, employed for beating out metals, which do so to an alarming extent. Whatever these may happen to seize between their iron teeth, once seized, the thing must pass through a hole more or less great, towards which all intractable substances are conducted. Or whatever else the thing may be when it goes in, let it be a beam of the greatest thickness it will come out stretched into a knitting needle of the greatest fineness. As for the machine, it merely turns, that is its business and its duty, and it matters not to it what the substance may be which it has to crush and draw out. You don't take your hand back quickly enough, the machine pinches the end of your finger, and all is over. You may cry out, but if there be no workman present with a hatchet to cut your wrist off, after the finger comes the hand, after the hand the arm, after the arm the head, after the head the body. Shrieks, oaths, prayers, nothing will avail you; the shortest plan for your friends or family is to look out for you on the other side of the machine. You went in a man, you come out a wire; in five minutes you have grown two hundred feet; it is curious but not agreeable.—Pictures of Travel in the South of France.

Manners. Never go up and down stairs, or about the house, like a trotting horse; step lightly, quickly and orderly.

Never drag, or go slip-shod, with your shoes untied or down at the heel.

Never enter a house or parlor with your boots all slush and mud, or sit down with your hat or cap on, bar-room fashion.

Never stare people in the face. Are you conversing with cheerful, dignified, respectful assurance; this is right; but to stare idly or wildly at strangers or any one, as though you had never seen a human face, is exceedingly impolite, and a sure mark of ill-breeding.

Be polite, modest and respectful to every one, especially to your superiors. "Charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own." What more unlovely, and painfully disgusting, than to see a youth, mere stripling, assume an air of self-importance, and disrespect towards his equals or superiors?

Never jerk, twitch, or slam doors, or windowshutters, or bring them too, violently. Be cautious and gentle in all your movements; you may do serious mischief. We have known some little turbulents in passing out and in, shut the door with a slam-bang, give it a strong twitch, sufficient to shiver it! No polite or genteel boys and girls will do this.

Never be clownish or monkeyish! Some rude, indecent boys, (not girls,) seem to pride themselves in buffoonery or drollery, in low, vulgar tricks, antic gestu es, foolish jesting, and odd expressions. This low, shameful vulgarity, may excite the laughter of fools, or persons but fools well taught as fashionists—"for the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness:" but every one of good common sense must look upon such behavior with perfect disgust and abhorrence! And every youth, thus acting the buffoon or mimic, low himself in the estimation of the wise and the good.

Dog Soup and Owl Soup.—It is known the four Indians regard dogs as a great luxury for the table; not only at the table; for they sit upon the ground when they eat, and dispense with chairs and tables.) At Traverse des Sioux, during the treaty last summer, several of our "old settlers," who have acquired a taste for Indian delicacies, were invited to dog feasts; but the most singular dish we ever heard of was one prepared by a Dr. Jarvis, in the army in Texas, and a prank played upon him by his brother officers. They forged handbills and posted notices all about the country, that Dr. Jarvis would pay cash on delivery for owl-heads. Presently people about the encampment began to bring in owl-heads, which the doctor, supposing them to be for his museum, purchased. Then the joke leaked out, and he was obliged to make owl soup instead of owl-heads, which he did, and invited the officers to dine with him. They did so, and pronounced it excellent. The doctor was the last of the jest. At first, of course, and could have allusions to owl-heads at all times and in all quarters. After a few days, the doctor concluded, as a kind of a quietus, to buy off his merciless fellow-officers, to give them a supper, which he provided for them in magnificent style. One of the courses was a soup, and a very good soup. Unable to repress an allusion to the standing joke, a young officer asked the doctor, with a knowing leer, if the soup which they had been eating was not owl-soup? "Well," replied the doctor, coolly, "is ain't anything else?" And sure enough, from the bottom of the soup tureen, he hooked up some plump owl-heads, bills and all. "Gentlemen," added the doctor, "you have quite a mess. Your bills are receipted."—Minnesota Pioneer.

Wonderful Toy.

The latest notable effort of mechanical puppet manufacture is exhibited in Boulogne at the present time. It is that of a jeweller, who has devoted eight years of his life to the perfection of a clock-work conjurer, which he has made a thorough master of his thimble-rig profession. In full costume, a necromancer stands behind a table, covered, as the tables of professors of legerdemain usually are, with little boxes and cabinets, from which he takes the objects usually employed in his exhibitions. He produces his goblet, and shows the balls under them, which vanish and re-appear in the most approved style; now two or three are conjured into a space in a moment before vacant; presently these disappear again, and are perpetually divided and reunited. At every exclamation of the spectators, the little conjurer turns his eyes from side to side, as if looking around the house, smiles, casts his eyes modestly down, bows, and resumes his slight of hand.

He not only takes up the goblet from a stand and places them over the balls, but lays them there for a minute, and holds his hand up, to show the audience that he conceals nothing in his palm or sleeve. He then seizes the goblets again and goes on. This trick over, he puts his cups away and shuts the cabinet. He then knocks on the table, and apparently an egg, to which he points to secure attention; he touches the egg, which opens likewise, and a little bird starts into life, sings a roundelay, claps its enamelled wings—which are the real humming bird's feathers, beyond any metallic art in lustre—and then falls back into its egg. The little conjurer nods, smiles, rolls his eyes right and left, bows as before, and the egg disappears into the table; he bows again, and then sits down to estimate the effect performance is over. The height of this little gentleman is about three inches; this t ble and everything else being in due proportion. He stands on a high square pedestal, apparently of marble. It is, however, of tin painted white, and within it are all the wheels and works containing the mystery.

The census tables show the actual number of foreigners arrived in the United States from 1790 to 1850, 60 years, to have been 2,756,000, of whom it is not at all likely that more than 2,000,000 survived in June of the latter year. In the two years that have since elapsed, about 700,000 have arrived; so that of the whole population, now amounting to 25,000,000, not more than 2,700,000, or less than a tenth, are really of foreign birth.

About one-half of the entire immigration into the United States for the last twenty years, has been of the Irish people; about one-fourth Germans; and the remaining quarter consists of persons belonging to nearly every nation on the face of the earth. It may be assumed, therefore, that we have 1,350,000 Irish and 675,000 Germans amongour population.

Mode of Making Sheet Lead in China.—The Chinese, in manufacturing the thin sheet lead in which their teas are imported into this country, conduct the o eration in an exceedingly simple manner. The lumine are not rolled as from their extreme thinness might be supposed, nor cast in moulds, but the appearance of the surface might indicate; but actually cast at once in the state in which we see them. Two men are employed; one is seated on the floor, with a large flat stone before him, and a moveable flat stone stands at his side. His fellow workman stands beside him with a crucible containing the melted lead, and having poured a sufficient quantity of the latter on the other side of the moveable stone, and, placing it suddenly on the fluid lead, presses it out into a flat and thin plate, which he instantly removes from the stone. A second quantity of lead is poured on in a similar manner, and a similar plate formed; the process being carried on with singular rapidity. The rough edges of the plates are then cut off, and they are afterwards soldered together for use.

If an elephant can travel eight miles an hour and carry his trunk, how fast could he go if he had a little darkey to carry it for him?

The name "Artesian" applied to bored wells, is derived from the province of Artois, in France, where, it is said, they were first excavated.

The inhabitants of Stillwater, on Lake St. Croix, Minnesota, have been grievously annoyed by an extraordinary movement in the vast land slide of eight or ten acres has taken place, and constructed thereby an excellent steamboat landing place just where one was wanted, besides creating many new building lots in a convenient place.

In riding on the rail always take a seat just in the front of a fat old gentleman. In case of a collision he breaks the shock wonderfully.

Dr. Forbes, in the Quarterly Review, says: "The snake of the Sandwich Islands, in the Pacific Ocean, and across into the Indian Archipelago, the shell with one of their claws; the fish on the coral, and the dogs hunt fish in the shallow water of the reef; the men ride on turtles, and the shells are dangerous man-traps; the greater part of the sea-feet roost on branches, and many of the rats make their nests at the top of high palm-trees."

Tough Story of a Tough Cheese.—The Dutch must be tough! A large solid former said a cheese in Wisconsin, which he had been supposed to be more than fifty years old. It was a pet with the deceased, to whom it was presented when she was a little girl. She died last February, aged 67 years!

Plainfield, N. J. June 28, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

National Whig Nominations!

For President of the United States:
Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.

For Vice President:
WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North-Carolina.

The Nominations.

All the democratic papers we have seen since the nominations of their candidates, contain a biography of Gen. Franklin Pierce. They have a good reason for so doing—it is in fact necessity, for not one in a hundred of the party ever heard of him previous to the nomination, and are now called upon to make him President. We have no such reason, and are not required to tell our readers who Gen. Scott is. For 45 years he has been in the service of his country, valiantly, honorably and usefully performing his duties, often arduous and requiring great judgment, humanity and moderation, as well as skill and courage, and in all that time, he has never fallen short of the expectations of his country, but has many times received the thanks of Congress and of State Legislatures. He has commanded in many a well fought field and never lost a battle! He has been entrusted with many very responsible and delicate duties, and has never failed in securing a favorable result. In the difficulty with Great Britain, he by wisdom, firmness and moderation, prevented a war until the matter was settled by treaty. He was also commander of the U. S. forces at Charleston in Nullification times, when an irritating word from him would have lighted up the blaze of civil war, but his influence was sufficient to avert the calamity until better counsels prevailed. To him also was entrusted the delicate duty of removing the Cherokees from Georgia, which was done in the most humane and masterly manner, entirely satisfactory to all concerned.

Of his long and brilliant military career, commencing with the war of 1812 and ending with the conquest of Mexico, we need say but a word. The latter has placed him, not only in the view of his countrymen, but in that of the Duke of Wellington, and the nations of Europe, among the first, if not the very first General now living.

Old Chippewa has never failed in anything he ever undertook, and it is not at all probable he will now in this Presidential contest. He is the chosen candidate of New Jersey, and our seven delegates voted for him on every ballot. We are bound therefore to give him a rousing majority, nothing less than 3,000, and hard on to 4,000. He will get it, too.

Hon. Wm. A. Graham, our nominee for the Vice Presidency, has been a prominent man in political life for many years. He is now a member of Mr. Fillmore's Cabinet, Secretary of the Navy, has been Governor of his own State, and U. S. Senator, and has filled all these offices honorably to himself, and usefully for the country. The Whigs of North Carolina promise to give the ticket 10,000 majority.

Reader, choose ye between Scott and Pierce. One has served his country long, ably and faithfully; the other has done nothing particularly worthy of note or remembrance. One is known and honored by the whole civilized world; the other is but little known beyond the boundaries of his own State.

The Whig National Convention.

On Saturday evening, 19th, about a dozen ballotings were cast without any material difference. On Monday morning, Scott gained from Fillmore on every ballot, and on the 53d, the result stood

Scott, 159 Fillmore, 112 Webster 21

Which nominated Gen. Scott by 26 majority, and he was subsequently declared the unanimous choice of the Convention.

Wm. A. Graham, was nominated on the 2nd ballot, by receiving 232 votes to 52 for Mr. Bates, of Missouri.

The Nomination of Scott and Graham.

Is received by the Whigs in every section of the Union with great enthusiasm, and rejoicing. The largest ratification meetings of the season have been held in New York, Newark, New Brunswick, &c. in their honor, and more powder has been burnt than on any occasion for a long time past. The Middle and Western States are all but unanimous in favor, as are also a large majority of the whigs in the Southern and Eastern States; but we hear of dissatisfaction at some few points at the East and South. It is regarded as the strongest ticket that could be made, and it will be elected by a triumphant majority, we have every reason to believe.

As the Fourth of July will be celebrated next Monday, our usual publication day, we shall work off our next number on Saturday evening, for this time only. We do not intend to send the papers around the country next week, and as most of the subscribers will be in town, they will please call at the office for them.

The Western shore of Lake Superior, on the 5th inst. for a great extent, presented an unbroken field of ice, effectually obstructing navigation, a circumstance that, so far as known, has no precedent.

Fast and Cheap.—The St. Louis papers state that passengers now go through from that city to N. York via Chicago, in four days, at a cost of $20, and adds that they can now go from St. Louis to New York via Cincinnati in four days and a half, and for $21 50.

The Democratic Nominations.

We have not room this week for any comments. The greater portion of our citizens, we suppose, will visit Washington Rock, where ample and excellent accommodations have been provided for all. Large, airy dancing Hotel, furnished with every thing requisite; and a rich treat may be expected, from an orator seldom equalled, a fine Band of singers, a good dinner, and all the attendants, needful to enumerate.

There will also be time enough to visit the Fair at Laing's Hall, which should not be neglected by any body. Pleasure and profit will be there combined, and money expended well laid out, for you get your money's worth, and it will promote a good cause besides. Try it.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The U. S. steamship Franklin arrived at New York on the 21st inst. with 4 days' later news.

The Cunard steamer Niagara arrived at Boston, via Halifax, Friday morning, with 3 days still later, to the 12th inst.

The Collins steamer Atlantic arrived Saturday afternoon, 10 days from Liverpool, with news to the 16th inst. 3 days later.

Cotton advanced 1-8d; Flour declined 2d. Corn unchanged. Business in the manufacturing districts was active.

The steamship Great Britain has been placed on the route between Liverpool and Australia.

France.—A rupture with Belgium is threatened, which may come to something.

The Cape of Good Hope mail packet Harbinger, with dates from the Cape to the 2d May had arrived. The news showed most clearly that, contrary to all expectations, the war is far from being finished. The Kaffirs had rallied throughout the Amatolas, and had gone back to the Waterkloof, where Macomo was in command, and had been joined by a large number of rebel Hottentots. The Kaffirs are as much unsubdued as ever and fight with the greatest energy and fierceness. It was thought, however, that the policy of the new Commander in Chief, General Cathcart, would soon sell powerfully upon them. He had directed that the cattle of the Kaffirs should be destroyed, when captured. Two of the rebel Chiefs had been captured and sentenced to be hung to strike terror into the remaining Chiefs.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The Prometheus arrived at New York from San Juan, on Monday morning of last week with 450 passengers, $530,000 in gold, and 3 days' later news to May 19th. Not important.

Provisions at the mines were very abundant, and gold continued to be gathered in immense quantities.

The steamer Hermann sailed from New York for Southampton and Bremen on the 19th inst. with 80 passengers and $500,000 in specie.

The Baltic sailed for Liverpool on Saturday, with 180 passengers and $435,500 in specie.

In New Orleans, for the week ending June 12, there were 129 deaths by cholera.

Collision.—The splendid steamer Northern Indiana last Wednesday morning ran into the schr. Plymouth, cutting her in two, near Cleveland. The schr. sunk immediately, having on board 8,300 bush. wheat, 150 barrels flour, and 17 bbls ashes. The 10 persons on board were saved. The night was clear and both vessels had lights, so the accident is unaccountable.

WILLOWS. There are $5,000,000 worth of willows imported into this country every year from Belgium and France, for making baskets, and for other purposes. They sell for $125 per ton, and the demand is greatly increasing, and is now much greater than the supply. They grow equally well in America as in Belgium, but need low, swampy land, that is fit for nothing else. They need no cultivation at all. In planting the first time, all that is necessary is to stick the cuttings into the soil in the spring. The next fall, the first year's shoots should be cut down; and the next year they will come out thick and strong, and yield an abundant and most profitable crop. The common English willow, or osier, is the best variety for baskets.

Liberality of Slaves.—A gentleman from Maine, on a visit to Chasleston S. C., writes in the Christian Mirror, that there are four thousand Methodist colored communicants in and near Charlestonand their contributions for benevolent purposes during the year past amounted to more than 3 dollars to a member.

Bunyan.—The following is well authenticated of John Bunyan. While in Bedford jail, he was called upon by a Quaker, desirous of talking with him. "Friend John," said he, "I am come to thee with a message from the Lord; and after having searched for thee in half the prisons of England, I am glad I have thee at last." "If the Lord had sent you," returned Bunyan, "you need not have taken so much pains to find me out, for the Lord knows I have been here these twelve years."

The Chinese junk Keying, which it will be recollected, was exhibited at Boston and New York several yeaas since; was recently sold at auction at London for £2900.

No Joke.—An exchange paper says—"Those farmers who hesitate about their ability to take a newspaper, are requested to keep one more hen than usual. The profits will pay all costs."

That prolific writer, G. P. R James, has produced his seventieth novel!

Nine hundred and forty-two kinds of apples are cultivated in England.

Help and give willingly, when you have any thing, and think not the more of yourself; and if you have nothing, keep the cup of cold water always at hand, and think not the less of yourself

Avarice in old age, says Cicero, is foolish; for what can be more absurd, than to increase our provisions for the road, the nearer we approach to our journey's end.

If half the pains were taken by some people to perform the labor allotted them, that are taken by them to avoid it, we should hear much less about the troubles of life, and see much more actually completed.

We cut the following from a late Irish paper: "To let, a suite of rooms consisting of a parlor and coal hin all on the same floor." Queer suite of rooms, that.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

We have not room this week for any comments. The greater portion of our citizens, we suppose, will visit Washington Rock, where ample and excellent accommodations have been provided for all. Large, airy dancing Hotel, furnished with every thing requisite; and a rich treat may be expected, from an orator seldom equalled, a fine Band of singers, a good dinner, and all the attendants, needful to enumerate.

There will also be time enough to visit the Fair at Laing's Hall, which should not be neglected by any body. Pleasure and profit will be there combined, and money expended well laid out, for you get your money's worth, and it will promote a good cause besides. Try it.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The U. S. steamship Franklin arrived at New York on the 21st inst. with 4 days' later news.

The Cunard steamer Niagara arrived at Boston, via Halifax, Friday morning, with 3 days still later, to the 12th inst.

The Collins steamer Atlantic arrived Saturday afternoon, 10 days from Liverpool, with news to the 16th inst. 3 days later.

Cotton advanced 1-8d; Flour declined 2d. Corn unchanged. Business in the manufacturing districts was active.

The steamship Great Britain has been placed on the route between Liverpool and Australia.

France.—A rupture with Belgium is threatened, which may come to something.

The Cape of Good Hope mail packet Harbinger, with dates from the Cape to the 2d May had arrived. The news showed most clearly that, contrary to all expectations, the war is far from being finished. The Kaffirs had rallied throughout the Amatolas, and had gone back to the Waterkloof, where Macomo was in command, and had been joined by a large number of rebel Hottentots. The Kaffirs are as much unsubdued as ever and fight with the greatest energy and fierceness. It was thought, however, that the policy of the new Commander in Chief, General Cathcart, would soon sell powerfully upon them. He had directed that the cattle of the Kaffirs should be destroyed, when captured. Two of the rebel Chiefs had been captured and sentenced to be hung to strike terror into the remaining Chiefs.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The Prometheus arrived at New York from San Juan, on Monday morning of last week with 450 passengers, $530,000 in gold, and 3 days' later news to May 19th. Not important.

Provisions at the mines were very abundant, and gold continued to be gathered in immense quantities.

The steamer Hermann sailed from New York for Southampton and Bremen on the 19th inst. with 80 passengers and $500,000 in specie.

The Baltic sailed for Liverpool on Saturday, with 180 passengers and $435,500 in specie.

In New Orleans, for the week ending June 12, there were 129 deaths by cholera.

Collision.—The splendid steamer Northern Indiana last Wednesday morning ran into the schr. Plymouth, cutting her in two, near Cleveland. The schr. sunk immediately, having on board 8,300 bush. wheat, 150 barrels flour, and 17 bbls ashes. The 10 persons on board were saved. The night was clear and both vessels had lights, so the accident is unaccountable.

WILLOWS. There are $5,000,000 worth of willows imported into this country every year from Belgium and France, for making baskets, and for other purposes. They sell for $125 per ton, and the demand is greatly increasing, and is now much greater than the supply. They grow equally well in America as in Belgium, but need low, swampy land, that is fit for nothing else. They need no cultivation at all. In planting the first time, all that is necessary is to stick the cuttings into the soil in the spring. The next fall, the first year's shoots should be cut down; and the next year they will come out thick and strong, and yield an abundant and most profitable crop. The common English willow, or osier, is the best variety for baskets.

Liberality of Slaves.—A gentleman from Maine, on a visit to Chasleston S. C., writes in the Christian Mirror, that there are four thousand Methodist colored communicants in and near Charlestonand their contributions for benevolent purposes during the year past amounted to more than 3 dollars to a member.

Bunyan.—The following is well authenticated of John Bunyan. While in Bedford jail, he was called upon by a Quaker, desirous of talking with him. "Friend John," said he, "I am come to thee with a message from the Lord; and after having searched for thee in half the prisons of England, I am glad I have thee at last." "If the Lord had sent you," returned Bunyan, "you need not have taken so much pains to find me out, for the Lord knows I have been here these twelve years."

The Chinese junk Keying, which it will be recollected, was exhibited at Boston and New York several yeaas since; was recently sold at auction at London for £2900.

No Joke.—An exchange paper says—"Those farmers who hesitate about their ability to take a newspaper, are requested to keep one more hen than usual. The profits will pay all costs."

That prolific writer, G. P. R James, has produced his seventieth novel!

Nine hundred and forty-two kinds of apples are cultivated in England.

Help and give willingly, when you have any thing, and think not the more of yourself; and if you have nothing, keep the cup of cold water always at hand, and think not the less of yourself

Avarice in old age, says Cicero, is foolish; for what can be more absurd, than to increase our provisions for the road, the nearer we approach to our journey's end.

If half the pains were taken by some people to perform the labor allotted them, that are taken by them to avoid it, we should hear much less about the troubles of life, and see much more actually completed.

We cut the following from a late Irish paper: "To let, a suite of rooms consisting of a parlor and coal hin all on the same floor." Queer suite of rooms, that.

"How," said Lord A. to a friend who wished to convey a matter of importance to a lady without communicating directly with her, "how can you be certain of her reading the letter, seeing that you have directed to her husband?" "That I have managed without the possibility of failure," was the answer. "She'll open it to a certainty, for I have put 'private' in the corner."

An old lady, who had been reading the famous moon story very attentively remarked with emphasis, that the idea of the moon's being inhabited was incredible to believe, "for," said she "what becomes of the people in the new moon, when there is nothing left of it but a little circle?"

The man who walks on a railroad track, deserver to be injured.

War Song of Etowee.

From the Dreams of Alford and Inez, by BERNARD A. REYNOLDS.

To battle! to battle! red arrows of war,
The plume of your chieftain is waving afar,
And his war hoop is stirring the leaves of the tree,
That blooms on the land of the fierce Cherokee.

From the billowy banks of our own Landenwah,
To the turbulent streams that flow by Chehah,
From the hills that look down on the smiling Santee
The chieftains are seeking the fierce Cherokee.

Their brave bands are singing the long battle song
And the pine forest shakes as their files pass along
By the mountains that bind the rash Waterpe,
To the far hunting ground of the fierce Cherokee.

For the chiefs of Choctaw are leagu'd with the foe,
Those chiefs so expert with the hatchet and bow,
And their war sticks are red with the blood of the free,
That march forth to war with the fierce Cherokee.

But the Chickasaw chiefs, so famous in fight,
Who flash in the flight as the stars shine at night,
Who foam in the forest like waves on the seas,
Have dash'd their wild hands on the fierce Cherokee.

Then up to the fight! for the arms you wield,
Are the gems that adorned the bright battle field,
Where Orb and Stone, and strong Sawnee,
Check'd the dark Choctaw and fierce Cherokee.

Then up to the fight! for, like a lance on the light,
The Catawba's are coming to cheer our sight,
And Blackhawk and Eagle, from the purple Pedee
To join in chastising the fierce Cherokee.

Shall our warriors—the pride of our Islands,
Bealow to march on when their chieftain commands?
Shall the heroes that slew the dark Tuscahee—
Now tremble and flee from the fierce Cherokee?

Shall the warriors of old Tuscarora—
Shall the arrows of old Tuscaloosa
Submit to the yoke of the false Yemassee?
Or fly from the knife of the fierce Cherokee?

No! then up to the fight! your chief is afar,
And rolls on the tide of tumultuous war—
And swift as the storm stripe the leaves from the tree,
He puts forth his hands on the fierce Cherokee!

THE HEAVES.—I once knew a horse very much afflicted with the heaves; he was owned by one of my neighbors about eighteen months, at the end of which time he was perfectly free, and was disposed of for a sound horse to one of my neighbors, who kept him about six years without any appearance of the disorder. This was the way the horse was treated the first twelve months: Into a tub containing twenty gallons of water, put a piece of unslacked lime about as large as a pint measure, and when the lime is slacked and settled to the bottom, let the horse drink the water, renewing it twice a week, and allowing the horse no other drink when at home but wet feed. My neighbor used to give his horse about one gill of good cidervinegar with his grain each day for about six months, but continued lime water about one year. I think lime water occasionally, a good preventative also.

American Corn in Jerusalem.

The Sabbath Recorder speaking of Indian corn in Palestine, relates the following story:

A traveler in 1849 felt a strong impression to take a beautiful twelve-rowed ear of Indian corn, that was presented to him by a friend from the country; and he put it into his trunk, intending to drop some of its grains in some opportune spot. When they arrived at Meshullam a hotel, in Jerusalem, after he had told them of his efforts in agriculture, and found that the friends were Americans, he said one day:—"In 1825, I traveled in the United States, and visited Philadelphia in the summer; and at dinner had a mess of sweet green-corn—what was called hot corn by the servants. Since I have turned my attention to planting, O, how often I have wished for one such ear of corn to plant in my fatherland." The friend listened, and as he said this, impulsively went to a trunk, fumbled hastily to the bottom, and produced his ear of corn, exclaiming: "Now I know why I had to bring this ear of corn with me; take it, for it must be for you;" and related his impression of mind. Meshullman thanked God aloud before them, and said: "Yes, surely it was the heavenly Spirit from God that put it into your heart to bring it so far; for none but He knew how greatly and often I had desired to obtain some. I never saw so large a one as this."

FRENCH AND GERMAN CUSTOMS.

N. P. Willis, some years since, published his testimony to a practice, in the churches of Germany, when the preacher brought any one of the main divisions of his discourse to its close, of panning, blowing his nose, and clearing his throat, as a signal for the people to avail themselves of the interval to perform the same exercise. The statement has been sufficiently ridiculed, as a traveler's figment. We observe, however, in the Charleston News, of the 16th ult., an undesigned confirmation of Willis' statement, in the following, which we extract from a letter by its Paris correspondent:

"There are several Protestant churches in Paris, at one of which—Calvinist—I heard, last Sunday, a most eloquent sermon, from Rev. Mr. Coquerel. The building, a very plain one, has, evidently, been a Catholic church. In changing the worship, however the chapels, or rather, the interior projecting walls forming them, have not been removed, but are now filled up by seats, so that persons occupying some of them, are concealed entirely from the preacher, and he from them. The sermon was an hour in length, and divided into three parts, the divisions being indicated by the preacher's taking a drink of water, and then throwing his nose most emphatically, wherewupon the whole congregation, with one accord, did likewise, making the hardest 'blow' I have experienced since landing at Liverpool. This I am informed, occurs regularly and systematically every Sunday, twice during the discourse."

"Jerry," said Col. Delancy to a brother of the bot, "there's an illigant pair of top boots you have on, anyhow." "Tops!" repied Jerry; "Mother, Mary Wellington." "Well, then, what 'tops' are somethence," retorted the other, "I thought they were tops." "And why?" "Because you haven't a bit of bottom to either of 'em." "Arrah! go out of that wid yez, you sack-less fellow."

Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.

Are a combination of the choicest remedies in the vegetable kingdom, and are entirely free from any thing that can injure the most delicate system. They are a sure remedy for Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great Depression of Spirits.

These Bitters will positively cure any of the above diseases, except in cases of long standing, and where the constitution has been entirely destroyed by the use of mercury or other means.

Hundreds of the most respectable citizens of Philadelphia can certify to the above facts.

Hundreds of the certificates of cures performed by these Bitters in this city alone, can be seen at the Depot.

Hundreds of cases of debility and languor of the system, derangement of the liver and stomach want of appetite, &c., there are frequently the result of too close application and a thousand other causes we cannot here name but we would say to all so afflicted, do as we have done—get a bottle or two of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. Jackson, and our word for it, you will be cured We recommend this medicine knowing from experience that it is much superior to the generality of patent medicines we would set our readers, purchase none unless prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Camphor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING

INTERESTING CURE OF CROUP.

NOT EX NOW QUICKLY IT CURES.

Plattsburgh, July 17th, 1851.

Dr. A. L. Scovill.—If a mother's thanks and blessings are of any value to you, please accept mine. To the effects of Dr Rogers' Syrup of Liverwort, Tar and Cowslip, I owe, under Providence, the life of a child. It was administered to my little boy, according to the directions on pages of the pamphlet around the bottle, while he was laboring under a most distressing and dangerous attack of CROUP. In a very few moments, the breathing of the little sufferer became easier, and within 12 hours every symptom of the disorder was gone. I wish from my heart that every mother could be made acquainted with the value of your preparation as a cure for this frightful and too often fatal disease, croup.

Yours, with respect,

MATILDA LEVERETT.

CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on the outside wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. L. SCOVILL & CO.

For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Jerkin Hall, 416 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.

Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

PRICE—In large bottles, $1.00, or 6 bottles for $5.00.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

Wm. Dunn & Co. $6,00; Titsworth, Dunn & Co. 2,75; Edgar Ayres, Brooklyn, 1,00; C. Boice, Esq. 1,00; Edward Drake, 1,00.

MARRIED.

At Newark, 23d inst. by Rev. E. H. Stoker, Cornelius S. Vermeule to Miss Elizabeth Woodson, both of Plainfield.

At Rahway, 21st inst. Wm Coddington to Hannah A. Coriell, both of that place.

DIED.

In this place, on the 21st inst. William L., son of Wm. Drake, proprietor of the Gazette, aged 7 months and 7 days.

At Elizabethtown, 20th inst. Hannah, wife of John Stiles, aged 70 years.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!

Just Received, Twenty Tons of

Peruvian Guano,

And For Sale in large or small quantities, at about New York prices. WM VAIL.

New Market, June 28, 1852.—6m*

12 South Down Sheep

AND FOUR LAMBS, For Sale by the Subscribor, on his Farm, near Plainfield.

June 21, 1852. EDWARD ROACH.

Farms For Sale, or Exchange for a place in the vicinity of Plainfield.

A Improved Farm of 211 acres of best quality Land on Rock Creek, State of Illinois, with a House and Barn; fine situation, and a part under cultivation, being 16 miles west of the present termination of the Aurora Branch Railroad, which road will be extended west and run within 5 miles of said farm. Aurora is a thriving place on Fox River containing a population of over 3000.

Also, an unimproved farm of 122 acres lying 5 miles north of Aurora, which is well adapted for a good farm. The neighborhood is well settled.

Also, 160 acres of Land, unimproved, situated on Third Lake, near the City of Madison, the capital of Wisconsin, being only 4 miles distant. For further information apply to the subscriber, opposite the residence of Rev. Mr. Whittaker. JOHN J. WALLIS.

Plainfield, June 21, 1852.—3w

Sheriff's Sale.

N. J. Sup. Court, Essex. Fi. fa. for sale, 24.

John Potter vs. Samuel D. Pierce.

By virtue of the above stated writ of Fieri Facias to me directed, I shall expose for sale at Public Vendue, at the Court House in the city of Newark, on Friday, the 23d day of July next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. all the right, title, and interest of the defendant of, in and to all those tracts or parcels of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being in the township of Plainfield, &c.

The 1st, Beginning at a stake standing in the line of the line of the S. W. end of James Williams' lot, and the northwesterly line of the road leading to Bonhamtown, from thence with James Williams' line and leading thereon N. 49 deg. W. 11 chains 10 links to a stake in Moses DeCamp's line, thence with it and binding thereon S. 40 deg. 45 min. W. 5 ch. 92 links to John Tucker's corner, thence with his line and binding on it S. 49 deg. E. 5 chains 92 links to another of said Tucker's corners and binding on said Tucker's corner, thence still with said Tucker's line and on it S. 40 deg. 45 min. W. 5 ch. 92 links to another of said Tucker's corners, thence S. 49 deg. E. 5 ch. 69 links to a stake in Williams' line binding on the southerly of the said E. Williams' line and binding thereon, running N. 80 deg. E. 5 chains 92 links to the place of beginning, containing 6 acres, more or less.

The 2d, Beginning at an old oak stump which is the corner of Saml. Richards and James Roll's land, and running S. 40 1-2 deg. E. 85 links to a stake, thence S. 1 ch. 70 links to a stone, thence S. 49 deg. W. 2 ch. 67 links to a stone in Brooks Rolls line, thence N 68 1-2 deg. E. to the place of beginning.

The 3d, Beginning on the main road from Elizabethtown to Plainfield, at the corner of Stephen Pierson's residence and Eli Manahey's manufacturing establishment. Size of the lot 50 feet front and rear by 150 feet deep, it being the house and lot William Hayes occupied a number of years.

The 4th. Beginning at a stone in the S.W. corner and in the side of the road leading from Westfield to Scotch Plains, and at the entrance of the road leading to Rahway, thence S. 46 deg. E and binding thereon to Theophilus Pierson's corner in the side of the said road 6 ch. 22 links to a stake by the side of said road, thence N. 41 deg. E. and binding on said Pierson's line 17 ch. 50 1-2 links to a corner of land of Joseph Quimby, dec'd, thence N. 41 deg. W. binding on said Quimby's 6 ch. 38 links to a stone by the side of the road that leads from Westfield to Scotch Plains, thence S. 41 deg. W. binding on said road, 15 ch. 5 1-2 links, to the place of beginning, containing 10 acres and 20 perches more or less, being the same lot numbered from 1 to 12, also the 27 lowing lots 20, 21, 26, 30, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 43, and 52, and a triangular piece of land 2. of the number 1 on the map of Scotch Plains, made by Wm. Hyer, and the only parcel of Land will come fully separate. W. PIERSON,

Newark, June 21, 1852. Sheriff.

The Free Banking Law passed the Connecticut House of Representatives by a vote of twenty-two to nine, and subsequently passed the Senate.

Some forty thousand bushels of apples have been shipped from Milwaukie, for New York, this season.

The ancient walls of Panama are being taken down, piece of which they are composed is to be used in the construction of buildings. The energy of the Yankees who have settled on the Isthmus since the opening of California travel, has expanded the City of Panama until the old walls were found quite too contracted. The principal streets are now to be extended, indefinitely, of course.

Modern Steel.—The Milwaukie Advertiser says that a gentleman of that city has invented a spirit stove, which, while only a foot square, will warm an ordinary sized room, weighs only two pounds, is convenient for carriages, cars, and even small ones may be carried in one's pocket of a cold day, and producing neither soot, smoke, nor ashes, might be as ornamental a piece for personal wear, as a watch, or breastpin. It consumes only a pint of alcohol per day.

The Chicago Journal states that Mr. McCormick has sent out 581 Reapers and Mowing Machines from that city, the present season. One was sent to Germany, one to Alabama, one hundred to "the Jerseys," and one to El Dorado.

"Long Dresses Cut," by Steam.—A London paper says that "one pound of cotton, which formerly could only be spun into a thread of 168 yards long; can now, by the application of steam, be produced a thread of 167 miles in length!"

A notorious sharper having observed there was no knowing one's friends till they were tried, was asked if most of his friends had not been tried already.

How do ships get on fire? Why, just as houses do, by accident. If you take a small lock of cotton, soak it with well-boiled linseed oil, and without picking it apart, lay it in the sun, it will burn by spontaneous combustion in twenty minutes; in the shade it will blaze in two or three hours! How many mysterious fires, "supposed to be the work of an incendiary," have caught in some similar way!

A gentleman who did not trust to his memory wrote in his pocket-book:—"I must be married when I get to town."

An hour in the morning is worth two in the afternoon.

Spring & Summer Dry Goods

HITCHCOCK & LEADBEATER, No. 247 Broadway, New-York, have in store one of the finest assortments in the city of

FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS,

suitable for every season of the year, and every climate, and would especially invite attention to their large and elegant stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER DRESS GOODS,

which they have just purchased for cash, for nearly half price, and are enabled to offer at

VERY GREAT BARGAINS!

Their stock includes every variety of Silks, Shawls, De Laines, Barege De Laines, Challies, Printed Muslins and Lawns, Barteges, Silk Tissues, Grenadines, Ginghams, Delaines, Parasol Silks, &c., &c.,

MOURNING GOODS OF EVERY KIND.

A full and complete assortment always on hand, including Black Bombazines, Alpacas, Challies, Canton Crapes, De Laines, &c., &c., which parties interested will find desirable.

FANCY GOODS OF VARIOUS KINDS.

Alpinin and embroidered Collars, Capes, Capinets, Cravats, Glove Collars, Mitts, Trimming Laces, &c., &c.,

A SPLENDID STOCK OF RIBBONS,

bought very low for cash, which the ladies will find desirable and cheap, and which Milliners will find it their interest to examine before purchasing elsewhere.

HOUSEWIFE AND FAMILY GOODS,

as Linens, Table Damasks, Napkins, Towels, Towellings, Crash, Shirtings and Sheetings, Muslins, rich embroidered

LACE AND MUSLIN WINDOW DRAPERIES,

in great variety, and of every desirable price

GENTLEMAN'S FURNISHINGS.

A very large and complete assortment—as Kid, Silk and Thread Gloves; Silk and Summer Cravats; Silk and Linen Hdkf. handkerchiefs; Cotton, Silk and Merino Undershirts and Drawers; Socks, &c., &c., at prices much lower than the same articles can be found at the

GENTLEMAN'S FURFISHING STORES.

Please call and examine, and if not found desirable and reasonable, you will not be desired to purchase.

Country Merchants will find it to their interest to look through our stock, as they can here select any article they wish, in any quantity they desire, and at prices which they will find it to their interest to purchase at, as most of our goods are purchased at auction, and are the best styles, and full 30 per cent. below the ordinary jobbing rates

Terms invariably Cash—and only One Price.

New York, June 21, 1852.—1y

IRA PRUDEN,

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries, Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning-Fluid, &c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual.

June 14, 1852.

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES FACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 20 cents a piece, (stripping the walls and paste included,) in the old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of

Striping, Gold Bronze and Velvet Papers from 10 cents to 84 per piece A Room papered in 4 hours.

N. B. Store for Paper Hanging Manufacturers.

Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852. 6m

NOTICE.

Miss C. Prosch,

WOULD hereby inform her many friends and the public that she has just returned from the city, extending her suit of rooms, on a much larger and improved plan than any other in this city, and is now ready to furnish Daguerreotypes second to none. Family Groups, from two to twenty, taken to give satisfaction; also children of all ages, in a few seconds of time. Portraits of sick and deceased persons taken whenever called upon Also Daguerreotypes taken on Sundays.

Miss C. PROSCH has no connection with any other establishment, and would respectfully wish her friends to bear in mind that she can always be found at 249 Broad-street, only, where she trusts to meet that patronage so long and liberally bestowed upon her.

June 1.—3m 249 Broad-street, NEWARK.

Machinery Oil,

75 CTS. a gallon, better than Sweet Oil, at a quarter of the price. For Sale by

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by

May 4, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. If not attended to soon, they will be passed over for collection. As I don't wish to put extra on any one, I give this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, April 9, 1852

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, Cherry Street.

Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any thing we can eat, or do anything with, taken in exchange for goods. I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

Hoover's Black Ink,

1852. Post in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

Auction Sale.

THE Subscriber will sell at Public Auction, on the premises of Abraham Parker, in Scotch Plains, (Quibbletown,) on the 22d day of June inst., at 2 o'clock, P. M., on the premises, the Real Estate late of said Parker, deceased, consisting of a Two-story House with Lot and Garden, situated on the west corner of Second and New Streets, in Plainfield, N. J.

Any information that may be wanted in reference to said property, will be cheerfully furnished by calling on the subscriber, or Smith W. Parker on the premises.

SALE POSITIVE. ZACHARIAH WEBSTER.

Plainfield, May 6, 1852. Administrator.

1852.

SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

WE would say to our friends and customers and to all the public in addition to our previous notice, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not praise up our Goods with a view of trying to make the people believe them to be what they are not, but intend that their style and quality shall speak for themselves. DeLaines from 10cts to 3s.; Ginghams and Berage de Laines new styles from 18d to 1s.; plain and watered Poplin Silks from 3s. to 10s. per yard. Prints any variety from 4 to 14 cts.; a good lot of Ladies' Gloves from 12d to 75; also Linen Gloves, Bleached and Brown Muslins very cheap. Gingham from 10 cts. to 28, and more than a thousand other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloths, Plain and Fancy Cassimeres, a full ratio assortment of Yeddings any or all of which can be cut and made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Dry Goods from the

Plainest and Cheapest

To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it an object to Cash purchasers from 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we are resolved to sell Dry Goods cheap. We devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

SILKS! SILKS!! SILKS!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also Cashmeres, with new Spring Styles, so we call the attention of Ladies in particular to request, at ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

May 3d, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Thorn's new building in Cherry st., 2nd below Dr. Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the vicinity of Plainfield. He has on hand a large stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns, DeLaines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds. A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Colonades, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Pork, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders. Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes,

Tubs, Baskets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, wisks shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Corn and Oats, Wheat Bran, &c.

LIME, Rhode Island and Glens Falls.

☞ All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods. JAMES M. DUNN.

April 20, 1852.—1y.

House and Lots for Sale.

Situated on the corner of Fifth and Centre Streets, the house is nearly new, filled in with brick, five rooms on first floor, six on second, with garret and cellar—fruit trees of different kinds, and a never failing well of water. Said premises is well located for private residence. For particulars apply to

WILLIAM SUTTON.

Plainfield, Feb. 24th, 1852.

Lawrence's Gallery,

203 Broadway, 3 doors below Fulton-

STREET, NEW YORK.

THE proprietor having built this establishment expressly for Daguerreotyping, with a view to obviate many of the difficulties that surround the Daguerrian Artist, has found after a trial of two years, that his expectations have been fully realized. The arrangement of light is new and produces uniformly an even and bold pictures, with the middle, or neutral tints, so long looked for by Artists. One of the rooms is arranged with a sky light provided with a blind for softening the strong light. Fifty persons can be taken with great facility. The Operating Department is conducted by persons of great experience and skill, and none but good likenesses will be sent out. Mr. Lawrence has been the first to produce Daguerreotypes the size of life. They are produced with a Camera of immense size, and on plates three times larger than those usually used, producing a picture having all the softness and delicacy of the finest Miniature.

Pictures of every description copied with perfect accuracy. Children of all ages taken. Stormy or cloudy weather no detriment to taking good pictures. The public of Plainfield and vicinity are invited to visit the Rooms, which are free to all.

The Subscriber's PRIZE MEDAL, was awarded to Mr. Lawrence, at the WORLD'S FAIR IN LONDON, for the BEST Daguerreotypes. Enough said.

April 26th, 1852.—3m. M. M. LAWRENCE.

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John B. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite French's Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE, SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods on hand. Also for Sale

A Horse and Buggy.

Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute all orders in all the branches of his business, and will quick and cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge for yourselves. May 17, 1852.—tf

A CHOICE ASSORTMENT OF

GARDEN, FIELD and FLOWER SEEDS,

—WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.—

WILLIAM CAIRNS

INFORMS his friends and the public that he has succeeded Mr. John Eadie, in the Seed Store, 141 Market-street, Newark.

W. C flatters himself that his long experience in the Seed business, and the facilities he has of procuring the best quality of SEEDS grown in this country and in Europe, coupled with punctuality and strict attention to business, will secure to him a liberal share of patronage.

W. C has laid in his stock of new seeds for the season, to which he invites the attention of purchasers.

Catalogues forwarded to postpaid applications.

Orders from the country promptly attended to.

N. B.—Jobbing punctually attended to by the day, or contract, by practical men.

May 3d, 1852.—2m.

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant.

do. Sanative Pills Also,

Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops. These drugs are an agreeable, effectual remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholic, Cramps, pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Atwood's Spinal Elixir for the spine disease. Also, Hunt's Remedy for the Kidneys and Bladder. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by

April 20, 1852. JAMES M. DUNN.

German Washing Powder, & Fluid

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

BARAGE DELAINES.—a few pieces Just Received and selling cheap.

Calicoes, fast colors, for 6 cents per yard

May 3, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

JOHN JELLIFF'S OLD ESTABLISHED

Furniture Warehouse,

201 & 203 Broad Street, Newark.

Great Improvements in his Stock.—New Spring Goods.

Mr. J. having remodelled and enlarged his Warehouse is happy to say he is now ready to receive calls, and invites the public generally, and his friends and customers in particular, to call and see his wares.

Having visited the New York Sales, he was enabled to purchase to the wants, convenience, and luxury of Home nearly

All the Goods for the Season Ensuing in the way of Cabinet Furniture, and his wares having received satisfactory tests during that time, he does not consider it necessary to say more as to the quality of his goods. He will only add, however, that the surprising number to and the solid utility universally noticed them. He would invite attention to his

NEW SPRING STYLES,

And, without inquiries, to compliment his Past Loans Rooms contain the

Largest, Most Complete and Extensive Assortment

That can be found in the State, and for beauty of design and workmanship of specimens, he challenges competition. They are got up in the most approved

ANCIENT AND MODERN STYLES.

Comprising all the varieties of ample and fancy woods, in Mahogany, Rosewood, Veneers, Parlor, Library, Dining and Dining Room, and Kitchen Furniture usually called for, including Mattresses, Palliasses, and Cushions, of every description.

Churches, Hotels, Saloons, Halls, Counting Houses, Offices, &c. &c. furnished at short notice.

Cheap, Cheap, Very Cheap Furniture!!

No necessity of going to New York, or the Junk Shops for cheap furniture, as I will sell you better goods at least as cheap, and you will be saved the expense of freetage, freight, breakage, and taxable of going after it.

A Large Stock of Very Low-Priced Furniture.

Sofas, within reach of Mahogany Chairs, $12.50 Tetes best do. 88 cts.; common do. 44 cts.; Card Tables $11; Bedsteads $2; Tea Tables $2 each; Looking Glasses at all prices. Everything else in the same proportion.

JOHN JELLIFF, 201 and 203 Broad st.

May 3, 1852.—2m NEWARK, N. J.

Furniture and Chair WAREHOUSE,

W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS,

219 Market-st., Newark, N. J.,

(A few Doors West of Broad.)

WE invite the attention of our friends and the citizens of Elizabethtown, Plainfield, Rahway, as well as the surrounding country, to the largest, best, and most complete, and (quality of goods considered) cheapest assortment of Furniture, Mattresses, &c. ever offered in this State, a fact of which all may fully satisfy themselves who will favor us with a call. Our stock consists in part of Parlor, Chamber, Dining room Bed-room, Library, Hall, and Kitchen Furniture, &c. viz: Sofas, Tete a Tetes, Divans, Ottomans; Mahogany and marble top Centre Tables, Side Tables, Card Tables in any Arm and Rocking Chairs, Parlor Chairs, Italian Rush Seat do. &c.

Book Cases, Wardrobes, Writing Desks and Secretary's reading Tables, Dressing Bureaus, French and Cottage Bedsteads, Plain do., Washstands, Dining Washstands, &c. &c.; also about 40 dozen Walnut and Maple Cane-seat Chairs of our own manufacture, and warranted superior to anything of the kind.

Mattresses of Curled Hair, Husk, Moss and Straw. We have also a large stock of New York Furniture, which we will sell at New York prices, and save you the freight, cartage, ferriage, &c., &c., which is attendant on purchasing in New York.

N. B. Persons residing within six or seven miles of Newark, can have Furniture of any kind or description furniture delivered at their residences free of charge, where bills amount to $25 or over, as we have a large furniture wagon expressly for that purpose, and that we are responsible for our wares until they are safely delivered in your own residences. We do this in order to induce persons to step at Newark instead of going to New York. Don't forget the number, 219 Market-st., Newark, N. J. W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS.

April 20, 1852.—3m.

FIRST PREMIUM MILLINERY Establishment and STRAW BONNET Manufactory, No. 564 Broadway, near Niblo's Garden, New York. Mrs. Wm. SIMMONS respectfully announces to her numerous patrons and the public that she is now prepared to exhibit at her Show Rooms a splendid and unique assortment of Millinery and Straw Goods of her own manufacture, which are complete in all the modern improvements, latest styles and fashions, together with magnificent selections of Paris Millinery, which for diversity of patterns, richness and taste is pronounced immeasurably all former importations. Also, a large and interesting invoice of Lace, Straws, Straw Blondes, and an endless variety. Merchants and Milliners supplied with pattern Bonnets.

Mrs. WM. SIMMONS, 564 Broadway.

April 20, 1852—3m. New York.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the new stand on Somerset-st., next to the corner of Front street, and near French's mill, where they are prepared to sell at retail or wholesale, for cash or to the regular and good as the best, including Flour and Feed, also Crockery and Earthen Ware.

Produce of all kinds wanted in exchange for groceries. Thankful for past favors, asks a continuance of the same.

☞ Mrs. Yoe's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaint.

JOHNSON & LYON.

N. B. All persons indebted to the subscriber are requested to call and settle without delay.

April 2, 1852.—1y. CHARLES JOHNSON.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of I. S. Dunham & Co., where he has on hand a full assortment of the above, together with silver work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and Wool taken in exchange for Clocks.

Plainfield, April 16, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

LIGHTNING RODS!

M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 132 East Twenty-A. Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and erect Lightning Rods on Franklin's plan. Their Rods' which have now been in use seventeen years, with out a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. All the Rods erected by this establishment during the last year, and his rods are always put up in accordance with certain rules which he has formulated and adopted as the result of his experience. An additional feature which he has found to be of the highest value in the means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and exposed as regards lightning, and the rules, and the number and arrangement of the rods, to suit the peculiar features of the case, which is the reason why so many of the common round rods have failed to protect buildings. Full directions for the use of which electricity is governed, they are not arranged on buildings in such a manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Lightning rods have been planted on the houses of Mr. D. Rockwell, C. Boice, Esq. Mr. M. Stelle, and others in Plainfield, and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the city of New York; church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—3m

NEW PROVISION AND FISH STORE.

127 Washington-st., New-York.

THE subscriber, wholesale dealer, invites the attention of grocers and others to his stock of

Smoked Beef and Tongues,

Smoked Hams and Shoulders,

Smoked Salmon and Herring,

Also, Hams, Pork, Lard, Mackerel, &c. by the barrel, half Barrel, and in kitts, in lots to suit purchasers.

PHILEMON D. HAIGHT,

127 Washington-street, New York.

April 13, 1852.—3m.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, Elizabethtown, (a short distance from the depot,) would invite his former friends and all who may favor him with a portion of their patronage, and all who want of a large stock of clothing at a low price, to give him a call.

His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Cash Only. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay.

April 20, 1852. JOHN ENGEL. 4t.y

The Place to Buy Dry Goods!

JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.

No. 227 Greenwich Street, NEW YORK

(One Door below Barclay Street.)

Offer to Buyers the Largest, Most Varied, and Cheapest Stock of

DRY GOODS, in Greenwich St. and one of the Largest in the CITY, for both WHOLESALE and RETAIL Business to select from.

The First Floor is devoted to our RETAIL Sales, and the Second, Third and Fourth Floors, are exclusively for our

WHOLESALE TRADE.

We particularly invite the attention of COUNTRY MERCHANTS,

To our Stock, from which they can select almost any article they want, thereby saving much time. We pay particular attention to the selection of the very best styles in Dress and other Goods. Cash Buyers will save MONEY by an examination of our prices, as our expenses are small, we can and will sell a profit cheaper than most Houses. Call and be convinced.

JAMES M. TAYLOR & CO.

227 Greenwich Street.

New York, March 1st, 1852.—4m

A GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES

AT THE CELEBRATED LARGEST AND CHEAPEST

CARPET ESTABLISHMENT

In the United States, No. 99 Bow'y,

HIRAM ANDERSON'S

EIGHT STACIOUS SALESROOMS

Will be OPENED TO-DAY.

Sales Room No. 1.

CONTAINS the Largest, Handsomest and Cheap assortment of English and American Floor Cloths, to be found in Society from

TWO SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE

To One Dollar the square yard, of one to eight yards wide

Sales Room No. 2.

Contains the most beautiful and variegated assortment of English and American superior Ingrain Carpeting, at unparalleled low prices, Five Shillings to Six Shillings and Sixpence per yard, new and elegant figures for Spring Sales.

Sales Room No. 3

Is fully stocked with an unrivaled assortment of English and American Imperial Three-ply Carpeting, of new and elegant designs, manufactured expressly for the city trade, at prices ranging from five per cent from former prices. 5s 6d, 7s, and 8s per yard, and upwards.

Sales Room No. 4.

Contains one hundred and fifty pieces of fine Ingrain Carpeting, new styles, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s, 4s 6d, and Four Shillings per yard.

Sales Room No 5.

Displays a great variety of English Druggets, from one to four yards wide, Stair Carpeting and Oilcloths, per yard and upwards. Also, an elegant assortment of Rugs, Mats, &c., at very reduced prices.

Sales Room No. 6.

Is fully stocked with every variety of Stairs and Hall Carpeting, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s, 4s, 5s, and 6s per yard.

In Sale Room No. 7,

Are the Patent Tapestry Ingrain Carpets exhibited at the Fair of Paris, formerly sold at nine shillings per yard, now selling at

SIX SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE PER YARD.

Sales Room No. 8.

An extensive assortment of Table and Piano Covers, Window Shades from 6s to $10 the pair, Table Oil Cloths, Brussels and Tapestry Carpeting, Brussels Stair Carpet, Plated and Brass Stair Rods, Parlor Door Mats, &c. &c., all of which will be offered at 25 per cent. less than at any other establishment in this city.

HIRAM ANDERSON,

99 Bow'y, N. Y.

All goods packed and sent free of charge. feb1.

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Earthen and Stone Ware, also Boots and Shoes, &c. My stock has been selected with a care to suit our wants, and to cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints,	Ginghams,	Cassimers,
Mousseline de Lane,	Gloves,	Summerdrills,
Lasns,	Hosiery,	Fustiano, &c.

And all styles of goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear, Fancies like and unlike, colored and white flannels, shirtings, sheetings, buttons, thread, cotton bats, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas,	Rice,	Sugars,	Candles,	Flour,
Coffee,	Corn Starch,	Lard,	Soap,	Indian Meal.

PROVISIONS.—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef, Pepper, Spices, Cheese, Hams, Pork, &c. Pepper sauce, Honey, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all, both old and young, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to call more than once.

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!!!

The subscriber has also on hand a good assortment of Black and changeable silks, which he will sell low.

J. V. ARROWSMITH.

May 4, 1852.

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in the Main street, opposite Webster & March's store, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, &c.—Having purchased her goods at the lowest cash prices, she is prepared to sell Ribands, Gimps, Gloves, Silk, Laces, Collars, Muslins, Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and everything in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from Somerville, she is prepared for orders in all the various branches of Dress Making. Caps and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 6, 1852.—3m

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

FRAZEE MARSH returns thanks to his numerous patrons for their liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many friends he has enlarged his stock of Paints, and taken into partnership his son, Washington March. The business will be carried on at the old stand, opposite the Second Presbyterian Church, where will be kept constantly on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., &c., also a choice lot of the cheapest Window Shades, Sign and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES.

Mixed Paint constantly on hand. Advice gratis.

Jan. 5, 1852. F. MARSH & SON.

THE STAMPEDE MIXTURE,

A PERFECT REMEDY FOR NEVER-FAILING CURE FOR

AGUE AND FEVER,

AND OTHER BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, ANDSUCH WEAKNESS.

This Medicine is purely a Vegetable Compound, and can in no possible manner injure the constitution. It is the discovery of Dr. Edward Bleecker, is well known, and the properties of this medicine have been ably and fairly discussed, and fully tested in private practice as a sovereign remedy for Chills and Fever.

CERTIFICATES.

NEWARK, April 10th, 1852.

Mr. G. Beach—Dear Sir: I gave you a certificate of Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture, for the cure of Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, &c., of which you are Agent, it gives me pleasure to state that I have tested with the Dumb Ague for three years, and have used one bottle of your medicine and it effected a perfect cure. In fact I never enjoyed better health in my life. Any person desirous of knowing the truth relative to the above, can obtain them by calling at my place of business where they will be cheerfully given.

GEO. V. HANKINS, 314 Broad st., Newark, N. J.

NEWARK April 10th 1852.

Mr. G. Beach—Dear Sir: It gives me pleasure to learn that you have accepted the Agency for that justly celebrated medicine, Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture for the cure of Fever and Ague, and Chills and Fever, and General Weakness, &c. I have tried it, and it effected a perfect cure when all others failed. I cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted with the above complaint, as the only excellent medicine, and one that must naturally come into general use.

HENRY J. YATES, Firm of Yeil & Yates.

Sold by G. BEACH, Agent for Plainfield, N. J.

DR. LEWIS CRANE, Agent for Piscataway, N. J.

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS,

DANIEL BULLMAN,

Is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment

of New & Cheap Goods

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Berley Patterns; Domestics of every grade and price; Silks, plain and figured; Ginghams; Alpaccas, &c. suitable to the season; Linens, White Goods of all kinds, Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Hosiery, Gloves, and all other articles in the dry goods line, necessary to make as varied, full and complete an assortment as can be found in these parts, and they will be sold as cheap too. Try us and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing these articles, will find my store just the place. I buy good articles, and sell them cheap, and the result is that I can and cannot help being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY,

Some very beautiful, and most very cheap; a large and varied assortment of the above articles, constantly on hand. Also, Lamps, in great variety.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell the same goods as cheap, and have your goods delivered at trouble of going after it.

Also, Looking-Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

ARTICLES and FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate, if you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call, and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it, very likely. A portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited. D. BULLMAN.

April 20, 1852.

NOT FOR THE GOLD MINES

GIVE ME THE SILVER!

WHILE many are going to California to dig up the gold in abundance, if they can find it, I take the opportunity to say to the public at large and to my customers in particular, that I shall remain here and offer to them a stock of goods, at small profits and quick returns, equal to any for style and quality. Said stock consists of a general assortment of every thing kept in a Village Store, viz:

Dry Goods, Carpets, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, Boots, Shoes, &C. &C.

Among the Dry Goods are Muslins and Prints from 4d to 1s. and 1s. 6d., DeLaines and Cashmeres; cambric and jaconet, book and Swiss muslin, a good assortment constantly on hand; also, a few pieces of flannel, black gloves, boys' veils, crape and bombazine for mourning; Cloths, plain and fancy cassimeres, doeskins, satinets, Jeans, cords, edgings, insertings, linens, lace buttons, &c.

GROCERIES.

Green and Black Teas of the best quality, molasses at 2s, and 2s. per gallon, sugar of every style and quality, very low; Rice, Soap, Starch, Spices, also super-house syrup, raisins, coffee, rice, and of other groceries a complete stock of the best quality.

CROCKERY, of Every Style and Quality is

Both fancy and plain to suit the purchaser.

GLASS AND QUEENSWARE.

Pork, Fish, salt, lard, Butter, cheese, beef, &c. &c. &c.

BOOTS and SHOES, of Every Style and Quality, for Ladies', gentlemen's and children's wear as low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Furniture and coach varnish, turpentine, white lead, pure and entire; lamp oils, yellow ochre, Venitian red, and lead, chrome green, and other paints. Varnishes blue mixed and dry, lamp black, litharge, brown japan and nearly every thing for painters' use.

Flour, Meal, Feed, and Grain,

A good assortment constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, March 15 1852.

HORACE SEATON,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN & DOMESTIC LACE GOODS,

354 Broad Street, Newark.

☞ Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Tulle, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Embroiderie Muslin, Gloves and Hosiery, Millinery articles, Combs, Brushes, Oils, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Gents', Ladies and Children's fancy dress shoes and Gaiters. 23ly

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at R. GLENN & Co's Manufactory, 194 FULTON'S RENT, (west of Broadway,) where a large assortment of Mahogany and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Pianos supplied on liberal terms.

R. GLENN & CO., 194 Fulton-street,

Oct. 7, 1851.—1y New York.

CARHART & NEEDHAM,

Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

With Recent Important Improvements.

Price from $60 to $200.

No. 75 East Thirteenth Street,

Corner of E. P. Needham. NEW YORK

☞ Pianos to Rent. Rents constantly on hand. Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by F. Mosher, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

Also, PAPER HANGING, all of which he will do promptly, punctually and honestly executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned hereby returns thanks to his customers for their liberal patronage the past year, and will endeavor by faithfulness to merit and secure a continuance of their favors.

☞ Orders may be left at the Union Office, also at Mr. Ira Prudens store. CHARLES TAYLOR.

April 1, 1852.—y

J. A. Woodland & J. Corbett

HOUSE, SIGN AND

DECORATIVE PAINTERS,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

☞ The above are prepared to execute all orders at their line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Paper-Hanging Department, with promptness, neatness and despatch, and at prices consistently low that cannot generally charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.

March 22, 1852.

Grand Indispensable.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices. Selling off at I. S. DUNHAM & CO.'S

BREWSTER'S EMBROCATION,

THE 21ST REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED FOR

SPRAINS, BRUISES, RHEUMATISM

Stiffness or Weakness of the Joints and Muscles, Contraction of the Muscles, Neuralgia of the Face, Side or Back, Gout, Head-Ache, Tooth-Ache, &c.

Also, an Invaluable Remedy for Burns, Scalds, Stings, Chilblains, Cuts or Wounds.

This Embrocation is prepared of ingredients which form a most active, yet entirely safe and pleasant preparation for Rheumatism, &c. &c. Hundreds of the most respectable persons and families have given their testimony to the efficacy of its properties. It operates in many cases immediately, and persons who have been suffering under extreme pain in the aching limb, at from bruise or sprain, have found instant relief from a thorough rubbing with this embrocation.

From a long experience in the Drug business, and constant acquaintance to prescribe to meet the various diseases, the proprietor has had ample opportunity to witness the effect of the different preparations for Rheumatism, &c., and before this embrocation was offered with so much confidence, it was satisfactorily and effectually proved to be the very thing it is represented. Try it, and you will not be disappointed.

Price, 50 cents per Bottle.

Certificate from Ambrose Panoost, Esq., Atlantic co., N. J.

Absecon, Atlantic co., N. J. July 31, 1849.

Mr. F. G. B. sweney:

Dear Sir,—I have been an extensive dealer in horses for 20 years past, and have had a great variety of valuable horses with diseases to which they are subject, and of trying the various remedies in use.

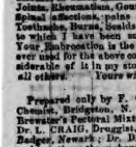
About 15 years since I was induced to make use of your Embrocation, and since that time I have used no other remedies for the following diseases to which this noble animal is subject, viz. Ringbone, spavin, strains of the joints and sinews, fresh cuts, bruises, sore back, shoulder, lameness in the stifle and socket, galls on the shoulder, and every disease of a like nature.

I have also used, and known it to be of the various diseases to which mankind are subject, such as Swelled Joints, Rheumatism, Gout, Sprains, Bruises, cuts, corns, Spinal affections, pains in the Face, side and back, Toothache, Earache, Swelled Neck, Sore throat, &c. &c., to which I have been subject nearly all my lifetime. Your Embrocation is the best and safest Remedy I have ever used for the above complaints; I have also used it on sideralds of 16 in my stock, and believe it to supersede all others. Yours withrespect,

AMBROSE PANCOAST.

Prepared only by F. G. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, No. 192 Broadway. For sale together with Brewster's Pectoral Mixture, and Cholera Mixture, by Dr. L. CRAIG, Druggist, agent for Plainfield: C. W. Badgley, Scotch Plains; Dr. S. C. English, New Brunswick, and by others throughout the State.

May 1, 1852.-4m



MARBLE & STONE YARD

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful HEARSE for Country use, from which I will furnish to order any variety of style which may be required at a moment's notice. All of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.-1y. ANDREW VANDERBERK.

ANDREW M WEBSTER .

Attorney at Law and Solicitor in Chancery.

OFFICE—No. 153 MARKET STREET.

May 15, 1850. NEWARK N. J.

DR. E. DAYTON,

Surgeon-Dentist,

Has returned to Plainfield, and taken an Office and Residence for the year, on

Main st. 2d house below Webster & Marsh's.

June 2d, 1851. Store.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE, PHYSICIANS,

NO. 259 GREEN STREET, NEW YORK, Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

Mrs. S. M. MOTT,

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN,

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, particularly those arising from or attendant upon debility, Scrofulous, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous diseases, has so well and generally become known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say, that they have repeatedly performed permanent cures in cases of long standing, after their having been unsuccessfully treated by many instances of the most educated incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express.

jan6-1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUS, Hay, Flood, and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not to Balance set out of order.

Manufactory 39 Greene street, New York.

Also Store at No. 83 Fulton street, New York.

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

S. P. MORSE, } GEO. SNYDER, } Agents.

Nov. 24, 1851.-1y

HOW'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

[IN MEN]

Rheumatism,	Sprains,	Weakness in the
Burns,	Bruises,	Back and Joints,
Sore Throat,	Ringbone,	Limb & Joint.

[IN HORSES]

Bruises,	Sprains,	Ringbone,	Poll Evil, and all
Washes,	Sores,	Fistula,	diseases of the
Cuts,	Scratches,	Thoroughpin,	where an Embroca-
Windgall,		Saddle Galls,	tion can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY S. HOW'S CHEMIST,

No. 33 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

James Moore, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barney McCherry, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel R. Wilder, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. I. V. Degraw, Princeton. Joseph Hamnitt, John J. Wesart, Trenton. A. W. Brown, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Scotch Plains, &c.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG in Somerville by Culver Bonnell, in New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

BRISTOL'S Double Refined Powdered Saleratus, Chemical Yeast Powder in its boxes.

" Cylinder Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

FOREST WINE.

The Remedy with FOREST WINE is the greatest blessing of the age. It is by no Quack Nostrum, but is the result of half a life of close study, and great pains in the curing of Disease, that the remedy of any Sarsaparilla is use, and discovered.

The method by which all Sarsaparillas, and other similar medicines are prepared, is by boiling the Roots or Plants to obtain the extract. That method virtues are thus principally evaporated and destroyed.

In this by which the Forest Wine is made, that loss and even twenty bottles of these Sarsaparillas are sometimes taken without any perceptible benefit. Not so with the Forest Wine! By the invention of a wonderful chemical process, all the virtues of the Roots and Herbs are retained; retaining, at the same time, all the primitive healing properties of the rare medicinal plants of which it is composed, thus rendering it, when taken according to directions, a more efficient cure produced, at the same time the most agreeable.

GENERAL DEBILITY, EMACIATION, WASTING OF THE BODY, &C.

Many persons are afflicted with some one of the above complaints, and although they may take bottle after bottle of popular causes, and therefore delay the use of the proper remedy until the disease becomes constitutional. These disorders are often characterized by a variety of symptoms, or sometimes by but few. Some experience sluggishness, lassitude, and, at times, paleness or flushing of the countenance, or palpitation of the heart, on like symptoms.

The excellent effects which have ever attended the use of the Forest Wine and Pills, in every species of debility, is conclusive evidence of its happy results in diseases of the Kidneys, and all complaints attributed to these medicines as an ultimatum, and been speedily cured. For Nervous disorders and Debility the Wine and Pills are taken according to directions, with never failing success.

AGUE AND FEVER, OR CHILLS

Are caused by the miasmatic effluvia arising from marshes, decayed vegetations, and low damp situations. In Fever and Ague the Forest Wine and Pills are a sovereign remedy. When they have been taken agreeable to directions, they have never known them to fail in effecting a complete cure. In the first place take a large dose of the Forest Pills in time, that their operations may be over before the return chill; then proceed cleansing the blood, and restoration of the Stomach and Bowels.

The Forest Wine and Pills are recommended as an effectual remedy for the following complaints:—

Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Dropsy, Complaints of the Kidneys, Incipient Consumption, Decline of general health, and Female Weaknesses, for which it is a Sovereign Remedy; Languidness, Night Sweats. Nervous Disorders, Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, and want of Nervous Energy, Ague and Fever, which is never failing in its cure; Scrofula, Erysipelas, Jaundice, Unhealthy Color of the Skin, Weakly and Inspaired State of the Constitution.

Dr. Halsey's Office, No. 208 Broadway, New York. The Forest Wine in large square bottles, $1 per bottle; six bottles for $5. Gum coated Forest Pills 25 cents per box. Sold by M. F. CUSHING, and DR. L. CRAIG, appointed Agents for Plainfield.

June 5, 1851. 3m

PROLAPSUS UTERI.

This malady arises primarily from a debilitated state of the muscles of the abdomen which by premitting gravitation of the bowels suffers them to bear with their weight upon the womb, inducing a constant pressure on the organ (i. e. Prolapsus Uteri.) Secondarily from debility of the round and broad ligaments, the natural supporter of the womb which, being weakened, yield to the pressure of the bowels and suffer the falling of the womb place. The object of a supporter is to give an inward and upward lifting force to the muscles of the abdomen, so as to enable them to sustain the weight of the bowels, and thus relieve the womb from the bearing down weight, but how is this support to be obtained, not with belts or bandages, which by compelled support to the part where is rounded, having its lower boundary placed between the fullness of the limbs, and because the purchase in lifting it is not just inside of the tense (Poupartis) ligaments, dividing the thighs from the abdomen, but above the cross bone of the Pelvis. Consequently lying deeply backward and under the fullness of the abdomen, and not to be reached by a belt or bandage over it.

The Improved Supporter Pad invented and patented by the subscriber, is adapted to the figure of the abdomen, having its outer and under edges raised so as to produce two horns, for the one, the bowels are supported, and by the other borne inward toward the centre of the body, and are made to support the womb, bladder and rectum, all being impacted around them, giving their upward lifting force to the womb, inwards, and thus restoring the organ to its true position.

The recently patented Supporter Pad, invented, by Frederick M. Butler, embodies the above principles of configuration and adaptation, has been numerously tested, and being more efficient than any hitherto applied, has been found to relieve in nearly all cases.

The Supporter is completed with a Perineal strap, having a proper and efficient duty to perform.

FREDERICK M. BUTLER, Proprietor.

Office, No. 4 Vesey st., opposite St. Paul's, New York.

Ladies fitted by a female, having separate and distinct rooms for their accommodation. jan6-3

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing astonishing healing properties, which is adapted to a larger class of diseases, is its ability to arrest pain, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Local Medicine, and for Coughs and Colds, we doubt if it has an equal; it is very good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Rheumatism, Headache and Tooth Ache, Chilblains, Worms, Ague and Fever, and for Female Complaints on account of which it has passed. No one can appreciate the worth of this excellent medicine, till they have used the same. We have used it with great success in our families, and recommend it to those that are or may be afflicted, as a safe and harmless remedy. It is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. Hodge, Brooklyn. John Comstock, Brklyn.

" H. T. Hopkins, Newark. John Riekbeck, Engineer.

" Prof. Whiting, Wmsburgh. Steamboat "Warren."

Hon. G. Hall. Martense, Brklyn. Lawrence Mann, Rckl'nd

S. Sprague, Esq., Jersey. Jonathan Sayre, Esq.,

Alderman S. L. Husted " David B. Salters, Bergen.

H.C Conkling, Ex-P.M. " Aaron Kingsland, Brklyn.

J. Doughty, Jersey City. " Peter Hoffman, Brklyn.

David Travis, Somerstown, Jane McCollick, W. Market

A. Wise, Bull-head hotel, Justice D. Hiscox, "

Peter Hoffman, Brklyn. R. Peterson, Brklyn.

Joseph Chedick, W. Market, Rulner S. Veldran, "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above certificate. Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.

CHARLES H. MARSH, Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 194 Walker Street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING.

Jan. 2, 1852

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of July, will remove his store to No. 16 Maiden-Lane, to the store formerly occupied by him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him:—James Kenning & Son's celebrated Eye-Spear-Richards' Grooved and other Needles.—Pearl Buttons, Combs of Steel and Gold Pens, Spool and Ball Cotton, Gray Binding, Tapes, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c. RICHARD RICHARDS,

Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods.

April 26, 1852.-18m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Rocker and Round Seat, Fancy Rush, Common Rockers, and Children's Chairs; also, Settees, Rocking Chairs, Rubber Mats, Screens, &c.

Mar. 22, 1852. For Sale by D. BULLMAN

HOBENSACK WORM SYRUP.

THIS medicine is now offered to the public as being so safe, and pleasant, that it can be given to children of the most delicate age. The Worm Syrup is daily by the agents, should satisfy all of its superiority over any other worm medicine, as no parent will be without it after once giving it a fair trial. This Syrup is certified to by the most eminent physicians of the country, and in all cases where it does not prove perfectly according to the recommendations, the money is refunded. I would therefore say, do not let your children suffer, but procure at once a remedy that cannot fail to give satisfaction in every case which has never failed to give satisfaction in every case of worms, but proves a perfect destroyer of worms of every description. The symptoms of worms are, bloated stomach, pallid countenance, starting in their sleep, then is your time to use this remedy, being for sale by every respectable druggist throughout the country. Price 25 cents per bottle. Examine if the signature of its wonderful cures, as well as of Hobensack.

LIVER PILLS.—These Pills being composed of Roots and Plants for diseases of the Biliary organs; Liver complaint, Jaundice, &c.

Congestion of the Liver is known to exist from an inclination to vomit being present, bitter taste in the mouth, yellowness of the eyes, pain in the side; but when these symptoms fully and bounding, an extra supply of bile is the cause. Let the afflicted attend to it in time—these Pills will remove all symptoms of disease. They are a most powerful remedy in the hands of intelligible persons for restoring these functional derangements to a healthy action, purifying the blood and other fluidsand thereby removing the diseases and complaints which arise from female irregularities, as headache, giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in the side, back, &c. Price 25 cents per box, with directions. Be careful and ask for Hobensack's Liver Pills, as they are the only genuine, all others being a base imitation. Prepared at Hobensack's Laboratory, Philadelphia. For sale in Plainfield,

Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. CUSHING,

And at ELIAS KIRKPATRICK'S

C. Drake Boolish Plains, Charles Foster, Westfield.

March 23, 1852.—1y.

R. R. R.

Science, by subjecting the laws of Chemistry to the skill of man, has established the health and happiness, by stopping the most cruel and severe pangs of pain in an instant, and curing:

Diseases and Infirmities

CHRONIC COMPLAINTS,

IN A FEW HOURS

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,

Internally and Externally instantly stops Pain, and speedily cures its cause.

It is warranted to give relief to the following pains in Fifteen Minutes,

and to speedily and effectually cure the disease.

Rheumatism,	Chills,	Colic,	Sick Headache,
Stiff Joints,	Paralysis,	Summer Complaints,
Tic Doloureux,	Neuralgia,	Soreness in Bones,
Lumbago,	Dysentery,	Pain in the Limbs,
Sciatica,	Diarrhœa,	Sick Headache,
Ague Cake,	Heart Burn,	Cholera Morbus,
Sore Throat,	Colds, &c.

PAIN

IS the warning given of the presence of disease and of the derangement and prostration of the nervous and muscular system. In order to cure diseases and rid the system entirely of its cause, our first great desideratum is to restore the nervous system to its healthy action, regulate healthy action—the functions and secretions of every organ in the system; this we accomplish by the marvellous

Strengthening, cleansing, invigorating, and powerful pain soothing properties of

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

No matter what the cause of the pain may be—if it arises from nervous prostration, muscular debility, disarrangement of the liver or secretions of the skin, whether it be rheumatism, neuralgia, sick or nervous headache, nervous irritability, spasmodic affections, cramps, diarrhœa, bowel complaint, chills and fever whether it originates from internal derangements or external injuries.

Radway's Ready Relief taken internally and applied externally, will speedily and effectually stop the pain and cure its cause

RHEUMATISM — 100,000 persons cured in 1850

The most excruciating pain stopped in two hours.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the quickest, safest, and most potential remedy for the world to Rheumatism in all its forms now in use; we state only what we know. It will stop the most torturing pains of this distressing complaint in one application. We defy contradiction when we say it will instantly relieve the sufferer from pain and speedily cure its cause.

SICK AND NERVOUS HEADACHE

100,000 cases cured in 1850.—It will give relief in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief taken according to directions, will speedily and effectually cure this complaint. Taken internally and applied externally it refreshes the senses, cleanses the stomach, stops all irritation in the nerves, and restores the secretions of the head and brain, and relieves the sufferer from pain in 15 minutes. It is now curing hundreds daily of the sick and nervous headache

NEURALGIA.—100,000 Neuralgia cases cured in 1850.—It will stop the most violent pain in Fifteen Minutes.

The cruel and excruciating pangs of this distressing complaint are usually arrested by Radway's Ready Relief. The happy and invigorating effects it produces on the nervous system, when taken according to directions, quickly restores the nervous energy and cures the disease. It is the only remedy that has effectually cured Neuralgia in its worst forms.

DIARRHŒA.—200,000 persons cured in 1850.—Pains stopped in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief cured more cases of cholera morbus, dysentery, cholic and all bowel complaints the past year than any other remedy in use. On the banks of the Mississippi, Missouri, Illinois and Ohio rivers, in New Orleans, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukie, Galena, and other places where the diarrhœa, cholera and dysentery rage so fatally, Radway's Ready Relief was used with the best success. It will in 15 minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms, impart a genial heat throughout the whole system, allay all irritation, stop the painful discharges and relieve the patient from all pain.

CRAMPS AND SPASMS.

A Teaspoonful of Radway's Ready Relief taken internally, and by bathing externally, will in a few minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms. In many cases where the above remedies have been used, where persons have been cold and numb, the limbs distorted and drawn, rubbing Radway's Ready Relief has always brought life and action, and a quick and healthy circulation of blood

SWELLED JOINTS.

If you have pain in the bones, swelled joints, weakness of the muscles, if you have a sprained limb, swelled leg, bruised arm, sore head, or if you burn or scald yourself, Radway's Ready Relief will take out the fire, remove the pain and swelling, give energy and strength to the muscles and entirely free you from pain.

Jumping Toothache cured in one second.

All aches and pains—back ache, toothache, face ache, ear ache, pain in the limbs, pain in the joints, pain in the bones, the feet, the head and arms, Radway's Ready Relief will instantly cure.

PAINFUL ITCHINGS

And all cutaneous eruptions are speedily freed from all irritation by bathing the parts with Ready Relief.

SPINAL COMPLAINTS.

By bathing externally the cord of the neck and spine it will strengthen and restore the nerves to healthy action, as of posterior and anterior curvature of the spine to be entirely cured, and the disfigured object to regain his proper shape by the use of Radway's Ready Relief.

CHILL FEVER.

One teaspoonful of Radway's ready relief taken on the first symptoms of chills, and bathe the head, neck and shoulders, if there is any pain experienced, and it will entirely prevent a chill Fever.

Heartburn. Sour Stomach, Flatulency, Bad Breath, Wind, &c. are quickly cured by a dose of Radway's ready relief taken internally. It is a delicious cordial, imparting strength to every organ and function of the body, and health and happiness to the mind.

CAUTION TO DRUGGISTS

Purchase Radway's ready relief only of the authorized agent, whose name is given below. Our travelling agents have a power of attorney signed by us; therefore purchasing always ask to see it. Price 50 cents a bottle.

RADWAY & CO., 162 Fulton st. N. Y.

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

Sept. 9, 1851.-1y

Looking Glasses—A Large number

JUST RECEIVED,—from 25 cents to $5, each, by D. BULLMAN

Sept. 2, 1851.-1y

DR. HOUFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, at the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch St. Philadelphia,

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines; and for Diseases of Females

Are unequalled. Head Ache, Pain and Fullness of Blood to Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imagining of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

THEY ARE ENTIRELY VEGETABLE.

And Free from Alcoholic Stimulant, and all Injurious Ingredients.

And are pleasant in taste and smell, and mild in their operation, and will remove impurities from the body and give health and vigour to the frame.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, of Philadelphia, has had the means of obtaining the prescriptions of many great medical counsellor, "Christoph Willhelm Hufeland, and these invaluable medicines are prepared with the utmost care at his German Medicine Store. The Medicine called Houfland's German Bitters is the result of many years' study and experience by the great inventor, and known and prized in Europe as an infallible remedy for the cure of all diseases arising from a disordered Liver. Dr. C. M. Jackson's preparation of this medicine has obtained the same celebrity in this Western World. The testimonials and innumerable confirmations of thousands of living witnesses in this country is sufficient proof of this. The medicines compounded by Dr. C. M. Jackson have produced the very effects and name happy results, which like immortal fame has followed Hufeland, and consequently must be compounded with singular accuracy.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtue in the rectification of diseases of the Liver, they are offered to the public as the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain, and pleasant.

A Case in Camden.

A Boteman, Esq. at Elwell's Railroad Hotel, Camden, cured of Jaundice and Liver Complaint in their worst form. He had been very seriously afflicted for 3 years. We can but note his case here. Call and see him; you will pronounce this a case indeed.

Another Extreme Case.

Mr. George W. Metz, merchant, 317 Market st. cure of Disease of the Liver, and Chronic Diarrhœa, of 17 years standing. He had been given over by his physicians, confined during the time, and visited the mineral springs of note throughout the Union, without permanent benefit, and was at last permanently cured by the use of a few bottles of Dr. Houfland's German Bitters.

JOHN MOORE, jun. Esq. Editor of the "Daily News," said, October 31, 1849:

"Houfland's German Bitters.—We are trying this renowned medicine for a severe disease of the bowels and find it with us testify to its efficacy. We have taken 2 b tles, and we have derived more benefit than we derived previously in five years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our family physicians."

Three More Cures.

Philadelphia, 3d mo. 20th, 1850.

Respected Friend: I had for several years been afflicted with dyspepsia, and occasionally a General Debility. I accidentally met with Dr. Houfland's German Bitters, in the first place upon a daughter, she having a severe sickness. The Houfland's German Bitters" had such effect upon her general debility, that I was induced to try myself, and then got a bottle, and used it according to directions, and it relieved me more than anything I had before used, giving tone and strength to the stomach and digestive organs, so that I need no more of the Diarhœa, which continued for some time. My life, for a time, was despaired of. The Bitters again being used, acted very happily upon the stomach and intestines, and restored health to the system. From that period I have enjoyed general health to the present. I consider it, doctor, one of the most valuable medicines I ever used, and shall take great pleasure in recommending it to others.

Yours respectfully my friend, SAMUEL HUTTON.

No. 5 Jennings' Row, Catharine, above Third.

Dr. C. M. Jackson, 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.

That this medicine will prove the foregoing diseases, as we have stated in the case just mentioned, it is next act specifically upon the Liver, Stomach and Nerves. It is preferable to calomel, in all Bilious Diseases; the effect is immediate, and they do not debilitate the system.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS

This medicine has attained that high character which it is necessary for all medicines to attain, to induce counterfeiters to put forth spurious articles, at the risk of the lives of those who are innocently deceived.

Look well to the Marks of the Genuine.

For the protection of invalids against fraud, the signature of C. M. JACKSON will be upon the front of the outside wrapper, and his name blown in every bottle.

Purchase none without these marks of genuineness, and avoid all Counterfeits.—OFFICE ADVICE given gratis upon all diseases.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at the principal depot,

GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

No. 120 Mulberry or Arch st. one door below Sixth, formerly Franklin, in Philadelphia, Pa., and by respectable dealers generally throughout the United States, the Canadas and the West Indis Islands.

PRICES REDUCED!

To enable all classes of Invalids to enjoy the advantages of this medicine.

Single Bottles, 75 cts.—Three Bottles, $2.00.

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.

Aug. 11, 1851.-1y

Excelsior Chemical and Color Works.

SAMUEL TRUESDELL,

MANUFACTURER OF

PAINTS & COLORS:

Chrome Green,	American Vermilion,
Chrome Yellow,	Chinese Blue,
Prussian Blue,	Paris Green,
Paris Blue,	Rose Pink, &c. &c

No. 141, Sullivan Street, New York.

IMPERIAL GREEN PAINT IN OIL.

April 12, 1852.—3m.

ATTN. TO READ!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. ANKELL,

N. W. corner of Second and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice spent in that city have rendered Dr. K. the most expert and successful practitioner far and near in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat or legs, pains in the head or bones, mercurial rheumatism, strictures, diseases of the kidneys, youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, are all treated with success.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K. may rest assured that his case, pain in the limbs, disease, and consequently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at schools, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, should apply immediately. Weakness and nervousness are the first consequences, followed by pimples on the face, indigestion, constipation, privateness, lassitude and general prostration, irritability, and all nervous affections, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, and every disease connected in any way with the disorder of the generative organs, which if not cured, will destroy

READ!—YOUTH AND MANHOOD!

A Vigorous Life, or a Premature Death.

Kinkell on Self Preservation Only 25 Cents

This Book is filled with useful information on the infirmities and diseases of the Generative Organs. It addresses itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by all. The valuable advice and impressive warning it gives will prevent years of misery and suffering and save annually thousands of lives. Parents should read it, and learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

A remittance of 25 cents, enclosed in a letter addressed to DR. ANKELL, N. W. corner of 2nd and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will insure a book, under envelope, per return of mail. Persons at a distance may address Dr. K. by letter, post-paid, and be duly attended to. Packages of Medicine or Medicated Vegetables forwarded by sending a remittance, and put up secure from damage or curiosity.

Feb. 17, 1852.—1y

Dr. Ankell's Female Pills are a sovereign remedy for all other pills called by names nearly similar, represented as the same or as good, for a trick to impose on the public.

Dr. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS are the safest, best and most efficacious Pills known.

AS T. CUSHAND'S CAN TESTIFY

Principal Depot, Dr. LEIDY'S Drug Store, No. 114 North Fourth st. Philadelphia—and sold in every town in New Jersey.

BENJAMIN SANDY, Esq. is the Travelling agent for the state of New Jersey, and ly 17 M. F. CUSHING, and E. KIRKPATRICK Agents for Plainfield.

PAINTS, &c.

AMERICAN PATENT ATOMIC DRIER, Grinding COLORS—Anti-frictius Paste, Gold Size, Fine Dry, Stove Polish, and Black Varnish, for Iron Work.

WARTENBURG'S Patent & Chemical Works,

114 John-Street, New York.

March 9, 1852.—1y.

Blanks for sale at this Office

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI. No. 27. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, July 6, 1852. Whole Number 807.

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 214 Broad-street, Washington Hall Buildings.

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical, lepine, verge and detached lever Watches; curb, patented and Swiss Guard Chains; fob and vest Chains of all patterns; silver, shell and russet card cases; gold and silver enamelled, engraved and plain Pencils; Ladies' single stones, cluster, and oval; cameo, cornelian, jet, enamelled, mourning and plain Brooches; Gents' studs, single stones, enamelled and plain Studs; Finger Rings of all patterns; Ladies' plain gold, chain and hair Bracelets; Beaded Snaps of all kinds; Pair pipes of the latest styles; Gents' diamond, ruby, emerald, hyacinth, and all styles of Breast Pins; gold lockets and Miniature Cases; Gold Pens; Hunters and Crescent, gold Fob and Guard Keys; gold and silver Thimbles; silver Spoons and Butter Knives; gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Bonquet Holders, tablets, hair pins, scissors, knives, tea bells, purses, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, rosewood bag clasps and slides, chest with six boxes, telescope stands, backgammon boards, letter folders, segar cases, pearl studs, twin buttons, watch stands, bugles, scorys, sealing wax, pen holders, microscopes, razors and strops, razor cases, china cups, china segar cases and manicel vases, perfumery of all kinds, tobacco and snuff boxes; tooth, hair, hat, nail, clothes and comb Brushes; silk guard chains; pocket books, large assortment; dressing combs, back, side, pocket combs, scissor sheaths, pocket knife cases, Persian scent bags, smelling bottles, daguerreotype cases, metal and bracelet scent steel, silk and gilt fob chains; shaving brushes, shaving boxes, &c.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

Piano Fortes from the best makers, Violins, Clarionetts, Flutes, Flageolets, Bass Violins, Drums, Metronomes, Violin Bows, accordeons, tuning forks, Violin, Violincello and Guitar Strings; Trimmings for all Instruments; a large assortment of songs, duetts, quartettes, trios and glees, comprising all the latest publications; also Instrumental Music, namely, waltzes, quick steps, marches, rondos, duetts for four hands, and sacred songs; Instruction Books for Piano Fortes, Violins, flute, fife, violin, accordeon, clarionet, flageolet, &c. &c. all as cheap as can be bought in New York: with a variety of other goods not enumerated in this catalogue, comprising the largest assortment in Newark.

WATCH REPAIRING AND CLEANING.

The subscriber, determined to give full satisfaction to those that employ him, has secured a very superior workman from Switzerland, where he has been engaged for several years in manufacturing all kinds of watches, and is well skilled in repairing and cleaning watches, as testimonials from several of the first watch makers of the city of New York will testify.

Jewelry made to order. Old gold and silver taken in exchange. 49-y

Wholesale and Retail

Wine and Liquor Store.

29 Fair Street, Newark, N. J.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has constantly on hand at the above old established stand, a full and choice supply of Foreign Wines & ds Brandy which he offers at the lowest cash prices, and delivered to order to any part of the city or country. Brandy of every grade. Medor's Swan Gin, Irish, Scotch and Monongahela Whiskey. Old York and Jamaica Rum. Port, Madeira, Malaga and Champagne Wines, Losey's Bitters, &c.

Philadelphia Bottled Porter and Pale Ale of the first quality; also, a very choice article of Bottled Cider (almost equal to Champagne) always on hand.

A continuance of patronage is solicited.

June 15, 1852. ROBERT M. LOSEY.

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome and serviceable a Hat as they can buy in New York or Philadelphia, and half a dollar each cheaper.

N. B. Moleskin or felt hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 23, 1851.—1y

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the new tax law, by coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere; thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all qualities, style and prices which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of ladies' trimmings of a low price—also constantly for sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's furnishing store.

Friends will you favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves?

Cutting, trimming, and making done at the shortest notice and on reasonable terms. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Plainfield Dec. 1.

Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's, Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, which are made at our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction. Purchasers who may select or order can rely upon being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as favorably as at any establishment in the country.

352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

May 24, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,

L. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Goods on our counter now do lie,

To suit the mind, to please the eye.

We paid the cash to buy these goods,

We'll sell them right to sell a heap,

Ginghams and Muslins, Combs and Cords,

The latest styles New York affords,

Delaines and Gaiters, Calicoes too,

Colors of which we'll warrant true.

Cloths and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,

And all the goods which needs do use;

Together with a good supply

Of groceries good which will defy

A claim of men who live with us,

And twice a year make goods a fuss,

To go to Brunswick with their trade,

Of stores at home they are afraid.

We'll sell to these and all the rest,

For cash most cheap, for trade dear best.

With Brunswick prices we'll compete,

And she shall tremble in the heat;

So come one, come two, come tall,

L. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Plainfield, May 18, 1852

The Secret Benefactor.

By Mrs. E. C. Lovering.

'Have you attended to the business I spoke of particularly, yesterday?' asked Mr. Lambert, a wealthy owner of real estate, addressing a fine looking, fair looking young man who sat at a desk, as the above-named gentleman entered his office.

Charles Burchard colored with embarrassment. For a moment his hand moved nervously across his brow, then raising his handsome eyes to his employer's face, he answered in a frank, steady tone:

'I have neglected to follow your instructions, Sir!'

'I am sorry—'

'Sorry!' cried Mr. Lambert, angrily, 'sorry, indeed! and this is the way you attend to my affairs! Young man, if you think I will pass over this carelessness—'

'I beg your pardon,' said Charles, with a face like marble, but speaking in a calm tone, 'I am guilty of no carelessness, I have endeavored to do my duty—'

'Your duty was to follow my instructions.—Number 23 has been a losing business for me long enough. The family have had warning. You could not have misunderstood me. I told you that if the rent was not paid before 12 o'clock yesterday—'

'I visited the family,' rejoined Charles, 'and it seemed to me that had you seen what I saw, you would not have had me apply the extremity of the law to their miserable case. They are very poor—they are sick—they are suffering—You would not have had the heart to—'

'Charles Burchard,' exclaimed Mr. Lambert, angrily, 'you have been in my employ two years! I have found you faithful, honest, careful, and you would not willingly part with you; but, since you prefer your way of doing business to mine, and presume to dictate, it is not proper that we should work together any longer.'

'I have thought myself,' said Charles, 'that since I cannot conscientiously pursue the extremes you deem necessary, it will be best for me to quit your service. I am ready,' he added, fixing his mild eye upon Mr. Lambert's face, 'I am ready to go.'

'Well, sir, we will have a settlement at once. How much am I indebted to you? What is your due?'

'Nothing.'

'Nothing! How—how is this?'

'You will see. Cast your eye over this page.'

'Yes—I perceive—you have taken up your wages lately, soon as due,' said Mr. Lambert, who, remembering his clerk's fidelity and capacity, was becoming softened. 'This is a new thing, however. But I presume you have invested your money advantageously?'

'I have tried to make a christian use of it,' answered Charles, coldly.

'Have you been dealing in stocks?'

'Nay, Sir.'

'Ah, you lost confidence in me, and thought proper to put your money into other hands?'

'I have neither made investments nor loans,' said Charles, with a peculiar smile. 'What small funds I could command, I have used.'

'You?'

'Yes, sir.'

'Bless me, Charles! I thought you a steady young man; and how you can have consumed your entire salary I am unable to conceive.'

'And I presume I should be unable to explain it to your satisfaction, sir. It is a subject which it can avail nothing to converse upon.—If you got a man in my place immediately, I should be willing to save you the trouble of instructing him in the state of your business.'

'Certainly, if you please, and you shall be paid—'

'I did not make the offer, expecting remuneration. I trust that I have kept my accounts in such a manner that it will not require half an hour to make an intelligent man understand the entire business.'

'Charles,' exclaimed Mr. Lambert, 'I dislike to part with you so. We have always agreed until this time.'

'Six months ago,' replied Charles, 'this family in No. 23 could not pay their quarter's rent. I had orders to turn them into the street. I did not do it.'

'But, but the rent was paid.'

'You permitted me to give them a few days' grace; you permitted this, on my promise to see that the rent was paid. You were right, it was paid; the next quarter's rent was also paid. At present, they cannot pay. Knowing the condition of the family, I cannot follow your instructions.'

'Well,' said Mr. Lambert, hardening himself, 'I have rules with regard to persons in my employ, which nothing can induce me to break. Justice is my motto. It is a good one; I shall stand by it.'

'Mercy is a better one, sometimes,' replied Charles, softly. 'Justice is admirable in all—but, mercy in the powerful is god-like.'

Thus Mr. Lambert parted with his faithful clerk. Another took the place of Charles Burchard, and the latter was without a situation.

About the first business of Mr. Carrol, the new clerk, attended to, concerned the poor family in No. 23.

They vacate the premises immediately,' he said to Mr. Lambert. 'But there is some mystery about that family; they made allusions to yourself, which I was unable to understand.'

'To me!'

'Yes sir; they spoke of your kindness to them—'

'My kindness!' Mr. Lambert colored.

'The woman is an invalid,' said Mr. Carrol. 'The man is a fine-looking, intellectual person, with thin cheeks, a broad pale forehead, and bright expressive eye. He has been for a year at work on some mechanical invention, which he believes is going to be of vast benefit to manufactures.'

'I have heard Mr. Burchard speak of that,' replied Mr. Lambert. 'But what did those people say of me?'

'That they had been indebted to you for numerous favors.'

'Favors!'

'Yes sir—at work at his invention, which of course can afford him no income until completed. Mr. Ward has not been able to do much towards the support of his family. Mrs. Ward, as I said, is an invalid. Their only child—a daughter a-bout eighteen, and a girl of some accomplishments—has done considerable towards their support—'

'I have heard all this from Mr. Burchard—What did they say of me?'

'That in these circumstances they have received benefits from you, for which they are very grateful.'

'It is mere taunt—insolent irony,' muttered Mr Lambert.

'I assure you, sir, there were tears in the poor woman's eyes, when she said it; she was sincere.'

'Humph!'

'They appreciated these favors so much the more,' said Mr. Carrol, 'from the fact that as Mr. Ward's invention is a secret, and as all his instruments and contrivances have been in the house, it would have been a sore disadvantage to be obliged to move. His invention is now on the eve of completion, and he is firm in the hope of being able to pay with interest all your benefits.'

Mr. Lambert was greatly perplexed by this inexplicable conversation of his clerk; but he concealed his feelings, and leaving Mr. Carrol to believe he was a man who did a great deal of good in a quiet way, went himself to make an attempt to explore the mystery, by visiting No. 23.

He found the Wards making preparations to vacate the premises. To a beautiful girl with a handkerchief over her head, who was carrying small articles of furniture to the hall, he made known his wish to see Mr. Ward.

This gentleman was engaged in packing up his machinery; but soon coming out of his secret room and locking the door behind him, he appeared before Mr. Lambert. As these two individuals had never met, the landlord was obliged to introduce himself.

'I feel highly honored, I am thankful for this new indication of kindness,' said Mr. W. with emotion.

'I understand,' said Mr. Lambert, 'that you have been at work on an important mechanical invention.'

'Yes sir, and I am happy to inform you it is completed: the model has gone to Washington. I have used all the money I could scrape together to pay the expenses of the patient right; but, sir, a manufacturing company are ready to negotiate with me for my machine, and in a very short time I shall be able to pay my debts.'

Mr. Lambert had hitherto regarded his tenant as a visionary. He did not look like one; he did not speak like one. The thought struck Mr. Lambert that he might after all be able to pay his rent.

'I have concluded that I might as well permit you to remain here a short time longer—although I am myself pressed for money,' he said, with a thoughtful air.

'My dear sir,' exclaimed Mr. Ward, 'this is a favor I had no right to expect, notwithstanding all you have done for us; but I am sincerely grateful. We are going into a miserable house, where we did not anticipate residing more than two or three weeks, or until I find my funds coming in; and if we can remain here, you shall be no loser by the operation. Your debt I consider sacred; those many benefits shall never be forgotten.'

'Benefits I—I am not aware that you are much indebted to me—'

'You are pleased to say so, but for two quarters' rent you give me receipts in full, relying upon my honor for payment at some future time. I have also received sums to aid me in prosecuting my invention. I have at no time doubted but they came from you.'

Mr. Lambert pressed his forehand with his hand. After a pause he said:

'And why, may I ask—why did you—give me credit.'

'Excuse me for mentioning the subject,' said Mr. Ward, with emotion, 'but although you parted in anger from your sister—'

'Sir!' exclaimed Mr. Lambert, starting and changing color.

'Her's was a pardonable offence,' said Mr. Ward. 'She declined marrying the man whom your choice for her husband. You disowned her; you have never met her since. But this was years ago, and I know you could not cherish resentment so long.'

'My God,' cried Mr. Lambert, 'what do you mean? I have heard nothing of her for 20 years. I know not what has become of her.'

Mr. Ward fixed his eyes upon his landlord in speechless astonishment.

'Is it possible?' he murmured; 'are you serious?'

'Upon my soul! I have made inquiries for Mary, without success. I have supposed her dead!'

'Then these benefits have not been bestowed because—'

'Sir, I know nothing of what you say. I die with suspense! If you know any thing of Mary, tell me what has become of her.'

The tenant's eye looked searchingly and earnestly in to the landlord's face; then taking him by the arm, he led him deliberately and softly into another room.

There was a pale, thin woman sitting in an arm chair. She started on seeing the two men enter, and uttered a faint cry of surprise.

'My brother!'

'Mary!' gasped Mr. Lambert; 'can it be my sister?'

'Your sister and my wife!'

* * * * * * *

'An hour later, Mr. Lambert might have been seen entering Charles Burchard's lodging. The young man was at home. With surprise he greeted his late employer. The latter was apparently excited by the occurrence of some recent event.

'Young man,' said he, 'I have learned in what way you have used your salary for the past year.'

'Sir!'

'You have compromised me; I do not wish to blame you—but you should not have left the Ward family to suppose the money they received came from me. You paid their rent, and gave them comforts in my name!'

'And do they know it?' cried Charles.

'Why should they not?—Why did you not act openly with them?'

'I had no thought that you would be injured by being suspected of helping them, and I had my reasons for not wishing to be known as the author of the benefits,' said Charles blushing.

'I demand your reasons.'

'The truth is, I must confess it, I—I hope some day to marry Mary Ward—'

'Ah!—'

'She is a worthy girl, sir,—'

'But this is no reason!' exclaimed Mr. L.

'Well, then, you must know, sir, had I advanced money to the family openly,' said Charle, recovering his self-possession, and his face beaming with frankness, 'there was a possibility that I might be suspected of unworthy motives. And again, even had it been otherwise, and I could have won Miss Ward, as I would have wished to win her, she might have loved me more from a sense of gratitude than for myself; and I would not have bought her love. As it is, I—I hope she loves me for what I am, and that she will accept my hand, when I am in a position to support a wife.'

'Charles,' said Mr. Lambert pressing the young man's hand, 'I honor you! You have acted nobly. Return to your situation; you shall have the entire control of my business: your salary shall be doubled.'

'But Mr. Carrol.'

'He is not permanently engaged. I will procure a place for him. Charles, you must come back! I confess I have acted wrong in this matter. To tell you a secret, Charles, Mrs. Ward is my own sister!'

'Your sister!'

'I do not wonder at your astonishment; but it cannot equal mine, when I learned the fact this morning. I disclaimed all connection with her twenty years ago, because she refused to matry a man who was my friend. I was unjust. Afterwards she married Mr. Ward, of whom I knew nothing. She supposed, however, that I might have learned the facts; and all the favors they have received from you have been credited to me. But it shall be made right. I thank Heaven that I have now an opportunity to atone for my injustice to an only sister, and to thank you for the lesson in humanity you have taught me. Wealthy as I am, I shall never again distress a tenant for rent, without ascertaining whether he is deserving of any favors.'

Mr. Lambert was not permitted to do all the good he proposed to his sister's family. In a few days, Mr. Ward's patent was decreed, and his fortune made. Thanks to his noble invention, his family was raised to affluence; but Mrs. Ward did not disdain the kindness of her restored brother.

Mr. Lambert had lost no time in acquainting his relatives with the nature of their indebtedness to Charles Burchard. If they esteemed and loved this generous-hearted young man before, what was nur their admiration of his noble qualities! Nows, however, felt their influence like Miss Ward. The eye by which she could express her joy, gratitude, and love, was by becoming his wife; with a dowry which relieved him of the care of providing for the comforts of life. Prosperous in business, happy in his domestic relations, Charles Burchard often had occasion to look back with a smile to the time when he left the services of Mr. Lambert 'for conscience sake.'

Conscientious.

The following very ludicrous paragraph is from a late Scotch paper: "Long before there was any word of the disruption, and when the church of Scotland was deemed by those who have since seceded from her communion as the glory of the whole earth, the following conversation ensued between his reverence, now in the free church, and one of his hearers in a rural parish, on a Sunday forenoon, immediately after divine service: 'Weel, John, there's a fine day.' 'It is that, sir,' was the reply. 'That's a fine pony you have got, John.' 'No a cannier or better-shaved creature in a' the paris', savin' yersel',' replied Hodge. 'If it had not been Sunday,' said the man of Scripture, 'I would have been inquiring the price of it.' 'Deed, sir,' replied the owner of the beast, 'if it hadna been Sunday, as ye say, I wad hae said aught pounds.' 'Indeed,' replied Mass John, 'we will see about that to-morrow.' 'Vera weel, sir. That's a bonny stack o' hay ye hae i' the yard—I wadna be on want o' a pickle of it; and it hadna been the day it is, I wad hae offered the price o' it too.' 'I think the more of you for that, John, as it is just the way with myself; for had it not been this hallowed day, I would have said 9d. por stone. I might likewise have asked a number of questions—such as how the market went yeste day in Ardrossh, and what are you asking for your Ayrshire bull calf, and so on.' 'Deed, ay, sir; but as we canna be telled three white raise a shillin' and pitatie-aits fifteen pence the quarter, on sic a day as this, an' it wad be just as ill sayin' that the bit cauflie's worth thirty shillins till onybody.' 'Good day, John.' 'Guid day,' was then passed, and thus ended the above equivocal reverence for the Sabbath, although the conversation ended to the mutual worldly satisfaction of both parties."

Horses are said to have become so numerous in Brazil to be a serious trouble. The Emperor has therefore issued a decree, authorsing citizens to shoot brood mares wherever found.

How to Examine Wells.—The following simple mode of examining a well, to ascertain whether it contains any of ssive substances, has been recommended as efficient: Place a common mirror over the well in such position as to catch and throw the rays of sun directly to the bottom of the well, which it will instantly illuminate in such a manner that the smallest pebbles, &c. at the bottom, can be as distinctly discerned as if they were held in the hand. The sun is in the best situation to be reflected in the morning or afternoon.

A cabbage, three feet round, two and one half feet high, was lately exposed at the market, and much admired. This mammoth vegetable, of species of cauliflower, was cooked "in the best approved style," and furnished a sufficient food for 25 people.

Too much is seldom enough. Pumping after the pail is full keeps it from being so.

Wood is the thing, after all, as the man with a deal leg said when the mad dog bit it.

LIFE.

We are born; we laugh; we weep;
We love; we droop; we die!
Ah! wherefore do we laugh, we weep?
Why do we live, or die?
Who knows that secret deep?
Alas, not I!

Why doth the violet spring
Unseen by human eye?
Why do the radiant seasons bring
Sweet thoughts that quickly fly?
Why do our fond hearts cling
To things that die?

We toil—through pain and wrong;
We fight—and fall;
We love; we lose; and then, ere long,
Stone-dead we lie.
O Life! is all this song
"Endure and—die?"

Taking it Coolly.

The Detroit Advertiser tells a capital story of an easy, good natured old Vermont farmer, who never suffered anything to perplex or worry him, and found a silver lining in the darkest clouds. The anecdote is quite refreshing in this hot weather, and so commending its philosophy to all who are plagued with wordly vexations, we copy it:

One day, while the black tongue prevailed in that State, one of his men came in, bringing the news that one of his oxen was dead.

"He is?" said the old man, "well, he always was a cuss. Take his hide off, and carry it down to Fletcher's, it will bring the cash.

An hour or so afterwards, the man came back with the news that "Linebacker" and his mate were both dead.

"Are they?" said the old man, "well I took them off cheap,—to save a bad debt: that I never expected to get. Its lucky it ain't the brindles. Take the hides down to Fletcher's; they will bring the cash."

After the lapse of another hour, the man came back to tell him that the nigh brindle was dead.

"Is he?" said the old man; "well, he was a very old ox. Take his hide off and take down to Fletcher's: it's worth cash and will bring more than any two of the others."

Hereupon, his wife, who was a very pious soul, taking upon herself the office of Elphus, reprimanded her husband very severely, and asked him if he was not aware that his loss was a judgement of heaven for his wickedness.

"Is it?" said the old fellow. "Well, if they will take the judgment in cattle, it is the easiest way to pay it."

LEGAL ANECDOTE.—It is said that Judge T—, formerly the presiding justice of Common Pleas, under the old regime, was engaged at one time in trying a criminal who had been stealing the goods of a merchant. His guilt was clearly established, but a question arose as to the value of the stolen articles and on the determination of their value depended under the statute the fact whether it was grand larceny, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, or petit larceny, punishable by confinement in the county jail.

The jury after being out for some time came into court for special instruction, saying, if the value of the goods were found at their wholesale price, at which they were purchased by their owner, it would amount to petit larceny only; but if found at the retail price, it would be grand larceny, and they wished to be informed as to their duty in this respect.

Judge T——, who was eminent for his practical common sense, if not for his legal attainments charged the jury as follows:

"Considering the way in which the prisoner obtained possession of these goods, I do not think the State of Ohio could afford to let him have them at less than the retail price."

The result of the charge may be readily imagined.

A lady, the wife of one of the coblish aristocrats of New York, on dispensing with the services of a faithful servant girl, gave her the following recommendation:

"Madam Suki Day lived with me won yare an leven month cookin washin and cleanin and is a useful kind of body is vary onest an i never new her to lie nor pilfer an she don't hev no boes cortin in the kichen long after nine o'clock."

No catechism is so useful to children as their parents' example at home. It is the brightest mirror under their roof.—Taylor.

Census of New South Wales.—The colony of New South Wales, the South Eastern subdivision of Australia, of which Sydney is the chief port and capital, had a population in 1834 of about 60,000; by the census of 1841, 128,726; in 1846, 156,780; and on the 1st of March, 1851, 189,951—having thus trebled its population in 17 years.

If twenty-seven inches of snow gave three inches of water, how much milk will a cow give when fed upon ruta-baga turnips? Multiply the flakes by the hair of the cow's tail, then divide the product by a turnip, add a pound of chalk, and the sum will be the answer.

A pert young miss, wishing to banter her beau, said, "I'm sure it'll be a long time before I shall find a husband, for pa declares I shall never marry a fool." "Then I'm certain you'll die an old maid, for none other will think of making you an offer!" was the reply.

Difference in Law.—Many years ago the people of Egypt declared that every adultress was to have twenty-one years of age and upwards should have two wiv s. The law in North Carolina is, that every man who has two wives shall be hanged. So much for the wisdom of lawgivers.

"Such is the pressure of the times in our town," said a Birmingham manufacturer to his agent in London, "that we have good workmen who will get up the inside of a watch for eighteen shillings." "Look you," that is nothing compared to London," replied his friend: "we have boys here who will get up the inside of a chimney for sixpence.

An Irish piper, who now and then indulged in a glass too much, was accosted by a gentleman with:

"Pat, what makes your face so red?"

"Please your honor," said Pat, "I always blush when I spake to a gintleman."

A HEART'S MUSINGS.

BY C. SUMMERS.

Can it be thy heart is so very cold,
That thou hast no love but the love of gold?
Thy every feeling so sere and chilled,
Even thy thoughts with nought but gold are filled?

I could wish that different were thy mind,
That thou wouldst cherish feelings true and kind.
And bear for one who has loved thee ever,
Affection that even gold could not sever.

For the Plainfield Union.

Death of Henry Clay.

A nation mourns. Our country is, at last, called to bear its long-expected bereavement. The Prince of American Statesmen is gathered to his fathers. Composed, peaceful and resigned, Henry Clay paid the debt of nature at his lodgings at the National Hotel at Washington, on the morning of Tuesday, June 29th, at 17 minutes after 11 o'clock. So long prominent has he been in the Councils of our country, so thoroughly interwoven is his name with our proudest monuments of diplomacy and statesmanship, so truly and pre-eminently enthroned has he been in the affections of his countrymen, that the national bosom is burthened with grief, and its pulsations of sorrow beat in unison with those of every patriotic heart in the Republic from centre to circumference.

One consolation remains. He had long warning that his end was approaching. The sad event has for months cast its shadows before, and he was prepared to meet it. We dwell with devout gratitude upon upon the assurance that in death he was composed, peaceful and resigned—a worthy end of a worthy life. His name will be immortal; and the friends of human liberty every where will bless the memory and example of HENRY CLAY. Scarcely since the days of Washington has one passed from the stage of political action for whom there has been so deep a grief as Americans will feel when the mournful intelligence spreads through a country He served so faithfully and loved so well.

That part of the career of HENRY CLAY, which preceded his appearance in the political world, is not without its interest, because not without its peculiarities. Few of our public men enter upon active life without the long preparatory drilling of school and college: the discipline of mind, of habit, and sometimes of morals. But HENRY CLAY owed very little to the schoolmaster. Born on the twelfth day of April, 1777, his father, Rev. JOHN CLAY, survived that period only three years; and dying, left the care of a half dozen children to his widow, ill provided with the means of battling the cares and exigencies of life. A re-marriage to Capt. HENRY WATKINS proved more fortunate for the lady than such duplicate unions are apt to be. The step-father appears to have entertained a warmly affectionate feeling towards the dependant little family. HENRY, after a brief primary course from an English pedagogue, was provided with a post behind the counter of a Richmond shopkeeper. Subsequently, a desk was found for him in the office of the Court of Chancery, where, in addition to a delightful intimacy with the absorbing factions of the law, he acquired the valuable friendship of Hon. THEODORE WYTHE, the learned and excellent Chancellor of the State of Virginia. Attracted by the already obvious talents of the youth, the Chancellor for several years employed him as an amanuensis; and, in order to give his protege every advantage of professional preparation, eventually placed him in the office of Mr. BROOKE, the Attorney-General, where the year of probationary reading was accomplished in the early part of the year 1797. Admitted to the bar, the young advocate cast about him, as young advocates are apt to do, for a location in some profitably litigious community, where the fortunate conjunction of talent with opportunity might be brought about. A few years before, Capt. WATKINS, with his large family, had migrated to Woodford County, Kentucky, thirteen miles or so from Lexington. To Lexington, therefore, in November, 1797, the future glory of Kentucky was attracted; and there found himself, to use his own language, without patrons, without the favor or countenance of the great or opulent, without the means of paying his weekly board; and in the midst of a Bar uncommonly distinguished by eminent members. "I remember," said he in his farewell speech of 1842, "how comfortable I thought I should be if I could make one hundred pounds, Virginia money, per year, and with what delight I received the first fifteen shillings fee. My hopes were more than realized. I immediately rushed into a successful and lucrative practice."

He began his political about the same time he did his professional career, by taking an active part in the election of delegates to frame a new constitution for the State of Kentucky, contending, among other reforms, for the gradual abolition of slavery. His course on this subject rendered him somewhat unpopular; but the zealous opposition he made to the alien and sedition laws of 1798 soon restored popular regard, and in 1803 he was triumphantly elected to the Legislature by the citizens of Fayette County. In 1806 he was appointed to the U. S. Senate for the short remainder of the term of Gen. Adair, who had resigned. In 1807 he was again elected a member of the General Assembly of Kentucky, and was chosen Speaker by a large majority.

In 1809 Mr. Clay was again elected to the U. S. Senate for two unexpired years of the term of Mr. Thurston, resigned; and during this period he distinguished himself by brilliant speeches on several important subjects. In the summer of 1811, he was elected a member of the House of Representatives, and was chosen Speaker on the first day of his appearance in that body by a vote of nearly two to one. The unprecedentedly sudden conferment of this honor was owing to the confidence so generally entertained in his dignity of demeanor, energy of character and parliamentary experience. During this session, his eloquence aroused the country to resist the aggressions of Great Britain in the impressment of American seamen, and the searching of American vessels, which led to many of the causes of the war.

Mr. Clay continued to occupy the Speaker's chair in Congress until January, 1814, when he was appointed one of the commissioners to negotiate a treaty of peace at Ghent. Returning from this important mission, he was welcomed back by his old constituents, and was soon re-elected to Congress, on the floor of which in 1818 he made memorable speeches in favor of recognising the independence of the South American republics. It was in reference to these efforts of Mr. Clay that Daniel Webster said:—

"He has identified his own name with the cause of South American liberty—he ought to be esteemed one of the most fortunate men of the age. It is enough for any thing to have connected himself with the greatest events of the age in which he lives, and to have been foremost in measures which reflect high honor on his country in the judgment of mankind."

In the same year, Mr. Clay put forth his strenght in behalf of a national system of internal improvements, eloquently and successfully vindicating their constitutionality in opposition to the influence of Mr. Monroe. This system, it was asserted, we believe, by a figure of the Genius of Liberty, and inscribed with the name of "Henry Clay," was erected on the Cumberland road, to commemorate his great services in behalf of that improvement. In the session of 1819-20, Mr. Clay exerted himself with pre-eminent ability for the establishment of protection to American industry, and this was followed by equally important services in adjusting the Missouri compromise.

After the settlement of these great questions, he withdrew from congress, in order to attend to his private affairs which had become embarrassed in consequence of the singleness of purpose with which he had devoted himself to the public weal, but his retirement was of short duration. Three years afterwards a special motion retrieved his pecuniary losses, and in 1823 he returned to Congress, and was re-elected Speaker by a majority of more than three-fourths of the members. It was during this session that Daniel Webster presented his memorable resolution providing for the recognition of the independence of Greece, and Mr. Clay, with the same ardor which he had always manifested in behalf of human liberty, exerted himself nobly in support of the great statesman from Massachusetts.

In 1825 Mr. Clay took a very active part in the Presidential election. With the history of that event readers are familiar. Mr. Clay's enemies tried to silence his eloquence and crush his influence, by slander, but never was a charge of corruption more completely and triumphantly refuted.

In December, 1829, Mr. Clay made a public appeal in favor of the cause of colonization in a masterly and eloquent address before the Kentucky Colonization Society, portraying in vivid colors the sufferings and degradation, mental and bodily, of the slave, and pointing to colonization as the surest and safest remedy for those evils.

We think it unnecessary to bring the political history of the great Statesman to a later day. The country knows it by heart; and we shall conclude this sketch by the following outline of his domestic biography.

Very shortly after his removal to Kentucky, he married LUCRETIA HART, daughter of THOMAS HART, Esq., a prominent citizen of Lexington. Another daughter of the same family was married to Hon. James Brown, of New Orleans, Minister at Versailles during the administrations of Messrs. Monroe and Adams. Mrs. Clay, who is now in her 71st year, and in the enjoyment of robust health, has been the mother of 11 children, four of whom died in childhood. ELIZA, a young lady of unusual promise, died in very untimely repose, by drowning, in 1826, while en route to Washington with her father; and almost at the same moment the afflicted parents received intelligence of the decease of another most interesting and accomplished daughter, the wife of Mr. Dubadle, of New-Orleans. A third daughter, upon whom the father's affections seem to have centered after the death of the mother, died in 1835. She was married to Mr. James Erwine, of New-Orleans; and her loss was a blow from which Mr. Clay never recovered. Of the five sons, the eldest, Thedore Wythe Clay has been since boyhood, an inmate of a lunatic asylum. Thomas Hart Clay, born in 1803, resides in Kentucky, and is engaged in the manufacture of hemp. Henry Clay, jr., it is hardly necessary to say, lost his life at the battle of Buena Vista, while fighting valiantly for his country. James B. Clay and John M. Clay, the youngest, were both educated for, and we believe, are now practicing the profession of the law in their native state. The domestic relations of the lamented dead, were marked with the utmost felicity. Revered, nay heartily beloved by the whole neighborhood of Ashland in that charming retreat of which every portion is sacred ground, whenever an interval in public duties offered, Mr. Clay was sure to hasten home; where, surrounded by as many of his family and friends as could gather there, he enjoyed the delights of unrestrained social intercourse. An equable temper, attained by careful self-discipline and a natural and irresistible fascination of manner, made him the same interesting object as the orator in the Senate. His striking, animating thoughts, always found a vehicle in a voice, the intonations of which, were the very melody of music. Thus in private, as in public, the character of the great man was complete.

The house of Mr. Alexander Dunn, of Piscataway, opposite this city was struck by lightning on Tuesday afternoon last. The house was entirely consumed; the kitchen adjoining was saved. A large portion of Mr. Dunn's furniture was also saved. The family were in the house at the time it was which they supposed was very near, they went to the door to discover if the lightning had not struck somewhere. They discovered nothing, and went into the house. After being seated a few moments, some of the men who had been working near by, came and informed them that the house was on fire.

The house was insured for $900 in the Plainfield Company. The loss is much greater than the insurance.—New Brunswick Times.

A DOSE.—Three small boys went into an apothecary's store a few days since, when the youngest urchin cried out—

"A cent's worth of rock candy."

"Don't sell a cent's worth," was the reply

The boys abjourned outside, and held a consultation, and then entered, all smiling.

"Do you sell three cent's worth?"

"Yes, I will sell three cent's worth."

"Well, we han't got them," was the quick response, as the boys left the store.

If girls would only spend as much time with encyclopedias as they do with milliners, they would soon find their heads as attractive as their hats. Queer that no young lads will believe this.

THE UNION.

Plainfield, N. J. July 6, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

National Whig Nominations:

For President of the United States:
Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.

For Vice President:
WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North-Carolina.

Railroad Celebration.

The Central Railroad of New Jersey was opened to Easton, Pa. on Friday by an excursion of the Officers, Directors, and some hundreds of invited guests from New York city and the several places along the line, filling 8 or 10 cars. The boat left New York about 8 o'clock, A. M. and Plainfield about 10, and, passing through Somerville, Lebanon, White House, Clinton, Asbury and Bloomsbury, stopped at Phillipsburg opposite Easton before 2 o'clock, P. M. welcomed everywhere by a general turn out of the population, hurrahs, firing of cannon, waving of handkerchiefs, &c. &c. and stopping to examine more particularly the most interesting points. We had no idea that Warren County was so rough and mountainous, requiring so large capital and so much skill to build a railroad through it. In all our experience in railroad travel, we never saw anything to compare with it. Such winding around mountains, filling up vallies, or bridging them, and digging through rocks and hills, we had not before seen. One bridge beyond Clinton, which was particularly examined by the large company and was greatly admired, is over 100 feet high and 1300 feet long, built in the strongest manner, of stone, wood and iron. We passed other bridges as high or higher, but not so long. The enterprise and skill displayed in surmounting difficulties at that end of the road merit the highest praise and will most favorably compare with any road in the country. The scenery is beautiful, and it is a highly productive farming country.

Arrived at Phillipsburgh, all the bells of Easton commenced ringing and so continued for an hour or two, and a cannon on Jefferson Hill near by, continued uttering its welcome from its brazen mouth for the same time. A procession was formed, with music, at the stopping place, which immediately on crossing the Delaware was joined by the Fire Departments of Easton, and on arrival at the Court House we were welcomed by the Borough authorities. All the flags in the place were flung to the breeze, and a transparency was suspended across the street bearing the motto, "Welcome to New York and New Jersey."

The procession then moved to Masonic Hall, where a bountiful dinner was spread, and partaken of by the hundreds above-named, speeches made, &c. &c. Leaving Easton about 5 we arrived at Plainfield before 8 o'clock, P. M. most highly gratified and pleased with the Excursion, as were all whom we heard speak of it. The weather was very fine, neither too warm nor too cool, and no accident happened to mar the festivities of the day.

Gov. Fert, Dr. King, James Boorman, Esq. Mr. Allison, Sec. of State, Ald. Miller, of New York, and other noted gentlemen, were present, most of them speaking.

It is the first time Easton has been visited by a locomotive, and this read will divert much of its trade from Philadelphia to New York.

We will give a more particular account of the Road when we have more leisure.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The Crescent City arrived at New York Monday afternoon, via Navy Bay, with 400 passengers, the California mails, and over $2,000,000 in gold.

The Northern Light arrived Friday morning, 8 days from San Juan, with 300 passengers and $200,000 in gold.

The news is up to June 2d,

The news from the interior is very favorable. Crime is diminishing. The crops are ripe and abundant, and the population is increasing rapidly. No lumigrants by the Plains had arrived. Gold is as abundant as ever, and immense works are being constructed to bring water to the dry diggings, some of them costing a quarter of a million of dollars.

Gold has been found in Oregon recntly, but not in large quantities. It is supposed that it exists in the whole range of the Cascade Mountains.

The remains of Henry Clay were taken from Philadelphia to New York, on the way to Kentucky, on Saturday. They are every where received with funeral solemnities, and universal tokens of grief, and a sense of a public loss.

4TH OF JULY!!

There will be a grand rally of the citizens of New Jersey, at WASHINGTON ROCK! situated on the brow of the mountain, near Plainfield, N. J., to celebrate the birth of our National Independence, ON MONDAY, JULY 5TH, 1852.

Orator—C. CHANCEY BURR, Esq., of New York City.

Reader of the Declaration of Independence—JAMES W. HALE, Esq., of Newark.

"EXCELSIOR," by the Orator.

Oration to be delivered at 10 o'clock, A. M.

BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

THE APOLLONEONS, a talented and popular company of vocalists, have been engaged for the occasion, and will sing several appropriate pieces.

Washington Rock is a beautiful and romantic spot, commanding a view of New York, Newark, Elizabethtown, Rahway, Amboy, New Brunswick, Somerville, and the villages scattered over the plain, constituting one of the finest landscapes in the United States.

Refreshments of all kinds furnished on the ground.

July 24, 1852.

The small pox is raging at Jamaica.

4TH OF JULY.

The Lovers of Liberty and Independence throughout the Country of our Adoption,

GREETING.

AT LADINGTON HALL, On Monday, the 5th Day of July, 1852; To commence at 9 o'clock in the morning, and continue through the day and evening. Ample Accommodations have been made to render a visit to Ladington Hall on that day pleasant and agreeable, as it will be decorated in a manner as pleases the eye, and furnished with every kind of Refreshments, calculated to please and gratify the Taste.

The Proceeds of the Fair to be applied to Benevolent Purposes.

July 22, 1852.

For the Plainfield Union.

FACTS.—NO. VII.

Nebraska Territory embraces the territory between 38 deg. and 49 deg. of North latitude, and extends from the western shore of the Missouri river to the Rocky Mountains, and contains 136,700 square miles. Nebraska is an Indian word, and means "broad and shallow," and is descriptive of its principal river, the Platte, which is a French name signifying "Silver River."

The Tobacco plant is a native of America, and was first carried to Europe about 1560. The practice of smoking it was introduced into England about the year 1584.

William the Conqueror, it is said, introduced into England what was called Troy Weight, from Troyes, a town in the province of Champagne, France. The English were dissatisfied with it because it was of less weight than the pound then in use in England. Hence came the term avoirdupois, which was a medium between the French and ancient English weight.

Stone coal was first discovered in England in 1302. A cubic foot weighs 1273 ounces.

Flavius Gioa, of Naples, invented the Mariner's Compass in 1302.

Of 118 species of serpents only 32 are poisonous.

The Temple of Diana at Ephesus was 200 feet long and 125 broad, with 127 columns 90 feet high to support the roof. It was 210 years in building.

☞ LARGE CORN.—The Monmouth Inquirer says that perhaps the finest corn now growing in the State, may be found in the grounds of Dr. Henry Woodhull, of New Brunswick. On June 14th the finest specimen gave a measurement of five feet seven and a half inches, from the surface of the ground to the extreme of the tassel. The average has been five feet. A second planting yields an average of four feet.—The seed used is the result of five years experiment. The culture has been the same as that usually practised by our farmers, with the exception of sub-soiling and a generous top dressing of well rotted compost. The largest field corn now growing in Middlesex, will not average over six inches.

"Hasty Soup."—The good natured host of the "American," at tiopating the demands of the public for 'soup,' has issued a placard announcing "Hasty Soup at 11 o'clock, daily." A large number of persons took their first plate yesterday, and determined to keep it up. There was an amusing and good natured colloquy at the plates were handed round, upon this healthful, refreshing and decidedly original mode of opening a campaign. In addition to the soup, there was a capital article of "Gra' am B cad," which to either made the meal substantial as well as ref eshing. [State Gazette.

A Sign of Intemperance.—A few minutes ago we hear the following dialogue:—

"You think Gen. Scott will be elected then do you?" The reply was—"Well I have not yet seen any sober man who thought otherwise. If the fellow should get pretty drunk, he would be very likely to have some wild notions in his head, about the possibility of beating Scott, or something of that sort, but he would come to his senses again as soon as the effects of the liquor had passed off."—Toledo Blade.

Remarkable Sheep.—Mr. S. D. Sinceerbox, of Stormville, Duchess county, N. York, has on his farm a sheep 15 years old, which has sheared fourteen fleets of wool averaging 4 lbs. of the finest quality, bringing 60 cents a pound. For fourteen years past she has churned the milk of from four to five cows, and is as ready and capable of doing it now as ever. Remarkable and profitable sheep that.—Poughkeepsie Eagle.

Gen. Cass says there are two things which you cannot teach an Indian—to fear death or earn a living. While Cato could not improve their stoicism, all the tax-gatherers in the world, he says, could not add a particle to their industry.

An association was formed in Brooklyn last evening, to remove the bones of 11,560 marines of the Prison Ships now piled up beneath the Navy Yard Wall, in Hudson Avenue, to a more decent resting place on Fort Green (Washington Park,) and erect a monument over them.

The British naval establishment on the great American lakes has at last been wholly broken up. The Kingston (Canada) Whig says H. M. iron steamship Mohawk has been sold to a private Company, and her office a will immediately return to England.

A despatch from Washington states that the Hon. W. A. Graeham, (the Whig nominee for the Vice Presidency,) has resigned his post as Secretery of the Navy, but will continue to act a few days, at the solicitation of the President.

The fruit crops in New Jersey promise to be good, the Mount Holly Mirror says, Apples, pears, plums and cherries will be plentiful. Peaches will probably be scarce.

There is said to be an unusual scarcity of horses in Indiana and Kentucky, and in many instances those animals command as high as $150 per head.

Mr. M. C. Barden and Mr. Wm. P. Abbott, of Bradford, Vt., each shot twice at a knife blade four rods distant, recently and split the ball exactly in the centre every time.

A copper mine, the ore of which is estimated to be worth £20 a ton, has been discovered on the coast of Africa. Parties from Liverpool are about sending out means to work it.

A Big one.—Cyrus Stevens Esq., of Albany, a member of the Irondequoit Fishing Club, recently killed a lake trout which weighed thirty-two and a half pounds. Mr. S. hooked him at two o'clock, and had him in the boat at 6 o'clock.

'Ma,' said a little girl to her mother, 'do men want to get married as much as the women do?'

"Pshaw! what are you talking about?"

"Why, ma, the women who come here are always talking about getting married, but the men don't do so.

The most striking illustration of the saying "that the pith of a lady's letter is the postscript," which we ever heard of, was that of a young lady who, having gone out to India, and writing home to her friends, concluded in these words:—'You will see by my signature that I am married.'

Parch half a pint of rice until it is brown—then boil it as usually done. Eat slowly, and it will stop the most alarming cases of diarrhœa.

Central Rail Road of N. J.

On and after Monday July 6th, until further notice, the cars will leave Plainfield for New York, at 6.25 and 8.25, A. M. and 1.20 and 5.50, P. M. Returning, leave New York at 9 and 10, A. M. and 4 and 6, P. M.

Leave Easton at 6, A. M. and 3.30, P. M. Returning, leave New York at 9 A. M. & 4 P. M.

New York Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Wheat Flour,	$3,94 to 4,19
Rye Flour	3,12 to 3,19
Indian Meal, Jersey,	3,06 to 3,12
Grain—Wheat,	1,00 to 1,00
Rye,	79 to 81
Corn,	60 to 62
Oats, Jersey,	40 to 42

☞ Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared and sold by Dr. Jackson, at the German Medical Store, 120 Arch street, Philadelphia, daily increase in their well deserved celebrity, for the cure of all diseases arising from derangement of the liver. These Bitters have, indeed, proved a blessing to the afflicted, who show their gratitude by the most flattering testimonials. This medicine has established for itself a name that competitors, however wiley their schemes or seductive their promises, cannot reach. It gained the public confidence by the immense benefits that have been derived from it, and will ever maintain its position.

Mr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Canpear Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

INTERESTING CURE OF CROUP.

NOTICE HOW QUICKLY IT CURES.

Plattsburgh, July 17th, 1851.

Dr. A. L. Scovill,—If a mother's thanks and blessings are of any value to you, please accept mine. To the efficacy of Dr. Ingersoll's Syrup of Lisorgot, Tar and Cherry Lozenges, I owe, under Providence, the life of a child. It was administered to my little boy, according to the directions on page 4 of the pamphlet around the bottle, while he was laboring under a most distressing and dangerous attack of CROUP. In a very few moments, the breathing of the little sufferer became easier, and within 12 hours every symptom of the disorder was gone. I wish from my heart that every mother could be made aware of the efficacy of your preparation as a cure for this frightful and too often fatal complaint.

Yours, with respect,

MATILDA LEVERETT.

CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on the outer wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. L. SCOVILL & CO.

For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Jothic Hall, 316 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.

Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING

PRICE—In large bottles, $1.00, or 6 bottles for $5.00.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

Laing & Webster, $8,65; David Rockwell, 3,25; D. Wiggins, 1,00; J. Annis, Esq. 1,00.

Emory & Co.'s Patent Horse Power, Thrasher and Separator.

THE UNDERSIGNED have been appointed sole agents in the city of New York for the sale of their Improved Horse Power and Thrasher. It is the best thing to procure Emory's Improved Horse Power and Machine will observe that their name is cast on every link of chain. None other is genuine.

LONGETT & GRIFFING
State Agricultural Warehouse,
No. 35 Cliff Street, New-York.

July 6, 1852.—3m

SHERIFF'S SALE.

In Chancery N. J.

Between Lewis Craig, Complainant, and William W. Dawson and Elizabeth Dawson, Defendants.

Fi. Fa. for sale of Mortgaged Premises

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed, I shall expose for sale at public vendue at Laing's Hotel, Plainfield, on Monday, the 16th day of August next, at 1 o'clock, P. M. All that certain lot of Land and premises, situate, lying and being in the township of Plainfield, Essex Co. N. J. and is butted and bounded as follows: Beginning at a stake in the centre of Church street, in Plainfield, and also in the middle of Second Street, in Lewis Bond's corner, thence along his line and the middle of Church st. S 9 deg. 30 minutes, E. 2 ch. 81 links to a stone and corner of Silvia Bond's land, thence along his line S. 44 1-2 deg. W. 22 links to a stone, another of Lewis Bond's corners, in the line of lands belonging to the Society of Friends, thence along their line N. 52 1-4 deg. W. 2 ch. 29 links to a stone one of said Friend's corners, and also a corner of James Laing's other land, thence along the line N. 1 ch. 56 links to the middle of Second street, thence along the middle of Second Street, N. 44 1-2 deg. E. 91 1-2 links to the place of beginning, containing 1203-4 of an acre of Land.

W. PIERSON, Sheriff.

LIST OF LETTERS,

REMAINING in the Post Office at Plainfield, N. J., June 30, 1851.

Andrews, Francis L.	Miller, Martin,
Barth, Henry,	McArthur, James, 3,
Burleigh, Lucian	Manning, Stelle
Bowers, Charles	More, Peter,
Brown, C. D.	Marsh, Lewis P.
Badgley, Samuel	Priest, George
Baldwin, Asa	Pennington, Martha Ann
Badgley, Thomas P.	Parie, H.
Baker, M. L.	Parker & Co.
Brown, Christian D.	Randolph, Sarah
Clarke, Wm. M.	Roe, Catharine
Carpenter, Wm. T., 2,	Richards, A.
Clark, Richard	Randolph, Catharine F.
Cannon, Mary	Rodman, G. W., 2,
Clark, Phebe	Southard, Eliza L.
Drake, James F.	Smalley, Isaac
Dorsey, Honora	Silvers, Randolph S.
Eickman, Sophia	Smith, Wm.
Eldridge, Aaron, W.	Thompson, S. S.
Elps, John, H.	Titsworth, Eliza Ann
Fenrick, Abraham	Townsand, Jos. S.
Evans, Thomas, Jun.	Tappan, Joel
Gilmarton, Mary	Taylor, Charles
Haldane, John	Vosselman, J.
Hunt, J. D.	VanKoorn, S.
James, Mary J.	Winans, David, 2,
Kinne, Luther, 2,	Way, Mary A.
Knowland, Caleb	Webster, Silas
Kirk, Frederick W.	Wood, A. H. & D.
Ladue, Albert P.	Wilcox, P. K.
Lynes, Timothy	Young, E. K.
Leonard, A.

☞ Persons calling for the above will please say they are advertised. L. CRAIG, P. M.

IRA PRUDEN,

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning-Fluid, &c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual. June 14, 1852.

Appalling Murder and Suicide.—One of the most dreadful tragedies which has ever occurred in this vicinity, was discovered about 6 o'clock this morning at No. 4 Academy street, where a German, named Bernard Runy, aged 45, and his wife Christina, aged 37, have occupied two rooms in the house since the first of January. They have been seen on Saturday night by the occupants of the house, and some suspicions having been excited this morning by the stench issuing from the room a ladder was raised to the back window and a pane of glass broken—the doors being locked—when the bodies of Runy and wife were discovered, lying upon the bed, large quantities of dried blood being upon the bed and floor. The Coroner was immediately sent for, and Officer Thatcher having entered, broke open the door of the apartment, when the stench was so overwhelming that all present were obliged to retreat. All the windows were finally raised and chloride of lime, charcoal, and other disinfectants were put into the room.

On entering, a most appalling sight was presented. Both were bloated, disfigured and corrupted to a great extent. They were in their night clothes under the coverlid, with their faces turned partially to each other. The body of the man was infested with vermin, and the face and breast of the woman were disfigured by violence and corruption. The bed had been soaked in blood, the drops of which were also spattered about the room and on the furniture.

The above is from the Newark Daily Advertiser, of Wednesday Evening last. It is supposed he killed his wife on account of jealousy and then killed himself.

Advice to the Young.—Improve every moment to some valuable purpoee. Cultivate an intimate acquaintance with the scriptures. Reverence the name, the laws and the worship of God. Remember time, on the Sabbath, by the clock and business of religion. Live in the constant practice of the duty of prayer. Cherish a sense of your accountability to God, and of your need of the renovating influences of his Divine Spirit. Forget not the debt of gratitude you owe to your parents. Treat them with kindness and respect. Listen diligently to their counsels and admonitions. Accustom yourself to look forward to the hour of death, and to contemplate the scenes that will follow. Early consecrate your time and your talents to the service of God and your fellow-man. You are now the hope of your parents. From you they expect much. Make them happy by living lives of religion and sobriety, and by preparing to fill their places with dignity when they shall be sleeping in the dust. Remember that the eyes of God are upon you, and that you are not beings of a day but are formed and acting for a state of immortality.

A Right of Property Question.—A good story, if it has no malice in it is relished nearly or quite as well as truth, and one of such a character is the following. We give it as told by the Detroit Advertiser:

"A Shrewd Yankee, peregrinating through the South on a voyage of adventure, came to the habitation of a widowed lady, well to do in the world, who had an only daughter. After tarrying a few days the Yankee and matron became mutually pleased with each other, and the latter remarked to him that if he liked the daughter well enough to marry her he might stop and have some danger of her estate. The bargain closed, the step ials consummated but the Yankee was more surprised than delighted at our three months after the wedding to be presented with an heir to a very handsome property. The husband stated to his wife and mother-in-law a few days after, that he was a Yankee and a Yankee wanted four hundred dollars, and must have it. The money was forthcoming, and the husband started for Connecticut. The husband started for Connecticut. The husband started for Connecticut. The

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

THE SUBSCRIBER, WILL RESPECTFULLY INFORM THE CITIZENS OF PLAINFIELD AND VICINITY, THAT HE HAS COMMENCED THE PAINTING BUSINESS AT THE CORNER OF CHERRY AND SECOND STREETS, WHERE HE IS PREPARED TO FURNISH

HEAD STONES, MONUMENTS, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates, Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. We have also a beautiful Free Stone Quarry, from which I will furnish to order every variety of stone for building purposes, ornamental or plain. All of which I will execute with neatness and promptness and dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12-1851-1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE, PHYSICIANS,
NO. 229 GREEN STREET, NEW-YORK,
Second-door, daughter and successor to the late

Mrs. R. S. MOTT
THE CELEBRATED
FEMALE PHYSICIAN,

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, and especially those arising from or attended upon debility, Scrofulous, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous diseases, is so well and generally known that it is considered superfluous to comment upon it, further than to say, that they respectfully refer to the numerous cures in cases of long standing, after their having been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming personally acquainted with DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

☞ Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. Jan6 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUSE, Hay, Floor and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is warranted, and warranted not liable to get out of order.

Manufactory 39 Greene street, New York,

Also For Sale at 387 Pearl street,

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

S. S. DUBOIS, } SNEDEN, J. DUBOIS.
Nov. 24, 1851.-1y

HOW'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

(IN MEN)

Rheumatism,	Sprains,	Weakness in the
Burns,	Bruises,	Cuts, Sores,	Back, Breast,
Sore Throat,	Pleurisy,	Frost Bites,	Limb & Joint.

(IN HORSES)

Bruises,	Sprains,	Ringbone,	Poll Evil, and all
Warbles,	Splints,	Sweeney,	Fistula, diseases of the
Scratches,	Thoroughpin,	where an Embroca-
Windgall,	Saddle Galls,	tion can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOW CHEMIST,
No. 33 Albany st., New Brunswick,
(Directly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy in our satisfaction.

James Moore, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barney McCherry, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel H. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cannon, Capt. P. Vi Degraw, Princeton. Joseph Hamnitt, John A. Weart, Trenton. A. W. Brown, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Lawrence.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG. In Somerville by Culver Barcalow. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Eel. 24. 1852 -1y.

DR. H. C. DAYTON, Surgeon-Dentist,

Has returned to Plainfield, and taken an Office and Residence for the year, on Main st. 2d house below Webster & Marsh's store.

June 24, 1851.

BRAIDE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received at the cheap store of

Caliooes, fast colors, for 6 cents per yard

May 8, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

THE STAMPEDE MIXTURE,

A PERFECT CURE OF NEVER-FAILING CURE FOR FEVER AND AGUE,
AND OTHER BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, ARISING FROM WEAKNESS

This Medicine is purely a Vegetable Compound, and can be perfectly safe in any climate, with safe use, one day.—The proprietor Dr. Edward Bleecker, is well known, and the properties of this medicine have been known to him for many years, during his private practice as a sovereign remedy for Chills and Fever.

CERTIFICATE

Newark, April 10th, 1852.

Mr. G. Bacon—Dear Sir: In saying used Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture, for the cure of Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, &c., of which you are Agent, it gives me pleasure to state that I have experienced the most beneficial results from it. I have tried many so-called remedies, among the rest Dr. Osgood's Cholagogue, without finding any relief, but have succeeded with the Dumb Ague for more than a year; I tried one bottle of your medicine and it effected a perfect cure. In fact I never enjoyed better health in my life. Any person desiring to know the particulars of the above case, can obtain them by calling at my place of business where they will be cheerfully given.

GEO. V. HANKINS, 231 Broad st., Newark, N. J.

Newark April 10th 1852.

Mr. G. Bacon—Dear Sir: It gives me pleasure to learn that you have accepted the Agency for that justly celebrated Remedy, Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture for the cure of Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, and General Weakness, &c. I have tried it, and it effected a perfect cure when all other failed. I can recommend it to any person afflicted with the Fever and Ague, as a most excellent medicine, and one that must naturally come into general use.

MRS. ANN ELIZA BOWEN, No. 93 Ann street, corner Rivet and Centre sts., Newark, N. J.

DR. LEWIS CRAIG, Agent for Plainfield. my18-6w

DR. HALSEY'S FOREST WINE.

The discovery of the FOREST WINE is the greatest blessing of the age. Put up in Quart Bottles, a single bottle of which does more good, and goes further in the cure of Disease, than two bottles of any Sarsaparilla in use, and warranted to cure without any unpleasant or weakening effect.

The method by which all Sarsaparillas, and other similar medicines are prepared, is by boiling the Roots or Plants from which the extracts, or so called virtues are thus principally evaporated and destroyed.

It is not to be wondered at then, that ten and even twenty bottles of these Sarsaparillas are sometimes taken without any perceptible benefit. Not so with the Forest Wine! By the invention of a wonderful chemical apparatus, a perfect wine is produced without heating or straining, at the same time, all the primitive healing properties of the roots are used with the alcohol that is composed, thus rendering the Forest Wine the most efficient medicine the world ever produced, at the same time the most delightful.

GENERAL DEBILITY, EMACIATION, NERVOUSNESS OF THE BODY, &c.

Many persons are afflicted with some one of the above complaints, without being able to trace it to any particular cause, and therefore delay the use of the proper remedy till the disease becomes constitutional. These disorders are often characterized by a sense of sinking, or entire exhaustion after exercise. Some experience nervousness, and a disposition to scold, others a feeling of the countenance, or palpitation of the heart, on like symptoms.

The excellent effects which have ever attended the use of the Forest Wine and Pills, in every species of debility, is conclusive evidence of its happy results in this class of disorders. Many have resorted to these medicines as a last resort, and have been restored to health. For Nervous disorders and Debility the Wine and Pills are taken according to the directions on the label.

AGUE AND FEVER, OR CHILLS

Are caused by the miasmatic effluvia arising from marshes, decayed vegetations, and low damp situations. The Fever and Ague, or Forest Wine can be relied on as a foreign remedy. When they have been taken agreeable to the directions, we have never known them to fail in effecting a complete cure. In the first place take a large dose of the Forest Pills in time, that their operations may subside before the return chill. The stomach being now free from bile, take one or two wine glasses of the Wine, at intervals of half an hour, commencing about two hours before the period for the chill to return. This breaks the ague, after which the Wine should be continued in doses to restore strength. See full directions around the bottle.

DR. HALSEY'S

GUM-COATED FOREST PILLS

Are an important adjunct to the Forest wine. They are coated with pure gum arabic, an invention for which Dr. Halsey has received the only patent ever granted on Pills, by the government of the United States.

The Forest Wine and gum coated Forest Pills unite in accomplishing the same great end, the Purification of the Blood, and restoration of Health and Strength.

The Forest Wine and Pills are recommended as an efficient and certain cure in the following complaints:—Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Costiveness, Dropsy, Complaints of the Kidneys, Incipient Consumption, Decline of general Health, and Female Weakness, for which it is a Sovereign Remedy; Lumbagiuess, Night Sweats, Nervous Disorders, Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, and want of Nervous Energy, Ague and Fever, which it never fails to cure; Scrofula, Erysipelas, Jaundice, Unhealthy Color of the Skin, Pimples, Weakly and Impaired State of the Constitution.

Dr. Halsey's Office, No. 308 Broadway, New York. The Forest Wine in large square bottles, $1 per bottle; six bottles for $5. Gum coated Forest Pills 25 cents per box. For sale by M. F. CUSHING, and DR. L. CRAIG, appointed Agents for Plainfield.

June 3, 1851. 3m

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's Superior Pain Reliever, as a Medicine possessing astonishing healing properties, which is safe and reliable in cases of diseases, in its ability to arrest pain, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Cramp in the Stomach, we should not be equal; it is very good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Rheumatism, Head, Ear and Tooth Ache, Chilblains, Worms, Ague and Fever, as it checks perspiration or vomiting, it cannot be surpassed. No one can appreciate the worth of this wonderful medicine, till they have used the same. We have used it with great success, and do most cheerfully recommend it to those that are or may be afflicted, as the best and reliable remedy. It is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge, Brooklyn, John Comstock, Brooklyn, " H. L. Hodge, Brooklyn, " Wm. Hodge, Engineer, " Prof. Whiting, Wansburgh, Steamboat "Wansburgh" Hon. G. L. Mortimer, Brooklyn, Lawrence Mann, Rockland, S. Sprague, Rockland, Rev. Smith Wooley, L. Branch Alderman S. L. Husted " David R. Brower, Bergen, H. C. Dunkling, Ex-P. M., " Aaron Kingsland, Bergen, J. Dashiell, Bergen, " Addison Jayne, New York, David Travis, Somerstown, " Rev. Wm. Wilkinson, New York, A. Wise, Bellstead hotel, Justice D. Hiscox, " Peter Bleecker, T. & Ferry, E. Parker, " Joseph Colick, Marsh, Bridgeport, Conn. " Veldram

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above certificate. Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.

J. DASHIELL, Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 194 Walker Street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING.

Jan. 2, 1852

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of May, will remove his store to No. 16 Maiden-Lane, to the rear of his present location.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him:—James Cooper's Patent Eyed, Richardson's and Richards' Covelens and other Needles—Pearl Buttons, Steel Bead and Gold Pens, Spool and Ball Cotton, Shirt Binding, Tape, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c.

Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods,
April 26, 1852.-13m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York.

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Square and Round Seat, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, and Children's Chairs; Also,

Wash and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel do,
March 22, 1852. For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

Hoover's Black Ink.

THE Best in use. For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

THIS most safe and effectual remedy was discovered for the destruction of worms in children or adults, being so safe and pleasant that it can be given to the most tender infant. The numerous symptoms of worms given by this syrup, should satisfy all of its unquestioned virtues, as no parent will be without it after once giving it a fair trial. This Syrup is entirely vegetable and can be taken by the head physician of the Hospital and in all cases where it does not perform according to the recommendations, the money is refunded. I would further say, do not let your children go to bed without this safe and pleasant a remedy is at hand, one which has never failed to give satisfaction in cases of worms or bowel complaints. Whether you are afflicted with bilious fever under the name, pucking at the nose, bloated stomach, sudden starting in their sleep, then is your time to use this remedy, it being for sale by every respectable druggist in the country. Call and you can obtain a pamphlet of its wonderful cures, as well as of Hobensack.

LIVER PILLS.—Those Pills being composed of Roots and Herbs for diseases of the Biliary organs, Liver complaints, &c.

Congestion of the Liver is known to exist from an inclination to vomit being present, bitter taste in the mouth, a yellow appearance of the tongue and skin, the last and the pulse full and bounding, an extra supply of bile in the cause. Let the afflicted attend to it in time—Worst cases will terminate in consumption, if not checked partial. they have been found of inestimable benefit in restoring these functions; derangements to a healthy action purifying the blood and other diseases of the system. Those who are afflicted with complaints which may arise from female irregularities, as headache, giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in the side, back, &c. Price 25 cents per box, with directions. For sale by M. F. CUSHING, Hobensack's Liver Pills, as they are the only genuine, all others being a base imitation. Prepared at Hobensack's Laboratory, Philadelphia. For sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

Wonderful Revival; by M. F. CUSHING.
And at Retail by ELIAS KIRKPATRICK
C. Drake Scotch Plains, Charles Foster, Westfield.
March 23, 1852.-1y.

R. R. R.

Science, by subjecting the laws of Chemistry to the skill of man has contributed to his health and happiness by stopping the most dread and severe pangs of pain in a few minutes, and cures the most desperate

CHRONIC COMPLAINTS

IN A FEW HOURS

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

Internally and Externally instantly stops Pain, and speedily cures its cause.

It is warranted to give relief to the following pains in Fifteen Minutes;

and to speedily and effectually cure the disease.

Rheumatism,	Chole,	Cramps and Spasms,
Lumbago,	Paralysis,	Summer Complaints,
Stiff Joints,	Neuralgia,	Soreness in Bones,
Sciatica,	Dysentery,	Pain in the Bowels,
Pleurisy,	Diarrhœa,	Sick Headache,
Chill Fever,	Heartburn,	Cholera Morbus,
Ague Cake,	Colds, &c.
Sore Throat,

PAIN

IS the warning given of the presence of disease and of the derangement and prostration of the personand muscular system. Either or both diseases and rid the system entirely of its cause, our first great desideratum is to stop the pain—strengthen the nervous energy—invigorate healthy action—the functions and secretions of every organ in the system; this we accomplish by the marvellous

Strengthening, cleansing, invigorating, and powerful pain soothing properties of

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

No matter what the cause of the pain may be—if it arises from over exertion, neglect, mistake, debility, derangement of the liver or secretions of the skin, whether it be rheumatism, neuralgia, sick or nervous headache, nervous irritability, spasmodic affections, cramps, diarrhœa, bowel complaints, chills and fever which originates from internal derangements or external injuries.

Radway's Ready Relief taken internally and applied externally, will speedily and effectually stop the pain and cure its cause.

RHEUMATISM —100,000 persons cured in 1850
The most excruciating pain stopped in two hours.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the quickest, safest, and most effectual remedy for the cure of Rheumatism in the world, that instant ease is the sure result of its use; we state emphatically, in the presence of our God and the world. It will stop the most torturing pains of this distressing complaint by one application. We have never known it fail in giving instant relief. In every city, village and town of America it has cured more of this people of this cruel complaint. In every case we will warrant it to do as stated—it will instantly relieve the sufferer from pain and speedily cure its cause.

SICK AND NERVOUS HEADACHE
100,000 cases cured in 1850.—It will give relief in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief taken according to directions, will speedily and effectually cure this complaint. Taken internally it will in a few minutes relieve the worst case, it cleanses the stomach, stops all irritation in the nerves, veins three and secretions of the head and brain, and relieves the most violent pain in the head. We have in a few hours hundreds daily of the sick and nervous headache

NEURALGIA.—100,000 Neuralgia cases cured in 1850.—It will stop the most violent pain in Fifteen Minutes.

The cruel and excruciating pangs of this distressing complaint are arrested by the application of Radway's Ready Relief.

The happy and invigorating effects it produces on the nervous system, rendering the nerves iron proof, quickly restores the nervous energy and cures the disease. It is the only remedy that has effectually cured Neuralgia in its worst forms.

DIARRHŒA.—200,000 persons cured in 1850.—Pains stopped in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief cured more cases of cholera morbus, cholic and all bowel complaints in this country last year than any other remedy in use. On the banks of the Mississippi, Missouri, Illinois and Ohio rivers, in New Orleans, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Cleveland and other places where diarrhœa, cholera and dysentery rage so fatally, Radway's Ready Relief was used with the best success. It will in 15 minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms, and in general heat throughout the whole system, allay all irritation, stop the painful discharges and relieve the patient from all pain.

CRAMPS AND SPASMS.

A teaspoonful of Radway's Ready Relief, taken internally, and by bathing externally, will in a few minutes cure the most violent cramps and spasms. In all cases where the extremities have lost all feeling, where they were cold and numb, the limbs distorted and shrunk, rubbing Radway's Ready Relief on warm will restore life and action, and a quick and healthy circulation of blood.

SWELLED JOINTS.

If you have pain in the bones, swelled joints, weakness of the muscles, if you have a sprained limb, swelled joint, sore throat, pain in the side, back or chest, rub yourself, Radway's Ready Relief will take out the fire, relieve the pain and swelling, give energy and strength to the muscles and restore the part to health.

Jumping Toothache cured in one second.

All aches and pains—back ache, toothache, face ache, ear ache, stomache, pain in the limbs, the muscles, the bones, the feet, the head and arms, Radway's Ready Relief will instantly cure.

PAINFUL ITCHINGS.

And all cutaneous eruptions are relieved from all irritation by bathing the parts with Ready Relief.

PILES.

By bathing externally the cords of the neck and spine it will strengthen the spine. We have known many cases of protracted and bleeding piles entirely cured by its externally using it, and the disfigured face made to assume its proper shape by the use of Radway's Ready Relief.

CHILL FEVER.

One teaspoonful of Radway's ready relief taken on the first approach of a chill, and bathing the neck and shoulders, if there is any pain experienced, and it will entirely prevent chill Fever.

Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Flatulency, Bad Breath, Headache, are quickly cured by Radway's ready relief taken internally. It is a delicious cordial, imparting strength to every organ and tonicles of the body, and health and happiness to the mind.

CAUTION TO DRUGGISTS

Purchase Radway's ready relief only of the authorized agent, whose name is given below. Our travelling agents have a power of attorney signed by us; before purchasing always ask to see it. Price 25 cents a bottle.

RADWAY & CO., 162 Fulton st. N. Y.
M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.
Sept. 9. 1851.-1y

Looking Glasses—A Large number

JUST RECEIVED,—from 25 cents to $7, each, by D. BULLMAN

DR. HOOFLAND'S

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS

Prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
at the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch St. Philadelphia,

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines; such as Constipation,

Flatulency, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits

THEY ARE ENTIRELY VEGETABLE,
And Free from Alcoholic Stimulant, and all Injurious Mineral.

And a preparation is in it, unequalled and mild as their operation, and will remove impurities from the body and give health and vigour to the frame.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, of Philadelphia, has had the means of obtaining from the Banzie several of the great medical counsellor, Christoph Wilhelm Hufeland, and these invaluable medicines are prepared with the utmost care according to his directions. The Medicine called Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters—is the result of many years study and experience by the great inventor, and has been and prized in Europe as an infallible remedy for the cure of the diseases for which it is recommended. Dr. Jackson's preparation of this medicine has obtained the same celebrity in this Western World.

Wonderful Revival; by M. F. CUSHING.
And at Retail by ELIAS KIRKPATRICK
C. Drake Scotch Plains, Charles Foster, Westfield.
March 23, 1852.-1y.

A Case in Camden.

A Bateman, Esq. of Smith's Railroad Hotel, Camden, cured of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in their worst form. He had been very seriously afflicted for 3 years. We can but note his case here. Call and see him, you will pronounce it a case in point.

Another Extreme Case.

Mr. George W. Metz, merchant, 317 Market st. cures of Disease of the Liver and Chronic Diarrhœa, of 3 years standing, by the use of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, after having undergone a long and severe treatment during the time, and visited the mineral springs of note throughout the Union, without permanent benefit, given up by physicians as incurable, by the use of a few bottles of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.

JOHN MOORE, late Pro. Editor of the "Daily News," said, October 31, 1849:

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.—We are trying this renowned medicine for a stubborn disease of the bowels, and can with truth testify to its efficacy. We have taken 2 b ttles, and we have derived more benefit than we derived previously from all the allopathic treatment at the hands of our first physicians."

Three More Cures.

Philadelphia, 3d mo. 20th, 1850.

Respected Friend: I had for several years been afflicted with Dyspepsia, accompanied with Liver Complaint. I accidentally tried thy medicine, the 'German Bitters,' in the first place upon a daughter, she having a severe attack of Bilious Fever, which they effected in a short time, and soon relieved her general debility. Next I was induced to try it myself. I then got a bottle, and used it according to directions, and it relieved me more than anything I had before used, giving tone to the stomach, digestive and system. Last fall I had a very severe spell of the Diarhœa, which continued for some time. My life, for a time, was despaired of. I got a bottle of thy medicine, and acted very happily upon the stomach and intestines, and soon relieved me from that great pain I suffered, and gave general health to the system. I consider it, doctor, one of the best medicines I ever took. I have also taken it in great pleasure in recommending it to others.

Very respectfully thy friend, SAMUEL HUTTON
Of the firm of Hutton, Bone & Co. Sugar Refiners, Third above Vine.

Dr. C. M. Jackson, 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.

That this medicine will cure the foregoing diseases, no one can doubt, if they use it as directed; it will act with certainty upon the Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and is preferable to calomel, in all Bilious Diseases; the effect is immediate, and they do not prostrate the system.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS

This medicine has attained that high character which it is now unsafe to purchase, and we advise the unwary counterfeiters to put forth spurious articles, at the risk of the lives of those who are innocently deceived.

Look well to the Marks of the Genuine.

For the protection of invalids against fraud, the signature of C. M. JACKSON will be upon the front of the outside wrapper, and the name blown in the bottle.

☞ Purchase none without these marks of genuineness; all others are, Counterfeits —OFFICE ADVICE, given gratis upon all diseases.

For sale, by the proprietor, at the principal depot,

GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
No. 120 Mulberry or Arch st, one door below Sixth, formerly 275 Race st.) Philadelphia, Pa., and by respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the United States, the Canadas and the West India Islands.

PRICES REDUCED!

To enable all classes of Invalids to enjoy the advantages of their great Restorative Power,

Single Bottles, 75 cts.,—Three Bottles, $2.00.
For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.
Aug. 11, 1851.-1y

Excelsior Chemical and Color Works.

SAMUEL TRUESDELL,
MANUFACTURER OF

PAINTS & COLORS:

Chrome Green,	American Vermilion,
Chrome Yellow,	Chinese Blue,
Prussian Blue,	Paris Green,
Paris Blue,	Rose Pink, &c. &c

No. 141, Sol van Street, New York.

IMPERIAL GREEN PAINT IN OIL.
April 18, 1852.—3m.

APPLETON'S READ!

Extra Medicated Vitalized Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. KINKELIN

N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice in the treatment of Private Diseases, has made the expert and successful practitioner far and near in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat or legs, pains in the head or bones, nightly sweats, or any of those diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled are all cured in a short time.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TAKE NO ADVERTISEMENT OFFICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are sufficient to blast the fairest hopes of both mind and body, should apply immediately. Weakness and constitutional debility, loss of muscular energy, physical inactitude and general prostration, irritability and all nervous affections, are the immediate effects of these evil and every disease connected in any way with the organs of the procreative functions cured, and full vigor restored

READ!—YOUTH AND MANHOOD!

A Vigorous Life, or a Premature Death.

Kinkelin on Self Preservation Only 25 Cents

Is a book filled with secret information on the infirmities and diseases of the procreative organs. It addresses itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by all. The valuable advice and inspirations it contains, even will prevent years of misery and suffering and save annually thousands of lives. Parents by reading it will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

A remittance of 25 cents, enclosed in a letter addressed to Dr. Kinkelin, N. W. corner of 3d and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will ensure a book, under envelope, per return of mail. Persons at a distance may address Dr. K. by letter, post paid, and be cured at home. Packages of Medicines, Directions, &c. forwarded by sending a remittance, and put up secure from observation.

Book-sellers, News Agents, Pedlars, canvassers, and all others supplied with the above book at very low rates.

Sept. 2, 1851.-1y

Gentlemen's Furnishing Store,

No. 223 Grand-street, corner of Chambers,
NEW YORK.

(One block from the Park, N. E. Dodge), and two blocks from the Astor H. R. Depot.)

Embracing a general and complete assortment of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, for the Spring trade, manufactured in the best manner, and will be sold wholesale and retail at the lowest cash prices; consisting of

Fine Shirts,	Cravats,	Dressing Gowns,
White Shirts of 4 ds.	Scarfs,	Dressing Flannels,
Under Shirts,	Ties,	Suspenders,
Drawers,	Stocks,	Valises,
Hosiery,	Gloves,	Satchels,
Half Hose,	Handkerchiefs,	Umbrellas,
Collars,		&c., &c., &c.

Together with a good assortment of

ENGLISH & GERMAN HOSIERY.

Of all sizes, for Ladies and Children.

The principle upon which our business is conducted is that of one price only, for cash, and in proportion to the quality, a cheap article can be found at any other establishment in this country.

The attention of gentlemen and ladies who desire to procure such articles on the best terms, is respectfully invited.

THOMAS M. LAUGHLIN.

New York, March 5, 1852.

☞ Our FINE SHIRTS are cut by experienced hands and made in a superior style, and when specially ordered, will be supplied to fit the customer at short notice. mar26 4m.

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N. J. containing from one quarter to one and a quarter acres, and lying on 24, 24, 4th, Main, Liberty and William sts; also a good sized lot with a Dwelling House built expressly for a boarding house, on the corner of two fronts, and in a valuable location, very nigh the centre of the business part of town, on the corner of Exchange and Second sts. a very short distance from Titsworth, Dunn & Co.'s Store

Jan. 19 1852.-tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

Central Rail Road of N. J.

Extension to Clinton, 8 miles.

An Extra Accommodation Train.

Spring Arrangements.

Commencing Monday, May 3d, 1852.

This line leaves New York by steamboat Red Jacket Pier No. 1 North River, connects at Elizabethtown with trains on the N. J. Railroad, which leave New York from the foot of Cortlandt st., at the SAME HOURS.

Leave New York,
At 9 o'clock A. M. at 1 P. M. (freight) and 5 P. M.
Trains to New York Leave
	Freight	Passenger	Freight	Passenger
Whitehouse, at	3.15,	5.40 and	8.40 A.M.	1.40 P.M.
North Branch,	3.30	6.50	8.50	1.50
Somerville,	4	9.05	9.05	2.05
Bound Brook,	4.20	6.15	9.15	2.15
Plainfield,	5.10	6.40	9.45	2.40
Westfield,	9.50	6.55	10.5	2.55
Elizabethtown,		7.30	10 30	3.15

☞ Stages will be in readiness on the arrival of the 9 o'clock train from New York, at White House, to convey passengers to Easton, Wilkesbarre, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Flemington, Jacobstown, Clinton, Milford, Bethlehem, Bloomsbury, Asbury and to New Hampton. Washington and Belvidere, N. J., on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; also from Somerville for Pottsville and Pinehaunts, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

N. B. All Baggage at the risk of the owners until delivered into the actual possession of the agents of the company, and checks or receipts given therefor.

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Heart Corrector,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-Dyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Cathar. Pills
Nervine,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific

Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil,

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, Piles, &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Suspenders.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Patent Steel Spring Shoulder Braces.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES
ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF
Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to an old age.

This Book should be in every family. To the consumptive it points out the only REASONABLE hope for relief. To the nervous, the ultimate result of their care and attention if children are invaluable. 75,000 copies of this Book have passed through the press, and the sale each year is unabated.

For Sale by S. S. FITCH & CO., 707 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

Hope's Express.

For Newark, Elizabethtown, Westfield, Plainfield, Bemmbrook, Somerville, White House, Clinton and Easton, Pa.

Leave New York daily at 9 o'clock, arriving at Plainfield at 12 o'clock. Leave Plainfield at 3 o'clock; arriving in New York at 6 o'clock, P. M.

JOHN LAING, Agent for Plainfield.
A. D. HOPE, 41 Courtlandt-st., New York.

☞ This Express has been systematized, and all orders will be executed with promptness and despatch.

Plainfield, Nov. 19, 1850.

READ! READ! READ!

All Storkeepers and Druggists in Somerset County, in the State of New Jersey, are hereby notified, in consequence of the great demand, keep for sale

DR. LEDDY'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS.

Near 600,000 Boxes were sold the past year in the U. States, and near 20,000 boxes were sold in the State of New Jersey.

YOUNG AND OLD, MALE AND FEMALE, can always take them with equal safety, without fear, as they are PURELY VEGETABLE, and for purging or cleansing the stomach, bowels and purifying the Blood and fluids of the body, take no other—for no other pills produce those combined effects which contains no mercury or poison.

Eat, Drink and Live as Usual,

and pursue your usual occupation whilst taking them, without fear of taking cold, during all kinds of weather.

LEDDY'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS are sold at Twenty Five cents a box, with directions and whitecome advice accompanying each box.

They have no taste or unpleasant smell, Free from any mercury or any Poison.

Do not gripe the stomach or bowels.

Produce no sickness, vomiting or bad feelings,

And adapted to most diseases common to mankind

Beware of Counterfeits

of other pills called by name Leddy's Genuine, represented as the same or no good, 'tis a trick to impose on the public.

LEDDY'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS are the safest, best and most efficacious Pills known.

☞ TO CONSUMERS CAUTION.

Principal Depot, Dr. LEDDY'S Dispensary, No. 114 North Fourth st. Philadelphia—and sold in every town in New Jersey.

BENJAMIN SANDY, Esq. is the Travelling agent for the state of New Jersey.

ET M. F. CUSHING, and E. KIRKPATRICK, Agents for Plainfield. July29-1y

PAINTS, &c.

A MERICAN PAT. ST ATOMIC BRUSH, Grinders' COLORS—Anti-Rachitic Fluid, Gold Leaf, Silver, Stove Polish, and Black Varnish for Iron Work.

QUARTERMAN & SON.

March 9, 1852.-1y. 114 John-Street, New York.

Blank for sale at this Office

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 28. | Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, July 13, 1852. | Whole Number 808.

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 214 Broad-street, Washington Hall Buildings.

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor; vertical. Ladies, verge and detached lever Watches; each, polished and Swiss framed Chains; fob and vest Chains of all patterns; silver, shell and russet card cases; gold and silver pencil cases; gold and plain Pencils; Ladies' slide stones, engraved and plain Rings; Finger Rings set in stone, cluster, and mosaic. cameo, coralline, jet, enamelled, mourning and plain Brooches; Gent's cluster, enamelled and plain Studs, Finger Rings; Ladies' and Gents' gold chain and hair Bracelets of all patterns; Ladies' and Gents' Guard Chains of all kinds; Ear rings of the latest style; Gents' diamond, ruby, emerald, hyacinth and stone Pins; gold Lockets and Mosaics, and all styles of Breast Pins; gold Hearts and Crosses; gold Pen and Pencil Cases; gold and silver Thimbles; Silver and Guard Keys; gold and silver and steel Spectacles and Butter Knives; gold, silver and steel Specta cles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Bonquet Holders, tablets, hair pins, scissors, knives, nail belle scissors, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, steel and gilt chains, steel and gilt buckles, chess men and boxes, cigar cases, pearl cases, tooth brushes, hair brushes, paper boards, back gammon boards, letter folders, segar cases, pearl stands, twin buttons, watch stands, backgammon men, dice boxes, microscopes, razors, strops, sealing wax, wafers, shavings for all instruments; large assortment of songs, duetts, quartettes, trios and glees, comprising all the latest publications; also, instrumental Music, namely, waltzes, quick steps, marches, rondeaus, duetts for four hands, adjusted to Guitar music, instruction books for Piano Fortes, flute, fife, violin, accordeon, clarionet, flageolet, &c. &c. All as cheap as can be bought in New York; with a variety of other goods not enumerated in this catalogue, comprising the largest variety in Newark.

WATCH REPAIRING AND CLEANING.

The subscriber intends to give full satisfaction to those that employ him; has engaged a very superior workman from Switzerland, where he has been engaged for several years in manufacturing all kinds of watches, and is well skilled in repairing and cleaning watches, as testimonials from some of the first watch makers of the city of New York will testify.

Jewelry made to order. Old gold and silver taken in exchange. 48-y

Wholesale and Retail

Wine and Liquor Store.

29 Fair Street, Newark, N. J.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has constantly on hand at the above old established stand, a full and choice supply of Foreign Wines and Spirits, which he offers at the lowest cash prices, and delivered to order to any part of the city or country. Brandy of every grade; Gin, Irish, Scotch and Holland; Old Monongahela Whiskey, St. Croix and Jamaica Rum, Port, Madeira, Malaga and Champagne Wines, Losey's Bitters, &c.

Philadelphia Bottled Porter and Pale Ale of the first quality; also, a very choice article of Bottled Cider (almost equal to Champagne) always on hand.

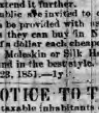
By a continuance of patronage he is solicited

June 1st, 1852.—3m LOUIS L. BELAND.

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.



Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call, and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome and serviceable a Hat as they can buy in New York or Philadelphia, and half a dollar each cheaper.

P. S. Gentlemen's Silk Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 28, 1851.—1y

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the town Collector, by coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, if not cheaper and better than elsewhere; thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, of all qualities and prices which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of fashionable furnishing goods, constantly for sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Please call and try with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves!

Cutting, trimming and making done at the shortest notice and in the best style. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Plainfield, Dec. 1.

Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

IN READY MADE CLOTHING & READY MADE CLOTHING & READY MADE CLOTHING &

For the Plainfield Union.

Mr. Editor:

The following lines on the death of HENRY CLAY were prepared and sung by the Apollioneons at Washington Rock, on the 6th inst. Having been applied to by a number present on that occasion for copies, and not having any to bestow, I promised to send a copy to the Plainfield papers for publication. I am the more constrained to do this from the fact that it was utterly impossible on that occasion (owing to the unfavorable position of the stage and the dense mass of people who surrounded it) to make ourselves heard ten paces from the stand. L. M.

Henry Clay.

Tread lightly—tread lightly—disturb not his sleep
From his pains he's released, tho' the Nationmay weep;
Speak softly—speak softly, for he whom we love,
Has gone to the regions of glory above.

Tread lightly—tread lightly, move softly around,
The Patriot now sleepeth, oh breathe not a sound
The slow solemn train's in its sable array,
Bears in sorrow to Ashland the lov'd HENRY CLAY.

Lov'd Statesman! lov'd Patriot! thy memory shall twine
As close round our hearts as some ever-green vine
For sweetly and gently thou'st gone to thy rest,
A spirit by Deity called to the blest.

Conclusion of the Sermon preached by Rev. Wm. Whittaker, on the 4th inst. The subject of the discourse was: Christianity is essential to the perpetuity of our free institutions.

And now my hearers in conclusion I call upon you by the bright example, the pure patriotism, the inflexible integrity, the useful life and peaceful death, of that great man whose departure hence has cast a gloom over this nation from centre to circumference, to preserve unimpaired the foundations of public virtue and order.

HENRY CLAY, the greatest man of the age, the nation's pride and glory, the mighty counsellor, the eloquent orator, whose thoughts were lightning and whose words were thunder, now lies prostrate in the dust. No more shall he heard that clarion voice, amidst the congregated wisdom of the nation, distuading from wrong, with a power and pathos that can never be described, and urging with irresistible eloquence to deeds of high and noble daring. No more shall his manly form be seen battling with the storms of conflicting interests, and the waves of popular discontent, fearlessly grasping the helm and guiding the ship of state through the breakers that surround it, and bringing it safely into the desired haven. No more shall vast and brilliant conceptions illuminate, nor the complicated affairs of government oppress his great mind. It may truly be said in the emphatic language of Scripture, "God has taken away the desire of our eyes with a stroke."

With all that could render life desirable, full of years and wisdom and earthly glory, the great Statesman and noble patriot, has, like the blazing meteor in the heavens, vanished from mortal vision, to be seen no more till the trump of the archangel shall rouse his sleeping dust to life, day-light and liberty.

"He has gone from us, and the grave is strong!
Yet in night's silent watches he is near!
His voice still lingers round us, as the song
Of the sweet sky-lark lingers on the ear,
When floating upward in the flash of even,
His form is lost from earth and swallowed up in Heaven"

Yes, he has gone from us, we doubt not, to mingle with kindred spirits in a fadeless clime, which death never invades, and to receive a crown of glory which infinitely transcends in brilliancy and durability the costliest diadem of earth. He has gone, to use his own patriotic and impassioned exclamation, where there is "no North, no South, no East, no West," where there are no jarring interests, no petty jealousies, no discordant sounds to interrupt the harmony, but where all differences are forgotten, all controversies are settled forever, and where all are of one heart and of one soul.

We feel warranted thus to speak of the departed Statesman from the testimony he was enabled to bear to the sustaining influence of christian hope, as the lamp of life grew dark. To an intimate friend (Mr. Brockenridge,) he said, "I am not afraid to die, sir. I have faith, hope and some confidence. I do not think any man can be entirely certain in regard to his future state, but I have an abiding trust in the merits and mediation of our Savior." On another occasion he said to the same individual who asked him frankly, what were his hopes in the world to which he was hastening: "I am pleased, my friend, that you have introduced the subject. Conscious that I must die very soon, I love to meditate upon the most important of all interests. I love to converse and to hear conversations about them. The vanity of the world and its insufficiency to satisfy the soul of man has long been a settled conviction of my mind. The inability of man to secure by his own merits the approbation of God, I feel to be true. I rest in the atonement of the Savior as the ground of my acceptance and my hope of salvation. My faith is feeble, but I hope in his mercy and trust in his promises. I am willing to abide the will of Heaven and ready to die when that will shall determine it."

Thus lived, and thus died Henry Clay, the venerable sage of Ashland. His body is mouldering back to dust but his spirit has returned to God who gave it. His name shall live on the page of history as long as the sun and moon endure, and the memory of his resistless eloquence, his intellectual superiority, his disinterested benevolence and his undying devotion to his country, shall be cherished by a grateful posterity till time shall be no more.

"He was a man, take him for all in all,
I shall not look upon his like again."

SCOTT AS A CIVILIAN.

The civil ability and experience of Gen. Scott are sought to be belittled by the Opposition, in every possible way. The best rebuke of this spirit of detraction will be to recall the opinion, practically expressed, of Gen. Jackson, who, when President, instructed Gen. Cass, then Secretary of War, to send Gen. Scott to Charleston, for the adjustment of the South Carolina difficulty, and to say to him that he relied upon his sagacity and prudence entirely, and conferred upon him the power to do whatever he might think best. Gen. Scott did honor to Jackson's confidence, and succeeded nobly in maintaining the peace of the country.

In 1838, Rev. Dr. Channing, of Boston, delivered a lecture on War, from which we take the following extract. The tribute which it pays to Gen. Scott, coming as it does from a great man, and a philanthropist above suspicion, will have weight with every candid man:

"Much, also, is due to the beneficent influence of General Scott. To this distinguished man belongs the rare honor of uniting with military energy and daring, the spirit of a philanthropist. His exploits in the field, which placed him in the first rank of soldiers, have been obscured by the purer and more lasting glory of a pacificator, and a friend of mankind. In the whole history of the intercourse of civilized communities, we doubt whether a brighter page can be found than that which records his agency in the removal of the Cherokees. As far as the wrong done to this race can be atoned for, Gen. Scott has made the expiation. In his recent mission to the disturbed borders of our country he has succeeded, not so much by policy as by the nobleness and generosity of his character, by moral influence, by the earnest conviction with which he has enforced on all with whom he had to do the obligations of justice, humanity and religion. It would not be easy to find among us a man who has won a purer fame; and I would do something, no matter how little, to hasten the time when the spirit of Christian humanity shall be accounted an essential attribute and the brightest ornament of a public man."

The sale of the House of Refuge Farm, which was advertised to have taken place on Thursday last, was postponed. We learn that $10,000 was the highest bid made, but that not meeting the expectations of the Commissioners, the property will be offered again. C. S. Olden Esq. of Princeton, was the highest bidder.

The Commissioners have sold at private sale, says the Princeton Whig, the large window frames, and some other articles. The window frames cost the State about $20 each; there were 28 of them, which the Commissioners sold for $40 for the lot; they cost the State $560. Judging by this, we do not understand why they did not let the rest of the property go for $10,000, unless they think they have not pocketed enough out of the State by going backwards and forwards to Kingston. There is some grass to be sold, which might just as well, and ought to have been sold yesterday, yet that is to be the business of another day; the more days, the more champaigne dinners at the expense of the State, which is the quintessence of Locofoco economy.

EXTRAORDINARY ADVENTURE.

One of the most extraordinary adventures of a child of which we ever heard, occurred in the vicinity of Rhinebeck last week. On Thursday, the 10th inst., a son of Alfred Keenen, of that place, aged only three and a half years, disappeared from his home, and no tidings of him could be obtained by his parents. The course of the child was followed in part by the information of those who had seen him, but mainly, we understand, by his foot prints in plowed fields and muddy places. He was brought to bay and found on Saturday evening, at half past five o'clock, near the boundary line between Seekonk and Rehoboth, five and a half miles in a straight line from his home, and fifty-four and a half hours after his disappearance and fifty nine after he ate his breakfast on the previous Thursday morning. He left home barefooted and very thinly clad, having nothing on but a thin calico dress and an apron, and these were wet when he was found. In this condition he had wandered to the place where he was found, through plowed fields and woods, and across ditches and swamps. So far as is known or believed, he had not eaten a mouthful of food since the previous Thursday morning, and on nights the little fellow must have slept in the open air on the cold, damp ground, and they were cold nights, too, there being frost on each. His feet were badly lacerated by stones, briars &c., and much swollen, but he appeared to be otherwise in good condition, and is doing well. We question whether there is another instance on record, in which a child of so tender years survived so much fatigue, privation and exposure.

☞ The Washington Union, like the Louisville ratification meeting, boasts that the Democratic candidate for the Presidency "knows no North, no South, no East, and no West." We want a candidate who knows all four.

Anecdote of Gen. Scott.—The Tecumseh (Mich.) Herald relates the following anecdote:

"A citizen of our town gives a remark made by Gen. Scott at Fort George, in 1814. A British flag was sent to the American army.—The carrier was sent to Gen. Scott's tent, and said to him: "Our General has sent me with this flag to request that you surrender to him; for if you do not he shall be compelled to storm the fort, and he will not be responsible for the Indians." The reply of Gen. Scott was this: "Tell your general to come on and storm the fort, and I will be responsible for the Indians."

That's the worst of it!—Passing up Camp St., soon after the news of the nomination arrived, our attention was arrested by a crowd—chiefly Locofocos. "The Whigs have made a pretty feeble of fish of it," exclaimed a young sprig of democracy. "They will be beaten without remedy. Scott won't get a single Southern State," responded his auditory. "Well may all be true," remarked a veteran politician of the same school. "But, my young friend," continued he, "that isn't the worst of it—I am very much afraid he'll not need them!". We were so well satisfied with the old gentleman's prediction that we came off, and left them to settle the matter between themselves.—N. O. Bee.

The Religious Test in New Hampshire.—The Democrats deny the responsibility of their party for the religious test which is a part of the Constitution of New Hampshire. The argument is a very short one. The State is overwhelmingly Democratic, and the test is retained by a vote of nearly two to one. If the Democrats are not in favor of it, why do they not repeal it.

The N. Y. Board of Aldermen last evening appropriated $2,000 in addition to their previous appropriation for the 4th of July celebration.

They also appropriated $8,000 for the funeral obsequies of Mr. Clay.

For the Plainfield Union.

Mr. Editor:

Last Sunday was the anniversary of our national independence; the birth-day of this great and glorious Republic; a day the events of which, form an era in the history of mankind and stand out a proud landmark in the annals of the world. Its annual return is hailed with delight by millions of freemen from the barren hills of Vermont to the gold-bearing valleys of California; and may its approach be the signal of rejoicing as long as freedom has an altar, or liberty a votary.

On the morning of the 5th with a party of choice spirits, we wended our way towards the Rock in the vicinity of Plainfield, which bears the name of the illustrious Washington. This spot had been chosen by the inhabitants of the neighboring towns, as the most befitting place for enjoying their national festivities. After a somewhat circuitous journey we reached the summit. The rock is situated on the brow of the mountain commanding a most magnificent view of the valley below. None but a painter can convey an adequate idea of the beautiful prospect from this point; stretching away as far as the eye could reach, appeared an extensive plain clothed in all the luxuriance of summer, the winding streams, the sturdy forests, and waving harvests alternate in rich and beautiful confusion. Before us lay the village of Plainfield, and rising up from various points of the landscape we could discover the spires of churches "ever pointing upwards."

In the distance we could clearly distinguish New Brunswick, while the faint outline of the gloomy walls of Old Rutgers recalled to our recollections the images of stern Professors and incorrigible Greek verbs. Indeed the citizens of Plainfield could not have chosen a more appropriate place for their celebration; the same itself is sufficient to excite patriotic sentiments, and an interest is connected with that lonely rock which time will increase rather than diminish. In after days, when the mists of fable begin to cluster around our national history, the spots will become invested with the air of Romance, and they will then assume the importance worthy of their patriotic associations; they will serve as links to bind us to the past; they will carry us back from the palmy days of peace to the gloomy night of the Revolution.

Every suitable arrangement had been made near the Rock for the accommodation and comfort of the visitors; staging had been erected and refreshments provided in abundance for "the inner man." We cannot forbear, as we pass on from offering our thanks to the courteous and enterprising proprietors of the building recently erected at the rock, for their generous endeavors to accommodate their guests; and we hope their object will meet with a due degree of popular favor and encouragement. Before our arrival nearly had assembled and the number rapidly increased. It afforded us considerable interest to watch the various groups. There was the stout New Jersey farmer, the very portrait of contentment and self-complacency; there was the country gallant, and the city dandy rejoicing in tight pants and loose sleeves, affording a striking illustration of the difference a fashionable exterior makes among men in other respects completely on a level. There was the aged man, bowing low under the weight of years, his eye flashing with a new lustre as memory recalled the scenes of other days, when in the prime of manhood he left his home to battle for his country; there too was the youth buoyant with hope and anticipation, come also to pay his homage at the shrine of freedom.

But we pass by these and many other worthies to our particular favorites the ladies, those fair girls whose homes are among the green fields of the Jerseys, doomed as too many of them have been to bloom in obscurity and "waste their sweetness on the desert air." Their cheeks might shame the lily and the rose, for they are only nature's pigment to heighten their charms, and justly scorn the rouge of the city belle. How many happy homes and firesides do they render cheerful by their presence, making the house of the farmer merry by the glad song and joyous laugh. My pen is unworthy the subject I have undertaken, to other and to abler ones be the task to complete what I have but faintly attempted to delineate. Beauty must be seen, and its influence felt, to be properly appreciated.

At length the time approached for the commencement of the exercises. On account of some misunderstanding the Speaker did not arrive at the appointed hour, hence the proceedings were considerably delayed. Mr. Chauncey Burr, from New York appeared at last and delivered an able and eloquent address, which was listened to with considerable attention by the audience. At intervals the Appolleonons delighted the audience with their voices. The exercises closed with music and the crowd slowly resumed their way down the mountain. As we reached the base we turned to take a parting view of the Rock hallowed by the footsteps of Washington. When our country shall cease to pay homage to his name; when his name shall be scorned and neglected then will dissolution spread her dark shadows over our land; then and not till then will despotism triumph where now the untamed bird of Liberty flaps his wings.

New Market, July 9, 1852. V.

A letter in the Philadelphia Inquirer, from Henderson county, North Carolina, says that the Old North State will give fifteen thousand majority for Scott and Graham.

Juvenile Crime.—Out of 16,000 criminals committed to the Great Prison in N. Y., last year, over 4,000 were under 21 years of age. The Chief Police considers that there are not less than 10,000 vagrant children in New York. Mr. Brace, who has recently travelled through Europe, and visited the prisons and vilest places in the cities, considers New York to be the worst place he has seen for the number and criminality of youth. He believes them to be the hardest looking and most depraved youth he ever saw.

THE UNION.

Plainfield, N. J. July 13, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

National Whig Nominations:

For President of the United States:

Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.

For Vice President:

WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North-Carolina.

Correspondence of the Newark Daily Advertiser.

Melancholy Catastrophe—15 Persons Drowned [New York, July 6th.

As the steamboat Hunchback was going into Vanderbilt's Landing, Staten Island, about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with a large number of passengers from New York—and a large number were also waiting to return—the bridge suddenly gave way, and precipitated about fifty or sixty into the river. Twelve bodies had been recovered up to 11 o'clock last night—eleven of whom were women and children. There were besides a great many injured.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

Five additional bodies have been recovered, making seventeen in all. With the exception of the above fearful calamity, the Fourth passed off very pleasantly.

TERRIBLE CONFLAGRATION AT MONTREAL.

Burlington, Vt., July 10th—A M.

The terrible conflagration at Montreal is still raging furiously. The light can be distinctly seen from this place, though one hundred miles distant. The fire commenced on Thursday morning, the 8th, and has consequently raged for forty-eight hours.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

THE FIRE FINALLY SUBDUED.

Twelve Hundred Buildings in Ashes!

BURLINGTON, July 10th—11 A. M.

We learn from passengers by the cars, who left Montreal this morning, that the fire had finally been subdued. The whole number of buildings destroyed was upwards of twelve hundred, inclucing many of the best in the city. It was impossible to estimate the amount of the loss.

☞ We invite attention to the advertisement of the sale of the property of Abm. Parker, dec. this afternoon.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Canada arrived at Boston on Wednesday afternoon, with 83 passengers, a full cargo, and a week's later news.

The steamer Washington left Southampton on the 23d June and arrived at New York Thursday morning, with 100 passengers and a valuable cargo.

The City of Manchester arrived at Philadelphia on Friday, 18 days from Liverpool, with 90 passengers.

No material change in the markets.

The British Government has chartered the American ship Ticonderoga, at Liverpool, to carry emigrants to Australia.

NEW YORK, July 10.

The Pacific sailed at noon with 170 passengers and about half a million of specie.

The Native Americans have nominated Daniel Webster as their candidate for President, and George C. Washington, of Va. for Vice President. We do not suppose Mr. Webster will accept of the nomination.

Scott at Vera Cruz.—During the bombardment of Vera Cruz, Scott, while walking along the trenches one day, observed several of our troops rising up and looking over the parapet to watch the effect of our shot and shells. The General cried out "Down with you men!—don't expose yourselves!" "But, General," replied Scott, "you expose yourself!" "Oh!" replied Scott, "General's now-a-days can be made out of any body, but men can't easily be had."

The nomination made by the Loco Foco convention at Baltimore, proves that Gen. Scott was a prophet when he made that last remark.

The number of students at Oberlin College, is between six and seven hundred, exclusive of theological students, and one thousand are expected next year.

Great Performance at a Locomotive.—On the 15th of June, one of the new engines lately placed on the Mine Hill and Schuylkill Haven Railroad, in Schuylkill county, is reported to have taken from the mines to the terminus of the road, at Schuylkill Haven, 192 loaded cars, weighing 1,354 2-20 tons. The weight of the cars was 460 tons 15 cwt., and that of the coal transported 893 tons 7 cwt. This is certainly an extraordinary feat, being, indeed, the heaviest train ever drawn by one engine over any railroad.

A Council of Doctors.—If the summoning of a "council of doctors" is an indication of danger, the Granite State would seem to be in an alarming condition. Doctor Martin is the Governor of the State, Doctor Kittredge is Speaker of the House, and Doctor Smith is a member of the Council. The disciples of Esculapius ought to be either very numerous or very smart in New-Hampshire.

Cost of President-Making.—The Washington correspondent of the Commercial Advertiser says the Democratic National convention cost a million of dollars, and the Whig Convention held this week will cost a similar sum. The election and contest preceding it will probably cost each party at least ten millions of dollars. We would contract to furnish Presidents for the country for twenty years to come, for one-tenth that sum.

Salutary Requirements.—Extract from the proceedings of Gouanoon Council:

Resolved, That all persons who intend making application to this Board for a License to keep an Inn and Tavern, shall be required to publish in one or more of the papers printed in this city, a notice of such application, together with the names of the persons recommending the applicant for License, at least two weeks previous to such application being presented.—New Brunswick Fredonian.

North and South.—Within a week after the nomination of Gen. Pierce, the Whigs of Maine achieved a handsome victory; and a few days afterward, the Whigs of New Orleans swept everything before them! "Straws show which way the wind blows."

We would call the attention of invalids in search of relief to the advertisement of Brown and M's. Bonnet in another part of this paper. Their success in the cure of Chronic Diseases of all kinds, cannot fail to be noticed, as they are, the INVALID'S FRIEND. Their remedies are prepared by themselves, entirely from the various roots, herbs, barks, gums and balsams, of known virtues, which if administered properly and with judgment are undoubtedly the most efficient remedial agents that we possess; as many of our readers have reason, already experienced are this.

DR. and MRS. DRAKE have had the advantage to be derived from nearly three years intimate connection with the London hospitals, as well as a long and extensive practice in conjunction with the late MRS. MOTT, who became so deservedly celebrated for the many cures that she effected in the treatment of females & children.

MRS. DRAKE makes use of the same remedies used by her mother (the late MRS. MOTT) for the last twenty years, and with which the public are well acquainted in New York and vicinity, and throughout the New-England States. We advise those suffering from the pains and discomforts caused by disease to give the Doctor or his talented lady a call before giving up their case as incurable. They have lately removed from 289 Grand st. to 196 West 15th Street where they have become permanently located.

New York Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Wheat Flour,	$3,94 to 4,19
Rye Flour	3,12 to 3,19
Indian Meal, Jersey,	3,06 to 3,12
Grain—Wheat,	1,00 to 1,00
Rye,	79 to 81
Corn,	60 to 62
Oats, Jersey,	40 to 42

Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.—"That this medicine will cure liver complaint and dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases; it acts as specifically upon the liver as calomel; calomel penetrates the system—the bitters strengthen and never prostrates the patient, and will give renewed life and health to the delicate invalid, and restores the liver to its functions, and give digestion and appetite in those severe cases wherein the ordinary medicines fail in producing any effect.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—*Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Cam*phor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

BRONCHITIS CAN BE CURED!

SATTER FROM A WELL-KNOWN MERCHANT.

Bridgewater, Sept. 14th, 1851.

Dear Doctor:—I take up my pen to certify that 'Dr. Rogers' Syrup of Liverwort Tar and Canabis' has cured me of the BRONCHITIS. Physicians' prescriptions had done me no good. I could not attend to business, and was quite melancholy and discouraged; besides the pain and cough, and want of sleep, with difficult breathing. This was last spring. By recommendation, I obtained a bottle of your medicine, and it seemed to me that every dose I took I felt easier. So I kept on till I had taken six bottles, which left me free from every pain and difficulty, and I have not since had a return of the same. Hoping that others may derive the like benefits, you are authorized to publish my testimony, if you see fit. Yours, &c.

DR. A. L. SCOVILL. ISAIAH DINSMORE.

CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on the label wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. L. SCOVILL & CO.

For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Gothic Hall, 216 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.

Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

PRICE—In large bottles, $1.00, or 6 bottles for $5.00.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

V. B. Palmer, New York, $6,13; Railway & Co. do. 4,00; A. M. Webster, Esq. Newark, 5,50; Plainfield Methodist Episcopal Church, 5,65; Hendericus Van Houten, Scotch Plains 1,35; Ephraim Briant, 1,25; Wm. Morse 1,00; Adm. Powelson, Raritan, 75; D. Wiggins, 1,25; James Leonard, 75; Emily Connett, Short Hills, 75; J. O. Mausiac, 50.

Central Rail Road of N. J.

NOTICE.

The cars will run as follows until further notice.

Commencing Monday, July 5th, 1852.

Leave Easton for New York at	6 A. M.	and	3.30, P. M.
Clinton,	"	7.05		4.35
White House,	"	7.20		4.50
Returning, leave New York at	8 A. M.	and	4, P. M.
Leave Somerville at	5.50 & 7.50 a.m.	12.40 & 5.15, p.m.
Plainfield,	6.25	8.25	1.20	5.50
Westfield,	6.40	8.40	1.40	6.10
Elizabethtown,	7	9	2	6.30

Returning leave New York at 8 and 10 a. m. & 4 & 6 p.m.

By steamboat.—Leave Elizabethport at 7.15 and 9.10 A. M. and 2.15; 3, and 6.40 P. M.

Leave Pier No. 1, North River at 8 and 10, A. M. and 12, 4 and 6, P. M.

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment, At Less than New York prices, for sale by

July 13, 1852. WM. S. WOOD.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

In Chancery N. J.

Between Lewis Craig, Complainant, and William W. Davison and Elizabeth Davison, Defendants.

Fi. Fa. for sale of Mortgaged Premises

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed, I shall expose at public vendue at Laing's Hotel, Plainfield, on Thursday the 12th day of August next, at 1 o'clock, P. M. All that certain lot of Land and premises, situate, lying and being in the borough of Plainfield, Union county, and State aforesaid as follows: Beginning at a stake in the centre of Church street, in Plainfield, and also in the middle of Second Street, in the said borough, and running the line and the middle of Church st. S. 50 deg. 20 minutes, E. 2 ch. 61 links to a stone and corner of Lewis Bond's land, thence along his line N. 44 1-2 deg. W. 62 links to a stone, another of Lewis Bond's corners, in the line of lands belonging to the Society of Friends, thence along their line N. 52 1-4 deg. W. 1 ch. 26 links to a stone one of said Friends' corners, and a corner of Laing Nelson Laing's other land, thence along his line N. W. 1 ch. 55 links to the middle of Second street, thence along the middle of Second Street, N. 44 1-2 deg. E. 91 1-2 links to the place of beginning, containing 28-100ths of an acre of Land.

W. PIERSON, Sheriff.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the new stand on Somerset st., next to the corner of Front street, and near Frank's mill, where they are prepared to sell all articles in their line cheap and at the lowest prices. Also, Flour, Feed, Hay, Grain and Fuel, also Crockery and Earthen Ware.

Produce of all kinds wanted in exchange for groceries. Thankful for past favors, asks a continuance of the same.

Also, Mrs. Yoe's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaint.

JOHNSON & LYON.

N. B. All persons indebted to the subscribers are requested to call and settle without delay.

April 8, 1852.—tf. CHARLES JOHNSON.

General Secretary of the Republican Union.

Mr. Editor, Dear Sir—

PETTYVILLE, N. J. July 7, 1852.

Thinking that you would like to know what your neighbors were doing on the 4th of July, I send you a short account of the proceedings here on Sunday and Monday.

Sunday being the 4th, and the news of the death of the lamented Clay having just reached us, our chapel was very appropriately hung with the emblems of mourning; and the Clergyman who officiated on the occasion, selected as his text the words of the Psalmist, "If a man die, shall he live again," applying it to the life and death of Mr. Clay, and showing the bright example he set for the youth of our country. He then glanced at the events that are commemorated by this anniversary day, at the same time exhorting his hearers to declare their independance from the thraldom of sin, as well as of the tyranny of a government. He also alluded to the fact that five years since, on Sunday the 4th of July, the chapel of this village was dedicated by Rev. Dr. Dewy, to the service of God, and said happily contrasted the situation of the then wild and uncultivated fields with the beauty of its present appearance, showing the physical, moral and religious influence which has been exerted upon the surrounding country.

The 5th was celebrated as the anniversary of American Independence. At break of day the bell was rung for one hour, the flags were displayed from the Liberty Pole, and the whole village was alive with the firing of guns, pistols, crackers, &c. and the sound of martial music.

But at 12 o'clock the most interesting part of the proceedings came around. According to previous arrangements, the Sunday School assembled at the Chapel, under the charge of the Superintendents and teachers, and after prayer, a hymn, and prayer by the Superintendent, invoking the divine blessing and protection, they marched to a delightful grove selected for the occasion, about one mile from the village, when a handsome and sumptuous repast of cold meats, cakes of all kinds, fruit, and lemonade had been provided for them. Here swings had been erected for their amusement, which afforded much pleasure to the children. After singing by the school, an address was delivered by a partner of the house, from the city, which was listened to with much pleasure by those assembled, and which we hope will be long remembered by the children of the school. The Clergyman of the village next followed in a neat and impressive address. The tables having been now prepared, about sixty children sat down to enjoy the bounties provided for them, and after being fully satisfied, they gave way for about one hundred and fifty ladies and gentlemen, who seemed to enjoy themselves with great zest, the band in the meantime playing several national airs.—There being plenty of the good things left, all present as spectators were invited to the table to partake.

The party returned to the village before dark, without an accident or any unpleasant occurrence to mar the pleasure of the day. In the evening a grand display of fireworks took place, which the band again enlivened by their music, playing during almost the whole of the time. At 11 o'clock, we were all safely locked in the arms of sleep, the village being as quiet and still as if it were of a Sabbath evening.

One of the blessed results of the rapid growth and success of this village may be attributed to the total discarding of all intoxicating drink from the community, and the moral and religious teaching which we have constantly from the school house and chapel.

The Band of Music spoken of above has lately been established among the young men of the village, and promises to be a source of great amusement and improvement, if not of immense usefulness. S. B. J.

TAKE NOTICE.

THAT the Judges of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, in and for the County of Essex and State of New Jersey, did, at the term of April, A. D. 1852, appoint Tuesday the 10th day of August next at 10 o'clock A. M. at the Court House in Newark at the August term to hear what can be offered for or against my discharge as an Insolvent Debtor, under the Insolvent laws of said State.

JOHN Y. BAINBRIDGE.

Dated Newark, July 10, 1852.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!

Just Received, Twenty Tons of

Peruvian Guano,

And For Sale in large or small quantities, at about New York prices, by WM TAIL.

New Market, June 28, 1852.—6w*

12 South Down Sheep

AND FOUR LAMBS, For Sale by the Subscriber, on his Farm, near Plainfield.

EDWARD ROACH.

June 21, 1852.

Farms For Sale, or Exchange for a place in the vicinity of Plainfield.

AN Improved Farm of 211 acres of best quality Land on Rock Creek, State of Illinois, on which is a House and Barn; Succotation, and a part under cultivation, being 16 miles west of the present termination of the Illinois Branch Railroad, which road will be extended west and run within 5 miles of said farm. Also rents in a thriving place on Fox River containing a population of town 1000.

Also, an unimproved farm of 123 acres lying 5 miles north of Aurora, which is well adapted for a good farm. The neighborhood is well settled.

Also 160 acres of land unimproved, situated on Third Lake, near the City of Madison, the capital of Wisconsin, being only 4 miles distant. For further information apply to the subscriber, opposite the residence of Rev. Mr. Whittaker.

JOHN J. WALLIS.

Plainfield, June 21, 1852.—3w

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.

Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

MRS PRUDEN,

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Hoots & Shoes, Carpetings, Burning Fluid, &c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual.

June 14, 1852.

BREWSTER'S

CHOLERA MIXTURE,

FOR THE

CURE OF CHOLERA MORBUS, DIARRHŒA, BOWEL COMPLAINTS,

Cholic, Griping Pains, or Sick Stomach, and

ASIATIC CHOLERA.

This mixture is not a new remedy that has just sprung up from some newspaper puff, and called by a name to deceive the unthinking, but one that was prepared years ago, and has been used and recommended by physicians and others as a standard medicine, and has successfully cured the most violent cases of Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, Cholic, &c., and will not fail to cure in one case in ten, if administered according to directions, on the first attack.

It is just what every family needs, almost, barge, and traveller should always keep on hand to guard against sudden attack, as the Cholera Morbus is most likely to attack people in the night, the sooner the remedy is applied the better. Asiatic Cholera is, in most cases preceded by Diarrhœa and Griping Pains in the bowels, and then, on great reason why so many Specimens of CHOLERA, for a few hours if not immediately administered in the first stage of the disease, or the delay in procuring a physician before the patient is past recovery.

Reference can be given to hundreds of the most respectable persons, as well as to physicians who have used it, and who pronounce it during the most violent cases of Cholera Morbus and Diarrhœa.

Price, 25 cents per bottle.

Certificate from Rev. B. S. Hotchkin, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Fairfield, N. J.

Mr. F. G. BREWSTER:

Dear Sir,—I have found in your Cholera Mixture a very valuable medicine in all attacks of Diarrhœa, Cholera, and Summer complaint either by myself or family for more than two years past. I believe it has never failed to cure us, and in the use of it we have in a great measure escaped the usual suppleness after effects of Anodynes. I have found it especially useful when abroad. The change of usual diet and water for a day or more, is almost sure to affect me injuriously, and the use of this Mixture has proved to be of the greatest service on such occasions. It was when abroad and in need of relief from painful Diarrhœa that I first became acquainted with it, and I have since very seldom suffered myself to be found abroad without it.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

B. B. HOTCHKIN.

Cedarville, N. J., July 26, 1849.

Prepared only by F. G. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Bridgeton, N. J., and for sale together with Brewster's Pectoral Mixtures, and his Embrocation, by the following Agents:—Jonathan D. Frazee, Plainfield; C. W. Badger, Newark; Dr. D. C. English, New Brunswick, and by others throughout the State.

July 12, 1852.—2m

Emory & Co.'s Patent Horse Power, Thrasher and Separator.

THE UNDERSIGNED have been appointed sole agents in the city of New York for the sale of their Improved Horse Powers and Thrashers. Those wishing to procure the Emory Improved Horse Power and Machine will observe that their name is cast on every link of chain. None other is Genuine.

LONGETT & GRIFFING

State Agricultural Warehouse,

No. 25 Cliff Street, New-York.

July 5, 1852.—3m

A GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES

AT THE CELEBRATED LARGEST AND CHEAPEST

CARPET ESTABLISHMENT

In the United States, No. 99 Bowery,

UNDERHILL'S

EIGHT SPACIOUS SALES ROOMS,

Wholesale and Retail.

Sales Room No. 1.

CONTAINS the largest, finest assortment and Cheapest assortment of English and American Floor Cloths, to be found in the city, from

TWO SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE

To One Dollar Square yard, of one to eight yards wide

Sales Room No. 2.

Contains the most beautiful and variegated assortment of English and American superior Ingrain Carpeting, at unprecedented low prices, Five Shillings Six Shillings and Sixpence per yard—new and elegant figures for Spring Sales.

Sales Room No. 3

Is fully stocked with an invivaled assortment of English and American Imperial Three-ply Carpeting, of new and elegant designs, manufactured expressly for the city trade, at a reduction of twenty five per cent from former prices. 3s 6d, 4s, and 5s per yard, and upwards.

Sales Room No. 4.

Contains one hundred and fifty pieces of fine Ingrain Carpeting, new fall styles, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s, 3s 6d, and Four Shillings per yard.

Sales Room No 5.

Displays a great variety of English Druggets, from one to four yards wide, from three shillings and sixpence per yard and upwards. Also, an elegant assortment of Rugs, Mats, &c., at very reduced prices.

Sales Room No. 6.

Is fully stocked with every variety of Stairs and Hall Carpeting, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s 6d, 4s, 5s, and 6s per yard.

In Sale Room No. 7,

Are the Patent Tapestry Ingrain Carpets exhibited at the World's Fair, formerly sold at nine shillings per yard, now selling for

SIX SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE PER YARD.

Sale Room No. 8.

An extensive assortment of Table and Piano Covers, Window Drapery from 8s 6d to $10 per pair, Table Oil Cloths, Brussels and Tapestry Carpeting, Brussels Stair Carpet, Plated and Brass Stair Rods, Parlor Door Mats, &c. &c., all of which are offered at 25 per cent. less than at any other establishment in this city.

HIRAM ANDERSON,

No. 99 Bowery, N. Y.

All goods packed and sent free of charge. 6m5.

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Glass and Stone Ware, also Boots and Shoes, &c. My stock has been selected with great care, and on cyesto cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods; and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints,	Ginghams,	Cassimers,
Barege de Lane,	Gloves,	Summerstuffs,
Lawns,	Hosiery,	Fustians, &c.

And all styles of goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear, Muslins bleached and unbleached, colored cambrics, shirtings, sheetings, buttons, thread, cotton bats, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas,	Rice,	Sugars,	Candles, Flour,
Coffee,	Corn Starch,	Soap,	Indian Meal.

PROVISIONS.—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef, Pepper, Pickles, Cheese, Hams, Pork, &c.

Pepper sauce, Honey, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite all, both old and young, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to call the second time.

ELIAS T. BILKE'S BILKE'S

The subscriber has also on hand a good assortment of Iron & and changeable silks, which will be sold cheap.

May 6, 1852. J. V. ARROWSMITH.

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in Main street, opposite Webster & Marsh's store, for the sale of Bonnets, Dress Trimmings, Goods, &c. &c. Having purchased her goods at the lowest cash prices, she is prepared to sell Ribands, Gimps, Gloves, Silks, Laces, Collars, Muslins, Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and everything in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from Somerville, she is prepared for orders in all the various branches of Dress Making. Caps and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 6, 1852.—6m.

J. A. WOODLAND,

HOUSE, SIGN AND

DECORATIVE PAINTER,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

☞ The above is prepared to execute all orders in his line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Paper-Hanging Department, with punctuality, neatness and despatch, and at prices considerably less than those usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.

March 22, 1852.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any thing we can eat, or do anything with, taken in exchange for goods.

I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

Administrator's Sale.

THE undersigned, Administrator of A. DUNHAM PARKER, deceased, will sell at Public Sale, at Second Day (Monday) the 12th day of July next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. on the premises, all the estate belonging to said deceased, viz: one Two-story House with Lot and Garden, situated on the east corner of Second and Somerset streets, in Plainfield.

Any information that may be wanted in relation to said property, will be cheerfully furnished by calling on Joseph W. Parker, on the premises.

SALE POSITIVE. ZACHARIAH WEBSTER, Administrator.

Plainfield, May 6, 1852.

Spring & Summer Dry Goods

HITCHCOCK & LEADBEATER, No. 347 Broadway, New-York, have in store one of the finest assortments in the city of

FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS.

suitable for every season of the year, and every climate, and would especially invite attention to their large and elegant stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER DRESS GOODS, which they have purchased for cash, for nearly half price, and are enabled to offer at

VERY GREAT BARGAINS!

Their stock includes every variety of Silks, Shawls, De Laines, Barege De Laines, Challies, Printed Muslins and Lawns, Barages, Silk Tissues, Grenadines, Ginghams, Calicoes, Poplins, Foulard Silks, &c., &c.,

ALSO A GOOD ASSORTMENT OF EVERY KIND.

A full and complete assortment always on hand, including Black Bombazines, Alpacas, Challies, Canton Crapes, De Laines, &c., &c., which parties interested will find selling low.

FANCY GOODS OF VARIOUS KINDS.

Agitation and embroidered Pocket-handkerchiefs, Cravats, Gloves, Hosiery, Mitts, Trimmings, Silks, &c., &c.

A SPLENDID STOCK OF RIBBONS,

bought very low for cash, which the ladies will find desirable and cheap, and which Milliners will find it their interest to examine before completing their purchases.

HOUSEWIFE AND FAMILY GOODS,

as Linens, Table Damasks, Napkins, Towels, Towelings, Crash, Shirtings and Sheetings, Muslins, rich embroideries.

LACE AND MUSLIN WINDOW DRAPERIES,

in great variety, and of every quality and price

CARPETS AND CARPETINGS.

A very large and complete assortment—as Kid, Silk, and Thread Gloves; Silk and Summer Gravats; Silk and Linen Pocket-handkerchiefs; Silk, Cotton, and Linen Hosiery; Skirts and Drawers; Socks, &c., &c., at prices much lower than the same articles can be found at the

GENTLEMAN'S FURFISHING STORES.

Please call and examine, and if not found desirable and reasonable, you will not be desired to purchase.

Country Merchants will find it to their interest to look through our stock, as they can have every article they wish, in any quantity they desire, and at prices which they will find it an object to purchase at, as most of our goods were purchased at the late sales, are the best styles, and full 50 per cent. below the ordinary jobbing rates

Terms invariably Cash—and only One Price.

New York, June 21, 1852.—1y

Sheriff's Sale.

N. J. Sup. Court, Essex. Fi. Fa. for sale, &c.

John Potter vs. Samuel D. Pierson.

By virtue of the above stated writ of Fieri Facias to me directed, I shall expose for sale at Public Vendue, at the Court House in the city of Newark, on Friday, the 23d day of July next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. all the estate, right, title, and interest of the defendant of, in and to all those tracts or parcels of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being in the township of Westfield, Essex co. N. J.

The 1st, Beginning at a stake standing in the line of the late Jonas Williams' and of Jonas Williams' 104, subscribers northernmost corner of Ephraim Williams, from thence with Jonas Williams' line and binding thereon N. 49 deg. W. 11 chains 10 links to a stake in Moses DeCamp's line, thence with his and binding thereon S. 40 deg. 48 min. W. 2 ch. 94 links to John Tucker's corner, thence with his line and binding on it S. 49 deg. E. 5 chains 92 links to another of said Tucker's corners and binding on said Tucker, thence still with said Tucker's lineand binding on it S. 40 deg. 48 min. W. 5 ch. 92 links to another of said Tucker's corners, thence S. 60 deg. E. 5 ch. 99 links to E. Williams' line binding on the residence of the said E. Williams' line and binding thereon, running N. 50 deg. E. 8 chains 93 links to the place of beginning, containing 6 acres, more or less.

The 2d, Beginning at an old oak stump which is the corner of Saml. Richards and James Roll's land, and running S. 49 deg. E. 26 links to a stone, thence N. 71 ch. 70 links to a stone, thence S. 82 1-2 deg. W. 2 ch. 47 links to a stone in Brooks Roll's line, thence N 43 1-2 deg E. to the place of beginning.

The 3d, Beginning on the main road from Elizabeth town to Scotch Plains between Syleman Pierson's residence and Eli Manshey's manufacturing establishment. Size of the lot 50 feet front and rear by 150 feet deep, it being the house and lot William Hayes occupied a number of years.

The 4th, Beginning at a stone in the S.W. corner and in the side of the road leading from Westfield to Scotch Plains at the entrance of the road leading to Rahway, thence S. 46 deg. E. and binding thereon to Theophilus Pierson's corner in the side of the said road. 6 ch. 12 links and in the side of said road, thence N. 41 deg. E. and binding on said Pierson's line 17 ch. 36 1-2 links to a corner of land of Joseph Quinby, dec'd, thence N. W. 8 ch. 50 links to said Quinby's corner 25 links to a stone by the side of the road that leads from Westfield to Scotch Plains, thence S. 41 deg. W. binding on said road, 16 ch. 8 1-2 links, to the place of beginning, containing 16 1-2 acres by estimation, excepting therefrom the lots numbered from 1 to 11, also the following lots 20, 21, 23, 26, 34, 35, 37, 38, 50, 51, and 52, and a triangular piece of land N. of the 6th lot, all by reference to a map filed in the clerk's office of the county of Essex will more fully appear. W. PIERSON,

Newark, June 21, 1852. Sheriff

NOTICE.

Miss C. Prosch,

WOULD hereby informs her many friends and the generous public that she has been extending her rout of rooms, on much larger and improved plan in Broad street, in this city, and is now ready to receive Daguerreotypes second to none. Family Groups, from two to twenty, taken to give satisfaction; also children of all ages, in the shortest time, and in the quickest style. Likenesses of sick and deceased persons taken whenever called upon. Also Daguerreotypes copied to perfection.

Miss C. PROSCH has no connection with any other establishment, and would respectfully wish the public to bear in mind that she can always be found at 259 Broad-street, only, where the trusts to meet that patronage which she and liberally bestowed upon her.

June 1.—3m 259 Broad-street, NEWARK.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE,

SADDLE & HARNESS

MAKER

Continues at the Old Stand in Rechange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods in his line. He also

Informs the public that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute all orders in all the branches of the above business, as well, as quick and as cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and edge of yourselves. May 17, 1852.—tf

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling of at L. S. DUNHAM & CO.'s.

BARRETT'S Double Refined Powdered Saleratus and Double Refined Yeast Powders in tin boxes.

" Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

DOCTOR JAYNE'S Vermifuge and Expectorant, do. Sanative Pills. Also,

Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops. These drops are an agreeable, effectual remedy for Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Atwood's Spinal Elexir for the spine disease. Also, Hunt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. (Abe Bailey's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by April 20, 1852. JAMES V. DUNN.

German Washing Powder, & Fluid

For Sale by M. F. CRANE.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by

May 4, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. If not attended to soon, they will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. I expect no one to owe me, I give this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON

Plainfield, April 9, 1852.

Furniture and Chair WAREHOUSE.

W. B. & R. W. DOUGLASS,

No. 5 Mechanic Street,

(A few Doors West of Broad.)

WE invite the attention of our friends and the public to our Establishment, Friends, Relatives, Railway, as well as the accommodation of our customers, we have the largest, best and most complete, and (quality of goods considered) cheapest assortment of Furniture, Chairs, Mattresses, &c. ever offered in the State, a fact of which all may fully satisfy themselves by calling and examining for themselves. Our stock consists of all the various styles of Parlor, Dining room Bed-room, Library, Hall and Kitchen Furniture, Sofas, Settees, Tables, Tete a Tetes, Chairs, Mahogany and marble top Centre Tables, Side Tables, Card Tables, Easy Arm and Rocking Chairs, Parlor Bureaus, Wash Stands, Work Stands, &c. &c.

Book Cases, Wardrobes, Writing Desks and Secretary's reading Tables, Dressing Bureaus, French and Cottage Bedsteads, plain do., Inclined and Plain Washstands, &c. &c.; also about 60 dozen Walnut and Maple Chairs, consisting of our own manufacture, and warranted superior to anything of the price.

Mattresses of Curled Hair, Husk, Moss and Straw. We have also a large stock of Looking Glass Furniture, which we will sell at New York prices, and save you the trouble, time, freight, risk, &c., which is attendant on purchasing in New York.

N. B. Goods sold within six or seven miles of Newark, who purchase furniture of us, can have their furniture delivered at their residences free of charge. Goods delivered at the depot in Newark, or at our manufacturing warehouse for that purpose, so that we are responsible for our wares until they are safely lodged in your own dwellings. We do not wish to induce persons to stop at Newark instead of going to New York. Don't forget the number, 119 Market-st., Newark, N. J. W. B. & H. W. DOUGLASS.

April 20, 1852.—3m.

FIRST PREMIUM MILLINERY Establishment and STRAW BONNET Manufactory, No. 346 Broadway, near Walker's Grocery, New York. Mrs. WM. SIMMONS respectfully announces to her numerous patrons and the public that she is now prepared to exhibit at her Show Rooms a splendid and extensive assortment of MILLINERY and FANCY GOODS of her own Manufacture, in which are combined all the modern improvements, latest styles and fashions, together with magnificent assortment of Straw Milliners, which for diversity of patterns, colors and beauty of finish, transcends immeasurably all former importations. Also, a large and interesting invoice of Lace, Straws, Straw Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Feathers, Trimmings, and Milliners supplied with pattern Bonnets.

Mrs. WM. SIMMONS. 504 Broadway, New York.

April 20, 1852.—3m.

1852.

SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

WE would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not praise up our Goods with a view of trying to make the people believe them to be what they are not, but intend that their style and quality shall speak for itself. We have received this day, 10 pieces Barage DeLaines from 12½ to 18c.; plain and watered Poplin Silks from 8s. to 10s. per yard; Prints from 4c. to 6c.; Gloves from 1 to 1 of Ladies' Gloves from 10 cts to 75; also Gents Gloves, Bleached and Brown Muslins very cheap, Ginghams from 10 cts to 28, and more than a thousand other articles that we have not room to enumerate.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloth, plain and fancy Cassimers, a first rate assortment of Vestings any or all of which can be cut and made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Gents furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods from the

Plainest and Cheapest,

To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it an object to Cash purchasers from 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same goods retailed can be found in the city. We intend entirely in the Dry Goods trade and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

SILKS! SILKS!! SILKS!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also Canton Plaids new Spring Styles to which the attention of Ladies is particularly requested. ROCAP & SHEPPARD.

May 24, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Thorn's new building in Cherry-st., 2nd below Front, Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the vicinity of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns DeLaines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds, a good assortment of new Summer Goods, Coiscades, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Pork, Cheese, Hams Shoulders, Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Rollers and Wooden Ware.

Tubs, Buckets, Churns, Washboards, Brooms, wisks shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.

THE highest price in Cash or Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods.

April 20, 1852.—1y. JAMES M. DUNN.

House and Lots for Sale.

Situated on the corner of Fifth and Centre Streets, the house is nearly new, filled in with brick, five rooms on the first floor, six on second, with garrets and cellar—fruit trees of different kinds, and a never failing well of water. Said premises is well located for private residence. For particulars enquire of WILLIAM SUTTON.

Plainfield, Feb. 24th, 1852.

Lawrence's' Gallery,

203 Broadway, 3 doors below Fulton-

STREET, NEW YORK.

THE proprietor having built this establishment expressly for Daguerreotypes, with a view to obviate many of the difficulties that surrounded the Daguerrian Artist, has found after a trial of two years, that his expectations have been fully realized. The arrangement of light is new, and produces uniformly soft and beautiful pictures, whether in sunny or neutral tints, so long looked for by Artists. One of the rooms is arranged with particular reference to taking Family and other groups.

Fifty pictures can be taken with equal facility. The Operating Department is conducted by persons of great experience and skill, and none but good likenesses will be sent out. Visitors will not be first to produce Daguerreotypes the size of life. They are prepared with a Camera of immense size, and on plates three times larger than ever before used, producing a Picture having all the effect and delicacy of the finest Miniature. Pictures of every description copied with perfect accuracy. Children of all ages taken Stormy or cloudy weather no detriment to having good pictures. The public of Plainfield and vicinity are invited to visit the Rooms, which are free to all.

THE FIRST PREMIUM, a PRIZE MEDAL, was awarded to the subscriber, at the Great World's Fair in London, for the BEST Daguerreotypes. Enough said.

April 29th, 1852.—3m. M. M. LAWRENCE.

Something New!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John R. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite French's Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture to order, at short notice, all kinds of Harness, Saddles and Bridles. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best materials and well done. All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WOLFE.

Plainfield, April 28, 1852.—3m.

Cheap Paper Hangings!!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES PACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 25 cents a piece, (being the walls and paste included.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to 50 cents a piece. Call and examine.

J. P. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers.

Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852. whstor eow

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS.

DANIEL BULLMAN,

a prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Bonnet Pictures; Bonnets of every grade and style; Ribbons; Flowers; Gloves; Glass; Alpacas; Ginghams; Linens; Muslins; White Goods of all kinds, Clothes, Cassimeres, Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Hosiery, Gloves, and all other articles in the dry goods line, &c. &c. Goods so varied, and cheap, that every purchaser can be found in these parts, and they will be sold at as cheap too. Try we and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing these articles, will find my store just the place to buy, for I keep and sell them as cheap as any one can. Our customers cannot help being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY,

Some very beautiful, and very cheap; a large and varied assortment, to suit all tastes, constantly on hand. Also, Lamps, in great variety.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for the purchase of it, for I will sell the best for cheap, and save you freight, breakage and trouble of going after it.

Also, Looking-Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

ARIETIES AND FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call, and if you want any thing else, call and furnish it, very likely. A portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited. D. BULLMAN.

April 26, 1852.

NOT FOR THE GOLD MINES!

GIVE ME THE SILVER!

WHILE many are going to California to dig up the gold in abundance, if they can find it, I take the opportunity to say to the public at large and to my customers in particular, that I shall remain in the store to take stock of goods, at small profits and quick returns, equal to any for style and quality. Said stock consists of a good assortment of every thing kept in a Village Store, viz:

Dry Goods, Carpets, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, Boots, Shoes, &C. &C.

Among the Dry Goods are Muslins and Prints from 4d to 1s. and 1s 6d., DeLaines and Cashmeres; cambric and jaconet muslins, and a full assortment of trimmings constantly on hand; also, fine gauze flannel, black gloves, satin veils, crape and bombazine for scarfs; Cloths, plain and fancy cassimeres, de skins, satinets, Jeans, cords, edgings, insertings, linens, lace buttons, &c.

GROCERIES.

Green and Black Teas of the best quality, molasses at 2s. and 2s. 6d. per gallon, sugar of every style and quality from 5s. 6d to 8s. 6d for 7 lbs, also sugar-house syrup, raisins, coffee, rice, and all other groceries a complete stock of the best quality.

CROCKERY of Every Style and Quality

Both fancy and plain to suit the purchaser.

PROVISIONS.

Pork, Fish, salt, hams, shoulders, lard, butter, cheese, beef, &c. &c.

BOOTS and SHOES, of Every Style and Quality, for Ladies', gentlemen's and children's wear at low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Furniture and coach varnish, turpentine, white lead, pure and extra; lamp oils, yellow and green; Venitian red, red lead, chrome yellow, Paris green, Prussian blue mixed and dry, lamp black, litharge, brown japan and nearly every thing for painters' use.

Flour, Meal, Feed, and Grain,

A good assortment constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, March 15 1852.

HORACE SEATON,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN LACE GOODS,

354 Broad Street, Newark.

☞ Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Tabs, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Embroidery Muslin, Gloves and Hosiery, Millinery articles, Combs, Brushes, Oils, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Goods, Ladies and Children's fancy dress Shoes and Gaiters. 23 1y.

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will do well to pay their advantage to call at R. GLENN & SON'S Piano Forte Rooms, 204 Pearl-st (west of Broadway.) A General Assortment of Mahogany and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

R. GLENN & CO., 204 PEARL-STREET,

Oct. 7, 1851.—1y New York.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE,

PHYSICIANS,

NO. 196 WEST FIFTEENTH STREET, NEW YORK,

Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

Mrs. B. M. COTT,

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchiæ, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, particularly the diseases arising from or connected upon debility, Scrofulous, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous diseases, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say that they have had many years experience, and numerous cures in cases of long standing, after their having been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicines will be carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. Jan6 1y

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of J. S. Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with all kind of work of his line. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Cash plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

☞ Old Gold and Silver taken in exchange for Clocks.

Plainfield, April 13, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, one door to the corner of Broad and Cherry streets, Plainfield town, (a short distance from the depot,) would invite his former friends, and all who are in want of a good assortment of clothing, to call and examine his stock.

His stock comprises some of the most desirable goods in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. He will sell for 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay. JOHN ENGEL.

April 20, 1852 4t.3.

GARRATT & REDMAN,

Original Manufacturers of Carriage's Patent

REDDOMOS,

With Recent Important Improvements,

Price from $60 to $200

Nos. 75 East Thirteenth-st.

J. Corbett, }

E. F. Nes. Jun. } NEW YORK.

N. B. The Reddomos manufactured by us are the only ones with the Improvements.

Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

ALEXANDER MARSH returns thanks to his numerous patrons for their liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many friends to bear enlarged his stock of Paints and to take into partnership his son, Wm. Washington Marsh. The business will be continued at the old stand, opposite the Second Presbyterian Church, where they will keep on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., &c., as cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to Houses, Signs and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, Paper Hanging, Painting in Imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES.

Mixed Paint constantly on hand. Advice gratis.
Jan. 5, 1852. F. MARSH & SON

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by P. Mosher, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as House, Sign and Ornamental Painting! Also PAPER HANGING, all of which will be promptly, punctually and honestly executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned hereby returns thanks to his customers for the liberal patronage that so generously has been bestowed upon him, and will endeavor by faithfulness to merit and secure a continuance of their favors.

☞ Orders may be left at the Union Office, also at Mrs. Irvine's store.
Newark, April 1, 1852. CHARLES TAYLOR.

LIGHTNING RODS!

A. M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 132 East Twenty-Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and fix to buildings their improved Lightning Rods' which have now been in use seventeen years, without a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. Quimby's rods are the result of Electricity the study of his life, and his rods are always put up in accordance with certain rules which he has formed and adopted as the result of his experience. The adherence to these rules he has found to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and exposed as regards lightning, and requires a different arrangement of the rods, to suit the peculiar features of the case, which is the reason why so many of the common round rods have failed, being put up in spite of the persons ignorant of the laws by which electricity is governed, they are not arranged on buildings in such a manner as to protect the whole and under all circumstances. Quimby's rods have been placed on the houses of Mr. D. Rockwell, C. Boice, Esq. Mr. M. Stelle, and others in Plainfield, and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church and others in New York; church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.
Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—6m

MARBLE & STONE YARD.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUMENTS, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates, Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business, he has a most beautiful Free Stone for sale at Quarry, from which I will furnish to order every variety of stone for building purposes, ornamental or plain. All of which I will execute in the most workmanlike manner, dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.
Aug. 12, 1851.—1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE, PHYSICIANS,
No. 259 GREEN STREET, NEW YORK,
Soo-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

Mrs. Restell

THE CELEBRATED
FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, particularly those arising from or attendant upon debility, Scrofulous, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous disease, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to enumerate it, further than to say, that they have repeatedly performed permanent cures in cases of long standing, after their having been pronounced incurable by many distance pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

For fulness of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed as above, 259 Green street.

☞ Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express.
jan6 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,
Manufactories every description of
RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUS, Hay, Floor and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.
Every Scale made by this Company is well warranted not Liable to get out of order.
Manufactory 39 Greene street, New York,
Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.
Repairing done at short notice.
S. S. BURDON, } Agents.
Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

HOW'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

	[IN MEN]
Rheumatism,	Sprains,	Weakness in the
Burns, Bruises,	Cuts, Sores,	Back, Breast,
Sore Throats,	Frosted Feet,	Limb & Joint.
	[IN HORSES]
Bruises, Sprains,	Ringbone,	Poll Evil, and all
Warbles, Splints,	Wounds, Spavin,	diseases of the
Galls, Scratches,	Thoroughpin,	where an Embroca-
Windgall,	Saddle Galls,	tion can be used.

Prepared only by
HENRY K. HOW, CHEMIST,
No. 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,
(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Liniment, and pronounced it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy in our families:

Isaac Moore, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barney McCherry, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel R. Wilker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander Mc Ewing, P. V. Degraw, Princeton. Joseph Hamslit, John A. Weart, Trenton. A. W. Brown, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, N. J.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG in Somerville by Culver Bacheler. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.
Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

DR. E. DAYTON,
Surgeon-Dentist,

Has returned to Plainfield, and taken an Office and Residence for the year, on 2d house below Webster & Marsh's.
1851. Store.

DELAINES—A few pieces Just Received at ment reform, for 6 cents per yard
D. BULLMAN.

THE STAMPEDE MIXTURE,

A PERFECT REMEDY ON NEVER-FAILING CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT,
AND OTHER BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, AND FOR WEAKNESS.

This Medicine is purely a Vegetable Compound, and can be given to a child of three months without fear of the consequences. It is a never failing remedy for Chills and Fever.

CERTIFICATES.

NEWARK, April 10th, 1852.

MR. G. BRUSH—Dear Sir: I purchased of Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture, for the cure of Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, &c., of which you are Agent, it affords me pleasure to state that I have received the most beneficial results from it. I have tried many so-called remidies, among the rest Dr. Osgood's Cholagogue, without receiving me any relief. I was afflicted with the Dumb Chills, and could get no rest. I tried one bottle of your medicine and it effected a perfect cure. In fact I never enjoyed better health in my life. Any person desirous of knowing the particulars of my case, can obtain them by calling at my place of business where they will be cheerfully given.
GEO. V. HANKINS, 314 Broad st., Newark, N. J.

NEWARK April 10th 1852.

MR. G. BRUSH—Dear Sir: It gives me pleasure to learn that you have accepted the Agency for that justly celebrated medicine, Dr. Edward Bleecker's Stampede Mixture for the cure of Fever and Ague and Chills and Fever, and General Weakness, &c. I have tried it, and it effected a perfect cure when all others failed. I therefore take pleasure in recommending the same to Fever and Ague, as a most excellent medicine, and one that must naturally come into general use.
RICHARD MAYER, Jr.
corner Rives and Centre sts., Newark, N. J.
DR. LEWIS CRAIG, Agent for Plainfield. my18tw

DR. HALSEY'S FOREST WINE.

The discovery of the FOREST WINE is the greatest blessing of the age. Put up in Quart Bottles, a single bottle of which does more good, and goes further in the cure of Diseases, than ten bottles of any Sarsaparilla or Extract of Sarsaparilla ever offered to the public. It is sure without any supplement or weakening effect.

The method by which all Sarsaparillas, and other similar medicines are prepared, is by boiling the Roots or Plants, by which the extracted virtues of medicinal virtues are thus principally evaporated and destroyed.

It is not to be wondered at then, that ten and even twenty bottles of these Sarsaparillas are sometimes taken without any perceptible benefit, while with the Forest Wine! By the invention of a wonderful chemical apparatus, a perfect wine is produced without heating; retaining, at the same time, all the primitive healing virtues of the rare medicine, just as they are found in the plant, and under all circumstances.

GENERAL DEBILITY, EMACIATION, WASTING OF THE BODY, &c.

Many persons are afflicted with some one of the above complaints, without being able to trace it to any particular cause, and therefore delay the use of the proper remedy until the disease becomes incurable. These disorders are often characterized by a sense of sinking, or entire exhaustion after exercise. Some experience sluggishness, debility, and nervousness, loathing of the countenance, or palpitation of the heart, on like symptoms.

The beneficial effects which have ever attended the use of the Forest Wine and Pills, in every species of debility, is conclusive evidence of its happy results in this class of disorders. Many have resorted to these medicines as a last resource, and have speedily found the Nervous disorders and Debility the Wine and Pills are taken according to the directions on the label.

AGUE AND FEVER, OR CHILLS

Are caused by the miasmatic effluvia arising from marshes, decayed vegetations, and other local situations. In Fever and Ague the Forest Wine and Pills are a sovereign remedy. When they have been taken agreeably to the directions, they have never failed to effect a cure, effecting a complete cure. In the first place take a large dose of the Forest Pillsin time, that their operations may exhibit itself in the return of chill. The stomach being now well cleansed, take three or four large doses of the Wine, at intervals of half an hour, commencing about two hours before the period for the chill to return. Should the chill not return after the first dose, it should be continued in small doses to restore strength. See full directions around the bottle.

DR. HALSEY'S

GUM-COATED FOREST PILLS

Are an important adjunct to the Forest wine. They are coated with pure gum arabic, and when for which Doctor Halsey has received the only patent ever granted on Pills, by the government of the United States.

The Forest Wine and gum coated Forest Pills unite in accomplishing the same great end, the Purification of the Blood, and restoration of the Stomach and Bowels.

The Forest Wine and Pills are recommended as an effectual and sure cure in the following complaints: Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Dropsy, Complaints of the Kidneys, Incipient Consumption, Decline of general Health, and Female Weakness, for which it is a Sovereign Remedy; Laungnidness, Night Sweats, Nervous Disorders, Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, and want of Nervous Energy; Ague and Fever, for which it never fails to cure; Scrofula, Erysipelas, Jaundice, Unhealthy Color of the Skin, Weakly and Impaired State of the Constitution.

Dr. Halsey's Office, No. 308 Broadwyy, New York. The Forest Wine in large square bottles, $1 per bottle; the Forest Pills, Gum coated Forest Pills, 25 cents per box. For sale by M. F. CUSHING, and DR. I. CRAIG, appointed Agents for Plainfield.
June 3, 1851. 3m

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing astonishing healing properties, which is adapted to a larger class of diseases, in its ability to arrest pain, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Coughs and Colds, we doubt if it has an equal; it is also good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Rheumatism, Head, Ear and Tooth Ache, Chilblains, Worms, Ague and Fever; as a Cholera preventive or remedy it has never been passed. No one can appreciate the worth of this excellent medicine, but they have used the same. We have used it with great success, and do not hesitate to recommend it to those that are or may be afflicted, as a safe and harmless remedy. It is highly approved of by many respectable citizens, viz:

Rev. Jas. L. Hedge, Brooklyn, John Comstock, Br'klyn, " H. T. Hopkins, Newark, John Rickbeck, Englewood, " Prof. Whiting, Wmsburgh, Steamboat "Warren," Hon. C. S. Baldwin, Br'klyn, Lawrence Mann, Br'klyn, S. Sprague, Ex-Mayor, " Jordan Mott, Long Island, Alderman S. L. Husted, " David B. Salters, Bergen, H. C. Codding, Ex-Ald., " Aaron Kingsland, Br'klyn, J. Borland, ferry master, " Edmund Shaw, New York, David Travis, Somerstown, Jane McCollick, W. Marks, A. Wise, Bullenhead hotel, Justice D. Hiscox, " Peter Bleecker, Ferry, E. Packer, " Joseph Chedick, W. Market, Rainer S. Veldran, "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above certificate, Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.
FRANCIS B. CUTTER,
Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 194 Walker Street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING.
Jan. 2, 1852

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of May next, removes his store from No. 16 Maiden-Lane, to the store formerly occupied by him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior qualities of Needles imported by him:—James Henming & Son's celebrated Needles, Shepherd's, Groves, Lees and other Needles.—Pearl Buttons, Combs, Steel and Gold Pens, Spool and Ball Cotton, Strg Binding, Tape, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c.

RICH'D RICHARDS.
Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods,
April 26, 1852.—13m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Square and Round Post, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, and Children's Chairs; Also,
Wash and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel do.
March 22, 1852. For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

Hoover's Black Ink.

THE Best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

THE most safe and effectual remedy ever discovered for the destruction of Worms. It is perfectly harmless being as safe and pleasant that it can be given to the most tender infants. The hundreds of cures performed by this Syrup, should satisfy all of its wonderful virtues. No parent will be without it after once giving it a fair trial. This Syrup is entirely vegetable and recommended by the best physicians of the country as the safest and surest remedy that is now known. If it does not answer the recommendations, the money is refunded. I would further say, do not let your children go to a premature grave, when this Syrup is within your reach. Hundreds of cases which has never failed to give satisfaction in cases of worms or bowel complaints. When your children are afflicted with blotches under the eyes, picking at the nose, bad breath, swollen upper lip, itching of the stomach, then is your time to use this remedy, it being for sale by every respectable storekeeper in the country, where you can obtain a pamphlet of its wonderful cures, as well as of Hobensack.

LIVER PILLS.—These Pills being composed of Roots and Plants for diseases of the Biliary organs, Liver complaint, &c.

Congestion of the Liver is known to exist from an inclination to vomit being present, bitter taste in the mouth, yellow coated tongue and teeth, pain in the side, sallow full and bloating, an extra supply of bile is the cause. Let the afflicted attend to it in time. These Pills will remove all symptoms either total or partial. Great benefit has been found of these Pills in restoring these functional derangements to a healthy action, purifying the blood and other diseases so effectually that they will completely cure Piles, Costiveness, female irregularities, headache, giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in the side, back, &c. Price 25 cents per box, with directions. Be careful and ask for Hobensack's Liver Pills, as they are the only genuine, all others being a base imitation. Prepared at Hobensack's Laboratory, Philadelphia. For sale in Plainfield.

Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. CUSHING.
And at Retail EGBERT KIRKPATRICK,
C. Drake, Scotch Plains, Charles Foster, Westfield.
March 23, 1852.—1y.

R. R. R.

Science, by subjecting the laws of Chemistry to the skill of man, has contributed to the health and happiness by stopping the most cruel and severe pangs of pain in an instant, and curing in a few minutes

CHRONIC COMPLAINTS

IN A FEW HOURS

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,

Internally and Externally instantly stops Pain, and speedily cures its cause.

It is warranted to give relief to the following pains in Fifteen Minutes,

and to speedily and effectually cure the disease,

Rheumatism,	Whilks,	Lumbago,
Lumbago,	Paralysis,	Summer Complaints,
Stiff Joints,	Neuralgia,	Soreness in Bones,
Toothache,	Dysentery,	Pain in the Limbs,
Chill Fever,	Diarrhoea,	Sick Head-ache,
Ague Cake,	Heart Burn,	Cholera Morbus,
Sore Throat,	Colds, &c.

PAIN

IS the warning given of the presence of disease and of the derangement and prostration of the nervous and muscular system. In order to cure disease and rid the system of pain, our first effort should be directed to stop the pain—strengthen the nervous energy—invigorate healthy action—the functions and secretions of every organ in the system; this we accomplish by the use of

Strengthening, cleansing, invigorating, and powerful pain soothing properties of

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

No matter what the cause of the pain may be—if it arises from nervous prostration, muscular debility, disarrangement of the Liver or secretions of the skin, whether it be rheumatism, neuralgia, sick or nervous headache, nervous irritability, spasmodic affections, cramp, diarrhoea, or bowel complaints, chills and fever, or pain originates from internal derangements or external injuries,

Radway's Ready Relief taken internally and applied externally, will speedily and effectually stop the pain in a few minutes.

RHEUMATISM — 100,000 persons cured in 1850
The most excruciating pain stopped in two hours.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the quickest, safest, and most effectual remedy for the cure of Rheumatism in all its forms now in use; we state only what is strictly true, when we say, the most torturing pain and distressing complaint by one application. We have never known it fail in giving instant relief. In every city, village and town in the country, it has cured some of the people of this cruel complaint. In a single day it will warrant it to do as stated—it will instantly relieve the sufferer from pain and speedily cure him.

SICK AND NERVOUS HEADACHE

100,000 cases cured in 1850—Radway's Ready Relief will give relief in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief taken according to directions, will speedily and effectually cure this complaint. Taken internally and applied externally it will release in a few minutes the stomach, stops all irritation in the nerves, veins fibres and secretions of the head and brain, and relieves the sufferer from pain in 15 minutes. It is now acting in this city, and in the adjoining towns in the cure of the worst cases of sick and nervous headache.

NEURALGIA.—100,000 Neuralgia cases cured in 1850.—It will stop the most violent pains in Fifteen Minutes.

The cruel and excruciating pangs of this distressing complaint are usually arrested by Radway's Ready Relief. It is the only remedy that has effectually cured Neuralgia in its worst forms.

DIARRHŒA.—200,000 persons cured in 1850.—Pains stopped in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief cured more cases of cholera morbus, dysentery, cholic and all bowel complaints the past year than all other remedies. At the time of the cholera of the Mississippi, Missouri, Illinois and Ohio rivers, in New Orleans, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukie, Buffalo, and other places where the diarrhœa, cholera and dysentery rage so fatally, Radway's Ready Relief was used with the best success. It will in 15 minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms, impart a pleasant sensation to the whole system, allay all irritation, stop the painful discharges and relieve the patient from all pain.

CRAMPS AND SPASMS.

A Teaspoonful of Radway's Ready Relief, taken internally, and by bathing externally, will in a few minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms. In many cases where other remedies have been used with the fire, move the pain and swelling, give energy and strength to the muscles and entirely free you from pain.

Jumping Toothache cured in one second.

All aches and pains—head ache, tooth ache, ear ache, stomache, pain in the limbs, the muscles, the bones, the feet, the head and arms, Radway's Ready Relief will instantly cure.

PAIN, ITCHINGS

And all cutaneous eruptions are relieved from all irritation by bathing the parts with Ready Relief.

SPINAL MY-AINTS.

By bathing externally the cords of the neck and spine, it will strengthen the spine. We have known many cases of posterior and anterior curvature of the spine to be entirely cured, and the disfigured object to regain his proper shape by the use of Radway's Ready Relief.

CHILL FEVER.

One teaspoonful of Radway's ready relief taken on the first symptoms of chills, and bathe the head, neck and shoulders well. Smell to it, and pain experienced, and it will entirely prevent chill Fever.

Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Flatulency, Bad Breath, Wind, &c. are quickly cured by a dose of Radway's ready relief taken internally. It is a delicious cordial, imparting strength to every organ and function of the body, and health and happiness to the mind.

CAUTION TO DRUGGISTS

Purchase Radway's ready relief only of the authorized agents, whom a license is given below. Our travelling agents have a power of attorney signed by us to sell or purchase. ing always ask to see it. Price 25 cents a bottle.

RADWAY & CO., 162 Fulton st. N. Y.
M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.
Sept. 9, 1851.—1y

ooking Glasses—A Large number

JUST RECEIVED, from 25 cents to $7, each, by
D. BULLMAN

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

(CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS)

Prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
at the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch St. Philadelphia,

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines; such as Constipation,

Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering in the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits

THEY ARE ENTIRELY VEGETABLE.

And Free from Alcoholic Stimulant, and all injurious Ingredients.

And are pleasant in taste and mild in their operation, and will remove impurities from the body and give health and vigour to the frame.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, of Philadelphia, has had the means of obtaining the genuine recipes of the great medicines used by the Emperor of Germany, and these invaluable medicines are prepared with the utmost care at the German Medicine Store. The bitter mixture—Hoofland's German Bitters—is entirely new to the country, study and experience by the great inventor, and known and prized in Europe as an infallible remedy for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. Dr. M. Jackson's invaluable medicine has obtained the same celebrity in this Western World. The testimonials and innumerable confirmations of thousands of the most severe and difficult cases cured, is ample proof of this. The medicines compounded by Dr. C. M. Jackson have produced the very effects and same happy results, which in the German Inventor's practice and extended, and consequently must be compounded with singular success.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and Digestive Organs, restoring the impaired digesting powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain, and pleasant.

A Case in Camden.

A Bateman, Esq. at Rivell's Railroad Hotel, Camden, cured of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, in three weeks form. He had been very seriously afflicted for 3 years. We can but note his case here. Call and see him; you will pronounce the cure perfect.

Another Extreme Case.

Mr. George Wiletz, merchant, 317 Market st. cured of Disease of the Liver and Chronic Diarrhœa, of 15 years standing. This case has been under Dr. Jackson's treatment during the time, and visited the mineral springs of note throughout the Union, without permanent benefit, and was at last permanently cured by the use of a few bottles of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.

JOHN MOORE, jun. Esq. Editor of the "Daily News" said, October 31, 1849:

"Hoofland's German Bitters.—We are now trying this remedy for a stubborn disease of the bowels, and can with truth testify to its efficacy. We have used two bottles, and we have derived more benefit than we derived previously from years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our first physicians."

Three More Cures.

Philadelphia, 3d mo. 20th, 1850.

Respected Friend: I had for several years been afflicted with Dyspepsia and occasionally a General Debility. I accidentally fell in the possession of Dr. Hoofland's Bitters, in the first place upon a daughter, she having a severe sickness. They "Hoofland's German Bitters" had such effect upon her powerful debility, that I was induced to try it myself. I then got a bottle, and used it according to directions, and it relieved me more than anything I before used, giving tone and strength to the stomach and system, so that I can full to recommend them to all. Diarhœa, which continued for some time. My life, for a time, was despaired of. Thy Bitters again being used, stayed very speedily the complaint, and restored me soon relieved me from that great pain I suffered, and gave general health to the system. I consider it, doctor, one of the most valuable medicines I ever used, and shall take great pleasure in recommending it to others.

Very respectfully thy friend, SAMUEL BUTTON.
No. 5 Jennings' Row, Catharine, above Third street, Philadelphia, 5th mo. 1850.

Dr. C. M. Jackson, 120 Arch street.

That this medicine will cure the foregoing diseases, no one can doubt, if they use it as directed; it will set specifically upon the Liver, Stomach and Nerves. It is preferable to be colored, in all its forms, for its effect is immediate, and they do not prostrate the system.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS

This medicine has attained that high character wh'ch it is necessary for all medicines to attain, to induce counterfeiters to attempt imitations, and in the debt of the lives of those who are innocently deceived.

Look well to the Marks of the Genuine.

For the protection of invalids against fraud, the signature of C. M. JACKSON will be upon the front of the outside wrapper, and his name blown in every bottle.

☞ Purchasers should be careful to see that these Bitters; all others are Counterfeits—OFFICE ADVICE given gratis upon all diseases.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at the principal depot,

DR. JACKSON'S MEDICINE STORE,
No. 120 Mulberry or Arch st., one door below 7th, (formerly 275 Race st.) Philadelphia, Pa., and by respectable dealers generally throughout the United States, the Canadas and the West India Islands.

PRICE REDUCED!

To enable all classes of Invalids to enjoy the advantages of their great Restorative Power.

Single Bottles, 75 cts.—Three Bottles, $2,00.
For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.
Aug. 11, 1851.—1y

ATTENTION!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by
DR. I. BRADLEY,
N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice spent in that city have rendered Dr. B. the most expert and successful practitioner for and near in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat or legs, pains in the head or bones, mercurial rheumatism, stricture, gleets, seminal weakness, impotency, and all impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled are all treated with success.

His who places himself under the care of Dr. B. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice, basely indulged in, both frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are lassitude, pain in the back, dimness of the eyes, confusion of ideas, nervous irritability, seminal weakness, pimples upon the face, blotches upon the body, aversion to society, self-distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are among some of the evils produced, such persons before contemplating marriage, should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, and the mind becomes shadowed with despair, filled with the most gloomy forebodings, and the victim becomes a burden to himself.

☞ Dr. B. would inform those unfortunate young men who have been led to destroy their constitutions by the use of mercury, that he has discovered a remedy which will cure them in a few days, without the use of that dangerous drug.

Dr. B.

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 29. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, July 20, 1852. Whole Number 809.

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. B. LAFOY,

No. 314 Broad-street, Washington Hall Buildings.

HAS constantly on hands a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical, lepine, verge and detached lever watches; curb, polished and Swiss Guard chains; fob and vest Chains of all patterns; silver, shell and russet card cases; gold and silver enamelled, engraved and plain Pencils; Locks' single stoned, cluster and diamond; cornelian, jet, amethyst, mourning and plain Brooches; Gunt's cluster, single stoned, enamelled and plain Studs; Finger Rings of all patterns; Ladies' plain Gold, plain and half Bracelets; Bracelet clasps of all kinds; Ear rings of the latest; Breast Pins; gold, silver, emerald, hyacinth, set and plain Gents' diamond, ruby, emerald, hyacinth, and all styles of Breast Pins; gold Sockets and Minia; and all styles of Bracelet Clasps; Gilt and gold Pencil Cases; Gold Pens; Hearts and Crescent gold Pencil Cases; Gold Keys; gold and silver Thimbles; silver Spoons and Butter Knives; gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Bouquet Holders, tablets, hair pins, scissors, knives, tet-de-tis, purses, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, pursanel bag clasps, ivory and bone, paper and knives, shaded Gilt Backgammon boards, letter folders, sarcophagus Gilt Bone; Hearts and Crescent gold Pencil Cases; Gold Pens; Hearts and Crescent gold Pencil Cases; Gold Keys; gold and silver Thimbles; silver Spoons and Butter Knives; gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Bouquet Holders, tablets, hair pins, scissors, knives, tet-de-tis, purses, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, pursanel bag clasps, ivory and bone, paper and knives, shaded Gilt Backgammon boards, letter folders, sarcophagus, fine backgammon boards, letter folders, secretaire case, pearl studs, twin buttons, watch stands, burgies, emery, sealing wax, pen holders, telescopes, razors and razor strops, fine work boxes, china segar cases and segar mantel vases, perfumery of all kinds, tobacco and snuff boxes; teeth, hair, hat, nail, clothes and comb Brushes; silk guard chains; pocket books, a large assortment of dressing combs, back combs, pocket combs, shell combs, pocket knife cases, Persian scent bags, snuffing bottles, daguerreotype cases, metal and brass let cases; steel, silk and gilt fob chains; shaving brushes, shaving boxes, &c.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

Piano Fortes from the best makers, Violins, Clarionetts, Flutes, Flageolets, Violin Violins, Drums, Metronomes, Violin Bows, Accordeons, tuning forks; Violin, Violincello and Guitar Strings; Trimmings for all Instruments; a large assortment of Songs, duetts, quartettes, trios and glees, comprising all the latest publications; also Instrumental Music, namely, waltzes, quick steps, marches, rondos, duetts for four hands, and sacred songs; Guitar music; Instruction books for Piano Fortes, flutes, violins, accordeon, clarionet, flageolet, &c. &c. all as cheap as can be bought in New York; with a variety of other goods not enumerated in this catalogue, comprising the largest assortment in Newark.

WATCH REPAIRING AND CLEANING.

The subscriber, determined to give full satisfaction to those that employ him, has employed a very superior workman from Switzerland, where he has been engaged for several years in manufacturing all kinds of watches, and is well skilled in repairing and cleaning watches, as testimonials from some of the First watch makers of the city of New York will testify.

Jewelry made to order. Old gold and silver taken in exchange.

dby

Wholesale and Retail

Wine and Liquor Store.

29 Fair Street, Newark, N. J.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has constantly on hand at the old stand established stand, a full and choice supply of Foreign Wines and Liquors, which he offers at the lowest cash prices, and delivered to order to any part of the city or country. Brandy of every grade, Meder's Swan Gin, Irish, Scotch and Monongahela Whiskey, St. Croix and Jamaica Rum, Port, Malaga and Champagne Wines, Losey's Bitters, &c.

Philadelphia Bottled Porter and Pale Ale of the first quality; also, a choice article of Bottled Cider (almost equal to Champagne) always on hand.

☞ A continuance of patronage is solicited.

June 1st, 1852.—3m LOUIS L. BELAND.

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACEURER.

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit a liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome a Hat at their store as they can buy in New York or Philadelphia, and half a dollar each cheaper.

N. B. Moleskin or Silk Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 23, 1851.—1y

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the new tax law, by coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of W. A. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere; thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and prices which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted. We also have on hand a good assortment of all kinds of tailor's trimmings at a low price—also constantly for sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c. in fact every thing comprising a gentlemen's wearing apparel.

Friends will you favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves.

Cutting, trimming, and making done at the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co. Plainfield, Dec. 1.

Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse. Country traders and the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, all of which are made at our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction, and we can with the most perfect confidence rest upon being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as favorably as at any establishment in the country.

352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

May 24, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,

I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Goods on our counters all the year,

To suit the child, to please the eye.

We said the cash to buy them cheap,

We'll sell them right to sell a heap.

Dunhams and Dunhams, Come and Cards,

The present styles New York affords;

Delaines and Gaiters, Calicoes too,

Colors of which we'll warrant true.

Cloths and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,

And all the goods which men do use;

Together with a good supply

Of groceries good which will defy

A class of men we know with us,

And twice a year make quite a fuss,

To get to Brunswick with their trade,

Of cheese as honest they are afraid.

We'll sell it cheap and all the rest,

For cheapest sure what suits them best.

With Dunhams prices we'll compete,

And she shall wrestle, in the end,

Is some and see, come short, come tall,

I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Plainfield, May 18, 1852.

A Trial of Patience.

In Godey's Lady's Book for June, there is a story of much interest. It relates to a young man of excellent character and bright promise, frugal and industrious, and the only support of a widowed mother, who in a thoughtless moment, while at a convivial party, consents to be married to a girl whom he had never before seen. He took it all to be in jest, but the person who married them had authority by law to unite them, and the brother of the bride insisting that he, at least, thought it a "real wedding," the husband, against his will, was forced to acknowledge the ceremony as binding. The bride was silent and vain, and, of course, selfish; the worst faults of her nature having been encouraged by the alternate flattery and threats of her brother, and sister-in-law, a weak, not to say wicked woman. She missed the excitement of dances and balls, to which she had been always accustomed. Her husband had no heart to go, and, indeed, shrank from appearing anywhere with her. Her chief amusement and employment seemed to be a review of her large stock of finery, visiting her old friends, girls as giddy, and as frivolous as herself, or sitting, attired in a thin showy silk, her hair adorned with flowers, or wax beads, at the front window, to watch the few passers by.

It was a sad change in a once happy household. The husband (James Norton) seemed utterly broken in spirit. He never sang or whistled cheerfully, as had been his wont when he came home from his work; their meals were eaten in silence when Ellen (his wife) was present, or with desponding complaints, when she was paying some gay visit. He avoided her in every way, never addressing her when he could escape it, or sitting down to talk or to read to his mother, if she was going to pass the evening at home. Sometimes he seemed like himself, when he found a cheerful fire and his mother waiting for him; but oftener he came home with a cloud of brain and disturbed temper, the shade of tokens that his troubles were driving him into bad company. And yet this fault had been one that is frequently committed. We hear of such things often, even in more polished circles than we are describing. A party, a picnic, a wedding, and some thoughtless young creature has married a man she has never met before, and of whose temper and principles she knows nothing. It is the old adage of marrying in haste, to repent at leisure and unhappy differences are sure to follow.

Years passed when finally a change came over the spirit of the young wife. She and her husband, it was true, were no better friends. She returned his indifference with absolute dislike, it seemed, and they avoided each other as much as before; but when he was away she was sociable, and willing to do anything she could for his mother, who constantly repeated the injunction not to tell him.

The whole house betokened a change. The books and newspapers of which James was fond were always neatly piled up on the bureau or in the window seat; the brushes and towels had their appointed places; "chips of cloth" no longer littered the striped carpet, or chips of wood the hearth. The work of a household fairy was plainly visible to any but wilfully blinded eyes; but, though James enjoyed it, and even brought home a new table cover, and a box of mignonette for the now open window, he never seemed to connect Ellen with the improvement. She did not cross his path or give him cross looks or rude replies, and therefore he felt more at ease. Something of his old cheerfulness came back with the sunshine, but it was fitful and easily driven away.

He came home one evening earlier than usual; he had lingered about the house more for several days; and, as if he had something important to disclose, drew his chair up, in the old familiar way, to his mother, whose heart beat a little quicker. She was sure it was something about Ellen, for he had seemed to watch her lately; she had noticed it several times. But she was not prepared for his proposal, which was that they should find a home for her somewhere among her own friends.

"She is not happy here, mother, and no wonder and I think perhaps I ought to do something for her. The poor girl was no more to blame than I was; and, since it is as it is, I ought to make her as comfortable as I can. I think she seems different lately; and, at any rate, she hasn't gone gadding off with others, disgracing me as many would have done. Its true, she's set my foot down against it from the first; but there's many wouldn't have minded that. Then you wouldn't have so much to do; and, on the whole, since we can't love each other, perhaps it's best we should separate."

"But why can't you love each other, Jimmy?" Her son looked up, struck more by the tone than by the words. He saw that his mother had a more than usually anxious look.

"If I loved her ever so well, she hates me; she never would love me."

"Did you ever ask her if she did?"

"Oh, mother! and we worse than strangers! I could have loved a wife dearly, that you know. Any one who would have cared for me and tried to help you, and make you happy, I could love almost any one that would do that."

It is no wonder that Ellen's secret was not kept now, and that the mother's kind heart set forth her improvement in the most glowing light. How she had put up the window curtains, and piled up the books, and swept and dusted, and taken care of the mignonette, because he loved things tidy; and more than all, she had been earning her two dollars a week rather than be dependent on him.

"Oh, James, go to the poor girl, and tell her that you will try to love her, at any rate!"

It was no great trial; the choked up tenderness of years had gone out to Ellen during that simple recital. He saw all that his mother said must be true, and blamed himself for not discovering it sooner. He seemed now so deeply in fault, as if he had so much to make up to her.

"Go and tell her so," his mother urged again.

"But to-night?" said he doubtingly.

"Yes, to-night; for it will be harder to-morrow, I know, and I am sure she loves you."

Ellen had not yet retired; she was leaning her head on her arm in an attitude of sadness, and looking very beautiful in the soft moonlight that came streaming into the room. She did not look up as he entered softly, but said in a voice that showed she had been weeping.

"James came home early to night, mother; I have been here listening to his voice. You have been talking a long time."

"Yes, Ellen, of you, my girl," James said, with a voice quivering with emotion; and he stooped down and raised her in his arms. "Do not go away from me; do not be frightened. There, you will not send me away?" and he drew her head down upon his shoulder as they stood there together. "I was coming to tell you that you might leave us; but now I ask you to stay, if you can love me and be my wife."

"Oh, I have loved you so long!" she said sobbing; "and I was content, or tried to be, to live just seeing you every day, and working for you. I know I was wild, and vain, and selfish; but I was not wicked; and everybody loved you and how could I help it?"

"Then you try to help it, Nelly; it is I who have been wrong; but I will try to make it up to you, poor child. We will be married again to-morrow, that we may feel it sacred and real, and I will try to keep all the promises only love me—put your arms about my neck, Nelly—love me always; and God bless you for being so good to my poor mother!"

And they were married—married more truly, realizing all they promised before the minister of God; and, loving each other, their lives henceforth were beautiful, through all trial or hardship that could arise.

LYCIDAS.

From a correspondent of the "Vermont Union Whig," of May 14, 1851, published at Rutland, Vt.

New Jersey—Progress of Free Schools—Revolutionary Traditions, &c.

PLAINFIELD, (N. J.) March, 1851.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I am a Vermonter by birth and predilection. We Vermonters live in the garden of our country, in many senses—we few know it! Complacent in the natural charms and social advantages of our State, it is a reasonable vanity for us to smile quietly, when citizens of sister commonwealths banter us, according to their wont, concerning the ruggedness of our landscape. We enjoy somewhat of that superior content with our inheritance, which may be considered to constitute the unruffled satisfaction of the true Englishmen's breast, as he surveys the outside kingdoms of the earth and the glory of them. "A mountainous country, your'n," has been sounded interrogatively in my ears, and responded to with an equivocal "Aye," on numerous occasions. Yet, methinks, on the banks of our own Otter, I could choose a site for that American paradise, if smaller, not less fair than that Coleridge and Southey dreamed of along the wizard Susquehanna.

Now about the space of twelve moons I have sojourned in New Jersey, for the most part in Plainfield, on the line of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, about twenty-five miles west from New York. This village is in many respects a model one. Though it covers a greater area than Brandon is it not nearly so full of din. Its business, by no means inconsiderable, is transacted without bustle, in an unobtrusive way. Lying on a subdued and beautiful level, the streets are smooth as a lawn, and semi-sylvan with ornamental trees, many being cherry trees, of an excellent variety which our more strict climate does not foster. In a population of two thousand, one thousand are believed to be communicants of some christian denomination. A marginal reading of this remarkable fact is the statement that not less than eight churches adorn the streets, and point the path to Heaven.

But the pride of the place is its Free School. The Institution, of only two or three years' standing, is almost a pioneer of its class in the State. For New Jersey is a state singularly backward in Educational enterprise, generally, as compared with her Northern sisters. The "system" is a mockery, and a sort of partial superintendence of the business of instruction, by certain Trustees in each district, who install the teacher in a very ill-conditioned and primitive "school house," and leave him to scrape together such a school as he can by his personal exertions, getting his remuneration out of the pupils, at two dollars a head. But in Plainfield, under the lead of such men as Mr. Marsh, Dr. Stillman, Joel Dunn, Esq., and others, a special Act of Incorporation has been sought and obtained by the citizens of the Village District, enabling them to assess a tax upon the inhabitants of the township for the erection of a School-house and the support of Public Schools. Before the restless energy of Dr. Stillman and his coadjutors, things were pushed so vigorously that a commodious edifice was soon reared. Singular liberality and good taste characterize the structure and all its surroundings. The site, comprising a acre of land, affords ample room for play grounds, adorned with numerous trees. The building is three stories high, well-warmed, well ventilated, light and cheerful. Each floor has a distinct Department; that of the basement a Primary Department, composed of both sexes. This is conducted by a competent female Principal and Assistant. The second floor is occupied by a Department composed of the more proficient young ladies, which is likewise conducted by a female Principal and Assistant. The third floor is appropriated to the higher Boys' department, and managed by a tried male Principal and Assistant. Dr. Stillman was already known far and wide as an accomplished scholar and physician, but his indefatigable zeal in this behalf was a problem. From the organization of the office he was appointed Superintendent, through the end, and through good report, he has been the pillar of the noble scheme. Not satisfied with having secured the expenditure of $3000 upon the building, his efforts are unceasing still, though it has been endowed with a respectable library, and an Apparatus, valued at more than $200. This includes a fine telescope. Now at length he has been gratified with a School numbering 400 scholars, under the tuition, as before said, of six teachers.

Every foot of the soil teems with Revolutionary story. With honest pride, you are shown a house, here and there, what with the weight of honor and of years hardly crumbling space, while I once sheltered the head of Washington for a day, or a night. On a range of hills a-far the West, distant a mile or two, is a bold outstanding rock, some twenty feet in height, famed as "Washington's Rock." It commands a magnificent view, of many a league around.—From this rock Washington used to survey the movements of the British at Amboy and New Brunswick, in the disguise of a gentleman of leisure,—whereby hangs a tale. The tradition runs, that during the winter when the Revolutionary forces were in quarters at Morristown, and the British at New Brunswick; a winter of extreme peril to the country, it was the custom of Washington, in the dress of a private gentleman, and with a spy glass in hand, to repair to this rock or good prospect. He was hospitably entertained by a nigh farmer, who was of Tory proclivities. On one occasion the farmer's curiosity prompted him to insist on accompanying his guest. This was a strait. Washington, for a tedious time, swept painfully from Amboy to New Brunswick with his tube. Far down the lovely valley were met in thick fight his brave troops and their foe. At length he surrendered the instrument to his companion, in a lofty, yet glad air of benign complacency, saying: "Those victorious troops are Americans, sir! I am Gen. Washington." But the true version of the passage I believe is that Washington was wont to stand here, openly and in full uniform, and keep the enemy's motions under surveillance. Dr. Stillman, who is my authority, was informed by an eye-witness of the scenes, now dropped into his grave.

LYCIDAS.

A Nice Place to Live.

Up in the Northern Country, between New York and the Canada line there are gentlemen living upon estates owned by them. A friend of one of the gentlemen, wrote to him from New York city making inquiries with a view to "emigration." If the information received was agreeable. The Burlington (Vt.) Free Press publishes the reply, which represents the undiscovered country, as a second Beulah. The reply is as follows:

My dear friend—

Yours of the 24th is received, and I hasten to give you the information desired for the benefit of your friend as follows:

The soil when you can get at it, is composed principally of conglomerate, viz—a mixture of muck, moss, decayed fern, leaves, paving stones and snow.

The face of the country, when not covered with snow, is covered with a growth of hemlock, tamarack, spruce, and cedar timber, except those portions which the enterprise of former years has attempted to clear, these are covered with stumps rocks, fallen trees, alder bushes and brambles.

The fruits are various, comprising most of the species found in high latitudes, such as chokeberries, moose-berry, whortle berry, and black raspberry, the latter in great abundance and perfection.

Among the game, is to be found the domestic fowl, the swallow, crow and blue jay, and in midsummer, the night hawk and screech owl.

The animals hunted for their fur are the cat, the chip squirrel, stray dogs—those cheifly estemed for their flesh, are the musk rat, skunk and woodchuck.

The fishes embrace a great variety—from the tad-pole to the bull pout, the sucker is salted down for Winter use.

The principal articles of consumption are pork, white beans, apple sass and rye whiskey.

The principal articles of import, are dried apples, butter-cousin tea, tobacco, cotton cloth, molasses, bogus cigars, and spoilt oysters.

The articles of export are few, being only such things as they don't want themselves—the principal are, convicts to Auburn and Sing Sing prisons, and emigrants to California.

The chief productions are white headed children, which in time grow to be lumbermen, peddars, deacons, aquires, politicians and rogues.

Their means of getting a living are ingenious and varied—the most estimable, however is "dickering," at which they are very expert, swapping horses, trading cattle and getting boot.

The chief amusements in Winter, are keeping up a fire, watching the weather, going to funerals whittling, and breaking steers—in Summer these are varied by getting out manure, boeing corn, acting as scare crows, and gitting "down sick," eating green apples.

The range of domestic duties is confined altogether to chance, and the "women folk."

The principal business is an impertinent interference in other people's affairs, to the entire neglect of their own; exaggerating evil reports, throwing obstacles in the way of public improvements, talking politics and doing chores. The young leave the parental roof at a tender age, and commence on their own book, peddling pop corn, gingerbread and molasses candy.

The climate is a cross between Lapland and Siberia, not quite so cold as one and a good deal colder than the other, but healthy. The principal diseases are lame stomach, delirium tremens and "folks is sick."

The articles of luxury most esteemed, are salt codfish, dried pumpkins and woolen gowns.

The articles of furniture, are a cooking stove, mop pail and wash dish.

Their farming implements consist of an axe, a saw, a log chain, generally hooked, and a jack knife. Their education confined to writing their name, guessing off hogs, and making axe-halves.

Their moral and religious ideas are vague and loose. They generally live to a green old age and die as green as they lived.

Their habits are predatory and migratory.

The principal places of resort are the platforms of railroad depots, bar rooms, justices' courts, and public and private offices, where they have no business.

If your friend is a bachelor, it may be interesting to him to know that the females (with a few exceptions) have no front teeth but their eye teeth are cut early, and sharp and well developed. If there are any points not touched upon likely to influence him in the choice of a residence, I hope you will have no hesitation in asking further enlightenment.

'Jenny, what is the mean temperature of the summer weather in Ireland?' said a Yankee to an Irish girl, recently. 'Mane, sir? There's nothing mane about Ireland, but luck to you, ye spalpeen you!'

Anecdote of Washington.

In the summer of 1776, when the American army was in New York, a young girl of the city went to her lover, one Francis, and communicated to him, as a secret she had overheard, a plan that was in operation among the government men to destroy the American commander-in-cheif, by poison, which was to be peacefully mingled with his green peas, a favorite vegetable of his, on the following day at Richmond Hill head quarters, where he was to dine. Francis, who was a thorough whig, although supposed to be friendly to the royalists, went immediately to Washington and acquainted him with this diabolical plan for his destruction. Washington having listened with attention, said:

"My friend, I thank you; your fidelity has saved my life, to what reverse the Almighty knows! But now for your safety; I charge you to return to your house, and let not a word of what you have related to me pass your lips; it would involve you in certain ruin; and heaven forbid that your life should be forfeited or endangered by your faith to me. I will take necessary steps to prevent, and, at the same time discover the instrument of this villainous device."

"The next day, about two hours before dinner, he sent for one of his guard, told him of the plot, and requested that he would disguise himself as a female, and go to the kitchen, there to keep a strict watch upon the peas, until they should be served up for the table. The young man, carefully observed the directions he had received, and had not been long upon his post of duty, before a young man, another of the guard, came anxiously to the door of the kitchen, looked in, and then passed away. In a few moments after he returned and approached the hearth where the peas stood, and was about to mingle in the deadly substance, when, suddenly, he shrunk back as though from the sting of the fork-tongued adder, his color changing to the pale hue of death, and his limbs apparently palsied with fear, evidently horror struck with his own purpose; but soon, however, the operation of a more powerful incitement urged forward his reluctant hand that tremblingly strowed the odious bane, and he left the kitchen, overwhelmed with conflicting passions, remorse and confusion.

"Harold sleeps no more, the cry has reached his heart and the deed be accomplished," said the youth on duty, in a voice not devoid of pity, as he looked after the self condemned wretch.

"What, Harold!" said the commander-in-chief, sorrowfully, upon receiving the information; 'can it be possible—so young, so fair, and gentle! He would have been the last person upon whom a suspicion of that nature could have fallen, by right of countenance. You have done well, Francis, to the youth before him. 'Go join your comrades and be secret."

"The young man went accordingly, and Washington returned to the piazza, where several officers were assembled, among them was the hero of Saratoga, who was waiting for further instructions from Congress before he departed for Canada. In a few moments dinner was announced, and the party was ushered into a handsome apartment, where the sumptuous board was spread, covered with all the luxuries of the season.

"The commander-in-cheif took his accustomed seat, impressively:

"Gentlemen, I must request you to suspend your meal for a few moments. Let the guard attend me."

"All was silence and amazement. The guard entered and formed in a line towards the upper end of the apartment.

Washington, having put upon his plate a spoonful of peas, fixed his eyes sternly upon the guilty man, and said;

"Shall I eat of this vegetable?".

The youth turned pale and became dreadfully agitated, while his trembling lips faintly uttered,

"I don't know."

"Shall I eat of these?" again demanded Washington, raising some upon his knife.

"Here Harold elevated his hand, as if by an involuntary impulse, to prevent their being tasted. A chicken was then brought, that a conclusive experiment might be made in the presence of all those witness. The animal ate of the peas and immediately died, and the wretched criminal, overcome with terror and remorse, fell fainting, and was borne from the apartment.

Out-Door Exercise.—One of the old-fashioned sons of Esculapius, on being asked by a patient what were the best means for preserving health, replied, "out door exercise." "And what," added the patient, "is the best way to avoid taking cold?" The doctor again answered, "out-door exercise." "And pray, doctor, do tell me how I shall get an appetite?" "Why, by out-door exercise." Nothing so true, because it is the voice of nature. Franklin, who well understood the rules of health, observed, "dress moderately, and take plenty of exercise, and you won't blame by climate of Philadelphia for sins of your own making."

The New Haven Courier says the announcement that Petin, the Frenchman, would go up in a balloon from Bridgeport, drew many thousand people to that place on Monday. Monsieur crawled into the car with three or four others, and the balloon started, but unluckily it came in contact with the telegraph wires, which made a rent in the silk. However it bobbed off in a slanting upward direction until the rent body of the instrument hit the projecting roof of a barn, when the whole affair including the (expectations of the multitude) collapsed ingloriously, pouring the aeronauts out and barking their shins.

As was predicted last year, the seventeen year locusts have made their appearance in Connecticut. In 1818 and 1835, their presence on a lot of land about 50 rods square, drew them to it from the North Glastenbury post-office, it is recollected. The woods on that spot are now alive with their music.

"You," said a man to his friend a day or two since, "I think it highly dangerous to keep the bills of small banks on hand now-a-days." "No," replied the other, "I find it far more difficult than dangerous."

THE BABIE.

Mae shoon to hide her tiny tae,
Mae stockin on her feet;
Her supple ankles white as snaw,
As early blossoms sweet.

Her simple dress of sprinkled pink,
Her double, dimpled chin;
Her puckered lips an' balmy mou,
With na' one tooth within.

Her een nae like her mither's een,
Tae gentle, liquid things;
Her face—'tis like an angel's face;—
We're glad she has nae wings.

She is the budding of our love,
A gittie God gied us;
We maun na love the gift ow'r weel—
'Twad be nae blessing thus.

T. COBEN.

From the Plains.—A correspondent of the St. Louis Republican dating from Fort Kearney, May 24th, says:—"We see people travelling in all sorts of ways. Ox teams are most numerous, and travel up as fast as horses and mules, the rainy, cold weather favoring the cattle. The country we have crossed is principally pairie. We can see the road for miles ahead, showing one continuous line of covered wagons, while every ravine was filled with tents, and every bluff covered with flocks of sheep, or droves of cattle. The bulk of the emigration is behind us. Thousands are passing along the north side of the Platte. It is believed the emigration will be equal to that of 1849. If one wishes to know how States are to be made on this Pacific coast, let him travel this overland route and he will see for himself.

American Steamer for the Danube.—It is a significant fact, that engines are building in this city, at the Morgan Iron Works, for a steamer to navigate the waters of central Europe. American genius has not only been heard of at that remote point, but is appreciated. The highest speed attained by steamers navigating those waters does not exceed fourteen or fifteen miles an hour. A company engaged in steam navigation on the Danube, have ordered this engine, which has a 44 inch cylinder and 11 feet stroke. The vessel for which it is intended is to be constructed after the most approved American model. The engine will be equal to the best, and be thoroughly tested before being sent from the works.

There is building at the same works a beam engine for the Messrs. Howard, to be put in the steamship building by Wm. H. Brown, which is larger than any ever built in this country of that variety.—Jour. of Com.

Gen. Scott in the West.

Extract from a letter to the editor of the N. Y. Times, dated Cleveland, Ohio, June 30, 1852:

Everybody here knows George Witherell. He has for years been a sturdy Democrat—one of your hearty, intelligent, talkative, shrewd workers, and wielding more influence at the polls, perhaps, than almost any other in the city. During the sitting of the National Convention he was in a perfect fever, and kept telegraphing on to Baltimore, desiring the nomination of Scott. Since the news came, he is the happiest man alive, and counts up fourteen in his own block, formerly Democrats, now ardent supporters of the people's candidate.

Meeting an old Democratic friend, on the day of the nomination, he was accosted with—"Well, George, how does Democracy flourish?"

"I'll tell you what it is, my old friend," says George, "I'm afraid we'll have to part this time, for I go in for old Chippewa."

"The d—l you do; give us your fist on that, old fellow—so do I," said his companion; and the way they shook hands was a caution.

Such is the feeling among the honest, hard-working yeomanry of the country here, and so you will find it all over this broad Union. The nomination of Scott has touched the heart of the people, and his triumphant election will be a labor of love to them. You may expect to see marvelous changes on the Reserve. The Whigs who, in a moment of excitement, went off upon the "Buffalo" hunt, are flocking back to their old friends, and will give an efficient support to Gen. Scott. At the ratification meeting here, John A. Foot, Esq., presided, and made an eloquent speech, repudiating Free Soilism, and endorsing the nomination; so likewise did W. H. Noble, both of them heretofore prominent Free Soilers. I may also mention Hon. D. R. Tilden, an effective stump speaker, who has heretofore sympathised with Free Soilism. He will take the field for the Whig candidate and canvass the Reserve on the stump. I might enumerate dozens similar instances. But enough. The prairies are on fire, and the battle of November next will not be less decisive and glorious than that of Chepultepec.

New Jersey.—We cannot doubt this State. Her elections, since 1848, have been all one way and that the right way. From one end of the State to the other, Scott is daily repudiated by Whigs, who are taking a decided stand for Pierce while a dissenting Democrat cannot be found. In one Ward in Newark, 182 Whigs have already enrolled themselves as members of a Pierce and King association. N. Y. Eve. Post.

We assure our respectable cotemporary that this is all the sheerest humbug imaginable. Instead of their being 182 Whigs who have enrolled themselves as members of a Pierce and King association in a single Ward of this city; we would state, that there is not even a single Pierce and King club or association in it. We do not know of 3 Whigs who will vote for Pierce and King, while we are daily informed of respectable foreign voters, former members of the opposite party, who avow their determination to give their influence to the election of Winfield Scott.—Newark Mercury.

The Michigan papers state that Maj. Williams for many years Mayor of Detroit, and Maj. Keasley, for some time one of the regents of the Michigan University—both influential Democrats and warm personal friends of Gen. Cass—have come out for Scott for President.

Galvanized Fish.—During M. Mailefort's submarine operations in Hurlgate channel, a few days since, the shock of one of the explosions paralysed a sturgeon weighing 250 pounds and a bass weighing 22 pounds, who were captured before they had time to recover.

Fat men swim more easily than spare men, because fat is lighter than water; the fatter a man, the more buoyant he is.

A Case.—The Hannibal Gazette says that Shepherd Mace, an old resident, lately embarked for California with his wife, 22 children and grandchildren, and ten young friends. They will settle on a farm of 1200 acres about 25 miles from San Francisco, in the San Jose Valley.

There is a lad of only 12 years, W. H. Waddell, living at Pocahontas, Ark., who, in the spring of 1850, was stabbed, the wound thought to be mortal; the same fall was knocked senseless and cold, by lightning; in the fall of 1851, was run over by four mules and a wagon; last winter fell from the third story window, lighting upon a pile of stones; about six weeks since was shot, three balls entering his body. The hero of all these ugly scrapes is still alive and healthy, being rescued doubtless, for some other kind of shuffling off this mortal coil.

Mr. Grinnell's yacht Tenant, of New York, has beaten three boats of the Model Yacht Club at Liverpool, coming sixteen minutes ahead of the best.

Yankee Cunning.—It is said that the new Liquor Law of Massachusetts provides that the Marshal of the city of Boston, and his deputies, shall serve the precepts of the courts when issued against violaters of the law. As soon as the Legislature adjourned, the City Councils took legal advice and abolished the office of Marshal! so that there are now no officers in that city competent to serve a process for an infraction of that law.

Hilling Corn.—In cultivating Indian corn, I am confident that "hilling" is a disadvantage to the crop. Of this I became fully convinced several years ago on contrasting the results with those of the opposing system, in a field belonging to a friend. Since then I have instituted a variety of experiments, and have found that the least surface is most eligible, and that in all modifications of soil and temperature, upon which I not "hilled up" is the most vigorous, less injuriously affected by drought, and produces more and sounder corn.—Germantown Telegraph.

Scythes.—The complaint is often made by workmen of their scythes not acting well, of the edge not cutting uniformly, and the form being wrong, &c.; now the form best suited to each mower may be tested by a very simple experiment. Let a man, with a piece of chalk in his hand, walk up to the high wall, or a barn-door, and raising it as high as he can, strike a curve from right to left; the line so traced is the exact form that his scythe should be; and if he applies the edge of it, as it finds it to correspond, it will cut uniformly from point to heel, and save himself much trouble and labor.

Political Jokes.—It is very common for democratic journalists to charge their opponents with being bribed by moneyed institutions. A whig editor in Connecticut, in denying the charge that he has been bought by a bank, retorts upon his antagonist that there is no fear he can be bought by the bank in question, as it issues no bank notes under five dollars.

New Feature in Trade.—We learn that large quantities of eggs are purchased at different points in Ohio for exportation to New York. The yolks are separated from the whites, which latter alone are shipped, the yolks being sold in the localities where the purchases are made. The whites are sold to metropolitan bookbinders for gilding purposes.

Raspberries.—This excellent fruit is now in its glory, and we never saw it finer. We are credibly informed that one gentleman is likely to realize $3000 this year, from the produce of 5 acres. Some of the cultivated varieties, particularly the Antwerp, are splendid.—Jour. of Com.

Boot and Shoe Profits.—We understand that the advance in price on boots and shoes for the past two months has been about twenty per cent., and consequently the profits to some of the wholesale dealers in Pearl street, who were fortunate enough to have large stocks on hand has been very great. One house estimates that their stock on hand and contracted for has increased in value, within the period mentioned, $80,000. Another house estimates its profits on the advance at $40,000.—Tribune.

Indiana is engaged in revising the Statutes of that State, with a view so to simplify and improve them, that every man may be his own Lawyer. A specimen is given in the newspapers of the proposed reform, in the forms of a Deed and Mortgage. The first occupies some five or six lines, and the other a little more space, John Doe and his wife "convey and warrant" to Richard Roe a House, or tract of land, for a thousand dollars. Or they "mortgage and warrant" these premises to "secure the repayment" of a thousand dollars. We "go in strong" for this process.

A gang of horse theives seem to have commenced their operations on Long Island on a large scale. Horses are stolen every day.

Uncle Sam owns about as much land as all Europe, and a great deal better soil, people and government.

Jason Heritage, of Burlington county, New Jersey, says an acre and a half of ground, planted with strawberries, will this year yield him, clear, $1000. Five hundred quarts were taken from the vines at one picking, on a little less than a quarter of an acre of land, which, at 50 cents a quart, yield $250.

A paper at Windsor, Canada West, states that the arrival of fugitive slaves at that place average three per day.

"A fancy piece" has been prepared for the Prussian Exhibition by the Renard Works. It is a vase of polished coal, as solid as black marble, holding a large bouquet of flowers made of sheet iron—leaves, petals, and stems, all perfectly graceful and natural, but sable as night. The effect is singular—the complete imitation having not the least resemblance to nature, unless there are such blossoms on the banks of Acheron. It is Flora in mourning.

The cotton crop of Louisana promises a most abundant yeild.

There is a factory in Cincinnati which makes 300 cheeses per diem.

An English judge is said to have won £15,000 by the late races at Derby.

During 1851, no less than 524 children were born on shipboard before reaching New York.

The tolls continue to fall off on the New York canals, as compared with last year. This is attributed to the release of railroads from the payment of toll, and the competition on the Hudson and Erie roads.

An agricultural work, recently published, gives a singular example of the benefits of cleanliness. A pig washed weekly with soap and water, applied with a brush, will be found to thrive and increase in weight compared with a pig not so treated, in the ratio of five to three.

THE UNION

Plainfield, N. J. July 20, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

National Whig Nominations:

For President of the United States:
Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.

For Vice President:
WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North-Carolina.

Kossuth sailed from New York for Liverpool last Wednesday afternoon in the Africa, with the utmost privacy, wishing, we suppose to depart in peace. He has not very well succeeded in the object for which he came, yet we consider him a great and good man.

The Great Fire at Montreal.—Later accounts from Montreal bring down the estimate of the loss by the late fire to about $1,000,000. It was in the suburbs among the dwellings of the poorer classes, rendering houseless some 5000 people, causing much distress. Contributions for their benefit are being taken up in various places in Canada and the United States. The fire originated in a bakery.

Great Fire in Boston.—On Saturday, 10th, Boston was afflicted with the largest fire within the last twenty years, destroying nearly 50 houses, an estimated loss of some $250,000. It was caused by a careless use of fire crackers, and commenced in a hay stack.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Arctic arrived at New York on Sunday afternoon, 11th inst. 11 days from Europe, with 123 passengers, and 4 days later news.

The Asia arrived on Thursday morning, 11 1-2 days, with 3 days later news, and 90 passengers.

The Markets were all active, but without material change.

The news is not important.

Parliament was prorogued by the Queen in person, on the 1st July to Aug. 20.

At Paris, many conspirators engaged with an infernal machine, had been arrested.

The tax on four-wheeled pleasure carriages in Paris is to be $42 per annum.

Quite a number of English are confined in Paris for debt, and they have asked relief from the President.

The receipts from the Australia gold mines, continue as abundant as ever, and more so.

The Africa sailed for Liverpool on Wednesday with 100 passengers and $600,000 in specie.

Congress.

The amendment in aid of the Collins line of steamers passed the House last Tuesday, 89 to 87. It has now passed both Houses, and is safe. It gives $33,000 a trip for 26 trips a year to Liverpool and back, making $858,000 per annum, instead of $385,000 as heretofore received. The right is reserved to terminate the arrangement any time after Dec. 31, 1854, on giving six months' notice.

Congress has been in session almost 8 months, at an expense of somewhere about $4000 a day, and as yet hardly a law of public interest and importance has been passed. This criminal neglect of plain duty, to wrangle about party politics deserves the severest censure.

There was some talk last week about adjourning in August, and the Senate adopted an amendment of the rules requiring the appropriation bills to be sent up ten days before adjournment.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The steamer Illinois arrived at New York last Thursday evening, having left Aspinwall on the 7th. She brings the California mails, 390 passengers and about two millions in gold dust.

Business at San Francisco had improved. The miners were still highly encouraged with their prospects, the yield of gold dust continues abundant, and the shipments as large as ever.

At Sacramento, a disgraceful fight occurred in Court, after the Court adjourned, in which one man was mortally stabbed with a sword cane, and another dangerously wounded by a pistol.

The number of passengers landed at San Francisco during the month of May, was 10,641. The departures for the same time did not exceed 1,500.

Several Indians on the Sacramento road, in a state of intoxication, lately killed a Chinese. One of them was arrested by Americans, handed over to the Chinese, and by them hung. The Chinamen expressed a desire to hang the white man who sold the Indian rum.

Snow from the mountains is selling at Shasta for 55 cents a pound.

The Isthmus. The 4th of July was celebrated at Panama with every demonstration of rejoicing. The American and New Grenadian standards were borne side by side in the front rank of the procession. The American, New Grenadian, French, Swiss and Italian flags were borne by the representatives of the respective nations, in different parts of the procession. The Declaration of Independence was read by F. E. Foster, and an oration delivered by Edmund B. Green, Esq. In the evening a ball was given at the Aspinwall House.

Iron vs. Marble.—For some time cast iron has been gradually, yet rapidly superseding cut stone, as fronts for houses; more durable, equally cheap, and always of value. In New York we notice that the press are examining the statement made that iron pavements can be put down at a cheaper rate than the Ram pavement. We notice now that tombstones, in the highest style of adornment, and of every variety of pattern, are as fine, cheaper, and more durable than marble.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.

The Rev. T. L. Cuyler, of Trenton, is engaged to deliver a Temperance Lecture at New Providence, on Thursday evening, July 29th, when a grand rally of the te-totallers of Essex, is expected.

Gen. G. Washington, the nominee of the Native American party for Vice President, declines to accept the nomination, and expresses himself strongly in favor of Scott and Graham, and will do what he can to elect them.

The Cholera at Princeton, Ky. Cincinnati July, 16th.

We learn from Princeton, Kentucky, that 50 deaths from Cholera have occured at that place the present season. Many families had left and others were leaving.

We have it, says the editor of the Railway Advocate, on the authority of a scientific gentleman and farmer in this neighborhood, who has tested the "Prepared Guano," manufactured and sold by Messrs. Kentish & Co. 40 Peck Slip N. Y., that said Guano possesses the most remarkable fertilizing properties, and is pretty sure to evince its decided superiority above other manures when used contiguously with it. We are at liberty to make known the gentleman's name to any one desirous of knowing it. See advertisement in next column.

The Board of Assessors met at Newark last week, and apportioned the County Tax among the several townships. Taxable property in the County, $26,147,593; of which Newark has $12,358,665, and Plainfield $1,241,203. The number of polls in the county is 17,432; of which Newark has 8,072, and Plainfield 534.—County Tax $30,000, Newark 14,596 24, Elizabeth 3,097 55, Plainfield 1,277, Railway 1,508, Westfield 798, New Providence 369, of the other seven townships, Orange and Belleville only pay a higher tax than Plainfield, though we have the smallest territory of any township in the county.

It is said gold has been discovered in Nova Scotia, but the finders keep the matter as secret as possible, to enjoy a monopoly. There is quite a rush in that neighborhood.

The large species of grass-hopper is reported to be injuring the crops on Long Island. They have destroyed 3000 heads of cabbage on one farm, with a large amount of grass, grain, potatoes &c.

The authorities of Trenton are taking stringent measures to prevent all disturbances by boys. Several have already been arrested. Much of the disorder in our own city originates with half grown boys, who at night throng the corners, attend public places, and are always officious in spreading false alarms of fire and running with the engines. They are acquiring the rudiments of mischief, which in future envelope to their own detriment and the disturbance of the city, unless some method of repressing their propensities is adopted.—Newark Advertiser.

The N. J. R. R. & Transportation Co. have declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent. payable on and after the 2nd of August.

From St. John papers on the 10th, we learn that a great number of American vessels were in that harbor to load with deals for Great Britain.

"I always prefer an honorable Peace even to a successful War," were the noble words of WINFIELD SCOTT in 1842, when denying the unjust charge of opposing a treaty then before the Senate.

At Savannah, Ga., peaches and water-melons have but just made their appearance. We had plenty of them here last August. The South is always behind the times.

The steamship Albatross, has been purchased in New York for $85,000, and is to be run as a packet from New York to Quebec, touching at Pictou and Halifax.

Mr. Archer, an American, is the inventor of an improved process of manufacturing postage stamps, which, after a long delay, has just been adopted by the English government.

Bitter than Politics.—Hon. John M. Clayton is industriously cultivating his farm, three miles from Newcastle, Delaware. Instead of running a race with competitors in the political field, he is endeavoring to distance his overseer in agricultural pursuits. Each has selected the field, and a wager lies between them, which will produce the richest crop from his allotted portion.

Significant.—A late German writer, in speaking of the United States, says it is a country where starvation is purely a matter of choice.

Heedless Fellow.—Daniel Tucker, notwithstanding the many warnings he has had to "get out of the way," was recently killed on a railroad in Arkansas.

Reverse.—A Parisian feuilletonist recently stated that he saw a female selling candy by the stick before the door of a theatre, who, in 1828, drove in her carriage with four horses, and was the idol of Paris.

Gen. Pierce knows no East, no West, no North no South.—Ainsworth Atlas.

Neither does the East, West, North or South, know Gen. Pierce. The concilience is truly remarkable.—Albany Whig.

A correspondent enquires as to our real opinions of the results of the pending election. We are accustomed to express our real opinions in the columns of this paper, but to satisfy him we will avow our firm and decided conviction that the fourth of next March will witness the Inauguration of Gen. Scott as President of the United States.—Newark Mercury.

Drowned in a tub.—An infant child of Dennis Moran, of Hartford, fell, the other night, from its bed into a tub of water which had been left near it, and was drowned.

A Challenge to Kentucky.—It will be seen, by our letter from St. Johnsbury, that Vermont sends a challenge to old Kentucky, as she did in 1840, to beat her, if she can, in the piling up of a majority in November, for the hero of a hundred battles. We feel authorized, in the name of Kentucky, to accept the challange. And now, look to your laurels, old Vermont.—Louisville Journal.

The New Orleans Picayune relates an anecdote of a man in that city, who being seized with dangerous symptoms, was advised to take an ounce of brandy a day, but not having scales in which to weigh it, he lustily consulted that eight drams make an ounce, accordingly took eight stiff forms, and told the doctor that he felt much better.

ANTI-TEMPERANCE REMEDY.—We presume the most rabid teetotaller would not object to the application of the vinous poison in the manner following, as described by a Paris journal:

"Mr. H., who dwells in the country, on awaking in the night heard some one attempting to force the blind of his parlor window. Mr. H. was alone and unarmed, but his presence of mind did not forsake him. He took a bottle of champagne, cut the wire, retaining the cork with his thumb, and calmly awaited till the burglar, having forced the blind, introduced his head into the room, when Mr. H. let the cork fly in his face. The report was loud, and the burglar alarmed by it, and, supposing the champagne which covered his face was his own blood, fell to the ground, crying for mercy. Mr. H., after assuring himself that the burglar was alone, sprang from the window, bound him, carried him to the village, and delivered him to a constable."

New York Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Wheat Flour,	$3,94 to 4,19
Rye Flour	3,12 to 3,19
Indian Meal, Jersey,	3,06 to 3,12
Grain—Wheat,	1,00 to 1,00
Rye,	79 to 81
Corn,	60 to 62
Oats, Jersey,	40 to 42

Hoofland's German Bitters.—We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 120 Arch street, Philadelphia. In cases of Liver complaint, Dyspepsia, Disease of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered stomach, their powers is not excelled, if equalled, by any other known preparation, as the cures attest, in many cases, after the most celebrated physicians had failed. We can conscientiously recommend this medicine, as being what it is represented, and urge our readers who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and they will be convinced of the truth we assert.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Camphor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

TWO PICTURES.

PICTURE FIRST.

Exhausted, on her couch a sick girl lay,
Pale as a white rose withering. Fitfully
Her fragile form shook with the frequent cough,
Like a frail leaf, which the November blast
Is loosening from the bough.

PICTURE SECOND.

Full of life.
Joy in her eyes, and on her cheek the tint
Of roses when they open, that young girl:
Moves with elastic step among her friends,
Who late had thought her dying. Swift relief
In DOCTOR ROGERS' PEERLESS REMEDY
The Maiden found. What could be? Question her,
And eagerly the rescued will reply,
TAR, LIVERWORT AND CANCHALAGUA.

CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on the buff wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. L. SCOVILL & CO.

For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Jothie Hall, 316 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.

Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING

PRICE—In large bottles, $1.00, or 6 bottles for $5.00.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

Wm. S. Wood, $2,72; Ths. Worth, 2,00; Isaac Brokaw, 1,12; J. W. Laing, 1,10; L. S. Dunn, Esq. 1,00; Rev. D. T. Hill, ,50; Stel'e Randolph, Green Brook, 2,88.

DISSOLUTION.

THE Copartnership heretofore existing between the subscribers under the name of BERRY & RUNYON is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The Books are in the hands of A. Berry for collection who is authorized to settle the business of the firm.

ALFRED BERRY,
ABRAHAM RUNYON.

Plainfield, July 17, 1852.

The Stove, Tinning and Hardware Business will be continued, on the cash system, by A. BERRY.

Lyon's Kathairon,

For the Growth and Embellishment of the Hair, to Prevent its falling off and Turning Gray.

Awarded the Highest Premiums by the States of New York, Maryland and Michigan at their annual Fairs of 1851.

THE Kathairon neutralises the effect of disease, climate and old age, in Preserving and Restoring the Human Hair, even after a Baldness of twenty years; also cures the worst Scurf and Dandruff will cure the Nervous Headache, Scald Head, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Skin, &c. and it is the most desirable

TOILET ARTICLE

For Ladies' or Gent'emen's use in the world. Its perfume equals Lubin's choicest Extracts, and being free from all offensive rancid oil or colouring matter, it gives the hair that clean, bright, soft, lively appearance, secured by no other preparation.

The use of the Kathairon is adopted by the first physicians in Europe and America, and has a patronage not sale unprecedented in the history of the materia medica. But words are superfluous, a trial only can attest its real virtues as millions certify. To be had throughout North and South America, Europe and the Islands of the Ocean, in large Bottles, for 25 cents.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

July 13, 1852.—6m*

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

Prepared or Artificial GUANO.

At 1 cent per pound, or $20 per ton of 2000 lbs.

At a meeting of the Farmer's Club, American Institute, New York, on the 16th December, 1851, the following communication was made:

I present a specimen of Turnips raised upon my place last season, which was (on account of the dry weather) an unfavorable one for Turnips. The specimen was the largest grown, although this weighed when first pulled, 4 3-4 lbs. I used in the Spring of 1850, about three barrels of Prepared Guano, to the acre, and raised fifty bushels of Corn, which was a large crop. I then cropped with potatoes, which was also a good crop. After which I put in the Turnip seed, without any further Manuring, than the three barrels above mentioned, and the result was beyond my expectations.

Fairfield Co. Dec. 12, 1851. S. WHITING.

POTATO ROT.

Westchester Co. N. Y., Sept. 29, 1851.

I have used Kentish & Co's Prepared Guano this season on potatoes. My crop was large and sound. Where I did not use it, the potatoes were rotten and worthless. My neighbors also who have not used it, had a poor crop. The first two were destroyed by the rot, the result from Peruvian and yours, was about equal. In proportion your prepared Guano to be a very excellent article, and esteems it highly. MANUF. OF STARCH.

CONTINUED ON PAGE 4.

KENTISH & CO.

DEPOT, No. 40 PECK SLIP, NEW YORK

For Sale at this Office. July 13—3m

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at J. S. DUNHAM & CO'S

The Vermont Watchman states that the Whig state Convention at Burlington, on Wednesday last, was by far the largest political Convention which has been assembled in Vermont since the great mass meeting of 1840; its deliberations were harmonious. The only question in Vermont is, whether Scott and Graham shall lead by ten thousand or twenty thousand votes.

Mr. Grund, a friend of Mr. Webster, writing to the Philadelphia Ledger, says:

"I can most positively assure you that Mr. Webster has not now, and never had the most distant notion of accepting the Native American nomination for the the Presidency."

Alleged Swindling Operation.—Many citizens of Burlington, N. J., during the last few months have been swindled out of thousands of dollars, by a person who arrived from Europe a short time since, and located himself in that place. He purchased a beautiful residence, furnished it in a style of great elegance, bought a splendid span of horses and a carriage, and "fared sumptuously" every day, at the expense, it is now alleged, of leading citizens of the place, from whom he borrowed large sums of money, giving his notes and renewing them when they became due. Several Philadelphia merchants, it is said also suffered by him. He has been arrested.

Efforts are making in Alabama, to establish a Ship Canal over the Florida peninsula, from the Atlantic to the Gulf of Mexico.

Grafting.—There is, in the neighborhood of Hamburg, an apple tree, which excites the astonishment of the curious. It bears 256 kinds of apples. It will bear three hundred, but the grafts have not yet all taken. The proprietor of the tree, which is perhaps the most singular in the world, has affixed a ticket to each branch, to indicate the kind of fruit. This ingenious mode of grafting would not have suited the Minor-quinn, who were pious even in their agriculture, the English had taught them the use of grafting their trees; but when the island was restored to Spain, they left off saying, "God Almighty knows best how trees ought to grow."

Question for Exercise.—If a hole is twice as wide as it's deep, and twice as deep as it need be, how many potatoes will it hold, provided they are half mercers?

The Battle of the Bees.

A curious circumstance occurred a few days back at Guilleville, Eure-et-Loire. A small farmer had in a field about 250 beehives, containing a vast number of bees. He sent a man with a cart, drawn by five horses, to remove some earth from the wall near which the hives were placed. The carter having occasion to go to the farmhouse, tied the horses to a tree. Almost immediately after, a number of bees, more irritated at the shaking of their hives by the removal of the earth from the wall, or excited by the electricity with which the atmosphere happened to be charged, issued from their hives, as if in obedience to a given signal, and with great fury attacked the horses. In an instant the poor animals were entirely covered with bees from head to foot; even their nostrils were filled with them. When the carter returned he found one of the horses lying dead on the ground, and the others rolling about furiously. His cries attracted several persons; one of them attempted to drive away the bees, but they attacked him, and he had to plunge into a pond, and even to place his head under water for a few seconds, in order to escape from them. The cure of Guilleville also attempted to approach the horses, but was soon put to flight by the enraged insects. At length two fire engines were sent for, and by pumping on the bees a great number were killed or put to flight. The horses, however, were so much injured that they died in an hour. The value of the bees destroyed was 1,500f., and of the horses 2,500f. A few days before bees from the same hives killed 17 geslings.—Galignani's Mes.

A NEW Superior Oak Staff CHURNS for sale by July 19, 1852. LEWIS E. BARKALEW.

A Great Reduction in Prices, at THOMAS H. DAVISON'S Furnishing Store,

The Largest Stock in the City,

226 Barret-St. New Brunswick & 181 Broad St. Newark.

THE will be well worth the notice of all those who want to purchase any kind of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, Crockery, Glass, China, Cutlery, Britannia ware, Looking Glasses, Feathers, Feather Beds, Mattresses, Bedsteads, Oil Cloths, Carpets, Hearth Rugs, Mats, Brushes, Tables, Oil Cloths, Feathers, Feather Beds, Mattresses, &c. In fact all things that are needed to housekeeping, which to enumerate would fill a newspaper. Though one thing I must mention—BOOTS and SHOES, which will be sold at such low prices that every body is astonished, both in town and country now it can truly be done. Those who have no shoes to be, at-tain to business a month, buys for cash and sells for the same thereby he does not impose upon those that pay for those that never meant to pay. This is the true principle of doing business. Give him a call, 226 Barrett street, over Stryker's Eating Saloon.

July 19—3m. THOMAS H. DAVIS.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF

Pure Jamaica Ginger.

"Dear Sir,—I speak from a general knowledge of the virtues of Ginger, in the preparation of your preparation of Jamaica Ginger, having used it three years in my practice. For Dyspepsia, Cholera, Colds, Summer complaints, Fever and Ague, Sick Headache, Nervous Debility, General Weakness, &c, it is unquestionably the best article in the world. Its effect in enabling the system to throw off and resist disease of all kinds is so usual during warm weather, that I consider it invaluable to every family. Indeed, one would prevent a nine tenths of the protracted sickness during the summer season.

Yours truly, E. CUSHING, M. D.,
128 Bond Street, New York."

This article, peculiarly adapted to this climate, and which is so universally used, can be had in Plainfield for July 19, 1852—6m. M. F. CUSHING.

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment, AT Less than New York prices, for sale by July 12, 1852. WM. S. WOOD.

TAKE NOTICE.

THAT the Judges of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, in and for the County of Essex and State of New Jersey, did, at the term of April, A. D. 1852, appoint Friday the 24th day of August next at 10 o'clock A. M. at the Court House in Newark at the August term to hear what can be alleged for or against my application as an Insolvent Debtor, under the Insolvent laws of said State.

JOHN Y. BAINBRIDGE.

Dated Newark, July 19, 1852.

12 South Down Sheep

AND FOUR LAMBS, For Sale by the Subscriber, on his Farm, near Plainfield.

June 21, 1852. EDWARD ROACH.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the new stand on Somerset-st., next to the corner of Front street, and near French's mill, where they are preparing to sell articles in their line cheap as the cheapest and good as the best, including Flour and Feed, also Crockery and Earthen Ware. Produce of all kinds wanted in exchange for groceries. Thankful for past favors, asks a continuance of the same.

Mrs. Vely's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaint.

JOHNSON & LYON.

N. B. All persons indebted to the subscriber are requested to call and settle without delay.

April 3, 1852—1y. CHARLES JOHNSON.

DR. DE LANEY'S CELEBRATED

Operative Instrumens,

The only infallible cure for that dreadful disease known as SPERMATORRHŒA, or Involuntary Nocturnal Emissions,

So harassing and destructive, and productive of so much mischief to the nervous system, incapacitating the man for business, society, and matrimony.

This Instrument is simple, comprehensive, and never-failing, and may be used without the slightest inconvenience, by the knowledge of the most delicate friend. It is to be used externally, producing no pain or injury whatever, nor preventing any one from attending to his business; & while in use not a single emission can take place, instrengthing the organs, in a short time, to such an extent that they ERASE THEIR PRIMITIVE POWER OF REPRODUCTION, the loss of which, caused by early abuse, is the direful source of consumption, and the numerous concomitant complaint viz.: Nervousness, Prostration, Dyspepsia, Pain in the Head and Dimness of Vision, Weakness of the Back and Lower Extremities, Affections of the Eyes, Impotence, Ringing of the Face Premature Decline of Virility, Weakness of Memory and Power for Mental Application, Dejection, Aversion to Society, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Lassitude, Indecision, all these complaints invariably disappear as soon as the source is stopped from which they emanated.

This Instrument has been examined and approved of by the highest authorities in Europe and America, is recommended by the most prominent Physicians of all countries, as the only certian remedy existing for these complaints, and has now completely superseded the use of drugs, pills, lotions, bougies, cauteries, &c., and all the thousand advertised nostrums of the day, as cordials, antidotes, &c., &c. It constitutes at the same time the safest, the most effectual and by far the cheapest treatment ever offered to the afflicted, a fair price being allowed for the Instrument after the desired effect has been attained.

Dr. DE LANEY would remember, that these complaints are but little understood by the profession in general, and that all the medicine in the world never has, and never will, stop those losses, which, if allowed to continue technically, are sure to produce the most distressing consequences.

It has been a matter of surprise to some, that any one of respectability, and of character, should have his mind devoted his attention to diseases which people of every description pretend to cure so easily. If, however, but one thousandth part of the miseries those people bring upon society were known, a very different opinion would be formed. And it is not only the present misery and dejection, preying on the mind as well as the body, that is neglected, but worse are often a result, as in effect posterity, and even to the remotest parts of the country, being very trifling.

The unexampled success this Instrument has obtained since its introduction in America, has induced some unprincipled persons in New York, Philadelphia, Albany, Boston, &c, to get up some ridiculous things called "Instruments," which, however, bear not the slightest resemblance to this in form nor principle, and are invented, long tried, and universally approved Instruments, and welch are as similar to them as night is to light. Any one attempting to sell such articles as these will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law, I being not willing to connect the well and honestly earned reputation of my invention with quacks and their worthless productions. Dr. DE LANEY is the only one and none can be warranted but those ordered from myself.

All applications and remittances must be directed (post paid) to Dr. DE LANEY himself, he having no Agencies established but in London and Paris.

Address, post paid, Dr. De Laney, 51 Lispenard St., New York. Office hours, daily, from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. and from 7 to 9 P. M. Sundays excepted.

Dr. DE LANEY is prepared to execute all orders for surgical apparatus, viz.: Artificial Arms and Legs, which move like natural hands vs.: Apparatus for Luxations; for Fractured Legs; for Curvature of the Spine, and Waist; for False Joints of the Arms and Knee; for Paralytic Legs; for Club Feet; for Lachrymal Fistulas; for Falling of the Rectum; Hypogastric Belts; Shells and Pads; for Scrofulous Tumors; Trusses, &c. Orthopedic Corsets, &c. &c. All work warranted. Letters must be post paid, containing a proportionate remittance, or only reference.

July 19.—3m

Farms For Sale, or Exchange for a place in the vicinity of Plainfield.

A N Improved Farm of 211 acres of best quality Land on Rock Creek, State of Illinois, on which is a House and Barn, in fine situation, and in a good cultivation, being 16 miles west of the present termination of the Aurora Branch Railroad, which road will be extended west and run within 3 miles of said farm. Also, a Farm of 160 acres, near Lisle on Fox River containing a population of over 2000.

Also, an unimproved farm of 123 acres lying 5 miles north of said Rock Creek, which is well adapted for a good farm. The neighborhood is well settled.

Also 160 acres of Land unimproved, situated on Third Lake, near the City of Madison, the capital of Wisconsin, being only 5 miles distant. For further particulars apply to the subscriber, opposite the residence of Rev. Mr. Whittaker. JOHN J. WALLIS.

Plainfield, June 21, 1852.—3w

SHERIFF'S SALE.

In Chancery N. J.

Between Lewis Craig, Complainant, and William W. Davison and Elizabeth Davison, Defendants.

Fi. fa. for sale of Mortgaged Premises

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed, I shall expose for sale at public vendue at Latha's Hotel, Plainfield, on Thursday the 12th day of August next, at 1 o'clock, P. M. All that certain lot of land and premises, situate, lying and being in the township of Plainfield, Essex Co. N. J., and is butted and bounded as follows: Beginning at a stake in the centre of Church street, in Plainfield, and also in the middle of Second street, at Lewis Reid's corner, and running along the middle of Church st. 8. 50 deg. 20 minutes, E. 2 ch. 81 links to a stone and corner of Lewis Reid's land, thence running his line S. 39 deg. E. 1 ch. 75 links to a stone, another of Lewis Reid's corners, in the line of lands belonging to the Society of Friends, thence along their line N. 50 deg. W. 1 ch. 25 links to a stone one of said Friend's corners, and also corner of James Long's other land, thence along his line N. W. 1 ch. 55 links to the middle of Second street, thence along the middle of Second Street N. 41 deg. 30 min. E. 2 ch. 91 links to the place of beginning, containing 26-100ths of an acre of Land. W. PIERSON, Sheriff.

July 5, 1852.—3m

Central Rail Road of N. J.

NOTICE.

The cars will run as follows until further notice, Commencing Monday, July 5th, 1852.

Leave Easton for New York at	6 A. M.	and 3.30, P. M
Clinton, "	7.05	4.35
White House, "	7.20	4.50
Returning, leave New York at	8 A. M.	and 4, P. M.
Leave Somerville at	5.50 & 7.50 a.m.	12.40 & 5.15, p.m.
Plainfield,	6.23 8.25	1.20 5.50
Westfield,	6.40 8.40	1.40 6.10
Elizabethtown,	7.20	2.00 6.50

Returning leave New York at 8 and 10 a. m. 4 & 6 p.m.

By steamboat.—Leave Elizabethport at 7.15 and 9.10 A. M. and 2.15; 3, and 6.40 P. M.

Leave Pier No. 1 North River at 8 and 10, A. M. and 12, 4 and 6, P. M.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!

Just Received, Twenty Tons of

Peruvian Guano,

And For Sale in large or small quantities, at about New York prices, by WM VAIL.

New Market, June 28, 1852.—3m*

German Washing Powder, & Fluid

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

Emery & Co.'s Patent Horse Power, Thrasher and Separator.

THE UNDERSIGNED have been appointed sole agents in the city of New York for the sale of their Improved Horse Power and Thrashers. Those wishing to procure Emery's Improved Horse Power and Machine will observe that their name is cast on every link of chain. None other is Genuine.

ROBERT J. GRIFFING
State Agricultural Warehouse,
No. 25 Cliff Street, New-York.

July 5, 1852.—3m

Spring & Summer Dry Goods

HITCHCOCK & LEADBEATER, No. 347 Broadway, New-York, have in store one of the finest assortments in the city of

FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS,

suitable for every season of the year, and every climate, and would especially invite attention to their large and elegant stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER DRESS GOODS,

which they have just purchased for cash, for nearly half price, and are enabled to offer at

VERY GREAT BARGAINS!

Their stock includes every variety of Silks, Shawls, De Laines, Bareges De Laines, Challies, Printed Muslins, Lawns, Bareges, Silk Tissues, Grenadines, Ginghams, Calicoes, Prints, Cambrics, &c., &c.,

MOURNING GOODS OF EVERY KIND.

A full and complete assortment always on hand, including Bombazines, Crapes, Bombazets, Challies, Lustre Crapes, De Laines, &c., &c., which parties interested will find desirable.

GOODS OF VARIOUS KINDS.

As plain and embroidered Pocket-handkerchiefs, Cravats, Gloves, Collars, Mitts, Trimming Laces, &c., &c.,

A SPLENDID STOCK OF RIBBONS,

bought very low for cash, which the ladies will find desirable and cheap, and which Milliners will find it their interest to examine before completing their purchases.

HOUSEWIFE AND FAMILY GOODS,

as Linens, Napkins, Towels, Towellings, Crash, Shirtings and Sheetings, Muslins, fish embroidered

LACE AND MUSLIN WINDOW DRAPERIES,

in great variety, and of every quality and price

GENTLEMAN'S FURNISHINGS.

A very large and complete assortment—as Silk, Silk, and Thread Gloves; Silk and Summer Cravats; Silk and Linen Pocket-handkerchiefs; Silk, Cotton, and Merino Undershirts and Drawers; Socks, &c., &c., at prices much lower than the same articles can be found at the

GENTLEMAN'S FURFISHING STORES.

Please call and examine, and if not found desirable and reasonable, they will not be pressed to purchase.

Country Merchants will find it to their interest to look through our stock, as they can here select any article they wish, in any quantity they desire, and at prices which they will find it advantageous to purchase at, as most of our goods are purchased at auction, and are the best styles, and sell 30 per cent. below the ordinary Jobbing prices.

Terms invariably Cash—and only One Price.

New York, June 21, 1852.—1y

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in Main street, opposite Webster & Marsh's store, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, &c. Having purchased her goods at the lowest cash prices, she is prepared to sell Ribands, Gimps, Gloves, Silk, Laces, Collars, Muslins, Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and every thing in this line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from Somerville, she is prepared for orders in all the various branches of Dress Making. Caps and Head Dresses will be made to order.

Plainfield, April 5, 1852.—3m.

J. A. WOODLAND,

HOUSE, SIGN AND

DECORATIVE PAINTER,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

☞ The above is prepared to execute all orders in his line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Paper-Hanging Department, with punctuality, neatness and despatch, and at prices considerably less than those usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.

March 23, 1852.

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Earthen and Stone Ware, also Boots and Shoes, &c. My stock has been selected with great care, and on my usual principles, both as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly a adaptation to spring and summer trade, viz

Prints, Ginghams, Cassimeres,
Barege de Laine, Gloves, Summerstuffs,
Lawns, Hosiery, Fustians, &c.

And all styles of goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear. Bleached and unbleached sheeting, sewed muslins, shirtings, sheetings, buttons, thread, cotton bats, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas, Rice, Sugars, Candles, Flour
Coffee, Corn Starch, Soap, Indian Meal
PROVISIONS.—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef,
Pepper, Spices, Cheese, Hams, Pork, &c,

Tapped molasses, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all both old and young, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to call and purchase.

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!!

The subscriber has also on hand a good assortment of Black and Fancy colored silks, which will be sold low.

J. V. ARROWSMITH.

NOTICE.

Miss C. Prosch,

WOULD hereby inform her many friends and the public generally, that she has been extending her stock of rooms, on a much larger and improved plan than any other in this city, and is now ready to furnish Daguerreotypes second to none. Family Groups, from one to four, taken to satisfaction. Likenesses taken of all ages, in a few seconds of time. Portraits of sick and deceased persons taken whenever called upon. Also Daguerreotypes for sale at reasonable rates.

Miss C. PROSCH has no connection with any other establishment, and would respectfully wish her friends to bear in mind that she can always be found at 259 Broad street, where she intends to conduct that patronage so long and liberally bestowed upon her.

June 1.—3m 259 Broad-street, NEWARK.

IRA PRUDEN,

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning-Fluid, &c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual.

June 14, 1852.

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at the office, opposite Cherry Street.

Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE,

SADDLE & HARNESS

MAKER

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods as in time. He also Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and read to execute all orders in all the branches of the above business, as well, as quick and as cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge of yourselves.

May 17, 1852.—tf

Hoover's Black Ink.

THE Best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. It was absolutely necessary to be passed over for collection. As I don't wish to put expense on any one, I give this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON

Plainfield, April 9, 1852.

A GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES AT THE CELEBRATED LARGEST AND CHEAPEST CARPET ESTABLISHMENT

In the United States, No. 99 Bank St. Newark.

HIRAM ANDERSON'S

MOST SPACIOUS SALES ROOMS,

Warehouses and Manufactory.

Sales Room No. 1.

CONTAINS the Largest, Handsomest and Cheap at assortment of English and American Floor Cloths, to be found in the city, from

FIVE SHILLINGS TO SIXPENCE

To One Dollar the superyard, of one to eight yards wide

Sales Room No. 2.

Contains the most beautiful and variegated assortment of English and American superior Ingrain Carpeting, at unparalleled low prices, Five Shillings to Six Shillings and Sixpence per yard—new and elegant figures for Spring Sales.

Sales Room No. 3.

Is fully stocked with an unrivalled assortment of English and American Imperial Three-ply Carpeting, of new and elegant designs, manufactured expressly for the city trade, at a reduction of twenty five per cent from former prices. 6s. 6d., 7s. and 8s. per yard, and upwards.

Sales Room No. 4.

Contains one hundred and fifty pieces of fine Ingrain Carpeting, new full styles, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s, 3s 6d, and Four Shillings per yard.

Sales Room No 5.

Displays a great variety of English Druggets, from one to four yards wide, from three shillings and sixpence per yard and upwards. Also, an immense assortment of Rugs, Mats, &c., at very reduced prices.

Sales Room No. 6.

Is fully stocked with every variety of Stairs and Hall Carpeting, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s 6d, 4s, 5s, and 6s per yard.

In Sale Room No. 7,

Are the Patent Tapestry Ingrain Carpets exhibited at the World's Fair, formerly sold at nine shillings per yard, now selling at

SIX SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE PER YARD.

Sales Room No. 8.

An extensive assortment of Table and Piano Covers, Window Shades and Curtains by the pair, Table Oil Cloths, Brussels and Tapestry Carpeting, Brussels Stair Carpet, Plated and Brass Stair Rods, Parlor Door Mats, &c. &c., all of which are offered at 25 per cent. less than at any other establishment in this city.

HIRAM ANDERSON,

No. 99 Bank Street, Newark, N. Y.

All goods packed and sent free of charge. feb2.

Sheriff's Sale.

N. J. Sup. Court, Essex. Fi. Fa. for sale, &c.

John Potter vs. Samuel D. Pierson.

By virtue of the above stated writ of Fieri Facias to me directed, I shall expose for sale at Public Vendue, at the Court House in the city of Newark, on Friday, the 23d day of July next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. all the estate, right, title, and interest of the defendant of, in and to all those tracts or parcels of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being in the township of Westfield, Essex co. N. J.

The 1st, Beginning at a stake standing in the line of the late estate of the S. W. end of Jonas Williams' lot, and the northernmost corner of Ephraim Williams, from thence with Jonas Williams' line and binding thereon N. 49 deg. W. 11 chains 25 links to a stake in Mose Dunn's line, thence with it and binding thereon S. 40 deg. 45 min. W. 2 ch. 94 links to John Tucker's corner, thence with his line and binding thereon S. 49 deg. E. 11 chains 25 links to another of said Tucker's corners and binding on said Tucker, thence still with said Tucker's line and binding on it N. 40 deg. 45 min. E. 2 ch. 94 links to the place of beginning, containing 6 acres, more or less.

The 2d, Beginning at an old oak stump which is the corner of Sand. Richards, James Polly's land, and running S. 40 1-2 deg. E. 35 links to a stake, thence S. 1 ch. 70 links to a stone, thence S. 82 1-2 deg. W. 2 ch. 47 links to a stone in Brooks Roll's line, thence N. 43 1-2 deg. E. to the place of beginning.

The 3d, Beginning on the main road from Elizabethtown to Plainfield, between Sylvanus Pierson's residence and Eli Manbey's manufacturing establishment. Sim is the lot 60 feet front on said road and 120 feet deep, on which Sylvanus Pierson's late dwelling house and his William Hayes occupied a number of years

The 4th. Beginning at a stone in the S.W. corner and in the old road leading from Westfield to Scotch Plains, and at the entrance of the road leading to Rahway, thence S. 46 deg. E and binding thereon to Theophilus Pierson's corner 6 ch. 66 links to a stake in the side of said road, thence N. 41 deg. E. and binding on said Pierson's line 17 ch. 86 1-2 links to a corner in land of Joseph Quimby, dec'd, thence N. 49 deg. W. 6 ch. 66 links to a stone, thence S. 39 links to a stone by the side of the road that leads from Westfield to Scotch Plains, thence S. 41 deg. W. binding on said road, 17 ch. 86 1-2 links to the place of beginning, containing 10 1-2 acres by estimation, excepting therefrom the lots numbered from 1 to 11, also the following lots 20, 21, 23, 26, 34, 36, 37, 38, 50, 51, and 62, in the plan of said land, as laid out and surveyed, as by reference to a map filed in the clerk's office of the county of Essex will more fully appear.

W. PIERSON,
Newark, June 21, 1852. Sheriff

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of J. S. Runyon & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with silver work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

He is also prepared to repair, and warrant to give satisfaction. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and Wood taken in exchange for Clocks, Plainfield, April 12, 1852.—tf WM. S. WOOD.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, Elizabethtown, takes this opportunity to inform and invite his former friends, and all who are in want of a good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call. His stock consists of the best, desirable and fashionable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city. In consequence of having no rent to pay.

JOHN ENGEL.

April 20, 1852. tf.y.

House and Lots for Sale.

Situated on the corner of Fifth and Centre Streets, the house is nearly new, filled in with brick, five rooms on first floor, six in second, with garret and cellar—fruit trees of different kinds, and a never failing well of water. Said premises is well located for private residence. For particulars inquire of WILLIAM SUTTON.

Plainfield, Feb. 24th, 1852.

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John R. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite French's mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice, also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done. All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES FACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 25 cents a piece, finding the walls and paste included.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to $4 per piece. A Room papered in 2 hours.

J. F. & S. are Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers and Importers

Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852.

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant.

Jayne's Pills also,

Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops. These drops are an agreeable, effectual remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholic, Cramps, pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Atwood's Spinal Elixir for the spine diseases. Also, Hunt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by

JAMES M. DUNN.

April 20, 1852.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by May 4, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

THE Subscriber returns thanks to his numerous patrons for their liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many customers, has removed his stock of Paints, and taken into partnership his son, Washington Marsh. The business will be continued at the old stand, opposite the Post Office, Somerset st., where they will be kept constantly on hand Patent White Zinc, Varnishes, Brushes, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., &c., as cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to Painting, Graining and Ornamenting, Papering, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES.

Mixed Paint constantly on hand. Advice gratis.

Jan. 5, 1852. F. MARSH & SON.

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the Subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots situated on N. J. Railroad, from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on 2d, 3d, 4th, Main, Liberty and William sts; also a good sized lot with a Dwelling House thereon expressly for the accommodation of two families, and in a situation for business, very nigh the centre of the business part of the village. Terms easy. Title perfect. Deeds executed at the shortest notice.

Jan. 19 1852.—tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

HORACE SEATON,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN LACE GOODS,

554 Broad Street, Newark.

☞ Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Hats, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Embroideric Muslin, Gloves, Hosiery, Millinery articles, Combs, Brushes, Oils, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Gents', Ladies and Children's fancy Hosiery and Gaiters. 223 1y.

1852.

SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

WE would say to our friends and customers generally, that in addition to our present stock, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not praise up our Goods with a view of trying to sell them, as the people believe them to be what they are not, but intend that their style and quality shall speak for themselves. DeLaines from 10cts to 44, handsome Barage de LaLines new styles from 12½ to 25, plain and watered Poplin Silks from 8s. to 10s. per yard; Prints any variety from 4 to 14 cts.; a good lot of Ladies' Gloves from 19 cts to 75; also Gents' Gloves, Bleached and Brown Muslins very cheap; Linen Cambrics from 16 cts to 28, and more than a thousand other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloths, plain and fancy Cassimeres, and Vestings, Cassinetts and Tweedings any or all of which can be cut and made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Goods in furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact, all kinds of Dry Goods from the

Plainest and Cheapest
To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we make it an object to Cash purchasers from 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we are entirely in the Retail Goods business and exclusively attached to that branch of business.

SILKS! SILKS!! SILKS!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also a handsome line of Spring Styles to which the attention of Ladies is particularly requested, at ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

May 24, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Thorn's new building in Cherry st., 2nd below Dr. Craig's office, and would respectfully invite the public and the vicinity of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns, DeLaines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds. A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Colonade, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES.

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Pork, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders, Smoked Beef, Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Hollow and Wooden Ware,

Tubs, Buckets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, wicker brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.

LIME, Rhode Island and Glass Falls.

☞ All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods. JAMES M. DUNN.

April 20, 1852.—tf

Lawrence's Gallery,

203 Broadway, 3 doors below Fulton-STREET, NEW YORK.

THE proprietor having built this establishment expressly for Daguerreotypes, with a view to obviate many of the difficulties that surround the Daguerreotypist, has found after a trial of two years, that his expectations have been fully realized. The arrangement of light is new, and produces uniformly soft and beautiful pictures, even in the most trying weather, so long looked for by Artists. One of the rooms is arranged with particular reference to taking Family and other groups. Fifty persons can be taken with great facility. The Operating Department is conducted by persons of long experience and skill, and none but good likenesses will be sent out. Mr. L. has been the first to produce Daguerreotypes the size of life. Also, groups produced by a Camera of immense size, and on plates three times larger than ever before used, producing a Picture five feet by three and a half, containing 100 Portraits. Pictures of every description copied with perfect accuracy. Children of all ages taken Stormy or cloudy weather no detriment to taking good pictures. The public of Plainfield and vicinity are invited to visit the Rooms, which are free to all.

THE FIRST PREMIUM, a PRIZE MEDAL, was awarded to Mr. LAWRENCE at the late Fair of the ALSTO of for the BEST Daguerreotypes. Enough said.

April 29th, 1852.—3m. M. M. LAWRENCE.

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at E. GLENN & Co's Manufactory, 194 Fulton street, (west of Broadway.) A General Assortment of Modern Pianos always on hand. Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

E. GLENN & CO., 194 Fulton-st. ext.

Oct. 7, 1851.—1y New York.

CARHART & LEEHAM,

Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

With Recent Important Improvements.

Price from $60 to $200.

No. 75 East Thirteenth Street,

1 Carhart's NEW YORK

E. P. Nee hem.'s

Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

N. B. Reeds constantly on hand.

FIRST PREMIUM MILLINERY Establishment and STRAW BONNET Manufactory, No. 564 Broadway, near Niblo's Garden, New York. Mrs. Wm. SIMMONS respectfully announces to her numerous friends and the public that she is now prepared to exhibit at her Show Rooms a splendid and unique assortment of Millinery and Straw Goods of her own Manufacture, in which are combined all the essentials to improvement in style and quality, and supplied with magnificent selections of Paris Millinery, which for diversity of patterns, colors and beauty of finish, transcends immeasurably all former importations. Also, a large and interesting invoice of Straw Goods, Straw Blendes, and an endless variety. Merchants and Milliners supplied with pattern Bonnets.

Mrs. WM. SIMMONS, 564 Broadway,

April 20, 1852.—6m New York.

BARRITT'S Bubble Refined Powder Saleratus.

Chemical Yeast Powder for the home of the Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

LIGHTNING RODS!

M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 138 East Twenty-second Street, New York, continue to manufacture and offer for sale their improved Lightning Rods, which have been in use seventeen years, without cost a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. Mr. A. Quimby has made Electricity the study of his life, and his rods are always put up in accordance with certain rules which he has formed, and adopted as the result of his experience. An additional point he has found to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and exposed to lightning, and require a different arrangement of the rods, to suit the peculiar features of the case, which is the reason why so many of the common rods are useless. Mr. Quimby has always kept pace with the progress of the laws by which electricity is governed, they are not arranged on buildings in such a manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Reference can be had to those placed on the houses of Mr. B. Rockwell, C. Boice, Esq. Mr. M. Stelle, and others in Plainfield, and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church and others in New York; church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders to the above address, or twelve pr mail attention. Pamphlets containing further inform also may be had at the office of this paper.

Plainfield, May 24, 1852—6m*

MARBLE & STONE YARD.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has established a Marble Yard in connection with his present business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUMENTS, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful Tree to Rest Upon for a front stone. I will furnish to order every variety of stone for building purposes, ornamental or plain. All of which I will execute with the utmost promptness and dispatch; and at prices as low as can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.—1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by Mr. Hoagland, on Anderson Alley, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

Also PAPER-HANGING, all of which will be promptly, neatly, and honestly executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned hereby returns thanks to his customers for their liberal patronage the past year, and solicits a continuance of the same. Orders may be left at the Union Office, also at Mr. Ira Pruden's store. CHARLES TAYLOR.

April 7, 1852.—y

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE, PHYSICIANS,

NO. 196 WEST FIFTEENTH STREET, NEW YORK, Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

Mrs. Rose Moffat

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, fully entitle those arising from or attendant upon debility, Scrofulous, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous diseases, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say, that they have repeatedly performed permanent cures in cases of long standing, after their having been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOFFAT'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES and becoming more fully informed on DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries, by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. jan5 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAILROAD, WAREHOUSE, Hay, Floor and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not liable get out of order.

Manufactory, 99 Greene street, New York.

Also For Sale at 38F ultonstreet,

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

S. B. DUBOIS, J. SNYDER, J. ROBIDOU

Nov. 24, 1851.—y

HOWE'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for (the cure of [IN MEN]

Rheumatism, Burns, Sprains, Weakness in the Back, Breast, Sore Throat, Cuts, Sores, Frosted Feet, Limb & Joint.

[IN HORSES]

Bruises, Sprains, Poll Evil, and all Wirbles, Splints, Curb, Scratches, Ringbone, Swellings, Saddle Galls, Fistula, diseases of Horses, Thoroughpin, where an Embrocation can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOWE, CHEMIST, No. 38 Albany st., New Brunswick, (Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, have used Howe's Improved Liniment, and consider it an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Moore, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barney McSherry, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel Hall, William Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton. Joseph Hammitt, John J. Wesel, Trenton. Samuel Smith Archbey, Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG, in Somerville by Culver Bateslow, in New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

DR. H. DAYTON, Surgeon-Dentist,

Has returned to Plainfield, and taken an Office and Residence for the year, on

Main st. 2d house below Webster & Marsh's.

June 24, 1851. Store.

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of April, will remove his store to No. 15 Maiden-Lane, to the store formerly occupied by him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him:—James Hemaldt & Sons's celebrated Needles—Richards' Grooveless and other Needles,—Pearl Buttons, Combs' Steel and Gold Pens, Spool and Ball Cotton, Stay Binding, Tapes, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c. RICH'D RICHARDS,

Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods,

April 26, 1852.—13m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York.

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Square and Round Foot, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, and Children's Chairs; Also,

Wash and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel do.

March 24, 1852. For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

Machinery Oil,

75 CTS. a gallon, better than Sperm Oil, at a saving of one quarter of the price. For Sale by

June 10, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

BREWSTER'S CHOLERA CURE,

FOR THE

CURE OF CHOLERA MORBUS, DIARRHŒA, BOWEL COMPLAINTS,

Cholic, Griping Pains, or Sick Stomach, and ASIATIC CHOLERA.

This Mixture is not a new remedy that has just sprung up from some newspaper recipe and offered to the public during the excitement of Cholera times, but was prepared last year, and has been used and recommended by physicians and others as a standard medicine, and has been successfully tested in numerous cases of Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, Cholic, &c., and will in a full 9 out of 10 cases cure in ten, if administered according to directions, on the first attack.

It is just what every family, vessel, steamboat, large, and small manufactory should always have on hand, against sudden attack, as the Cholera Morbus is most likely to attack its subjects in the night, the sooner the remedy is applied the better. Asiatic Cholera is, in most cases preceded by Diarrhœa and Griping Pains in the bowels, and doubtless, one great reason why so many Persons DIE of CHOLERA is, the want of proper remedies administered in the first stages of the disease, or the delay in procuring a physician before the patient is past cure.

Reference can be given to hundreds of the most respectable persons, as well as to physicians who have used it, and witnessed its effects in curing the most violent cases of Cholera Morbus and Diarrhœa.

Price 25 cents per bottle. Asiatic Cholera is, in most cases preceded by Diarrhœa and Griping Pains in the bowels, and doubtless, one great reason why so many Persons DIE of CHOLERA is, the want of proper remedies administered in the first stages of the disease, or the delay in procuring a physician before the patient is past cure.

Reference can be given to hundreds of the most respectable persons, as well as to physicians who have used it, and witnessed its effects in curing the most violent cases of Cholera Morbus and Diarrhœa.

Price 25 cents per bottle.

Certificate from Rev. B. B. Hotchkin, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Fairfield, N. J.

Mr. F. G. BREWSTER:

Dear Sir,—I have found in your Cholera Mixture a never valuable medicine in all attacks of Diarrhœa, which have been experienced either by myself or family for more than two years past. Indeed, it has never failed to relieve, and in the use of it we have in a great measure escaped the usual unpleasant after effects of Anodynes. I have found it especially useful in cases of nausea, and a few drops of it in a little cream and water for a day or more, is almost sure to affect me injuriously, and the use of your Cholera Mixture has proved of the greatest service in such cases. It is also what we have found in need of relief from painful Diarrhœa that I first became acquainted with it, and I have since very seldom suffered myself to be found destitute of it.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

B. B. HOTCHKIN.

Cedarville, N. J., July 25, 1849.

Prepared only by F. G. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Newark, N. J., and for sale together with Brewster's Pectoral Mixture, and his Embrocation, by Dr. L. CRAIG, Druggist, agent for Plainfield; C. W. Badger, Somerville; Dr. J. C. English, New Brunswick, and by others throughout the State.

July 12, 1852.—2m

DR. HALSEY'S FOREST WINE.

The discovery of the FOREST WINE is the greatest blessing of the age. Put up in Quart Bottles, a single bottle will which does more good, and goes further than a dozen of Diarrhœa, in ten bottles of any other Compound. Sick, and warranted to cure without any unpleasant or weakening effect.

The method by which all Sarsaparillas, and other similar medicines are prepared, is by boiling the Roots or Herbs to obtain the extracts. Their medicinal virtues are thus principally evaporated and destroyed.

It is not to be wondered at then, that ten and even twenty bottles of these Sarsaparillas are sometimes taken without any perceptible benefit. Not so with the Forest Wine! By the invention of a wonderful chemical apparatus, a perfect wine is produced without heating; retaining, at the same time, all the spiritual life giving properties of the rare medicinal plants of which it is composed, thus rendering the Forest Wine the most efficient medicine the world ever produced, at the same time the most pleasant.

GENERAL DEBILITY, EMACIATION, WASTING OF THE BODY, &c.

Many persons are afflicted with some one of the above complaints, without being able to trace it to any particular cause, and therefore delay the use of a remedy until the disease becomes constitutional. These disorders are often characterized by a sense of sinking, or entire exhaustion after exercise. Some experience slight pains in the muscle, and, at times, paleness or flushing of the countenance, or palpitation of the heart, on like symptoms.

The most magical effects which have ever attended the use of the Forest Wine and Pills, in every species of debility, is conclusive evidence of its happy results in this class of disorders. Many have been restored to health after an ultimatum, and been speedily cured. For Nervous disorders and Debility the Wine and Pills are taken according to the directions on the bottle.

DR. HALSEY'S GUM-COATED FOREST PILLS

Are an important adjunct to the Forest wine. They are coated with pure gelatine, an invention for which Doctor Halsey has received the only patent ever granted on Pills, by the government of the United States.

The Forest Wine and Pills are recommended to unite in accomplishing the same great end, the Purification of the Blood, and restoration of the Stomach and Bowels.

The Forest Wine and Pills are recommended as the efficient and certain cure in the following complaints:—Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Dropsy, Complaints of the Kidneys, Incipient Consumption, Decline of general Health, and Female Weakness, for which it is a Sovereign Remedy; Languidness, Night Sweats, Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, and want of Nervous Energy, Ague and Fever, which it never fails to cure; Scrofula, Erysipelas, Jaundice, Unhealthy Color of the Skin, Weakly and Impaired State of the Constitution.

Dr. Halsey's Office, No. 208 Broadway, New York. The Forest Wine in large square bottles, $1 per bottle; and bottles of the Gum Coated Forest Pills, 25 cents per box. For sale by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. L. CRAIG, appointed Agents for Plainfield.

June 5, 1851. 3m

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing astonishing healing properties, which is adapted to a larger class of diseases, and has the ability to arrest pain, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Coughs and Colds, we doubt if it has an equal: It is very good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Rheumatism, Headache, Toothache, Chilblains, Fever Sores, and in fact, for any and all pain, it is a Sovereign Remedy. Give it a trial, with great success, and do not cheerfully recommend it to those that are or may be afflicted, as a safe and harmless remedy. It is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge, Brooklyn, John Comstock, Brklyn, " H. T. Hopkins, Newark, John Rickbeck, Engineer " Prof. Whiting, Wallingford, Steamboat "Warren," Rev. Jas. Hamilton, Jersey City, Rev. Hosea Mann, Chirst St. Saroque, Ex-Mayor, " Jordan Wooley, L. Branch Alderman S. L. Husted " David B. Saliers, Bergen, Rev. Cyrus Mann, Kingsland, Brklyn, J. Borland, ferry master " Addison Jayne, New York, David Travis, Somerstown, Jane McCollick, W. Market A. Wise, Bathshead hotel, Justice D. Hiscox, " Peter De Revoise, Jr. Factory, E. Packer, " Joseph Chedick, W. Market, Rainer S. Veldran, "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above certificate. Any statements made by them can be fully relied on.

FRANCIS B. STRYKER.

Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 194 Walker Street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING.

Jan. 2, 1852.

BARAIGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received and selling off cheap.

Calicoes, fast colors, for 6 cents per yard

May 3, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

THE most safe and efficacious remedy ever discovered for the destruction of worms in children or adults, being of a safe and pleasant taste it can be given to the most tender infant. The hundreds of cures performed daily by this syrup, should satisfy all of its unparalleled virtues, as no parent will be without it after once giving it a fair trial. This syrup is entirely vegetable and recommended by the head physicians of the country and in all cases where it does not prove effectual in carrying off worms or bowel complaints, the money is refunded. I would further say, do not let your children go to a premature grave when so safe and pleasant a remedy is at hand, one which has never failed to give satisfaction in cases where it has been used. When your children are afflicted with blueness under the eyes, picking at the nose, bloated stomach, unnatural starting in the sleep, then be sure to use this remedy, it being for sale by every respectable storekeeper in the country, where by you can obtain a pamphlet of its wonderful cures, in as well as of Hobensack.

LIVER PILLS. These Pills being composed of Roots and Plants for diseases of the Biliary organs, Liver complaint, &c.

Congestion of the Liver is known to exist from an indisposition to work being present, bitter taste in the mouth, yellow furred tongues and thirst, the skin of a yellow hue, pain in the region of the liver, pain of side and the pulse full and bounding, as can be felt at the wrist. In all such cases a efficient attend to it in time.—These Pills will remove all symptoms either total or partial. they have been found of inestimable benefit in restoring the natural derangements to a healthy action, purifying the blood and other fluids so as effectually put to flight all complaints which may arise from female irregularities, as headache, giddiness, nausea, sickness, pain in the back, &c. Price 25 cents per box, with directions. Be careful and ask for Hobensack's Liver Pills, as they are the only genuine. Sold at Hobensack's new drug & Chemical Depot, No. 2 Astor Place, Laboratory, Philadelphia. For sale in Plainfield,

Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. CUSHING.

And at Retail by ELIAS BERRY, Scotch Plains, Drake, Enoch Price, Charles Foster, Westfield.

March 23, 1852.—1y.

R. R. R.

Science, by subjecting the laws of Chemistry to the skill of man, has contributed to his health and happiness by stopping the wheels of time and causing pain to yield in an instant, and curing the most obstinate

CHRONIC COMPLAINTS

IN A FEW HOURS

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

Internally and Externally instantly stops Pain, and specially cures like a charm.

It is warranted to give relief to the following pains in Fifteen Minutes, and to specially and effectually cure the disease.

Rheumatism,	Cramps and Spasms,
Lumbago,	Pain in the Bowels,
Sciatica,	Soreness in Bones,
Neuralgia,	Pain in the Limbs,
Dysentery,	Sick Headache,
Diarrhœa,	Cholera Morbus,
Heartburn,	Colds, &c.

PAIN

IS the warning given of the presence of disease and of some derangement in the perfect action of the nervous and muscular system. In order to cure disease and rid the system entirely of its cause, our first great desideratum is to stop the pain—to strengthen the nerves specially—to invigorate the whole—the functions and secretions of every organ in the system; this we accomplish by the marvellous

Strengthening, cleansing, invigorating, and powerful pain soothing properties of

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

No matter what is the cause of the pain may be—if it arises from nervous prostration, muscular debility, disarrangement of the liver or secretions of the skin, whether it be Lumbago, Neuralgia, sick or nervous headache, nervous irritability, spasmodic affections, cramps, diarrhœa, bowel complaint, chills and fever whether it originates from internal derangements or external injuries, RADWAY'S READY RELIEF taken internally and applied externally, will speedily and effectually stop the pain and cure its cause.

RHEUMATISM.—100,000 persons cured in 1850 The most excruciating pain stopped in two hours.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the quickest, surest, and most effectual remedy for the cure of Rheumatism in all its forms now in use; we state only what we know. It will stop the most torturing pains of this distressing complaint, in one application, and in a few hours effect a full in giving instant relief. In every city, village and town of America it has cured some of the people of this cruel complaint. In every case it will warrant a cure, and a trial will instantly relieve the sufferer from pain and speedily cure its cause.

SICK AND NERVOUS HEADACHE

100,000 cases cured in 1850.—It will give relief in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief takes according to directions, will speedily and effectually cure this complaint. Taken internally and applied externally it refreshes the senses, cleanses the stomach, stops all irritation in the nerves, relieves the excessive sensations of the head and brain, and relieves the sufferer from pain in 15 minutes. It is now giving hundreds daily of the sick and nervous headache

NEURALGIA.—100,000 Neuralgia cases will stop the most violent cured in 1850.—pains in Fifteen Minutes.

The cruel and excruciating pangs of this distressing complaint are usually arrested by Radway's Ready Relief. The happy and invigorating effects it produces on the nervous system, in rendering the most timid proof, quickly restores the nervous energy and cures the disease. It is the only remedy that has effectually cured Neuralgia in its worst forms.

DIARRHŒA.—200,000 persons cured in 1850.—Pains stopped in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief cured more cases of cholera morbus, dysentery, cholic and all bowel complaints the past year than any other remedy in use. In the parts of New Orleans, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukie, Galena, and other places where the diarrhœa, cholera and dysentery prevailed so fatally, Radway's Ready Relief was used with the best success. It will in 15 minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms, impart a genial heat throughout the whole system, allay all irritation, equalize the circulation, check all diarrhœa and relieve the patient from all pain.

CRAMPS AND SPASMS.

A Teaspoonful of Radway's Ready Relief, taken internally, and by bathing externally, will in a few minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms. In many cases where the extremities have been chilled by cramps, they were cured and limbs, the limbs distorted and shrunk, rubbing Radway's Ready Relief has always brought life and action, and a quick and healthy circulation of blood.

SWELLED JOINTS.

If you have pain in the bones, swelled joints, weakness of the muscles, if you have a sprained limb, swelled leg, bruised arm, sore head, or if you burn or scald yourself, Radway's Ready Relief will take out the fire, stop the pain and swelling, give energy and strength to the muscles and entirely free you from pain.

Jumping Toothache cured in one second.

All aches and pains—back ache, toothache, face ache, ear ache, stomach pain in the limbs, like muscles, the feet, the head and arms, Radway's Ready Relief will instantly cure.

PAINFUL ITCHINGS

And all cutaneous eruptions are relieved from all irritation by bathing the parts with Radway's Relief.

SPINAL COMPLAINTS.

By bathing externally the cords of the neck and spine it will arrest disease in the spine. Radway's Ready Relief is of posterior and anterior curvature of the spine to be entirely cured, said the disfigured object to regain his proper shape by the use of Radway's Ready Relief.

Sour Stomach, Flatulency, Bad Breath, Wind, &c are quickly cured by a dose of Radway's ready relief taken internally. It is a delicious cordial, ingratiating itself to every organ and function of the body, and health and happiness to the mind.

CAUTION TO DRUGGISTS

Purchase Radway's ready relief only of the authorized agent, whose name is given below. Our travelling agents have a power of attorney signed by our firm before purchasing always ask to see it. Price 25 cents a bottle.

RADWAY & CO., 162 Fulton st. N. Y.

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

Sept. 9, 1851.—1y

Looking Glasses—A Large number

JUST RECEIVED, from 25 cents to $7 each, by D. BULLMAN

DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS

Prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON, at the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch St. Philadelphia,

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines; such as Constipation, Flatulency, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering in the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs &c, Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imagining of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits

THEY ARE ENTIRELY VEGETABLE.

And Free from Alcoholic Stimulant, and all Injurious Ingredients.

And are pleasant in taste, safe, and mild in their operation, and will remove impurities from the body and give health and vigour to the frame.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, of Philadelphia, has had the means of obtaining the genuine recipe for that great materia medica of Germany, "Christoph Wilhelm Hufeland," and these invaluable medicines are prepared with the utmost care at the German Medicine Store. The "Hoofland German Bitters"—is the result of many years' study and experience by the great inventor, and known and prized in Europe as an infallible remedy in the cure of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, &c. Dr. C. M. Jackson's preparation of this medicine has obtained the same celebrity in this Western World. The testimonials and innumerable certificates of its wonderful cures in the most difficult cases cured, is ample proof of this. The medicines compounded by Dr. C. M. Jackson have produced the very effects and same happy results, which they were designed and intended, and consequently must be compounded with singular accuracy.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the cure of diseases of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain, and pleasant.

A Case in Canada.

A Batesman, Esq., at St. Scott's Railroad Hotel, Camden, cured of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. In their worst form. He had been very seriously afflicted for 8 years. We can but note his case here. Call and see him; you will pronounced his case a bad one.

Another Extreme Case.

Mr. George W. Metz, merchant, 317 Market st. cured of Disease of the Liver, and Chronic Diarrhœa of 25 years standing. He had been under the best medical treatment during the time, and visited the mineral springs of note throughout the Union, without permanent benefit, and was finally induced to commence the use a few bottles of "Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters."

JOHN MOORE, jun. Esq. Editor of the "Daily News, said, October 31, 1849:

"Hoofland's German Bitters.—We are trying this remedy in our family. For a stubborn disease of the bowels, and can with truth testify to its efficacy. We have taken 2 bottles, and we have derived more benefit than we have obtaining from several allopathic treatment at the hands of our first physicians."

Three More Cures.

Philadelphia, 3d mo. 20th, 1850.

Respected Friend: I look for several years been afflicted with Dyspepsia and occasionally a General Debility. I accidentally tried my medicine, the 'German Bitters,' in the first place upon a daughter, she having a severe sickness. Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters relieved her of such

Her general debility, that I was induced to try it myself. I then got a bottle, and used it according to directions, and it relieved me more than anything I had before used, giving tone and energy to the stomach and system. Last fall I had a very severe spell of the Diarrhœa, which continued for some time. My life, for a time, was despaired of. Thy Bitters relieved me, and I have very highly upon the stomach and intestines, and soon relieved me from that great pain I suffered, and gave general health to the system. I consider them the most valuable medicine I ever used, and shall take great pleasure in recommending it to others.

Very respectfully thy friend, SAMUEL HUTTON, Firm of Hutton & Simpson, 39 North Second above Third.

Dr. C. M. Jackson, 120 Arch street, Philadelphia.

That this medicine will cure the foregoing diseases, no one can doubt, if they use it as directed; it will act specifically upon the Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and the Calomel in all B ilious Diseases; the effect is immediate, and they do not prostrate the system.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS

This medicine has attained that high character which it is necessary for it to sustain, in order to induce counterfeiters to put forth spurious articles, at the risk of the lives of those who are innocently deceived.

Look well to the Mark of the Genuine.

For the protection of invalids against fraud, the signature of C. M. JACKSON will be upon the front of the outside wrapper, and his name blown in each bottle.

☞ Purchase none without these marks of genuineness; all others are Counterfeits—OFFICE ADVICE. given gratis upon all diseases.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at the principal depot,

GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

No. 120 Mulberry or Arch st, one door below Sixth, (formerly 278 Race st.) Philadelphia, Pa., and by respectable dealers generally throughout the United States, the Canadas and the West India Islands.

PRICES REDUCED!

To enable all classes of Invalids to enjoy the advantages of their great Restorative Powers.

Single Bottles, 75 cts.—Three Bottles, $2.00.

For sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

Aug. 11, 1851.—1y

AFFLICTED READ!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. KINKELIN,

N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts. between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat or legs, pains in the head, bones, joints, nervous irritation, secret diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled are all treated with success.

Dr. K. has associated himself under the care of Dr. K. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are sadly felt, even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, should apply immediately. A few of the many constitutional debility, loss of muscular energy, physical lassitude and general prostration, irritability and all nervous affections, loathing of society, dizziness, &c., and every thing connected in any way with the disorder of the procreative functions cured, and full vigor restored.

READ!—YOUTH AND MANHOOD!

A Vigorous Life, or a Premature Death.

Kinkelin on Self Preservation Only 25 Cents

This Book is filled with useful information on the interesting subject of the Generative Organs. It is addressed itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by all. The valuable advice and impressive warning it gives will prevent years of misery and suffering and save many thousand lives. Every person by reading it will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

A pamphlet free 25 cents, enclosed in a letter addressed to Dr. Kinkelin, N. W. corner of 3d and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will ensure a book, under envelope, per return of mail. Persons at a distance may rely on the same secrecy as if personally applied to. Packages of Medicines, Directions, &c. forwarded by sending a remittance, and put up secure from damage or curiosity.

Book-sellers, News Agents, Pedlars, canvassers, and all others supplied with the above book at very low rates.

Sept. 2, 1851.—1y

PAINTS, &c.

AMERICAN PATENT ATOMIC DRIER. Graining COLORS—Anti-friction Paste, Gold Size, Zinc Driver, Stove Polish, and Black Varnish for Iron Work.

CARTRIGHT & BON,

Painters & Chemists,

114 John-Street, New York.

March 9, 1852.—1y.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any thing we can eat, or do anything with, taken in exchange for goods. I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS.

DANIEL BULLMAN,

is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Spring Patterns; Bombazines of every grade and price; Silks plain and figured; Gingham, Alpaccas, &c. suitable to the season; Bonnet Silks and Goods of all kinds; Cassimeres, Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Flannels, Gloves, and all other articles in the dry goods line, necessary to make as varied, full and complete an assortment as can be found in the country, and which will be sold as cheap too. Try us and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing those articles, will find my store just the place for good articles, and well these articles at low prices. Purchasers cannot help being satisfied with both quality and prices.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY,

Some very beautiful; and some very cheap; a large and varied assortment, to suit all tastes, constantly on hand. Also, Lamps, Lamp Trimmings, &c.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell the same goods as cheap, and save you freight, breakage and trouble of going after it. Call, look and purchase, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

ARTICLES AND FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want a Gold watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it, very likely. A portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited. D. BULLMAN.

April 26, 1852.

NOT FOR THE GOLD MINES! GIVE ME THE SILVER!

WHILE many are going to California to dig up the Gold in the mines, I am digging the Silver, that is the opportunity to say to the public at large and to my customers in particular, that I shall remain here and offer to them a stock of goods, at small profits and quick returns, equal to any for style and quality. This stock consists of a general assortment of every thing to be found in a Village Store, viz:

Dry Goods, Carpets, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, Boots, Shoes, &c. &c.

Among the Dry Goods are Muslins and Prints from 4d to 8 and 10d., De Laines and Cashmeres, Alpaccas and jacouet, book and Swiss muslin, a good assortment constantly on hand; also, fine gauze flannel, black gloves, bobbi veils, ribbons and handkerchiefs for ware, Cloths, plain and fancy cassimeres, doeskins, satinets, Jeans, cords, edgings, insertings, linens, lace buttons, &c.

Groceries, Provisions.

Green and Black Teas of the best quality, molasses at 2½, and 3d. per gallon, sugar of every style and quality from 3½d to 6½d for; the, also sugar-house syrup, rice, raisins, coffee, spices, and all of other groceries a complete stock of the best quality.

CROCKERY, of Every Style and Quality

Both fancy and plain to suit the purchaser.

PROVISIONS.

Pork, fish, salt, beans, shoulders, lard, butter, cheese, beef, &c. &c. &c.

BOOTS and SHOES, of Every Style and Quality, for Ladies', gentlemen's and children's wear at low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Furniture and couch varnish, turpentine, white lead, pure and extra; lamp oils, yellow ochre, Venetian red, red lead, chrome yellow, Paris green, Prussian blue and coal and dry, lamp black, Spanish brown and nearly every thing for painters' use.

Flour, Meal, Feed, and Grain,

A good assortment constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village. OLIVER RUNYON.

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Heart Corrector,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-dyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Cathar. Pills
Nervine,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific

Eye Lotion and Medical Guide.

Used by Him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, Piles, &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Plated Steel Spring Shoulder Braces.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF

Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to a good age.

This Book should be in every family. To the consumptive it points out the only REASONABLE hope for relief. To mothers, the directions it gives for the care and education of children, are worth more than the cost of the Book have passed through the press, and the sale continues unabated.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING & CO., 367 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

Hope's Express.

For Newark, Elizabethtown, Westfield, Plainfield, Boundbrook, Somerville, White House, Clinton and Easton, Pa.

Leave New York daily at 9 o'clock, arriving at Plainfield at 10 1-2 o'clock, A. M. Leaves Plainfield at 3 o'clock, arriving in New York at 4 1-2 o'clock, P. M.

JOHN LONG, Agent for Plainfield.

A. D. HOPE, 74 Courtlandt st. New York.

☞ This Express has been systematized, and all orders will be executed with safety and despatch.

Plainfield, Nov. 19, 1850.

READ! READ! READ!

All Storekeepers and Druggists in Somerset County, in the State of New Jersey, and the U. States, in consequence of the great demand, keep for sale

DR. HEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS.

Near 600,000 Boxes were sold the past year in the U. States, and near 30,000 boxes were sold in the state of New Jersey alone.

YOUNG AND OLD, MALE AND FEMALE, can always take these pills with safety, without fear.

HE PILLS DO NAUSEATE

or purging or cleansing the stomach and bowels and purifying the Blood and fluids of the body, take no others or no other can be taken to produce combined effects which contain no sarsaparilla in them.

Eat, Drink and Live as Usual.

and pursue your usual occupation whilst taking them, without fear of change of diet, cold, drink or weather.

FORTY PILLS ARE IN A BOX!

and sold at Twenty Five cents a box, with directions and wholesome advice accompanying each box.

They have no taste or smell, and are

Free from dust or powder of any kind.

Do not grips the stomach or bowels.

Produce no sickness, vomiting or ill feelings.

And adapted to most diseases common to mankind

BEWARE! BEWARE!

of other pills called by names nearly similar, represented as the same or as good, in a trick to impose on the public.

DR. HEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS are the safest, best and most efficacious Pills known.

AS 7 THOUSANDS CAN TESTIFY.

Principal Depot, DR. HEIDY'S Dispensary, No. 114 North Fourth st. Philadelphia—and sold in every town in New Jersey.

BENJAMIN SANDY, Esq. is the Travelling agent for the state of New Jersey.

☞ M. F. CUSHING, and S. KIRKPATRICK, Agents for Plainfield. July 26—1y

Blanks for sale at this Office

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 30. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, July 27, 1852. Whole Number 810.

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 314 Broad-street, Washington Hall Buildings,

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical, lepine, verge and detached lever Watches; curb, polished and Swiss Guard Chains; fob and vest Chains of all patterns; silver, shell and steel eye glass cases; gold and silver enamelled, engraved and plain Pencils; Ladies' single stoned, cluster, and mosaic, cameo, cornelian, jet, single stoned, enamelled and plain Brooches; Gents' cluster, single stoned, enamelled and plain Studs; Finger Rings of all patterns; Ladies' plain gold, chain and hair Bracelets: Bracelet Snaps of all kinds; Ear rings of the latest styles; Gents' diamond, ruby, emerald, turquoise and all styles of Breast Pins; gold Lockets and Miniature Cases; Gold Pens; Hearts and Crosses; gold Fob and Guard Keys; gold and silver Thimbles; silver Spoons and Butter Knives; gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES

Bouquet Holders, tablets, hair pins, scissors, knives, pen knife, tweezer, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, purse and bag clasps and slides, chess men and boxes, bouquet boards, backgammon boards, ladies' folding, single glasses, coat, vest and pantaloon buttons, watch stands, bugle cases, emerys, sealing wax, pen holders, microscopes, razors and razor strops, fancy work boxes, china segar cases and mantel vases, stationery of all kinds, tobacco and snuff boxes; tooth, hair, hat, nail, clothes and comb Brushes; silk guard chains; pocket books, a large assortment; dressing combs, back combs, pocket combs, scissor sheaths, pocket knife cases, Persian scent bags, smelling bottles, dagger and type cases, metal and bracelet cases; steel, silk and gilt fob chains; shaving brushes, shaving boxes, &c.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

Piano Fortes from the best makers, Violins, Clarionetts, Flutes, Flageolets, Bass Violins, Drums, Metronomes, Violin Bows, Guitars, Accordeons, Fifes, Violin Æolines, and Guitar Strings; Trimmings for all Instruments; a large assortment of songs, duetts, quartettes, trios and glees, comprising all the latest publications; also Instruction Books, family, waltzes, quick steps, marches, rondos, duetts for four hands, and sacred songs: Guitar music, Instruction books for Piano Forte, flute, fife, violin, accordeon, clarionet, Æolines, &c. &c., as cheap as can be bought in New York; with a variety of other goods not enumerated in this catalogue, comprising the largest variety in Newark.

WATCH REPAIRING AND CLEANING.

The subscriber, determined to give full satisfaction to those that employ him, has engaged a very superior workman from Switzerland, where he has been engaged for several years in manufacturing all kinds of watches, and is well skilled in repairing and cleaning watches, as testimonials from some of the First watch makers of the city of New York will testify.

Jewelry made to order. Old gold and silver taken in exchange. 28-y

Wholesale and Retail

Wine and Liquor Store.

29 Fair Street, Newark, N. J.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has constantly on hand at the above old established stand, a full and choice supply of FOREIGN WINES AND SPIRITS, which he offers at the lowest cash prices, and delivered to order to any part of the city or country. Brandy of every grade, Medera Swan Gin, Irish, Scotch and Monongahela Whiskey, St. Croix and Jamaica Rum, Port, Madeira, Malaga and Champagne Wines, Lossy's Bitters, &c.

Philadelphia Bottled Porter and Pale Ale of the first quality; also, a very choice article of Bottled Cider (almost equal to Champagne) always on hand.

☞ A continuance of patronage is solicited.

June 1st, 1852.—3m LOUIS L. BELAND.

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACEURER.

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

He is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued: and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome and serviceable a Hat as they can buy in New York or Philadelphia, and half a dollar each cheaper.

N. B. Moleskin or Silk Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 23, 1851.—1y

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the new tax law, by coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere, thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and prices which may be made up to order at short notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of tailor's trimmings at a low price—also constantly for sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Friends will you favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consult for yourselves?

Cutting, trimming and making done at the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Plainfield, Dec. 1.

Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's, Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, all of which are made at our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction. Purchasers who may select or order can rely upon being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as favorably as at any establishment in the country. 352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

May 5d, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,

L. B. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all,

Goods on our counter that never will fail,

To suit the mind, to please the eye.

We hold the cash to buy them cheap,

We'll sell them right for the same,

Ginghams and Muslins, Combs and Cards,

The newest styles New York affords;

Delaines and Gaiters, Calicoes too,

Colors of which we'll warrant true.

Clothes and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,

And all the goods which men do use;

Together with a good supply

Of groceries good which will defy

A class of men who live with us,

And twice a year make quite a fuss,

To go to Brunswick with some trade,

Of wares at home they are afraid.

We'll sell to these and all the rest,

For cheapest sum what suits them best.

With Brunswick prices we'll compete,

And site shall tremble in the heat;

So hasten all and soon short, come tall,

L. B. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Plainfield, May 13, 1850

The Cavalry Officer.

The period of Napoleon's career, when at its zenith, is full of romantic adventures as connected with the history of the officers who served under the great captain. He was quick to observe merit, and prompt to reward it, and this it was that made his followers so devoted to him, and so anxious to distinguish themselves by prowess in battle, and strict soldierly conduct in the emperor's service.

Colonel Eugene Merville was an attache of Napoleon's staff. He was a soldier in the true sense of the word—devoted to his profession and brave as a lion. Though very handsome and of fine bearing, he was of humble birth—a mere child of the camp, and had followed the drum and bugle from boyhood. Every step in the line of promotion had been won by the stroke of his sabre; and his promotion from major or cavalry was for a gallant deed which transpired on the battle field beneath the emperor's own eye. Murat, that prince of cavalry officers, loved him like a brother, and taught him all that his own good taste and natural instinct had not led him to acquire before.

It was the carnival season in Paris, and young Merville found himself at the masked ball in the French Opera House. Better adapted in his tastes to the field than the boudoir, he flirts but little with the gay figures that cover the floor and joins but seldom in the giddy waltz. But at last, while standing thoughtfully, and regarding the assembled throng with a vacant eye, his attention was suddenly aroused by the appearance of a person in a white satin domino, the universal elegance of whose figure, manner and bearing convinced all that her face and mind must be equal to her person in grace and loveliness.

Though in so mixed an assembly, still there was a dignity and reserve in the manner of the white domino that rather repulsed the idea of a familiar address, and it was some time before the young soldier found courage to speak to her.

Some alarm being given, there was a violent rush of the throng towards the door, where, unless assisted, the lady would have materially suffered. Eugene Merville offers his arm, and with his broad shoulders and stout frame wards off the danger. It was a delightful moment; the lady spoke the purest French, was witty, fanciful and captivating.

"Ah! lady, pray raise that mask, and reveal to me the charms of feature that must accompany so sweet a voice and so graceful a form as you possess."

"You would, perhaps be disappointed"

"No, I am sure not."

"Are you so very confident?"

"Yes. I feel that you are beautiful. It cannot be otherwise."

"Don't be too sure of that," said the domino.

"Have you never heard of the Irish poet Moore's story of the veiled prophet of Khorassen—how when he disclosed his countenance, its hideous aspect killed his beloved one? How do you know that I shall not turn out a veiled prophet of Khorassan?"

"Ah, lady, your every word convinces me to the contrary," replied the enraptured soldier, whose heart began to feel as it had never felt before; he was already in love.

She elude his efforts at discovery, but permits him to hand her to her carriage, which drives off in the darkness, and though he throws himself upon his fleetest horse, he is unable to overtake her.

The young French colonel becomes moody; he has lost his heart, and knows not what to do. He wanders hither and thither, shuns his former places of amusement, avoids his military companions; and in short is miserable as a lover can well be, thus disappointed. One night, just after he had left his hotel, you foot, a figure muffled to the very ears stopped him.

"Well, monsieur, what would you with me?" asked the soldier.

"You would know the name of the white domino?" was the reply.

"I would indeed!" replied the officer hastily. "How can it be done?"

"Follow me."

"To the end of the earth if it will bring me to her."

"But you must be blindfolded."

"Very well."

"Step into this vehicle."

"I am at your command."

And away rattled the young soldier and his strange companion. "This may be a trick," reasoned Eugene Merville, "but I have no fear of personal violence. I am armed with this trusty sabre, and can take care of myself." But there was no cause for fear, since he soon found the vehicle stopped, and he was led blindfold into the house. When the bandage was removed from his eyes, he found himself in a richly furnished boudoir, and before him stood the domino, just as he had met her at the masked ball; to fall upon his knees and tell her how much he had thought of her since their separation, that his thoughts had never left her, that he loved her devotedly, was as natural as to breathe, and he did so most gallantly and sincerely.

"Shall I believe all you say"

"Lady, let me prove it by any test you may put upon me."

"I know, then, that the feelings you avow are mutual. Nay, unloose your arm from my waist. I have something more to say."

"Talk on forever, lady! Your voice is music to my heart and ears."

"Would you marry me, knowing no more of me than you now do?"

"Yes, if you were to go to the very alter masked!" he replied.

"Then I will test you."

"How, lady?"

"For one year be faithful to the love you have professed, and I will be yours—as truly as Heaven shall spare my life."

"O cruel, cruel suspense!"

"You demur."

"Nay, lady, I shall fulfil your injunctions as I promised."

"If at the expiration of a year you do not hear from me, the contract shall be null and void. Take this half ring," she continued, "and when I supply the broken portion, I will be yours."

He kissed the little emblem, swore again and again to be faithful, and pressing her hand to his lips, bade her adieu. He was conducted away again as mysteriously as he had been brought thither, nor could he by any possible means discover where he had been; his companion rejecting all bribes, and even refusing to answer the simplest questions.

Months roll on. Colonel Merville is true to his vow, and happy in the anticipation of love. Suddenly he was ordered on an embassy to Vienna to get gift of all the European capitals, at the time that Napoleon is planning to marry the Arch Duchess Maria Louisa. The young colonel is handsome, manly and already distinguished in arms, and becomes at once a great favorite at court, every effort being made by the women to captivate him, but in vain; he is constant and true to his vow.

But his heart was not made of stone; the very fact that he had entertained such tender feelings for the white domino, had doubtless made him more susceptible than before.

At last he met the young baroness, Caroline Von Waldroff, and in spite of his vows she captivates him, and he secretly curses the engagement he had so blindly made at Paris. She seems to wonder at what she believes to be his devotion, and yet the distance that he maintains in the truth was, that his sense of honor was so great, that, though he felt he really loved the young baroness, and even that she returned his affection, still he had given his word, and it was sacred.

The satin domino is no longer the ideal of his heart but assumes the most repulsive form in his imagination, and becomes, in place of his good angel, his evil genius!

Well, time rolls on; he is to return in a few days; it is once more the carnival season, and in Vienna, too, that gay city. He joins in the festivities of the masked ball, and what wonder fills his brain, when about the middle of the evening the white domino steals before him, in the same white satin dress he had seen her wear a year before at the French Opera House in Paris. Is it a fancy?

"I come, Colonel Eugene Merville, to hold you to your promise," she said laying her hand upon his arm.

"Is this a reality or a dream?" asked the amazed soldier.

"Come, follow me, and you shall see that it is a reality," continued the mask, pleasantly.

"I will."

"Have you been faithful to your promise?" asked the domino, as they retired into a saloon.

"Most truly in act, but alas, I fear not in heart!"

"Indeed."

"It is too true, lady, that I have seen and loved another, though my vow to you has kept me from saying so to her."

"And who is this that you thus love?"

"I will be frank with you, and you will keep my secret?"

"Most religiously."

"It is tre Baroness Von Waldroff," he said, with a sigh.

"And you really love her?"

"Alas! only too dearly," said the soldier sadly.

"Nevertheless, I must hold you to your promise. Here is the other half of the ring; can you produce this mate?"

"Here it is," said Eugene Merville.

"Then I, too, keep my promise!" said the domino, raising her mask, and showing to his astonished view the face of the Baroness Von Waldroff!

"Ah, it was the sympathy of true love that attracted me, after all," exclaimed the young soldier, as he pressed her to his heart.

She was true and loved him for his manly spirit and character, and having found by inquiry that he was worthy of her love, she had engaged this delicate intrigue, and had tested her and now gave to him her wealth, title and everything!

They were married with great pomp, and accompanied the arch-duchess to Paris. Napoleon to crown the happiness of his favorite, made him at once General of Division.

Fashionable Suicide.—The Richmond Republican, in the course of a sensible article on fashion, gives these valuable hints to the ladies:

"Within a year or two past, corsets have been partially abandoned, but a substitute equally as destructive to health has been adopted. In old times, ladies used to wear just enough petticoats to keep them comfortable, and these were kept in their places by shoulder straps. But now it's no uncommon thing to see a wealthy, delicate, little creature perambulating the street with six or eight skirts—some of them thick and heavy enouh for horse blankets—tied tightly around her waist, thereby heating the spine, and creating a pressure upon the abdomen, that if constantly applied for a month or a mule, would kill as dead as Julius Cæsar in less than three months. Advise against these things, and you are answered, "it's fashionable to dress so, and one had as well be out of the world as out of the fashion," Fashion the deuce. It's fashionable for some fools to kill themselves outright, and be done with it. We therefore advise those ladies who are willing to die for fashion, to adopt that course instead of pursuing another equally certain, but much slower—the only difference being, that where they determine to commit suicide by improper dressing, the doctors have the benefit of their decline, and the anguish and anxiety of friends and relations are kept alive for months, while in the latter case the blow falls heavily at first, but naturally wears off, and is eventually forgotten."

A friend was complaining to Colman that he should be obliged to change his tailor, as he found a suit of clothes would not last him above one-half the time it ought to do, and inquired if he could recommend him any place where he could meet with apparel more durable?" "Yes," said Colman, "I could recommend you to Chancery, and there you may have a suit that will last you for life."

Lucretia Mott says that a young man who cannot persuade a lot of foolish women to buy what they never want or their husbands be able to pay for, should never expect to become at all celebrated as a dry goods clerk. Lucretia is an observing young woman.

A Chapter in the Life of Uncle Jake.

Uncle Jake had a large dairy, and had the name of carrying the best cheese into market of any man in Caledonia county, in the State of Vermont. For a term of fifteen years he had traded with Mr. B. of North Market street, Boston receiving the highest price, part cash and the remainder in groceries, always including a barrel of high wine. Now it happened, one day, while Uncle Jake was looking over his cheese, preparatory to going to market, that he discovered, to his great sorrow, that the mice had gnawed through the rind of some half dozen of the largest, and had appropriated some three or four pounds from the inside of each to their own use. Uncle Jake felt bad. What to do he did not know. The loss of twenty pounds of cheese, more or less, was bad enough, but that was not the worst of it. It would seriously affect the price of the balance of the whole of it, and the best way he could reckon it, he was afraid the aggregate loss would exceed five dollars, the bare thought of which was overwhelming. He couldn't stand that any way. The loss in weight he couldn't help, but the reduction in price he would try to avoid, some how or other, notwithstanding his conscience seemed to whisper something about the golden rule. He hit upon the expedient of plugging the holes up as they wouldn't be noticed in weighing, in the hope that Mr. B. might sell at different persons and no trouble would result from the trick. Ashort time afterwards Uncle Jake went to market and, as usual was cordially greeted by Mr. B. The wagon was unloaded at the back door, where the clerk was in readiness to weigh the cheese. The quick eye of the weigher soon detected Uncle Jake's trick. He kept quiet however, as a matter of policy; the trade was consummated, and Uncle Jake started for home, well loaded, having, as usual, a barrel of whale-oil supposed to be "high wine." Before leaving, he promised to bring down a load of pork and poultry about Christmas. In due time he was seen wending his way towards Mr. B.'s store again, but had left his team at another place. The storesaid clerk happening to get a sight of the old gent before he reached the store, sallied out and met the old fellow just on the door step. Clapping his hand upon his shoulder, he ejaculated, with as much sternness as he could well command under the circumstances. "Well, Uncle Jake, you are just the man we have been waiting to see ever since about the time you was here." Uncle Jake quickly replied, "Y-y you s-say nothin about the cheese—but I'll say it-n-nothing about that are b-b-high wine." Uncle got hardly out of the city before it f-f-flew all up and b-b-bust the b-b-barrel!"—Carpet Bag.

Modes of Salutation.

Most modern forms of salutation and civility are derived from chivalry, or at least, from war; they all betoken some deference, as from a conquered person to the conqueror; just as in private life we still continue to sign ourselves the "very humble servants" of our correspondents. The uncovered head was simply the head unarmed; the helmet being removed, the party was at mercy. So the hand ungloved, was the hand ungauntleted, and to this day it is an incivility to shake hands with gloves on. Shaking hands of itself is but a token of truce, in which the parties look hold of each other's weapon hand, to make sure against treachery. So also a gentleman's bow is but an offer of the neck to the stroke of the adversary; and the lady's curtsey is but the form of going on her knees for mercy. This general principle is marked, as it ought naturally to be, still more strongly in the case of military salutes. Why is the discharge of guns a salute? Because it leaves the guns empty, and at the mercy of the opponent. And this is no true, that saluting with blank cartridge is a modern invention. Formerly salutes were fired by discharging the cannon balls, and there have been instances in which the compliment has been nearly fatal to the visitor whom it meant to honor. When the officer salutes he points his drawn sword to the ground; and the salute of the troops is, even to this day, called "presenting arms," that is, presenting them to be taken. There are several other details, both of social and military salutation of all countries, which might be produced; but I have said enough to indicate the principle.—Notes and Queries.

Something for Pill Takers.—The Western papers are frequently telling hard stories; but here's one from the Western Ledger that takes the rag off the bush a little of the cleanest. Some one has told us of a man in Illinois, who had an attack of the ague, severe beyond parallel. In endeavoring to support himself, he held on by one of the beams composing his log house, and in an instant the whole fabric came tumbling upon him; and he only saved himself by shaking off the logs as fast as they fell. By taking one box of "The Extract Pill," a preparation little known in our quarter, he was not only cured himself but every stick of timber in his habitation was restored to its original position.

A Cat Story.—A medical gentleman, of whose sanity and love of truth, the editor of the Boston Times says he does not entertain a doubt, communicates to that paper the following remarkable occurrence. As he was looking out of a window, on Monday last, he saw a black kitten fall past him, apparently from the top of a house, and expected to see it dashed dead upon the sidewalk; but, contrary to his expectation when it reached the ground it began to walk. Some children supposing it to be injured, took it and gave it some milk, which it lapped in the most natural manner. The next morning, the lady of the house went into the cellar to give it some more milk, when strange to relate, it darted past her a distance of twenty feet, without touching the ground, and when out of the house, ascended upwards into the air more rapidly than it had fallen down the day before, and was soon lost to view among the clouds.

"Is there much water in the cistern, Biddy?" inquired a gentleman of his Irish girl, as she came up from the cellar. "It is full on the bottom, sir, but there's none at all on the top," was the reply.

He that would enjoy the fruit must not gather the flower.

Health Insurance.—A Gin, eadaverous looking German, about fifty years of age, entered the office of a health insurance company, at Indiana, a few days ago, says the Daily Courier, and inquired—

"Is de man in vat insiures de people's helts?"

"I attend to that business," replied the agent.

"Vell, I vants mine helts insured; vot you charge?"

"Different prices," answered the agent, "from three to ten dollars a year. Pay ten dollars a year and you g t ten dollars a week in case of sickness."

"Vell," said Mynheer, "I vots ten dollars vort."

The agent inquired his state of health.

"Vell, I ish sick all de time. I shust out of bed two or tree hours a day, but te doctor says he do noddin more goot vor me."

"If that's the state of your health," returned the agent, "we can't insure it. We only insure persons who are in good health."

At this Mynheer bristled up in great anger.

"You must dink I'se a tam vool. Vot you dink I come pay you ten dollars a year vor my helt, ven I vos vell?"

A Dialogue on Hogs.—A Providence paper gives us the following adroit dialogue:

"Friend," said a shrewd quaker, to a man with a drove of hogs, "hast any hogs in this drove with large bones?"

"Yes," replied the drover, "they all have."

"Hast any with long heads and very sharp noses?"

"Yes, they all have."

"Hast any with long ears, like those of the elephant, hanging down over his eyes?"

"Yes, all my drove are of that description and will suit you exactly."

"I rather think they would not suit me, friend, if they are such as thou describest them. Thou may'st drive on."

The oldest firm of printers and publishers in Boston was formed in the year 1800. It is still in existence. The gentlemen comprising it are Munroe & Francis. These gentlemen, one 70 years of age, and the other 72, have lately published a volume of 300 pages, the types for which were all set with their own hands. They are rich, but cannot abandon the practical pursuits with which they became familiar in early life.

The Way Money Squandered.—The following items are in the bill rendered by the Special Committee of the Common Council, appointed to arrange for the reception of the remains of the late Henry Clay: For refreshments of Committee attending Mr. Clay's remains to Albany, on board steamboat Santa Claus, $1,411 25; for use of the steamboat to Albany and back, $1,090; for incidental expenses of Committee, $93; refreshments for Committee in New York, $163 48 total, $3,317 35.—N. Y. Paper.

The celebrated John Hunter is said to have made but one pun in his life, and that was when lecturing in the Wind-mill Street School of Medicine. In demonstrating the jaw-bone, he observed that the bone was known to abound in proportion to the want of brains. Some students at the time were talking instead of attending to the lecture, upon which Hunter exclaimed, "Gentleman, let us have more intellect, and less jaw."!

It is well for us that we are born babies in intellect. Could we understand and reflect upon one-half of what most mothers at that time say and do to us, we should draw conclusions in favor of our own importance which would render us insupportable for years. Happy the boy whose mother is tired of talking nonsense to him before he is old enough to know the sense of it!

Important to Ladies.—For every month a woman spends in the marriage state between 17 and 21 years of age, a year will be taken from the duration of her beauty and personal attractions.—Medico-Chirurgical Review.

How to Read on the Railway.—By folding a card or slip of paper over the line below the one which you are going to read, the eye is freed from the disturbance caused by the motion of the carriage, and you read with comfort.

New Mode of Raising the Wind.—We are informed that on last week one of the toll gate keepers on the road between Frederick and Harper's Ferry, was cheated by a traveller after a decidedly original method. He stated he had a drove in charge which was following him and that he would pay the toll, offering at the same time a five dollar note. The keeper suspecting no dishonesty, returned him the change. Upon further examination the note proved a counterfeit. That drove has not yet passed thro' the gate, but is daily expected.

"Fuss and Feathers."—A couple of "colored gemmen" were overheard discussing politics in Broadway this morning. One says to the other, "What makes 'em call General Scott Ole Fuss and Feathers?" "Why Lor', Sam, don't you know? It's case he's fuss in war, fuss in peace, and fuss in de hearts ob de country people."—Mirror.

"You didn't go to Cork to-day, Paddy?" "Och, no," said Paddy. "I heard a gentleman say there would be an eclipse on the moon here to-night, and I staid to see it."

"I hold it to be a fact," says Pascal, "that if all persons knew what they said of each other, there would not be four friends in the world."

A man out west, who owns a large farm, says he stacks up all the hay he can out doors, and the remainder he puts in his barns.

Ingenious.—"The other day," says a late number of the Liverpool Times, "a ragged but brisk-looking urchin, accosted a gentleman in Bold Street, and offered to sing a song, stand on his head, and clean the gentleman's boots—all for a half-penny. 'It's a cheap lot,' was the reply; 'but I have no time to see it out; here's a penny for you.' The lad pocketed the copper in a twinkling, and expressed his acknowledgments by walking away on his hands."

Mrs. Fitkins was reading the fore-go news by a late arrival. "Curious feeling!" exclaimed the old lady. "Well, shocking as much—The last thread I used was remarkably feeble."

Anti-Stay-at-Home Society.

MONDAY NIGHT.

WIFE.—Oh! love, I'm glad you have come home,
The supper's almost cold:
But here's a nice warm bit for you—
I don't intend to scold.

Your office closed—all business done—
Your books laid on the shelves—
How pleasant it will be to pass
This evening by ourselves.

HUS.—My love, my dearest love, you know
How happy I should be
If I could pass my leisure hours
In sweet commune with thee.

But (here he sighs) you know we must
Obey stern duty's call:
And this night, dearest, just this one,
I must be at the Hall.

TUESDAY NIGHT.

WIFE—My love, Miss C. takes, to-night,
Her benefit, and so,
As she is one I much admire,
I'd really like to go.

HUS.—You shall, my love—stop, I forgot,
'Tis Tuesday night, I swear;
A special meeting's called to-night,
I really must be there.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

WIFE—Dear George, it's been so dull to-day
Without you, I confess,
Let's draw this table to the fire,
And have a game of chess.

HUS.—I would accept your challenge, love,
And grant your sweet demand,
But Wednesday is our Lodge, you know,
And I must be on hand.

THURSDAY NIGHT.

WIFE—Well love, what shall we do to-night?
Read, or attend the play?
Or have a little private talk,
The first for many a day?

HUS.—Just as you please—I'll soon be back:
Business of very great
Importance, love, comes off to-night
I must not let them wait.

FRIDAY NIGHT.

WIFE.—My love, just clasp this pin for me,
And, George, pray hand my shawl:
You know you promised me, to-day,
To take me to the ball.

HUS—I know I did, but, really, love,
I had forgot it all,
I promised I would go to-night,
Some members to install,

I hate to disappoint you, dear,
I know it is provoking,
But when you spoke of it to-day,
I really thought you joking.

SATURDAY NIGHT.

WIFE—Here, take the bonny George; all day
He's lain upon my lap:
This evening you can watch him while
I take a little nap.

There's no use—
Else I'd stay home.

SUNDAY NIGHT.

WIFE—Dear George, here is your cloak and hat
And over-shoes all warm;
I hope you won't stay late to-night,
There's such a dreadful storm.

HUS. Not stay out late! you don't suppose
I really could intend,
To leave my dearest wife alone
Her evening hours to spend!

Just place my slippers by the fire,
And wheel that pleasant light
Right by my cozy rocking chair—
We'll stay at home to-night!

AN AUSTRIAN PICTURE OF THE U. STATES—Austrian opinions upon the United States are not at a premium, but they may be interesting, nevertheless. A late Vienna paper thus compliments us:—

"Austria is a small, insignificant spot on the map, compared with the gigantic greatness of America, says Daniel Webster. Yes, on the map, that is the fact. But in the world, in military, intellectual and material relations, in might and influence, Austria is in reality, gigantic, while, in the same reality, America, vast as it is on the map, is but a small spot in comparison.—And against this Austria, Daniel Webster proposes to make war by sea and land! In what does the greatness of America consist? 1. In the tremendous extent of its forest and swamps. 2. In the terribly immense tedium of its monotony, in which it resembles the desert expanse of the ocean, where he who has seen one thing, has seen everything. 3. In the gigantic stupidity of its conceit and wind-bagginess. 4. In the tremedous greatness of its humbug; only simple children and ignorant fops allow themselves to be humbugged. But the true greatness of America, how is it with that? It is humbug."

Massachusetts Citizens in Slavery.—It will be remembered that several free negroes from Massachusetts State were sold into Texas, a few months ago, for aiding a slave to escape, and the late Legislature authorized the Governor to treat for their redemption. We learn from the Galveston News that "those negroes are now earning $35 per month for their owner, and they appear themselves perfectly contented with their present condition, without any inclination to have any more of such freedom as Massachusetts gives free negroes."

A Veteran.—A grey-haired man, 64 years of age, by the name of H. E. Gibbs, walked from Sharon, Conn., to Catskill, one day last week in less than ten hours, (distance 45 miles,) without appearing much fatigued.

The Mormons are the most zealous propagandists in the United States. They jus sent a new batch of missionaries to Italy, Calcutta, and other foreign countries.

You cannot fathom your mind. There is a well of thought there which has no bottom. The more you draw from it the more clear and plentiful it will be.

They have opened a public school for boys in New Orleans. Terms of admission, clean faces and clean clothes.

For the Plainfield Union.

Mr. Editor:

Being a constant reader of your valuable paper I saw in your first number after the Whig nomination at Baltimore, that you raised the Scott and Graham flag; those names still appear at the head of your paper, and on reading the Union it must be admitted to be in favor of the whig nominations. I take the liberty of making an enquiry through the columns of your paper in reference to an organization in the village of Plainfield to cover the entire township, called a whig association and adopting a constitution and by-laws under certain restrictions. The association is to be organized by a few persons in a private manner without public notice or consulting the whigs of the place or township in a public manner; and when so organized the association is ready to admit members by proposition or election. There appears to be certain qualifications required to become a member of said association, the age in the first case is from 18 to 45, and as to further qualifications, independent of being a whig, I am entirely uninformed. If said association is intended to be secret and for beneficial purposes it must be outside of a political move, but if intended for a political organization, I would recommend a general notice through your paper or some other public manner, giving a general invitation to the whigs of the township and have a whig meeting for the purpose of an organization, and adopt a constitution and by laws if necessary, requiring only that the members be whigs and legal voters. If such a meeting when called should see proper to appoint a general committee of a sufficient number with as many subcommittees as would appear necessary, and have a general concert of action with all the whig voters of this township, or something similar without giving the details, it would have a tendency to harmonize the whigs of the township and promote a general concert of action in the party, without qualification or test. I would not have minors excluded from attending and rendering any assistance they can; for the aged must give way to the young in the nature of things.

If there be such an organization on foot as have named I must come to the conclusion it will have a great tendency to divide the and distract the party, and be the best that could be adopted to build up the d ic party in the township; and if carri f- fect, and whigs should be proposed an d, not having all the qualifications thou sta- ry, said rejected whigs are difcard ban- doned by the whig party, and left t them- selves as outsiders, having no pa in the matter, and nothing to stimulate action —they are left to go where thought worthy of being received ated with, should that be to the or ty. Without cumbering your valu ns too much, I make the enquiry such an organization on foot. I und here has been one meeting, and a Tuesday (to-morrow) evening of t I would advise them to aban- and give a general invitation to he township and organize properly, means they would secure the co-operation of all the whigs of the place.

AN ORIGINAL SCOTT VOTER.

Plainfield, July 26th, 1852.

The proprietor of the Galt House, at Louisville, a few days ago, received an invoice of 700,000 tooth-picks from Rio.

Saratoga is rapidly filling up. There are more visiters there now than ever before at this season of the year.

The Boston Firemen are paid. There are 513 men in the department, and the semi-annual pay roll amonts to $12,568 85.

The venerable Bishop Soule of the M. E. Church, South, has, notwithstanding, has advanced age, and the sickness of his estimable lady, consented to pay a visit to the courches in California.

The Mowing Machines are making rapid work with the fields of grass on Long Island, and the farmers are exceedingly well satisfied with them. The mowers, consequence of the demand for laborers, had begun to ask two dollars a day, but this machine makes their skill superfluous. It is mowed by horses, the driver sitting on the machine—a farmer takes a morning drive in his meadow, and the work is done. The makers are unable to supply the demand for it.

Quick Work.—Hussey's Reaping Machine, in an experiment on Wednesday last, in Maryland, among a company of farmers, cut twenty-five acres of wheat in a day, requiring twelve binders to keep pace with it. The wheat operated on was about five feet high, and very thick and heavy.

The editor of the Cincinnati Sun says, he saw a woman in the street of that city, recently, whose cheeks were adorned with a luxurious pair of whiskers. They were none of your artificials, but nature's own work.

Only two editors of the London daily papers are Englishmen, namely—Delaine, the editor of the Times, and Hunt, the editor of the Daily News. The editors of the Standard, Morning Herald, and Globe, are Irishmen; and of the Morning Advertiser, Sun, and Morning Post, Scotchmen.

Worshiping the Sun. The San Francisco correspondent of the Journal of Commerce says:—

"At present there are a few Persians in our city. They attracted considerable attention on the plaza last week, while engaged in worshiping the Sun.

In France, in the town of Estissal, in which there were not ten Protestants a year since, contains at present over 500, and 500 more refuse to be called Catholics, saying they had not yet made up their minds.

The London Times of July 6th, says:

"The principles of Free Trade will be more likely to be confirmed by the election of Gen. Pierce to the Presidency, than if Gen. Scott is elected therefore in England we are in favor of the former."

Ladies should remember that a small piece of linen, just moistened with turpentine, and put into the wardrobe or drawers but a single day, two or three times a year, is sufficient preservation against moths.

THE UNION.

Plainfield, N. J. July 27, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

National Whig Nominations:

For President of the United States:
Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.

For Vice President:
WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North-Carolina.

Not a little excitement was aroused last week by intelligence from the North that the present Tory Administration of Great Britain has put a very different construction on the Treaty between the U. S. and them in regard to the fisheries in the Bay of St. Lawrence and thereabouts, than what has been practiced for the last thirty years—and that a large fleet of 19 vessels had been sent over to enforce this new construction at the cannon's mouth. The business is a very important one, and this way of effecting a change is as strange as it is blameworthy and dangerous.

In the Senate, on Friday, the Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, offered a resolution which was unanimously adopted, calling for the correspondence with England on this subject since the treaty of 1818, the treaty referred to, and also asking whether any of our naval vessels have been protect our fishermen. An inter[illegible] place, in which the S[illegible] in the opinion that [illegible]ment have been guilty of a br[illegible]ssy in sending their ships to s[illegible]oaching vessels without notice, and object was to force our government to [illegible]ocity treaty with Canada. Most of the [illegible]ors were in favor of sending a strong naval to protect our vessels engaged in the fish- , and the feeling was very strong against ing into negotiations while we were thus placed under duress by the British Government. It is stated that the value of American property invested in the fisheries is $12,000,000.

Later.—The Newark Daily Advertiser of Saturday evening brings us the highly important intelligence of the seizure on Tuesday last, the 20th, of the American schooner Hyadas, belonging in Lubec, Maine, by the British war ship Netley. The seizure was made in the Bay of Fundy, and the vessel carried into St. John.

It is reported and believed that the U. S. sloop of war, Albany, has been ordered to to fishing grounds.

TARIFF OF 1848.—The Farmers were told previous to the passage of this most injurious law, that though low duties might injure the manufacturers, they would be beneficial to agriculturists, for, said the free-traders, the more we import of manufactured articles, the more of farmer's produce we should export. The following table of actual exports of agricultural products for the five years following the passage of the law, is perfectly convincing as to the falsity of the assertion. The law has largely increased our imports and injured our manufacturing interests some hundreds of millions, and instead of benefitting the farmer, has also greatly injured him.

1846–47	$27,000,000
1847–48	19,500,000
1848–49	23,700,000
1849–50	12,200,000
1850–51	8,100,000

Our imports have been constantly on the increase, for which we pay specie or run in debt, while our exports—are as above.

Sartain's Magazine for August, has been received. It has a continuation of the Illustrated Life of Gen. Jackson, by the celebrated J. T. Headley, which is very interesting. It contains also many other papers, all original, and many by the best American writers. Among its numerous embellishments is one on steel styled "Summer Flowers."

FOREIGN NEWS.

The steamer Humboldt, of the Havre line, arrived at New York Monday morning of last week, with 99 passengers, a freight valued at from one and a half to two millions of dollars, and 4 days later news. Among the passengers are Kossuth's sister with her husband and three children.

The Cunard steamer America arrived at Boston Thursday morning, via Halifax, with 60 passengers, and 4 days' later news.

The markets generally remained as before, cotton being unchanged in price, but dull in consequence of the elect ons. Grain was also dull, money abundant, and American securities in fair demand. Trade was active in Manchester, and in France. The weather in England was fine, and the crops prosperous.

The British steamer Canada sailed from Boston last Wednesday, with 39 passengers and $ 12,000 in American gold, for Liverpool.

The Atlantic sailed for Liverpool Saturday, from New York, with 110 passengers and $400,000 in specie, for Liverpool.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The steamship United States arrived at New York Thursday morning, 7 1-2 days from Aspinwall, with 438 passengers and $244,228 in gold dust; and ten days' later news, to June 28th.

The Golden Gate had arrived at Panama with 532 passengers and $1,400,000 in gold.

Sonora, the chief city of the Southern mines, has been almost entirely destroyed by fire, not one man was burnt up.

A phonetical friend of ours declares that, on the compromise platform he is "as phrim as briques."

From the New Brunswick Fredonian.

What will be Realized.

The Tribune, than which there is no better calculator of political chances, after going over most of the states and giving the reasons for his conclusions, thus sums up the matter.

We subjoin our own state as a specimen of his logic, and remark, that we have no doubt as to the result here. The majority will probably be larger for Scott than it was for Taylor.

New Jersey.—The heaviest vote ever polled in this State was that of 1848, when Gen. Taylor had over 3,000 majority. Who believes that all this has since melted away? The Jersey Whigs certainly do not, but confidently expect to carry it. And they don't stand in idle expectation, they will work for it. We believe they will carry it.

Our present estimate of the general state of the case is as follows:

Probably for Scott.		Doubtful.		Probably for Pierce.
Massachusetts,	13	Maine,	8	N. Hampshire,	5
Vermont,	5	Ohio,	21	Virginia,	15
Rhode Island,	4	Maryland,	8	South Carolina,	9
Connecticut,	6	Florida,	3	Georgia,	10
New York,	35	Louisiana,	6	Alabama,	9
New Jersey,	7	Indiana,	13	Mississippi,	7
Pennsylvania,	27	Michigan,	6	Texas,	4
Delaware,	3	Wisconsin,	5	Illinois,	11
North Carolina,	10	Iowa,	1	Missouri,	9
Kentucky,	12	California,	4	Arkansas,	4
Tennessee,	12
	Total,	80	Total,		82
Total,	134	Whole No; 296—majority, 149.

—We do not regard the vote of either Georgia, Illinois, or Missouri as absolutely certain for Pierce; but the probabilities, as to them, are in his favor. Maine loves and honors Gen. Scott; a majority of her people want to vote for him; but the party screws may be applied so tightly as to defeat their free choice. But Ohio alone added to these States morally sure to vote for Scott will elect him; or Indians and any other State in the doubtful list, or the three Whig Southern States, or the four West of Indiana. We believe the chances are very largely in favor of General Scott; but we don't want to dissuade his adversaries from working. Let us have a fair field and a spirited canvass; and may the result be a triumph for the Right!"

What Inventors Do.—An auctioneer in New Orleans recently sent an order, by telegraph, to Philadelphia, for $1,000 worth of goods, to suit a certain phase in the market. The manufacturer received the despatch the day it was sent, and, that afternoon, sent the goods to New York and placed them on board the Empire City, which left for Havana and New Orleans the next morning. In ten days, from the time or ordering them, the goods were received and sold in New Orleans, and the money, next day transmitted, by mail, to the manufacturer, in Philadelphia. Steam and the telegraph are bringing the transactions of business so close together, that hours will soon be taken into account in the measure of time, and deemed as important as weeks were before these wonderful agents were brought down to the practical operations of life, and made so indispensable an agent in them.

At a recent fire in Miles, Mich., there were twenty-five or twenty-six buildings destroyed in all, and the total loss is estimated between $35,000 and $40,000, on which there was very little insurance. It falls principally, we regret to learn, upon young men, with very little capital, the most of whom have been ruined. The fire originated in the cabinet ware room of Mr. Jacob Hassenger, and was caused by the explosion of fire crackers which were thrown among the shavings behind his shop.

On Monday last Jedediah Brown, Jr., was brought before Geo. D. Cross, Esq., on a charge of violation of the statute in relation to the firing of fire crackers, &c., and fined $10 and costs.—Pawcatuck Echo.

CLIMATE OF OREGON.—The Portland Oregonian of April 24th, gives the following very alluring account of the climate of Oregon:—

"In looking over the papers from the Atlantic States, one would be led to suppose, from the accounts given of the intense coldness of the weather the past winter, that there must be some mistake in the geographical position sustained by the Atlantic States towards their sister territory here, on the Pacific. While the mercury in the thermometer has at times frozen here, we, in Oregon, in a latitude as far to the north as any of those States, have been enjoying the mildness of spring—the warm rays of the sun experienced here during part of the months of January and February, actually reminding us of May weather in New York.

While the ground here has been covered with green grass and gaudy flowers through the winter, there it has been mantled with several feet of snow. On the 20th of January last, a friend sent us a cluster of ripe strawberries, picked on the plains, where they grow spontaneously.—They have been in blossom all over the plains during the whole winter. On the 10th of January, 1851, Jesse Applegate, of Umpqua, sent us a great variety of wild flowers, and several specimens of grass, then growing as green and fresh as in June, some blades of which were eighteen inches in length. And this reminds us that while the cattle of our Atlantic friends have been freezing to death in their stalls and sheds, ours have been roaming at large over our plains, unfed, save from nature's granary—and when slaughtered, would make a New York butcher open his broadest, proudest grin, to think himself the happy vender of such delicious beef."

Nearly Buried Alive.—A man in Rochester, N. Y., supposed to be dead, was placed in a coffin, and the coffin was about to be closed, when a physician happened to look into the coffin, and pronounced the man not dead, which proved to be the case. The man is now alive and likely to recover.

Temperance in Portland.—Portland, we are glad to say, yet maintains its reputation for sobriety. A drunken man is a rare sight, although occasionally one is encountered. Some vigilant seekers after "sich like"—the police, from the 1st to the 21st of June, inclusive, the commitments for drunkenness have been only six. During the same period last year, when the law had not got fairly into operation, the number was twenty three. There are a number of grog-shops in operation, undoubtedly, but they are forced to be very sly in their nefarious business. [Portland Transcript.

The rent of Castle Garden, New York, for a concert; is only $600 a night.

The means of getting to market are increasing "out West," in a fabulous manner. In the State of Illinois alone, there are no less than nineteen railroads already in operation.

The sum of £30,000 ($150,000) was lost per week, for fifteen weeks, making no less than $1,282,500, by the recent strike of the English engineers.

The Minnesotians appear to be in earnest in the execution of their new liquor law.

We saw a little man the other day behind a very big cigar, puffing away as if for very life. It was a melancholy spectacle.

Alabama, Iowa, Missouri, and North Carolina, are the only States which vote in August this year, and every one having new Locofoco Governors and Legislatures. Kentucky and Tennessee have no elections in August, 1852. Illinois has postponed her election from August to the first Tuesday in November, when Presidential Electors and State Officers will be chosen on the same day; Indiana has likewise changed hers from August to the second Monday in October.

Gen. Scott received his first military commission at the hands of Jefferson; and Madison offered him a place in his democratic cabinet. The Louisville Journal says in regard to this offer of Madison, that "Gen. Scott, we presume, was the youngest man to whom a cabinet appointment was ever tendered in this country, being less than thirty years of age. Mr. Madison was one of the purest of Presidents and an excellent judge of men, and his proffer of the Secretaryship of War to young Scott, to the omission of Gen. Brown, Gen. Macomb, Gen. Jackson, Gen. Gaines, and others who were many years his seniors in age and in service, was one which was to be prized than that of winning a great battle. Gen. Scott declined the proffered Secretaryship from considerations of deference to his superiors, and surely here was no manifestation of the vanity with which he is charged. Boston Adv.

THE INDIANS OF OREGON.—There are about 5000 Indians in Northen Oregon, near 2000 of whom are on Puget Sound. They are entirely different in character from those that once inhabited the States. They are friendly and peaceable, and readily dopt the habits of the white man. They are not possessed of that proud, haughty spirit, or that revengeful disposition, which characterised the Indians of the States. They imitate our habits, wear our clothing, endevor to speak our language, and are of great assistance to the pioneer settler. They cut down trees, hew and split timber, make shingles, work on our farms, and, in fact, under the direction of a white man, can do almost any kind of work. The abundance of fish and wild fowl afford them so easy a subsistence that they are naturally indolent, and it is only to be able to procure the luxuries of the whites that they are induced to work. As they seldom if ever resort to the chase, they are not disposed to regard the rapid appropriation of their illibee (land) by the "pale faces" as an encroachment upon their hunting grounds: on the contrary, they court their emigration, and are every day becoming more dependent.—Letter dated May 3d.

Gen. Scott in Western N. Y.—A private letter from Newfield, N. Y., from a magistrate, who was formerly an active Jackson man in this County, says: "We are alive here for the old hero of Lundy's Lane, and mean to elect him to the Presidency, and shall do it I have no doubt."

"We have fine crops here, and favorable growing season, with just rain enough."

New York Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Wheat Flour,	$3,94 to 4,12
Rye Flour,	3,12 to 3,12
Indian Meal, Jersey,	3,06 to 3,12
Grain—Wheat,	1,00 to 1,00
Rye,	79 to 81
Corn,	60 to 62
Oats, Jersey,	40 to 42

Hoofland's German Bitters.—These celebrated Bitters prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, 120 Arch street, Philadelphia; are performing astonishing cures throughout the whole country.—We can bear witness to the curative powers in the case of a friend of ours who had the Liver Complaint, and who had tried almost every other medicine, but without effect. After taking a few bottles of these Bitters he was entirely cured. To those who are similarly afflicted we recommend them to take the preparation, knowing that they will cure the disease spoken of, and many others to which "flesh is heir to." There is a spurious article made in Philadelphia. The only place to get the genuine article is 120 Arch street, Philadelphia, of Dr Jackson, or his agents throughout the country.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Camphor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED!

LET WHO WILL SAY TO THE CONTRARY.

PORTLAND, Sept. 4th, 1851.

Dr. Scovill—Sir:—I have always heard that when profuse NIGHT SWEATS come on, and the flesh of the legs begins to pull up that the case of the CONSUMPTIVE is HOPELESS. But it is not so. Such was my condition when I began taking your Dr. Rogers' Syrup of Liverwort, Tar and Canchalagua, in April last after having been confined to my bed for two months! My Physician had said he could do nothing for me—my friends had no hopes, and my own were very faint. But, in two days there was a marked change. In less than two weeks my Cough became quite loose; my Lungs seemed as if a mountain had been removed from them and I could sleep without being propped up with pillows in bed. Soon my appetite began to come back to me, and with it strength. I need not here trace the cure through all its stages. It is sufficient to say, that it has proved a CURE, complete, thorough and permanent. I have had no return of the disease, and, with proper care, anticipate none. You are at liberty to publish this letter. In haste, yours, &c.,

JOS. LIBBEY.

CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on the buff wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. L. SCOVILL & CO.

For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Clothis Hall, 316 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.

Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

PRICE—In large bottles, $1,00, or 6 bottles for $5,00.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

I. S. Dunham & Co. $16,28: David Boice, Greenbrook, 1,50; D. Bornmann, Warrenville, 1,25; W. S. Dunham, 1,00; John Crampton, Mount Bethel, 1,00; Nathaniel Compton, 88; James M. Gaskill, New Market, 75; Jacob S. Brown, Martinville, 75.

MARRIED,

By Rev. D. G. Mandeville, June 20, Allen P. Northrop, of Castleton, Vt. to Emily, daughter of Sara Fairchild, Principal of the Flushing Institute, Flushing, L. I.

DIED.

In Rahway, 14th inst. Jefferson Martin, aged 47 years and 6 months.

In Rahway, 10th inst. June, wife of Joseph Freeman, aged 40 years.

The Cholera continues to spread in all directions at the West, and has touched many of the towns in that region, some of them having suffered severely.

The Detroit and Cleveland papers state that fashionable travelling parties from those cities and neighborhood, are rallying in great numbers on Lake Superior, where they intend to spend the season. Marquette is the favorite point of destination, and a more inviting spot for scenery, fishing, gunning, and sailing, cannot be found in the far North-west. A few miles back are the famous iron mountains, and numerous pellucid lakes, their waters as well as the rivers from them which empty into the beautiful bay, being stored with the speckled trout. The hotel accommodations are those of a new country, but not the thing for such as need a change, to make them better.

Turkey in the Exhibition.—By letters from the Turkish Ambassador received in this city, it appears that arangements are making for sending a Turkish steam frigate to New-York, with the various productions and fabrics of Turkey, for the exhibition at the new Crystal Palace.

Glancing over a page of blackwood, recently, we met with this observation: "There is but one way of being correct and agreeing with everyone else—that is, to say nothing that can be of any possible use to any one."

Learning is obtained only by labor; it cannot be bought with money; if it could the rich would always be intelligent.

A Beautiful Action.—A London merchant, who, I believe, is still alive, while he was staying in the country with a friend, happened to mention that he intended the next year to try a ticket in the lottery; his friend desired that he would buy one for him at the same time, which, of course, was very readily agreed to. The conversation dropped, the ticket never arrived, and the whole affair was entirely forgotten, when the country gentleman received information that the ticket purchased for him by his friend had come up to a prize of £10,000. Upon his arrival in London he inquired where he had put the ticket, and why he had not informed him that it was purchased. "I bought them both the same day, mine and your ticket, and I flung them both into the drawer of my bureau, and I never thought of them afterwards." "But how do you distinguish one ticket from the other? and why am I the holder of the fortunate ticket more than you?" "Why at the time I put them in the drawer, I put a mark upon the ticket which I resolved should be yours; and upon opening the drawer, I found the one so marked was the fortunate ticket."

"Now," adds the narrator, "this action appears to me perfectly beautiful; it is the beau ideal in morals, and gives that calm, yet deep emotion of pleasure which every one so easily receives from the beauty of the exterior world."

To Salt Bearers, and Others!

SAMUEL HOTALING, No. 101 & 103, Broad street, New York, would inform his customers in the city and country that he has Liverpool Sacks of Fine and Ground Salt; also Turks Island, St. Martin's and other Coarse Salt in store, at the following places: at Commercial Stores, Brooklyn, at Baxter & Lawrence's Store, foot of Delancy street, at 118 Warren street, and also at Baxter Wadsworth's, No. 101 & 103 Broad street, New York. At each of the above named places a supply of salt will be kept on hand, and delivered in lots to suit purchasers, at the lowest Market prices.

Liverpool and Turks Island Salt afloat.

New York, July 26, 1852.—3m

1852. CHEAPER YET!

At Oliver Runyon's Cheap Dry Goods and GROCERY STORE.

Gentlemen and Ladies please call and examine my stock of Goods before you buy elsewhere. My friends and customers that my stock is constantly changing, as I replace with new goods adapted to suit the different seasons of trade.

Handsome Barege DeLaines from 1s. to 2s. per yard. Lawn from 9c to 22c. Black Alpaces from 2 to 2s. yd Prints any variety from 4c to 1s. French Calico from 1s.50 to 2s. Best Irish Linen from 1s. to 2s. Bobbinet muslin from 4c to 1s.6d. Cambric, Jaconet, Book and Swiss muslin, plain and figured. Bishop Lawn 3s to 4s. Black and colored gloves for gents and ladies. Hosiery of all kinds, a no a good assortment of Linen and Straw Hats from 1s. to 2s. each.

GROCERIES

A good article of Green and Black Tea from 4s. to 8s per lb. Molassess 2s to 3s. Brown sugar 3c 6d to 4s.6d. Coffee crushed 4s.6d. to 5s. Candied and pounded Sugars. Islande Sugar, Coffee, Rice, Vinegar, hominy, and every thing in the Grocery line.

CROCKERY and GLASS WARE, a Good Assortment constantly on hand. Please call and examine for yourselves. Also,

PROVISIONS.—Salt Pork, Shoulders, Hams, Dried beef, lard, butter, cheese, fish by half barrels, fine salt by the sack. coarse salt, &c.

Boots and Shoes, for men and boys, Ladies', gaiters, buskins, slippers, morocco, patent leather and cloth Buskins, at low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Linseed oil, boiled oil, lamp oils, Furniture and reach varnish, white lead, yellow ochre, Venitian red, chrome yellow, red lead, Paris green, lamp black, litharge, brown Japan, fire proof Paint, putty, glass, &c. &c.

FLOUR, fine and coarse, Meal, ground feed, wheat bran, and grain constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village.

N. B. All kinds of produce, rags, and in fact every thing you can eat, drink or wear, taken in exchange for goods.

OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, July 26, 1852

AGENTS WANTED TO SELL THE

Life of Gen. Scott,

511 pages 12mo, Handsomely and durably bound,

Illustrated by Engravings,

BY EDWARD D. MANSFIELD, ESQ., many years Editor of the Cincinnati Daily Chronicle The Subscribers will shortly receive from the Press, an Edition of the above valuable work, and will furnish those who wish to become Agents to circulate the same, on the most favorable terms. For further particulars and all necessary information, apply personally or address their letters to the subscriber, H MANSFIELD, Jy26 Publisher, 184 York Street, New Haven, Ct.

Farms For Sale, or Exchange for a place in the vicinity of Plainfield.

AN Improved Farm of 211 acres of best quality Land on Rock Creek, State of Illinois, on which is a House and Barn; fine situation, and a part under cultivation, being 10 miles west of Peru, the terminus of the Aurora Branch Railroad, which road will be extended west and run within 5 miles of said farm. Another is a thriving place on Fox River containing a population of over 2500.

Also, an improved farm of 123 acres lying 5 miles south of Aurora, which is well adapted for a good farm. The neighborhood is well Settled.

Also 160 acres of Land unimproved, situated on Third Lake, near the City of Madison, the capital of Wisconsin, being only 4 miles distant. For further information apply to the subscriber, opposite the residence of Hon. Mr. Whittaker. JOHN J. WALLIS.

Plainfield, June 21, 1852.—3w

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant, do. Sanative Pills Also,

Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops, do. Carminative Balsam, an approved remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholic, Cramps, pains in the Stomach or Bowels, Atwood's Spinal Elixir for the spinal disease. Also, Hunt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by

April 20, 1852. JAMES M. DUNN.

BERRITT'S Double Refined Powdered Saleratus " Chemical Yeast Powder in 2s boxes. " Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

A FEW Superior Oak Staff CHURNS for sale by July 19, 1852. LEWIS E. BARKALEW.

DISSOLUTION

THE Copartnership heretofore existing between the subscribers under the name of BERRY & RUNYON is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The Books are in the hands of A. Berry for collection who is authorized to settle the business of the firm.

ALFRED BERRY,
ABRAHAM RUNYON.

Plainfield, July 17, 1852.

The Store, Tinning and Hardware Business will be continued, on the cash system, by A. BERRY

Lyon's Kathairon,

For the Growth and Embellishment of the Hair, to Prevent its falling off and Turning Gray.

Awarded the Highest Premiums by the States of New York, Maryland and Michigan at their annual Fairs of 1851.

THE Kathairon nearly all the effect of disease, all acute and old age, in Preserving and Restoring the Human Hair, even after a Baldness of twenty years; also in curing from four to eight bottles all cases of the Nervous Headache, Scald Head, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Skin, &c. and it is the most desirable

TOILET ARTICLE

For Ladies or Gentlemen's use in the world. Its perfume equals Lubin's choicest Extracts, and being free from all offensive rancid oil or coloring properties, it never stains the finest cambric, linen, lively appearance, secured by no other preparation.

The use of the Kathairon is adopted by the first physicians in Europe and America, on the advantageous and successful result in the history of the materia medica. But words are superfluous, a trial only can attest its real virtue, as millions certify. To be had throughout North and South America, Europe and the Islands of the Ocean, in large Bottles, for 25 cents.

Sold in Plainfield by
July 19, 1852.—6m* M. F. CUSHING.

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF

Pure Jamaica Ginger.

"Dear Sir,—I speak from a general knowledge of the virtues of Ginger, and particularly of your preparation of Jamaica Ginger, when I say that I have used it in my practice. For Dyspepsia, Cholera, Cholic, Summer complaints, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, General Weakness, &c. It is unquestionably the best article in the world. Its effect in curing the above is to throw off and resist disease of all kinds so usual during warm weather, makes it invaluable to every family. Its timely use would prevent nine-tenths of the protracted sickness during the summer season.

Yours truly, R. M. CHILSON, M. D.
132 Sand-Street, New York."

This article, peculiarly adapted to this climate, and which is so universally used, can be had in Plainfield of July 19, 1852.—6m* M. F. CUSHING.

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

A Great Reduction in Prices at THOMAS H. DAVIS'S

Furnishing Store

The Largest Stock in the City,

226 Burnet-St. New Brunswick & 180 Broad St. Newark.

IT will be well worthy the notice of all those who want to purchase any kind of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, Crockery, Glass, China, Cutlery, Britannia ware, Lamps, Chandeliers, Girandoles, Bedsteads, Bedding, Rockers, Tables, Oil Cloths, Feathers, Feather Beds, Matresses, &c. in fact all things that are needed to housekeeping, which to enumerate would fill a newspaper. Though one thing I must mention—BOOTS and SHOES, Men's, women and misses, all can be bought at such low prices that every body is astonished, both in town and country how it can be done. Why, I can see how he does it, he attends to business himself, buys for cash and sells for the same, thereby he does not impose upon those that pay for those that never meant to pay. This is the true principle of doing business. Give him a call, 226 Burnet street, over Stryker's Eating Saloon.

July 19.—3m. THOMAS H. DAVIS.

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment, AT Less than New York prices, for sale by July 12, 1852. WM. S. WOOD.

Prepared or Artificial GUANO.

At 1 cent per pound, or, $40 per ton of 2000 lbs.

A TA meeting of the Farmer's Club, American Institute, New York, on the 16th December, 1851, the following communication was made,

That a number of Farmers had called upon my place last season, which was (on account of the dry weather) an unfavorable one for Turnips. The specimen is not the largest grown, although this weighed when first pulled 4 3/4 lbs. I used in the Spring of 1850, about two barrels of Prepared Guano, to the acre, and planted Sweet Corn, which produced a large crop. I then cropped with Turnips, which was a full crop. About two barrels I put in the Turnip seed, without any further Manuring, thus the three barrels above mentioned, and the result was far beyond my expectations.

Fairfield Co. Dec. 12, 1851. S. WHITING.

POTATO ROT.

Westchester Co. N. Y., Sept. 29, 1850.

I have used "Kentish's Prepared Guano" this season on potatoes. My crop was large and sound. Where I did not use it, their tatoes were rotten and worthless. My neighbors also who have not used this Fertilizer, have not raised a saleable potato this year. I consider it a preventive of Rot! G. PREVOT.

Extract of a Letter from E. B. Addison.

Alexandria co, Va. April 25, 1851.

Dr. John H. Bayne, Agent for the sale of Kentish's Co. Agricultural Society, Maryland, has desired me to inform you that last spring he used African Guano, Poudrette, Peruvian Guano, and your prepared Guano, on five different fields, which was the result from the Peruvian and yours, was about equal. He pronounces your prepared Guano to be a very excellent article, and esteems it highly. FOR SALE BY

KENTISH & CO.

DEPOT, No. 40 PECK SLIP, NEW YORK.

For Sale at this Office. July 19.—3m

FARM NOTICE

THAT the Judges of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, in and for the County of Essex and State of New Jersey, did, at the term of April, A. D. 1852, appoint Tuesday the 24th day of August next at 10 o'clock A. M. at the Court House in Newark in the said County and State of New Jersey, for the hearing of all persons who have applied for or against my discharge as an Insolvent Debtor, under the Insolvent laws of said State.

JOHN Y. RAINBRIDGE.

Dated Newark, July 10, 1852.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!

Just Received, Twenty Tons of

Peruvian Guano,

And For Sale in large or small quantities, at about New York prices, by WM VAIL.

New-Market, June 28, 1852.—3m*

Hope's Express.

For Newark, Elizabethtown, Westfield, Plainfield, Bound-brook, Somerville, White House, Clinton and Easton, Pa.

Leaves New York daily at 9 o'clock, arriving at Plainfield at 10 1-2 o'clock, A. M. Leave Plainfield at 3 o'clock, arriving in New York at 4 1-2 o'clock, P. M.

JOHN LANG, Agent for Plainfield.

A. H. HOPE, 61 Courtlandt-st., New York.

☞ This Express has been systematized, and all orders will be executed with safety and despatch.

Plainfield, Nov. 19, 1850.

HORACE SEATON,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN LACE GOODS,

554 Broad Street, Newark.

☞ Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Tabs, Dress Trimmings, Edgings, Embroideries Muslin, Gloves and Hosiery, Millinery articles, Combs, Brushes, Otto, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. He will be found in the same building a superb stock of Gent's, Ladies and Children's fancy dress Shoes and Gaiters. o22 ly.

BARARGE DELAINES—a few pieces just Received and selling off cheap.

Calicoes, last colors, for 6 cents per yard

May 8, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at I. S. DUNHAM & CO.'s.

Looking Glasses—A Large number JUST RECEIVED, from 25 cents to $7, each, by D BULLMAN

Emery & Co.'s Patent Horse Power, Thrasher and Separator.

THE UNDERSIGNED have been appointed sole agents in the city of New York for the sale of their Improved Horse Powers and Thrashers. Those wishing to procure Emery's Improved Horse Power and Machine will observe that their name is cast on every link of chain. None other is Genuine.

LOVETT & GRIFFING
State Agricultural Warehouse,
July 5, 1852.—3m No. 25 Cliff Street, New-York.

Spring & Summer Dry Goods

HITCHCOCK & LEADBEATER, No. 847 Broadway, New-York, have in store one of the finest assortments in the city of

FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS,

suitable for every season of the year, and every climate, and would especially invite attention to their large and elegant stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER DRESS GOODS,

which they have just purchased for cash, for nearly half price, and are enabled to offer at

VERY GREAT BARGAINS!

Their stock includes every variety of Silks, Shawls, De Laines, Barege De Laines, Challies, Printed Muslins and Lawns, Bareges, Silk Tissues, Grenadines, Ginghams, Organdie Muslins, Pongee, Mourning Goods, Mourning Collars, Sets, &c.,

MOURNING GOODS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

A full and complete assortment always on hand, including Black Bombazines, Alpaces, Challies, Canton Crapes, Crapes, &c., &c., which parties interested will find desirable.

FANCY GOODS OF VARIOUS KINDS.

Also plain and embroidered Pocket-handkerchiefs, Cravats, Gloves, Collars, Mitts, Trimming Laces, &c., &c.,

A SPLENDID STOCK OF RIBBONS,

bought very low for cash, which the ladies will find desirable and cheap, and which Milliners will find it their interest to purchase before completing their purchases.

HOUSEWIFE AND FAMILY GOODS,

as Linens, Table Damasks, Napkins, Towels, Towelings, Crash, Shirtings and Sheetings, Muslins, rich embroidered

LACE AND MUSLIN WINDOW DRAPERIES,

in great variety, and of every quality and price

GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS,

A very large and complete assortment—as Silk, Silk and Thread Gloves; Silk and Summer Cravats; Silk and Linen Pocket-handkerchiefs; Cotton, Silk and Merino Undershirts and Drawers; Socks, &c., &c., at prices much lower than the same articles can be found at the

GENTLEMAN'S FURNISHING STORES.

Please call and examine, and if not found desirable and reasonable, you will not be desired to purchase.

Country Merchants will find it to their interest to look through our stock, as they can here select any article they wish, in any quantity they desire, and at prices which they will find it an object to purchase at, as most of our goods are purchased for cash, and are the best styles, and full 50 per cent. below the ordinary jobbing rates.

Terms invariably Cash—and only One Price.

New York, June 21, 1852.—1y

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a store in the Main street, opposite Webster & Marsh's store, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, &c. Having purchased her goods at the present prices, she is prepared to sell Ribands, Gimps, Gloves, Silk Laces, Collars, Muslins, Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and every thing in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in the city.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from Somerville, she is prepared for orders in all the various branches of Dress Making. Caps and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 5, 1852.—6m.

J. A. WOODLAND,

HOUSE, SIGN AND

DECORATIVE PAINTER,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

☞ The above is prepared to executes all orders in his line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Paper-Hanging Department, with punctuality, neatness and despatch, and at prices considerably less than those usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.

March 23, 1852.

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Earthen and Stone Ware, also Boots and Shoes, &c. My stock has been selected with great care, and an eye to cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints,	Ginghams,	Cassimeres,
Barege de Lane,	Gloves,	Summerstuffs,
Lawns,	Hosiery,	Fustians, &c.

And all styles of goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear, including bleached and unbleached muslins, cambrics, shirtings, sheetings, buttons, thread, cotton bats, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas,	Rice,	Sugars,	Candles,	Flour
Coffee,	Corn Starch,		Soap,	Indian Meal
PROVISIONS—		Butter,	Lard,	Smoked Beef,
Pepper, Spices,		Cheese,	Hams,	Pork, &c.

Pepper sauce, Cherry, Pickles, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which I will sell as low or can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all both old and young, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be pleased on examination.

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!!!

The subscriber has also on hand a good assortment of Black and changeable silks, which will be sold low.

May 4, 1852. J. V. ARROWSMITH.

NOTICE.

Miss C. Prosch,

WOULD hereby inform her many friends and the public generally, that she continues making her suit of rooms, on a much larger and improved plan than any other in this city, and is now ready to furnish Daguerreotypes second to none. Family Groups from one to twenty, taken to give satisfaction. Also Portraits of all ages, in a few, seconds of time. Portraits of sick and deceased persons taken whenever calledupon. Also Daguerreotypes neatly set in lockets.

Miss C. PROSCH has no connection with any other establishment, and would respectfully wish her friends to bear in mind that she can always be found at 259 Broad-street, only, where she trusts to merit that patronage so long and liberally bestowed upon her.

June 1.—8m. 259 Broad-street, NEWARK.

IRA PRUDEN,

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils,

Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning-Fluid, &c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual,

June 14, 1852.

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at Office, opposite Cherry Street.

Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE,

SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods in his line. He also Informs all customers that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute all orders in all the branches of the above business, as well, as quick and as cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us and judge for yourselves.

May 17, 1852—tf

Hoover's Black Ink.

THE Best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. If not settled by cash or note will be compelled to call for collection. As I don't wish to put expense on any one, I give this notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON

Plainfield, April 9, 1852

A GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES

AT THE CELEBRATED LARGEST AND CHEAPEST

CARPET ESTABLISHMENT

In the United States, No. 99 Bowery.

HIRAM ANDERSON'S

RIGHT STRAIGHT RAILROAD ROOMS,

Wholesale and Retail.

Sales Room No. 1.

CONTAINS the Largest, Handsomest and Cheap st assortment of English and American Floor Cloths, to be found in the city, from

TWO SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE

To One Dollar Cheaper square yard, of one to eight yards wide

Sales Room No. 2.

Contains the most beautiful and variegated assortment of English and American superior Ingrain Carpeting, at unparalleled low prices, from Shillings to Six Shillings and Sixpence per yard—new and elegant figures for Spring Sales.

Sales Room No 3

Is fully stocked with an unrivaled assortment of English and American Imperial Three Ply Carpeting, of new and elegant designs, manufactured expressly for the city trade, at a reduction of twenty five per cent from former prices. 8s 6d, 7s, and 6s per yard, and upwards.

Sales Room No. 4.

Contains one hundred and fifty pieces of fine Ingrain Carpeting, new full styles, at 2s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s, 3s 6d, and Four Shillings per yard.

Sales Room No 5.

Displays a great variety of English Druggets, from one to four yards wide, from three shillings and sixpence per yard and upwards. Also, an elegant assortment of Rugs, Mats, &c., at very reduced prices.

Sales Room No. 6.

Is fully stocked with every variety of Stairs and Hall Carpeting, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s 6d, 4s, 5s, and 6s per yard.

In Sales Room No. 7,

Are the Patent Tapestry Ingrain Carpets exhibited at the World's Fair, formerly sold at nine shillings per yard, now selling at

SIX SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE PER YARD.

Sales Room No. 8.

An extensive assortment of Table and Piano Covers, Window Shades from 6s to $10 the pair, Table Oil Cloths, Brussels and Three Ply Carpets, Venitian Stair Carpet, Plated and Brass Stair Rods, Parlor Door Mats, &c. &c., all of which are offered at 25 per cent. less than at any other establishment in this city.

HIRAM ANDERSON,

No. 99 Bowery, N. Y.

All goods packed and sent free of charge. 1y.feb.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

In Chancery N. J.

Between Lewis Cysig, Complainant, and William W. Davison and Elizabeth Davison, Defendants.

Fi. Fa. for sale of Mortgaged Premises

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed, I will expose for sale at public vendue at Laing's Hotel; Plainfield, on Thursday the 12th day of August next, at 1 o'clock, P. M. All that certain lot of Land and premises, situate, lying and being in the township of Plainfield, in Somerset Co. N. J. and bounded as follows: Beginning at a stake in the centre of Church street, in Plainfield, and also in the middle of Second Street, in Lewis Bonnell's corner, thence along his line and the middle of Church st. S. 50 deg. 20 minutes, E. 2 ch. 81 links to a stone and corner of Lewis Bond's land, thence along his line S. 44 1-2 deg. W. 92 links to a stone and corner of Lewis Bonnell's land, thence by the lands belonging to the Society of Friends, thence along their line N. 52 1-4 deg. W. 1 ch. 26 links to a stone on the middle of Second Street, and also a corner of Laing's other land, thence along his line N. W. 1 ch. 55 links to the middle of Second street, thence along the middle of Second Street, N. 44 1-2 deg. E. 2 ch. 37 links to the place of beginning, containing 25-100ths of an acre of Land. W. PIERSON, Sheriff.

Central Rail Road of N. J.

NOTICE.

The cars will run as follows until further notice,

Commencing Monday, July 5th, 1852.

Leave Easton for New York at	6 A. M.	and 3.30,	P. M
Clinton, "	7.05	4.25
White House, "	7.20	4.50
Returning, leave New York at	8 A. M.	and 4,	P. M.

Leave Somerville at 5.50 & 7.50 a.m. 12.40 & 5.15, p.m.

Plainfield,	6.25	8.25	1.20 5.50
Westfield,	6.40	8.40	1.40 6.10
Elizabethtown,	7	9	2 6.30

Returning leave New York at 8 and 10 a. m. 4 & 6 p.m.

By steamboat.—Leave Elizabethport at 7.15 and 9.10 A. M. and 2.15, 3, and 6.40 P. M.

Leave Pier No. 1 North River at 8 and 10, A. M. and 12, 4 and 6, P. M.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of I. S. Dunham & Co., where he has on hand a large and well assorted stock together with silver work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

☞ Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Cash will be given in exchange for Clocks.

Plainfield, April 18, 1852—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the corner of Front street, and Somerset street, next to the corner of Front street, and near French's mill, where they are prepared to sell all articles in their line cheap as the cheapest and good as the best, ingluding Flour and Feed. Also Crockery and Earthen Ware.

Produce of all kinds wanted in exchange for groceries. Thankful for past favors, asks a continuance of the same.

Also, Dr. Mrs. Yoe's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaint.

JOHNSON & LYON.

N. B. All persons indebted to the subscriber are requested to call and settle without delay.

April 3, 1852.—1y. CHARLES JOHNSON.

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to Colon Baker's, where a Wagon Shop and carpets Peck's Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

GARHART & NEEDHAM,

Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

With Recent Important Improvements.

Price from $60 to $200.

No. 75 East Thirteenth Street, J. Carhart E. P. Needham. NEW YORK

N. B. ☞ Reeds constantly on hand.

Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, Elizabethtown, (a short distance from the depot,) would invite his former friends and the public to call and see his stock of clothing at a low price, to give him a call.

His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit as to shape.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay.

April 26, 1852. ☞ tf. JOHN ERGEN.

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES PACKENHAM & SON, beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 25 cents a piece, (sizing the walls and paste included.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Gilt and Velvet Paper. Gold and Velvet Borders from 10 cents 6 yds per piece. A Room papered in 4 hours.

J. P. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufactory, Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852. 1y.feb.

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

EBAZEE MARSH returns thanks for his numerous patrons for the liberal patronage and favor paid him during the past year, and would announce that he has enlarged his stock of Paints, and taken into partnership himself, Wesley Marsh. The business will be continued at the old stand, opposite the Central Railroad Depot, where he will be kept constantly on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., as cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to House, Sign and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

PUNCTUALITY IS ALL CAKES.

Mixed Paint constantly on hand. Advice gratis.

Jan. 5, 1852. F. MARSH & SON.

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the Subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N. J. consisting from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on 2d, 3d, 4th, Main, Liberty and William st; also a good sized lot with a Dwelling House built expressly for a tenement, with a good Cellar, and Well, and a desirable location, very nigh the centre of the business part of town, on the corner of Second and Second sts. a very short distance from Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store.

Jan. 19 1852.—tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS

DANIEL BULLMAN,

is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Spring Patterns; Domestics of every grade and price; Silks, plain and figured; Ginghams, Alpacas, &c. suitable to the season; Linens, White Goods of every kind; Cassimeres, Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Hosiery, Gloves, and all other articles in the dry goods line, necessary to make a variety. Will still complete an assortment to can be found in these parts, and they will be sold as cheap too. Try us and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing these articles; will find it to their interest to call at this place. I buy good articles, and sell them as cheap as any man can. Our customers cannot help being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY,

Some very beautiful, and some very cheap; a large and varied assortment to suit all tastes, constantly on hand. Also, Lamps, in great variety.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell the same goods as cheap, and save you the trouble of going. Look inside of going after it.

Also, Looking-Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

A BRIEF AND PLAIN NOTICE,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it, by strict attention of the public's patronage and liberality.

April 26, 1852. D. BULLMAN.

1852. SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

WE would say to our friends and customers generally that we have returned from the eastern markets, and have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not praise up our Goods with a view of trying to make the public believe them cheap when they are not, but intend that their style and quality shall speak for themselves. DeLaines from 10cts to 4s.; headdress Barege de Laines from 1s. to 2s. per yard; Prints and watered Poplin Silks from 3s. to 10s. per yard; Prints any variety from 4 to 14 cts.; a good lot of Ladies' Gloves from 10 cts to 75; also Gents Gloves, Bleached and Brown Muslins from 3cts; Ginghams from 10 cts to 28, and more than a thousand other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloths, plain and fancy Cassimeres, a fine assortment of Vestings any or all of which can be cut and made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Dry Goods from the

Plainest and Cheapest

To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it as object to Cash purchasers from 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we see no object in buying on credit and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

SILKS! SILKS!! SILKS!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, some of the richest styles of Styles to which the attention of Ladies is particularly requested. at ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

May 24, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Thorn's new building in Cherry st., 2nd below Dr. Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the public in Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns DeLaines, Silks, Ginghams, Hosiery of all kinds, A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Calicoes, Cambrics, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Pork, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders, Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Hollow and Wooden Ware,

Tubs, Baskets, Brooms, Washing Machines, Brooms, white shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.

LIME, Hair, Plaster and Ground Stone.

☞ All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods. JAMES M. DUNN.

April 20, 1852.—1y.

Lawrence's Gallery,

203 Broadway, 3 doors below Fulton- STREET, NEW YORK.

THE proprietor has established an establishment expressly for Daguerreotypes, with a view to obviate many of the difficulties that surround the Daguerreian Artist, has found after a trial of two years, that his expectations have been fully realized. The brilliancy and depth of light is new, and produces uniformly soft and bold pictures, with the middle, or neutral tints, so long looked for by artists. The operation is arranged with particular reference to taking Family and Children Groups. Fifty persons daw be taken with great facility. The Operating Department is conducted by persons of great experience and skill, and none but good Pictures will be sent out, Mr. L. has been the first to produce Daguerreotypes the size of life. They are produced with the same ease, expedition, and on plates three times larger than ever before used, producing a Picture having all the softness and delicacy of the finest Miniature.—Pictures of every description copied with perfect accuracy. Citizens and Strangers will find the Gallery a pleasant resort, and the weather no detriment to taking good pictures. The public of Plainfield and vicinity are invited to visit the Gallery and examine specimens.

THE FIRST PREMIUM, A PRIZE MEDAL, was awarded to Mr Lawrence, at the World's Fair in London, for the BEST Daguerreotypes. Enough said.

April 26th, 1852.—3m. M. M. LAWRENCE.

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at E. GLENN & Co's Manufactory, 194 Fulton-street, (corner of Broadway,) a General Assortment of Mahogany and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

E. GLENN & CO., 194 Fulton-street, Oct. 7, 1851.—1y New York.

12 South Down Sheep

AND FOUR LAMBS, For Sale by the Subscribor, on his Farm, near Plainfield.

June 21, '52 EDWARD ROACH.

The Cholera continues to spread in all directions at the West, and has touched many of the towns in that region, some of them having suffered rather severely.

The Detroit and Cleveland papers state that fashionable travelling parties from those cities and neighborhood, are rallying in great numbers on Lake Superior, where they intend to spend the season. Marquette is the favorite point of destination, and a more inviting spot for scenery, fishing, gunning, and sailing, cannot be found in the far North-west. A few miles back are the famous iron mountains, and numerous pellucid lakes, their waters as well as the rivers from them which empty into the beautiful bay, being stored with the speckled trout. The hotel accommodations are those of a new country, but just the thing for such as need a change, to make them better.

Turkey in the Exhibition.—By letters from the Turkish Ambassador received in this city, it appears that arrangements are making for sending a Turkish steam frigate to New-York, with the various productions and fabrics of Turkey, for the exhibition at the new Crystal Palace.

Glancing over a page of Blackwood, recently, we met with this expression: "There is but one way of being correct and agreeing with everybody, it is to say nothing that can be of any possible use to any one."

Learning is obtained only by labor; it cannot be bought with money; if it could the rich would always be intelligent.

A Beautiful Action.—A London merchant, who, I believe, is still alive, while he was staying in the country with a friend, happened to mention that he intended the next year, to buy a ticket in the lottery; his friend desired that he would buy one for him at the same time, which, of course, was very readily agreed to. The conversation dropped, the ticket never arrived, and the whole affair was entirely forgotten, when the country gentleman received information that the ticket purchased for him by his friend had come up to a prize of $100,000. Upon his arrival in London he inquired where he had put the ticket, and why he had not informed him that it was purchased; he bought them both the same day, one and your ticket, and I flung them both into the drawer of my bureau, and I never thought of them afterwards." "But how do you distinguish one ticket from the other? and why am I the holder of the fortunate ticket more than you?" "Why at the time I put them in the drawer, I put a mark upon the ticket which I resolved should be yours; and upon opening the drawer, I found the one so marked was the fortunate ticket."

"Now," adds the narrator, "this action appears to me perfectly beautiful; it is the beau ideal in morals, and gives that calm, yet deep emotion of pleasure which every one so easily receives from the beauty of the exterior world."

To Salt Dealers, and Others!

SAMUEL HOTALING, No. 101 & 103 Broad street, New York, would inform his customers in this city and country that he has Liverpool Sacks of Fine and Ground Salt; also Turks Island, St. Martin's and other Coarse Salt in store, at the following places: at Commercial Stores, Brooklyn, at Baxter & Lawrence's Stores, foot of Delancy street, at 118 Warren street, and also at his Salt Warehouse, No. 101 and 103, Broad street, New York. At each of the above named places a supply of salt will be kept on hand, and delivered in lots to suit purchasers, at the lowest Market prices.

Liverpool Sacks and Turks Island Salt afloat.

New York, July 26, 1852.—2m.

1852. CHEAPER YET!

At Oliver Runyon's Cheap Dry Goods and GROCERY STORE.

Gentlemen and Ladies please call and examine my stock of Goods for yourselves. I would say to my friends and customers that I have added to my stock during the past year, and replaced with new goods adapted to suit the different seasons of trade.

Hamburg Strange DeLaines from 1s. to 8s. per yard. Lawn from 9c to 22c. Black Alpaces from 2 to 7s. yd Prints as low as any. 1 yard Calico from 1c. to 2c. Plain Barege from 25 to 33c. Bleached muslin from 4c to 10c. Bleached and unbleached Sheeting muslin, plain and figured. Bishop Lawn 8c to 4s. Black and coloured gloves for gents and ladies from 10 to 75c. Plain Crape and Bombazine for mourning. Summer goods for every day wear. Cloths, Cassimers, Doeskins, Satinets, cords, jeans, muslin, linen and cotton Edgings, Lace buttons, Hosiery of all kinds, and a good assortment of Leghorn and Straw Hats from 1s. to 7s. each.

GROCERIES

A good article of Green and Black Tea from 4s. to 8s. per lb. Molasses from 20 to 25c. Loaves sugar 8c to 9c. Coffee crushed 4c. to 5c. Crushed and powdered sugars, Raisins 8c to 1s. Coffee, Rice, Vinegar, hominy, and everything in the Grocery line.

CROCKERY and GLASS WARE, a Good Assortment constantly on hand. Please call and examine for yourselves.

PROVISIONS.—Salt Pork, Shoulders, Hams, Dried beef, Mackerel, Shad, fish by half barrels, fine salt by the sack, coarse salt, &c.

BOOTS and SHOES, for men and boys, ladies', gaiters, buskins, slippers, morocco, patent leather and child's Boots, low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Linseed oil, boiled oil, lamp oil's. Furniture and coach varnish, white lead, white zinc, Venitian red, chrome yellow, red lead, Paris green, lamp black, litharge, brown japan, fire proof Paints, glue, putty, &c. &c.

FLOUR, fine and coarse, Meal, ground feed, wheat bran, and grain, constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village.

N. B. Please call and examine my stock in fact everything you can eat, drink or wear, taken in exchange for goods.

OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, July 26, 1852

AGENTS WANTED TO SELL THE

Life of Gen. Scott,

531 pages 12mo. Handsomely and durably bound, Illustrated by Engravings,

BY EDWARD D. MANSFIELD, LL. D., many years Editor of the Cincinnati Daily Gazette. The Subscriber will shortly receive from the Press, an Edition of the above valuable work, and will furnish those who wish to engage in its sale with terms, on the most favorable terms. For further particulars and all necessary information, applicants will please address their letters to the subscriber, E. MANSFIELD, 3y26 Publisher, 184 York Street, New Haven, Ct.

Farms For Sale, or Exchange for a place in the vicinity of Plainfield.

AN Improved Farm of 61 acres of best quality Land on Cedar Creek, State of Delaware, on which is a House and Barn: fine situation, and a part under cultivation, being 16 miles west of the present termination of the Delaware Railroad, which road will in the course of next year run within 5 miles of said farm. Another is a thriving place on Fox River containing a population of over 2000.

Also, an unimproved farm of 122 acres lying 5 miles north of Aurora, which is well adapted for a good farm. The neighborhood is well settled.

Also 160 acres of land unimproved, situated on Third Lake, near the City of Madison, the capital of Wisconsin, being only 4 miles distant. For further information apply to the subscriber, opposite the residence of Rev. E. Whitaker.

JOHN J. WALLIS.

Plainfield, June 21, 1852.—3y

Dr. Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant.

do. Sanative Pills Also,

Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops. These drops are an agreeable, effectual remedy for bloody Dysentery, Cholera, Chollic, Cramps, pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Atwood's Spinal Elixir for the spine disease. Also, Hunt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by

April 20, 1852. JAMES M. DUNN.

Rabbitts Double Refined Powdered Saleratus

" Chemical Yeast Powder in tin boxes.

" Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

A FEW Superior Oak Staff CHURNS for sale by July 19, 1852. LEWIS R. BARKALEW.

DISSOLUTION.

THE Copartnership heretofore existing between the subscribers under the name of BERRY & RUNYON is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The Books are in the hands of A. Berry for collection who is authorized to settle the business of the firm.

ALFRED BERRY,
ABRAHAM RUNYON.

Plainfield, July 17, 1852.

The Stove, Tinning and Hardware Business will be continued, on the cash system, by A. BERRY

Lyon's Kathairon,

For the Growth and Embellishment of the Hair, To Prevent its falling off and Turning Gray.

Awarded the Highest Premiums by the States of New York, Maryland and Michigan at their annual Fairs of 1851.

THE Kathairon nourishes the effect of disease, elimate and old age, in Preserving and Restoring the Human Hair, even after a Baldness of twenty years; cleanses the scalp from Dandruff and Scurf; will cure all diseases of the Scalp, Scald Head, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Skin, &c. and it is the most desirable

TOILET ARTICLE

For Ladies' or Gentlemen's use in the world. Its perfume equals Lubin's choicest Extracts, and being free from all offensive rancid oil or coloring properties, it gives the Hair that clean, bright, soft, lively appearance which no other preparation possesses.

The use of the Kathairon is adopted by the first physicians in Europe and America, and has a patronage and sale unprecedented in the history of the American medicine. But words are superfluous, a trial only can attest its real virtue, as millions certify. To be had throughout North and South America, Europe and the Islands of the Ocean, in large Bottles, for 25 cts.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

July 19, 1852.—6m*

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF

Pure Jamaica Ginger.

"Dear Sir,—I speak from a general knowledge of the virtues of Ginger, and particularly of your preparation of Jamaica Ginger, having used it three years in my practice for Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Consumptive complaints, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, Genpral Weakness, &c. it is unquestionably the best article in the world. Its effect is stimulating the system to throw off and resist disease of all kinds to so great during warm weather, makes it invaluable to every family. Its timely use would prevent nine-tenths of the protracted sickness during the summer season.

Yours truly, R. M. CHILSON, M. D.,
133 Bond-Street, New York."

This article, peculiarly adapted to this climate, and which is so universally used, can be had of the agent who sent

July 19, 1852.—6m* M. F. CUSHING.

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

A Great Reduction in Prices, at THOMAS H. DAVIS'S

Furnishing Store,

The Largest Stock in the City,

226 Burnet-St. New Brunswick & 180 Broad St. Newark.

IT will be well worthy the notice of all those who want to purchase any kind of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, Crockery, Glass, China, Cutlery, Britannia ware, Looking Glasses, Bureaus, Bedsteads, Wardrobes, Tables, Oil Cloths, Carpets, Leather Beds, Matresses, &c. In fact all things that are needed to housekeeping, which to enumerate would fill a newspaper. Though one thing I must mention—BOOTS and SHOES for Men's, women and misses, all can be bought at such low prices that every body is astonished, both in town and country now it can it can be done. Why, I can tell how he does it, he attends to business himself, buys for cash and sells for the same, thereby he does not impose upon those that pay for those that never meant to pay. This is the true principle of doing business. Give him a call, 226 Burnet street, over Stryker's Eating Saloon.

July 19.—3m. THOMAS H. DAVIS.

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment, AT Less than New York prices, for sale by July 12, 1852. W. M. B. WOOD.

Prepared or Artificial GUANO.

At 1 cent per pound, or $20 per ton of 2000 lbs.

AT a meeting of the Farmer's Club, American Institute, New York, on the 15th December, 1851, the following communication was made.

I present a specimen of Turnips raised upon my place last year, which will speak for themselves. The season was an unfavorable one for Turnips. The specimen is not the largest grown, although this weighed when first pulled, 4 3-4 lbs. I used in the Spring of 1850, about three bushels of Peruvian Guano, and in the Spring of 1851, Mapes' Manuring; than the three parcels above mentioned, and the result was far beyond my expectations.

Fairfield Co. Dec. 12, 1851. S. WHITING.

POTATO ROT.

Westchester Co. N. Y., Sept. 29, 1850.

I have used "Kentish's Prepared Guano" this season on potatoes. My crop was large and sound. Where I did not use it, the rot was bad. A. N. and planted. My neighbors also who have not used this Fertiliser, have not raised a saleable potato this year. I consider it a preventive of Rot.

ARTHUR HERAULT.

Extract of a letter from E. B. Addison,

Alexandria co. Va. April 28, 1851.

Dr. John H. Bayne, President of Prince George's Co. Agricultural Society Maryland, has desired me to inform you that the spring he used Mapes' Guano, Poudrette, Peruvian Guano, and your prepared Guano. The first two were distanced, but the result from the Peruvian Guano, and your prepared Guano, pronounce your prepared Guano to be a very excellent article, and esteems it highly. Manufactured only by

KENTISH & CO.

DEPOT, No. 40 PECK SLIP, NEW YORK.

For Sale at this Office. July 19.—6m

Take Notice.

THAT the Judges of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, in and for the County of Essex and State of New Jersey, did, at the term of said Court, A. D. 1852, appoint Tuesday the 24th day of August next at 10 o'clock A. M. at the Court House, in Newark at the August term to hear what can be alleged for or against my discharge as an Insolvent Debtor, under the Insolvent laws of said State.

JOHN Y. BAINBRIDGE.

Dated Newark, July 10, 1852.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!

Just Received, Twenty Tons of

Peruvian Guano,

And For Sale in large or small quantities, at about New York prices. By

New Market, June 28, 1852.—3m* WM VAIL.

Hope's Express.

For Newark, Elizabethtown, Westfield, Plainfield, Bonnebrook, Somerville, White House, Clinton and Easton, Pa.

Leave New York daily at 5 o'clock, arriving at Plainfield, 9 o'clock, A. M. Leave Plainfield at 3 o'clock, arriving in New York at 6 P. M. o'clock, P. M.

JOHN LAING, Agent for Plainfield.

A. B. HOPE, 41 Courtlandt-st., New York.

☞ This Express has been systematized, and all orders with it express direct with neatness and despatch.

Plainfield, Nov. 19, 1850.

HORACE SEATON,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN LACE GOODS,

554 Broad Street, Newark,

☞ Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Fancy Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Embroidery Muslin, Gloves and Hosiery, Millinery articles, Combs, Brushes, Oils, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets Bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Silks, Ladies and Children's fancy dress Shoes and Gaiters. c23 1y.

Barbarge Delaines—a few pieces Just Received and selling off cheap.

Calicoes, fast colors, for 6 cents per yard

May 5, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at I. S. DUNHAM & CO.'S.

Looking Glasses—A large number JUST RECEIVED, from 25 cents to $7, each, by D. BULLMAN

Emory & Co.'s Patent Horse Power, Thrasher and Separator.

THE UNDERSIGNED have been appointed sole agents in the city of New York for the sale of their Improved Horse Powers and Thrashers. Those wishing to procure Emory's Improved Horse Power and Thrashing will secure that their name is cast on every link of chain. None other is Genuine.

LONGETT & GRIFFING
State Agricultural Warehouse,
July 5, 1852—3m No. 25 Cliff Street, New-York.

Spring & Summer Dry Goods

HITCHCOCK & LEADBEATER, No. 247 Broadway, New York, have in store one of the finest assortments in the city of

FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS,

suitable for every season of the year, and every climate, and would respectfully invite attention to their large and elegant stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER DRESS GOODS,

which they have just purchased for cash, for nearly half price, and are enabled to offer at

VERY GREAT BARGAINS!

Their stock fills the entire variety of Silks, Shawls, De Laines, Barege De Laines, Cashmeres, Muslins and Lawns, Barages, Silk Tissues, Grenadines, Ginghams, Calicoes, Percales, Foulard Silks, &c., &c.

MOURNING GOODS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

A full and complete assortment always on hand, including Black Bombazines, Alpaces, Challies, Canton Crapes, De Laines, &c., &c., which parties interested will find cheaper than

FANCY GOODS OF VARIOUS KINDS.

As plain and embroidered Pocket-handkerchiefs, Cravats, Gloves, Collars, Hose, Trimmings, Laces, &c., &c.,

A SPLENDID STOCK OF RIBBONS,

bought very low for cash, which the ladies will find desirable and cheap, and which Milliners will find for their interest to examine before purchasing their purchases.

HOUSEWIFE AND FAMILY GOODS,

as Linens, Table Damasks, Napkins, Towels, Towellings, Crash, Shirtings and Sheetings, Muslins, rich embroideries

LACE AND MUSLIN WINDOW DRAPERIES,

in great variety, and of every quality and price

GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHINGS.

A very large and complete assortment—as Kid, Silk, and Thread Gloves; Silk and Summer Cravats; Silk and Linen Pocket-handkerchiefs; Silk, Cotton, and Merino Undershirts and Drawers; Hosiery, &c. &c., at prices much lower than the same articles can be found at the

GENTLEMAN'S FURNISHING STORES.

Please call and examine, and if not found desirable and reasonable, you will not be desired to purchase.

Country Merchants will find it to their interest to look through our stock, as they can here select any article they wish, in any quantity they desire, and at prices which they will find it an object to purchase at, as most of our goods were purchased before the late rise in prices, and sell 50 per cent. below the ordinary jobbing rates.

Terms invariably Cash—and only One Price.

New York, June 21, 1852—3y

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in Mein street, opposite Webster & Dunham's, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, &c. Having purchased her goods at the lowest cash prices, she is prepared to sell them cheaper than the cheapest. Also, Cambrics, Muslins, Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and everything in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from Somerville, she is prepared to execute all the various branches of Dress Making. Caps and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 5, 1852.—6m.

J. A. WOODLAND,

HOUSE, SIGN AND

DECORATIVE PAINTER,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

☞ The above is prepared to execute all orders in his line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Paper Hanging with punctuality, promptness and despatch, and at prices considerably less than those usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cher-y.

March 29, 1852.

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Leathers and Hardware, also Boots and Shoes, &c. My stock has been selected with great care, and an eye to cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly a desire to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints,	Ginghams,	Cassimers,
Barege de Lane,	Gloves,	Summerstuffs,
Hosiery,	Hosiery,	Vestings, &c.

And all styles of goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear, Muslins bleached and unbleached, colored cambrics, shirtings, sheetings, buttons, thread, cotton bats, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas,	Rice,	Sugars,	Candles,	Flour
Coffee,	Corn Starch,	Soap,	Indian Meal

PROVISIONS.—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef, Pepper, Spices, Cheese, Hams, Pork, &c.

Pepper sauce, Honey, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere, and will be thankful for a call, to examine my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to call the second time.

Plainfield, May 4, 1852. J. V. ARROWSMITH.

NOTICE.

Miss C. Prosch,

WOULD hereby inform her many friends and the generous public that she has been extending her suit of rooms, on a much larger and improved plan than any other in this city, and is now prepared to take Daguerreotypes second to none. Family Groups, from two to twenty, taken to give satisfaction; also children of all ages, in the seconds of time. Portraits of sick and deceased persons taken whenever called upon. Also Daguerreotypes copied to perfection.

Miss C. PROSCH has no connection with any other establishment and would respectfully wish her friends to bear in mind that she can always be found at 259 Broad-street, only, where she trusts to meet that patronage so long and liberally bestowed upon her.

June 1.—3m 259 Broad-street, NEWARK.

Dr. Prudent,

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning Fluid, &c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual.

June 14, 1852.

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Post Office.

Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE,

SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his friends, and show them a good assortment of goods in his line. He also

Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute all orders in all the branches of the above business, as well, as quick and as cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge for yourselves. May 17, 1852.—6m*

Hoover's Black Ink.

THE Best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. If not attended to soon, they will be passed over for collection. All who have claims against the said firm, will please present them for payment as soon as any one, I give this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, April 9, 1852.

A GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES

AT THE CELEBRATED LARGEST AND CHEAPEST

CARPET ESTABLISHMENT

In the United States, No. 99 Bowe ry.

HIRAM ANDERSON'S

EIGHT STARS OVER SAGE'S 1852-3.

Wholesale and Retail.

Sales Room No. 1.

CONTAINS the Largest, Handsomest and Cheap as assortment of Carpets, American Floor Cloths, to be found in the city, from

TWO SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE

To One Dollar the square yard, of one to eight yards wide

Sales Room No. 2.

Contains the most beautiful and variegated assortment of English and American superior Ingrain Carpeting, at unparalleled low prices, Five Shillings to Six Shillings and Sixpence per yard—new and elegant figures for Spring Sales.

Sales Room No. 3

Is fully stocked with an unrivaled assortment of English and American Imperial Three-ply Carpeting, of new and elegant designs, unsurpassed elsewhere for the city trade, at a reduction of twenty five per cent from former prices. 6s 6d, 7s, and 8s per yard, and upwards.

Sales Room No. 4

Contains one hundred and fifty pieces of fine Ingrain Carpeting, new fall styles, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s, 3s 6d, and Four Shillings per yard.

Sales Room No 5.

Displays a great variety of English Druggets, from one to four yards wide, from three shillings and sixpence per yard and upwards. Also, an elegant assortment of Rugs, Mats, &c., at very reduced prices.

Sales Room No. 6.

Is fully stocked with every variety of Stairs and Hall Carpeting, at 1s 6d, 2s, 2s 6d, 3s 6d, 4s, 5s, and 6s per yard.

In Sales Room No. 7,

Are the Patent Tapestry Brussels Carpets exhibited at the World's Fair, formerly sold at nine shillings per yard, now selling at

SIX SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE PER YARD.

Sales Room No. 8.

An extensive assortment of Table and Piano Covers, Window Shades from 6s to $10 the pair, Table Oil Cloths, Brussels and Tapestry Carpeting, Canada Hair Carpet, Plated and Brass Stair Rods, Parlor Door Mats, &c. &c., all of which are offered at 25 per cent. less than at any other establishment in this city.

HIRAM ANDERSON,

No. 99 Bowery, N. Y.

All goods packed and sent free of charge. feb8.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

In Chancery N. J.

Between Lewis Crane, Complainant, and William W. Davison and Elizabeth Davison, Defendants.

Fi. Fa. for sale of Mortgaged Premises

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed, I shall expose for sale at public vendue at Lewis Crane's Hotel, in Plainfield, on the 12th day of August next, at 1 o'clock, P. M. All that certain lot of Land and premises, situate, lying and being in the township of Plainfield, Essex Co. N. J. and is butted and bounded as follows, viz: Beginning at a stake in the line of Church street, in Plainfield, and also in the middle of Second Street, in Lewis Bond's corner, thence along his line and the middle of Second st. N. 50 deg. 20 minutes, E. 2 ch. 81 links to a stone and corner of Lewis Bond's land, thence along his line S. 44 1-2 deg. W. 92 links to a stone, another of Lewis Bond's corners, in the line of lands belonging to the Society of Friends, thence along their line N. 62 1-4 deg. W. 1 ch. 28 links to a stone one of said Friend's corners, and also a corner of James Laing's other land, thence along his line N. W. 2 ch. 55 links to the middle of Second street, thence along the middle of Second Street N. 44 1-2 deg. E 91 1-2 links to the place of beginning, containing 2 acres of land.

W. PIERSON, Sheriff.

Central Rail Road of N. J.

NOTICE.

The cars will run as follows until further notice,

Commencing Monday, July 5th, 1852.

Leave Easton for New York at 6 A. M. and 3.30, P. M

Clinton, "	7.05	4.20
White House, "	7.20	4.30

Returning, leave New York at 8 A. M. and 4. P. M.

Leave Somerville at	5.10 & 7.50 a.m.	12.40 & 5.15, p.m.
Plainfield,	6.25 6.25	1.20 6.10
Westfield,	6.40 8.40	1.40 6.10
Elizabethtown,	7 9	2 6.30

Returning leave New York at 8 and 10 a. m. 4 & 6 p.m.

By steamboat.—Leave Elizabethport at 7.15 and 9.10 a.m. 12 1-2 p. m. and 4.40 p.m.

Leave Pier No. 1 North River at 8 and 10, A. M. and 12, 4 and 6, P. M.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of I. S. Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with a variety of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Clocks plates kept on hand, and executed at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and Wood taken in exchange for Clocks.

Plainfield, April 18, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the new stand on Somerset-st., next to the corner of Front street, 2 doors from French's mill, where they have opened and will at all times keep on hand a good assortment of Groceries, which they will sell as cheap as the cheapest and good as the best, including Flour and Feed, also Crockery and Earthen Ware by the crate or single set. Thankful for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed upon them in their former business, they return their thanks for past favors, asks a continuance of the same.

☞ Mrs. Voy's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaint.

JOHNSON & LYON.

N. B. All persons indebted to the subscriber are requested to call and settle without delay.

April 3, 1852.—1y. CHARLES JOHNSON.

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John B. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite French's Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

CARHART & NEEDHAM,

Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

With Recent Important Improvements.

Price from $60 to $200.

No. 75 East Thirteenth Street's,

J. Carhart } NEW YORK

E. P. Needham. }

N. B. Reeds constantly on hand. ly.

Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, on the corner of Broad and Every streets, Elizabethtown, (a short distance from the depot,) would invite his former friends, and all who are in want of a good article of clothing, to call and examine his stock. His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay.

April 20, 1852 dly.

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES PACKREDE & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 25 cents a piece, (sizing the walls and paste included.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to $1 a piece, all imported in March last.

J. F. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers

Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852.

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

ISAAKE MARSH returns thanks for his numerous patrons for the liberal patronage and prompt pay he has received during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many friends and customers in the vicinity of Palace, and taken into partnership his son, Wesley Marsh. The business will be carried on at the old stand, opposite the Second Presbyterian Church, where they will be kept constantly on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c. &c., as cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to House, Sign and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with dispatch and despatch.

☞ PUNCTUALITY IS ALL CASES.

Mixed Paint constantly on hand. Advice gratis.

Jan. 5, 1852. I. MARSH & SON

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the Subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N. J., containing from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on 2d, 3d, 4th, Main, Liberty and William sts; also a good sized lot with a Dwelling House built expressly for the accommodation of two families, and is a valuable location, very nigh the centre of the business part of town, on the corner of Exchange and Second sts. a very short distance from Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store

Jan. 19, 1852.—tf BENJAMIN DE VILLE.

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS.

DANIEL BULLMAN,

is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment of New & Cheap Goods

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Fancy Patterns; Domestics of every grade and price; Silks, plain and figured; Ginghams, Alpaccas, &c. suitable to the season; Linens, White Goods of all kinds, Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinetts, Summer Cassimeres, Cotton Flannels and all other articles in the dry goods line, necessary to make as varied, full and complete an assortment as can be found in any store, and will be sold as cheap too. Try us and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing these articles, will find my store just the place I buy good articles, and sell them at such prices that no other economy cannot help being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY,

Some very beautiful, and some very cheap; a large and varied assortment, to suit all tastes, constantly on hand. Also, Looking Glasses in variety.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell the same goods as cheap, and save you freight, brokkage and trouble of going after it.

Also, Looking Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

ARTICLES and FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver watch, Jewelry, or Clocks, give me a call and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it, very likely. A portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited. D. BULLMAN.

April 28, 1852.

1852. SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

WE would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not praise up our Goods with a view of trying to make the people believe them to be what they are not, but invite all to call and examine for themselves. DeLaines from 10cts to 4s.; handsome Barage deLaines new styles from 18d to 8s.; plain and watered Alpaccas from 6c to 10c, and 12 1-2c; prints any variety from 4 to 14 cts; a good lot of Ladies' Gloves from 10 cts to 75; also Gents Gloves, Bleached and Brown Muslins very cheap, Ginghams from 10 cts to 25, and more than a thousand other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloth, plain and fancy Cassimers, a fine rate assortment of Vestings any of which we will make up to order in the latest shape notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Goods furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods for sale

Plainest and Cheapest

To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it an object to Cash purchasers from 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we are entirely in the Dry Goods trade and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also Cantoon Plaids new Spring Styles to which the attention of Ladies is particularly requested, at ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

May 3d, 1852. Plainfield.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the vicinity of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS;

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns, DeLaines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds. A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Calicoes, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES.

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Pork, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders, Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples, Peaches and Prunes, very cheap.

Hollow and Wooden Ware,

Tubs, Baskets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, white shoe brushes, Scrubbing brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Sherts, Wheat Bran, &c.

LIME, Rhode Island and Glens Falls.

☞ All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods. JAMES M. DUNN.

April 20, 1852.—1y.

Lawrence's Gallery,

203 Broadway, 3 doors below Fulton- STREET, NEW YORK.

THE proprietor having built this establishment expressly for Daguerreotypes, with a view to obviate many of the difficulties that usually attend the operator, has found after a trial of two years, that his expectations have been fully realized. The arrangement of light is so admirably adapted to produce uniformity in pictures, with the middle, or neutral tints, so long looked for by Artists. One of the rooms is arranged with particular reference to taking family and other groups. Fifty persons can be taken with equal facility. The Operating Department is conducted by persons of great experience and skill, and none but good likenesses will be allowed to leave the room. Prices to produce Daguerreotypes the size of life. They are now using with a Camera of immense size, and on plates three times larger than ever before used, producing a Picture having all the softness and delicacy of finish of a Miniature. Pictures of every description copied with perfect accuracy. Children of all ages taken Stormy or cloudy weather is no hinderance to taking good pictures. The public of Plainfield and vicinity are invited to visit the Rooms, which are free to all.

☞ First Premium, a PRIZE MEDAL, was awarded to Mr Lawrence, at the Great World's Fair in London, for the BEST Daguerreotypes. Enough said.

April 26th, 1852.—3m. M. M. LAWRENCE.

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at GLENN & Co's Manufactory, 194 Fulton-street, (west of Broadway.) A General Assortment of Rosewood and Mahogany Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

N. B. GLENN & CO., 194 Fulton-street, Oct. 7, 1851.—1y New York.

12 South Down Sheep

AND FOUR LAMBS, For Sale by the Subscribor, on his Farm, near Plainfield.

June 21, 1852. EDWARD ROACH.

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

THE most safe and effectual remedy ever discovered for the destruction of worms in children or adults, being in a safe and pleasant that it can be given to the most infantile. The hundreds of cures performed daily by this syrup, should satisfy all of its superior medical virtues, so no parent will be without it one day after giving it a fair trial. This syrup is entirely vegetable and perfectly safe, by the judicious use of the contrary and in all cases where it does not perform according to the recommendations, the money is refunded. I would further say, do not let your children go to a physician's office and ask for calomel, as a remedy is at hand, one which has never failed to give satisfaction in cases of worms or bowel complaints. Where your children are afflicted with the following symptoms, viz: Pain in the most, bloated stomach, sudden starting in their sleep, then in your time to use this remedy, it being for sale by every respectable storekeeper in this and the country. You can obtain a pamphlet of its wonderful cures, as well as of Hobensack.

LIVER PILLS.—These Pills being composed of Roots and Plants for diseases of the Biliary organs, Liver complaint, &c.

Congestion of the Liver is known to exist from an inclination to vomit being present, bitter taste in the mouth, a yellowness of the eyes, with a pain in the side and the pulse full and bounding, an extra supply of bile is the cause. Let the afflicted attend to it in time—These Pills will remove all symptoms of the disease. In partial, they are found of inestimable benefit in restoring these functional derangements to a healthy action, purifying the blood and other fluids so as effectually put to flight the complaints that arise from a female irregularities, as headache, giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in the side, back, &c. Price 25 cents per box, with directions. Be careful and ask for Hobensack's Liver Pills, as they are the only genuine, all others being a base imitation. Prepared at Hobensack's Laboratory, Philadelphia. For sale in Plainfield,

Wholesale and Retail by P. C. DEMING.
And at Retail by ELIAS KIRKPATRICK.
C. Drake, South Plains, Charles Foster, Westfield.
March 23, 1852.—1y.

R. R. R.

Science, by subjecting the laws of Chemistry to the skill of man, has contributed to his health and happiness by stopping the most cruel and severe pangs of pain in an instant, and curing the most dangerous diseases.

CHRONIC COMPLAINTS

IN A FEW HOURS

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,

Internally and Externally instantly stops Pain, and speedily cures its cause.

It is warranted to give relief to the following pains in

Fifteen Minutes,

and to speedily and effectually cure the disease,

Rheumatism,	Colic,	Cramps and Spasms,
Lumbago,	Paralysis,	Summer Complaints,
Stiff Joints,	Neuralgia,	Soreness in Bones,
Tic Doloureux,	Dysentery,	Pain in the Limbs,
Chill Fever,	Diarrhœa,	Sick Head-ache,
Ague Cake,	HeartBurn,	Cholera Morbus,
Sore Throat,	Colds, &c.

PAIN

IS the warning given of the presence of disease and of the derangement and prostration of the nervous and muscular system. In nine cases out of ten pain in the system is only of its cause, our first great desideratum is to stop the pain—strengthen the nervous energy—invigorate healthy action—the functions and secretions of every organ in the system; this we accomplish by the marvellous

Strengthening, cleansing, invigorating, and powerful pain soothing properties of

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

No matter what the cause of the pain may be—if it arises from nervous prostration, muscular debility, disarrangement of the liver or secretions of the skin, whether it be rheumatism, neuralgia, sick or nervous headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, dizziness or nausea sickness, bowel complaint, chills and fever whether it originates from internal derangements or external injuries,

Radway's Ready Relief taken internally and applied externally, will speedily and effectually stop the pain and cure its cause

RHEUMATISM — 100,000 persons cured in 1850
The most excruciating pain stopped in two hours

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the quickest, safest, and most effectual remedy for the cure of Rheumatism in all its forms, that has been in use for 15 years we know. It will stop the most torturing pains of this distressing complaint by one application. We have never known it to fail in a single instance. In every city, village and town of America it has cured some of the people of this cruel complaint. In every case we will warrant it to do as stated—it will instantly relieve the sufferer from pain, and speedily cure the disease.

SICK AND NERVOUS HEADACHE

100,000 cases cured in 1850.—It will give relief in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief taken according to directions, will speedily and effectually cure this complaint. Taken internally and applied externally it refreshes the senses, cleanses the stomach, stops all irritation in the nerves, veins and muscles, and restores the head with brain, and relieves the sufferer from pain in 15 minutes. It is unerring in the cure of sick and nervous headache

NEURALGIA.—100,000 Neuralgia cases cured in 1850.—It will stop the most violent pains in Fifteen Minutes.

The cruel excruciating pain of this distressing complaint are usually arrested by Radway's Ready Relief. The happy and invigorating effects it produces on the nervous system, rendering the nerves from proof, quickly restores the nervous energy and cures the disease. It is the only remedy that has effectually cured Neuralgia in its worst forms.

DIARRHŒA.—200,000 persons cured in 1850.—Pain stopped in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief will cure any case of cholera morbus, dysentery, cholic and all bowel complaints in the past year than any other remedy in use. On the banks of the Mississippi, Missouri, Illinois and Ohio rivers, in New Orleans, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukie, Galena, and other places where the diarrhœa, cholera and dysentery rage so fatally, Radway's Ready Relief can be had with the assurance that it will in 15 minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms, impart a genial heat throughout the whole system, allay all irritation, allay the painful discharges and relieve the patient from all pain.

CRAMPS AND SPASMS.

A teaspoonful of Radway's Ready Relief, taken internally, and by rubbing it well in the pit of the stomach will stop the most violent cramps and spasms. In many cases where the extremities have lost all feeling, where they were perfectly blue, shrunk, cold and shrunk, rubbing Radway's Ready Relief has always brought life and action, and a quick and healthy circulation of blood.

SWELLED JOINTS.

If you have pain in the swelled joints, weakness of the muscles, if you have a sprained limb, swelled legs, bruised arm, sore head, or if you burn or scald yourself, Radway's Ready Relief will take out the fire, remove the pain and swelling, give energy and strength to the muscles and entirely free you from pain.

Jumping Toothache cured in one second.

All aches and pains—back ache, toothache, face ache, ear ache, stomache, pain in the limbs, the muscles, the neck, the joints, head and arms, Radway's Ready Relief will instantly cure.

PAINFUL ITCHINGS

—And all cutaneous eruptions are relieved from all irritation by bathing the parts affected in Ready Relief.

SPINAL COMPLAINTS.

By bathing externally, the cords of the neck and spine. It will strengthen the spine. We have known many cases of paralysis and anterior curvature of the spine to be entirely cured, and the disfigured object to regain his proper shape by the use of Radway's Ready Relief.

CHILL FEVER.

One teaspoonful of Radway's ready relief taken on the first symptoms of chills, and bathe the head, neck and shoulders, if there is any pain experienced, and it will entirely prevent a chill Fever.

Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Flatulency, Bad Breath, Wind, &c. are quickly cured by a dose of Radway's ready relief taken internally. It is a delicious cordial, that gives strength to every organ and function of the body, and health and happiness to the mind.

CAUTION TO DRUGGISTS

Purchase Radway's ready relief only of the authorized agent, whose name is given below. Our travelling agents have a power of attorney signed by us, before purchasing always ask to see it. Price 25 cents a bottle.

RADWAY & CO., 162 Fulton st. N. Y.

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfd.
Sept 9, 1851.—1y

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by
May 4, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

LIGHTNING RODS!

M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 132 East Twenty-Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and erect on buildings their improved Lightning Rods which have now been in use seventeen years, without a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. Mr. A. M. Quimby has made Electrical Science the study of his life, and his rods are always put up in accordance with certain rules which he has formulated and adopted as the result of his experience. An additional security in a rule he has found to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and exposed as regards lightning, and require a different arrangement of the rods, to suit the peculiar features of the case, which is the reason why so many of the common round rods have failed heretofore; being put up by persons ignorant of the laws by which their security is governed, they are not arranged on buildings in such a manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Quimby's rods are the only ones now in use based on Dr. D. Sackwell, C. Boice, Esq. Mr. M. Stelle, and others in Plainfield, and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church and others in New York, the church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.

Plainfield, May 31, 1852.—6m

MARBLE & STONE YARD

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Front and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUMENTS, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business.

I have also a beautiful Free Stone for building purposes, ornamental or plain. All of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.—1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by P. Mosher, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to receive orders in the above line of business.

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

Also PAPER-HANGING, all of which will be promptly, punctually and honestly executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned hereby returns thanks to his friends for their liberal patronage the past year, and will endeavor by faithfulness to merit and secure a continuance of their favors.

Reg. Orders may be left at the Union Office, also at Mr. Ira Prudon's store. CHARLES TAYLOR.

April 1, 1852.—y

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE, PHYSICIANS,

NO. 196 WEST FIFTEENTH STREET, NEW YORK,

Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

MRS. MOTT,

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN,

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, particularly those arising from or attendant upon debility, falling of the womb, or internal weakness, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say, that they have repeatedly performed permanent cures in cases of long standing, which had been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treating disease, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Her Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. [jan] 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUS, Hay, Flour and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not to fail in its performance.

Manufactory 39 Greens street, New York.

Also For Sale at 282 ulterstreet, "

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

E. B. DUBOIS, J. BRIDES, J. ROBIDO X.
Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

HOW'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

[IN MEN]

Rheumatism,	Sprains,	Weakness in the
Burns,	Cuts, Sores,	Back, Breast,
Sore Throat,	Frosted Feet,	Limb & Joint.
	[IN HORSES]
Bruises, Sprains,	Ringbone,	Poll Evil, and all
Warbles, Splints,	Spavin, Fistula,	diseases of Horses,
Curb, Scratches,	Thoroughpin,	where an Embrocation
Windgall,	Saddle Galls,	can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOW, CHEMIST,
No 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,
(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

TESTIMONIALS.

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Liniment, and pronounce it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Moore, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barney McQuerry, Joseph Steen, John Jenkins, Samuel R. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton Joseph Hagmitt, John G. Wood, Monmouth Junc. Wm. Brown, Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CARMAN, in Somerville by Culver Bros. low. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

DR. H. DAYTON, Surgeon-Dentist,

Has returned to Plainfield, and taken an Office and Residence for the year, on Main st. 2d house below Webster & Marsh's, Store.

June 2d, 1851.

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of May, will remove his Needle Store to 16 Maiden-Lane, to the store formerly occupied by him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior qualities of his Needles now used by him:—James Henning & Son's celebrated Needles—No Comstock, Bradley and other Needles,—Pearl Buttons, Combs Steel and Gold Pens, Spool and Ball Cotton, Stay Binding, Tape, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c. RICH'D RICHARDS,
importer of Needles and Fancy Goods.
April 26. 1852.—3m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York.

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Square and Round Post, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, and Children's Chairs; also

Wash and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel do.
March 22, 1852. For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

Machinery Oil,

75 CTS. a gallon, better than Sweet Oil, at a quarter of the price. For Sale by
June 18th, 1842. M. F. CUSHING.

DR. HOOFLAND'S

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS

Prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON,

at the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch St. Philadelphia,

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines; such as Constipation,

Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering in the pit of the stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying position, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs and Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits

THEY ARE ENTIRELY VEGETABLE,

And Free from Alcoholic Stimulant, and all Injurious Ingredients.

And are pleasant to taste and smell, and mild in their operation, and will remove impurities from the blood and give health and vigour to the frame.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, of Philadelphia, has had the means of obtaining the genuine recipes of the present celebrated Dr. Hoofland of Philadelphia, and these invaluable medicines are prepared with the utmost care at the German Medicine Store. The bitter principle—Hoofland's German Bitters—is the result of many years study and experience by the great inventor, and known and prized in Europe as an infallible remedy for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, and Debility. No person can take these Bitters according to the directions, without experiencing the most decided benefit. It never fails to restore the appetite, and to make the weak strong. The medicines compounded by Dr. C. M. Jackson have produced the very effects and same happy results, which the immortal inventor dedicated one long life of study and experiment to compounded with singular accuracy.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtue in the rectification of diseases of the digestive organs, exceeding all others. In Dyspepsia, or indigestion, with its numerous distressing symptoms, such as Sick Headache, Pain in the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering in the pit of the stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying position, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs and Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits, these Bitters have never been equalled, and in Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Nervous Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Costiveness, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 35. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, August 31, 1852. Whole Number 813.

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 314 Broad-street, Washington Hall Buildings,

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELERY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical, lepine, verge and detached lever Watches; curb, patchet and Swiss Guard Chains; gold, jet and vest Chains of all patterns; silver, small and russet card cases; gold and silver enamelled, engraved and plain Pencils; Ladies' single stoned, cluster, and mosaic, cameo, cornelian, jet, enamelled, mourning and plain Brooches; Dean's clustered, single stoned, unsmelled and plain Studs; Finger Rings of all patterns; Ladies' plain gold, chain and hair Bracelets; Bracelet Clasps of all kinds; Ear rings of the latest styles; Gents' diamond, ruby, emerald, hyacinth, and all styles of Breast Pins; gold lockets and Miniature Cases; Gold Pens; Hearts and Crosses; gold Vest and Guard Keys; gold and silver Thimbles; silver Spoons and Butter Knives; gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Bouquet Holders, tablets, hair pins, scissors, knives, tea bells, purses, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, purse and bag clasps and slides, chess men and boxes, sleeper buttons, gentlemen's pocket folding combs, sugar cases, pearl studs, twin buttons, watch stands, bugles, emerys, sealing wax, pen holders, microscopes, razors and razor strops, fancy needles, chess, sugar cases and work cases, perfumery of all kinds, tobacco and snuff boxes; tooth, hair, hat, nail, clothes and comb Brushes; silk guard chains; pocket books, a large assortment; dressing combs, back combs, pocket combs, stained combs, pocket knife and scissor sheath, pocket smelling bottles, diagerreotype cases, medal and bracelet cases, steel, silk and gilt fob chains; shaving brushes, shaving boxes, &c.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

Piano Fortes from the best makers, Violins, Clarionets, Flutes, Flageolets, Bass Violins, Drums, Metronomes, Violin Bows, Accordeons, tuning forks; Violin, Violincello and Guitar Strings; Trimmings for all Instruments; a large assortment of songs, duetts, quartettes, trios and glees, comprising all the latest publications; also instrumental Music, namely, waltzes, quicksteps, marches, rondos, duetts for four hands, and sacred songs; Guitar music. Instruction books for Piano Forte, flute, fife, violin, accordeon, clarionet, flageolet, &c. &c. all of which to be bought in New York: with a variety of other goods not enumerated in this catalogue, comprising the largest variety in Newark.

WATCH REPAIRING AND CLEANING.

The subscriber, determined to give full satisfaction to those that employ him, has engaged a very superior workman from Switzerland, where he has been employed for several years in manufacturing all kinds of watches, and is well skilled in repairing and cleaning watches, as testimonials from some of the First watch makers of the city of New York will show.

Jewelry made to order. Old gold and silver taken in exchange. d3cy

Wholesale and Retail

Wine and Liquor Store.

29 Fair Street, Newark, N. J.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has commenced business at the above-old established stand, a full and choice supply of FOREIGN WINES AND SPIRITS, which he offers at the lowest cash prices, and delivers orders to any part of the city. The above old established stand, a full and choice supply of FOREIGN WINES AND SPIRITS, which he offers at the lowest cash prices, and delivers orders to any part of the city. The above old established Brandy of every grade, Meder's Swan Gin, Irish, Scotch and Monongahela Whiskey, St. Croix and Jamaica Rum, Port, Madeira, Malaga and Champagne Wines, Leery's Bitters, &c.

Philadelphia Bottled Porter and Pale Ale of the first quality; also, a very choice article of Bottled Cider (almost equal to Champagne) always on hand.

☞ A continuance of patronage is solicited.

June 1st, 1852.—3m LOUIS L. BELAND.

MANNING VICHMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any of the variety and quality.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome and serviceable a Hat as they can buy in New York or Philadelphia, and half a dollar cash cheaper.

N. B. Molleskin or Silk Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 28, 1851.—1y

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their school tax, as imposed by the new tax law, by coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere; thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Vestings, Cassimeres and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and prices which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of Tailor's trimmings at a low price—also constantly for sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Friends will you favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves?

Cutting, Trimming, and making done at the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co., Plainfield Dec. 1.

Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers in

HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, which are made at our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction. Purchasers who may select or order can rely upon having the best hats that can be made, and obtain their goods as favorably as at any establishment in the country. 352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

May 5d, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,

I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Goods on our counter now do lie,

It suit the taste, to please the eye.

We paid the cash to buy them cheap,

We'll sell them right to sell a heap.

Ginghams and Muslins, Cassias and Cords,

The newest styles New York affords;

Delaines and Guiters, Calicoes too,

Colors of which we'll warrant true.

Cloths and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,

And all the goods which men do use;

Together with a good supply

Of groceries good which will defy

A class of men which live with us,

And twice a year make quite a fuss,

To go to Brunswick with their trade

Of wares at home they are afraid.

We'll sell to them and all the rest,

For cheapest sum what suits them best

With Brunswick prices we'll compete,

And also shall trouble in the head;

To come and see, come short, come tall

I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Plainfield, May 18, 1852.

Isbel Lucas; or, the Adventures of a Deserted Wife.

About 35 years ago, a woman of the name of Isbel Lucas kept a small lodging house in the suburbs of Edinburgh. She was the daughter of a respectable teacher in the city, who, at his death, had bequeathed to her, as his sole surviving relation, about £300, together with the furniture of a house. The latter part of the legacy suggested to her the propriety of endeavoring to support herself by keeping lodgings, while the part which consisted in money promised to stand effectually between her and all the mischances that could be expected to befall her in such a walk of life. She accordingly, for several years, let one or two rooms to students and other persons, and thus contrived to live very decently without touching upon her little capital, till at length she attained the discreet age of two-and forty.

Among her lodgers was an individual of the name of Fordyne, who kept a grocer's shop of an inferior order in the neighborhood. This person gave himself out for a native of the Isle of Man, and stated that he had made a little money as mess-man to a militia regiment, by which he had been enabled to set up in business. He was a large, dark, coarse man, of about five-and-thirty, with a somewhat unprepossessing cast of face, and a slight twist in his left eye. Fordyne seemed to be a man of great industry and application, and used to speak of his circumstances as agreeable in every respect, except that he wanted a wife. This, he said, was a great want. There were many things about his shop which no one but a female could properly attend to. Without such a helpmate, things were continually going wrong; but with her all would go right. One point, however, he must be clear about: she who should be his wife would require to bring something with her, to add to his stock and buy the necessary house furniture. He cared little about good looks, if there was good sense; and, indeed, a woman of some experience in the world would answer his purpose best.

Honest Isbel began in a little while to turn all these matters in her mind. She one day took a steady look at Fordyne, and discovered that he had a good upright carriage of body, and that, though his mouth was of the largest, yet his teeth were among the best she had ever seen. Next time she visited his shop, she took a glance at the room behind, and found that it had a nice outlook upon Salisbury Crags. Fordyne, observing that she glanced into his back shop, invited her to come in and see what a fine house he had for such in reality it was, though unfurnished. Isbel very quickly saw that there was one capital bed room, a parlor, a kitchen and a vast variety of closets, where things could be "put off one's hand." One press, Mr. Fordyne showed, was already furnished, being tenanted by a huge dram bottle and a few articles of bread, which, he said, had been lately required to treat his partners, on account of the New Year. Of this he made Isbel a partaker, drinking in his turn to her good health, and a good man to her before the next recurrence of the season. This exchange of compliments did not take place without some effect. Isbel ascended the stair in a kind of reverie, and found herself entering the next door above, instead of her own, before she was aware. In a month thereafter, the two were married.

Three days after the nuptials, Mrs. Fordyne was sitting in her little parlor, waiting supper for her husband, and reflecting on the step she was about to take: the next day—namely, the transference of her household furniture to the apartments behind Fordyne's shop, and the surrender of her little fortune into his hands. Her eye happened, in the course of her cogitations, to wander to a portrait of her father, which hung opposite; and as she gazed on it, she could hardly help thinking that its naturally stern and even sour features assumed an expression still sterner and sourer. No doubt this was the mere effect of some inward pleading of conscience, for she could not but acknowledge secretly to be self, that the step she had taken was not of that kind which her parent would have approved. He withdrew her eyes with a disturbed mind, and again looked musingly towards the fire, when she thought she heard the outer door open and a person come in. At first she supposed that this must be her husband, and she began, therefore, to transfer the supper from the fire to the table. On listening, however, she heard that the footsteps were accompanied by the sound of a walking-cane, which assured her that it could not be Fordyne. She stood for a minute motionless and silent, and distinctly heard the sound as of an old man walking along the passage with a stick—sounds which at once brought to her recollection her departed father. She sank into her chair, the sounds died away in the distance, and almost at that minute her husband came in to cheer her, calling to the servant as he passed, in his loud and boisterous way, that she had stupidly left the outer door open.

Though Isbel Lucas had committed a very imprudent action in marrying a man who was a perfect stranger to her, nevertheless the predominating feature of her mind was prudence. The impressions just made upon her senses were of a very agitating nature; yet, knowing that it was late to act upon them, she concealed her emotions. There would be no trouble, as she had received what in her native country is called a "warning," yet, conceiving that her best course was to go on and betray no suspicion, she never faltered in any of her promises to her husband. She was next day installed in Mr. Fordyne's own house, to whom, in return, she committed a sum rather above £400; for to that extent had she increased her stock in the course of her late employment.

For some time matters proceeded very well. Her husband professed to lay out part of her money upon those goods which he had formerly represented himself as unable to buy. His habits of application were rather increased than diminished, and a few customers of a more respectable kind than any he had hitherto had, began to frequent the shop, being drawn thither in consideration of his wife. Among the new articles he dealt in was whiskey, which he bought in large quantities from the distillers, and sold wholesale to the neighboring dealers. By and by this branch of his trade seemed to outgrow all the rest, and he found himself occasionally obliged to pay visits to the place where the liquor was manufactured, in order to purchase it at the highest advantage. His wife in a little while became accustomed to his absence for a day or two at a time, and having every reason to believe that his affairs were in a very prosperous state, began to forget all her former misgivings.

On one occasion, he left her on what he described as a circuit of the Highland distilleries, intending, he said, to be absent for at least a week, and carrying with him money to the amount of nearly £1000, which he said he would probably spend upon whiskey before he came back. Nothing that could awaken the least suspicion occured at their parting; but the next day, while his wife superintended matters in the shop, she was surprised when a large bill was presented, for which he had made no provision. On inspecting it, she was still further surprised to find that it referred to a transaction which she understood at the time to be a ready money one. Having dismissed the creditor of the bill, she lost no time in repairing to the counting house of a large commission house in Leith, with which she knew her husband to have had large transactions. There, on making some indirect inquiries, she found that his purchases, instead of being entirely for ready money, as he had represented to her, were mostly paid by bills, some of which were on the point of becoming due. It was now but too apparent that the unprincipled man had taken his final leave of her and his creditors, bearing with him all the spoil that his ingenuity could collect.

Isbel Lucas was not a person to sit down in idle despair on such an event. She was a steady Scotch woman, with a stout heart for a difficulty and her resolution was soon taken. She instantly proceeded to the Glasgow coach offices, and ascertained, as she expected, that a man answering to the description of her husband had taken a place for that city the day before. The small quantity of money that had been collected in the shop since his departure she put into her pocket; the shop she committed to the porter and her servant Jenny; and, having made up a small bundle of extra clothes, she set off by the coach to Glasgow. On alighting in the Argyle gate, the first person she saw was a female friend from Edinburgh, who asked, with surprise, how she and her husband happened to be traveling at the same time? "Why do you ask that question," inquired Isbel. "Because," replied the other, "I shook hands with Mr. Fordyne yesterday, as he was going on board the Isle of Man steamboat, at the Broomielaw." This was enough for Isbel. She immediately ascertained the time when the Isle of Man steamboat would next sail, and, to her great joy, found that she would not be two days later than her husband in reaching the Island. On landing in proper time at Douglass, in Man, she found her purse almost empty; but her desperate circumstances forced her to prosecute the search though she should have to do so by way of beggary.

It was morning when she landed at Douglass. The whole forenoon she spent in wandering about the streets, in the hope of encountering her faithless husband, and in inquiring after him at the inns. At length she satisfied herself that he must have left the town that very day for a remote part of the island, and on foot. She immediately set out upon the same road, and with the same means of conveyance, determined to sink with fatigue, or subject herself to any kind of danger, rather than return without her object. At first, the road passed over a moorish part of the country; but after proceeding several miles, it began to border on the sea, in some places edging the precipices which overhung the shore, and at others winding into deep recesses of the country. At length, on coming to the opening of a long reach of the coast, she saw a figure, which she took for that of her husband, just disappearing at the opposite extremity. Immediately gathering fresh strength, she pushed briskly on, and, after an hour's toilsome march, had the satisfaction, on turning a projection, to find her husband sitting right before her on a bank.

Fordyne was certainly very much surprised at her appearance, which was certainly unexpected; but he soon recovered his composure. He met her with more than even usual kindness, as if concerned at her having thought proper to perform so toilsome a journey. He hastened to explain that some information he had received at Glasgow, respecting the dangerous state of his mother, had induced him to make a start out of the way to see her, after which he would immediately return. It was then his turn to ask explanations from her: but this subject he passed very lightly, and, for her part, she hardly dared in this lonely place, to avow the suspicions which had induced her to undertake the journey. "It is all very well," said Fordyne, with affected complaisance; "you'll just go forward with me to my mother's house, and she will be the better pleased to see me since I bring you with me." Isbel, smothering her real feelings, agreed to this, though it may be well be supposed that neither what he had already done, and considering the wild place in which she was, she must have entertained no comfortable prospect of her night's adventures. Oh, then, they walked in the dusk of fast approaching night, through a country which seemed to be destitute alike of houses and inhabitants, and where the universal stillness was hardly ever broken by the sound of any animal, wild or tame. The road, as formerly went, lay only on the edge of a sea-worn precipice, over which a victim might be dashed in a moment, with hardly the least chance of ever being more seen or heard of, and partly in the recesses of a rugged country, in whose pathless wilderness the work of murder might be almost as securely effected. Isbel Lucas, knowing how much reason her husband had to wish her out of the world opened her mind fully to the dangers of her path and at every place that seemed more convenient than another for such a work, regarded him, even in the midst of a civil conversation, with the watchful eye of one who dreads the spring of the tiger from every brake. She contrived to keep upon the side of the road most remote from the precipice, and carried in her pocket an unclasped pen-knife, though almost helpless that her womanly nerves would support her in any effort to use it. Thus did they walk on for several miles, till at length, all of a sudden, Fordyne started off the road, and was instantly lost in a wild, tortuous ravine. This event was so different from any which she had feared, that for a moment Isbel stood motionless with surprise.

Another moment, however, sufficed to make up her mind as to her future course, and she immediately plunged into the defile following, as nearly as possible, in the direction which the fugitive appeared to have taken. On, on she toiled through thick entangling bushes, over much soft and mossy ground, her limbs every moment threatening to sink beneath her with fatigue, which they would certainly have done every speedily, if the desperate anxieties which filled her mind had not rendered her insensible to the languor of her body. At length became a more pressing object with her to find some place where she could be sheltered for the night than to follow in so hopeless a pursuit; and she therefore experienced great joy on perceiving a light at a little distance. As she approached the place whence this seemed to proceed, she discovered a cottage, where she could hear the sounds of singing and dancing. With great caution she drew near to the window through which the light was glancing, and there, peeping into the apartment, she saw her husband engering in furious mirth amidst a set of coarse peasant like individuals, mingled with a few who bore all the appearance of sea-smugglers. An old woman, of most unamiable aspect, sat by the fire-side, occasionally giving orders for the preparation of food, and now and then addressing a complimentary expression to Fordyne, whom Isbel therefore guessed to be her son. After the party seemed to have become quite tired of dancing, they sat down to a rude but plenteous repast; and after that was concluded, the whole party addressed themselves to repose. Some retired to an apartment at the opposite end of the house; but most stretched themselves on straw, which lay in various corners of the room in which they had been dining. The single bed which stood in this apartment was appropriated to Fordyne, apparently on account of his being the most important individual of the party; and he therefore continued under the unsuspected observation of his wife till he had consigned himself to repose. Previous to doing so, she observed him place something with great caution beneath his pillow.

For another hour, Isbel lay at the window, inspecting the interior of the house, which was now lighted very imperfectly by the expiring fire. At length, when every recumbent figure seemed to have become bound securely in sleep, she first uttered one brief but fervent and emphatic prayer, and then undid the loose fastening of the door, and glided into the apartment. Carefully avoiding the straw pallets which lay stretched around, she approached the bed whereon lay the treacherous Fordyne, and slowly and softly withdrew his large pocket-book from beneath the pillow. To her inexpressible joy, she succeeded in executing this manœuvre without giving him the least disturbance. Grasping the book fast with one hand, she piloted her way back with the other, and gliding in a few seconds had regained the exterior of the cottage.

As she expected, she found the large sum of money which Fordyne had taken away nearly entire. Transferring the precious parcel to her own bosom, she set forward instantly upon a pathway which led from the cottage apparently in the direction of Douglass. This she pursued in a rapid way, till she regained the road she had formerly left along which she proceeded with all possible haste. Fortunately, she had not advanced far when a peasant, who was driving home in an empty cart, and readily consented to give her a lift for a few miles. By means of this help she reached Douglass at an early hour in the morning, where, finding a steamboat fast ready to sail, immediately embarked, and was soon beyond all danger from her husband.

Isbel Lucas returned in a few days to Edinburg, with a sufficient sum to satisfy all her husband's creditors, and enough over to set her once more in her former way of life. She was never again troubled with the wretch Fordyne, who, a few years afterwards, she had the satisfaction of hearing, had died a natural death of an epidemic fever in the bridewell of Tralee, in Ireland.

The moral of this story—and it is a real one—is, that unmarried ladies should be particularly cautious about their hearts when they reach the peculiarly tender and suspectible age of forty two.

Preserving Butter.

Mr. Moore—About ten years ago, I figured as one of those peranabulating geniuses, called peddlers. In the course of my trade I found it necessary to have a knowledge to take all kinds of traps and farm productions, that were portable. Among others, when butter was cheap, I bought in at one time, 200 pounds, procured at 20 or 30 different places. This was in warm weather, in June. I procured a woman to work it over, and lay it down in a barrel, until it (a new oak provision one) was entirely full. This I headed up, and sunk into a running stream of water, where it was left, till the first of March, when it was taken out, and retailed at 16 cents per pound by a neighboring grocer. It was perfectly sweet, and good. Other like instances have been equally successful.

WHO WILL MAKE A GOOD WIFE.—When you see a young woman who rises early, sets the table and prepares her father's breakfast cheerfully, depend upon it she will make a good wife. You may rely upon it that she possesses a good disposition and a kind heart.

When you see a young woman just out of bed at nine o'clock, leaning with her elbow upon the table, gaping and sighing, "Oh, dear, how dreadfully I feel"—rely upon it she will not make a good wife. She must be lazy and nopish.

When you see a girl with a broom in her hand, sweeping the floor, or with a rubbing board or a clothes-line in her hand, you may put it down that she is industrious, and will make a good wife for somebody.

When you see a young girl with a novel in her left hand and a fan in her right, shedding tears, you may be sure she is not fit for a wife.

Happiness and misery are before you; which would you choose?

A man is never so contented, and does so heartily and safely as at home with his family, on a single dish.

The Yacht Race.—England Leading.

The Regatta of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, came off in England on the 23rd of last month. In the contest, the yacht America, which took the prize last year, under the able management of the Comodore of the New York Yacht Club, came in third, two other yachts being before her. This has been made subject of some rejoicing on the other side of the water, and it has been said boastingly that "the American crack clipper has been compelled to take the third place assigned to her, and the honors of the club have been nobly regained." This, we say is not so; the America, in that race, proved herself, as she did before, to be far superior to any yacht in the Royal Club. In the race, by mistake, she was sailed for some time on a wrong tack, and thus lost considerable time, but even after this, when the other yachts had obtained this advantage, she passed them all, and would have come in first had the breeze not fallen away almost to a calm. The fact admitted in all the accounts of this race, of the America overhauling and passing all the yachts in the squadron, when the breeze was stiff, is proof positive of her superior qualities. The America, by the regulations of the club, was only allowed to carry but one small top sail, while the winning yacht carried large balloon topsails. The name of the winning yacht is "The Arrow," she is an old stager, but during the last winter she was lengthened, and so far as it could be done, was remodelled after the America. This fact is the most honorable of all to American skill—it proves incontestably that the advantage and superiority of the America is owing to the higher scientific attainments of the Americans in shipbuilding. The sails of the English yachts were cut in the American fashion, and every thing that possibly could be done, in copying after our celebrated yacht, is an evidence that Uncle John is not too old nor too stubborn to learn from his young relative.—Scientific American.

The following incident, as connected with the President's visit to Strasburgh, is related in the Assemblee Nationale:—

"A fisherman on the banks of the Rhine had been tormented by his pretty wife to go to the grand fete at Stratsburg, but he objected on account of the expense. Violent quarrels and even blows were the consequences, and discord reigned so much between them that it was decided they should go to a notary, and be formally separated. They did so, and the notary, after vainly exerting all his eloquence to restore peace between the couple, promised to draw out the necessary documents. The parties then left, but on returning home a storm arose; and their boat foundered. The husband reached the shore by swimming, but the moment he landed he turned round and saw his wife struggling with the current. All their quarrels were in the moment forgotten, and he sprang into the river and saved her. On the following day they went together to the fete."

Mrs. General Taylor, relict of the late President, died at East Pascagoula, on Saturday night, 14th inst.

A Toronto paper says, that for some years past an emigration of considerable force, from Lower Canada to the State of Illinois, has been going on. Many causes have been attributed for this gradual and continuous process of partial depopulation of various districts in Lower Canada. The emigrants consist entirely of French Canadians.

A new threshing machine is said to have been invented by a Mr. Palmer, of North Carolina, which with four men to feed it, will take 100 cwt loads of wheat in the morning, lying in the field, pass through the thrasher, separate every kernel from the straw, winnow, clean and put into bags 1,500 bushels before sunset.

Eggs from China, but up in pickle, in large sized jars, are now retailed in San Francisco, at 1 dollar per dozen.

Anthracite is said to have been discovered on the State of San Salvador, near Realejo. If so, it will be worth more to California than half her gold placers.

Webster's Dictionary appears to be rising fast in popularity in England. William Longman, the publisher has been endeavoring, in vain, to find one ditor competent to prepare a new edition of Johnson's Dictionary, and has now adopted the revised edition of Webster, by Goodrich, as a perfect English Standard.

The Carpet Bag, defining the position of Stebbins, its popular candidate for the Presidency, on the liquor law, gives the following as the Ensign's statement on the subject:

"I am in favor of the law, but opposed to its being but in force."

We are inclined to believe that a go at many people—of whom better things are expected"—is on the Stebbings platform on the liquor question.

"Cadjoe, how did you dare didn't be at home when I cum to saw you?"

"Cause I didn't was there, and when I seed you went, I tried for to go, but I couldn't cum."

"Very well, den cum here till I fetch you die letter by de mail."

BRUISING APPLES.—The Working Farmer says, in speaking of the great success of R. L. Pell, and the high prices he gets in foreign markets, "Mr. Pell has occasionally made a thumbdent in an apple, and after tying a label to the stem, placed the apple so dented in the center of a barrel of sound apples, requesting his agent in England to report the result. The report has always been, that more than half of the apples have found decayed." How absurd, then, to bruise or shake apples from a tree or even to tumble them by basketfuls, when hand-picked, into barrels.

"Has thee got any paper-folders?" inquired an elderly Quaker of a stationer.

"None in the shop sir, but you'll find 'em sticky at work up stairs, and some real genuine article, too."

"Friend," was the reply, "thee shouldst have my hat, very I only wear that thee wouldst put a feather in it, and waste it for a piece of vanity."

Then came not joke an enemy into a friend, but thou mayest a friend into an enemy.

BIRDS OF PASSAGE.

BY HENRY W. LONGFELLOW.

Black shadows fall
From the linden tall
That lift aloft their massive wall
Against the Southern sky:

And from the realms
Of the shadowy alms
A tide-like darkness overwhelms:
The fields that round us lie;

But the night is fair
And everywhere
A warm soft vapor fills the air
And distant sounds seem near.

And above in the light
Of the star lit night,
Swift birds of passage wing their flight
Through the dewy atmosphere.

I hear the beat
Of their pinions fleet,
As from the land of snow and sleet
They seek a Southern sea.

I hear the cry
Of their voices high,
Falling dreamingly through the sky,
But their forms I cannot see.

O my not so!
Those sounds that flow
In murmurs of delight and woe
Come not from wings of birds!

They are the throngs
Of the poet's songs;
Murmurs of pleasures, and pains and wrongs,
The sound of winged words.

This is the cry
Of souls, that high
On sailing, beating pinions fly,
Seeking a warmer clime.

From their distant flight,
Through the realms of light,
It falls into our night
With the murmuring sound of rhyme.

For the Plainfield Union.

Mr. Editor:

The great loss of life occasioned by the burning of the steamer Henry Clay, and by the sinking of the Atlantic by collision, has very much disheartened the travelling part of our community, because such deception has been practised on them by the so-called Life-Preservers, as the following resolution passed by the survivors at the town of Erie will fully show:

Resolved, That we would call the attention of the public in particular to the insufficiency of the so called life-preservers, which are totally useless, the truth of which was too bitterly proved to some of the unfortunates, who trusted themselves to their fancied security.

As we villagers have frequently to visit New York, let us see if we are better secured from burning and drowning than others who have to travel on steamers. From this place we have to travel on the railroad to Elizabeth-Port, thence to New York, generally on the steamer Red Jacket, with frequently 200 passengers. It will be said that this boat is perfectly safe, because she don't race, and that the captain, engineer, pilot, and others in charge, are careful, sober men. All this we admit; yet as to burning:—the captain has always much duty to attend to on deck, the engineer must always be at the engine, and the pilot cannot quit the helm an instant, so that the fires from which the danger is to be apprehended is entrusted to firemen. It will be said, these men are experienced and understand their business, we admit this also; but if business or sickness should call them off, and strangers put in their place, we are as likely to be burned as the Henry Clay. As to collision and being sunk by the ice, I know of no situation in or about New York harbor more exposed than from Bergen Point to and from New York. Vessels of all classes are always on the move, we are subject to fogs, and the greatest danger in the winter is from ice drifting from the North River. I went over one day last winter in the Red Jacket, on my return was put on board a little worthless looking boat. I remarked to the captain it was a miserable substitute for the Red Jacket, to which he replied it was the best he could do, as the other boats were so cut with the ice they were repairing at the ship yards. As to racing against other boats, it is seldom the case, but against time they are always racing. If the wind and tide should be unfavorable, then they have to steam up to make time, which they can do without pitch, rosin, or pitch-pine wood, but by a machine called a blower the fire can be raised to a very high degree. From these remarks it may be seen that we are not more secure from burning or drowning than others who travel on steamers. It is said a ship is a complete structure, with one exception, that is, when in danger there are no back doors to creep out. Steamers have the same defect.

The following is an abridged description of an Elliptical Marine Railway and Safety Cars, with its appendages. The one I shall describe is suitable for the Red Jacket, is the smallest class, safe for 240 men, each weighing 160 lbs. The next class is safe for 350, and the largest is safe for 500. The safety cars have a reserved capacity of 20 per cent over the number which can be seated, so that they cannot be sunk. The space required on board the Red Jacket is from the crimson curtain to the stern, is all about 20 feet. This space I should enclose, and call it the safety-car room, with a door on each side near the stern, and a stairway leading up and down, to the ladies' cabins. For the space taken from the ladies I will give them a neat cabin on the promenade deck, and another below. In the car room on each side I place a miniature Elliptical Railway, the round part of which extends beyond the stern to about 2 feet from the water. On the railways are placed two safety cars, each about 20 feet long and 8 feet wide. These cars have six chambers 2 ft. 6 in. deep, which are filled with metallic air-tight cylinders. Each car is mounted on four light wheels. The frame work and plank of said cars are of white pine, which of itself would buoy up 20 men. There is to be openings or cashcocks through which the cars are to pass out into the water, at each of the openings is to be a bridge, also those at every landings, which is to be raised and let down by means of chains and windlass. When these bridges are down they perform a two-fold purpose, one as a landing board for passengers to enter the cars, and the other when the passengers are with as much safety step from the boat in time of danger to the safety cars, as to step on the wharf. These bridges when drawn up confine the safety cars in their places on the railway. The moment the bridges are lowered the safety cars run into the water, and in five minutes from the first alarm of danger all the passengers are in safety. It will be seen by this arrangements that steamboats may be made much safer than ships, because when in danger, we have back doors through which we can pass in safety. In my next I shall make further remarks relating to the manner of using said safety cars, &c.

It will be seen that the plan I suggest for saving life, is by means of a marine railway placed near the stern, on which are safety cars, which, when in the water are Sectional Floating Docks. As to the Railway I built the first few years ago near where are now the Novelty Works, and it is now in successful operation. My Sectional Docks at the foot of Pike st. will show they are safe to take on the steamers of Collins' line. So that there is nothing left to be tested or in a state of uncertainty, so unlike the Life-Preservers, which when tested proved to be useless.

The cost of said Railway and safety cars is very small. I suppose Mr. Wm. C. Ayers with four men can fit every part in his shop in four days, and in another four days, put all in place on board without stopping the boat. As to the alteration in the ladies' cabin, the owners will attend to that. One of the owners will say the Red Jacket is perfectly safe. This same man said the same relative to the ferry bridge at Staten Island, which gave way, and about 20 persons were drowned. JOHN THOMAS,

Naval and Marine Architect.

SOURCES OF POPULATION.—The current number of the New England Review contains an elaborate article on the sources of the population of the United States, in which the writer arrives at the conclusion that the number of white people in this country not Anglo-Saxon by birth or blood, is not over 4,668,736, while the Anglo-Saxon portion amounts to 15,000,000, the balance consisting of 3,594,752, of the African race —total 23,293,488.

Mons. Maillefert started from N. York yesterday, in company with Adams, of the Express company, for Lake Erie, to attempt the raising of the steamer Atlantic. A. & Co. had $50,000 on board in an iron chest mostly bills. The steamer sunk in water 175 feet deep, but Mons. M. is confident he can raise her.

One of our exchanges speaks of a "finished scamp." We wish they were all finished.

Gold bearing quarts and native copper have been discovered in Western Michigan.

The agricultural wealth of the United States is supposed to be about $1,28I,819,919,

A man in Cincinnatti by the name of Gergwright, though without arms, has embraced the profession of a tailor, and does all his sewing with his toes.

American silver dissappearing, from circulation leaving only depreciated foreign coins for change. Some legislative action should be taken in the matter.

Twelve and a half millions of eggs were imported into England in one month this summer.

It is stated that the elections for Liverpool cost the Derdbyites upwards of £4000.

The Royal Agricultural Society has offered a premium of 1000 pounds to any one who will either invent or discover a manure equal to Peruvian guano.

Two-thirds of the 150 permanent residents of Nahant are named Johnson, says a correspondent of the Transcript, they are nearly all related to each other.

A maching at Steubenville, Ohio, will produce either percussion or friction matches at the rate of, 10,000 per minute, or 1,200,000 per hour.

RATHER ODD.—A funeral sermon was preached de at Proctorsville, Vt., on the death of Mr. Gilbert Bond. By his request, it was written and read to him before he died!

A writer in the Albany Cultivator gives a comparative estimate of the expense each of keeping a span of horses and a pair of mules, and makes an annual saving in favor of the mules of $100 a year. He further adds: "Their vision and hearing seem to be better, and they never take fright—a danger from which you are never secure with a horse."

We would again call attention to the number of Washington D. C., small bank notes which are in circulation, resembling good Jersey or New York notes, but perfectly worthless. The following are the Washington banks whose issues of this character, should be refused:—Bank of the Union, Bank of the Republic, Eastern Bank, Metropolitan, Citizens, Central, Fulton and Ocean Banks.

The accounts received from all parts of the Union concur in the opinion that the wheat and corn crops will be far the largest ever garnered. The accounts in relation to the corn crops are particularly flattering, and in many States, where there has been very little corn planted in former seasons, the yeild will be very great. The Iowa and Alabama papers state that the crop will be double what it ever was before, and that it will be sold during the fall at 50c per bushel. The Cotton Crop throughout the Southern States is represented as looking well.

A poor but respectable tradesman in Gloucester, whose brother emigrated to Australia a few years ago, has received from him a very agreeable token of fraternal regard in the shape of a lump of gold, which has been sold for £400.

The first seizure of liquor in Boston, under the new Law was made Thursday when a grocer was fined $20 and costs and the liquor, embracing various kinds of no great value, was emptied into the sewer in Court Square. A large crowd quietly looked on. Moses Williams, one of the wealthiest wholesale dealers in the city, has been complained of, and will be examined to-day.

We published on Wednesday the melancholy fact, that the Ohio river was so low, as to be confined to its bed. Intelligence has since arrived, we are glad to say, that, since the recent rains, it has got up again, and is now running about as usual.

The Bangor Whig tells of a remarkable crop of wheat, grown in that State and averaging one hundred bushels to the acre. The seed was sown in one town, and the crop reaped in another town—the farm in the interim having been set off from the town of Brewer and added to Bolden.

SIGNIFICANT FACT.—Although the Jesuits have been engaged in the work of missions among the heathen more than 200 years, not an instance is on record where they have sought to accomplish their work by translating the Scriptures into the language of the people. Popery has no greater enemy than the Bible.

THE UNION

Plainfield, N. J. August 31, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

National Whig Nominations:

For President of the United States:

Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.

For Vice President:

WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North-Carolina.

NEW JERSEY WHIG STATE CONVENTION; To nominate Seven Electors to vote for SCOTT and GRAHAM, will meet at Trenton, on Thursday, Sept. 2d, at 12 o'clock. The Whigs of the State are requested to send the proper number of delegates, and to attend themselves in a Grand Mass Meeting at the same time and place, to ratify the nominations.

PLAINFIELD TOWNSHIP DELEGATES, To the State Convention at Trenton, Sept. 2d, Abraham Runyon and William C. Ayres.

C. BOICE, Sec'y. ABM. RUNYON, Chairman.

Friday Evening, Aug 27.

The communication of Capt. Thomas in our columns this week is well worthy of attention, and is on a subject not only very important in itself, but one on which he is as well qualified to speak, as any man in the country, having had a large experience of some 40 years, and having been extensively employed by our Government, also in the British Navy Yards. He has shown us a drawing of his plan, as described in his communication, which makes the whole matter plain, and apparently practicable.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The Falcon arrived at New Orleans on Thursday, with news from California to Aug. 1st.

The Ohio left Aspinwall for New York on the 19th, with upwards of $2,000,000 of gold dust.

The mining intelligence is favorable and the yield is increasing.

The Indians continued very troublesome, and it was reported that they were about organizing for a general fight with the whites.

Intelligence from Australia seems to indicate that the tendency to Republicanism is progressing rapidly, and a Declaration of Independence is looked for ere long.

The Chinese emigration continued on quite a large scale, no further resistance having been made on the part of the inhabitants.

Emigration to Australia from California was taking place on a large scale.

Sandwich Islands dates are to the 2d of July, but the news is unimportant.

ARTHUR'S HOME GAZETTE.—This week the third Volume of this popular and useful family paper commences, and the proprietors have resolved to reduce its price greatly, when taken in clubs. The following are the

TERMS PER ANNUM, IN ADVANCE:

1 copy, $2. 2 copies, $3. 3 copies, $4. 4 copies, $5.
5 copies, and 1 to getter up of the club, $10
13 " " 25
20 " " 30

We have received every number from its commencement, and receive none so free from every thing objectionable, so useful and influential for good, and at the same time so entertaining. It is such a paper as might have been expected from Arthur, and we are not surprised therefore that it is extensively patronized, and at the above prices its circulation must be largely increased.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The U. S. Mail steamer Atlantic arrived at New York at 3 o'clock Sunday morning, 22d inst. with 4 days later news.

The Asia arrived at New York on Wednesday evening, with 3 days later news, to the 14th inst. with 35 passengers.

The steamship City of Manchester, which left Liverpool on the 11th inst. arrived at Philadelphia on Friday morning, with a full freight, and 180 passengers.

The most important intelligence is the reported spread of the potato disease, and a blight in the wheat, both in England and on the continent. Wheat and breadstuffs had consequently risen considerably in price.

The English papers speak in a conciliating manner of the fishery difficulty, and suppose it will be amicably settled. It is said, Mr. Thomas Baring, of the famours banking-house of Baring Brothers & Co. of good repute in this country, will soon visit the U. S. and is authorized to arrange this whole matter.

More war vessels are fitting out in the British navy yards for the North American coast.

The Times, of the 11th inst. contains an editorial relative to the Kaine affair in New York, and says, that if Kaine was an Englishman or a Scotchman, instead of an Irishman, he would be delivered up immediately.

Emigration to Australia continues undiminished. Fifty ships of from 500 to 2000 tons, are entered to sail during the present month from Liverpool, London and Plymouth.

In Portugal, there had been no summer, but a succession of foggy and rainy days extremely injurious to the crops, and scarcity was apprehended. Brandy had risen to £20 per pipe.

Accounts from the Cape of Good Hope are very unsatisfactory.

The steamship Africa sailed from New York for Liverpool on Wednesday, with 50 passengers and $633,000 in specie.

The Franklin sailed on Saturday for Southampton and Havre, with 100 passengers and £400,000 in specie.

Congress.

Monday, Aug. 23. The Senate amended the River and Harbor Bill.

Tuesday. In Senate, the River and Harbor Bill was ordered to be engrossed, 31 to 17.—Since it came from the House, $350,000 have been added to it.

In the House, a disgraceful scene was got up by Polk, of Tennessee. The honorable Representatives gave each other the lie pretty freely. It was about the betrayal of a South fly the nomination of Scott, Seward, the cowardice of Pierce, &c. &c.

Wednesday. The Senate passed the River and Harbor Bill, 35 to 23; 4 absent. Also, the bill for electing a public printer, as it came from the House. Also, the bill authorizing a daily mail between Louisville, St. Louis, and New Orleans.

Thursday. In Senate, the Post Route Bill was passed. Mr. Summer spoke at length against the Fugitive Slave Law.

In the House, the bill for a tri-weekly mail between New Orleans and Vera Cruz at $100,000 per annum, was passed. The Light House Appropriation Bill was passed.

Friday. The Senate granted the claim of Mr. Yalee, of Florida, to a seat in the Senate, 41 to 9. $50,000 were granted to Ritchie for his alleged losses as public printer. He claimed some $250,000.

The House elected Mr. Armstrong public printer, on the first ballot.

The primary meetings of the Democrats of New York city were held on Thursday evening, and were scenes of violence, rowdyism, illegal voting and outrage, exceeding anything of the kind heretofore known even there. A large police force was unsuccessful in preserving order, though several were arrested. The contest was between the Hunkers and Barnburners, and the Hunkers were generally successful.

AM. BIBLE SOCIETY.—Rev. Geo. Sheldon, Agent for this State, sent us some months ago, the 36th Annual Report of the American Bible Society, presented in May last. We have ever regarded this as the most important of all that exist in this country, whether we regard its object of disseminating the Scriptures without note or comment every where, or the amount of good it is accomplishing. The income for the last year was $308,745, some $25,000 more than in any previous year.

In regard to New Jersey, we are glad to learn that an increased engagedness in the Cause prevails throughout the State. The auxiliaries are for the most part in a thriving and healthy condition. Large and important districts have been thoroughly supplied with the Scriptures, and the Churches generally are increasing in their liberality to the Society. All classes appear to take an interest in the Society's prosperity and growth. A recent meeting for addresses on the Bible Cause, in the State House at Trenton, at which leading civilians from various societies of the State took part, indicated a very encouraging interest in this benign and heavenly enterprize.

The Rev. George Sheldon, in the employ of the Society, has, during the year, visited nearly every part of his field, and under his discreet supervision, the friends of the Bible in New Jersey are coming to hold a high place among the supporters and advocates of this Institution.

The receipts of the Warren County Bible Society, for the last year, amounted to $773 96. Rev. Jonas M. Clark has been canvassing the county, under the Society's direction, and he reports having visited 2,486 families, and found 244 of them without the blessing of the Scriptures in their dwelling. In the progress of his work, he put into circulation 2,143 copies of the Word of God.

The Essex County Bible Society has done more during the last twelve months than it has ever done before in the same period. The Churches within its limits generally contribute liberally and systematically towards this object, and active measures are taken continually to search out and supply the destitute throughout the county, both in the city and country.

The Middlesex County Bible Society is taking steps to increase its collections to $1,000.

The Somerset County Bible Society is carrying out the object of its organization with fidelity and success. The friends of the Cause within its bounds are very numerous, and not a few of them are of the most efficient character.

Uncle Zeke's bail was the stoutest fellow for many a mile around. He had a head of brass, nerves of steel, and all that sort of thing. The story that some of the boys got up, about his fighting in a fight, was all gammon. His courage was clear and unquestionable. But then, when he bullied the steam engine, and tried to toss it off the track, he only made a fool and a cripple of himself. And yet there were some standing by bet on the ball!—N. Y. Times.

The Collins' Line of steamships have thus far made fifty voyages, or crossed the ocean one hundred times. They have averaged about ninety passengers a trip making, in all, 9,000, among which no loss of life or injury to person has occurred.

The Ocean Signal will be sold by the proprietor on very favorable terms. To an enterprising printer, an opportunity is afforded to build up a respectable estal.lishment, as this is the only newspaper published in the county. It receives all the legal and other advertisements, and the office does a fair jobbing business.

As regards England, public sympathy, it is needless to say, is enlisted on the side of the Democratic candidate. Not that Gen. Pierce is considered the better man. Far otherwise. He is merely accepted as the nominee of that great party in the Union who desire to push the principle of Free Trade to its utmost limits.—Willmer & Smith's Liverpool Times.

A locomotive on the Elizabethtown and Somerville Railroad was thrown off the track, a short distance below the Elizabethtown depot, while coming up from the Port. Thursday afternoon half past 1 o'clock by the displacement of a switch. The locomotive ran into the sand bank through which the road is cut, and was somewhat damaged, but no injury was done to the cars or passengers. The passengers by the next down train were obliged to reach N. Y. by the N. J. R. R. instead of going to the Port, on account of the obstruction upon the track.

A Frenchman, soliciting relief, said very gravely to a fair hearer.

"Ma'amaselle, I never beg but dat I have von wife wid several small family dat is growing very large and nossing to make dem bread out of, but de perspiration of my own eyebrows."

Let the best of thy thoughts be to mend thyself, rather than the world.

☞ We hope and expect there will be a large attendance at the Whig Mass Meeting on the battle field at Trenton, on Thursday of this week. Many distinguished speakers are advertised to address the assemblage.

New York Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Wheat Flour,	$4,43 to 4,62
Rye Flour	3,50 to 3,62
Indian Meal, Jersey,	3,50 to 3,50
Grain—Wheat,	1,01 to 1,10
Rye,	81 to 82
Corn,	70 to 74
Oats, Jersey.	43 to 46

Thousands of parents who use Vermifuge composed of Castor oil, Calomel, &c., are not aware, that while they appear to benefit the patient, they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of sight, weakness of limbs, &c.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Hobensack's Medicines, to which we ask the attention of all directly interested in their own as well as their Children's health. In Liver Complaints and all disorders arising from impurities of the blood, the use of the only genuine medicine, Hobensack's Liver Pills.

☞ "Be not deceived," but ask for Hobensack's Worm Syrup and Liver Pills, and observe that each has the signature of the Proprietor, J. N. HOBENSACK, as none else are genuine.

ANOTHER RAPID CURE OF INFLUENZA.

Springfield, Mass. June 10th 1851.

Dr. A. Rogers—Sir—This is to let you know that your medicine has cured me of a most severe attack of INFLUENZA. Few medicines come up to the promises of the inventors but yours does, nor does any to my experience, and it is only a fair thing that the public should know it. I suffered for a week from Cough, violent irritation of the palate and throat, pains through my chest, difficult breathing, and constant running from the eyes and nostrils. This was before I tried your Syrup of Liverwort, Tar and Canchalagua. One bottle entirely cured me, and I have no objection to your publishing the fact with my name and residence; for where it will benefit the sick, it seems like a duty to state what I knows by personal experience.

THOMAS ALDEN.

Near the U. S. Armory.

CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on the buff wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. L. SCOVILL & CO.

For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Gothic Hall, 316 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.

Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING

PRICE—In large bottles, $1,00, or 6 bottles for $5,00.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Camphor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

G W. DeBruynKops, Warrenville, $4,00; Wm. S. Wood, 3,00; Mr. Hughes, Union Village, 1,50; James Forrest, 1,50; Elijah Shotwell, Scotch Plains, 6,00.

DIED.

In this place on Wednesday, 25th inst. Kate, daughter of Rev. Wm. Whittaker, aged 3 months.

At Hillsborough, 14th inst. Peter Hall, Esq. aged 32 years.

At Alton, Illinois, Caleb M., youngest son of John H. Voorhees, of Boundbrook, N. J. in the 24th year of his age.

At New Albany, Indiana, on the 12th inst., Seth Woodruff, of a protracted illness, in the 76th year of his age, formerly of Newark.

Boots and Shoes.—A. D. GALE. MANUFACTURER and Wholesale Dealer, invites Country Merchants to call and examine his large stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, sold extremely low for Cash or short credits for notes. Call and see

A. D. GALE, 225 Pearl street, corner of Platt.

New York, Aug. 30, 1852.—3m

Bigelow's Alterative,

A CERTAIN CURE for DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA, CHOLERA MORBUS, and ALL SUMMER COMPLAINTS.

GEORGE W. BLEECKER, Proprietor, 98 Broadway, New York

Price 50 cents per bottle.

TESTIMONIALS.

I have used "Bigelow's Alterative" in my family, and have never found it to fail, when all other remedies administered by and under direction of Physicians, have proved ineffectual. I think it a perfect corrective for Dysenteric and all Bowel complaints.

GEO. W. BEEBEE, 47 Wall-street.

New-York, March 22d, 1852.

We can add our testimony to that of others of its great efficacy in our own case, when prostrated to an alarming degree by Bowel disease. It was the only medicine that gave relief, and we now attribute to it the health of

EDITOR OF N. Y. BAPTIST REGISTER.

Utica, April 15th 1852.

Dear Sir.—I rejoice to hear that you are about to introduce to the public your valuable medicine, which has been of much benefit to my family. Last summer, my little girl, about three years of age, was in a very low state with the Dysentery. Such was the state of the bowels that nothing was retained. Our friend passed them. I mentioned her state to you as a neighbor, not thinking that you possessed a sovereign remedy. We gave her two tea-spoonfuls, when the mother declared she was as well as ever, is now in good health, and has not had an attack since. Her sister, about two years of age, was taken last week with a similar complaint, when about 2 tea-spoonfuls restored her to perfect health. Still another case, my son Hiram, about nine years of age, was much afflicted with bowel complaint, his countenance became sallow, and he was evidently wasting away, when a few teaspoonfuls of your valuable medicine under God, has regulated his system.

With many obligations I am dear sir.

Yours, respectfully,

HIRAM G. SMITH, 86 First street.

☞ M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

Aug 23, 1852—3m

HOPE'S EXPRESS,

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

Leaves Plainfield for New York at 6 1-2, A. M. and 5 1-2 P. M. For Somerville, Easton, &c. 9 1-2 A. M. and 5 1-2, P. M.

Arrives at Plainfield from New York at 9 1-2 A. M. and 5 1-2 P. M. From Easton, &c 8 1-2 am 5 1-2 p.m.

All business entrusted to us will be punctually attended to, without delay, at moderate charges, for cash.

Notice.—Wm. Lynch,

Late of 516 Pearl-Street, New York.

Wishes to inform his friends and old customers, that he will open his Wholesale & Retail Store, on Saturday, at 223 Greenwich st., corner of Duane st., on 22 April, with a new fresh stock of goods, such as Teas, sugars, molasses, coffees and spices, butter, cheese, hams, beef tea, and all kinds of groceries cheap for cash. Families, boarding house keepers, and bakers, are invited to call and examine his goods and his prices, as they are sure of very large percentage, call and see for yourselves.—Country merchants purchasing goods for cash, are particularly requested to call and examine his goods and the prices before purchasing elsewhere, as I am determined on a share of standard, saleable, large, clean, and any part of the city, free of charge.

WM. LYNCH, 223 Greenwich corner Duane st.

Poughkeepsie Blacksmith.

MR. W. H. VAN WAGNER,

The eloquent "champion" temperance orator, will address the citizens of this place, in the Big Tent, near the Depot, on Tuesday evening, August 31st, commencing at 7 1-2 o'clock.

J. M. BROWN, the celebrated "natural vocalist," will accompany Mr. V. and discourse some beautiful melodies. Admission Free.

Mr. Van Wagner has for years been famous as a powerful and most interesting advocate of Temperance, and we need not call on the people to attend for no doubt his tent will be filled.

New york, August 16, 1852.—3m

Agricultural Implements and Manufactured Seeds, Fertilizers, &c.

FARMERS, PLANTERS, AND MERCHANTS, will find at the AGRICULTURAL WARE-house of A. B. ALLEN & Co.

No. 189 and 191 Water-st.-ct, New-York.

The largest assortment in the United States, of tools and machines, suited to every soil. Most of the implements sold by them, are manufactured in their own machine shop, under the direct supervision of one of the firm, where the best of seasoned timber only is used, with iron of the first quality.

PLOWS.

Of Plows, they sell more than 100 different patterns, among which are double moldboard, or side plows self-sharpening, subsoil, and side-hill plows.

CASTINGS.

of various patterns, among which are bull tongue, scooter, scrapers and shovels, by the ton or retail.

Harrows, Cultivators, Seed Sowers, Corn Planters Hoes, Shovels, Spades and Forks, of various patterns, in any quantity.

STRAW CUTTERS AND CORN SHELLERS,

manufactured under Hall's patent.

Sugar Mills, Rice Hullers, Cotton Gins, Threshing Machines for wheat, and oats and rice; Fanning Mills for do. Wheat and Corn Mills, with Burr Stones or iron Plates.

Horse Powers, Threshers and Separators.—The Endless Chain or Railway Powers of our own manufacture, both simple and double gear, for one and two horses, which have never been equalled for lightness in running, strength, durability and economy. They are highly recommended wherever they have been tried.

2. The Bogardus Power, for 1 to 4 horses, are compact and wholly of iron, and adapted to all kinds of work.

3. Eddy's Circular wrought iron large Cog Wheels, for 1 to 6 horses. A new and favorite power.

4. Trimble's Iron-sweep Power, for 1 to 4 horses.

Various sizes Improved Threshers upon the best principles, threshing clean with great rapidity, and scarcely ever breaking the grain.

One-Horse Undershot	$5
Two-Horse Undershot	30 to $35
One-horse Overshot	28
Two-horse Overshot	33 to $38

Separators, which greatly facilitates cleaning the grain and preparing it for the fanning mill 7 to $10

All the above named machines are guaranteed the best in the United States.

Reaping and Mowing Machines, Sowing Machines, Grain Cradles, Scythes and Rakes. Every kind of Horticultural Tools; also, Garden and Field Seeds, Fruit and Ornamental Trees, sent to order.

Australian Wheat.—Very superior. The berry of this grain is extra large, and makes the best of flour. It produces a greater average crop than any other variety now grown in New-York. Experience, and careful trial in its cultivation, proves that it is less liable to rust or mildew than other kinds: and as the stalk is large and strong, it is also held by the heads or ledges. Price $4 per bushel. Other varieties of wheat, such as the White Flint, Mediterranean, Black Sea, &c. &c.

A descriptive pictorial Catalogue of over 100 pages will be sent, gratis, to applicants by letters, or sent to them by mail on their enclosing four letter stamps, to pay postage, as required by the present post-office law.

N. B. Genuine Peruvian Guano, Bone Dust, &c. Aug 16, 1852—3w

Central Rail Road of N. J.

The cars will run as follows until further notice.

Leave Pier No. 1 North River, New York, at 8 A. M. ; 12 M. ; 4 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Plainfield for New York, at 6.35 and 8.25, A. M. ; 1.05 and 5.20, P. M.

Leave Plainfield for Easton, Pa. at 9.40, A. M. 1.55 and 5.50, P. M. ; and for Somerville at 7.50, P. M.

Aug. 2, 1852.

WANTED.

$500 Secured by Bond and Mortgage—a safe and profitable investment. Enquire at this office immediately.

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the Subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N. J. containing from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on 2d, 3d, 4th, Main, Liberty and William sts.; also a good brick store, with a Dwelling House built expressly for the accommodation of two families, and is a valuable location, very nigh the centre of the business part of the town, on the corner of Exchange and Second-sts. a very short distance from Titsworth's Hotel, on Second-st.

Jan. 19 1852—tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

GARHART & NEEDHAM,

Original Manufacturers of Garhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

With Recent Important Improvements.

Price from $60 to $200.

No. 75 Fast 3 thirteen n Street,

J. Garhart, E. P. Needham. } NEW YORK

N. B. Melodeons constantly on hand. 6m

Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Craig's office, next door to Cherry-st., 2nd below Front, where he will be pleased to see his old friends and the vicinity of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns DeLaines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds. A good assortment of Summer Goods, Colonades, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES.

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Rio Coffee, Hams and Shoulders, Rosaked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Boiler and Wooden Ware,

Tubs, Buckets, Brooms, Wash Boilers, Brooms, wicks, shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian-Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.

LIME, Rhode Island and Shell Lime,

by the load or bushel. All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods. JAMES M. DUNN.

April 20, 1852.—1y.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the new stand on Somerset-st., next to the corner of Front street, and near French's Hotel, where they are prepared to sell their goods in their line cheap as the cheapest and good as the best, including Flour and Feed, also Crockery and Earthen Ware. Please to call and see us before purchasing elsewhere. Thankful for past favors, asks continuance of the same.

☞ Mrs. Coy's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaint.

JOHNSON & LYON.

N. B. All persons indebted to the subscriber are requested to call and settle without delay.

April 3, 1852.—1y. CHARLES JOHNSON.

AGENTS WANTED TO SELL THE Life of Gen. Scott,

2500 pages 12mo, Handsomely and durably bound, Illustrated by Engravings,

BY EDWARD D. MANSFIELD, Esq., many years Editor of the Cincinnati Daily Chronicle. The Subscriber will shortly receive from the Press, an Edition of the above valuable work and will furnish those disposed to act as agents to circulate the same, on the most liberal terms. For further particulars and all necessary information address or apply to the subscriber. Each purchaser will please address his name, post office, county and State, plainly written.

July 30 Publisher, 154 Tenth Street, New Haven, Conn.

Coffee, Spices, Mustard, &c.

WITHINGTON & WILDE,

Nos. 7 and 9 Dutch street, (between Fulton and John streets,) NEW-YORK,

KEEP constantly on hand a large and well assorted stock of Coffees, green, roasted and ground. Cinnamon, Nutmegs, Cloves, Pepper, Allspice, Ginger Mustard, Seed &c., &c., whole and ground, all of the best quality, put up in cans best style. Also their superior Rice Flour and Cocoa, equal to any manufactured.

Having been favorably known in this business for the past twenty years, we are confident that we can give purchasers perfect satisfaction, as to the quality and manufacture of our articles, and our goods being bought mostly for cash, we prices will be found as favorable as those of any House in the Trade.

New york, August 16, 1852.—3m

Agricultural Implements and Manufactured Seeds, Fertilizers, &c.

FARMERS, PLANTERS, AND MERCHANTS, will find at the AGRICULTURAL WARE-house of A. B. ALLEN & Co.

No. 189 and 191 Water-st.-ct, New-York.

The largest assortment in the United States, of tools and machines, suited to every soil. Most of the implements sold by them, are manufactured in their own machine shop, under the direct supervision of one of the firm, where the best of seasoned timber only is used, with iron of the first quality.

PLOWS.

Of Plows, they sell more than 100 different patterns, among which are double moldboard, or side plows self-sharpening, subsoil, and side-hill plows.

CASTINGS.

of various patterns, among which are bull tongue, scooter, scrapers and shovels, by the ton or retail.

Harrows, Cultivators, Seed Sowers, Corn Planters Hoes, Shovels, Spades and Forks, of various patterns, in any quantity.

STRAW CUTTERS AND CORN SHELLERS,

manufactured under Hall's patent.

Sugar Mills, Rice Hullers, Cotton Gins, Threshing Machines for wheat, and oats and rice; Fanning Mills for do. Wheat and Corn Mills, with Burr Stones or iron Plates.

Horse Powers, Threshers and Separators.—The Endless Chain or Railway Powers of our own manufacture, both simple and double gear, for one and two horses, which have never been equalled for lightness in running, strength, durability and economy. They are highly recommended wherever they have been tried.

2. The Bogardus Power, for 1 to 4 horses, are compact and wholly of iron, and adapted to all kinds of work.

3. Eddy's Circular wrought iron large Cog Wheels, for 1 to 6 horses. A new and favorite power.

4. Trimble's Iron-sweep Power, for 1 to 4 horses.

Various sizes Improved Threshers upon the best principles, threshing clean with great rapidity, and scarcely ever breaking the grain.

One-Horse Undershot	$5
Two-Horse Undershot	30 to $35
One-horse Overshot	28
Two-horse Overshot	33 to $38

Separators, which greatly facilitates cleaning the grain and preparing it for the fanning mill 7 to $10

All the above named machines are guaranteed the best in the United States.

Reaping and Mowing Machines, Sowing Machines, Grain Cradles, Scythes and Rakes. Every kind of Horticultural Tools; also, Garden and Field Seeds, Fruit and Ornamental Trees, sent to order.

Australian Wheat.—Very superior. The berry of this grain is extra large, and makes the best of flour. It produces a greater average crop than any other variety now grown in New-York. Experience, and careful trial in its cultivation, proves that it is less liable to rust or mildew than other kinds: and as the stalk is large and strong, it is also held by the heads or ledges. Price $4 per bushel. Other varieties of wheat, such as the White Flint, Mediterranean, Black Sea, &c. &c.

A descriptive pictorial Catalogue of over 100 pages will be sent, gratis, to applicants by letters, or sent to them by mail on their enclosing four letter stamps, to pay postage, as required by the present post-office law.

N. B. Genuine Peruvian Guano, Bone Dust, &c. Aug 16, 1852—3w

Lyon's Kathairon,

For the Growth and Establishment of the Hair, to Prevent its falling off and Turning Grey.

Awarded the Highest Premiums by the States of New York, Maryland and Michigan at their annual Fairs of 1851.

THE Kathairon neutralizes the effect of disease, climate and old age, in Preserving and Restoring the Human Hair, even after a Baldness of twenty years; leaves the Hair, from Start out Curled; will cure the Nervous Headache, Scald Head, Dandruff, Dizziness of the Skin, &c. and it is the most desirable

TOILET ARTICLE

For Ladies' or Gentlemen's use in the World. Its perfume equals Lubin's choicest Extracts, and being free from all offensive rancid oil or coloring properties, it gives the Hair the most bright, soft, lively appearance, secured by no other preparation.

The use of the Kathairon is adopted by the first physicians in Europe and America, and has a patronage and sale unprecedented in the history of the medical profession. But words are superfluous, a trial only can attest its real virtues, as millions certify. To be had throughout North and South America, Europe and the Islands of the Ocean, in large Bottles, for 25 cents.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

July 19, 1852.—6m*

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF Pure Jamaica Ginger.

"Dear Sir,—I speak from a general knowledge of the virtues of Ginger, and particularly of your preparation of Jamaica Ginger, having used it three years in my practice. For Spasmodic Affections, Cholera, Summer complaints, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Nervous debility, General Weakness, &c. it is unquestionably the best article in the world. Its effect in enabling the system to throw off and resist disease of all kinds so much debilitating warm weather, makes it invaluable to every family. We prescribe it with upwards of nine-tenths of the protracted sickness during the summer season.

Yours truly, E. M. CHILSON, M. D.,

133 Bond-Street, New York.

This article, peculiarly adapted to this climate, and which is now extensively used, can be had in Plainfield as of July 19, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

To Salt Dealers, and Others!

SAMUEL HOTALING, No. 101 & 103 Broad street, New York, would inform his customers in the city and country that he has Liverpool Sacks of Fine and Ground Salt; also Turks Island, St. Martins and other Grades for sale, at the lowest prices. Also, Commercial Stores, Brooklyn, at Baxter & Lawrence's Stores, foot of Dolasey street, at 118 Warren street, and also at his SALT WAREHOUSE, No. 101 and 103, Broad street, New York. Also at Perth Amboy, where a supply of salt will be kept on hand, and delivered in lots to suit purchasers, at the lowest Market prices.

Liverpool, Turks Island and Solar Salt afloat.

New York, July 26, 1852.—3m

A Great Reduction in Prices, at THOMAS H. DAVIS'S Furnishing Store,

The Largest Stock in the City,

226 Burnet-St. New Brunswick & 150 Broad St. Newark.

Every one in want of the articles of Furnishing Goods, to purchase any kind of GOOD SEWOLD FURNITURE, Crockery, Glass, China, Cutlery, Britannia ware, Looking Glasses, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Feathers, Feather Beds, Mattresses, &c. &c. in fact all things that are needed to housekeeping, which to enumerate would fill a newspaper. Though one thing I must mention, which is GOOD WOOLEN YARN, and this misses, all can be bought at such low prices that every body is astonished, both in town and country now it can be had for 25 cents. I can say that I have got a few dozens to last me a long time himself, buys for cash and sells for the same, thereby he does not impose upon those that pay for him that never meant to pay. This is the true principle of doing business. Call and see, 226 Burnet-st. next street, over Stryker's Eating Saloon.

July 19.—3m. THOMAS H. DAVIS.

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment,

AT Less than New York prices, for sale by

July 12, 1852. WM. S. WOOD.

Prepared or Artificial GUANO.

At 1 cent per pound, or $20 per ton of 2000 lbs. AT a meeting of the Farmer's Club, American Institute, held at No. 351 Broadway, on the 16th December, 1851, the following communication was made,

I present a specimen of Turnips raised upon my place last season, which was (on account of the dry weather) an unfavorable one for Turnips. The specimen is not the largest grown, although this weighed when first pulled, 4 2-4 lbs. Tused in the Spring of 1850, about three tons of Peruvian Guano, to the acre, and the Long Red Sweet Corn, which produced a large crop. I then cropped with potatoes, which was also a good crop. After which I put the Turnip seed, without any further Manuring, than the Guano sown with the seed, and the result was far beyond my expectations.

Fairfield Co. Dec. 12, 1851. S. WHITING.

POTATO CROP.

Westchester Co., N. Y., Sept. 29, 1850.

I have used "Kenrish's Prepared Guano" this season on potatoes. My crop was large and sound. Where I did not use it, my potatoes were small and scabby. My neighbors also who have not used this Fertilizer, have not raised a saleable potato this year. I consider it a preventive of Rot! G. PEACE.

Extract of a letter from E. B. Caldwell, Esq., of Alexandria co. Va. April 22, 1851.

Dr. John H. Bayne, President of Prince George's Co. Agricultural Society, Maryland, has desired me to inform you that he has used your Prepared Guano, Superphosphate, Peruvian Guano, and your prepared Guano. The first two were distanced, but the result from the prepared Guano was almost equal. He purchases your prepared Guano to be a very excellent article, and esteems it highly. MANUFACTURED ONLY BY

KENTISH & CO.

DEPOT, No. 46 PECK SLIP, NEW YORK.

For Sale at this Office. July 19.—3m

TAKE NOTICE.

THAT the Judges of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, in and for the County of Essex and State of New Jersey, did, at the term held April A. D. 1852, appoint Tuesday 28th day of September next at 10 o'clock A. M. at the Court House in Newark at the September term, to hear what can be alleged for or against my discharge as an Insolvent Debtor, under the Insolvent laws of said State.

JOHN Y. BAINBRIDGE.

Dated Newark, July 10, 1852.

HORACE SEATON,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN LACE GOODS

354 Broad Street, Newark.

☞ Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Tulle, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Embroideries Muslin, Gloves and Hosiery, Millinery articles, Combs, Brushes, Oils, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashions.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Gents, Ladies and Children's fancy dress Shoes and Gaiters. 6m 622 ly.

BARAIGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received and selling off cheap.

Calicoes, last chance, for 6 cents per yard

May 3, 1852. JAMES M. DUNN.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts, if not attended to soon, they will be passed over for collection. As I don't wish to put expenses on any one, I gives this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON

Plainfield, April 9, 1852

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE,

SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER,

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Hunt & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods for sale low. He also

Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute all orders in all the branches of the above business, as well, as quick and as cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge of yourselves. May 17, 1852—tf

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at T. B. DUNHAM & CO's

Emery & Co.'s Patent Horse Power, Thrasher and Separator.

THE UNDERSIGNED have been appointed sole agents in the city of New York for the sale of their Improved Horse Powers, and Thrashers. These wishing to purchase Emery's Improved Horse Power and Machine will observe that they are cased in on every link of chain. None other is Genuine.

LONGETT & GRIFFING

State Agricultural Warehouse,

July 5, 1852.—3m No. 25 Cliff Street, New-York.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of S. S. Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with silver work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Cash in plates kept on hand, and engraving at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and Wood taken in exchange for Clocks. Plainfield, April 13, 1852.—tf WM. S. WOOD.

Spring & Summer Dry Goods

HITCHCOCK & LEADBEATER, No. 247 Broadway, New-York, have in store one of the finest assortments in the city of

FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS,

suitable for every season of the year, and every climate, and would especially invite attention to their large and elegant stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER DRESS GOODS,

which they have just purchased for cash, for nearly half price, and are enabled to offer at

VERY GREAT BARGAINS!

Their stock includes every variety of Silks, Shawls, De Laines, Barege De Laines, Challies, Printed Muslins and Lawns, Barages, Silk Tissues, Grenadines, Ginghams, Cambrics, Prints, Percales, &c. &c.

MOURNING GOODS OF EVERY KIND.

A full and complete assortment always on hand, including Black Bombazines, Alpacas, Challies, Canton Crapes, Crape Lustres, &c. &c., which parties interested will find desirable.

FANCY GOODS OF VARIOUS KINDS.

As plain and embroidered Swiss, Jaconet and Cambric, Cravats, Gloves, Co lars, Mitts, Trimming Laces, &c. &c.

A SPLENDID STOCK OF RIBBONS,

bought very low for cash, which the ladies will find desirable and cheap, and which we would call and visit their interest to examine before completing their purchases.

HOUSEWIFE AND FAMILY GOODS,

as Linens, Table Damasks, Napkins, Towels, Tweedings, Crash, Shirtings and Sheetings. Muslins, rich embroidered

LACE AND MUSLIN WINDOW DRAPERIES,

in great variety, and of every quality and price

CARPETS, LINENS & FURNISHINGS.

A very large and complete assortment—as Kid, Silk, and Thread Gloves; Silk and Summer Cravats; Silk and Linen Pocket Handkerchiefs; Silk, Cotton, and Merino Undershirts and Drawers; Socks, &c. &c. at prices much lower than the same articles can be found at the

GENTLEMAN'S FURFISHING STORES.

Please call and examine, and if not found desirable and reasonable, you will not be desired to purchase.

Country Merchants will find it to their interest to look through our stock, as they can here select any article they wish, in any quantity they desire, and at prices which they will find to be object to purchase at, as we have made arrangements to sell exceedingly low for the best styles, and full 20 per cent. below the ordinary jobbing rates

Terms invariably Cash—and only One Price.

New York, June 21, 1852.—1y

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in Main street, opposite Webster & Merrill's store, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, &c. having purchased her goods at the lowest cash prices, she is prepared to sell Bonnets, Caps, Gloves, Silk, Lawns, Laces, Muslins, Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and everything in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from New York, she is prepared to execute in all the various branches of Dress Making. Capes and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 5, 1852.—6m.

J. A. WOODLAND,

HOUSE, SIGN AND

DECORATIVE PAINTER,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

☞ The above is prepared to execute all orders in his line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Painting of Rooms, Staircases, Furniture, Glazing, and despatch, and at prices considerably less than those usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.

March 23, 1852.

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted Stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, &c. &c. My stock has been selected with great care, and as eye to cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints, Ginghams, Cassimeres,
Barges de Laine, Cloths, Summerstuffs,
Hosiery, Fustians &c.

And all styles of goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear, Muslins bleached and unbleached, colored cottonades, shirtings, sheetings, buttons, thread, cotton bats, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas, Rice, Sugars, Candles, Flour
Coffee, Cheese, Soap, Indian Meal

PROVISIONS.—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef,
Pepper, Spices, Cheese, Hams, Pork, &c.
Pepper sauce, Honey, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all both old and young, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to call the second time.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852. ELIAS KIRKPATRICK.

The subscriber has a so on hand a good assortment of Brush and changeable silks, which will be sold cheap.

May 4, 1852. J. V. ARROWSMITH.

NOTICE.

Miss C. Prosch,

WOULD hereby informs her many friends and the generous public that she has been extending her sale of rooms, to a more improved high location than any other in this city, and is now ready to furnish Daguerreotypes second to none. Family Groups, from two to eleven in a picture, executed with perfect satisfaction to all ages, in a few seconds of time. Portraits of sick and deceased persons taken whenever called upon Also Daguerreotypes copied to perfection.

Miss Prosch would most respectfully commends her establishment, and would respectfully wish her friends to bear in mind that she can always be found at 259 Broadway, only a few doors south of Canal street, that patronage so long and liberally bestowed upon her.

June 1.—3m 259 Broadway, N. YORK.

MRS. PRUDEN.

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning-Fluid, &c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual.

June 14, 1852.

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.

Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

DISSOLUTION.

THE Copartnership heretofore existing between the subscribers under the name of HEALY & RUNYON is hereby dissolved by mutual consent. The Books are in the hands of A. Healy for collection who is authorized to settle the business of the firm.

ALFRED HEALY,
ABRAHAM RUNYON.

Plainfield, July 17, 1852.

The Store, Tinning and Hardware Business will be continued, on the cash system, by A. HEALY.

WONDER OF WONDERS.

Petroleum, or Rock Oil!!

A NATURAL REMEDY

Procured from a Well in Allegheny County, Pa. 200 feet below the earth's surface! Put up and sold by

SAMUEL M. KIER, Canal Basin, 75½ st. Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Petroleum is a natural remedy; it is put up as it flows from the bosom of the earth, without any thing being added to, or taken from it. It gets its ingredients from the beds of rock masses which it passes over in its great channel, from the Lake of Oil, to the Well in which as to defy all human competition. The Petroleum in this respect is like MINERAL WATERS, whose virtues in most diseases are acknowledged the world over by physicians, but by the community at large. These singular fluids flowing out from the earth, impregnated with medicinal substances of different properties, and holding those in such complete solution, as to require the skill of chemistry to detect them, bears ample proof to the fact that they are compounded by the unerring hand of nature, for the solution of human suffering and disease. If Petroleum is a medicine at all, it is a great one, for nature never half does her work, and that it is a medicine of unequalled power, we have the most abundant testimony to prove. It will be found to be the only new remedies now in vogue, will have been forgotten for ever. It will continue to be used and applied as a remedy, as long as man continues to be afflicted with disease That it will cure every disease to which we are liable, we do not pretend, but that it will cure a great many diseases hitherto incurable, is a fact which is proven by the evidence of the first men in the country in new era in medicine, and will cause to the health and happiness of man.

The Petroleum is an external and internal remedy: call and get a circular from the agent, which will give a full description of it. Persons wishing the agency of this article can be supplied by applying to S. M. Kier, Pittsburgh, Pa. Price for Sale in Plainfield $1 per bottle.

Aug. 24, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

READ! READ!! A Voice from Middlesex County!

NEW BRUNSWICK, Oct. 24, 1851.

MR. S. M. KIER:

Dear sir—Allow me to certify to the virtues of your great natural Medicine called the Petroleum or Rock Oil, which is a great remedy for Rheumatism, Dysentery and Dysentery. I had been afflicted with a severe attack of Diarrhœa, and made use of your Petroleum, which relieved me in a very short time. Teherefully recommend it to all others. Yours Respectfully, S. JEFFRIES.

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES HACKWELL & SON beg to state that they have now ready for inspection, at the old stand, the newest notice, at 25 cents a piece, (using the walls and paste included.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to $4 per piece, and papered in a manner equal to any.

J. F. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers, Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852.

$500 CHALLENGE!

WHATEVER concerns the health and happiness of a people is at all times of valuable importance. I take it for granted that every person will do all in their power, to save the lives of their children, and that every person will endeavor to prolong their own lives by all sacrifices. I feel it to be my duty to solemnly assure you that WORMS, according to the opinion of the most celebrated Physicians, are the primary cause of a large majority of diseases to which children and adults are liable; if you have an appetite continually changeable from one kind of food to another, Bad Breath, Pain in the Stomach, Itching of the Nose, Heaviness and Fullness of the Belly, Dry Cough, Slow Fever, Pulse Irregular—remember that all these denote WORMS, and you should at once procure Dr. Boyce's

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

An article founded upon Scientific Principles, compounded with purely vegetable substances being perfectly safe when taken, and can be given to the most tender Infant with decided beneficial effect, where Bile Complaints and Diarrhœa have made them weak and debilitated the Tone properties of sup Worm Syrup are such, that it stands without an equal in the Materia Medica, for the destruction and relief of every species of worms, infesting the Stomach and Bowels, and is an infallible remedy for those afflicted with Dyspepsia, the astonishing cures performed by this Syrup after Physicians have failed, is the best evidence of its superior efficacy over all others.

THE TAPE WORM!

This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of all that infest the human system, it grows to an almost Indefinite length becoming so coiled and fastened to the Intestines and Stomach, affecting the health so sadly as to cause St. Vitus Dance, Fits, &c., that those afflicted seldom if ever suspect that the Tape Worm is the cause of their suffering. In order to destroy this Worm, a very energetic treatment must be pursued, it would therefore be proper to take 6 to 8 of my Liver Pills so as to remove the bowels, and then take the Worm Syrup as directed upon the Wrapper, which must be taken in doses of 2 Tablespoonfuls 3 times a day, three directions followed have never been known to fail in curing the most obstinate case of Tape Worm.

HOBENSACK'S LIVER PILLS.

No part of the system is more liable to disease than the LIVER, it serving as a filterer to purify the blood, or giving the proper quantity of Bile; so long this secretion of the Liver effect the other important parts of the system, and results variously, in Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. &c. Hobensack's Liver Pills are the remedy that might indicate a wrong action of the Liver. These Pills being composed of ROOTS & PLANTS furnished by nature to heal the diseases to which we are liable, 1st. Operate on the Sediments the secretion from the Pulmonary mucus membrane or promotes the discharge of secreted matter. 2d. An Alterative, which changes the morbid parts of the system into healthy action, the certain morbid action of the system. 3rd. A TONIC, which gives tone and strength to the nervous system, renewing health and vigor to all parts of the body. 4th. A CATHARTIC, which acts in perfect harmony with the other ingredients, and operating on the Bowels, and expelling the whole mass of corrupt and vitiated matter, and purifying the Blood, which destroys disease and restores health.

TO FEMALES.

You will find these Pills an invaluable medicine in many complaints to which your sex are subject. In derangements of either sort or partial, they have been found of inestimable benefit restoring their functions to a regularity to a healthy action, purifying the blood and other fluids more speedily to get rid of all complaints which may arise from female irregularities, as headache, giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in the side back, &c.

None genuine unless signed J. N. Hobensack, all others being base Imitations.

☞ Agents wishing new supplies, and Store Keepers desirous of becoming Agents must address the Proprietor, J. N. Hobensack, Philadelphia, Pa.

For sale in Plainfield,

Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. CUSHING.

And at Retail by ELIAS KIRKPATRICK.

C. Drake, Bonnell Plains; Charles Foster, Westfield. August 28, 1852.—6m.

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset-st., next door to John D. Bonnell's Steam Grist and Sawing Mill, we, the respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, all kinds of Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m

LAW CIRCULAR.

WORTHINGTON G. SNETHEN.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Continues to practice exclusively in the Supreme Court, and to attend to cases before Congress;

To prosecute claims and settle Accounts against the Departments, Bureaus, and Boards of Commissioners;

To prosecute claims for Inventions, at home and abroad, and to obtain Pensions and Bounty lands;

To collect Debts, Dividends, Legacies, and Inheritances in any part of the United States and in Foreign Countries;

To make Investments of funds on Loans and Stocks and on Bond and Mortgage, and to negotiate the purchase and sale of Loans, Land and Patent-rights in any State of the Union.

DOCTOR Boyce's Vermifuge and Expectorant. Dr. Boyce's Sanative Pills Also,

Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, &c. Dysentery Drops. These drops are an agreeable, effectual remedy for Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, and all pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Atwood's Spinal Elixir for the spine disease. Also, Hunt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sprains, Bruises, &c.

April 26, 1852 JAMES V. BOYCE.

Machinery Oil,

75 CTS. a gallon, better than Sweet Oil, at a quarter of the price. For Sale by

June 5th, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

Going! Now is the time!

SUMMER Stock at cost! Must and shall be sold, to make room for Fall and Winter Goods. Call and be convinced before buying elsewhere. 1-8. DUNHAM & CO.

DR. MORE MEDICINES.—A full assortment for sale by

Aug. 16.—tf L. B. DUNHAM & CO.

HARRIS' Double Refined Pulverized Concentrated Lewis Powder is the Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

1852.

SPRING GOODS

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

WE would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not praise up our Goods with a view of trying to make the people believe them to be what they are not, but intend that their simple quality shall speak for the selves. DeLaines from 10cts to 4s.; handsome Berage delaines new styles from 18d to 8s.; plain and watered Poplin Silks from 8s. to 20s. per yard; Prints any variety from 4 to 9d cts.; a great variety of Ladies' Gloves from 10 cts to 7s.; also Gents Gloves. Bleached and Brown Muslins very cheap, Ginghams from 10 cts to 25, and above them a thousand other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloths, plain and fancy Cassimers, a first rate assortment of Vestings any of all of which can be cut and made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Gents furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact all kind of Dry Goods from the

Finest and Cheapest

To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it an object to Cash purchasers from 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same Goods generally can be found in the city, as we are entirely in the Dry Goods trade and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also Canton Plaids new Spring Styles to which the attention of Ladies is particularly requested. ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

May 3d, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

D. R. R.

Science, by subjecting the laws of Chemistry to the skill of man, has contributed to his health and happiness by stopping the most dread and severe pangs of pain in an almost instant, and curing the most obstinate

CHRONIC COMPLAINTS

IN A FEW HOURS

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,

Internally and Externally instantly stops Pain, and specially cures its cause.

It is warranted to give relief to the following pains in fifteen Minutes,

and to specially and effectually cure the disease,

Rheumatism,	Colic,	Cramps and Spasms,
Lumbago,	Paralysis,	Summer Complaints,
Stiff Joints,	Neuralgia,	Soreness in Bones,
Tic Doloreux,	Dysentery,	Pain in the Limbs,
Chill Fever,	Diarrhœa,	Sick Head-ache,
Ague Cake,	Heart Burn,	Cholera Morbus,
Sore Throat,	Chills,	&c.

PAIN

IS the warning given of the presence of disease and of the derangement and prostration of the nervous and muscular system. In order to cure disease and all the system entirely of its cause, our first great desideratum is to stop the pain—strengthen the nervous energy—invigorate the healthy action of the functions and secretions of every organ in the system; this we accomplish by the marvellous

Strengthening, cleansing, invigorating, and powerful pain soothing properties of

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

No matter what is the cause of the pain may be—if it arises from nervous prostration; nervous debility, disarrangement of the liver or secretions of the skin, whether it be rheumatism, neuralgia, sick or nervous headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, hysterics, croup, summer diarrhœa, bowel complaint, chills and fever, whether it originates from internal derangements or external injuries.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF, in quick relief and pain, externally, will speedily and effectually stop the pain and cure its cause:

Rheumatism — 100,000 persons cured in 1850. The most excruciating pain stopped in two hours.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the quickest, safest, surest and only infallible pain remedy for Rheumatism in all its forms now in use; we state only what we know. It will stop the most torturing pains of this distressing complaint by one application. We have never known it to fail in giving instant relief. In every city, village and town of America it has cured some of the people of this cruel complaint. In every case we will warrant it to relieve the patient, and positively relieve the sufferer from pain and speedily cure its cause.

Sick and Nervous Headache — 100,000 cases cured in 1850.—It will give relief in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief, when according to directions will speedily and effectually cure the worst case of headache. Taken internally and applied externally it refreshes the senses, cleanses the stomach, stops all irritation in the nerves, veins fibres and secretions of the head and brain, and relieves the sufferer from pain in 15 minutes. It is now saving hundreds daily of the sick and nervous headache.

Neuralgia.—100,000 Neuralgia cases cured, in 1850.—It will stop the most violent pains in Fifteen Minutes.

The cruel and excruciating pangs of this distressing complaint is speedily subdued by Radway's Ready Relief. The happy and invigorating effects it produces on the nervous system, rendering the nerves iron proof, quickly restores the nervous energy and it cures the disease. It is the only remedy that has effectually cured Neuralgia in its worst forms.

Diarrhœa.—200,000 persons cured in 1850.—Pains stopped in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief will instantly stop cholera morbus, dysentery, cholic and all bowel complaints the past year than any other remedy in use. On the banks of the Mississippi, Missouri, Illinois and Ohio rivers, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukie, Galena, and other places where the diarrhœa, cholera and dysentery rage so fatally, Radway's Ready Relief was used with unprecedented success. It will in minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms, impart a genial heat throughout the whole system, allay all irritation, stop the painful discharges and relieve the patient from all pain.

Cramps and Spasms.

A Teaspoonful of Radway's Ready Relief, taken internally, and by bathing externally, will in a few minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms. In many cases where the extremities have lost all feeling, where they were cold and numb, the limbs distorted and shrunk; rubbing with Radway's Ready Relief has always brought life and action, and a quick and healthy circulation of blood.

Swelled Joints.

If you have pain in the bones, swelled joints, weakness of the muscles, if you have a sprained limb, swelled leg, broken bones, or any pain in the joints, Radway's Ready Relief will take out the fire, remove the pain and swelling, give energy and strength to the muscles and entirely free you from pain.

Jumping Toothache cured in one second.

All aches and pains—back and side pains, face ache, ear ache, stomache, pain in the limbs, the muscles, the bones, the feet, the head and arms, Radway's Ready Relief will instantly cure.

PAINFUL ITCHINGS

And all cutaneous eruptions are relieved from all irritation by bathing parts with Ready Relief.

SPINAL COMPLAINTS.

By bathing externally the centre of the neck and spine it will strengthen the spine. We have known many cases of posterior and anterior curvature of the spine to be entirely cured and the distortion removed, by using his proper shape by the use of Radway's Ready Relief.

CHILLS FEVER

One teaspoonful of Radway's ready relief taken on the first symptoms of chills, bathe the head, neck and shoulders, if there is any pain experienced, and it will entirely prevent chill Fever.

Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Flatulency, Bad Breath, Wind, &c. are quickly cured by a dose of Radway's Ready Relief taken internally. It is a delicious cordial, imparting strength to every organ and function of the body, and health and happiness to the mind.

CAUTION TO DRUGGISTS

Purchase Radway's ready relief only of the authorized agent, whose name is given below. Our travelling agents have a power of attorney signed by us; before purchasing always ask to see it. Price 25 cents a bottle.

RADWAY & CO. 162 Fulton st. N. Y.

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

Sept. 9, 1851.-1y

12 South Down sheep

AND FOUR LAMBS, For Sale by the Subscriber, on his Farm, near Plainfield.

June 21, 1852. EDWARD ROACH.

LIGHTNING RODS!

A. M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 132. East Twenty-Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and affix to buildings their improved Lightning Rods' which have now been in use upwards of five years, and a ring of fire never struck the buildings to which they were attached. Mr. A. M. Quimby has made Electricity the study of his life, and his rods are the result of his experience. An addition has been made to the rod of late which is the only reliable attachment for perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and exposed as regards lightning, and require a different arrangement of the rods, to suit the peculiar features of the same, which is the reason why so many of the common round rods have failed heretofore; being put up by persons ignorant of the laws by which electricity is governed, they are not arranged on buildings to give containment as to protect from all quarters.

Quimby's rods have been placed on the houses of Mr. D. Rockwell, C. Bolce, Esq. Mr. M. Stelle, and others in Plainfield, and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church and others in New York; church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, Hall, &c. &c.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.

Plainfield, May 24, 1852.—3m*

MARBLE & STONE YARD

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUMENTS, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Posts and Vases. Table Tops, &c.

Together with every article usually kept in a first class yard. Also a beautiful Free Stone Curb, from which I will furnish to order every variety of stone for building purposes, ornamental or plain, at short notice. Orders may be left at the most southern and eastern extremities of Front street, Somerset, Washington and Main streets, together with those of Second and Third streets, where Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.-1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, on the corner of Broad and Cherry streets, Elizabethtown, (a short distance from the depot,) would invite his former friends, and all who are in want of a good article of clothing to call and examine his Goods.

His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Will be 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay. JOHN ENGEL.

April 20, 1852. tf.

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by Mr. Wm. Hetherington, would say, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as viz: PAPER-HANGING, all of which will be promptly, punctually and faithfully executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned hereby returns thanks to his customers for their liberal patronage the past year, and will endeavor by faithfulness to merit and secure a continuance of their favors.

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

Orders may be left at the Union Office,

April 1, 1852.-y CHARLES TAYLOR.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE, PHYSICIANS,

NO. 106 WEST FIFTEENTH STREET, NEW YORK.

Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

MRS. MOTT

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Womb, Breasts, Lungs, Throat, Skin, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, particularly those arising from or attendant upon debility, Scrofula, Erysipelas, and all cutaneous diseases, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say, that they have repeatedly performed permanent cures in cases of the above class of diseases, which had been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on DIS. and MED. TREATMENT, (which they will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. jan9 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUS, Hay, Floor and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is inspected, and warranted not to Balance got out of order.

Manufactory 39 Greene street, New York;

Also For Sale at 283 Hudson street, [jan1 1y

Where every variety of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

E. P. DURAND, J. D. SAYDEN, J. ROBIDO, JR.

Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

HOWS IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

IN MEN

Rheumatism, Sprains, Weakness in the Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Sores, Back, Breast, Sore Throat, Frosted Feet, Limb & Joint.

IN HORSES

Bruises, Sprains, Ringbone, Poll Evil, and all Warbles, Splints, Spavin, Fistula, diseases of Horses. Curb, Scratches, Thoroughpin, where an Embrocation or Liniment can be used.

Windgall,

Prepared only by

HENRY K HOW, CHEMIST,

No. 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

EXPERIENCE,

We, the undersigned, have been using Howe's Improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction. .

Isaac Moore, John Ingraw, Freeman Campbell, Barnet Bergen, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel R. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton. Joseph Bassmith, Jr. Rocky Hill. Joseph W. Brown, Joseph Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. EWIN CRANE, Jr. Somerville by Cullen Bares & Son. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of May, will remove his store to No. 16 Maiden-Lane, to the store formerly occupied by him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him :—James Hemming & Son's celebrated Needles-Richards' Grooveless and other Needles, Pearl Buttons, Combs' Steel and Gold Eyed Spool and Ball Cotton, Silk Binding, Tape, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c.

RICH'D RICHARDS,

Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods,

April 26, 1852.-12m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York.

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Square and Round Post, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, and Children's Chairs;

Wash and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel &c.

March 23, 1852. For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

1852. CHEAPER YET!

At Oliver Runyon's Cheap Dry Goods and GROCERY STORE.

Gentlemen and Ladies please call and examine my stock of Goods for yourselves. I would say to my friends and customers that my stock is constantly changing, as I replace with new goods adapted to suit the different seasons of trade.

Best American Berage DeLaines from 1s. to 3s. per yard. Lawn from 9c to 22c. Black Alpaccs from 2 to 2s. 9d Prints any variety from 4c to 1s. French Calico from 1s.6d to 2s.6d. Plain Berage from 25c to 50c. Bleached muslin from 4c to 12.6d. Cambric, Jaconet, Book and Swiss muslin, plain and figured. Bishop Lawn 3s to 4s. Black and colored gloves for gents from 25c to 1 shilling. Ladies ditto from 10c to 75c. Black Betis Veils, Crape and Bombazine for scarfs. Summer Goods of every style and quality, Cloths, Cassimers, Doeskins, Satinetts, cords, jeans, tweills, linsey and cotton Kentucky jeans, Lace Window Shades of all kinds, also a good assortment of Leghorn and Straw Hats from 1s. to 7s. each.

GROCERIES

A good article of Green and Black Tea from 4s. to 8s. per lb. Molasses 2s to 3s. Brown sugar 3s.6d. to 4s.6d. Coffee crushed 4s.6d. to 6s. Crushed and pounded Sugars, Raisins 6c to 14. Coffee, Rice, Vinegar, Saleratus, and every thing in the Grocery line.

CROCKERY and GLASS WARE a Good Assortment constantly on hand. Please call and examine for yourselves. Thankful

PROVISIONS.—Salt Pork, Shoulders, Hams, Dried beef, lard, butter, cheese, fish by half barrels, fine salt by the sack, coarse salt, &c.

BOOTS and SHOES, for men and boys, Ladies', gaiters, buskins and slippers, morocco, patent leather and cloth Buskins, at low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Linseed oil, bolled oil, lamp oils, Furniture and coach varnish, Japan dryers, Venitian red, chrome yellow, red lead, Paris green, lamp black, litharge, brown japan, fire-proof Paint, putty, glass, &c. &c.

FLOUR, fine and coarse, Meal, ground feed, wheat and rye chop constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village.

N. B. All kinds of produce, rags, and in fact every thing you can eat, drink or wear taken in exchange for goods. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, July 26, 1852.

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

THE subscriber would return thanks to his numerous patrons for their liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many friends he has enlarged his stock of Paints, and has taken into partnership his brother-in-law, Mr. Thornton Marsh. The business will be continued as the old stand, opposite the Second Presbyterian Church, where will be kept constantly on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Lead, Putty, Ready Mixed Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., as cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to House, Sign and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, Paper Hanging, Graining in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES!

Mixed Paints constantly on hand. Silver grafts.

Jan. 5, 1852. F. MARSH & SON

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS.

DANIEL BULLMAN.

Is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment,

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part, of Prints and De Laines, Sterling Patterns; Bonnet Ribbons, Plain and Price; Silks, plain and figured; Ginghams, Alpaccas, &c. suitable to the season; Linens, White Goods of all kinds, Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinetts, Kentucky Jeans, Hosiery, Gloves, and all other articles in the dry goods line, necessary to make a varied, full and complete fan assortment as can be found in these parts, and they will be sold as cheap too. Try us and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing these articles, will find my store just the place In my good articles, and sell them as cheap as any man can. Our reputation cannot help being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY,

Some very beautiful, and some very cheap; a large and varied assortment, to suit all tastes, constantly on hand. Also, Queens ware in great variety.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell the same goods as cheap, and save you freight, trouble and trouble of going after it. Looking Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you can want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

VARIETIES AND FANCY ARTICLES.

Enough to fill a column to enumerate them. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it very likely. A portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited. D. BULLMAN.

April 26, 1852.

AFFLICTED READ!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. WINKELIN,

N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice during which time he has treated the Sick, as an expert and successful practitioner far and near in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat, nose or limbs, in the head or bones, mercurial rheumatism, stricktures, diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled are all treated with success.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, should apply immediately. Weakness and constitutional debility, loss of muscular energy physical lassitude and general prostration, all of which are nervous affections, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, and every disease connected in any way with the disorder of the procreative functions cured, and full vigor restored

Dr. K. warrants all cases he undertakes to cure.

READ!—YOUTH AND MANHOOD!

A Vigorous Life, or a Premature Death.

Kinkelin on Self Preservation only 25 Cents

This Book is filled with useful information, on the infirmities and diseases of the Generative Organs. It addresses itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by all. The many advertisements of Quacks and Nostrums, it gives will prevent years of misery and suffering and save annually thousands of lives. Parents by reading it will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

A remittance of 25 cents, enclosed in a letter addressed to Dr. Kinkelin, N. W. corner of 3d and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will ensure a book, under envelope, per return of mail. Or at a distance may address Dr. K. by letter, post-paid, and be cured at home. Packages of Medicines, Directions, &c. forwarded to all parts, by remittance, and put up secure from damage or curiosity.

Book-sellers, News Agents, Pedlars, canvassers, and all others supplied with the above book at very low rates. Sept. 23, 1851.-1y

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at M. GLENN & Co's Manufactory, 124 Fulton-st. (west of Broadway.) A General Assortment of Mahogany and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

M. GLENN & CO., 124 Fulton-street.

Oct. 7, 1851.-1y NEW YORK.

PAINTS, &c.

AMERICAN PATENT ATOMIC DRIER. Grinding COLORS—Anti-Friction Paste, Gold Size, Zinc Driers, Stove Polish, and Black Varnish for Iron Work.

QUARTERMAN & BIRD,

Painters & Chemists

114 John-Street, New York.

March 9, 1852.—1y.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats and in fact any kind of produce, or do we pay cash for Rags.

I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

BREWSTER'S CHOLERA MIXTURE,

FOR THE

CURE OF CHOLERA MORBUS, DIARRHŒA, BOWEL COMPLAINTS,

Cholic, Griping Pains, or Sick Stomach and

ASIATIC CHOLERA.

This mixture is not a new remedy that has just sprung up from some newspaper recipe and offered to the public during the excitement of Cholera times, but was prepared years ago, and has been used in every family in this vicinity, and has been found a safe, speedy and effectual remedy for the first attack.

It is just what every family, vessel, steamboat, barge, and in fact every person should have on hand to guard against sudden attack, as the Cholera Morbus is also likely to attack its subjects in the night, the sooner the remedy is applied the better. Asiatic Cholera, it is most generally preceded by Diarrhœa and Griping Pains in the bowels, and douubtless, one great reason why so many Persons die of Cholera is, the want of proper remedies administered in the first stage of the disease, or the delay in procuring a physician before the patient is past cure.

Reference can be given to hundreds of the most respectable persons, as well as physicians who have used it, and witnessed its effects in curing the most violent cases of Cholera Morbus and Diarrhœa.

Price 25 cents per bottle. Prepared only by

Certificate from Rev. B. B. Hotchkin, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Fairfield, N. J.

Mr. P. G. BREWSTER:

Dear Sir—I have found in your Cholera Mixture a never valuable medicine in all attacks of Diarrhœa, which have been experienced either by myself or family for more than two years past. I believe it has never failed to relieve, and that too in a few hours. In a great measure escaped the usual unpleasant after effects of Anodynes. I have found it especially useful when abroad. One change of diet and water for a few days more, is almost sure to affect me injuriously, and the use of your Cholera Mixture has proved of the greatest service on such occasions. It was when abroad and in Philadelphia, that I first became acquainted with it, and I have since very seldom suffered myself to be found abroad without it.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

B. B. HOTCHKIN.

Colayville, N. J., July 25, 1849.

"Prepared only by F. G. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Colayville, N. J., and for sale by Storekeepers in Brewster's Powdered Mixture, and his Embrocation, by Dr. L. CRAIG, Druggist, agent for Plainfield; C. W. Badger, Newark; Dr. D. C. English, New Brunswick, and by others throughout the State.

July 12, 1852.—2m

DR. HALSEY'S FOREST WINE.

The discovery of the FOREST WINE is the greatest blessing of the age. Put up in Quart Bottles, a single bottle of which does more real service to the afflicted, in a cure of Disease, than ten bottles of any Sarsaparilla in use, and warranted to cure without any change of diet or exposure.

The method by which all Sarsaparillas, and other similar medicines are prepared, is by boiling the Roots or Plants to obtain the extracts. Their medicinal virtues are altogether impurely evaporated and destroyed.

It is not to be wondered at then, that ten and even twenty bottles of these Sarsaparillas are sometimes taken without any perceptible benefit. Not so with the Forest Wine! By the invention of a wonderful chemical process, the medicinal virtues of the Forest Wine are being put willing to connect the well and honestly earned reputation of my inventions with quacks and their worthless preparations. No humbug about the Forest Wine, and none can be warranted but those ordered from myself.

All applications and remittances must be directed (post paid) to the Doctor himself, as having no Agencies established but in London and Paris

Address, post paid, Dr. De Laney, 61 Lispenard St., New York. Office hours, daily, from 9 A. M. to 2 P.M. and from 7 to 9, P. M. Sundays excepted.

 The undersigned certify, with great pleasure, that the above-mentioned instrument is not only constructed on scientific principles, but that from its use the happiest results may always be anticipated, and therefore believe there being for the cure of those diseases, NO OTHER CERTAIN REMEDY EXISTS.

HENRY S. KELLER, M. D.

No. 6 College Place, Members exact.

C. ECKHARDT, M. D. 24 Howard St. NEW YORK

D. DE LANEY is prepared to execute all orders for surgical apparatus, viz: Artificial Arms and Legs which move like natural members; Apparatus for Lateral or contracted Legs; Apparatus for Crooked Arms and Waist; for False Joints of the Arms and Knee for Paralytic Legs; for Club Foot; for Lockyman Rules for Setting of the Bones in Broken Limbs; Bed Rests and Chairs for Sick Persons; Crutches, Trusses, &c. Orthopedic Corsets, &c. &c. All work warranted. Letters must be post paid, containing a proportion of the description or city reference.

July 19, 3m

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINE

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup
Pectoral Expectorant,	Liver Regulator,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Antidyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Catharic Pills
Nervine,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific

Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil,

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of

Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, Piles, &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Plated Steel Spine Shoulder Braces.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to an old age.

This Book should be in every family. To the ensnared it is invaluable, as it points out the only means for relief. To mothers, the directions it gives for the care and education of children are invaluable. 75,000 copies of the Book have passed through the press, and the sale continues unchecked.

For Sale by N. S. FITCH & CO., 707 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a safe, speedy and astonishing healing preparation, which is adapted to a large class of diseases, in its ability to arrest pain, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, it has been found very good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Rheumatism, Head, Ear and Tooth Ache, Chilblains, Worms, Ague and Fever; as a Cathartic prevention or remedy it cannot be surpassed. No set of people have ever had such an excellent medicine, till they have used the same. We have used it with great success, and to most cheerfully recommend it to those who are in need of an efficient, safe and painless remedy. It is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge Brooklyn, John Comstock, Brklyn Rev. Jas. Hopkins, Newark, John Hetchcock, Engineer " Prof. Wing, Mathematician, Jeremiah Osborn, Esq., Hon. G. L. Martence, Brklyn, Lawrence Mann, Brklyn Rev. Sprague, Ex-Mayor, " Jordan Wooley, L. Branch, Alderman S. L. Hasted " David B. Sellers, Bergen, H. C. Conkling, Ex-P. M. " Aaron Ringland, Brklyn, David Travis, Brooklyn, Assessor " Addison Jayne, New York, Wm. Tracy, Bellshead hotel, " Jno. Hillcox, " Peter Blauvelt, T's Ferry, E. Packer, " Joseph Chetlock, W. Market, Rainer & Veltran. "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above testimonials. Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.

FRANCIS B. STRYKER.

Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 5 Bridge street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING.

Jan. 2, 1852

DR. DE LANEY'S CELEBRATED Curative Instrument,

The only infallible cure for that dreadful disease known as Spermatorrhœa or Involuntary Nocturnal Emissions!

So harassing and destructive, and productive of so much mischief to the nervous system, incapacitating the most for business, society, and matrimony!

This Instrument is a new discovery, and never failing, and may be used without the slightest inconvenience or the knowledge of the most intimate friend. It is to be worn during the night, and by day or night whatever, nor preventing any one from attending to his business, & will in not more than a single session cause the most powerful organs, in a short time, to vanish, to the extent that they cease to exist in a manner to present even, the loss of which, caused by early abuse, is the disease in question, and the cause of the thousand and one symptoms of Nervous Debility, Hypochondria, Dyspepsia, Pain in the Head and Disease of Vision, Weakness of the Back and Lower Extremities, Affections of the Eyes, Impotence, Pimples on the Face Premature Decline of Virility, Weakness of Memory and Unfitness for Mental Application, Dejection, Aversion to Society, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, &c. All these complaints will disappear as soon as the cause is stopped from which they emanated.

This Instrument has been examined and approved of by the highest authorities in Europe and America, is respectable persons, as well as by physicians who have used it, and witnessed its effects in curing the most violent cases of Cholera Morbus and Diarrhœa.

Price $5. Sent to any part of the country.

Certificate from Rev. B. B. Hotchkin, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Fairfield, N. J.

Mr. P. G. BREWSTER:

Dear Sir—I have found in your Cholera Mixture a never valuable medicine in all attacks of Diarrhœa, which have been experienced either by myself or family for more than two years past. I believe it has never failed to relieve, and that too in a few hours. In a great measure escaped the usual unpleasant after effects of Anodynes. I have found it especially useful when abroad. One change of diet and water for a few days more, is almost sure to affect me injuriously, and the use of your Cholera Mixture has proved of the greatest service on such occasions. It was when abroad and in Philadelphia, that I first became acquainted with it, and I have since very seldom suffered myself to be found abroad without it.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

B. B. HOTCHKIN.

Colayville, N. J., July 25, 1849.

"Prepared only by F. G. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Colayville, N. J., and for sale by Storekeepers in Brewster's Powdered Mixture, and his Embrocation, by Dr. L. CRAIG, Druggist, agent for Plainfield; C. W. Badger, Newark; Dr. D. C. English, New Brunswick, and by others throughout the State.

July 12, 1852.—2m

DR. HALSEY'S FOREST WINE.

The discovery of the FOREST WINE is the greatest blessing of the age. Put up in Quart Bottles, a single bottle of which does more real service to the afflicted, in a cure of Disease, than ten bottles of any Sarsaparilla in use, and warranted to cure without any change of diet or exposure.

The method by which all Sarsaparillas, and other similar medicines are prepared, is by boiling the Roots or Plants to obtain the extracts. Their medicinal virtues are altogether impurely evaporated and destroyed.

It is not to be wondered at then, that ten and even twenty bottles of these Sarsaparillas are sometimes taken without any perceptible benefit. Not so with the Forest Wine! By the invention of a wonderful chemical process, the medicinal virtues of the Forest Wine are being put willing to connect the well and honestly earned reputation of my inventions with quacks and their worthless preparations. No humbug about the Forest Wine, and none can be warranted but those ordered from myself.

All applications and remittances must be directed (post paid) to the Doctor himself, as having no Agencies established but in London and Paris

Address, post paid, Dr. De Laney, 61 Lispenard St., New York. Office hours, daily, from 9 A. M. to 2 P.M. and from 7 to 9, P. M. Sundays excepted.

 The undersigned certify, with great pleasure, that the above-mentioned instrument is not only constructed on scientific principles, but that from its use the happiest results may always be anticipated, and therefore believe there being for the cure of those diseases, NO OTHER CERTAIN REMEDY EXISTS.

HENRY S. KELLER, M. D.

No. 6 College Place, Members exact.

C. ECKHARDT, M. D. 24 Howard St. NEW YORK

D. DE LANEY is prepared to execute all orders for surgical apparatus, viz: Artificial Arms and Legs which move like natural members; Apparatus for Lateral or contracted Legs; Apparatus for Crooked Arms and Waist; for False Joints of the Arms and Knee for Paralytic Legs; for Club Foot; for Lockyman Rules for Setting of the Bones in Broken Limbs; Bed Rests and Chairs for Sick Persons; Crutches, Trusses, &c. Orthopedic Corsets, &c. &c. All work warranted. Letters must be post paid, containing a proportion of the description or city reference.

July 19, 3m

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINE

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup
Pectoral Expectorant,	Liver Regulator,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Antidyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Catharic Pills
Nervine,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific

Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil,

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of

Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, Piles, &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Plated Steel Spine Shoulder Braces.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to an old age.

This Book should be in every family. To the ensnared it is invaluable, as it points out the only means for relief. To mothers, the directions it gives for the care and education of children are invaluable. 75,000 copies of the Book have passed through the press, and the sale continues unchecked.

For Sale by N. S. FITCH & CO., 707 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a safe, speedy and astonishing healing preparation, which is adapted to a large class of diseases, in its ability to arrest pain, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, it has been found very good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Rheumatism, Head, Ear and Tooth Ache, Chilblains, Worms, Ague and Fever; as a Cathartic prevention or remedy it cannot be surpassed. No set of people have ever had such an excellent medicine, till they have used the same. We have used it with great success, and to most cheerfully recommend it to those who are in need of an efficient, safe and painless remedy. It is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge Brooklyn, John Comstock, Brklyn Rev. Jas. Hopkins, Newark, John Hetchcock, Engineer " Prof. Wing, Mathematician, Jeremiah Osborn, Esq., Hon. G. L. Martence, Brklyn, Lawrence Mann, Brklyn Rev. Sprague, Ex-Mayor, " Jordan Wooley, L. Branch, Alderman S. L. Hasted " David B. Sellers, Bergen, H. C. Conkling, Ex-P. M. " Aaron Ringland, Brklyn, David Travis, Brooklyn, Assessor " Addison Jayne, New York, Wm. Tracy, Bellshead hotel, " Jno. Hillcox, " Peter Blauvelt, T's Ferry, E. Packer, " Joseph Chetlock, W. Market, Rainer & Veltran. "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above testimonials. Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.

FRANCIS B. STRYKER.

Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 5 Bridge street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING.

Jan. 2, 1852

Hunks for sale at this Office.

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 36. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, September 7, 1852. Whole Number 816.

BY MILTON P. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 214 Broad-street, Washington Hall Buildings,

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical, lepine, repine and detached lever Watches: curb, polished and Swiss Guard Chains; fob and vest Chains of all patterns: silver, shell and pearl opera cases; gold and silver pencil, enamelled and plain Pencils: Ladies' single stone, cluster, and mosaic, cameo, cornelian, jet, enamelled, mourning and plain Brooches; Gent's cluster, single stoned, enamelled and plain Studs; Finger Rings of all patterns; Ladies' plain gold, chain and hair Bracelets: Bracelet Snaps of all kinds: Ear rings of the latest styles: Gents' diamond, ruby, emerald, hyacinth and other set Breast Pins; gold lockets and Miniature Cases: Gold Pens: Pencils and Crosses: gold Fob and Guard Keys: gold and silver Thimbles: Silver Spoons and Butter Knives: gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Bouquet Holders, tablets, hair pins, scissors, knives, tea bells, pocket letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, pressed bar clasps and slides, chess men and boxes, chequer boards, backgammon boards, letter folders, lozenge cases, pearl studs, twin buttons, watch stands, razors, sewing wax, pen holders, microscopes, razors and razor strops, fancy work boxes, china segar cases and mantle ornaments, inkstands of all kinds, tobacco and snuff boxes; tooth, hair, hat, nail, clothes and comb Brushes; silk guard chains; pocket books, a large assortment; dressing combs, back combs, pocket combs, scissor sheaths, watch seals and keys, Jewish scent boxes, vinaigrettes, needles, duetts for four hands, and sacred songs: Guitar music, Instruction books for Piano Forte, flute, fife, violin, accordeon, clarionet, flageolet, &c. &c. all as above will be bought in New York: with a variety of other goods not enumerated in this catalogue, comprising the largest variety in Newark.

WATCH REPAIRING AND CLEANING.

The subscriber, determined to give full satisfaction to those that employ him, has engaged a very superior workman from Switzerland, where he has been engaged for several years in manufacturing all kinds of watches, and is well skilled in repairing and cleaning watches, as testimonials from some of the First watch makers of the city of New York will testify.

Jewelry made to order. Old gold and silver taken in exchange. 6tdsy

Wholesale and Retail.

Wine and Liquor Store.

29 Fair Street, Newark, N. J.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has constantly on hand, for wholesale and retail, a full and choice supply of FOREIGN WINES AND SPIRITS, which he offers at the lowest cash prices, and delivered to order to any part of the city or vicinity. Brandy of all kinds; Rum and Gin, Irish, Scotch and Monongahela Whiskey, St. Croix and Jamaica Rum, Port, Madeira, Malaga and champagne Wines, Losey's Bitters, &c.

Philadelphia Bottled Porter and Pale Ale of the first quality; also, a very choice article of Bottled Cider (almost equal to Champagne) always on hand.

The patronage of gentlemen is solicited.

June 1st, 1852.—3m LOUIS L. BELAND.

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome and serviceable a Hat as they can buy in New York or Philadelphia, and half a dollar cheaper.

N. B. Moleskin or Silk Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 28, 1851.—1y

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the present tax law, by coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, as cheaper and better than elsewhere, thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and prices which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of ready trimmings at a low price. Also constantly on sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Friends will please favor with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves!

Cutting, trimming, and making done at the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. WM. DUNN & CO.

Don't forget how the old stand of T. Dunn & Co. is Plainfield, Dec. 1.

Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

IN

HITS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps, of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, all of which are made at our own manufactory and sold under our own particular direction. Purchasers who make it a point to call can rely upon being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as favorably as at any establishment in the country.

352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

May 25, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,
J. B. DUNHAM & CO. will be all;
Goods on our counter now in lie,
To suit the mind, to please the eye.
We hand the cash to buy these cheap,
We'll sell them right to suit a heap.
Ginghams and Muslins, Combs and Cords,
The newest styles New York affords;
Delaines and Gaiters, Calicoes too,
Colors of which we'll warrant true.
Cassimeres, Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,
And all the goods which men do use;
Together with a good assortment
Of excellent groceries which will defy
A class of men who live with us,
And twice a year make quite a fuss,
To get a farmer with their trade
Of stores at home they are afraid.
We'll sell to these and all the rest,
For cheapest sum what suits them best
With Dunham's wells and Dunham's pails
We can assist trouble in the least;
So come and see, come short, come tall
J. B. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.
Plainfield, May 18, 1850.

THE RIVAL PAINTERS.

A TALE OF ROME.

'Farewell, my son; go trustingly forth, have thine own fortunes by untiring efforts, and it will be doubly enriched by the memory of those years of patient toil that gained so much happiness for thee. The world is bright and beautiful to a young heart, but its light and loveliness pass away. Set not, therefore, too great value upon its riches. Walk calmly in the quiet path that leads to thy duty, envying none, loving all, and a purer and more lasting joy will be thine than the praise and homage a flattering world can give thee. Fear nothing but sin and temptation, follow only the dictates of thine own innocent heart. Be faithful to thy friends, forgiving to thine enemies, true to thyself, and earnest in thy love to God, and with a mother's blessing on thy head, fare thee well.'

And with nothing but a deep love for his beautiful art, and a heart filled with pure and lovely feelings, Guido, a young Florentine painter, left home for the great city of Rome, where all his hopes and desires were centered. There in the studio of some great master, he would seek honor and wealth for himself, and a luxurious home for her who, with all a woman's patient constancy, had toiled to gain enough to place her son where his exalted genius might be guided and taught till he could gain that she fondly hoped; and when the time came freely gave up all that made life pleasant to her—lingered in his native land could fall on a head made sacred by her blessing; and no evil enter a heart filled with such holy love.

And so amid all the allurements of a luxurious city he passed unharmed, and labored steadily on till he won his way among the first of the high born young artists who crowded the studios of the great masters, and as time went on honor and wealth seemed waiting for him, but not happiness.

The kind old painter with whom he had spent so many happy years had a fair young daughter whom he had loved long and silently, happy that he could be near one so good and beautiful. He never thought of asking more till a fellow student possessed of wealth and rank, comely in person and courtly in manner, sought her hand: and he only, who feared it was too late, did he gain courage to plead his love so well and so earnestly that the old painter could not refuse to leave the choice to his daughter.

'Tell me truly, Madeline,' he said 'and he will love shall be thine, with my blessing: but pause and consider. Young Ferdinand hath wealth, rank, and a splendid home, and a heart full of love for thee: Guido hath nothing—nay blush not so proudly, my child: I mean no earthly riches. He hath a rare noble soul and a talent for painting; but in this cold world these are uncared for, where gold and honors are prized more highly. Judge for yourself, Madeline, which will bring the most happiness—the pomp and show of a countess, or a humble painter's home, subject to all the care that poverty brings Wealth or love—few maidens would pause; and yet 'tis a fearful choice—both so noble and comely—I wonder not at your indecision.'

The image of the pale young painter came earnest into the young girl's heart, and the gay, gallant count was forgotten. A flower from cottage was more highly prized than all the costly gifts her titled suitor laid at her feet; but she knew her father longed to see her the wife of some high born lord; his own life had been darkened by hours of sorrow and poverty, and he fondly hoped to spare her all that pang which he had borne unmurmuringly. So, with a daughter's self-denying love, she answered—

'Father, as a painter's daughter, my life has been one of perfect happiness; why not as a wife? The count loves the beautiful art only as a means of gaining honor, and even that love will soon pass away, and trifling things succeed it. Guido is poor, and his art his all. I know the deep, earnest love he bears for all that is great and good, purity and purity he worships with a true painter's steadfastness and while he humbly toils for bread, the noble genius which lies hidden now will awake, and hallowed by such a purpose will bring him honor and wealth. But I am young, father, and the world is new to me; judge as your own wise love counseleth, and by that jud, ment will I abide.'

'So let it be, Madeline, and if I do not greatly err our choice will be the same,' he replied, as he kissed out and left a loving heart beheld, struggling with the gentle memories that thronged so tenderly about it. But with a woman's strength all thoughts of love were banished, and she waited to fulfill her duty, hard though it might be.

'Senora,' said the old painter, when he joined the rivals, who together sought to learn their fate: 'my daughter leaves the choice to me, and as a father I would ask what you would give up to win her love? Maidens are fond and foolish things, and would be hardly won. My lord, how highly do you prize the love of a simple girl?'

'More than life, liberty, wealth or honor,' replied the Count, with a glance at his humble rival, who possessed so little to sacrifice.

'And you, Guido?' said the old man.

The bright blood mounted to the pale face and clear light glowed deeper in the dark eye as he answered in a low, and voice. 'I would give up that which is more precious than life or liberty; that for which I would most gladly give the little honor, wealth or happiness that I possess: all these were trifles, useless and vain, if that one thing were not gained.'

'And this is what?' asked the wondering painter.

'Your daughter! her happiness is more to me than all the earth can afford. Let her bestow her love where she will, and God protect him who is so blessed as to possess it. My despair, truest joy will be the knowledge of her own. Cold and selfish the hearts that do not find pure happiness in the joy of those they love. My rival hath all that can make life fair and beautiful; I would not bring a cloud to darken her bright sky; but when all the blessings that the world can give are hers, I would only ask a passing thought of one whose earnest life and abiding love ever link all bright and happy memories with her.'

'It is enough: I hear my decision: Three weeks hence is the Carnival; he who before that time hath painted a picture the most perfect in grace, and beauty of form, design and coloring, to him will I give my daughter. Strange it may seem, I feel a painter's pride in bestowing my only earthly wealth on one worthy the glorious art that wins her. Three weeks hence at the gallery of ——, we meet again, till then, farewell.'

And as the two rivals turned away, his eye rested proudly on Guido, as he whispered with a smile. 'He is worthy of her, and will succeed.'

The hours went by, and rumors of the strange trial between the rival painters were rife thro' the city. Many were the wondering thoughts of the people; gay jests went round, and happy visions of fame from the hand of the painters filled many a fair lady's heart.

The beautiful Madeline sat alone, and strove to banish the thoughts that would come, bringing a picture that she would not look upon, and so the time went on, the days were spent, and the Carnival was in progress.

Gallery after gallery filled, still the crowd poured on till the dim old walls were brilliant with the fair and noble of the gay city; the sunlight stole soft ly in through the richly stained windows, throwing a strange bright hue on the old pictures within, and the air was heavy with the fragrance of the flowers, twined around statue and pillar.

Two dark and mysterious curtains hung side by side, and before them stood the rival painters —a strange contrast. The young Count, his proud face glowing with joy, his costly garments glittering with embroidery, and his plumed cap, heavy with jewels stood proudly forth, and many a light heart beat, and fair cheek flushed, as his dark eye glanced over the gay ladies, bright as an eastern garden with the loveliest flowers of Rome.

But the young painter turned from him to his rival, and lingered there. His humble dress and threadbare mantle were unheeded for the noble face that looked so pale in dark shadows where he stood: but a ray of sunlight lay softly on the long dark locks that fell heavily round his face, and all unconscious of the eyes upon him, he stood looking calmly on the sweet face of a Madonna above.

A crowd of the first painters stood around a canopied seat, conversing with the father, who listened silently watching the dial as it fast approached the appointed hour; beside him sat Madeline; the long veil folded so closely could not hide the lovely face that blushed beneath; and the hand that clasped the victor's wreath, trembled with the emotions of hope and fear that made the dark eyes fill with tears, and the gentle heart beat wildly.

As the twelve silvery chimes died away, the Count sprang forward and exultingly flung back the curtain. A long breathless pause, and then loud and long sounded the applause, till the vaulted roof rang again.

It was Madeline—beautiful as love could make her. Beneath the picture traced in golden letters, were courtly words of love and flattery, and before it the Count knelt gracefully, and with uncovered head.

Then the pale young painter lifted his dark curtain, and not a sound broke the deep stillness as with fascinated eyes they gazed. Tears were on many a cheek, for the simple word "Mother" traced below, brought back to many a careless heart, the long forgotten hours of innocence and youth, it was strangely beautiful. And as the father lay softly round the gentle face, and the mild dark eyes seemed looking down on her son with all a mother's fondness, while the golden light that fell from the high window seemed to shut the world of sin and shadows from them.

The silence was broken by a burst of applause that shook the old walls, and often as it died away it was again renewed: plumed caps waved, and fair hands fell at his feet. Still, with folded hands he stood heedless of all, for his thoughts were far away; he only saw the gentle face before him, heard only her voice, felt only her hand laid in blessings on his head, and all else was forgotten.

Then clear and deep above the murmuring crowd sounded the voice of the old painter, saying 'Guido of Florence hath won the prize; and more than this, he hath gained our love and honor, for one whose holy affections prized above the young and lovely, the face that first smiled upon him, the heart that first loved. A greater wealth for my child than the love of so noble a son. She is thine Guido, with my fondest blessing.'

And mid a burst of triumphant music the wreath fell upon his breast. The noblest parents crowded round him, fair ladies scattered flowers in his path, and even his rival shrouding his own fair picture, flung a bright wreath over the other, and with tears on his proud face, stood humbly before it, while gentle memories came stealing back, bringing a quiet joy, long unknown to his ambitious heart, and he rose up a better man for the holy lesson he had learned.

And while noble painters, and beautiful women paid their homage to the humble artist and deep toned music rolled through the bright halls, high above all, the calm, soft face looking proudly down on the son whose unfailing love for her had gained for him the honor and love he so richly deserved.

Cheap Diet.—The cheapest diet in the world we think, is a fried pie. We tried fourpence worth the other day, and for forty hours we were so crammed that our eyes stuck out like a lobster.

Posting a Wife Brown.—A friend hands the editor of the Burlington Free Press the following, which he copied, verbatim et literatim, from the original, now "sticking up" in Mrs. Watson's bar-room, in St. Johns. It resides the matter for Mrs. Peter Rowvil, or we are mistaken!

"Notice.—My nam, dat's Peter Rowvil, my Waf he lave my bous and shan't ax me. Any man wat trus him on my nam, dats loss for yes.

"San Jon, Fev. 19, '51."

AMERICAN SUPERIORITY ON THE SEAS.—John Bull, who is ever loth to concede a victory to "Brother Jonathan" in Maritime affairs, though it be thrice won has at length acknowledged the superiority of American over British steamships, as will be seen by the following which appeared in the London Times of the 9th inst. Better late than never:

"The truth must be told—the British steamships have been beaten, and the most rapid passages ever achieved between the old and new world have been accomplished by the American steamships. None but an American steamship has ever yet run from Liverpool to New York and vice versa, in less than 10 days. The average passages of the Asia and Africa may, perhaps, nearly equal those of the Pacific, Baltic, and Arctic of the Collins' line, but the Americans have achieved the positive victory in speed, their steamers—the Pacific, Baltic and Arctic having made the fleetest voyages. On the part of the Americans the contest has been carried on at vast cost, and additional grants from Congress ostensibly for the mail service, but in reality from the national spirit of rivalry, have only recently been obtained to prevent the project from perishing by reason of an enormous inequality between receipts and expenditure. On the part of the British while heavy amounts have been paid by the Exchequer, and a large profit has been made by the contractors, the Messrs. Cunard, the defeat of the fleet has only to renew the attempt in the hope of exportation of eventual success."

Our powerful rival indulges the hope of eventually beating us it will be soon, but of that we have no fears. The new steamship "Persia," now being completed for the Cunarders, will soon make a trial trip which is looked forward to with a little interest on the other side of the Atlantic. It is believed that she will eclipse all her predecessors in that line. Her cylinders are the largest (103 inches) ever put in a steamship.

A TRUE LOTTERY STORY.—In pathetically describing the life of her father, an unsuccessful man of talent, Miss Mitford, in a work just published, says:

"In the meantime his spirits returned, as buoyant as ever, and so now, that fear had changed its certainty. In the interval of his professional duties, he walked about London with his little girl in his hand: and one day, (it was my birth day, and I was ten years old) he took me to a not very tempting place, which was, as I speedily found, a lottery office. An Irish lottery was on the point of being drawn, and he desired me to choose out of several bits of paper (I did not know their significance) that lay upon the counter.

"Choose which you like best," said my dear papa, "and that shall be your birth day present."

I immediately selected one, and put it into his hand, No 2,223.

"Is that it?" said my father, examining it, "you must choose again. I want to buy a whole ticket, and this is only a quarter. Choose again, my pet."

"No, dear papa, I think this one best."

"Here is the next number," interposed the lottery office keeper, No 2,223.

"Ay," said my father, "that will do just as well. Will it not, Mary? We'll take that."

"No," returned I, obstinately, "that won't. This is my birth day, you know, papa, and I am ten years old. Cast up my number and you'll find that makes ten. The other is only nine."

My father being superstitious, like all speculators, struck with my pertinacity, and with the reason which I gave, which he liked none the less because the ground of preference was tolerably unreasonable, resisted the attempt of the office keeper to tempt me by different tickets, and we had nearly left the shop without a purchase when the clerk, who had been examining the drawers, said to his principal:

"I think, sir, the matter may be managed if the gentleman does not mind paying a few shillings more. The ticket 2,224 only came yesterday, and we have still all the shares—one half, one quarter, one eighth, two sixteenths. It will be just the same if the young lady was set upon it."

The young lady was set upon it, and the shares were purchased. The whole affair was a secret between us, and my father whenever he got me to himself, talked over our future twenty thousand pounds just like Alnaschar over his basket of eggs. Meanwhile, time passed on, and on Sunday morning we were all preparing for church, when a fare that I had forgotten, but my father had not, rushed into his appearance. It was the clerk of the lottery office. An express had just arrived from Dublin announcing that 2,224 had drawn a prize of twenty thousand pounds, and he had just hastened to communicate the good news.—Ah! me, less than twenty years what was left of the produce of that ticket so strangely chosen? What—except a Wedgewood dinner service that my father had bought to commemorate the event. The shell harp within the border on one side, and his full length crest on the other. That fragile and perishable ware long outlasting the more perishable money?

Influence of a Rock.

One hundred years ago, amidst opposition and persecution, the distinguished Samuel Davies preached the gospel at a country church in Virginia, and the fruits of his ministry were long found even in distant parts of the State, in multitudes of pious whites and blacks. The house which he occupied is still in use as a dwelling, and the church in which he preached is the same in which the congregation yet worship though it has been fitted up in more modern and convenient style.

But Davies has been preaching ever since his death. His eloquence is heard at many a fireside, and his printed sermons will ever form a part of the religious literature of the English language.

A generation ago, a young lady in the South was waiting for some young friends, who were going with her on an excursion. The party lingering, the young lady took down a book from her father's library to spend the time. It was Davies' Sermons. Turning to one of the discourses, the read till her companions arrived. She went with them, but the words of this book had fastened upon her mind. Upon her return from the excursion, she sought the book again and finished the discourse. It was the means of her conversion. She became the wife of a minister, and the mother of a son. That son became a minister, and he is now the pastor of the very congregation over which Davies once presided, and preacher in the church where the sermon was probably first delivered, which led to the conversion of his mother.

These facts show, along with many of like character, of what use the works of the true, the printed page as a means of perpetuating religious truth, and making a man a preacher not to his own generation only, but to the generations that are to live after him.

They show also the importance of a good religious library, as a part of the furniture of every house. Suppose there had been no books like Davies' Sermons, in the house of that young lady's father? Suppose she had found a yellow backed, twenty five cent "novel," to pass that half hour upon?—Christian Observer.

A Good Collector.

Some men have a peculiar facility for collecting debts, which certainly requires a little tact to acquire. One rule should always be observed: "Never let your angry passions rise." but be always cool calm and polite, since debts are ever anxious to have a cause for quarrel, which may serve as a pretext for nonpayment.—

A clerk in this city well understood the art of getting money out of hard customers. Some years since, that a gentleman, very wealthy, but penurious to an extraordinary degree, dwelt here, who had justly obtained the reputation of never paying his small debts. He had purchased a bag of Mocha coffee, where the clerk (Frank we will call him,) was employed, and nearly a year had elapsed without the bill being settled. He had been 'dunned' 20 times at least, and his invariable answer was:

I will come round to the store and settle this small account.

Something of a spirit of rivalry had arisen among the clerks as to who should collect the bill first of all at last give it up Frank told them I could get the money, and bet half a dozen champagne upon his success; his wager was accepted. Frank called upon the gentleman. And met with a polite reception and the usual answer, with the addition:

"You need not trouble yourself, young man about the matter; I will make it all right."

"O no," replied Frank, "I could not think for a moment of compelling you to call at the store for a few dollars. It will not be the slightest inconvenience for me to stop in, as I pass your place of business six times a day, to and from meals, and I can call on every time I go by."

"Here," said the old fellow to the book keeper, (alarmed at the prospect of being dunned six times a day for the next six months,) "pay this d——l——rascal. He can beat me in politeness, and if he wants a situation, I will give him 2000 dollars a year."

The offer was declined, but the wine was drunk. —Cin. Com.

The Maine Law in Vermont.—Efforts are making in Green Mountain State to secure the enactment of this statute. We hear about the same thing from other sections. The fact is, the Maine Law is the main thing for temperance men now a days.

Flower Trade.—A peddler of flowers in New York is said to have amassed $8000 by the sale of bouquets in the course of the last few seasons.

An Ancient Elm.—There is an elm tree in the town of Sheffield, Mass. which is said to be the finest in New England. Its circumference, two feet above ground, is nearly thirty feet. The smallest diameter of the tree is between six and seven feet. The limbs reach nearly to the ground, and cover a space considerably more than a hundred feet in diameter. A railing has recently been placed around the tree.

Wise Arrangement.—A colporteur of the American Tract Society has received a free ticket, to sell the Society's publications, through the prompt action of Mr. Dexter, superintendent of the Ogdensburg Railroad, while the application of publishers in New York to send the mortal poison of their cheap novels has been refused as promptly, though liberal compensation was offered for the privilege. Blessings on the superintendent and success to the Railroad!

A Specimen.—An honest lad in New Bedford found a pocket book with $200 in it, and walked three miles to put it into hands of the owner, who coolly took and pocketed it without as much as giving the boy a cent or even thanking him for his trouble. Such instances as these give us enlarged views of humanity!

RAILROAD TO HUDSON'S BAY.—An English Company have contracted to construct 100 miles of Railroad from Quebec towards Hudson's Bay, at £10,600 per mile, and that the line is intended to be pressed rapidly forward until it reaches that great Northern sea. The whole distance is 600 miles. For ourselves, we do not see what there is to support a railway in that direction, but if the Canadian Government of the British Government see fit to build it, we certainly have no objection. New York Com.

A dull, unmeaning, religious meeting is an anomaly. If a husband and wife should get together once a week and at most a particle of feeling or earnestness, go through with an hour of courting and caressing, it would be regarded as a curiosity, about its. If business men should get together once a week in a grave consideration of things which no one of them at the time cared anything about, and talk them over and over and on that, forgetting at the close what his neighbor had said, men would say that they were fools.

We, somehow strangely, feel disposed to give our dollars to the rich and our dimes to the poor. The opinions of men do have very little influence with the truly wise; for whether it be for or against them, they regard only the dictates of their conscience.

The man who never told an office boy he would bother his paper the next time he missed a morning's reading, has never failed just a half dozen times. Their children will take them.

From the London Dispatch.

KEEP IN STEP.

"Those who would walk together, must keep in step."

Aye! the world keeps moving forward,
Like an army moving by:
Hear you not its heavy footfall
That resoundeth to the sky;
Mark the spirit-stirring banner—
Souls of sweetness chant the song—
Lines of energy and fervor
Make the timid-hearted strong!
Like brave soldiers, we march forward;
If you linger, or turn back,
You must look to get a jostling
While you stand upon the track.
Keep in step!

My good neighbor, Master Standstill,
Gazes on it as it goes!
Not quite sure but he is dreaming
In his afternoon's repose!
"Nothing good," he says, "can issue
From this endless moving on;
Ancient laws and institutions
Are decaying, or are gone:
We are rushing on to ruin,
With our mad new-fangled ways."
While he speaks, a thousand voices,
As the heart of one man, says—
"Keep in step!"

Gentle neighbor, will you join us,
Or return to "good old ways?"
Take again the fig-leaf apron
Of old Adam's ancient days;
Or become a hardy Briton—
Board the lion in his lair,
And lie down in dainty slumber,
Wrapped in skin of shaggy bear—
Rear the hut amid the forest,
Skim the wave in light canoe?
Ah! I see! you do not like it:
Then, if these "old ways" won't do,
Keep in step!

Be assured good Master Standstill,
All wise Providence designed
Aspiration and progression
For the yearning human mind;
Generations left their blessings
In the relics of their skill,
Generations yet are longing
For a greater glory still,
And the shades of our forefathers
Are not jealous of our deed—
We but follow where they beckon,
We but go where they do lead!
Keep in step!

One detachment of our army
May encamp upon the hill,
While another, in the valley,
May enjoy "its own sweet will;"
This, may answer to our watchword,
That, may echo to another;
But in unity and concord,
They discern that each is brother!
Breast to breast they're marching onward,
In a good, new peaceful way;
You'll be jostled if you hinder,
So don't offer let or stay—
Keep in step!

To know when, and in what way, to bestow charity, is not always the happy lot of those charitably disposed. The following, one among many interesting reminiscences of the Henry Clay catastrophe, related by an eye witness, illustrates our meaning:

Richard Murphy, an able-bodied man, and an expert swimmer, stripped off his apparel, retaining his hat only, to protect his face from the fire, and swam boldly out into deep water, and was the means of rescuing eight persons. He brought two men safely ashore at one time, by extending a plank to them. Subsequently, when he was able no longer to aid the living, succeeded in bringing to the beach twelve or fourteen of the deceased victims. This heroic man, when his humane exertions were over, found that his clothing was either burnt up or had been carried off, and that even the hat he wore upon his head had been burnt while he was in the water. A kind lady residing in the neighborhood gave him—what think you? a new suit of clothes, or perhaps a new hat—or the wherewithal to procure one or both?—no, she presented him with a gold pencil case, as a testimonial of his praiseworthy conduct.

NEW SALT MINE IN IRELAND.

At the last meeting of the Chemico Agricultural Society for Ulster, Dr. Hodges gave an account of a visit which, with some of the members of the society, he made to the works commenced by the Marquis of Downshire in the neighborhood of Carrickfergus, and also reported some analyses of the salt. The salt he said, was of great purity; one sample contained as much as 99 per cent. of chloride of sodium (common salt,) and did not afford a trace of magnesia, which is so frequently presented in rock salt.—Already the shaft had been sunk 700 feet, and more than 64 feet of pure salt had been discovered. It was yet impossible to say to what extent the bed of salt extended. The discovery of this valuable deposit he regarded as of much interest.

AMERICAN AND ENGLISH LOCKS.

It will be remembered that Mr. Hobbs succeeded in picking the famous Bramah lock, and that he received a reward of 200 guineas for his skill. The Messrs. Bramah made some alterations and improvements in the lock, and again placed it in the window in Piccadilly, with the original offer of a reward appended to it. It remained in their window a few days, when a report reached the Messrs. Bramah that Hobbs intended to try his luck a second time. The lock was immediately removed, and has not since been seen. Hobbs' Patent American lock is being manufactured at Birmingham, Sheffield, Wolverhampton, and London, in large numbers, and all sizes, and at prices ranging from six shillings to fifty pounds each. The office of Hobbs's American Lock Company is opened in Chancery-lane for the sale of these American locks. The tank lock, price fifty pounds, has already been placed on the vaults of the Bank of England, the Lock India Company, and several private banking establishments in the city.

"My dear Polly, I am surprised at your taste in wearing another woman's hair upon your head," said Mr. Smith to his wife.

"My dear Billy I am equally astonished that you persist in wearing another sheep's wool on your back."

PERPETUAL LIGHT.

A rather curious and interesting discovery has been made at Longas, in France, which will cause scientific inquiry as to the perpetual burning lamps, said to have been in use among the ancients. Workmen were recently excavating for a new building in a debris, evidently remains of Gallo-Roman erection, when they came to the roof of an underground sort of cave, which time had rendered almost of metallic hardness. An opening, however, was effected, when 1 of the workmen instantly awakened that there was light at the bottom of the cavern. The parties present entered, when they found a bronzed sepulchral lamp, of remarkable workmanship, suspended from the roof by chains of the same metal. It was entirely filled with a combustible substance, which did not appear to have diminished, altho' the probability is the combustion has been going on for ages. This discovery will throw some light on a question which has caused so many disputes among learned antiquaries; although it is stated that one was discovered at Viterbo, in 1851, from which, however, no fresh information was afforded on the subject.

An Unmanaken Whip.

On Thursday, a horse attached to a wagon, containing a countryman and his daughter, a young woman in the rustic bloom of eighteen, or thereabouts—took fright at the corner of Lawrence and Third, "turned out," and commenced spreading himself for a mad run down the hill. For the wagon, the inmates, the lines, and all other rearward attachment, the horse did not appear to hold any affectionate affinity, but like the devoted dog with the pan at his tail, put in his best licks to outrun them. On he went, bounding things about as if they were of no value, and fully intent in a solvent office. The old man gave his lungs most woful strains, and the young woman in the rustic bloom of eighteen, or thereabouts, sat as mutely indifferent to the danger as a lonely flower on a descending avalanche. The horse's speed accelerated with every step, and he evidently began to think himself as well up to "items" as his betters of the city, when he made a sidelong skirt at a boiler, and dislocated a dozen spokes. He now began to do up tangents, and the swing the wagon about like a shutter in a high wind, and to approach the declivity leading to the river. The surging waves, whispering death as they broke along the shore, awoke the old man's fears, and he fairly shrieked for help.

Now came the trial. The daughter rose, snatched the lines from his hands, affectionately kicked him into the bottom of the wagon, and putting her strength upon one of the "ribbons," she drew the horse around, upset the wagon and spilled herself and parent out in safety. A crowd collected around, and a gentleman congratulated the maid in the rustic bloom of eighteen upon her providential escape from the river!

"Drat it," said she, "the old man ort to upset where he broke the wheel, but he ain't got no sense when it's wanted. I didn't fear about the river myself, for I can swim like a beaver, and the old man ain't worth nothing in the water."

So saying, she commenced untangling the horse and arranging the trumpery, and when we left, she was revengefully bestowing upon the animal's stomach a succession of lusty kicks.

Seventy Miles in Twelve Hours.—At Newport on Saturday last, a pedestrian accomplished a very wonderful feat in his peculiar line. His name is Wm. Hughes, and he is an Englishman. He was to receive eighty dollars provided that he walked seventy miles in fifteen hours, being an average rate of nearly five miles an hour. Strange as it may seem, he not only accomplished this immense labor, but also—in three hours less time than his limit.

At last night a number assembled to witness it, and many gentlemen joined him, with watch in hand, for several hours. During one part of the day he stretched himself on a plank for a few moments, and occasionally stopped to drink a glass of beer.

A TEMPERANCE STORY.

Joe Hart is was a whole souled, merry fellow, and fond of a glass. After living in New Orleans for many years, he came to the conclusion of visiting an old uncle, away up in Massachusetts, whom he had not seen for many years. Now there is a difference between New Orleans and Massachusetts, in regard to the use of ardent spirits, and when Joe arrived there, he found all people strong and sound temperance; he felt bad, thinking, with the old song, that "keeping the spirits up so douring spirits down," was one of the best ways to make time pass, and began to fear, indeed, that he was in a pickle. But on the morning after his arrival, the old man and his sons being out at work, his aunt came to him and said:

"Joe, you have been living in the South, and, no doubt, are in the habit of taking a little something to drink about eleven o'clock. Now I keep some here for medicinal purposes, but no one know it, as my husband wants to set the boys a good example.

Joe promised, and thinking he would get no more that day, took, as he expressed it, a "bustor." After he had walked out to the stable, who should he meet but his uncle.

"Well, Joe," says he, "I expect you are accustomed to drink something in New Orleans, but you find us all temperance here, and for the sake of my sons, I don't let them know that I have any brandy about; but I just keep a little out here for my rheumatism. Will you accept a little?"

Joe signified his readiness, and took another big horn. Then continuing his walk, he came to where the boys were mowing the rails. After conversing awhile, one of his sons said—

"Joe, I expect you would like to have a drink, and as the old folks are down on liquor, we keep some out here to help us on with our work."

Out came the bottle, and down they sat, and he says that by the time he went home to dinner he was as tight as he could well be, and all from visiting a temperance family.

AN IRISH TRANSPOSITION.—An Irish farmer once had a dispute with his landlord about a horse, and he could not come to a settlement with him he resolved to have a lawyer's advice; accordingly he proceeded to the office of one of the limbs of the law and stated his case. After pocketing his fee, the lawyer told him, that in the eye of the law his barn was forfeited, but if his landlord was not an austere man to offer him an equivalent, and get up arbitrators as an umpire to put the matter into a train of conclusion, "thank you vastly," said the farmer, and hurrying home to his neighbors, called them together, and told them "he had seen the learned man, and that he told him in the eye of the law his barn was morti fied, but if his landlord was not an oyster man to offer him an elephant, and to get two carts o' potatoes and a trumpeter to put the matter into a state of confusion."

THE UNION.

Plainfield, N. J. September 7, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

National Whig Nominations:

For President of the United States:
Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.

For Vice President:
WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North-Carolina.

NEW JERSEY WHIG STATE CONVENTION,
Assembled at Trenton on Thursday noon. Hon. Joseph C. Hornblower was elected President, with a Vice President from every county. Among the five Secretaries were H. N. Congar, of Newark, and S. S. Hartwell, of Somerville.

Resolutions, in favor of the Constitution and the Union; in favor of Scott and Graham; and that the Whigs of New Jersey can and will contribute the seven electoral votes of this State to their election as President and Vice President, were unanimously adopted.

The Electors were then nominated unanimously, as follows:

Senatorial Electors: Dudley S. Gregory, of Hudson; Andrew K. Hay, of Camden.
1st District, John T. Nixon, of Cumberland.
2d, James S. Lawrence, of Monmouth.
3d, James S. Nevius, of Middlesex.
4th, Cornelius G. Garrison, of Passaic.
5th, James M. Quimby, of Essex.

Entire harmony characterized all the proceedings. After some capital songs, a speech from Hon. James G. King, and tremendous cheers, the Convention adjourned for dinner.

THE MASS MEETING.

At half past 2, the various delegations, with music and banners, marched to a beautiful grove near at hand. It was one of the largest political gatherings ever held in this State. The first flag that Gen. Scott unfurled in the City of Mexico, waved over the multitude.

Gov. Pennington, chairman, opened with an address. The other speakers were Messrs. Dayton and Miller, Senators from this State; Hon. Edward Stanley of N. C., and Robert Voorhees.

A meeting in the evening was addressed by G. H. Brown, Esq., Gov. Pennington, Alex. M. Johnson, &c.

New Jersey is going for Scott with a rush.—The Whigs are going to do the thing up right.

Congress.

Adjourned quietly and soberly last Tuesday, to meet again on the 1st of December next.

In the River and Harbor Bill just passed by Congress is an appropriation of $32,000 to improve the navigation between Newark and Elizabeth-port and New York.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Washington arrived at New York from Bremen and Southampton on Wednesday morning, with 220 passengers and a valuable cargo.

The America touched at Halifax Tuesday evening. Both left England Aug. 18th.

The excitement about the fishery difficulty had greatly subsided. It was supposed to be in process of adjustment. Mr. Baring cannot come to the U. S. at present on account of domestic affliction. Other war vessels are fitting out for the fishing grounds.

The yield of gold at Australia continued immense. Outrages on life and property were very prevalent.

The accounts from Ireland of the potato rot are more favorable. They are likely to have half a crop.

We have been requested to state that the trains on our railroad run through this place at too great speed for the safety of the inhabitants, and that the bell is not always rung continually. We therefore call the attention of all having authority in the matter, to look into it, and enjoin all proper caution and carefulness, if needed, before any fatal or serious accident occurs.

Railroad Accident.—A young man named Edward Betell was run over by a train of cars near this place on Friday afternoon, and his left leg nearly severed from his body. He was taken to the New York Hospital.

The New York Democratic State Convention at Syracuse adjourned on Thursday after a stormy session of two days. John Van Buren was refused a seat which he claimed and another barnburner was served in the same way. The division in their ranks is by no means yet healed.

Decision on the Maine Liquor Law.—The Supreme Court of Maine has decided that the inhabitants of that State may keep liquor in their houses for their own use, and that liquor may be brought into and transported within or through the State, if it be not intended for sale. The amount of the decision seems to be, that the Legislature may prohibit the sale, or keeping or offering for sale, of liquor, but can not prohibit its use.

The clip of Wool in the Western States this year, it is estimated, exceed that of 1851, about 15 per cent. In Ohio, alone, clip will be about 14,000,000 of pounds. Australia has heretofore been a wool-growing country, and large shipments have been made annually to Great Britain. This year, the receipts of Wool imported into England, from Australia, are likely to be much smaller than usual, consequence of the excitement caused by the production of gold dust and the scarcity of hands in agricultural pursuits. This may have a very favorable influence upon the prices of Wool in this country, and on prices of Wool manufactures generally.—[Chicago Jour.

A dog, with a wooden leg, was recently seen in St. Charles-street, New Orleans, getting along quite comfortably.

ANOTHER STEAMBOAT DISASTER! BOILER BLOWN UP.

Correspondence of the Newark Daily Advertiser.

SAUGERTIES, Sept. 4, 1852—The steamer Reindeer, which left N. Y. for Albany this morning, burst her boiler near Saugerties this afternoon, with a dreadful explosion. Many are badly scalded, and some are missing.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 2d.—The freshets in Alabama and Geor, is have proved most disastrous.

At Mobile a house was blown down and five persons were killed.

All the vessels in the port were injured, and some of them were blown into the woods. Three steamers were lost. The lighthouse was carried off with a whole family aboard of it. The wharves were all destroyed, and the surrounding country inundated.

At Hamburg, Georgia, the water was six feet deep in the streets, and a Mr. Rossitor was drowned.

In Gorgia, in consequence of the flood, corn had advanced from 40 to 75c., and wheat from 60c. to $1 per bushel.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders met in Newark, yesterday, and appropriated $800 towards the erection of a draw bridge over the creek in this town, at or near the present termination of South street, and stipulated in addition that Mr. M. Williams, who has been most active in obtaining this valuable improvement, should employ a person to attend the draw for the period of ten years.—Elizabethtown Jour. Aug. 31.

The gallant Gen. Shields thus speaks of Gen. Scott:

"Gen. Scott is the candidate of the Whig party. For him I entertain the highest personal regard and esteem. I admire him as much as I do any man living, for his great military talent, and I consider him entitled to the gratitude of his country for his glorious military services."

Gen. Shields is a native of Ireland, a United States Senator, and Democrat, and was a brave soldier in the Mexican War.

A pailful of snow was brought into the office of the Northern Journal, Lowville, Lewis County, (N. Y.) on Thursday morning last, by Mr. Adam Vannatter obtained in a Gulf, about one and a half miles above West Lowville.

The Norwich Courier says there has been a series of experiments at Lowell, by a committee of the Lowell Cotton Mills, during the past six months, for the purpose of testing the use of Lorain Oil upon machinery. The results are highly favorable, and have been published in a pamphlet form. The report states that there has no evil arisen from the use of this oil, for a long time past, upon their machinery, and that upon all machinery with heavy bearings, such as looms, &c., this oil, combined half and half with sperm oil, takes less power than pure sperm oil alone!

An Irish Rebel Converted.—It was recently stated by Rev. Hugh Stowell, of Manchester, England, in a public lecture, that Mitchel, who was transported for treason, has been converted to Protestantism since his exile by the instrumentality of a Bible, and now wishes to return that he may spend his future life in developing the errors of Romanism.

Rev. F. H. L. Laird, who was received into the Presbytery of Louisville, at its last session, from the Episcopal Church, has received and accepted an invitation to become the stated supply of the church in Corydon, Ind.

FAST LOCOMOTIVE.—We learn by the "London Mechanics' Magazine," that a contract has been made by the Directors of the London and North Western Railway with Mr. Fairbairn, for the construction of a number of "express train" engines, which are to run 112 miles, with loaded trains, in two hours.

Tomatoes can be raised as easily as turnips, and should be sold as cheap. The tomato is a very healthy vegetable, especially to persons of bilious tendency.

On the night of the 11th ult., a steamer, on the Seine, containing 708 passengers, just arriving at the quay of Rouen, in consequence of all rushing to one side, it sunk, and sank, leaving the human mass struggling in the river; but owing to the intrepidity of the people along shore, but one or two, if any, lives were lost.

Postage stamps should be placed on the upper right hand corner of the letter.

What a mistake to suppose that the passion strongest in youth! The passions are not stronger, but the control over them is weaker. They are more easily excited—they are more violent and apparent, but they have less energy, less intensity and concetrated power than in maturer life.

FRUIT IN SUMMER.—The Water Cure Journal says, in regard to the use of fruits and vegetables:

"There is a very simple rule for guidance in this matter. Always select ripe, full-grown roots, and mild-flavored, well-ripened fruit, and then eat them freely, at meal times, of course. If this is done, the only restrictions necessary to impose, on the quantity concern the purse, rather than the stomach. The best anti-cholera and anti-diarrhœa, anti-bilious, anti fever, and anti all kinds of complaint specific on earth, is an abundance of good fruit." This accords with the best experience.

AN EXPERIMENT.—Borrow a gold ring from your wife (if you are not so fortunate as to possess a wife, however, any gold ring will do), and suspend it by a silk from the first joint of your right fore finger taking care to disconnect this finger from contact with any other finger or thumb. Then pile up some books, or some convenient article, to the height of 8 or 9 inches and resting your arm thereon to steady it, allow the ring to become stationary. Then let some one push under the suspended ring (which you are to hold about an inch from the surface of the table) a piece of metal—say a half dollar; you will immediately perceive that the ring will commence a vibratory motion, invariably in the same direction, to and from you. A few moments more will be gentle, as if stirred by a puff of air, but will gradually become rapid and excited. While the ring is thus swinging, let a woman touch your left hand, to your astonishment, the ring will soon take a transverse motion—crossing its former track; let the woman remove her hand, the original motion will be resumed. But should you be addicted to the habits of drinking freely, or using tobacco excessively, the ring will not be moved at all, or only in obedience to the impulse received from nervous tremor.

Now, is this motion imparted to the ring by the pulse? If you think so, direct the metal to be removed, and let a chunk of tobacco, a dose of strichnine, or any deathly poison whatever, be slipped under the ring, the rapid motion diminishes in impetus—it hangs with a quivering motion about the poison—then hangs motionless and dead.

Reader, we have stated what any of you may test, and if you can give us reasons for what you will perceive, we shall be glad to receive them.—Quarterly Spectator.

New York Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Wheat Flour,	$4.31 to 4.62
Rye Flour,	3.50 to 3.62
Indian Meal, Jersey,	3.75 to 3.75
Grain—Wheat,	1,01 to 1,12
Rye,	81 to 82
Corn,	71 to 74
Oats, Jersey,	40 to 42

Persons who are in poor health, who suffer with pimples, who use Nervaline complained of Castor oil, Colonel, &c., are not aware, that while they appear to benefit the patient, they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of sight, weakness of limbs, &c.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Hobensack's Medicines, to which we ask the attention of all directly interested in their own as well as their children's health. In favor of complaints and all disorders arising from those of a bilious type, Hobensack's is the only genuine medicine, Hobensack's liver Pills.

☞ "Be not deceived," but ask for Hobensack's Worm Syrup and Liver Pills, and observe that each has the signature of the Proprietor, J. N. HOBENSACK, to none else are genuine.

THE ONLY SAFETY.

Neglect a cold! and soon with terrors rife,
CONSUMPTION saps the citadel of life.
Slow paced, yet sure—while Hope with tints untrue,
Depicts a future glorious to the view—
The spoiler steals along with hidden dart,
And Death's cold shadows darken round the heart.
Yet hath CONSUMPTION warnings, that foretell
To love's quick ear, the loved one's coming knell;
The deepening Cough flushed cheek, and pulses high,
The failing strength, and fever lighted eye,
These, and the wasted form, and shortened breath,
Are symptoms all, too eloquent of death!

Be wise in time!—remedial means apply,
Nor stand inert to see the sufferer die.
If Cough or Cold the Lungs or Throat assail,
Employ a remedy that cannot fail!
TAR, CANCHALAGUA, LIVERWORT combined,—
CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on the buff wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. L. SCOVILL & CO.
For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Golden Hall, 316 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.
Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING
PRICE—In large bottles, $1,00, or 6 bottles for $5,00.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Camphor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.
For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

Hitchcock & Leadbeater, New York, $6,00;
James M. Taylor & Co. do. 6,00; David H. Lee, 2,53; Robt. Anderson, 88; Isaac Brokaw, 75.

MARRIED.

At the Parsonage, Westfield, N. J., Aug. 25th, by the Rev. E. B. Edgar, Ephraim Clark and Margaret Cory.

DIED.

Died at his late residence in North Plainfield on Saturday the 4th inst. Mr. Clark Johnson, aged 34 years and 7 months. His friends and acquaintances are invited to attend his funeral this (Monday) afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence.

Assignment Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that Lewis Runyon of the township of Plainfield, in the county of Essex and State of New Jersey, hath this day made an assignment to the subscriber of his estate, for the equal benefit of his creditors, and that the said creditors must exhibit their respective claims under oath or affirmation within the term of three months. A. BERRY,
Dated, August 30, 1852. Assignee.

D. M. KNIGHT & CO.,
Importers and Wholesale Dealers in
ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN
FANCY GOODS,
No. 58 Cedar-Street (up stairs)
(Between William and Nassau sts.)
D. M. KNIGHT, } NEW-YORK.
A. S. ROBBINS, }

COMBS.—No. 1 Buffalo, and horn back Combs in great variety; twist, dressing and ivory Combs. Buttons, Steel gilt, lasting, mohair, twist, hose, thread, silk, thread, and cotton.
Bushes, Hair, Tooth, Nail, &c.
☞ Linen Thread, Spool Cotton, Needles, Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Hair Pins, Elastics, Whalebone, Linen and Cotton Tapes, Linen and Cotton Bobbin, Scissors, Thimbles, and a great variety of Fancy Goods, Fans, &c., all cheap for cash.
Sept. 6, 1852.—3m.

Bigelow's Alterative,

A CERTAIN CURE FOR DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA, CHOLERA MORBUS, AND ALL SUMMER COMPLAINTS.

GEORGE W. BLEECKER, Proprietor, 98 Broadway, New York.
Price 50 cents per bottle.

TESTIMONIALS.

I have used "Bigelow's Alterative" in my family, and have never found it to fail, when all other remedies advertised by the Committee of Physicians, have proved ineffectual. I think it a perfect corrective for Dysenteric and all Bowel Complaints.
GEO. W. BLEECKER, 47 Wall-street.
New-York, March 25th, 1852.

We can add our testimony to that of others of its great efficacy in our own case, when prostrated to an alarming degree by Cholera Morbus, and after the use of a few doses, had got relief, and one now always kept in the family.
EDITORS OF N. Y. BAPTIST REGISTER.
Utica, April 15th 1852.

Read this.—It rejoices us to hear that you are about to introduce to the public your valuable medicine, which has been of much benefit to my family. About a year since, my little girl, about three years of age, was in a very low state with the Summer Complaint. With the use of the bowels that scarcely anything but liked passed them. I mentioned her state to you as a neighbor, not thinking that you possessed a sovereign remedy. We gave her one teaspoonful, when the mother declared she was as well as ever, is now in good health, and has not had an attack since. Also, a child of mine, about two years of age, was taken last week with a similar complaint, when about 2 tea-spoonfuls restored her to perfect health. But another case, my son Hiram, about nine years of age, was much afflicted with bowel complaints, his countenance became sallow, with loss of appetite, etc., when but a few teaspoonfuls of your valuable medicine, under God, has regulated his system.
With many obligations, I am dear sir,
YOURS, respectfully,
HIRAM G. SMITH, 90 First-street.
☞ M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.
Aug. 25, 1852.—cm

BERRY'S Castile Refined Powdered Saleratus
Is the purest and best Yeast Powder in the house.
☞ Celebrated Soap Powder.
For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

Machinery Oil,

75 CTS. a gallon, better than Sperm Oil, at a quarter of the price. For Sale by
June 12, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

Going! Now is the time!

SUMMER Stock at cost! Must and shall be sold, to make room for Fall goods. Winter Goods. Call and see before buying elsewhere. J. S. DUNHAM & CO.

POSTSCRIPT.

Died in New York on Saturday the 4th inst. Robert Manning, Esq., in the 72 year of his age.

His remains will be interred in the Evergreen Cemetery of this place, this (Monday) afternoon.

THE INDEPENDENT LEGISLATOR.—Col. Benton in his late speech says:

"I shall be a party man where party principles are concerned, but shall never mistake for principle the trick and intrigue of slang politicians. I shall act with the good men of all parties, when the honor and interest of the country are concerned; and will vote with all those measures which are either above or below party. I shall be opposed to all plunder legislation, to all unnecessary expenditures to all extravagance; and endeavor to return the Government to that economy from which it has so frightfully departed."

This is the language of patriotism, as distinct from partisan slavery, and should be the language of every man into whose charge public interests are committed.

Professor Agassiz offers to the boys in the vicinity of Cambridge 12 1-2 cents each for each egg of a turtle brought with care, covered with moist earth, and carried in such a way as to prevent being shaken or rolled about. They are found, two or three inches under the surface, in plowed fields, near ponds and marshes. The Professor is engaged in studying the growth of turtles and they are forming within the egg. He will take as many as one hundred eggs, at his house, Oxford street, near the College.

WANTED.

A first-rate American girl, to do general housework in a small family, must understand cooking in all its branches, to such a girl first-rate wages will be given. Apply to STEPHEN VAIL.
Sept. 6 1852. Centre, street Plainfield.

ALL WHO ARE LOVERS OF GOOD BREAD

Call at Stewart's Bakery, where they will find a superior article of bread, not equalled in the State, for nice and healthy article, nothing but the purest flour and no composition to injure the most delicate constitution—all for eight cents a loaf. Cake and Crackers equally low and good quality.

Near Messrs. Webster and Marsh.

I hope the public will not forget to patronize this establishment if they don't want to be disappointed.
Sept. 6 1852 ROBERT STUART

Boots and Shoes.—A. D. GALE,

MANUFACTURER and Wholesale Dealer, invites Country Merchants to call and examine his large stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, which he can offer for Cash or short credit for notes. Call and see

A. D GALE 225 Pearl street, corner of Platt.
New York Aug. 30, 1852—3m

ROSE MEDICINES—A Full assortment for sale by Aug 16—tf J. N. DUNHAM & CO.

HOPE'S EXPRESS,

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield,

Leaves Plainfield for New York at 8 1-2, A. M. and 5 1-2 P. M. For Somerville, Easton, &c. 9 1-2 A. M. and 5 1-2, P. M.

Arrives at Plainfield from New York at 9 1-2 A. M. and 6 1-2 P. M. From Easton, &c 8 1-2 a.m 5 1-2 p.m.

All business entrusted to me will be punctually attended to without delay, at moderate charges, for cash.

Notice.—Wm. Lynch,

Late of 518 Pearl-Street, New-York.

Wishes to inform his friends and old customers, that he will open his Wholesale & Retail Grocery Store, at 320 Greenwich street, corner of Duane street, where a new fresh stock of goods, such as Teas, sugars, molasses, coffee, spices, butter, cheese, lard, flour, beef and pork, &c., will be offer cheap for cash. Families boarding house keepers, and bakers, are invited to call and examine his goods and his prices, as they can save a very large percentage, call and see for yourselves.—Country merchants purchasing goods for cash, are particularly requested to call and examine his goods and the prices before purchasing elsewhere. N. B—Goods delivered on board of steamboats, railroads, barges, sloops, and any part of the city, free of charge.
WM. LYNCH, 320 Greenwich-street New York

WILLIAM HOVEY'S PATENT

Spiral Straw Cutter, 1844, improved, 1852.

These Celebrated Machines will be kept constantly for sale by RALPH & CO. at their
AGRICULTURAL WAREHOUSE,
No. 23 Fulton street.

They are the sole agents for the City of New York, and will sell these machines at the following reduced prices at retail, and will allow a liberal discount to dealers in or out of the city, who purchase to sell again:

No. 0, 4 knives, length of knife 5 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inch, $6.00 With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $6.50
No. 1, 4 knives, length 6 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $7.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $7.50
No. 2, 4 knives, length 8 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $8.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $8.50.
No. 3, 4 knives, length 7 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $10.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 10.50.
No. 4, 4 knives, length 9 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $12.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 12.50.
No. 5, 4 knives, length 9 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $16.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 16.50.
No. 6, 4 knives, length 9 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $18.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 20.00.

Nos. 5 and 6 can be used by power.

Examine closely this list and compare the length of the knives with the list prices of other Cylinder Cutters, without regard to the No. marked on the machine, and you will find that these Cutters are less in price than any other Cylinder Cutters in the market. Look well to this, as we are deceptive and desire to mislead and confuse the purchaser. WM HOVEY & LASELL.
RALPH & Co., No. 23 Fulton Street,
Aug. 16—3ms New-York.

Hoover's Black Ink,

THE Best in use. For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

Horse Powers & Threshing

MACHINES, of the most approved Kinds, also FANNING MILL, Corn-Shellers, Straw-Cutters, Grain Smutters, and Grist Mills, together with a General Assortment of Agricultural Implements, for sale at retail by JOHN MOORE, Agricultural Warehouse.
Aug. 9.—1m. 192 Front-street, New York.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!
Just Received, Twenty Tons of
Peruvian Guano,

And For Sale in large or small quantities, at about New York prices, by WM VAIL.
New Market, June 28 1852.—3m*

HOPE'S EXPRESS, TWICE DAILY,

Via N. J. CENTRAL R. R.

Leaves New York at 8 o'clock, A. M and 4 o'clock, P. M.
Leaves Easton at 6 o'clock, A. M and 3 1 2 P. M.

Arrangements have been perfected with the Central Railroad Co. by which we will be enabled to send by Express all articles of Merchandize, Specie, Bank Bills, &c., collect bills, Drafts, and transact all business appertaining to a well regulated Express. Careful, obliging, prompt and trusty Messengers will travel with each through trains leaving as above.

The Proprietor, having already experienced much of public favor and confidence, will now pledge himself to receive a share of the same, and sustain that degree of patronage and favor conferred upon the increased facilities offered, and the heavy expenses incurred.

OFFICE, in New York, No. 74 Broadway. In Easton, No. 66 Northampton st. Agencies at all the places on the route from New York to Easton.

The Express will extend its connections to all the towns and places of Northampton, Lehigh, Monroe, and Luzerne Counties, in Pennsylvania, including Bethlehem, Allentown, Jacobs Creek, Williamsburg, Reading, &c. &c.

A. D. HOPE, Proprietor, 74 Broadway, New York.

Coffee, Spices, Mustard, &c.

WITHINGTON & WILDE,

Nos. 7 and 9 Dutch street, (between Fulton and John streets,) NEW-YORK,

KEEP constantly on hand a large and well assorted stock of COFFEES, green, roasted and ground; CINNAMON, Nutmegs, Cloves, Pepper, Allspice, Ginger, Mustard, Mace &c., &c., whole and ground, all of the best quality, and put up in the best style. Also superior RACE FLOUR and Cocoa, equal to any manufactured.

Having been favorably known in this business for the past twenty years, we are confident that we can give purchasers perfect satisfaction, as to the quality and manufacture of our articles, and our goods being bought mostly for cash, our terms will be found as favorable as those of any House in the Trade.
New York, August 16, 1852—3m

Agricultural Implements and Machinery, Seeds, Fertilizers, &c.

FARMERS, PLANTERS, AND MERCHANTS, WILL find at the AGRICULTURAL WARE- house of A. B. ALLEN and Co.
No. 189 and 191 Water-st. reet, New-York,

The largest assortment in the United States, of tools and machines, suited to every soil. Most of the implements sold by them, are manufactured at their machine shop, under the direct supervision of one of the firm, where the best of seasoned timber only is used, with iron of the first quality.

Of Plows, they sell more than 100 different patterns, among which are double mold board, or flake plows self-sharpening, subsoil, and side hill plows.

PLOW CASTINGS

of various patterns, among which are bail tongue, scoop, cutter, scrapers and shovels, by the ton or retail.

Horse Powers, Cutters, Sweeps, Corn Planters, Hoes, Shovels Spades and Forks, of various patterns in any quantity.

STRAW CUTTERS AND CORN SHELLERS, manufactured with much care.

Sugar Mills, Rice Hullers, Cotton Gins, Threshing Machines for wheat, and oats and rice; Fanning Mills for Wheat and Corn Mills, with Burr Stones or iron Plates.

HORSE POWERS, THRASHERS AND SEPARATORS.—The Endless Chain or Railway Powers of our own manufacture, both single and double-geared, for one and two horses, which have never been equalled for lightness in running, strength, durability, and economy. They are universally approved wherever they have been tried.

2 2. The Railway Power, for 1 to 4 horses, is more compact and wholly of iron, and adapted to all kinds of work.

3. Eddy's Circular wrought iron large Cog Wheels, for 1 to 6 horses, A new and favorite power.

4. Trimble's Iron-sweep Power, for 1 to 4 horses.

THRASHERS.—Improved Thrashers upon the best principles, thrashing clean with great rapidity, and scarce ever breaking the grain.

One-Horse Undershot
Two-Horse Tumbler and Rake,	30 to $35
One-horse Overshot	28
Two-Horse Overshot	33 to $38

Separators, which greatly facilitates cleaning

Fanning Mills, cleaning it for the hearing mill 7 to $10

All the above named machines are guaranteed the best in the United States.

Reaping and Mowing Machines, Sowing Machines, Grain Drills, Seeds and Rakes. Every kind of Horticultural Tools; also, Garden and Field Seeds, Fruit and Ornamental Trees, sent to order.

Agricultural Chemistry supplied. The berry of this grain contains large, and takes the most of flour. It produces a greater average crop than any other variety now grown in New York. Several years experience in the cultivation of wheat in the State of New York, is satisfied than other kinds; and as the stalk is large and strong it is also less liable to blow down or lodge. Price 4 per bushel. Other varieties of wheat, such as the White Flint, Mediterranean, Black Sea &c.

A descriptive pictorial Catalogue of over 100 pages will be given on application from customers, or sent to them by mail, on receiving four 3 cent stamps, to prepay postage, as required by the present post-office law.

N. B. Guano, Peruvian Guano, Bone Dust, &c.
Aug 19, 1852. 3m

The cars will run as follows until further notice,

Leave Pier No. 1 North River, New York, at 8' A. M.: 12 M.; 3.45 and 6. P. M. for Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield for New York, at 6.55 and 8.25, A. M. 1.05 and 5.30, P. M.

Leave Plainfield for Easton, Pa., at 9.40, A. M. 1.55 and 5.30, P. M.; and for Somerville at 7.50, P. M.

Aug. 2, 1852.

WANTED.

$500 Secured by Bond and Mortgage—a safe and profitable investment. Enquire at this office immediately.

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N. J. containing from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on Front, Main, Liberty and Williams sts; also a good sized lot with a Dwelling House built expressly for the accommodation of two families, and is a valuable location, being in the centre of the business part of town, on the corner of Exchange and Second sts, a very short distance from Tinsworth, Dunn & Co's Store
Jan. 19 1852.—tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

CARHART & NEEDHAM,

Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

Wire Recent Important Improvements,

Price from $60 to $200.

Wm. 79 East Thirteenth Street,
J. Carhart, NEW YORK
E. P. Needham.

N. B. Reeds constantly on hand.
Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Thorn's new building in Cherry st., 2nd below Dr. Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the public generally. He will keep on hand a full stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns DeLaines, Silk and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds. A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Colonades, Nankeens, Plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Tarts, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders, Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Tubs, Buckets, Pails, Washing-Machines, Brooms, whisk Shoe Brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Meal, Sweet Wheat Bran, &c.

LIME, Rhode Island and Glens Falls.

All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods.

JAMES M. DUNN.
April 20, 1852.—1y.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the new stand on Somerset-st., next to the Methodist Church on Front-st., near Peck's mill, where they are prepared to sell all articles in their line cheaper and better than the best, including Flour and Feed, also Crockery and Earthen Ware.

Produce of all kinds will be taken in exchange for groceries Thankful for past favors, asks a continuance of the same.

Mrs. Vog's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaint.

JOHNSON & LYON.

N. B. All persons indebted to the subscriber are requested to call and settle without delay.
April 8, 1852.—1y. CHARLES JOHNSON.

AGENTS WANTED TO SELL THE

Life of Gen. Scott,

500 pages 12mo. Handsomely and durably bound. Illustrated by Engravings,

BY EDWARD D. KENDRICK, ESQ., many years Editor of the Cincinnati Daily Chronicle. The Subscriber will shortly receive from the Press, an Edition of the above valuable work, and will furnish those who will act as Agents in the States, Counties, &c., on the most favorable terms. For further particulars and all necessary information, applicants will please address their letters to the subscriber, Box 1,292 Post Office, New York City.

Lyon's Kathairon,

For the Growth and Embellishment of the Hair, to Prevent its falling off and Turning Grey.

Awarded the Highest Premiums by the States of New York, Maryland and Michigan at their annual Fairs of 1852.

THE Kathairon neutralises the effect of disease, climates and old age, in Preserving and Restoring the Human Hair, even after a Baldness of twenty years standing, by causing Scurf and Dandruff, will cure the Nervous Headache, Scald Head, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Skin, &c. and it is the most desirable

TOILET ARTICLE

For Ladies' or Gentlemen's use in the world. Its perfume equals Lubin's choicest Extracts, and being free from all offensive rancid oil or coloring properties, it gives to the hair a fine gloss, bright, soft, lively appearance, secured by no other preparation.

The use of the Kathairon is adopted by the first physicians in Europe and America, and has a patronage and is unprecedented in the history of the human race. But words are superfluous, a trial only can attest its real virtue, as millions certify. To be had throughout North and South America, Europe and the Islands of the Ocean, in large Bottles, for 25 cents.

Sold in Plainfield by
July 19, 1852.—3m* M. F. CUSHING.
E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF Pure Jamaica Ginger.

"Dear Sir,—I speak from a general knowledge of the virtues of Ginger, and particularly of your preparation of Jamaica Ginger, having used it three years in my practice. For Dyspepsia, Cholera, Cholera Infantum, Flatulencies, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, General Weakness, &c. it is unquestionably the best article in the world. Its effect in enabling the system to throw off and resist disease of all kinds at this changing warm weather, makes it invaluable to every family. It's timely use would prevent nine-tenths of the protracted sickness during the summer season.

Yours truly,
R. M. CHILSON, M. D.
138 Bond-Street, New York."

This article, peculiarly adapted to this climate, and which is now being used, can be had in Plainfield of
July 19, 1852.—3m* M. F. CUSHING.
E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

To Salt Dealers, and Others!

SAMUEL HOTALING, No. 101 & 103 Broad street, New York, would inform his customers in this city and country that he has Liverpool Sacks of Fine and Ground Salt; also Turks Island, St. Martin's and other Coarse Salt, in store, at the following low prices: at Commercial Stores, Brooklyn, at Baxter & Lawrence's Stores, foot of Delancy street, at 113 Warren street, and also at Store or Warehouse, No. 101 and 103, Broad street, New York. At each of the above places a supply of salt will be kept on hand, and delivered in lots to suit purchasers, at the lowest Market prices.

Liverpool Sacks and Turks Island Salt affoat.
New York, July 26, 1852.—3m

A Great Reduction in Prices, at THOMAS H. DAVIS'S.

Furnishing Store,

The Largest Stock in the City;

246 Barnet-St., New Brunswick & 150 Broad St. Newark.

IT will be well worthy the notice of those who intend to purchase any kind of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, Crockery, Glass, China, Cutlery, Britannia ware, Looking Glasses, Bureaus, Bedsteads, Rocking Chairs, Tables, Oil Cloths, Feathers, Heather Beds, Matresses, &c. in fact all things that are needed to housekeeping, which to enumerate would fill a newspaper. Though one thing is unfavorable—BOOTS and SHOES, Ladies, Gentlemen and misses, all can be bought at such low prices that every body is astonished, both in town and country now it can be done, as well as if you were here in person. As he intends to business himself, buys for cash and sells for the same, thereby he does not impose upon those that pay for them that never meant to pay. This is the true foundation for business. Give him a call, 220 Burnet street, over Stryker's Eating Saloon.
July 19—3m. THOMAS H. DAVIS.

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment,

AT Less than New York prices, for sale by
July 12, 1852. WM. S. WOOD.

Prepared or Artificial GUANO.

At 1 cent per pound, or $20 per ton of 2000 lbs.

AT a meeting of the Farmer's Club, American Institute, held at the Rooms on the 16th December, 1851, the following communication was made.

I present a specimen of Turnips raised upon my place last season, which was (on account of the dry weather) an unfavorable one for Turnips. The specimen is not the largest grown, although this weighed when first pulled, 4 3-4 lbs., I used in the Spring of 1850, about three barrels of Mexican Guano. On the acre, and planted Sweet Corn, which produced a large crop, and planted with potatoes, which was also a good crop. After which I put in the Turnip seed, without any further manuring, and the above harvested as mentioned, and the result was far beyond my expectations.
Fairfield Co. Dec. 12. 1851. S. WHITING.

POTATO ROT.

Westchester Co. N. Y., Sept. 29, 1850.

I have used "Kentish's Prepared Guano" this season on potatoes. My crop was large and sound. Where I had none, my potatoes were rotten and worthless. My neighbors also who have not used this Fertilizer have not raised a saleable potato this year. I consider it a preventive of Rot! G. PREAUT.

Extract of a Letter from E B. Addison.

Alexandria co. Va. April 25, 1851.

Dr. John H. Bayne, President of Prince George's Co. Agricultural Society Maryland, has desired me to inform you of the spring he used the Peruvian Guano, Poudrette, Peruvian Guano, and your prepared Guano. He pronounces your prepared Guano to be a very excellent article, and esteems it highly. MANUFACTURED ONLY BY

KENTISH & CO,
DEPOT. No. 40 PECK SLIP, NEW YORK.
For Sale at this Office. July 19—3m

TAKE NOTICE.

THAT the Judges of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, in and for the County of Essex and State of New Jersey, at the term of July, A. D. 1852, appoint Tuesday 28th day of September next at 10 o'clock A. M. at the Court House in Newark at the September term to hear what can be alleged for or against my discharge as an Insolvent Debtor, under the Insolvent laws of said State.

JOHN Y. BAINBRIDGE.
Dated Newark, July 10, 1852.

HORACE SEATON,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN LACE GOODS

254 Broad Street, Newark.

Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Tabs. Dress Trimmings, Embroideries, Cotton, Satin, Gloves and Hosiery, Millinery articles, Combs, Brushes, Oils, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Gent's, Ladies and Children's fancy dress Shoes and Gaiters. 6g2 ly.

BARAIGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received and selling off cheap.

Calicoes, fast colors, for 6 cents per yard
May 5, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. If not attended to soon, they will be passed over for collection. As I don't wish to put expense on any one, I give this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON

Plainfield, April 9, 1852

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE, SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER

Continues at the 204 Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Tinsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods in his line. He also

Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to call and wait on, execute all orders in all the branches of the above business, as well, as quick and as cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge for yourselves. May 17, 1852—tf

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at I. B. DUNHAM & CO'S.

Emery & Co.'s Patent Horse Power, Thrasher and Separator.

THE UNDERSIGNED have been appointed agents in the city of New York for the sale of their improved Horse Powers, and Thrashers. Those wishing to procure Emery's Improved Machines, by leaving with us will observe that their name is cast on every link of chain. None other is Genuine.

LONGETT GRIFFING
State Agricultural Warehouse,
July 5, 1852.—3m No. 26 Cliff Street, New-York.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has opened a store for the establishment opposite the store of I. S. Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with a few yards of Silk Velvet Ribbons. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and Wood taken in exchange for Clocks.
Plainfield, April 13, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

Spring & Summer Dry Goods

HITCHCOCK & LEADBEATER, No. 847 Broadway, New-York, have in store one of the finest assortments in the city of

FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS,

suitable for every season of the year, and every climate, and would especially invite attention to their large and elegant stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER DRESS GOODS,

which they have just purchased for cash, for nearly half price, and are enabled to offer at

VERY GREAT BARGAINS!

Their stock includes every variety of Silks, Shawls, De Laines, Barege De Laines, Challies, Printed Muslins and Lawns, Barages, Silk Tissues, Grenadines, Gingham, Linen Lawns, Cambrics, Jaconets, &c.

MOURNING GOODS OF EVERY KIND.

A full and complete assortment always on hand, including Black Bombazines, Alpacas, Challies, Canton Crapes, De Laines, &c., &c., which parties interested will find desirable.

FANCY GOODS OF VARIOUS KINDS.

An Elegant assortment of Embroidered Handkerchiefs, Cravats, Gloves, Collars, Mitts, Trimming Laces, &c., &c.,

A SPLENDID STOCK OF RIBBONS,

bought very low for cash, which the ladies will find desirable and cheap, and which they will find it their interest to examine before completing their purchases.

HOUSEWIFE AND FAMILY GOODS,

as Linens, Table Damasks, Napkins, Towels, Twellings, Crash, Shirtings and Sheetings, Muslins, rich embroidered

LACE AND MUSLIN WINDOW DRAPERIES,

in great variety, and of every quality and price

GENTLEMAN'S FURNISHINGS.

A very large and complete assortment—as Kid, Silk, and Thread Gloves; Silk and Summer Cravats; Silk and Linen Pocket Handkerchiefs; Silk, Cotton, and Merino Undershirts and Drawers; Socks, &c., &c., at prices much lower than the same articles can be found at the

GENTLEMAN'S FURPISHING STORES.

Please call and examine, and if not found desirable and reasonable, you will not be desired to purchase.

Country dealers will find it to their interest to look through our stock, as they can here select any article they wish, in any quantity they desire, and at prices which they will find it an object to purchase at, as the subscribers are determined to sell cheap, and on the best styles, and full 80 per cent. below the ordinary jobbing rates.

Terms invariably Cash—and only One Price.
New York, June 21, 1852.—1y

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in Main street, in Webster & Marsh's store, for the sale of Fancy Goods. Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, &c.—Having purchased her goods at the lowest cash prices, she is prepared to sell Ribbons, Gimps, Gloves, Silks, Laces, Collars, Muslins, Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and everything in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker, she is prepared to execute all the different various branches of Dress Making. Caps and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 5, 1852.—6m.

J. A. WOODLAND,

HOUSE, SIGN AND
DECORATIVE PAINTER,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

The above is prepared to execute all orders in his line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Papering, having [illegible] with punctuality, neatness and despatch, and at prices considerably less than those usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.
March 25, 1852.

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Crockery, Earthen Ware, Hardware, Tinware Ware, also Boots and Shoes, &c. My stock has been selected with great care, and an eye to cheapness, as well as the good qualities of the Goods, and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints,	Ginghams,	Cassimers,
Barege de Lane,	Hosiery,	Summerstuffs,
Tea,	Satinetts &c.	Fustian,	Flour
Coffee,	Brown Sugars,	Sugar,	Smoked Beef
Pepper, Spices,	Cheese,	Hams,	Pork, &c.
Pepper sauce, Hosey, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere for cash, or on time and all I ask and young, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to call the second time.

JOHN F. RANDOLPH.

The subscriber has also on hand a good assortment of Black and changeable silks, which will be sold cheap.
May 4, 1852. J. V. ARROWSMITH.

NOTICE.

Miss C. Prosch,

WOULD hereby informs her many friends and the generous public that she has been extending her suit of rooms on a much larger and improved plan than any other in this city, and is now ready to offer Daguerreotypes second to none. Family Groups, from two to twenty, taken to give satisfaction; also children discharged in a few seconds of time. Portraits of sick and deceased persons taken whenever called upon Also Daguerreotypes copied to perfection.

Rooms in the same building in connection with another establishment, and would respectfully ask her friends to bear in mind that she can always be found at 250 Broad-street, only, where she trusts to meet that patronage so long and liberally bestowed upon her.
June 1.—3m 250 Broad-street, NEWARK.

IRA PRUDEN,

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning-Fluid, &c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual.
June 14, 1852.

E. KIRKPATRICK.

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.
Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

DISSOLUTION.

THE Copartnership heretofore existing between the subscribers under the name of BERRY & RUNYON is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Book are in the hands of S. Berry for collection who is authorized to settle the business of the firm.

ALFRED BERRY,
ABRAHAM RUNYON,
Plainfield, July 17, 1852.

The Stone, Tinning and Hardware Business will be continued, on the cash system, by S. BERRY.

DOCTOR JAYNE'S WONDERFUL REMEDIES.

Prepared from a Well-tried Physician of Philadelphia, Pa., for more than a Quarter of a Century, and sold by SAMUEL M'KIER, Canal Basin, 124 st. Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Petroleum is a natural remedy; it is put up as it flows from the bosom of the earth, without any thing being added to, or taken from it. It goes to the seat of disease, and cures where all other remedies fail. In the worst chronic diseases are resorted to, and tested by physicians, but by the consumable at Rome. Those who suffer Solid Seeing, and from the testimonials of those who have been cured by its use, will be convinced that there is in each compound solution, as to require the skill of chemistry to detect them, hence many prefer to use it, but that they are compounded by persons of the highest nature, in the most perfect manner, and with the greatest care. If Petroleum is a medicine at all, it is a good one, for nature never half does her work, and it is the work of nature, and not of man, that we have in the world's abundant testimony. It will be used when many of the new remedies now in vogue, will have been forgotten forever. It will continue to be used and sought for as a remedy, as long as there is a diseased or afflicted with disease. That it will cure every disease to which we are liable, we do not pretend, but that it will cure a great many diseases, and relieve the afflicted in all cases, even by the evidences in its favor. In the new era in medicine, and will ensure to its health and happiness for years.

The Petroleum is an external and internal remedy; call and get a circular from the agent, which will give a full description of it. Persons wishing the genuine article can be supplied by addressing S. M'Kier, Canal Basin, Pittsburgh, Pa. For sale in Plainfield by
Aug. 24, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

READ! READ!! A Voice from Middlesex County!

NEW BRUNSWICK, Oct. 24, 1851.

MR. S. M. KIER:

Dear Sir—Allow me to certify to the virtues of your great natural Medicine called the Petroleum or Rock Oil, which is a great deodorizer, and a sure cure for Dysentery. I had been afflicted with a severe attack of Diarrhœa, and made use of your Petroleum, which relieved me in a few days, and I recommend it to the afflicted, it is all others. Yours Respectfully, S. JEFFRIES.

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES FACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 25 cents a piece, (using the walls and paste included.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. finished, Gilding and Fresh Gold and Bronze Papers from 25 cents to $4 per piece A Room papered in 4 hours.

J. F. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers, Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852.

$500 CHALLENGE!

WEBSTER conceives the health and happiness of a people is as all kinds of valuable improvements. I take it for granted that every person will do all in their power, to save the lives of their children, and that every person will endeavor to preserve their health at any sacrifice. I feel it to be my duty to solemnly assure you that WORMS, according to the opinion of the most celebrated Physicians, are the primary causes of a large majority of sickness to which the human family are liable; if you have an appetite continually changeable from one kind of food to another, Bad Breath, Pain of the Stomach, Sudden Flushes of Heat over the Face, Paleness of the Belly, Dry Cough, Slow Fever, Pales Irregular—remember that all these denote WORMS, and you should at once apply the remedy

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

This valuable Syrup upon Scientific Principles, compounded with purely vegetable substances being perfectly safe when taken, and can be given to the most tender Infant with decided beneficial effect, where BILIOUSNESS and DERANGEMENT of the Stomach and Bowels exist, and debilitated the Tone properties of the Worm Syrup are such, that it stands without an equal in the catalogue of medicines, every property in the Worm Syrup, which makes it an infallible remedy for those afflicted with Dyspepsia, the astonishing cures performed by this Syrup after Physicians have failed, is the best evidence of its superior efficacy over all others.

THE TAPE WORM!

This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of all that infest the human system, it grows to an almost indefinite length becoming so coiled and fastened in the intestine and Stomach, that it is impossible for it to cause St. Vitus Dance, Fits, &c., that these afflicted seldom if ever suspect that it is Tape Worm destroying them in such a manner, and to remove the Worm, a very energetic treatment must be pursued, it would therefore be proper to take 6 to 8 of my Liver Pills so as to remove all obstructions, that the Worm Syrup may act as directed, and every person will take a table spoonful of 2 Tablespoonfuls 3 times a day, these directions followed have never been known to fail in curing the most obstinate case of Tape Worm.

HOBENSACK'S LIVER PILLS.

No part of the system is more liable to diseases than the LIVER, it serving as a filter to purify the blood, or giving the proper secretion to the bile; so that any wrong action of the Liver must affect the healthy parts of the system, and results various, in Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. We should, therefore, in every complaint that might indicate a disordered action of the Liver. These Pills being composed of ROOTS & PLANTS furnished by nature to heal the sick: Namely, Pot. An EXPECTORANT, which augments the secretion of the BRONCHIAL MEMBRANE or promotes the discharge of secreted matter. 2d. An Alterative which changes in some inexplicable and inscrutable manner the morbid action of the blood and tone. 3rd. A TONIC, which gives tone and strength to the nervous system, renewing health and vigor to all of the body. 4th. A CATHARTIC, which is performed by mixing with the other ingredients, and operating on the Bowels, and expelling the whole mass of corrupt & diviated matter, and purifying the Blood, which destroys diseases and restores HEALTH

TO FEMALES.

You will find these Pills an invaluable medicine in many complaints to which you are subject. In cherished other delicate organization, they will be found of extreme benefit restoring their functional arrangements to a healthy action, purifying the blood and other fluids so effectually to put to flight all complaints which may arise from its impurities, such as Headache, giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in the side back, &c.

None genuine unless signed J. N. Hobensack, all others being base counterfeit.

Agents wishing new supplies, and Store Keepers desirous of becoming Agents must address the Proprietor, J. N. Hobensack, Philadelphia, Pa.

J. N. Hobensack, Philadelphia, Pa.

Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. CUSHING,
And at Retail by ELIAS KIRKPATRICK,
C. Drake, Scotch Plains, Charles Foster, Westfield.
August 28, 1852.—3m.

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John B. Brown's Wagon Shop and opened Scotch's Mill, would inform the public and especially of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms.
Plainfield, April 26, 1852—3m. THOMAS WORTH.

LAW CIRCULAR.

WORTHINGTON G. SNETHEN,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Continues to practice Law exclusively in the Supreme Court, and to attend to cases before the Departments.

To procure Patents for Inventions at home and abroad, and to obtain Pensions and Bounty Land.

To collect Debts, Dividends, Legacies, and Remittances in any part of the United States and in Foreign Countries.

To make Investments of funds on Loans and Stocks and as Bond and Mortgage, and to negotiate the purchase and sale of Loans, Land and Patent Rights in any State of the Union.

DOCTOR JAYNE'S Medicines, viz:
Jayne's Vegetable Sanative Pills, Also,
Jayne's Vegetable Expectorant, or Balsam of Horehound and Syrup of Tolu.
These Medicines are a certain cure for Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pain in the Stomach or Bowels, Affection of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Infantum, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Headache, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Female Complaints, Sore Throat, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by
Agt. 26, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

1852.

SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

W would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have just received and still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not praise up our Goods with a view of trying to make the people believe them to be what they are not, but will simply say that we have them for ourselves. Delaines from 10cts to 25; handsome dress goods, new styles from 18c to 37; plain and figured Alpaca Lustres from 18c to 37; plain and fancy Silks from 75c to $1 25; a good lot of Ladies Cloaks from 50 cts to $15; also Gents Gloves, Bleached and Brown Muslins of very cheap, Gingham from 8cts to 25, and some thousand other articles that we cannot now name to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloths and fancy Cassimeres, a first rate assortment of Vestings—any shade of which can be cut and made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Goods furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods found in

Plainest and Cheapest

To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it an object to the Cash and Short Time Buyer to call and buy, as the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we are resolved in the Dry Goods trade and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

SILKS! SILKS!! SILKS!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also Canton Plaids new Spring Styles, to which the attention of Ladies is particularly requested at ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

May 24, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

R. R. R.

Science, by subjecting the laws of Chemistry to the skill of man, has contributed to his health and happiness by the discovery of Medicines, for the healing of pain in an instant, and curing the most obstinate

CHRONIC COMPLAINTS

IN A FEW HOURS

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,

Internally and Externally instantly stops Pain, and speedily cures its cause.

It is warranted to give relief to the following pains in a few minutes.

Rheumatism,	Colic,	Cramps and Spasms,
Lumbago,	Paralysis,	Summer Complaints,
Pile Ague,	Neuralgia,	Sprains & Bogus,
Tic Doloreux,	Dysentery,	Pain in the Limbs,
Chill Fever,	Diarrhœa,	Sick Head-ache,
Ague Cake,	Cholera Morbus,	Nervousness,
Sore Throat,	Colds, &c.

PAIN

Is the warning given of the presence of disease and of the derangement and perturbation of the nervous and circulating system. In order to cure disease and rid the system entirely of its cause, our first great desideratum is to stop the pain—strengthen the nervous energy—invigorate the whole system, and restore it to that healthy state of energy organ in the system; this we accomplish by the marvellous

Strengthening, cleansing, invigorating, and powerful pain stopping properties of

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

No matter what the cause of the pain may be—if it arises from nervous prostration, muscular debility, disarrangement of the liver or secretions of the skin, whether it be hysterics, sick or nervous headache, neuralgia, nervous irritability, spasmodic affections, cramps, diarrhœa, bowel complaint, chills and fever whether it originates from internal derangements or external injuries—Radway's Ready Relief taken internally and applied externally, will speedily and effectually stop the pain and cure its cause.

RHEUMATISM.—100,000 persons cured in 1850 The most excruciating pain stopped in two hours.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the quickest, safest, and most effectual remedy for the cure of Rheumatism in all its forms now in use; we state only what we know. It will stop the most torturing pains of this distressing complaint in a few minutes. We have never known it fail in giving instant relief. In every city, village and town of America it has cured some of the people of this complaint. In every part of the world it warrant it to do as stated—it will instantly relieve the sufferer from pain and speedily cure its cause.

SICK AND NERVOUS HEADACHE

100,000 cases cured in 1850.—It will give instant relief. Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief taken according to directions, will speedily and effectually cure this complaint. Taken internally and applied externally it refreshes the senses, clears the head, stops all irritation in the nerves, veins fibres and secretions of the head and brain, and relieves the sufferer from pain in 15 minutes. It is now saving hundreds daily of the sick and nervous headache

NEURALGIA.—100,000 Neuralgia cases cured in 1850.—It will stop the most violent Neuralgia in fifteen minutes.

The cruel and excruciating pangs of this distressing complaint are usually arrested by Radway's Ready Relief. The happy and invigorating effects it produces on the nerves of the system, rendering it a specific to prove, quickly restores the nervous energy and cures the disease. It is the only remedy that has effectually cured Neuralgia in the worst forms.

MALARIA.—200,000 persons cured in 1850.—Pains stopped in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief cured more cases of cholera morbus, dysentery, cholic and all bowel complaints the past year than any other remedy in use. On the banks of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri and Illinois rivers, in New Orleans, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukie, Galena, and other places where the diarrhœa, cholera and dysentery rage fatally, Radway's Ready Relief was used with the best success. It will in 15 minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms, impart a genial heat throughout the whole system, allay all irritation and pain in painful discharges and relieve the patient from all pain.

CRAMPS AND SPASMS.

A teaspoonful of Radway's Ready Relief, taken internally, and by rubbing it externally, will in a few minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms. In many cases where the extremities have lost all feeling, where they were in a state of numbness, distorted and shrunk, rubbing Radway's Ready Relief has in a few brought life and action, and a quick and healthy circulation of blood.

SWELLED JOINTS.

If you have pain in the bones, swelled joints, weakness of the back, if you have a sprained limb, swelled leg, bruised arm, sore head, or if you have a scrofulous sore, self, Radway's Ready Relief will take out the fire, remove the pain and swelling, give energy and strength to the weak parts, and restore the diseased to health.

Jumping Toothache cured in one second.

All aches and pains—back ache, toothache, face ache, ear ache, stomache, pain in the limbs, the muscles, the bones, the feet, the joints, head and arms, Radway's Ready Relief will instantly cure.

PAINFUL ITCHINGS

And all cutaneous eruptions are relieved from all irritation by bathing the parts with Ready Relief.

* * * * *

By bathing externally the cords of the neck and spine it will strengthen the spine. We have known many cases of posterior and anterior curvature of the spine to be entirely cured, and the disfigurement and pain in his proper shape by the use of Radway's Ready Relief.

CHILLS FEVER

One teaspoonful of Radway's ready relief taken on the first symptoms of chills, and rubbed on the head, neck and shoulders, if there is any pain experienced, and it will entirely prevent chill Fever.

Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Flatulency, Bad Breath, Sick Headache, Nervousness and all kinds of Radway's ready relief taken internally. It is a delicious cordial, imparting strength to every organ and function of the body, and health and happiness to the mind.

CAUTION TO DRUGGISTS!

Purchase Radway's ready relief only of the authorized agent, whose name is given below. Our travelling agents have no power of attorney signed by us; before purchasing of them see that it bears a bottle.

RADWAY & CO., 162 Fulton st. N. Y.

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

May 24, 1852.—1y.

12 South Down sheep

AND FOUR LAMBS, For Sale by the Subscriber, on his Farm, near Plainfield.

June 21, 1852. EDWARD ROACH.

LIGHTNING RODS!

A. M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 182 East Twenty-Seventh Street, New York, continues to manufacture and affix to buildings their improved Lightning Rods which have now been in use fourteen years, without a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. Mr. A. M. Quimby has made electricity the study of his life, and his rods are the very best that can be made. The method in which he has formed and adopted as the result of his experience. An adherence to these rules he has found to be the only reliable mode of protection, and in many cases he has failed where they were not strictly followed.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and exposed as regards lightning, and require a different arrangement of the rods, to suit each particular case of the same, which is the reason why so many of the common round rods have failed horrifoore; being put up by persons ignorant of the laws by which electricity is governed, that the rods are arranged so as to follow in such a manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Quimby's rods have been placed on the houses of Mr. D. Rockwell, C. Bolee, Esq, Mr. M. Stelle, and others in Plainfield and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church and others in New York, church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the Store of this paper.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—6m

MARBLE & STONE YARD

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to execute

HEAD STONES, MONUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful

A FREE STONE QUARRY,

from which I will furnish to order every variety of stone for building purposes, ornamental work, &c. All stone for building purposes, ornamental work, &c. All of which will be executed with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.—1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, Elizabethtown, (a short distance from the depot,) would invite his former friends, and all who are in want of a good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call.

His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay. JOHN EMERY.

April 26, 1852. d1.y.

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by Mr. Wm. Cook, on Somerset street, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

Also PAPER-HANGING, all of which will be promptly, neatly and punctually executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned hereby returns thanks to his customers for their liberal patronage the past year, and will endeavor by faithfulness to merit and secure a continuance of their favors.

☞ Office may be left at the Union Office.

April 1, 1852.—y CHARLES TAYLOR.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE,
PHYSICIANS,

NO. 196 WEST FIFTEENTH STREET, NEW-YORK,

Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

MRS. MOTTS

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THESE ladies continue to treat with unparalleled success all DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, particularly those arising from or attended upon debility, Scrofula, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous diseases, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say, that they have repeatedly effected permanent cures in cases of long standing, after their having been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTTS CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on this subject, by addressing the Physicians, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. Jan6 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAILROAD, WAREHOUSE,

Hay, Floor and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is warranted, and warranted not liable to get out of order.

Manufactory 39 Greene street, New York,

Also, For Sale at 83 Fulton street,

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

S. S. BETHELL, REVDAS, J. SEDDON & SON

Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

HOWS IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

IN MEN

Rheumatism, Sprains, Weakness in the Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Sores, Back, Breast, Sore Throat, Frosted Feet, Limb & Joint.

IN HORSES

Bruises, Sprains, Ringbone, Poll Evil, and all Warbles, Splints, Spavin, Fistula, diseases of Horses. Curb, Scratches, Thoroughpin, where an Embrocation can be used.

Windgall, Prepared only by

BENRY K. HOW, CHEMIST,

No. 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, having used How's improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Bergen, Hon. Peter Sharkman Campbell, Baxter McCherry, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel R. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton Joseph Bergen, Capt. Daniel Vanarsdale, Capt. A. W. Bergen, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG in Somerville by Culver Barcalow. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of May, will remove his store to No. 16 Maiden-Lane, to the store formerly occupied by him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him:—James Henning & Son's celebrated Needles—Richards' Grooved Needles and other Needles.—Pearl Buttons, Comber Bone and Gold Pens, Spool and Ball Cotton, Stay Binding, Tape, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c. CHARLES RICHARDS,

Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods,

April 26, 1852.—3m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Squars and Cane Seat Rockers, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, and Children's Chairs; also

Wash and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel do.

March 22, 1852. For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

1852. CHEAPER YET!

At Oliver Runyon's Cheap Dry Goods and GROCERY STORE.

Gentlemen and Ladies please call and examine my stock of Goods for yourselves. I would say to my friends and customers that my stock is constantly changing, as I replace with new goods adapted to suit the different seasons of the year.

Handsome Barege DeLaines from 1s. to 6s., per yard. Lawn from 5c to 22c. Black Alpaca Lustre 2 to 7s. yd Prints any variety from 4c to 1s. Brown Cotton from 1s.6d to 2s.6d.; Bleached do. do. from 25 to 50c. Bleached muslin from 6c to 1s.6d. Cambric, Jaconet, Book and Swiss muslin, plain and figured. Bishop Lawn 2s to 4s. Shawls, and shawl goods for sale from 50c to $5. Needles to 75c. Black Betix Veils, Crape and Bombazine for search, Summer cords of every style and quality, Cloth, Cassimere, Satinet, Kentucky jeans, Linsey, Flannels of every description, Edging & Lace buttons, Hosiery of all kinds, also a good assortment of Leghorn and Straw Hats from 1s. to 7s. each.

GROCERIES

A good article of Green and Black Tea from 4s to 8s. per lb. Molassses 2s to 3s. Brown sugar 3s.6d. to 4s.6d. Coffee crushed 4s.6d. to 5s. Crushed and pounded sugars, Raisins 8c to 1s. Coffee, Rice, Vinegar, Isonmongery, and every thing in the Grocery line.

CROCKERY and GLASS WARE, a Good Assortment constantly on hand. Please call and examine for yourselves.

PROVISIONS.—Salt Pork, Shoulders, Hams, Dried beef, lard, butter, cheese, fish by half barrels, fine salt by the sack, coarse salt, &c.

BOOTS and SHOES, for men and boys, Ladies' gaiters, buskins, slippers, morocco, patent leather and cloth Buskins, at low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Linseed oil, boiled oil, lamp oils, Furniture and coach varnish, Japan, yellow ochre, Venetian red, chrome yellow, red lead; Paris green, lamp black, litharge, brown japan, fire-proof Paint, putty, glass, &c. &c.

FLOUR, fine and coarse, Meal, ground feed, wheat bran, and middlings constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village.

N. B. All kinds of produce, rags, and in fact every thing you can get, drink or wear taken in exchange for goods. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, July 26, 1852

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

FRAZEE MARSH returns thanks to his numerous patrons for their liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many friends he has enlarged his stock of Paints and will keep a full assortment of Varnishes, Glass, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., &c., as cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to House, Sign and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and dispatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES.

Mixed Paints constantly on hand. Advice gratis.

Jan. 5, 1852. F. MARSH & SON.

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS.

DANIEL BULLMAN,

Is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment,

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Spring Patterns; Domestics of every grade and price; Silks, plain and figured; Ginghams, Alpacas, &c, suitable to the season; Linens, White Goods of all kinds, Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Hosiery, Gloves and all other articles in the dry goods line, necessary to make it varied, full and complete an assortment as can be found in the country, which will be sold as cheap too. Try me and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing these articles, will find my store just the place. I buy good articles, and sell them low. Those in want of anything in my line cannot help being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY.

Some very beautiful, and some very cheap; a large and varied assortment, to suit all tastes, constantly on hand. Also, Lamps, in great variety.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell the same goods as cheap, and save you freight, Commission and Cartage. Parlor Suits, Bureaus, Looking-Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

VARIETIES AND FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it, very likely. A large portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited.

D. BULLMAN.

April 26, 1852.

AFFLICTED READ!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. KINKELIN,

N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice in this city have rendered Dr. K. one of the most expert and successful practitioner far and near in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with diseases which the body, from a hereditary taint in the head or bones, mercurial rheumatism, stubborn diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled are all treated with success.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidence as a physician. Charges moderate.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are highly fatal, even to destroy soundness of mind and body, should apply immediately. Weakness and constitutional debility, loss of muscular energy, physical incapacity, nervous affections, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, and every disease connected in any way with the disorder of the procreative functions cured, and full vigor restored.

READ!—YOUTH AND MANHOOD!

A Vigorous Life, or a Premature Death.

Kinkelin's Book of Self Preservation! Only 25 Cents

This Book is filled with useful information on the infirmities and diseases of the Generative Organs. It addresses itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by all. The valuable advice it imparts, otherwise warning it gives will prevent years of misery and suffering and save annually thousands of lives. Parents by reading it will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

A remittance of 25 cents, enclosed in a letter addressed to Dr. Kinkelin, N.W. corner of 3d and Union streets, Philadelphia, will secure a book, under envelope, per return of mail. Persons at a distance may address Dr. K. by letter, post-paid, and be cured at home. Packages of Medicines, Directions, &c. forwarded by sending a remittance, and put up secure from damage or curiosity.

Book-sellers, News Agents, Pedlars, canvassers, and all others supplied with the above book at very low rates.

Sept. 2, 1851—1y

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at H. GLENN & Co's Manufactory, 194 Fourth street (west of Broadway.) A General Assortment of Square and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

H. GLENN & CO., 194 Fourth-street,

Oct. 7, 1851.—1y NEW YORK.

PAINTS, &c.

AMERICAN PATENT ATOMIC DRIER, Grubbing COLORS—And Green Paste, Gold Size, Zinc Dryer, Stove Polish, and Black Varnish for Iron Work.

QUARTERMAN & SON,

Painters & Chemists,

114 John-Street, New York.

March 9, 1852.—1y.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any thing we can eat, or do anything with, taken in exchange for goods. J. S. DUNHAM & CO.

BREWSTER'S CHOLERA MIXTURE.

FOR THE

CURE OF CHOLERA MORBUS, DIARRHŒA, BOWEL COMPLAINTS,

Cholic, Griping Pains, or Sick Stomach and ASIATIC CHOLERA;

This mixture is not a new remedy that has just sprung up from some newspaper puffs and offered to the public during the excitement of Cholera times, but was prepared years ago, and has been used by physicians in their families and others as a standard medicine, and has been successfully tested in numerous violent cases of Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, Cholic, &c., and will not fail to relieve in one case in 1000 if administered according to directions, on the first attack.

It is just what every family, vessel, steamboat, barge, and Railroad Institute, should have on hand to guard against sudden attack, as the Cholera Morbus is most likely to attack its subjects in the night, the sooner the remedy is applied the better. Asiatic Cholera, in most cases preceded by Diarrhœa and griping Pains in the bowels, and doubtless, one great reason why so many PERSONS DIE OF CHOLERA is, the want of proper remedies administered in the first stage of the disease, or delay in procuring a physician before the patient is past cure.

Reference can be given to hundreds of the most respectable persons, as well as to physicians who have used it, and witnessed its effects in curing the most violent cases of Cholera Morbus and Diarrhœa.

Prepared only by Brewster & Co., Druggists.

Certificate from Rev. B. B. Hotchkin, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Fairfield, N. J.

Mr. F. G. BREWSTER:

Dear Sir—I have found in your Cholera Mixture a very valuable medicine in all attacks of Diarrhœa, which have been experienced either by myself or family for more than two years past. I believe it has never failed to cure me, and in the case of my wife, a few measure escaped the usual unpleasant after effects of Anodynes.

I have found it especially useful when alone. The change of diet and water for a few days or more, is almost sure to affect me injuriously, and the dose of your Cholera Mixture has proved of the greatest service on such occasions. It was when abroad and in need of relief from painful Diarrhœa that I first became acquainted with it, and I have since very seldom suffered myself to be found abroad without it.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

B. B. HOTCHKIN.

Cedarville, N. J., July 25, 1849.

Prepared only by F. G. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Bridgeton, N. J., and for sale together with Brewster's Sarsaparilla Mixture, and his Embrocation, by Dr. L. CRAIG, Druggist, agent for Plainfield; C. W. Badger, Newark; Dr. D. C. English, New Brunswick, and by others throughout the State.

July 12, 1852.—2m

DR. HALSEY'S FOREST WINE.

The discovery of the FOREST WINE is the greatest blessing of the age. Put up in Quart Bottles, a staple article of use, and becomes more good, cheap and popular the cure of Disease, than ten bottles of any Sarsaparilla in use, and warranted to cure without any mercurial or injurious ingredient.

The method by which all Sarsaparillas, and other similar medicines are prepared, is by boiling the Roots or Plants to obtain the extracts. Their medicinal virtues are thus principally evaporated and destroyed.

It is in this way that Sarsaparilla and even twenty bottles of those Sarsaparillas are sometimes taken without any perceptible benefit. Not so with the Forest Wine! By the invention of a wonderful chemical apparatus, the Doctor is introduced to perfect wine making; retaining, at the same time, all the primitive healing properties of the rare medicinal plants of which it is composed. The Forest Wine is the most powerful efficient medicine the world ever produced, at the same time the most agreeable.

GENERAL DEBILITY, EMACIATION, WASTING OF THE BODY, &c.

Many persons are afflicted with some one of the above complaints, without being able to trace it to any particular cause, and therefore delay the use of the proper remedy until the disease becomes constitutional. These disorders usually manifest themselves by a sense of sinking or entire exhaustion after exercise. Some experience sluggishness, lassitude, and, at times, paleness or flushing of the countenance, or palpitation of the heart, on the slightest exertion.

The excellent effects which have ever attended the use of the Forest Wine and Pills, in every species of debility, is proof positive that they are the best remedy in this class of disorders. Many have resorted to these as a last resource as an ultimatum, and been speedily cured. For Nervous Affections the Forest Wine and Pills are to be taken according to the directions on the label.

AGUE AND FEVER, OR CHILLS

Are caused by the miasmatic effluvia arising from marshes, decayed vegetations, and low damp situations. In Fever and Ague this poison is taken into the system by foreign remedy. When they have been taken agreeably to the directions, we have never known them to fail in effecting a complete cure. In the first place take a large dose of the Pills in the form of a cathartic, and thoroughly subside before the return chill. The stomach being now well cleansed, take three or four large doses of the Wine, so that you will be sick at the heart, commencing about two hours before the period for the chill to return. This breaks the ague, after which the Wine should be continued, [and] doses to restore strength. See full directions around the bottle.

DR. HALSEY'S

GUM-COATED FOREST PILLS

Are an important adjunct to the Forest wine. They are coated with pure gum arabic, an invention for which Doctor Halsey has received the only patent ever granted to Pills. They are tasteless, and will not disolve in the mouth.

The Forest Wine and gum coated Forest Pills unite in accomplishing the same great end; the Purification of the Blood, the Secretions of the Stomach and Bowels.

The Forest Wine and Pills are recommended as an efficient and certain cure in the following complaints:—Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Dropsy, Complaints of the Kidneys, Incipient Consumption, Decline of general Health, and Female Weakness, for which it is a Sovereign Remedy; Languidness, Night Sweats, Nervous Disorders, Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, and want of Nervous Energy, Ague and Fever, which it never fails to cure; Scrofula, Erysipelas, Jaundice, Unhealthy Color of the Skin, Weakly and Impaired State of the Constitution.

Dr. Halsey's Office, No. 208 Broadway, New York

The Forest Wine is for sale by all persons holding agencies, at $1 per bottle or six bottles for $5. Gum coated Forest Pills 25 cents per box. For sale by M. F. CUSHING, and DR. L. CRAIG, appointed Agents for Plainfield.

June 5, 1851. 1ya

MECHANICS, MANFAUCTURERS AND INVENTORS.

THE EIGHTH VOLUME of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN commences on the 18th of September. It is principally devoted to the diffusion of useful practical knowledge, and the encouragement of the Inventive Genius of the country. Mechanical, Manufacturing, and Agricultural—the genius and master-spirit of the nation.

The Scientific American is a Journal of the Arts and Sciences, and maintains a high character for its literary merit.

The Publishers pledge themselves that the future Volumes shall at least equal, if not surpass their predecessors. They will, as heretofore, Publish from week to week, and discussed in its columns, are, Civil Engineering, Architecture, Railroads Bridges, Agricultural Implements, Manufactures of Metals, Fibrous and textile substances, Machinery for the Manufacture of Cotton, Woollen, Printing, Coloring, &c. Steam and Gas Engines, Boilers and Furnaces, Mathematical, Philosophical and Optical Instruments, Chemistry, Natural Philosophy, Wind and Grinding Mills' Powers, Planing Machines, Tools for Lumber, Brick Machines, Farming, Fire Arms, Electricity, Telegraphs, Surgical Instruments, &c., besides Reports of the Patents, Records of American and Foreign Inventions, American and Foreign. The work is information for binding, contains several hundred Engravings, and is published in beautiful pages of printed matter, and a copious Index. Nearly all the valuable patents which issue weekly from the Patent Office are illustrated with Engravings in its columns, thus making the paper a perfect Mechanical encyclopedia for future as well as present reference.

Valuable Premiums are offered for the Largest List of Subscribers, which for Volume 8 is published weekly, by MUNN & CO., at their Patent Agency, 128 Fulton St. New York.

TERMS! Always in Advance.

1 Copy, one year,	$2	7 Copies, six months,	$7
10 copies, "	15	8 copies, "	8
15 "	22	10 "	10
20 "	28

Southern and Western Money and Post Office stamps taken for subscription. Letters must be post-paid.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by

May 4, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned to replenish an increasing demand for Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing the healing properties, which is adapted to a larger class of complaints, in the shape of so many pain killers, that every one has ever used.

Coughs and Colds, we doubt if it has an equal; it is very good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Rheumatism, Head Ache and Sore Throat, Ague and Fever, Ague and Fever; as a Cholera prevention or remedy, it is a most wonderful. No one can appreciate the worth of this excellent medicine, till they have tried it. We have used it with great success, and the most delicate family can adapt it to those that are or may be afflicted, as a safe and harmless remedy, and is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge, Brooklyn, John Comstock, Bellvale " H. T. Hopkins, Newark, John Rickbeck, Englewood " Prof. Whiting, Wisebarph, Steamboat "Warren," Hon. G. L. Marsh, Mount Kisko, Lieutenant Governor S. Sprague, Ex-Mayor, " Jonlan Wesley, L. Branch, Alderman S. L. Bustol " David B. Seltzer, Boonton H. C. Cushing, Ex-P. M. " Aaron Kingsland, Br klyn, J. Dorland, Steam boat master " Jacob Vreeland, New York, David Travis, Somerstown, Jane McCollick, W. Market A. Wise, Bulkhead hotel, Justice D. Hissen, " Peter Blauvelt, T. F. Parker, " Joseph Chedick, W. Market, Rainer S. Valdran, "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above certificate. Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.

FRANCIS B. CUTTING,

Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 194 Walker Street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING.

Jan. 2, 1852

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Heart Corrector,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-dyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Asthma Pills
Nervine,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specifics

Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil,

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Throat-ism, Female Complaints, Piles, &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Plated Steel Spring Shoulder Brace.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to an old age.

This Book—bound in boards—is for every family. To the consumptive it points out the only REASONABLE hope for relief. To mothers and children it gives the best care and education of children are invaluable. 75,000 copies of this Book have passed through the press, and the sale continues unabated.

For Sale by S. S. FITCH & CO., 767 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

DR. DE LANEY'S CELEBRATED

Curative Instrument,

The only infallible cure for that dreadful disease known as SPERMATORRHŒA or Involuntary Nocturnal Discharge.

So harassing and destructive, and productive of, so much mischief to the nervous system, incapacitating for business, and society, and rendering life a burden.

This Instrument is simple, comprehensive, and never-failing; and may be used without the slightest inconvenience or the knowledge of the most intimate friend. It is to be used externally, by pressing the part slightly whenever, nor preventing any one from attending to his business; & while in use not a single emission can take place, in whatever position the body may be placed, to such an extent that they SHALL PRIVATE PRIMITIVE POWER OR ANY KIND, the loss of which, caused by early abuse, is the direct cause of Impotency, Nervousness, and the consequent complaint viz.: Nervousness, Pain, Procrastination, Dyspepsia, Pain in the Head and Dimness of Vision, Weakness of the Back and Lower Extremities, Affections of the Kidneys, Incapacity for Study, Loss of Memory, Decline of Virility, Weakness of Memory and Power for Mental Application, Dejection, Aversion to Society, Timidity, Self-Mistrust, Confusion of Ideas, &c. All these complaints invariably disappear as soon as the emission is stopped from which they emanated.

This Instrument has been examined and approved of by the highest authorities in Europe and America, is recommended by the most eminent Physicians of all countries, as the only certian remedy existing for those complaints, and has now completely superseded the different Trusses, Elastic Stockings, Bandages, &c., and even the thousand advertised nostrums of the day, as cordials, antidotes, &c. &c. It constitutes at the same time the safest, the surest, the cheapest and by far the cheapest treatment ever offered to the afflicted; a full trial is allowed for the Instrument after the desired effect has been attained.

Be it also remembered, that those complaints are but little understood by the profession in general, and that all the medicine in the world never has, and never will, stop those losses, which, if allowed to continue unchecked, are sure to produce the most distressing consequences.

It has been a matter of surprise to some, that any one of respectability should be capable of publicly and privately devote his attention to diseases which people of every description pretend to cure so easily. If however, but a few years since, the public generally were aware in what way society were known, a very different opinion would be formed. And it is not only the present misery and dejection, proving on the mind as well as the body, that is deplored, but more awful consequences are to affect posterity, and even to destroy the reproductive faculty, altogether. It is a fact that, when not properly secured, the penalty remains no discount in the constitution or to appear in no other way than in the debility of that property; yet, if properly understood, are most easily and speedily removed. The above, so ingeniously contrived instrument will doubtless be the means of the much to shock the evils of quackery, so prevalent in this class of diseases, throughout the Union.

The price of the complete instrument, carefully secured against all observation in a box, is only $5. It can be sent, by express, to any address in any part of the United States, Canada, &c., according to order, accompanied by full directions, and important advice to the married and single of both sexes, and also to the remotest parts of the country, being very trifling.

The unexampled success this Instrument has obtained since its introduction in America, has induced some unprincipled persons in New York, Philadelphia, Albany, Boston, &c. to get up some ridiculous things called "instruments," which, however, bear not the slightest resemblance, in form or principle, to the one so long invented, long tried, and universally approved Instrument, and which are as similar to them as night is to light. Every attempt to sell such Instruments for mine will be punished to the utmost rigor of the law. I am not willing to connect the well and honorably earned reputation of my inventions with quacks and their nostrums, and therefore this Instrument is genuine and none can be warranted but those procured from myself.

All applications and remittances must be directed (post paid) to the Doctor himself, he having no Agencies established in any part of the United States.

Address, post paid, Dr. De Laney, 51 Lispenard St., New York. Office hours, daily, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. and from 7 to 8, P. M. the Sabbath excepted.

* * The undersigned certify, with great pleasure, that the above Instrument has undergone a thorough examination on scientific principles, but that from its use the happiest results may always, with confidence, be anticipated, there being in the cure of those diseases, NO OTHER CERTAIN REMEDY EXISTING.

HENRY S. KELLER, M. D.

CH. GOETZE, M. D. 99 Chambers street.

C. BECKARDT, M. D. 24 Howard St. NEW YORK

D. DE LANEY is prepared to execute all under the surgical appendages, such as Artificial Arms and Legs, which move like natural members; Apparatus for Luxation; for contracted Legs; for curvature of the Spine and Waist; for Bow-Legs and Knock-Knees; for Paralysis or Loss of the Arms and Legs; for Paralytic Legs; for Club Foot; for Enlarged Testicles; for falling of the Rectum; Hypogastric Belts; Belts and Chairs for Sick Persons; Crutches, Trusses, &c. Orthopedic Boots and Shoes, &c. &c. Persons at a distance must be post paid, enclosing a proper remittance or city reference.

July 10, 1851. 1ya

Blanks for sale at this Office.

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 37. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, September 14, 1852. Whole Number 817.

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 814 Broad-street, Washington Hall Buildings,

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical, lepine, verge and detached lever Watches: curb, polished and Swiss Guard Chains: fob and vest Chains of all patterns: silver, shell and pearl eye Spectacles: gold and silver enamelled, engraved and plain Pencils: Ladies' single stone, cluster, and mosaic, cameo, carnelian, jet, enamelled, mourning and plain Brooches: Gents' cluster, single stone, enamelled and plain Studs: Finger Rings of all patterns: Ladies' plain gold, chain and hair Bracelets: Bracelet Snaps of all kinds: Ear Rings of the latest styles: Gents' diamond, ruby, emerald, hyacinth, and all styles of Breast Pins: gold lockets and Miniature Cases: Gold Pens: Hearts and Crosses: gold Fob and Guard Keys: gold and silver thimbles: silver Spoons and Butter Knives: gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Rosewat Holders, tablets, hair pins, scissors, knives, tea bells, purses, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, rosewood bar clasps and slides, chess men and boxes, checquer boards, tapestry canvas, backgammon boards, letter folders, seals, pearl studs, twin buttons, watch stands, bugle rings, sewing reels, pen holders, microscopes, razors and razor strops, fancy work boxes, china segar cases and tobacco pipes, a large assortment of all kinds, tobacco and snuff boxes: tooth, hair, hat, nail, clothes and comb Brushes: silk guard chains: pocket books, a large assortment: dressing cases: Port Monnaies: combs, scissors and pocket knife cases: Persian scent bags, smelling bottles, daguerreotype cases, medal and bracelet cases: steel, silk and gilt fob chains: shaving brushes, shaving boxes, &c.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

Piano Fortes from the best makers, Violins, Clarionetts, Flutes, Flageolets, Bass Violins, Drums, Metronomes, Violin Bows, Accordeons, tuning forks: Violin, Violoncello and Guitar Strings: Trimmings for all Instruments: a large assortment of songs, duetts, quartettes, trios and glees, comprising all the latest publications: also Instrumental Music, namely, waltzes, quick steps, marches, rondos, duetts for four hands, and sacred songs: Guitar music, instruction books for Piano Fortes, flute, fife, clarionet, accordeon, clarionet, flageolet, &c. &c. Music as cheap as can be bought in New York: with a variety of other goods not enumerated in this catalogue, comprising the largest assortment in Newark.

WATCH REPAIRING AND CLEANING.

The subscriber, determined to give full satisfaction to those that employ him, has engaged a very superior workman from Switzerland, where he has been engaged for several years in manufacturing all kinds of watches, and is well skilled in repairing and cleaning watches, as testimonials from some of the First watch makers of the city of New York will testify.

Jewelry made to order. Old gold and silver taken in exchange. 28-y

Wholesale and Retail

Wine and Liquor Store.

29 Fair Street, Newark, N. J.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has constantly on hand at the above old established stand, a full and choice supply of FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC, which he offers at the lowest cash prices, and will deliver to order in any part of the city or country. Brandy of every grade. Meder's Swan Gin, Irish, Scotch and Monongahela Whiskey, St. Croix and Jamaica Rum, Port, Sanderia, Malaga, and Champagne Wines, Lorey's Bitters, &c.

Philadelphia Bottled Porter and Pale Ale of the first quality; also, a very choice article of Bottled Cider (almost equal to Champagne) always on hand.

☞ A continuance of patronage is solicited.

June 1st, 1852.—3m LOUIS L. BELAND.

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quality desired.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued: and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome and serviceable a Hat at their store as in New York or Philadelphia, and half a dollar each cheaper.

N. B. Moleskin or Silk Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 23, 1851.—1y

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the present law, by coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere: thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a large and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and prices which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of tailor's trimmings at a low price—also constantly for sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Friends will you favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves?

Cutting, trimming, and making done on the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Plainfield, Dec. 1.

Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

IN HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted in the city and country trade, all of which are made at our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction. Purchasers who may select or order can rely on finding the style which shall please the eye. We paid the cash to buy them cheap,

We'll sell them right to sell a heap.

Gingham and Calico Dresses and Cords,

The newest styles New York affords;

Delaines and Lustres, Calicoes too,

Colors of which we'll warrant true.

Cloths and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,

And all the goods which men do use;

Together with a good supply

Of groceries good which will defy

A class of men who live with us,

And twice a year make quite a fuss,

To go to Brunswick with their trade

Of wheat and home they are afraid.

We'll sell to these and all the rest,

For cheapest sum what suits them best

With Brunswick prices we'll compete,

And the shall have the best:

So come and see, come short; come tall

I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Plainfield, May 18, 1850

Providence Prospers Honesty.

TRANSLATED FROM THE GERMAN.

A poor boy, about ten years of age, entered the warehouse of the rich merchat, Samuel Richter, in Dantzic, and asked the book keeper for alms. "You will get nothing here," grumbled the man, without raising his head from the book, 'be off.'.

Weeping bitterly, the boy glided towards the door, at the moment Herr Richter entered.

'What is the matter here ?" he asked, turning to the book keeper.

'A worthless beggar boy,' was the man's answer, and he scarcely looked up from his work.

In the meanwhile, Herr Richter glanced towards the boy, and remarked that, when close to the door, he picked up something from the ground. "Ha ! my little lad, what is that you picked up ?" he cried. The weeping boy turned and showed him a needle.

'And what will you do with it?' asked the other.

'My jacket has holes in it,' was the answer, 'I will sew up the big ones.'

Herr Richter was pleased with this reply, and still more with the boy's innocent handsome face. 'But are you not ashamed,' he said, in a kind though serious tone, 'you so young and hearty to beg ? Can you not work ?'

'Ah, my dear sir,' replied the boy, 'I do not know how, and I am too little yet to thresh or fell wood. My father died three weeks ago, and my poor mother and little brothers have eaten nothing these two days. Then I ran out in anguish and asked for alms. But, alas ! a single peasant only gave me a piece of bread ; since then I have not eaten a morsel.'

It is quite customary for beggars by trade to contrive tales like this and thus burdens men's hearts against the claims of genuine want.—But this time the merchant trusted the boy's honest face. He thurst his hand into his pocket, drew forth a peice of money, and said :

There is half a dollar, go to the baker's, and with half the money buy bread for yourself, and your brothers, but bring back the other half to me.'

The boy took the money, and ran joyfully away.

'Well,' said the surly book keeper, 'he will believe, there is the rest of the money.' Then being very hungry, he begged at once for a knife to cut off a peice of the bread. The book keeper reached him in silence his pocket knife.

The lad cut off a slice in great haste, and was about to bite upon it. But suddenly he bethought himself, laid the bread aside, and folding his hands, prayed in silent prayer. Then he fell to his meal with a heart appetite.

The merchant was moved by the boy's unaffected piety. He inquired aft r his family and home, and learned from his simple narrative that his father had lived in a village, about four miles distant from Dantzic, where he owned a small house and farm. But this house had been burned to the ground, and much sickness in his family had compelled him to sell his farm. He had then hired himself out to a rich neighbor, but before three weeks were at an end, he died, broken down by grief and excessive toil. And now his mother, whom sorrow had thrown upon a bed of sickness, was, with her four children, in the bitterest poverty. He, the eldest, had resolved to seek for assistance, and had gone at first from village to village, then had struck into the high road, and at last, having begged everywhere in vain had come to Dantzic.

The merchant's heart was touched. He had but one child, and the boy appeared to him as a draft at sight, which Providence had drawn upon him as a test of his gratitude. 'Listen, my son,' he began, 'have you, then really a wish to learn.'

'Oh, yes, I have indeed !' cried the boy ; 'I have read the catechism already, but I should know a great deal more, but at home I had always my little brother to carry, for mother was sick in bed.'

Herr Richter suddenly formed his resolution. 'Well, then,' he said, ' if you are good, and honest, and industrious, I will take care of you. You shall learn, have meat and drink, and clothing, and in time earn something besides. Then you can support your mother and brothers also.'

The boy's eyes flashed with joy. But in a moment he cast them to the ground again, and said sadly, 'My mother all this while has nothing to eat.'

At this instant, as if sent by Providence, an inhabitant of the boy's native village entered Herr Richter's house. This man confirmed the lad's story, and willingly consented to carry the mother tidings of her son Gottlieb, and food and a small sum of money from the merchant. At the same time Herr Richter directed his book keeper to write a letter to the pastor of the village, commending the widow to his care, with an additional sum enclosed for the poor family, and promising further assistance.

As soon as this was done, Herr Richter at once furnished the boy with decent clothes, and at noon led him to his wife, whom he accurately informed of little Gottlieb's story, and of the plans which he had formed for him. The good woman readily promised her best assistance in the latter, and she faithfully kept her word.

During the next four years, Gottlieb attended the schools, of the great commercial city ; then his faithful foster-father took him into his counting-room, in order to educate him for business. Here, as well as there, at the writing desk as on the school bench, the ripening youth distinguished himself, not only by his natural capacity, but by the faithful industry with which he exercised it. With all this, his heart retained its native innocence. Of his weekly allowance, he sent the half regularly to his mother, until she died, after having survived two of his brothers. She had passed the last years of her life, not in wealth it is true, but by the aid of the noble Richter and of her faithful son, in a condition above want.

After the death of his beloved mother, there was no dear friend left to Gottlieb in the world except his benefacter. Out of love for him, he became an active, zealous merchant. He began by applying the superfluity of his allowance, which he could now dispose of at his pleasure, to a trade in Hamburg quills. When by care and prudence he had gained about one hundred and twenty dollars, it happened that he found in his native village a considerable quantity of hemp and flax, which was very good, and still to be had at a very reasonable price. He asked his foster father to advance him two hundred dollars, which the latter did with great readiness. And the business prospered so well, that in the third year of his clerkship, Gottlieb had already acquired the sum of five hundred dollars. Without giving up his trade in flax, he now trafficked also in linen goods, and the two combined made him in a couple of years, about a thousand dollars richer. This happened during the customary five years of clerkship. At the end of this period, Gottlieb continued to serve his benefactor five years more, with industry, skill, and fidelity ; then he took the place of the bookkeeper, who died about this time, and three years afterwards he was taken by Herr Richter as a partner into his business, with a third part of the profits.

But it was not God's will that this pleasant partnership should be of long duration. An insidious disease cast Herr Richter upon a bed of sickness, and kept him confined to his couch. All that love and gratitude could suggest, Gottlieb now did to repay his benefactor's kindness. Redoubling his exertions, he became the soul of the whole business, and still he watched long nights at the old man's bedside, with his grieving wife, until, in the sixty-fifth year of his life, Herr Richter closed his eyes in death.

Before his decease, he placed the hand of his only daughter, a sweet girl of two and twenty years, in that of his foster-son. He had long looked upon them both as his children. They understood him ; they loved each other ; and in silence, yet affectionately and earnestly, they solemnised their betrothal at the bedside of their dying father.

In the year 1823, ten years after Herr Richter's death, the house of Gottlieb Bern, late Samuel Richter, was one of the most respectable in all Dantzic. It owned three large ships employed in navigating the Baltic and North Seas, and the care of Providence warmly appertially to watch over the interests of their worthy owner, for worthy he remained in his prosperity. He honored his mother in law like a son, and cherished her declining age with the tenderest affection, until, in her two and seventieth year, she died in his arms.

At his own marriage proved childless, he took the eldest son of each of his two remaining brothers, now substantial farmers, into his house, and destined them to be his heirs. But, in order to confirm them in their humility, he often showed them the needle, which had proved such a source of blessing to him and bequeathed it as a perpetual legacy to the eldest son in family.

It is but a few years since this child of poverty, of honest industry, and of misfortune, passed in peace from this world.

Blessed is the perfect man, and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace." Psalms xxx, vii, 37.

Shot Between the Eyes.

BY PAUL CREYTON.

It was a moment of passion that Dick Ankers levelled his rifle at the head of his dog and fired. Tiger stood but three rods off ; the bullet struck him between the eyes, and he fall dead without a whine.

It was on a bank of a river in Illinois Ankers had been out hunting, and owing to wanton disobedience in Tiger, he had missed shooting three deer. Tigar would bark; therefore Ankers would get angry; and hence the tragic fate of Tiger.

As soon as the dog was dead, Diek repented Although he dragged the carcase into the shade of some bushes on the edge of the grove near the stream, and got his knife all ready to skin him, his heart failed him and he wouldn't do it.

Dick sat down on a log, looking sorrowfully at Tiger, and meditated on the evil consequence bad passions. About half an hour afterwards, his thoughts were interrupted by hearing a report of a rifle, on the opposite bank of the river.—Looking through the bushes, he saw his neighbor, Major Witter, standing among some willows, loading his rifle. He seemed to be gazing anxiously at some object on the same bank with Ankers, further up the stream.

"He has shot something," thought Dick.

Now the stream was not deep, nor was it very broad ; but it had a rairy bed like all the streams which flow through the rich, dark soil of the bottom lands in the West. Dick knew it was impossible for the Major to cross without going to a bridge about half a mile up the river ; and when he saw him depart rapidly in that direction, he emerged from the bushes where he had lain concealed, and moved forward to see what the Major had killed.

It was a prairie wolf. He laid dead on the edge of a thicket. It struck Dick as a rather singular coincidence, that he was shot in the head, directly between the eyes, like poor Tiger. It also appeared to Dick that the wolf looked very much like the dog, and he wondered if the Major could have distinguished them from each other, across the river.

Whilst pondering these matters in his philosophic mind, Dick—without reflecting upon what he was about, I suppose—dragged Tiger to the spot, and laid him down by the side of his dead brother. Dick looked at them together. Dick also cast his eyes up the stream, and down the stream. At length Dick's mind became confused, and, on leaving the spot, he somehow committed an unaccountable blunder. In short Dick left Tiger where he had found the wolf, and dragged the wolf away. It was a singular mistake, and I can't explain it.

With great care, Dick concealed the wolf in some bushes, and taking a circuit through the woods, came up with Major Nutter, shortly after the latter had crossed the river.

"Hallo, Major ! where are you going so fast ?"

"Ha ! is that you Dick ?" cried the Major, looking around. "What's your hurry ? I'm going down the river, but I can't run to keep up with you."

"Oh ! I'm in no great hurry ; only I've shot a wolf down here—"

"Ah ! the deuce you have !"

Dick's memory failed him.

"Fired across the river," said the Major.—"Dropped like a log."

"Just so ! glad to hear it. But wait a minute and I'll go with you."

And Dick began to whistle.

"I'm calling my dog. The cur is always running off. Never can keep him near me."

The Major expressed his sympathy—then Dick whistled again, and called at the top of his voice ; but Tiger, although he was within hearing, did not see fit to come ; and, in a minute, his master accompanied the Major along the bank of the river.

"That cussed dog !" complained Dick. "I wouldn't take twenty dollars for him if he wouldn't ramble so."

"I had the nicest shot in the world at the wolf," said the Major. "I hid on the opposite bank among the willows, and the minute he showed his muzzle—pop ! down he went."

"Just so," assented Aukers.

As they approached the spot where the wolf had been shot, Dick fell behind

"Hurrah !" cried the Major, gaily. "There he lies ! I swear he hasn't stirred from the spot where he stood. It was a good shot, I say. It's at least fifteen rods across to where I stood; and I aimed right between his eyes. By Jonas—"

The Major had approached near enough to recognise Tiger ! His countenance suddenly changed from an expression of triumph and gaiety to one of disappointment, mortification and surprise—most ludicrous !

Dick, as we have seen, was very absent minded. Although he glanced at the Major from beneath his eyebrows, he did not appear to observe the singular change in his countenance.

"I was a good shot," he said, in an enthusiastic tone. "We're lucky to day, Major. The bounty, and the price of this skin, will make quite a pile."

"By Jonas ?" repeated the astonished Major in a voice which seemed to come all the way up from his boots—it was so deep and expressive.

"By Jonas !"

"Well, Major, you make as much fuss over it as if it was an elephant !"

"But—look ! I never made such a blunder before in my life ! It's—it's—a dog !"

"My dog," thundered Dick, feigning great amazement. "Tiger—that I've been whistlin' for the last half hour ! How could you make such a mistake, Major ? how could you ? Shoot a dog a dog for a wolf ! my dog too ! that don't look more like a wolf than a cow does like a hippopotamus ! I swear, Major, you're crazy !"

"See here, Dick," said the Major, with a face glowing like a great coal. "It's a thundering mistake I know—never see a dog look quite so much like a wolf—could have sworn 'twas a wolf ! Now Dick—don't tell of this ! I should never hear the last of it, if the people found it out. Shoot a dog for a wolf ! By Jonas ! I owe the blunder, and agree to pay you a round price for your dog, provided you won't tell of it."

"It isn't the value of the dog I think so much about," muttered Dick, looking mournfully at Tiger. "But I've had him so long, set by him so consumedly ! Poor Tiger ! But I won't be hard on you, Major, seeing it's a mistake, and you're willing to do what's right about it. I'll say five dollars, and mum."

"Very well," said the Major, with a long breath. "I don't happen to have the tin in my trowsers, but I'll get it for you in a few days."

After some more conversation, the Major left Dick alone with Tiger, whom he said it was his intention to skin.

An hour after, Dick had not only skinned Tiger, but, remembering something about the wolf, he had also "peeled" the hide of from his head, and spread it out before him, as a splendid hide. He thought of the price it would bring, and also contemplating the bounty money. At that moment some body slapped him on the shoulder. He looked around. It was the Major. Dick turned all sorts of colors.

"Well," said the Major, laughing. "I never saw two hides taken off from one dog, and one of them a wolf skin ! Beats the deuce !"

It is impossible to describe Dick's confusion. He turned considerably redder than the Major did when he saw the wolf that he had shot transformed into a dog.

"Don't say a word," pursued the Major.—"But 'tis queer, though. Now suppose you divide, and I take the wolf skin."

"To be sure," stammered Dick, "I was going to take it to you—after fooling you a little."

"Thank you," said the Major, cheerfully.—"I'm really much obliged. Now when you want that five spot, just send in your bill !"

It is needless to add, that Dick never did send in his bill for either the loss of Tiger or his labor skinning the Major's wolf.

A THICK WALL.—The British government are constructing at Dover an artificial harbor for safety of shipping. It is to consist of a space of 700 acres, to be enclosed by a wall more than 2 miles in length ; more that half of which space will at all times secure a depth of water from 30 to 42 feet at the lowest tide. The wall will be 90 feet wide at the bottom, and fifty at top ; the sides will be 38 feet thick, and consist of immense blocks of solid stone, the middle filled in with artificial stone or concrete. The foundation of this stupendous work is now laying by companies of man who remaje several hours, with diving bells, under the water. This gigantic display of human power and skill will, when fully completed, cost more than £200,000 sterling.

An eminent spirit merchant, in Dublin, announces, in an Irish paper, that he has still a small quantity of the whiskey on hand which was drunk by his Majesty, when in Dublin.

Napoleon was one day searching for a book in the library of Malmaison, and at length discovered it on a shelf somewhat above his reach. Marshal Moncey, who was present, one of the tallest men in the army, stepped forward, saying, "Permit me, sire ; I am higher than your majesty." "You are longer, Marshal," said the Emperor, with a frown.

TWO SABBTHS.—At Westerly, R. I is presented the very singular feature of two Sabbaths every week. Almost one half of the inhabitants are Seventh Day Bapists, who keep Saturday with great sacredness, and on no account will do any work. The remainder observe Sunday as a holy day, and as studiously avoid all labor. The result is, that on Saturday a portion may be seen going to church, a part of the stores are closed, and some of the factories are short-handed or closed entirely. On Sunday the same thing is to be observed. Some are engaged in worship and sets of devotion, while their neighbors are busily at work, and public worship is disturbed by the din of business and the noisy bustle of the crowd. Both parties appear conscientious, and live peaceably together, although the partial observance of two days is very annoying and inconvenient.

THE SCHOOL MASTER AND HIS PUPILS.—"Joseph, where is Africa ?" "On the map, sir." "I mean, Joseph, in what continent—the Eastern or Western Continent ?" "Well the land of Africa is in the Eastern continent but the people, sir, are all of 'em down South."

"What are its products ?" "Africa, sir, or down South ?" "Africa, you blockhead !" "Well, it hasn't got any ; it never had any." "How do the African people live ?" "By drawing." "Drawing what—water ?" "No, sir : by drawing their breath." "Sit down, Joseph." "Thomas what is the equator ?"—"Why, sir, it's a horizontal pole running perpendicularly through the imaginations of astronomers and old geographers." "Go to your seat, Thomas." "William Stiggs, what do we mean by an eclipse ?" "An old racer horse, sir." "Silence ! Next. Jack, what is an eclipse ?" "An eclipse is a thing as appears when the moon gits on a bust, and runs agin the sun ; consequently the sun blacks the moon's face." "Class is dismissed."

"At a church meeting in Connecticut, for the purpose of filling a vacant deaconship, some diversity of opinion, strange to say, appeared to exist among the brethren as to who should fill that very pecuniarily profitable office. After a deal of talk and no progress, Brother B., an honest, straight forward farmer, thought that a third man might 'unite the party,' and made up his mind to propose the thing, although he never made the attempt to speak in public. Rising with caution and hesitation, he delivered himself 'to the point,' thus: 'Gentlemen, I am not used to public speaking but in my opinion Dan Baxter would make an all fired good deacon !' It is superfluous to say that 'Dan Baxter' was 'elected.'"

CHARITABLE BEQUESTS. Hervey Lyon, Esq. who died in Rochester, on Friday, August 27, has left the following bequests by will :—

American Board for Foreign Missions	$2,000
Home Missionary Society	2,000
American Tract Society	2,000
" Bible "	2,000
" S. S. Union "	1,000
" Education Society	1,000
Rochester Orphan Asylum (Protestant)	500
" Female Charitable Society	300
Home for the Friendless	200
Total,	$11,000

A London correspondent of the Inverness Courier, in describing what he saw at the Opera, writes thus : "Of Jenny Lind, too, I had that evening a glance. She a wreck of her former self, I could hardly have recognised her. She looks pale, worn and haggard, in bad spirits and bad health ; and as she sat, the center of 100 opera-glasses directed upon her, there was but one wondering and sympathising murmur tarqughout the vast building."

A rent of $21,000 per annum has been offered for the new store, 30 by 100 feet in size, going up on the corner of Broadway and Liberty-st. The price asked is $25,000.

The trotting horse Reindeer has been purchased by Mr. George W. Smith, for $1,075.—This horse is of Westetn stock, and is said to trot a mile in 2.32.

A young gentleman was once desired by a serious correspondent to "state at length his views of the causes which led to the decay and downfall of the Roman Empire." In reply to this formidable request, he wrote, that after minute reflection and extensive reading, he concluded that the cause of the ruin of that gigantic empire was, that "its bottom fell out." Rather a new view of the subject.

Good and bad qualities are to be found in every one's composition ; but searching for the last, among your neighbors, is a business that pays poorly.

Profits of Temperance and Rum Taverns.—Mr. G. W. Samson, of Homer, N. Y., says in the N. Y. Reformer, that he formerly kept a rum tavern for fifteen years, and has now kept a temperance house for eight years, and that the nett profits, in proportion to expenses, are decidedly in favor of the temperance house. Then the assurance that he is right, the quiet his family and visitors enjoy in the pleasure he has in looking upon the untempted youth, and his view of the "greatest evil that ever afflicted a rum cursed earth," urges him to go ahead in the noble cause of temperance.

An analysis of the cucumber, by Prof. Salisbury, of Albany, show that ninety-seven one hundredths of the fruit are water ! This is more than the watermelon, which contains ninety-four parts. The mushmelon contains ninety.

A new mode of travelling has been invented in England, which on it ely supersedes the tedy method of railroads. A large, hollow cannonball, capable of holding 9 persons, is fired from a gun of corresponding dimensions, and the load of 9 journies at once, is speedily arrived at.

A person who owned a handsome race-horse which was about to run, said to his friend, sir at the same time handing him a $5 note, "I have a heavy bet on the other horse." Strange to relate, the "other horse" was the race.

Surely some people must know themselves—they never think about anything else.

For the Plainfield Union.

Dear girl adieu, it is to thee
I strike my harp in friendship's name,
And sing to thee a song of love,
If we perchance ne'er meet again.

Adieuce, with thee, like Lethe's stream,
May vanish scenes we passed together,
But thy loved form in memory's dream,
Would flit in thought before me ever.

And as love visions oft recall
Thy face, thy form and gladsome smile,
I'll lisp in song thy name I love,
Which trust me, Mary, shall be thine.

Friendship to me is like the flame
Which burned as sacred fire in Heaven,
And offerings to love's holy shrine,
I rarely make to one in seven.

But thou hast won me to confess
How deep the grief and pain of parting,
For tongue or pen could ne'er express
Half what these tear drops do at starting.

Then let not time or distance make
Our hearts turn treacherous to their vows,
Nor if we meet in lapse of years,
I'd love thee then as I do now.

Then fare the well, my gentle Mary,
For Fate decrees that we must sever,
In haste I'll press those lips to mine,
But whisper low I'm thine forever.

CHEER UP.—BY TUPPER.

Never go gloomily, man with a mind,
Hope is a better companion than fear;
Providence, ever benignant and kind,
Gives with a smile what you take with a tear;
All will be right,
Look to the light;
Morning was ever the daughter of night;
All that was black will be all that is bright,
Cheerily, cheerily then! cheer up.

Many a foe is a friend in disguise,
Many a trouble a blessing most true,
Helping the heart to be happy and wise,
With love ever precious and joys ever new!
Stand in the van,
Strive like a man;
This is the bravest and cleverest plan:
Trusting in God while you do what you can.
Cheerily, cheerily then! cheer up.

Abstract of the New Postage Law.

This law goes into operation on the 1st day of next month (October.) Under it—

"Newspapers, periodicals, unsealed circulars, &c., weighing not over three ounces are to pay one cent each, to any part of the United States, or half that rate, where paid quarterly or yearly in advance.

"Newspapers, &c., weighing not over one and a half ounces, half the above rates, where circulated within the State of publication.

"Newspapers, papers and pamphlets of not more than 16 pages, 8vo., in packages of not less than eight ounces, to one address, to be charged half a cent an ounce, without regard to the number of pieces.

"Postage on all transient matter to be prepaid, or charged double.

"Books, bound or unbound, of not more than four pounds each, one cent per ounce, under three thousand miles, and two cents over that distance. Fifty per cent, to be added where not prepaid.

"Weekly newspapers free in the county of publication.

"Bills for newspapers, and receipts for payment of moneys therefor, may be enclosed in subscribers' papers.

"Exchanges between newspaper publishers free.

"Newspapers, &c., to be so enclosed that the character can be determined without removing the wrapper—to have nothing written or printed on the paper or wrapper beyond the direction and to contain no enclosure other than the bills or receipts before mentioned."

Letter postage is not touched at all by the new law, but will remain as at present.

The Long Island grasshoppers were drowned by millions in the profuse rains of yesterday and last night. Turkeys are among the most effectual exterminators of this insect. We have heard a story of a flock of turkeys which, not long since, were turned into a field of grass, and cleared it of grasshoppers in a very short time. They walked from one end of the field to the other in a row of twenty or more, nearly abreast, snapping up the grasshoppers as they went. When they had cleared a stripe of considerable breadth in this manner, they walked back again on that portion of the field next to the space already cleared, repeating the same process. Grasshoppers, it is said, are as easily driven as geese.

Scarlington, a place east of Jericho, a farmer cleared a field of them by driving them into a sort of pen, where he secured three pecks of them, which were given to his turkeys.

Missionary Operations in Ireland.—The Irish Society of London proceeding very satisfactorily in the sister island. The work has been largely blessed in every respect; converts from Popery multiply; the spirit of inquiry spreads more and more among the Roman Catholics; the power of the priests is declining; their threats and curses are comparatively disregarded; and countless thousands are resolved, at all costs, to read and hear that Gospel which has hitherto been kept from them. Every week brings intelligence of new openings, and fresh appeals for spiritual aid. Much as the funds of the Society have lately increased, the missionary work has increased in a still greater ratio.

Milk.—The following table exhibits the daily average for the present year, down to the end of June, of the quantity of milk brought to this City from the country:

By the Harlem road	$213 99	42,798
By the Erie road	175 89	35,177
By the Hudson River road	16 46	3,762
By the New-Haven road	17 16	3,431
By the Jersey road	4 44	2,265
By the Ramapo & Paterson R.	3 00	1,000
By steamboat Red Jacket	5 00	1,500
By barges from Newburg	7 50	1,500
Total	$443 46	91,413

It is estimated that upwards of 100,000 quarts are adulterated, are consumed in New York daily, for which $5,000 is paid. This would a $1,825,000 a year.

THE UNION.

Plainfield, N. J. September 14, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

National Whig Nominations:

For President of the United States:
Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.

For Vice President:
WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North-Carolina.

Whig Convention of the 6th Congressional District.

To nominate a candidate for Congress will be held at Newark at Library Hall on Wednesday, Oct. 6th, at 10 o'clock, A. M. The Whigs of the District are requested to appoint delegates.

The New Jersey Democratic State Convention, to nominate an Electoral Ticket, will be held at Trenton, on Wednesday of this week, 15th inst. The party will hold a Mass Meeting there same day.

The call for a State Temperance Convention at the Temperance Hall in Trenton, is published. On account of the Democratic State Convention, the time has been changed from the 15th to the 22d day of September inst. Wednesday of next week. All persons in favor of an essential change in the Liquor Laws of this State, making them more efficient, are invited to send delegates to said Convension.

The Explosion on the Reindeer.—By this accident 29 lives were lost, and many others were scalded. It resulted from a defect in the iron, and a careful investigation exonerates the owners and officers from blame. The boat was but little injured. The boiling water and steam rushing into the cabin did the mischief, and as most of the passengers were on deck, but few comparatively were injured.

The Reindeer Destroyed by Fire.—Saugerties, Sept. 10th.—The Steamer Reindeer, which exploded her boiler on Saturday last, was entirely destroyed by fire at Bristol landing, about 4 o'clock this morning. She is supposed to have been set on fire.

The persons on board escaped with difficulty. Fortunately, there was no wind, or the whole place might have been consumed. Insured for $55,000. Three years old.

We have received through Z. Webster, Esq. from Elijah W Smith, of Springfield, half-a-dozen pears if an excellent variety, equal to any thing we have ever seen, called by him Boncretion pears. He says they grew within call of the model bridge of New Jersey, (Millville) that he has taken 4 bushels from the tree this season, which is 12 years old, and about 5 inches in diameter.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The Daniel Webster arrived at New Orleans on the 4th inst. with two weeks later news from California, 150 passengers and $100,000 in dust.

The trip of the Daniel Webster has occupied but twenty and a half days, and is the shortest ever yet accomplished.

The trip from San Juan del Sur to San Juan del Norte occupied only forty hours.

The Northern Light arrived at New York on Tuesday morning, less than 8 days from San Juan, the quickest trip yet. She brought 300 passengers and $312,000 in gold dust.

Political affairs were waxing warm, and both parties were preparing for an animated contest.

At San Francisco, Aug. 10, they had a most imposing funeral procession in honor of Henry Clay. Over 500 Chinese united, and behaved with the utmost decorum.

Chinese villages are springing up through the diggings. Pekin, Canton and Hong Kong are among the names already given to these Celestial settlements, some of which number fifteen hundred souls.

A Chinese Theatrical Company was on its way to San Francisco, with a capital of $40,000.

Great Earthquake in Cuba.—A terrible earthquake occurred at Santiago, Cuba, Aug. 20, destroying 16 lives, and about $1,500,000 in property. Every building in the place was more or less injured, and several entirely destroyed.

The Vermont Election has resulted in an old-fashioned Whig victory. It is whig all over, as we expected. On the Congress vote the whigs have about 2,000 majority; and though the free sellers have mostly gone back to the democrats we have gained in the Legislature.

Dispatch.—The Whigs of the 5th Assembly District of this county, comprising part of Newark, commenced building their barracks on Thursday morning, and by night had enclosed a building 40 by 25 feet, which in the evening was filled, and a Scott and Graham Club organized.

The Whigs of Morris had a large meeting at Morristown, on Tuesday evening, which was addressed by R. Gilchrist, Esq. of Jersey City; Hon. Geo. H. Brown, and Senator Miller.

The Season at Saratoga.—The Saratoga Whig says the number of visitors who registered their names at the hotels in that place, from June 28 to Aug. 30, was 17,570; and thinks that the entire number for the season, including those who put up at private houses, will exceed 30,000.

The Louisville Journal says there is a man of family in that city who has a dog that will not permit him to enter the house if the least intox icated. It is hinted that the animal discovers "time" between his master and mistress, and out of consideration for the latter, prevents his entrance.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The U. S. Mail steamer Asia arrived at New York on Sunday evening, 5th inst., about 11 days from Liverpool, with 176 passengers.

The British steamer Europa arrived on Friday morning, about 12 1-2 days from Liverpool.

Among her passengers was Mr. Baring senior partner of the house of Baring Brothers.

The news is one week later, but unimportant. The markets continue about as before.

During the week, ending Aug. 42d, ten ships, including the Great Britain steamer, of the aggregate register of 9690 tons sailed from the port of Liverpool for Australia, with 3000 emigrants.

Scarcity of Harvest Laborers in England.—The wholesale emigration to America and Australia has made Irish and other harvest laborers scarce this year. We notice that in Stirling and Linlithgow the colliers have left their work to assist in harvesting, at three shillings a day.—Seventy eight left one mine. In West Sussex the harvesters were so scarce that the Scotch Fusilier Guards, on station there, were all presented with tickets of leave to go and lend a hand to the farmers.

Ireland.—The Irish flax crop this season promises to be very abundant. Emigration, however, is telling very disadvantageously upon the Ulster linen manufactures.

The potato disease appears to have stayed its progress, notwithstanding there are still some complaints from particular localities. The grain and green crops are generally abundant, and are being rapidly harvested in good order.

The celebrated Dennybrook Fair passed off tamely this year—not a fight to be had for love or money.

An iron ship named the Typhoon, of 1,027 tons, with iron lower masts and bowsprit, was launched on the Clyde on the 20th, being the largest ship ever built or iron on that river.

Three English gentlemen—Mansfield, Compred and Thompson—have undertaken to sail from London to Constantinople in an open skiff 25 feet long by 3 wide. They have arrived at Rendsburg.

How much Money Barnum made out of Jenny Lind.—The Musical World gives the following footing up of Barnum's profits in eighteen months Barnum's share, in round numbers, was $308,000; and Madmoiselle Lind cleared $302,000, and had all her hotel and traveling expenses paid into the bargain. This is said to be a true official statement. This would give each party about seven hundred dollars a day during the whole time.

Woods on Fire.—The long continued dry weather in the Lake Superior region has made the timber and turf on the South shore "dry as a powder house," and last week extensive fires were raging. At the Ontonagon and Eagle Harbor, thousands of cords of wood and any given quantity of standing timber, has been destroyed, and the fires were not checked.

A New Spring.—A spring or well from which rock oil is extracted, has been discovered near Highland river, Virginia, yielding at the rate of a barrel a day. The oil is closely intermingled with fine sand, several feet below the surface of the earth, and is separated by washing—the oil of course rising to the surface, where it is readily gathered. It sells from $9 to $10 a barrel and is said to possess curative virtues to a considerable extent. Near is also a fine sulphur spring.

A huge fossil specimen of the giant deer, of Ireland, was lately dug up about eight feet beneath the ground, in the county of Wicklow, by some excavations. The head is nearly perfect, with the antlers, which measure ten feet in a line from tip to tip of the extremities. The palm measures twenty inches.

Major John Bucklin, Sr., of South Adams, has raised a stalk of the common twelve-rowed yellow corn, which measures ten feet three inches in height.

The longest tunnel in the world is now being excavated in Hungary, leading from the mines of the Shemeeitza hills to the shores of the river Gran, a distance of ten English miles. It is to serve the double purpose of a railway to transport the ores, and a drain for the mines.

A Large Train.—A few days since locomotive No. 10, on the Mine Hill and Schuylkill Haven (Pa) Railroad, brought in 211 loaded cars at one draught. The coal weighed 975 1-20 tons; this, added to weight of cars (515 8-20 tons,) making a total weight of 1490 9-20 tons at one draught; the heaviest ever hauled over the road.

A Sign in Pennsylvania.—The Philadelphia Inquirer says that a meeting of Democrats, who have never voted a Whig ticket, but who now go for Scott and Graham, was held in Hilman township, York Co., on Saturday, the 21st ult. One hundred and twenty Democrats were present, who raised a pole over one hundred feet high, to which was attached a flag, on which is inscribed in large letters, "Scott, Graham, and the Constitution."

A German paper states that 76,680 political prisoners are now in confinement in Europe, and that over 230,000 have fled to avoid like incarceration.

A Catholic paper at Cincinnati discountenances the custom of having so many carriages at funerals, and says, "more money is spent in ridiculous idle display on such occasions, than would be necessary for the support of all the widows and orphans in the city."

The potatoe crop this year will be an immense one, and even if the rot should exist, there can be no such scarcity as there was last year.

The Colonial Government of Canada offer 5 1-2 acres of wild land to all poor settlers, on condition of keeping the roads in front of their lands in good repair.

The editor of the Wilmington (N. C.) Journal has received a stalk of corn measuring 16 feet 7 inches.

The wheat crop in Wisconsin exceeds everything the Watertown Chronicle says, that has ever been seen in that or any other State.

A new pass has been discovered from Santa Fe to California, through the Rocky Mountain range.

A correspondent of the New York Recorder says, a friend of his on board the steamboat met with a young man of intemperate habits, from Baltimore, who was emigrating to Maine to get out of the way of strong drink and its temptations.

Mild Pills.—An old lady was desired to take a few colocynth pills occasionally. She put some in a saucer in the cupboard at her lodgings and thought, after she had taken some a few days, that they were very mild and serviceable. She recommended some to another old lady, and on reaching a saucer down, the stranger was surprised to find holes through the pills, and on examination it was found that the old lady had been taking for mild pills the landlady's daughter's black beads!

Wheat Flour,	$4,31	to 4,63
Rye Flour	3,75	to 3,87
Indian Meal, Jersey,	3,75	to 3,75
Grain—Wheat,	1,01	to 1,12
Rye,	84	to 85
Corn,	71	to 72
Oats, Jersey,	40	to 43

Thousands of parents who use Vermifuge composed of Castor oil, Calomel, &c., are not aware, that while they appear to benefit the patient, they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of sight, weakness of limbs, &c.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Hobensack's Medicines, to which we ask the attention of all directly interested in their own as well as their Children's health. In Liver Complaints and all disorders arising from them of a bilious type, should make use of the only genuine medicine, Hobensack's Liver Pills.

Be not deceived, but ask for Hobensack's Warm Syrup and Liver Pills, and observe that each has the signature of the Proprietor, J. N. HOBENSACK, as none else are genuine.

ANOTHER RAPID CURE OF INFLUENZA.

Springfield, Mass. June 10th 1851.

Dr. A. Rogers—Sir—This is to let you know that your medicine has cured me of a most severe attack of INFLUENZA. Few medicines come up to the promises of the inventors but your does, according to my experience, and it is only a fair thing that the public should know it. I suffered for a week from Cough, violent irritation of the palate and throat, pains through my chest, difficult breathing, and constant running from the eyes and nostrils. This was before I tried your syrup of Liverwort, Tar and Conchalonga. One bottle entirely cured me, and I have no objection to your publishing the fact with my name and residence; for where it will benefit the sick, it seems like a duty to state what I knows by personal experience.

THOMAS ALDEN.
Near the U. S. Armory.

CAUTION.—None genuine, unless there is on the outer wrapper a Note of Hand, signed with a PEN, by A. L. SCOVILL & CO.

For sale by A. L. SCOVILL & CO., at their Depot, Nothie Hall, 316 Broadway, New York, and by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada.

Also for sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING

PRICE—In large bottles, $1,00; or 6 bottles for $5,00.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Cam poor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

S. J. Pooley, Mount Horeb, $1,75; Rev. I. Moore, 1,00; Daniel Coey, Esq. Warrenville, ,75; I. E. Stites, do. ,50; Wm. Straw, ,75; David H. French, ,69; Isaac Eno, ,82.

MARRIED,

On the 4th inst. John F. Randolph, of Rahway, to Miss Abigail Sanderson, of Springfield.

DIED.

At Wheatsheaf, on the 9th inst. Miss Hetty Boylston, aged 83 years.

FALL IMPORTATIONS
PETERSON & RUMPHLEY,
IMPORTERS OF
Carpeting and Oil Cloths,
379 Broadway, corner of White-St., New York.

HAVE JUST RECEIVED, PER LATE ARRIVALS from Europe, their usual supply of rich and elegant Carpeting, consisting of—

RICH AXMINSTER and MOSAIC CARPETS, in one PATTERN CARPET, with rich BORDER to enlarge it to any sized room.

RICH VELVET CARPETS—Patterns entirely new, imported expressly for city retail Fall Trade.

TAPESTRY and BRUSSELS CARPETS—An elegant assortment, surpassing in richness of COLORS and SHADING, any before imported.

3 PLY, ROYAL and INGRAIN CARPETS, our stock will be constantly supplied with the latest and most desirable patterns manufactured.

OIL CLOTHS—Our arrangements with the ENGLISH and AMERICAN manufacturers enables us to offer a LARGER and better assortment, at less price, than any store in the Union.

MEDALLIO DOUGGETS, RUGS, TABLE and PIANO COVERS, MATS of all kinds, MATTINGS, &c., and all other goods found in first-class carpet stores, for sale, on the most favorable terms.

PETERSON & RUMPHREY,
Sept. 15-3m 379 Broadway, cor. White-st., N. Y.

Washington Rock
STAGE,

WILL Run every other day, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and any other day if called for.

Leave Plainfield corner of North Second and Cherry streets, at 9 o'clock P. M., returning when the party is ready.

Fare 12 1-2 cents each way.

Persons will be called for at their residences, by leaving their names on the slate at the Gazette Office.

C. STAATS, Proprietor
Sept. 15, 1852. Washington Rock House.

HOPE'S EXPRESS, TWICE DAILY,
Via N. J. CENTRAL & L. R. R.

Leaves New York at 8 o'clock, A. M. & 4 o'clock, P.M.
Leaves Easton at 8 o'clock, A. M. & 2, P. M.

Arrangements have been perfected with the Central Railroad Co. by which we will be enabled to send by Express all articles usually handled by us, viz: Packages, &c. collect bills, Drafts, and transact all business appertaining to a well regulated Express. Careful, obliging, prompt and faithful Messengers will travel with each through train leaving as above.

The proprietor having already experienced much of public favor and confidence, will now pledge himself to render efforts to merit and obtain that degree of patronage and favor commensurate with the increased facilities offered, and the heavy expense incurred.

OFFICE, in New York, No. 74 Broadway. In Easton, No. 62 Northampton St. Agencies in all the places on the route from New York to Easton.

☞ This Express will extend to all the towns and villages of Northampton, Lehigh, Monroe, and Luzerne Counties, in Pennsylvania, including Bethlehem, Allentown, Manch Chunk, Wilkesbarre, Reading, &c. &c.

A. D. HOPE, Proprietor 74 Broadway, New York.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Thorn's new building in Cherry st., 2nd below Dr. Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the citizens of Plainfield in general, to examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns Delaines, Silk and other Goods, Hosiery of all kinds. A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Colonades, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES,

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Pork, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders, Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Hollow and Wooden Ware,

Tubs, Buckets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, wisks shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.

CASH, Goods Ireland and Glenn Falls.

☞ All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods.

JAMES M. DUNN.

April 29, 1852.—1y.

Going! Now is the time!

SUMMER Stock at cost! Must and shall be sold, to make room for Fall and Winter Goods. Call and see before buying elsewhere. I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

Many deaths from Cholera are reported to have occured in Cincinnati during the past few days.

In Rochester 14 deaths occured during the two days ending Friday.

There are 18,000 inhabitants in the city of New Bedford, and so wealthy is it that were its property divided it between every man, woman and child in the city, each would have upwards of $1,000.

The Newberyport, Herald says a farmer of Newbury has brought to that market this season superior ripe potatoes raised from sprouts alone. His course has been to start the potatoes early in a hot bed, and when the sprouts were several inches in length to remove them from the potato into rows in good soil about eight inches apart. He in this manner obtain ripe potatoes several weeks earlier than by the common practice.

A Kentucky paper says it is getting to be very fashionable in that quarter to enclose a dollar with marriage notices, when sending them to the printer. A good custom that ought to prevail everywhere.

Six dollars to printers and priest,
No sensible man could refuse,
Five dollars to render him blest,
And one to publish the news.

An exchange paper says that an old toper in Maine, at the time the liquor law was passed, was so indignant, that he drank off a quart of New England rum twice in one day That's pretty tough ! It's as much as we can believe that he drank two quarts during the day, instead of drinking one quart twice. But perhaps the old covey was an eccentric genius.

Sims says that if it wasn't for the hole in the hoop, you could n't put it on the barrel, and then the barrel would burst.

Assignment Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that Lewis Runyon of the town and city of Plainfield, in the county of Essex and State of New Jersey, hath this day made an assignment to the subscriber of his estate, for the equal benefit of his creditors, and that the said creditors must exhibit their respective claims under oath or affirmation within the term of three months.

A. BERRY,
Dated, August 30, 1852. Assignee.

D. M. KNIGHT & CO.,
Importers and Wholesale Dealers in
ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN
FANCY GOODS,
No. 58 Cedar-Street (up stairs.)
(Between William and Nassau sts.)
NEW-YORK.

D. M. KNIGHT,
A. A. ROBBINS.

COMBS—Shell, Buffalo, and horn back Combs in great variety ; twist, dressing and ivory Combs.
Buttons. Steel, gilt, lasting, mohair, twist, bone, metal, silk, thread, agate, and Rubber Buttons.
Linen Thread, Spool Cotton, Needles, Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Hair Pins, Elastics, Whalebone, Linen and Cotton Tapes, Linen and Cotton Bobbins, Silk, Velvet, Ribbons, Edgings, Trimmings, Thimbles, and a great variety of Fancy Goods, Fans, &c., all cheap for cash.
Sept. 6, 1852.—3m.

Bigelow's Alterative,

A CERTAIN CURE for DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA, CHOLERA MORBUS, and ALL SUMMER COMPLAINTS.

GEORGE W. BLEECKER, Proprietor, 98 Broadway, New York
Price 50 cents per bottle.
TESTIMONIALS

I have used "Bigelow's Alterative" in my family, and have never found it to fail, when all other remedies administered failed to relieve. In every instance it has proved ineffectual. I think it a perfect corrective for Dysenteric and all Bowel complaints.

GEO. W. BREEBE, 47 Wall-street,
New York, March 22d, 1852.

We can add our testimony to that of others of its great efficacy in our own case, when prostrated to an alarming degree by Bowel disease. It was the only medicine that gave relief, and it never always kept in the family.

EDITOR OF N. Y. BAPTIST REGISTER.
Utica, April 14th 1852.

Dear Sir:—I rejoice to hear that you are about to introduce to the public the valuable medicine, which has been of much benefit to my family. About a year since, my little girl, about three years of age, was in a very low state with the Dysentery. She was in a state of the bowels that scarcely anything but blood passed them. I went into her room to see her as a neighbor, but thinking she could not survive, I never expected to see her alive again. I was told she was so weak that she could not take food, and that she had not had an operation of the bowels for seven days. I was informed by her mother that she had taken but one teaspoonful of your valuable medicine, when about 2 teaspoonfuls more were administered. Still another dose, as my informant stated, was given her. She had been afflicted with bowel complaint, his countenance became sallow, with loss of appetite, etc., when but a few teaspoonfuls of your valuable medicine, under God, has restored his system to health.

With many obligations. I am dear sir,
Yours, respectfully,
WILLIAM O. SMITH. 80 First-street.

☞ M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.
Aug 23, 1852—4m.

Notice.—Wm. Lynch,
Late of 518 Pearl-Street, New-York.

Wishes to inform his friends and old customers, that he will open his Wholesale and Retail Grocery Store, at 223 Greenwich st., corner of Dunne st., on 22 April, with a new fresh stock of goods, such as Teas, sugars, molasses, coffees and spices, butter, cheese, lard, flour, beef and pork, &c., which he offers cheap for cash. Families, boarding house keepers, and bakers, are invited to call and examine his goods and his prices, as they can save a very large percentage, and at the same time oblige a worthy man. Country merchants purchasing goods for cash, are particularly requested to call and examine his goods and the prices before purchasing elsewhere. N. B.—Goods delivered on board of steamboats, railroads, barges, ships and any part of the city, free of charge.

WM. LYNCH, 223 Greenwich street New York.

Horse Powers & Threshing

MACHINES, of the most approved kinds, also FANNING MILL, Vern-Sheller & Straw-Cutters, Sugar Machines, and Grist Mills, together with a General Assortment of Farming Implements, for sale at low rates by JOHN MOORE, Agricultural Warehouse,
Aug. 9—3m. 136 Front-street, New York.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!
Just Received, Twenty Tons of
Peruvian Guano,
And For Sale in large or small quantities, at about New York prices, by WM VAIL.
New Market, June 28, 1852.—3m*

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the Subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N.J. containing from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on 2d, 3d, 4th, Main, Liberty and William sts ; also a good sized Dwelling House, with Barn attached, suitable for the accommodation of two families, and in a valuable location, very nigh the centre of the business part of town, on the corner of Exchange and Second sts, a very short distance from Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store.
Jan. 19 1852.—tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

BABBITT'S Double Refined Powdered Saleratus
" " Chemical Yeast Powder in tin boxes.
" " Celebrated Soap Powder.
For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

Machinery Oil,

75 CTS. a gallon, better than Sweet Oil, at a quarter of the price. For Sale by June 16, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

WANTED.

$500 Secured by Bond and Mortgage—al safe and profitable investment. Enquire at this office immediately.

WANTED

A first-rate American girl, to do general housework in a small family, must understand cooking in all its branches, to such a girl first-rate wages will be given. Apply to STEPHEN VAIL.
Sept. 6 1852. Centre, street Plainfield.

ALL WHO ARE LOVERS OF GOOD BREAD

Call at Stewart's Bakery, where they will find a superior article of Bread, not equaled in the State, for nice white healthy article, nothing but the purest of flour and no composition to injure the most delicate constitution—all for eight cents a loaf. Cake and Crackers equally low and good quality.

Also, Oysters, Lobster and Marsh.

I hope the public will not forget to patronize this establishment if they don't want to be imposed on.
Sept. 6 1852. ROBERT STUART

Boots and Shoes.—A. D. GALE,

MANUFACTURER and Wholesale Dealer, invites Country Merchants to call and examine his large stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, and extremely low for Cash or short credits for notes. Call and see
A. D. GALE, 225 Pearl street, corner of Platt.
New York, Aug. 30. 1852.—3m

Coffee, Spices, Mustard, &c.

WITHINGTON & WILDE,
Nos. 7 and 9 Dutch street, (between Fulton and John streets,) NEW-YORK.

KEEP constantly on hand a large and well assorted stock of COFFEES, green, roasted and ground ; Cinnamon, Nutmegs, Cloves, Pepper, Allspice, Ginger, Mustard, Cassia, &c., whole and ground, all of the best quality, and put up in the best style. Also superior RICE FLOUR and C O A, equal to any manufactured.

Having been favorably known in this business for the past twenty years, we are confident that we can give purchasers perfect satisfaction, as to the quality and reasonableness of our articles, and our goods being bought mostly for cash, the prices will be found as favorable as those of any House in the Trade.
New York, August 10, 1852.—3m

Central Rail Road of N. J.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.
The cars will run as follows until further notice,
Leave Pier No. 1 North River, New York, at 8 A. M. ; 12, M. ; 3.45 and 6. P. M. for Plainfield.
Leave Plainfield, New York, at 6.35 and 8.25, A. M. 1.05 and 5.30. P. M.
Leave Plainfield for Easton, Pa. at 9.40, A. M. 1.55 and 5.30, P. M ; and for Somerville at 7.50, P. M.
Aug. 2, 1852.

WILLIAM HOVEY'S PATENT
Spiral Straw Cutter, 1844, improved, 1852.

These Celebrated Machines will be kept constantly for sale by RALPH L. CO. at their
AGRICULTURAL WAREHOUSE,
No. 23 Fulton street.
They are the sole agents for the City of New York, and will sell these machines at the following reduced prices at retail, and will make a liberal discount to dealers in or out of the city, who purchase to sell again:

No. 0, 4 knives, length of knife 5 1-4 inches, cut 1-4 inch, $6.00 With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $6.50
No. 1, 4 knives, length 5 1-4 inches, cut 1 inch, 7.00 " 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $7.50
No. 2, 4 knives, length 6 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, 9.00. With 6 knives cut 1 inch, $8.50.
No. 3, 4 knives, length 7 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, 10.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 10.50.
No. 4, 4 knives, length 8 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, 12.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 12.50.
No. 5, 4 knives, length 9 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, 15.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 16.50.
No. 6, 4 knives, length 10 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, 17.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 20.00.
Nos. 5 and 6 can be used by power.

Examine closely this list and compare the length of the knives with the last prices of other Cylinder Cutters, without regard to the number of the machine, and you will find that these Cutters are less in price than any other Cylinder Cutters in the market. Look well to this, and you are discipline to be imposed upon and confuse the purchaser. WM. HOVEY & LASELL.
RALPH L. & Co., No. 23 Fulton Street,
Aug. 16—3mos New-York.

HOPE'S EXPRESS,

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield,
Leaves Plainfield for New York at 8 1-2, A. M. and 5 1-2 P. M. For Somerville, Easton, &c. 9 1-2 A. M. and 5 1-2, P. M.
Arrives at Plainfield from New-York at 9 1-2 A. M. and 5 1-2 P. M. From Easton, &c 8 1-2 a.m. 5 1-2 p.m.

All business entrusted to us will be punctually attended to, without delay, at moderate charges, for cash.

Agricultural Implements and Machinery Seeds, Fertilizers, &c.

FARMERS, PLANTERS, AND MERCHANTS, will *find at the AGRICULTURAL WARE*house of A. B. ALLEN & Co.
No. 189 and 191 Water-st. reet, New-York.

The largest assortment in the United States, of tools and machinery, sold by the Manufacturers. Most of the implements sold by them, are manufactured in their own machine shop, under the direct supervision of one of the firm, where the best of seasoned timber only is used, with iron of the first quality.

PLOWS.

Of Plows, they sell more than 100 different patterns, among which are double mould board, or fluke plows self-sharpening, subsoil, and side-hill plows.

PLOW CASTINGS,

of various patterns, for Plows, such as bull tongue, scooter, scrapers and shovels, by the ton or retail.

Harrows, Cultivators, Cotton Scrapes Corn Planters Hoes, Shovels Spades and Forks; of various kinds and qualities.

STRAW CUTTERS AND CORN SHELLERS,

manufactured with much care, extra strong.

Paper Mills, Iron Mortars, Pestles, Threshing Machines for wheat, and oats and rice; Fanning Mills for do. Wheat and Corn Mills, with Burr Stones or iron Plates.

HORSE POWERS, THRESHERS AND SEPARTORS.—The Endless Chain or Railway Powers of our own manufacture, both single and double-geared, for one and two horses, which have never been equalled for lightness in construction, strength, durability and speed. These are universally approved wherever they have been tried.

2. The Bogardus Power, for 1 to 4 horses. These are compact and wholly of iron, and adapted to all kinds of work.

3. Eddy's Circular wrought iron large Cog Wheels, for 1 to 6 horses. A new and favorite power.

4. Taylor's Iron-geared Power, for 2 to 4 horses.

THRESHERS.—Improved Threshers upon the best principles, threshing clean with great rapidity, and scarce ever breaking the grain.

One-Horse Undershot	$25
Two-Horse Undershot	30 to $35
One-horse Overshot	28
Two-horse Overshot	33 to $38

Separator, which greatly facilitates cleaning the grain and preparing it for the fanning mill 7 to $10

All the above named machines are guaranteed the best in the United States.

Reaping and Mowing Machines, Sowing Machines Grain Cradles, Scythes and Rakes. Every kind of Agricultural Tools; also, Garden and Field Seeds, fruit and Ornamental Trees, sent to order.

Australian Wheat.—Very superior. The story of this grain is extra large, and makes the best of flour. It produces a greater average crop than any other variety now grown in New-York. Several years experience in its cultivation, proves that it is less liable to rust or mildew than other kinds; and as the stalk is large and strong it is also less liable to blow down or lodge. Price $4 per bushel. Other varieties of wheat, such as the White Flint, Mediterranean, Black Sea, &c.

A descriptive pictorial Catalogue of over 100 pages will be given, on application from customers, or sent to them by mail on their enclosing four letter stamps, to prepay postage, as required by the present post-office law.

N. B. Genuine Peruvian Guano, Bone Dust, &c.
Aug 16, 1852.—3w

ROSE MEDICINES—A Full assortment for sale by Aug 16.—tf I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at J. S. DUNHAM & CO.'S

Lyon's Katharion,

For the Growth and Establishment of this Hair to Prevent its falling off and Turning Gray.

Awarded the Highest Premiums by the States of New York, Maryland and Michigan at their annual Fairs of 1853.

THE Katharion neutralises the effect of disease, allays nervous and other irritation, by feeding and nurturing the Human Hair, even after a Baldness of twenty years' duration, the scalp From Scurf and Dandruff ; will cure Humors, Scald Head, Ringworm, Pimples, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Skin, &c. and it is the most desirable

TOILET ARTICLE

For Ladies' or Gentlemen's use in the world. Its perfume equals Lubin's choicest Extracts and being free from all offensive rancid oil or coloring properties, it gives the Hair that clean, bright, soft, lively appearance, so much admired in youthful years.

The use of the Katharion is adopted by the first physicians in Europe and America, and has a patronage and sale unprecedented in the history of the materia medica. But words are superfluous, a trial only can attest its several virtues, its millions certify. To be had throughout North and South America, Europe and the Islands of the Ocean, and West Indies, for 25 cents.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.
July 19, 1852.—3m*

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF
Pure Jamaica Ginger.

"Dear Sir,—I speak from a general knowledge of the virtues of Ginger, and particularly of your preparation of Jamaica Ginger, having used it three years in my practice. For Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Colic, Summer complaints, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, General Weakness, &c. it is unquestionably the best article in the world. Its effect in enabling the system to throw off the morbid disease of the blood, thereby leaving warm weather, makes it invaluable to every family. Its timely use would prevent nine-tenths of the protracted sickness during the summer season.

Yours truly. R. M. CHILSON, M.D.,
133 Bond-Street, New York."

This article, peculiarly adapted to this climate, and which is so universally used, can be had in Plainfield of July 19, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.
E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

To Salt Dealers, and Others!

SAMUEL HOTALING, No. 101 & 103 Broad street, New York, would inform his customers in the city and country, that he has Liverpool Sacks of Fine and Ground Salt ; also Turks Island, St. Martin's and other Ground Salt in bags, for sale at the lowest prices ; at Commercial Stores, Brooklyn, at Baxter & Lawrence's Stores, foot of Delancy street, at 118 Warren street, and also at his SALT WAREHOUSE, No. 101 and 103, Broad street, New York. At the above Salt Warehouse, also a supply of salts will be kept on hand, and delivered in lots to suit purchasers, at the lowest Market prices.

Liverpool and Turks Island Salt about.
New York, July 20, 1852.—3m

A Great Reduction in Prices, at
THOMAS H. DAVIS'S
Furnishing Store,

The Largest Stock in the City,
296 Barnet-St. Opposite Market House, Newark.

IT will be worthy the notice of all those who want to purchase any kind of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE Crockery, Glass, China, Cutlery, Britannia ware, Looking Glass Plates, Brushes, Bedcords, Basket-work, Tables Oil Cloths, Feathers, Feather Beds, Mattresses, &c. in fact all things that are needed to housekeeping, which to enumerate here, is impossible. Though one thing I must mention—BOOTS and SHOES, Mens and Boys fine misses, all can be bought at such low prices that every body is astonished, both in town and country now it can be had in Newark. Yes, I can see how that is, he attends to business himself, buys for cash and sells for the same, thereby he does not impose upon those that pay cash, therefore cannot sell so low. That is the true principle of doing business. Give him a call, 296 Barnet street, over Stryker's Eating Saloon.
July 19,—3m. THOMAS H. DAVIS.

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment,
AT Less than New York prices, for sale by
July 12, 1852. WM. S. WOOD.

Prepared or Artificial GUANO.

At 1 cent per pound, or $40 per ton of 2000 lbs. Is a matter of interest to Farmers. The Farmers' Institute, New York, on the 16th December, 1851, the following communication was made,

I present a specimen of Turnips raised upon my place last summer, with a portion of the dry weather) an unfavorable one for Turnips. The specimen is not the largest grown, although this weighed when first pulled, 4 3-4 lbs. The seed in the Spring of 1850, was three barrels of Prepared Guano, to the acre, and planted Sweet Corn, which produced a large crop. I then cropped with potatoes, which was also a good crop. After the first year's use the Turnip seed, without any further Manuring, than the three barrels above mentioned, and the result was far beyond my expectations.

Fairfield Co. Dec. 13, 1851. S. WHITING.

POTATO ROT.

Westchester Co. N. Y., Sept. 29, 1850.

I have used Kentish's Prepared Guano" this season on potatoes, and have very little rot, whereas I have did not use it, the potatoes were rotten and worthless. My neighbors also who have not used this Fertiliser, have not realized a good potato this year, and consider it a preventive of Rot ! G. PREAUT.

Extract of a Letter from E. B. Addison.
Alexandria Co. Va., April 23, 1851.

Dr. John H. Bayne, President of Prince George's Co. Agricultural Society, Maryland, has favored me with information you that last spring he used African Guano, Poudrette, Peruvian Guano, and your prepared Guano. The first two were destroyed, but the latter and the Peruvian and yours, was about equal. He pronounces your prepared Guano to be a very excellent article, and esteems it highly. EXTRACT FROM ANOTHER LETTER

DEPOT, No. 40 PECK SLIP, NEW YORK.
For Sale at this Office. July 19.—3m

TAKE NOTICE.

THAT the Judges of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, in and for the County of Essex, in the State of New Jersey, did, at the term of April, A. D. 1852, appoint Tuesday 28th day of September next at 10 o clock A. M. at the Court House in Newark at the September Term of said Court, as the time when I will apply for my discharge as an Insolvent Debtor, under the Insolvent laws of said State.

JOHN Y. BAINBRIDGE.
Dated Newark, July 10, 1852.

HORACE SEATON,
IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN
FOREIGN LACE GOODS

☞ Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Tabs, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Embroideries, Muslin, Gloves and Hosiery, Millinery articles, Combs, Brushes, Gilt, Jewelry, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Gent's, Ladies and Children's fancy shoes and boots at Galloway's. 624 ly

BARAIGE DELAINES—a few pieces just Received and selling off cheap.
Calicoes, factorized, for 6 cents per yard
May 5, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. If not attended to soon, they will be passed over for collection. All I want is to settle my concern and close. I give this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON
Plainfield, April 9, 1852.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE,
SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER.

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods in his line. He also

Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute all orders in all the branches of the above business, and don't wish to neglect one in order to oblige another. Try us, gentlemen and judge as soon as done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen and judge of your selves.
May 17, 1852.—tf

Hoover's Black Ink.

THE Best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

WONDER OF WONDERS
Petroleum, or Rock Oil!

A NATURAL REMEDY

Procured from a Well in Allegheny County, Pa. 400 feet below the earth's surface ! Put up and sold by SAMUEL M. KIER, Canal Basin, 7th st. Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Petroleum is a natural remedy as it is put up as it flows from the bosom of the earth, without any thing being added to or taken from it. It gets its fragrance from the beds of substances which it passes over in its secret channel. They are blended together in such a form as to defy all human competition. The Petroleum in this state is like Balm to Gilead as a PERFECT REMEDY, whose most chronic diseases are acknowledged not only by physicians, but by the community at large. These diseases are Snags for doctors on the earth, being beyond the additional substances of different types and healing them in such complete solution, as to realize the aid of chemistry to detect, that every ingredient is there, the fact that they were completed by the hand of Nature, for the alleviation of human suffering and diseases. If Petroleum is a medicine at all, it is a good one for nature never half does things, we think. It is a medicine of unequalled power, we have the most abundant testimony. It will be used when many of the new remedies will be forgotten, or have run their race. It will continue to be used and applied to the body, as long as man continues to be afflicted with disease. That it will cure every disease to which we are liable, we do not pretend to say, but that it will cure many diseases, hitherto incurable, is a fact which is proven by the evidence in its favor. Its discovery is a new era in medicine, and will secure to the health and happiness of man.

The Petroleum is an external and internal remedy ; call and get a circular from the agent, which will give a full description of it. Persons writing for circulars and articles can be supplied by applying to S. M. Kier, Pittsburgh, Pa. For sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.
Aug. 24, 1852.

READ! READ!! A Voice from Middlesex County!
NEW BRUNSWICK, Oct 24 1851,

Mr. S. M. Kier ;
Dear Sir—Allow me to certify to the virtues of your great natural Medicine called the Petroleum or Rock Oil, which is a great Medicine for the cure of Cholera and Dysentery. I have been afflicted with a severe attack of Diarrhœa, and made use of your Petroleum, which relieved me in a very short time. I cheerfully recommend it to all others. Yours Respectfully, S. JEFFRIES.

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES FACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 25 cents a piece (including the paper) or less if included.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to $1 per piece. Call and see them.

J. F. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers
Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852.

$500 CHALLENGE!

WHATEVER concerns the health and happiest of a people is at all times of vital importance. It takes it for granted that every person will do all in their power, to save the lives of their children, and that every parent will endeavor to promote their own health at all sacrifices. If feel it to be my duty to state in the annexed pa that WORMS, according to the opinion of the most celebrated Physicians, are the primary causes of a large majority of diseases to which children of all ages are liable ; if you have an appetite continually changeable You one kind of food to another, Bad Breath, Pain of the Stomach, Sickness at the Stomach, Sudden and Frightful Pains of the Belly, Dry Cough, Slow Fever, Pulse Irregular—remember all of these denote WORMS, and you should at once apply the remedy

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

An article founded upon Scientific Principles, compounded with purely vegetable substances being perfectly safe when taken, and can be given to the most tender infant with decided beneficial effect, where Bile abounds in the Intestinal Canal, and the food is acid and debilitated the Toine properties of nap Worm Syrup are such, that it stands without an equal in the catalogue of medicines, being a sure and safe Vermifuge and Cathartic, which makes it an infallible remedy for those afflicted with Dyspepsia, the astonishing cures performed by this Syrup within Physician have baffled. It is the best evidence of its superior efficacy over all others.

THE TAPE WORM!

This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of all that infest the human system, it grows to an almost indefinite length, and destroys the health of the child, by irritation and Stomach, affecting the health so sadly as to cause St. Vitus Dance, Fits, &c., that those afflicted seldom if ever suspect that it is the Tape Worm lastening them, in early grave. In order to destroy this Worm, a very energetic treatment must be pursued, it would therefore be proper to take 6 to 8 of my Liver Pills so as to remove all obstructions from the Liver, and then act direct upon the Worm, which must be taken in doses of 2 Tab espoonfuls 3 times a day, these directions and followed strictly cannot fail in curing the most obstinate case of Tape Worm.

HOBENSACK'S LIVER PILLS.

No part of the system is more liable to disease than the LIVER, it serving as a Strainer to purify the blood, or giving the proper secretion to the bile; so the many wrong actions of the Liver effect the other important parts of the system, and results variously, in Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dropsy, Piles, &c. when the disorder watch every symptom that might indicate a wrong action of the Liver. These Pills being composed of ROOTS AND HERBS, are perfectly safe to take in any case. Namely, 1st. An EXPECTORANT, which arrests the secretion from the Pulmonary mucus membrane or promotes the discharge of spretial matter. 2d. An Alterative, which changes in a mild and speedy and insensible manner the certain morbid actions of the system. 3rd. A TONIC, which gives tone and strength to the nervous system, and through it to every part of the body. 4th. A CATHARTIC, which acts in perfect harmony with the other ingredients, and operating on the Bowels, and expelling the offensive matter. 5th. A DIURETIC, purifying the Blood, which destroys disease and restores health.

TO FEMALES.

You will find these Pills an invaluable medicine in many complaints to which you are subject. In obstructions either total or partial, they have been found of inestimable benefit restoring their functional arrangements to a healthy action, purifying the blood and rendering it so effectually to put to flight all complaints which may arise from female irregularities, as headache, giddiness, stomach sick, pain in the side, &c. &c.

None genuine unless signed J. N. Hobensack, all others being base imitation.

☞ Agents wishing new supplies, and Store Keepers desirous of becoming Agents must address the Proprietor, J. N. Hobensack, Philadelphia, Pa.

For sale in Plainfield,
Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. CUSHING.
And at Retail by C. Drake, Scotch Plains, Charles Foster, Westfield
August 23, 1852.—3m.

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John B. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite French & Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. constantly on hand.

All work warranted of the best material and well done. All persons wishing to purchase any article, to his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.
Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant.
do. Sanative Pills Also.
Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops. Phoenix Bitters and Scotch Snuff, a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholic, Cramps, pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Atwood's Spinal Elixir for the pain in the back. Also, Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by
April 20, 1852. JAMES M. DUNN.

LAW CIRCULAR.
WORTHINGTON G. SNETHEN.
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Solicitors to practice Law exclusively in the Supreme Court, and to attend to cases before Congress ;

To procure Claims and Settle Accounts against the Departments, Bureaus, and Boards of Commissioners ;

To procure Patents for Inventions, at home and abroad, and to obtain Pensions and Bounty lands ;

To collect Debts, Dividends, Legacies, and Insurances in any part of the United States and in Foreign Countries ;

To sue for Investments of funds in Loans and Stocks and on Bond and Mortgage, and to negotiate the purchase and sale of Loans, Land and Patent-rights in any State of the Union.

WONDER OF WONDERS
Petroleum, or Rock Oil!

A NATURAL REMEDY

Procured from a Well in Allegheny County, Pa. 400 feet below the earth's surface ! Put up and sold by SAMUEL M. KIER, Canal Basin, 7th st. Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Petroleum is a natural remedy as it is put up as it flows from the bosom of the earth, without any thing being added to or taken from it. It gets its fragrance from the beds of substances which it passes over in its secret channel. They are blended together in such a form as to defy all human competition. The Petroleum in this state is like Balm to Gilead as a PERFECT REMEDY, whose most chronic diseases are acknowledged not only by physicians, but by the community at large. These diseases are Snags for doctors on the earth, being beyond the additional substances of different types and healing them in such complete solution, as to realize the aid of chemistry to detect, that every ingredient is there, the fact that they were completed by the hand of Nature, for the alleviation of human suffering and diseases. If Petroleum is a medicine at all, it is a good one for nature never half does things, we think. It is a medicine of unequalled power, we have the most abundant testimony. It will be used when many of the new remedies will be forgotten, or have run their race. It will continue to be used and applied to the body, as long as man continues to be afflicted with disease. That it will cure every disease to which we are liable, we do not pretend to say, but that it will cure many diseases, hitherto incurable, is a fact which is proven by the evidence in its favor. Its discovery is a new era in medicine, and will secure to the health and happiness of man.

The Petroleum is an external and internal remedy ; call and get a circular from the agent, which will give a full description of it. Persons writing for circulars and articles can be supplied by applying to S. M. Kier, Pittsburgh, Pa. For sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.
Aug. 24, 1852.

READ! READ!! A Voice from Middlesex County!
NEW BRUNSWICK, Oct 24 1851,

Mr. S. M. Kier ;
Dear Sir—Allow me to certify to the virtues of your great natural Medicine called the Petroleum or Rock Oil, which is a great Medicine for the cure of Cholera and Dysentery. I have been afflicted with a severe attack of Diarrhœa, and made use of your Petroleum, which relieved me in a very short time. I cheerfully recommend it to all others. Yours Respectfully, S. JEFFRIES.

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES FACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 25 cents a piece (including the paper) or less if included.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to $1 per piece. Call and see them.

J. F. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers
Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852.

$500 CHALLENGE!

WHATEVER concerns the health and happiest of a people is at all times of vital importance. It takes it for granted that every person will do all in their power, to save the lives of their children, and that every parent will endeavor to promote their own health at all sacrifices. If feel it to be my duty to state in the annexed pa that WORMS, according to the opinion of the most celebrated Physicians, are the primary causes of a large majority of diseases to which children of all ages are liable ; if you have an appetite continually changeable You one kind of food to another, Bad Breath, Pain of the Stomach, Sickness at the Stomach, Sudden and Frightful Pains of the Belly, Dry Cough, Slow Fever, Pulse Irregular—remember all of these denote WORMS, and you should at once apply the remedy

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

An article founded upon Scientific Principles, compounded with purely vegetable substances being perfectly safe when taken, and can be given to the most tender infant with decided beneficial effect, where Bile abounds in the Intestinal Canal, and the food is acid and debilitated the Toine properties of nap Worm Syrup are such, that it stands without an equal in the catalogue of medicines, being a sure and safe Vermifuge and Cathartic, which makes it an infallible remedy for those afflicted with Dyspepsia, the astonishing cures performed by this Syrup within Physician have baffled. It is the best evidence of its superior efficacy over all others.

THE TAPE WORM!

This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of all that infest the human system, it grows to an almost indefinite length, and destroys the health of the child, by irritation and Stomach, affecting the health so sadly as to cause St. Vitus Dance, Fits, &c., that those afflicted seldom if ever suspect that it is the Tape Worm lastening them, in early grave. In order to destroy this Worm, a very energetic treatment must be pursued, it would therefore be proper to take 6 to 8 of my Liver Pills so as to remove all obstructions from the Liver, and then act direct upon the Worm, which must be taken in doses of 2 Tab espoonfuls 3 times a day, these directions and followed strictly cannot fail in curing the most obstinate case of Tape Worm.

HOBENSACK'S LIVER PILLS.

No part of the system is more liable to disease than the LIVER, it serving as a Strainer to purify the blood, or giving the proper secretion to the bile; so the many wrong actions of the Liver effect the other important parts of the system, and results variously, in Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dropsy, Piles, &c. when the disorder watch every symptom that might indicate a wrong action of the Liver. These Pills being composed of ROOTS AND HERBS, are perfectly safe to take in any case. Namely, 1st. An EXPECTORANT, which arrests the secretion from the Pulmonary mucus membrane or promotes the discharge of spretial matter. 2d. An Alterative, which changes in a mild and speedy and insensible manner the certain morbid actions of the system. 3rd. A TONIC, which gives tone and strength to the nervous system, and through it to every part of the body. 4th. A CATHARTIC, which acts in perfect harmony with the other ingredients, and operating on the Bowels, and expelling the offensive matter. 5th. A DIURETIC, purifying the Blood, which destroys disease and restores health.

TO FEMALES.

You will find these Pills an invaluable medicine in many complaints to which you are subject. In obstructions either total or partial, they have been found of inestimable benefit restoring their functional arrangements to a healthy action, purifying the blood and rendering it so effectually to put to flight all complaints which may arise from female irregularities, as headache, giddiness, stomach sick, pain in the side, &c. &c.

None genuine unless signed J. N. Hobensack, all others being base imitation.

☞ Agents wishing new supplies, and Store Keepers desirous of becoming Agents must address the Proprietor, J. N. Hobensack, Philadelphia, Pa.

For sale in Plainfield,
Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. CUSHING.
And at Retail by C. Drake, Scotch Plains, Charles Foster, Westfield
August 23, 1852.—3m.

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John B. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite French & Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. constantly on hand.

All work warranted of the best material and well done. All persons wishing to purchase any article, to his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.
Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant.
do. Sanative Pills Also.
Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops. Phoenix Bitters and Scotch Snuff, a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholic, Cramps, pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Atwood's Spinal Elixir for the pain in the back. Also, Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by
April 20, 1852. JAMES M. DUNN.

LAW CIRCULAR.
WORTHINGTON G. SNETHEN.
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Solicitors to practice Law exclusively in the Supreme Court, and to attend to cases before Congress ;

To procure Claims and Settle Accounts against the Departments, Bureaus, and Boards of Commissioners ;

To procure Patents for Inventions, at home and abroad, and to obtain Pensions and Bounty lands ;

To collect Debts, Dividends, Legacies, and Insurances in any part of the United States and in Foreign Countries ;

To sue for Investments of funds in Loans and Stocks and on Bond and Mortgage, and to negotiate the purchase and sale of Loans, Land and Patent-rights in any State of the Union.

Emery & Co.'s Patent Horse Power,
Thrasher and Separator.

THE UNDERSIGNED have been appointed sole agents in the city of New York for the sale of their Improved Horse Powers and Threshers. Those wishing to procure Emery's Improved Horse Power and Machine will observe that their name is cast on every link of chain. None other is genuine.

LONGETT & GRIFFING
State Agricultural Warehouse,
July 5, 1852.—3m No. 25 Cliff Street, New-York.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of L. D. Dunham & Co., where he has on hand a large and well selected stock of Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, 1852.

SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

WE would say to our friends and customers generally, that in addition to our present stock, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not praise up our Goods with a view of trying to stake the people believe them to be of superior cost, but will stand the closest scrutiny and quality shall speak for themselves. DeLaines from 10cts to 25c.; handsome Barege DeLaines new styles from 18c to 25c.; plain and striped Bareges 25c; Silks from 25c to 100c per yard; Gros du rine variety from 4 to 38 cts.; a good lot of Ladies' Gloves from 10 cts to 75; also Gents Gloves, Bleached and Brown Muslins very cheap, Ginghams from 6c to 25c, and in fact as to the balance of other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloth, plain and fancy Cassimers, a first rate assortment of Vestings any or all of which can be had at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Goods furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods found in a

Plainest and Cheapest

To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it an object to Cash purchasers from 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we are entirely in the Dry Goods trade and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

SILKS ! SILKS ! ! SILKS ! ! !

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also Cashon Plaids new Spring Styles to which the attention of Ladies is particularly requested. at ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

May 31, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods' Store.

R. R. R.

Science, by subjecting the laws of Chemistry to the skill of man, has contributed to his bodily and temporal happiness by stepping in to the rescue and relief of pain in an instant, and curing the most obstinate CHRONIC RHEUMATISMS

IN A FEW HOURS

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,

Internally and Externally instantly stops Pain, and speedily cures its cause

It is warranted to be applicable to the following pains in Fifteen Minutes,

and to speedily and effectually cure the disease,

Rheumatism,	Cholic,	Cramps and Spasms,
Lumbago,	Paralysis,	Summer Complaints,
Stiff Joints,	Neuralgia,	Soreness in Bones,
Tic Doloreux,	Dysentery,	Pain in the Limbs,
Sciatica,	Diarrhœa,	Sick Headache,
Ague Cake,	HeartBurn,	Colds, &c.
Sore Throat,	Colds, &c.

PAIN

IS the warning given of the presence of disease and of the derangement and perversion of the nervous and muscular system. In order to cure disease and rid the system entirely of its cause, our first great desideratum is to stop the pain—strengthen the nerves—equalize the circulation—regulate healthy action—the functions and secretions of every organ in the system ; this we accomplish by the marvellous

Strengthening, cleansing, invigorating. and powerful pain soothing properties of

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

No matter what the cause of the pain may be—if it arises from nervous prostration, muscular debility, disarrangement of the liver or secretions of the skin, whether it be hysterical pains, nervous pains, nervous headache, nervous irritability, spasmodic affections, cramps, diarrhœa, bowel complaint, chills and fever whether it originates from local derangements or external injuries.

Radway's Ready Relief taken internally and applied externally, will speedily and effectually stop the pain and cure its cause ,

RHEUMATISM ! 100,000 persons cured in 1850

The most excruciating pain stopped in two hours

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the quickest, safest, and most effectual remedy for the cure of Rheumatism in all its forms now in use ; we state only what we know. It will stop the most torturing pains of this distressing complaint in a few hours, and in a few days never known it fail in giving instant relief. In every city, village and town of America it has cured some of the people of the worst cases that ever came under its will warrant it to do as stated—it will instantly relieve the sufferer from pain and speedily cure its cause.

SICK AND NERVOUS HEADACHE

100,000 cases cured in 1850.—It will give relief in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief takes according to directions, will speedily and effectually cure this complaint. Taken internally and applied externally it refreshes the senses, cleanses the stomach of irritating matter, it braces the nerves tones and secretions of the head and brain, and relieves the sufferer from pain in 15 minutes. It is now curing hundreds daily of the sick and nervous headache

NEURALGIA.—100,000 Neuralgia cases cured in 1850—It will stop the most violent pain in Fifteen Minutes.

The cruel and excruciating pangs of this distressing complaint are usually arrested by Radway's Ready Relief. The happy and invigorating effects it produces on the nerves to which it is applied, the iron power it quickly restores the nervous energy and cures the disease. It is the only remedy that has effectually cured Neuralgia in its worst forms.

DIARHŒA.—200,000 persons cured in 1850.—Pain stopped in Fifteen Minutes

Radway's Ready Relief cured more cases of cholera morbus, dysentery, cholic and all bowel complaints the past year than any other remedy in use. On the banks of the Mississippi, Missouri, Ohio rivers, in Ohio River, in New Orleans, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukie, Galena, and other places where the diarrhœa, cholera morbus and dysentery prevail, Radway's Ready Relief was used with the best success. It will in 16 minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms, impart a genial heat throughout the whole system, allay all irritation, stop the painful discharges and relieve the patient from all pain.

CRAMPS AND SPASMS.

A Teaspoonful of Radway's Ready Relief, taken internally, and by rubbing extensively, will in a few minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms. In many cases where the extremities have lost all feeling, where there was no pulsation, the Ready Relief used and thorough rubbing Radway's Ready Relief has always brought life and action, and a quick and healthy circulation of blood.

SWELLED JOINTS.

If you have pain in the bones, swelled joints, weakness of the muscles, if you have a sore throat, swelled leg, bruised arm, sore head, or if you burn or scald your self, Radway's Ready Relief will take out the fire, remove the pain and swelling, give energy and strength to the muscles and entirely restore the parts.

Jumping Toothache cured in one second.

All aches and pains—back ache, toothache, face ache, ear ache, stomache, pain in the limbs, the muscles, the bones, the back, the head and arms, Radway's Ready Relief will instantly cure.

PAINFUL ITCHINGS

And all cutaneous eruptions are relieved from all irritation by bathing the parts with Ready Relief.

CHAPPED HANDS !

By bathing externally the seeds of the neck and spine, it will strengthen the spine. We have known many cases of paralysis and other surviviors of the spine to be entirely cured, and the disfigured object to regain his proper shape by the use of Radway's Ready Relief.

CHILLS FEVER.

One teaspoonful of Radway's Ready relief taken on the first symptoms of chills, and bathe the head, neck and shoulders, if there is any pain experienced, and it will entirely prevent chill Fever.

Your stomach, Flatulency, Bad Breath, Wind, &c. are quickly cured by a dose of Radway's ready relief taken internally. It is a delicious cordial, imparting strength to every organ and function of the body and health and happiness to the mind.

CAUTION TO DRUGGISTS

Purchase Radway's ready relief only of the authorized agent, whose name is given below. Our travelling agents have a power of attorney signed by us ; before purchasing always ask to see it. Price 25 cents a bottle.

RADWAY & CO., 162 Fulton st. N. Y.

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfd.

Sept. 9, 1851.-1y.

12 South Down sheep

AND FOUR LAMBS, For Sale by the Subscriber on his Farm, near Plainfield.

June 21, 1852. EDWARD ROACH.

LIGHTNING RODS !

M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 132 East Twenty-Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and affix to buildings their improved Lightning Rods which have been in extensive use for the past year, and a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. Mr. A. M. Quimby has made Electricity the study of his life, and his rods are always put in accordance with the principles he has formed and adopted as the result of his experience. An adherence to these rules he has found to be the only safe course for insuring perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and exposed as regards lightning, and require a different arrangement of the rods, to suit the peculiarities of each case. It is upon the correct principle why so many of the common round rods have failed heretofore; being put up by persons ignorant of the law by which electricity is governed, and not having been arranged in such a manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Quimby's rods have been placed on the houses of Mr. D. Rockwell, C. Beebe, Esq. Mr. M. Stelle, and Mr. Hoffman Gould, and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church and others in New York ; church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn ; Troy, &c. &c.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of the paper.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—6m

MARBLE & STONE YARD.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Foot and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful rée St re Cus ey, from which I will furnish to order every variety of stone for Buildings, whether ornamental or plain. All of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch , and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.-1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods !

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, Elizabethtown, (a short distance from the depot,) would invite his former friends, and all who are in want of good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call.

His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order at the shortest notice and cheapest charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay.

JOHN KEELER.

April 20, 1852 d1.y.

PAINTING !

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by P. Mosher, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting !

Also WHITE WASHING, all of which he will promptly, punctually and honestly executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned hereby returns thanks to his customers for their liberal patronage the past year, and will endeavor by attention to merit and secure a continuance of their favors.

☞ Orders may be left at the Union Office,

April 1, 1852.-y CHARLES TAYLOR.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE, PHYSICIANS,

NO. 106 WEST FIFTEENTH STREET, NEW YORK,

Son-in-law, daughter and associate of

MRS. MOTTS

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston,

THERE devotes her treatment exclusively to CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, particularly those arising from a scrofulous taint, producing Scrofulous, Scorbutic or Cutaneous diseases, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say that they have long established a permanent success in cases of long standing, after their having been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTTS CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

☞ Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. jan1 1y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUSE,

Hay, Floor and Portable Platform,

Bank, Gold and Counter

Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made in this establishment warranted not liable get out of order.

Manufactory 39 Greene street, New York,

Depot 83 Fulton street, 3rd Wigwam.

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

E. E. DUBOIS, SANDS, J. ROSIECO. E

Nov. 24, 1851.-1y

HOWE'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

[IN MAN]

Rheumatism,	Sprains,	Weakness in the
Burns, Bruises,	Cuts, Sores,	Back, Breast,
Sore Throat,	Frosted Feet,	Limb & Joint.

[IN HORSES]

Bruises, Sprains,	Ringbone,	Poll Evil, and all
Warbles, Splints,	Spavin, Fistula,	diseases of Horses,
Curbs, Scratches,	Thoroughpin,	where an Embroca-
Windgall,	Saddle Galls,	tion can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOWE, CHEMIST,

No 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Hill's City Hotel.)

☞ CAUTION ☜

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Hoagland, Peenamin Dupuy, Freeman Campbell, Barney McCherry, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel R. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander Thompson, Jacob Dwyer, Princeton, Joseph Hammitt, John A. Weart, Trenton, A. W. Brown, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG In Somerville by Culver Bergalow. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of May next, removes his stand from No. 16 Maiden-Lane, to the store formerly occupied by him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him :—James Beesley & Son's celebrated Needles,Bridge's Gravel Needles and other Needles,—Pearl Buttons, Combs' Steel and Gold Pens, Spool and Ball Cotton, Stay Binding, Tapes, Bobbins, and Eyes, Hooks, Thimbles, Pocket Knives, &c. &c. RICHD RICHARDS.

Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods,

April 26. 1852.-3m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York.

Chairs ! Chairs ! Chairs !

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Square and Round Post, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, and Children's Chairs; &c.

Wash and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel do.

March 23, 1852. For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

1852. CHEAP AS YET

At Oliver Runyon's Cheap Dry Goods and

GROCERY STORE.

Gentlemen and Ladies please call and examine my stock of Goods before purchasing, I would say to my friends and customers that my stock isconstantly changing, as I replace with new goods adapted to suit the different seasons of the year.

Handsome Barege DeLaines from 1s. to 2s. per yard. Lawn from 6c to 22c. Black Alpacas from 2 to 7s. yd Prints any variety from 4c to 1s. French Calico from 1s 6d to 2s 6d. Black Barege from 1s 6d to 3s. Bleached muslin from 4c to 1s 6d. Cambric, Jaconet, Book and Swiss muslin, plain and figured. Bishop Lawn 4c to 6c. Black and colored Silks, Satins, Ribbons, Edging from 3c to 75c. Black Detts Veils, Crape and Bombazine for scarfs, Summer Goods of every style and quality, Cloths, Cassimers, Doeskins, Satinets, corks, jeans, linseys, flannel, Cotton Batting, Edging, Insertion and Lace of all kinds, also a good assortment of Leghorn and Straw Hats from 1s. to 7s. each.

GROCERIES

A good article of Green and Black Tea from 4s. to 6s. per lb. Molasses 2s to 3s. Brown sugar 5c 6d to 4s 6d. 7 coffee crushed 4s 6d. to 6s. Crushed and pounded Sugars. Raisins to 1s. Coffee, Rice, Vinegar, hominy, and every thing in the Grocery line.

CROCKERY and GLASS WARE, a Good Assortment constantly on hand. Please call and examine for yourself.

PROVISIONS.—Salt Pork, Shoulders, Hams, Dried beef, lard, butter, cheese, fish by half barrels, line salt by the sack, coarse salt, &c.

BOOTS and SHOES, for men and boys, Ladies', gaiters, buskins, slippers, morocco, patent leather and cloth. Buskins, at low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Linseed oil, lamp oil, Turpentine and coach varnish, whitelead, yellow ochre, Venitian red, chrome yellow, red lead, Paris green, lamp black, litharge, brown japan, fire-proof Paint, putty, glass, &c. &c.

FLOUR, Best and coarse, Meal, ground feed, wheat, bran, and grain, constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village.

N. B. All kinds of produce, rags, and in fact every thing you can eat, drink or wear, taken in exchange for goods.

OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, July 26, 1852.

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

FRAZEE MARSH returns thanks to his numerous patrons for their liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year, and in order to accommodate as many friends he has enlarged his store and will keep constantly on hand at the old stand, opposite the Second Presbyterian Church, where will be found constantly on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., &c., as cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to all kinds of Ornamental Painting, Graining, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

☞ PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES. ☜

Mixed Paint constantly on hand. Advice gratis.

Jan. 5, 1852. F. MARSH & SON.

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS.

DANIEL BULLMAN,

Is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Spring Patterns ; Domestics of every grade and price ; Silks, plain and figured ; Ginghams, Alpaccas, &c. suitable to the season. White Goods of all kinds, such as Muslins, Cassimeres, Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Hosiery, Gloves, and all other articles in the dry goods line, necessary to make as varied, full and complete an assortment as can be found in the parts, and will be sold as cheap too. Try us and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing these articles, will find my store just to the place. I buy good articles, and sell them cheap as the cheapest, and my customers cannot help being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY,

Some very beautiful, and some very cheap ; a large and varied assortment, to suit all tastes, constantly on hand. Also, Lamps, in great variety.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell the same goods as cheap, and save you freight, breakage and trouble of going after it. Also, Looking Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

VARIETIES AND FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it, very likely. A portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited.

D. BULLMAN.

April 26, 1852.

AFFLICTED READ !

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. KINKELIN,

N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice in this city has enabled Dr. K. to be the most expert and successful practitioner far and near in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat or legs, pains in the head, nocturnal rheumatism, or any other such diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled and the system poisoned.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

☞ PARTICULAR NOTICE ! ☜

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, destroy both mind and body, should apply immediately. Weakness and constitutional debility, loss of muscular energy, physical lassitude and general prostration, irritability and all nervous affections, indigestion, palpitation of the heart, and every disease connected in any way with the disorder of the procreative functions cured, and full vigor restored

READ !—YOUTH AND MANHOOD !

A Vigorous Life, or a Premature Death.

Kinkelin on Self Preservation Only 25 Cents.

This Book is filled with useful information on the infirmities and diseases of the Generative Organs. It addresses itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by every one. The valuable advice and impressive warning it gives will prevent years of misery and suffering and save annually thousands of lives. Parents by reading it will learn how to prevent the destruction of their health.

A remittance of 25 cents, enclosed in a letter addressed to Dr. Kinkelin, N. W. corner of 3d and Union streets, Spruce Street, Philadelphia, will ensure a book, under envelope, per return of mail, to any part of the country. Address Dr. K. by letter, post-paid, and be cured at home. Packages of Medicines, Directions, &c. forwarded by sending a remittance, and put up secure from damage or curiosity.

Book-sellers, News Agents, Pedlars, canvassers, and others supplied with the above book at very low rates.

Sept. 2, 1851.-1y

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at Dr. GLENN & Co's Manufactory, 194 Fulton-st (west of Broadway.) A General Assortment of Manufactured and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

GLENN & CO., 194 FULTON-STREET,

Oct. 7, 1851.-1y BROOKLYN.

PAINTS, &c.

AMERICAN PATENT ATOMIC DRIER, Graining COLOR, and Attrition Paste, Gold Size, Zinc Driver, Stove Polish, and Black Varnish for Iron.

QUARTERMAN & SON,

Painters & Chemists,

114 John-Street, New York.

March 9, 1852.—1y.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any thing we can eat, or do anything with. Cash or bargefor goods.

I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

BREWSTER'S CHOLERA MIXTURE.

FOR THE

CURE OF CHOLERA MORBUS, DIARRHŒA BOWEL COMPLAINTS,

Cholic, Griping Pains, or Sick Stomach and ASIATIC CHOLERA.

This mixture is a new remedy that has just sprung up from some newspaper recipe and offered to the public during the excitement of Cholera time, but was prepared 3 years ago, and has been used more or less extensively by physicians and others as a standard medicine, and has been successfully tested in numerous violent cases of Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Cholic &c. and will not fail to cure in one case in ten, if administered according to directions, on the first attack.

It is just what every family, vessel, steamboat, barge, or canal boat should have, as it is a sure guard against sudden attack, as the Cholera Morbus is most likely to attack its subjects in the night, the sooner the remedy is applied the better. All other pains, in most cases is produced by Diarrhœa and Griping Pains in the bowels, and doubtless, one great reason why so many PERSONS DIE OF CHOLERA is, the want of proper remedies administered in the first stage of the disease, or the delay in procuring a physician before the patient is past cure.

Reference can be given to hundreds of the most respectable persons, as well as to physicians who have used it, and witnessed its effects in curing the most violent cases of Cholera Morbus and Diarrhœa.

Price, 25 cts. per bottle.

Certificate from Rev. R. B. Hotchkin, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Fairfield, N. J.

Mr. F. G. BREWSTER;

Dear Sir—I have found in your Cholera Mixture a ever-available medicine in all attacks of Diarrhœa, which have been experienced either by myself or family for more than 20 years past. In no instance has it never failed to cure us, and in the use of it we have in a great measure escaped the usual unpleasant after effects of Anodynes. I have found it especially useful when taken at the change of season, or spring and fall, one dose or more, is almost sure to effect me injuriously, and the use of your Cholera Mixture has proved of the greatest service on such occasions. I have also found it a very useful relief from painful Diarrhœa that I first became acquainted with it, and I have since very seldom suffered myself to be found destitute of it.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

R. B. HOTCHKIN.

Belleville, N. J., July 25, 1849.

Prepared only by F. G. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Belleville, N. J., and for sale together with Brewster's Pectoral Mixture, and his Embrocation, by Dr. L. CRAIG, Druggist, agent for Plainfield; C. W. Dodge, New York; D. C. English, New Brunswick, and by others throughout the State.

July 12, 1852.-2m

DR. HALSEY'S FOREST WINE.

The discovery of the FOREST WINE is the greatest blessing to the afflicted. Put up in Quart Bottles, it is used by all of which does more good and goes further in the cure of Disease, than ten bottles of any Sarsaparilla Preparation ever presented to the public without any unpleasant or weakening effect.

The method by which all Sarsaparilla, and other similar medicines are prepared, is by boiling the Roots or Plants to obtain the extracts. Their medicinal virtues are by this process evaporated and dissipated.

It is not to be wondered at then, that ten and even twenty bottles of these Sarsaparillas are sometimes taken without any perceptible benefit. Not so with the Forest Wine. It is manufactured by a peculiar chemical apparatus, a perfect wine is produced without heating ; retaining, at the same time, all the primitive healing properties of the rare medicinal plants of which it is composed, thus rendering the Forest Wine the most efficient medicine the world ever produced, at the same time the most agreeable.

GENERAL DEBILITY, EMACIATION, WASTING OF THE BODY, &c.

Many persons are afflicted with some one of the above complaints, without being able to trace it to any particular cause, and therefore delay the use of the proper remedy until the disease becomes constitutional. These disorders are usually characterized by a sense of sinking or entire exhaustion after exercise. Some experience sluggishness, hastitude, and, at times, paleness or flushing of the countenance, or palpitation of the heart, on like symptoms.

The excellent effects which have ever attended the use of the Forest Wine, in all cases of General Debility, is conclusive evidence of its happy results in this class of disorders. Many have resorted to these medicines as an ultimatum; and been speedily cured. For Nervous Affections, Fits, Pains in the Head and Dizziness of Vision, Weakness of the Back and Nervous Extremities of the Eyes, Impotence, Pimples of the Face Premature Decline of Virility, Weakness of Memory and Power of Procreation, Nervous Apprehension, Confusion in Society, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, &c. All these complaints invariably disappear as soon as the source is stopped from which they emanated.

The Forest Wine is a safe, permanent and approved of by the highest authorities in Europe and America, is recommended by the most prominent Physicians of all countries, as the only certain remedy existing for those diseases of a private nature, and is a substitute to the use of drugs, the bougie, cauterization, &c., not to mention the thousand advertised nostrums of the day, as corditals, antidotes, &c., &c. It constitutes at the same time the safest, best and most pleasant mode of medical treatment ever offered to the afflicted, a fair price being allowed for the instrument after the desired effect has been attained.

Be it also remembered, that these complaints are but little understood by the profession in general, and that all the medicine in the world will never have the desired effect while the cause lies rankling, if allowed to prevail, are sure to produce the most distressing consequences.

It has been a matter of surprise to some, that any race of respectability and of professional attainments should devote his attention to diseases which people of every description pretend to cure so easily. If, however, but the unsuspecting victims of the unknown there would but open society were known, a very different opinion would be formed. And it is not only the present misery and depression, produced upon the mind and body, that evil is deplored, but some are of such a nature as to effect posterity, and even to destroy the reproductive faculty, altogether. It is a fact that, were not properly treated, they may remain as dormant in the constitution as to appear in no other way than in their effects upon posterity ; yet, if properly understood, are most easily and speedily removed by the use of the proper medicine and instrument, will doubtless, in a great measure, contribute to check the evils of quackery, so prevalent in this class of diseases, throughout the Union.

☞ The Forest Wine, and instrument, carefully secured against all observation in a box, is only $10. It can be sent, by express, to any address in any part of the United States, Canada, &c., according to order, accompanied by full directions. Important to the married and single, the expenses, even to the remotest parts of the country, being very trifling.

The unexampled success this Instrument has obtained since its introduction, has induced a number of unprincipled persons in New York, Philadelphia, Albany, Boston, &c. to get up some ridiculous things called "imitations," and offer them to the public. Any such resemblance, neither in form nor principle to my own invented, long tried, and universally approved Instruments, and which are as similar to them as night is to day. Every one of these infringements upon my rights will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law, I being not willing to connect the well and honestly earned reputation of my Instrument with those of such dishonorable productions. No Instrument is genuine and none can be warranted but those ordered from myself.

All applications and remittances must be directed (post paid) to my Agents, as I have no Agents or Agencies established but in London and Paris.

Address, post paid, Dr. De Laney, 51 Lispenard St., New York. Office hours, daily, from 9 A. M. to 3 P.M. and from 7 to 8, P. M. the Sabbath excepted.

☞ The undersigned certify, with great pleasure, that the above-mentioned instrument is not only constructed on scientific principles, but that from its use the happiest effects have been produced in many cases, and therefore being for the cure of those diseases, NO OTHER CERTAIN REMEDY EXTANT.

HENRY S. KELLER, M. D.

CH. GOERCK, Merchant, Brothers stand.

C. ECKHARDT, M. D. 24 Howard St. NEW YORK

D. DE LANEY is prepared to execute all order of surgical apparatus, viz.: Artificial Arms and Legs (which move like nature) members ; Apparatus for Luxation ; for contracted joints ; Apparatus for the Spine and Waist ; for False Joints of the Arms and Knees ; for Paralytic Legs ; for Club Foot ; for Lachrymal Fistulas ; for falling of the Womb ; Hypogastric Palls ; Beds and Chairs for Sick Persons ; Crutches, Trusses, &c. Orthopic Corsets, &c. &c. All work warranted. Letters must be post paid, containing a proportionate remittance and city reference.

July 19, 3m

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED ! ! !

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing astonishing healing properties, which is adapted to a larger class of diseases, in its ability to cure in a shorter time, than only we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Coughs and Colds, we doubt if it has an equal ; it is very good for Dysentery, Diarrhœa and Rheumatism, Head, Ear and Tooth Ache, Chilblains, Frost Bites, Felon, Fever ; as a Cholera prevention or remedy it cannot be surpassed. No one can appreciate the worth of this excellent medicine, but those who have used it, and we have found it with great success, and do most cheerfully recommend it to those that are or may be afflicted, as a safe and harmless remedy, and is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge, Brooklyn, John Constable, Brklyn
" H. T. Hopkins, Newark, John Rickbeck, Engineer
" Chas. Whilting, Weehawk, Steamboat "Warren,"
Hon. G. L. Maxwell, Brklyn, Lawrence Mauck, Act'r
S. Sprague, Ex-Mayor, " Jordan Wooley, L. Branch
Alderman S. L. Husted " David B. Salters, Bergen,
H.D.Conkling, Ex-Mayor, " Kingsland, Brklyn,
J. Dorland, ferry master " Addison B. Jones, York,
David Travis, Somerstown, Jane McCollick, W. Market
Rev. Wm. Bodine, Jersey, Justice D. Riscor, "
Peter Blauvelt, T's Ferry, E. Plainfd
Joseph Chellick, W. Market, Rainer & Veldran, "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above certificate. Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.

FRANCIS B. STRYKER,

Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the Proprietor, 194 Williamsburgh, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

Jan. 2, 1852

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Heart Corrector,
Pulmonary, Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-dyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Cathar, Pills
Nervine,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific

Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil.

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of

Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, Piles, &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Plated Steel Spring Shoulder Braces.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF

Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to an old age.

This Book should be in every family. To the consumptive it is of the highest value, as it points OUT A SURE way for relief. To mothers, the directions it gives for the care and education of children are invaluable. 75,000 copies of this Book have passed through the press, and the sale continues unabated.

For Sale by S. S. FITCH & CO., 707 Broadway, New York ; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

DR. DE LANEY'S CELEBRATED

Curative Instrument,

The only infallible cure for that dreadful disease known as SPERMATORRHŒA or Involuntary Nocturnal Emissions,

So harassing and destructive, and productive of as much misery to the nervous system, as incapacitating the man for business, society, and matrimony.

This Instrument is simple, comprehensive, and unerring, and can be used without the slightest inconvenience to the knowledge of the most intimate friend. It is to be used externally, producing no pain or injury whatever, nor preventing any one from attending to his business for a day. It is the only one ever invented that will take place, invigorating the organs, in a short time, to such an extent that they exert POSITIVE POWER OVER THE WILL, and restore the sufferer to perfect health. It is the disease in question, and the cause of the thousand concomitant complaint viz: Nervousness, Prostration, Dyspepsia, Pain in the Head and Dimness of Vision, Weakness of the Back and Nervous Extremities of the Eyes, Impotence, Pimples of the Face Premature Decline of Virility, Weakness of Memory and Power of Procreation, Nervous Apprehension, Confusion in Society, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, &c. All these complaints invariably disappear as soon as the source is stopped from which they emanated.

The Instrument is highly recommended and approved of by the highest authorities in Europe and America, is recommended by the most prominent Physicians of all countries, as the only certain remedy existing for those diseases of a private nature, and is a substitute to the use of drugs, the bougie, cauterization, &c., not to mention the thousand advertised nostrums of the day, as corditals, antidotes, &c., &c. It constitutes at the same time the safest, best and most pleasant mode of medical treatment ever offered to the afflicted, a fair price being allowed for the Instrument after the desired effect has been attained.

Be it also remembered, that these complaints are but little understood by the profession in general, and that all the medicine in the world will never have the desired effect while the cause lies rankling, if allowed to prevail, are sure to produce the most distressing consequences.

It has been a matter of surprise to some, that any race of respectability and of professional attainments should devote his attention to diseases which people of every description pretend to cure so easily. If, however, but the unsuspecting victims of the unknown there would but open society were known, a very different opinion would be formed. And it is not only the present misery and depression, produced upon the mind and body, that evil is deplored, but some are of such a nature as to effect posterity, and even to destroy the reproductive faculty, altogether. It is a fact that, were not properly treated, they may remain as dormant in the constitution as to appear in no other way than in their effects upon posterity ; yet, if properly understood, are most easily and speedily removed by the use of the proper medicine and instrument, will doubtless, in a great measure, contribute to check the evils of quackery, so prevalent in this class of diseases, throughout the Union.

☞ The Forest Wine, and instrument, carefully secured against all observation in a box, is only $10. It can be sent, by express, to any address in any part of the United States, Canada, &c., according to order, accompanied by full directions. Important to the married and single, the expenses, even to the remotest parts of the country, being very trifling.

The unexampled success this Instrument has obtained since its introduction, has induced a number of unprincipled persons in New York, Philadelphia, Albany, Boston, &c. to get up some ridiculous things called "imitations," and offer them to the public. Any such resemblance, neither in form nor principle to my own invented, long tried, and universally approved Instruments, and which are as similar to them as night is to day. Every one of these infringements upon my rights will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law, I being not willing to connect the well and honestly earned reputation of my Instrument with those of such dishonorable productions. No Instrument is genuine and none can be warranted but those ordered from myself.

All applications and remittances must be directed (post paid) to my Agents, as I have no Agents or Agencies established but in London and Paris.

Address, post paid, Dr. De Laney, 51 Lispenard St., New York. Office hours, daily, from 9 A. M. to 3 P.M. and from 7 to 8, P. M. the Sabbath excepted.

☞ The undersigned certify, with great pleasure, that the above-mentioned instrument is not only constructed on scientific principles, but that from its use the happiest effects have been produced in many cases, and therefore being for the cure of those diseases, NO OTHER CERTAIN REMEDY EXTANT.

HENRY S. KELLER, M. D.

CH. GOERCK, Merchant, Brothers stand.

C. ECKHARDT, M. D. 24 Howard St. NEW YORK

D. DE LANEY is prepared to execute all order of surgical apparatus, viz.: Artificial Arms and Legs (which move like nature) members ; Apparatus for Luxation ; for contracted joints ; Apparatus for the Spine and Waist ; for False Joints of the Arms and Knees ; for Paralytic Legs ; for Club Foot ; for Lachrymal Fistulas ; for falling of the Womb ; Hypogastric Palls ; Beds and Chairs for Sick Persons ; Crutches, Trusses, &c. Orthopic Corsets, &c. &c. All work warran

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 38. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, September 21, 1852. Whole Number 818.

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

NEWARK

Jewelry, Fancy and Music Store.

THEO. R. LAFOY,

No. 314 Broad-street, Washington Hall Buildings,

HAS constantly on hand a full assortment of Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Music and Musical Instruments.

JEWELRY DEPARTMENT.

Gold and silver patent lever, duplex, anchor, vertical, lepine, verge and detached lever Watches; cork, polished and Swiss Guard Chains; fob and vest Chains of all patterns; silver, shell and russet cases; gold and silver escapement, engraved and plain Pencil Cases; single stone, cluster, and cameo, cameo, cornelian, jet, enamelled, mourning and plain Brooches; Gent's cluster, single stoned, enamelled and plain Studs; Finger Rings of all patterns; Ladies' plain gold, chain and hair Breast Pins; a large assortment of all kinds; Ear rings of the latest styles; Gents' diamond, ruby, emerald, hyacinth, and all styles of Breast Pins; gold lockets and Minia-ture Cases; Gold Pens; Pencils and Crosses; gold Fob and Guard Keys; gold and silver Thimbles; silver Spoons and Butter Knives; gold, silver and steel Spectacles, &c.

FANCY ARTICLES.

Bonquet Holders, tablets, hair pins, scissors, knives, tea bells, purses, letter stamps, steel and gilt beads, pomatum pots and stands, work boxes, work and box, chequer boards, backgammon boards, letter folders, segar cases, pearl studs, twin buttons, watch stands, tu-pins, emerys, sealing wax, pen holders, microscopes, razors and razor strops, fancy work boxes, china segar cases and mantel vases, perfumery of all kinds, tobacco and snuff boxes; tooth, hair, nail, cloth and comb Brushes; silk guard chains; pocket books; a large assortment; dressing combs, back combs, pocket combs, scissor sheaths, pocket knife cases, Persian accent bags, smelling bottles, daguerreotype and ambrotype cases, ladies' chess, steel, gilt and gilt fob chains; shaving brushes, shaving boxes, &c.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

Piano Fortes from the best makers, Violins, Clarionets, Flutes, Flageolets, Gitts, Violins, Drums, Metronomes, Violin Bows, Accordeons, tuning forks; Violin, Violincello and Guitar Strings; Trimmings for all Instruments; a large assortment of Music, dueths, songs, tetins, trios and glees, comprising all the latest publications; also Instrumental Music, namely, waltzes, quick steps, marches, rondos, duetts for four hands, and sacred songs; Guitar music, Violin music for Piano Forte, flute, &c. violin, accordeon, clarionet, flageolet, &c. &c. all as cheap as can be bought in New York: with a variety of other goods not enumerated in this catalogue, comprising the largest variety in Newark.

WATCH REPAIRING AND CLEANING.

The subscriber, determined to give full satisfaction to those that employ him, has engaged a very superior workman from Switzerland, where he has been engaged for several years in manufacturing all kinds of watches, and is well skilled in repairing and cleaning watches, as testimonials from some of the First watch makers of the city of New York will testify.

Jewelry made to order. Old gold and silver taken in exchange. 38-3y

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome and serviceable a Hat as they can buy in New York or Philadelphia, as to half a dollar each cheaper.

N. B. Moleskin and Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 28, 1851.—3y

Lyon's Kathairon,

For the Growth and Embellishment of the Hair, to Prevent its falling off and Turning Gray.

Awarded the Highest Premiums by the States of New York, Maryland and Michigan at their annual Fairs of 1851.

THE Kathairon restores the effect of disease, climate and old age, in Preserving and Restoring the Human Hair, even after a Baldness of twenty years; cleanses the scalp from Dandruff; will cure the Nervous Headache, Scald Head, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Skin, &c. and it is the most desirable

TOILET ARTICLE

For Ladies or Gentlemen's use in the world. Its perfume equals Lubin's choicest Extracts, and being free from all offensive rancid oil or coloring properties, it gives the Hair that clean, bright, & lively appearance, secured by no other preparation.

The use of the Kathairon is adopted by the first physicians in Europe and America, and has a patronage and sale unprecedented in the history of the materia medica. But words are superfluous. a trial only can attest its real virtue, as millions certify, to be had throughout North and South America and the Islands of the Ocean, in large Bottles, for 25 cents.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

July 19, 1852.—3m*

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF

Pure Jamaica Ginger.

"Dear Sir,—I speak from a general knowledge of the virtues of Ginger, and particularly of your preparation of Jamaica Ginger, having used it in three years in my practice. For Dyspepsia, Cholera, Cholic, Summer complaints, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, General Weakness, &c. It is unquestionably the best article in the world. Its effect in giving to the system to throw off and resist disease of all kinds so usual during warm weather, makes it invaluable to every family. Having used it myself several nine-months of the protracted sickness during the summer season.

Yours truly, R. M. CHILSON, M. D.

163 Bond-Street, New York."

This article, peculiarly adapted to this climate, and which is so universally used, can be had in Plainfield of July 19, 1852.—6m* M. F. CUSHING.

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

LIGHTNING RODS!

M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 132 East Twenty-fifth Street, New York, continue to manufacture and affix to houses their improved Lightning Rods, which have now been in use seventeen years, with the thought they have given universal satisfaction to every one attached. Mr. A. M. Quimby has made Electricity the study of his life, and his rods are always put up in accordance with certain rules which he has formed and considered after years of experience. An adherence to these rules he has found to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and exposed to receive lightning, and require a different arrangement of the rods, to suit the peculiar features of the case, which is the reason why so many of the common wood rods have failed heretofore; but put up by persons ignorant of the laws by which electricity is governed, they are not arranged on buildings in such a manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Quimby's rods have been placed on the houses of Mr. D. Rockwell, C. Boice, Esq. Mr. M. Stelle, and others in Plainfield, and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church and others in New York; church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.

Plainfield, May 24, 1852.—6m*

ROSE MEDICINES—A Full assortment for sale by Aug 16—tf J. S DUNHAM & CO.

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at J. S. DUNHAM & CO.'S

The two Merchants,

OR THE BITER BIT.

It was on the 20th of January, 1795. The French had just made their entry into Amsterdam: their fusils were still stacked in the principal square, while the soldiers grouped around them waiting patiently to receive the billets designating their respective quarters.

In spite of the inclemency of the weather, most of the inhabitants had left their houses to gaze at and admire this army of liberators. The greatest enthusiasm reigned throughout the city, and as soon as it was dark, innumerable lamps blazed from the windows and balconies, in sign of rejoicing.

One house, however, at the extremity of the town, remained dark and silent, looking sombre and strange in contrast with its brilliant neighbors. This was the habitation of Master Woeden, one of the richest merchants of Amsterdam. Exclusively occupied with commercial matters, he remained supremely indifferent to all the great political events passing around him, except so far as they affected business and the rise and fall of stocks. At the hour of which we speak, Master Woeden was seated in a great easy chair, well stuffed and cushioned, before a large and brilliant fire. His long furred pelisse was crossed carefully over his knees, and his velvet cap was pulled far down over his forehead, surrounded by locks of a silvery whiteness.

Upon a table near him stood a copper lamp, polished to an intense brilliancy, a large silver flagon of beer, and a clay pipe, yet unsullied.

At the corner of the fire place crouched an old servant, whose rotundity betrayed her German origin, and who, while preserving a respectful silence, occupied herself with picking up the brands as they fell upon the hearth and replacing them in the fire.

All at once the sound of the street door bell was heard. At this sound the old woman jumped up.

"Who can that be?" said the old man. "Go and see."

The servant left the room, and in a few moments the door opened, admitting a tall young man who, throwing his cloak upon a chair, advanced to the fire, saying—

"Good evening, father."

"What, is that you, William? I did not expect you to night."

"I left Brock this morning, but the roads are so encumbered with troops and fugitives that I have consumed the whole day in my journey."

"Well, have you seen Van Elburg?"

The young man, before answering, helped himself to a tumbler of beer, and seated himself before the fire.

"Yes," said he at length, "Master Van Elburg consents willingly to our marriage, but he persists in keeping his daughter's dowry to four thousand ducats."

"Ah!" said Woeden, raising his great white eyebrows "Then he keeps both his daughter and his dowry."

"Oh, father—"

"Hold your tongue, Will. At your age never sacrifice all for love and disdain fortune; for the love passes away, you see and the fortune remains."

"But, father, Master Van Elburg is one of the richest merchants in Holland and what she does not give to his daughter now, he will leave her at his death."

"Very well," responded the father, "Perhaps I could measure purses with Master Van Elburg. Listen, my son; You will probably succeed to my business. Recollect well these two maxims that I confide to you. Never do anything which only profits other people; and never give more than you receive in return. With these two maxims one is sure to do well in commerce, consequently in marriage."

"But—"

"Now, my boy, we will say no more about it."

William was too well acquainted with the dogmatism and obstinacy of his father to insist, but he could not conceal his dissatisfaction, which displayed itself very legibly on his fine features.

The old man took no notice of him, but filling his pipe, began to smoke. Just then the bell sounded again, and the sound of a horse's feet was heard in the paved court yard. The dogs set up a furious barking.

"What is the matter with the dogs?" said Woeden. "William, look out and see who has come?"

William looked out of the window, and said, "Father it is a dragoon."

"A dragoon! what can he want?"

At this moment the servant entered and handed a letter to the merchant.

Glancing at the seal, he exclaimed, with some satisfaction, "It is a government dispatch."—Then he proceeded, with an air of great uneasiness, to open and read the letter.

William watched anxiously his father's face as he read, but was reassured by observing that, as he proceeded, his face resumed its wonted serenity.

"It is very well. I accept it," said the elder Woeden, folding it up and giving it to his son. William ran his eye over the paper. It was an order for four hundred thousand herring, to be delivered to the government in one month, for the purpose of feeding the French army.

"William," cried the old man, all at once rousing himself from his reverie, "I have an idea. You shall marry the daughter of Van Elburg, and you shall have with her a handsome dowry. I promise it to you."

"But how, my father?"

"Leave that to me. Only as the canals are frozen over, you must cause two horses to be saddled and brought to the door early, in the morning, for we are going to Brock."

"Dear father—how kind—"

"That will do, that will do. Ah, you don't know yet all the cause you have to thank me. Yes, William," continued the old man, striking lightly on the young man's shoulder, "when you are a rich merchant yourself it will be thro'h the genius of your father."

When the sun rubbed his eyes open the next morning, the first thing that he saw was the Woedens, father and son, on the road from Amsterdam to Brock. The roads were so obstructed by snow and ice, as well as by carriages and people, that the horses were hardly able to go out of a walk, but supported the delay with courage, comforting himself that he was going to see his beloved and to fix the day for a marriage which would, he hoped, crown his happiness. Even the old man forgot to grumble at his tedious journey, for he revolved in his inmost mind a plan which fully occupied all his thoughts. They arrived at Brock towards midday, and dismounted at the gate, leaving their horses at an inn just outside the town, for the entrance of Brock is forbidden to all beasts of burthen and to carriages.

In fact the little town enjoys in Holland a proverbial reputation for neatness. The streets instead of being paved in the ordinary way, are laid in mosaic with polished stones of bright and varied colors. On each side there are spaces railed off for the private use of those families whose houses they adjoin. Those little courts are paved with richer and gayer stones than the public street, and are divided by iron fences wrought in fantastic figures and ornamented with copper and brass. Benches handsome wood richly carved, are here placed for the use of the families, who here assemble in the evening to refresh themselves after the heat of the day in summer.

The mania for neatness is such that if a poor little leaf, torn from the tree by an indistinct breeze, happens to alight in one of these vestibules (so to speak,) the family rush in a crowd from the house, and pounce with fury upon the intruder.

When Woeden and his son, therefore, entered the cleanly swept and washed streets, with their heavy shoes laden with snow and mud, they excited the indignation of all who saw them; but as they were known to most of the townfolk they were allowed to pass unmolested to the house of Master Van Elburg.

There, however, they were obliged to submit to a ceremony from which even Napoleon and Alexander were not exempted, when, some years later, Brock was honored with their presence. They had hardly entered the court when a servant ran out to meet them, bearing two pair of slippers, for which they exchanged their heavy shoes. Then they were allowed to enter.

As they opened the door of the saloon, a door at the other extremity of the apartment was hastily closed. Master Woeden was unable to distinguish the person who thus evaded their approach, but William knew very well. The eyes of a lover are quick, and if he had not seen, the beating of his heart, would have assured him that this was Clotilda Van Elburg.

Hidden in the damask curtains of the window, she had watched the entrance of the father and son, and had now gone to announce Van Elburg, with whom she soon entered the room.

Clotilda was dressed in the costume of her country. Her dark auburn hair was drawn back from her forehead, on which reposed a little golden ornament, and confined at the back of her head by a set of golden wire, profusely ornamented with precious stones. Two enormous Maltese crosses, to whom Clotilda's amanuels attached, trotted along beside her rubbing themselves continually against her dress.

"Ah, good day, Master Woeden," cried Van Elburg, holding out his hand. You don't mean that you, too, have run away from the French."

"Oh, no, my good friend. You know that I don't concern myself about politics; I care as little for the French as for the Prince of Orange. No; it is on business that I have come to see you."

"And what is this business?"

"My dear friend, I have an order from government for four hundred thousand herrings, to be delivered within a month. Can you engage to furnish them to me within three weeks?"

"Ah! what rate?"

"Ten florins the thousand."

"Ten florins? Yes, I will make the agreement."

"Let us then draw up the contract and sign it; after that I hope you will give us some breakfast, for I am almost famished. While we are eating, I will tell you the second object of my visit."

In saying these last words, Master Woeden threw a significant look at Clotilda, who blushed and lowered her eyes.

During the repast, in fact, Woeden spoke of the marriage of his son, and agitated again the question of the dowry of the future wife. Van Elburg, however, would not increase by a stiver the sum he had named, and Master Woeden, who it truth cared a very little, arguing the matter for a few moments, gave up the point, and the marriage was fixed for the eighth day from the agreement.

The next day William and his father returned to Amsterdam. Hardly had they left the town and resumed their horses, when William exclaimed—

"Father, what could you change your mind so suddenly?"

"About what?"

"Why, the dowry."

Master Woeden looked sideways at his son.

"William," said he, brusquely, "do you take me for a fool? But let us alone, and do not ask questions upon a subject which you do not understand. The matter is getting serious; ten florins the thousand for herring is very dear, and here am I with an engagement on my hands for four hundred thousand at that price. I have need of all my wits."

In fact, from this moment the lips of the worthy man remained firmly closed. William rode beside him, also silent, but with his heart filled with joy at finding himself so near the realisation of his fondest hopes. As soon as they entered the house the old merchant hastened to his study where he locked himself in. These singular circumstances made William exceedingly curious, but he was quite unable to solve the mystery.

Toward night Master Woeden issued from his cabinet with a great package of letters to throw into the post office. Three days after, when William returned home at night, his father, without giving in every wrinkle of his old face, came to meet him, exclaiming:

"Child, I have got your dowry."

The marriage day arrived, and again did master Woeden and his son take the road to Brock. This time, however, they entered the house of Van Elburg by a special door, having two lackeys richly carved in oak. This door, following the custom of the country, was only open on solemn occasions—a baptism, a marriage, or a funeral. They found a large number of friend and relations already assembled in the grand saloon. The master of the house made his way through the crowd and approached the new guests; but his face was as pale and troubled that William doubted not he was the bearer of some bad news. Master Woeden did not share the inquietude of his son, for the malicious old man knew better than any body else to what the affliction of his host was owing. However he dressed his face in a hypocritical smile, and exclaimed, in a voice of sympathy and alarm—

"My dear friend, what is the matter with you? Are you ill?"

"Ah, my good Woeden, I am glad to see you. I am in a cruel embarrassment."

"Then," replied the merchant of Amsterdam, who foresaw that the approaching explanation might cause some embarrassment, "then let us proceed at once to the marriage; I can never change the order of my ideas, and I have come here to-day to see a wedding; after that is over I shall be at your service."

Master Van Elburg would willingly have eased himself at once of the load which weighed upon his mind, but casting a glance at the man before him, he saw dogged obstinacy so visibly portrayed in his physiognomy that he said nothing. They proceeded to the church, and in a few moments the two were made irrecovably one. They returned to the house, and as they mounted the steps Van Elburg whispered,

"Now, brother, come with me to my cabinet."

"Willingly," replied the other.

They seated themselves, and there ensued a silence broken by Van Elburg.

"Master Woeden," said he, "you have my written engagement to supply you with 400,000 herrings in five days from Brock. I have not been able to procure 1000—they are all sold."

"I can well believe it," returned him of Amsterdam, bursting into laughter, "for it is I who have bought them."

At these words, Van Elburg stared at his friend with a stupefied air.

"Well," cried he at length, "then what will you do with my promise?"

"Master, I expect you to fulfill it. Listen, Van Elburg; you will some time or other leave to your daughter a splendid fortune. I hope to do as much for my son. We will then say their future prospects are equal, but as regards present arrangements, it is very different. I shall soon give up my whole business to my son, but you give the young couple nothing but a beggarly 4000 ducats. You see that the bargain was decidedly on your side. I was not however willing, for such a cause to oppose the marriage, but I have contrived to restore the equilibrium and to force you to be just in spite of yourself."

As Woeden proceeded, Van Elburg opened his eyes wider and wider.

"Behold, then," continued the first, "my scheme. You have engaged to sell me 400,000 herrings, at the rate of ten florins the thousand but I hold the herrings. Now to honor your signature, you must purchase these herrings of me; I will sell them to you for fifty florins, and we shall be even."

During this lucid explanation, Van Elburg gradually recovered his coolness and self possession.

"It is just, Master Woeden," said he, calmly. "You are a finished merchant, and have caught me in a net, from which I must find some means to extricate myself."

So saying, he opened the door, and they went down stairs together. While the proceedings of Master Woeden occupied all his thoughts, he took good care not to allow his chagrin to be perceived. His countenance resumed all its accustomed serenity, and seemed to think of nothing but the feast which was to conclude this happy day.

A week passed, and Master Van Elburg set out on a journey to Amsterdam, under the pretext of visiting his daughter, who was staying with her father-in-law. This time the roles were changed. It was Woeden who looked alarmed.

"Oh, my dear friend," cried he, as soon as they were alone; "you behold an unfortunate man. The fishermen have brought in my herrings, but I cannot get one single barrel in which to salt them. They will all be spoiled."

"Very well," responded Van Elburg coldly "You have bought all the herrings, I have bought all the barrels. I might ask a very high price for them, but as I will not give either more or less than 4000 ducats as my daughter's dowry, you shall have the barrels for the 4000 ducats you took from my purse by your cunning. You have talent here in Amsterdam, my friend; but we of Brock, we have genius."

"Never mind! It was I who gave you the idea," answered Master Woeden, laughing.

HER MAJESTY'S HOUSEKEEPING.—"Do you think," said Mr. Danison, M. P., of Wakefield, "that Her Majesty is anxious that her sugar should cost her 10d. per lb, when she may get it for 5d.? I can assure you, and I do not speak off the book, that Her Majesty pays her bills as any man I address, (Applause.) Nay, I tell you more. She knows the price of every article she orders before she orders it. She does not order on credit and take the chance of being able to pay; she gives her subjects in this respect, as in many others, a most excellent example, which I wish they would all follow.—(Cheers)"

A City Miss, newly installed as a wife of a farmer, was one day called upon by a neighbor of the same profession, who in the absence of her husband, asked for the loan of his plow for a short time. "I am sure you would be accommodated," was the reply, "if Mr. Stone was only at home. I do not know, though, where he keeps his plow, but," she added, evidently desirous to serve, "there is the cart in the yard—couldn't you plow with that, till Mr. Stone gets back?"

Two captains were recently tried on a charge of "habitual drunkenness," before the Liverpool Local Marine Board. The charge was proved, and the sentence was, "that neither of the captains can again proceed to sea as master, mate, second mate of any foreign going British ship."

John Randolph in his Years.—Thomas, in his "Recollections of the Last Sixty-Six Years," gives us the following sketch of John Randolph, when he was a boy: "On a bright sunny morning, there entered my book store in Charleston, South Carolina, a fine looking, florid complexioned old gentleman, with hair as white as snow, which contrasted with his own complexion showed him to have been a boon vivant of the first order. Along with him was a tall, gawky-looking, flaxen haired stripling, apparently of the age of from sixteen to eighteen, with complexion of a clear parchment color, beardless lean chin, and as much self assumed self consequence as any two footed animal I ever saw.—This was John Randolph. I handed him from the shelves volume after volume, which he tumbled carelessly over, and handed back again. At length he hit upon something that struck his fancy. My eye happened to be fixed upon his face at that moment, and never did I witness so sudden, so complete a change of the human countenance. That which before was dull and heavy, in a moment became animated and flushed with the brightest beams of intellect. He stepped up to the old gray headed gentleman, and giving him a thundering slap on the shoulder, said:

"Jack, look at this!"

I was young then, but I can never forget the thought that rushed through my mind, that he was, without exception, the most impudent youth I ever saw. He had come to Charleston to attend the races."

His First Appearance in Congress.—Mr. Randolph was not twenty five years of age when he was first elected to Congress; and when he appeared at the speaker's table, and the roll was called to take the oath of office, the speaker, surprised at his youthful appearance, said to him: "Are you old enough, sir, to be eligible?" "Ask my constituents!" was all the satisfaction that was afforded the speaker.

Learning the Currency.—A good thing occured, however, a few days since, with the keeper of a "Lager Bier" saloon, who undertook to teach his assistant, a thick headed sprout of "Faderland," the difference between fivepence and sixpence.

"You see John, de peice mid de voman ish de five pence, and the piece mitout de voman ish de sixpence."

"Yah!" said John, with a dull twinkle of intelligence."

A wag of a loafer, who overheard the lecture immediately conceived the idea of a "sell," and "lager bier" gratis for that day at least. Procuring a three cent piece, he watched the departure of the boss," and going up to John, he asked for a mug of beer, throwing down the coin, and looking as if he expected his change. John who remembered his recent lesson, took up the piece, and muttered to himself;

"Mitout de voman—'nish you sixpence," and he handed over three coppers change.

How often the aforesaid beer was drank that day we know not; it depended upon his thirst and the number of times he could change three coppers for three cent pieces, but when the boss came home at night the number of small coins astonished him.

"Yat ish dese, John, you take so many?"

"Sixpence," replied John, with a peculiarly satisfied leer.

"Sixpence! Dunder and blitzen! You take all dese for sixpence? Who from?"

"De man mid peard like Kossuth; he drinking all day mit himself."

"Dar tuyfel! You give him change every time?"

"Yah!" said John, with a vacant stare.

"Der tuyvel catch the Yankees," was all the astonished Dutchman could say.

The storm on Saturday night, Aug. 28, was very severe in some parts of New Jersey. In Monmouth Countrywhe roads were gullied and cut up; at least three-fourths of all the bridges were torn up; more than half the great corn crop of the County was partially or wholly prostrated; many Potatoes were washed out of the ground; and an immense amount of fruit was beaten from the trees, which were seriously injured. Probably $100,000 worth of damage was sustained in the mere washing away of fertile soil in that County.

The editor of the New England Farmer has seen a stool of California barley, the product of a single seed, which measures near the roots thirteen inches in circumference. From this one root there sprung one hundred and twelve vigorous straws or stems, one hundred and thirty-one heads, and fourteen thousand one hundred and forty-eight kernels of barley! The stool grew near a spring, where it found plenty of water, and threw up stalks about six feet high. Each head has six rows of kernels.

A correspondent of the Boston Atlas says there are at least 403 dwelling-houses in Boston which are appraised at above $20,000. There are several at $50,000 and upward, and one house with the land connected with it, is taxed for upward of $100,000.

In Williamsburgh, the other day, a lad aged 15 years was brought before Justice King for the fourth time, on the charge of being an habitual drunkard, and a burden to his parents. He was sentenced to the Penitentiary for the term of 60 days.

Not long since one of the learned counsel in a small suit deemed necessary to shake the testimony of a Mr. Samuel Butterworth, by impeaching his veracity. A witness was called to the stand.

"Do you know Samuel Butterworth?"

"Yes."

"What's he worth?"

"Two and a quarter a pound, though some folks have put as high as 3 ah lb'gs."

One of the curiosities of nature is the demeanor of a landlady to a boarder who is behind in his payments, compared with her deportment to one who always has a pocket full of money, and occasionally takes one of her daughters to the theatre.

With every assertion, the loss of man can do but a moderate amount of good but it seems to the power of the most contemptible individual to do incalculable mischief.

The Life Guage.

BY ABBY ALLIN.

They are who measure life by years,
With false or thoughtless tongue;
Some hearts grow old before their time—
Others are always young!

'Tis not the number of the lines
On life's fast filling page;
'Tis not the pulse's added throbs,
Which constitute our age

Some souls are serfs among the free,
While others nobly strive;
They stand just where their fathers stood—
Dead, even while they live!

Others, all spirit, heart, sense—
Theirs the mysterious power
To live in thrills of joy or wo,
A twelvemonth in an hour!

Since, then, the minutes as they pass—
The woof of life is thought,
Warm up the colors, let them glow,
By fire or fancy fraught!

Live to some purpose—make thy life
A gift of use to thee—
A joy, a good, a golden hope,
A heavenly augury!

I. O. O. F.

At a regular meeting of Plainfield Lodge, No. 44, held in the Lodge Room Monday evening, Sept. 15th, 1852, the following Preamble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased the Almighty Ruler of the Universe to remove from our midst, under circumstances deeply affecting, our worthy and beloved Br. and past officer, CLARK JOHNSON, therefore,

Resolved, That in this dispensation of Divine Providence this Lodge has been deprived of a useful and beloved Br. who had endeared himself to all, no less by his manliness, than by his ardent attachment to the principles of our Order, and his well directed efforts for the success and prosperity of this Lodge.

Resolved, That in the death of our worthy and lamented Br., his widow has lost an affectionate husband, his children a kind father, and that while we mingle our undivided sympathies together on this melancholy occasion, we deeply sympathize with the family and friends of the deceased in the loss which they have sustained.

Resolved, That out of respect to his memory we wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of 30 days, and that our Lodge room shall be shrouded in mourning during the same time.

Resolved, That the sincere thanks of this Lodge be tendered to the Rev. Robert Given, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of this place, in responding to the request of the friends of the deceased, to preach a funeral sermon on the mournful occasion, thereby manifesting to the world that he holds himself amenable to no clique, but his God only, in the discharge of his ministerial duty, and more particularly do we commend his service in showing his willingness to pay the last tribute of respect, as a "watchman on the walls of Zion," to a mortal man without regard to party or sect, and for the noble stand he took in being ever ready to preach the funeral sermon of any individual, whether he be an ODD FELLOW, or a member of any secret society, and in committing the remains of the deceased to the silent tomb, there to rest until the morning of the resurrection. When the angel shall stand with one foot on the land and the other on the sea, and cry time shall be no more."

Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings be published in the Plainfield Union and Plainfield Gazette, and a copy sent to the widow of the deceased, and to the Rev. Robert Given.

ALFRED BONNELL, N. G.
THOMAS WALLACE, Sec.

CHINESE CELEBRATION OF JULY 4TH.—The participation by the Chinese in the celebration of our National Anniversary at San Francisco, is described as follows:—

The great and principal feature of the procession was the Celestials, who turned out in astonishing numbers. There were no less than three or four hundred of these singular beings, who took an active part in commemorating this glorious day. Their procession was headed by four of their number, bearing a large flag made of silk, on which was the figure of a dragon having eyes made of looking glass. It was one of the richest specimens of art we have seen, and the cost of it alone was $2,000. Another banner in the procession, borne by some of their numbers, bore the emblematic words of "A rush for Republicanism," and "The 4th of July hereafter and forever a festival day for the Chinese." A carriage drawn by four grey horses contained a band of their native musicians, who, with their unwieldly and strange looking musical instruments, discoursed horrible harmony in an extravagant style. A large number of mandarins, in carriages and on horseback, were in attendance while many followed on foot. The whole was under the command of Norman Assing Esq., together with Sam Wo and several other of the prominent Chinese citizens.

HIGH PRICE OF HAY.—A Long Island farmer received during the last week, $109 for 3 loads of hay, brought to the city over the plank road by one span of horses. Hay is the most profitable crop raised on Long Island, and with the Geese double the quantity might be raised that now is. We have cut eight tons of hay from 3 acres in a meadow that has not been plowed in seven years.

It is a mistaken idea of farmers that grass land to be improved should be broken up every few years. Mr. Webster has meadows in Marshfield that have not been plowed in fifty years, and they now produce as much as the best in New England. A good dressing of barn yard manure, ashes and lime, or guano, is all that is necessary to keep up the crop. N. Y. Day Book.

The following verse contains every letter in the English alphabet, except "E." It is a question whether any other English rhyme can be produced (in print) without the "E," which is the letter employed more than any other:

A Jovial swain may rack his brain,
And taz his fancy's might,
To quiz in vain, for it's most plain
That what I say is right.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—We are informed that Rev. Baron Liebig will, on Wednesday evening, treat us with mechanical gestation, that as much flour or meal as can lie on the point of a table knife is more nutritious than five measures (about eight or ten quarts!) of the best Bavarian beer; that a person who is able daily to consume that amount of beer obtains from it in a whole year in the most favorable case, exactly the amount of nutritive constituents which is contained in a 6lb. loaf of bread, or three pounds of flesh."

Letters on Chemistry.

A gentleman informed us the other day that having a heap of refused apples, many of them being rotten, he fed a peck each to a stock of 15 cows, and that the next morning their mess of milk was increased eight quarts. This experiment, in connection with observation he made, has thoroughly satisfied him that apples are highly beneficial to any stock. He thinks they can be raised with profit for this purpose. His judgment is worth something, for he is a large apple producer.

Eighteen years ago, St Louis was nothing but an assemblage of log huts and wigwams; now it contains 100,000 inhabitants.

There were 4,571,400 pair of shoes made at Lynn last year.

George Bancroft, the American historian is aged fifty-two years. In good health.

Rufus Choate is fifty-three years of age, but looks like a man of seventy.

The Ohio papers notice Indian corn eighteen feet from root to tassel. The ear was over ten feet from the ground.

At the bombardment of Rangoon, Lieut. Campbell, of the Sesostris, worked so hard that he fell down exhausted, and slept alongside of a gun for an hour and a half, while it was discharging ten pounds of powder at every fire.

WANT OF FOOD IN THE UNITED STATES.—The Rev. Mr. Thompson of New York, now in Europe, in a letter from Liverpool, speaking of his fellow passengers, says "Others still were returning to England disappointed with their experience in the States—some because he could not get enough to eat and drink in America; in England he always had good wages, five meals a day and plenty of beer; whereas, in Western New York gave him only pork and water three times a day."

In Berks county, Pa., the grape crop is likely to prove a complete failure by reason of the grape rot.

Otsego Hall, the late residence of J. Fenimore Cooper, is about to be converted into a hotel. It was built by the novelist's father.

The French fisheries are said to have been greatly damaged by the vigilance of the British war vessels. A despatch says that fifty vessels of the fleet in the Straits of Belisle will return home, having 80,000 quintals short of last year.

THE UNION

Plainfield, N. J. September 21, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

National Whig Nominations:

For President of the United States:
Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.

For Vice President:
WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North-Carolina.

Whig Convention of the 6th Congressional District,

To nominate a candidate for Congress will be held at Newark at Library Hall on Wednesday, Oct. 6th, at 10 o'clock, A. M. The Whigs of the District are requested to appoint delegates.

The call for a State Temperance Convention at the Temperance Hall in Trenton, is published. On account of the Democratic State Convention, the time has been changed from the 15th to the 22d day of September inst. Wednesday of next week. All persons in favor of an essential change in the Liquor Laws of this State, making them more efficient, are invited to send delegates to said Convention.

MAINE ELECTION.—The Whigs have elected three Members of Congress and the Democrats three; last year 2 whigs and 5 democrats; the whole number having been reduced by the last census, from 7 to 6. There is no choice of Governor by the people. The Maine Liquor Law had a good deal to do with the contest, and it is triumphantly sustained, and established for the next two years. The Legislature is yet democratic, though the whigs have gained largely in both branches. Whoorah!

Later. A dispatch from the Portland Advertiser says that the Whigs will have 6 majority in the Senate. For the House, 126 Representative Districts return 57 whigs and 68 democrats, and there are 26 districts to hear from.

The Cunard steamship America sailed from Boston for Liverpool Wednesday noon, with about 60 passengers and $126,000 in Am. gold.

We respectfully invite the attention of our lady readers to the advertisement of Mr. J. B. Miller, 134 Canal street, New York. He has as full and complete an assortment of goods in his line as can be found, and buyers are quite as likely to be suited at his store, as regards style, price or kind, as at any in the country.

NEW ROUTE TO PHILADELPHIA. The Florence and Keyport Company expect soon to have in operation, a new route between New York and Philadelphia, by means of a ferry between this city and Keyport, a plank road from Keyport to Florence on the Delaware, and a ferry thence to Philadelphia. The object is to furnish a cheap line of travel, and the fare will not exceed a dollar. As the distance can be traveled by this route in 6 or 7 hours, it will be probably availed of to a considerable extent, while the railroad fare is maintained at the rate of $3. The company has a charter from the state of New Jersey. Its capital is to consist of 20,000 shares, of $100 each. Jour. of Com.

The Whigs of the Third Congressional District, composed of Somerset, Hunterdon and Warren counties, met in convention at Somerville, on Wednesday, October 6th, to nominate their candidate for Congress. A Mass Meeting will be held at the same time.

The township meetings to appoint delegates to said Convention will be held at the usual places on Saturday, Sept. 25th, at 4, P. M.

The people of Morristown are much annoyed with juvenile disturbers of the peace, who also commit depredations on the orchards and gardens.

The above we take from a Morristown correspondent of the Newark Daily Advertiser, and we have read other like paragraphs from the same place. Still we do not suppose the boys of Morristown are much if any worse than those of other villages. The above is a general subject of complaint in most towns of any size, we are sorry to say. It is a matter of much astonishment to us that parents can be found who will so neglect their duty, their interest, the welfare of their boys, and the good of the community, as to permit them to run about the streets, raining themselves, neglecting their books and business, and greatly annoying and injuring the public, by malicious mischief, noise, stealing, &c. Not only are these saucy, roving and thieving boys an injury and annoyance to the people generally, but they give the place in which they are a bad name, retard its growth and prosperity and even prevent people from settling in it. This evil is solely attributable to a very few for the large majority of parents do not dare thus to trifle with the important interests entrusted to them in their children, but properly restrain them and prevent them from becoming a curse and a nuisance to themselves and neighbors. A boy brought up to industrious and studious habits, is a blessing and a benefit to himself, his parents, and the community; while one brought up in idleness, running about the streets, and doing as he pleases, is in all respects the contrary. Judge ye.

The New Jersey Democratic State Convention, at Trenton last Wednesday was well attended. David Naar, President. The following were nominated as Electors:

Senatorial, Wm. Wright and Peter D. Vroom.
1st District, Wm. S. Bowen, of Cumberland.
2d, George Black, of Burlington.
3d, Phineas B. Kennedy, of Warren.
4th, Joseph N. Taylor, of Passaic.
5th, Edwin A. Stevens, of Hudson.

Gov. Fort presided at the mass meeting in the afternoon. Gen. Dix, of N. Y., John Van Buren, Robert Tyler, and several others were the speakers. The rain drove the people under shelter, and was an inconvenience.

The officers and owners of the steamer Henry Clay, named in the Coroner's Inquest, were all indicted for manslaughter, in the U. S. District Court at New York last Wednesday.

"THE MUSICAL WORLD AND NEW YORK MUSICAL TIMES," is published weekly, by Richard S. Willis and Oliver Dyer, Editors and Proprietors, at 257 Broadway, New York, at $3 a year, or five copies for $10; in quarto form 16 pages each week. A new volume commenced Sept. 4th. It is the most valuable and interesting periodical of its kind published, each number containing 4 pages of original music, the best of instruction in this agreeable and useful science, Musical News, and interesting Miscellany. The Music alone is worth more than the whole cost. Specimens can be seen at this office.

The weather of the past week gave unmistakable indications of a change of season, and the snow and ice and chilling blasts of winter will soon be experienced in this latitude. Now is the time to purchase stoves, and Mr. Phillips, of No. 2, Commerce street, Newark, knowing that numbers of our readers in village and country, would about these days be in want of those necessary articles, has seasonably and kindly sent us an advertisement of his wares in that line—which all such would do well to peruse carefully. We know of no dealer in the county that keeps a better assortment, or where purchasers would be likely to do better.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The steamship Illinois arrived at New York Sunday morning, 12th inst. 9 days from Aspinwall, with 150 passengers $1,370,482 in gold dust, and the California mails to Aug. 15th. The Sierra Nevada arrived the same day.

The news is but one day later than given by us last week by way of New Orleans.

Large numbers of overland emigrants were pouring into California, and they suffered great privations.

The independence of Lower California is agitated. It is said the Mexican authority there could be easily displaced, if considered worth while.

The Grand Jury of San Francisco having closed their labors, congratulates the people of the city on the great decrease of crime, and the fixed determination which exists on all hands to sustain law and order.

The whole of the Hudson Bay Company's buffalo robes, amounting to 233 bales, have been sold at Montreal, in land, at $5.

The $3,000,000 Philadelphia Railroad loan, was taken last week by R. G. Fisher, for the houses of Baring Brothers and Rothschilds at $103 20 for every $100.

The valuation of taxables in Middlesex county is $14,872,129; $240,547 less than last year.

The Ohio river is now reported to be in good navigable order for medium class boats.

A spile driving machine lately fell over in this city, and killed a large yellow dog, and upset a hawker's apple cart, besides frightening a large number of bystanders. "No blame attached to the driver."

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Hamburgh arrived at New York Monday morning 13th inst. having left Havre on the 1st and passed at Cowes same evening. She bro't 140 passengers, $40,000 in specie, and 400 tons valuable French goods.

The Cunard steamship Niagara touched at Halifax, last Tuesday, and arrived at Boston about midnight on Wednesday, with 3 days' later.

The weather in England continued good, and the prospects of the crops favorable.

The yield of gold in Australia is represented as increasing.

There was but little change in the markets.—Cotton was firm, bread stuffs dull, money plenty.

In Ireland, the potato rot had subsided, if indeed, it ever existed to any extent.

Flour Mills have lately been erected in England on the Patent plan improved, which in 12 minutes after the wheat is taken in, sends forth the flour fit for market.

France.—The Minister of Commerce has informed the ship owners of Havre, that the Government will not protect them in loading guano at the Lobos Islands.

A GREAT WAR STEAMER.—The French steamline-of-battleship Napoleon, lately went, by aid of her engines alone, eleven and a half and twelve knots an hour. The Napoleon is the most powerful vessel now afloat on the seas. She carries ninety guns, two months provisions, and one month a water, for its crew of nine hundred men, and its stock of fuel exceeds one thousand tons. It is calculated that she will run 1000 leagues in ten and a half days.

The cultivation of Tobacco is increasing in Algeria. Last year there were only 446 acres under the plant; this year there are 1,095.

Application has been made to the Cortes by the people of Maderia, praying them to grant permission for the free growth of Tobacco on that Island, as the grape crop had entirely failed.

Masonry Revived.

A meeting of the Practical Masons of Plainfield and the places adjacent thereto, was held at the House of John Ayres, in Plainfield, on Saturday Evening, the 18th of September instant, to take into consideration, and adopt some measures securing to such masons their just and equitable rights. David Codington was called to the Chair and H. T. Mulford appointed secretary. The object of the meeting having been stated the following Preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, the masons of Plainfield and those in the adjacent thereto have been subjected to unjust censure, and suffered injustice by the practice obtained by carpenters of taking jobs and practical masons acting contracts for erecting and constructing buildings, bridges, &c. thereby compelling masons to work under such subcontractors and depend upon them for their wages, or be driven to the necessity of levying a lein upon such buildings, subjecting the owners to double pay for such work in some instances, and for divers other considerations, therefore it

Resolved, 1st, That henceforth we will not work for any sub-contractor who is not a practical mason on any building or bridge so constructed for, either by the day or otherwise.

Resolved, 2d, That we hold ourselves in readiness and willing to work for any of our citizens, owners of any building or other structure requiring mason work, by the day or by contract, thereby securing to ourselves our wages, and not be subjected to censure for bad work when the cause lies in the materials furnished, and dictation of the master builder.

Resolved, 3d, That the foregoing resolutions do not apply to buildings now in process of erection.

Resolved, 4th, That all masons working on any building or structure in violation of the spirit and intent of the foregoing resolutions, will be held and esteemed by us as foul men of the craft.

David Codington,	Israel Moore,
H. T. Mulford,	William Richardson,
John Mullener,	John Richardson,
Benj. M. Lawler,	Warren Marsh,
Nehemiah V. Smalley,	Christopher Baker,
James B. Allen,	James Davidson,
Edward Philbower,	S. B. G. Willet,
John R. Hetfield,	Francis J. Moore,
Joseph C. Drake,	Jonathan Ryno.

Plainfield, Sept. 18, 1852.—3m

FRENCH LANGUAGE

NEW TESTIMONY TO THE MERITS OF
FASQUELLE'S NEW METHOD
OF LEARNING THE
FRENCH LANGUAGE,
Embracing both the Analytical and Synthetical Modes of instruction
In one volume. Price $1.25 retail.
FIFTH EDITION.

Publisced by
NEWMAN & IVISON, 199 Broadway, New York.

From N. W. Howard, Newcastle, Ky.

I was no convert of its superiority to all other text-books on the same subject, that have fallen under my notice, that I immediately caused it to be procured by a class of thirty young ladies, whom I was about to commence instructing. The progress they have made in three months has highly gratified themselves, their parents, and their teacher, and I attribute it with justice to the systematic and practical, yet simple plan of the work.

From Cyrus Knowlton, Principal of the Hughes High School, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Fasquelle's grammar satisfies me. It is evidently the work of a thorough teacher as well as thorough scholar.

From the New York Day Book.

We never saw a more finished treatise on that polite language.

From the New York Evangelist.

A very philosophical and complete christonithy in this much-desired language.

From the New York Courier & Enquirer.

The book presents every facility the French learner can ever reasonably hope for.

From Fr. Agassiz, New Haven, Ct.

Never has a work come under my notice that blends so happy and harmoniously the great rival elements of the language. My pupils relish its pleasures.

From Zion's Herald.

It presents the true method of study, and seems to us scarcely capable of an improvement.

From the Literary World

Its classifications are minute and painstaking, carefully labeling tee various obstacles.

From the Mirror.

One of the very best arranged books that we have ever seen.

From the Methodist Quarterly Review.

The work is done every where with conscientious thoroughness.

From the New Haven Palladium.

The book is exceedingly valuable, and will have an immense sale.

From the Detroit Free Press.

It seems to us most decidedly superior to any work of its kind ever published.

☞ Teachers who wish to examine the work can have a copy sent by mail, postage paid, in flexible cover, by sending Post-office stamps to the amount of 63 cents.

Just published a New Edition of
"TELEMAQUE,"
IN FRENCH,
From the most approved Text; with Notes and Grammatical Questions adapted to
FASQUELLE'S NEW METHOD
BY LOUIS FASQUELLE, L. L. D.,
Professor of Modern Language in the University of Michigan.
1 vol. 12mo. on fine paper, and neatly bound.
NEWMAN & IVISON,
SCHOOL BOOK PUBLISHERS,
8t; 1. 20.-3m 199 Broadway, New York.

B—'s Doubly-Sifted Powdered Saleratus
" Chemical Yeast Powder in tin boxes.
" Celebrated Soap Powder.
For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

Machinery Oil,

75 CTS. a gallon, better than Sperm Oil, at a quarter of the price. For Sale by Plainfield, Jan. 10, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

New York Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Flour,	$4,25 to 4,50
Rye Flour	3,75 to 3,87
Corn Meal, Jersey,	3,75 to 3,75
Grain—Wheat,	1,01 to 1,10
Rye,	85 to 86
Corn,	70 to 72
Oats, Jersey,	40 to 42

Thousands of parents who use Vermifuge composed of Castor oil, Calomel, &c., are not aware, that while they appear to benefit the patient they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of sight, weakness of limbs, &c.

In another column will be found the description of Holloway's Medicines, to which we ask the attention of all directly interested in their own as well as their Children's health. In Liver Complaints and all diseases arising from those of a bilious type, should make use of the only genuine medicine, Holloway's Liver Pills.

☞ Be not deceived, but ask for Hobensack's Worm Syrup and Liver Pills, and observe that each has the signature of the Proprietor, J. N. HOBENSACK, as none else are genuine.

It should be universally known—For it is strictly true—that indigestion is the parent of a large proportion of the fatal diseases. Dysentery, diarrhœa, cholera morbus, liver complaint, and many other diseases enumerated in the Dispensatory, are the result of indigestion. They are generated by indigestion alone. Think of that dyspeptics! think o it all, who so far from discovering stomachs, and by a mere liv ing to be cured by advice, have not the experience I have to advise you (don't delay a day) to Rooland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, which, as an alterative, curative, and invigorant, stands almost unsurpassed. Depot, General Depot, 120 Arch street. We have tried these Bitters, and know that they are excellent for the diseases specified above. —Philadelphia City Item.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Camphor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

Benj. Moore, Union Village, $1,53; William Rogers, New Brooklyn, 1,00; Ephraim S. Acker, Washington Valley, 75.

MARRIED.

In this place, on the 16th inst. by Rev. S. J. Drake, Mr. Isaac Webster, of Plainfield, to Miss Hannah M. Woodward, daughter of Mr. Benjamin Woodward, of Woodville, N. J.

In New York city, on Saturday, the 11th inst., by Rev. Spencer H. Cone, D. D., Mr Lewis M. Reeap, to Miss Caroline Randolph, both of this place.

On Saturday, 11th inst., by Rev. Lewis Bond Mr. William Ayres, to Miss Hannah Townley, all of Plainfield.

At Washington, D. C. on the 7th inst. Robert F. Stockton, jr. to Anna Margaretta, daughter of Woodbourne, Potter, and Secretary.

DIED.

July 2d, at Fluviana, Va. Rev. Truman Osborn, aged about 66 years, a zealous devoted servant of Christ, a man extensively known, and most esteemed by those who knew him best.

At Paterson, 11th inst. Harriet R. wife of Lewis R. Stelle, editor of the Passaic Guardian, and the last surviving daughter of Timothy Ross, of Rahway, in her 30th year.

FALL IMPORTATIONS.

Peterson & Humphrey,

IMPORTERS OF

Carpeting and Oil Cloths,

379 Broadway, corner of White St., New York.

HAVE JUST RECEIVED, PER LATE ARRIVALS from Europe, their usual supply of rich and elegant Carpeting, consisting of—

RICH AXMINSTER and MOSAIC CARPETS, in one ENTIRE CARPET, with rich BORDER to match or to any sized room.

RICH VELVET CARPETS—Patterns entirely new, imported expressly for city retail Fall Trade

TAPESTRY and BRUSSELS CARPETS—An elegant assortment, surpassing in the pieces of COLOR and SHADING, any heretofore imported.

THREE PLY and INGRAIN CARPETS, our stock will be constantly supplied with the latest and most desirable patterns manufactured.

OIL CLOTHS.—Our arrangements with the ENGLISH and AMERICAN manufacturers enables us to offer a LARGER and better assortment, at less price, than any store in the Union.

MEDALLION DRUGGETS, RUGS, TABLE and PIANO COVERS, MATS of all kinds, MATTINGS, &c., and all other goods found in first-class carpet stores, for sale, on the most reasonable terms.

PETERSON & HUMPHREY,
379 Broadway, cor. White-st., N. Y.

Sept. 18-3m

Washington Rock STAGE.

WILL RUN every other day, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and any other day if called for.

Leave Plainfield corner of Main and Cherry streets, at 1 o'clock P. M., returning when the party is ready.

Fare 12 1-2 cents each trip.

Persons will be called for at their residences, by leaving their names on the slate at the Gazette Office.

Sept. 18, 1852. C. STAATS, Proprietor
Washington Rock House.

HOPE'S EXPRESS, TWICE DAILY.

Via N. J. CENTRAL R. R.

LEAVES NEW YORK at 8 o'clock, A. M and 5 o'clock, P.M.
Leaves Easton at 6 o'clock, A. M. and 3 1-2 P. M.

ARRANGEMENTS have been perfected with the Central Railroad Co. by which we will be able to supply Express all articles of Merchandize, Specie, Bank bills, &c. collect bills, Drafts, and transact all business appertaining to a well regulated Express. Careful, diligent, prompt and trusty messengers will travel with each through train leaving as above.

The proprietor having already experienced much of public favor and confidence, will now pledge himself to renewed efforts to merit and obtain that degree of patronage and favor commensurate with the increased facilities offered, and the heavy expense incurred.

OFFICE, in New York, No. 74 Broadway, In Easton, No. 62 Northampton st. Agencies at all the places on the route from New York to Easton.

☞ This Express will extend to all the towns and villages of Northampton, Lehigh, Monroe, and Luzerne Counties, in Pennsylvania, including Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre, Pittston, &c. &c.

A. D. HOPE, Proprietor. 74 Broadway, New York

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Thorn's new building in Cherry st., 2nd below Dr. Craig's office, where he solicits the patronage of his friends and the vicinity of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linens, Prints, Lawns, De Laines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds. A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Colorados, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c. &c.

GROCERIES

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Pork, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders. Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Peaches, very nice.

Tubs, Baskets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, white shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.

LIME, Rhode Island and Glens Falls.

☞ All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods.

JAMES M. DUNN.

April 23, 1852.—1y

Died in this place on Sunday morning, Phebe Elizabeth Ayres aged 9 years 7m. 6 days, daughter of John and Hannah Ayres.

The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral this afternoon at 3 o'clock from her late residence. In the death of this child the parents have lost an affectionate daughter, the children a kind sister and the Sabbath School one of its faithful members. Jesus be truly said of her,

"A blighted flower
A bud of fairest promise nipp'd
In early morning hour."

Plainfield, Sept. 20.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.

There will be a Temperance Lecture in the Methodist Church on Tuesday, evening, Messrs. Searls and Snyder, of Newark, speakers.

Plainfield Sept. 20 1852.

A Canadian paper suggests that a law be passed forbidding steam vessels upon the lakes coming within a mile of each other.

EFFECTS OF GOLD DISCOVERIES.—Oregon, though producing gold in the southern portion of her territory, is affected by the gold discoveries and their consequences about as much as California, and prices are very high. The millers, by late accounts from that territory, were offering $2 per bushel for wheat, and for flour the price was $46 per barrel; for oats, $1.25 per bushel; for barley 1T 1-2 cents per pound. Labor of all kinds was high and scarce, and the deputy surveyors were paying from $70 to $100 per month for each man they employed.

SHARKS.—The Nantucket Mirror says that during the last two months there have been taken at Quidnit, Siasconnet and the south side of the Island, from 800 to 1000 sharks, varying in length from five to twenty feet. On Thursday of last week, 61 were taken at the south shore, by three men. Considerable quantities of oil are obtained from their livers, and the bodies are sold to the farmers of the Island for manure.

AN ASSORTMENT OF SUPERB JEWELRY.

THE subscribers have just added to their previous stock of Jewelry a new lot of the latest and richest patterns extant, comprising a choice and select assortment of Breast Pins, Finger Rings, Ear Rings, and various other kinds of Jewelry too numerous for enumeration.

We would also beg leave to say to our patrons and friends and every one who would like to get a piece of Jewelry, not only fashionable in style but fine in quality, elegant in design, superb in finish, combining strength, lightness and durability, and withal cheap, not an article which its intrinsic excellence cannot fail to give the most perfect satisfaction.

Come, our goods examine, and the truth of the statement try.

And if not found as represented we'll not ask you to buy.

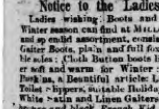
A. H. & J. W. MILLER, Park Jewelry Store.
At the Sign of the Golden Lion, No. 108
Sept. 20, 1852.—3m. Broad-street, Newark.

Notice to the Ladies of This Place.

Ladies wishing Boots and Shoes for the Fall and Winter season can find at MILLER'S, in Canal st., a large and splendid assortment, consisting of Kid and colored Gaiter Boots, plain and full fixed, both single and double soles; Cloth Button boots lined with chamois leather soft and warm for Winter; Quilted Silk Boots and Buskins, a Beautiful article; Ladies' and Gentlemen's Toilet Slippers, suitable Holiday presents for both sexes; White Satin and Linen Gaiters; white and black Satin, Morocco and French Kid Slippers; Dancing Pumps for Balls and Parties; Misses and Children's Gaiter Boots and Shoes, of all the various styles and prices with Lasting, Misses' and Children's India Rubber Boots, Gaiter Boots, and Shoes, Gloves, &c., the largest assortment of any store in New York. Ladies will please call and examine for themselves.

250 J. B MILLER, No. 134 Canal st., N. Y.

FALL AND WINTER CAMPAIGN OPENED.



1852-3.

G. C. PHILLIPS,
No. 2 Commerce st.
NEWARK,

Encouraged by the past and looking with confidence to the future, has laid in one of the most complete assortments of new and desirable styles of

Parlor, Store and Cooking Stoves,

Ever offered to the Newark public, comprising some entirely new patterns, never before introduced in this city, and which for elegance and utility of design are unsurpassed. He therefore invites purchasers to examine his assortment before purchasing elsewhere, which consists of the

Saratoga Coal Burner,

This is a new and elegant Parlor Stove, but recently brought into use which received the most enthusiastic approval of all who have used it. It has been pronounced an equal, if not superior to the celebrated Stanley Coal Burner, and can be furnished at about one-half its cost.

The Rip Van Winkle,

This is a new and elegant Wood Parlor Stove, for either wood or coal, designed after the celebrated story of Washington Irving.

The New Republic,

This Stove has now been in use more than 18 months, has been subject to the most rigid tests, and received the most unqualified approval of thousands. As a Cooking Stove, by either wood or coal, it has no superior, and is the best base burner Stove ever offered.

"Vesuvius" Cooking Stove,

This celebrated Stove has been in use by several families in this city for the past two years, are pleased with them and will recommend them to their friends. They all agree in pronouncing it the very best stove in use for economy in fuel, and the various purposes for which it is used. It is so arranged as to conduct the heat to different apartments.

Hays Patent Tabular Range.

This Range is constructed on the most scientific principles, with due regard to perfection, and its offices with the least possible risk, and possesses merits far surpassing any range ever before offered. One of them may be seen in operation at the subscriber's store.

Together with Gyrating Furnaces, Air Tight Cylinder, the Creton (Cooking Stove, Parlor Grates, &c. &c., also on hand.

The subscriber also keeps constantly on hand a large supply of Tin and Britannia Ware, Coal Hods, Shovels and Tongs, Brass and Iron Kettles, Cooking Utensils, of all kinds, &c. &c.

Stoves delivered and put up with care in any part of the city. Thankful for past favors the subscriber requests, and will endeavor to merit a continuance of the same.

Newark Sept. 20—3t. G. C. PHILLIPS.
No. 2 Commerce st.

TAKE NOTICE.

THAT the Judges of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, in and for the County of Essex and State of New Jersey, did, at the term of April, A. D. 1852, appoint Tuesday 28th day of September next at 10 o'clock A. M. at the Court House in Newark at the September term to hear what can be alleged for or against my discharge as an Insolvent Debtor, under the Insolvent laws of said State.

JOHN Y. BAINBRIDGE.

Dated Newark, July 17, 1852.

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant, do. Sanative Pills. Also,
Arnold's Vegetable Balsam, for colds, &c. Dysentery Drops. These Drops are an agreeable, effectual remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholic, Cramps, Pain in the Stomach or Bowels, Arnold's Spinal Embrocation for Rheumatism. Also, Hunt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by April 20, 1852. JAMES W. DUNN.

Going! Now is the time!

SUMMER Stock at cost! Must and shall be sold, to make room for Fall and Winter Goods. Call and see before buying elsewhere. I. S. DURHAM & CO.

LIVER COMPLAINT.

JAUNDICE, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, &c.—These diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, Deficiency of perspiration, Yellowness of the skin and eyes, Pain in the side, back, limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of evil and Great depression of spirits, can be effectually cured by using

DR. HOOFLAND'S
CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,
PREPARED BY
DR. C. M. JACKSON,
At the German Medicine Store, 120 Arch St. Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids Possessing tonic properties in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are united, safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

From the "Boston Bee."

The editor said, Dec. 22nd

Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of viver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our office says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy We are informed likewise in the use of these Bitters the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and small, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances.—We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use.

"SCOTT'S WEEKLY," one of the best Literary papers published, dated Aug. 25—

Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most eminent physicians of the country, as a remedy of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons not liking alcoholic preparations will find these advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

MORE EVIDENCE STILL.

The Hon. C. D. HASELINE, Mayor of the City Camden, N. J., says:

"HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have seen many favorable notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and can say we obtained from its use, relief from diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is surprising. It raises and strengthens the nervous system, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

"If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver and nervous system the great majority of real and imaginary ills emanate. Have them in a healthy condition, and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends to use, and from the benefit we have derived it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit."

Further open evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor, is that offered by many of those who purchase it for their own use. Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with success when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after giving it as directed. It acts upon the stomach with specific power. It is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety at all times in all ages.

Look well to the marks of the genuine

They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.

For sale Wholesale and Retail at the
GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
No. 120 Arch street, one door below Sixth, Philadelphia and by respectable dealers generally through the country.

Prices Reduced.

To enable all classes of invalids to enjoy the advantage of their great restorative powers.

Price of a bottle 75 cents.

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.
Sept. 20, 1852.—1y

Notice.—Wm. Lynch,
Late of 518 Pearl-Street, New York.

Wishes to inform his friends and old customers, that he will open his Wholesale & Retail Grocery Store, at 223 Commerce st., on 22 April, with a large and well assorted stock of goods, such as Teas, sugars, molasses, coffees and spices, butter, cheese, lard, flour beef and pork, &c. which he offers cheap for cash. Country merchants, boarding house keepers, and bakers, are invited to call and examine his goods and his prices, as they can save a very large percentage, call and see for yourselves.—Country merchants will find it for their interest to call and examine his goods and the prices before purchasing elsewhere. N. B —Goods delivered free of charge at steamboat, railroad, barges, sloops, and any part of the city, free of charge.
WM. LYNCH, 223 Greenwich-street New York.

Horse Powers & Threshing

MACHINES, of the most approved kinds, also FANNING MILL. Corn-Shellers, Straw-Cutters, Sinut Machines, and Grist Mills, together with a General Assortment of Agricultural Implements, for sale low rate by JOHN MOORE, Agricultural Warehouse,
Aug. 9.—1m. 199 Front-street, New York.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!

Just Received, Twenty Tons of

Peruvian Guano,

And For Sale in large or small quantities, at about New York prices, by WM. VAIL.
New Market, June 26, 1852.—3m*

BUILDING LOTS

ON SALE by the Subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N. J. containing from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on 2d, 3d, 4th, Main, Liberty and William sts; also a good dwelling House built expressly for the accommodation of two families, and is a valuable location, very nigh the centre of the business part of town, on the corner of Rockwood Place and 4th st. very short distance from Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store
Jan. 19 1852—tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

D. M. KNIGHT & CO.,
Importers and Wholesale Dealers in
ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN
FANCY GOODS,
No. 55 Cedar-Street (up stairs,)
(Between William and Nassau sts.,)
D. M. KNIGHT, A. S. ROBBINS, NEW-YORK.

COMBS—Shell, Buffalo, and horn back Combs in great variety, dressing and fancy Combs.
Buttons. Steel, gilt, lasting, mohair, twist, bone, metal, silk, thread, agate, &c.
Rushes. Hair, Tooth, Nail, &c.
Needles. Assorted Thread, Spool Cotton, Needles, Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Hair Pins, Elastics, Whalebone, Lines and Cotton Tapes, Linen and Cotton Bobbin, Sconces, Thimbles, and a great variety of Fancy Goods, Fans, &c., all cheap for cash.
Sept. 6, 1852.—3m.

BARAIGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received and selling off cheap.
Calicoes, fast colors, for 6 cents per yard
May 8, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

WANTED.

A Journeyman Tailor wanted to work in a small family, must understand coatmaking as well as trousers, to such a girl good wages will be given. Apply to STEPHEN VAIL,
Sept. 6 1852. Centre, street Plainfield.

ALL WHO ARE LOVERS OF
GOOD BREAD

Call at Stewart's Bakery, where they will find a variety article of Bread, not excelled in the State, for pure wholesome nutritious bakery the most delicious, all for eight cents a loaf. Cake and Crackers equally low and good quality.

Remember Stewart's Bakery, Melrose and Marsh.

I hope the public will not forget to patronize this establishment if they don't want to be imposed on.
Sept. 6 1852. ROBERT STUART

Boots and Shoes.—A. D. GALE,

MANUFACTURER and Wholesale Dealer, invites Country Merchants to call and examine his large stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, and extremely low for Cash or short credit for notes. Call and see
A. D. GALE, 225 Pearl street, corner of Platt
New York. Aug. 30, 1852.—3m

Coffee, Spices, Mustard, &c.

WITHINGTON & WILDE,
Nos. 7 and 9 Dutch street, (between Fulton and John streets,) New York.

KEEP constantly on hand a large and well assorted stock of COFFEES, green, roasted and ground; Cinnamon, Nutmegs, Cloves, Pepper, Allspice, Ginger, Mustard, Cassia, &c. whole and ground, all of the best quality, and put up in the best style. Also superior RICE FLOUR and COCOA, equal to any manufactured.

Having been favorably known in this business for the past twenty years, we are confident that we can give purchasers perfect satisfaction, as to the quality and genuineness of our articles, and prices will be found low mostly for cash, the prices will be found as favorable as those of any House in the Trade.
New york, August 16, 1852.—3m

Central Rail Road of N. J.

The cars will run as follows until further notice,
Leave Pier No. 1 North River, New York, at 9 A. M.; 12, M.; 3.45 and 6, P. M. for Plainfield.
Leave Plainfield for New York, at 6.35 and 8.25, A. M. 1.05 and 4.30, P. M.
Leave Plainfield for Easton, Pa. at 9.40, A. M. 7.55 and 8.30, P. M; and for Somerville at 7.50, P. M.
Aug. 2, 1852.

WILLIAM HOVEY'S PATENT

Spiral Straw Cutter, 1844, improved, 1852.

These Celebrated Machines will be kept constantly for sale by RALPH & CO. at their
AGRICULTURAL WAREHOUSE,
No. 23 Fulton street.

They are the sole agents for the City of New York, and will sell these machines at the following reduced prices at retail, and will make a liberal discount to dealers in or out of the city, who purchase to sell again.

No. 0, 4 knives, length of knife 5 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inch. $6.00 With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $6.50
No. 1, 4 knives, length 5 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inch. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $7.50
No. 2, 4 knives, length 6 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $8.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $8.50.
No. 3, 4 knives, length 7 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $10.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 10.50.
No. 4, 4 knives, length 8 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $12.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 12.50.
No. 5, 4 knives, length 9 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $15.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 15.65.
No. 6, 4 knives, length 10 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, 20.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 20.00.
Nos. 5 and 6 can be used by power.

Examine closely this list and compare the length of the knives with the list prices of other Cylinder Cutters, without regard to the No marked on the machine, and you will find these Cutters at less by price than any other Cylinder Cutters in the market. Look well to this, as No's are deceptive and serve to mislead and confuse the purchaser. WM. HOVEY & LASHELL.
RALPH & Co., No. 23 Fulton Street,
Aug. 16 —3mis New-York.

HOPE'S EXPRESS,

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield,

Leaves Plainfield for New York at 8 1-2, A. M. and 5 1-2 P. M. For Somerville, Easton, &c. 9 1-2 A. M. and 5 1-2, P. M.

Arrives at Plainfield from New York at 9 1-2 A. M. and 5 1-2 P. M. From Easton, &c. 8 1-2 a.m. 5 1-2 p.m.

All business entrusted to us will be punctually attended to, without delay, at moderate charges, for cash.

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES FACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 10 cents per piece, (stringing & paste included.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to 87 1-2 cents. A Room papered in 2 hours.

J. F. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging, &c.
Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852. Placiforn

Bigelow's Alterative,

A CERTAIN CURE for DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA, CHOLERA MORBUS; and ALL SUMMER COMPLAINTS.

GEORGE W. BLEECKER, Proprietor, 98 Broadway, New York
Price 50 cents per bottle.

TESTIMONIALS

I have used "Bigelow's Alterative" in my family, and have never found it to fail, when all other remedies administered by under direction of Physicians, have proved instrumental. I think it a perfect remedy for Dysenteric and all Bowel complaints.

GEO. W. BLEEBER, 47 Wall-street.

New-York, March 22d, 1854.

We can add our testimony to that of others of its great efficacy in our own case, when prostrated to an alarming degree by Bowel disease. It was the only medicine that gave relief, and we now always keep it in the family.

EDITORS OF N. Y. BAPTIST REGISTER.

Utica, April 15th 1852.

Dear Sir.—I rejoice to hear that you are about to introduce to the public your valuable medicine, which has been of much benefit to my family. About a year since, my little girl, about three years of age, was in a very low state with the Dysentery. In spite of all we did the bowels that scarcely anything but blood passed them I mentioned her state to you as a neighbor, not thinking that you possessed a sovereign remedy. You gave me a bottle of your Bigelow's Alterative, ten-spoonfuls, when the mother declared she was as well as ever, is now in good health, and has not had an attack since. My little sister, about two years of age, was taken last week with a similar complaint, when about 2 ten-spoonfuls restored her to perfect health. Still another case, my son Hiram, about nine years of age, was much afflicted with bowel complaint, his countenance became sallow, with loss of appetite, etc., when but a few tea-spoonfuls of your valuable medicine under God, has regulated his system.

With many obligations, I am dear sir,
Yours, respectfully,
HIRAM G. SMITH, 80 First-street.

☞ M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.
Aug 23, 1852.—m

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John R. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite Peter Smith's Hotel, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.
Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

Hoover's Black Ink.

THE best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

Assignment Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that Lewis Bowyer of the township of Plainfield, in the county of Essex and State of New Jersey, hath this day made an assignment of his estate and effects for the benefit of his creditors, and that the said creditors must exhibit their respective claims under oath or affirmation within six months from this date.
Dated, August 30, 1852. LEWIS BOWYER.
Assignee.

To Salt Dealers and Others!

SAMUEL HOYALING, No. 101 & 103 Broad street, New York, would inform his customers in the city and country that he has Liverpool Sacks of Fine and Ground Salt; also Turks Island, St. Michie's and other Cargo Salt in store, and for sale at the following low prices: Special Stores, Brooklyn, at Baxter & Lawrence's Stores, foot of Delancy street, at 118 Warren street, and also at the Daily Warehouse, No. 101 and 103 Broad street, New York. At each of the above named places a supply of salt will be kept on hand, and delivered in any part of the city, free of cartage, at the lowest market prices.

Liverpool Sacks and Turks Island Salt, afloat.
New York, July 26, 1852.—3m

A Great Reduction in Prices, at

THOMAS H. DAVIS'S

Furnishing Store,

The Largest Stock in the City,

286 Barnet-St. New Brunswick & 189 Broad St. Newark.

IT will be well worthy the notice of all those who want to purchase any kind of DRESSGOOD FURNITURE, Crockery, Glass-Ware, Cutlery, Looking Glasses, Looking Glasses, Bureaus, Bedsteads, Boston Rockers, Tables, Oil Cloths, Feathers, Feather Beds, Mattresses, &c. in short all articles usually found in a household, which to enumerate would fill a newspaper. Suffice it to say that I must mention—BOOTS and SHOES, Men's, women and misses, all can be bought at such low prices that every body is satisfied, both in variety and quality of goods, that it can be done. Why, I can see how he does it, he attends to business himself, buys for cash and sells for the same, and pays no rent, consequently buys those low prices for those that never meant to pay. This is the true principle of doing business. Give him a call, 286 Burnet street, over Snyder's Eating House.
July 19,—3m. THOMAS H. DAVIS

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment,

AT Less than New York prices, for sale by
July 12, 1852. WM. S. WOOD.

Prepared or Artificial GUANO.

At 1 cent per pound, or $20 per ton of 2000 lbs.

AT a meeting of the Farmer's Club, American Institute, New York, on the 16th December, 1851, the following communication was made,

I present a specimen of turnips raised upon my place last season, which was (on account of the dry weather) an unfavorable one for Turnips. The specimen is not the largest grown, although this weighed when first pulled 3 lbs. 12 oz. In the Spring of 1850, about three barrels of Prepared Guano, to the acre, and planted Sweet Corn, which produced a large crop. I then cropped the ground with Turnips, which was the crop from which I put in the Turnip seed, without any further Manuring, then the three barrels above mentioned, and the result was far beyond my expectations.
Fairfield Co. Dec. 1851. S. WHITING.

POTATO ROT.

Westchester Co. N. Y., Sept. 20, 1850.

I have used "Keatish's Prepared Guano" this season on potatoes. My crop was the largest I have had, and did not rot. I, the tatoes were rotten and worthless. My neighbors also who have not used this Fertiliser, have not had a marketable potato this year. Consider it a preventive of Rot!
G. PREVOST.

Extract of a Letter from E. B. Addison,
Alexandria co. Va. April 24, 1851.

Dr. John H. Barger, President of Prince George's Co. Agricultural Society Maryland, has favored me to inform you that last spring he used African Guano, Peruvitto, Peruvian Guano, and your prepared Guano. He says the two former did not benefit the crop, but the Peruvian and yours, was about equal. He pronounces your prepared Guano to be a very excellent article, and esteems it highly. MANUFACTURED ONLY AT

Keatish & Co's
DEPOT, No. 40 PECK SLIP, NEW YORK.
For Sale at this Office. July 19.—3m

HORACE SEATON,
IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN
FOREIGN LACE GOODS
354 Broad Street, Newark.

☞ Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Tabs, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Bands, Ruffles, Lace, Thread and Hosiery; Millinery articles, Combs, Brushes, Oils, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Gents', Ladies and Children's fancy dress Shoes and Gaiters. 228 1y.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE,
SADDLE & HARNESS
MAKER.

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of good work. He also

Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute all orders in all the branches of the above business, as quick and cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge for yourselves. May 17, 1852.—tf

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the new tax law, by coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co. CONSIDER.

Where they will find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere. Every article of clothing usually found at all stores can be found in their choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and prices which may be desired. Every article is warranted as it is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of tailor's trimmings at a low price—also constantly for sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cuffs, Drawers, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Call and see if you can't do better with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves!

Cutting, trimming, and making done at the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. WM. DUNN & CO.
Plainfield, Dec. 1. Clothing Store, Titsworth, Dunn & Co's.
Plainfield, Dec. 1.

MARBLE & STONE YARD

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful Rose Set Stone, from which I will furnish to order every variety of stone for building purposes, such as Caps, Sills, &c. I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.
Aug. 12, 1851.—1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of May, will remove his store to No. 16 Maiden-Lane, to the store formerly occupied by him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him—James Henming & Son's celebrated Needles—Richards' Grooves and other Needles—Pearl Buttons, Combs, Brushes, Hair Pins, Steel Pens, Pencil Cases, Elastic Tape, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c. RICH'D RICHARDS,
Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods.
April 26, 1852.—1m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Valentine are requested to call and settle their accounts. If not attended to soon, they will be passed over for collection, as I am about to close up my part on any one. I give this public notice that all may attend to. OLIVER RUNYON
Plainfield, April 9, 1852.

Emery & Co's Patent Horse Power, Thrasher and Separator.

THE UNDERSIGNED have been appointed sole agents in the city of New York for the sale of their improved Horse Power, and Thrashers. These valuable machines have been thoroughly tested, and received all observers that they were in use in every State in the Union. None other in Canada.

LONGETT & GRIFFING
State Agricultural Warehouse,
Sept. 5, 1852.—3m No. 26 Chief Street, New-York.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE undersigned announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjacent Villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of T. S. Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, superior with silver work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Cash for rags kept on hand, and engraving at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and Wood taken in exchange for Clocks.
Plainfield, April 12, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

Spring & Summer Dry Goods

HITCHCOCK & LEADBEATER, No. 347 Broadway, New-York, have in store one of the finest assortments in the city of

FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS,

suitable for every season of the year, and every climate, and would especially invite attention to their large and elegant stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER DRESS GOODS, which they have just purchased for cash, for nearly half price, and are enabled to offer

VERY GREAT BARGAINS!

Their stock includes every variety of Silks, Shawls, De Laines, Barege De Laines, Challies, Printed Muslins and Lawns, Linen Goods, Silk Thread, Cravats, Ginghams, Calicoes, Poplins, Textured Silks, &c., &c.

MOURNING GOODS OF EVERY KIND.

A full and complete assortment always on hand, including Black Bombazines, Alpacas, Challies, Chintz Crapes, De Laines, &c., &c., which parties interested will find cheap.

FANCY GOODS OF VARIOUS KINDS.

As plain and embroidered Pocket-handkerchiefs, Cravats, Gloves, Collars, Mitts, Trimming Laces, &c., &c.

A SPLENDID STOCK OF RIBBONS,

bought very low for cash, which the ladies will find desirable and cheap, and which Milliners will find to their interest to examine before completing their purchases.

HOUSEWIFE AND FAMILY GOODS, such as Linens, Table Cloths, Napkins, Towels, Sheetings, Crash, Shirtings and Sheetings, Muslins, Rich embroidered

LACE AND MUSLIN WINDOW DRAPERIES,

in great variety, and of every quality and price.

GENTLEMAN'S FURNISHINGS.

A very large and complete assortment—as Kid, Silk, and Thread Gloves, Cravats, Stocks, Summer Silk and Linen Pocket-handkerchiefs; Silk, Cotton, and Merino Undershirts and Drawers; Socks, &c., &c., at prices much lower than the same articles can be found at the

GENTLEMAN'S FURNISHING STORES.

Please call and examine, and if not found desirable and reasonable, no charge will be made for the trouble.

Country Merchants will find it to their interest to look through our stock, as they can here select any article they may want, and purchase it cheaper than at any store in this city, and will find it an object to purchase at, as most of our goods are purchased at auction, and are the best styles, and sell 20 per cent. below the ordinary jobbing rates.

Terms invariably Cash—and only One Price.
New York, June 21, 1852.—1y

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in Main street, opposite Webster & Marsh's store, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, &c. Having purchased her goods at the lowest cash prices, she is prepared to sell Ribands, Gimps, Gloves, Silk, Laces, Collars, Muslins, Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and everything else in the line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from Somerville, she is prepared for orders in all the various branches of Dress Making. Caps and Head Dresses made to order.
Plainfield, April 5, 1852.—6m.

J. A. WOODLAND,
HOUSE, SIGN AND
DECORATIVE PAINTER,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

☞ The above is prepared to execute all orders in his line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Paper-Hanging Department, with punctuality, neatness and despatch, and at prices considerably less than those usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.
March 23, 1852.

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Earthen and Stone Ware, also Boots and Shoes, &c. &c. which have been selected with great care, and an eye to cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Ginghams, Chestnuts,
Barege de Lane, Gloves, Summerstuffs,
Laans, Hosiery, Fustians, &c.
Decorative styles of Goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear, Muslins bleached and unbleached, colored cambrics, shirtings, sheetings, buttons, thread, cotton balls, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas, Rice, Sugars, Candles, Flour
Coffee, Corn Starch, Soap, Indian Meal

PROVISIONS.—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef,
Cheese, Spices, Pickles, Hams, &c.
Pepper sauce, Honey, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all both old and young, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to call the second time.

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!!

The subscriber has a splendid assortment of Black and changeable silks, which he will sell cheap.
May 4, 1852. J. V. ARROWSMITH.

IRA PRUDEN,

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning-Fluid, &c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual.
June 14, 1852.

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, executed with neatness and despatch.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.
Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store from the corner of Somerset street to the corner of Front street, and near Prunk's mill, where they are prepared to sell all articles in their line cheaper and quicker than ever before offered in this place, also Crockery and Earthen Ware.

Produce of all kinds wanted in exchange for groceries. Thankful for past favors, asks a continuance of the same.

Also, Dr. Keyser's Dysentery Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaints.

JOHNSON & LYON.

N. B. All persons indebted to the subscriber are requested to call and settle without delay.
CHARLES JOHNSON.

CARSAN & BENDIAN,

Original Manufacturers of Carsan's Patent

MEDODYNE,

With Recent Important Improvements.

Price from $500 to $2000.

No. 75 East 3 Bleecker st. Corner of Lafayette Place, NEW YORK.

N. B. Ice Reeds constantly on hand. 6m.
Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

1852.

SPRING GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

W would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not confine our Goods with a view of trying to make a big profit, but shall sell them as they are now, but intend that their style and quality shall speak for themselves. Definitions from 10cts to 50.; Jaconettes Delaines in new styles from 18d to 8s.; plain and washable Muslins from 6cts to 50.; Calicoes from 4 cents any variety from 4 to 14 cts.; a good lot of Ladies' Gloves from 10 cts to 75; also Gents Gloves, Bleached and Brown Cotton Hosiery; Cloth Cassimeres from 10 cts to 3s, and more than a thousand other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloth, Blankets, Flannels, &c. Keeping a constant supply of everything any or all of which can be cut and made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Gents furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods that we

Plainest and Cheapest

To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it an object to Cash purchasers from 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we are entirely in the Dry Goods trade and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

SILKS! SILKS!! SILKS!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also Cannon Plaids new Spring Styles to which the attention of purchasers is particularly requested, at ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

May 3d, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

R. R. R.

Science, by subjecting the laws of Chemistry to the skill of man, has contributed to his health and happiness by stamping the most tried and unerring panga of pain is an instant, and curing the most obstinate

CHRONIC COMPLAINTS

IN A FEW HOURS

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,

Internally and Externally instantly stops Pain, and in a few days cures a cure

It is warranted to give relief to the following pains in Fifteen Minutes,

and to speedily and effectually cure the disease,

Rheumatism,	Cholic,
Lumbago,	Cramps and Spasms,
Pain in the	Sprains,
Stiff Joints,	Neuralgia,
Tic Doloreux,	Dysentery,
Chill Fever,	Diarrhœa,
Ague Cake,	Heartburn,
Sore Throat,	Colds, &c.

PAIN

IS the warning given of the presence of disease and of the derangement and prostration of the nervous and muscular system. In order to cure diseases and rid the system entirely of its cause, our first great consideration is to stop the pain, and then to restore the nervous energy—to invigorate healthy action—the functions and secretions of every organ in the system; this we accomplish by the marvellous

Strengthening, cleansing, invigorating, and powerful pain soothing properties of

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

No matter what the cause of the pain may be—if it arises from nervous prostration, muscular debility, disarrangement of the liver or secretions of the skin, whether it be rheumatism, neuralgia, sick or nervous headache, nervous irritability, spasmodic affections, cramps, diarrhœa, bowel complaint, chills and fever whether it originates from functional derangements or external injuries.

Radway's Ready Relief taken internally and applied externally, will speedily and effectually stop the pain and cure its cause.

RAPID RESULTS.

100,000 persons cured in 1850

The most excruciating pain stopped in two hours.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the quickest, safest, and most effectual remedy for the cure of Rheumatism in all its forms now in use; we state only what we know. It will stop the most torturing pains of, this distressing disease by one application. We say so confidently knowing it will in giving instant relief. In every city, village and town of American it has cured some of the people of this complaint. In every one else we will warrant it to do as stated—it will instantly relieve the sufferer from pain and speedily cure its cause.

SICK AND NERVOUS HEADACHE.

100,000 cases cured in 1850.—It will give you relief in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief taken according to directions, will speedily and effectually cure this complaint. Taken internally and applied externally it refreshes the senses, eleanses the stomach of its impurities, opens the nerves, veins fibres and secretions of the head and brain, and relieves the sufferer from pain in 15 minutes. It is now saving hundreds daily of the sick and nervous headache.

NEURALGIA.—100,000 Neuralgia cases cured in 1850.—It will stop in most violent cases in Fifteen Minutes.

The cruel and excruciating pangs of this distressing complaint are usually arrested by Radway's Ready Relief. The happy and invigorating effects it produces on the nervous system, rendering the most torturing pain quickly restores the nervous energy and cures the disease. It is the only remedy that has effectually cured 2 out of 3 in the last 6 months.

DIARRHŒA.—200,000 persons cured in 1850.—Pains stopped in Fifteen Minutes.

Radway's Ready Relief cured more cases of cholera morbus, dysentery, cholic and all bowel complaints the past year than any other remedy in use. On the banks of the Missisippi, Missouri, Illinois and Ohio rivers, in New Orleans, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukie, Galena, and other places where the diarrhœa, cholera and dysentery rage so fatally in the fall, Ready Relief was used with the best success. Jewill in 15 minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms, impart a genial heat to the whole nervous system, allay all irritation, stop the painful discharges and relieve the patient from all pain.

CRAMPS AND SPASMS.

A Teaspoonful of Radway's Ready Relief, taken internally, and by rubbing effectually with it the parts will in five minutes stop the most violent cramps and spasms. In many cases where the extremities have lost all feeling, where they were cold and numb, the limbs distorted and shrunk, rubbing Radway's Ready Relief has restored the warmth life and action, and a quick and healthy circulation of blood.

SWELLED JOINTS.

If you have pain in the bones, swelled joints, weakness of the back, or you have any complaint in the limb, swelled leg, bruised arm, sore head, or if you have not a single symptom self, Radway's Ready Relief will take out the fire, remove the pain and swelling, give energy and strength to the muscles and entirely free you from pain.

Jumping Toothache cured in one second.

All aches and pains—back ache, toothache, face ache, ear ache, stomache, pain in the limbs, the muscles, the bones, the feet, the head and arms, Radway's Ready Relief will instantly cure.

PAINFUL ITCHINGS

And all cutaneous eruptions are relieved from all irritation by bathing the parts with Ready Relief.

NERVOUSNESS.

By bathing externally the cords of the neck and spine it will strengthen the spine. We have known many cases of paralytic and nervous weakness of the spine to be entirely cured, and the disagreed object to regain his proper shape by the use of Radway's Ready Relief.

CHILLS FEVER

One teaspoonful of Radway's ready relief taken on the first symptoms of chills, and rubbing the head, neck and shoulders, if there is any pain experienced, and it will entirely prevent chill Fever.

Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Flatulency, Bad Breath. Wind, &c. are quickly cured by a dose of Radway's ready relief taken internally. It is a delicious cordial, imparting strength to every organ and function of the body, and health and happiness to the mind.

CAUTION TO DRUGGISTS

Purchase Radway's ready relief only of the authorized agent, whose name is given below. Our travelling agents have a power of attorney signed by us; before purchasing of any one else call and see it. Sold by druggists generally.

Sold by RADWAY & CO., 162 Fulton st. N. Y.

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

Sept. 9, 1851.—1y

12 South Down sheep

AND FOUR LAMBS, For Sale by the Subscriber, and his Farm, near Plainfield.

June 21, 1852. EDWARD ROACH.

Dodd & Benton,

252 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

Manufacturers and Dealers

HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail.

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's Boys' and Youths' Hats and Caps of all kinds. Also our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction. Which enables us to offer to the trade, on the most favorable terms, goods as favorably as at any establishment in the country.

252 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

May 5d, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

HOWS'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

[IN MEN]

Rheumatism,	Weakness in the
Burns, Bruises,	Cuts, Sores, Back, Breast,
Sore Throat,	Frosted Feet, Limb & Joint.

[IN HORSES]

Bruises, Sprains,	Ringbone, Poll Evil, and all
Warbles, Splints,	Spavin, Fistula, diseases of Horses,
Curb, Scratches,	Thoroughpin, where an Embroca-
Windgall,	tion can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOW, CHEMIST,

No 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, have used How's improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Moore, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barney McCleary, Rahe Disco, John Jenkins, Samuel Rawlins, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton Joseph Hammitt, John S. Wears, Trenton. Thomas W. Brown, Smith Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS COLBY, in Somerville by Culver Bacraw. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

THE N..YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUSE, Hay, Floor and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter

Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not to get out of order.

Having spent 20 years in the Manufactory 39 Greene street, New York.

Also For Sale at 38S ultimatreet, ,

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

I. D. DUBOIS, I. SNEDEN, J. BOMLOY.

Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE, PHYSICIANS,

NO. 196 WEST FIFTEENTH STREET, NEW YORK.

Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, particularly those arising from or attended by debility, Scrofula, Scorbutic or Syphilitic diseases, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say, that they have repeatedly restored confirmed invalids, of long standing, after their having been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and more fully informed on DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treating the sick, can receive speedy answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

☞ Sheliries carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express.

jun 5 1y

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, in the corner of Mount and Somerset streets, Elizabethtown, (a short distance from the depot,) would invite his former friends, and all who are in want of a good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call.

His stock comprises all the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay.

JOHN ENGEL.

April 20, 1852 d1.y.

PAINTING &c.

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by Wm. Mosher, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

Also PAPER-HANGING, all of which will be promptly, punctually and honestly executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned returns his sincere thanks to his customers for their liberal patronage the past year, and will endeavor by faithfulness to merit and secure a continuance of the same.

☞ Orders may be left at the Union Office.

April 3, 1852.—y CHARLES TAYLOR.

BREWSTER'S CHOLERA MIXTURE.

FOR THE

CURE OF CHOLERA MORBUS, DIARRHOEA BOWEL COMPLAINTS,

Cholic, Griping Pains, or Sick Stomach and

ASIATIC CHOLERA.

This mixture is not a new remedy that has just sprung up from some newspaper recipe and offered to the public touting the discoveries of modern times, but was prepared years ago, and has been used and recommended by physicians and others as a standard medicine, and has been successfully used in the most violent cases of Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, Cholic, &c., and will not fail to cure in one case in ten, if administered according to direction, on the first attack.

It is just what every family, vessel, steamboat, barge, and traveller should always keep on hand to guard against sudden attack, as the Cholera Morbus is most likely to attack its subjects in the night, when no other remedy is applied the better. Asiatic Cholera is, in most cases prevented by Diarrhœa and Griping Pains in the bowels, which this mixture will cure, which is the reason why so many Persons die of CHOLERA, the want of proper medicine administered in the first stage of the disease, or the delay in procuring a physician before the patient is past cure.

Reference can be given to hundreds of the most respectable persons, as well as to physicians who have used it in curing the Cholera in some of the most violent cases of Cholera Morbus and Diarrhœa.

Price, 25 cents per bottle.

Certificate from the Rev. R. R. Hotchkin, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Fairfield, N. J.

Mr. F. G. BREWSTER;

Dear Sir,—I have found in your Cholera Mixture a safe and efficacious remedy in all cases of Diarrhœa, which have been experienced either by myself or family for more than two years past. I believe it has never failed to cure us, when the use of it we have in a great measure escaped the usual unpleasant after effects of Anodynes. I have found it especially useful when abroad. The change of usual diet and water for a day or more, is almost sure to affect us injuriously, and the use of your Cholera Mixture has proved of the greatest service on such occasions. It was when abroad and in need of relief from such painful Diarrhœa that I first became acquainted with it, and I believe very seldom suffered myself to be found abroad without it.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

R. R. HOTCHKIN.

Cedarville, N. J., July 28, 1849.

Prepared only by F. G. BREWSTER, Druggist and Chemist, Bridgeton, N. J., and for sale together with Brewster's Sarsaparilla, Worm Syrup, and his Embrocation; by Dr. L. CRAIG, Druggist; and for Plainfield by Dr. Bedger, Newark; Dr. D. C. English, New Brunswick, and by druggists throughout the State.

July 12, 1852.—2m

$5000 WANTED!!!

WHATEVER concerns the health and happiness of a people is at all times of valuable importance. To take from or greatest disease from among us, is to confer a boon the lives of their children, and that every person will endeavor to promote their own health as all inviolate of health to be by duty to endeavor to destroy that WORMS, according to the opinion of the most celebrated Physicians, are the primary causes of a large majority of the diseases to which children are subject. Take a lid you have an appetite continually changeable on one kind of food to another, Bad Breath, Pain in the Stomach, Itching at the Nose, Hardness and Full ness of the Belly, Dry Cough, Slow Fever, Pulse Irregular—remember that all these denote WORMS, and can should at once apply the remedy—

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

An article founded upon Scientific Principles, compounded with the greatest care, and perfectly safe to be taken, and can be given to the most tender infant with decided beneficial effect, where Bile Complaints and Diarrhœa have made their appearance Dehilitated Children the Worm Syrup are such, that it stands without an equal in the catalogue of medicines, infusing tone and strength to the Stomach, which gives it a decided preference to any other remedy with Dyspepsia, the astonishing cures performed by this Syrup after Physicians have failed, is the best evidence of its superior efficacy over all others.

HOBENSACK'S TAPE WORM!

This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of all that infest the human system, it grows to an almost Indefinite length becoming so coiled and fastened in the Intestines as to defy all means of effecting the same, Fits, Saint St. Vitus Dance, Fits, &c., that those afflicted seldom if ever suspect that it is Tape Worm bastening themselves an early grave. In order to destroy this Worm by any energetic treatment must be resorted to, it would therefore be proper to take 6 to 8 of my Liver Pills so as to remove all obstructions, that the Worm Syrup may act directly upon the Worm, which must be taken in doses of 2 Tablespoonfuls 3 times a day, these directions followed have never been known to fail in curing the most obstinate case of Tape Worm.

HOBENSACK'S LIVER PILLS.

No part of the system is more liable to disease than the LIVER, it serving as a filterer to purify the blood, or giving the proper secretion to the bile; so that any wrong action of the Liver effect the other important parts of the system, and results various sly, in Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. We should, therefore watch every symptom that might indicate the wrong action of the Liver. These Pills being composed of ROOTS & PLANTS furnished by nature to heal the sick: Namely, 1st. AN EXPECTORANT, which sup-ports the Pulmonary nerves and relaxes the mucous membrane or promotes the discharge of secreted matter. 2d. An Alterative, which changes in some inexplicable and insensible manner certain morbid action of the system. 3rd. A TONIC, which gives tone and strength to the nervous system, renewing health and vigor to all of the body. 4th. A CATHARTIC, which acts in perfect harmony with the above ingredients, and operating on the Bowels, and expelling the whole mass of corrupt and vitiated matter, and purifying the Blood, which destroys disease and restores health.

TO FEMALES.

You will find these Pills an invaluable medicine in many complaints to which you are subject. In obstructions or irregularities, in particular, they have been found of estimable benefit restoring their functional arrangements to a healthy action, purifying the blood and other fluids so effectually to put to flight all complaints which may arise from such irregularities, as headache, giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in the side back, &c.

None genuine unless signed J. N. Hobensack, all others are imitations.

☞ Agents wishing new supplies, and Store Keepers desirous of becoming Agents must address the Proprietor, J. N. Hobensack, Philadelphia, Pa.

For sale in Plainfield by

Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. CUSHING.

And at Retail by ELIAS KIRKPATRICK

C. Drake, Scotch Plains; Charles Foster, Westfield

August 28, 1852.—7m. A

WONDER OF WONDERS.

Petroleum, or Rock Oil!

A NATURAL REMEDY

Prostbred from a Well in Allegheny County, Pa., 400 feet below the surface!

SAMUEL M. KIER, Canal Basin, 7th st. Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Petroleum is a natural remedy; it is put up as it flows from the bosom of the earth, without any thing being added to, or taken from it. It gets its ingredients from all the healing virtues which the earth is over the richest channel. They are blended together in such a form as to defy all human competition. The Petroleum in this respect is like SARATOGA, WATERS, whose virtues in their purest state are known to all the scientific physicians, but by the community at large. These singular fluids flowing out from the earth, impregnated with medicinal substances of different properties and blending them in one, forming a solution, and to require the aid of chemistry to detect them. bears ample proof to the fact that they are compounded by the master hand of nature, the creation of human skill, and the best of testimony. It will be used when many of the new remedies now in vogue, will have been forgotten for ever. It will continue to be used and applied as a remedy, as long as mankind continues to be afflicted with disease. That it will cure every disease to which we are liable, we do not pretend, but that it will cure a great many diseases with which we are liable, it is fully proven by the evidence in its favor. Its discovery is a new era in medicine, and will assure to the health and happiness of man.

The Petroleum is an external and internal remedy: call at the depot, and get a circular from the agent, which will give a full description of it. Persons wishing the agency of this article can be supplied by applying to S.M. Kier, Pittsburgh, Pa. For sale in Plainfield by

Aug. 24, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

READ! READ!! A Voice from Middlesex County! NEW BRUNSWICK, Oct. 24, 1851.

Mr. S. M. Kier:

Dear Sir—Allow me to certify to the virtues of your great natural Medicine called the Petroleum or Rock Oil, which is a great Medicine for the cure of Diarrhœa and Dysentery. I have had a severe attack of Diarrhœa, and made use of your Petroleum, which relieved me in a very short time. I cheerfully recommend it to all others. Yours Respectfully, S. JEFFRIES.

LAW CIRCULAR.

WORTHINGTON G. SNETHEN.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Continues to practice Law exclusively in the Supreme Court, and to attend to cases before Congress and the Executive Claims and settle Accounts against the Departments. Bureaus, and Boards of Commissioners; To procure Patents for Inventions, at home and abroad, and to obtain Extensions, when necessary.

To collect Debts, Dividends, Legacies, and Inheritances in any part of the United States and in Foreign Countries.

To make Investments of funds in Loans and Stocks and on Bond and Mortgage, and to negociate the purchase and sale of Loans, Land and Patent-rights in any State of the Union.

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall, I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

Goods on our counter now do lie,

To suit the mind, to please the eye.

We pride ourselves to say them cheap,

We'll sell them right to suit a keep,

Ginghams and Muslins, Combs and Cords,

The newest styles New York affords;

Delaines and Lawns, Calicoes too,

Colors of which we'll warrant true,

Cloths and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,

And all the goods which men do use;

Together with a good supply

Of groceries good which will defy

A claim of men who live with us,

And we'll prove ourselves equite as true,

To goto Brunswick with their trade

Of stores at home they are afraid.

We'll sell to these and all the rest,

For cheapest ones that suits them best

With Brunswick prices we'll compete,

And she shall trouble in the heat;

So come all ye short, come tall

I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Plainfield, May 13, 1850

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Seaters and Round Rest, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers and Children's Chairs; Also

Dressing Bureaus, Settees, Hobby Horses, Towel Racks, Looking Glass Plates, &c., &c., for sale by

March 12, 1852. D. L. BULLMAN.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by

May 4, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned takes pleasure in recommending Marsh's Superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing the healing properties, which is adapted to a large class of complaints. Its suitability to arrest pain, their very first use we have ever known. For Colds, Coughs and Colds, no doubt if it has an equal it is very good for Rheumatism, Sciatica and Rheumatism, Headache, Sore Throat, Chilblains, Worms, Ague and Fever, or a Cholera Morbus or Dysentery, it cannot be surpassed. No one can appreciate the worth of this excellent medicine, till they have used it for themselves. We have used it in our family for several months, and recommend it to those that are or may be afflicted, as a safe and harmless remedy. It is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge, Brooklyn. John Comstock, Brklyn

" H. T. Hopkins, Newark. John Richbell, Jersey

" Prof. Whitby, Wimsburgh. Steamboat "Warren." Hon. G. L. Marcuse, Brklyn. Lawrence Mann, Brklyn

S. Sprague, Ex-Mayor, as a Neighbor & Worker, L. Tuttle

Alderman S. L. Hustel " David B. Baker, Brooklyn

H. C. Conkling, Ex-P.M., " Aaron Kingsland, Brklyn

J. Dorland, Attorney at Law, " Addison Layne, New York

David Travis, Somerstown, James McCulloch, Ohio

A. Wise, Bellshead hotel. Justice D. Hiscox, "

" Peter Blauvelt, T.'s Ferry, E. Packer, "

Joseph Cheeseborough, Bergen Point, N. J.

Peter Veldran, "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above certificate. Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.

Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 194 Walker Street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING.

Jan. 7, 1852

Agency of DR. FITCH'S

CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Heart Corrector,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-dyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Cathar. Pills
Nervine,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific

Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil.

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, Piles, &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Plated Steel Spring Shoulder Braces.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED BIBLE LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF

Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to an old age.

This Book should be in every family. To the consumptive it points out the only REASONABLE hope for relief. To others it gives the directions by strict observance of which they may be invaluable. 75,000 copies of this Book have passed through the press, and the sale continues unabated.

For Sale by S. S. SMITH & CO., 207 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

DR. DE LANEY'S CELEBRATED

Curative Instrument,

The only infallible cure for that dreadful disease known as SPERMATORRHŒA or Involuntary Nocturnal Emissions!

So harassing and destructive, and productive of so much mischief to the nervous system, incapacitating the sufferer for business, study and social intercourse.

This Instrument is simple, comprehensive, and nevertailing, and may be used without the slightest inconvenience or the knowledge of the most intimate friend. It is to be worn during the night, and from the first injury whatever, for preventing any one from attending to his business; it will in one not a single occasion can take place, instigated by the slightest cause, to such an extent that they regain their primitive power of any kind, the loss of which, caused by early abuse, is the disease or symptom of the most distressing concomitant complaint viz.: Nervousness, Prostration, Dyspepsia, Pain in the Head and Dimness of Vision, Weakness of the Back and Lower Extremities, Affections of the Kidneys, Impotency, Nervous Irritability, Decline of Virility, Weakness of Memory and Power for Mental Application, Dejection, Aversion to Society, Loss of Energy, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, &c. All these complaints invariably disappear as soon as the source is stopped from which they emanated.

This Instrument has been examined and approved by the highest authorities in Europe and America, is recommended by the most eminent physicians of all countries, as the only certain remedy existing for those complaints, and has now completely superseded the use of dreges, the Electric Chain, Bands, and all mention the thousand advertised nostrums of the day, as pernicious, antidotes, &c., &c. It constitutes at the same time the safest, the most pleasant and by far the cheapest treatment ever before the public. The full success attained by the allowed for the Instrument after the desired effect has been attained.

Be it also remembered, that those complaints are but little understood by the profession in general, and that all the medicine in the world never has, and never will, stop those losses, which, if allowed to continue, unchecked, are sure to produce the most distressing consequences.

It has been a matter of surprise to some, that any one of respectability of attainments should devote his attention to diseases, which from their very description prented to cure so easily. If, however, but one thousandth part of the miseries these people bring upon society were known, that opinion would be formed. And it is not only the present misery and dejection, preying on the mind as well as the body, that is deplored, but the consequences of such a nature as to affect posterity, and even to threaten the extinction of the family altogether. It is a fact that, when not properly treated, they may remain so dormant in the constitution as to appear in no manner to the injury than in their effects upon posterity; yet, if properly understood, are easily and speedily removed. The above, so ingeniously contrived instrument, will doubtless, in a great measure, contribute to check the frightful evils of quackery so prevalent in the class of diseases, throughout the Union.

The price of the complete instrument, carefully secured against all observation in a box, is only $10. It can be sent by express to any part of the United States, Canada, &c., according to the money accompanied by full directions, and important advice to the married and single, the expense, even to the remotest parts of the Union not being over $1.

The unexampled success this Instrument has obtained since its introduction in America, has induced some unprincipled persons in Philadelphia, Albany, Boston, &c., to get up some ridiculous imitations of the instruments, which, however, bear not the slightest resemblance, neither in form nor principle to my own invention, and long before any of them appeared. Certificates, and which are as similar to them as night is to light. Every attempt to sell such instruments for mine will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law, I being not willing to connect the name with the well earned reputation of my inventions with quacks and their worthless productions. No instruments is genuine and can be sent to any part of the country, but those signed by myself.

All applications and remittances must be directed (post paid) to the Doctor himself, he having no Agents or Correspondents in the United States.

Address, post paid, Dr. De Laney, 51 Lispenard St., New York. Office hours, daily, from 9 A. M to 3 P.M. and from 7 to 8, P. M. the Sabbath excepted.

☞ The undersigned certify, with great pleasure, that the above mentioned instrument is not only constructed on scientific principles, but that in every case that regular results may always, with confidence, be anticipated, there being for the cure of those diseases, NO OTHER CERTAIN REMEDY EXTANT.

HENRY S. KEELER, M. D.

CH. GOLTHER, M. D. 16 Chambers street.

C. ECKHARDT, M. D. 24 Howard St. NEW YORK.

D. DE LANEY is prepared to examine all orders for surgical apparatus, viz.: Artificial Arms and Legs, Instruments for Deformities, Apparatus for Luxation; for contracted Legs; for curvatures of the Spine and Wrist; for False Joints of the Arms and Knees; for Crippled Legs; for Club Feet; for Spinal Affections; for falling of the Rectum; Hypogastric Belts; Beds and Chairs for Sick Persons; Crutches, Trusses, &c. Orthopedic Corsets, &c. &c. All work warranted. Letters must be post paid. Office hours, daily from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. and from 7 to 8 P. M. the Sabbath excepted.

July 12, 1852. 1y

Blanks for sale at this Office.

PLAINFIELD UNION

Volume XVI.—No. 39. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, September 28, 1852. Whole Number 819.

BY MILTON P. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY.

WILLIAM HOVEY'S PATENT

Spiral Straw Cutter, 1844, improved, 1852.

Three Celebrated Machines will be kept constantly for sale by RALPH & CO. at their

AGRICULTURAL WAREHOUSE,

No. 23 Fulton street.

They are the sole agents for the City of New York, and will sell these machines at the following reduced prices at retail, and will make a liberal discount to dealers in or out of the city, who purchase to sell again:

No. 0, 4 knives, length of knife 3 1-4 inches, cut 1 inch, $9.50
With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $10.50
No. 1, 4 knives, length 5 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $7.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $7.50
No. 2, 4 knives, length 6 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $8.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $8.50.
No. 3, 4 knives, length 7 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $10.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 10.50.
No. 4, 4 knives, length 8 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $12.50. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 12.50.
No. 5, 4 knives, length 9 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $15.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 16.50.
No. 6, 4 knives, length 10 1 4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $18.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 20.00.

Nos. 5 and 6 can be used by power.

Examine closely this list, and compare the length of the knives with the cut prices of other Cylinder Cutters, without regard to the No. marked on the machine, and you will find that these Cutters are less in price than any other Cylinder Cutters in the market. Look well to this, as No's are deceptive and serve to mislead and confuse the purchaser. WM. HOVEY & LASELE.

RALPH & Co., No. 23 Fulton Street,
Aug. 16—3ms New-York.

HOPE'S EXPRESS,

H. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield,

Leaves Plainfield for New York at 8 1-2, A. M. and 5 1-2 P. M. For Somerville, Easton, &c. 9 1-2 A. M. and 5 1-2, P. M.

Arrives at Plainfield from New York at 9 1-2 A. M. and 5 1-2 P. M. From Easton, &c. 12 m. & 3-2 p. m.

All business entrusted to us will be punctually attended to, without delay, at moderate charges, for cash.

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they will be treated with civility, whether they purchase a hat or they can buy as New York or Philadelphia, and half a dollar cash cheaper.

N. B. Moleskin or Silk Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 23, 1851.—y

Lyon's Kathairon,

For the Growth and Embellishment of the Hair, to Prevent its falling and Turning Gray.

Awarded the Highest Premium by the States of New York, Maryland and Michigan at their annual Fairs of 1851.

THE Kathairon neutralizes the effect of disease, climate and old age, in Preserving and Restoring the Human Hair, even after a Baldness of twenty years, cleanses the scalp from Scurf and Dandruff; cures the most Inveterate Scald Head, Ery-sipelas, Diseases of the Skin, &c. and it is the most desirable

TOILET ARTICLE

For Ladies or Gentlemen's use in the world. Its perfume equals Lubin's choicest Extracts, and being free from all offensive rancid oil or coloring properties, it gives the Hair that clean, bright, soft, lively appearance, so much to be desired.

The use of the Kathairon is adopted by the first physicians in Europe and America, and has a patronage and sale unprecedented in the history of modern medicine. But words are superfluous, a trial only can attest its real virtue, as millions certify. To be had throughout North and South America, Europe and the Islands of the Sea, in large Bottles, for 25 cents.

Sold in Plainfield by M. P. CUSHING.

July 19, 1852—6m

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York

LYON'S EXTRACT OF

Pure Jamaica Ginger.

"Dear Sir,—I speak from a general knowledge of the virtues of Ginger, and particularly of your preparation of Jamaica Ginger, having used it for seven years in my practice. For Dyspepsia, Cholera Cholic, Summer complaints, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, General Weakness, &c. it is unquestionably the best article in the world. Its influence in reaching the system to throw off and resist disease of all kinds so usual during warm weather, makes it invaluable to every family. Its timely use would prevent nine-tenths of the protracted sickness during the sickly season.

Yours truly, R. M. CHILSON, M. D.
133 Bond Street, New York."

This article, peculiarly adapted to this climate, and which is universally used, can be had in Plainfield of July 19, 1852—6m M. P. CUSHING.

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

LIGHTNING RODS!

A. M. QUIRY & SON, No. 132 Fulton Twenty-Seventh Street, continue to manufacture and fix to build together improved Lightning Rods which have now been in use seventeen years, with not a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. M. & M. Quiry's Rods are perfectly the study of his life, and his rods are always put up in accordance with certain rules which he has formed and adopted as the result of his experience. A adherence to these rules he has found to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and require regarded to their situation a different arrangement of the rods, to suit the peculiar features of the case, which is the reason why so many of the common rods fail to protect the buildings to which they are attached. M. & M. Quiry's rods are so perfectly adjusted to all buildings, that no two rods are always put up in accordance with certain rules which he has formed and adopted as the result of his experience. A adherence to these rules he has found to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and require regarded to their situation a different arrangement of the rods, to suit the peculiar features of the case, which is the reason why so many of the common rods fail to protect the buildings to which they are attached. M. & M. Quiry's rods are so perfectly adjusted to all buildings, that no two rods are always put up in accordance with certain rules which he has formed and adopted as the result of his experience. A adherence to these rules he has found to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.

Plainfield, May 24, 1852.—6m

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of May, will remove his store to No. 16 Maiden-Lane, to the store formerly occupied by him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him:—Gamble Hemming & Sons' celebrated Needles—Richards' Gravers, and all other kinds of Gravers' Buttons, Cooper's Needles and Gold Pencil Cases, Ball Cotton, Stay Binding, Tape, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c. RICHD. RICHARDS.

Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods.

April 20, 1852—3m 16 Maiden Lane New York

Going! Going! Gone is the time!

SUMMER Stock at cost! Must and shall be sold to make room for Fall and Winter Goods. Call and see for yourself. [illegible]

SUMMER [illegible]

From the Flag of our Union.

A Sketch for the Season:

or Life-like Scenes, Near and Abroad.

BY FALCONBRIDGE.

"Well, well, dram no more about it, for mercy's sake; if you must go, you must go, that's all."

"Yes, just like you, Fitzfaddle"—pettishly reiterates the lady of the middle aged man of business; "mention anything that would be gratifying to the children—"

"The children, umph!"

"Yes, the children; only mention taking the dear, tied up souls to, to—to the Springs—"

"Heaven's there been to Saratoga? Didn't I spend a month of my precious time and a thousand of my dollars there, four years ago, to be physicked, cheated, robbed, worried, starved, and—laughed at?" Fitzfaddle responds.

"Or to the sea side" continued the lady.

"Sea side! good conscience!" exclaims Fitzfaddle, "my dear Sook—"

"Don't call me Sook, Fitzfaddle; Sook, I'm not in the kitchen, one of the kitchen, you'll please remember, Fitzfaddle!" said the lady, with evident feeling.

"Oh," echoed Fitz, "God bless me, Mrs. Fitzfaddle, don't be so rabid; don't be foolish, in your old days; my dear, we've spent the happiest of our days in the kitchen; when we were first married, Susan, when our whole stock in trade consisted of five ricketty chairs—"

"Well, that's enough about it—" interposed the lady.

"A plain old, pine breakfast table—" continued Fitz.

"I'd stop, just there—" scowlingly said Mrs. Fitz.

"My father's old chest, and your old mother's corner cupboard—" persevered the indefatigable monster.

"I'd go through the whole inventory—" angrily cried Mrs. Fitz—"clean down to—"

"The few broken pots, pans, and dishes we had—"

"Don't you—don't you feel ashamed of yourself?" exclaims Mrs. Fitz, about as full of anger as she could well contain; but Fitz keeps the even tenor of his way.

"Not at all, my dear; Heaven forbid that I should ever forget a jot of the real happiness of any portion of my life. When you and I, dear Sook (an awful scowl, and a sudden change of her position, on her costly rocking-chair. Fitz looked askance at Mr. Fitz, and proceeded); when you and I, Susan, lived in Dowdy's little eight by ten 'blue frame,' down in Pigginsborough, not a yard of carpet, or piece of mahogany, or silver, or silk, or satin, or flummery of any sort, the five old chairs—"

"Good conscience! are you going to have that over again?" cries Mrs. Fitz, with the utmost chagrin.

"The old white pine table—"

Mrs Fitz stants in horror.

"My father's old chest and your old mother's corner cupboard!"

Mrs. Fitz in an agony, walks the floor!

"The few broken or cracked pots, pans and dishes we had—"

"You're quite" "gin cout!" the exhausted Mrs. Fitzfaddle throws herself down upon the sumptuous conversasione, and absorbing her grief in the ample folds of a lace-wrought handkerchief (bought at Warren's—cost the entire profits of ten quintals of Fitzfaddle & Co.'s A No. 1 cod!) while the imperturbable Fitz drives on—

"Your mother's old cooking-stove, Susan, the time and again, Susan, I've sat in that little kitchen—"

Mrs. Fitzfaddle shudders all over. Each reminiscence, to dear to Fitzfaddle, seems a dagger to her.

"With little Nanny—"

"You—you brute! You—you vulgar—you you Fitzfaddle, Nanny! to call your daughter N'anny!

"Nithy! why yes, Nanny—" says the master of fact head of the firm of Fitzfaddle & Co "I believe we did intend to call the girl Nancy, we did call her Nanny, Mrs. Fitzfaddle; but, like all the rest, by your innovations, things have kept changing no better fast. I believe my soul that girl has had five changes in her name before you concluded it was up the highest point of modern respectability. From Nancy you had it Nannette, from Nannette to Ninna, from Ninna to Nanine, and finally it was rested to Anna Antonette De Orville Fitzfaddle!. Such a mess of nonsense to handle my plain name."

"Anna Antoinette De Orville"—said Mrs. Fitz, suddenly rallying, is a name, only made plain by your ugly and countryfied prefix. De Orville is a name," said the lady.

"I should like to know," said the old gentleman, upon which pretext, Mrs. Fitzfaddle, by her claim to such a frenchy and flighty name or title, as De Orville?"

"Wasn't it my family name, you brute?" cries Mrs. Fitz.

"Ho! ho! ho! Sook, Sook, Sook," says Fitzfaddle.

"Sook!" almost screams Mrs. Fitz.

"Yes, Sook, Sook Scoville, daughter of a good old fashioned, respectable farmer, Timothy Scoville, of Tanner's Mills, in the county of Tugg—down East. And when I married Sook, (Mrs. Fitz jumped up, a rustling of silk is heard—a door slams, and the old gentleman finishes his domestic narrative, solus!) she was as fine a gal as the State ever produced. We were poor, and we knew it; wasn't discouraged or put out, on the account of our poverty. We started into the world square happy as clams, nothing but what was useful around us; it is a happy reflection to look back upon those old chairs, pine table, my father's old chest, and Sook's mother's old corner cupboard—the cracked pots and pans—the old stove—Sook as ruddy and bright as a full blown rose, as she bent over the hot stove in our parlor, dining room, and kitchen—turning her sap jacks, frying, baking, and boiling, all at once by her side, with our first child, Nanny, on—"

"Well, I hope by this time you've over your vulgar Pigginsborough recollections Fitzfaddle!" exclaims Mrs. Fitz, re-entering the parlor.

"I was consulting, my dear, the happy time when sat and read to you or held Nanny while you—"

"Fitzfaddle, for goodness' sake—"

"While you—ruddy and bright, my dear, as the full blown rose, bent over your mother's old cook stove—"

"Is this pure misery, Fitz, or do you want to create me?" cried the really tried woman.

"Turning your sap jacks," continues Fitz, cutting the action to the word.

"Fitzfaddle!" cries Mrs. Fitz, in the most sublimated paroxysm of pity and indignation, but Fitz let it come.

"While I dandled Nanny on my knee!"

"Puzzle causes; Fitzfaddle in contemplation of the past, and Mrs. Fitz fortifying herself for the opening of a campaign to come. At length, after a deal of "dicker," Fitz, remembering only the bad dinners, small rooms, large bills, sick, parbolled state of the children, clash and clamor of his trips to the Springs, sea side and mountain resorts; and Mrs Fitz dwelling over the strong opposition (show and extravagance) she had run against the many ambitious shopkeepers' wives, tradesmen, lawyers and doctors' daughters—Mrs. Fitz gained her point, and the family, Mrs. Fitz, the two new marriageable daughters—Anna Antoinette De Orville, and Eugenia Heloise De Orville, and Alexander Montressor De Orville, and two servants—start in style, for the famed city of Hull!

It was yet early in the season, and Fitzfaddle had secured, upon accommodating terms, rooms, &c., of Mrs. Fitzfaddle's own choosing with the diplomacy of five prime ministers and with all the pride, pomp and circumstance of a fine looking woman of two and forty, husband rich, and indulgent at that; armed with two "marriageable daughters," you may, if at all familiar with life at a "watering place," fancy Mrs. Fitzfaddle's feelings, and perhaps, also, about a third of the swarth she cut. The first evident opposition Mrs. Fitz encountered, was from the wife of a wine merchant. This lady made her entrees at ——House, with a pair of boys and "body servant," two poodles, and an immensity of band boxes, patent leather trunks, and, her husband. The first day Mr. Oldport sat at table, her new style of dress, and her European jewels, were the afternoon talk; but at ten, the Fitzfaddles spread, and Mrs. Oldport was bedimmed, easy; the next day, however, "turned up" an artist's wife and daughter, whose unique elegance of dress and profundity in music took down the entire collection!; Mrs. Michael Angelo Smythe and daughter captivated two of Mrs. Fitzfaddle's "circle," a young naval gent and a quasi Southern planter, much to her chagrin and Fitzfaddle's pecuniary suffering, for next evening Mrs. F. got up, to get back her two receivers, and grand private hop, at a cost of $130! and the close of the week brought such a cloud of beauty, jewels, interminable daughters and ambitious mothers, wives, &c. that Mrs. Fitzfaddle got into such a worry with her diplomatic arrangements, her competitions, strategems; her fuss, her jewels, silks, satins and feathers, that a nervous headache preceded a typhus fever, and the unfortunate lady was forced to retire from the field of her glory at the end of the third week, entirely prostrated; and poor Jonas Fitzfaddle, with some $6000 less in his chest, as heard of Fitzfaddle, he was apostrophizing the good old times when he rejoiced in five old chairs, cook stove, slap-jacks, &c.

Amusing Cure for Drunkenness.

The late Earl of Pembroke, who had many good qualities, but always persisted inflexibly in the opinion, which, as well as his conduct, was often very singular—thought of an experiment to prevent the exhortations and importunities of those about him. This was to feign himself deaf, and under pretence of hearing very imperfectly, he would always form his answer by what he desired to have said. Among other servants was one who had lived with him from a child, and served him with fidelity and affection; but he had become his bosom companion. This man by degrees got into a habit of drinking, for which his lady often desired this he might be dismissed.

My lord always answered, "Yes, indeed, John is an excellent servant."

"I say," replied the lady, "he is continually getting drunk, and I desire that he might be turned off."

"Ay," said his lordship, "he has lived with me from a child, and as you say a trifle should not part us."

John, however, one evening, as he was driving from Kirgston, overturned his lady in Hyde Park; she was not much hurt—but when she came home, she began to rattle to the Earl.

"Here," says she, "is that beast of a John, so drunk that he can hardly stand; he has overturned the coach, and if he is not discharged, may break our necks!"

"Ay," says my lord, "is poor John sick? Alas, I am sorry for him."

"I am complaining" said my lady, "that he is drunk, and overturned me."

"Ay," answered his lordship," to be sure he has behaved well, and shall have proper advice. My lady finding it hopeless to remonstrate went away in a pet; and my lord, ordering John into his presence, addressed him very coolly, in these words: "John, you know I have a regard for you, and as long as you behave well, you shall be taken care of in my family; my lady tells me you are taken ill, and indeed I see that you can hardly stand; go to bed, and I will take care that you have proper advice."

John, being thus instructed, was taken to bed, where, by his lordship's order, a large blister was put upon his head, another between his shoulders, and sixteen ounces of blood taken from his arm. John found himself next morning in a woful plight, and was soon acquainted with the whole process, and the reason upon which it was commenced. He had no remedy, however, but to submit; for he would rather have incurred as many more blisters, than to lose his place. My lord sent very frequently twice a day to know how he was, and frequently congratulated my lady upon John's recovery, whom he directed to be fed with only water gruel, and to have no company but an old nurse. In about a week, John having constantly sent word that he was well, my lord thought fit to understand the messenger and said, he was extremely glad that the fever had left him, and desired to see him.

"Well, John," says he, "I hope this is a sober one."

"Ay, my lord," says John, "I humbly ask your lordship's pardon. I promise never to commit the same fault again."

"Say, say," says my lord, "you are right; nobody can prevent sickness, and if you should be sick again, John, I shall see to it, though perhaps you should not complain; I promise you shall always have the same advice, and the same attendance you have now."

"God bless your lordship," says John, "I hope there will be no need."

"I hope so too," says his lordship, "but so long as you do your duty towards me, never fear, I shall do mine towards you."

Showing how Zeke Philpot got sucked in, and again how he didn't.

BY ERSKINE STILLMAN, C. C. S.

Ezekiel Philpot was born in America somewhere near the head waters of the Pesobscot, and when he arrived at the age of nineteen, he had got his growth "and" out his eye teeth, a circumstance which was generally admitted by all who knew him. One bright morning in June, Zeke placed his long body into a clean shirt, cut his longer legs through a new pair of striped trousers, wrapped a span new waistcoat about his breast, hauled up his stiff starched cotton dickey, and tied a checked gingham about his neck, and then donned his swallow-tailed coat, "got his growth" and "cut his eye teeth," a circumstance which was generally admitted by all who knew him. One bright morning in June, Zeke placed his long body into a clean shirt, cut his longer legs through a new pair of striped trousers, wrapped a span new waistcoat about his breast, hauled up his stiff starched cotton dickey, and tied a checked gingham about his neck, and then donned his swallow-tailed coat, "got his growth" and "cut his eye teeth," a circumstance which was generally admitted by all who knew him. One bright morning in June, Zeke placed his long body into a clean shirt, cut his longer legs through a new pair of striped trousers, wrapped a span new waistcoat about his breast, hauled up his stiff starched cotton dickey, and tied a checked gingham about his neck, and then donned his swallow-tailed coat, "got his growth" and "cut his eye teeth," a circumstance which was generally admitted by all who knew him.

Zeke had the crowd in wonder, and made the best of his way to his stable. He slid the door of the shed, and then pulling up his trousers, he untied from the inside of each knee one half of the steel toothed leather of his old knee card!

"Wal, old Dobbin," said Zeke, patting the mare affectionally on the back, while he laid the scattering teeth of which had been filed sharp "rayther guess I ken 'ford to buy yours a new keard now."

The Potato Disease.

At the last sitting of the Paris Academy of Sciences, several communications were read on the potato malady and the means of prevention. M. Brierre, of St-Michel-en-Herm, informs the Academy, that having perceived that the disease prevailed to a greater extent in lands which had not been at any time covered by the sea than in those which were known to have been formerly overflowed, he imagined that by the addition of salt he could prevent the malady. He therefore prepared a mixture of salt and water, in which he placed his cuttings for several hours before planting them, and when the crop was gathered in, all the potatoes were sound. M. Bayard, of Chateau-Gontier, states that he had come to a conclusion that the disease was caused by an excess of vitality in the seed. He therefore introduced a pea into each cutting. The peas vegetated quickly, but without injuriously retarding the growth of the potato, and when the potatoes were gathered they were all perfectly sound, whilst from the cuttings without peas, which he had planted in a portion of the ground, nearly all the crop had the malady. He supposes that the earlier vegetation of the peas had carried off the excess of vitality in the potato.

Sagacity of the Horse.—Not long since,

the writer of this was rambling over that beautiful island opposite the city of Wheeling, his attention was suddenly attracted by a loud crash at the bank of the river. On repairing to the spot, a horse was found struggling among the roots of a fallen tree, under the steep bank. Another noble steed who was grazing a short distance off, in company with several other horses, upon seeing or hearing of the disaster to his friend, came dashing up with his arched neck and dilated nostrils, and discovering the struggles of his comrade, plunged down the bank, to its rescue. The fallen animal, after a long struggle, became disentangled and was then piloted along the water's edge by his companion nearly half a mile, where a path in the bank enabled them to ascend in safety. Upon examination, the fallen horse was discovered to be entirely blind; hence the sympathy and succor shown by his noble consort. Such sagacity is not far removed from reason.

Big Bell.—William Kaye, bell-founder of

Louisville, is casting an immense Bell for the Catholic Cathedral in that city. It will be 6 feet 10,6 & in diameter at the bottom, and will weigh forty hundred pounds.

Dr. Benamin of Troy, remarked in a sermon lately that if Dr. Franklin tamed the lightning Professor Morse taught it the English language.

A gentleman of Virginia had attending bet for 12 or 15 years, that it would rain the first Saturday in every August, which he had won every year except one. Another gentleman bet that it would rain on the 25th of July, and won it. He says it has not failed to do so for the last 16 years.

A negro, who had learned to read, wishing to give some of his countrymen, who had never seen a book an idea of it, said, "reading is the power of hearing with the eyes instead of the ears."

Old Bull.—The Philadelphia North American says Old Bull, the great violinist, has purchased 120,000 acres of land in Potter County, Pennsylvania, for the purpose of founding there on a colony of his Norwegian countrymen. The vanguard of his enterprise, consisting of some thirty hardy looking men, have already arrived at Coudersport, in that County.

At the royal iron foundry of Berlin, a cast of about from 120 feet long and 20 wide, has been constructed as a mess room for the officers in the camp. It can be transported in a single cart, and put up in half an hour.

Professor Stillman, in a speech before the Phi Beta Kappa Society, at Yale College, remarked, that "The best diploma for a man is a large family of children and an honored and happy husband." The Professor thought that with regard to the degree of Master of Arts, lately conferred by a Western college, the title would be more becoming with a fee prefixed to it—for Mistress of Hearts seems most over to.

A writer on Tuesday, in the Forum and Mechanic, says that beans will not grow in the form of peas, such as eagles, hawks, &c. that he never saw a bean subsoiled at Pyrotechnic, and that instead of dying, he seemed rather benefited after it! In secret darkness, we fly, with the Ass [illegible] angle.

A shoemaker, with one eye, who works in the neighborhood, complained that one of his customers did not believe it. One of his friends, who was present, said he would convince him. He accordingly went to the customer, and said, "Neow, old feller," said he, "do the best you can."

took the entrance money, "I want to see just my that are thing what more, as I want you to understan' 'at I shall take off my shoes this time."

"Just nothing in your stockings?" suggested the red nosed man.

"Nothin' but my feet," returned Zeke, as he planted thirteen inches of dash and bones into the lap of the querist.

Zeke paid his three dollars and, stripping coat, vest and "saw," he grasped the pole. Slowly yet steadily he crept up from the ground. He hugged like a [illegible] cuckoo to the greased pole and by degrees he neared the top. His hand was within a foot of the head of Colleen, and he stopped to get breath. One more lift, and then another, and, the prize was within his grasp. Zeke slid to the earth with two hundred dollars!

"Thar! I know'd I could dew it. I haint clum spruces and white maples all my days for noth'n! Good bye, folks, an' y' cray of you cum down stair, just giv us a call."

Zeke left the crowd in wonder, and made the best of his way to his stable. He slid the door of the shed, and then pulling up his trousers, he untied from the inside of each knee one half of the steel toothed leather of his old knee card!

"Wal, old Dobbin," said Zeke, patting the mare affectionally on the back, while he laid the scattering teeth of which had been filed sharp "rayther guess I ken 'ford to buy yours a new keard now."

The Potato Disease.

At the last sitting of the Paris Academy of Sciences, several communications were read on the potato malady and the means of prevention. M. Brierre, of St-Michel-en-Herm, informs the Academy, that having perceived that the disease prevailed to a greater extent in lands which had not been at any time covered by the sea than in those which were known to have been formerly overflowed, he imagined that by the addition of salt he could prevent the malady. He therefore prepared a mixture of salt and water, in which he placed his cuttings for several hours before planting them, and when the crop was gathered in, all the potatoes were sound. M. Bayard, of Chateau-Gontier, states that he had come to a conclusion that the disease was caused by an excess of vitality in the seed. He therefore introduced a pea into each cutting. The peas vegetated quickly, but without injuriously retarding the growth of the potato, and when the potatoes were gathered they were all perfectly sound, whilst from the cuttings without peas, which he had planted in a portion of the ground, nearly all the crop had the malady. He supposes that the earlier vegetation of the peas had carried off the excess of vitality in the potato.

Sagacity of the Horse.—Not long since,

the writer of this was rambling over that beautiful island opposite the city of Wheeling, his attention was suddenly attracted by a loud crash at the bank of the river. On repairing to the spot, a horse was found struggling among the roots of a fallen tree, under the steep bank. Another noble steed who was grazing a short distance off, in company with several other horses, upon seeing or hearing of the disaster to his friend, came dashing up with his arched neck and dilated nostrils, and discovering the struggles of his comrade, plunged down the bank, to its rescue. The fallen animal, after a long struggle, became disentangled and was then piloted along the water's edge by his companion nearly half a mile, where a path in the bank enabled them to ascend in safety. Upon examination, the fallen horse was discovered to be entirely blind; hence the sympathy and succor shown by his noble consort. Such sagacity is not far removed from reason.

Big Bell.—William Kaye, bell-founder of

Louisville, is casting an immense Bell for the Catholic Cathedral in that city. It will be 6 feet 10,6 & in diameter at the bottom, and will weigh forty hundred pounds.

Dr. Benamin of Troy, remarked in a sermon lately that if Dr. Franklin tamed the lightning Professor Morse taught it the English language.

A gentleman of Virginia had attending bet for 12 or 15 years, that it would rain the first Saturday in every August, which he had won every year except one. Another gentleman bet that it would rain on the 25th of July, and won it. He says it has not failed to do so for the last 16 years.

A negro, who had learned to read, wishing to give some of his countrymen, who had never seen a book an idea of it, said, "reading is the power of hearing with the eyes instead of the ears."

Old Bull.—The Philadelphia North American says Old Bull, the great violinist, has purchased 120,000 acres of land in Potter County, Pennsylvania, for the purpose of founding there on a colony of his Norwegian countrymen. The vanguard of his enterprise, consisting of some thirty hardy looking men, have already arrived at Coudersport, in that County.

At the royal iron foundry of Berlin, a cast of about from 120 feet long and 20 wide, has been constructed as a mess room for the officers in the camp. It can be transported in a single cart, and put up in half an hour.

Professor Stillman, in a speech before the Phi Beta Kappa Society, at Yale College, remarked, that "The best diploma for a man is a large family of children and an honored and happy husband." The Professor thought that with regard to the degree of Master of Arts, lately conferred by a Western college, the title would be more becoming with a fee prefixed to it—for Mistress of Hearts seems most over to.

A writer on Tuesday, in the Forum and Mechanic, says that beans will not grow in the form of peas, such as eagles, hawks, &c. that he never saw a bean subsoiled at Pyrotechnic, and that instead of dying, he seemed rather benefited after it! In secret darkness, we fly, with the Ass [illegible] angle.

A shoemaker, with one eye, who works in the neighborhood, complained that one of his customers did not believe it. One of his friends, who was present, said he would convince him. He accordingly went to the customer, and said, "Neow, old feller," said he, "do the best you can."

...ed with ... Whig ... Whig ... Whig

Postage 3c. Dec. Wheeler, Lane, and Wilson will be the only States which have yet elected of Members to the next Congress. In the yea of Gen. Taylor's election, they chose three Whigs to eleven Loco Focos, but one of the three Whigs (D. F. Miller of Iowa) was cheated out of the seat by the stealing of the Kanesville poll book, so that the returns stood. Whigs two ; Dp position twelve. Now those same States have chosen six Whigs and seven Opposition. We call this a fair beginning. Keep it up !

The New Orleans Picayune says : "We have received some private information from Yucatan, stating that a movement is on foot in that State, to apply to the United States for protection and annexation. Some of the leading men in the country are engaged in the movement."

A Mr. Farrell, of Goldsborough, N. C., having left his brandy still in charge of his wife, she in company with her daughter and a little child emptied the vessel that received the brandy into a barrel which they then close, the daughter who held the candle, touched it to the funnel to see the brandy burn. The flame reached the barrel, and an explosion followed, which caused the death of all three.

Passengers from Milwaukie to New York—a distance of 1,050 miles—come on in two days and 16 hours, provided they are fortunate in making the connections.

Be just before you are generous, and pay your debts before your respects.

A negro, on being asked if he believed in the existence of ghosts, replied, that "he did not believe in them himself, but he had a brother in California who had seen 'em "

The multiplication table was invented by Pythagoras, the Grecian Philosopher, 528 years before Christ, and is thus 2,391 years old.

LOST.

On Saturday evening a Book. Leave Vail, the finder will be reasonably rewarded by leaving the same at the office of this paper.
Plainfield, Sept. 27, 1852

FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale his Dwelling House and Lot, situated very pleasantly on Second-st. in the village of Plainfield, and convenient to the business parts of the place. The house is in good order and conv nient for two families. There is a never failing well of water by the door, and choice fruit trees of various kinds in the lot. He also offers for sale five shares of stock in the Building Loan and Saving Fund Association of Plainfield.
Sept. 27, 1852. WASHINGTON MARSH.

THEODORE R. LAFOY,

No. 314 Broad Street, NEWARK,

MANUFACTURER AND DEALER IN

GOLDEN EAGLES

OF NEW AND DESIGNS IN

Watches, Jewelry, Silver-Plated and Britannia WARE, CUTLERY AND NANCY GOODS.

Also, Piano Fortes, Music, and Musical Instruments.

☞ Watches repaired superior to any other establishment in New Jersey. tf8

Oils! Oils! M. RILEY,

MANUFACTURER OF MACHINE, WOOL, PAINT AND TANNERS' OILS.

Oil Works, Stapleton, Staten Island.
Office, 84 Broadway, (up stairs,) New York.

Liberal commission allowed on all orders through Express Agents. s27 3m

"Every Family should have a Copy."

An Invaluable book, worth $5 at a sight. Now know Thyself.

DR. HUNTER'S MEDICAL MANUAL AND HAND BOOK FOR THE AFFLICTED, containing an outline of the Origin, Progress, Treatment and Cure of every form of disease, contracted by Promiscuous Sexual Intercourse, New York Offices, or by Excess, with advice for their prevention written in a familiar style, avoiding all medical technicalities, and everything that would offend the most delicate ear, from the result of some twenty years successful practice, exclusively devoted to the cure of the diseases of a delicate or private nature.

To which is added, receipts for the cure of the above diseases and a treatise on the cause, Symptoms and cure of the Fever and Ague, for twenty five cents a copy, at copies one dollar, will be forwarded to any part of the United States, by mail, post paid on receipt. Add one postage paid. "Box, 196 Post Office, or the Author, 38 North Seventh Street, Philadelphia.

FIFTY DOLLARS FORFEIT. DR. HUNTER will forfeit $50 if failing to cure, any case of secret disease that may come under his care, after taking but one standing or affliction. If her sex are invited to the Private Rooms, 38 N. 7th Seventh Street, Philad'a, without fear or exposure. Married persons, Strangers and others who have been unfortunate in the selection of a Physician are invited to call

DISPENSARY. Through unrestrained indulgence of the passions by excess or self-abuse, the evils are numerous. Premature impotency, involuntary seminal discharges, wasting of the organs, loss of memory, a dislike for female society, general debility, or constitutional derangement, are sure to follow. If necessary, consult the Doctor with confidence; he offers a perfect cure.

READ AND REFLECT.—The afflicted should do well to reflect before trusting their health, happiness and in many cases their lives, in the hands of physicians ignorant of this class of diseases, and only partially responsible for one man to understand all the ills the human family is subject to. Every respectable physician has his peculiar track, in which he is more successful than his brother professors, and to that he devotes most of time and study.

YEARS OF PRACTICE, exclusively devoted to the study and treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, together with cases upon the body, throat, nose, or legs, pains in the head, or bones, mercurial rheumatism, strictures, gravel, irregularities, diseases, enlargements of the blood, heredity or constitution has become enfeebled, enables the Doctor to offer speedy relief to all who may place themselves under his care.

Medicines forwarded to any part of the United States. Price five and ten dollars per package.
Sept 27, 1852—1y

HOPE'S EXPRESS, TWICE DAILY,

Via N. J. CENTRAL R. R.

Leaves New York at 8 o'clock A. M and 4 o'clock. P.M.
Leaves Easton at 6 o'clock A. M. and 3 1. P. M.

Arrangements have been perfected with the Central Railroad Co. by which we will be enabled to send by Express all articles of Merchandize Specie Bank Bills, &c. &c. with the utmost safety and dispatch. Those wishing to a well established Express Line will find this the most reliable and expeditious route. Particular attention will be paid to collections, and all business entrusted to us will be promptly attended to.

Packages will be received and delivered at the Depot in Jersey City, and at the Express Office, No. 74 Broadway, New York.

Orders left at the Express Office, No. 74 Broadway, or at the Depot in Jersey City, will receive prompt attention.

The Express will extend to all the towns and villages of Northampton, Lehigh, Monroe, and Luzerne Counties, Pennsylvania, including Bethlehem, Allentown, Manch Chunk, Wilkesbarre, Reading, &c. &c.
J. D. HOPE, Proprietor. 74 Broadway, New York

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!

Just Received, Twenty Tons of

Peruvian Guano,

And For Sale in large or small quantities, at about New York prices, by WM VAIL.
New Market, June 26, 1852.—3m*

BRISTOL'S Sarsaparilla and Yellow Dock Blood Purifier, Cleveland Yeast Powder in the house.

Celebrated Soap Powder.

Prepared by JAMES M. PUTNEY.

CARD. IMPORTATIONS.

Peterson & Humphrey,

IMPORTERS OF

Carpeting and Oil Cloths,

179 Broadway, corner of White-st., New York

HAVE JUST RECEIVED, PER LATE ARRIVALS from Europe, their usual supply of rich and elegant Carpeting, consisting of

RICH AXMINSTER and MOSAIC CARPETS, in entire CARPET, CARPET, and RICH BORDER to enlarge it to any sized room.

RICH VELVET CARPETS—Patterns entirely new.

TAPESTRY and BRUSSELS CARPETS—An elegant assortment, surpassing in richness of COLORS and SHADING, any before imported.

THREE PLY and INGRAIN CARPETS, our stock will be constantly supplied with the latest and most desirable patterns manufactured.

OIL CLOTHS.—Our arrangements with the ENGLISH and AMERICAN manufacturers enables us to offer a LARGER and better assortment, at less price, than any store in the Union.

BEDDING DRUGGETS, RUGS, TABLE and PIANO COVERS, MATS of all kinds, MATTING, &c., and all other goods found in first-class carpet stores, for sale, on the most favorable terms.

PETERSON & HUMPHREY,
Sept. 18-3m 179 Broadway, cor. White-st., N. Y.

Coffee, Spices, Mustard, &c.

WITHINGTON & WILDE,

Nos. 7 and 9 Dutch street, (between Fulton and John streets,) NEW-YORK.

KEEP constantly on hand a large and well assorted stock of Coffee, ground and unground ; and ground : Cinnamon, Nutmegs, Cloves, Pepper, Allspice, Ginger Mustard, Mace &c. &c., whole and ground, all of the best qualities, and in whole sale style. Also superior Rice Flours and Cocoa, equal to any manufactured.

Having been favorably known in this business for the past twenty years, we are confident that we can give purchasers perfect satisfaction, as to the quality and manufacture of our articles, and any goods being bought weekly for cash, the prices will be found as favorable as those of any House in the Trade.

New york, August 16, 1852.—3m

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the Subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N. J. comprising from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on 2d, 3d, 4th, Main, Liberty and William sts; also a good sized lot with a Dwelling House built expressly for the accommodation of two families, and in a valuable location, very nigh the centre of the business part of town, on the corner of Exchange and Second sts. a very short distance from Titsworth's Store & Cole Store.

Jan. 19 1852—tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

D. M. KNIGHT & CO.,
Importers and Wholesale Dealers in
ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN
FANCY GOODS,

No. 58 Cedar Street (up stairs,)
(Between William and Nassau sts.,)
D. M. KNIGHT, } NEW-YORK.
A. S. COMBS, }

COMBS—Shell, Buffalo, and horn back Combs in great variety : twist, dressing and ivory Combs.

BRUSHES—Shaving, Hair, Nail, Tooth, Cloth, Hair, Head, Flesh, Clothes, Shoe, Nail, Horse, Hair, Tooth, Nail, &c.

PERFUMERY—Toilet Soaps, Needles, Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Hair Pins, Elastics, Whalebone, Linen and Cotton Tapes, Linen and Cotton Bobbin, Scissors, Thimbles, and a great variety of Fancy Goods, Pears, &c., all cheap for cash.
Sept. 6, 1852—3m.

Washington Rock STAGE.

WILL run every other day, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and any other day if called for.

Leave Plainfield corner of Main and Cherry streets, at 1 o'clock P. M., returning when the party is ready.

Fare $2 for the round trip.

Persons will be called for at their residences, by leaving their names on the slate at the Gazette Office.

C. STAATS, Proprietor.
Sept. 13, 1852. Washington Rock House.

FRENCH LANGUAGE

NEW TESTIMONY TO THE MERITS OF
FASQUELLE'S NEW METHOD
OF LEARNING THE
FRENCH LANGUAGE,
Embracing both the Analytical and Systhetical Modes of Instruction.
In one volume, 12mo. Price $1 25 retail.
FIFTH EDITION.

Published by
S. W. BENEDICT & CO., 199 Broadway, New York.

From N. W. Howard Newcastle, Ky.

I was so convinced of its superiority to all other text-books on the same subject, that have fallen under my notice, that I immediately caused it to be procured by a class of young ladies, with which I was about to commence instructing. The progress they have made from the months his highly gratified themselves, their parents, and their teacher, and I attribute it with justice to the systematic and practical, yet simple plan of the work.

From Cyrus Knowlton, Principal of the Hughes High School, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Fasquelle's grammar satisfies me. It is evidently the work of a thorough teacher as well as thorough scholar

From the New York Day Book.

We never saw a more finished treatise on that polite language.

From the New York Evangelist.

A very philosophical and complete christomathy in this much-desired language.

From the New York Courier & Enquirer.

The book presents every facility the French learner can ever reasonably hope for.

From P. N. ogender, New Haven, Ct.

Never has a work come under my notice that blends so happily the two opposite, yet the great ruling elements of the language. My pupils study it with pleasure.

From Zion's Herald.

It presents the true method of study, and seems to us scarcely capable of an improvement.

From the Literary World

Its classifications are minute and painstaking, carefully labeling the various matters.

From the Mirror.

One of the very best arranged books that we have ever seen.

From the Methodist Quarterly Review,

The work is done every where with conscientious thoroughness.

From the New Haven Palladium.

The book is exceedingly valuable, and will have an immense sale.

From the Detroit Free Press.

It seems to us most decidedly superior to any work of its kind ever published.

☞ Teachers who wish to examine the work can have a copy sent them, by enclosing the price named, in letter, by sending Post-office stamps to the amount of 63 cents.

Just published a New Edition of
"TELEMAQUE,"
IN FRENCH,
From the most approved Text; with Notes and Grammatical References.
BY LOUIS FASQUELLE, L. L. D.,
Professor of Modern Language in the University of the City of New York.
Vol. 12mo. on fine paper, and neatly bound.
NEWMAN & IVISON,
SCHOOL BOOK PUBLISHERS,
Sept. 20-3m 199 Broadway, New York

Machinery Oil.

75 CTS. a gallon, better than Sweed Oil, at a quarter of the price. For Sale by
June 1st, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset-st. next door to John D. Bowne's Wagon Shop and opposite Francis's Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, dealer in Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done. All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line, would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.
Plainfield, April 28, 1852—6m

AN ASSORTMENT OF SUPERB
JEWELRY.

THE subscribers have just added to their previous stock of Jewelry, a new lot of the latest and richest patterns, comprising a splendid assortment of Ladies' Breast Pins, Finger Rings, Ear Rings, Bracelets, Gold Pencils, and every one who would like to get a piece of Jewelry, not only fashionable in style but fine in quality, should call and examine for themselves. Our stock is complete, and well selected, and we can assure, as article which its intrinsic excellence cannot fail to give the most perfect satisfaction.

Come, try our goods examine and the truth of the statement will try.

And if not found as represented we'll not ask you to buy.

A. H. & J. W. MILLER, Park Jewelry Store,
Sept. 20, 1852.—6m. The Sign of the Golden Harp, 196 Broad-street, Newark

Notice to the Ladies of This Place.

Ladies wishing Boots and Shoes for the Fall and Winter season will find at MYERS' & HILL'S, a large and splendid assortment, consisting of black and colored Gaiter Boots, plain and full fazed, both single and double soles : Cloth Button boots lined with flannels and without ; do. do. for Winter ; Quilted Silk, Satin and Beaskins, a Beautiful article Ladies' and Gentlemen's Toilet Slippers, suitable Holiday presents for both sexes ; White Kattin and Linen Gaiters ; white and black Bands, Kid and Lasting Top Boots ; Slippers of Kid Slippers and Parties ; Misses and Children's Gaiter Boots and Slippers of all the various styles and prices with Ladies,' Misses' and Children's Rubber Shoes, Gaiter Boots, and Shoes, Gloves, &c., the largest assortment at any store in New York. Ladies will please call and examine for themselves.

s20 J. B MILLER, No. 184 Canal st., N. Y.

FALL AND WINTER CAMPAIGN OPENED.

1852-3.

G. C. PHILLIPS,
No. 2 Commerce st.
NEWARK,

Encouraged by the past and looking with confidence to the future, has laid in one of the most complete assortments of new and desirable styles of

Parlor, Store and Cooking Stoves,

Ever offered to the Newark public, comprising some entirely new patterns, never before introduced in this market. If not superior to the best of days gone by, unsurpassed. He therefore invites purchasers to examine his assortment before purchasing elsewhere, which consists of the

Saratoga Coal Burner,

This is a new and elegant Parlor Stove, but recently brought into use, which received the most enthusiastic approval of all who have used it. It has been pronounced by many superior to the celebrated Rotary Coal Burner, and can be furnished at about one-half its cost.

The Rip Van Winkle,

This is a new and unique and novel Parlor Stove, for either wood or coal, designed after the celebrated story of Washington Irving.

The New Republic,

This Stove has now been in use more than 18 months, has been subject to the most rigid tests, and received the most unqualified approval of thousands. As a Cooking Stove, for either wood or coal, it has no superior, and is the best baking stove ever offered.

The "Evening" Cooking Stove,

This celebrity of the stove has been in use by several families in this city for the past two years, certificates from whom will be furnished on application to the subscriber. They all agree in pronouncing it the very best stove in use, economy in fuel, and the various purposes for which it may be applied. It is so arranged as to conduct the heat to different apartments.

The Parvisian Tubular Range,

This Range is constructed on the most scientific principles, with the idea of performing all its offices with the least possible fuel, and possesses merits for surpassing any range ever before offered. One of these may be seen in operation at the subscriber's store.

The elevated Oven Furnace, Rotary Top Cylinder, the Croton (Cooking Stove) Parlor Grates, &c. &c., also on hand.

The subscriber also keeps constantly on hand a large supply of Tin and Britannia Ware, Coal Hods, Shovels and Tongs, brass and Iron Kettles, Cooking Utensils, of all kinds, &c. &c.

☞ Stoves delivered and put up with care in any part of the city. Thankful for past favors he solicits further request, and will endeavor to merit a continuance of the same. G. C. PHILLIPS,
Newark Sept. 20 -3t No. 2 Commerce st.

WANTED.

A first-rate American girl, to do general housework in a small family, must understand cooking in all its branches, to such a girl first-rate wages will be given. Apply to STEPHEN VAIL.
Sept. 6 1852. Centre, corner Plainfield.

ALL WHO ARE LOVERS OF
GOOD BREAD

Call at Stewart's Bakery, where they will find a superior article of Bread, not equaled in the State, for there was but one article, nothing but the best of flour and no composition to injure the most delicate constitution—all for eight cents a loaf. Cake and Crackers equally low and good quality.

Bakery, Park Place, Webster and Marsh.

I hope the public will not forget to patronize this establishment if they don't want to be imposed on.
Sept. 6 1852. ROBERT STUART.

Boots and Shoes.—A. D. GALE.

MANUFACTURER and Wholesale Dealer, invites all Country Merchants to call and examine his large stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, and extremely low for Cash or short credit for notes. Call and see

A. D. GALE. 225 Pearl street, corner of Platt.
New York. Aug. 30, 1852—3m

Notice.—Wm. Lynch,

Late of 516 Pearl-Street, New York.

Wishes to inform his friends and old customers, that he will open at Hyde's Schedule & Retail Grocery, No. 223 Greenwich st., corner of Dunne st., on 22 April, with a new fresh stock of goods, such as Teas, sugars, molasses, coffees and spices, butter, cheese, lard, pork, beef and pork, &c., which he offers cheap for cash. Families, boarding house keepers, and bakers, are invited to call and examine his goods and his prices, as he is sure to save you 10 per centage, call and see for yourselves. Country merchants purchasing goods for cash, are particularly requested to call and examine his goods and the prices before purchasing elsewhere. All goods delivered on board of steamboats, railroads, barges, sloops, and any part of the city, free of charge.

WM. LYNCH, 223 Greenwich-street New York

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Thorn's new building in Cherry st., 2nd below Dr. Craig's office, and respectfully informs the citizens of Plainfield and the vicinity of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns DeLaines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds. A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Calicoes, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh York, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders, Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Hollow and Wooden Ware,

Tubs, Buckets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, Whisks shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

HAY, GRAIN AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.
LIME, Rhode Island and Glens Falls.

☞ All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods.
JAMES M. DUNN.
April 20, 1852.—1y.

Horse Powers & Threshing

MACHINES, of the most approved kinds, also FANNING MILLS, Corn-Shellers, Straw-Cutters, Root Machines, and Saw Mills, together with a General assortment of Agricultural Implements, for sale at low rates by J. R. MOORE, Agricultural Warehouse,
Aug. 9—1m. 196 Front-street, New York.

BARAGE DELAINES—a few pieces just received and selling off cheap.
Carpets, final notice. Are 6 cents per yard
May 8, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

Assignment Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that Lewis Brown of the township of Plainfield, of the county of Essex and State of New Jersey, hath this day made an assignment of the individual estate, for the equal benefit of all his creditors, and that the said creditors are notified to exhibit their respective claims under oath or affirmation within the term of three months.

A. BERRY,
Dated, August 26, 1852. Assignee

To Salt Dealers, and Others !

SAMUEL HOLLINGS, No. 101 & 103 Broad street, New York, would inform his customers in the city and country that he has just received a large lot of Liverpool Ground Salt ; also Turks Island, St. Martin's and other Coarse Salt in store, at the following prices ; at Commission—Ground Salt, 90 cts. per bbl. ; Coarse Salt, 75 cts. per bbl. ; at Wholesale, at the Liverpool Salt Stores, foot of Delancy street, at 118 Warren street, and also at his Salt Warehouse, No. 101 and 103, Broad street. At each of the above named places he has a supply of salt will be kept on hand, which he offers at lots to suit purchasers, at the lowest Market prices.

Liverpool Coarse and Turks Island salt afloat.
New York, July 26, 1852.—3m

A Great Reduction in Prices, at
THOMAS H. DAVIS'S
Furnishing Store,

The Largest Stock in the City.

226 Broad-st. 8d Brunswick & 120 Broad St. Newark.

IT will be well worth the notice of all those who want to purchase any kind of GOODS, to call at the Cheap Cockery, Glass, China, Cutlery, Britannia ware, Looking Glasses, Bureaus, Bedsteads, Bedding, Rockers, Tables, Oil Cloths, Mats, Children's Carriages, &c. &c. in fact all things that are needed to housekeeping, which to enumerate would fill a newspaper. Though one thing in particular—BOOTS and SHOES, Men's, women and misses, all made to order at short notice, and a fit guaranteed, or your money back. Remember the place, 226 Broad-st. and 3d door from Market street, Newark.

THOMAS H. DAVIS.
July 19.—3m.

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment,

AT Less than New York prices, for sale by
July 12, 1852. WM. S. WOOD.

Prepared or Artificial GUANO.

At 1 cent per pound, or $20 per ton of 2000 lbs. The meeting of the Farmer's Club, American Institute, New York, on the 16th December, 1851, the following communication was read, viz :

I present a specimen of Turnips raised upon my place last season, which was (on account of the dry weather) unfavorable for the Turnips. The specimen is from the largest grown, although the weight of when first pulled, 4 5-4 lbs. I used in the Spring of 1850, about three barrels of Prepared Guano, to the acre, and planted with corn, which was very fine. After the corn was stripped with potatoes, which was also a good crop. After which I put in the Turnip seed, without any further Manuring, than the three barrels above mentioned, and the result was far beyond my expectations.

Fairfield Co. Dec. 12. 1851. S. WHITING.

POTATO ROT.

Westchester Co. N. Y., Sept. 29, 1852.

I have used "Kentish's Prepared Guano" this season on potatoes. My crop was large and sound. Where I did not use it, the potatoes were rotten and worthless. My neighbors also who have used this Guano, likewise have not raised a saleable potato this year. I consider it a preventive of Rot!

G. PRENTICE.

Extract of a Letter from E. B. Addison.

Alexandria, Va. April 20, 1851.

Dr. John H. Bayne, President of Prince George's Co. Agricultural Society, Maryland, has desired me to inform you that last spring he used African Guano, Peruvian Guano, your preparation, and your Bone Dust. The first two were distanced, but the result from the Peruvian and yours, was about equal. He pronounces your preparation to be a very excellent article, and esteems it highly. MANUFACTURED ONLY BY

KENTISH & CO.
DEPOT, No. 40 PECK SLIP, NEW YORK.
For Sale at this Office. July 19—3m

HORACE SEATON,
IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN
FOREIGN LACE GOODS

554 Broad Street, Newark.

☞ Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Tabs, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Embroideries Muslin, Gloves and Mittens, Parasols, Lace Pelerines, Ruffs, Sets, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Corsets, Ladies and Children's fancy dress Shoes and Gaiters.

Central Rail Road of N. J.

The cars will run as follows until further notice.

Leave Pier No. 1 North River, New York, at 8 A. M. 3 P. M. and 5.30 P. M. and for Somerville at 7.30 P. M.

Leave Plainfield for New York, at 6.35 and 8.25, A. M. 1.05 and 5.34 P. M.

Leave Plainfield for Easton, Pa. at 9.40. A. M. 1.55 and 6.30, P. M and for Somerville at 7.50, P. M.

Aug. 2, 1852

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece !

JAMES PACKER ELL, respectfully begs to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 25 cents a piece, (sizing the walls and paste included.) Marble, Granite and Oak Do Blocks, Satin, Gilt Brass and Plain Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to 84 per piece A Room papered in 4 hours.

J. P. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers
Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852.

Bigelow's Alterative,

A CERTAIN CURE for DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA, CHOLERA MORBUS, and ALL SUMMER COMPLAINTS.

GEORGE W. BLEECKER, Proprietor, 98 Broadway, New York

Price 50 cents per bottle.

TESTIMONIALS.

I have used "Bigelow's Alterative" in my family, and have ever found it to be a certain cure. It is all other remedies administered by and under direction of Physicians, have proved ineffectual. I think it a perfect corrective for Dysentery and all Summer Complaints.

GEO. W BEEBEE. 47 Wall-street.

New-York, March 22d, 1852

We can add our testimony to that of others of its great efficacy in our own case. When prostrated to an alarming degree by Bowel disease. It was the only medicine that gave relief, and one now always kept in the family.

REEVE & N. Y. BAPTIST REGISTER.

Utica, April 23rd, 1852.

Dear Sir.—I rejoice to hear that you are about to introduce to the public your valuable medicine, which has been of much benefit to my family. About a year since, my little girl, about three years of age, was at the point of her state with the Dysentery. Such was the state of the bowels that scarcely anything but blood passed them—as mentioned her state to you at a neighbor, not thinking that I possessed a sovereign remedy.

We have but two teaspoonfuls, when the mother declared she was as well as ever ; a new life appeared, and has had no attack since. Her sister, about two years of age, was taken last week with a similar complaint, with about 2 teaspoonfuls restored her to perfect health. Both children appeared to be in the last stage of life, when your medicine was given. Any one, about nine years of age, was much afflicted with bowel complaint, his countenance, bosome sallow, with loss of appetite, &c., when I gave the teaspoonful of your valuable medicine, under God, has regulated his system.

With many obligations, I am dear sir,
Yours, respectfully,
HIRAM G. SMITH. 80 First-street.

☞ M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.
Aug. 23, 1852.—3m

SALE NOTICE.

IN THAT the Judges of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, in and for the County of Essex and State of New Jersey, did, at the term of April, A. D. 1852, appoint the undersigned Commissioners to make sale of the lands of A. M. at the Court House in Newark at the September term to hear what can be alleged for or against the discharge of the insolvent Debtor, under the insolvent laws of said State.

JOHN Y. BAINBRIDGE,
Dated Newark, July 15, 1852. Sheriff

Exact & Co.'s Patent Horse Power,

Thresher and Separator.

THE UNDERSIGNED have been appointed sole agents in the city of New York for the sale of their Improved Horse Powers, and Threshers. Those wishing to procure Emery's Improved Horse Power and Machine, will observe that the name is stamped on every link of chain. None other is Genuine.

LONGETT & GRIFFING
Seed Agricultural Warehouse
July 5, 1852.—3m No. 30 Cliff Street, New York.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened a establishment in the store lately occupied by Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with silver ware of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

☞ Old Gold and Silver taken in exchange for Clocks.
Plainfield, April 18, 1852.—tf WM. S. WOOD.

Spring & Summer Dry Goods

HITCHCOCK & LEADBEATER, No. 347 Broadway, New York, have in store one of the finest assortments in the city of

FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS,

suitable for every season of the year, and every climate, and would especially invite attention to their large and elegant stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER DRESS GOODS, which they have just purchased for cash, for nearly half price, and are enabled to offer it

VERY GREAT BARGAINS!

Their stock includes every variety of Silks, Shawls, De Laines, Barege De Laines, Challies, Lawns, Organdies and Lawns, Barages, Silk Tissues, Grenadines, Gingham, Cottons, Ticking, Flannels, Sheetings, &c., &c.

A SPLENDID STOCK OF RIBBONS,

bought very low for cash, which the ladies will find cheaper than ever.

A full and complete assortment always on hand, including Black Bombazines, Alpacas, Challies, Canton Crapes, De Laines, &c., &c., which parties interested will find deserving their Storyhere's Entire Fashion.

FANCY GOODS OF VARIOUS KINDS.

Asplain and embroidered Pocket-handkerchiefs, Cravats, Gloves, Hosiery, Linen Goods, Collars, &c., &c.,

A SPLENDID STOCK OF RIBBONS,

bought very low for cash, which the ladies will find cheaper than ever.

HOUSEWIFE AND FAMILY GOODS,

as Linens, Table Damasks, Napkins, Towels, Towellings, Crash, Shirtings and Sheetings, Muslins, rich embroideries.

LACE AND MUSLIN WINDOW DRAPERIES,

in great variety, and of every quality and price

GENTLEMAN'S FURNISHINGS.

A very large assortment of Gloves, Kid, Silk, and Thread Gloves ; Silk and Summer Cravats ; Silk and Linen Pocket-handkerchiefs ; Silk, Cotton, and Merino Undershirts and Drawers ; Socks, &c., &c., at prices much lower than the same articles can be found at the GENTLEMAN'S FURNISHING STORE.

Please call and examine, and if not found favorable and reasonable, you will not be desired to purchase.

Country Merchants will find it to their interest to look through our stock, as they can have select any article they wish in any quantity they may require, at prices which they will find it an object to purchase at, as most of our goods are purchased at auction, and are bought low, and sell 30 per cent. below the ordinary jobbing rates.

Terms invariably Cash—and only One Price.

New York, June 21, 1852.—1y

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends, and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in Main street, opposite Webster & Marsh's store, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, &c. &c.

Having purchased her goods at the lowest cash prices, she is prepared to sell Ribands, Gimps, Gloves, Silk, Laces, Collars, Muslins, Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and everything in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKIN

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from Somerville, she is prepared for orders in all the various branches of Dress Making. Caps and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 5, 1852.—6m.

J. A. WOODLAND,

HOUSE, SIGN AND
DECORATIVE PAINTER,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

☞ The above is prepared to execute all orders in his line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Paper-Hanging Department, with punctuality, neatness and dispatch, and at prices considerably less than those usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.
March 28, 1852.

Cheap, cheap store !!

THE subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Earthen and Stone Ware, and Hardware, which he offers for sale at terms selected with artful care, and an eye to cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly adapted to many customer trade, viz :

Prints,	Ginghams,	Cassimers,
Barage de Lane,	Gloves,	Summerstuffs,
Laces,	Hosiery,	Fustians, &c.

And all styles of goods, required to Ladies' and Boy's wear, Muslins bleached and unbleached, colored cambrics, shirtings, sheetings, buttons, thread, cotton lace, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas,	Rice,	Sugars,	Candles,	Flour
Coffee,	Corn Starch,	Soap,	Indian Meal
PROVISIONS,		Butter,	Lard,	Smoke'd Beef,
Pepper,	Spices,	Cheese,	Pork, &c.

Pepper sauce, Honey, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all both old and young, to call and inspect my goods, which I am being satisfied that all will be induced to call the second time.

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!!

The subscriber has just received an assortment of Black and changeable silks, which will be sold cheap.
May 4. 1852. J. V. ARROWSMITH.

IRA PRUDEN.

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of
Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning Fluid, &c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual.
June 14, 1852.

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.
Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

REMOVAL.

THE subscribers have removed their Grocery and Provision Store to the new stand on Somerset-street to the store lately occupied by Peter Pounds's mill, where they are prepared to sell all articles in their line cheap as the cheapest and good as the best, including Flour and Meal, Groceries, Provisions, &c.

Produce of a kinds wanted in exchange for groceries. Thankful for past favors, solicits a continuance of the same.

☞ Mrs. Yoy's Blackberry Syrup for sale, an excellent medicine for summer complaints.

JOHNSON & LYON.

N. B. All persons indebted to the subscriber are requested to call and settle without delay.
April 3, 1852.—1y. CHARLES JOHNSON.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE, SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER,

Continues at the Old Stand in Washington Alley, in the rear of Titsworth. Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods in his line. He also ☞ Keeps on hand a good stock of Trunks, Valises, Carpet Bags, &c. which he will sell at reasonable rates. Repairing done in the neatest manner, and promptly attended to. Thankful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon him since he has been in business, he would solicit a continuance of the same, believing that he is able to sell for less money than can be purchased elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge for yourselves. May 17, 1852.—6

LIVER COMPLAINT,

JAUNDICE, DYSPEPSIA, CHRONIC OR NERVOUS Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and Diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, or Costiveness, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, Deficiency of perspiration, Yellowness of the skin and eyes, Pain in the side, back, limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of evil and Great depression of spirits, can be effectually cured by

DR. HOOFLAND'S
CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,
PREPARED BY
DR. C. M. JACKSON,
At the German Medicine Store, 120 Arch St. Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled—if equalled—by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalid Consumptives, and the afflicted in all cases of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are truly safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.
From the "Boston Bee."

The editor said, Dec. 22nd

Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters for the cure of river Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. Certificates have been issued by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure. Liver Complaint is the source of many deaths. We are convinced that, in the use of these Bitters the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell; and we know of persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances.—We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use.

"SCOTT'S WEEKLY," one of the best Literary papers published, said Aug. 25—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, and sold at his extensive Medicine store, is the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in causes of female weakness. As such in the case, we would advise females to obtain a bottle, and try them themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have on a weak system."

MORE EVIDENCE

The Hon. C. D. Hoselius, Mayor of the City Camden, N. J., says:

"Hoofland's German Bitters.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. We have found the compound to be a valuable and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

"If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver and nervous system the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. Have been in a healthy condition, and you can tell dyspepsia to epidemic grasp, and extraordinary nervous prostration to the surprising. If

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI—No. 40. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, October 5, 1852. Whole Number 820.

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE, ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY.

WILLIAM HOVEY'S PATENT

Spiral Straw Cutter, 1844, improved, 1852.

These Celebrated Machines will be kept constantly for sale by RALPH & CO. at their AGRICULTURAL WAREHOUSE, No. 23 Fulton street.

They are the sole agents for the City of New York, and will sell these machines at the following reduced prices, and will make a liberal discount to dealers in or out of the city, who purchase to sell again:

No. 0, 4 knives, length of knife 3 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inch, $6.00 With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $8.50
No. 1, 4 knives, length 3 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $7.00 With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $7.50
No. 2, 4 knives, length 6 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $8.00 With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $8.50.
No. 3, 4 knives, length 7 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $10.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 10.50.
No. 4, 4 knives, length 8 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $12.50. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 12.50.
No. 5, 4 knives, length 9 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $15.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 16.50.
No. 6, 4 knives, length 10 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $18.00 With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 20.00.
Nos 5 and 6 can be used by power.

Examine closely this list and compare the length of the knives with the length given by other Cutter Makers, without regard to No. marked on the machine, and you will find that these Cutters are less in price than any other Cylinder Cutters in the market. Look well to this, as No's are deceptive and serve to mislead and confuse the purchaser. WM. HOVEY & LASELL.

RALPH & Co., No. 23 Fulton Street, 2
Aug. 16—3mis New-York.

HOPE'S EXPRESS,

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

Leaves Plainfield for New York at 8 1-2, A. M. and 5 1-2 P. M. For Somerville, Easton, &c. 8 1-2 A. M. and 5 1-2 P. M.

Arrives at Plainfield from New York at 9 1-2 A. M. and 5 1-2 P. M. From Easton, &c. 8 1-2 a.m 5 1-2 p.m.

All business entrusted to us will be punctually attended to, without delay, at moderate charges, for cash.

MANNING VERMULE,
HAT MANUFACTURER,
Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that no pains will be spared to render entire satisfaction to all who favor him with their custom.

N. B. Michaels' Patent Hats made to order at reasonable prices, and in the best style.

Sept. 21—3m

Lyon's Kathairon,

For the Growth and Embellishment of the Hair, to Prevent its Falling off and Turning Gray. Awarded the Highest Premiums by the States of New York, Maryland and Michigan at their annual Fairs of 1851.

THE Kathairon surpasses the effect of disease, climate and old age, in Preserving and Restoring the Human Hair, even after a Baldness of twenty years' standing. Its operation is perfectly safe; will prevent the Nervous Headache, Scald Head, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Skin, &c. and it is the most desirable

TOILET ARTICLE

For Ladies' or Gentlemen's use in the world. Its perfume equals Lubin's choicest Extracts, and being free from all offensive rancid oil or coloring properties, it gives the Hair that clean, bright, soft, lively appearance, secured by no other preparation.

The use of the Kathairon is adopted by the first physicians in Europe and America, and has a test of over a million bottles, the history of the world's medicines. But words are superfluous, a trial only can attest its real virtue, as millions certify. To be had throughout North and South America, Europe, and the Islands of the Ocean, in large Bottles, for 25 cents.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING
July 19, 1852—6m*
E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York

LYON'S EXTRACT OF

Pure Jamaica Ginger,

"Dear Sir,—I speak from a general knowledge of the virtues of Ginger, and particularly of your preparation of Jamaica Ginger, having used it three years in my practice. I prescribe it in Cholera, Cholic, Summer complaints, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, General Weakness, &c. it is unquestionably the best article in the world, in its effect in giving the system to throw off and resist disease of all kinds as usual during warm weather, makes it invaluable to every family. It timely use would prevent nine-tenths of the protracted and sickly cases during the summer season.

Yours truly, R. M. CHILSON, M. D.
123 Bond Street, New York.

This article, peculiarly adapted to this climate, and which is so universally used, can be had in Plainfield at July 19, 1852—6m* M. F. CUSHING.

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway New York.

LIGHTNING RODS!

A. M. CLARK & SON, No. 122 East Twenty-seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and to erect their Lightning Conductors. Forty years have now been in use seventeen years, without a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. The principles on which the electricity the study of Health and its rods are always put up in accordance with certain rules which he has learned and adopted by the result of his experience. And he knows by these rules that he can put up the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from Lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and require different rods, and no two rods are different in arrangement of the rods to suit the peculiar features of the case, which in the room is why so many of the conductors recently put up have failed to protect; being put up by persons ignorant of the laws by which electricity is governed, they are not arranged on buildings in such a manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Many of the rods put up have been placed on the houses of Mr. T. Rockwell, O. Boice, Esq. Mr. M. Stelle, and others in Plainfield, and in many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church and others in New York; church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn; City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1852—6m*

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

THE Undersigned, on the 1st day of May, will remove his store to No. 16 Maiden Lane, to the store formerly occupied by him.

He begs to return his thanks to his customers for the liberal patronage he has received during the last 20 years, and hopes by strict attention to business and a desire to please, to merit a continuance of the same. He has now on hand a large assortment of Needles, Fishing Tackle, Fancy Articles, Perfumery, Combs, Brushes, Tape, Books and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c. RICHD. RICHARDS,

Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods.

April 29, 1852—3m 16 Maiden Lane New York.

Going! Going! the time!

UMBRELLA Stock at cost! Must and shall be sold, to make room for Fall and Winter Goods. Call and secure bargains elsewhere. I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

GETTING A SUBSCRIBER.

Tired and fatigued from a long days ride, covered with the dust we had gathered on a dry sandy road, we called at Squire Hobbs' to wet our mouth, rest our bones, and have a chat with the Squire. On our part, however, there was a disposition very soon to talk less and done more. This Hobbs, a good natured soul, perceived as by intuition, and soon left us to the soft influences of nature's 'sweet restorer.'

Now, how long we slept we needn't tell, and our readers needn't know. It wasn t long, however, for the loud talking in the Squire s 'office' soon aroused us, and we listened to a conversation highly interesting to us. It seemed that Joseum Gulie, Old Joe, a clever, sober, close-fisted neighbor of the Squire's had called in to talk about 'the crops,' and matters and things in general.

'Well, Squire,' said Mr. Gulie, do you know where a fellow can buy a right smart chance of a nigger boy these times?'

'Really, Uncle Joe, I don't know at this time. There was a sale in town last week of some six or eight at one time.'

'There was?'

'Yes. And I got a right likely negro boy eighteen years old, for $400. My word for it, I wouldn t take a thousand dollars for him to day.'

'Just my luck. Why, I never heard a word of it. Who told you, Squire?'

'O, you know I take the paper. I saw the sale advertised, and, as I had to go to town any way, I went on the day of sale, thinking, perhaps, I might hit a bargain, and I did hit a bargain sure.'

'Well, I swan, I have got to have a hand somehow. You see, I have put in more than I have hands to work. Who s got a hand to hire anywheres about?'

'You're too hard for me again, uncle Joe; hiring season is over. About a month ago all the negroes belonging to the estate of H——— deceased, were let at auction; and I'm told they went very low.'

'The deuce. You don't say. Why didn't you tell me, Squire?'

'I hardly know why. I saw it advertised in our paper, and I supposed everybody took that. More n that, I didn't know you wanted to hire. Did you know I have sold my Harden tract of land?'

'No indeed. Who to?'

'Why, to a rich old fellow from Alabama.—It was day before yesterday; and I got the "nailer boys" cash up—only six dollars per acre. He said that he came across our paper in old Alabama; he liked the description of the county saw my woe bit of an advertisement, and came to see about it. We struck a trade in no time.'

'Jerusalem! And here I've been trying to sell a tract of land for the last two years and couldn't get a dollar and a half an acre. It's better land than yourn too, and you know it, Squire. Well, what is 'tis, and can't be 'tiser, but I reckon, Squire, I've beat you on sugar.—I bought, last week, two barrels of sugar at six cents, when every body else had to give seven cents. Beat that, eh?'

'With all ease, uncle Joe—I bought mine at five cents.'

'No, sir—I don't believe it. Now, say, where?'

'At the house of W——— & Co. I got a rare bargain. You see they advertised in the paper that they were selling off at cost. I knew groworld go quick, so I went in and bought a year's supply. Their groceries were all sold before night. I didn't pay the money either, for they took my United States Land Warrant at $1,50 per acre.'

'Now, now, Squire! that can't be, for my lawyer told me that wasn't legal to sell my land warrant.'

'Very true, some time ago; but the news come lately in the paper that Congress had made them assignable.'

'Well, 'tain t fair! it's rascally! What right has these editors to get all the news and keep it to themselves?'

'Ah! uncle Joe, you misunderstand it. Editors and printers labor night and day to gather the news and give it to the people—to instruct their readers—to inform them of all the improvements of the age and ameliorate the condition of society. Their paper goes abroad, recommending our people and country to into east and south, bringing emigrants, and they labor thus for nothing? Should they not be paid?—Is there a man who is not benefitted by a paper? Is not every subscriber repaid four fold for the pittance of $2, his subscription price.?'

'Stop, Squire! stop right there! I'm going to take the paper. I'll take six, and send some back to my kinsfolks in Georgia.'

'You needn t go so far as that—here's the editor right in the room.'

Here the parties rushed in upon us, where we were acting out most admirably a person fast asleep. It is enough for us to say, that after an introduction, the name of Joseum Gulie was entered upon our note book as a subscriber—paid in advance. And now, when the parties alluded to shall read this, we hope they will pardon us for giving to the public the substantial facts used by the Squire—aiding us so effectually in 'Getting a Subscriber.'

PADDY'S EXPEDIENT.—An Irish weaver just imported from the sister isle, took to his employer in Kilmarnock, the other day, the first cloth he had woven since his arrival.

His employer detected in the the cloth two holes, within half an inch of each other, and told him he must pay a fine of a shilling for each hole.

'And plaze ye,' returned Pat, 'is it by the number of holes, or by the size of them, that ye put the fine on us?'

'By the number of holes to be sure.'

'And a big hole and a small one is the same price?'

'Yes, a shilling for every hole, big or little'

'Then give me a hold of the piece, replied Paddy; and getting the cloth into his hands, before the two small holes into one, and exclaimed, 'by the bill of Howth, and that saves me one shilling any how!'

A few words about some of the Richest People in the World.

We suppose there are people in all parts of the United States that think they are pretty well off—seven rich. We know a few unfortunate individuals that labor under this hallucination, and that look with a mixture of pity and contempt upon their fellow worms of the dust, whom they suppose to possess less of "the dust" than themselves. But, Heaven help these poor witlings, they have not the slightest conception of what wealth is. They rich! forsooth! They are beggars, comparatively. Many a rich man's upper servants live in better style. Mr. Croesus, who flourished before our time, and whom the reader has doubtless heard of, used to say that a citizen who had not a fortune sufficient to support an army, or a legion, did not deserve the title of a rich man; and he is good authority. His landed property alone was worth the snug little sum of $8,500,000. Then he possessed slaves, furniture, horses, cattle and cash to an equal amount; making the comfortable sum of $17,000,000!

Mr. Croesus was a rich man, but many of the old cocks that kicked the bucket centuries ago, were richer than he. There was Seneca, the philosopher, that uttered and wrote some tolerably good things, considering the age in which he lived, who was worth $17,500,000! Many modern authors would doubtless have been glad to have been remembered in the old fellow's will. And so they were, all of them. He has left them an invaluable legacy, if they would but accept it; and this it is: "whenever you have written a book, lay it aside for nine years; at the expiration of that time, peruse it carefully; and then, if your judgment approve, publish it, but not before.

Julius Cæsar, like Wilkins Micawber, Esq., was 'e continually incurring pecuniary liabilities that he found it difficult to discharge.' He set a high value upon freindship, having purchased that of Lucius Palus for $1,550,000, and that of Curio for $2,500,000. He was a terrible spendthrift. Before he succeeded in obtaining any office, he had amassed debts to the amount of $14,975,000. But office holders had good pickings in those days, as well as our own; and as soon as he got his hand into the Public Treasury, his debts began to diminish. He soon became rich. He gave Servilia, the mother of Brutus, a pearl of the value of $200,000. He would, doubtless, have been guilty of many other extravagancies, had not "the well beloved Brutus" given him that cruel stab under the fifth rib. On the day of the assassination Cæsar's friend, Marc Anthony, owed $4,500,000. He lived at the rate of about $350,080 a day; one supper cost him $400,000.

Esopus, the comedian, even transcended Caligula in extravagance, having given $400,000, for one single dish. He had a son, Clodius, who was a chip of the old block. Among other costly gastronomic feats, Clodius swallowed a pearl, (a la Anthony,) valued at $4,000.

Appius, another Roman millionaire, squandered in debauchery some $4,000,000 after which, finding himself accidentally sober one day, he investigated his pecuniary affairs, and finding that he had only half a million dollars left, he poisoned himself, because he considered that sum insufficient for his maintenance.

A Mr. Heliogabalus, who lived in those times, and was one of the Upper ten, used occasionally to get up nice suppers that cost $60,000, each. At another genteel affair, named Apollus, which set down to repast that cost less than $100,000. His private table eclipsed the "ladies' ordinaries" of any twenty of the best hotels in the world. The fish from his ponds were sold for $175,000.

But all the rich men did not live before the Christian Era, or immediately subsequent to it. There are some in the world now. They live in England. One of these is the Earl of Spencer.

"The Earl of Spencer s homestead, about sixty miles from London, comprises ten thousand acres, tastefully divided into parks, meadows, pastures, woods and gardens. His library, called the finest private library in the world, contains fifty thousand volumes. Extensive and elegant stables and green houses, conservatories, dairy house, dog kennels, porter's lodge, and farm buildings to a number get to complete the establishment. Hundreds of sheep and cattle graze in the parks about the house." It is not rash to presume that the Earl of Spencer is tolerably well off and enjoys life handsomely. In addition to this homestead, he has his London palace, and his steward only knows how much other property. But wealthy as is the Earl of Spencer, he is quenched into nothingness by

"The Duke of Richmond's home farm, at Greenwood, sixty miles from London, consists of twenty three thousand acres, or over thirty five square miles. And this is in crowded England, which has a population of sixteen millions, and an area of fifty thousand square miles; or just thirty two millions of acres; giving, were the land divided, but two acres to each inhabitant. The residence of the Duke is a perfect palace. One extensive hall is covered with yellow silk, and pictures in the richest and most costly tapestry. The dishes and plates upon the table are all of porcelain, silver and gold. Twenty five race horses stand in the stable, each being assigned to the care of a special groom. A grotto near the house, the ladies spent six years in adorning. An aviary is supplied with almost every variety of rare and elegant birds. Large herds of cattle, sheep and deer, are spread over the immense lawns." The Duke of Richmond also has his palace in London, which is magnificently fitted up; but vast as is his wealth, it is nothing compared to that of

THE DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE.

"The Duke of Devonshire's place at Chatsworth, is said to exceed in magnificence any other in the kingdom. In the grounds about the house are kept four hundred head of cattle, and fourteen hundred deer. The kitchen garden contains twelve acres, and is filled with almost every species of fruit and vegetables. A vast arboretum connected with the establishment, is devoted to contain a sample of every tree that grows. There is also a glass conservatory, three hundred and eighty seven feet in length, one hundred and twelve in breadth, sixty seven in height, covered by seventy six thousand square feet of glass, and warmed by seven miles of pipe conveying hot water. One plant was obtained from India by a special messenger, and is valued at ten thousand dollars. One of the fountains near the house plays two hundred and seventy six feet high—said to be the highest jet in the world. Chatsworth contains thirty five hundred acres: but the Duke owns ninety six thousand acres in Derbyshire. Within the entire is one vast scene of painting, sculpture, mosaic work, carved wainscoting, and all the elegancies and luxuries within the reach of almost boundless wealth and highly refined taste." The Duke's income is one million of dollars per annum, yet he manages to spend it all. It will be remembered that Paxton, the originator of the Crystal Palace, is the Duke of Devonshire's head gardener; and to him is the Duke's palace at Chatsworth indebted for all its glories.

From the Boston Olive Branch.

THE LITTLE PAUPER.

The day was gloomy and chilly. At the freshly opened grave stood a delicate little girl of ten years, the only mourner for the silent heart beneath. Friendless, hopeless, homeless she had wept till she had no more tears to shed and now she stood with her scanty clothing fluttering in the chill wind, pressing her little hands tightly over her heart as if to still its beatings.

"It's no use fretting,' said the rough man, as he stamped the last shovel full of earth over all she could call left to love; 'getting won't bring back the dead folk's to life; pity you hadn't no ship's cousins anywhere to take you; its a tough world, this 'ere, I don't see how you are going to weather it. Guess I'll take you round to Mrs. Fetherbee's; she's got a power of chil dren and wants a hand to help her, so come along. If you're rough enough to float the ark it will do you no good." Allie obeyed him mechanically, turning her head every few minutes, to take another, and yet another look to where her mother lay buried.

The morning sun shone in upon an under ground kitchen in the crowded city. Mrs. Fetherbee attired in a gay colored calico dress, with any quantity of tinsel jewelry, sat sewing some showy cotton lace on a cheap pocket handkerchief. A boy of five years was disputing with a little girl of three, about an apple. From big words they came to hard blows; and peace was finally declared at the price of an orange apiece, and a stick of candy, each combatant 'putting in' for the biggest.

Poor Allie, with pale cheeks and swollen eyelids, was staggering up and down the floor under weight of a mammoth baby, who was busily amusing himself by pulling out at intervals handsfull of hair.

"Quiet that child? can't yo?" said Mrs. Fetherbee, in no very gentle tone. 'I don't wonder the darling is cross to see such a soleum face. You must get a little life into you somehow, or you won t earn the salt to your porridge, here. There, I declare, you've half put his eyes out with those long curls dangling around; come here, and I'll put em out of the way. Ugly for a charity child" (and she glanced at the short, shabby crops on the heads of the little Fetherbees.)

Allie's lip quivered as she said, 'mother used to love to brush them smooth every morning; she said they were like little dead sisters; please don t said she beseechingly.

'But I tell you I do please to cut em, so there's an end to it,' said she, and the severed lights fell in a shining heap on the kitchen floor; 'and do, for creation s sake stop talking about dead folks, and now eat your breakfast if you want it. I forgot you hadn t had any, there's some of the children s left; if you re hungry it will go down, and if you ain t you can go without.'

Poor Allie! The daintiest morsel wouldn't have 'gone down'; her eyes filled with tears that wouldn t be forced back, and she sobbed out 'I must cry, if you beat me for it, my heart pains me so bad.'

'H-i-t y—T-i-t-y! what's all this?' said a broad faced, dray milkman, as he sat his shining can down on the kitchen table; 'what s all this, Miss Fetherbee? I d as lief eat pins and needles as hear a child cry. Who is she,' pointing to Allie, 'and what s the matter of her?

'Why, the long and the short of it, she's a poor pauper that we've taken in out of charity, and she s crying at her good luck, that's all,' said the lady with a vexed toss of her head. 'That s the way benevolence is always rewarded. Nothing on earth to do here but tend the baby and amuse the children, and run to the door, wash the dishes, and dust the furniture, and tidy the kitchen, and go of a few errands; ungrateful little baggage!'

Jimmy s heart was as big as his form, (and that covered considerable ground) and glancing pitifully at the little weeper, he said, skilfully, 'that child s going to be sick. Miss Fetherbee, and then what a go you going to do with her? besides she s too young to be of much use to you; you had better let me take her.'

'Well, I shouldn t wonder if you was half right,' said the fidgetted woman: 'she's seen trouble enough already; I'll give her a quit claim.'

'Will you go with me, little maid?' said Jimmy, with a bright, good natured smile.

'If you please,' said Allie, laying her little hand confidingly in his rough palm.

'Sit up clever,' said Jimmy, as he put one arm around her to steady her fragile figure, as they rattled over the stony pavements 'we shall be out of this smoky old city; (cosmos it s always foul as if I was poisoned every time I come into town;) and then we ll see what sweet bay fields, and new milk and clover blossoms and kind hearts will do for you, poor little shucked chicken! Where did you come from when you went to live with that old Jezebel?'

'From mother's grave,' said Allie.

'Poor thing! poor thing!' said Jimmy, wiping a tear away with his coat sleeve. 'Well, never mind; I wish I hadn't asked you; I'm always running my head agin' a beam. Do you like to feed chickens, hey? Did you ever milk a cow? or ride on top of a hay cart? or go a barying? Do you love bouncing red apples and peaches as big as your fist? It shall go hard if you don't have 'em all. What's come of your hair, child? have you had your hair shaved?'

'Miss Fetherbees cut it off,' said she.

'The old sarpint! I wish I'd come quicker. Was it your curls them young uns were playing with? Well, never mind,' said he, looking admiringly at the sweet face before him, 'you don't need 'em, and they might get you to looking in the glass oftener than was good for you.'

'Well, here we are, I declare, and there stands my old woman in the doorway, shading her eyes from the sun. I guess she wonders where I raised you?'

'Look here, Betsey, do you see this child? The earth is fresh on her mother's grave. She has no other kith nor kin. I've brought her from that old shedding of a Fetherbee's, and here she is; if you like her it's well and good, and if you don't, she shall stay here just the same; but I know you will,' said he coaxingly, as he passed his brawny arm around her capacious waist; 'and now get her something that will bring the color to her cheeks, for mind you, I'll have no white slave on my farm.'

How sweetly little Allie's tired limbs rested in the fragrant lavendered sheets! A tear lingered on her cheek but its birth was not of sorrow. Jimmy pointed it out to his wife, as they stood looking on her before retiring to rest.

'Never forget it, Betsey,' said he, 'harsh words ain't for the motherless. May God forget me if she ever hears one from my lips.'

WHERE OHIO PAINT COMES FROM.

It is stated in a letter from Ohio, that a newspaper editor of Akron was the first discoverer of Ohio paint. Accident led him to make experiments upon a "vein" of what was called "blue clay," that now attracts the attention of the observing traveller in most of the embankments near Akron on the Lake Erie and Ohio River Canal. Such was the promising result of these experiments that he began secretly to experiment with it as paint. All that was found necessary to do with the clay was to dry it, sift it, disguise it with a little chrome green or yellow, Spanish brown or lampblack, and it was sold as "mineral paint," a superior article for painting the decks of steamboats, the outside of buildings, wagons, fences, and all farming utensils, especially those exposed to the weather. It has often been sold six sixty dollars a ton. To dig it, sift and prepare it for market, did not cost five dollars. Use has proven it to be a durable paint, and that it is a cheap one, those know who have only to dig it and dry it, mix it with oil and apply it to their barns and fences. For such work it need not be sifted. One pound of white lead added to four of the blue deposit makes an excellent paint of a light drab color, very much admired for barns and other out houses. For kitchens and many other parts of the inside of houses it is a superior paint, because it becomes very hard, and can be cleaned more easily than the usual oil and lead paint. This clay is found in all parts of Ohio. It lies generally ten or twelve feet below the surface; occasionally it may be found coming out of banks. It looks like blue clay, but it is not clay of the common character. It may be collected to advantage. It will boil like gypsum. There is a difference in the quality of it. The best, when dry, is almost like an impalpable powder; yet it bears an edge which renders it a capital article for burnishing silverware, German silver, or brass. So much for the "mineral paint," advertised and sold, in the Western country.—Blake's paint is a different article. It is made from stone taken from the earth in Medina County. I think the "clay" do, will a better paint for many purposes.

A DOG STORY.

A gentleman, residing in Chelsea, says the Boston Herald, owns an English terrier, that has a remarkably intelligent face, but is otherwise not particularly remarkable from the "common herd" of dogs. The gentleman visited Somerville a short time since, and the dog accompanied him. There the dog made the acquaintance of another dog, and was so fascinated with the sociability of his new companion that he missed the cars, and his master came away without him. But the dog was at the station early the next morning, and came home in the first train of cars. Since that time the gentleman noticed that his dog was absent about once a week during the entire day, and has discovered the fact, that on these occasions, he goes to the Lowell depot, takes his place in a passenger car, jumps out at Somerville, spending the day with his canine friend, and returns at night. The same dog will, if his master leaves home without him, run down to the coach office, jump into the omnibus, and come to the city in search of him; and if he does not succeed in finding him, returns by the same conveyance. He appears to prefer the omnibus to the ferry-boat, and his fidelity ensures him a "free-pass."

CHOICE OF A PROFESSION.—Old gentleman.—Now, Augustus, you have had all the advantages of a good education. You have been well brought up, and as I believe you to be a well disposed boy, I should wish you to choose your own profession. Come, what would you like to be?

Augustus. I know what I should like, but you won t let me.

Old Gent.—What is it—a lawyer?

Aug.—No, it aint a lawyer.

Old Gent.—A doctor or a surgeon?

Aug.—No.

Old Gent.—A clergyman?

Aug.—No.

Old Gent.—A soldier!

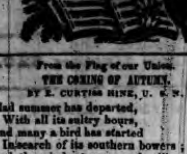
Aug.—No.

Old Gent.—What then?

Aug.—Why—a clown at the circus.

Proverbial.—He that buys a house ready wrought has many a pin and nail to, sought.

The reformation was cradled in the nobility—grew, and established by no other instrument.—Agnes Strickland.



From the Flag of our Union.

THE COMING OF AUTUMN.

BY E. CURTISS MINE, U. S. N.

Glad summer has departed,
With all its sultry hours,
And many a bird has started
In search of its southern bowers;
And the winds at eve are kneeling
The death of Flora's train;
And everything is telling,
Autumn has come again!

Soon will the skies be golden,
At sunset's holy hour;
Soon will the year grow olden,
Soon drop the tinted flower.
Soon will the breeze come moaning
With a sad and a chilling tone;
And the forest trees stand groaning,
All naked, shivering, lone!

But the smoky Indian summer
Will visit us again;
Like an ever welcome comer,
'Twill flit o'er the southern main;
Then will the mists hang shining
Above each stream at morn,
Like a curtain with silvery lining,
O'er the couch where a prince is born!

To their task will squirrels retire,
And chirp from the leafless trees;
And the sun, like a globe of fire,
Look down through the smoky breeze;
And then let us all remember,
That we must, too, decay;
That life has its chill November,
As well as its flowery May!

THE LAST BEAR STORY.—The Calais Advertiser tells the following bear story. It may do to tell, but we are slow at believing it. If Patrick Cinnan killed a bear, weighing 700 pounds with his dog, his jacknife, and stones, his name should be enrolled among the heroes of the chase:

"On Wednesday last, Mr. Patrick Cinnan whoresides on the Little Ridge, a few miles from St. Stephen, went out about sun down, taking with him a large bull dog, to watch for bears, which had been in the habit of coming out round his farm about that time. He had not watched long before a monstrous large one came up within about two rods from him, when the dog sprung and caught master bruin just back of the ear, and held on him like a vice. Old bruin made for the woods with all haste, tumbling over the logs and stumps in his way, lugging the dog with him. At last the dog seized him by the throat, and held him, while Cinnan took out his jack knife and cut a gash in his belly, and then fell on him with rocks—the first one he threw knocked one of his eyes out, and so blinded him that he ran against everything in his course. Cinnan kept pelting him till he killed him. He broke every rib in one side and three in the other side of his bearship. He was an old customer and weighed about seven hundred."

THE LOVE OF TITLES.

For plain republicans, perhaps we are a little too fond of titles. These titles are not always the reward of services, or the badges of real merit and distinction. There is a great disposition to use the term Esquire at the end of a man's name, a sort of title that is perhaps the most common—almost as common as the quirk in a pig's tail. Captain, Major, Colonel and Judge are conferred upon men who are as ignorant in regard to military affairs or the machinery of courts, as a canaanche Indian is of the one line of mining. Such things give scope for the most unmerciful ridicule, and there are a few men who do not see the ludicrousness of a title without the substance. We have often laughed over a story told of an honest old Dutchman, who many years ago kept a ferry at the mouth of Oil creek.

A long time in the business had convinced him that all the Yankees up the river were men of distinction, for all were Majors, Colonels, Doctors, Captains or Judges. One day the old man was pulling across the stream with a large load of passengers. They were addressing each other as Major this and Colonel that—everyman but one had a title. The old Dutchman looked at the plain Mr. ——, with surprise. When the fare came to be paid he charged the titled man who asked the price, one shilling each.

"What is my fare?" said the gentleman who had no title, after the rest had paid.

"Your fare"—said the Dutchman—"Your fare is chust nothing—you ish be fust high private Yankee I ever carried over this creek, and you ish welcome."—Iowago Spectator.

BAD NEWS.

The following good yarn was spun more than thirty years ago; but as many of the old fashions are now among the choicest new ones, we do not see why an old joke should not pass muster—especially if it be really good:

'Well Peter, what a the news?'

'Nothing particular massa, scept Bob's lame.'

'Bob lame? What a the matter wit Bob?'

'He hurt hisself trying to stop de horses massa.'

'Horses! what horses?'

'Old massa's horses run away wid de carriage?'

'Horses run away with the carriage.—What started them?'

'Cannon massa.'

'What was the firing for?'

'To alarm de folks, and make 'em come to put de fire out.'

'Fire! What fire?'

'Your big new house burnt down.'

'My new house burnt down?'

'He catch fire while we all gone to de funeral.'

'Funaral! Who's dead?'

'Your father dead, massa, cause hear'n de bad news.'

'Bad news? what bad news?'

'De Bank fail, massa, and he lose al de money.'

'You rascal, why didn't you tell me this bad news at once?'

'Cause, massa, I fraid it too much for you at once, so I tell you little to time.'

"I was travelling," says M. Blaze, "in a diligence. At the place where changed horses, I saw a good looking poodle dog (chien caniche,) which came to the coach door, and sat upon its two hind legs, with the air of one begging for something. 'Give him a sou,' said the postilion to me, 'and you will see what he will do with it. I threw to him the coin, he picked it up, ran to the baker's, and brought back a piece of bread which he ate. The dog had belonged to a poor blind man, lately dead; he had no master, and begged alms on his own account."

THE UNION

Philadelp, N. J. October 5, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Pennsylvania Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

National Whig Nominations:

For President of the United States:
Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.

For Vice President:
WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North-Carolina.

Whig Convention of the 8th Congressional District

To nominate a candidate for Congress will be held at Newark at Library Hall on Wednesday, Oct. 6th, at 10 o'clock, A. M. The Whigs of the District are requested to appoint delegates.

The Whigs of the 1st Assembly District of Somerset County, comprising the townships of Warren, Bernards, Bridgewater and Bedminster will meet by delegates at Liberty Corner, on Saturday noon, 16th inst. to nominate their candidate for Assemblyman. Each township is entitled to 5 delegates, who will be chosen at the usual places next Saturday, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

THE SOMERSET COUNTY WHIG CONVENTION to nominate a County Ticket will meet at Somerville, on Thursday, Oct. 21, at 10, A. M.

BANKS AND BANKING.—New York, New England, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, having had large experience in banking, have perfected the system, and so protected the public, that unprincipled brokers, however smart, find it almost impossible to cheat the public under their laws. Bank bills are in the first place amply secured, and the banks are compelled to redeem their issues at par, or at most at 1-4 per cent discount. The Wall street brokers, therefore, who wish to make their lawful interest, and cheat the public out of 3-4 or 1 per cent. besides, when money is plenty; or 3, 4 or 5 per cent. on all their issues, when money is scarce, are now driven out of these States, and locate their banks in Illinois, Washington, and other distant places. Even if the bills are well secured, the institutions being established with the sole design to cheat the public out of an extra profit, which the laws hereabout will not allow, ought to be universally discountenanced. Honest bank bills have no occasion to go 500 miles to get into circulation, and every section should have the privilege of issuing and using its own bills. It is therefore right in principle and advisable to refuse all bills, purporting to come from a great distance, and in most cases it is unsafe, and in all cases unjust to our own good banks to take them.

There is a very general complaint of the scarcity of silver, as is well known, not only in this country but in Great Britain, where it is as scarce as it is here, notwithstanding the large amount that has been exported from this country to that. Various reasons have been assigned, for this scarcity, all of which have doubtless had their influence—but in our opinion, it is mainly attributable to the large addition of gold made to the currency of the world by the discoveries in California and Australia, which have made gold comparatively cheap, or what is the same thing, have made silver, land and every thing besides gold dear. We learn by the New York papers that a gold dollar will buy but 96 or 97 cents in silver, which is of itself a sufficient reason for the scarcity of silver; and the more plenty gold becomes, in that ratio will it become cheap, or the dearer will silver, land, and most things else be.

We are glad to learn that a great Counterfeiting establishment has been discovered in Philadelphia, and broken up, and the party arrested.

The cholera is reported to have entirely disappeared from Rochester. Its ravages have been very severe there this season, at least 400 citizens having fallen before it. For weeks silence and inactivity prevailed, and business suffered to the amount of more than $1,000,000.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The Falcon arrived at New Orleans on Thursday, with 120 passengers, about a quarter of a million in gold dust, and 15 days' later news from California, up to Sept. 1st.

The Ohio sailed from Navy Bay Sept. 21st, with the California mails, 300 passengers and two millions of gold dust on freight for New York.

The new steamship Cortez had arrived at Panama, 63 days from New York, the quickest trip yet.

It is said, gold has been discovered on the Isthmus of Darien, causing much excitement.

The news from the mines is very favorable, and the yield the coming season, it is anticipated will be immense. Some new and valuable discoveries have been made on the East range of the Sierra Nevada.

In California matters are improving, though there had been some murders and other outrages since the sailing of the last steamer.

THE GREAT INDIA RUBBER CASE.—In the United States Circuit Court, at Trenton yesterday, the case of Goodyear vs. ——, which was argued in March last by James S. Brady and Daniel Webster for Goodyear, and Rufus Choate and F. B. Cutting for the defendant, was decided in Goodyear's favor throughout, and a perpetual injunction was ordered against Day. Each of the Judges—Grier and Dickerson—gave a written opinion.

Medicine, an article that lazy people make use of as a substitute for fresh air and exercise.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The British steamer Canada touched at Halifax on Tuesday, on her way to Boston, with a week's later news, having left Liverpool Oct. 18, with 130 passengers and a large cargo.

The U. S. steamer, Hermann, from Bremen and Southampton, arrived at New York Tuesday morning, with 209 passengers and a valuable cargo of merchandize. She left Southampton Oct. 16th.

England.—Cotton had advanced, grain remained as before, and provisions slightly declined. Interest continued low.

The Duke of Wellington died at his seat, Walmer Castle, near Dover, very suddenly of an apoplectic fit, Oct. 14, aged 83. He has been a leading character in the world for the last half century, and his death, causes much sensation.

Harvest was generally over, and the yield plentiful.

A new palace for the Queen is to built at Balmoral, Scotland, at a cost of £100,000.

A Spanish war steamer named Primero, of 120 horse power and 32 guns, for service on the coast of Cuba, was launched on the Thames on the 11th of October France.

Louis Napoleon left Paris on Tuesday, on his promised tour to the South and West. The papers contain little else than the accounts of his reception, which I are all the resemblance, at least, of being enthusiastic. Along the whole route he was received with cries of "Vive L' Empereur," with which it is stated he appeared much pleased. When last heard of, he was at Nevers, and in reply to an address from the Council General of that place, in favor of a new Empire let regime, the President made the significant answer.—"When the general interest is at stake, I will try to anticipate public opinion; but I follow it in the case of an interest which may appear personal."

During the past year, the trade of France with the United States has been—Imports, 110,000,000 francs; Exports, 145,000,000.

The population of Paris is 1000,000, and it has 10,000 beds in hospitals, but London whose population is 2,000,000 has only 5,000 beds.

A FREAK OF LIGHTNING.—During a thunder storm in East Bridgewater, last week, the lightning entered in a cellar of a barn, passed through a pile of hay, some ten or twenty feet in thickness, and escaped through the roof, leaving a hole clear through the hay, 12 inches in circumference, but neither the hay nor the barn was set on fire by the lightning.

RAILROAD IN TURKEY.—It is stated in a letter from Belgrade, that it is in contemplation to construct a railway between that city and Constantinople. An English company is about undertaking the execution. This same company has an idea of continuing the same railway into Asia. If this line were completed, the journey from London to Bombay might be made in 15 days.

Bayard Taylor, in a letter from the Nile, affirms the story of men with tails being found in Africa. He says the women are, in all respects, human, "but the men have faces like a dog, claws to their feet, and tails like monkeys." Dr. Werne, a German traveller, gives the same account of them.

It is stated, on the authority of a veracious modern traveller, that there is a windmill on the coast of Holland which lays eggs, and besides young hens! We recommend this fact to the consideration of our 'up-river,' correspondent. An egg of thin breed, under a Shanghai, would enable him to "raise the wind" from his chickens to a degree hitherto unknown in America.

Never marry till you can face the music of a butcher, grocer, dress-maker, 43 cousins and several babies.

There is no greater obstacle in the way of success in life, than trusting for something to turn up, instead of going steadily to work and turning up something.

NEW FALL AND WINTER DRY GOODS.—HITCHCOCK & LEADBEATER, 347 Broadway, cor. Leonard-st. N. Y., have received their Fall importations, and are prepared to serve their customers with every kind of Fall and Winter Dry Goods, of the newest, richest, and most desirable styles, and on the most favorable terms at prices much below the ordinary rates. Their advertisement, in another column, sets forth a list of articles which the ladies will find tempting. Silks of every kind, rich Brocades, elegant Blacks, Changables, Stripes, Plaids, &c. Shawls of all kinds, French Merinos, Cashmeres, De-Laines, and everything else in fact, which a lady can desire for her wardrobe. Gentlemen will also find a splendid stock of their Furnishings there, as Under Shirts and Drawers, of every kind of material Scarfs Cravats, Hdkfs, Gloves, &c. &c. and will find them much cheaper too, than at ordinary gentlemen's furnishing stores.

LIST OF LETTERS.

REMAINING in the Post Office at Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 30, 1852.

Ayre, Miss Lydia
Ayre, Mr. Jas. P. W. Esq.
Burdick, Asa C.
Bailey, Mrs. Sarah M.
Burden, Wm.
Brown, James M.
Boyce, Mrs.
Buxton, Freeman
Boyle, A. A.
Bat-man, Nor
Clarke, Rev. Henry
Clark, P. ter
Clark, Mrs.
Clarke, George W.
Campbell, Celia
Coon, Elvina L.
Conoly Catharine
Daily, Thomas S.
Davie, Miss Eleaner
Dimor, Mr.
Dewey, Daniel
France, Wm
Fisher, John, 2,
Frazee, Miss Jamima
Farren, Mrs J.
Higens, Pat'k
Hackey, Joseph
Hawley, Emma E.
Harris, Mary
Jones, Mrs. P. E.
Kelley, N. J.
Keegan, Anne
Kennedy, Daniel
Leeson, Mrs. Edith
Locy, Benjamin
Leyfred, Fred'k
Muirhead, Samuel
McCabe, Mary
Munday, Sarah
Marsh, Wm. G.
Mason, Mr.
Miller, Lewis N.
Mahn, John D.
Owen, W. C.
Osborne, Deacon
Randolph, Peter
Ruckman, Enock
Ryan, Mrs. Catharine
Runyon, J. E. & Co.
Randolph, Miss Amanda
Smally, Mrs. Sarah J.
Smally, Mrs. Mary
Smith, Mary M.
Shaedrack, Rev. Wm.
Smith James M.
Stillwell, Mrs. Phebe, 2
Steinberger, Henre
Slattery, James
Sebock, Alberdt
Sebork, Martin
Styles, Chs.
Slamiser, Erdam
Towns and, Jotham
Turner, Miss Antoinette
Vincent, Catharine F.
Vanderhoff, Catharine 2
Vail, Samuel
Way, James
Wilson, James G.
Wilson, Mrs. Mercy
Wilson, Mrs.
Williams, Mr.
Webster, Hugh Wing, Rev. T.
Wear, George

Persons calling for the above will please say they are advertised.

L. CRANE, P. M.

Thousands of parents who use Vermifuges composed of Castor oil, Calomel, &c, are not aware, that while they appear to benefit the patient, they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of sight, weakness of limbs, &c.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Hobensack's Medicines, to which we ask the attention of all directly interested in their own as well as their Children's health. In Liver Complaints and all disorders arising from those of a bilious type, should make use of the new genuine medicine, Hobensack's Liver Pills.

Beware of counterfeits! but ask for Hobensack's Worm Syrup and Liver Pills, and observe that each bear the signature of the Proprietor, J. N. HOBENSACK, as none else are genuine.

It should be universally known—For it is strictly true—that indigestion is the parent of a large proportion of the fatal diseases. Dysentary, diarrhœa, cholera morbus, liver complaint, and many other diseases enumerated in the city bills of mortality weekly, are of death, age generated by indigestion alone. Think of that dyspepsics! think of it all who suffer from disordered stomachs, and if you are willing to be guided by advice, founded up a experience, resort at once (don't delay a day) to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, which, as an alterative, curative, and invigorant, stands unrivalled by any compound in the world, 120 Arch street. We have tried these Bitters, and know that they are excellent for the diseases specified above. —Philadelphia City News.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Camphor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

House and Lot,

FOR SALE

The HOUSE and Lot lately owned and occupied by David Freeman, dec'd, on Second street, next the corner of Cherry; is offered for sale. The House is a story and a half high, about 15 years old and convenient. There are on the premises a Barn, Wood House, Well, Fruit Trees, &c. The Lot contains a quarter of an acre of Land. Apply to

Oct. 4, 52-3w* CALEB FREEMAN, Executor.

Hosiery and Shirt store,

No. 292 GREENWICH STREET,
CORNER OF CHAMBERS, NEW YORK.

The subscriber invites the attention of the public to his Fall stock of

UNDER-CLOTHING,

CONSISTING OF

Lamb's Wool, Merino, Cashmere, Silk & Cotton | Marsh's Directory | The Taylor Wool Undergarment so highly recommended by physicians.

ALSO:

The Shaker shirts & drawers, Shaker knitted half Hose, Woolen Hose and Half Hose, | Philadelphia Directory | Collars, cravats, & Stocks, Gloves, Mufflers, handkerchiefs, &c,

Fine Dress Shirts made to order in the most approved style.

Persons about to proceed to California, will find a good assortment of BACK-SAW BLADES, TRAVELING BANDS, MOUNT HEALTH, &c.

Terms Cash—and One Price Only.

THO'S AS McLAUGHLIN.
292 Greenwich st. cor. Chambers.

One block west of Hudson River Railroad station.
New York, Oct. 4, 1852.-3m

New Fall and Winter Dry Goods,

HITCHCOCK & LEADBEATER,
No. 347 Broadway, corner of Leonard st. New York.

HAVE RECEIVED THEIR NEW FALL IMPORTATIONS, and are daily

PURCHASING AT AUCTION

every variety of choice and desirable Fall and Winter

FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS;

and are prepared to offer their customers a very extensive and rich variety of

PLAIN, CHANGEABLE AND FIGURED SILKS,

of every variety of shade and color. Also, striped plaid brocade, and every kind, in short, of Fancy and Plain Silks, including a large assortment of celebrated

BISCHOP'S BLACK SILKS,

the handsomest, best, and most durable manufactured.

SHAWLS! SHAWLS! LONG AND SQUARE, of every variety and kind, as Broche, plain and figured Cassimere, Woollen, Plaid, Rob Roy, and the

CELEBRATED BAY STATE SHAWLS,

all which they can sell at the very lowest rates.

FRENCH MERINOES and CASHMERES

A large assortment, of every desirable color.

FRENCH MOUSELINE DE LAINES,

and Winter Cashmeres, of the most desirable patterns.

PLAIN DE LAINES OF EVERY KIND

A choice and elegant assortment; and in fact,

Every Kind of Ladies' Dress Goods,

suitable for the Fall and Winter season; and a splendid assortment of goods of various kinds,

Suitable for Children's Wear.

They would also invite attention to their stock of

Housewife or Family Goods,

as plain Linen and Cotton Goods of every kind,

Table Damasks, Napkins, Towels,

Woolen Blankets, Quilts

Flannels, Canton Flannels, Diapers, Towelings,

Lace and Muslin Draperies,

Juan's Celebrated Kid Gloves,

the best article brought to this market, at 75 a pair

Ribbons—A Splendid Assortment!

which Ladies and Milliners will find worthy their attention.

Mourning Goods of Every Kind,

including Black Bombazines, Alpacas, Canton Cloths, Canton Crapes, Challies, Barages, De Dunes, plain and figured, and everything in fact requisite for a

Ladies Mourning Wardrobe,

Wide Velvets, French Cloths,

and every kind of goods for Ladies' Cloakings!

Gentlemen's Furnishings

of every kind, as Far, Silk, Merino and Cotton Under Shirts, and Drawers, Scarfs, Cravats, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, &c., ful. 30 per cent. less than at the gentleman's Furnishing Stores!

Terms—Cash! Cash on Delivery!

Merchants from abroad will be able to select many articles from our stock which will enable them to "sort up" their stock to advantage. Qun21

FOR SALE,

The subscriber offers for sale his Dwelling House and Lot, situated very pleasantly on Second-st. in the village of Plainfield, and convenient to the business part of the place. The house is in good order and convenient for two families. There is a never failing well of water by the door, and choice fruit trees of various kinds on the lot. He also offers for sale a few shares of stock in the Building Loan and Saving Fund Association of Plainfield.

Sept. 27, 1852. WASHINGTON MARSH.

HOPE'S EXPRESS, TWICE DAILY,

Via N. J. CENTRAL R. R.

Leaves New York at 8 o'clock, A. M. and 4 o'clock, P.M.
Leaves Easton at 6 o'clock, A. M and 3 1/2, P. M.

Arrangements have been perfected with the Central Railroad Co. by which we will be enabled to send by Express all articles of Merchandize, Specie, Bank bills, &c. &c. Collect bills, Drafts, and transact all business appertaining to a well regulated Express. Careful, obliging, prompt and trusty Messengers will travel with each through train leaving as above.

The proprietor having already experienced much of public favor and confidence, will now pledge himself to renewed efforts to merit and obtain that degree of popularity conferred, and the heavy expenses incurred.

OFFICE, in New York, No. 74 Broadway; in Easton, No. 62 Northampton st. Agencies at all the places on the route from New York to Easton.

Their Express will extend to all the towns and villages of Northampton, Lehigh, Monroe, and Carbon Counties, in Pennsylvania, including Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Williamsburg, Reading, &c. &c.

A. D. HOPE, Proprietor, 74 Broadway, New York.

The American Whig performed last Saturday evening, at Laing's Hall, to a crowded house. We were unable to attend, but learn that he gave great satisfaction to the assemblage. His experiments were the most incomprehensible ever presented in our village and were received with raptures of applause.

See advertisement in this column for next performance.

WHIG MASS MEETING, AT SOMERVILLE.

The Whigs of the 3d Congressional District will meet at Somerville on Wednesday of this week, 6th inst. at 11 o'clock, A. M. to nominate their candidate for Congress. After which a Mass Meeting will be held, which all the Scott and Graham Whigs of the District and elsewhere are invited to attend, as a good time is expected, and several good speakers have been engaged.

The fare on our Railroad on that occasion will be reduced one half; from Plainfield and back, 25c.; New Market, 19; Scotch Plains, 31.

PLAINFIELD WHIG MEETING, on Friday evening, to appoint delegates to the 5th District Congressional Convention:

Joel Dunn Chairman, J. O. Maurice, Sec.

Delegates—Zachariah Webster and Jonathan Cory.

The U. S. mail steamer Pacific sailed from New York for Liverpool on Saturday noon, with 130 passengers and $435,000 in specie.

It is said that three or four Judges are constantly employed in N. Y., in granting Naturalization papers to foreigners desirous of becoming citizens.

Anti-Rent Decision.—Judge Harris of New York, after nearly two years consideration, has decided, in the case of Peebles vs. Wm P. Van Rensselaer, that Van Rensselaer's title is illegal and void; that with regard to the lands which have been occupied o forty years under the title from Van Rensselaer, possession is a bar against the 1 im of the State, but that in respect to unoccupied lands of the manor, Van Rensselaer has no title. An appeal from this decision has been made, and the case will go to the Supreme Court.

The expedition to Japan is to consist of three superior War steamers, the Mississippi, Princeton and Alleghany.

Valuable Sheep.—It is said that at the late exhibition of the Vermont State Agricultural Society, there were sheep of the French merino breed present which $1,000 would not buy, and the stock from which sells readily for from $200 to $250 for ewes, and $250 to $400 for bucks.

An Item.—A cab-driver, in his list of journey expenses, entered in the item of "refreshments for horses," three-pence worth of whip-cord.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

C. Boice, Esq. $4 63; Caleb Freeman, 1,75; Wm Stine, 89.

DIED.

At Mount Bethel, Sept. 27th, Mary, wife of Zachariah Wilson, aged about 65 years.

At Mount Bethel, about Sept. 1st, Caroline, wife of Moses J. Hughes, aged about 35 years.

MAGIC.

The American Wizard will by particular request give one more of his Moral and Scientific Exhibitions, on TUESDAY EVENING, Oct. 5th, at LAING'S HALL, on which occasion he will introduce an Experiment illustrating the Spiritual Rappings.

Doors open at 7 o'clock. Admission, 12 1-2 cents.

DISSOLUTION.

THE Co-partnership heretofore existing between the subscribers under the name of Johnson & Lyon, is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

CHARLES JOHNSON.
JACOB LYON.

Oct. 1, 1852.

The business will be continued at the old stand by the subscriber, where every thing in the Grocery line will be sold cheap for cash.

N. B. All persons indebted to the late firm are requested to call and settle without delay at the store, where the Books are left, and the subscriber is authorized to settle the same.

JACOB LYON.

Plainfield, Oct. 4, 1852 —tal.

Notice to the Ladies of This Place.

Ladies wishing Boots and Shoes for the Fall and Winter season, cannot do better in Canal st. as large and splendid assortment consisting of Shoes and colored Gaiter Boots, Slippers, Ties, Balmorals, Jenny Lind Boots and Shoes, Ladies' Cloth Buskins, lined with chamois leather and shod warm for Winter; Quilted Silk Boots and Boots as a Beautiful article for Ladies and Gentlemen's Toilet Slippers, and Ball Slippers; Ladies' Kid Boots with Cuban and Louis heels; white and black Satin, bronze and black French Kid Slippers; Slippers for Balls and Parties; Misses and Children's Gaiter Boots and Shoes of all the various styles and prices with Ladies,' Misses' and Children's India Rubber Boots Gaiter Boots and Shoes, Gloves &c. the largest assortment of any store in New York. Ladies will please call and examine for themselves.

J. B MILLER, No. 134 Canal st., N. Y.

Oils! Oils!

M. SELLEY,
MANUFACTURER OF
MACHINE, WOOL, PAINT AND TANNERS' OILS.

Oil Works, Stapleton, Staten Island.
Office, 34 Broadway, (up stairs,) New York.

Liberal commission allowed on all orders through Express Agents.

D. M. KNIGHT & CO.,
Importers and Wholesale Dealers in
ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN
FANCY GOODS,
No. 58 Cedar Street, (up stairs.)
(Between William and Nassau sts.)
D. M. KNIGHT. } NEW-YORK.
A. E. MORRIS.

COMBS—Shell, Buffalo, and horn back Combs in great variety; twist, dressing and ivory Combs.
Buttons. Steel, gilt, bating, mohair, twist, bone, metal, silk, thread, agate, &c.
Brushes. Hair, Tooth, Nail, &c.
Linen Thread, Spool Cotton, Needles, Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Hair Pins, Elastics, Whalebone, Linen and Cotton Tapes, Linen and Cotton Bobbin, Scissors Thimbles, and a great variety of Fancy Goods, Fans &c., all cheap for cash.

Sept. 6, 1852—3m.

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N. J. containing from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on 2d, 3d, 4th, Main, Liberty and William sts; als a good sized lot with a Dwelling House built expressly for the accommodation of two families, and in a very fine location, very near the centre of the business part of the town, on the corner of Exchange and Second sts. a very few minutes distance from Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store

Jan. 19 1852—tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

THOMAS G STEARNS,
IMPORTER AND JOBBER OF
Silks, Millinery, and Fancy Goods,
162 Broadway, New York,

Has now in Store and daily receiving and offering at the Lowest Prices, a complete and carefully selected Assortment of Goods in his line, comprising all the various styles and designs, consisting in part of the following:

BLACK & FANCY SILKS,
MARCELINES, FLORENCES, SHAWLS, TRIMMINGS, Bonnet Ribbons, Taffeta, and Satin Ribbons,
EMBROIDERIES,
French and English Crapes, Crape Lisse,
Silk Cravats, Gloves of all kinds,
SILK LACE MITTS, DRESS TRIMMINGS of all kinds, Barèges, Laces, White Goods,
Hosiery, L. C. Handkerchiefs.

The undersigned would invite the attention of his friends and the trade generally. He will offer great inducements to

Cash and Short Time Buyers,

and would respectfully solicit an examination of his Stock before purchasing elsewhere.

THOMAS G. STEARNS, 162 Broadway,
Between Liberty st. and Maiden Lane.
New York, Sept. 27, 1852.—3m

Masonry Revived.

A meeting of the Practical Masons of Plainfield and the Lower adjacent thereto, was held at the House of John Lyon in Plainfield, on Wednesday Evening, the 15th of September instant, to take into consideration, and adopt some measures securing to such masons their just and equitable rights. Hartt Dellington was called to the Chair and B. T. Mulford appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting having been stated the following Preamble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, the masons of Plainfield and the places adjacent thereto have been subjected to unjust censure, and suffered injustice by the practice obtained by carpenters and builders of appropriating to themselves contracts for erecting and constructing buildings, bridges &c. thereby compelling masons to work under such subcontractors for such sum or sums for their wages, or be driven to the necessity of levying a lain upon such buildings, subjecting the owners to double pay for such work in some instances, and for divers other considerations, therefore, it is

Resolved. 1st. That henceforth we will not work for any sub contractor who is not a practical mason on any building or bridge so contracted for, either by the day or otherwise.

Resolved. 2d. That we hold ourselves in readiness and willing to work for any of our citizens owners of any building or other structure requiring mason work, by the day or by contract, during the present season to ourselves our wages, and not be subjected to censure for bad work when the cause lies in the materials furnished, and dictation of the master builder.

Resolved, 3d. That the foregoing resolutions do not apply to individuals in any process of erection.

Resolved, 4th. That all masons working on any building or structure in violation of the spirit and intent of the foregoing resolutions, will be held and esteemed by us as foul men of the craft.

David Codington,	Israel Moore,
B. T. Mulford,	William Richardson,
John Mullener,	John Richardson,
Benj. M. Lawler,	Warren Marsh,
Nehemiah V. Smalley,	Christopher Baker,
James B. Allen,	James Davidson,
Edward Philhower,	S. B. G. Willet,
John R. Hetfield,	Francis J. Moore,
Joseph Drake,	Jonathan Ryno.
Isaac Moore.

Plainfield Sept. 15, 1852.—3m

FALL IMPORTATIONS.

Peterson & Humphrey,
IMPORTERS OF
Carpeting and Oil Cloths,

379 Broadway, corner of White-St., New York.

HAVE JUST RECEIVED, PER LATE ARRIVALS from Europe, their usual supply of rich and elegant Carpeting, consisting of

RICH BRUSSELS and MOSAIC CARPETS, in one ENTIRE CARPET, with rich BORDER to enlarge it to any sized room.

RICH VELVET CARPETS—Patterns entirely new, imported expressly for city and Fall trade.

TAPESTRY and BRUSSELS CARPETS—An elegant assortment, surpassing in richness of COLORS and SHADES, any heretofore imported.

TAPE PLY and INGRAIN CARPETS, our stock will be constantly supplied with the latest and most desirable patterns manufactured.

OIL CLOTHS—Arrangements with the ENGLISH and AMERICAN manufacturers enables us to offer a LARGER and better assortment, at less price, than any store in the City.

MEDALLION DRUGGETS, RUGS, TABLE and PIANO COVERS, MATS of all kinds, STAIR PADDING, &c., and all other goods found in first-class carpet stores, for sale, on the most favorable terms.

PETERSON & HUMPHREY,
Sept. 13—3m 379 Broadway, cor. White-st., N. Y.

WANTED.

A first-rate American girl, to do general housework in a small family, must understand cooking in all its branches, such as a girl first-rate ways to be given. Apply at No. 5 STEPHEN VAIL.

Sept. 6 1852. Centre, street Plainfield.

Boots and Shoes.—A. D. GALE,

MANUFACTURER and Wholesale Dealer, invites Country Merchants to call and examine his large stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, sold extremely low for Cash or short credit for notes. Call and see

A. D. GALE, 225 Pearl-street, corner of Platt.
New York, Aug. 30, 1852—3m

Notice.—Wm. Lynch,
Late of 518 Pearl-Street, New York.

Wishes to inform his friends and old customers, that he will open his Wholesale & Retail Grocery Store, at No. 323 Greenwich-st., corner of Jane-st., on 22d April, with a new fresh stock of goods, such as Teas, sugars, molasses, coffees and spices, butter, cheese, lard, flour beer and pork, &c., which he offers cheap for cash. Families, Boarding House Keepers, and Shipping are invited to call and examine his goods and his prices, as they can save a very large percentage, call and see for yourselves.—Country merchants purchasing goods will find it particularly requested to call and examine his goods and the prices before purchasing elsewhere. N. B.—Goods delivered at the residence of families, vessels, barges, sloops, and any part pf the city, free of charge.

WM. LYNCH, 323 Greenwich-street New York

Coffee, Spices, Mustard, &c.

WITHINGTON & WILDE,
Nos. 7 and 9 Dutch street, (between Fulton and John streets,) New-York.

KEEP constantly on hand a large and well assorted stock of COFFEES, green, roasted and ground; Cinnamon, Nutmegs, Cloves, Pepper, Allspice, Ginger Mustard, Rice, Starch and Cassia, all of the best quality, and put up in the best style. Also superior Rice Flours and Cocoa, equal to any manufactured.

Having been favorably known in this business for the past twenty years, we are confident that we can give purchasers perfect satisfaction, as to the quality and manufacture of our articles, and our goods being bought mostly for cash, the prices will be found as favorable as those of any House in the Trade

New york, August 16, 1852.—3m

SMART & BRAHAM,
Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent
MELODEONS,

With Recent Important Improvements.

Price from $60 to $200.

No. 75 East 2 thirteen th Street,
J. Carhart } NEW YORK
E. P. Nee ham. }

N. B. Reeds constantly on hand. 3m
Nov. 10, 1851.—ly

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment,
AT Less than New York prices, for sale by
July 12, 1852. WM. S. WOOD.

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at I. S. DUNHAM & CO.'S.

Cover's Black Ink.

THE Best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

Aeolian Piano Forte.

T. GILBERT & CO.'S CELEBRATED PIANO FORTES
with and without the Aeolian.

The subscriber, who is sole agent in this city for the sale of these Instruments, (the reputation of which has become world-wide is now prepared to offer them at prices which to those wishing to purchase, cannot fail to be satisfactory. Possessing facilities for obtaining Pianos unsurpassed if equalled by those of any other house in the city, he does not hesitate to say that he can grant inducements to buyers not to be found elsewhere. He has constantly on hand an extensive assortment of second-hand Pianos at bargains, which he fearlessly assures will suit purchasers. Gilbert's Elegant Boudoir or cottage piano suitable for small rooms; also Melodeons of Prince's and Carhart's make. Grand Action and Square Pianos to let.

HORACE WATERS, 333 Broadway
Sept. 27, 1852.—3m of Anthony, (up-stairs) N. Y.

AN ASSORTMENT OF SUPERB JEWELRY.

THE subscribers have just added to their previous stock of Jewelry, a new lot of the latest and richest patterns extant, comprising a choice and select assortment of Ear Rings, Breast Pins, Finger Rings, &c. with various other kinds of Jewelry too numerous for enumeration.

We would also beg leave to say to our patrons and friends, and to any one who would like to get a piece of Jewelry, not only fashionable in style but fine in quality, elegant in design, superb in finish, combining strength, neatness and durability and withal cheapness, a trial in which its intrinsic excellence cannot fail to give the most perfect satisfaction.

Come, our goods examine, and the truth of the statement try.

And if not found as represented we'll not ask you to buy.

A. H. & J. W. MILLER; Park Jewelry Store.
At the Sign of the Golden Harp, 108
Sept. 20, 1852.—3m. Broad-street, Newark

FRENCH LANGUAGE

NEW TESTIMONY TO THE MERITS OF
FASQUELLE'S NEW METHOD
OF LEARNIN THE
FRENCH LANGUAGE,
Embracing both the Analytical and Synthetical Modes of Instruction.
In one volume. Price 1 25 retail.
FIFTH EDITION.

Publisced by
NEWMAN & IVISON, 199 Broadway, New York.
From N. W. Howard, Newcastle, Ky

I was so convinced of its superiority to all other text-books on the same subject, that I at once laid it under your notice, that I immediately caused it to be procured by a class of thi ty young ladies, whom I was about to commence instructing. The progress they have made in the French has highly gratified themselves, their parents, and their teacher, and I attribute it with pleasure to the systematic and practical, yet simple plan of the Work.

From Cyrus Knowlton, Principal of the Hughes High School Cincinnati, Ohio.

Fasquelle's grammar satisfies me. It is evidently the work of a thorough teacher as well as thorough scholar

From the New York Day Book.

We never saw a more finished treatise on that polite language.

From the New York Evangelist.

A very philosophical and complete dictionarmy to this much-desired language.

From the New York Courier & Enquirer

The book presents every facility the French learner can ever reasonably hope for.

From N.Y. Squealer, New Haven, Ct.

Never has a work come under my notice that blends so happy and harmoniously the great rival elements of the language. My simple study is its pleasure.

From Zion's Herald.

It presents the true method of study, and seems to us scarcely capable of an improvement.

From the Literary Gazette

Its classifications are minute and painstaking, carefully labeling tee various obstacles.

From the Christian Witness

One of the very best arranged books that we have ever seen.

From the Methodist Quarterly Review.

The work is done every where with conscientious thoroughness.

From the New Haven Palladium.

The book is exceedingly valuable, and will have an immense sale.

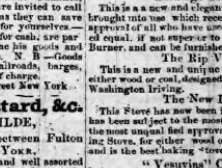
From the Detroit Free Press.

It seems to us most decidedly superior to any work of its kind ever published in America.

Teachers who wish to examine the work can have a copy sent by mail, postage paid, in flexible cover, by adding Post-office stamps to the amount of 63 cents.

Just published a New Edition of
"TELEMAQUE,"
IN FRENCH,
From the most approved Text with Notes and Grammatical References,
BY LOUIS FASQUELLE, L. L. D.,
Professor of Modern Language in the University of Michigan.
1 vol. 12mo. on fine paper, and neatly bound.
NEWMAN & IVISON,
SCHOOL BOOK PUBLISHERS,
Sept. 20 :3m 199 Broadway, New York.

FALL AND WINTER CAMPAIGN OPENED



1852-3.

G. C. PHILLIPS,
No. 2 Commerce st.
NEWARK,

Encouraged by the past and looking with confidence to the future, has laid in one of the most complete assortments of new and desirable styles of

Parlor, Store and Cooking Stoves,

Ever offered to the Newark public, comprising some entirely new patterns, never before introduced in this city, and which for elegance and utility of design are unsurpassed. He therefore invites purchasers to examine his assortment before purchasing elsewhere, which consists of the

Saratoga Coal Burner,

This is a new and elegant Parlor Stove, but recently brought into use which received the most enthusiastic approval of all who have used it. It has been pronounced by all of our best Physicians to be perfectly healthy. Call and examine it, and be satisfied at about one-half its cost.

The Rip Van Winkle,

This is a new and unique and novel Parlor Stove, the design of which is designed after the celebrated story of Washington Irving.

The New Republic,

This Stove has now been in use more than 18 months, and has given the most complete and thorough satisfaction, the most unqual fied approval of thousands. As a Cooking Stove, for either wood or coal, it has no superior, and is the best baking stove ever offered.

Venturine' Cooking Stove,

This celebrated stove has been in use by several families in this city for the past two years, certificate from whom will be furnished on application to the subscriber. They all agree in pronouncing it the best stove in use, for economy in fuel and the various purposes for which it may be applied. It is so arranged as to conduct the heat to different apartments.

The Improved Patent Alkaline Range.

This Range is constructed on the most scientific principles, with the idea of performing all its offices with the least possible fuel, and possesses merits far surpassing any Range ever before offered. Of them may be seen in operation at the subscriber's store

The elevated Oven Furnace, Rotary Top Cylinder, the Proton (Cooking Stove) Parlor Grates, &c. &c., also on hand.

The subscriber also keeps constantly on hand a large supply of Tin and Britannia Ware, Coal Hods, Shovels and Pokers, Spouts and Iron Kettles, Cooking Utensils, of all kinds, &c. &c.

Stove delivered and put up with care in any part of the city. Thankful for favors he solicits further requests, and will endeavor to merit a continuance of the same. G. C. PHILLIPS,

Newark Sept. 20 -tjl No. 2 Commerce st.

ALL WHO ARE LOVERS OF
GOOD BREAD

Call at Stewart's Bakery, where they will find a superior article of Bread, not equaled in the State, for pure white healthy articles, nothing but the purest flour and no composition to injure the most delicate constitution—all for sight cents a loaf. Cake and Crackers equally low and of good quality.

Near Messrs. Webster and Marsh.

I hope the public will not forget to patronize this establishment if they don't want to be humbugged.

Sept. 6 1852. ROBERT STUART

Assignment Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that Lewis Runyon of the township of Plainfield, co. of the county of Essex and State of new Jersey, hath this day made an assignment to the subscriber of his estate, for the equal benefit of his creditors, and that the said creditors must exhibit their respective claims under oath or affirmation within the term of three months.

A. BERRY,
Dated, August 20, 1852. Assignee.

To Salt Dealers, and Others!

SAMUEL HOTALING, No. 101 & 103 Broad street, New York, would inform his customers in the city and country and the Liverpool Salt trade, that the Ground Salt; also Turks Island, St. Martin's and other Coarse Salt in store, at the following places; at Commercial Buildings, Hoboken, at Banta & Lowerson's Stores, foot of Delaney street, at 116 Warren street, and also at his SALT WAREHOUSE, No. 101 and 103, Broad street, New York. At each of the above named places a supply of salt will be kept on hand, and delivered in lots to suit purchasers, at the lowest Market prices.

Liverpool Sacks and Liverpool Salt afloat.
New York, July 26. 1852.—3m

Central Rail Road of N. J.

The cars will run as follows until further notice,
Leave Pier No.1 North River, New York, at 8 A. M.; 12 M.; 3.45 and 6. P. M. for Plainfield.
Leave Plainfield for New York, at 6.25 and 8.25, A. M. 1.05 and 5.30, P. M.
Leave Plainfield for Easton, Pa. at 9.40, A. M. 1.55 and 5.30, P. M.; and for Somerville at 7.50, P. M.
Aug. 2, 1852 —tf

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES PACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are now ready to have Paper Hung at the shortest notice, at 25 cents a piece, (sising the walls and paste included) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 16 cents to 1 25 a piece. A Room papered in a day.

J. F. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers
Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852. ulwtcwres

Bigelow's Alterative,

A CERTAIN CURE FOR DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA, CHOLERA MORBUS, AND ALL SUMMER COMPLAINTS.

GEORGE W. BLEECKER, Proprietor, 98 Broadway, New York
Price 50 cents per bottle.

TESTIMONIALS

I have used "Bigelow's Alterative" in my family, and have never found it to fail, when all other remedies administered by and under direction of physicians have proved ineffectual. I think it a perfect corrective for Dysentery and all Bowel complaints.

ISAAC BEEBEE, 47 Wall-street.

New-York, March 22d, 1854

We can add our testimony to that of others of its great efficacy in our own case, when prostrated to an alarming degree by bowel disease. In one case only one bottle was required, and one now always kept in the family.

EDITOR OF N. Y. BAPTIST REGISTER.

Utica, April 3d 1852.

Dear Sir—It affords me pleasure to hear that you are about to introduce to the public your valuable medicine, which has been of much benefit to my family. About a year since, my little girl, about three years of age, was in a very low state with Cholera Infantum. Such was the state of the bowels that scarcely anything that food passed them I mentioned her state to you as a neighbor, not thinking that you possessed a so valuable remedy.

We have but two tea spoonfuls, when the mother declared she was as well as ever, in very good health, and has not had an attack since. Hermother, about two years of age, was taken last week with a similar complaint, when about 2 tea-spoonfuls restored her to perfect health. Still another case, my wife's sister, about one year of age, was much afflicted with bowel complaint, his countenance became sallow, with loss of appetite, etc., when in a few teaspoonfuls of your valuable medicine under God, has regulated his system.

With many obligations, I am dear sir,
Yours, respectfully,
BIRAM G. SMITH, 80 First-street.

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield
Aug 23, 1852—3m

Prepared or Artificial GUANO.

At 1 cent per pound, or $20 per ton of 2000 lbs.

AT a meeting of the Farmer's Club, American Institute, New York, on the 10th December, 1851, the following communication was made.

I present a specimen of Turnips raised upon my place last season, which was (on account of the dry weather) so much unlike an average crop. The specimen is not the largest grown, although this weighed when first pulled, 4 3-4 lbs. I used in the Spring of 1850, about three barrels of prepared Guano, to the acre, and planted Sweet Corn, which produced a large crop. I then cropped with potatoes, which was also a good crop. After which I put in the Turnip seed, without any further manuring, than the three barrels above mentioned, and the result was far beyond my expectations.

Fairfield Co. Dec. 12, 1851. S. WHITING.

POTATO ROT

Wilmington, DEL. N. Y., Sept. 29, 1850.

I have used "Kentish's Prepared Guano" this season on potatoes. My crop was large and sound. Where I did not use it, the rot was general and very serious. My neighbors also who have not used this Fertiliser, have not raised a saleable potato this year. I consider it a preventive of Rot! G. PRE—T.

Extract of a Letter from E. B. Andrews, Alexandria co. Va. April 29, 1851.

Dr. John H. Boyne, President of Prince George's Co. Agricultural Society Maryland, has desired me to inform you that he has been using for the last Autumn Poudrette, Peruvian Guano, and your prepared Guano. The first two were distanced, but the result from the Peruvian and yours, was about equal. The appearance of your Guano is that of a very excellent article, and esteems it highly. MADE BY AND SOLD BY

KENTISH & CO.
DEPOT, No. 40 PECK SLIP, NEW YORK.
For Sale at this Office. July 19.—3m

A Great Reduction in Prices!!

THOMAS H. DAVIS'S
Furnishing Store,
The Largest Stock in the City,
226 Durrect-St. New Brunswick & 180 Fread St. Newark.

IT will be well worthy the notice of all those who want to purchase any kind of HOUSE-KEEPING GOODS, to call on the well known Cheap China, Cutlery, Britannia Ware and Glass Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as good, or cheaper and better than can be found elsewhere: thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Clothing, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all kinds, styles and prices which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of Gentlemen's furnishing goods at prices also constantly for sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Friends will please favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves!

Cutting, trimming, and making done at the shortest notice and at reasonable terms. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Plainfield Dc. 1.

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in Main street, next door to Titsworth, Dunn & Co's, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, &c. Having purchased her goods at the lowest cash prices, she is prepared to sell Ribbons, Straw, Gloves, Silk, Laces, Collars, Braid, &c. Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and everything in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from New York, she is prepared for orders in all the various branches of Dress Making. Caps and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 5, 1853.—3m.

BARAGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received and selling off cheap.
Calicoes, fast colors, for 6 cents per yard
May 3, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by
May 4, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

THEODORE R. LIPOT,
No. 314 Broad Street, NEWARK,
SIGN OF THE
GOLDEN EAGLE,
IMPORTER AND DEALER IN
Watches, Jewelry, Silver-Plated and Britannia WARE, CUTLERY AND FANCY GOODS.
Also, Piano Fortes, Music, and Musical Instruments.

Watches repaired superior to any other establishment in New Jersey. 18

MRS. PRUDEN,

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, as his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of
Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning-Fluid, &c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual.

June 14, 1852.

E. KIRKPATRICK,
MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.
Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

J. A. WOODLAND,
HOUSE, SIGN AND DECORATIVE PAINTER,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

The above is prepared to execute all orders in his line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Paper-Hanging Department, with punctuality, neatness and despatch, and as prices considerably less than those usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.
March 23, 1852. tf

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Earthen and Stone Ware, also Boots and Shoes, &c. My stock has been selected with great care, and as eye to cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints,	Ginghams,	Gambroons,
Barege de Laine,	Gloves,	Summeretts,
Leans,	Hosiery,	Fustiano, &c.

And all styles of goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear. Bleached and unbleached, colored cambrics, shirtings, sheetings buttons, thread, bottons bats, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas,	Rice,	Sugars,	Candles, Flour
Coffee,	Corn Starch,		Soap, Indian Meal

PROVISIONS.—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef,
Pepper, Spices, Cheese, Hams, Pork, &c.,
Forget notice, Honey, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which I will sell as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all both old and young, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to call the second time.

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!!!

The subscriber has a so on hand a good assortment of Black and changeable silks, which will be sold cheap.

May 4, 1852. J. V. ARROWSMITH.

HORACE SEATON,
IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN
FOREIGN LACE GOODS

254 Broad Street, Newark.

Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Crape Veils, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Embroiderie Muslin, Gloves and Hosiery, Millinery articles, Combs, Brushes, Oils, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Gents, Ladies and Children's fancy dress Boots and Gaiters. o22 1y

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of I. S. Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with other wares of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to go for one twelvemonth. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and Wood taken in exchange for Clocks.
Plainfield, April 13, 1852.—tf WM. S. WOOD.

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John B. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite French's Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to execute every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 26, 1852.—3m.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE,
SADDLE & HARNESS
MAKER

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods in his line. He also

Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute orders in all the branches of the above business, as well, as quick and as cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge for your selves. May 17, 1852—tf

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the new law, by coming to Plainfield and purchasing their goods at the Cheap Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as good, or cheaper and better than can be found elsewhere: thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all kinds, styles and prices which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of Gentlemen's furnishing goods at prices also constantly for sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Friends will please favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves!

Cutting, trimming, and making done at the shortest notice and at reasonable terms. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Plainfield Dc. 1.

Mrs. E. W. Runyon

WOULD respectfully inform her friends and the public generally, that she has opened a Store in Main street, next door to Titsworth, Dunn & Co's, for the sale of Fancy Goods, Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, &c. Having purchased her goods at the lowest cash prices, she is prepared to sell Ribbons, Straw, Gloves, Silk, Laces, Collars, Braid, &c. Fringes, Hosiery, Edgings, and everything in her line cheaper for cash than can be purchased in Plainfield.

DRESS MAKING.

Having secured the services of a competent dress maker from New York, she is prepared for orders in all the various branches of Dress Making. Caps and Head Dresses made to order.

Plainfield, April 5, 1853.—3m.

BARAGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received and selling off cheap.
Calicoes, fast colors, for 6 cents per yard
May 3, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by
May 4, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

LIVER COMPLAINT,

JAUNDICE, DYSPEPSIA, CHRONIC OR NERVOUS Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and Diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, Deficiency of perspiration, Yellowness of the skin and eyes, Pain in the side, back, limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of evil and great depression of spirits, can be effectually cured by

Dr. HOOFLAND'S
CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,
PREPARED BY
DR. C. M. JACKSON,
At the German Medicine Store, 120 Arch St. Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled—if equalled—by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids generally, as in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are within a safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

From the "Boston Bee."

"The editor says, 'Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and Diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, Deficiency of perspiration, Yellowness of the skin and eyes, Pain in the side, back, limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of evil and great depression of spirits, can be effectually cured by Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.'

"The editor says truly. Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and Diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, Deficiency of perspiration, Yellowness of the skin and eyes, Pain in the side, back, limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of evil and great depression of spirits, can be effectually cured by Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use."

"SCOTT'S WEEKLY," one of the best Literary papers published, said Aug. 2:—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, is now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an assistant or auxiliary in cases of female weakness. As such they are highly valuable, and seem to obtain a hold in the case, as we have ourselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to them, and will experience more speedy effect than where upon weak systems."

MORE EVIDENCE

The Hon. C. D. HASKINS, Mayor of the City Camden, N. J., says:

"HOOFLAND'S GER MAN BITTERS.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they come induced us to procure a bottle. As such in the case, we found it specific in its action upon disorders of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

"If this medicine was more generally used, it would prevented much suffering and sickness, as from the stomach, liver and nervous system the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. Give them in a healthy condition, and you can set the epidemics defiance generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a trial—it will recommend itself. In fact, it is worthy a general family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit."

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of this Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor, is, that there is more of it used with the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other remedies combined; a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when prescribed in their practice.

That the Bitters will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. Its acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is a perfect tonic in all its combinations—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and reliable benefit at any time.

Look well to the genuine

There is the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle.

Without which they are counterfeit.

For sale by Retail at the
GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
No. 120 Arch street, one door below Sixth, Philadelphia; and by respectable dealers generally through the country.

Prices Reduced.

To enable all classes of invalids to enjoy the advantage of their great restorative powers,

Single Bottle 75 cents.

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.
Sept. 20, 1852.—1y

"Every Family should have a Copy."

An invaluable book; only 25 cts. to own Yourself.

DR. YOUNG'S MEDICAL AND HAND BOOK FOR THE AFFLICTED. Containing an outline of the Origin, Progress, Treatment and Cure of every form of disease, contracted by Promiscuous Sexual Intercourse, by Self-abuse, &c. &c. Also, plain advice for their prevention written in a familiar style, avoiding all medical technicalities, and everything that would offend the ear of delicacy. By the author of nearly twenty years successful practice, exclusively devoted to the cure of the diseases of delicate or private nature.

To which is added, receipts for the cure of the above diseases, with hints on the cause, Symptoms and cure of the Fever and Ague, for twenty five cents a copy; six copies one dollar; will be forwarded to any part of the United States, by mail, free of postage. Address, postage paid, "Box 196 Post Office, or the Author, 38 North Seventh Street, Philadelphia."

FIFTY DOLLARS FORFEIT. DR. HUNTER will forfeit $50 if failing in the cure of any secret disease that may come under his care, no matter how long standing or afflicting. Either sex are invited to Dr. Hunter's, No. 38 North Seventh Street, Philadelphia, where all of unfortunate or other patients who are the selection of a Physician are invited to call.

IMPOTENCY. Through unrestrained indulgence of the passions by excess or self-abuse, the cells are numerous. Premature impotency, involuntary seminal discharges, weakness of the organs, dimness of sight, distaste for female society, general debility or constitutional derangement, are sure to follow. If necessary, consult the Doctor with confidence; he offers a perfect cure.

READ AND REFLECT.—The afflicted would do well to reflect before trusting their health, happiness and in many cases their very lives, in the hands of persons ignorant of this class of maladies. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the human family is subject to. Every respectable physician has a peculiar branch, in which he is more successful than his brother professors, and to that he devotes most of time and study.

THE HALL OF PRACTICE, exclusively devoted to the study and treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, together with ulcers upon the body, throat, nose, or legs, pains in the head, or bones, nervous irritation, strictures, gravel, irregularities, diseases, or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, enables the Doctor to offer speedy relief to all who may place themselves under his care.

Medicine forwarded to any part of the United States, Price five and ten dollars per package.

Sept. 27, 1852.—1y

PAINTING.

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by P. Mosher, in Kushetunk, is now prepared to receive orders in the above line, viz:

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

PAPER-HANGING, all of which will be promptly executed, carefully and honestly executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned hereby returns thanks to customers for their liberal patronage in the past and will endeavor by faithfulness to merit and to a continuance of their favors.

Orders may be left at the Union Office.

Oct. 1852.—7 CHARLES TAYLOR.

1852.
SPRING GOODS.
ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

WE would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade."

We shall not praise our Goods with a view of trying to make people believe them to be what they are not, but intend like cheap-jacks to speak plainly and let our goods sell for themselves. De Laines from 10cts to 25; Lenanese and Berage de Laines new styles from 18cts to 25; plain and figured Poplin Silks from 25 to 50c. per yard; Prints assortment of from 4 to 14 cts.; a good lot of Ladies' Gloves from 10 cts to 75; also Gents Gloves, Bleached and Brown Muslins, Ginghams from 10 cts to 25, and more than a thousand other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloth, plain and fancy Cassimeres, a first rate assortment of Vestings each of which can be cut and made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Gents furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods kept in store.

Plainest and Cheapest
To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it an object to Cash purchasers from 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we are entirely in the Dry Goods trade and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

SILKS! SILKS!! SILKS!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also Colored Plain and Satin Silks to which the attention of Ladies is particularly requested, at ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S
May 24, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

Dodd & Benton,
352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers
IN CLOTHING AT RETAIL,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's Boys' and Youth's Ware and Cuts of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, which will be sold at the lowest manufacturing prices in the city under our own particular direction. Purchasers who may select or order can rely upon being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as represented or any establishment in the country.

352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.
May 3d, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

MARBLE & STONE YARD.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Somerset and Front streets, where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Feats and Vases, Table Tops &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful FOOT STONE for sale by, from which I will execute orders every variety of styles for building purposes, ornamental or plain. All of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Orders will be thankfully received and respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.—y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 88 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAILROAD WAREHOUS. Hay, Floor and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not to get out of order.

Manufactory, New York.
Also For Sale at 281 Hamstreet.

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

S. E. DUNNE, J. REDDY, J. ROBIDOU.
Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

HOW'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

[IN MEN]

Rheumatism,	Sprains,	Weakness in the
Burns, Bruises,	Galls, Sores,	Back, Breast,
Sore Throats,	Frosted Feet,	Limb & Joint.

[IN HORSES]

Bruises, Sprains,	Ringbone,	Poll Evil, and all
Wounds, Founder,	Stitches,	diseases of Horses,
Cork, Scratches,	Thoroughpin,	where an Embrocation
Windgall,	Saddle Galls,	tion can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOW, CHEMIST,
No. 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,
(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Liniment, and do cheerfully recommend the remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Magee, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barney Mcelhiney, Ralph Voorhees, John Jenkins, Daniel Wallace, Jacob Vorman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton. Joseph Hammitt, John A. Weart, Trenton. A. W. Brown, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jotham Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. EVANS' DRUG STORE. In Somerville by Dr. Cornelius Low. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE, PHYSICIANS,

NO. 106 WEST FIFTEENTH STREET, NEW YORK.

Sarah Law, daughter and successor to the late

Mrs. R. S. MOTT,
THE CELEBRATED
FEMALE PHYSICIAN,

Formerly of New York and Boston,

THEIR treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, consisting of those arising from or associated with debility, Secretions, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous diseases, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say, that they have especially prepared permanent cures in cases of long standing, after their having been unsuccessfully treated, whilst many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully intimated to DR. AND MRS. DRAKE'S mode of treatment, can receive pamphlets, answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicines carefully packed and forwarded with safety to all parts, by Express.

June 1y

Removal.
New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, first door below the Methodist Episcopal Church, (first stockdown, (a short distance from the depot,) would invite his former friends, and all who are in want of a good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call. His stock consists in part of the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay.

April 20, 1852 ELY.

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant.
do. Sanative Pills Also,
Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops. These drops are an agreeable, effectual remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholic, Cramps, pains in the Stomach or Bowels, and Jayne's Spinal Elixir for the spine disease. Also, Hunt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by
April 20, 1852. JAMES M. DUNN.

$600 CHALLENGE!

WHATEVER concerns the health and happiness of a people is not at all times of valuable importance. It is to be regretted that every person will be all in their power, to save the lives of their children, and that every person will endeavor to promote their well being at any sacrifices. I feel it to be my duty to solemnly assure you that WORMS, according to the opinion of the most celebrated Physicians, are the primary cause of the greatest amount of diseases to which children and adults are liable: if you have an appetite continually changeable from one kind of food to another, Bad Breath, Sore or Inflamed Eyes, Pain across the Nose, Paleness and Fullness of the Belly, Dry Cough, Sore Fever, Pulse irregular—remember that all these denote WORMS, and you should at once apply for the remedy

HORNESACK'S WORM SYRUP.

An article founded upon Scientific Principles, compounded with purely vegetable substances being perfectly safe when taken, and can be given to the most tender infant, with unfailing benefit. Sick Head Ache, complaints and Diarrhœa have made them weak and debilitated the Toine properties of my Worm Syrup are such, that it stands without a rival. Let the calomel and other poisons alone and trust it is Tape Worm vanishing them soon early grave. In order to destroy this Worm, a very energetic treatment must be pursued, it would therefore, be proper to take 6 to 8 of my Worm Syrup as soon as convenient, all obstructions, that the Worm Syrup may act direct upon the Worm, which must be taken in doses of 2 Tab-spoonfuls 3 times a day, those directions will be found to be the most known to fail in curing the most obstinate case of Tape Worm.

HOBENSACK'S LIVER PILLS.

No part of the system is more liable to disease than the LIVER, by applying as a diseased state of the blood, giving the proper secretion to the bile; so that any wrong actions of the Liver effect the other important parts of the system, and is visible to the eye in the Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. We should, therefore, watch every symptom that might indicate a wrong action of the Liver. These Pills being composed of HOOPS & HERBS combined, it is natural to find the sick: Namely, 1st. An EXPECTORANT, which augments the secretion from the Pulmonary mucus membrane or promotes the discharge of secreted matter. 2d. A DIURETIC, which changes in some inexplicable and insensible manner the corrosive morbid action of the system. 3rd. A TONIC, which gives tone and strength to the nervous system, thus giving new life and vigor to all of the body. 4th. A CATHARTIC, which acts in perfect harmony with the other ingredients, and operating on the bowels, and expelling the whole mass of impurities in the alimentary canal, and purifying the Blood, which destroys disease and restores health.

TO FEMALES!

You will find these Pills an invaluable medicine in many complaints to which you are subject. In conditions either total or partial, they have been found of inestimable benefit restoring their functional derangements to a healthy action, by giving tone and strength and also to effectually to put to flight all complaints which may arise from female irregularities, as headache, giddiness, dizziness of sight in the side &c.

None genuine unless signed J. N. Hobensack; all others being base Imitation.

☞ Agents wishing new supplies, and Store Keepers desiring to commence selling Agents must address the Proprietor, J. N. Hobensack, Philadelphia, Pa.

For sale in Plainfield,

Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. CUSHING.
All other PATENT MEDICINES at REDUCED PRICES.
C. Dowse, Scotch Plains; Charles Foster, Westfield.
August 28, 1852.—3m.

WONDER OF WONDERS
Petroleum, or Rock Oil!
A NATURAL REMEDY

Procured from a Well in Allegheny County, Pa. 400 feet below the earth's surface! Put up and sold by SAMUEL M. KIER, Canal Basin, 7th st., Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Petroleum is a natural remedy: it is put up as it flows from the bosom of the earth, without any thing being added to it, or taken from it. It gets its wonderful properties from the beds of substances which it passes over in its secret channel. They are blended together in such a form as to make a remedy of the most wonderful properties in respect to like MINERAL WATERS, whose virtues in most chronic diseases are acknowledged not only by physicians, but by the community at large. In the case of Petroleum, which flows from the earth, impregnated with medicinal substances of different properties, and holding them in such complete solution, as to receive the action of each upon the system, hence, we have the great fact that they are compounded by the master hand of nature, a concealed power, we have the most abundant testimony. It will be used when many of the new remedies in vogue, will be forgotten for ever. It will continue to be used and applied as a remedy, as long as man continues to be afflicted with disease. That it will cure every disease to which the system is liable, we do not pretend, but that it will cure a great many diseases, hitherto incurable, is a fact which is proven by the evidence in its favor. It is recommended in every respect like MINERAL WATERS, whose virtues in most chronic diseases are acknowledged not only by physicians, but by the community at large. In the case of Petroleum, which flows from the earth, impregnated with medicinal substances of different properties, and holding them in such complete solution, as to receive the action of each upon the system, hence, we have the great fact that they are compounded by the master hand of nature, a concealed power, we have the most abundant testimony. It will be used when many of the new remedies in vogue, will be forgotten for ever. It will continue to be used and applied as a remedy, as long as man continues to be afflicted with disease. That it will cure every disease to which the system is liable, we do not pretend, but that it will cure a great many diseases, hitherto incurable, is a fact which is proven by the evidence in its favor. It is recommended in every respect like MINERAL WATERS, and will endure to the health and happiness of man.

The Petroleum is an external and internal remedy call and get a circular from the agent, which will give a full description of it. Persons wishing to purchase the article can be supplied by applying to S. M. Kier, Pittsburgh, Pa. ☞ For sale in Plainfield by

Aug. 24, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

READ! READ!! A Voice from the Banks of the Raritan!

New Brunswick, Oct. 24, 1851.

Mr. S. M. Kier:

Dear Sir—Allow me to certify to the virtues of your great Petroleum or Rock Oil, which I have used in my family, which is a great Medicine for the cure of Diarrhœa and Dysentery. I had been afflicted with a severe attack of Diarrhœa, and made use of your Petroleum, which relieved me in a short time. I cheerfully recommend it to all others. Yours Respectfully, S. JEFFRIES.

Great Bargains!
Cheap Goods Forever.

Come you come, come all, come short, come tall.
I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.
Goods on our counter now so lie,
To suit the mind, to please the eye.
We put the prices down so cheap,
We'll sell them right to sell a heap.
Ginghams and Muslins, Combs and Cords,
The newest styles that New York affords.
Delaines and Gaiters, Calicoes too,
Colors of which we'll warrant true.
Cloths and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,
And all that you want to do use;
Together with a good supply
Of groceries good which will defy
A close calculator to buy.
And twice a year make quite a fuss,
To go to Brunswick with their trusty
Of stores at home they are afraid.
We'll sell them all the same.
For cheapest sum what suits them best
With Brunswick prices well compose,
And the world will regard us the rest.
So come and see, come short, come tall
I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.
Plainfield, May 13, 1850

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Sofaes and Round Post, Fancy Bush, Common do Rockers, do Children's Chairs I so.
Wash and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel do.
March 22, 1852 For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

Look at This!

ALL those, indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. If not attended to soon, they will be placed in other collection. As I don't wish to expense on any one, I give this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON

Plainfield, April 9, 1852.

Machinery Oil,

75 CTS. a gallon, better than Sweet Oil, at a saving of 25 cts. a gallon. For Sale by
June 1st, 1842. M. F. CUSHING.

BARRITT'S Bonbon Curled Powder of Saturn
For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS.
DANIEL BULLMAN,

Is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Spring Patterns; Domestics of every grade and price; Silks, plain and figured; Ginghams, Alpaccas, &c. together with many other articles in the Dry Goods line; Carpets, Cassimeres, Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Hosiery, Gloves, and all other articles in the dry goods line necessary to make us varied, full and complete as any store can be found in these parts, and they will be sold as cheap too. Try us and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing these articles will find it to their advantage to call and examine, and sell them as cheap as any man can. Our customers cannot help being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY,

Some very beautiful, and selected with a large assortment of Tea Setts, to suit all tastes, constantly on hand. Also, Lamps, in great variety.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell you Chairs, Tables, &c. as cheap as your freight, brokage and trouble of going after it. Also, Looking-Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

VARIETIES and FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it as cheaply. A portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited.

April 28, 1852. D. BULLMAN.

1852. CHEAPER YET!

At Oliver Runyon's Cheap Dry Goods and GROCERY STORE.

Gentlemen and Ladies please call and examine my stock of Goods for yourselves. I would say to my friends and customers that my stock is constantly changing, as I am receiving the new goods adapted to suit the different seasons of trade.

Handsome Barege De Laines from 1s. to 2s., per yard. Lawn from 6s to 10s. Fancy Alpaccas from 6s. to 9s. Prints not variety from 4c. to 8c. French Calico from 5s.6d to 2s.6d. Plain Barege from 25 to 35c. Bleached muslin from 4c to 5.6d. Cambric, Jaconet, Book and Swiss muslin, Gloves and Hosiery, Bonnet Ribbons, Black and colored gloves for gents and ladies from 10 to 75c. Black Bella Veils, Crape and Bombazine for vests, Gentlemens and Boys Cloth Cassimeres, Doeskin, Cassimeres, Doeskins, Satinets, corah, jeans, muslin, linen and cotton Edgings, Lace buttons, Hosiery of all kinds, also a good assortment of Leghorn and Straw Hats from 1s. to 4s. each.

GROCERIES

A good sortice of Green and Black Tea from 4s. to 8s. per lb. Molasses 2s to 3s. Brown sugar 8c 6d to 9c.6d. Crushed and Powdered sugar 12c. Rice 4c. Candles 8c to 12. Coffee, Rice, Vinegar, hominy, and every thing in the Grocery line.

CROCKERY and GLASS WARE, a Good Assortment constantly on hand. Please call and examine for yourselves. Also,

PROVISIONS.—Salt Pork, Shoulders, Hams. Dried beef, lard, butter, cheese, fish by half barrels, fine salt by the sack or bushel.

BOOTS and SHOES, for men and boys, Ladies', gaiters, buskins, slippers, morocco, patent leather and cloth Balmorals, low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Linseed oil, boiled oil, lamp oil, Fluminum and coach var n sh, white lead, yellow ochre, Venetian red, chrome yellow, red lead, Paris green, lamp black, Hungary brown, drop-an, fire-proof Paint, putty, glass, &c. &c.

FLOUR, fine and coarse, Meal, ground feed, wheat bran, and grain, constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village of Plainfield. Please call and in that every thing you can eat, drink or wear, taken in exchange for goods. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, July 29, 1852

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

ELEZEE MARSH returns thanks to his numerous patrons for their liberal support, and would say that during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many friends he has enlarged his stock of Paints, and taken into partnership his son, Washington March. The business will be continued at the old stand opposite the Second Presbyterian Church, where will be kept constantly on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Bushes, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., &c., as cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to House, Sign and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES.

Mixed Paint constantly on hand. Advice gratis.
June 5, 1852. E. MARSH & SON

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at R. TONES NEXT (west of Broadway.) A General Assortment of Mahogany and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

E. GLENN & CO., 194 FULTON-ST. NEAR BROADWAY NEW-YORK.
Oct. 7, 1851.—1y

PAINTS, &c.

AMERICAN PATENT ATOMIC DRIER. Graining COLORS.—Anti-detrition Paste, Gold Size, Zinc Driver, Stove Polish, and Liquid Blacking, for sale by QUARTERMAN & BOYD,
Painters & Chemists,
114 John-Street, New York.

March 9, 1852.—1y.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any thing we can sell, or in paying with, from the hangefor goods

I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

TITLE DEEDS!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by
DR. KINKELIN,

N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts. between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice in the treatment of Private Diseases, by the most expert and successful practitioner far and near in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat or legs, pains in the head or bones, nervous irritation, or diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled are all invited to place themselves under his care.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TO MARRIED PERSONS OR THOSE CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

How many who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, rendering unfitted to apply with energy to any constitutional debility, loss of muscular energy, physical lassitude and general prostration, irritability and all nervous affections, loss of memory, dimness of sight, love, and every disease connected in any way with the disorders of the procreative functions cured, and full vigor restored.

READ!—YOUTH AND MANHOOD!

A Vigorous Life, or a Premature Death.

Kinkelin on Self Preservation Only 25 Cents

This little work is admirably adapted to inform those on the infirmities and diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs. It addresses itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by all. The valuable advice and information it contains, will prove a source of great benefit to many and suffering and save annually thousands of lives. Parents by reading it will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

A remedy for all diseases, enclosed in a letter addressed to Dr. Kinkelin, N. W. corner of 3d and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will ensure a book, under envelope, by return of mail. Persons at a distance may address Dr. K. by letter, post-paid, and be cured at home. Packages of Medicines, Directions, &c. forwarded by secure conveyance, and put up secure from damage or curiosity.

Book-sellers, News Agents, Pedlars, canvassers, and all others supplied with the above book at very low rates.

"JOY"
FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!
MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine of great value to the human family. It is adapted to a larger class of diseases, in its ability to arrest pain, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Blood Medicine, and for Coughs and Colds, and Pain in the Side, we regard it in very good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Rheumatism, and for Ear and Tooth Ache, Chilblains, Worms, Agues and Fevers; as a Cholera prevention or remedy it cannot be surpassed. Some two years ago we purchased a Bottle of the above medicine, till they have used the same. We have used it with great success, and do most cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted with any disease for which it is said to be a specific remedy. It is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hedge, Brooklyn, John Comstock, Brklyn
" " Hedges, Newark, John Hickbeth, Engineer
" Prof. Willis, Wesleyan Seminary, Stamford, Conn.
Hon. G. L. Martenus, Brklyn, Lawrence Mann, Brklyn
S. Sprague, Ex-Mayor, " Jordan Wesley, L. Branch
Hon. A. Hamilton, " David S. Gallup, Stonington,
H. B. Cushing, Ex-P. M., " Aaron Kingsland, Brklyn,
J. Dorland, ferry master " Addison Jayne, New York,
David Travis, Supervisor, " Jas. Wood, 2d W. Market
A. Wise, Bellevue hotel, Justice D. Hiscox, "
Peter Blauvelt, T.'s Ferry, R. Parker, "
Joseph Chelick, W. Market, Rainer S. Veltran, "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above notice. Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.

FRANCIS B. STRYKER,
Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 194 Walker Street, one door from the Bowery, and for sale by M. F. CUSHING.
Jan. 2, 1852

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Health Corrector,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-dyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Cathar. Pills
Nervine,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific
Pure and Medicinal Cod Liver Oil,

Used by him constantly with unprecedented success in the treatment of

Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, Piles, Fever and Ague.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Plated Steel Spring Shoulder Braces.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF

Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to a good age.

This Book should be in every family. To the consumptive it points out the only REASONABLE hope for relief. To no here, the directions it gives for the cure are given in plain English. Over 50,000 copies of this Book have passed through the press, and the sale continues unabated.

For sale by S. S. FITCH & CO., 707 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

DR. DE LANEY'S CELEBRATED
Curative Instrument,

The only infallible cure for that dreadful disease known as SPERMATORRHŒA or Involuntary Nocturnal Emissions.

So harassing and destructive and productive of so much misery to the human species, as to astonish the least inquisitive observer, and unfortunately the least inquisitive observer, and unfortunately the least inquisitive observer, and unfortunately

The Instrument now offered to the public, and never-failing, and may be used without the slightest inconvenience to the knowledge of the most intimate friend. It is to be worn with perfect ease and comfort by either sex, while not preventing any one from attending to his business. While in use not a single consumption can take place, invigorating the organs, in a short time, to such an extent that they are never more liable to any nervousness, the loss of which, caused by early abuse, is the disease in question, and the cause of the thousand concomitant complaints, such as Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Pain in the Head and Dimness of Vision, Weakness of the Back and Lower Extremities, Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, Pimples on the Face, Premature Decline of Virility, Weakness of Memory and Power for Mental Application, Dejection, Aversion to Society, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, &c. All these complaints will disappear as soon as the source is stopped from which they emanated.

This Instrument has been examined and approved of by the highest authorities in Europe and America, is recommended by the most eminent Physicians of all countries, as the only certain remedy existing for those complaints, and has now completely superseded the use of drugs, the loathe, canterbridan, &c., not to mention the tiresome and nauseous compounds of Sarsaparilla, Iodide, &c. &c. It constitutes at the same time the safest, the most prasient and by far the cheapest treatment ever offered to the public. Full directions allowed for the Instrument after the desired effect has been attained.

Be it also remembered, that those complaints are but little understood by the profession in general, and that all the medicine in the world never has and never will, stop these losses, which, if allowed to go on unchecked, are sure to produce the most distressing consequences.

It has been a matter of surprise to some, that any one of respectability and character for advertisement should devote his attention to diseases which people of every description pretend to cure so easily: If, however, but one thousandth part of the miseries these people bring upon society were known, a very different opinion would be formed. And it is not only the present misery and dejection, preying on the mind as well as the body, that is displayed, but the curse entailed on the next and future posterity, and even to destroy the reproductive faculty, altogether. It is a fact that, when not properly treated, they may remain so dormant in the constitution or to appear in so slight a degree, as to be no inconvenience to society, yet, if properly understood, are most easily and specially restored. The above, so ingeniously contrived instrument, will do this, in a great measure, entirely, save to shield the afflicted from exposure, so prevalent in this class of diseases, throughout the Union.

The price of the complete instrument, carefully adapted against all observation in a box, is only 10s. It can be sent by express to any part of the United States, or the United States' mails, &c. according to order, accompanied by full directions, and important advice to the afflicted, and by which they can procure the remedies parts of the country, secretly trying.

The unexampled success this Instrument has obtained since its introduction in America, has induced some unprincipled persons to attempt the manufacture of a spurious article, to get up some ridiculous things called "Instruments" which, however, bear not the slightest resemblance to the above, and which can only be prevented, long tried, and universally approved Instruments, and which are as similar to them as night is to light. Every attempt to sell such instruments for mine will be met with the severest punishment the law will bring out willing to connect the well and honestly earned reputation of my inventions with quacks and their worthless productions. No Instrument is genuine and sanctioned by me, unless the name of the inventor is stamped on the box.

All applications and remittances must be directed (post paid) to the Doctor himself, he having no Agents or Establishment for the sale of his Instrument.

Address, post paid, Dr. De Laney, of Lispenard St., New York. Office hours, daily, from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. and from 7 to 8, P. M. the Sabbath excepted.

☞ The undersigned certify, with great ple

LIVER COMPLAINT.

JAUNDICE, DYSPEPSIA, Connected on NERVOUS Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and Diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, Deficiency of perspiration, Yellowness of the skin and eyes, Pain in the side, back, limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of heat, Burnings in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of evil and Great depression of spirits, can be effectually cured by

DR. HOOFLAND'S
CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,
PREPARED BY
DR. C. M. JACKSON,
At the German Medicine Store, 120 Arch St. Philadelphia.

Their power over the diseases is not excelled—if equalled—by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

It is worthy the attention of invalid Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching power over the digestive organs, and the digestive organs, they are withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

From the "Boston Bee."

The editor said, Dec. 22d, 1851:

Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself used and given to his family with the most decided benefit in cases of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in the use of these Bitters the patient constantly gains strength and vigor, a healthy state of the digestive organs, appetite pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances.—We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise them to use.

"SCOTT'S WEEKLY," one of the best Literary papers, published, Aug. 2.—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of debility, arising from a disordered liver. We advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness." Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to them in health, and from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems.

MORE EVIDENCE

The Hon. C. D. Ridgeling, Mayor of the City Camden, N. J., says:

"Hoofland's Gr. Bitters.—We have seemingly flattering notices of this medicine from the press, which they are inclined to make inquiry respecting its merits From inquiry we were persuaded to see it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, and they soon relax."

If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver and nervous system the great majority of fevil and imaginary diseases emanate. Keep the body in healthy conditions, and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who use at all, to procure, give a fair trial—It will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit."

Evidences upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor, is, that there is more of it used with the practice of regular Physicians of Philadelphia than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will accord with their quick perception, and be used by them in preference.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts upon the stomach, liver and bowels at once—preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and reliable benefit in any time.

Look well to the words of the genuine

They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the Bottle, without which they are counterfeit.

For sale Wholesale and Retail at the
GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
No. 120 Arch street, one door below Sixth, Philadelphia; easily respectable dealers generally through the country.

Prices Reduced.

To one in all classes of invalids to enjoy the advantage of their great virtues, the price is now

Single Bottle 75 cents.

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.
Sept. 20, 1852.—1y

"Every Family should have a Copy."

An invaluable book, only 25 cts—Man knows Thyself

DR. HUNTER'S MEDICAL MANUAL AND HAND BOOK FOR THE AFFLICTED. Containing an outline of the Origin, Progress Treatment and Cure of every form of Chronic Disease, Deformity, Sexual Intercourse, by Self-abuse, or by Excess, with advice for their prevention written in a familiar style, avoiding all scientific technicalities, and everything that would offend the ear of decency, from the result of over twenty years successful practice, exclusively devoted to the cure of the diseases of a delicate or private nature.

To which is added, a Treatise on the cause of the above diseases, and a treatise on the causes, symptoms and cure of the Fever and Ague, for twenty five cents a copy six copies can still be had for one dollar, by any part of the United States, by mail, free of postage. Add postage paid, "Box, 196 Post Office, or the Author, 28 North Seventh Street, Philadelphia.

FIFTY DOLLARS POSTED! DR. HUNTER will forfeit $50 if failing to cure any case of secret disease that may come under his care, no matter how long standing or inflicting. Either sex are invited to his Private Room, 28 North Seventh Street, Philadelphia, without fear of interruption from other patients. Strangers and others who have been unfortunate in the selection of a Physician are invited to call.

IMPOTENCY.—Through unrestrained indulgence of the passions by excess or self-abuse, the evils are numerous. Premature impotency, involuntary seminal discharges, wasting of the system, dimness of sight, loss of taste for female society, general debility, or constitutional derangement, are sure to follow. If necessary, consult the Doctor with confidence; he offers a perfect cure.

READ AND REFLECT.—The afflicted would do well to reflect before trusting their health, happiness and in many cases their lives, in the hands of physicians unaware of this class of maladdie. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the human family is subject to. Every physician has his peculiar branch, in which he is more successful than his brother professors, and to that he devotes most of time and study.

YEARS OF PRACTICE, exclusively devoted to the study and treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, together with ulcers upon the body, throat, nose, or legs, pain in the head, or bones, affections of the throat, stricture, gravel, irregularities, diseases, or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, enables the Doctor to offer special relief to all who may place themselves under his care.

Medicine forwarded to any part of the United States. Price, five and ten dollars per package.

Sept. 27, 1852.—1y

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by P. Mosher, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

Also Paper Hanging, all of which will be promptly, punctually and honestly executed, on the most reasonable terms.

He therefore hopes by his liberal patronage the past years, and will endeavor by faithfulness to merit and receive a continuance of their favors.

Orders may be left at the Union Office.
April 1, 1852.—y CHARLES TAYLOR.

1852.
SPRING GOODS.
ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

WE would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring trade.

We shall not praise our Goods with a view of trying to make the people believe they are what they are not, but intend that their style and quality shall speak for themselves. DeLaines from 10cts to 4s.; Imitated Barage de Laines new styles from 12½ cts to 37½ cts; Mourning Poplin Silks from 25 to 100. per yard; Prints any variety from 4 to 14 cts.; a good lot of Ladies' Gloves from 10 cts to 75; also Gents Gloves, Threaded and Brown Cotton very cheap, Ginghams from 10 cts to 22, and more than a thousand other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloths, plain and fancy Cassimeres, a first rate assortment of Coatings any or all of which can be cut and made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Gents furnishing goods and very cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods from the

Plainest and Cheapest
To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we make it an object to Cash purchasers from 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we act entirely in the Dry Goods trade and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

SILKS! SILKS!! SILKS!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also Cashmere Figured Silks for Suits to which the attention of Ladies is particula ly requested. at ROCAP & SHEPPARDS.
May 24, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

Dodd & Benton,
352 Broad Street, Newark,
Manufacturers and Dealers
HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, all of which are made on the premises, and will be sold by us at as low prices as any similar direction. Purchasers who may select or order can rely upon having fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as low as at any establishment in the country.

352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.
May 24, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

MARBLE & STONE YARD.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Front and Second streets where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,
Fonts and Vases, Table Tops &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful Tea Set—a new article, from white marble for ornamental purposes, ornamental or plain, all of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices so low as they can be had elsewhere. Orders from the public are most respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.
Aug. 12, 1851.—y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of
RAILROAD, WAREHOUSE,
Hay, Floor and Portable Platform,
Bank, Gold and Counter
Scales, Patent Balances, &c.
Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is warranted for one year. Inferior Scale in short notice.

Manufactory Fifth street, New York.
Also For Sale at the Following Stores,
Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.
Repairing done in short notice.
S. E. DERBY, J. REYDEL, J. ROBICO & Co.
Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

HOW'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequalled preparation for the cure of

[IN MEN]
Rheumatism,	Sprains, Weakness in the
Burns, Scalds,	Sores, Back, Breast,
Sore Throat,	Frosted Feet, Limb & Joint.
[IN HORSES]
Bruises, Sprains,	Poll Evil, and all
Lameness,	Spavin, Fistula; Diseases of Horses,
Corb, Scratches,	Thoroughpin, where an Embrocation can be used.
Windgall,	Saddle Galls.

Prepared only by
HENRY K HOW CHEMIST,
No. 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,
(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Liniment from personal knowledge, and consider it a superior remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Moore, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barney McSherry, Rutgers Van Deusen, John Parker, Henry Wilson, Garret Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton. Joseph Hammitt, John A. Weart, Trenton. A. W. Brown, Bordentown. Gregory Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cooke, Allentown, Pa.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. EWIS HOLLY, Somerville. Price 25 cents a bottle. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.
Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE,
PHYSICIANS,
NO. 106 WEST FIFTEENTH STREET, NEW YORK,
Success in law, daughter and successor to the late

Mrs. Restell,
THE CELEBRATED
FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston, THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, Spermatorrhœa, or seminal weakness, or involuntary emissions during sleep, Scrofulous, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous diseases, is so well and generally known that it is considered unnecessary to comment upon it, further than to say, that their have successfully performed permanent cures in cases of long standing, after their having been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED FEMALE PILLS, can procure them at 106 West 15th street.

DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will receive prompt answers to all enquiries by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicines carefully packed and forwarded immediately to all parts, by Express. jan6 1y

Removal.
New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, on the corner of Broad and Front streets, Plainfield, (a short distance from the depot,) would inform his former friends, and all who are in want of a good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call. His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay.

April 29, 1852 JOHN ENGEL.
d1y.

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant. Also, Sanative Pills Also,
Alterative, Vegetable Universal Pills. Also, Dr. Jayne's Carminative Balsam, do. Dysentery Drops. These drugs are an agreeable, effectual remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholic, Cramps, pains in the Stomach or Bowels, Sword or Spinal Elixir for the spine disease. Also, Hunt's Liniment, for rheumatism, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by April 20, 1852. JAMES M. DUNN.

1852.
GOOD GOODS!

WHATEVER concerns the health and happiness of a people is at all times of the highest importance. It takes it for granted that every person will do all in their power, to save the lives of their children, and that every parent will endeavor to promote their own health at all sacrifice. I feel it to be my duty to solemnly assure you that WORMS, according to the opinion of the most celebrated Physicians, are the primary cause of the large mortality of mankind, for which children and adults are liable: if you have an appetite continually changeable from one kind of food to another, Bad Breath, Pain of the Stomach, Nothing at the Pit of the Stomach, Bad Pain of the Belly, Dry Cough, Slow Fever, Pulse irregular—remember that all these deadly WORMS, and you should at once apply the remedy.

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

An article founded upon Scientific Principles, compounded with purely vegetable substances being perfectly safe when taken, and can be given to the most tender Infant or Adult, even in a state of weakness. Colicky Pains and Diarrhœa have made them weak and debilitated the Tone properties of my Worm Syrup are such, that it exacts without an equal in the expulsion of Worms, and gives new strength to the Stomach, which makes it an infallible remedy for those afflicted with Dyspepsia, the astonishing cures performed by this valuable medicine have never been failed, is the best evidence of its superior efficacy over all others.

THE TAPE WORM!

This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of all that infest the human system, it grows to an almost incredible length, becoming coiled and twisted in the Intestines and Stomach, affecting the health so sadly as to cause St. Vitus Dance, Fits, &c., that those afflicted seldom if ever suspect that it is the cause. Therefore proper treatment early grave. In order to destroy this Worm, a very energetic treatment must be pursued, it would therefore be proper to take 6 to 8 oz of my Liver Pill to act as to remove all obstructions, that the Worm Syrup may act direct upon the Worm, which must be taken in doses of 2 Tab espoonfulls 3 times a day, these directions followed must destroy it, or fail in curing the most obstinate case of Tape Worm.

HOBENSACK'S LIVER PILLS.

No part of the system is more liable to disease than the LIVER, it serving as a flue or to purify the blood from impurities, any obstruction to the same so that any wrong actions of the Liver effect the other important parts of the system, and results various sly, in Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Piles, Fever and Ague, &c. Therefore watch every symptom that might indicate a wrong action of the Liver. These Pills being composed of ROOTS and HERBS, purified by chemical skill, are perfectly safe. Numerals. 1st. An EXPECTORANT, which augments the sedretion from the Pulmonary mucous membrane or promotes the discharge of secreted matter. 2d. An Alterative, which changes in some healthful way the action of the body. 3d. A CATHARTIC, which acts in perfect harmony with the other ingredients, and operating on the Bowels, and expelling the whole mass of corrupt and vitiated matter, and purifying the Blood, which destroys disease and restores health.

TO FEMALES.

You will find these Pills an invaluable medicine in all complaints to which you are subject. In those conditions either total or partial, they have been found of inestimable benefit restoring their functional arrangements to a healthy action, purifying the blood, which flows so effectually to put to flight all complaints which may arise from female irregularities, as headache, giddiness, dizziness of sight, pain in the side back &c.

None genuine signed J. N. Hobensack, all others being base limitation.

17 Agents wishing new supplies, and Store Keepers desirous of becoming Agents must address the Proprietor, J. N. Hobensack Philadelphia, Pa.

For sale in Plainfield,
Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. Cushing.
And at Retail by ELIAS BIRDSALL & Co.
C. Drake, Somerville. Charles Easter, Westfield
August 28, 1852.—7m

WONDER OF WONDERS
Petroleum, or Rock Oil!
NATURE'S OWN REMEDY!!

Procured from a Well in Allegheny County, Pa. 400 feet below the earth's surface! Put up and sold by
SAMUEL M KIER, Canal Basin, Pittsburgh, Pa

The Petroleum is a natural remedy it is put up as it flows from the bosom of the earth, without any thing being added or taken from it. It gathers its healing virtues from the beds of substances which it passes over in its secret channel, they are blended together in such a form as to defy all competition. The Petroleum is the only remedy like the MINERAL WATERS, whose virtues in most chronic diseases are acknowledged not only by physicians, but by the community at large. These singular fluids derive their virtues from the extraction of the medicinal substances of different properties, and holding them in such complete solution, as to require the aid of chemical analysis, to discover the fact, and even the fact that they are compounded by the master hand of nature, for the alleviation of human suffering and disease. If Petroleum is a medicine at all, it is a good one, for nature never fails to produce the best. If it is a medicine of unequalled power, we have the most abundant testimony. It will be used when many of the new remedies of the day, will have been thrown by, never. It will continue to be used and applied as a remedy, as long as man continues to be afflicted with disease. Tell it where you will to every disease that we are able, we do not pretend, but that it will cure a great many diseases, hitherto incurable, is a fact which is proven by the evidence in its favor. Its discovery is a new era in medicine, and will ensure to the health and happiness of man.

The Petroleum is as external and internal remedy call and get a circular from the agent, which will give a full description of it. Persons wishing the agency of this article can secure it by applying to SAMUEL M. KIER, Pittsburgh, Pa. 257 For sale in Plainfield by
Aug. 24, 1852. M. F CUSHING.

READ! READ!! A Voice from Middlesex County!
NEW BRUNSWICK, Oct. 24, 1851.

Mr. S. M. Kier;

Dear Sir—Allow me to certify to the virtues of your great and valuable Petroleum, or Rock Oil, which is a great Medicine for the cure of Diarrhœa and Dysentery. I had been afflicted with a severe attack of Diarrhœa, and made use of your Petroleum, which relieved me in a short time. I cheerfully recommend it to all others. Yours Respectfully, S. JEFFRIES.

Great Bargains.
Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,
Come all to the store, and buy of all.
Goods on our counter now so lie,
To suit the mind, to please the eye.
We pack them down, we lay them cheap,
We'll sell them right to sell a heap.
Ginghams and Muslins, Combs and Cords,
The newest styles of New York stores,
Delaines and Guiters, Calicoes too
Colors of which we'll warrant true.
Cloths and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,
And all the things that goods do use;
Together with a good supply
Of groceries good which will defy
A claim of those who live with us,
And twice a year make quite a fuss,
To go to Brunswick with their trade
Or stores at home they are afraid.
We'll sell them goods and sell them low,
For of our ost sum what suits them best
With Brunswick prices we'll not be cheated,
And our motto is the best;
So come and see, come short, come tall
I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.
Plainfield, May 13, 1850

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Square and Round Post, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, Children's Chairs, Settees, Wash and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel do.
March 22, 1852 For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. If not attended to soon, they will be put to collection. As I don't like to take to put expense on any one, I give this public notice that I may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON
Plainfield, April 9, 1852.

Machinery Oil,

75 CTS. a gallon, better than Sweet Oil, at a saving of one price. For Sale by
June 1st, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

BARRETT'S Double Refined Powdered Saleratus
Chemical Yeast Powder in tin boxes.
Celebrated Soap Powder.
For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.
SPRING GOODS.
DANIEL BULLMAN,

Is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment,

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Spring Patterns; Domestics of every grade and price; Silks, plain and figured; Ginghams, Alpacas &c., suitable for the season; Flannels, White Goods of all kinds; Embroideries; Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Hosiery, Gloves, and all other articles in the dry goods line, necessary to make as varied, full and complete an assortment as can be found in any store, and they will be sold as cheap too. Try us and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing these articles, will find my store just the place. I buy good articles, and sell them at as cheap a rate as any. Our customers cannot help being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY,

Some very beautiful, and some very cheap; a large and varied assortment to select from, constantly on hand. Also, Lamps, in great variety.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell the same goods as cheap, and save you the freight, break-age and trouble of going.

Also, Looking-Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

FANCY GOODS AND NOTIONS,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it, and pretty and cheap a portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited. D. BULLMAN.
April 20, 1852.

1852. CHEAPER YET!
At Oliver Runyon's Cheap Dry Goods and GROCERY STORE.

Gentlemen and Ladies please call and examine my stock of Goods for yourselves. I would say to my friends and customers that my stock is constantly changing, as I replace with new goods adapted to suit the different seasons of the year.

Handsome Barege DeLaines from 18 cts. to 3s. per yard. Lawn from 8c to 22c. Block Alpacas from 2 to 7s. yd. Plain Alpacas in variety from 6c to 1s. French Calico from 18c to 25c. Plain Barege from 25 to 37½c. Bleached muslin from 4c to 18c. Cambric, Jaconet, Book and Swiss muslin, plain and figured. Bishop Lawn 5s to 4s. Black and colored goods for capes and suits. Bombazine from 25 to 75c. Black Bonia Veils, Crape and Bombazine for scarfs, Summer Goods of every style and quality, Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings. Gentlemens' Linen, muslin and cotton Edgings, Lace buttons, Hosiery of all kinds, also a good assortment of Leghorn and Straw Hats from 8c to 7s. each.

GROCERIES

A good article of Green and Black Tea from 4s. to 8s. per lb. Molasses 2s to 3s. Brown sugar 3c 4c to 4c 50. Coffee crushed 4c 6d. to 8c. Crushed and pounded Sugar 6c 8c. Coffee, Spice, Vinegar, Isinglass, and every thing in the Grocery line.

CROCKERY and GLASS WARE, a Good Assortment constantly on hand. Please call and examine for yourselves.

PROVISIONS.—Salt Pork, Shoulders, Hams, Dried beef, lard, butter, cheese, fish by half barrels, fine salt by the bushel or sack.

BOOTS and SHOES, for men and boys, Ladies' gaiters, buskins, slippers, morocco, patent leather and cloth Buskins, at low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Linseed oil, boiled oil, lamp oil, Turpentine and coach varnish, white lead, yellow ochre, Venitian red, chrome yellow, red lead, Paris green, lamp black, Umbargreen, brown, drab, putty, glass, &c. &c.

FLOUR, fine and coarse. Meal, ground feed, wheat bran, and grain, constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village of Dunellen, Middlesex county, Jersey, and in fact every thing you can eat, drink or wear, taken in exchange for goods.
OLIVER RUNYON.
Plainfield, July 26, 1852

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

I. BRAZEE MARSH returns thanks to his numerous patrons for their liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many friends, has enlarged his store of Paints, and taken into partnership his son, Washington Marsh. The business will be continued at the old stand, Somerville, Somerset county, New Jersey, where will be kept constantly on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., &c., as cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to Painting, Graining, Gilding, Glazing, Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES.
Mixed Paint constantly on hand. Advice gratis.
Jan. 5, 1852. I. BRAZEE MARSH & SON.

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at H. CLARK'S Wholesale and Retail Piano Forte Depot, 294 Broadway. A General Assortment of Mahogany and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.
H. CLARK & CO., 294 BROADWAY.
Oct. 7, 1851.—1y NEW YORK.

PAINTS, &c.

AMERICAN PATENT ATOMIC DRIER. Grinding COLORS.—Anti-friction Paste, Gold Size, Zinc Driers, Stove Polish, and Black Varnish for Iron Work.
QUARTERMAN & HOWE,
Painters & Chemists,
114 John Street, New York.
March 9, 1852.—y.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any thing we can eat, or do anything with, taken in exchange for goods. I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

FELLOWS' ELIXIR.

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by
DR. KINKELIN,
NO. corner of 3d and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive success spent in that city has rendered Dr. K. the most expert and experienced physician in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat or legs, pains in the head or bones, inflammation, stricture, or diseases arising from youthful excesses, or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled are all treated with success.

He would therefore solicit the care of Dr. K. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice prevalent among youth, are warned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, unfits one for either business or society. Weakness and constitutional debility, loss of manhood, nervousness, lassitude and general prostration, irritability and all nervous affections, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, kidneys, and urinary organs, which in time end in the disorder of the procreative functions cured, and full vigor restored.

LADY—YOUTH AND MARRIED!

A Vagorous Life, or a Premature Death.

Kinkelin's Self Preservation Only 25 Cents.

This Book is filled with useful information on the impediments and diseases of the human frame. Every one desires itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by all. The valuable advice and impressive warning it gives will prevent years of misery and suffering from ignorance. Parents may save their children by reading it will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

A remittance of 25 cents, enclosed in a letter addressed to Dr. Kinkelin, N. W. corner of 3d and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will ensure a book, under envelope, per return of mail. Persons at a distance may address Dr. K. by letter post paid, and be cured at home. Packages of Medicines, Directions, &c., forwarded by sending a remittance, and put up secure from observation.

Book-sellers, News Agents, Pedlars, canvassers and all others supplied with the above book at very low rates.
Sept. 2, 1852.—1y

"JOY"
FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!
MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing soothing healing properties, which is adapted to a larger class of diseases, than the ability to arrest pain, that any remedy we have ever used. As a Sure and Mild Relief for Coughs and Colds, we doubt if it has an equal: it is very good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Rheumatism, Head, Ear and Tooth Ache, Chilblains and Frost Bites, and Fever: as a Cholera preventive or remedy it cannot be surpassed. No one can appreciate the worth of this excellent medicine, till they have used it. We have used it freely with great success, and do most cheerfully recommend it to those that are or may be afflicted, as a safe and harmless remedy. It is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge, Brooklyn. John Comstock, Brklyn
" H. T. Hopkins, Newark. John Rickbeck, Engineer
" Prof. Whiting, Hamburgh. Steamboat "Warren."
Hon. G. L. Marriner, Fort Jervis. Lorenzo Mans, Keyport
S. Sprague, Ex-Mayor. " Jacob Wesley, L. Branch
Alderman S. L. Husted " David B. Sutton, "
H. G. Codding, Esq. " Rev. Mr. Englehart, Br'klyn.
J. Dorland, furry master " Addison Jayne, New York.
David Travis, Somerstown, Jane McCollick, W. Market
Hon. Wm. Wright, Bordentown. Justice B. Hiscox, "
Peter Blauvelt, Tw Ferry. B. Ryerson, "
Joseph Cheshek, W. Market. Rainer S. Veldras. "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above certificate. Any statement made by them will be found correct.
FRANCIS B. STRYKER.
Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the sole proprietor, 194 Walker Street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING.
Jan. 2, 1852

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Life or Corrector,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-dyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Cathar. Pills
Nervine,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific
Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil,

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of

Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, Piles, &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporter and Dr. Fitch's Improved Pivoted Steel Spring Shoulder Braces.

Dr. Fitch's Silver inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to a good age.

This Book should be in every family. To the consumptive it is worth its weight in gold, and to the afflicted for relief. To me here, the directions it gives for the care and education of children are invaluable. 75,000 copies of this Book have passed through the press, and the sale continues unabated.

For Sale by S. S. FITCH & CO., 707 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

DR. DE LANEY'S CELEBRATED
Curative Instrument,

The only inful is cure for that dreadful disease known as SPERMATORRHŒA or Involuntary Nocturnal Emissions.

Self-abuse and diseases and predisposition of so much misery in the human family, requiring the best combination of skill and medicine to

This Instrument is simple, compressive, and never failing, and can be used with perfect safety, and convenience of the whole of the most intimate friend. It is to be used externally, producing no pain or injury whatever, in preventing any one from attending to his business, while in use. Its effects are immediate, taking place, invigorating the organs, in a short time, to such an extent that they regain their primitive power of self action, the cause of which, from whatever source it is the disease in question, and the cause of the thousand concomitant complaint viz.; Nervousness, Prostration, Dyspepsia, Pain in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Weakness of the Back and Lower Extremities, Affection of the Eyes, Impotence, Pimples of the face Premature Decline of Virility, Weakness of Memory and Power of the Sexual Apparatus, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Timidity, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, &c. All these complaints invariably disappear as soon as the source is stopped from which they originate.

This Instrument has been examined and approved of by the highest authorities in Europe and America, is recommended by the most prominent Physicians of all countries, and is the only certain remedy existing for those complaints, and has now completely superseded the use of drugs, the bougie, cauterization, &c., not to mention the thousand unadvertised nostrums of the day, as cooling, stimulating, &c. &c. This is the only one that ever was, the safest, the most pleasant and by far the cheapest treatment ever offered to the afflicted, a fair price being allowed for the Instrument after the desired effect has been attained.

Be it also remembered, that those complaints are but little understood by the profession in general, and that all the medicine in some cases will only aggravate and stop these losses, which, if allowed to continue unchecked, are sure to produce the most distressing consequences.

It has been a matter of surprise to some, that any one of respectability and of professional attainments should devote his attention to diseases which people of every description, from the highest to the lowest, are liable to; one thousandth part of the miseries these people bring upon society are known, a very different opinion would be formed, and instead of the present gloom and dejection, preying on the mind as well as the body, that is deplored, but, none are of such a nature as to affect posterity, and even to destroy the reproductive faculty, altogether. It is a fact well known, that when self-abused, they may remain so dormant in the constitution as to appear in no other way than in their effects upon posterity, if not properly understood, are most easily and speedily removed. The above is an indispensable and useful instrument, will do it in a great measure, contribute to check the evils of quackery, to prevent in this class of diseases the destruction that is daily.

The price of the complete instrument, carefully secured against all observation in a box, is only $10. It can be sent, by express, to any address in any part of the United States, or the Canadas, with full directions, accompanied by full directions, and important advice to the married and single, the extremes, even to the remotest parts of the country, being considered.

The above instrument has been invented by this obtained since its introduction in America, has induced some unprincipled persons in New York, Philadelphia, Albany, Boston, &c., &c., to introduce things under the name of "instruments," which, however, bear a slightest resemblance, neither in form nor principle to my own invented, long tried, and universally approved Instruments, and which are calculated to do more harm than good. Every attempt to sell such Instruments for mine will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law, I being not willing to allow the sale of such, and honestly earned reputation of my inventions and skill to such worthless productions. No Instrument is genuine and none can be warranted but those ordered from myself, and all applications must be addressed to me, (post paid) to the Doctor himself, he having no Agencies established but in London and Paris

Address, post paid, DR. DE LANEY, 91 Lispenard St., New York. Office hours, daily, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M. and from 7 to 8, P. M. the Sabbath excepted.

 The undersigned certify, with great pleasure, that the above mentioned Instrument is not only constructed on scientific principles, but that from its use the happiest results may be anticipated by the afflicted, therefore long for the cure of those diseases. NO OTHER CERTAIN REMEDY EXTANT.

H. NEY & KELLER, M. D.
CH. GOETZE, M. D. 96 Chambers street.
C. ECKHARDT, M. D. 24 Howard St. NEW YORK

D. De Laney is prepared to execute all orders of surgical apparatus, viz. Artificial Noses and Legs, Trusses, Shoulder Braces, Spinal Apparatus for Curvature; for contracted Legs; for curvature of the Spine and Waist; for False Joints of the Arms and Knees; for Paralytic Legs; for Club Foot; for Lachrymal Fistulæ; for falling of the Womb; Supporters; Elastic Beds and Chairs for Sick Persons; Couches, Trusses, &c. Orthopedic Corsets, &c. &c. All work warranted. Orders must be post paid, containing a proportionate remittance or city reference.
July 19, —3m

Blanks for sale at this Office.

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI. No. 41. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, October 12, 1852. Whole Number 821.

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

WILLIAM HOVEY'S PATENT

Spiral Straw Cutter, 1844, improved, 1852.

These Celebrated Machines will be kept constantly for sale by RALPH & Co. at their AGRICULTURAL WAREHOUSE, No. 23 Fulton street.

They are the sole agents for the City of New York, and will sell these machines at the following reduced prices at retail, and will make a liberal discount to dealers in or out of the city, who purchase to sell again:

No. 0, 4 knives, length of knife 3 1-4 inches, cut 1 inch, $6.50
No. 1, 4 knives, length 5 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $7.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $7.50
No. 2, 4 knives, length 6 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $8.00. With 6 knives cut 1 inch, $8.50.
No. 3, 4 knives, length 7 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $10.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 10.50.
No. 4, 4 knives, length 8 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $12.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 12.50.
No. 5, 4 knives, length 9 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $14.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 16.50.
No. 6, 4 knives, length 10 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $18.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 20.00.
Nos. 5 and 6 can be used by power.

Examine closely this list and compare the length of the knives in the list prices of other Cylinder Cutters, without regard to the No. marked on the machine, and you will find that these Cutters are less in price than any other Cylinder Cutters in the market. Look well to this, as No's are deceptive and serve to mislead and confuse the purchaser. WM. HOVEY & LASELL.

RALPH & Co., No. 23 Fulton Street,
Aug. 16 —3ms . . . New-York.

HOPE'S EXPRESS,

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield,

Leaves Plainfield for New York at 8 1-2 A. M. and 5 1-2 P. M. For Somerville, Easton, &c. 9 1-2 A. M. and 5 1-2 P. M.
Arrives at Plainfield from New York at 9 1-2 A. M. and 6 P. M. From Easton, &c 8 1-2 a.m 5 1-2 p.m.

All business entrusted to us will be punctually attended to, without delay, at moderate charges for cash.

[illegible] TAILOR,
[illegible] MERCHANT,
Main Street, Somerville, N. J.

[illegible] on the city as soon [illegible] to order. he hopes to merit [illegible] already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome and serviceable a Hat as they can buy in New York or Philadelphia, and half a dollar each cheaper.

N. B. Moleskin or Silk Hats made to order at short notice.
Sept. 23, 1851.—ly

Lyon's Kathairon,

For the Growth and Embellishment of the Hair, to Prevent its falling off and Turning Gray.

Awarded the Highest Premiums by the States of New York, Maryland and Michigan at their annual Fairs of 1851.

THE Kathairon neutralizes the effect of disease, climate and old age, in Preserving and Restoring the Human Hair, and is hereby publicly offered to the afflicted with Scurf and Dandruff; will cure the Nervous Headache, Scald Head, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Skin, &c. and is the most desirable

TOILET ARTICLE

For Ladies or Gentlemen's use in the world. Its perfume equals Lubin's choicest Extracts, and being free from all offensive rancid oil or coloring properties, it gives the Hair that clean, bright, soft, lively appearance, secured by no other preparation.

The use of the Kathairon is adopted by the first physicians in Europe and America, and has a patronage and sale unprecedented in the history of the materia medica. But words are superfluous, a trial only can attest its real merits, as millions testify, to be had throughout North and South America, Europe and the Islands of the Ocean, in large Bottles, for 25 cents.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.
July 19, 1852.—6m*

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York

LYON'S EXTRACT OF

Pure Jamaica Ginger.

"Dear Sir,—I speak from a general knowledge of the virtues of Ginger, and particularly of your preparation of Jamaica Ginger, having used it three years in my practice. For Dyspepsia, Cholera, Cholic, Summer complaints, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, General Weakness, &c, it is unquestionably the best article in the world. Its effect in enabling the system to throw off and resist disease of all kinds so sunn during warm weather is worth a dollar to every family. Its timely use would prevent nine-tenths of the protracted sickness during the summer season.

Yours truly, R. M. PATTERSON, M. D.
188 Bond-Street, New York."

This article, peculiarly adapted to this climate, and which is so universally used, can be had in Plainfield of
July 19, 1852.—6m* M. F. CUSHING.

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

LIGHTNING RODS!

A. M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 132 East Twenty-Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and affix to buildings their improved Lightning Rods which have now been in use seventeen years, without a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. Mr. A. M. Quimby has made Electricity the study of his life and his rods are always put up in accordance with certain rules which he has formed and adopted as the result of his experience. An adherence to these rules he has found to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and exposed as regards lightning, and require a different arrangement of rods, therefore, to suit the peculiar features of the case, which is the reason why so many of the common round rods have failed heretofore; being put up by persons ignorant of the laws by which electricity is governed, they are not arranged so as to protect buildings in a manner to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Quimby's rods have been placed on the houses of Mr. D. Lee, Mr. C. Delamater, Mr. M. Smith, and others in Plainfield, and in many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church and others in New York; church of the Holy Trinity, Jersey City; Bull, &c. &c. &c.

All orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circular containing further information may be had on application to the subscriber.

Plainfield, May 25, 1852.—6m

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of May, will remove his store to No. 16 Maiden-Lane, to the store formerly occupied by Him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him:—James Clemmins & Son's celebrated Needles—Richards' Grooveless and other Needles,—Pearl Buttons, Combs' Steel and Gold Pens, Spool and Ball Cotton, Stay Binding Tape, Hooks and Eyes, Shuttles, Scissors, Pocket Knives, &c. &c. RICH'D RICHARDS.

Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods,
April 26, 1852.—3m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York

Going! Now is the time!

SUMMER Stock at cost! Must and shall be sold, to make room for Fall and Winter Goods. Call and before buying elsewhere. I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT—OR, SUCCESS IN LIFE.

It was the third year of my residence with Mr. Simpson, that he had engaged to do a large amount of work for a publishing house in the city. Sufficient time had been given to accomplish it without an extra effort. But one evening toward the close of the job the publish r suddenly appeared in the office. He and Mr. Simpson were alone together for some time.—What the office was closed for the evening, Mr. Simpson told us that the work must be finished in three days at the furthest, and that we must bestir ourselves early enough in the morning:—It was my duty to open the office and prepare it for work.

'Tom,' said Mr. Simpson, 'I want you to get up and do Robert's work to-morrow morning.—He looks pretty sick to-night, and must not come into the office till after breakfast.' I had taken a severe cold.

Robert, do you lie abed in the morning, and Tom, by all means be up by four. Here take my alarm watch and hang it up by your bedside. Be up, sir, in good season.'

'Yes, sir,' answered Tom, though in no willing tone.

When we went to bed a tremendous snow storm was beginning to rage and howl without. The cold was extreme, and the wind a furious North Easter. I soon forgot the storm and sank into a peaceful slumber, with the agreeable expectation of lying as long as I chose in the morning. In an incredibly short time—as it seemed so profound were our slumbers—Tom and I were aroused by the alarm, one—two—three—four! Could it be morning?

'Its time to get up, Tom,' said I shaking his arm.

'Get up, then,' he growled roughly.

'Why I am sick, Tom, and you remember what Mr. Simpson said.'

No. Tom was not to be roused. He was not going to get up such a stormy morning so early, not he! He was not going to do it for Mr. Simpson, nor for me, nor for anybody else—that he! He was not going to get up in the never did any more work!

How many are like Tom, when a demand is made upon them for a little extra effort! No they are not going to work, no not they!

Now it was evident somebody must get up; and it must certainly be one of us. I felt I had a right to sleep the night out that time. Besides, I feared it might be hazardous to get up, for I was in a profuse perspiration, and the storm was raging violently. But my persuasion had no more effect on my bed fellow, than his unalterable determination.

'Well, it must be done. Make up your mind to do it, and then do it courageously,' thought I. Out of bed I jumped, dressed myself rapidly, without suffering myself to regret the snug, warm quarters I had left. In spite of the headache, sore throat and cough, I went bravely on. I plowed my way through the drifted snow, built the fire, and got everything in readiness for the workmen long before they began to appear. Then tying the lantern before me, to see the way, I fought with the snow till I had shoveled a respectable path from the house to the office. Some one beside myself was up in the house, several times he appeared at the window, looking on and watching my progress. While I was alone in the office a heavy step ascended the stairs. 'Not John's nor Farley's, nor Mr. Simpson's. No! the publisher himself entered!—He! such a rich man! up and seeing about his business so early!' I was amazed. Our office had done much work for him, and we all respected him greatly.

'I thought you was not to get up this morning, Robert? A stormy morning this, and tough work you have had of it said he, eyeing him keenly.

'My father always told me, sir, when we had any work to do, to go forward and do it, not minding the weather or anything.' Only a few drops at a time, I added, to myself.

'Right right!' exclaimed the publisher, with great spirit. 'You had a training that is worth something yes; worth more to begin with than thousands of dollars. I see you can put your hand to the plough and not look back. The great fault with young men now a days is, they are afraid to work. They want to live easy, while the fact is, we cannot get anything worth having—reputation, property or any good without working, aye, striving for it. I must keep my eye on you, young man.'

Upon what apparently little incidents, hang the after being of man—I say apparently little chance like incidents, and yet they are a part of the great moral woof into which our habits weave our destiny. They are themselves, the result of long trains of influence; and the starting points of others. So that what many call a lucky hit, or an unlucky turn, is in fact the true result of what the past has wrought out.

To some it might have seemed a lucky hit, that the publisher of—— and I an obscure apprentice, should have happened to meet, just as we did, at half past four on a stormy winter's morning, in Mr. Simpsons's printing office—because from that time he became my fast friend.

At twenty-one I was free with a good trade thoroughly learned.

At 22, I was master of $200.

At 25, a profitable paper and printing establishment, in a large neighboring town, was for sale.

'How much money did you earn last year, Robert?' asked the publisher, who contrived to meet me at that time.

'Two hundred and ninety dollars, sir.'

'Just what I expected. I have bought the Journal office, and furniture, and I am going to set you up in business. I see that you can take care of your own therefore I can safely trust you with mine. You are not afraid of difficulties.'

No, it was not a lucky hit, or any hit at all, if by this is meant a chance event. This meeting was the natural consequence of the business habits shown by the boy.

And now, when poor Charles Fraser, on beholding his comfortable home and pleasant lands the other day, called me a 'lucky dog,' and 'one of Fortune's favorites,' I would say to him as I say to all, 'Success in life—can only come from, and is the legitimate result of a firm, unflinching resolution to work—to work honestly and industriously; and those habits must be formed in boyhood, or they will never be well formed.—They must be wrought at home.—Youth's Cabinet.

From Reese's Medical Gazette.

BURNS AND SCALDS.

There is no practical subject in our profession in which the disastrous and fatal effects of maltreatment by medical men, as well as the mischiefs of popular ignorance are more apparent, than in the remedies resorted to in cases of scalds and burns, now unhappily so frequent in our country, by reason of the murderous recklessness of human life in the men entrusted with our public conveyances, in which steam is employed.

So long ago as 1830, in the first American edition Cooper's Surgical Dictionary, published by the Harpers of this city, we took occasion to urge upon the profession and the public, the importance of a better philosophy and practice in the medical management of the mischiefs resulting from such accidents, than that usually in vogue. We then stated the results of our experience for ten years in the treatment of scalds and burns by the instant application of wheat flour, an article always at hand, and the perseverance in this application alone until all the acute inflammation had subsided. Our theory and practice thus promulgated, was approved and recommended in the then forthcoming edition in London, by Mr. Samuel Cooper himself, and has since found its way without credit into numerous publications at home and abroad. Even in the late Therapeutical work of Dr. T. D. Mitchel of Philadelphia this identical practice is ascribed to Dr. John Thomas, of England! who in 1832 called the attention of the profession thereto as we are told in the Ohio Medical Eyesum two years after our publication, and twelve years after our testimony to its efficacy had been published.

But waiving the unimportant subject of priority, we are grieved to learn from the public press that such multitudes are annually perishing by scalds in steamboats, and from burns by camphene, spirit gas, and otherwise; nearly all of whom, however severely burned, we do not hesitate to say might be preserved from a fatal result if this simple practice were adopted immediately after such accidents. Instead of this however, we hear of the application of cold water, lead water, molasses, oils, cotton, "pain extract," &c., &c., accompanied almost uniformly by the death of the sufferer, and often "after lingering in excruciating torture," for days or hours

Now it ought to be promulgated to the profession, and for humanity sake to be known to the whole people, that in any case of burn or scald however extensive, all the acute suffering of the patient may be at once and permanently relieved, and that in a moment of time, by sprinkling over the injured surface a thick layer of wheat flour by the hand, or what is better, by a dredging box. Every vestige of pain produced by the injuries is instantly removed, and the sufferer may sleep more than an hour. The nervous system accompanying such torture, but will generally fall into a quiet sleep the moment the atmospheric temperature is thus excluded from the wounds.

Why then should persons thus injured be allowed to die with intense agony occasioned by burns and scalds, as they often do, if not with due treatment by the applications so often made and many of which augment their sufferings, and render such injuries irreparable. Even in the late explosion on board the Reindeer, it is said that many of the scalded lived for hours, suffering all the time from their external injuries, and then treated with raw cotton, lime water and linseed oil, &c., &c., until they were dead. Not a pang need have been endured beyond the moment necessary to apply the flour, which must be at hand, if the ignorance of their friends, and the antiquated prejudices of their medical advisers, had not led them to rely upon the miserable substitutes which superstition has entombed for centuries. And so we affirm of every case of burn and scald, even if the entire surface has suffered.

In the New York and Bellevue Hospitals this mode of treating burns has been long in use; until recently we learn, the same object has been effected at the former institution by the analogous method of covering the injured parts with a mucilage of gum arabic, so as to protect the denuded surface from the atmosphere, and which the surgeons there prefer to the flour in some cases, where the weight of the latter becomes an inconvenience. To this method we make no objection, but having for so many years employed the flour alone, to the exclusion of all other agents, and in every variety and extent of injuries by fire, we have thus reiterated our testimony, and as the agent is found in every house and can be instantly procured with more readiness than any of the other articles named, we give it the preference over all others.

And we repeat our full persuasion that not one in a hundred of those perishing by burns and scalds, need, succumb under their injuries, if they were at once, or as soon after as may be, covered with wheat flour. We have applied it successfully, after numerous other remedies had been unsuccessful, and when many hours had elapsed after the accident. To give this suggestion to the people, and scatter it broadcast over the land, will save a multitude of lives in a single year.

LIBERALITY.—A gentleman of this city whose income ranges from $3000 to 3500 a year, expend. in his taxes and family expenses about $1,000, and in the course of the year distributes all the rest of his income in deeds of charity and benevolence. In some cases there is no doubt that the liberality of this gentleman is abused, by those who should be made to scratch for themselves; but he does a great deal of good with his money, more, undoubtedly, than any other retired capitalist in town, and when he dies the poor will sadly miss him. It is much to be regretted that there are not more rich people, in the decline of life, found to imitate his good example.—Newburyport Herald.

Rule who says there is no such thing as an honest man, you may be sure is himself a knave.

The annual cost of cigars in the United States, is computed at twenty millions of dollars. Who is benefited thereby?

Confessions of a Young Thief.

Among the young theives of London are those who go around with a bag on their shoulders picking up everything they can find, and stealing when they can get a chance. One, who was lately arrested, told the following story: The bag-line is just this here; you goes about in a clean apron and holland sleeves, with a tidy bag over your arm. You keeps your eye on a good shop, where there is plenty of trade again on—say Mr. Sole's boot shop; well, you sees a cove with a pair of boots, or may be two, and you follers him to the goes, mayhap, a mile or more, and then he knocks at a gentleman's door, and leaves a pair, or perhaps both of 'em. You marks him clear off the ground, and then you goes and knocks at the same door and presents Mr. Sole's compliments, and says he's sorry to give you trouble, but he have sent the wrong boots; will the servant have the goodness to give 'em to you, as you have got to take 'em to you, as you have to take 'em to Mr. John's wood. Yous gets the boots may enough most times, and then you, bags 'em and walks off.—Of course, it don't matter whether it's boots, or a new coat, or anything else, so long as you gets it in the bag. The bag is very useful other ways. Suppose you goes out early in the morning into the outskirts, just when the maids is sweeping out the street doors; they likes to gossip with you a bit, and you leans on the doore open while they does it. You walks into the passage quite cool and respectable, and looks about, perhaps the breakfast is laid in the parlor, and of course you haves an eye to the spoons, or to anything else that's hanging up or lying about. If any body comes when you are there, you asks to see Mr. Johnson on particular business, and you makes a polite bow when you are told he is not at home, and then you says, may I ask if that aint Fur-moor terrace, No. 14, when you knows well enough 'tis no such place.—There's very good pickings to be had of a morning that way. A good bagsman will do a deal of work, too, on the pavement at sun down, among the goods that the shopkeepers shoves out upon the stones. A regular old hand would bag a pair from afore your eyes, and you shouldn't see it, if the gas wasn't lighted, for you look sharp you can do well with a bag at the railway stations. You takes a big un, as draws up tight with a string; you looks for a chance in the dark and bustle of a night train. You've got your bag labeled large with your own address, and you claps it over a good carpet bag of somebody's, and does it tight, and then you bothers the porter for your fare and tips him a tizzy because you are in a hurry; he brings a light, and looks out for a blue bag with Mr. Pike's address upon it, an I hands it over to you, while the yokel thinks it is looking on. That dodge aint so good now as it used to be, because it have been rather overdone; but very few people knows how 'tis managed. I've been in prison for one thing and another more than a dozen times, but nothing of any account. They can't prove anything against me now, and I shall get off for a month or so, do what they will. This voluble worthy professed truly. Nothing was proved against him upon trial, and he is again at large, and in all probability engaged in stuffing his bag.

From the Pittsburg Enquirer.

Cultivation of the Willow.

On Saturday last we had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of Mr. Wilson G. Haynes of Putnam County, New York, who visited our city as a Delegate to the Free Soil National Convention.

Mr Haynes is, we believe, the only person in the United States who has paid much attention to the cultivation of the Osier, or Basket Willow and until our interview with him we were not aware of its importance, and of the facilities of its cultivation.

It is estimated that there are some $5,000,000 worth of willow annually imported into this country, which amount is rapidly increasing, as the necessities of the country for the articles in which it is used increase. All this willow could be grown here to advantage. The price ranges from $100 to $150 per ton. The chief importation is from France and Germany.

It is generally supposed that willow must be grown on wet or marshy lands, on or near ponds or running water. This, Mr. Haynes tells us, is a mistake. He says the best basket willow can be grown on uplands of a clayey soil. The soil should be rich, and about as much attention should be given to the plant as to Indian corn. It should be cultivated and kept free from weeds. The first year the produce will be but little, unless the cuttings are large, but every year afterward the produce will afford ample pay. By the fourth year the plant arrives at perfection, and will annually thereafter yield its crop, provided it is properly cultivated. Plants in this State will throw up shoots twelve feet high in a season, of an inch in diameter, and without a knot.

This is the most valuable willow for manufacturing purposes, as it can be easily split.

Mr. Haynes, who is an old hand at growing and manufacturing of willow, says he grows as good willow as can be imported from any part of the world, and makes a profit in the growth, over all expenses, of about $150 per acre. He says that willow can be grown profitably in this country at $50 per ton, and he shows his own confidence by investing all the means he can command in the growth of the plant. He is importing great numbers of the cuttings, from different parts of Europe, and will soon have considerable ground under cultivation.

But it is principally for fencing purposes that Mr. Haynes thinks the willow can be made most useful in this country. This question of fencing is soon to become one of immense moment to farmers. It is certain some substitute must be found for timber, as the supply will soon be exhausted. Mr. Haynes, who has travelled extensively in Europe, to investigate this subject, says that fences which the most powerful animals could not force are made by the willow plant in two or three years. The manner of planting for fencing is to place the ends of the cuttings in the ground, and then work them into a sort of wicker-work, passing a willow withe around the tops or ends, to keep them in shape for the first year or two. The tops are cut off yearly and sold to the basket makers, thus affording a hand some profit on the fence.

There are great varieties of willow. The Salix Viminalis in the best for basket makers, and experiments have tested that it will thrive and propagate in this country. An acre of this, properly planted on a suitable soil, and properly cultivated, will yield about two tons weight per annum, costing about $35 per ton for cultivating and preparing it for market.

The Salix Capus is also good for baskets and is used extensively for hoop poles and fencing, in England.

The Salix Alba, white willow, is a favorite in England, for shade trees. It grows more rapidly than any other tree, and makes a rich and beautiful shade. It is planted along avenues, water courses, and on the margin of fish ponds and mill dams. It gives a fine shade in two or three years. The bark is held in high estimation for tanning; the wood for shoe maker's lasts, boot trees, gun and pistol stocks, house timber, and is extensively used in the manufacture of gunpowder. It is fine grained, and susceptible of a high polish.

Civil Qualifications of Gen. Scott.

The following extract is from a letter from a well known Presbyterian Clergyman of Philadelphia to a friend in that city. It is published by the Inquirer, as furnishing additional and reliable testimony, in favor of a tried veteran and distinguished citizen, to whom is assigned the post of honor in the approaching Presidential cont st:

"You must do your duty for Chippewa. He is a noble old Hero and Statesman. He possesses, in my sober judgment, more administrative ability, and more unbending honesty and pure patriotism, than any public man that has been named in connection with the Presidency. The country does not know Gen. Scott. He is a mature scholar—familiar with the languages—speaks French like a native—is a mathematician, and one of the best read man in history and international law now living on this Continent.—A prominent Democrat told me that he considered him the best informed man in this country; and, upon becoming acquainted with the General, I was surprised to find him so completely au fait upon all sorts of subjects. He studies hard —reads immensely—forgets nothing—arranges well—has a mind wonderfully practical, and is cool and cautious in making up his judgment, and lucid and energetic. A celebrated officer, who had every opportunity of knowing Scott in the War of 1812, and who is also a Democrat, had the magnanimity to say to me 'Gen. Scott, though not possessed of remarkable originating genius and powers, possesses a responsibility for acquiring and retaining valuable information, and for making the best use of his knowledge.—It is a mistake,' said he, 'the idea that Gen. Scott is rash. I never saw a man more cool and self composed in trying circumstances.' It was the artillery under the command of the gentleman whom I have just quoted, that fired the first and last shot at Lundy's Lane, and was attached to Scott's Brigade in all the operations on the Canadian Peninsula."

A Clerical Anecdote.

Some thirty-five or forty years ago, a Mr. Williams, a clergyman of the Old School, somewhat eccentric, came to Salem, from the country, to exchange desks with one of his brethren in the ministry. During the Sabbath noon intermission he said to his daughter.

'I am going to lie down; if St. Paul comes himself, don t you disturd me.'

Mr. Bently, who preached in the East Church had been very intimate with Mr. Williams, but had not seen him for several years; hearing he was in town, hurried off after dinner to make his old friend a call.

'Where is brother Williams?' he inquired as he met the daughter.

'He can't be disturbed, sir, not even if St. Paul should call.'

'I must see him! was the impatient rejoinder in the inimitable manner peculiar to Mr Bently.

Resistence to such a must was out of the question.

The room of the sleeper was shown. With no gentle voice and a corresponding shake, Mr. Williams was aroused. He was delighted to see his friend Bently, reiterating in his fervency his gratification.

'I think, Brother Williams,' says Mr. Bently, 'that you are a little inconsistent.'

'How so, how so?' brother Bently.'

'Didn't you tell your daughter you was not to be disturbed, even if St. Paul called! yet you appear very glad to see me.'

'No, no, brother Bently, not inconsistent at all I was—I am glad to see you. The Apostle Paul! why I hope to spend a blessed eternity with him; but you brother Bently, I never expect to see you again.'—Dedham Journal.

In Pittsburg it is related that a Frenchman, being asked if he came by water, replied:

"No."

"How then, by land?"

"No," said he.

"How did you come?" continued the inquirer.

"I came," said he, "by—by—what dat you call him? O, by mut, yes by mut."

This same gentleman became greatly offended with the people of Pittsburg, and to express his views of them, he let off in the following style:

"The Devil took the Saviour into a high mountain, and show him all the kingdoms of the world. He then say, 'All this I will give you if you will fall down and worship me.' But he clap his hand right on Pittsburg, and say, 'But I keep for myself.'"

We see it stated, in an English paper, that a man, in the vicinity of London, undertook, lately, for a bet of twenty five dollars, to lay a gun upon the ground, throw a potato up, turn heels over head, pick up the gun, and hit the potato once out of five shots before it fell to the ground. He afterwards actually performed this feat, winning the bet the first shot.

'Go there to another Capture of Mount Vesuvius,' said Mrs. Partington, as she put up her specs, 'the paper tells us about the burning lava' er running down the mountain, but it don't tell How it got s fe.'

From the Ring of our Union.

THE RUINED CHAPEL.

BY WM. HILSER.

Ages, dark and mystic ages,
Long have sunken to the graves;
Since from out thy time-worn belfry,
Spirit voices smote the waves.
Thus in all their tangle brightness,
Fleetly sped thy banquets by;
Softly whispering as they journeyed,
A soul-soothing lullaby.

Ivy-grown is each old vestige,
By the spoiler left behind—
In thy nooks and sacred cloister,
Now the night bird's rest we find.
Crazzy piers with frowning aspect,
Towering upward to the sky,
Speak the march of desolation,
Where the ravages swept by.

All is lonely—all forsaken—
Nought is heard within thy walls,
Where arose a "chant of praise,"
Save the raven's doleful calls
Where, O where are they who worshipped,
Centuries ago, and fled—
Where they whose names unsullied,
Ranked them with the virtuous dead.

Where, O where resounds my echo—
Silence deigns the sought reply;
As I muse that it is written,
Mortal, thou shalt never die;
Emblem, his of human greatness,
The old tower's transient reign,
And like it God's best creation
Will lie mouldering at life's wane.

AN IMMENSE WORK.—We see by the Cincinnati papers that their great tunnel is advertised for letting. This is worthy of notice. The hills on the north side of the city rise about 200 feet above the upper plain of the town, obstructing, except in one direction, the free access of railways to the upper part of the town. A company has been formed to tunnel the hill for the benefit of all the railways approaching from the Ohio side, and doubtless will be immensely useful. This tunnel will be 6,000 feet in length, and will have 2,000 feet of side cuttings. It is intended to lay it with four tracks, and thus provide free and safe entrance into the city for six or eight different railways, who will each contribute to its receipts, and thus make it very profitable stock. The enterprise is a great one, and if successful will prove eminently useful.

'During the summer of '38,' writes a south western correspondent, 'if I be not mistaken the year, I was present at a court held at Pascagoula, Mississippi, (a favorite resort for Mobilians during summer,) to try the landlord of the hotel for selling liquor in less quantity than a gallon, it being contrary to a law then in force. Present, Justice Hawkins, sitting upon a decayed stump in front of the hotel, with a pea-brush along side of him. 'Prisoner! what have you say? guilty or not guilty?' 'Not guilty!' 'Prisoner; you know you lie, I have drank myself in your house at least twenty times a day, and I am a pretty good witness to be a judge of liquor; but as there are respectable men in your mind, whether Pascagoula belongs to any particular State, and as half the Mobile Boys would die without their liquor, the court, in its clemency, imposes on you a fine of one picayune, but blast the man that informed upon you! Mr Sheriff, take this pea-brush and whip the informer out of town! Court's adjourned.' Landlord, you had better treat the court!' This was the first and last complaint ever made in that district for selling liquor.'—Knickerbocker.

SINGULAR SAGACITY.—A few days since, we noticed one of the most singular displays of canine sagacity we ever saw. Mr. Baldwin offered a negro of $3 that he would start his Newfoundland dog from the wharf boat at the foot of Walnut street, send him over the river to Bakers' Hotel, Greenup street, and that the dog would return with a handkerchief which Mr. B. had left in his bed-room. The bet was taken, and the dog plunged into the river, swam across and made quick time up the levee on the other side. In a short time he again made his appearance; running toward the river, he jumped in and swam back to the foot of Walnut street, with the pocket handkerchief in his mouth. He was absent from the wharf-boat only 25 minutes. The loser readily handed over the $5, and declared that he had never expected to see such a feat.—Cincinnati paper.

THE ADVANTAGE OF RAILROADS.—The journey from Washington to Lachine performed in twenty eight hours—Sir George Simpson arrived at the Hudson Bay House, Lachine, by the Montreal and New York railroad, on Saturday, having reached that place from Washington, in the unprecedented short time of twenty-eight hours, and from Philadelphia in eighteen hours, including stoppages at all places along the different lines.

The following will show the exact time occupied in running the whole distance between Washington and Montreal, 607 miles:—

Left Washington at	4 o'clock	P. M.
Baltimore	5 3-4 "	P. M.
Philadelphia	1 "	A. M.
New York	6 "	A. M.
Burlington	4 "	P. M.
Plattsburgh	5 "	P. M.
Lachine	7.55 "	P. M.

Average time, 22 1-2 miles, including stoppages.
—Montreal Hearld.

HOW TO EAT GRAPES.—Few people know how to eat grapes. Some swallow pulp, seeds and skin; others swallow only the pulp, ejecting both the seeds and skin. In conversation with Dr. Underhill on this subject, he advised to observe the following rules:

When in health, swallow only the pulp, when the bowels are costive, and you wish to relax them, swallow the seeds with the pulp, ejecting the skins; when you wish to check a too relaxed state of the bowels, swallow the pulp with the skins, ejecting the seeds. Thus may the grape as a relaxity unsurpassed by any other cultivated fruit. An adult may eat from 3 to 4 pounds per day with benefit. It is well to take them with or immediately after your regular meals.

We learn from the Houston Telegraph that a very large quantity of wine has been made, in Texas, this season, from native grapes. Most of this wine has been made from the Mustang grape, which yields a wine of a beautiful claret color, and seems to combine some of the qualities of claret and port.

An establishment has been started in N. York capable of slaughtering and packing 1000 hogs daily. The increased facilities of communication with the West, offer to New York considerable facilities for this business, which has been heretofore confined chiefly to the western cities. Hogginess, like murder, will assert itself.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, on Tuesday, decided that an owner of cattle, killed or injured on a railway, has no recourse to the company or its servants, and that he is liable for damage done by them to the company or the passengers.

The editor of the Washington Union, in one of his late articles, says to the Democratic party "let us pause." In the same breath he says "let us go forward." These two orders must inevitably be the death of the Democracy. We lately read of a steamboat captain, who, while his boat was under way, rang in his trepidation a couple of bells, one to "go ahead" and the other to "back her." The engineer obeyed both bells, and the boat parted in the middle.—Lou. Journal.

The Paris correspondent of the Journal des Oesterreichischen Lloyds states that England is about to become the possessor of the important Gallipago Islands, on the Coast of Equador, in consideration of two millions sterling paid to that Republic, and the assumption of the debt it owes to British creditors. The American Cabinet says the above writer, has used every effort to prevent the transaction, but in vain; France has consented to it, in order to check the greedy spirit of the United States, though aware that the island will become, in the hands of England, a second Malta.

We have the pleasure to announce that Webster and Crampton have settled the Fish difficulty. Whenever a Fish is found with longer ears than usual, it is to be considered British.

EMANCIPATION AND COLONIZATION.—A Southern slaveholder offers to emancipate his slaves, to the number of 60 or 70 on condition that the Massachusetts colonization society will furnish funds to transport them to Liberia. These people could be sold for $30,000 or $40,000, and constitute the bulk of their master's possessions. The society have pledged or in the treasury, $1200, and appeal to the friends of the colored man for $800 in addition, for the above object.—Boston Trav.

Not half the usual quantity of mackerel has been taken by the Gloucester fishermen this season.

At the recent election in Maine, there were 65,561 votes thrown, the largest ever known.

A patent has been taken out for making sugar from Indian Corn.

The Memphis Eagle and Enquirer perpetrates the following: A Dutchman who had just returned from a visit to his friend in Kentucky, was applied to the other day to know how the Presidential election was going in that State—who was the foremost men in Kentucky? 'Sesh Hano in reply;' "Dere is tree candidates running in Old Kentucks where I am been. Fersteh, dere is one dey call 'Old Chippewa'—he will get a nemart handful of votesh. Den dere is 'Old Lundy's Lane,' he will make a mighty g-o-o-d run: but dere be one day call 'Churubusco,' he will intweep he platter.?"

The Directors of the State Bank in this town have declared a semi-annual dividend of four per cent, as the result of the business of that institution for the six months ending on the first inst. We also learn that a very handsome sum was carried to the side of the profit and loss account, and the figures prove that at no time in its history has this institution done a larger or more business than during the last past.—Elizabethtown Journal.

Hay Crops of Kentucky.—The Kentucky papers estimate that the crop in that State will be fully 15 per cent. over the average of last year.

At Pittsfield a few nights since, Dr. Root heard somebody trespassing upon his pear tree, and running out suddenly surprised the rogue, who ran off without so much as bidding the doctor good night—leaving a gold watch hanging to a twig of the tree, which the owner of the pears pocketed, propably well contented with the whole operation.

OHIO WINES.—Messrs. Longworth & Zimmerman, of Cincinnati, Ohio, will put up 150,000 bottles of sparkling Catawba wines, this season. 1,200 acres of grapes are under cultivation near that city.

It is mentioned, as a remarkable instance of the force of imagination, that at the late Lake Erie catastrophe, one of the porters, George Dames, would never had attempted to swim in his life, got a life preserver, which he put on, and jumping into the water, swam some fifteen or twenty rods to the pinnacle, which was floating in the water. When he reached it, he felt the India rubber belt, and for the first time discovered that he had forgotten to inflate it. It was nevertheless uncertainly his life preserver, as without the consciousness of any thing but the knowledge that he had it on he would have been able to swim at all.

NOT SLOW.—"A converted Loco Foco" in Morris county, in this State, in a communication to the Tribune, says he means to vote for Scott, and he knows of seven more Democrats in his school district who will also vote for Scott, and thinks "that is a good proportion, seeing there are but twelve in it." That'll do, if we can't get any more.

Medical writers all agree that gluttony conducts more people to the grave than drunkenness. The old adage is true, that "many people dig their graves with their teeth."

Sir Walter Scott and Daniel O'Connell, at a late period of their lives, ascribed their success in the world principally to their wives. Were the truth known, there is the history of thousands.

"What are you doing there, you rascal!" observed Jinks to his shop-boy, as he happened to enter the office, and found the said boy tuning somersets. "Whatdare you about?"

"Obligin' a friend, sir. He writ me a letter, and at the bottom of the pages he said, 'turn over, and oblige,' and I've been doing it ever since."

Where's Dr. Waller?—We know an Irish family in this city, named Cherry, and they are wild,—root and branch!

The man who was appointed a committee to inquire into his own conduct, has reported in part, and asked for power to send for persons and papers He says if he had known how much there was to do he never would have undertaken the job—Boston Post.

Perhaps the severest remark ever made against the Jesuits, is that of a Spanish Bishop.

"The Jesuits," said he, "found Spain a nation of heroes, and left her a nation of hens."

It has been well said, a man is valued as he makes himself valuable.

Franklin says, a poor man must work to find meat for his stomach; a rich one, to find stomach for his meat.

THE UNION

Plainfield, N. J. October 12, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

National Whig Nominations:

For President of the United States:
Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.

For Vice President:
WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North-Carolina.

Senatorial Electors: Dudley S. Gregory, of Hudson; Andrew K. Hay, of Camden.
1st District, John T. Nixon, of Cumberland.
2d, James S. Lawrence, of Monmouth.
3d, James S. Nevius, of Middlesex.
4th, Cornelius G. Garrison, of Passaic.
5th, James M. Quimby, of Essex.

GRAND WHIG MASS MEETING,

At Newark, on Wednesday, October 20th.
Able and distinguished speakers will be procured, and ample arrangements will be made for the accommodation of all who may attend. It is intended to be a grand Jersey demonstration, in the whig head quarters, and all parts of the State ought to be, and will be represented.

THE SOMERSET COUNTY WHIG CONVENTION to nominate a County Ticket will meet at Somerville, on Thursday, Oct. 21, at 10, A. M.

The Whigs of the 1st Assembly District of Somerset County, comprising the townships of Warren, Bernards, Bridgewater and Bedminster will meet by delegates at Liberty Corner, on Saturday noon, 16th inst. to nominate their candidate for Assemblyman.

THE ESSEX COUNTY WHIG CONVENTION,
To nominate a Sheriff and 3 Coroners, will be held at Newark on Saturday, 23d inst. Plainfield is edtitled to 3 delegates, to be chosen on Monday evening, 18th inst. at Laing's Hotel.

It is recommended that at the primary meetings in the several townships, suitable measures be taken for the nomination of Members of Assembly in the several Assembly Districts into which the County is divided.

They had a most interesting whig mass meeting at Somerville last Wednesday. Some thousands were on hand.

Whig Convention of the 5th Congressional District

To nominate a candidate for Congress was held at Newark at Library Hall on Wednesday, last. Delegates were in attendance from every town in the District.

Committees were appointed, officers chosen, and rules adopted. The whole number of votes were 97; 49 necessary to a choice. A. C. M. Pennington, Wm. S. Faitoute, and Dr. James S. Goble, were nominated.

On the first ballot, Pennington received 49 votes, Faitoute 30, Goble 18. Pennington was declared the nominee, and it was made unanimous amid great applause.

The nomination of Mr. Pennington as our candidate for congress gives great satisfaction, so far as we have heard. He is fully entitled to our confidence, and will ably and safely represent this District in the next Congress, as he will be elected of course.

CENTRAL RAIL ROAD OF N. J.—The last trip will hereafter leave New York at 5 o'clock, P. M. See advertisement on next page.

We confidently and cheerfully invite the attention of our lady readers to the advertisement of Mrs. Simmons on this page, as there can be found at her store a full assortment of goods in her line, of the best quality, and they can be obtained at reasonable prices.

For the encouragement of agriculture we state that we have a potato of the finest quality, weighing 2 lbs. 1 oz. which was raised on the James Manning place, near Richard Manning's in Warren township.

A movement is on foot in Rahway as we learn from the Republican, to remove the mill-dams in the village, substituting steam-power for water. The mill-ponds, besides covering land, are supposed to be unhealthy.

Doing Well.—A colporteur, in North Carolina has remarkable success in working off books among those that need them. One poor family sold 5 eggs enough at five cents a dozen to buy a Bible, and a good selection of other books. A man who could not read, but was blessed with a good wife who wanted books was at the trouble of putting up a few cords of wood and burning it to coal, for which he received four cents per bushel, and thus procured the means of supplying him with a library. And now, when the work is ended, he takes care of the baby while his wife reads aloud. Such are some of the results of a good work.

The Wheeling Times says an Irish girl, fresh from the sweet sod, recently arrived in that city, being sent to the hydrant for water, went to the grindstone, and after turning a long time, declared to her mistress that she could never get a drop of water from the cold hydrant."

New Potato Blight.—To tell a man he's "small potatoes!"

Keen.—A severe reproof was administered the other day, by a gentleman, who at a certain bathing place was shown to a bath, where, apparently the water which served the last customer, remained unchanged. The gentleman, drawing upon old Joe Miller for a joke, inquired of the bath-keeper, with an air of innocent simplicity—"Pray, sir, where do people go to wash, after bathing here?"

"I think our church will last a good many years," said a waggish deacon to his minister. "I see the sleepers are very sound."

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The steamer United States arrived at New York Sunday afternoon, 3d inst. with 471 passengers. The Prometheus also arrived same evening from San Juan.

The steamer Pioneer of the Vanderbilt line, on the Pacific side, was lost in St. Simon's Bay, Aug. 17th. Passengers and crew saved. Insured for $250,000 in New York.

Among the deaths we notice that of Charles H. Olds, son of Benjamin Olds, of Newark, at San Francisco, Aug 20.

The political canvass had commenced all over the state with considerable activity. Our exchanges contain several accounts of numerous Whig meetings. Our friends on the Pacific are sanguine of carrying the state for Scott and Graham.

It is said the Indians of California entertain the most bitter hostility toward the Celestials, whom they regard as their inferiors, and trespassers on their dominions.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The steamship Atlantic arrived at New York on Saturday evening, 2d inst. 10 days and 5 hours from Liverpool.

The Asia arrived on Wednesday evening, 11 days and over from Liverpool, with 121 passengers. The news is one week later.

No changes are quoted in the markets.

The funeral of the Duke of Wellington will not take place until Parliament has met and acted on the subject. It will be a national affair.

Gold and silver to the amount of $2,000,000 had arrived in England from Australia, Mexico, and California.

Snow had already fallen in the north of Scotland.

Louis Napoleon boldly avows his intention of becoming emperor of France.

The Times commences three column review of Hawthorne's "Blithedale Romance" with the following remarks:—"We must look out. America is going ahead, and threatens to outstrip us in a direction altogether unexpected. It has taken the energetic people of the United States not quite eighty years to convince the world of their unapproachable skill in the art of material development. Another half century may enable them to improve their superiority over contemporary nations in labors purely intellectual;" to which we can only answer—"cure."

MAGIC.—We were at Laing's Hall on Tuesday evening, it was the wizard's last night, and a great crowd was the result. It would be idle to deny Mr. Force's great original genius and pre-eminent powers as a magician. The public voice is a standard of real merit; and that appears to be in his favor. He certainly is one of the first magicians in America, and but few of the 'magi' of the day can be compared with him in dexterological simstratology, or mechanical amalgama. His incomprehensible manœuvres defy the nicest discrimination, and puzzle the most subtle disciple of metaphysical casuistry. His beautiful magic displays will never fail to attract large audiences in our village.

An Irish horse-dealer sold a fine blood-mare, warranting her sound, wind and limb, and without fault. The purchaser, on her being sent home, found, upon examination, that the sight of one of her eyes was quite gone. Upon this he waited upon the dealer, and desired that she might be taken back and the purchase money returned, reminding the seller that he declared the mare to be without fault.

"To be sure, my dear, I did," replied Paddy, "blindness is not the poor creature's fault, but her misfortune."

A CARD.

NOTICE is hereby given that on and after the first day of November next, we, the undersigned, intend closing our stores at 8 o'clock in the evening, to continue the ensuing winter.

Henry A. Cory,	Laing & Webster,
Robert Anderson,	Ira Pruden,
Webster & Marsh,	A. D. & E. B. Titsworth,
James M. Dunn,	L. S. Dunham & Co.,
Hoop & Sheppard,	Oliver Runyon,
John V. Arrowsmith,	Titsworth, Dunn & Co.,
Jacob Lyon,	William Dunn & Co.
Daniel Ballman,	John C. Price,
	Silas Wilson's.

Dated Plainfield, Oct. 5th. 1852.—1m

Case of a Humor of 30 years' Standing.

ORIENT, April 16th, 1852.

MESSRS. S. A. WEAVER & CO.,
Gentleman—I am requested by a friend to state to you what I have been, and what I am now, in regard to health. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you and your medicine, which has relieved me from a great deal of sufferinjr. I have been bed-rid for 20 years and over with Salt Rheum; I have tried a host of vaunted medicines, but never found it. I have dieted and taken medicine enough to float a pretty large boat, but all has done me no good, I commenced taking your medicine about five months ago. Previous to taking your medicine, for about twelve months I was so badly off that I had to take a bath every night, to wash the filth and scabs that would collect every day. I was reduced very much from three to five pails of water, and after I got through the water would be near the color of milk; so you may judge that there was a good deal of filth in my flesh. I am now quite free from aches and pains, though I have a little of it hang up about me. As yet I hardly dare say what I would like to say. I have taken 20 bottles of he Syrup, and consider myself well, but keep on the Cerate. I intend to continue taking your Syrup.

I am requested to give a descrip tion of my situation before taking your Syrup. My flesh was a mass of sorasy, swollen, very sore;—could hardly get sh ort, having to use one and sometimes two canes. Some of the time I could not undress myself or rest, restless nights, many a night having to set in a chair all of the night. I had almost despaired of ever doing any better, but your wonderful medicine has, I feel, done wonders for me. I commenced taking the Syrup and Cerate from this date, April 19th, 1851. The first bottle I took in eight or nine days; the second in ten or twelve days, but found before I got through the second, I was getting very much better; still I continued to take the syrup, though not as freely. The Cerate I found rather harsh at first, my flesh being so sore, requiring a little time to get used to it. I got through the third bottle I was in a pitiful condition. The filth and matter that would gather and discharge on the surface was astonishing. At times it would be the thickness of a quarter of a cent, coming off in scales. My filthy of all complaints; but by continuing the medicine I gradually began to get better; my flesh began to soften, the itching and burning seemed to come to an end, so that by the first of October I could undress and go to bed, and sleep without an ache or pain. I am now able to work and sweat if it is necessary and as for any appearance of it, my neighbors say I am the smartest man in the neighborhood, since I have experienced its benefits. I recommended it to many who were suffering with humor, a good many have been induced to use your invaluable medicine, and have been benefitted.

Were it necessary, I could get a hundred that would testify to what I have written.

In writing this for the day, they will take up and read what I have written, and say I have not exaggerated, but it was worse than I have written, sitting in my chair nights and day for two or three weeks, and my dressing at all. Very respectfully yours,

ELIAS LAUHAM.

New York Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Wheat Flour,	$4.37 to 4,50
Rye Flour	4.12 to 4,25
Indian Meal, Jersey,	3,75 to 3,75
Grain—Wheat,	,95 to 1,05
Rye,	85 to 86
Corn,	70 to 73
Oats, Jersey.	42 to 43

Thousands of parents who use Vermifuge composed of Castor oil, Calomel, &c., are not aware, that while they appear to benefit the patient, they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of sight, weakness of limbs, &c.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Hobensack's Medicines, to which we ask the attention of all directly interested in their own as well as their Children's health. In Liver Complaints and all diseases arising from the use of a bilious type, should, make use of the only genuine medicine, Hobensack's Liver Pills.

For "Be not deceived," but ask for Hobensack's Worm Syrup and Liver Pills, and observe that each has the signature of the Proprietor, J. N. HOBENSACK, as none else are genuine.

It should be universally known—For it is strictly true—that indigestion is the parent of a large proportion of the fatal diseases. Dysentery, diarrhœa, cholera morbus, liver complaint, and many other diseases enumerated in the city inspector's weekly catalogue of deaths, are generated by indigestion alone. Think of that dyspeptics! think of it all who suffer from disordered stomachs, and if you are willing to be guided by advice, found upon experience, resort at once (don't delay a day) to Holdrich's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, which, as an alterative, and invigorant, stands alone and unapproached. General depot, 120 Arch street. We have tried these Bitters, and know that they are excellent for the diseases specified above. —Philadelphia City item.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Camphor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

First Premium Millinery Establishment,

564 Broadway, one door below Prince st. near the Metropolitan Hotel, NEW YORK.

MRS. W. SIMMONS respectfully announces to her numerous patrons and strangers visiting the city, that she has a handsome assortment of Paris Fall and Winter Millinery, in addition to a large assortment of her own manufacture, of the latest Fall fashions. Also just received by the late steamers, a large invoice of Paris Satins, Silks, Velvets, Ribbons, Feathers, Artificial Flowers, &c. Merchants and Milliners supplied by the case or single Bonnet, as usual. Mrs. S kindly solicits a call. Oct. 12-6m

NEW FALL GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD,

ARE now receiving their stock of Fall Goods to which they invite the attention of all who are in want of desirable goods.

SILKS.—Very superior black dress and mantilla silks, rich changeable and plaid silks; Florence silks, all colors.

CASHMERES.—A splendid article, all wool, plain and figured; rich and new styles

DELAINES.—Plain, all wool, different colors, fancy delaines, every variety of style and color, Mousslin delaines, good styles.

POPLINS.—Plain and fancy, new style of plaid, also others, different grades and prices.

FLANNELS.—Scotch, French, Lancaster and domestic, all colors.

PRINTS.—Merrimac, Cochico, British madder and Manchester prints, every variety of style and color.

Embroideries.—French worked collars, flouncings, edgings and insertings, also silk for fancy embroidering.

Gloves.—White, black and fancy Kid, also silk, Lisle, and other gloves.

SHAWLS.—Broche, Bay state, cashmere, new styles of rich palm leaf, and others, a good variety.

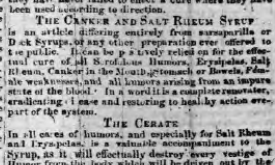
Together with a general assortment of other goods, all of which will be sold very low, and to which the attention of ladies is particularly invited.

We have also a large stock of Cloths, cassimeres, sattinets, Kentucky jeans, vestings, flannels, muslins, domestics of every grade, which will be sold low. A good lot of Boots, Shoes, clothing, gaunlooms, socks, vests, frock and over coats, shirts, collars, and every variety of men's wear, which customers are requested to call and examine.

Clothing cut and made to order and warranted to give satisfaction.

Now ladies and gentlemen call and see us (we mean our goods) and we will satisfy you that we can and will sell them right, for we are determined to do it.

Plainfield, Oct. '52. ROCAP & SHEPHARD.



CANKER CURE & CERATE,
WARRANTED A CURE FOR

Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Scrofulous Humors, Liver Complaints, Canker, and all Diseases arising from Impure Blood.

THESE preparations are scientific productions of a regularly educated physician (who is now extensively engaged in the practice of his profession). They have become deservedly popular in all sections of the country where they have been introduced, from the fact that they have never failed to effect a cure where they have been used according to direction.

THE CANKER AND SALT RHEUM SYRUP is an article differing entirely from sarsaparilla or Dock Syrups, for any other preparation ever offered to the public. It can be relied on for a speedy relief and effectual cure of all Scrofulous Humors, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Canker in the Mouth, Stomach or Bowels, Female weaknesses, and all humors arising from an impure state of the blood. In a word it is a complete regenerator, eradicating disease and restoring to healthy action every part of the system.

THE CERATE

In all cases of humors, and especially for Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, is a valuable accompaniment to the Syrup, as it will effectually destroy every vestige of humor from the body, when used in connection with the use of the Syrup. It is one of the most valuable external applications ever known for Burns, Scalds, Scald Head, Old Sores, Piles, Barber's Itch, and all other eruptions on the skin. And for surposes all other external applications.

THE CANKER CURE

Is the desideratum so long sought for the relief and cure of Canker in all its stages, and has never been known to fail to relieve. It is warranted a positive cure for Nursing Sore Mouths, in those cases it has never failed. Thousands have tried it, and been cured, even the worst cases in the Mouth, Stomach and Bowels, and obstinate dysentery it has effected cures after tried remedies had failed. For Ulcers and all diseases proceeding from cankered humors this is unrivalled. It is mild and is a valuable accompaniment to the Syrup in all cases of Canker.

Neither of the above articles are genuine without the signature of S. A. WEAVER & Co., on the outside wrapper.

Manufactured at New London, Conn., by S. A. Weaver & Co., sole proprietors, to whom all orders must be addressed

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

Iron Corle's, New Market; Darcelius, Somerville; A. C. Watson, Railway; H. McDonald & Son, New Brunswick; A. W. Miller, Elizabethtown

For sale by Wholesale Druggists generally in New York city. Oct. 12.—3m

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Office at his house, opposite Cherry Street, Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

Pursuant to public notice the Whigs of Warren met at I. C. Allen's on Saturday, 9th inst. to appoint delegates to the Assembly District Convention at Liberty Corner, on Saturday, 16th inst. Amos Gliddis, Chairman; A. J. Coddington, Secretary.

Delegates —Lewis Cray, Alfred Berry, William W Drake, Lewis Mundy, Reuben Coddington.

A Novel Speculation.—A letter from California says: "A man from Illinois has just arrived from Independence; having driven the entire distance, 2000 turkeys, all hale and hearty. They cost him about fifty cents apiece in the States, and the cost of feeding them on the way was nothing; they fed themselves. He has been offered $8 apiece.

POTATOES.—The Buffalo Courier says the potato crop this year will be uncommonly large and good. In Genesee and Wyoming counties the yield was never larger, and so far as has been seen, is entirely free from rot.

RAILROAD TARIFFS.—The Boston Courier says that the committee appointed by the Railroad Convention some weeks since, will probably report a higher tariff of prices, to be adopted by the New England Roads.

Uncle Tom's Cabin has been dramatized for the Olympic Theatre in London, and is received with immense applause. A critic says, that laughter and tears alternate in quick succession.

A man was picked up in the streets of this city a few days ago. The bystanders agreed on a verdict that his fall was occasioned by a rush of rum to the head.

"I would I were a boy again," as the man said when he was trying to purchase a half ticket on the Erie Railroad. He "thought he had more money with him."

A dandy is generally supposed to be about one fourth walking stick, and the rest, kid gloves and hair.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

Wm. H. McDonald, New York, $2,06; David Rockwell, 1,52; J. H. Titsworth, 1,50; C. C. F. Force, Somerville, 1,50; Washington Marsh, 1,00; Isaiah Coryell, Warren, ,75.

MARRIED.

In this place, on the 6th inst. by Rev. S. J. Drake, N. A. C. Seward, Esq. of Morristown, and Matilda, daughter of David Rockwell, of Plainfield.

In this place, on the 4th inst by Rev. Wm. Whittaker, William Beukma and Helen Beukma, both of Plainfield.

HOPE'S EXPRESS,

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield,

Leaves Plainfield for New York at 8 1-2, A. M. For Somerville, Easton, &c. 5 1-2, P. M.

Arrives at Plainfield from New York at 5 1-2 P. M. From Easton, &c. 8 1-2 A. M.

All business entrusted to us will be punctually attended to, without delay, at moderate charges, for cash.

House and Lot,

FOR SALE.

The HOUSE and Lot lately owned and occupied by David Freeman, dec'd, on Second street, near the corner of Cherry, is offered for sale. The House is two story and a half high, about 15 years old and convenient. There is on the premises a Barn, Wood House, Well, Fruit Trees, &c. &c. The Lot contains a quarter of an acre of Land. Apply to

Oct. 4, '52-6w CALEB FILEMAN, Executor.

Hosiery and Shirt store,

No. 292 GREENWICH STREET,

CORNER OF CHAMBERS, NEW YORK.

The subscriber invites the attention of the public to his Fall stock of

UNDER-CLOTHING,

Lamb's Wool, Merino, Cashmere, Silk & Cotton — Shirts & Drawers — The Teviot Wove Under-garment so highly recommended by physicians,

ALSO

The Shaker shirts & drawers, Shaker knitted half Hose, Woolen Hose and Half Hose. — Whitehall Shirts — Collars, cravats, Stocks, Gloves, Mufflers, hand Kerchiefs, &c.

☞ Fine Dress Shirts made to order in the most approved style.

Persons about to proceed to California, will find a good assortment of SEAMAN BLANKS, TRAVELLERS BAGS, MONEY BELTS, &c.

☞ Terms Cash, and One Price Only. ☜

THOMAS McLAUGHLIN,

292 Greenwich St., cor. Chambers,

One block west of Hudson River Railroad Station.

New York, Oct. 4, 1852.—3m

FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale his Dwelling House and Lot, situated very pleasantly on Second-st. in the village of Plainfield, and convenient to the business parts of the town. The house is in good order and convenient for two families. There is a never failing well of water by the door, and choice fruit trees of various kinds on the lot. He also offers for sale five shares of stock in the Building Loan and Saving Fund Association of Plainfield.

Sept. 27, 1852. WASHINGTON MARSH.

DISSOLUTION.

THE Co-partnership heretofore existing between the subscribers under the name of Johnson & Lyon, is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

CHARLES JOHNSON.
MASON LYON.

Oct. 1 1852

The business will be conducted at the old stand by the subscriber, where every thing in the Grocery line will be sold cheap for Cash.

All persons indebted to the late firm are requested to call and settle without delay; and those to whom the Books are left, had the subscriber better call to settle the same.

JACOB LYON.

Plainfield, Oct. 4, 1852—tf.

Central Rail Road of N. J.

Notice.—Wm. Lynch,

Late of 518 Pearl-Street, New York.

Wishes to inform his friends and old customers, that he will open his Wholesale & Retail Grocery Store, at 223 Greenwich-st., corner of Duane-st., on 22 April, with a new and well selected stock of goods, such as Teas, sugars, molasses, coffees and spices, butter, cheese, lard, flour, beef and pork, &c., which he offers cheap for cash. Families, boarding house keepers, and bakers, are invited to call and examine his goods and his prices, as they can have a very large percentage, call and see for yourselves.—Country merchants purchasing goods for cash, are particularly requested to call and examine his goods and the prices before purchasing elsewhere. N. B.—Goods delivered on board of steamboats, railroads, barges, sloops, and any part of the city, free of charge.

W. M. LYNCH, 223 Greenwich-street, New York

Notice to the Ladies of This Place.

Ladies wishing Boots and Shoes for the Fall and Winter season can find at Muller's 18 Canal st., a large and splendid assortment, consisting of black and colored Gaiter Boots, plain and full fazed, both single and double soles; Cloth Button boots lined with the same leather, soft and warm for Winter wear; Quilted Silk Boots and Buskins, a Beautiful article; Ladies' and Gentlemen's Toilet slippers, suitable Holiday presents for both sexes; White Satin and Linen Gaiters; white and black Satin, Bronze and black French Kid slippers; Slippers for Balls and Parties; Misses, and Children's Gaiter Boots and Shoes of all the various styles and colors; Children's Rubber Boots, Gaiter Boots, and Shoes, Gloves, &c., the largest assortment of any store in New York. Ladies will please call and examine the assortment.

J. B MILLER, No. 184 Canal st., N. Y.

THOMAS G. STEARNS,

IMPORTER AND JOBBER OF

Silks, Millinery, and Fancy Goods,

162 Broadway, New York,

Has now in Store and daily receiving and offering a the Lowest Prices, a complete and carefully selected Assortment of Goods in his line, comprising all the various styles and designs, consisting in part of the following:

BLACK & FANCY SILKS,

MARCELINES, FLORENCES, SHAWLS, TRIMMINGS. Bonnet Ribbons, Tablets, and Satin Ribbons, EMBROIDERIES,

French and English Crapes, Crape Lisse,

Silk Cravats, Gloves of all kinds,

SILK LACE MITTS; DRESS TRIMMINGS of all kinds, Bareges, Laces, White Goods, Hosiery, L. C. Handkerchiefs.

The undersigned would invite the attention of his friends and the trade generally. He will offer great inducements for

Cash and Short Time Buyers,

and would respectfully solicit an examination of his Stock before purchasing elsewhere.

THOMAS G. STEARNS, 162 Broadway,

Between Liberty st. and Maiden Lane,

New York, Sept. 27, 1852.—3m

D. M. KNIGHT & CO.

Importers and Wholesale Dealers in

ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN

FANCY GOODS,

No. 63 Cedar-Street (up stairs.)

(Between William and Nassau sts.)

D. M. KNIGHT, } NEW-YORK.
E. P. KNIGHT, }

COMBS—Shell, Buffalo, and horn back Combs in great variety; twist, dressing and ivory Combs.

BRUSHES—Hair, pearl, ivory, mohair, twist, bone, metal, silk, thread, agate, &c.

Brushes, Hair, Tooth, Nail, &c.

Linen Thread, Spool Cotton, Needles, Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Hair Pins, Elastics, Whalebone, Linen and Cotton Tapes, Linen and Cotton Bobbin, Scissors, Thimbles, and a great variety of Fancy Goods, Fans, &c., all cheap for cash.

Sept. 6, 1852.—3m.

Masonry Revived.

A meeting of the Practical Masons of Plainfield and the surrounding towns, held at the Hotel House of John Ayres, in Plainfield, on Wednesday Evening, the 15th of September instant, to take into consideration, and adopt such measures as may be thought best to revive the just and equitable rights. David Codington was called to the Chair and B. T. Mulford appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting having been stated the following Preamble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, the masons of Plainfield and the places adjacent thereto have been subjected to unjust censure, and suffered injustice by the practice obtained by carpenters and others not practical masons taking contracts for erecting and constructing buildings, bridges &c. thereby compelling masons to work under such subjection and control and upon them for their wages, or be driven to the necessity of laying a lein upon such buildings, subjecting the owners to double pay for such work in many instances, and for divers other considerations, therefore it is

Resolved, 1st. That hereafter we will not work for any such contractor who is not practically engaged in building or bridge so contracted for, either by the day or otherwise.

Resolved, 2d. That we hold ourselves in readiness and willing to work for any of our fellow masons in any building or other structure requiring mason work, by the day or by contract, thereby securing to ourselves our wages, and not be subjected to censure for bad work when the cause lies in the materials furnished, and dictation of the master builder.

Resolved, 3d. That the foregoing resolutions do not apply to buildings now in process of erection.

Resolved, 4th. That all masons working on any building or structure in violation of the spirit and intent of the foregoing resolutions, will be held and esteemed by us as foes to the craft.

David Codington,	Daniel Moore,
B. T. Mulford,	William Richardson,
John Mullener,	John Richardson,
Benj. M. Lawler,	Warren Marsh,
Nehemiah V. Smalley,	Christopher Baker,
James Ayres,	Andrew Davidson,
Edward Philbower,	S. B. G. Wilbt,
John R. Hetfield,	Francis J. Moore,
Joseph C. Drake,	Jonathan Ryno.
Isaac Moore.

Plainfield, Sept. 15, 1852.—3m

FALL IMPORTATIONS.

Peterson & Humphrey,

IMPORTERS OF

Carpeting and Oil Cloths,

379 Broadway, corner of White-St., New York,

HAVE JUST RECEIVED, PER LATE ARRIVALS from Europe, their usual supply of rich and elegant Carpetings, consisting of

RICH AXMINSTER and MOSAIC CARPETS, in one ENTIRE CARPET, with rich BORDER to enlarge it to any sized room.

RICH VELVET CARPETS—Patterns entirely new, imported expressly for city retail Fall Trade

TAPESTRY and BRUSSELS CARPETS—An elegant assortment, surpassing in richness of COLORS and SHADING, any heretofore imported.

TAREEFLY and INGRAIN CARPETS, our stock will be constantly supplied with the latest and most desirable patterns manufactured.

OIL CLOTHS.—Our arrangements with the ENGLISH and AMERICAN manufacturers enables us to offer a larger, better assortment, at less price, than any store in the Union.

MEDALLION DRUGGETTS, RUGS, TABLE and PIANO COVERS, MATS, STAIR RODS, TRIMMINGS, &c., and all other goods found in first-class carpet stores, for sale, on the most reasonable terms.

PETERSON & HUMPHREY,

Sept. 13-3m 379 Broadway, cor. White-st., N. Y

Coffee, Spices, Mustard, &c.

WITHINGTON & WILDE,

Nos. 7 and 9 Dutell street, (between Fulton and John streets,) New-York,

KEEP constantly on hand a large and well assorted stock of COFFEES, green, roasted and ground; Cinnamon, Nutmegs, Cloves, Pepper, Allspice, Ginger, Mustard, Mace &c., &c., whole and ground, all of the best quality, and put up in the best style. Also supply their EGG FOODS and CURES, equal to any manufactured.

Having been favorably known in this business for the last twenty years, we can safely say that we can give purchasers perfect satisfaction, both in the quality and manufacture of our articles, and are goods being bought mostly for cash, the prices will be found as favorable as those of any house in the trade.

New York, August 16, 1852.—3m

Notice.—Wm. Lynch,

Late of 518 Pearl-Street, New York.

Wishes to inform his friends and old customers, that he will open his Wholesale & Retail Grocery Store, at 223 Greenwich-st., corner of Duane-st., on 22 April, with a new and well selected stock of goods, such as Teas, sugars, molasses, coffees and spices, butter, cheese, lard, flour, beef and pork, &c., which he offers cheap for cash. Families, boarding house keepers, and bakers, are invited to call and examine his goods and his prices, as they can have a very large percentage, call and see for yourselves.—Country merchants purchasing goods for cash, are particularly requested to call and examine his goods and the prices before purchasing elsewhere. N. B.—Goods delivered on board of steamboats, railroads, barges, sloops, and any part of the city, free of charge.

W. M. LYNCH, 223 Greenwich-street, New York

Oils! Oils!

M. RILEY,

MANUFACTURER OF

MACHINE, WOOL, PAINT AND TANNERS' OILS.

Oil Works, Stapleton, Staten Island.

Office, 34 Broadway, (up stairs,) New York.

Liberal commission allowed on all orders through Express Agents. 27 3m

WANTED.

A first-rate American girl, to do general housework in a small family, must understand cooking in all its branches, to such a girl first-rate wages will be given. Apply to STEPHEN VAIL,

Sept. 6 1852. Centre, street Plainfield.

Boots and Shoes.—A. D. GALE.

MANUFACTURER and Wholesale Dealer, invites Country Merchants to call and examine his large stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, sold extremely low for cash or short credit for notes. Call and see

A. D. GALE, 226 Pearl street, corner of Platt.

New York, Aug. 30, 1852.—9m

Æolian Piano Fortes,

T. GILBERT & CO.'S CELEBRATED PIANO FORTES,

with and without the Æolian.

The subscriber, who is sole agent in this city for the sale of these Instruments, (the reputation of which has become world-wide) is now prepared to offer them at prices which will be unrivalled to purchase, cannot fail to be satisfactory. Possessing facilities for obtaining Pianos unsurpassed if equalled by those of any other house in the city, he is also enabled to say that he can present inducements to buyers not to be found elsewhere. He has constantly on hand an extensive assortment of second-hand Pianos, at bargains, which he fearlessly asserts will defy competition. Gilbert's Elegant Boudoir or cottage pianos, suitable for small rooms; also Melodeons of Prince's and Carhart's make, and Grand Æolian and other Pianos to let.

HORACE WATERS, 333 Broadway, corner of Anthony, (up-stairs) N. Y

Sept. 27, 1852.—3m

AN ASSORTMENT OF SUPERB JEWELRY.

THE subscribers have just added to their previous stock of Jewelry, a new lot of the latest and richest patterns extant, comprising a choice and select assortment of Ear Rings, Breast Pins, Finger Rings, &c. with various other kinds of Jewelry too numerous for enumeration.

We would also beg leave to say to our patrons and friends, and every one who would like to get a piece of Jewelry, not only fashionable in style but fine in quality, elegant in design, superb in finish, combining strength, durability and withal neatness and cheapness, an article which its intrinsic excellence cannot fail to give the most perfect satisfaction.

Come, our goods examine, and the truth of the statement

And if not found as represented we'll not ask you to buy.

A. H. & J. W. MILLER, Park Jewelry Store,

Corner Park Row, in the Sign of the Golden Harp, 108

Sept. 20, 1852—3m. Broad-street, Newark

FRENCH LANGUAGE

NEW TESTIMONY TO THE MERITS OF

FASQUELLE'S NEW METHOD

OF LEARNING THE

FRENCH LANGUAGE.

Embracing both the Analytical and Systhetical Modes of Instruction.

In one volume. Price $1 25 retail.

FIFTH EDITION.

Published by

NEWMAN & IVISON, 199 Broadway, New York.

From N. W. Howard, Newcastle, Ky.

I was so convinced of its superiority to all other textbooks on the same subject, that have fallen under my notice, that I immediately caused it to be procured by my class, which is composed of young ladies, whom I am about to commence instructing. The progress they have made in three months has highly gratified themselves, their parents, and their teacher, and I attribute it in a great measure to the systematic and practical, yet simple plan of the work.

From Cyrus Knowlton, Principal of the Hughes High School, Cincinnati.

Fasquelle's grammar satisfies me. It is evidently the work of a thorough teacher as well as thorough scholar

From the New York Day Book.

We never saw a more finished treatise on that polite language.

From the New York Evangelist.

A very philosophical and complete christmathy in this much-desired language.

From the New York Courier & Enquirer.

The book is of great facility the French learner can ever reasonably hope for.

From P. N. Legender, New Haven, Ct.

Never has a work come under my notice that blends so happy and harmoniously the theory and elements of the language. My pupils study it with pleasure.

From Zion's Herald.

It presents the true method of study, and seems to us scarcely capable of improvement.

From the Literary World

Its classifications are minute and painstaking, carefully labelling tee various characters.

From the Mirror.

One of the very best arranged books that we have ever seen.

From the Methodist Quarterly Review.

The work is done every where with conscientious thoroughness.

From the New Haven Palladium.

The book is exceedingly valuable, and will have an immense sale.

From the Detroit Free Press.

It seems to us most decidedly superior to any work of it's kind ever published.

☞ Teachers who wish to examine the work can have a copy sent by mail, postage paid, in flexible cover, by sending Post-office stamps to the amount of 63 cents.

Just published a New Edition of

"TELEMAQUE,"

IN FRENCH,

From the most approved Text; with Notes and Grammatical References.

BY LOUIS FASQUELLE, L. L. D.,

Professor of Modern Language in the University of Michigan.

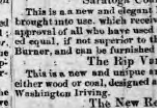
1 vol. 12mo. on fine paper, and neatly bound.

NEWMAN & IVISON,

SCHOOL BOOK PUBLISHERS,

Sept. 20.-3m 199 Broadway, New York.

FALL AND WINTER CAMPAIGN. OPENED.



1852-3.

G. C. PHILLIPS,

No. 2 Commerce st.

NEWARK,

Encouraged by the past and looking with confidence to the future, has laid in one of the most complete assortments as to new and desirable styles of

Parlor, Store and Cooking Stoves,

Ever offered to the Newark public, comprising some entirely new patterns, never before introduced in this city, and which for elegance and utility of design are unsurpassed. He therefore invites purchasers to examine his assortment before purchasing elsewhere, which consists of the

Saratoga Coal Burner,

This is a new and elegant Parlor Stove, but recently brought into use, which received the most enthusiastic approval of all who have used it. It has been pronounced, if not superior to the celebrated Stanley Coal Burner, and can be furnished at about one-half its cost.

The Rip Van Winkle,

This is a new and unique and neat Parlor Stove, for either wood or coal, designed after the celebrated story of Washington Irving.

The New Republic,

This Store has now been in use for more than 18 months, has been subject to the most rigid tests, and received the most unqualified approval of thousands. As a Cooking Stove, for either wood or coal, it has no superior, and is the best baking stove ever offered.

"Vesuvius" Cooking Stove,

This celebrated Stove has been in use by several families in this city for the past two years, certificates from whom can be furnished on application to the subscriber. They all agree in pronouncing it the very best stove in use, for economy in fuel, and the various purposes for which it may be applied. It is so arranged as to conduct the heat to different apartments.

Hays Patent Tabular Range.

This Range is constructed on the most scientific principles, with the idea of performing all its duties with the greatest effect, and possesses merits far surpassing any range ever before offered. One of them may be seen in operation at the subscriber's store.

The elevated Iron Furnaces, Boilers, Cylinder, the Union (Cooking Stove) Parlor Grates, &c. &c., also on hand.

The subscriber also keeps constantly on hand a large supply of Tin and Britannia Ware, Coal Hods, Shovels and Fokers, brass and Iron Kettles, Cooking Utensils, of all kinds, &c. &c.

☞ Stove delivered and put up with care in any part of the city. Thankful for past favors the subscriber requests, and will endeavor to merit a continuance of the same. G. C. PHILLIPS,

Newark Sept. 20 -tf No. 2 Commerce st.

BERRITT'S Double Refined Powdered Asiatic Chemical Yeast Powder in tin boxes.

" Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

BARAIGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received and selling off cheap.

Calicoes, fast colors, for 6 cents per yard

May 8, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

ROSE MEDICINES—A Full assortment for sale by

Aug. 18-tf I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

New Fall and Winter Dry Goods,

HITCHCOCK & HEADBEATER,

No. 347 Broadway, corner of Leonard st. New York,

HAVE RECEIVED THEIR NEW FALL IMPORTATIONS, and are daily

PURCHASING AT AUCTION

every variety of choices and desirable Fall and Winter FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS;

and are prepared to offer their customers a very extensive and rich variety of

PLAIN, CHANGEABLE AND FIGURED SILKS,

of every variety of shade and color. Also, striped plaid and figured Poplins, Mohairs, Lustres, Brilliants, and Satin Silks, including a large assortment of the celebrated BISCHOP'S BLACK SILKS, the handsomest, most durable and unchangeable manufactured.

SHAWLS, LONG AND SQUARE,

of every variety and kind, as Broche, plain and figured Cashmere Woollen, Plaid, Rob Roy, and the

CELEBRATED BAY STATE SHAWLS,

All which they will sell at the very lowest rates.

FRENCH MERINOES and CASHMERES

A large assortment, of every desirable color.

FRENCH MOUSELINE DE LAINES,

and Wheat Grounds, of the most desirable patterns.

PLAID GOODS OF EVERY KIND

A choice and elegant assortment; and in fact,

Every Kind of Ladies' Dress Goods,

suitable for the Fall and Winter season; and a splendid assortment of goods of every kind,

Suitable for Children's Wear.

They would also invite attention to their stock of

Housewife or Family Goods,

as plain Linen and Cotton Goods of every kind,

Table Damasks, Napkins, Towels,

Crash, Diaper, Woolen Damasks,

Flannels, Canton Flannels, Diapers, Towelings,

Lace and Muslin Draperies,

Juan's Celebrated Kid Gloves,

the best article brought to this market, at 6c. a pair

Ribbons—A Splendid Assortment!

which Ladies and Milliners will find worthy their attention

Mourning Goods of Every Kind,

including Black Bombazines, Alpaces, Canton Cloths, Canton Crapes, Challies, Bareges, Delaines, plain and figured, and everything, in fact, requisite for a

Ladies' Mourning Wardrobe,

Wide Velvets, French Cloths,

and every kind of goods for Ladies' Cloaks.

Gentlemen's Furnishing

of every, kind, as Fur, Silk, Merino and Cotton Under-Shirts, and Drawers, Scarfs, Cravats, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, &c., full 30 per cent. less than at the gentle men's Furnishing Stores

Terms—Cash! Cash on Delivery!

Merchants from abroad will be able to select many articles from our stock which will enable them to "sort up" their stock to advantage.

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES FACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 10 cents a piece, during the time the Fair is concluded. Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to $4 per piece. A Room papered complete.

J. F. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers

Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852.

Bigelow's Alterative,

A CERTAIN CURE FOR DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA, CHOLERA MORBUS, AND ALL SUMMER COMPLAINTS.

GEORGE W. BLEECKER, Proprietor, 98 Broadway, New York.

Price 50 cents per bottle.

TESTIMONIALS

I have used "Bigelow's Alterative" in my family, and have never found it to fail, when all other remedies administered by various physicians in this city have proved ineffectual. I think it a perfect corrective for Dysenteric and all Bowel complaints.

J. C. BEEBEE, 47 Wall-street,

New-York, March 22d, 1852.

We can add our testimony to that of others of its great efficacy in our own case, when prostrated to an alarming degree with Dysentery, and finally medicine that gave relief, and one now always kept in the family.

EDITOR OF N. Y. BAPTIST REGISTER.

Utica, April 3d, 1852.

Dear Sir.—I rejoice to hear that you are about to introduce to the public your valuable medicine, which has been of much benefit to my family. About a year since, my little girl, about three years of age, was in a very low state with the Dysentery. Such was the state of the bowels that scarcely anything but blood passed them I mentioned her state to you as a neighbor, not thinking that you possessed a sovereign remedy for it.

We gave but two spoonfuls, when the mother declared she was as well as ever, is now in good health, and has not had an attack since. Her sister, about two years of age, was taken last week with a similar complaint, when about 2 tea-spoonfuls restored her to perfect health. Still another case, my wife's mother, more than forty years of age, was much afflicted with bowel complaint, his countenance became sallow, with loss of appetite, etc., when but a few teaspoonfuls of your valuable medicine, under God, has regulated his system.

With many obligations, I am dear sir,

Yours truly, ELIJAH PRATT.

HIRAM G. SMITH, 80 First-street.

☞ M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

Aug. 28, 1852—3m

Prepared or Artificial GUANO.

At 1 cent per pound, or $20 per ton of 2000 lbs.

AT a meeting of the Farmer's Club, American Institute, held in this City, on the 3d December, 1851, the following communication was made,

I present a specimen of Turnips raised upon my place last season, which was (on account of the dry weather) so unfavorable for the growth of Turnips. The specimen is not the largest grown, although this weighed when first pulled, 4 3-4 lbs. I used in the Spring of 1850, about three tons of Peruvian Guano, on Potatoes, Corn and Turnips. Sweet Corn, which produced a large crop. I then cropped with potatoes, which was also a good crop. After which I sowed the Turnip seed, without any further Manuring, then the three barrels above mentioned, and the result was far beyond my expectations.

Fairfield Co. Dec. 12, 1851. SJ WHITING.

Westchester Co. N. Y., Sept. 29, 1850.

I have used "Kentish's Prepared Guano" this season on potatoes. The crop was large and sound. Where I did not use it, the roots were rotten and worthless. My neighbors also who have not used this Fertilizer, have not raised a saleable potato this year. I consider it a preventive of the rot. J. PERLY.

Extract of a Letter from R B. Addison.

Alexandria co. Va. April 23, 1851.

Dr. John H. Boyne, President of Prince George's Co. Agricultural Society Maryland, has desired me to inform you that last spring he used African Guano, Poudrette, Peruvian Guano, and your prepared Guano, on the same description of land, and that the African, Peruvian and yours, was about equal. He pronounces your prepared Guano to be a very excellent article, and esteems it highly. MANUFACTURED ONLY BY

KENTISH'S

DEPOT, No. 40 PECK SLIP, NEW YORK.

For Sale at this Office. July 19.—3m.

A Great Reduction in Prices, at

THOMAS H. DAVIS'S

Furnishing Store,

The Largest Stock in the City,

226 Barnet-St. New Brunswick & 159 Broad St. Newark.

IT will be well worth the notice of city and country purchasers, to examine any kind of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, Crockery, Glass, China, Cutlery, Britannia ware, looking Glasses, Bureaus, Bedsteads, Bostan Rockers, Tables Oil Cloths, Feathers, Heather Beds, Mattresses, &c. in fact all things that are needed to housekeeping, which to enumerate would fill a newspaper. Though one thing I must mention—BOOTS and SHOES, Men's, women and misses, all can be bought at such low prices that every body is astonished, both in town and country now it can it can be done. Why, I can see how he does it, he attends to his business himself, buys for cash and sells the same, thereby he does not impose upon those that pay for those that never mean to pay. This is the true principle of doing business. Give him a call, 226 Barnet street, over Stryker's Eating Saloon.

July 19—3m. THOMAS H. DAVIS.

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment,

AT less than New York prices, for sale by

July 12, 1852. WM. S. WOOD.

THEODORE R. LAFOY,

No. 314 Broad Street, NEWARK,

SIGN OF THE

GOLDEN EAGLE,

IMPORTER AND DEALER IN

Watches, Jewelry, Silver-Plated and Britannia WARE, CUTLERY AND NANCY GOODS.

Also, Piano Fortes, Music, and Musical Instruments.

☞ Watches repaired superior to any other establishment in New Jersey. 18

To Salt Dealers, and Others!

SAMUEL ROTALING, No. 101 & 103 Broad street, New York, would inform his customers in the city and country that he has Liverpool Sacks of Fine and Ground Salt; also Turks Island, St. Martin's and other Coarse Salt in store, at the following places; at Commercial Stores, Brooklyn, at Baxter & Lawrence's Stores, foot of Delancy street, at 118 Warren street, and also at his Salt Yard, corner of 103 and 105, Broad street, New York. At each of the above named places a supply of salt will be kept on hand, and delivered in lots to suit purchasers, at the lowest Market prices. Liverpool Sacks and Turks Island Salt afloat.

New York, July 26, 1852.—3m

Assignment Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that Lewis Runyon of the township of Plainfield, of the county of Essex and State of New Jersey, hath this day made an assignment to the subscribers, for the benefit of the equal benefit of his creditors, and that the said creditors must exhibit their respective claims under oath or affirmation within the term of six months.

A. BERRY,

Dated, August 30, 1852. Assignee.

IRA PRUDEN,

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning-Fluid, &c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual.

June 14, 1852.

J. A. WOODLAND,

HOUSE, SIGN AND DECORATIVE PAINTER,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

☞ The above is prepared to execute all orders in his line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Paper-Hanging Department, with punctuality, neatness and despatch, and at prices considerably less than those usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cher-y.

March 28, 1852.

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE Subscriber invites the attention of the people to his Large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Glass, and Stone Ware, also Boots and Shoes, &c. My stock has been selected with great care, and an eye to cheapness, as well as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints,	Ginghams,	Cassimers,
Berege de Lane,	Gloves,	Summerstuffs,
Linens,	Hosiery,	Parasols, &c.

And all styles of goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear, Muslins bleached and unbleached, colored mandrils, shirtings, stockings, buttons, thread, cotton bats, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas,	Rice,	Sugars,	Candles, Flour
Coffee,	Corn Starch,	Soap,	Indian Meal

PROVISIONS,—Butter, Lard, Cheese, Smoked Beef, Pepper, Spices, Cheese, Hams, Pork, &c.

Pepper sauce, Honey, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which will be sold as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all to call and see for yourselves, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to call the second time.

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!

The subscriber has also on hand a good assortment of Black and changeable silks, which will be sold cheap.

May 4, 1852. J. V. ARROWSMITH.

HORACE SEAN,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN LACE GOODS

254 Broad Street, Newark.

Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Tabs, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Embroidery Muslin, Gloves and Hosiery, Millinery Articles, Combs, Brushes, Oils, Perfumery &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the newest fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Gent's, Ladies and Children's fancy dress Shoes and Gaiters.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of I. S. Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with silver ware of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Cash in place kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and Wood taken in exchange for Clocks.

Plainfield, April 13, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

JOTHAM B. FRAZEE,

SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER.

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Duan & Co's Store, where he will be happy to do his patrons, and all others, them a good assortment of goods in his line. He also

Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive all and ready to execute all orders in the branches of the above business, at well, as quick and as cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge for yourselves. May 17, 1852.—tf

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John B. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite French's Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 6, 1852.—3m.

CARHART & NEEDHAM,

Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

With 8 cent Important Improvements.

Price from $60 to $200.

No. 75 East Thirteenth Street,

J. Carhart, } NEW YORK
E. P. Needham. }

N. B. ☞ Reeds constantly on hand. ☜

Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. If not attended to soon, they will be passed over for collection. As I don't wish to put expense on any one, I give this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, April 9, 1852.

Machinery Oil,

75 CTS. a gallon, better than Sword Oil, at a quarter of the price. For Sale by

June 19th, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by

May 4, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

LIVER COMPLAINT,

JAUNDICE, DYSPEPSIA, CHRONIC OR NERVOUS Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and Disorders arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, Deficiency of perspiration, Yellowness of the skin and eyes, Pain in the side, back, limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of evil, and Great depression of spirits, can be effectually cured by

DR. HOOFLAND'S
CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,
PREPARED BY
DR. C. M. JACKSON,
At the German Medicine Store, 120 Arch St. Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled—if equalled—by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lower glands, exercising the most searching power in the weakness and infirmities of digestive organs, they are withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVIACED.
From the "Boston Dee."

The editor says, Dec. 22nd—

Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an immediate permanent benefit in the Liver Complaint by the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in the use of these Bitters the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances.—We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise its use.

"SCOTT'S WEEKLY," one of the best Literary papers published, said Aug. 20—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. In such it is the case we would advise all sufferers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous. If you are languid, without energy, have no appetite, and feel depressed by the heat, we advise the use of these Bitters. They have upon weak systems."

MORE EVIDENCE
The Hon. C. D. Hess ins, Mayor of the City Camden, N. J., says—

"HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they emanate leads us to believe that such praise is merited. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs. Its tonic and invigorating influence is exerted upon nervous prostration in surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

"If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness. As from the stomach, liver and nervous system the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition and you can bid defiance to disease generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a trial—it will recommend itself. Certificates can be given privately. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit."

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor, is that there is more of it used with the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other bitters combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented on its merits.

That this Hoofland will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is therefore to be relied on in all cases where a tonic and stimulant is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and reliable benefit at any time.

Look well to the wording of the genuine

They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.

For sale wholesale and Retail at the
GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
No. 120 Arch street, one door below Sixth, Philadelphia; and by respectable dealers generally through the country.

Prices Reduced.

To enable all classes of invalids to enjoy the advantage of their great restorative powers.

Price Only Bottle 75 cents.

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.
Sept. 20, 1852.—1y

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by C. Mosher, on Front street, would be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign, and Ornamental Painting!

Also PAPER-HANGING, all of which will be promptly, punctually and honestly executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned hereby returns thanks to his customers for their liberal patronage the past year, and will endeavor by faithfulness to merit and secure a continuance of their favors.

☞ Orders may be left at the Union Office.
April 1, 1852.—1y CHARLES TAYLOR

"Every family should have a Copy."

An household book, and Every-Man-Knows Treatise.

DR. HUNTER'S MEDICAL MANUAL AND HAND BOOK FOR THE AFFLICTED. Containing an outline of the Causes, Symptoms, Treatment and Cure of every form of disease, contracted by Promiscuous Sexual Intercourse, by Self-Abuse, or by Excess, with advice to the Married or Single, in a familiar style, avoiding all medical technicalities, and everything that would offend the ear of decency, from the result of some twenty years successful practice, exclusively devoted to the cure of the Secret and Delicate Diseases of mankind.

To which is added, receipts for the cure of the above diseases, and a treatise on the causes, symptoms and cure of the Fever and Ague, and other forms of malaria; by sixmail, or forwarded to any part of the United States, by mail, free of postage. Address, postage paid, to DR. WM. HUNTER, or the Author, 38 North Seventh Street, Philadelphia.

FIFTY DOLLARS FORFEIT. DR. HUNTER will forfeit $50 if he failing to cure any case of secret disease, that may come under his care, no matter how long standing, or afflicting. Either of the above can be had at his Private Store, 38 North Seventh Street, Philad'a, without fear of interruption from other patients. Strangers will find it to their advantage to call on the proprietor in the selection of a Physician are invited to call

IMPOTENCY—Through unrestrained indulgence of the passions or the excessive use of mercury, the evils are numerous. Premature impotency, involuntary seminal discharges, wasting of the organs, loss of memory, a disinclination to society, general debility, or constitutional decay generally, are the results. If necessary, consult the Doctor with confidence; he offers a perfect cure.

READ AND REFLECT.—The afflicted would do well to reflect before trusting their health, happiness and in many cases their lives, in the hands of physicians ignorant of this class of maladies. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the human family is subject to. Every respectable physician has his peculiar branch, in which he is more successful than his brother professors, and it shall be devoted most of time and study.

YEARS OF PRACTICE, exclusively devoted to the study and treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, together with ulcers upon the body, throat, nose or legs, pains in the head, or bones, mercurial rheumatism, strictures, gravel, irregularities, diseases, or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, enables the Doctor to offer speedy relief to all who may place themselves under his care.

Medicines forwarded to any part of the United States. Price five and ten dollars per package.
Sept. 27, 1852.—1y

1852. SPRING GOODS. 1852.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S

WE would say to our friends and customers generally that in addition to our present stock, we have received and are still receiving new styles adapted to the Spring Trade.

We shall not praise our Goods with a view of trying to make the people believe there is to what they are not, but intend that they shall speak for themselves. DeLaines from 10cts to 4s.; handsome Borage DeLaines new styles from 10d to 2s.; plain and watered Poplin Silks from 2s. to 5s. per yard; Silks at any variety from 4 to 12 1-2 cts.; good lot of Ladies' Gloves from 10 cts to 75; also Gents Gloves, Bleached and Brown Muslins very cheap, Ginghams from 10 cts to 25, and more than a thousand other articles that we have not room here to mention.

We would also call attention to our assortment of Cloth, plain and fancy Cassimeres, a fine and extensive assortment of Vestings any or all of which can be cut and made to order at short notice and good fits warranted. Also all kinds of Gents furnishing goods and every cheap, in fact all kinds of Dry Goods from the Finest to the Coarsest

To the best and finest.

And we flatter ourselves that we can make it as object to Cash purchasers from this to any other house than the same Goods generally can be found elsewhere, as we are entirely in the Dry Goods trade and devote ourselves exclusively to that branch of business.

SILK HATS! SILKS!!!

Just received, a splendid assortment of Black, Changeable and Figured Silks, also Gentlemen Plaids new Spring Styles to which the attention of Gentlemen is particularly requested, at ROCAP & SHEPPARD'S
May 3d, 1852. Cheap Dry Goods Store.

Dodd & Benton,
352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers
HATS & CAPS, at Wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's Boys' and Youths' Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, all of which are made at our own manufactory in this city and are of the best fashionable character. Purchasers will always select or order can rely upon being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as favorably as at any establishment in the country.

352 Broad street, Newark.
May 3d, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

BRICK & STONE YARD.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish

BRICK AND STONE MOUNUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Fronts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. Have also a beautiful red Stone Hearth, from which I will furnish to order every variety of stone for building purposes, at the lowest rates. All orders will be attended to with the utmost neatness and dispatch and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.
Aug. 12, 1851.—1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,
Manufacture every description of
RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUS,
Hay, Floor and Portable Platform,
Bank, Gold and Counter
Scales, Patent Balances, &c.
Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by this Company is warranted not to change in use.
Jobbing get out of order.
Manufactory 39 Greene street, New York.
Also For Sale at 238 Pearl street.
Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.
Repairing done at short notice.
E. B. DEPUY, } AGENTS. EDMUND V.
Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

HOWE'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

IN MAN:
Rheumatism,	Sprains,	Weakness in the
Burns, Bruises,	Cuts, Sores,	Back, Breast,
Sore Throat,	Frosted Feet,	Limb & Joint.
IN BEAST:
Bruises, Sprains,	Ringbone,	Poll Evil, and all
Warbles, Splints,	Spavin, Fistula,	diseases of Horses,
Curb, Scratches,	Strengthens	where an Invocation
Wingall.	Saddle Galls,	can be used.

Prepared only by
HENRY K. HOWE, CHEMIST,
No 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,
(Nearly opposite Old City Hotel.)
☞ CERTIFICATES.

We, the undersigned, have used How s Improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy in our own families.

Joseph Dejean, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barney McCherry, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel R. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummins, Wm. F. Paine, Princeton. Joseph Hammitt, John A. Weart, Trenton. A. W. Brown, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

For Sale in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. EMLEY CRANE, in Somerville by Culver Bro's. Jr. in New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 cts. and 50 cents a bottle.
Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

DOCTOR AND MRS. DRAKE PHYSICIANS,

NO. 196 WEST FIFTEENTH STREET, NEW YORK,
Sandin law, daughter and successor to the late

Mrs. R. S. M. C. T.
THE CELEBRATED
FEMALE PHYSICIAN

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES of the Lungs, Bronchia, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and all other viscera; all Nervous and Chronic complaints, particularly those arising from or attendant upon debility, Scrofulous, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous disorders, Female Weakness, &c., &c., has been for some time so extended unnecessary to commend them it, further than to say, that they have repeatedly performed permanent cures in cases which had resisted their having been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those who from a trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will receive the same kind attention. Medicines by letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. jan6 1y

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, Elizabethtown, a short distance from the depot, would invite his former friends and all who may want of a good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call. His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the line of Ready Made Clothing, and warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other retail dealer in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay.
April 20, 1852 JOHN ENGEL.

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant, do. Sanative Pills Also,
Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops. These drops are an agreeable, effectual remedy for Diarrhœa. Dysentery, Cholic, Cholic, Cramps, pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Atwood's Spinal Elixir for the spine disease. Also. Hunts Liniment, for sore throat, Sore Eyes, &c. DeFay's Anti-Dyspepsia Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by April 20, 1852. JAMES V. DUNN.

$500 CHALLENGE!

WHATEVER concerns the health and happiness of a people is at all times of valuable importance. It talks it for granted that every person willdo all in their power to save the lives of their children, and that every person will endeavor to promote their own health at all sacrifices. I feel it to be my duty to solemnly assure you that WORMS, according to the opinion of the most celebrated Physicians, are the primary causes of a large majority of diseases to which children and adults are subject. There is no positive confidence to be placed from one kind of food to another, Bad Breath, Pain of the Stomach, Itching at the Nose, Hardness and Pulsation of the Belly, Dry Cough, Slow Fever, Weak Nerves—remember all these denote WORMS, and you should at once apply the remedy :—

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

An article founded upon Scientific Principles, compounded entirely of vegetable substances, perfectly safe when taken, and can be given to the most tender infant with decided beneficial effect, where Bile Complaints and Diarrhœa have not taken place. Worm Complaints and Diarrhœa have not taken place. Worm debilitated the digestive properties of my Worm Syrup are such, that it stands without an equal in the catalogue of medicines, infusing tone and strength to the Stomach which stands as an infallible remedy for all afflicted with Dyspepsia, the astonishing cures performed by this Syrup after Physicians have failed, is the best evidence of its superior efficacy over all others.

THE TAPE WORM!

This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of all that infest the human system, it grows to an almost Indefinite length becoming so coiled and fastened in the Intestines, that destroying the head, is the only way to cause it, Vitus Dance, Fits, &c., that these afflicted seldom if ever suspect that it is Tape Worm hastening them to an early grave. In order to destroy this Worm there is an especial treatment must be pursued, it would therefore be proper to take 6 to 8 of my Liver Pills so as to remove all obstructions, then take one dose of Worm Syrup, which must be taken in doses of 2 Tablespoonfuls 3 times a day, these directions followed have never been known to fail in curing the most obstinate case of Tape Worm.

HOBENSACK'S LIVER PILLS.

No part of the system is more liable to disease than the LIVER, it serving as a Strainer to purify the blood, or giving the proper properties to the blood, that goes through it, and the Liver effect the other important parts of the system, and results various sly, in Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. We should, therefore, call your attention that such diseases of the Liver as above mentioned, can be cured by the timely using of these Pills being composed of ROOTS & PLANTS furnished by nature to heal the sick: Namely, in EXPECTORANTS, for all diseases of the Respiration, from the Pulmonary mucus membrane or promotes the discharge of secreted matter. 2d. An Alterative which changes in some inexplicable and mysterious manner the certain morbid action of the system. 3rd. A TONIC, which gives tone and strength to the nervous system, renewing health and vigor to all parts of the body. A CATHARTIC, which acts in perfect harmony with the other ingredients, and operating on the Bowels, and expelling the whole mass of corrupt and vitiated matter, and purifying the Blood, which destroys disease and restores health.

TO FEMALES.

You will find these Pills an invaluable medication in many complaints to which you are subject. In obstructions or irregularities, partial, they have a mild effect estimable benefit restoring their functional arrangement to a healthy action, purifying the blood and other fluids so effectually to put to flight all complaints, that arise from female irregularities, as headache, giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in the side back, &c.

None genuine unless signed J N. Hobensack, all others beware of counterfeits.

☞ Agents wishing new supplies, and Store Keepers desirous of becoming Agents must address the Proprietor, J. S. Hobensack, Philadelphia.

For sale in Plainfield,
Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. CUSHING,
And at Retail by ELIAS KIRKPATRICK
C. Drake Scotch Plains, Charles Foster, Westfield.
August 26, 1852.—1m;

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,
I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all,
Goods cheaper now than ever do,
To suit the mind, to please the eye.
We paid the cash to buy them cheap,
We'll sell them cheap to sell a heap.
Ginghams and Muslins, Combs and Cords,
The newest styles New York affords;
Debaines and Guiters, Calicoes too,
Colors of which we'll warrant not to run,
Cloths and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,
And all the goods which men do use;
Together with a good supply
Of groceries good which will defy
A class of men who live with us,
And twice a year make quite a fuss,
To get the Cash with their notes
Of stores at home they are afraid.
We'll sell to these and all the rest,
For fair and honest what suits them best
With Brunswick prices we'll compete,
And she shall tremble in the heel:
So come and see, come short, come tall
I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.
Plainfield, May 18, 1850

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the new tax law, by coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the clothing store of I. S. DUNHAM & Co., where goods will at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere. They also keep all unnecessary expenses, and also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and prices which may be made up to order at short notice, and fit in the latest style, or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of tailor's trimmings at a low price—also constantly for sale, Shirts, Drawers, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything conducive to a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Friends will you favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere, we promise for you a

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.
Plainfield, Dec. 1.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber, has opened a new Store in Jacob Craig's office, and is selling in Cherry, Hall's old stand, a new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns Delaines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds, Lace Goods, Ribbons, Summer Goods, Colenades, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, Fresh Crushed and Pulverized Coffee and Spices, Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Hollow and Wooden Ware,

Tubs, Baskets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, wisks and brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.
LIME, Hard and Soft and Glens Falls.
☞ All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods.
April 20, 1852.—1y. JAMES M. DUNN.

BUILDING LOTS

On Sale.—by the subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, 8 rods in front, from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on 2d, 3d, 4th, Main, Liberty and William sts; also good Building Lots with a Dwelling House thereon, especially for the accommodation of two families, and is a healthy location, very nigh the centre of the business part of the town, on the corner of Exchange and Second sts. a very short distance from Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store.
Jan. 19 1852 —tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curved Maple Sprane and Round Post; Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, and Children's Chairs: A Large and Extensive Stock, Hobby Horses, Towel do's, Drums, &c.

March 22, 1852. For Sale by D. BULLMAN

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at Reduced prices, now selling off at I. S. DUNHAM & CO.'s.

COVER'S Black Ink.

THE Best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS.

DANIEL BULLMAN,

Is prepared to offer to the public a first rate assortment,

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Spring Patterns; Domestics of every grade and price; Silks, Cassimeres, Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Hosiery, Gloves, and all other articles in the Dry Goods line, necessary to make as varied, full and complete an assortment as can be found in these parts, and they will be sold as cheap too. Call and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing these articles, will find my store just the place I buy good articles, and sell them as cheap as any man can. Our customers can find no difficulty being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY,

Some very beautiful, and some very cheap; a large and varied assortment, to suit all tastes, constantly on hand. Also, Lamps, in great variety.

Cheap Cash Goods, Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell the same goods as cheap, and save you freight, breakage and trouble of going after it.

Also, Looking-Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of all styles and qualities, and very low.

VARIETIES AND FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britania Ware, give me a call and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it, very likely. A portion of the public patronage is respectfully solicited.
D. BULLMAN.
April 26, 1852.

1852. CHEAPER YET! 1852.

At Oliver Runyon's Cheap Dry Goods and GROCERY STORE.

Gentlemen and Ladies please call and examine my stock of Goods for yourselves. I would say to my friends and customers that my stock is constantly changing, as I replace with new goods adapted to suit the different seasons of trade.

Prints and Berage DeLaines from 3s. to 5s. per yard. Lawn from 9c to 22c. Black Alpaces from 2s to 7s. 9d Prints any variety from 4c to 1s. French Calico from 10c to 25c. Bleached Muslin Barege from 25 to 50c. Bleached muslin from 4c to 1s.6d. Cambric, Jaconet, Book and Swiss muslin, plain and figured. Bishop Lawn 5s to 4s. Black and colored gloves for gents and ladies from 10 to 75c. Gents Cotton Socks 5c to 25c. Ladies and gents scarfs, Summer Goods of every style and quality, Cloth, Cassimers, Doeskins, Satinets, cords, jeans, muslin, linen, and flannel shirting, Hosiery of all kinds, also a good assortment of Leghorn and Straw Hats from 3s. to 7s. each.

GROCERIES

A good article of Green and Black Tea from 4s. to 8s. per lb. Molasses 2s to 3s. Brown sugar 5c. 6d. to 6c.6d. Coffee crushed 4s.6d. to 5s. Crushed and pounded Sugars, 5c.6d to 6c. Coffee, Rice, Vinegar, hominy and everything in the Grocery line.

CROCKERY and GLASS WARE, a Good Assortment constantly on hand. Please call and examine for yourselves. Also,

PROVISIONS.—Salt Pork, Shoulders, Hams, Dried beef, lard, butter, cheese, fish by half barrels, fine salt by the sack, coarse salt, &c.

BOOTS AND SHOES, for men and boys, Ladies' gaiters, buskins, slippers, morocco, patent leather and cloth Buskins, at low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Linseed oil, boiled oil, lamp oils, Furniture and coach varn ish, Japan, Varnish, Venitian red, chrome yellow, red lead, Paris green, lamp black, litharge, brown Japan, fire-proof Paint, putty, glass, &c. &c.

FLOUR, fine and coarse, Meal, ground feed, wheat bran, and grain of every description.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village.

N. B. All kinds of produce, rags, and in fact every thing you can eat, drink or wear, taken in exchange for goods. OLIVER RUNYON.
Plainfield, July 26, 1852

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

ELAZEE MARSH returns thanks to his numerous patrons for their liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many friends he has enlarged his stock of Paints and Oils, and removed to the Store on Front Market. The business will be continued at the old stand, opposite the Second Presbyterian Church, where will be kept constantly on hand Boiled Oils, Turpentine, Varnishes, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., as cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to House, Sign and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

☞ SATISFACTORY QUALITY IN ALL CASES.

Mixed Paint constantly on hand. Advice gratis.
Jan. 5, 1852. F. MARSH & SON.

PIANO FORTES.

PERSONS about purchasing Pianos will find it to their advantage to call at R. GLENN & Co's Manufactory, 194 Fulton street, (west of Broadway,) where a General Assortment of Mahogany and Rosewood Pianos constantly on hand, which will be sold low for cash or approved paper. Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

R. GLENN & CO., 194 FULTON ST. NEAR BROADWAY,
Oct. 7, 1851.—1y NEW YORK.

PAINTS, &c.

AMERICAN PATENT ATOMIC DRIER, Grinding COLORS—and Fine Carriage Paste, Gold Size, Japan Drier, Stove Polish, and Black Varnish for Iron Work.

QUARTERMAN & SON,
Painters & Chemists,
114 John Street, New York.
March 9, 1852.—1y.

LOTS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, &c. in fact any thing we can eat, or do anything with, taken in exchange for goods. I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

HEAD!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by
DR. KINKELIN,
N. W. corner of Old and Union Sts. between Second and Third streets, Philadelphia,

15 Years of uninterrupted and successful practice upon in that city have rendered Dr. K. the most expert and successful practitioner far and near in the treatment of Diseases of a Private Nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, tumor at legs, on the head or bones, mercurial rheumatism, strictures, diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, Dr. K.'s Medical Institution has become established are all treated with success.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K. may be assured that his case will be treated with skill, confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil associates, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and destroy both mind and body, should apply immediately. Weakness arising constitutional debility, loss of muscular energy, physical debility, nervousness, trembling of the hands, dizziness, nervous affections, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, and every disease connected in any way with the disorders of the private organs, should call upon the Doctor.

HEAD! YOUTH AND MANHOOD.

A Vigorous Life, or a Premature Death.
Kinkelin on Self Preservation Only 25 Cent.

This Book is filled with useful information on the infirmities and diseases of the Generative Organs. It addresses itself to the Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by all. The valuable advice and impressive warning it gives will prevent years of misery and suffering and save annually thousands of lives. Parents by reading it will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

A remittance of 25 cents, enclosed in a letter addressed to Dr. Kinkelin, N. W. corner of Old and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will secure a book, under envelope, per return of mail. Persons at a distance may address Dr. K. by letter, post-paid, and be cured at home. Medicines carefully packed, and forwarded by sending a remittance, and put up secure from damage or curiosity.

☞ Beware of travelling sellers. New Agents, Pedlars, canvassers, and all others supplied with the above Medicines at very low rates.
Sept. 2, 1852.—1y

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing astonishing healing properties, which is adapted to a large class of diseases, in its ability to arrest pain, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Coughs and Colds, we doubt if there can be found a better good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Rheumatism, Head, Ear and Tooth Ache, Chilblains, Worms, Ague and Fever; as a Child's medicine it cannot be recommended too strongly. No one can appreciate the worth of this excellent medicine, till they have used the same. We have used it with great success, and can cheerfully recommend it to those that are or may be afflicted. It is a safe and harmless remedy. It is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge, Brooklyn, John Comstock Bridge
" H. T. Hopkins, Newark, John Nicholas Bergman
" Prof. Whiting, Woodbridge, Stembost "Warren,
Hon. G. L. Martence, Dr. Flynn, Lawrence Mann, Rickl nd S. Sprague, Ex-Mayor, " Wendell Hodges, Branch
Alderman S. L. Husted, " David B. Salters, Bergen,
H.C. Conkling, Ex-P.M., " Aaron Kingsland, Br klyn,
J. Duplan, ferry master, " Addison Hyatt, New York,
David Travis, Somerstown, Jesse Merchant, "
A. Wise, Bullshead hotel, Justice B. Hiscox, "
Peter Blauvelt, 7's Ferry, E. Packer, "
Joseph Chellick, Esq. Manhattan, Dr. Veldran, "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above certificate. Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.

ISAAC PLANTEN,
Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 194 Walker Street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING.
Jan. 2, 1852.

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Tetter Corrector,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-dyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Cathar. Pills
Pills,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific
Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil,

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Sore Throat, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Mal-Formation, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, Piles, &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

DR. FITCH'S Improved Plated Steel Spring Shoulder Brace.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to an old age.

This Book should be in every family. To the consumptive it points out the only REASONABLE hope for relief. To others it points out the only means for the cure and reduction of children are unable to. 75 cts each. This book can be sent through the mail, and will be forwarded to any part of the country on receipt of the price.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING, 194 Broadway, New York, and by all Chemists and Agents throughout the United States.
Aug. 9, 1852.—6m

Dr. Fitch's medicines for disorders pertaining to his Remedies, to be had gratis at the agents.

DR. DE LANEY'S CELEBRATED
Curative Instrument,

The only infallible cure for that dreadful disease known as SPERMATORRHŒA or Involuntary Nocturnal Emissions,

So harassing and destructive, and productive of so much mischief in the constitution, incapacitating the man for business, society, and matrimony.

This Instrument is simple, comprehensive, and never-failing, and may be used without the slightest inconvenience in the presence of the most modest female. It is to be used externally, producing no pain or injury whatever, nor preventing any one from attending to his business. It is the most safe, speedy and certain in its place, invigorating the organs, in a short time, to such an extent that they retain perfect power over the same, thus restoring the system entirely, caused by early abuse, or the diseases in question, and the cause of the thousand concomitant complaint viz.: Nervousness, Prostration, Dyspepsia, Pain in the Head and Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back and Kidneys, Retraction and Relaxation of the Eyes, Impotence, Pimples of the Face Premature Decline of Virility, Weakness of Memory and Confusion of Ideas, Aversion to Society, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, &c. All these complaints invariably disappear as soon as the source is stopped from which they emanated.

This Instrument has been examined and approved of by the highest authorities in Europe and America, is recommended by the most prominent Physicians of all countries, as the only certain remedy extended to those complaints and has now completely superseded the use of drugs, the tonic, cauterization, &c., not to mention the useless and advertised nostrums of the day, as cordials, anodynes, &c. &c. It combines at the same time the safest, the most pleasant and by far the speediest treatment ever offered to the afflicted, a fair price being allowed for the Instrument after the desired effect has been obtained.

Be it also remembered, that those complaints are but little understood by the profession in general, and that all the Instruments in use and known to the world will stop these losses, which if allowed to continue unchecked, are sure to produce the most distressing consequences.

It has been a matter of surprise to some, that any one of respectability and of professional attainments should devote his attention to diseases which people of every description, profess to be ashamed of, when in reality, one thousandth part of the miseries these people bring upon society were known, a very different opinion would be formed. But it is not only the present misery and delicacy in preying on the mind, as well as the body, that is deplored, but some are of such a nature as to affect posterity, and even to destroy the reproductive faculty, altogether. It is to these, as well as the many afflicted, they may remain as dormant in the constitution or to appear in no other way than in their effects upon posterity; yet, if properly understood, are most easily and speedily removed. The above, so highly approved of instrument, will doubtless, in a great measure, postpone it shock the cries of quackery, so prevalent in this class of diseases, throughout the United States.

The price of the complete instrument, carefully secured against all observation in a box, is only $10. It can be sent, by express, to any address in any part of the United States, Canada, or the West Indies, with accompanied by full directions, and important advice to the married and single, the expense, even to the remotest parts of the country, being very trifling.

Dr. De Laney has spent many years in perfecting his instrument before its introduction in America, has induced some unprincipled persons in New York, Philadelphia, Albany, Boston, &c., to attempt the manufacture of similar instruments," which, however, bear not the slightest resemblance, neither in form nor principle to my own invented, long tried, and universally approved Instrument, and would advise the afflicted to be on their guard. Every attempt to sell such Instruments for mine will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law, I being out with the above, and the universally earned reputation of my inventions with quacks and their worthless productions. No Instrument is genuine and none can be warranted but those ordered from myself. All applications and communications must be directed (post paid) to the Doctor himself, he having no Agencies established but in London and Paris.

Dr. De Laney's Office and Depot, 2 Spencer St., New York. Office hours, daily, from 9 A. M. to 3 P.M. and from 7 to 8, P. M. the Sabbath excepted.

 The undersigned certify, with great pleasure, that the above-mentioned instrument is not only constructed upon the most scientific principles, but that its agent results may always, with confidence, be anticipated, there being for the cure of those diseases, NO OTHER CERTAIN AND SPEEDY REMEDY.

H. NEY S. KELLER, M. D.
CH. GOETZE, M. D. 96 Chambers street,
C. ECKHARDT, M. D. 24 Howard St. NEW YORK

D. De Laney is prepared to execute all orders, of any special appearance, Artificial Arms and Legs, while a move like natural members; Apparatus for Lactation; for contracted Legs; for curvature of the Spine and Waist; for False Joints of the Arms and Knees; for Amputate Legs for Chest Voice; for Deformities; for falling of the Rectum; Hypogastric Belts; Beds and Chairs for Sick Persons; Crutches, Trusses, Orthopedic Corsets, &c. &c. All letters must be post paid, containing a prepaid remittance or city reference.
July 19, 6m

Blanks for sale at this Office.

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 42. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, October 19, 1852. Whole Number 822.

BY MILTON P. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

WILLIAM HOVEY'S PATENT

Spiral Straw Cutter, 1844, improved, 1852.

These Celebrated Machines will be kept constantly for Sale by RALPH & Co. at their

AGRICULTURAL WAREHOUSE,

No. 23 Fulton street.

They are the sole agents for the City of New York, and will sell these machines at the following reduced prices at retail, and will make a liberal discount to dealers in or out of the city, who purchase to sell again:

No. 0, 4 knives, length of knife 5 1-4 inches, cut 1-4 inch, $6.00 With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $6.50
No. 1, 4 knives, length 6 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $7.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $7.50
No. 2, 4 knives, length 6 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $8.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $8.50.
No. 3, 4 knives, length 7 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $10 00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 10,50.
No. 4, 4 knives, length 8 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $12.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 12,50.
No. 5, 4 knives, length 9 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $15.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 16,50.
No. 6, 4 knives, length 10 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $16.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 20,00.

Nos. 5 and 6 can be used by power.

Examine closely this list and compare the length of the knives with the list prices of other Cylinder Cutters, without regard to the number of knives on the machines, and you will find that these Cutters are less in price than any other Cylinder Cutters in the market. Look well at this; as No's are deceptive when used to compare and select machines.

WM. HOVEY & LASELL.

RALPH & Co., No. 23 Fulton Street, New-York.

Jay. 16—3mis

HOPE'S EXPRESS,

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield,

Leaves Plainfield for New York at 8 1-2, A. M. For Somerville, Boston, &c. 5 1-2, P. M.

Leaves at Plainfield from New York at 5 1-2 P. M. from Boston at 8 1-2 A. M.

All business entrusted to us will be punctually attended to, without delay, at moderate charges, for cash.

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by strict attention to orders is happy to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that no one can be provided with as handsome and serviceable a hat as they can buy in New York or Philadelphia, or half a dollar each cheaper.

N. B. Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 28, 1851.—1y

Lyon's Kathairon,

For the Growth and Embellishment of the Hair, and to Prevent its falling off and Turning Gray.

Received the Highest Premiums by the States of New York, Maryland and Michigan at their annual Fairs for 1851.

THE Kathairon neutralizes the effect of disease, climate and old age, in Preserving and Restoring the human Hair, even after a Baldness of twenty years; cleanses the scalp from Dandruff; will cure in Nervous Headache, Scald Head, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Skin, &c. and it is the most desirable for Ladies' or Gentlemen's use in the world. Its perfume equals Lubin's choicest Extracts, and being free from all offensive rancid oil or coloring properties, it is also the Hair dressing par excellence, lively appearance, secured by no other preparation.

TOILET ARTICLE

The use of the Kathairon is adopted by the first physicians in Europe and America, and has a patronage and encomium in the history of the materia medica, in words are superfluous, a trial only can attest its real virtue, as millions certify. To be had throughout the United States, Mexico and the Islands of the Ocean, in large Bottles, for 25 cents.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

July 19, 1853.—6m*

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York

LYON'S EXTRACT OF

Pure Jamaica Ginger.

Dear Sir,—I speak from a general knowledge of the virtues of Ginger, and particularly of your preparation of Jamaica Ginger, having used it there years in my practice. For Dyspepsia, Cholera, Cholic, Summer complaints, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, General Weakness, &c., I consider it simply the best article in the world. Its effect in enabling the system to throw off and resist disease of all kinds so usual during severe weather, makes it invaluable to every family. Obtain only the genuine, Extract of Jamaica Ginger, and continue using during the summer season.

Yours truly, R. M. CHILSON, M. D.

182 Read Street, New York.*

This article, peculiarly adapted to this climate, and which is so universally used, can be had in Plainfield of July 19, 1853.—6m* M. F. CUSHING.

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

LIGHTNING RODS!

M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 132 East Twenty-first, Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and affix to buildings their improved Lightning Rod which have now been in use seventeen years, with a slight failure in the case of the buildings to which were attached. Mr. A. M. Quimby has made Electricity the study of his life and his rods are always put in accordance with certain rules which he has formed and adopted as the result of his experience. An address to those rules he has found to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning. Those rods are put up in a substantial and neat manner, and require a different arrangement of the rods, to suit the peculiar features of each house, which is the only accuracy of the conducting rods have failed heretofore, having been simply ignorant of the laws by which electricity is governed; they are not arranged on buildings in such a manner as to be of any protection, under all circumstances. Quimby's rods have been placed on the houses of D. Rockwell, C. Boice, Esq. Mr. M. Stelle, and also in Plainfield in many of the most public buildings and private buildings in the country, such as St. Mary Church and others in New York; church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders left at the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1853.—6m*

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of May, will remove his store to No. 16 Maiden-Lane, the store formerly occupied by him.

He will respectfully re call public attention to the superior quality of the Needles imported by him:—James Gray & Son's celebrated Needles—Richards' Grooved Needles—Forster, Pearl Burnos, Comet Steel Sold Pens, Spool and Ball Cotton, Slay Binding Beads and Eyes, Thimbles, Pocket Knives, &c. &c.

RICHD. RICHARDS,

Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods,

Sept. 9, 1852.—12m. 16 Maiden-Lane New York

Spring! Now is the time!

Spring Goods now on hand! Must and shall be sold, to make room for Fall and Winter Goods. Call and examine before buying elsewhere. L. S. DUNHAM & CO.

LYDIA PURPLE'S VOW.

BY A. W. BURLBUT.

"Oh, Annie! I never will go to Litchfield! I can't bear Litchfield! You never saw my grandmother: I won't!" half sobbed little Lydia Purple, the beauty and the pet of our "Pembroke Female seminary."

Lydia was the daughter of a Southern planter and a Connecticut belle.—Southern in temper, Northern in energy, with her father's passionate will, and her mother's positive determination.—A spoiled and only child, she really made too high handed a tyrant in her home to be borne; and at sixteen she was sent to Pembroke, in her mother's native State, for a year or more of education, and positive orders left that she should spend her vacations in Litchfield, with her maternal grandmother. Lydia had caressed her way into every girl's heart in school.—Very lovely, with the most naive, girlish ways, and the merriest of hearts all adored her, and I not least of all.

So it came to pass that, one September noon, sitting in the golden sunshine, on the steps of our school house, a half hour before the due time, Lydia told me her greatest trouble.—that the winter must be passed in Litchfield with her grandmother. I tried to comfort her as best I could; and in the midst of our colloquy up came Alice Stevens, who had, by some, a whole clan of "cousins," in that abhorred Litchfield.—"Yes, indeed," answered Ally to my question whether Litchfield was endurable in winter. "Endurable!" Just let Lydia get half a dozen sleigh rides up and down those interminable hills, with the gayest set of girls and beaux you ever saw, and those pale, Southern cheeks will be rosy for once, I'll warrant. Oh, Lydia, it's a charming place! There's my cousin Jack Stevens, the cleverest fellow I ever can't help liking him, and any quantity of law students. I shall see you yet settled for life in that 'horrid place,'—Mrr. Judge Somebody."

"That I, never will!" ejaculated Lydia, rising hastily, and shaking back the curls from her eyes. "I despise lawyers as much as I hate Litchfield; and I never, never will marry a lawyer, or a tall man, or a man from Litchfield." You may laugh if you like, Ally Stevens," (and indeed, both Alice and I were laughing at her vehemence) "but you always tease me about tall men: and if I do despise any thing, next to those other two things, it is to see a little woman dangling at the elbow of a great beau pole!"

A blood red leaf, the just herald of Autumn, fluttered down at my feet as Lydia spoke, and, stooping for it, she resumed: "Yes, truly, you might better persuade me that this scarlet leaf was black, than that I should do such a thing!" The school bell broke in upon our discussion; and, as Lydia's white dress disappeared round the corner, I laid the autumn leaf in the pages of Florian's "Estelle," which I was reading in the French class, and penciled on the margin against it,—"Lydia Purple's vow, September 18, ——."

Six weeks after, one cold morning found the dear little Georgian, full of tears, waiting for the Litchfield stage, Mrs. White, her temporary guardian, proving inexorable. So Lydia bid us good bye, with the air of a martyr, and drew her thick veil down with a despair so serio-comic that we who came see her off involuntarily smiled.

The particulars of her visit I learned in course of time. She was, first, agreeably relieved to find her grandmother, a fine, erect, hale gentlewoman, whose dignity never interfered with her affections, and who had not forgotten in her serene age the tears and laughter of youth. In two days Lydia loved her dearly, learned to kiss and tend her white cat, fed the chickens, was sworn friend with both the cows, and half turned the old housekeeper's head with imploring to learn every mystery of cooking at once.

Then came calls from the fur guarded, rosy cheeked daughters of her grandmother's friends, evening visits from those dreaded or despised law students; and a heavy fall of snow in the early part of December literally paved the way for the gayest of sleighing parties. To this Lydia was escorted by a far away cousin of her own, for, true to her vow, she would have no attentions from law-students. The sleighing was perfect; and Lidia, wrapped in furs, and hooded almost to extinction, was excited as a child with the novelty of her ride. And the dance before supper at the country tavern which was the goal of their excursion, put the finis to her delight; nearly floated about the room like a humming-bird in an ecstacy, she was half-annoyed by the vision of a pair of deep gray eyes intently watching her movements, as their owner stood leaning against the wall.

"Cousin Henry," whispered Lydia to her partner, "who is that tall man in the corner?"

"Why, don't you know Frank Stevens, the cleverest fellow in all Litchfield, and the tallest, too? – six feet two, if he's an inch."

Lydia said nothing; but when Mr. Stevens begged an introduction, and asked her to dance, she did not refuse. "Because," said the little heart to itself, "I don't believe he is a lawyer." Whatever he was, he was very agreeable in spite of his inches; and that night Lydia's dreams were visited by a pair of intelligent, earnest eyes strangely enough, fixed on the top of a bean pole! She woke in the morning almost cross. Did she remember Ally Stevens and the school house steps?

Time rolled on, and brought Mr. Stevens more and more frequently to the large house where lived Mrs. Reid and—Miss Purple.—Sometimes with his single sleigh and spirited horse; sometimes with books or flowers, pursuits, I grieve to relate, from his sister Susan's house treasures; and, one night, with a close carriage, wherin he conveyed Miss Purple, in the most bewitching of pink dresses, to be the bridesmaid of that much forgiving sister, on the brink of matrimony with "Cousin Henry Reid." All this time, for reasons best known to herself, Lydia shut both eyes and ears resolutely to any thought, much less inquiry, about Mr. Stevens' profession, and really did not know. So things proceeded. Our vacation was lengthened into months, instead of weeks, by the tedious illness of the Principal, and threatened to last all winter.

February came, and St. Valentine dawned in the distance, through a mist of fat, well shewered hearts, obtuse darts to match, and appropriate devices led by the name with a love's knot. Litchfield—that is to say, "Young Litchfield," —was in a quiver of expectation. Reams of paper, gallons of ink, quarts of ornamental waters had been sold by the solitary stationer of the village; and on that eventful fourteenth even Lydia woke at sunrise, and turned her dimpled cheek again to the pillow, with a blush at her own smile of expectant pleasure.

In due time "Jack the man" took his usual path to the post office; and, ten minutes before he could possibly be expected, Mr. Frank Stevens lifted his hat to a very wistful face, peering among the geraniums in Mrs. Reid's front window. Jack returned with a face of broad fun asked for "Miss Lyddy," and, entering the library, commenced extracting from his pocket dozens of small missives, in every sort of hand, ink and envelope.

When the budget was emptied, Lydia had to hide her little head in both hands and laugh, before she had courage to open them; and then the laughter did not cease. Various enough they were: some, wordless, but hyeroglyphic; some, a printed sentimentality, only less flat than the colored print above it; others, elaborate copies of would be poetry; and the few attempts at originality to be garnished with new phrases and legal witticisms as to exhibit at once the usage of their author's thought. One only satisfied the fastidious receiver;—a few lines of original poetry, perfect in measure and language expressing, with passionate enthusiasm, the devoted heart of its anonymous writer.

It was written on pure white note paper, in a peculiarly beautiful but evidently not feigned hand, and altogether, carried the reader's mind "a feeling of "real earnest," not quite in accordance with its ostensible errand; and, forgetting all the rest, Lydia fell into a reverie of wonder, not unpleasing, as the half smile on her lips avowed.

"Lydia, dear, what's the matter?" said Mrs. Reid, looking up at the child's fixed attitude.

"Oh!" exclaimed she, with a start, "I do hate law students, grandmother."

"Why, I thought you rather liked young Stevens, my dear?"

Lydia turned pale. "But I didn't know, ma'am—is he?"

"To be sure. He has studied, these six months, in his uncle's office. And a fine young man he is, so attentive to old people. I was just going to show you a long poem he copied for me from a rare book he saw in Boston, and had meant me express a wish for."

Lydia took the manuscript mechanically, opened the first page, started again, trembled, blushed, at length fairly burst into tears, and, flinging both valentine and poem to the floor, ran away to her own room, and locked herself in. Mrs. Reid stooped to raise the treasures, and exclaimed: "Really! the same hand writing!" then, with a smile of comic kindliness, betook herself to spend the morning with Mrs. Henry Reid.

That evening, Mr. Stevens came, and found Miss Purple alone. What passed I cannot definitely say; I only know that both parties kept their own counsel; and when Lydia's school days ceased, having in the meantime lost her mother by a lingering fever, and knowing that her place was about to be filled, in that dear Southern home, by another, whom she could not or would not, love, she went to live with her grandmother.

Six months after, I was asked to a wedding in Litchfield. I could not go, for Mally was sick; but I took from the page of my "Estelle," a leaf, once red, now black enough with time, and sent it, with the date, in my note of response. I can only say that Mrs. Frank Stevens is the happiest woman I know. But—her husband is a tall man, a lawyer, and she lives in Litchfield.

Curious Experiments.

A late number of the Christian Enquirer, published in the city of New York, contains details of some very singular experiments. The statement of the editor is clear, and he seems to be entirely satisfied in regard to the existence of the facts detailed. The matter is worthy of attention:—

"A friend told us, the other day, of a very curious experiment, which led us to try others equally curious with the same success. His experiment was this: Take a gold ring, and suspend by a thread about half a yard long; then hold it by the thumb and finger of the right hand over the palm of the left hand, so that the ring may swing freely as a pendulum; it will oscillate to and fro in the direction of the arm with increasing force. Then let another person form a connection between the thumb and forefinger of the operator's left hand by his own thumb and finger; the motion of the ring will change from a straight line to a circle, or ellipse, on the withdrawal of the connection it will return to a straight line; and on touching the operatator's left shoulder with the hand, the motion will cease, and the ring be at rest.

"We tried the experiment successfully, and found that it would succeed equally with a key instead of a ring, or with any body of proper size similarly suspended, whether of metal, or wood, or glass. We found also, that if suspended over a glass tumbler, the pendulum would swing from face to knee, and immediately begin to revolve as soon as the feet were brought together. Suspended over the heart, the pendulum revolved of itself in a circle of considerable diameter and over the forehead it revolved in an opposite direction from its course when held on the back of the head. These experiments vary somewhat with different persons; yet, with greater or less force, they seem to follow the same law in nearly all cases. What does it mean? The force is not electrical, for it acts as well through nonconducting bodies, and a silk instead of a cotton thread makes no difference in the result. It is not mere imagination, for there is too much uniformity in result to favor that supposition. In some cases the revorution is in an orbit a foot in diameter, if not more.

A vender of nostrums has this infallible specific against deception and counterfeits: If the medicine don't give the relief promised, then it taint his."

Curious Matrimonial Incident.—The Preston Chronicle (an English paper), tells a comical story of an Irishman who visited Chorley Fair lately, without his wife. After a copious sacrifice at the shrine of Bacchus, Pat was accosted by a female who, with many witcheries, allured him to a cellar, of which she boasted the proprietorship. Here, at the request of the charmer, the mellow Milesian gave her his purse, which contained five sovereigns and some silver. No sooner had the money touched her palm, than the lady disappeared; Pat, however, before Pat, in a fog of beer and suspicion, attempted to retain her. Alas! the substance fled, and he grasped only a bonnet and shawl. Partially sobered by his disaster, he sought the police office, and, after considerable hunting, it was found that the shawl and bonnet belonged to the wife of Patrick himself, and that she alone had adopted the ruse at the fair in order to get possession of the purse, and so punish him for his want of gallantry in not taking her with him.

An old copper mine of extraordinary richness has recently been discovered on what is called the Hill Vein in the Lake Superior country. Certain circumstances, recently brought to light by its discovery, indicate that it was worked long before the discovery of America by Columbus. The richness and its mine can be imagined from the fact that Mr. Meadle, the agent and manager, in causing it to be explored, had a mass of copper, which weighed 2,390 pounds, removed from the surface of the vein. There is certainly much mystery connected with these ancient traces of mining operations, discovered from time to time in the copper region of lake Superior.

The City Council of New Orleans, as we learn from the Crescent, has now before it a singular claim, for an immense sum of money, preferred by an old man named Montague. The claimant was many years ago a bird fancier and made traffic of the feathered tribe by way of getting a living. It happened that something over a quarter of a century ago the old gentleman's birds were obscured to a member of the police, as they hung dangling in their cages over the sidewalk of a public street, which determined a policeman to have them removed. In the process of their removal in consequence of rough handling or foul play, two of the birds suffered death. Mr. Montague immediately charged their value to the city, (about one dollar and fifty cents) and sent in his bill to the Common Council, which passed over without payment, and after the next general election for Aldermen the demand was renewed, with the addition of the interest that had accured from date.—The bill was treated with neglect as before, and so on from year to year, up to the present time, an addition of compound interest being made to the demand at each successive presentation of it. The claim is now before the Board of Aldermen, and as the sturdy applicant has calculated the bill at compound interest it now amounts to about $950,000! Some waggish members of the Council have fed him with hopes that the amount will be allowed. In that event he promises to subscribe $750,000 to the Opelousas Railroad and to divide $50,000 among the members of the two Boards, in a bonus for their share. The hope of getting the claim allowed is a mania with the old chap, and he attends every meeting of the Council in the confident expectation of realizing the full fruition of his golden dream.

Encroachment of the Sea.—A communication in the Charleston Courier states, that for the last 10 years the sea has not only been encroaching on the harbors of the Southern States, but has also extended its invade their rice river domain with its salt inundations. The mouths of the Waccamaw and of the Santee have been alike alarmed with its pickling qualities, and the Cooper has suffered under these unfavourable influences almost to its sources. The right arm of Charleston, yielding some 20,000 tierces of rice for export, is in danger of being lopped off, and one of the most valuable staples and the most perfect system of cultivation by irrigation, may be lost to the State, if speedy and effectual measures are not adopted to drive back the salt to its natural element, the ocean.

The Irishman with a mote in his Eye.—A few days since, an Irishman, working in a forge, got a particle of hot iron in his eye. He was in great pain, and his sufferings drew some persons about him. Among them was a lad fourteen years old or so, who said with a sly speculative eye upon the violent hot face of the man: "Will you give me half a dollar if I get that out of your eye?" "Hoy!" exclaimed the Irishman, taking him in, with his serviceable optic, "I'll give you anything—I'll give you a dollar!" Away the boy ran, and came back with a magnet, with which, in about a minute, he drew out the iron atom! Paddy winked his watery eyes, and swore an oath of relief and gratitude. He then gave the operator—the half dollar.—"Holy mother!" said the poor fellow's sister, who stood by, "The Yankee shilder can do any thing!"

Women and Men.—Women may talk of their inherent rights as much as they please.—They can't overcome nature. Though an equality were established between sexes and easements to-morrow, it would not be a week before all the officers would be men and the soldiers women. Females are perfectly free and willing to go ahead, provided the men go first. Set fire to a steamboat and not a yard of dimity will budge till the corduroy sets the example. So long as the men cling to the vessel so long will the women cling to the men. But if the men plunge overboard feminines plunge too. As we said before, reformers may prate about equal rights, but they can't alter the regulation of God. It is as impossible for women to cut themselves loose from men, as it is for steel dust to free itself from its attachment to the magnet.

Men of evil character resemble earthen vessels, easy to break and hard to mend; but good men are like golden vases, broken with difficulty and easily repaired.

There is more fatigue in laziness than in labor.

Gen. Cadwallader, of Philadelphia, who won considerable distinction in the Mexican war, and a moderate Don scrat, while inheriting the good Whig blood of the Revolution, has avowed his determination to support Gen. Scott. This intelligence has taken the friends of Pierce by surprise, and created quite a panic in some of their circles.

The latest English papers say that the will of Neild, the miser, who left all his property to Queen Victoria, will be contested by the heirs, on the ground that he was insane when he did it. The papers also mention that Victoria had determined upon building a new castle for herself out of the money so bequeathed to her. The castle would cost about £100,000.

Mr. Webster's Fee in the India Rubber Case recently decided in the United States Court, for this Circuit, is stated to have been fifteen thousand dollars. Many patents are so ambiguous in their claims, as to give rise to expensive litigation, which greatly impairs their value.

Important Liquor-Law Decision.—One of the Boston Magistrates has decided that the buyer of liquor was an aider and abetter in the crime, if crime it were, by procuring the sale, and that, as "participe criminis," those who purchased liquor for the sake of giving evidence again at the seller, could not be legal witnesses, and their testimony should not be taken. The prosecuting-attorney coincided in the opinion of the Court, and the case was dismissed. This will break up the business of informers.

There is no cause of misery more fruitful, than incurring expenses that we cannot afford

Six millions of people live within one day's journey of New York.

Strange parallels in this world of ours. A monkey looking as grave as a judge, and a judge looking as playful as a monkey.

Afraid of the Gospel.—A bale of Bibles under seal has been seized by the Austrian Government at the Missionary Society's depot, and sent out of the country.

The Grand Jury of the county of Cumberland at the recent term of the court suggested to the Board of Freeholders the propriety of rearranging the prison so as to employ persons committed therein, and also to classify the prisoners.

Mr. Jackson, of Boston, who was recently selected by the Temperance Executive Committee as a proper person to act as State Agent, is now in Trenton, and will enter upon the duties of his appointment in a few days.

The Bible in Hungary.—There is scarce by a cottage among the Protestants in the land without its Bible; well read, too. All religious exercises and services are very carefully observed by the population. But especially by the tendency seen in the popular poetry and language. The "God of the Hungarians" is appealed to, as the Israelites might have prayed to Jehovah, "their God," the protector of the nation, the father of each individual. The high morality and truthfulness of the race I must consider as very much the result of this sentiment.—Direct Hungarian, 1851.

The editor of the Nantucket Mirror has a pumpkin measuring 4 feet 11 inches in circumference.

Pet 7 Smith, of Monroe county, writes to the Rochester Advertiser, that he has raised, this year, from 10 1-2 acres 505 bushels of wheat, of which eight acres went 50 bushels per acre—equal to 400 bushels. The other 2 1-2 acres went 40 bushels to the acre. The wheat was what is called "Soule's Wheat."

A horse and wagon of Morris H. Woodruff of Newark, stolen a week or two since, were returned to the owner last week by a gentleman from Beaknridge, who found them in the woods at that place, the day after they were stolen. The wagon had broken down and the thieves had left them where found.

In a fine Brighton lodging house, the maid-servant, at dinner, brought up cold spoons whereswith to help the warm gravy; and got admonished for her ignorance of the science of waiting at table, and told never to bring up spoons again without making them hot as possible. W soon after had coffee, and in an instant Mrs. W threw down her cup, saucer, spoon and all; the maid had made the latter nearly red hot, and burning her mistress's fingers was the result of advice not afforded with sufficient coolness and particularity.

Recreation is only valuable as it unbends us. The idle know nothing of it. It is exertion that renders rest delightful, and sleep sweet and undisturbed.

The Atlantic Steamers.—The statement relative to the business of the Collins and Cunard lines of ocean steamers, shows that during the year 1851, there sailed in the former line, 4,156 passengers, and by the latter, 4,118. The average length of western passages performed by the Collins line was 10 days 21 hours and 10 minutes; of the Cunard, 11 days, 4 hours and 13 minutes. The amount of custom-house duties paid by the former, was $2,122,537 64; by the latter, $2,829,001 31.

According to the returns made to the Secretary of the Treasury, it appears that the steam tonnage connected with the American lakes exceeds that of Great Britain and all her dependencies. The steamers on Lake Erie alone measure more tons than all the steamboats in Europe, Asia and Africa, inclusive, provided you leave out those which belong to Great Britian. What a comment are such facts on the boundless resources of our soil, and go ahead tendency of free institutions.

Philosophers say that shutting the eyes makes the sense of hearing more acute. A wag suggests that this accounts for the many closed eyes that are seen in our churches on Sundays.

So one sees it is fun to the mind, that it has philosopher says if you should build schools without play-ground nobody would get beyond short digi ion in a life time.

"Had you," said Erskine to a dilatory tradesman, "been employed to build the ark, you should not have had the flood yet."

Be careful in your diet—good health is better than a good dinner, and much cheaper.

From the Flag of our Union.

'TIS FOR THE REST.

BY MRS. F. T. ELDREDGE.

'Tis for the best to know and feel
That life is not all bright;
For if we tasted nought but weal,
Nor dreamed of sorrow's blight,
Then we should hold life far too dear,
And long to dwell forever here.

'Tis for the best, when cherished hopes
Feel disappointment's power;
As fondly cherished buds that ope,
Oft wither in an hour.
'Tis then our fondest hopes on earth,
Are crushed when most we prize their worth

'Tis for the best, when some dear friend
We love as dear as life;
Whose every thought is prone to blend
With ours, mid joy and strife,
Is taken from our fond embrace,
And called a heavenly home to grace.

'Tis for the best, when friends we love,
Prove treacherous and unkind;
It lifts the earth bound thoughts above,
And leads the thinking mind
Into a train of heavenly thought,
The worldling never felt nor sought.

'Tis for the best, when the sad heart
Is worn, and tried, and riven;
The aching wound from sorrow's smart,
Directs the thoughts to heaven,
That haven of eternal rest,
Where none know pain, where all are blest.

SEAMLESS WOOLEN GARMENT.—A recent patent has been obtained for making clothes, gloves and mittens of woolen felt. The fibress of the wool during the manufacture of the cloth or felt, are made to vibrate and cross each other in various directions. In consequence, the cloth is so strong that few persons are able to tear it in any direction. A coat has been worn the greater part of a year, with scarcely any perceptable soiling or wear. It is very durabre, sheds rain, and is very warm. With the exceptionof the trimming, overcoats and pantaloons are made without stitching: gloves and mittens, very much in imitateon of buckskin, also without seams. The fibres are stretched in manufacturing the cloth, and consequently the garment will not shrink or loose their shape. The material is cheaper than the ordinary cloth, and avoids the waste of tailors. This invention promises to be one of no ordinary importance.—American Artizan.

BUCKWHEAT, POTATOES, &c.—Orange and Delaware and all the middle counties of this State have produced a large yield of potatoes, and it is remarked they never were finer. The rot has entirely disappeared. Potatoes were selling at Delhi and Hancock at 35 cents the bushel. The hucksters in New York charge 70 and 80 cents a bushel—which is a shameful imposition on the working and hard laboring classes. The yield of Buckwheat and apples is great this year than it has been since 1846; and the marks at will be plentifully and cheaply supplied this Fall.

Jour. Com. A TRAVELER.

WOOD GAS.—One of the new kinks of the present inventive age is manufacture of gas from wood, the leavings of which is a superior article of charcoal. The gas obtained from wood is about 25 per cent, better than coal gas; and the charcoal produced in making the gas is quite as valuable as the wood was before extracting the gas. This invention has just been made in Germany. The apparatus necessary to make the gas costs but a trifle, and it can thus be made for small manufacturing establishments to advantage. In point of national economy, the manufacture of wood gas has a special importance, as it partly takes the place of burning charcoal in pits, in which process the gas, the tar and the vinegar extracted from the wood are lost.

The Boston Atlas says "We have no doubt of the election of Gen. Scott. There is no State in the Union where he is not stronger than the Whig party, and no State in which he will not run ahead of the party vote. And we do not, in this statement, except even the State of Massachusetts, for, out of Boston and a few suburban towns, Gen. Scott will run ahead of the Whig party. From a very extensive view of the ground, we give it as our opinion, and we wish it to be remembered, that notwithstanding the Webster movement in this city, the plurality for the Scott and Graham electoral ticket in this State will not fall below twenty thousand."

OUR INDEBTEDNESS TO ENGLAND.—The Courier and Enquirer says:—"We, at this moment, are indebted to England, in promises to pay in the shape of General, State, County and Railroad Bonds, and Stocks, the enormous amount of three hundred and fifty millions of, dollars!" This is rather under than over the mark, and the indebtedness of private individuals is quite as large. This debt may be regarded as a curse or a blessing, according to the fancy of individuals. It will serve as a bond of peace between the two nations, for England will never go to war with us while the chance of losing the interest on such a sum.

MIKE WALSH FOR CONGRESS.—The distinguished champion of the grog-shop interest in New York, and the favorite of the hard-fisted and hard-drinking class of our fellow-citizens, Mike Walsh, has been selected as the democratic candidate for the fourth congressional district, and he will probably be elected. Well, Mike is said to be growing more decent as he grows older. He has a reputation for political honesty, and he may be honest, for aught we know to the contrary. But Mike has, from time to time, kept a good deal of low company, and that is no recommendation; but he is a young man of considerable talent, and we are not sure but that he will make a respectable appearance at Washington. Mike's personal friends are proud enough of the distinction to be conferred upon him. They count largely on his influence in procuring good fat places for them.

The Morristown Jerseyman complains of the great destruction of sheep by savage dogs, and says that they attacked a donkey a few days since, which they killed and nearly devoured.

The Toledo Blade tells the story of a chap on their road, who apprehending a collision of the cars, put his life-preserver on, blew it up, and [illegible] himself to his feet!

Mr. Ansel [illegible] Lester New [illegible], was taken [illegible] hours. It is said to save [illegible] cholera.

Advertiser.

There is one rule which should be strictly observed in the streets by foot travelers, that is, always "Keep to the right." Nothing is more ludicrous to look at, than to see a bunch of folks in a quandary, looking one another in the face, neither knowing which side the other is going.

The Milford Journal states that there were forwarded from that town, during the month of July, over the Boston and Worcester railroad, eight thousand one hundred and ninety-six cases of boots, each case containing twelve pairs. The freight of the same amounted to one thousand and twenty three dollars and twenty seven cents. Nearly or quite one fourth as many more were sent by other conveyances.

There were 10,305,787 eggs imported into England in the months ending August 5th.

On Thursday and Friday, 23d, 24th., 6732 foreign immigrants arrived at New York, and that, we are told, is not a very unusual number. Most of them locate in the West, where there is ample room for millions yet to come.

Week before last at Honniker, N. H., Mr. Charles Barker of Hillsborough, who had in charge a vicious horse, whilst stooping to buckle a girl in the stall, had one of his ears bitten completely off.

ROAD TO THE PACIFIC.—Mr. Benton continues to advocate forcibly the construction of a road from St. Louis to San Francisco. He says the three hundred men would complete a tolerable road in two years, and that a horse express could "do" the distance in ten days, a stage in twenty days, emigrant wagons in forty or fifty.

SILVER MINES IN CONNECTICUT.—Dr. Frankfort, who has been working some abandoned lead mines opened at Middletown, Conn., during the revolutionary war, for the supply of bullets to our army, has found more than enough silver to pay the expenses of working the mines, thus leaving the lead obtained as clear profit. The amount of silver appears to be increasing.

The New Orleans Delta calls the Woman's Rights Convention a "rowdy set of girls."

How many of our fair readers, as they draw on their "French kid" gloves, are aware that those same gloves are made of rat skins? The catching of rats for this purpose is a regular trade in Paris, at which hundreds of men find employment.

ENGLISH GAME LAWS.—The following is an illustration of the oppressive character of the English game laws. On the Great Northern railway, a poor hare, trying to cross the line, was decapitated by the engine; and a farm laborer took up the body, for which act (being in possession of game without a licenes), he subjected himself to three months at the treadmill.

A Thing which every Farmer should Know.—If you wish to drive a cut nail into seasoned oak timber, and not have it break or bend, just have a little oil near by, and dip the end of the nail into it before driving, and it will never fail to go.

An attack was made in August last by the savages on the river Congo in Africa, on the American brig Mary Adeline of New York. It appears the vessel got ashore, when the savages attempted to plunder her. A gallant defence was made, until two British vessels which were near came to the rescue. The Adeline was got afloat and proceeded on her voyage. A number of the natives were killed.

The Troupe and Quitman ticket appears to be making headway in the South, and is a source of great annoyance to the Pierceparty. Gen. Quitman is to do for it heart and soul. He wrote a letter to the Convention and to the importance of maintaining the Southern Rights organization, and expressing the conviction that no true men, if nominated, would decline.

None of the bills of private banks located at Washington are good for any thing in New York. Our friends at the South will please not send those bills for subscriptions. Part of these banks have stopped, and the rest are doubtful.

A Portsmouth family, (so says a paper of that place,) observing a parsnip in their garden, large at the top, and crooked and knotty, cut it open, and found an old fashioned silver brooch, which had been missing many years, firmly embedded in the parsnip's heart.

Sixty three persons were admitted to full membership in the M. E. Church of this village on Sunday last.—Hightstown Record.

Among those who visited Gen. Scott at Cincinnati, were two of the Irish prisoners whose lives he saved during the war of '12—13. It will be remembered that a number of Irish were in danger of punishment for high treason having been taken prisoners by the British. Scott's interference saved their lives, as he asserted they were American soldiers, and not British subjects. The delight of the two old men referred to, was most excessive, at beholding their old preserver.

Teeth from a Mosquito Bite.—The London papers mention the death of R. G. Porter, Esq. from a gnat's sting on his nose, which produced mortigration. His sedentary habits had led to a bad state of blood, so that he was ripe for death from apparently so small a casualty as a mosquito bite.

There is a firm of dry goods merchants in St. Louis named "Grinn & Barret."

Something of a Vegetable.—We have been shown a cucumber, raised by Mrs. Kinsip, in Westville, Connecticut, which by actual measurement was four feet and a half long, by one foot in circumference! The seed was sent from California. It was verily a long green.—New Haven Reg.

In England, gas stoves have been introduced into dwellings and public houses with great success. The gas is introduced in pipes, and the cost of heating is quite as cheap as coal. Of course the stove requires no pipe, as there is no smoke, and the neatness and labor-saving is a great advantage. We should think our New York gas companies would look into this business.

The dead exceed five fold the minutes since the creation.

Texas derives its name from an Indian word, signifying beautiful.

The people of London annually drink about 6000 tuns of chalk.

HORNED RATTLE SNAKE.—Mr. William B. Thomas, of Qually Town, North Carolina, states that a Cherokee Indian, named Salola, captured a snake on the Smoky Mountain, which he describes "of the usual size of Diamond Rattle Snakes found in the mountains of this country, of a dark color—on its tail it has ten rattles, on its head two forked horns of about 3-4s of an inch long." The Indian said it seemed to be a king among snakes of its speice. Nothing of the kind has been seen heretofore by any of the oldest white inhabitants in that region.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, to collect accounts, &c. The Mail, Boston, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

National Whig Nominations:

For President of the United States:

Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.

For Vice President:

WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North-Carolina.

Senatorial Electors: Dudley S. Gregory, of Hudson; Andrew K. Hay, of Camden.

1st District, John T. Nixon, of Cumberland.
2d, James S. Lawrence, of Monmouth.
3d, James S. Nevius, of Middlesex.
4th, Cornelius G. Garrison, of Passaic.
5th, James M. Quimby, of Essex.

GRAND WHIG MASS MEETING,

At Newark, on Wednesday, October 20th, Able and distinguished speakers will be proceeded, and ample arrangements will be made for the accommodation of all who may attend. It is intended to be a grand Jersey demonstration, in the whig head quarters, and all parts of the State ought to be, and will be represented.

THE SOMERSET COUNTY WHIG CONVENTION to nominate a County Ticket will meet at Somerville, on Thursday, Oct. 21, at 10, A. M.

THE ESSEX COUNTY WHIG CONVENTION, To nominate a Sheriff and 3 Coroners, will be held at Newark on Saturday, 23d inst. Plainfield is edtitled to 3 delegates, to be chosen on Monday evening, 18th inst. at Laing's Hotel.

It is recommended that at the primary meet*ings in the several townships, suitable measures* be taken for the nomination of Members of Assembly in the several Assembly Districts into which the County is divided.

The Democratic Convention to nominate a candidate for Congressman from this District, met at Newark last Tuesday afternoon. The Hon. Rodman M. Price, the present member, was nominated for re-election by acclamation.

Samuel Smith, a well-known farmer and liberally-educated man, of Piscataway, has been nominated by the Whigs of the 2d Assembly District of Middlesex county, as their candidate for Assemblyman. There is no better man for the office in the whole district.

The Democrats of the District have nominated Josephus Shann, editor of the Rahway Republican, and Assemblyman last year.

STATE ELECTIONS LAST WEEK.

PENNSYLVANIA.—The Democrats have carried the State by about 8,000 majority, on Canal Commissioner, no higher office having been run for on general ticket. The details have not been received. The whigs are not disheartened by this not very surprising result, and it is confidently asserted that the Electoral Vote of the State will be given to Scott.

OHIO. Democratic majority, 5 or 6,000. The Whigs had nothing to vote for, and did not turn out, but November will tell a different story. The vote will then be between Scott and Pierce, and with intelligent freemen, we cannot doubt the result; the majority will vote for the American rather than the British candidate.

INDIANA. Democratic majority about 8000. Governor, Legislature, and a majority of the Members of Congress, are democratic.

SOUTH CAROLINA, Democratic of course.

FLORIDA, Probably democratic by a small majority.

COLONIZATION.—Application has been made by upwards of one hundred persons for a passage to Liberia in a vessel to sail from Wilmington, N. C., and the Am. Colonization Society are making arrangements to dispatch a vessel from that place about the 1st of Nov.

People who keep houses of refreshment on the line of the railroad, should never serve up till just before "it's time to start," and then only with an eye to business—by which we mean hot coffee with hot milk, the whole in a boiling hot cup, with a spoon as near the melting state as possible.—This is the mode adopted in Massachusetts, and what Massachusetts does must be right.

STING OF THE BEE.—It may not be generally known that common whiting proves an effectual remedy against the effects of the sting of the bee or wasp. The whiting is to be moistened with cold water, and immediately applied. It may be washed off in a few minutes, when neither pain nor swelling will ensue.

A remarkable story is told of a woman in Lawrence District, South Carolina. She is blacker than Egyptian darkness, and yet she has given birth to three children with beautiful brown curly hair, a little swarthy in complexion, but otherwise white as any decent Christian child.—

THE PLANET PALLAS.—The circumference of Pallas is only a few 100 miles; and a good locomotive engine could circumnavigate it in a few hours. Nice little world that. Some rich Englishman might buy up the whole of it.

Health is the natural condition of living beings; disease is a state contrary to nature.

All that gives health promotes happiness; all that gives happiness promotes health.

There is plant growing in the springs of Iceland, which not only flowers, but bears seeds in water hot enough to boil an egg.

Some patient curiosity hunter has found that the number of grains in bushel of wheat weighing 62 pounds, is upwards of 639,000.

The ancient cooks carried their art to the most whimsical perfection. They were able to serve up a whole pig, boiled on one side and roasted on the other.

Most diseases enter the system through the lungs. It takes all the vegetables of earth to purify the air that the animals consume.

The Court of Bishops, for the trial of the [illegible] closed its doors, the Court adjourned to Burlington.

Bishop Doane and his friends, after nearly a week's labors, succeeded in evading a trial, the whole matter was referred to the N. J. Diocese, and the Court of Bishops adjourned sine die. The N. J. Diocese will acquit him of course, but whether the public will have any different opinion of the great Bishop of New Jersey than before is a question. We are sorry the Bishop so strenuously objects to a trial by his peers, for we should like to have their decision on the matter.

FROM CALIFORNIA

The steamship El Dorado arrived at New Orleans on the 9th inst. from Aspinwall, with news from California to Sept. 16th, 16 days later.

The Illinois arrived at New York on Wednesday, with the California mails, and a million and a half of gold dust.

The Star of the West arrived at New York, Friday morning, from San Juan, with 140 passengers and $150,000 in gold dust.

The mining intelligence continues very favorable, and the papers chronicle the discovery of several large lumps.

There have been some further movements amongst the miners against the Chinese.

The political news is highly encouraging to the Whigs. It is about certain the State will vote for Scott.

John Chetwood, Esq formerly of Newark, has been nominated by the Whigs for Judge of the Supreme Court. He is celebrated for his attainments and integrity, and his election is considered certain.

The crops are coming on in fine style, and flouring mills are going up. The farmers have a fertile soil and good markets.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Franklin arrived at New York last Monday morning, having left Havre Sept. 29th, and Cowes the same evening. She brought 134 passengers, and a valuable freight of French goods.

The America touched at Halifax Tuesday, and arrived at Boston Thursday morning.

The City of Manchester arrived at Philadelphia Wednesday morning, about 14 days from Liverpool, with 126 passengers.

The news is a week later, but nothing of interest, except that cotton was firm and active at a small advance.

The McDonough Will Decided in Favor of the Heirs at Law.—New Orleans, Oct. 7.—Judge McCalele rendered a decision in the McDonough will case, declaring null and void the claims of New Orleans, Baltimore, Louisiana and Maryland.—The will is completely broken and the property goes to the heirs at law. In declaring the bequests belonging to each heir, the executors were ordered to account for past administration to a master in chancery.

THE CELEBRATED DARK DAY.—We have often heard old Yankee women speak of the Dark Day, in May, 1780. Here is an account of it by Dr. Adams, of Exeter, New Hampshire, in a letter dated, May 27, 1780; "We had a very extraordinary phenomenon the 19th day of this month. In the morning it was rainy, till about 9 o'clok, when the clouds broke away, and the sun appeared, but very red. After 9 the clouds grew very thick, with the wind from southwest, in light breezes; at 10 1-2 it was uncommonly dark, the clouds appearing of yellowish hue. At 11 the public school was dismissed, it being so dark that no person could read or write. It continued to grow darker till 12, when it was so dark that we could not tell one person from another in a room with three large windows. In short, it was midnight darkness at noon day. The fowls went to roost, and there was a strong smell of smoke. It had been very dry for a long time before, the wind having been at east for four or five days, which drove the smoke back to the westward, and when the wind shifted, it brought it all on in a body, which, together with the dense clouds, caused the darkness, which lasted till 3 o'clock P. M., before it began to grow light. Thousands of people, who could not account for it from natural causes, were greatly terrified; and, indeed, it cast a universal gloom on the earth. The frogs and night hawks began their notes. At 4 o'clock the wind shifted to the north east, which brought the clouds back, and at sun-set it was again very dark. At 9 o'clock it was darkness to be felt by more senses than one, as there was a strong smell of soot. Almost every one who happened to be out in the evening got lost in going home. The darkness was as uncommon in the night as it was in the day, as the moon had fulled the day before."

A PIECE OF JUDICIAL ADVICE.—A Highland Donald was tried for a capital offence, and had a rather narrow escape; but the jury found him "not guilty." Whereupon the judge, thought fi to admonish him. "Prisoner! Before you leave the bar, let me give you a piece of advice. You have got off this time, but if ever you come before me again, I'll be caution (surely) you'll be hanged." "Thank you, my lord," answered Donald, "thank you for your good advice, and as I'm na ungrateful, I beg to give your lordship a piece of advice in return. Never be caution for ony body: for the cautioner has often to pay the penalty!"—Autobiography of William Jerdan.

A CARD.

NOTICE is hereby given that on and after the first day of November next, we, the undersigned, intend closing our stores at 8 o'clock in the evening, to continue the ensuing winter.

Henry A. Coey,	Laing & Webster,
Robert Anderson,	Ira Pruden,
Webster & Marsh,	A. D. & E. B. Titsworth,
James M. Dunn,	I. S. Dunham & Co.,
Rocap & Sheppard,	Oliver Runyon,
Jacob Arrowsmith,	Thurston, Dunn & Co.,
Jacob Lyon,	William Dunn & Co.
Daniel Bullman,	John C. Boice,
	Ethan Wilcox.

Dated Plainfield, Oct. 5th. 1852.—1m.

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.

Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

The Committee of Arrangements composed of Castor oil, Calomel, &c., are not aware, that while they appear to benefit the patient, they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of sight, weakness of limbs, &c.

To whether you are afflicted with Rheumatism, read the advertisement of Hobensack's Medicines, to which we ask the attention of all directly interested in their own as well as their Children's health. In Liver Complaints and all diseases arising from a disordered stomach, you should make use of the only genuine medicine, Hobensack's Liver Pills.

"Be not deceived" but ask for Hobensack's Worm Syrup and Liver Pills, and observe that each has the signature of the Proprietor, N. N. HOBENSACK, or none else are genuine.

It should be universally known.—For it is strictly true —that indigestion is the parent of a large proportion of the fatal diseases. Dysentary, diarrhœa, cholera morbus, liver complaint, and many other diseases, manifested in the city inspector's weekly catalogue of deaths, are generated by indigestion alone. Think of that dyspeptic Public, that is all who suffer from disordered stomachs, and if you are willing to be guided by advice, fraught upon experience, resort at once (don't delay a day) to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, which, as an alterative, curative, and invigorant, stands alone and unapproached. General depot, 130 Arch street. We have tried these Bitters, and know that they are excellent for the diseases specified above —Philadelphia City Item.

*Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges; Worm Lozenges, and Cam*phor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

THE ROAD TO HEALTH!

Holloway's Pills.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist, 7, Prescot Street, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

Sir,—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer, on the 14th inst. called for a remedy to enable me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver, and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the violence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflammation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her not being able to bear up under it; fortunately she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but the above, from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure, I think, speaks most in favor of your astonishing Pills. (Signed) R. W. KIRKUS

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN AN DIEMAN'S LAND

Copy of a Letter forwarded to the Hobart Town Courier, of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Walsh.

Margaret Monaghan, a young woman of age, residing at New Town, had been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs, and during this period she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills which she commenced to do, and in an incredible short space of time they effected a perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON 84 YEARS OF AGE.

From the Hereford Times, and Supplement of the Agent Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement.

August 2nd, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

Sir,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severly from a pain and tightness in the stomach which was also accompanied by a difficulty of breathing, that prevented me from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have restored me, in a few days, to that state of health I had not enjoyed for many years, and which I had despaired of ever being made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before. (Signed)

HENRY COE. North Street, Lynn, Norfolk.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints:

Ague	Dropsy	Inflammation	Sore Throats
Asthma	Dysentery	Jaundice	Stone & Gravel
Bilious	Erysipelas	Liver Com-	Secondary
Complaints	Female Irre-	plaints	symptoms
Blotches on	gularities	Lumbago	Tic Douloureux
the Skin	Fevers of all	Piles	Tumours
Bowel com-	kinds	Rheumatism	Venereal Af-
plaints	Fits	Retention of	fections
Colics	Gout	Urine	Worms of all
Constipation	Headache	Scrofula, or	kinds,
of the Bowels	Indigestion	King's Evil	Weakness, from Consumption		Sore	whatever cause, &c. &c

Sold at the Establishment of Professor HOLLOWAY, 244, Strand, (near Temple Bar), London; and by all respectable Druggists and dealers in Medicines throughout the British Empire. And of those of the United States, in Boxes, at $7 50c., $3, 87c., and $1 56c. each. Wholesale by the principal Patent Medicine Vendors, and by Messrs. A. B. & D. Sands, New York.

N.B. There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Box.

Oct. 19, 1852.—cowly

NEW FALL GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD,

ARE now receiving their stock of Fall Goods to which they invite the attention of all who are in want of desirable goods.

SILKS.—Very superior black dress and mantilla silks; rich changeable and plaid silks; Florence silks, all colors.

CASHMERES.—A splendid article, all wool, plain and figured, rich and new styles.

DELAINES.—Plains, all wool, different colors, fancy Delaines, every variety of style and color, Mousselin de laine, good assortment.

POPLINS.—Plain and fancy, new style of plaid, also others, different grades and prices.

GINGHAMS.—Scotch, French, Lancaster and domestic, all colors.

PRINTS.—Merrimac, Cocheco, British madder and Manchester prints, every variety of color and style.

Embroideries.—A new and beautiful collar, flouncings, seings and Insertings, also silk for fancy embroidering.

Gloves—White, Black and fancy Kid, also silk, 12dd and other makes.

SHAWLS.—Broche, Bay state, cashmere, new styles of rich plain leaf, and others, a good variety.

Together with a general assortment of new goods, all of which will be sold very low, and to which the attention of ladies is particularly invited.

We have also received a good stock of Cloths, cassimeres and satinetts, Kentucky jeans, vestings, flannels, muslins, domestics of every grade, which will be sold low. A good lot of Ready made clothing, pantaloons, coats, vests, frock and over coats, shirts, collars, and every variety of men's wear, which customers are requested to call and examine.

Clothing cut and made to order and warranted to give satisfaction.

New ladies and gentlemen call and see us we have got new goods) and we will satisfy you that we can and will sell cheap. Don't forget the place, Somerset Street.

Plainfield, Oct. 26. ROCAP & SHEPPARD.

County of Gloucester, ss.

Amos Giddis, Daniel Cory, Jno. W. Craig, William Stine, Peter Winans.

Cholera has made its appearance at Wheeling, Va. Twelve cases have occurred, 7 of which resulted fatally.

The Washington Bankers publish a card discountenancing individual notes. Considerable indignation is felt against the failure of the Bank of the Union for so large a sum.

Hay has been brought this season from Northern Ohio and Indiana, by the Lake and Erie Canal, a fact not only extraordinary but heretofore unknown in the history of the inland commerce of New York.

Cheap Fare to Boston.—The Fall River line to Boston has still further reduced the fare from N. York to $1.50 for cabin, and $1 for deck passage. The Norwich line has also reduced their fare to the same.

American Hotel in Europe.—Mr. D. D. Howard, late of the Irving House, New York, is about to establish a hotel on a large and magnificent scale in London. We have several hotels in this country conducted on the 'European plan' now the style of hotel to be established in England on the 'American plan.' This is convenient and accommodating all around, and just as it should be.

An Intelligent Lad.—At a parish examination, a clergyman asked a charity boy if he had ever been baptised. "No, sir," was the reply, "not as I knows on; but I've been waxinated."

Case of a Hundred of 30 years' Standing.

Orient, April 16th, 1852.

Messrs. S. A. Weaver & Co.,—

Gentlemen:—I am induced by a friend to state to you what I have been, and what I am now, in regard to health. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you and your medicine, which has relieved me from a dreadful load of suffering. I have been afflicted for 30 years and over with Salt Rheum; I have tried to find relief from medicine, but never found it. I have dosed and taken medicine enough to float a pretty large boat, but all has done me no good. I commenced taking your medicine about twelve months ago. Previous to taking your medicine, for about twelve months I was so badly off that I had to take a bath every night, to wash the skin and scales that would collect every day. My bath usually was from three to five pails of water after I got through; the water would be near the color of milk; so you may judge that there was a good deal of filth in my flesh. I am now quite free from aches and pains, though I have a little of it lingering about me, and I hardly dare say what I would like to say. I have taken 20 bottles of the medicine, and used, I believe seven boxes of the Cerate. I intend to continue taking your Syrup.

I am requested to give a description of my situation before taking your Syrup. My flesh was hard and crusty; swollen, very sore;—could hardly get about, having to use one of my companions two canes. Some of the times I could not undress myself or dress, restless nights, many a night having to set in a chair all of the night. I have been afflicted for over about 30 years, better, but your wonderful medicine has, I feel, done wonders for me. I commenced taking the Syrup one year from this date, April 19th, 1851. The first bottle I took in night or more I was in bed in ten or twelve days, but found before I got through the second, I was getting worse pretty fast; still I continued to take the Syrup, though more sparingly. The second I found rather harsh at first, my flesh being so sore. I reduced it with lard for a while, but before I got through the third bottle, I was in a perspiration all night and morning, which would gather and discharge on the surface was astonishing. At times it would be the thickness of a fifty cent piece, the most loathsome and filthy of all compounds; but by continuing the medicine I gradually began to get better, my flesh began to soften, the itching and burning so as to come to an end, so that by the third October I felt quite well and go to bed, sleep without an ache or pain. I am now able to work and sweat if it is necessary and not feel any worse for it. My neighbors say I am the sprycst man in the neighborhood. This statement is entirely unsolicited by me. I recommended it to many who were suffering with humors; a good many have been induced to use your valuable medicine, and have been benefited.

Were it necessary, I could get a hundred that would testify to what I have written.

After writing thus far, my wife takes up and reads what I have written and says I have not exaggerated, but it was worse than I have written, sitting in my chair night and day for three weeks, and not dressing at all. Very respectfully,

ELIAS LATHAM.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

Jacob S. Brown, Washington Valley, $2,63; Dr. Lewis Craig, 2,00; D. M. Curtis, Dayton, Ohio, $2,50; Mrs. D. A. Freeman, ,75: Samuel A. Conner, 50; Peter H. Runyon, Newark, 1,00.

House and Lot for Sale.

OWNED and occupied by the subscriber on the upper side of Fourth Street. The House is in good repair, a story and a half high. The Lot contains 1-4 of an acre of Land, well-fenced, stocked with grafted Fruit Trees, with a well-wood-house &c. &c.

Plainfield, Oct 19, 1852. WILLIAM POUND.

House and Lot, FOR SALE.

Situated in the lower part of Second Street, Plainfield, within ten minutes' walk of the depot. The House is newly new, built in modern style, 2 stories high, containing seven finished rooms, with a good cellar. The lot contains 1-4 acre of land, well stocked with fruit trees, with a good well, &c. A very desirable residence for New Yorkers and others. Terms easy, or will be exchanged for property in Newark.

Apply to the subscriber, 14 Franklin Place, Newark, or to Joseph Dunn, Plainfield.

Oct. 20, 1852—1m PETER H. RUNYON.

House and Lot, FOR SALE.

The HOUSE and Lot lately owned and occupied by Daniel Dunham, dec'd, on Second street, near the corner of Cherry, is offered for sale. The House is a story and a half high, about 16 years old, and contains 6 rooms. There is a good cistern and well-wood House, Well, Fruit Trees, &c. &c. The lot contains a quarter of an acre of Land. Apply to

Oct. 4, '52—3w CALEB FREEMAN, Executor.

FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale his Dwelling House and Lot, situated very pleasantly on Second st. in the village of Plainfield, and convenient to the following parts of the town. The house is in good order and convenient for two families. There is a never failing well of water by the door, and choice fruit trees of various kinds on the lot. He also offers for sale 25 shares of stock in the Building Loan and Saving Fund Association of Plainfield.

Sept. 27, 1852. WASHINGTON MARSH.

DISSOLUTION.

The Co-partnership heretofore existing between the subscribers under the name of Johnson & Lyon, is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

CHARLES JOHNSON.
JACOB LYON.

Oct. 1, 1852.

The business will be continued at the old stand by the subscriber, where every thing in the Grocery line will be sold cheap for Cash.

N. B. All persons indebted to the late firm are requested to call and settle without delay, at the store, where the Books are left, and the subscriber is authorized to settle the same. JACOB LYON.

Plainfield, Oct. 4, 1852.—tal.

Boots and Shoes.—A. D. GALE,

MANUFACTURER and Wholesale Dealer, invites Country Merchants to call and examine his large stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, sold extremely low for Cash, or approved credit for notes. Call and see

A. D. GALE, 225 Pearl street, corner of Platt.

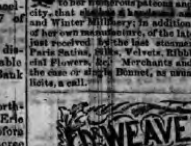
New York, Aug. 30, 1852.—3m

Fire Department.

56 Maiden Lane, Store No. 1 Fulton Street, the Manhattan Hotel, New York.

Mrs. W. Simmons respectfully announces to her numerous patrons and strangers visiting the city, that she has a handsome assortment of Paris Fall and Winter Millinery, in addition to a large assortment of her own manufacture of the latest Fall fashions. Also just received by the last steamers, a large invoice of Paris Satins, Silks, Velvets, Ribbbons, Feathers, Artificial Flowers, &c. Merchants and Milliners supplied by the case or single Bonnet, at retail. Mrs. S. kindly solicits a call.

Oct. 12—3m



CANKER & SALT RHEUM SYRUP

CANKER CURE & CERATE,

WARRANTED A CURE FOR

Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Scrofulous Humors, Liver Complaints, Canker, and all Diseases arising from Impure Blood.

These preparations are scientific predictions of a regularly educated physician (who is now exclusively engaged in the practice of this profession). They have become deservedly popular in all sections of the country where they have been introduced, that the fact that they have never failed to effect a cure where they have been used accurately.

The Canker and Salt Rheum Syrup is an article differing entirely from sarsaparilla or Dock Syrups, or any other preparation ever offered to the public. It can be positively relied on for the effectual cure of all Scrofulous Humors, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Canker in the Mouth, Stomach or Bowels, Female weaknesses, and all humors arising from an impure state of the blood. In a word it is a complete renovator, creating blood and restoring to healthy action every part of the system.

The Cerate

Is all cases of humors, and especially for Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, is a valuable accompliment to the Syrup, as it will effectually destroy every vestige of Humor from the body which will be driven out by the use of the Syrup. None of the many salves, lotions and applications ever known for Burns, Scalds, Scald Head, Old Sores, Piles, Barber's Itch, and all other eruptions on the skin. And far surpasses all other external applications.

The Canker Cure

Is the desideratum so long sought for the relief and cure of certain diseases which all other preparations have failed to relieve. It is warranted a positive cure for Nursing Sore Mouth in those cases it has never failed.—Thousands have tried it, and been cured; also, for Canker in the Mouth, Stomach and Bowels, and obstinate ulcers in the throat where other tried remedies had failed. For Ulcers and all diseases proceeding from cankerous humors in the system this is useful and an valuable accompaniment to the Syrup in all cases of the kind.

Neither of the above articles are genuine without the signature of S. A. WEAVER & Co., on the outside wrapper.

Manufactured at New London, Conn., by S. A. Weaver & Co., sole proprietors, to whom all orders must be addressed.

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

Israel Cornell, New Market; C. Barcalow, Somerville; A. C. Watson, Rahway; E. McDonald & Son, New Brunswick; J. Miller, Elizabethtown.

For sale by Wholesale Druggists generally in New York & city.

Oct. 11.—9m

Notice to the Ladies of this Place.

Ladies wishing Boots and Shoes for the Fall and Winter season can find at Miller's in Canal st., a large and splendid assortment, consisting of black and colored Gaiter Boots, Buskins and full dress Shoes for the ladies; Calf Button boots lined with chamois leather, soft and warm for Winter; Quilted Silk Boots and Buskins, a beautiful article; Boys' and Gentlemen's Tonic Slippers, suitable Holiday presents for both sexes; White Satin and Linen Gaiters; white and black Satin, bronze and black French Kid Slippers; Slippers for Balls and Parties; Ladies' Rubber Gaiter Boots and Shoes, of all the various styles and prices with Ladies', Misses' and Children's india Rubber Boots, Gaiter Boots and Shoes, Gloves, &c., the largest assortment of any store in New York. Ladies will please call and examine it for themselves.

e20 J. B. MILLER, No. 124 Canal st., N. Y.

Hosiery and Shirt store,

No. 292 Greenwich Street, corner of Chambers, New York.

The subscriber invites the attention of the public to his Fall stock of

UNDER-CLOTHING,

Consisting of The Very Best Under-garment so highly recommended by physicians,

Lamb's Wool, Merino, Cashmere, Silk & Cotton

Shirts & Drawers

Wholesale & Retail

ALSO

The Shaker shirts & drawers, Shaker knitted half Hose, Woolen Half Hose, Collars, cravats, Stocks, Gloves, Mufflers, Pocket handkerchiefs, &c.

☞ Fine Dress Shirts made to order in the most approved style.

Persons about to proceed to California will find a good assortment of Mackinaw Blankets, Traveling Bags, Money Belts, &c. &c.

☞ Terms Cash — and One Price Only. ☜

THOMAS McLAUGHLIN,
292 Greenwich St., cor. Chambers,

One block west of Hudson River Railroad Station.

New York, Oct. 4, 1852.—6m

Oils! Oils! M. RILEY,

MANUFACTURER of

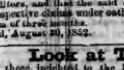
Machine, Wool & Paint and "Tanners' Oils.

Oil Works, Stapleton, Staten Island.

Office, 34 Broadway, (up stairs,) New York.

Kliberal commission allowed on all orders through Express Agents. s27-3m

Central Rail Road of N. J.



The cars will run as follows until further notice,

Leave Pier No. 1, North River, New York, at 8, A. M. 3.45 and 6.30, P. M. Sundays 8.45 A. M. and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Plainfield for New York, at 6.35 and 8.25, A. M. 1.05 and 5.30, P. M.

Leave Somerville for New York, at 9.40, A. M. 1.55 and 5.50, P. M. and for Somerville at 6.50, P. M.

Aug. 2, 1852.

Assignment Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that Lewis Runyon of the township of Plainfield, of the county of Essex and State of New Jersey, hath this day made an assignment to the subscriber for the benefit of his creditors, and that the said creditors must exhibit their respective claims under oath or affirmation within the term of three months. A. BERRY,

Dated, August 20, 1852. Assignee.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. Front attended to each; they will be passed over for collection. As I don't wish to put expenses on any one, I give this public notice that all may avoid it. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, April 9, 1852.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by May 6, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

WANTED.

A first-rate American girl, to do general housework in a small family, must understand cooking in all its branches, to such a girl first-rate wages will be given. Apply at CHESTER STREET,

Sept. 6 1852. Corner Front Plainfield.

Notice.

No. 111 Broad Street, NEWARK,

SIGN OF THE

GOLDEN EAGLE.

IMPORTER AND DEALER IN

Watches, Jewelry, Silver-Plated and Britannia Ware, Cutlery and Fancy Goods.

Also, Piano Fortes, Music, and Musical Instruments.

☞ Watches repaired superior to any other watchman in the State of New Jersey. 16

THOMAS G. STEARNS,

IMPORTER AND DEALER IN

Silks, Millinery, and Fancy Goods,

162 Broadway, New York,

Has now in Store and daily receiving and selling at the Lowest Prices, a complete and extensive selection assortment of Goods in his line, comprising all the various styles and shades, consisting in part of the following,

Black & Fancy Silks.

Marcelines, Florences, Shawls; trimmings, Bonnet Ribbons, Taffeta, and Satin Ribbons,

EMBROIDERIES

French and English Crapes, Crape Lisse,

Silk Cravats, Gloves of all kinds,

Silk Lace mitts, Dress Trimmings of all kinds, Bareges, Laces, White Goods, Hosiery, L. C. Handkerchiefs.

The undersigned would invite the attention of his friends and the trade generally. He will offer great inducements to

Cash and Short Time Buyers,

and would respectfully solicit an examination of his Stock before purchasing elsewhere.

THOMAS G. STEARNS, 162 Broadway,
Between Liberty st. and Maiden Lane.

New York, Sept. 27, 1852.—3m

D. M. KNIGHT & CO.,

Importers and Wholesale Dealers in

ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN

FANCY GOODS,

No. 53 Cedar-Street (up stairs),

(Between William and Nassau sts.)

D. M. KNIGHT,
A. S. ROBBINS, NEW-YORK.

Combs—Shell, Buffalo, and horn back Combs in all grades and sizes for wrist, dressing and pocket.

Buttons. Steel, gilt, lasting, mohair, twist, brass, metal, silk, thread, agate, &c.

Brushes, Hair, Tooth, Nail, &c.

Fancy Linen Thread, Spool Cotton, Needles, Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Hair Pins, Elastics, Whalebone, Lines and Cotton Tapes, Linen and Cotton Bobbin, Scissors, Thimbles, and a great variety of Fancy Goods, Fans, &c., all cheap for cash.

Sept. 6, 1852.—3m.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of I. S. Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with a general work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted five months satisfaction. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and Wood taken in exchange for Clocks.

Plainfield, April 13, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

FALL IMPORTATIONS.

Peterson & Humphrey,

IMPORTERS OF

Carpeting and Oil Cloths,

379 Broadway, corner of White-St., New York,

HAVE JUST RECEIVED, PER LATE ARRIVALS from Europe, their second supply of rich and elegant Carpeting, consisting of

RICH AXMINSTER and MOSAIC CARPETS, in one ENTIRE CARPET, with rich BORDER to enlarge it to any size of room.

RICH VELVET CARPETS—Patterns entirely new, imported expressly for city retail Fall Trade

TAPESTRY BRUSSELS CARPETS—An elegant assortment, surpassing in richness of COLORS and SHADING, any heretofore imported.

THREE PLY INGRAIN CARPETS, our stock will be constantly supplied with the latest and most desirable patterns, manufactured expressly for us.

OIL CLOTHS—Our arrangements with the ENGLISH and AMERICAN manufacturers enables us to offer a LARGER and better assortment, at less price, than any store in the Union.

Also, Rugs, Druggetts, Rugs, Table and Piano Covers, Mats of all kinds, Mattings, &c., and all other goods found in first-class carpet stores, for sale, on the most reasonable terms.

PETERSON & HUMPHREY,
Sept. 13—3m 379 Broadway, cor. White-st., N.Y

To Salt Dealers, and Others!

SAMUEL HOTALING, No. 101 & 103 Broad street, New York, would inform his customers in the city and country that he has Liverpool Sacks of Fine and Coarse Salt in Store, at the Turks Island, St. Martin's and other Coarse Salt in store, at the following places: at Commercial Stores, Brooklyn, at Baxter & Lawrence's Stores, foot of Bay Ridge ferry, at 48 Warren street, and also at his Salt Warehouse, No. 101 and 103, Broad street, New York. At each of the above named places a supply of salt will be kept on hand, and delivered in lots to suit purchasers, at the lowest Market prices.

Liverpool Sacks and Turks Island Salt afloat.

New York, July 26, 1852.—3m

Coffee, Spices, Mustard, &c.

WITHINGTON & WILDE,

Nos. 7 and 9 Dutch street, (between Fulton and John streets,) New York,

KEEP constantly on hand a large and well assorted stock of COFFEES, green, roasted and ground; Cinnamon, Nutmegs, Cloves, Pepper, Allspice, Ginger, Mustard, Mace, &c., whole and ground, all of the best quality, and put up in the best style. Also superior Rice Flours and Cocoa, equal to any manufactured.

Having been favorably known in this business for the past twenty years, we are confident that we can give purchasers perfect satisfaction, as to the quality and genuineness of our articles, and as good goods can be had mostly for cash, the prices will be found as favorable as those of any House in the Trade.

New york, August 16, 1852.—3m

Notice.—Wm. Lynch,

Late of 518 Pearl-Street, New York.

Wishes to inform his friends and old customers, that he will open his Wholesale Retail Grocery Store, at 223 Greenwich st., corner of Dunneat., on 22 April, with a new fresh stock of goods, such as Teas, sugars, molasses, coffees and spices, butter, cheese, lard, flour, beef and pork, and will be in readiness for cash. Families boarding house keepers, and bakers, are invited to call and examine his goods and his prices, as they can save a very large per centage, call and buy for yourselves.

Country merchants purchasing goods for cash, are particularly requested to call and examine his goods and prices before purchasing elsewhere, as they will be delivered on board of steamboats, railroads, barges, sloops, and any part of the city free of charge.

WM. LYNCH, 223 Greenwich street, New York.

Doctor Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant, Sanative Pills

Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops. These drops are an agreeable, effectual remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholic, Cramps, pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Atwood's Spinal Elixir for the spine disease. Also, Hunt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by April 20, 1852. JAMES N. DUNN.

DR. A. PRUDEN,

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning-Fluid, &c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual.

June 16, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

ROSE MEDICINES—A Full assortment for sale by Aug. 30—tf I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

Æolian Piano Fortes.

T. GILBERT & CO.'S CELEBRATED PIANO FORTES

with and without the Æolian.

The subscriber, who is sole agent in this city for the sale of these Instruments, (the reputation of which has become world-wide,) is now prepared to offer them at prices which to those wishing to purchase, cannot fail to be satisfactory. Possessing facilities for obtaining Pianos unsurpassed, if equalled by those of any other house in the city, he has not hesitate to say that he can present inducements to buyers not to be found elsewhere. He has constantly on hand an extensive assortment of second hand Pianos, at bargains which he fearlessly asserts will defy competition. Gilbert's Elegant Boudoir or cottage pianos, suitable for Parlors, Churches, Lecture Rooms, &c. Piano and Cabinet's make. Grand Æolian and other Pianos to let.

HORACE WATERS, 333 Broadway, corner of Anthony, (up-stairs) N.Y.

Sept. 27, 1852.—3m

AN ASSORTMENT OF SUPERB

JEWELRY.

THE subscribers have just added to their previous stock of Jewelry, a new lot of the latest and richest patterns extant, comprising a choice and select assortment of Ear Rings, Breast Pins, Finger Rings, &c. with various other kinds of Jewelry too numerous for enumeration.

They would also beg leave to say to our patrons and friends and every one who would like to get a piece of Jewelry, not only fashionable in style but fine in quality, elegant in design, superb in finish, combining strength, neatness and durability, and withal cheapness, an article which its intrinsic excellence cannot fail to give the most perfect satisfaction.

Come, our goods examine, and the truth of the statement try.

And if not found as represented we'll not ask you to buy.

A. H. & J. W. MILLER, Jewelry Store,
At the Sign of the Golden Watch, 168
Sept. 20, 1852.—3m. Broad-street, Newark

FRENCH LANGUAGE.

NEW TESTIMONY TO THE MERITS OF

FASQUELLE'S NEW METHOD

OF LEARNING THE

FRENCH LANGUAGE,

Embracing both the Analytical and Synthetical Modes of Instruction.

In one volume, 12mo. Price $1.25 retail.

FIFTH EDITION.

Published by

NEWMAN & IVISON, 199 Broadway, New York.

From N. W. Howard, Newcastle, Va

I was so convinced of its superiority to all other text-books on the same subject, that have fallen under my notice, that I immediately caused it to be procured by a class of young ladies, with whom I was about to commence instructing. The progress they have made in three months has highly gratified themselves, their parents, and their teacher, and I attribute it will justly, to the systematic and practical, yet simple plan of the work.

From Cyrus Knowlton, Principal of the Hughes High School, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Fasquelle's grammar satisfies me. It is evidently the work of a thorough teacher as well as thorough scholar.

From the New York Evangelist.

We never saw a more finished treatise on that polite language.

From the New York Evangelist.

A very philosophical and complete christomathy in this much-desired language.

From the New York Courier & Enquirer.

The book presents every facility the French learner can ever reasonably wish.

From P. N. Legendre, New Haven, Ct.

Never has a work come under my notice that blends so happy and harmoniously the great rival elements of the language. My pupils study it with pleasure.

From Zion's Herald.

It presents the true method of study, and seems to us scarcely capable of improvement.

From the Literary World.

Its classifications are minute and painstaking, carefully labeling the various obstacles.

From the Albion.

One of the very best arranged books that we have ever seen.

From the Methodist Quarterly Review.

The work is done every where with conscientious thoroughness.

From the New Haven Palladium.

The book is exceedingly valuable, and will have an immense sale.

From the Patriot & Free Press.

It seems to us more decidedly superior to any work of its kind ever published.

☞ Teachers who wish to examine the work can have a copy sent by mail, postage paid, on the receipt, by sending Post-office stamps to the amount of 63 cents.

Just published a New Edition of

"TELEMAQUE,"

IN FRENCH,

With Notes and Grammatical References.

BY LOUIS FASQUELLE, L. L. D.,

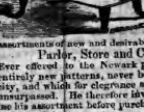
Professor of Modern Languages in the University of Michigan.

1 vol. 12mo. on fine paper, and neatly bound.

NEWMAN & IVISON,
School Book Publishers,
Sept. 20.3m 199 Broadway, New York.

FALL AND WINTER CAMPAIGN OPENED.

1852-3.



G. O. PHILLIPS,
Nos. 2 Commerce st.
and
Newark.

Encouraged by the past and looking with confidence to the future, have laid in one of the most complete assortments of new and desirable styles of

Parlor, Store and Cooking Stoves,

Ever offered to the Newark public, comprising some entirely new patterns, never before introduced in this city, and which for elegance and utility of design are unsurpassed. He therefore invites purchasers to examine his assortment before purchasing elsewhere, which consists (inter alia) of

Saratoga Coal Burner,

This is a new and elegant Parlor Store, but recently brought into use, which received the most enthusiastic approval of all who have used it. It has been pronounced equal, if not superior to the celebrated Stanley Coal Burner, and can be furnished at about one-half its cost.

The Rip Van Winkle Parlor Store,

This is a new and splendid Parlor Stove, for either wood or coal, designed after the celebrated story of Washington Irving.

The New Republic,

This Stove has now been in use more than 18 months, has been subject to the most rigid tests, and received the most unqualified approval of thousands. As a Cooking Stove, for either wood or coal, it stand superior, and in the point of baking Stove ever offered.

"Vesuvius" Cooking Stove,

This celebrated Stove has been in use by several families in this city for the past two years, and those from whom we have purchased have invariably pronounced them the best. They all agree in pronouncing it the very best stove in use, for economy in fuel, and the various purposes for which it may be applied. It is so arranged as to conduct the heat to different apartments.

Have Patent Tabular Range.

This Range is constructed on the most scientific principles, with the best idea of performing all the duties of a Range, and possessing many merits far surpassing any range ever before offered. One of them may be seen in operation at the subscriber's store.

The above, with the Globe, Empire, Air Tight Cylinder, the Croton (Cocking Stove) Porter Grates, &c. &c., also on hand.

The subscriber also keeps constantly on hand a large supply of Tin and Britannia Ware, Coal Hods, Shovels and Pokers, brass and Iron Kettles, Cooking Utensils, of all kinds, &c. &c.

☞ Stoves delivered and put up with care id any part of the city. Thankful for past favors the subscriber requests, and will endeavor to merit a continuance of the same. G. O. PHILLIPS,

Newark Sept. 20 —3t No. 2 Commerce st.

BABBITT'S Double Refined Powdered Saleratus "
" Celebrated Soap Powder.
For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

BARAGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received and selling off cheap.
Cashmeres, this colors, for 6 cents per yard
May 8, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

New Fall and Winter Dry Goods.

HITCHCOCK & LEADBEATER,
No. 287 Broadway, corner of Leonard st. New York.

HAVE RECEIVED THEIR NEW FALL IMPORTATIONS, and are ready for

PURCHASING AT AUCTION

every variety of choice and desirable Fall and Winter FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS;

and are prepared to offer their customers a very extensive and rich variety of

PLAIN, CHANGEABLE AND FIGURED SILKS,

of every variety of the latest styles and colors. Also, striped plaid brocade, and every kind, in black, of French and India Silks, including a large assortment of the celebrated the handsomest and most durable manufactured.

DISCHARGE BLACK SILKS,

SHAWLS, LONG AND SQUARE,

of every variety and kind, as Brocke, plain and figured Cashmere, Merino, Plaid, Rob Roy, and the CELEBRATED BAY STATE SHAWLS,

All which they can sell at the very lowest prices.

FRENCH MERINOES and CASHMERES

A large assortment, of every desirable color.

PLAID MOUSELINE DE LAINES,

and Winter Goods, of the most desirable patterns.

PLAID GOODS OF EVERY KIND

A choice and elegant assortment; and in fact,

Every Kind of Ladies' Dress Goods,

suitable for the Fall and Winter trade; and a splendid assortment of goods of various kinds,

Suitable for Children's Wear.

They would also invite attention to their stock of

Housewife or Family Goods,

as plain Linen and Cotton Goods of every kind, Table Damasks, Napkins, Towels, Woolen Blankets, Quilts Flannels, Canton Flannels, Diapers, Toweling, Lace and Muslin Draperies, Jusa's Celebrated Rid Gloves,

the best article brought to this market, at 6c. a pair

Ribbons—A Splendid Assortment!

which Ladies and Milliners will find worthy their attention

Mourning Goods of Every Kind,

including black Bombazines, Alpacas, Canton Cloths, Canton Crapes, Crapes de Bareges, De Laines, plain and figured, and everything, in fact, requisite for a Ladies' Mourning Wardrobe,

Wide Velvets, French Cloths,

and every kind of goods for Ladies' Cloakings

and every kind of Furnishings of every kind, as For, Silk, Merino and Cotton Undershirts, and Drawers, Scarfs, Cravats, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, &c., full 30 per cent. less than at the gentlemen's Furnishing Store.

Terms—Cash! Cash on Delivery!

Merchants from abroad will be able to select many articles from our stock which will enable them to "sort up" their stock to advantage. Call!

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES FACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 25 cents per piece (the paper and paste included.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Also, Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to 64 per piece. A Room papered in 4 hours.

J. F. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers

Plainfield, N. J. May 10, 1852.

Bigelow's Alterative,

A Certain Cure for Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, and All Summer Complaints.

GEORGE W. BLEECKER, Proprietor, 98 Broadway, New York.

Price 50 cents per bottle.

TESTIMONIALS.

I have used "Bigelow's Alterative" in my family, and have never found it to fail, when all other remedies administered for the relief of Dysteries, have proved ineffectual. I think it a perfect specific for Dysenteric and all Bowel complaints.

GEO. BLEECKER, 47 Wall-street,

New-York, March 22d, 1852.

We can add our testimony to that of others of its great efficacy in our own case, when prostrated to an alarming degree by Bowel disease. It was the only medicine that gave relief, and we feel it our duty to give it our support.

Editor of N. Y. Baptist Register.

Utica, April 15th 1852.

Dear Sir,—I rejoice to hear that you are about to introduce Bigelow's Alterative into this place, which has been of much benefit to my family. About a year since, my little girl, about three years of age, was in a very low state with the Dysentery. She had been three days of the bowels that scarcely anything but blood passed them. I mentioned her state to a neighbor, not thinking that you possessed a sovereign remedy. He advised me to give her about one piece of rye, and two tea spoonfuls, when the mother declared she was as well as ever, is now in good health, and has not had an attack since. Her sister, about two years of age, was taken last week with a similar complaint, when about 2 tea-spoonfuls restored her to perfect health. Still another case, my son Hiram, about nine years of age, was much afflicted with bowel complaint, his countenance became sallow, with loss of appetite, etc., when but a few teaspoonfuls of your valuable medicine, under God, has regulated his system.

With many obligations, I am dear sir,

Yours, respectfully,

HIRAM O. SMITH, 80 First-street.

E. M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

Aug. 23, 1852—3m

Prepared or Artificial GUANO.

At 1 cent per pound, or $20 per ton of 2000 lbs.

AT a meeting of the Farmer's Club, American Institute, New York, on the 16th December, 1851, the following communication was made.

I present a specimen of Turnips raised upon my place last season, which was (on account of the dry weather) an unfavorable one for roots. The seed was sown on the largest grown, although this weighed when first pulled, 4 3-4 lbs. I used in the Spring of 1850, about three barrels of Prepared Guano, to the acre, and planted Sweet Corn, which produced a large crop. The land prepared with potatoes, which was also a good crop. After which I put in the Turnip seed, without any further Manuring. Also, with three barrels mentioned, and the result was far beyond my expectations.

E. P. ROBERTS, Dec. 12, 1851.

POTATO ROT.

Wappingers Falls, N. Y., Sept. 29, 1850.

I have used "Kentish's Prepared Guano" this season on potatoes. My crop was large and sound. Where I did not use it, the potatoes were rotten and worthless. My neighbors who have used it, have had a fine crop. I have not raised a saleable potato this year. I consider it a preventive of Rot! G. PRATT.

Extract of a Letter from B. B. Addison, Alexandria Co., Va. April 20, 1851.

Dr. John H. Boyne, President of Prince George's Co. Agricultural Society, Maryland, has desired me to inform you that he has used your Prepared Guano, Superphosphate, Peruvian Guano, and your prepared Guano. The first two were distanced, but the result from the Peruvian and yours, was about equal. He pronounces your prepared Guano a valuable article, and esteems it highly. Manufactured only at

KENTISH & CO.

DEPOT, No. 40 PECK SLIP, NEW YORK.

For Sale at this Office. July 19.—3m

A Great Reduction in Prices, at THOMAS H. DAVIS'S Furnishing Store,

The Largest Stock in the City,

226 Burnet-St. New Brunswick & 186 Broad St. Newark.

IT will be well worthy the notice of all those who want to purchase Goods cheap, at HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, Crockery, Glass, China, Cutlery, Britannia ware, Looking Glasses, Bureaus, Bedsteds, Boston Rockers, Tables, Oil Cloths, Feathers, Feather Beds, Mattresses, &c. In fact all things that are needed to housekeeping, which to enumerate would fill a newspaper. Though one thing I must mention—BOOTS and SHOES, Men's, women and misses, all can be found at very low prices that every body is astonished, both in town and country how cheap it can be done. Why, I can see how he does it, he attends to business himself, buys for cash and sells for the same, therefor he does not impose upon those that pay for those that never meant to pay. This is the true principle of doing business. Give him a call, 226 Burnet-street, over Shryber's Eating House.

July 19.—3m THOMAS H. DAVIS.

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment,

AT less than N. York prices, formerly kept by Lyon & Lyon. July 12, 1852. W. LYON.

LIVER COMPLAINT,

JAUNDICE, DYSPEPSIA, CHRONIC OR NERVOUS Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and Diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, Deficiency of perspiration, Yellowness of the skin and eyes, Pain in the side, back, limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of heat, Burning in the Flesh; constant Imaginings of evil and Great depression of spirits, can be effectually cured by

DR. HOOFLAND'S
CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

PREPARED BY

DR. C. M. JACKSON,

At the German Medicine Store, 120 Arch St. Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled—if equalled—by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures effected, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids possessing great virtues in the rectification of disorders of the first importance; gladly exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are without, safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

From the "Boston Dew."

The editor said, Dec. 23rd

Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands of our friends and neighbors, who has himself received an effectual and permanent cure Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in all diseases where the patient gradually gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell; and can be used by persons with the most delicate constitution, with safety and the greatest benefit. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use.

"SCOTT'S WEEKLY," one of the best Literary papers in the country.

Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an excellent article. In cases of female debility, such as such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of delicate constitutions, all that requires tonic medicine to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

MORE EVIDENCE

The Hon. C. D. HOLLINS, Mayor of the City Camden, N. J., says:

"HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have seen many certificates in favor of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say, we found it operate in such action upon the organs of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of quietude, producing refreshing sleep.

"This medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver and nervous system the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. It restores them in a healthy condition, and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are in all instances to give it a trial, for it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidence of merit."

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor, is, that there is more of it used with the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their gales approval, when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. Its acts peculiarly upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and without detriment at any time.

Look well to the merits of the preparation.

They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle, without which they are counterfeit.

For sale Wholesale and Retail at the

GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

No. 120 Arch street, one door below 6th, Philadelphia; and by respectable dealers generally through the country.

Prices Reduced.

To enable all classes of invalids to enjoy the advantages of their great restorative,

Single Bottle 75 cents.

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.

Sept. 20, 1852.—1y

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by P. Mosher, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to receive orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

Also, Paper Hanging, all of which will be promptly, punctually and honestly executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned hereby returns thanks to his customers for their liberal patronage the past year, and hopes, by faithfully endeavors to merit and secure a continuance of their favors.

☞ Orders may be left at the Union Office, or

April 1, 1852.—y CHARLES TAYLOR.

"Every Family should have a Copy."

An Invaluable book; only 25 cts.—Most to Thankfully.

DR. HUNTER'S MEDICAL MANUAL AND HAND BOOK FOR THE AFFLICTED. Containing an outline of the Origin, Progress, Treatment and Cure of every form of disease, contracted by Promiscuous Sexual Intercourse, by Self-abuse, or by Excess, with advice for their treatment, even in the most familiar style, avoiding all medical technicalities, and everything that would offend the ear of decency, from the result of some twenty years successful practice, exclusively devoted to the study of the diseases of a delicate and private nature.

To which is added, receipts for the cure of the above disease, and a treatise on the causes, symptoms and cure of the Fever and Ague. Every person should have a six copies one dollar; will be forwarded to any part of the United States, by mail, free of postage. Add ess, (post paid,) DR. J. HUNTER, or the Author, 28 North Seventh Street, Philadelphia.

FIFTY DOLLARS FORFEIT. DR. HUNTER will forfeit $50 if failing to cure any case of secret disease that may come under his care, no matter how long standing, or afflicting. Either one are invited to his Private Rooms, 28 North Seventh Street, Philadelphia, without fear of interruption from other patients. Strangers and others will be well furnished in the selection of a Physician are invited to call

IMPOTENCY—Through unrestrained indulgence of the passions by excess or self-abuse, the evils are numerous, such as nervousness, debility, pimples on the face, seminal discharges, wasting of the organs, loss of memory, a desire for female society, general debility, or constitutional derangement which renders one unfit for business, consult the Doctor with confidence; he offers a perfect cure.

READ AND REFLECT.—The afflicted would do well to reflect before trusting their health, happiness and in many cases their lives, in the hands of physicians ignorant of this class of maladies. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the human family is subject to. Every respectable physician has his peculiar branch, in which he is more successful than his brother professors, and to that he devotes most of time and study.

YEARS OF PRACTICE, exclusively devoted to the study and treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, together with observation upon the body, throat, nose or legs, pains in the head, or bones, mercurial rheumatism, strictures, gravel, irregularities, diseases, or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become infected, no matter by what means originally, but to all who may place themselves under his care.

Medicine forwarded to any part of the United States, by addressing (post paid) letters to the Author, per package.

Sept. 7, 1852.—1y

Masonic Revived.

A Masonic Lodge will be opened at Plainfield and Stephens adjacent thereto, on the first Monday of each month, at the house of John Ayres, in Plainfield, on the first Monday in the 18th of November next, and on the first Monday in the 18th of December next, for the purpose of conferring the third and sublime degree of Masonry. Said Lodge to be called Plainfield Lodge, No. 69. Dated Covington was called to the Chair and D. T. Bonnell appointed Secretary. The Chair stated that having learned the fallen condition of Masonry in this vicinity, he had called the meeting for the purpose of reviving the same, and requested the brethren present to express their views upon the subject. Whereupon, the following brethren stated the fallen condition of Masonry in this vicinity, and the injuries sustained by the fraternity obtained by certain persons and others not practical masons taking contracts for erecting and completing buildings, by which contracts for erecting and completing buildings, by which they have undertaken to work under such subcontractors and depend upon them for their wages, or be driven to the necessity of buying a lein upon such buildings, subjecting them to the payment of the debts of such subcontractors, and for divers other considerations, therefore it is Resolved, 1st, That henceforth we will not work for any such subcontractor for any practical reason on any building or bridge as constructed for, either by the day or by contract.

Resolved, 2d, That the foregoing resolutions do not apply to building upon our own premises.

Resolved, 4th, That all masons working on any building or structure in violation of the spirit and intent of the foregoing resolutions will be held and esteemed by us as unworthy of the craft.

David Codington,	Israel Moore,
B. T. Mulford,	William Richardson,
John Mullener,	John Richardson,
Benj. M. Lawler,	Warren Marsh,
Nehemiah V. Smalley,	Christopher Baker,
James H. Allen,	James Davidson,
Edward Philbower,	S. B. G. Willet,
John R. Hetfield,	Francis J. Moore,
Joseph C. Drake,	Jonathan Ryno.
Isaac Moore.

Plainfield, Sept. 16, 1852.—3m

Dodd & Benton,
352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

IN

HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail.

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, all of which are made at our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction. Purchasers will may select or order from the assortment on hand, and be sure that they can rely upon being fairly dealt with. Our stock of goods is as favorable as at any establishment in the country.

352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

May 24, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

MARBLE & STONE YARD

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Somerset and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful FOOT STONE, for sale by, from which I will furnish to order every variety of stone for building purposes, ornamental or plain. All of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices as low as can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1852.—1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUSE, Hay, Blow and Portable Platform, Beam, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not liable get out of order.

Manufactory 39 Greene street, New York,

Also, Fulton Ave. at 88th street,

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

☞ Repairing done in short notice.

A. B. DURYEE, J. ROBISON.

Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

HOWE'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

[IN MEN]

Rheumatism,	Sprains, Weakness in the
Burns, Bruises,	Sore Throat, Frosted Feet, Limb & Joint.
[IN HORSES]
Sheaves, Sprains,	Ringbone, Poll Evil, and all
Warbles, Galls,	Fistula, Bruises of the Breast,
Cuts, Scratches,	Thoroughpin, where an Embrocation
Windgall,	Saddle Galls. can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOWE, CHEMIST,

No. 28 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, have used Howe's Improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved itself in our families to be

Isaac Moore, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barney McCherry, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel R. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick; Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton; Joseph Hammitt, John A Weart, Trenton; A. W. Brown, South Amboy; Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, N. J.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. EWAL CRAIG in Somerville by Culver & Cannon, in New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

DOCTOR AND MR. DRAKE, PHYSICIANS,

NO. 196 WEST FIFTEENTH STREET, NEW YORK, Son-in-law, daughter and successor to the late

Mr. Rob't McCOY,

THE CELEBRATED

FEMALE PHYSICIAN.

Formerly of New York and Boston.

THEIR success in the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES, or those of long standing, such as Heart, Liver, Kidneys, and other viscera, all Nervous and Female complaints, particularly those arising from or attendant upon debility, Scrofulous, Scorbutic, or Cutaneous disorders of the blood, is well and generally known. Many considered unnecessary to consume upon it, further than to say, that they have repeatedly performed permanent cures in cases of the most inveterate character, which had been unsuccessfully treated, and in many instances pronounced incurable by some of the most eminent in the medical profession.

Those desirous of trying MRS. MOTT'S CELEBRATED REMEDIES and becoming more fully informed on DR. and MRS. DRAKE'S system of treatment, will receive their advice gratuitously, by addressing a letter (post paid) addressed to their residence as above.

☞ Medicines carefully packed and forwarded in safety to all parts, by Express. jan6 1y

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, Elizabethtown, would inform his friends and the public that he has just returned from the city of New York with a large and well selected assortment of

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,
I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all,
Goods on our counter now do lie,
To suit the mind, to please the eye.
We paid the cash to buy them cheap,
We'll sell them right to sell a heap.
Ginghams and Muslins, Combs and Cords,
The newest styles New York affords;
Delaines and Gauze, Calicoes gay,
Colors of which we'll warrant true.
Cloths and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,
And all the goods which men do use;
Together with a good supply
Of groceries good which will defy
A class of men who live with us,
And ever to a year make quite a fuss,
To go to Brunswick with their trade
Of stores at home they are afraid.
We'll sell to these and all the rest,
So come and see us at our best.
With Brunswick prices we'll compete,
And she shall tremble in the heat;
So come to Elizabethtown, and call
I. S DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Plainfield, May 13, 1850

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the new tax law, by coming to the Store of the subscriber and purchasing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere. Also, a general assortment of Dry Goods. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and prices which may be made up to order at brief notice. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of tailor's trimmings at a low price—also constantly for sale, Shirts, Collars, Cuffs, Gloves, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Cutting, trimming, and making done at the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. WM. DUNN & CO.

Store, below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Plainfield, Dec. 1.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Drake's new building in Cherry st., 2nd door from Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the vicinity of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns DeLaines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds, A good assortment of Ready Made Summer Goods, Calicoes, Ginghams, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES.

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, Fresh Fruits, Pickles, Pickled Oysters, Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Flour and Provisions.

Tubs, Baskets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, whisk shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.

LIME, Rhode Island and Glens Falls.

☞ All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods.

April 20, 1852.—1y. JAMES M. DUNN.

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the Subscriber at low prices a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N.J. containing from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on Sd. St., Mt. Main, Liberty and William sts; also a good sized lot with a Dwelling House and Stable suitable for the accommodation of two families, and is a valuable location, very nigh the centre of the business part of the village, at the corner of Exchange and Somerset st. a very short distance from Tiswerth, Dunn & Co's Store

Jan. 10 1852.—tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Square and Round Post, Fancy Rush, Common do' Rockers, and Children's Chairs; Also,

Wash and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel do.

March 25, 1853. For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at I. S. DUNHAM & CO.'S.

Cover's Black Ink,

THE best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

$500 GREAT REWARD!

WHEREVER there is a case of Rheumatism, Dyspepsia or Scrofula that cannot be cured by the use of Dr. John Ayres, in Philadelphia, the proprietor will pay the above reward to any person who can produce evidence that Dr. Ayres has ever published a certificate that was not genuine and strictly true, or that he has ever refused to give the best and equitable cure to any person who called on him. Dr. Ayres' Sarsaparilla is compounded from the Extracts of Roots, Herbs and Barks, with Iodide of Potassium, Nitro-Muriatic Acid, Sarsaparilla and Mandrake, and is the most powerful alterative and purifier of the blood ever discovered. Where the system has been reduced low by Mercury, Dr. Ayres' Sarsaparilla will build it up. Where the blood is impure, Dr. Ayres' Sarsaparilla will purify it. Where the liver is inactive, Dr. Ayres' Sarsaparilla will restore it to healthy action. Where the kidneys are affected, Dr. Ayres' Sarsaparilla will cure them. Where the constitution has been shattered by the use of Mercury, Dr. Ayres' Sarsaparilla will build it up. Where the blood is corrupted, Dr. Ayres' Sarsaparilla will purify it. Where the system is reduced low by Dyspepsia, Dr. Ayres' Sarsaparilla will restore it to healthy action

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 43. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, October 26, 1852. Whole Number 823.

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

WILLIAM HOVEY'S PATENT

Spiral Straw Cutter, 1844, improved, 1852.

The Celebrated Machines will be kept constantly for sale by RALPH & CO. at their

AGRICULTURAL WAREHOUSE,

No. 23 Fulton street

where the sole agents for the City of New York, and will sell these machines at the following reduced prices at retail, and will make a liberal discount to dealers in or out of the city, who purchase to sell again:

No. 4 knives, length of knife 11-4 inches, cut 1 inch, $6.50 With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $6.50
No. 4 knives, length 5 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $7.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $7.50
No. 4 knives, length 6 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $8.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $8.50.
No. 4 knives, length 7 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $9.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 10.50.
No. 4 knives, length 8 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $12.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 12.50.
No. 4 knives, length 9 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $15.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 16.00.
No. 4 knives length 10 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $18.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 20.00.

Nos. 5 and 6 can be used by power.

Machine closely resembles the last and improved machines in the list prices of other Cylinder Cutters, with regard to the No. marked on the machine, and will find that these Cutters are less in price than other Cylinder Cutters in the market. Boys will find that No's are deceptive and strive to mislead and deceive the purchaser. WM. HOVEY & LASELL.

RALPH & Co., No. 23 Fulton Street, New-York.

16 –3mis

HOPE'S EXPRESS,

M. F. CUSHING Agent for Plainfield,

Leaves Plainfield for New York at 8 1-2, A. M. For Camville, Kendall, &c. 2 P. M.

Arrives at Plainfield from New York at 5 1-2 P. M From Easton, &c 8 1-2 A. M.

All business entrusted to us will be punctually attended to, without delay, at moderate charges, for cash. ×

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received. He extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome and serviceable hats as they can in New York or Philadelphia at half a dollar each cheaper.

I. E. Moleskin or Silk Hats made to order at short notice and in the best style.

Oct. 25, 1851.—1y

Lyon's Kathairon,

For the Growth and Embellishment of the Hair, and to Prevent its falling off and Turning Gray.

Awarded the Highest Premiums by the States of New York, Maryland and Ohio, and at their annual Fairs of 1851.

THE Kathairon neutralises the effect of disease, climate, and old age, by restoring, preserving and beautifying the human Hair, even after a Baldness of twenty years; it cures the scalp from Scurf and Dandruff; will cure Nervous Headache, Scald Head, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Skin, &c. and is the most desirable for ladies or Gentleman's use in the world. Its peculiarity is that it contains no Alcohol, and is entirely free from all offensive rancid oil or coloring properties, it will make the Hair that clean, bright, soft, lively appearance, secured by no other preparation.

TOILET ARTICLE

The use of Kathairon is adapted by the first physicians in Europe and America, and has a patronage and unprecedented in the history of the materia medica. Words are superfluous, a trial only can attest its virtue, as millions certify. To be had throughout North and South America, Europe and the Islands of the Ocean, in large Bottles, for 25 cents.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING.

July 19, 1852.—6m*

R. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York

LYON'S EXTRACT OF

Pure Jamaica Ginger.

Dear Sir,—I speak from a general knowledge of the value of Ginger, and particularly of your preparation of Jamaica Ginger, having used it three years in my family.

For Dyspepsia, Cholera, Cholic, Summer complaint, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, General Weakness, &c. it is unquestionably the best medicine in the world. Its effect in enabling the system to throw off and resist disease of all kinds is most during wet and stormy weather, makes it invaluable to every family. I have usually used present nine-tenths of the protracted illness during the summer season.

Yours truly, R. M. CHILSON, M. D.

153 Bond-Street, New York."

This article, peculiarly adapted to this climate, and found to be so universally used, can be had in Plainfield of Dr. Hoff, Dr. Hall, and M. F. CUSHING.

R. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

LIGHTNING RODS!

M. QUIMBY & SON, No. 182 East Twenty-Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and sell their improved Lightning Rods, which have now been in use for seven years, with a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. Mr. A. M. Quimby has made Electricity the study of his life, and his rods are always put in accordance with certain rules which he has formulated and adopted as the result of his experience. An adherence to these rules is deemed to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning. Almost all buildings are different in situated and exposed as regards lightning, and require a different arrangement of conductors to secure perfect protection, which is the reason why so many of the common rods have failed heretofore; being put up by persons ignorant of the laws by which electricity is governed, they are not arranged on buildings in such a manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances.

Mr. Quimby's rods have been erected on the houses of R. Hoe & Co., Gilbert Elliot, Esq., Dr. Hall, &c. &c. in Plainfield, and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church, St. Paul's Church, and the church of the Divinity, Brooklyn, City Hall, &c. &c.

Orders to the above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information can be had on application.

Plainfield, May 3d, 1852.—6m*

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned on the 1st day of May, will remove his store to No. 16 Malden-Lane, where formerly occupied by him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the superiority of the Needles imported by him: James Gay & Son's celebrated Needles-Richards' Grocers, and other Needles.—Pearl Buttons, Combs' Steel and Pens, Spool and Ball Cotton, Stay Binding Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket &c. &c.

RICH'D RICHARDS.

Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods,

M. 1852.—3m. 16 Malden-Lane New York

ng! Now is the time!

RNER Stock at cost! Must and shall be sold, to room for Fall and Winter Goods. Call and been buying elsewhere. I. S. DUNHAM & CO,

THE STRONG MAN.

In the pleasant little village of R——, not a hundred miles from Boston, there lived, a few years since, a gay, frolicking young man by the name of John Rose, who was noted through his region for two striking peculiarities—neither of which made him a favorite with the boys, and, ergo, both of which ever drew forth the sweetest smiles from the ladies.

His peculiarities were as follows—

First, John had a large flow of words, and was a perfect master of the language of compliments and being favored with a set of features, cast in rather a superior mould to those of the common herd, he, of course, was a favorite with the fair sex, and no party or dance was considered complete without John.

Peculiarity number two the ladies knew but little of, and cared less, though it was said by the boys that not a few of the girls not only humored, but encouraged John in his unpopular whim.

John was muscular, wonderfully so; having muscles in his arm that would have done credit to a young horse, and, unlike most people possessing uncommon strength, he delighted in boasting of it.

This was the whim which was so peculiarly objectionable to the boys, and which daily tended to obliterate in them every feeling of friendship towards him.

They could easily have soothed their own consciences for pitching into him some dark night, and flogging him within an inch of his life; but to make such an attempt was considered so dangerous that no half dozen lads in the settlement dare take stock in that company.

Now, although John possessed Herculean strength, and could hold out a fist six at arm's length with as much apparent ease as his associates could a tallow candle, he was not of a quarrelsome disposition. He was never known but once to strike a person in anger—on which occasion, when but fifteen years old, he knocked down a big teamster for abusing his horse, and compelled him to promise, on his knees, that his inhumanity should never be repeated. Still John would boast, especially if a little "heating," which (we are sorry to say) occurred every time there was a husking, log-rolling, paring bee, raising, wedding, or dance.

In consequence of his remarkable strength, the boys had, in early life, nicknamed John "Young Roscius;" but as, at the time of our story, he had attained the dignified age of twenty, the word young was dropped, and he was now usually known throughout the neighborhood as "Roscius."

As we have before remarked, "Roscius" was very unpopular with the boys, on account of his continual boasting; but they could have put up with this, were he not also such a universal favorite with the ladies. That was too much!

But how could they help themselves? Ah! there was the rub. It wouldn't do to attempt whipping him, nor giving him a complimentary ride on a three cornered portion of a rail fence. No! that wouldn't do. What then would do? for all declared that "something must be done."

"I have it!" remarked a young man in green specs, whose sweetheart the night before had given him the slip and taken the arm of "Roscius" for a moonlight stroll. "Yes, I have it! I have a plan that will be sure to either cure this impudent fellow of his boasting, or cause him to leave the town altogether."

A private consultation was now held by the more intelligent members of the party for about ten minutes, whereupon the crowd broke up with boisterous laughter; and the young man, known among the boys as Specs, treated all hands with long mind to puff away all future trouble, and to soothe their mortification for the past.

Nearly three weeks had now passed since the above private consultation, and still "Roscius" continued to boast of the number of pounds that he could swing over his head, and lift with one, two, and three fingers, and still he ogled the girls, and promenaded when and with whom he pleased.

The uninitiated grew impatient, and panted for satisfaction and immediate action on the part of the private committee—the chairman of whom, by general consent, was considered the young man in green specs; who, by the way, had fallen out and made up three times during the last ten days with his girl, on account of liberties which she allowed the boasting "Roscius."

Still the victim slightly coughed, wiped his glasses, and exclaimed—

"Patience, boys, patience! The time will soon come! Artifice has done more in conquering a strong foe than ever artillery did. So be patient, and vengeance shall be thine."

The next day, cards of invitation were sent far and near for a splendid ball to be given at the town hotel, where the "best society," male and female, was "confidently expected."

This welcome announcement, for John was the best dancer for many miles around, produced such a wonderful change of positive electricity throughout his muscular frame, which powerfully attracted the negatives of the other sex, that when the long wished for night came round on the wheel of time, every nook and corner of the house was filled, and it gave the happy company assembled as had ever been seen in Rose.

As the Maine liquor law was something that had never been heard of in those days, the male members of the party, among whom "Roscius," dressed in his gayest attire, was not the slowest, were often observed wending their way from the merry dance down the back flight of stairs to see the "elephant," and take a bracing sniff of air.

After a few of these trips, John became so wonderfully invigorated with the many "fresh sniffs," that he soon resuscitated again the old subject of his wonderful lifting, and insisted that he could swing over his head, without dropping it, a larger weight than any two men in that town.

"Doubted!" said the man in green specs.

John turned and looked upon the small though closely knit and withy frame of the young man, with as much astonishment as if he had said that Noah had his ark all built and ready for launching, and would be exhibited at three cents a head.

"Doubted, did you say?" inquired the happy "Roscius," smiling with a consciousness of his own remarkable ability.

"Yes, sir! that was my remark," said "Specs" "and I am willing to back my opinion with a cool ten spot, that I—small as I am—can lift over my head, without dropping it that which you cannot."

The reply of "Roscius" to the cool stamper was characteristic of the man. Taking from his pocket book two five dollar gold pieces he good humoredly exclaimed,

"Will some lady in the room have the kindness to hold twenty dollars in her hand for about three quarters of a minute, while I can convince this fellow that I can lift more with my left thumb than he can with both his hands?"

There was a perfect stampede among the girls that they each might be the lucky one to confer a favor on the only man in town who was a universal favorite with the fair sex.

The girl, however, with whom "Specs," had so often formed and dissolved copartnership, proved the happy one to hold the stakes; and as she received in her trembling hand the glittering money, it could plainly be seen that she was agitated by a variety of opposite emotions. It was evident that she preferred "Roscius," if she could get him; if not, she preferred her old lover in specs.

The dancing ceased, and as many of the company as the room would hold crowded into the parlor to witness the feat of strength which was to decide, once for all, who was the strongest man in R——.

Stepping up to the table, "Specs" grasped a heavy brown pitcher, some fifteen inches in height, and ten inches in diameter; and exclaimed—

"Now, ladies and gentlemen, I will take this heavy stone pitcher, which you see is filled with water, and which altogether probably weighs not less than thirty pounds, by the handle, and hold it with my left hand directly over my head for full half a minute, and then again set the pitcher upon the table without spilling one drop of the contents."

"Specs" here lifted the pitcher, and altho' no slight task, performed the trick as described. As he set it upon the table, however, the exciting cry of A fight! a fight! arose from the opposite side of the room, and the eyes of every one present, with the exception of those belonging to the league, were turned in that direction: and before they were turned again to the table, by a few rapid movements, the pitcher was changed for another of the same size and stamp, and "Specs" had his hand upon the handle, exclaiming—

"Come, come! never mind about the fight now! If you can hold that pitcher by the handle over your head with one hand more than half a minute and then set it down again, without spilling one drop of its contents, the ten dollars is yours."

"Roscius" smiled a pitying smile, and walked up to the pitcher like a hungry hen to her dough; but before he could lay his hand upon it, "Specs" exclaimed,

"Ladies and gentlemen! I never before attempted to try my strength against that of John Rose, and should not now, only he is constantly boasting of his muscular ability, and taunting his inferiors with their weakness; and I made up my mind to either pluck a feather out of his cap this evening, and thereby put a stop to his boasting, or lose ten dollars in the attempt."

This drew forth rounds of applause from the gentlemen, and storms of hisses from the ladies, but "Specs" continued,

"And now, before "Roscius" attempts this feat, to which I am willing to put quibbling, I wish him to state if he is not to give up the ten dollars if he does not hold this pitcher upon the table, without spilling so much as one drop of the contents."

"Yes, yes," says "Roscius," as carelessly as if he had been requested to lift to his mouth a hot whiskey toddy; "that is the bet, so stand one side, boy!"

The latter face slightly tinged at being thus called "boy" by one some three weeks his junior; but, choking his passion, he stepped aside and exclaimed,

"You'll find it sir, a more difficult task than you imagined. But try it, sir, if you have the courage."

Such a speech was different from any "Roscius" had been in the habit of having addressed to him, and as he thought of the last few words, "if you have the courage," he grasped the pitcher and swung it directly over his head with as much apparent ease as if it had been a child's brush broom.

It had not been there five seconds, however, before the ladies screamed and made a rush to save their fancy man. But it was too late! the bottom of the pitcher, which had been slightly cemented in for the occasion, dropped out, and the contents, which had also been prepared for the occasion, being equal parts of rum, molasses, spirits of turpentine and eggs, covered the muscular hero from head to foot, making him appear in the bright lamp light like the disturbed spirit of some silk merchant dressed in his own goods! as there were all kinds of colors imaginable from his hair to his boots, not excepting an occasional tinge of gold and slate, formed by the sudden mixture of turpentine and eggs.

If there is anything that will kill a man in the eyes of the ladies, it is being caught in a trap, and so it proved in this case. "Roscius" lost his ten dollars, and his influence with the ladies, and was cured of boasting; while "Specs" won ten dollars, a handsome wife, and the thanks of the "boys."

The effects of evidence are as various as the minds of men. Three persons sit down to the study of history. One finds in it a catalogue of human wickedness, and he rises up a misanthrope another catches everywhere gleams of men's excellence, and he gets up a philanthropist: a third only observes that rich men have always been powerful, and he becomes a miser. So it goes in the natural world. The same sun shines on the bricks and on the shutter of a house, and it makes one red and the other green.

A good name is better than great riches, though great riches don't make a bad name.

CATHOLIC PRISONS.

A writ of habeas corpus was recently obtained by the brother of a young girl in the "House of the Good Shepherd," a Catholic institution for female penitents in St. Louis, on the ground that she was detained there against her will and she was brought before Judge Colvin and discharged. According to the girl's testimony, she was hired by a lady dressed in black, to sew and take care of a child; and that she was taken to the convent, and detained a year or more, against her will. The brother states that he made search for her, and gave up the hope of finding her, supposing she was dead. He called several times at the convent, and its inmates denied that the girl was there. It appears, then, that compulsory imprisonment in convents, is practised in this country; but we are thankful that the writ of habeas corpus is secured to us by the Constitution. The "lady in black" ought to be prosecuted for kidnapping and false imprisonment.

OPERATION OF THE MAINE LAW IN LOWELL.

The following statements respecting the operation of the new Anti-Liquor Law in Lowell, are from the most reliable authority. Every case of drunkenness observed by a watchman or any member of the police, is reported at the Police Office, whether a prosecution is instituted or not.

For the 2 months ending Sept. 22d, 1851, there were committed to the watch house, 110
Reported drunk, but not arrested, 255
Total, 365

2 months ending Sept. 22d, 1852, committed to the watch house, 41
Reported drunk, but not arrested, 66
Total, 107

The testimony of the watchmen and other Police officers is uniform, that there is much less disturbance and rowdyism than under the old regime. It is the testimony, too, of the Grocers, that their customers, of a large class, pay better than formerly. At the time the law went into effect there were 227 shops and places where intoxicating liquors were sold. Whatever has been sold since has been sold secretly and clandestinely. There is no place where it is sold publicly or openly.—Trav.

EFFECTS OF POPERY.

Extract from the Foreign Correspondence of the N. Y. Evangelist.

In Ireland there are 2361 priests and 13 Roman Catholic colleges, with Jesuits and teachers, monks and nuns innumerable. What effects have their teachings and influence produced on a country which for situation and climate, soil and people, should be one of the richest and happiest in the world? In 1841, one half of the people had dwellings consisting only of a single room; two-thirds subsisted on potatoes; one third were out of employment, and one eighth in beggary. Are the people taught? No; not long since there was not a single school over six counties, nor in 74 towns, having on an average 2500 inhabitants each. While in Great Britain, with three times the population of Ireland, there were in 1850, 31,000 committals for crime, there were 33,000 in Ireland. Three-fourths of all the crime in England is of the lightest character; but in Ireland, out of 33,000 persons committed, 2000 were sentenced to transportation, and 60 to death.

NICE QUESTION SETTLED.

S's "Anecdote" is welcome: I entered a log school house once, where a 'Debatin' Society was holding forth upon the question: 'If a man saw his wife and mother in the water drowning, which should he help out first?' The question was considered with animation upon both sides for a while; when a 'backwoodsman' began to manifest itself. The President desired debaters, 'If they had anything to say, to continue on.' After a pause, a peaked-looking man in the back part of the house got up and said with considerable diffidence and embarrassment: 'Mr. President, I think if a man saw his wife and mother in the water drowning, he ought to help his mother out first; because, you see, if his wife did get drowned, he could get another one, but he couldn't get another mother, not easy.' This settled the question, and the verdict accordingly."

RICH.—Lord Bareo, an ancestor of the Earl of Fife, was remarkable for practising that celebrated rule—"get all you can, and keep all you can get." On day, walking down the avenue from his house, he saw a farthing lying at his feet, which he carefully cleaned. A beggar passing at the same time, entreated his lordship would give him the farthing, saying it was not worth a nobleman's attention. "Fin's farthing to yourself, puir body," replied his lordship, and carefully put the coin in his breeches pocket. In addition to being his own farthingfinder, his lordship was his own factor and rent collector. A tenant who called upon him to pay his rent, happened to be deficient a farthing. This amount could not be excused, and the farmer had to pay the farthing When the business was adjusted, the countryman said to his lordship, "Now, Bareo, I would gie ye a shillin, for a sight o' what ye will siller ye hae." "Weel mon," replied Bareo, "it's no cost ye ony mair," and accordingly for, and in consideration of the aforesaid sum in hand first well and truly paid, his lordship exhibited several iron boxes filled with gold and silver coin. "Now," says the farmer, "I'm as rich as yoursel." "Ay mon?" said his lordship, "how can that be?" "Because I've seen it—and you can do na mair."

A PICTURE.—We find the following in an old Dutch paper. It is full of truth and poetry, and a good deal of comfort beside: "There is a coziness that creeps over a person while he sits with his toes on a fender, his cravat untied, and his vest thrown back, that only needs an interesting book, and a tumbler of "warm drink," to convert it into beatitude. Of all the hours in the week, give us the one we spend every night with our boots by the side of us.

The editor of a newspaper out West publishes his own marriage, and the name of the happy bride he leaves blank, as he doesn't like to see her name in the newspapers.

A PREDICTION.

The Hon. and Rev. Thomas Chilton, formerly a lawyer of eminence in Kentucky, but now a promin ent Baptist minister of the South-West, makes the following sagacious prediction, as to the result of the new various movement, in a letter to the South-Western Baptist;

"I venture this prediction for. Mark it. It may seem bold, but I am always bold when I feel satisfied that I am right. If this project goes forward, as likely it will, and stand in the contemplated new version of the Scriptures, the result will be, that it will be the book of Alexander Campbell, and all his disciples every where; and between them and our disaffected Baptists, there will be a perfect amalgamation—while the old fashioned Baptists will stand by the old fashioned Bible under the same belief that they have so often and so honestly asserted, that it is as much a Baptist Bible as they desire—and they ask no change in it, to sustain either their principles or their peculiarities. Mark it, I say, if this be not the result!"

Upon this the Western Baptist, remarks:

"Mr. Campbell knows full well that by uniting with him in a revision of the Scriptures, the leaders of the Bible Union and of the Memphis Convention vouch for his essential orthodoxy. He knows that all the advantage will accrue to his party, without risk of loss. His followers every where exult in this prospect. They expect a large accession as the fruit of this movement."

RAISE IN THE DUST.—One George Rice, thinking that money could be made without going to California, and exposing his health to the climate and your neck to the halter of the "Lynchers," adopted another plan for "raising the wind." Having learned that down town merchants were in the habit of borrowing money from each other, he put on the face of the confidence man, and, stepping into Kent, Lowber & Co.'s, No. 1 Front st., said, I want $150 or $200 for Sam. Perry. The money was handed over, and Sam Perry din't get it. The consequence was, that an officer get George Rice, and put him in jail.

All of the English press who have spoken out have declared themselves in favor of the election of Pierce. The Manchester Examiner says, "that any governmental change from will be one on which this country may rely for effectual cooperation." The great organ of English cutlidity and centralization, the London Times, pronounces him "a valuable practical ally to the commercial policy of this country," and declares that "he has our best wishes for his success."

"Are those pure canaries?" asked a gentleman of a bird dealer with whom he was negotiating for a couple for his fair. "Yes, sir!" said the dealer, confidentially, "I raised them ere birds from canary seed!" It was deemed sufficient proof for their purity.

If you'd be patronized, commence making money. Till Barnum got rich, he made less than fifty dollars a month. He now earns a thousand dollars a week. People act towards poverty as they do towards the itch—as if it were catching. The only shop in a neighborhood that people "don't want to trade with," is the one that belongs to some "female widder," with a dozen children, six of whom are without victuals, and the other six without breeches. Queer, isn't it?

A certain judge rather elevated with the juice of the grape, entered a barber's shop in this vicinity a few weeks since to get shaved. After the business was accomplished he tendered the barber sixpence for his labor, who took it and returned three cents change. "How is this?" exclaimed his Honor. "You have always charged me sixpence for shaving, and here you have taken but three cents." "True," replied the barber, "but this time you were half-shaved when you came in."—Arthur's Home Gazette.

Cortez, in a letter to Charles V., in illustration of the advanced state of society among the Indians of Mexico, says that "they begged in the streets like civilized people."

It is not the multitude of applauses, but the good sense of the applauders, which gives value to reputation.

Happiness is not in a cottage, nor in poverty, nor in learning, nor in ignorance, nor in a passive life; but in doing right, from right motives.

Dobbs, the portrait painter, says that everything should be in character. For instance, search warrants should be sprinted on "tracing paper," and wedding notes on "foolscap."

HABITS.—Do not fear to undertake to form any habit that is desirable; for it can be formed, and that with more ease than you may at first suppose. Let the same thing, or the same duty, return at the same time every day, and it will soon become pleasant. No matter if it be irksome sooner it be, only let it return periodically, every day, and that without any interruption for a time, and it will become a positive pleasure; in this way all our habits are formed. —Todd.

How comes it that hatchet-faced women get hatchet-shaped voices? Show us a feminine with features like a shingle, and we will show you a feminine who can utter words sharp enough to shave with. The more plump the visage, the more velvety are the words which flow from it.

In the reign of Henry the 1st, about the year 1130, a sheep could be bought in England for four pence, and wheat enough for feeding one hundred men a whole day cost but a single shilling.

That the happiness of life depends on the regular prosecution of some laudable purpose or calling, which engages, helps and enlivens all our powers, let those bear witness, who, after spending years in active usefulness, retire to enjoy themselves.

Sour-krout is said to be the connecting link between damaged cabbage and pickled manure.

If you wish to give energetic movement to all your farm machinery, and keep its hundred wheels in rotation, be sure not to be without a good rotation of crops.

A lazy fellow lying on the grass, said: "O, how I do wish that this was called work and well paid."

The Old Folks at Home.

BY E. P. CHRISTY.

Way down upon the Sawney river,
Far, far away—
Dah's whar my heart turning ever,
Dah whar de old folks stay.
All up and down the whole creation,
Sadly I roam—
Still longing for the old Plantation,
And for the old folks at home.
All the world am sad and dreary,
Every where I roam—
O, darkies, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

All around the little farm I wandered,
When I was young—
Den many happy days I squandered,
Many de songs I sung;
When I was playing with my brudder,
Happy was I—
Oh, take me to my kind old mudder,
Dah let me live and die.
All the world, &c.

One little hut among the bushes,
One that I love,
Still fondly to my memory rushes,
No matter where I rove.
When will I hear the bees a humming
All 'mong de comb;
When will I hear the banjo tumming,
Down in my good old home.
All the world, &c.

A TEACHER OF THE WEST.—The Boston Chronicle says: "Among the women now at Hartford, Conn. preparing to leave as teachers for the West, under the auspices of Gov. Slade there is one young woman worthy of special mention. An orphan and penniless, she resolved to educate herself and move in a higher sphere Amid poverty and toil, she began her labors.—She entered a factory, to earn her bread and obtain the means to educate herself. Her nights she devoted to study. Her object has been reached. Her work is done, and well done. She is a fine scholar. She can teach French and Latin; she is a fine performer and instructor of music, and is now ready for the field before her—the illimitable West.

YANKEE SKILL. The London correspondent of the North American relates the following anecdote illustrating the superiority of the Yankee Hobbs over his British rival Mr. Chubb; "The directors of a well known insurance office in Moorgate street, assembled at their rooms, last week, to hold an important annual meeting. When the books and papers of the company were called for, the Secretary could not find the key of the large vault where they were kept. After an unsuccessful search, Mr. Chubb, the maker of the large door and the lock, was sent for, and was asked if he had a key that would open the lock. He replied in the negative. He was then asked if he could pick the lock? He replied again in the negative, and rather indignant withal, at the insinuation that his celebrated locks could be picked! The directors asked what was to be done? Mr. Chubb answered that the only method by which the books and papers could be procured was to cut the door down. The directors would not consent to such a proposition, and Mr. Chubb left the premises. A messenger was despatched to Cheapside for the American Hobbs, who sent one of his workmen with instructions to take an impression in wax of the keyhole of the lock. The man departed, and in a few moments returned with the impression. Mr. Hobbs then selected a few simple instruments, and accompanied his workman to the insurance office. After operating upon Chubb's lock for ten minutes only, the bolt was turned, the door was opened, and all the books and papers were placed before the Board of Directors, and to their utter astonishment!"

Sharpers in New York have started a new trick to defraud greenhorns:—The sharper places a galvanised counterfeit $5 gold piece into an empty pocket book. Getting along side of a green one, he opens and looks into it in such a way that greeny sees the "yellow boy." He pretends as if he does not see it, and closing the book, declares he is in a hurry, and will sell the pocket book for a mere trifle. He asks the green one if he will give $2 for it, and he supposing there is a $5 piece in it, which the holder knows not, readily gives the $2 slaps the book into his pocket, and slips of from the sharper for fear that he will find out that the money is in it. Scores have thus been swindled out of their money, some giving as high as three or four dollars for a pocket book not worth a quarter of a dollar.

LOUIS NAPOLEON.—The political leader in the July number of Blackwood, written probably by Allison the Historian, represents in a most striking light the danger to which England is exposed to invasion, sooner or later, from France. It relates the following curious anecdote, which we have never before seen in print, and which strikingly illustrates a very remarkable feature in the character of Louis Napoleon:

"Prince Louis Napoleon, like his uncle, is very superstitious, and always carries an amulet, taken from the tomb of Charlemagne, on his person. He is known to have said in this country, long before he left to accept the Presidency of the French Republic, 'It may appear presumptuous in me to wear that amulet; but I have an inborn conviction in my mind that I am one day to be the ruler of France. When I am so, I shall first extinguish the license of the Parisian press, and then attack England. I shall do so with regret, for I have been kindly received there, and it contains many of my best friends; but I must fulfil my mission and carry out that which I know my uncle had most at heart. I owe that to his memory.' In pursuance of these views, he has just decreed 80,000 men to his regular army."

A CURIOUS EXAMPLE.

A singular instance has been lately given of that freemasonry which covers Ireland with an invincible network. A murder was committed in the open day, on a Sunday, during the celebration of mass. The murderers being pursued by the police, took refuge in the church. The chief of the police thought himself sure of being able to recognize them, as they were in their shirt sleeves; but when he entered the church he soon found himself compelled to abandon his search, as all the men had thrown off their coats; they were all in their shirt sleeves, and jeered at the police!

Coal for Europe.—As a new feature in the Cumberland coal trade, the Alexandria Gazette states that there is now at New York a vessel from Genoa waiting for a cargo of this coal for the use of the Sardinian Government.

Scarcity of Hay and Grain.—The Brattleboro' (Vt.) Eagle says, that in Weston, Andover, 18 yearlings, and a pair of six year old oxen, all in good condition, for $110. In many cases payment has been received, not in cash, but in peddler's goods at full prices.

The Last Distillery.—The last distillery in Newburyport, Mass. is dead. When this is true of every distillery on earth, there will be such a jubilee as the world never saw.

The Largest Merchant Ship in the World.—Mr. McKay, of East Boston, is now at work upon a clipper ship, which will surpass in size and sharpness, every merchant ship now afloat ever, and Londonderry, the crop of grass and grain is so light that more than 400 head of cattle have been sold and driven away within the last three weeks. Calves have been sold as from 67 cents to $1, yearlings from $3 to $5, and cows from $6 to $10. One man sold or known to be in the course of competition. She will be 300 feet long, have 50 feet breadth of beam, 28 feet depth of hold, with three decks and will register over 3,000 tons.

Liberal Donation. Mr. Bates, of the house of Baring, Brothers & Co., it is said, has presented $50,000 to the Boston City Library.

Thanksgiving in New York. Gov. Hunt, of New York, has issued his proclamation recommending the 25th day of November as a day of general thanksgiving and prayer.

The largest tree in the world is in Africa, where several negro families live in the trunk.

A British man-of-war of 140 guns, was lately launched at Plymouth, Eng.

There is an oak in Dorsetshire, Eng., measuring 68 feet in circumference.

In northern Vermont, potatoes are selling at 25 cents per bushel. Cheap!

Our foreign papers announce a great increase of Protestantism lately, in Ireland.

Hay in the far west sells for $3 per ton—transportation to the sea board costs $15 per ton.

Rogers, the poet, is 94 years old.

Mount Etna still continues in a state of eruption.

The widow of King Louis Philippe is residing permanently near the Lake of Como, where she has purchased a chateau.

Sheridan Knowles, the celebrated play writer, has become a Baptist, and has baptized recently, at Edinburg.

Queen Victoria has a Sunday school, composed of the children of her domestics at Windsor, and sets herself as teacher whenever she is at the Castle.

The entire amount of the receipts of the Duke of Wellington for his services was nearly three millions of pounds sterling. The emoluments of the duke's son, nephews, sons-in-law, and other relatives, from the army, the retired and the pension list, are enormous.

A Marylander, who was present at the reception of Gen. Scott at Louisville, Cincinnatti, and other places in that region, writes, that though he has witnessed public festivals on the arrival of Gen. Jackson, Gen. Harrison, Gen. Taylor and Henry Clay in the same cities, has never seen such popular enthusiasm as that called forth by Old Chippewa.

A Glasgaw paper tells us of a gleliente slim young gentleman there who walked from Glasgow to Dundee in less than 24 consecutive hours. The distance is 84 miles. We may add (says the editor) that the rain fell heavily during the last four miles, so that from the sloppy state of the roads, his progress must have been considerably retarded. We believe that he is prepared to lay an even bet that he will accomplish eighty miles within the 24 hours, the match to come off three weeks after the posting of the money.

A PELICAN IN OUR WATERS.—Last week Robert Taylor, of Millerstown, Perry county, Pennsylvania, shot a pelican, in the Juniata dam, at Millerstown, that measures eight feet six inches from tip to tip of the wings, and four feet ten inches from the end of the beak to the toes. Those who have hired in our waters, seemed to have no company, and was enjoying himself by swimming about amongst the tame geese. It is now being stuffed in our place, and can be seen in a few days, at the residence of Chas. F. Muench.—Harrisburg Union.

George Stevenson, the father of the English railway system, says that he once worked for two-pence a day at a pit mouth.

Wrong on the Face of it. We have seen a little book with the title of "French Made Easy." We cannot believe this of a noble nation like France, for under the Napoleon rule we should say it was decidedly the "French Made Uneasy." Punch.

In fashionable life the men most run after are the deepest in debt.

A QUIET MAN DISPOSING OF AN INSULT.—Lord Mark Kerr, who distinguished himself at the battle of Fonteyney, was a good but eccentric officer and a tasteful duelist. His debut was remarkable. He was a lad of slight, effeminate appearance, apparently void of spirit. His father, the Marquis of Lothian, when he brought him up to London to join his regiment, the Coldstream Guards—requested the Colonel, who was his particular friend, to watch over him to see that he submitted to no improper liberties, and to instruct him in the ways he should go, in case he had the misfortune to be insulted.—Those words of the lad's father, viz: "prodigious swearing," according to my Uncle Toby, and much brutality of manners. The specific young scion of nobility soon became the butt at mess, a stop peg to hang their practical jokes on until at last a Captain of a year's standing actually threw a glass of wine in his face. He still said nothing, but wiped his face with his handkerchief, and took no further notice of the insult he had received. The Colonel thought it was high time to interfere, and invited him to breakfast, tete-a-tete, on the following morning at nine o'clock. Lord Mark arrived punctually at his breakfast with perfect composure, and spoke but little. At length the commanding officer broke ground. "Lord Mark," said he, "I must speak to you on rather a delicate subject, but as your father's friend I am compelled to waive ceremony. Captain Li——— yesterday morning publicly passed an affront on you, which both your own honor and the credit of the regiment require you to notice." "What do you think, sir, I ought to do?" inquired Lord Mark. "Call on him for an explanation," rejoined the Colonel. "It is, I fear, too late for that," replied the young ensign. "I shot him at eight this morning, and if you will take the trouble to look out of the front window you will see him on a shutter!"

THE UNION

Plainfield, N. J. October 26, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Gotham, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

National Whig Nominations:

For President of the United States:

Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.

For Vice President:

WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North-Carolina.

Senatorial Electors: Dudley S. Gregory, of Hudson; Andrew K. Hay, of Camden.

1st District, John T. Nixon, of Cumberland.
2d, James S. Lawrence, of Monmouth.
3d, James S. Nevius, of Middlesex.
4th, Cornelius G. Garrison, of Passaic.
5th, James M. Quimby, of Essex.

GRAND WHIG MASS MEETING,

At Newark, on Wednesday, October 20th,

Was attended by some 10,000 persons, as we learn from the New York papers. Gov. Pennington was chosen President, with ten Vice Presidents, &c. Among the speakers, and perhaps the ablest, were our Senators, Miller and Dayton. The large number present made two stands necessary. West Jersey and all parts of the State was well represented, and the greatest enthusiasm manifested.

Our Legislature, this winter, will have to choose a U. S. Senator in the room of Hon. J. W. Miller, whose term expires next March. It is important on this account, therefore, that we have a Whig Legislature, which we certainly will have if the Whigs will but turn out as they can and ought to.

WHIG TOWNSHIP MEETINGS, Oct. 18th.

PLAINFIELD. Joel Dunn, Chairman; C. Boice, Secretary.

Delegates to the County Convention: James Leonard, Abm. Runyon, Joseph Annin.

Delegates to the Assembly District Convention: Joseph Annin, James Leonard, Abm. Runyon, Zachariah Webster, Wm. C. Ayers.

WESTFIELD. At the House of Ezra Miller, Gideon Ross, Chairman, Dr. Joseph Clark, Secretary.——County Delegates: Corra Drake, Wm. Stansbury, Geo. M. Marsh.

Assembly District Delegates: Joseph Clark, Aaren Drake, Gershom Littell, Squier Pierson, Joseph S. Darby.

A Vigilance committee was appointed to see that every Whig of the township deposits his vote for Scott and Graham.

Dr. Corra Osborn and Dr. Joseph Clark, were appointed the Whig Committee for Westfield township, for the ensuing year.

By Telegraph to the New York Tribune.

Washington, Friday Evening.

President Fillmore has written a letter calling on his friends to rally to the support of Scott, and to send Whigs to Congress to support Scott's Administration; also, expressing confidence in his success.

Private letters to-day from Ohio and Pennsylvania give the most encouraging accounts. The Whigs of this city are in the highest hopes. The enthusiasm to-night exceeds anything I have seen in Washington. Thousands of our citizens serenade Scott with the Marine Band.

A.

We hope our readers will not omit to read the advertisement of J. P. Landsdown, in the next column. Call and judge for yourselves if it be not true.

Rev. Jonas M. Clark, the Agent of the Mercer County Bible Society has completed the canvass of the townships of Hopewell, Ewing, Lawrence, Princeton and West Windsor. Thus far he has called upon 2600 families, and has found 176 of them without a whole Bible. He has put in circulation by sale and gift, 1,653 Bibles and Testaments, which cost in New York $630,-00. Mr. Clark is now engaged in Hamilton township, where, we trust, he will have good success in circulating that Divine Book which is a safe guide in time, and which unfolds a glorious immortality.—True American.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The Whigs of the Second Assembly District, in the county of Essex, are hereby notified that a Convention of Delegates from the several townships in said District will be held at Scotch Plains, on Friday, 29th inst. at 2 o'clock, P. M. to nominate a candidate for Assembly, to be supported by the whigs of the District at the coming election.

ABM. RUNYON,
JOHN WOOD,
ELIHU BOND,
AARON DRAKE,
Committee.

Dated, Oct. 22d, 1852.

ALARMING ILLNESS OF DANIEL WEBSTER. Several despatches were received at New York on Friday, that Mr. Webster could not live through the day. On Saturday, the latest intelligence was that he was dying.

THE ESSEX COUNTY WHIG CONVENTION, To nominate a Sheriff and 3 Coroners, was held at Newark on Saturday, 23d inst. Mr. Kennedy, of Belleville, was nominated for Sheriff on the 6th ballot. Ball, of Newark, Halsey, of Elizabethtown, and Valentine, of New Providence, were his competitors.

The British steamer Asia sailed from New York for Liverpool on Wednesday noon, with 52 passengers and $407,000 in specie.

How to Bruise your Oats. Send them by a cheap railway excursion train, and if by the time they leave the cars they are only half as well bruised as the passengers, you will have no cause to complain. Punch.

In the French department of Dot, there is a colossol walnut tree, 800 years old. It is 56 feet high, and 14 feet in diameter. It yearly bears 15 bags of walnuts.

Wood engraving is now done even better in this country than Europe.

Re published by Request.

Scott as a Civilian.

For the benefit of those who affect to doubt the great civic talents of Gen. Scott, we publish the following extract from an exchange paper:

The civil ability and experience of Gen. Scott are sought to be belittled by the Opposition, in every possible way. The best rebuke of this spirit of distraction will be to recall the opinion, practically expressed, of Gen. Jackson, who, when President, instructed Gen. Cass, then Secretary of War, to send Gen. Scott to Charleston, for the adjustment of the South Carolina difficulty, and to say to him that he relied upon his sagacity and prudence entirely, and conferred upon him the power to do whatever he might think best. Gen. Scott did honor to Jacksons's confidence, and succeeded nobly in maintaining the peace of the country.

In 1838, Rev. Dr. Channing, of Boston, delivered a lecture on War, from which we take the following extract. The tribute which it pays to Gen. Scott, coming as it does from a great man, and a philanthropist above suspicion, will have weight with every candid man:

"Much, also, is due to the beneficent influence of Gen. Scott. To this distinguished man belongs the rare honor of uniting with military energy and daring, the spirit of a philanthropist. His exploits in the field, which placed him in the first rank of soldiers, have been obscured by the purer and more lasting glory of a pacificator, and a friend of mankind. In the whole history of the intercourse of civilised communities, we doubt whether a brighter page can be found than that which records his agency in the removal of the Cherokees. As far as the wrong done to this race can be atoned for, Gen. Scott has made the expiation. In his recent mission to the disturbed borders of our country he has succeeded, not so much by policy as by the nobleness and generosity of his character, by moral influence, by the earnest conviction with which he has enforced on all with whom he had to do the obligations of justice, humanity and religion. It could not be easy to find among us a man who has won a purer fame; and I would do something, no matter how little, to hasten the time when the spirit of Christian humanity shall be accounted an essential attribute and the brightest ornament of a public man."

FOREIGN NEWS.

The U. S. Mail steamship Arctic arrived at New York on Saturday, Oct. 16th, 10 days and 6 hours from Liverpool.

The Europa arrived on Thursday evening, with news to the 9th inst.

The markets were all active, cotton and bread stuffs being in better demand at the highest prices quoted by the previous steamer.

The ship Medway at London, had arrived from Australia with $1,300,000 in gold dust

A new company petitions for a charter to run a line of steamships from London and Liverpool to Canada and the United States

Appalling Shipwreck.—The American ship Mobile, Capt. Tarbox, of Bath, Me. which sailed from Liverpool Sept. 27th, with a crew of 23 men and 60 passengers, was wrecked on the same night, and all on board, except 9 persons, perished.

TO LET.

The Dwelling part of the House owned and occupied by the subscriber, suitable for a store, a number of shops. Possession given on the 1st of April or before.
Oct. 23, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

Central Classical Institute, for Boys,

AT PLAINFIELD, N. J.

PROFESSOR L. H. WATERS, A. M. PRINCIPAL.

Pupils will be practically and thoroughly educated in a moral, intellectual and physical sense, their habits modified and formed by correct rules and reasonable discipline, and their progress in study carefully and fully supplied. They will be prepared for the Counting-house, or for an advanced standing in any college. The best instructors will be secured for every department.

Tuition in the English Department, Greek and Latin, Fuel and Lights, $200 per annum. Day scholars will be charged $5 per quarter for the English Branches and $6 for the Greek and Latin Classics. French, German, Spanish, Italian, Drawing, Painting and Instrumental Music are extras.

Suitable Arrangements have been made for the accomodation of a select class of Young Ladies, during the present session. Parents, who may be desirous of availing themselves of this temporary advantage, will be kindly enough to communicate their wishes to the Principal as soon as convenient.

Payments are required quarterly in advance.

Pupils will be admitted at any time and charged from the time of entrance. No deduction for absence except in cases of protracted illness.

The year of study is divided into quarters of 22 weeks each. Circulars containing full particulars may be obtained of the Principal.

REFERENCES.

Rev. Edward Hitchcock, D. D. Amherst College.
Prof. Aaron Warner, A. M. do
Prof. Wm. S. Tyler, A. M. do
Prof. E. S. Snell, A. M. do
Rev. Thomas Humphrey, D. D. Pittsfield, Mass.
William E. Dodge, Esq. New York
E. H. Butler, Esq. Philadelphia.

PLAINFIELD.

Jacob Manning,	David Rockwell, Esq.
Rev. Simeon J. Drake,	Joseph Annin, Esq.
Rev. William Whittaker,	Cornelius Dunham, Esq.
J. W. Craig, M. D.	Zachariah Webster, Esq.
C. H Stillman, M. D.	Elston Marsh, Esq.

Oct. 26, 1852.—tf

HATS AND CAPS,

No. 252 Greenwich Street, between Murray and Robinson, NEW YORK.

J. P. LANDSDOWN, Manufacturer, respectfully invites an examination of his stock of his HATS and CAPS which for quality and cheapness he is confident cannot be surpassed at any other establishment.

His rent and expenses are very moderate, and being a practical Hatter, devoting his personal attention to the business, he can warrant every article sold, and has no reason why he should not supply his customers in the most satisfactory manner.

His facilities for manufacturing are complete, and no efforts are spared to retain his reputation for making the very best article. Doing an entire cash business, he is enabled to reduce the price of

The Fine Hats to $3,50.

And warrants them fully equal to many of the $4 and $5 Hats sold elsewhere.

He keeps an assortment of Hats at $3, and others at still lower prices.

☞ A choice assortment of Boys' and Children's Fancy Hats and Caps, of the latest styles. Also, Umbrellas, Canes, Carpet Bags, &c.

☞ Please observe the address and make a note of it

LANDSDOWN, 252 Greenwich st. N. Y.
Oct. 26, 1852.—2m

A CARD.

NOTICE is hereby given that on and after the first day of November next, I intend to have closed my stores at 8 o'clock in the evening, to continue the ensuing winter.

Henry A. Cory,	Laing & Webster,
Robert Anderson,	Ira Braden.
Webster & Marsh,	A. D. & E. B. Titsworth,
James M. Dunn,	I. S. Dunham & Co.,
Joseph Leonard,	Oliver Runyon,
John V. Arrowsmith,	Titsworth, Dunn & Co.,
Jacob Lyon,	William Dunn & Co.
Daniel Bullman,	John C. Boice,
	Silas Wilson.

Dated Plainfield, Oct. 5th. 1852.—1m

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.
Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

New York Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Wheat Flour,	$4,50 to 4,75
Rye Flour	4,25 to 4,50
Indian Meal, Jersey,	3,62 to 3,63
Grain—Wheat,	1,06 to 1,10
Rye,	85 to 86
Corn,	75 to 76
Oats, Jersey,	42 to 43

Thousands of parents who use Vermifuge composed of Castor oil, Calomel, &c., are not aware, that while they appear to benefit the patient, they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of sight, weakness of limbs, &c.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Hoffensack's Medicines, to which we ask the attention of all directly interested, in their own as well as their Children's health. In Liver Complaints and all disorders arising from those of a bilious type, should make use of the only genuine medicine, Hobensack's Liver Pills.

☞ "Be not deceived," but ask for Hobensack's Worm Syrup and Liver Pills, and observe that each box the signature of the Proprietor, J. N. HOBENSACK, as none else are genuine.

It should be universally known—For it is strictly true—that indigestion is the parent of a large proportion of the fatal diseases. Dysentary, diarrhoea, sore throat, influ, liver complaint, and many other diseases enumerated in the city inspector's weekly catalogue or deaths, are generated by indigestion alone. Think of that dyspepics! think of it all who suffer from disordered stomachs, and you are willing to be guided by advice, from one upon experience, resort at once (don't delay a day) to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, which, as an alterative, curative, and invigorant, stands alone and unapproached. General depot, 120 Arch street. We have tried these Bitters, and know that they are excellent for the diseases specified above.—Philadelphia City Rep.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Camphor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

Lamps, Girandoles, and Chandeliers.

THE subscriber wishes to direct public attention to his large and extensive assortment of Lamps, Girandoles, Chandeliers and Candlesticks; Solar, Lard, Camphene, Burning Fluid, and Phosgene Lamps, of the latest improvements and select patterns. Also, a large assortment of Hall, Suspending and Side Lamps for Churches, Hotels, steamboats, public buildings, &c. &c. Pure sperm, solar and lard Oils, also a new article of Camphene and Burning Fluid, and every article connected with the trade.

The trade supplied on the most reasonable terms.

Country merchants would do well to call before purchasing elsewhere.

WILLIAM H. REILLY.

No. 185 Canal st corner of Baight; No. 51 Carmine st. corner of Bedford; No. 167 Greenwich, corner of Courtland; No. 218 Grand street, corner Bowery. Metropolitan Distillery, corner of 9th Avenue and Gansevoort st. New York. Oct. 26, 1852.—3m

HERE IS YOUR REMEDY!

Holloway's Ointment.

A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS, AFTER 43 YEARS' SUFFERING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Galpin, of 70, St. Mary's Row, Hopemouth, dated May 15th, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR.—At the age of 18 my wife (who is now 60) caught a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less sore, and greatly inflamed. Her agonies were distracting, and for months together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised was tried, but without effect; her health suffered severely, and the state of her legs was terrible. I had often read your Advertisements, and at length I got your Pills and Ointment; and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she consented to try us. She commenced a week ago, and, strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless, without scars or scar, and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the suffering of my wife during the last 43 years, and contrast them with her present enjoyment of health you would in feel fuel delighted in being been the means of so greatly alleviating the sufferings of a fellow creature.

(Signed) WILLIAM GALPIN.

A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A BAD LEG, OF THIRTY YEARS' STANDING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. William Abbs, Builder & Gas Orena, of Knutsford, near Huddersfield, dated July 31st, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—I suffered for a period of thirty years from bad Leg, the result of which I was confined to the house at G—s Works; accompanied by scorbutic symptoms, had recourse to a variety of medical advice, without receiving any benefit, and was even told that the leg was incurable, yet in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in a short a time, that few who had not witnessed it would credit the fact. WILLIAM ABBS.

The truth of, this statement can be verified by Mr. W. P. England, Chemist, 18 Market Street, Huddersfield.

A DREADFUL BAD BREAST CURED IN ONE MONTH

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Frederick Turner, of Peasehurst, near Haddersfield, dated January 13th, 1850.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR.—My wife had suffered from Bad Breasts more than six months, and during the whole period had the best medical assistance; but all to no purpose, before healed an awful wound in my own leg by your Pills and Ointment, and therefore gave them a trial in her case, and fortunate it was I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and she and various other branches of my family have derived from their use in really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends.

(Signed) FREDERICK TURNER.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases—

Bad Legs	Chilblains	Fistulas	Sore-throats
Bad Breasts	Coco Bay	Gout	Skin-diseases
Burns	Chapped	Glandular	Sores
Bunions	hands	Swellings	Scurvy
Bite of Mos-	Chiego (soft)	Lumbago	Stone in the
quitoes	Cancers	Piles	Tumors
Sand-Flies	Contracted and	Rheumatism	Ulcers
Coco-boy	stiff joints	Scalds	Wounds of
	Elephantiasis	Sore Nipples	every

Sold at the Establishment of Professor Holloway, 244, Strand, (near Temple Bar, London), and by all respectable Druggists and dealers in Medicines throughout the British Dominions, and of those of the United States, in Pots at 87.1-2c., 87c., and $1 50c. each; or wholesale by the principal Drug houses in the United States, and by Messrs. A. B. & D. Sands, New York.

☞ There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Pot.

Oct. 19, 1852.—6m

DISSOLUTION.

THE Co-partnership heretofore existing between the subscribers under the name of Johnson & Lyon is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

CHARLES JOHNSON.
JACOB LYON.
Oct. 1. 1852.

The business will be continued at the old stand by the subscriber, who pays every thing in the Grocery line & he sold cheap for Cash.

N. B. All persons indebted to the late firm are requested to call and settle without delay, at the store where the books are left, and the subscriber is authorized to settle the same.

JACOB LYON.
Plainfield, Oct. 4. 1852.—tal.

Boots and Shoes.—A. D. GALE

MANUFACTURER and Wholesale Dealer, invites the attention of Merchants to call and examine his stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, sold extremely low for Cash or short credit for notes. Call and see

A. D. GALE, 235 Pearl street, corner of Platt, New York, Aug. 30, 1852.—3m

THE BISHOP DOANE TRIAL.—In another column we give the result of the Episcopal investigation in relation to Bishop Doane. The House of Bishops decided not to go to trial, but leaves the matter with the New Jersey Convention. It is proper to add that this result is not such as Bishop Doane and his friends ought to demand. They are grievously in supposing that Bishop Doane's good name and the honor of the church will be maintained by any thing short of a full and impartial investigation by the Peers of the Bishop. The relations of the Presbyter to the Bishop make it impossible, in the nature of things, that he should have such a trial there, as an innocent man deserves. And twenty verdicts of innocence, or a hundred refusals to investigate, by his own clergy and churches, will not relieve the Bishop from the public judgement which now requires that he should have an impartial trial.—N. Y. Observer.

The New England papers state that there will be more butter made during the present month than ever before in October. The 'ced is now good all over the New England States, and any deficiency in richness will be amply compensated feeding out from abundance of the root crops.

Arrival of Swedes.—Three hundred Swedish immigrants, just arrived at Boston from Gottenberg, left on the 6th inst. for the West, where they intend to settle. They are mostly farmers, and are a healthy, intelligent looking people.

Dr. Spurzheim, in the last lecture he ever delivered, said, "that the royal families of Europe, when he arrived in it, had for several generations, had children who were little above fools."

Case of a Humor of 30 years' Standing.

ORIENT, April 16th, 1852.

MESSRS. S. A. WEAVER & CO.,

GENTLEMEN—I am requested by a friend to state to you what I have been, and what I am now, in regard to health. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you and your medicine, which has relieved me from a great deal of suffering. I have been afflicted for 30 years and over with Salt Rheum; I have tried to find relief from medicine, but never found it. I have dieted and taken medicine enough to float a ship well loaded, but all to no good. I commenced taking your medicine about twelve months ago. Previous to taking your medicine, for about twelve months, I was so badly off that I had to take a bath every day, and wash the filth and scale that would collect every day. My bath usually was from three to five pails of water and after I got through, the water would be more of milk; in fact you may judge that there was a good deal of filth in my flesh. I am now quite free from aches and pains, though I have a little of it hanging about me. As for my family or what I would like to say. I have taken 20 bottles of the medicine, and must, I believe, seven boxes of the Cerate. I intend to continue taking your Syrup.

I am requested to give a description of my situation before taking your Syrup. My flesh was hard and crusty, swollen, very sore—could hardly get about, having to use one or two crutches two years. Some of the time I could not undress myself or dress; restless nights, many a night having to set in a chair all of the night. I have taken a great deal of advice doctoring better, but your wonderful medicine has, I feel, done wonders for me. I commenced taking the Syrup one year from this date, April 16th, 1852. The first bottle I took about ten days; the second in ten or twelve days, but found before I got through the second, I was getting worse pretty fast; still I continued to take the Syrup, though got no relief. The Cerate I found rather harsh at first, my flesh being so sore. I reduced it with lard for a while, but before I got through the third bottle I was free from all inflammation, and the matter that would gather and discharge on the surface was astonishing. At times it would be to the thickness of a fifty cent piece, the most I should say filth; of course, by continuing the medicine I gradually began to get better, my flesh began to soften, the itching and burning seemed to come to an end, so that by the time I got to the fifth bottle I was able to be out and sleep without an apke or pain. I am now able to work and assist it in necessary and not feel any worse for it. My health now I am happy to say is good, and I attribute it entirely to your medicine, since I have experienced its benefits. I recommended it to many who were suffering with humors, a good many have been induced to use your invaluable medicine, and have been benefited.

Were it necessary, I could get a hundred that would testify to what I have written.

After writing this, for my wife takes up and reads what I have written, and says I have not exaggerated, but it was worse than I have written, sitting in my chair night and day for two or three weeks, and not dressing at all. Very respectfully yours, &c.

ELIAS LATHAM.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

John C. Moore, $6,00; Dr. J. W. Craig, 2,00; J. D. Van Winkle, Piscataway, $1,00; V. Van Vleet, $1,00; O. M. Hetfield, $1,00; A. Debond, Scotch Plains, $1,00; Daniel Carle Morris county, 75; E. Kirkpatrick, Esq., 50.

House and Lot For Sale.

OWNED and occupied by the subscriber on the upper part of Park Street. The House is in good repair, a story and a half high. The Lot contains 1-4 of an acre of Land, well fenced, stocked with grafted Fruit Trees, and has a wood-house &c.

Plainfield, Oct 19, 1852. WILLIAM POUND.

House and Lot,

FOR SALE

Situated in the lower part of Second Street, Plainfield, within ten minutes' walk of the depot. The House is nearly new, built in modern style, 2 stories high, containing seven finished rooms, with a good cellar. The lot contains 1-4 acre of land, well stocked with fruit trees, with a good well, &c. A very desirable residence for New Yorkers, or others. Terms cash, or will be exchanged for property in Newark.

Apply to the subscriber, 14 Franklin Place, Newark; or to Joseph Fogg, Plainfield.

Oct. 29, 1852.-1m PETER H. RUNYON.

House and Lot,

FOR SALE.

THE HOUSE and Lot lately owned and occupied by David Freeman, second, on Second street, next the corner of Somerset street, Plainfield. The House is 2 stories and a half high, about 18 years old and convenient. There are on the premises a Barn, Wood House, Well, Fruit Trees, &c. &c. The Lot contains nearly 1-4 of an acre of Land, &c.

Oct. 4, 52-3m* CALEB FREEMAN, Executor.

FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale his Dwelling House and Lot, situated very pleasantly on Second st. in the village of Plainfield, and convenient to the business parts of the place. The house is in good order and convenient for two families. There is a never-failing well of water in the house, and choice fruit trees of various kinds on the lot. He also offers for sale five shares of stock in the Building Loan and Saving Fund Association of Plainfield.

Sept. 27, 1852. WASHINGTON MARSH.

First Premium Millinery Establishment,

564 Broadway, one door below Prince st. near the Metropolitan Hotel, NEW YORK.

MRS. W. SIMMONS respectfully announces to her numerous patrons and strangers visiting the city, that she has a handsome assortment of Paris Full and Winter Millinery in addition to a large assortment of her own manufacture, of the latest Fall fashions. Also just received by the last steamers, a large invoice of Paris Satins, Silks, Velvets, Ribbons, Feathers, Artificial Flowers, &c. Merchants and Milliners supplied by the case or single Bonnet, as usual. Mrs S kindly solicits, a call. Oct. 12-3m

Oils! Oils! Oils!

M. RILEY,

MANUFACTURER OF

MACHINE, WOOL, PAINT AND TANNERS' OILS.

Oil Works, Stapleton, Staten Island.

Office, 34 Broadway, (upstairs,) New York.

Liberal commission allowed on all orders through Harvey Agents. 27 2w

DR. DE LANEY'S CELEBRATED

Curative Institution.

The only infallible cure for that dreadful disease known as SPERMATORRHŒA or Involuntary Nocturnal Emissions.

So harassing and destructive and productive of so much mischief to the nervous system, disqualifying the man for business, society, and matrimony.

This Instrument is simple, comprehensive, and never failing, without the least exposure, inconvenience or the knowledge of the most intimate friend. It is to be used externally, producing no pain or injury whatever, and prevents any one from attending to the business; & while in use not a single sedentary mutable place, invigorating the organs in a short time, to such an extent that they regain their primitive power and action, the loss of which is the primary cause, and effect of the disease in question, and the cause of the thousand concomitant complaint viz: Nervousness, Prostration, Despondency in the Head and Diseases of Vision, Weakness of the Back and Lower Extremities, Affections of the Eyes, Impotence, Pimples of the Face, Premature Decline of Virility, Weakness of Memory and Power for Mental Application, Dejection, Averse to Society, Timidity, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, &c. All those complaints invariably disappear as soon as the source is stopped from which they emanate.

This Instrument has been examined and approved of by the highest authorities in Europe and America, is recommended by the most prominent Physicians of all countries, and is used with certain remedy existing for those complaints, and has now completely superseded the use of drugs, the bougie, cauterization, &c., and to mention the thousand advertised nostrums of the day, as cordials, Sarsaparilla, &c. &c. It contains the most simple, the safest, the most pleasant, and by far the cheapest treatment ever offered to the afflicted, a fair price being allowed for the Instrument after the desired effect has been attained.

Be it also remembered, that those complaints are but little understood by the profession in general, and that all the medicine in the world never has, and never will, stop those losses, which, if allowed to continue unchecked, are sure to produce the most distressing consequences.

It has been a matter of surprise to some, that any one of respectability and of professional attainments should elevate his attention to diseases which people of every description prefixed to one so much as to name, but one thousandth part of the miseries these people bring upon society were known, a very different opinion would be formed. And it is not only the misery and dejection, preying on the mind as well as the body, that is deplored, but some are of such a nature as to affect posterity, and even to destroy the reproductive faculty, altogether. It is a fact that, when they can be treated, they may remain so dormant in the constitution as to appear in no other way than in their efforts upon posterity; and if properly conducted will be thoroughly and speedily removed. The above, so ingeniously contrived instrument, will doubtless, in a great measure, contribute to check the evils of quackery, so prevalent in this age of discovery, throughout the Union.

The price of the complete instrument, carefully secured against all observation in a box, is only $10. It can be sent, by express, to any address in any part of the United States, Canada, &c., according to order, accompanied by full directions, and important advice to the married and single, the expenses, even to the remotest parts of the country being very trifling.

The unexampled success this Instrument has obtained since its introduction in America has induced some unprincipled persons in New York, Philadelphia, Albany, Boston, &c. to get up some ridiculous things called "Instruments," which, however, bear not the slightest resemblance, neither in form nor principle to my own invention, and which are universally approved of. Instruments, and which are as similar to these as night is to light. Every attempt to sell such instruments for mine will be immediately exposed. Any one doing so, using not willing to connect the well and honestly earned reputation of my inventions with quacks and their worthless productions. No Instrument is genuine and can be relied on, but those sealed with my own seal.

All applications and remittances must be directed (post paid) to the Doctor himself, having no Agencies established in London or Paris, but my only address, post paid, Dr. De Laney, 51 Ispenard St., New York. Office hours, daily, from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M. and Sundays from 9 A. M. the days excepted.

The undersigned certify, with great pleasure, that the above-mentioned Instrument is not only constructed on scientific principles, but that from its use, the happiest results have always, with confidence, been obtained, under being for the cure of those diseases. NO OTHER CERTAIN REMEDY EXTANT.

HENRY C. KELLER, M. D.
C. COENZEE, M. D. 56 Chambers street.
C. ECKHARDT, M. D. 24 Howard St. NEW YORK.

Dr. De Laney is prepared to execute all orders for surgical apparatus, viz.; Artificial Arms and Legs, Shoulder Braces, Spinal Instruments, Apparatus for Luxation; for contracted Legs; for curvature of the Spine and Waist; for False Joints of the Arms and Knees; Artificial Legs; Club Foot; for Lachrymal Fistulæ; for falling of the Rectum; Trusses; Steel Belts; Beds and Chairs for Sick Persons; Crutches, Trusses, &c.; Orthopedic Corsets, &c. &c. All work warranted. Letters must be post paid, containing a proportionate remittance or city reference.

Oct. 26.-3m

Hosiery and Shirt store,

No. 292 GREENWICH STREET,
CORNER OF CHAMBERS, NEW YORK.

The subscribers invite the attention of the public to his Fall stock of

UNDER-CLOTHING,

CONSISTING OF

Lamb's Wool, Merino, Cashmere, Silk & Cotton } Shirts & Drawers

The Teviot Wool Undergarment highly recommended by physicians. } Wholesale & Retail

The Shaker shirts & drawers, Shaker knitted half Hose, Woolen Hose and Half Hose

ALSO Collars, cravats, Stocks, Gloves, Mufflers, handkerchiefs, &c

FINE FRENCH LINEN SHIRTS made to order in the most approved style.

Persons about to proceed to California, will find a good assortment of MACKINAW BLANKS, TRAVELING BAGS, HATS & CAPS.

Terms Cash—and One Price Only.

THOMAS McLAUGHLIN,
292 Greenwich St., cor. Chambers.

One block west of Hudson River Railroad Station. New York, Oct. 4, 1852.-3m

NEW FALL GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD,

ARE now receiving their stock of Fall Goods to which they invite the attention of all who are in want of desirable goods.

SILKS—Very superior black dress and mantilla silks, rich changeable and plaid silks; Florence silks, all colors.

CASHMERES—A splendid article, all wool, plain and figured, rich and new styles.

DELAINES—Plain, all wool, different colors; fancy delaines, a very variety of style and color, Mousselin delaines, good and cheap.

POPLINS—Plain and fancy, new style of plaid, also other styles, rich and desirable goods.

GINGHAMS—Scotch, French, Lancaster and domestic, all colors.

PRINTS—Merrimac, Cochico, British madder and Manchester prints, every variety of color and style.

Embroideries—French worked collars, flouncings, edgings and insertings, also silk for fancy embroidering.

Gloves—Kid, black and fancy Kid, also silk, Lisle, and other gloves.

SHAWLS—Broche, Bay state, cashmere, new styles of rich palm leaf and others, a good variety.

Together with general assortment of new goods, all of which will be sold very low, and to which the attention of ladies is particularly invited.

We have also received a good stock of Cloths, cassimeres, sattinets, Kentucky jeans, vestings, flannels, muslins, domestics of every grade, which will be sold low. A good lot of Hosiery and Gloves, Cashmere socks, vests, frock and over coats, shirts, collars, and every variety of men's wear, which customers are requested to call and examine.

Clothing will find made to order and warranted to give satisfaction.

Now ladies and gentlemen call and see us (we mean our goods) and we will satisfy you that we can and will sell them right, for we are determined to do so.

Plainfield, Oct. 7th. ROCAP & SHEPHARD.

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment, AT Less than New York prices, for sale by WM. S. WOOD.
June 10, 1852.

BABBITT'S Double Refined Powdered Saleratus
" Chemical Yeast Powder in tin boxes.
" Celebrated Soap Powder.
For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

BARAIGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received and selling off cheap.
Calicoes, fast colors, for 6 cents per yard
May 3, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

THEODORE R. LAFOY,
No. 314 Broad Street, NEWARK,

SIGN OF THE

GOLDEN EAGLE,

IMPORTER AND DEALER IN

Watches, Jewelry, Silver-Plated and Britannia WARE, CUTLERY AND NANCY GOODS.

Also, Piano Fortes, Music, and Musical Instruments.

Watches repaired superior to any other establishment in New Jersey. 48

THOMAS G. STEARNS,
IMPORTER AND JOBBER OF
Silks, Millinery, and Fancy Goods,
162 Broadway, New York,

Has now in Store and daily receiving and offering at the Lowest Prices, a complete and carefully selected Assortment of Goods in his line, comprising all the various styles and designs, consisting in part of the following:

BLACK & FANCY SILKS,

MANCELINES, FLORENCES, SHAWLS, TRIMMINGS, Bonnet Ribbons, Taffeta, and Satin Ribbons, EMBROIDERIES,

French and English Crapes, Crape Trimmings,
Silk Cravats, GLOVES of all kinds,
SILK LACE MITTS, DRESS TRIMMINGS of all kinds, Barages, Laces, White Goods, Hosiery, L. C. Handkerchiefs.

The undersigned would invite the attention of his friends and the trade generally. He will offer great inducements to

Cash and Short Time Buyers,

and would respectfully solicit an examination of his Stock before purchasing elsewhere.

THOMAS G. STEARNS, 162 Broadway,
Between Liberty st. and Maiden Lane.
New York, Sept. 27, 1852.-3m

D. M. KNIGHT & CO.,
Importers and Wholesale Dealers in
ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN
FANCY GOODS,
No. 63 Cedar street (up stairs,)
(Between William and Nassau sts.)
D. M. KNIGHT, NEW-YORK.
A. S. ROBBINS,

COMBS—Shell, Buffalo, and horn back Combs in great variety; twist, dressing and ivory Combs.

Buttons. Steel, gilt, lasting, mohair, twist, bone, metal, silk, tinsel, agate, &c.

Brushes, Hair, Tooth, Nail, &c.

Linen Thread, Spool Cotton, Needles, Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Hair Pins, Elastics, Whalebone, Linen and Cotton Tapes, Linen and Cotton Bobbin, Scissors, Thimbles, and a great variety of Fancy Goods, Fans, &c., all cheap for cash.

Sept. 6, 1852.-3m.

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of W. S. Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with silver work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Cash will be taken in exchange for Clocks, Plainfield, April 13, 1852.-tf. WM. S. WOOD.

FALL IMPORTATIONS.

Peterson & Humphrey,

IMPORTERS OF

Carpeting and Oil Cloths,

379 Broadway, corner of White-St., New York,

HAVE JUST RECEIVED, PER LATE ARRIVALS from Europe, their usual supply of rich and elegant Carpeting, consisting of

VELVET, BRUSSELS AND MOSAIC CARPETS, in one ENTIRE CARPET, with rich BORDER to enlarge it to any sized room.

THREE PLY ENTIRE CARPETS—Patterns entirely new, imported expressly for city retail Fall Trade

TAPESTRY and BRUSSELS CARPETS—An elegant assortment, surpassing in richness of COLORS and SHADING any heretofore imported.

TAPEETRY and INGRAIN CARPETS, our stock will be constantly supplied with the latest and most desirable styles, manufactured.

OIL CLOTHS—Our arrangements with the ENGLISH and AMERICAN manufacturers enables us to offer a LARGER and better assortment, at less price, than any store in the Union.

MEDALLION DRUGGETS, RUGS, TABLE and PIANO COVERS, MATS of all kinds, MATTINGS, &c., and all other goods found in first-class carpet stores, for sale, on the most reasonable terms.

PETERSON & HUMPHREY,
Sept. 15-2m 379 Broadway, cor. White-st., N. Y

To Sail Dealers, and Others!

SAMUEL HOTALING, No. 101 & 103 Broad street, N. J. New York, would inform his customers in the city and country, that he has just received from Liverpool and Ground Salt; also Turks Island, St. Martin's and other Coarse Salt in store, at the following places: at Commercial Wharf, at the foot of Market & Lawrence's Stores, foot of Delancy street, at 118 Warren street, and also at his SALT WAREHOUSE, No. 101 and 103, Broad street, New York. At each of the above named places a supply of Salt will be kept on hand, and delivered in lots to suit purchasers, at the lowest Market prices.

Liverpool Sacks and Turks Island Salt afloat.
New York, July 29, 1852.—3m

Coffee, Spices, Mustard, &c.

WITHINGTON & WILDE,

Nos. 7 and 9 Dutch street, (between Fulton and John streets,) NEW-YORK,

KEEP constantly on hand a large and well assorted stock of COFFEES, green, roasted and ground; Cinnamon, Cloves, Ginger, Allspice, Pepper, Cayenne, Mustard, Mace, &c., &c., whole and ground, all of the best quality, and put up in the best style. Also superior RICE FLOUR and COCOA, equal to any manufactured.

Having been favorably known in this business for the past twenty years, we are confident that we can give entire satisfaction, as to quality, &c., of goods of our manufacture of our articles, and our goods being bought mostly for cash, the prices will be found as favorable as those of any House in the City.

New York, August 16, 1852.-3m

Notice to the Ladies of This Place.

Ladies wishing Boots and Shoes for the Fall and Winter season can find at Meiker's a large, handsome and splendid assortment, consisting of black and colored Gaiter Boots, plain and full fosted, both single and double soles; Cloth Button boots lined with chamois leather, soft and warm for Winter; Quilted Silk Boots and Buskins, a Beautiful article; Ladies' and Gentlemen's Toilet Slippers, suitable Holiday presents for both sexes; Morocco Satin and Prunella Gaiters; white and black and bronze and black French Kid Slippers; Slippers for Balls and Parties; Misses and Children's Gaiter Boots and Shoes, of the various styles in fashion with Ladies', Misses' and Children's india Rubber Boots, Gaiter Boots, and Shoes, Shoes, &c., the largest assortment of any store in New York. Ladies will please call and examine for themselves.

x20 J. B MEILER, No. 134 Canal st., N. Y.

Central Rail Road of N. J.

The cars will run as follows until further notice,

Leave Pier No. 1 North River, New York, at 8, A. M.; 12, M.; 3.45 and 5, P. M. for Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield for New York, at 6.35 and 8.25, A. M. 1.05 and 5.30, P. M.

Leave Plainfield for Easton, Pa. at 9.40, A. M. 1.55 and 5.30, P. M.; and for Somerville at 6.50, P. M.

Aug. 2, 1852.

Look at This!

ALL those indebted to the late firm of Runyon & Webster, please come forward without delay and settle their accounts. If not attended to soon, they will be passed over for collection. As I don't wish to put expenses on any one, I give this public notice that all may avoid it.

OLIVER RUNYON
Plainfield, April 9, 1852

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by
May 4, 1852 | JAS. M. DUNN.

Æolian Piano Fortes,

T. GILBERT & CO.'S CELEBRATED PIANO FORTES.

The subscriber, who is sole agent in this city for the sale of these Instruments, (the reputation of which has become world-wide) is now prepared to offer them at prices which to those wishing to purchase, cannot fail to be satisfactory. Possessing facilities for obtaining Pianos unequalled if equalled by those of any other house in the city, he does not hesitate to say that he can present inducements to buyers not to be found elsewhere. He has constantly on hand an extensive assortment of second-hand Pianos, at bargains, which he fearlessly asserts will defy competition. Gilbert's Elegant Rosewood or cottage pianos, suitable for small rooms, and also Mahogany Pianos of Gilbert's make. Grand Æolian and other Pianos to let.

HORACE WATERS, 333 Broadway, corner of Anthony, (up-stairs) N. Y.

Sept. 27, 1852.-3m

AN ASSORTMENT OF SUPERB

JEWELRY.

THE subscribers have just added to their previous stock of Jewelry, a new lot of the latest and richest patterns of the present season, and a splendid assortment of Ear Rings, Breast Pins, Finger Rings, &c. with various other kinds of Jewelry too numerous for enumeration.

We would also beg leave to say to our patrons and friends, and every one who would like to get a piece of Jewelry, not only fashionable in style but fine in quality, durable in wearing, superior in finish, strength, neatness and durability, and withal cheap, that in no article which its intrinsic excellence cannot fail to give the most perfect satisfaction.

Come, our goods examine, and the truth of the statement try.

And if not found as represented we'll not ask you to buy.

A. B. & J. W. MUNN, Jewelry Store
At the Sign of the Golden Harp, 198
Sept. 20, 1852.-3m. Broad-street, Newark

CANKER & SALT RHEUM SYRUP

CANKER CURE & CERATE,

WARRANTED A CURE FOR

Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Scrofulous Humors, Liver Complaints, Canker, and all Diseases arising from Impure Blood.

THESE preparations are scientific productions of a regularly educated physician (who is now extensively engaged in the practice of his profession). They have become deservedly popular in all sections of the country where they have been introduced, from the fact that they have never failed to effect a cure where they have been used according to direction.

THE CANKER AND SALT RHEUM SYRUP is an article differing entirely from sarsaparilla or Dock Syrups, or any other preparation ever offered to the public. It can be safely relied on for the effectual cure of all Scrofulous Humors, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Canker in the Mouth, Stomach or Bowels, Female Complaints, and all human maladies arising from a state of the blood. In a word it is a complete renovator, eradicating disease and restoring to healthy action every part of the system.

THE CERATE

In all cases of humors, and especially for Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, is a valuable accompaniment to the Syrup, and in many instances will prove sufficient of itself to relieve. It is warranted a positive cure for Running Sore Mouths, in these cases it has never failed.—Persons using the Cerate will find a sudden relief in Canker in the Mouth, Stomach and Bowels, and obstinate dysentery it has effected cures after tried remedies had failed. Also, in all cases of Piles proceeding from cankerous humors in the system this is useful and is a valuable accompaniment to the Syrup in all cases of Cancer.

Neither of the above articles are genuine without the signature of S. A. WEAVER & Co., on the outside wrapper.

Manufactured at New London, Conn., by S. A. Weaver & Co., sole proprietors, to whom all orders must be addressed.

M. P. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield,
Israel Pierstead, New Market; C. Barcalow, Somerville; A. C. Watson, Rahway; E. McDonald & Son, New Brunswick; A. W. Miller, Elizabethtown.

For sale by Wholesale Druggists generally in New York city. Oct, 11.—9m.

FRENCH LANGUAGE.

NEW TESTIMONY TO THE MERITS OF
FASQUELLE'S NEW METHOD
OF LEARNING THE
FRENCH LANGUAGE,

Embracing both the Analytical and Synthetical Modes of Instruction.

In one volume. Price $1 25 retail.
FIFTH EDITION.

Published by
NEWMAN & IVISON, 199 Broadway, New York.
From N. W. Howard, Newcastle, Ky.

I was so convinced of its superiority to all other text-books on the same subject, that I have decided under my authority, to have it regularly caused to be procured by a class of thirty young ladies, whom I was about to commence instructing. The progress they have made with it, three months, has highly gratified themselves, their parents, and their teacher, and I attribute it with justice to the systematic and practical, yet simple plan of the work.

From Cyrus Knowlton, Principal of the Hughes High School, Cincinnati, Ohio;

Fasquelle's grammar satisfies me. It is evidently the work of a thoroughly learned scholar and thorough scholar.

From the New York Daily Book.

We never saw a more finished treatise on that polite language.

From the New York Evangelist.

A very philosophical and complete christomathy in this much-desired language.

From the New York Courier & Enquirer.

The book presents every facility the French learner can ever reasonably hope for.

From P. McFarquhar, New Haven, Ct.

Never has a work become under my notice that blends so happy and harmoniously the great rival elements of the language. My pupils study it with pleasure.

From the Albany Spectator.

It presents the true method of study, and seems to us scarcely capable of an improvement.

From the Literary World

Its classifications are minute and painstaking, carefully labelling ten various styles.

From the Mirror.

One of the very best arranged books that we have ever seen.

From the Methodist Quarterly Review,

The work is done every where with conscientious thoroughness.

From the New Haven Palladium.

The book is exceedingly valuable, and will have an immense sale.

From the Detroit Free Press.

It seems to us most decidedly superior to any work of its kind ever published.

Teachers who wish to examine the work can have a copy sent them, by mail, postage paid, in flexible cover, by sending Post-office stamps to the amount of 62 cents.

Just published a New Edition of
"TELEMAQUE,"
From the most approved Text; with Notes and Grammatical References,
BY LOUIS FASQUELLE, L. L. D.,
Professor of Modern Language in the University of Michigan.

1 vol. 12mo. on fine paper, and neatly bound.

NEWMAN & IVISON,
SCHOOL BOOK PUBLISHERS,
Sept. 20.-3m 199 Broadway, New York.

ROSE MEDICINES.—A Full assortment for sale by
Aug. 16.-tf | J. S. DUNHAM & CO.

New Fall and Winter Dry Goods.

HITCHCOCK & LEADBEATER,
No. 247 Broadway, corner of Reade st. New York,

HAVE JUST OPENED THEIR FALL AND WINTER STOCK OF

FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS,

PURCHASING AT AUCTION

every variety of choice and desirable Fall and Winter FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS, such as Tapes, ribbons, and are prepared to offer their customers a very extensive and rich variety of

PLAIN, TRIANGLE AND FIGURED SILKS,

of every variety of shade and color. Also, striped plaid brocade, and every Kind, in fact, of French and India Silks, including a large assortment of the celebrated BISCUIT SILK OF BLACK SILKS,

the handsomest, best, and most durable manufactured.

SHAWLS, LONG AND SQUARE,

of every variety and kind, as Broche, plain and figured Cashmere, Bay State, Long Thibet, &c. &c.

CELEBRATED BAY STATE SHAWLS,

All which they can sell at the very lowest rates.

FRENCH MERINOES AND CASHMERES

A large and full assortment, and desirable colors.

FRENCH MOUSELINE DE LAINES,

and Winter Cashmeres, of the most desirable patterns.

PLAID GOODS OF EVERY KIND

A choice and elegant assortment; and in fact,

Every Article of Ladies' Dress Goods,

suitable for the Fall and Winter season; and a splendid assortment of goods of various kinds,

Suitable for Children's Wear.

They would also invite attention to their stock of Domestic Goods, which is unusually full, such as plain Linen and Cotton Goods of every kind,

Table Damasks, Napkins, Towels,

Worsted Baskets, Quilts

Flannels, Canton Flannels, Diapers, Towelings,

Lace and Muslin Draperies,

Jean's Celebrated Kid Gloves,

the best article ever sold in the market, at 75 cts. per pair

Ribbons—A Splendid Assortment

which Ladies and Milliners will find worthy their attention

Mourning Goods of Every Kind,

including Black Bombazine, Alpaca Coburg, Cloths, Canton Crapes, Challies, Barages, De Laines, plain and figured, and everything, in fact, requisite for a

Ladies' Mourning Wardrobe

Wide Velvets, French Cloths,

and every kind of goods for Ladies' Cloakings

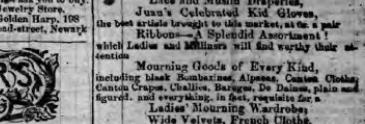
Gentlemen's Furnishings

of every kind, as Fur, Silk, Merino and Cotton Under Shirts, and Drawers, Gloves, Hosiery, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, &c., full 30 per cent. less than at the gentlemen's Furnishing Stores

Terms—Cash! Cash on Delivery!

Merchants and others would find it to their many articles from our stock which will enable them to "work up" their stock to advantage. tjun21

FALL AND WINTER CAMPAIGN OPENED.



1852-3.

G. C. PHILLIPS,
No. 5 Commerce st.
NEWARK,

Encouraged by the past and looking with confidence to the future, has laid in one of the most complete assortments of new and desirable styles of

Parlor, Store and Cooking Stoves,

Ever offered to the Newark public, comprising some entirely new patterns, never before introduced in this city, and which for elegance and utility of design are unsurpassed. He therefore invites purchasers to examine his assortment before purchasing elsewhere, which consists of the

Saratoga Coal Burner.

This is a new and elegant Parlor Stove, but recently brought into use, which received the most enthusiastic approval of all who have used it. It has been pronounced equal, if not superior to the celebrated Rotary Coal Burner, and can be furnished at about one-half its cost.

The Rip Van Winkle,

This is a new and unique and novel Parlor Stove, for either wood or coal, designed after the celebrated story of Washington Irving.

The New Republic,

This Stove has now been in use more than 18 months, has been subjected to the test of both wood and coal, and received the most unqualified approval of thousands. As a Cooking Stove, for either wood or coal, it has no superior, and is the best baking Stove ever offered.

Chesnut & Venuvius' Cooking Stove,

This celebrated Stove has been used by several families in this city for the past two years, certificates from whom will be furnished on application to the subscriber. These all agree in pronouncing it the best Stove for use, for economy in fuel, and the various purposes for which it may be applied. It is so arranged as to conduct the heat to different apartments.

Hays Patent Tubular Range.

This Range is constructed on the most scientific principles, with the idea of performing all its offices with the least possible fuel, and possesses merits that surpass any range ever before offered. One of them may be seen in operation at the subscriber's store.

The elevated Oven Furnace, Rotary Top Cylinder, the Cronstos (Cooking Stove) Parlor Grates, &c. &c., also on hand.

The subscriber also keeps constantly on hand a large supply of Tin and Sheet Iron Ware, Pumps, Lead Pipe, Sheet Iron and Iron Kettles, Cooking Utensils, of all kinds, &c. &c.

Stoves delivered and put up with care in any part of the country. Thankful for past favors the subscriber requests, and will endeavor to merit a continuance of the same. G. C. PHILLIPS,
Newark Sept. 29-tf No. 5 Commerce st.

Notice.—Wm. Lynch,

Late of 518 Pearl-Street, New York.

Wishes to inform his friends and old customers, that he will open his Wholesale & Retail Grocery Store, at 223 Greenwich st., corner of Duane st., on 22 April, with a large fresh stock of goods, such as Teas, sugars, molasses, coffees and spices, butter, cheese, lard, flour, beef and pork, &c., which he offers cheap for cash. Families boarding house keepers, and others, are invited to examine his goods and his prices, as they can save a very large percentage, call and see for yourselves. Country merchants purchasing goods for cash, are particularly requested to call and examine his goods and the prices before purchasing elsewhere. N. B.—Goods delivered on board of steamboats, railroads, barges, sloops, and any part of the city, free of cost.

WM. LYNCH, 223 Greenwich-street New York

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant, do. Sanative Pills Also,
Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters, do. Dysentery Drops, Theron's Ointment or salve, effectual for the cure of Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholic, Cramps, pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Atwood's Spinal Elixir for the spine disease. Also, Bunt's Liniment, for sore throats, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by
April 20, 1852. JAMES M. DUNN.

THA PRUDEN,

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning-Fluid, &c., which he will sell as a small profit as usual.
June 14, 1852

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES FACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 25 cents a piece, (taking the walls and parts included.) Plain, Granite and Oak for Halls &c. Satin Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 16 cents to 24 pcs piece A Room papered in 4 hours.

N. B. & S. Decorative Paper Hanging Manufactory, S. A. May 10, 1852. ubscribers

Assignment Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that Lewis Runyon of the township of Plainfield, of the county of Essex and State of New Jersey, hath this day made an assignment to the subscriber of his estate, for the equal benefit of his creditors, and that the said creditors must exhibit their respective claims under oath or affirmation within the time of three months.

Dated, August 30, 1852. ALBERT
Assignee.

Blanks for sale at this Office.

LIVER COMPLAINT,

JAUNDICE, DYSPEPSIA, CHRONIC OR NERVOUS Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and Diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, Deficiency of perspiration, Yellowness of the skin and eyes, Pain in the side, back, limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of evil and Great depression of Spirits, can be effectually cured by

DR. HOOFLAND'S
CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,
PREPARED BY

DR. C. M. JACKSON,

At the German Medicine Store, 120 Arch St. Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled if equalled—by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and Stomach, such as Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous debility, &c. They are worthy the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal, safe certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

From the "Boston Post."

The editor said, Dec. 22nd

Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by many of our first citizens and the editor also has himself received an effectual and permanent cure. Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that all who will use them as directed, will constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs and nervous temperament. In short, we are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use.

"Sonn's Weekly," one of the best Literary papers published, dated Aug. 24.

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent physicians in the country, as a sure and much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

EVIDENCE

The Hon. C. D. Bowling, Mayor of the City Camden N. J., says:

"I GOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came inclined us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and now say, that the specific action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration in surprising. It is one of the best tonics in use, thereby bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

"If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver and nervous system, arise the greater part of real and imaginary diseases extants. Have them in a healthy condition, and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would to our friends—we are so well satisfied, to give a trial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit."

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, of the strongest testimony in its favor. And there is more of it used with the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be taken by the female or infant with safety and reliable benefit at any time.

Look well to the marks of the genuine

They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON pasted on the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.

For sale Wholesale and Retail at the GERMAN MEDICINE DEPOT,

No. 120 Arch street, one door below Sixth, Philadelphia; and by respectable dealers generally through the country.

Prices Reduced.

To suit to all classes of invalids to enjoy the advantage of their great restorative powers.

Single Bottle 75 cents.

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.

Sept. 20, 1852.—1y

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by P. Mosher, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to wait on those in want of work in the line of

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting &

also PAPER-HANGING. All of which will be promptly, punctually and honestly executed, in the most reasonable terms. The undersigned would returns thanks to his customers for their liberal patronage the past year, and will endeavor by faithfulness to merit and secure a continuance of their favors.

Orders may be left at the Union Office.

April 1, 1852.—y CHARLES TAYLOR.

"Every Family should have a Copy."

An Invaluable book, only 25 cts.—Men know Thiself.

DR. HUNTER'S MEDICAL MANUAL AND HAND BOOK FOR THE AFFLICTED. Containing an outline of the Origin, Progress, Treatment and Cure twenty form of diseases contracted by Promiscuous sexual Intercourse, or Self-Abuse, or by Excesses, with advice for their prevention written in a familiar style, adapting all medical technicalities, and everything that should attend the sick or afflicted. By a physician of twenty years successful practice, exclusively devoted to the cure of the diseases of a delicate or private nature. To which is added a treatise for the cure of the above causes, and a treatise on the causes, symptoms and cure of the Fever and Ague, for twenty-five cents a copy; a copies one dollar; will be forwarded to any part of the United States, free of postage, Address Post paid, postage paid. "Box, 196 Post Office, or the Author, 38 South Seventh Street, Philadelphia.

FIFTY DOLLARS FORFEIT. DR. HUNTER will forfeit the above if failing in any case of secret diseases that may come under his care, no, matter how long standing, or afflicting. Either sex are invited to Dr. Hunter's Office, 38 South Seventh Street, Philadelphia, without fear of interruption from other patients. Strangers and others who have been unfortunate in the selection of a Physician are invited to call.

IMPOTENCY.—The baneful unrestrained indulgence of a passions by excess or self-abuse, the evils are numerous. Premature impotency, involuntary seminal discharges, loss of the sexual power, a shattered system, unfits for female society, general debility, or constitutional derangement, are sure to follow. If necessary, consult the Doctor with confidence; he offers a perfect cure.

READ AND REFLECT.—The afflicted would do well reflect before trusting their health? happiness and many times their lives to the hands of physicians ignorance of this class of maladies. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the human family is subject to. Every respectable physician has his peculiar branch, in which he is more successful than his other professors, and to that he devotes most of time and study.

TWENTY YEARS OF PRACTICE, exclusively devoted to the study and treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, together with ulcers upon the body, throat, nose, legs, pains in the head, or bones, mercurial rheumatism, strictures, gravel, irregularities, disorders, or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, enables the Doctor to offer speedy relief to all who may place themselves under his care. Medicine forwarded to any part of the United States. Price five and ten dollars per package.

Sept. 27, 1852.—1y

$500 CHALLENGE!

WHATEVER concerns the health and happiness of people is at all times of valuable importance. I take it for granted that every person will do all in their power, to save the lives of their children, and that every person will endeavor to promote their own health, by all means in their power. I feel it to be my duty to solemnly assure you that WORMS, according to the opinion of the most celebrated Physicians, are the primary causes of a large multiplicity of diseases to which children and infants are liable; if you have an appetite continually changeable from one kind of food to another, Bad Breath, Pain of the Stomach, Itching at the Nose, Hysterics, Pain in the Side or Belly, Dry Cough, Slow Fever, Pale Breath, Irregular—remember that all these dreadful WORMS, and you should at once apply the remedy

HOBENSACK'S WORM SYRUP.

An article founded on Scientific Principles, composed with purely vegetable substances being perfectly safe when taken, and can be given to the most tender infant with decided beneficial effect, where Pills Compositions and Electuaries have made them sick and debilitated the Tonic properties of my Worm Syrup are such, that it stands without an equal in the catalogue of proprietary medicines and will in all cases, destroy, and kill, makes it an Infallible remedy for those afflicted with Dyspepsia, the astonishing cures performed by this Syrup after Physicians have failed, is the best evidence of its superior efficacy over all others.

THE TAPE WORM!

This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of all that infest the human system, it grows to an almost Indefinite length, causing Dyspepsia, Sour collic and Pain in the Head and Stomach, affecting the health so easily as to cause St. Vitus Dance, Fits, &c.; that Drugs afflicted seldom if ever suspect that it is a Worm producing complaints the sufferer labors under. In order to destroy this Worm a very energetic treatment must be pursued, it would therefore be proper to take 6 or 8 of my Liver Pills so as to prepare the system for my Worm Syrup which will act direct upon the Worm, which must be taken in dose of 2 Tablespoonfuls 3 times a day, those directions followed have never been known to fail in curing the most obstinate case of Tape Worm.

HOBENSACK'S LIVER PILLS.

No part of the system is more liable to disease than the LIVER, it serving as a filterer to purify the blood, or giving to the system that which is not for the use of the functions of the Liver effect the other important parts of the system, and results variously, in Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Nervousness, and many complaints that might indicate a wrong action of the Liver. These Pills being composed of ROOTS & PLANTS furnished by nature to heal the Sick. A GENTLE PURGATIVE, which by its movements the sedretion from the Pulmonary mucus membrane or promotes the discharge of secreted matter. 2d. An Alterative, which changes the diseased action of the system in such a manner the certain needful action of the system. 3rd. A TONIC, which gives tone and strength to the nervous system, restoring health and vigor to all of the body. 4th. CATHARTIC, which acts in perfect harmony with the other ingredients, and operating on the Bowels, and expelling the whole mass of corrupted and vitiated matter, purifying the Blood, which destroys disease and restores health.

TO FEMALES.

You will find these Pills an invaluable medicine in many complaints which you are subject to, in obstructions either total or partial, they have been found of inestimable benefit restoring the functional arrangements to a healthy action, purifying the blood and other fluids to effectually put to flight all complaints which may arise from female irregularities, as headache, giddiness, dimness of sight, pain in the side back, &c.

None genuine unless signed J. N. Hobensack, all others being base Imitation.

☞ Agents wishing new supplies, and Store Keepers desiring of locating agencies must address the Proprietor, J. N. Hobensack, Philadelphia, Pa.

For sale in Plainfield,

Wholesale and Retail, by M. F. CUSHING.

And at Retail by ELIAS KIRKPATRICK

Of Dover, Scotch Plains, Charles Foster, Westfield August 23, 1852.—1m.

Great Bargains.

Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,
1. 2. 3. and 4. sells at all,
Goods on our counter now do lie,
To suit the mind, to please the eye.
We hold the cash key them cheap,
Well sell as cheap as any can,
Ginghams and Muslins, Combs and Cords,
The newest styles New York affords;
Delaines and Alpacas of all colors
Colors of which we'll warrant true.
Clothe and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,
And all the goods which men do use;
Together here you'll find a supply
Of groceries good which will defy
A class of men who live with us;
And when a year has come and flies,
To go to Brunswick with their trade
Or three at home they are afraid.
We'll sell to them and all the rest,
For cheaper sure will none be best
With Brunswick prices we'll compete,
And she shall trouble in the heat;
So come to this, cash customers all
I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.

Plainfield, May 13, 1852

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their individual tax, as imposed by the new tax law, by coming to Plainfield and purchasing their goods at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere; thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all qualities and styles which we will make to order at short notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of ladies' trimmings such as low prices—also constantly for sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Friends call and test your faith with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves?

Cutting, trimming, and making done at the shortest notice and at reasonable prices.

WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Plainfield, Dec. 1. 3

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Thorn's new building in Cherry-st., and below Dr. Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the public generally. He will be constantly in the stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns DeLaines, Ginghams, Alpacas, Cloths, Cassimeres, &c. A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Colognian, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES

Green and Black Teas, Coffee, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Pork, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders. Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Prunes, very nice.

Hollow and Wooden Ware.

Tubs, Buckets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, wicks shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.

LIME, Rock and Stone Lime, Glens Falls and Rosendale &c. All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods. JAMES M. DUNN.

April 29, 1852.—y

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUS, Bay, Floor and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c. Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not to get out of order.

Manufactory 39 Greene street, New York.

Also For Sale at 38F ultimstreet,

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

M. S. DUBOIS, J. ESTEBE, J. ROSIDO. X

Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling at the cash store of

I. S. DUNHAM & CO.'s.

Dodd & Benton,

352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's Boys' and Youths' Hats and Caps, of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, all of which are made at our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction. Purchasers who may select or order can rely upon being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as favorably as at any establishment in the country.

352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

May 24, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

MARBLE & STONE YARD.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to execute

HEAD STONES, MONUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful Free Stone Quarry, from which I will furnish to order every variety of Stone for building, which can be delivered at short notice. All of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Those who favor me with a call, are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.—1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

HOW'S IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled Preparation for the use of

[IN MEN]:

Rheumatism, Sprains, Weakness in the Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Sores, Back, Breast, Sore Throat, Frosted Feet, Limb & Joint.

[IN HORSES]

Bruises, Sprains, Ringbone, Poll Evil, and all Warbles, Splints, Sweeny in Shoulder, Horses, Scratches, Thoroughpin, Fistula, diseases of Horses, Windgall, where an Embrocation can be used.

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOW CHEMIST,

No. 32 Albany st., New Brunswick,

(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved it worthy of the confidence.

Isaac Moore, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barney McCherry, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel R. Fields, Jacob Conover, Jr., Bowne Brunswick, Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton.

Hammitt, John A. Weart, Trenton. A. W. Brown, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Combs, Woodbridge.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG in Somerville by Culver Bureau-Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Broad and Jersey streets, Elizabethtown, (a short distance from the depot,) would invite his former friends, and all who are in want of a good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call.

His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the country, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay. JOHN ENGEL.

April 20, 1852 d1y.

Hoover's Black Ink.

THE Best in use, For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any kind of produce we can sell, or the highest price in cash, or taking for goods.

I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE.

SPRING GOODS.

DANIEL BULLMAN,

is prepared to offer to the Public a large fine assortment

of New & Cheap Goods,

Consisting in part of Prints and De Laines, Spring Patterns; Domestics of every grade and price; Silks, plain and figured; Ginghams, Alpacas, &c. suitable to the season; Flannels, Blue Goods of all kinds, Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Hosiery, Gloves, and all other articles in the dry goods line, necessary to make as varied, full and complete an assortment as can be found in any city or town in this part of the country. Try me and judge for yourselves.

GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.

All persons in the way of purchasing these articles will find my store worthy of a call. I buy goods cheap, and sell them as cheap as any man can. Our customers cannot help being satisfied with both quality and price.

CHINA, GLASS and CROCKERY,

Some very beautiful, and some very cheap; a large and varied assortment of the same articles, constantly on hand. Also, Lamps, in great variety.

Cheap and Good, Good and Cheap, Furniture.

No necessity of going to New York or elsewhere for Furniture, as I will sell the same goods as cheap, and even more favorable terms, than can be had elsewhere.

Also, Looking-Glasses, Carpets, and every thing you want to put into a House, almost.

BOOTS and SHOES, for Gentlemen, Ladies and children, of the very latest pattern, and very low.

VARIETIES AND FANCY ARTICLES,

Enough to fill a column to enumerate. If you want a Gold Watch, Silver spoons or Britannia Ware give me a call, and if you want any thing else, we will furnish it. Thankful for the patronage of the public generally, I respectfully solicited.

D. BULLMAN.

April 26, 1852.

1852. CHEAPER YET!

At Oliver Runyon's Cheap Dry Goods and GROCERY STORE.

Gentlemen and Ladies please call and examine my stock of Goods for yourselves. I would say to my friends and customers that my stock is constantly changing, as I replace with new goods adapted to suit the different seasons of trade.

Handsome Barege DeLaines from 1s. to 2s., per yard. Lawn from 6c to 22c. Black Alpacas from 2 to 7s. yd. Bleached Muslin from 4c to 12½c. Calicoes from 1c.6d to 2s.6d. Plain Barege from 25 to 35c. "Bleached muslin from 4c to 18.6d. Cambric, Jaconet, Book and Swiss muslin, plain and figured. Bishop Lawn 3s to 4s. Ladies and Gentlemens gloves for sale from 10 to 75c. Black Bettz Veils, Crape and Bombazine for scarfs, Summer Goods of every style and quality, Cloth, Cassimeres, Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Flannels, Linen and cotton Edgings, Lace buttons, Hosiery of all kinds, also a good assortment of Leghorn and Straw Hats from 1s. to 5s. each.

GROCERIES

A good article of Green and Black Tea from 4s, to 8s. Mollasses 2s to 3s. Brown sugar 3s.6d. to 4s.6d. Coffee crushed 4s.6d. to 5s. Crushed and pounded Sugars. Rice 4c to 6c. Coffee, Spices, Vinegar, Isinglass, and every thing in the Grocery line.

CROCKERY and GLASS WARE, a Good Assortment constantly on hand. Please call and examine for yourselves.

PROVISIONS.—Salt Pork, Shoulders, Hams, Dried beef, lard, butter, cheese, fish by half barrels, fine salt by the bag or bushel.

BOOTS and SHOES, for men and boys, Ladies', gaiters, buskins, slippers, morocco, patent leather and cloth Buskins, at low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Linseed oil, boiled oil, lamp oils. Furniture and coach varnish, white lead, yellow ochre, Venitian red, chrome yellow, red lead, Paris green, lamp black, litharge, glue, fine flour sand paper, Paint, putty, &c.

FLOUR, fine and coarse, Meal, ground feed, wheat bran, and grain, constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village.

N. B. All kinds of produce taken in fact every thing you can eat, drink or wear, taken in exchange for goods. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, July 25, 1852.

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

FRAZEE MARSH returns thanks to his numerous patrons for their liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many friends he has opened a stock of Paints, and taken into partnership his son, Washington Marsh. The business will be continued at the old stand, signed as the Marsh Paint Store, where they will be kept constantly on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Gold Leaf, Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., &c., and cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to House, Sign and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and dispatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES.

Mixed Paint constantly on hand.

Jan. 5, 1852. F. MARSH & SON

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the Subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots situated in Plainfield, containing from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on 2d, 3d, 4th, Main, Liberty and William sts.; also on Park Place with a Dwelling House thereon suitable for the accommodation of two families, and is a valuable location, very nigh the centre of the business part of the town, on the corner of Exchange and Second sts. a very fine assortment of Fancy Paper, Gold and Silver Paper.

Jan. 19 1852.—tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

PAINTS, &c.

AMERICAN PATENT ATOMIC DRIER, Graining COLORS—Anti-friction Paint, Gold Size, Zinc Driver, Stove Polish, and Black Varnish for Iron Work.

QUARTERMAN & SON,

Painters' and Grainers' Oil Cloth Warehouse,

114 John-Street, New York.

March 9, 1852.—1y.

AFFLICTED READ!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. KINKELIN,

N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts., between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of unparalleled and extensive practice in this city have rendered Dr. K. the most expert and successful practitioner far and near in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with Seminal Weakness, Gleets, Stricture, pains in the head or bones, mercurial rheumatism, strictures, diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, will find it to their interest to call on

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K. may perfectly confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are lasting, fatal, and destructive to both mind and body, should apply immediately. Weakness of the constitutional debility, loss of muscular energy, physical lassitude and general prostration, irritability and all nervous debilities, indigestion, loss of appetite, dizziness, and every disease connected in any way with the disorder if the procreative functions cured, and full vigor restored.

READ!—YOUTH AND MANHOOD!

A Vigorous Life, or a Premature Death.

Kinkelin on the Laws of Preservation—Only 25 Cents. This book is filled with needful information on the infirmities and diseases of the Generative Organs. It addresses itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by all. The startling advice and impressive warning it gives will prevent years of misery and suffering and save annually thousands of lives. Parents by reading it will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

A remittance of 25 cents, enclosed in a letter addressed to Dr. Kinkelin, N. W. corner of 3d and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will ensure a book, under envelope, per return of mail, to any part or distance may address Dr. K. by letter, post-paid, and be cured at home. Packages of Medicines, Directions, &c. forwarded by sending a remittance, and put up secure from damage or curiosity.

Book-sellers, News Agents, Pedlars, canvassers, and all others supplied with the above book at very low rates.

Sept. 2, 1852.—1y

J. A. WOODLAND,

HOUSE, SIGN AND DECORATIVE PAINTER,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

☞ The above is prepared to execute all orders in his line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Paper-Hanging Department, with punctuality, neatness and despatch, and at prices considerably less than those usually charged.

Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.

March 23, 1852.

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE subscriber invites the attention of the people to his large and well selected assortment of Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery, Earthen and Stone Ware, also Boots and Shoes, &c. My stock has been selected with great care, and I can offer it to the public as to good qualities of Dry Goods, and particularly adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints, Ginghams, Cassimere,
Barege de Lane, Gloves, Sacksuffs,
Lawns, Hosiery, Fustians, &c.

And all styles of goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear, also a handsome assortment of mixed colored cambrics, alstrings, sheetings, buttons, thread, cotton bats, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas, Rice, Sugars, Candles, Flour
Coffee, Corn Starch, Soap, Indian Meal

PROVISIONS.—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef,
Pepper, Spices, Cheese, Hams, Pork, &c.

Pepper sauce, Honey, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which I will offer as low as can be purchased elsewhere. I invite one and all both old and young, to call and inspect my goods and prices, being satisfied that all will be induced to purchase on the second time.

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!!

The subscriber has also on hand a good assortment of Black and Fancy Bengeable silks, which will be sold cheap.

F. B. ARROWSMITH.

May 4, 1852.

HORACE SEATON,

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER, AND DEALER IN

FOREIGN LACE GOODS

☞ Straw and Silk Bonnets, Ribbons, Flowers, Hats, Dress Caps, Veils, Collars, Embroidery Muslin, Gloves and Hosiery, Millinery articles, Combs, Brushes, Oils, Perfumery, &c. Bonnets bleached and altered to the present fashion.

N. B. Also to be found in the same building a superb stock of Gents's, Ladies and Children's fancy dress Shoes and Gaiters.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE, SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods in his line. He also

Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute all orders in all the branches of the above business, as well, as quick and as cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen and judge for yourselves. May 17, 1852.

Something New !!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John D. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite Francis & Mills, would inform the public of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 6, 1852.

CARHART & NEEDHAM,

Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

With Recent Important Improvements,

Price from $60 to $200.

No. 75 East Thirteenth Street,

J. Carhart, } NEW YORK

E. P. Nee ham. }

N. B. ☞ Reeds constantly on hand.

Nov. 10, 1851.—1y

"JOY"

FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing astonishing healing properties, which is adapted to a large class of diseases, in its ability to arrest pain, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Coughs and Colds, we doubt if it has an equal. It is good for Burns, Bruises, Sprains and Rheumatism, Head, Ear and Tooth Ache, Chilblains, Worms, Agues and Fever—as a Cholera preventive or remedy it cannot be surpassed. No one can appreciate the value of this excellent medicine, till they have used the same. We have used it with great success, and do most cheerfully recommend it to those that are troubled by afflicted, as a safe and harmless remedy. It is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge, Brooklyn, John Comstock, Brklyn
A. H. Brooks, Brooklyn, John Riekbeck, Engineer
" Prof. Whiting, Washington, Stephen Hopper,
Hon. G. L. Martence, Brklyn, Lawrence Mann, Brklyn
S. Sprague, Ex-Mayor, " Jordan Wooley, L. Island
Alderman S. L. Hurad, " Thomas Hopper,
H.C. Cowkling, Ex-P.M., " Aaron Kingsland, Brklyn,
J. Dorland, ferry master " Addison Jayne, New York,
David Travers, Steamer, Thomas Hilcox, " Market
A. Wise, Bullshead hotel, Justice D. Hilcox, "
Peter Blauvelt, T's Ferry, E. Packer, "
Joseph Conklin, W. Market, Rainer S. Veldran, "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above testimonials. Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.

FRANCIS B. STRYKER.

Late Mayor of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 124 Walker Street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING.

Jan. 2, 1852

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES,

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depur tive Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Elixir of Correction,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-dyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Cathar Pills
Nervine,	Female Pills,
Vermifuge,	Female Specific
Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil.

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the cure of

Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, Piles, &c.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Plated Steel Spring Shoulder Braces.

Dr. Fitch's Silver inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to an old age.

This Book should be in every family. To the consumptive it points out the only REASONABLE hope for relief. To mothers, the directions it gives for the care and education of children are invaluable. 75,000 copies of this Book have passed through the press, and the sale continues unabated.

For Sale by S. S. FITCH & CO., 707 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

Chairs ! Chairs ! Chairs !

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Square and Round Seat, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, and Children's Chairs; Also,

Wash and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel do.

March 22, 1852. For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 44. | Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, November 2, 1852. | Whole Number 824.

BY MILTON F. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

Central Classical Institute, for Boys,

AT PLAINFIELD, N. J.

PROFESSOR L. D. WATERS, A. M. PRINCIPAL.

Pupils will be practically and thoroughly educated in moral, intellectual and physical sense, their habits formed and fixed by correct rules and reasonable discipline, and their manners promptly and kindly attended to. They will be prepared for the Counting-house, or for advanced standing in any college. The best teachers will be secured in all departments.

Terms for Board, Tuition in English, Greek and Latin, and Lectures, $200 per annum. Day Scholars will be charged $50 per quarter for the English Branches, and $10, for Greek and Latin Classics; French, Spanish, Drawing, Painting and Instrumental Music extra.

Arrangements have been made for the accommodation of Young Ladies, during the session.

Parents, who may be desirous of availing themselves of this temporary advantage, will be kindly accommodated to their wishes by the Principal as soon as convenient.

Payments are required quarterly in advance.

Pupils will be admitted at any time and charged from the time of entrance. No deduction for absence except in cases of protracted illness.

The year is divided into two sessions of 22 weeks each.

Circulars containing full particulars may be obtained at the Principal's.

REFERENCES.

Rev. Edward Robinson, D. D. Amherst College.
Prof. Edward Hitchcock, A. M. do
Prof. Wm. G. Shedd, A. M. do
Prof. H. B. Smith, A. M. do
Rev. Seman Sprague, D. D. Pittsfield, Mass.
William E. Dodge, New York.
E. H. Butler, Esq. Philadelphia.

PRIZE MEDAL, N. J.

Josiah Hanning, Esq. Plainfield. Jas. H. Stockwell, Esq.
Rev. Edward Hoes, do Joseph Annin, Esq.
Rev. William Baker, do Cornelius Holes, Esq.
J. W. Cregg, M. D. do Zachariah Wetmore, Esq.
C. H. Sylvester, do Elston Marsh, Esq.

Oct. 26, 1852—tf.

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Twin Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line of the most fashionable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders, he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public is invited to call and are assured that they will be furnished with a handsome and serviceable a Hat as those buy in New York or Philadelphia, and half a dozen each cheaper.

N. B. Moleskin or Beaver Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 28, 1852.—ly

Lyon's Kathairon,

For the Growth and Embellishment of the Hair, to Prevent its falling off and Turning Gray.

Awarded the Highest Premium by the States of New York, Maryland and Michigan at their annual Fairs of 1851.

THIS preparation realizes the effect of disease, climate and old age, in Preserving and Restoring the Human Hair, even after a Baldness of twenty years; it causes the scalp from Scurf and Dandruff; will cause to Nervous Headache, Sculd Head, Scrofulous Diseases of the Skin, &c. and it is the most desirable for Ladies or Gentlemen in the world. Its perfume equals Lubin's choicest Extracts, and being free from all offensive rancid oil or coloring properties, it gives the Hair that clean, bright, soft, lively appearance, secured by no other preparation.

TOILET ARTICLE

The use of the Kathairon is adopted by the first physicians in Europe and America, and has a patronage and sale unprecedented in the history of the materia medica. The words are superfluous, a trial only can attest its real virtue, as millions certify. To be had throughout North and South America, Europe and the Islands of the Ocean, in large Bottles, for 25 cents.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING,

July 19, 1852.—6m*

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF Pure Jamaica Ginger.

"Dear Sir,—I speak from a general knowledge of the virtues of Ginger, and particularly of your preparation of Jamaica Ginger, having used it three years in my practice. For Dyspepsia, Cholera, Summer complaint, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, General Weakness, &c. it is unquestionably the best article in the world. Its effect in exciting the system to throw off any latent disease of all kinds so usual during a warm season, makes it invaluable to every family. I usually use it to prevent nine-tenths of the protracted diseases of the summer and autumn.

Yours truly, R. M. CHILSON, M. D.,
133 Bond-Street, New York."

This article, peculiarly adapted to this climate, and which is now daily used, can be had in Plainfield of

July 19, 1852—6m* M. F. CUSHING,

E. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

LIGHTNING RODS !

A. M. CLEZY & SON, No. 132 East Twenty-Seventh Street, New York, continue to manufacture and fix their justly celebrated Improved Lightning Rods which have now been in use seventeen years, without a single failure to protect the buildings to which they were attached. Quality has made Electricity the study of his life, and his rods are always put up in accordance with certain rules which he has formulated and adopted as the result of his experience, and to which he has found to be the only reliable means of securing perfect protection from lightning.

Almost all buildings are differently situated and exposed as regards lightning, and require a different arrangement of the rods, to meet the peculiar features of the case, which is the reason why so many of the common rods so generally used, being put up by persons ignorant of the laws which electricity is governed, they are not arranged on buildings in such a manner as to protect in all cases and under all circumstances. Sunday's rods have been placed on the houses of Mr. B. Rockwell, C. Bolles, Esq. Mr. M. Stelle, and others in Plainfield, and on many of the most splendid public and private buildings in the country, such as Trinity Church, and others in New York; church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, City Hall, &c. &c.

All orders directed as above address will receive prompt attention. Circulars containing further information may be had at the office of this paper.

Plainfield, July 5d, 1852.—6m*

HOPE'S EXPRESS,

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield,

Leaves Plainfield for New York at 8 1-2, A. M. For Somerville at 4 P. M.

Arrives in Plainfield from New York at 5 1-2 P. M. From Somerville at 8 1-2 A. M.

All business entrusted to us will be punctually attended to, without delay, at moderate charges, for cash.

NEEDLES AND VARIETIES.

REMOVAL.—The undersigned, on the 1st day of January, will remove his store to No. 16 Maiden-Lane, New York, formerly occupied by him.

He begs respectfully to call public attention to the numerous qualities of the Needles imported by him:—James Gray's (sole agent) Needles—Richards' Grooved, Spear and Eyed Needles—Pearl Buttons, Combs, Steel Chains, Shell Cotton, Gilt Cotton, Gilt Braid, Binding Braid, Tapes, Thimbles, Scissors, Pocket Books, Purses, Eyes.

RICH'D RICHARDS,
Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods,
16 Maiden-Lane New York

Sept. 28, 1852—10m.

SINGULAR CASE OF INSTINCT IN A HORSE.—A remarkable exhibition of equine intelligence was communicated to us a few days since by Mr. Allen, of this place. The circumstances, as they were narrated to us, are as follows: Mr. A. has had for a considerable time a span of sprightly little horses that he has never separated. In the stable, in the field, in the harness, they have always been together. This has caused a strong attachment to grow up between them. A few days ago, he went with them out to Lake Minnetouka, on a fishing excursion. Taking them out of the carriage, he led them down to the lake, and tied them with stout ropes, several rods apart, on a strip of grass that grew upon the shore, and left them to feed. Returning to the shantee, he threw himself upon the floor to await the return of the party, who had repaired to the lake to fish. Not much time had elapsed before the sound of an approaching horse's feet attracted his attention, and a moment after one of his span appeared at the door. The animal put his head in, and giving one neigh in unfortunate horse, his whole benefactor stood by, manifesting the utmost solicitude and sympathy, and when his mate was extricated from his situation, and again upon his feet on terra firma, the generous creature exhibited the most unquestionable signs of satisfaction and joy. That this intelligent animal should have noticed the misfortune of his mate—that he should know where to apply for rescue, and in his efforts should slunder a three rod rope, or an inch rope, and finally, that he should exhibit so high an appreciation of the event—are circumstances to astonish us, and commend themselves to the thoughtful consideration of those who would limit the power of reasoning to the "genus homo."—St. Anthony (Minnesota) Express.

WONDERFUL PERFORMANCE OF A DOG.—A gentleman residing in Seville, had a dog named "Carlo," and a fine knowing dog he was. His master, who had much confidence in his prudence and discretion, not only employed him to bring provisions from the market, but also entrusted him with money to pay for the various articles commissioned. For a long time Carlo conducted himself in the most irreproachable manner, carrying the meat and money to the butcher, receiving home a piece of beef or a fine fat pullet, as the case might be. Carlo continued to fill his situation in the commissariat to the entire satisfaction of the parties concerned; no fraud, no peculation, was ever laid to his charge; in short, Carlo showed, by his daily conduct, that he not only knew the duties of a commissary, but, what is still more remarkable, he actually practiced them. But, alas! how many instances in the midst of human frailties may be tempted to make a false step, so it was with Carlo. Some shabby dog, it was supposed had affronted him; he sat down the basket, and while engaged in chastising his foe, an urchin peeped in the basket, seized the piece of money and directly made off, without waiting to congratulate the victor. Carlo having sufficiently punished his adversary, shook his ears, and, quite unconscious of the loss he had sustained, seized the basket with his teeth, trotted off to market in double quick time, and presented himself before the butcher. "How is this, there is no money here, Carlo?" said the butcher, after taking out the billet, and turning the basket upside down. For a few moments Carlo hung his head in evident confusion, and then as if a sudden thought had struck him, he ruhbed out of the market. Away he went, helter skelter through the crowded streets, upsetting a Gallego with his water jar, bouncing against a seller of water melons, and running full tilt against an Italian pedlar, creating dire confusion among his saints and madonnas, on he went till he reached the square where a number of boys were collected playing at pitch and toss. Here Carlo made a halt for a few minutes, until seeing a piece of money similar to one that had been stolen from him, he pounced upon it, and disappeared, to the great astonishment of its owner. Carlo went directly to the butcher, gave him the money, took up the well filled basket, and what is not the least remarkable part of the story, he returned home by a circuitous route, by which means he avoided passing through the square, having, doubtless, reasons of his own for declining a meeting with the young gambler.—The Sportsman.

Sympathy of the Animal creation.

When a pig is caught in a gate, or suffers from any domestic operation, all the rest are seen to gather round it, to lend their fruitless assistance, and to sympathize with its suffering. When the late starved elephant which Bishop Heber saw, fell down, another elephant, of very large size, and in somewhat better plight, was brought to assist. "I was much struck," says the bishop, "with the almost human expression of surprise, alarm and perplexity in his countenance, when he approached his fallen companion. They fastened a chain round his neck and the body of the sick beast, and urged him in all ways by encouragement and blows, to drag him up, even tearing spears into his flanks. He pulled stoutly for a minute, but on the first groan his companion gave, he stopped short, turned fiercely round with a loud roar, and with his trunk and fore feet began to attempt to loosen the chain from his neck." The sympathy of the animal for his suffering fellow was greater than his habitual obedience. But elephants accommodate themselves to circumstances in even a more extraordinary manner than such a refusal as this to perform a disagreeable task. The Baron de Lauriston states that he was at Lucknow, when an epidemic distemper was raging, and when the road to the palace was covered with the sick and dying. The nabob came out upon his elephant. His slaves, regardless of their unhappy fellow creatures, made no attempt to clear the road; but the more charitable beast, without any command, lifted some out of the way with his trunk, and stepped so carefully among the rest that none were hurt. Another extraordinary instance of sympathetic intelligence is recorded upon the authority of an artillery officer who witnessed the transaction: "The battering train going to the siege of Seringapatam had to cross the sandy bed of a river that resembled other rivers of the East, which leave during the summer but a small stream of water running through them, though their beds are mostly of considerable breadth variety heavy for draught, and abounding in quicksands. It happened that an artilleryman, who was seated on the tumbril of one of the guns, by some accident fell off, in such a situation that in a minute or two the hind wheel must have gone over him. The elephant which was stationed behind the gun, perceiving the predicament in which the man was, instantly, without any warning from its keepers, lifted up the wheel with its trunk, and kept it suspended till the carriage had passed clear of him."—Thompson's "Passions of Animals."

PRIDE OF HIGHLAND ANCESTRY.—The following is an amusing instance of the tenacity with which the Highlanders hold to the honors and antiquity of their kindred:—A dispute arose between Campbell and McLean upon the never ending subject. McLean would not allow that the Campbells had any right to rank with the McLeans antiquity, who, he insisted, were in existence as a clan from the beginning of the world. Campbell had a little more biblical lore than his antagonist, and asked him if the clan McLean was before the flood? "Flood? what flood?" said McLean. "The flood that you know drowned all the world but Noah and his family and his flocks," said Campbell. "Pooh, you and your flood," said McLean; "my clan was afloat at it. I have read in my Bible," said Campbell, "of the name of McLean going into Noah's ark." "Noah's ark," retorted McLean, in contempt, "who ever heard of a McLean tat had not a boat of his own?"

The other day two colored gentlemen, operating on board a ship recently arrived, as cook and steward, by way of employing their leisure time, and to gratify their curiosity, dropped into the Merchant's Exchange Reading room, where such dry wonderful inventions are constantly exhibited. After bestowong a proper degree of attention upon the plaything supposed to represent a ship, and the enormous masses of iron intended to steer vessels, attract their compasses and keep them by the stern, the eye of Washington Pompey, the cook, suddenly dilated as it fell upon the Working Model of a Propellar! designed by a sanguine inventor to propel itself without sails, steam or any other motive power but the waves.

"Look ya heah," exclaimed he to his companion, "what ya call dis?"

"Dat!" replied the steward, to whom on account of his station, the cook was accustomed to look deferentially for information upon all subjects. "Dat am de greatest invention of dis age, de absquatulator of steamboats, railroads and calorics. By'm bye he cut up de telegraph!"

"How he work?"

"Work! why dis thing go up—'tother go down, k'whollop, k'chunk, k'whollop, so fashion, dar, you see?"

"Yas, but what make him?"

"Petual motion! Start 'em a rollin' an' he keep a rollin' from here to California. He go too knot in a calm (if you only gets dat petual motion agoin'), an' when he get in dat bobbery sea off Cape Good Hope, he go 40 'tl!"

"Wall, wall," replied the cook, scratching his woolly pate; "dat histration o' yourn convinces me it am a great invention sartin. Wonder if dar can't be him for grinding coffee and choppin' up scouse?"—Journal.

WORK FOR CHILDREN.

There is no greater defect in educating children than neglecting to accustom them to work. The parent does not consider whether the child's work is necessary to the child. Nothing is more true than that future independence and comfort must depend on being accustomed to work—accustom for the thousand constantly recurring wants that nature entails upon us. If this were not so, still it preserves them from bad habits, secures their health, strengthens both body and mind, it enables them better to bear the confinement of the school room, and it tends more than anything else to give them just views of life. Growing up in the world without a knowledge of its toils and cares, they view it through a false medium. They cannot appreciate the favors you bestow, as they do not know the toils they have been spared. Indolent and inane are created, and enfebled, and they are constantly exposed to whatever vicious associations are within their reach. No man or woman is fully educated if not accustomed to manual labor. Whatever accomplishments they possess, whatever their mental training, a deduction must be made for their ignorance of that important chapter in the world's great book.

AN EDITOR IN THE BLUES.—The editor of the Saratoga (N. Y.) Republican pours forth his lamentations thus:

"Having made precisely money enough at the printing business, the subscriber is satisfied to give up and return to the Poor house. Under these circumstances, he is induced to offer the printing establishment of the Saratoga Republican for sale. The paper has a circulation of about 1,000—one-fourth of which may be called paying, and the other three fourths non-paying patrons. The office has a good variety of job type, and a fair run of work of this description, provided the work is done at the reduced New York prices, and the printer will take "cats and dogs" for pay. This village is one of the prettiest places in the world for newspaper publisher. Everybody will find fault, do the best you can, and the editor who pleases himself will stand but a slim chance of pleasing anybody else. The subscription list and good will of the office will be thrown in if the purchaser will take the type, presses and materials for what they are worth, and pay for them; so that there will be no probability of the present proprietor being obliged to take the establishment back and return to business."

FORTUNES MADE BY ADVERTISING.

From a small pamphlet, entitled "The Art of making Money," an extract has been taken, and is going the round of the provincial press, pointing out the fact of making immense sums by the simple process of continuous advertising. Doubtless large sums have been, are, and will be made by such a system by certain persons of ability, who no doubt would make their way in the world if called upon to play different parts on the great stage of life; but to suppose that men in general must, as a matter of course, acquire wealth by such means, is as absurd as to imagine that all the penniless and shoeless of London are incapable of rising to the dignity and wealth of an alderman or the lord mayor of London simply by reading the "Young Man's Best Companion." Money is not so easily made as the writer of the article referred to would lead people to suppose; if it be so, few need be poor. But to our text: fortunes made by advertising. Undoubtedly the greatest man of the day as an advertiser is Holloway, who expends the enormous sum of twenty thousand pounds annually in advertisements alone; his name is not only familiar in nearly every paper and periodical published in the British Isles, but as if this country was too small for this individual's exploits, he stretches over whole of India, having agents in all the different parts of upper, central, and lower provinces of that immense country, publishing his medicaments in the Hindoo, Cordoo, Georiatee, and other native languages, so that the Indian public can take the Pills and use his Ointment according to general directions as a Cockney would do within the sound of Bow Bells. We find him again at Hong Kong and Canton, making his medicines known to the Celestials by means of a Chinese translation.—We trace him from thence to the Philippine Islands, where he is circulating his preparations in the native languages. At Singapore he has a large depot: his agents there supply all the islands in the Indian Seas. His advertisements are published in most of the papers at Sydney, Hobart Town, Launeeston, Adelaide, Port Phillip, and indeed in almost every town of that vast portion of the British empire. Returning homewards, we find his Pills and Ointment selling at Valparaiso, Lima, Callao, and other ports in the Pacific. Doubling the Horn, we track him in the Atlantic, Monte Video, Buenos Ayres Santos, Rio de Janeiro, Bahia, and Pernambuco; he is advertising in those parts in Spanish and Portuguese. In all the British West India Islands, as also in the Upper and Lower Canadas, and the neighboring provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, his medicines are as familiarly known, and sold by every druggist, as they are at home. In the Mediterranean we find them selling at Malta, Corfu, Athens, and Alexandria, besides at Tunis and other portions of the Barbary States. Any one taking the trouble to look at the "Journal de Courier" of Constantinople, may find in these, as well as other papers, that Holloway's medicines are regularly advertised and selling throughout the Turkish empire; and even in Russia, where an almost insurmountable barrier exists, the laws there prohibiting the entree of patent medicines Holloway's ingenuity has been at work, and obviates this difficulty by forwarding supplies to his Agent at Odessa, a port situated on the Black Sea, where they filter themselves unperceptitionally by various channels, into the very heart of the empire. Africa has not been forgotten by this indefatigable man, who has an agent on the River Gambia: also at Sierra Leone, the plague spot of the world, the inhabitants readily avail themselves of the Ointment and Pills; thus we can show our readers that Holloway has made his name complete circuit of the globe, commencing with India, and ending, as we do, with the Cape of Good Hope, where his medicines are published in the Dutch and English languages; and while speaking of Dutch, we have heard that he has made large shipments to Holland, and is about advertising in every paper or periodical published in that kingdom; we might add that he has also started his medicine in nature entails upon us. If this were not so, still it preserves them from bad habits, secures their health, strengthens both body and mind, it enables them better to bear the confinement of the school room, and it tends more than anything else to give them just views of life. Growing up in the world without a knowledge of its toils and cares, they view it through a false medium. They cannot appreciate the favors you bestow, as they do not know the toils they have been spared. Indolent and inane are created, and enfebled, and they are constantly exposed to whatever vicious associations are within their reach. No man or woman is fully educated if not accustomed to manual labor. Whatever accomplishments they possess, whatever their mental training, a deduction must be made for their ignorance of that important chapter in the world's great book.

A PIOUS GOVERNOR.

When Sir Wm. Berkley was governor of Virginia, and the Yankees were subjects of the British crown, and all the rich men and the clergy were High Tories of the unchangeable and irreformable school, Sir William wrote as follows to a friend—"I thank God there are no free schools or printing in Virginia, and I hope we shall not have them these hundred years, for learning has brought heresy, and disobedience, and sects into the world; and printing has divulged them and libels against the best government. God keep us from both."

A POWERFUL SOAP.—One day last week, a man was selling a very powerful soap in our city or at least it appeared to be by his talk.

"Gentlemen, there's no humbug about this soap ever invented for drawing oil out of clothes. One day last week I was standing near a cask of oil, and never thinking I had several cakes in my hand, and upon looking down at my pants, I discovered them to be full of oil. The soap was so very strong and powerful, that it had drawed the oil right through the head of the cask."

It is needless to say that he sold a few cakes of that soap.

A KIND WORD WITH JONATHAN.—Perish all the cod and mackerel in the ocean—the cheating as they are—before we go to war with brother Jonathan for a cause as scaly as any fish can be that have no scales. We can't think of quarreling with Jonathan about fish at a time when our general enemy is plotting everywhere to reduce us, in a greater measure than we like to a fish diet; and would, if possible, move all the nations, and heaven and earth, and another place also, each worse than Ireland, against us for that end. We must recollect that Jonathan is now the only national creature of any importance, except ourself, that is not priest ridden and soldier ridden; the soldier in the saddle, and the jackpriest on the crupper. Our natural relation to Jonathan at present should be that of a league, offensive and defensive, against despotism and papal petticoat government all over the world. Punch.

The N. Jersey Central Railroad Co. have made a semi-annual report to the Stockholders. The cost of the line, 63 miles, Elizabethport to Philipsburg, opposite Easton, Pa. and their ferry property, New York to Elizabethport, and at the Delaware crossing, appears to be $2,730,839, and the cash on hand $33,600; together, $2,764,529, distributed as follows:

Capital Stock,	$986,100
Mortgage Bonds,	1,500,000
Somerville Mortgage Bonds,	28,000
Somerville Bonds payable,	97,000
Bills payable, generally 6 to 9 mths,	116,464
Balance of sundry accounts,	16,976

The earnings of the Road since the opening in July, have been, respectively, $19,000 in July, $23,475 in August, and $26,400 in Sept——. The prospects of the Company are encouraging for the next six months. The earnings the past 6, were $108,447, half the time the line incomplete.

FEARS OF A REVOLUTION IN AUSTRALIA.—The intelligence, the wealth, the respectability which is now emigrating to Australia, will never endure contact with that foul stream of emigration which the government is sending by a different channel to meet and mingle with it there. It is not merely that the expirees from Van Dieman's Land cross over the narrow strait that separates them from Australia. Government admits that 684 prisoners under sentence have already escaped to the gold fields; an admission which, considering the quarter from which it comes, may well be most liberally construed. We can look to nothing less from the infatuated perseverance in the present system than an earlier, a more disgraceful, and a more disastrous separation between this country and her Australian, than between her and her American colonies. It seems to be forgotten, that, while America was only valuable through her trade, Australia has a peculiar value of her own. If one people that vast continent with a nation of our own race, and then make that nation our enemy, in losing one empire we endanger the possession of another. With a powerful Anglo Saxon country so close to her coasts, who shall insure to us the permanent dominion of India? We may hope to hold it against Europe and America, because their distance from it is as remote as our own; but assimilated, as we seem determined it shall be, by a yet bitterer spirit of animosity, our hold upon India will be feeble, indeed. We are planting a great nation; its geographical position will render it a most formidable ally, or most dangerous enemy, and our statesmen seem determined that it shall be the latter.—London Times Oct. 1.

When our desires are fulfilled to the very letter, we always find some mistake which renders them anything but what we expected.

Listen, if you would learn; be silent, if you would be safe.

People seldom learn economy till they have little to exercise it on.

There is no such injury as revenge, and no such revenge, as the contempt of an injury.

Support your own measures, and they will support you. Support your own merchants, and they will support you. Support the home press, and it will support you.

He who hasleft to the world the record of a noble life, though he may have left no outward memorial, has left an enduring source of greatness.

No wonder we are all more or less pleased with mediocrity, since it leaves us at rest, and gives the same comfo table feeling as when one associates with his equals.—Goethe.

A man in Louisiana plants cucumbers, and waters them with vinegar. The vines produce excellent pickles.

An English paper states that a large number of kid gloves are now made of rat skins.

A Philadelphia corset maker advertises a new corset that will "reduce the waist about three inches more than the usual corset!"

Old, but true.—A good sermon is like a kiss. It requires but two heads and an application.

The worst feature in a man's face is his nose—when stuck into other people's business.

From the Flag of our Union.

VOYAGE OF LIFE.

BY JOSEPH H. BUTLER.

We sail upon time's restless sea,
Our destined port—eternity;
Life is our noble bark—
Youth spreads in hope her eager sail,
Scorning each hidden rock and gale,
Breasting the billows dark!

Without a pilot's guiding hand,
Our bark must strike on rock or sand,
The deep must be our grave;
For human aid, and human trust,
Are feeble as the pulseless dust—
No mortal arm can save.

But one our pilot here can be,—
His guiding hand spreads out the sea,
And bids its billows rage;
Whirlwind and calm he does control,
Maker and Lord of the great whole,
Unchanged from age to age!

Then trust in Him, however lone,
Cry to him when all else is gone,
He will not us deny;
Sweet is the penitential tear,
In the dark hour of human fear,
He sees our agony.

He knows us human—and his grace
Extends to all our fallen race,
Though darkly we have slept;
The meek, forgiving Saviour will
Pity our sinful nature still,
Remember,—"Jesus wept."

Then mid Time's elemental strife,
O let us trust the ship of life
To his almighty hand;
Guide—comforter—and friend of all,
Let us upon his mercy call,
To bring us safe to land.

If He vouchsafe our ship to guide,
It matters not how swells the tide,
Or how the storm may roar;
The spirit looking into Him,
Shall fearless see all Nature dim,
And rest to weep no more.

THE ONLY TRUE PORTRAIT OF WASHINNGTON.
JUST PUBLISHED.
T. B. WELCH'S MAGNIFICENT
Portrait of Washington.

Engraved (by permission) from Stuart's only original portrait, in the Athenæum, Boston.

This superb picture, Engraved under the superintendence of THOMAS SULLY, Esq., the eminent and highly gifted artist, is the only correct likeness of Washington ever published. It has been characterised as the greatest work of art ever produced in this country. As to its fidelity we refer to the letters of the adopted son of Washington, GEORGE WASHINGTON PARK CUSTIS, who says, "it is a faithful representation of the celebrated original," and to Hon. GEORGE TROTT of the Supreme Court of the United States, who says, "As a work of art its excellence and beauty must strike every one who sees it: and it is no less happy in its likeness to the Father of his country. It was my good fortune to have seen him in the days of my boyhood, and his whole appearance is yet strongly impressed on my memory. The portrait you have published appears to me to be exact likeness, representing perfectly the expression as well as the form and features of the face."

And yes SENATOR CASS, it is a lifelike representation of the great original. PRESIDENT FILLMORE says, "the work appears to me to have been admirably executed and eminently worthy of the patronage of the public." Hon. MARCUS MORTON, Governor, the portrait painter, and the pupil of Stuart, "your print to my mind is more remarkable than any other I have seen, for presenting the whole individuality of the original portrait, together with the noble and dignified repose of air and manner, which all who ever saw him considered a marked characteristic of the illustrious man it commemorates."

For the great merits of this picture we would refer every lover of Washington to the portrait itself, to be seen at the office of this paper, and to letters of the following Artists, Statesmen, Artists and Scholars accompanying it.

ARTISTS—Marchant and Elliott, of New York: Neagle, Rothermel, and Lambdin, of Philadelphia; Chester Harding, of Boston; Charles Fraser, of Charleston, S. C.; and to the adopted son of Washington, Hon. Geo. W. P. Custis, himself an artist. STATESMEN—His Excellency Millard Fillmore, Major Gen. Winfield Scott, Hon. George M. Dallas, Hon. William R. King, Hon. Daniel Webster, Hon. Linn Boyd, Hon. Lewis Cass, Hon. W. A. Graham, Hon. John P. Kennedy, Hon. R. C. Winthrop, LL. D. JURISTS.—Hon. Roger B. Taney, Hon. John Duer, Hon. John McLean, Hon. Rufus Choate. SCHOLARS.—Charles Folsom, Esq., the well known Librarian of the Boston Athenæum, who says, "I would rather own it than any painted copy I have ever seen;" E. P. Whipple, Richard Hildreth, Hon. Jared Sparks, Hon. Henry Wheaton, LL. D. William H. Prescott, LL. D., Washington Irving, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Esq., Prof. T. C. Upham, J. T. Headley, Fitz Greene Halleck, N. P. Longfellow, Wm. Gilmore Simms, —and FROM EUROPE, Lord Talfourd, T. B. Macaulay, Sir Archibald Alison, Lord Mayor of London, &c. &c. &c. The Press throughout the entire Union, have with one voice proclaimed the merits of this superb engraving.

To enable all to possess this valuable treasure, it is sold at the low price of $5 per copy.

Published by GEORGE W. CHILDS,
N. W. corner of Fifth and Arch streets, Philadelphia.
WILLIAM N. SEARLES,
Sole Agent for the State of New Jersey.

This Portrait can only be obtained from Mr. SEARLES or from his duly authorized agents.

Arrangements have been made with the Post Office Department, by which copies of the Portrait can be sent to any part, per mail, in perfect order.

Persons by remitting FIVE Dollars to WM N. SEARLES, Newark, N. J., will have a copy of the Protrait sent to them free of postage.

The Magnificent Gilt Frames, got up expressly for these Portraits, furnished at the low price of $5.00 each.

JUST ISSUED.

A MAGNIFICENT PORTRAIT OF General Jackson,

Engraved by T. B. WELCH, ESQ., after the original portrait painted by T. SULLY, ESQ.

This Portrait will be a match for Washington, and is in every respect equal to it.

Price $5.00 per copy. Address as above.

Nov 2—6wis

LATEST FRENCH BONNET.—Madame Dubay D'Olberg, whose name is known throughout civilized Europe as the presiding Goddess of Fashion, has just astonished her votaries by the production of a leather bonnet, an extremely elegant article. The leather is exceedingly thin and delicately enamelled, and is drawn over the frame in the same manner as silk or velvet. It has the advantage of being water proof. The possession of these bonnets has already become a perfect furore in Paris; and the really beautiful way in which the material is made subservient to every style of wearer, from the truly coquettish to the sombre or demure, fully justifies this distinction.

A Heavy Bonus.—It is stated that Two Millions of Dollars has been offered by one of the wealthiest citizens to the New York Common Council, for the right to construct a railroad through Broadway.

If poverty is the cause of hard ships, what is the cause of soft ships!

Iron Buildings.—There is a warehouse commenced in New York, in Beekman street, to be constructed entirely of iron and plaster of Paris —with the exception that the floor timbers of the first and second stories are of wood. These are the only combustible materials employed.

The Largest Hog in the World.—There is now on exhibition in the city, at Mr. James S. Boles' livery stable, a hog raised by Mr. Nathaniel Lamb, of Milltown, which stands seven feet six inches high, and girts six feet eight inches, and weighs twelve hundred pounds. It is one year and six months old. If any one has got a greater hog than this we should like to know it. If this hog was fat, he would weigh 1,400 lbs.—Calais (Me.) Advertiser.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.—It is stated that the number of copies of this work published and sold in England, already amounted to 400,000. Messrs. Jewett & Co, have published 150,000 in this country.

The Camden and Amboy Railroad Company have constructed a large cistern in their car house at Camden, with a boiler and heater attached, for the purpose of heating water intended for the engines, before it is put into the boilers.

Portland, Me., sent about $3000 to the Montreal sufferers by the fire.

American whale ships in the Pacific are said to be doing a great business.

The Van Burens in Confidence.—A well informed New York city correspondent assures us that it is the general belief there that if Pierce is elected President, John Van Buren will have a seat in his Cabinet. We only add that this belief is in our opinion founded in truth. All the indications favor it.—Washington Telegraph.

A Large Lump of California Gold.—A solid lump of gold, in its rough state, weighing twenty-six and a half pounds, avoidupois, has been deposited at an importing house in New York, by a Texan miner, who dug the same from a mine 70 feet deep, in California. It is probable one of the largest specimens ever brought from the gold shores, and from close examination, it is supposed to contain about 5 per cent quartz.

A Jew has been sentenced by the Court of Correctional Police, (Paris,) to three months' imprisonment for selling to an old gentleman a pair of spectacles without any glasses in them. His defence rather staggered the Court. It seemed that the purchaser had himself chosen them from a quantity as being the most suited to his eyes of the whole assortment. The Jew had never asserted that there were any glasses in them. But the swinging price he had received, eighteen francs for what was not worth two, determined his condemnation.

Mr. John Warrell, a manufacturer of Birmingham, has been fined ten shillings and costs, for getting into a railway carriage while in motion.

An iron ship is being built in Liverpool for the New Orleans trade. She is 200 feet in her extreme length, 166 feet on the keel, 1000 tons measurement, and will carry 3500 bales of cotton.

The 500th ascent of the celebrated Mr. Green, the 8th of last month when he ascended from the Vauxhall Gardens, London, accompanied by eight other gentlemen, was announced as the last trip of the hardy aeronaut, who is 70 years of age.

The Chinese.—While the Governor of California is trying to drive the Chinese out of that State the government of British Guiana offers a bounty of $80 on their importation.

THE UNION.

Plainfield, N. J. November 2, 1852.

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, Nov. 2d. Polls open at 8 o'clock, A. M. and close at 7, P. M.

In Plainfield, at Laing's Hall.

This day will be elected a President of the United States. We will announce the chosen one in our next.

We hope there will be a general turn out—Give one day to your country; for it is an important matter. Let us have a full vote; and a full vote is a whig victory.

SECOND DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The Whig Convention to nominate a candidate for Assembly from this District, comprising Plainfield, Westfield, Springfield, New Providence and Union, met at Scotch Plains, Friday afternoon. John Little, of New Providence, President; Z. Webster and John Wood, Secretaries. On the 1st ballot, C. Boice had 7 votes, Stephen Day, of New Providence, 10; and Joseph M. Osborn, 8; whole number 25, 6 from each township. On the 5th ballot, Boice 12, Day 12, blank 1. 6th, Boice 11, Day 13, blank 1; therefore Day received the nomination. He is a very good man, and ought to be elected, but it will require exertion, as the District is evenly balanced.

Mr. Boice is we suppose the most popular whig in this District, and the last time he ran, in 1850, he ran ahead of his ticket some 50 votes, and was the only whig in the majority in the District. Every whig however ought to vote for the regular nominee, and he is in all respects unobjectionable.

The Democrats of this District on Saturday held their Convention in the same place, Samuel Y. Clark, Chairman; F. W. Reynolds and Mr. Noe, Secretaries. Jacob Manning, of Plainfield, was recommended by the committee, and accepted by the convention unanimously, as their candidate for Assemblyman. The Convention gave 3 cheers for Jacob Manning, 3 cheers for Rodman M. Price, and 3 cheers for Pierce & King, and adjourned.

Mr. Manning is a safe man on all State matters.

Instruction.

At the Central English and Classical Institute the best instruction in Instrumental Music, Piano Forte and Melodeon, will be afforded the Young Ladies and Gentlemen of Plainfield by an experienced and highly accomplished Teacher. Nov. 1st, 1852.—2w

National Whig Nominations:

For President of the United States:
Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.

For Vice President:
WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North-Carolina.

Sessional Electors: Dudley S. Gregory, of Hudson; Andrew K. Hay, of Camden.
1st District, John T. Nixon, of Cumberland.
2d, James S. Lawrence, of Monmouth.
3d, James S. Nevins, of Middlesex.
4th, Cornelius G. Garrison, of Passaic.
5th, James M. Quimby, of Essex.

For Congress, 5th District,
Alexander C. M. Pennington, of Newark.
Third District, George H. Brown, of Somerville.

A GREAT MAN HAS FALLEN!

Daniel Webster died on Sunday morning, Oct. 24th, 1852, at his residence at Marshfield, after a short illness, aged 70 years. He has been one of the strongest pillars of the Republic for the last twenty years, the great Constitutional Expounder and Defender, a lawyer in many respects unequalled, and a statesman unsurpassed. He has for many years filled a large space in the world's history, has achieved for himself an imperishable renown, and made himself a lasting honor to his country. Of the truly great men of the second era in our country, we have lost Clay, Calhoun, Webster, Jackson and Taylor; and we have left only Benton, Cass, Buchanan, Scott and Van Buren. We hope others of virtue and ability will arise to fill the places of the lost; but when, oh! when will Clay's and Webster's places be filled?

His funeral took place on Friday, which was generally observed by the closing of stores and other tokens of mourning, in all the principal cities.

THE MAINE LAW causes not a little excitement in various parts of this State. A number of conventions have been held by the friends of the law, also by its opposers. However desirable the Law may be in itself, the introduction of the question into politics at the important election this week, we think would be productive of no good, but of much evil. It is supposed that there are more Maine law men among the whigs than among the democrats, and not a few of the 60 Districts into which the State is divided are so evenly balanced, that a dozen or two votes turned by this question, would give these Districts to the Democrats, which added to the democratic districts, would give them the control of the Assembly. Thus Maine Law whigs would defeat the whigs, and in no way benefit the temperance cause, or in the least forward the enactment of that law. If the majority desire said law, the Legislature ought to pass it, but the fact ought first to be ascertained by a special election, from which all other issues are excluded.

From the last issue of the Plainfield Gazette we learn that the establishment has been transferred to Messrs. E. W. & J. C. Runyon; the continued ill-health of the late proprietor making a disposal of it necessary. Mr. E. W. Runyon is the Assessor of this township, and a rather intimate acquaintance of 10 or 12 years enables us to say that he is qualified for his new station. Mr. J. C. Runyon was our last apprentice, an excellent one, too, and is, as he ought to be, a respected and a respectable man.

CENTRAL COLLEGE, N. Y.—This Institution is situated at McGrawville, Cortland county, N. Y., a pleasant and beautiful village. Its rules recognize no distinction of privileges among the students, from sect, sex or color. The presidency is now vacant. There are professors, W. G. Allen, A. M.; W. Tillinghast, A. M., a graduate of Brown; A. Campbell, A. M., a Yale; R. Atkin, M. D., of Union, and C. L. Brockett, A. M., of Hamilton. The next collegiate term will commence the 1st of March. We are informed by one of the faculty, that the college is in a very flourishing condition.—N. Y. Independent.

The E. R. Akin mentioned above was for a time Principal of the Free School in this place and is well known to most of our readers, as a good scholar and able teacher.

The November number of Godey's Lady's Book has been received. The editors say they "feel proud of it, both for plates and matter," and well they may. Godey, having had an experience of over twenty years, and an abundant capital, can and does publish the best magazine of the kind in America; and, as a necessary consequence has by far the largest circulation.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The Falcon arrived at New Orleans on Thursday, with two weeks' later news from California, to Oct. 1st, and from Panama to Oct. 10th.

She brought 300 passengers and $300,000 in gold dust.

The Georgia arrived on Friday evening, at N. Y. with 300 passengers, and $2,300,000 in gold dust, having left Aspinwall Oct. 20.

The mining intelligence is favorable, the yield being large. Several fugitive slaves have been arrested and delivered up.

Money at San Francisco was scarce and dear.

SOMERSET COUNTY NOMINATIONS.

Whig.—Assembly, 1st District, Joseph V. D. Kelley; 2d, John Demott. Surrogate, Samuel Reynolds, of Bernards.

Democratic.—Assembly, 1st District, John H Anderson; 2d, Isaac Vanderveer. Surrogate Andrew A. Ten Eyck.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—Gov. Fort, of this State has appointed Thursday, Nov. 25th as a day of public thanksgiving and praise. The same day will be observed in like manner in N. York, and we suppose in most of the States.

The last most important case brought before the Mayor, at Tuscumbia, was that of an "assault and battery with intent to kick."

FOREIGN NEWS.

The steamship Washington arrived at New York Wednesday forenoon, from Bremen and Southampton, having left the latter port Oct. 13, with 140 passengers and a large freight of French and other goods.

The Niagara arrived at Halifax the same morning, having left Liverpool on the 16th, with 96 passengers for Boston and 70 for Halifax.

Cotton had advanced, with large sales. Breadstuffs had also advanced.

The yacht America figures largely in the news of the week. On the 12th she beat a Swedish yacht full twenty minutes. Her owner, Lord DeBlaquire, challenges her against the world, America excepted; and has been accepted by the Volante for £500, and the iron yacht Disowned for £1000. The races are to come off on the Thames, when the weather is suitable.

The whole Russian army has been ordered to go into mourning for the Duke of Wellington.

The most important feature of the news is the open proclamation of the Empire in France, by the Senate of Severus, and the speech of Louis Napoleon, at Bordeaux, in which he alludes very distinctly to the approaching event, which has been so long looked for.

Young's Premium and Cheap Fur Store,

92 Bowery, one door from Hester st. New York.

THE advertiser begs leave to inform his customers and the public in general, that he is now manufacturing and will have constantly on hand, a splendid assortment of comprising almost every article in the line. And he flatters himself, that from purchasing early and having his stock manufactured under his personal superintendence, he will be able to suit the most fastidious and economical, both in superior work and low prices.

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC FURS,

Nov. 2, 1852.—3m.

☞ Sale by Subscription of 292 Desirable Building Lots, with an opportunity of obtaining property valued at $30,000 for the sum of $250.—The property now offered for sale comprises some of the most eligible building lots—3 dwelling houses and lots, and a very valuable mansion house and ornamental grounds—situated in the City of Trenton, New-Jersey. It is proposed to divide the property into shares of $250; each share to represent a lot, dwelling house and lot, or the mansion and grounds. Purchasers of shares will have the option of taking immediately or obtaining for $250 property valued at $30,000; three to obtain dwelling houses and lots valued at $1,000, with a probability of getting lots worth much more than the subscription price, and the prospect of an increase in value.

Trenton is situated upon the line of the New-York and Philadelphia Railroad; is very pleasantly located, and is distant daily trains to and from New-York.—The streets are regulated, paved and lighted with gas.

TERMS.—Thirty dollars to be paid upon each share at the time of subscribing, and the balance in monthly installments till paid. Subscriptions received by the undersigned. For maps of the property and full particulars apply to

WM. H. FRANKLIN, SON & Co.
Nov. 2, 1852.—1m No. 5 Broad-st., N. Y.

Stoves and Ranges.

WM. H. DRUMMOND, NO. 65 MARKET STREET,
TIN, COPPER AND SHEET IRON WORKER.

THE subscriber has now on hand a complete assortment of Parlor, Cooking and other stoves, and ranges, of the most approved patterns. Purchasers, which will be sold on reasonable terms. Patterns are invited to call and inspect our assortment.

Nov. 2d, 3m

JOHN PRICE,
OPTICIAN, AND MANUFACTURER OF
Gold and Silver Spectacles,
NEWARK, N. J.

WOULD respectfully inform his friends and the public generally, that he has lately purged and refitted his premises, and has on hand and he intends keeping a first rate assortment of

Gold, Silver and Steel Spectacles,

Of every discription, set with the most superior Lenses to use, and to suit every sight; also Gold, Silver, Steel and Tortoise Shell Frame Reading Glasses, hand, quizzing, opera and magnifying Glasses, in great variety. Microscopes, Telescopes, Thermometers, Pocket Compasses, Double Concave Lenses for short sighted persons, fine English ground Colored, Convex and Concave Lenses, Cataract Lenses, &c. Particular attention is called to

Price's Premium Periscopic and
CRYSTAL CROWN LENSES,

Being made of the finest materials, which, through their high refractive power, greatly reduce the curves of vision, and are recommended by competent judges as being decidedly the best and most natural in their effect of any lenses in existence, and improving the sight in continued reading, writing &c.

References might be given to hundreds in this city and vicinity, who have used Spectacles for one, two or five years with the most perfect satisfaction, but it is deemed unnecessary as they are so well known by the reputation which they have gained for themselves since they have been introduced by the subscriber.

Persons with weak eyes can be fitted with Glasses which will greatly benefit and not strain the sight.—Short sighted persons, and such as have been operated upon for Cataract, can also suited.

J. P. would be happy to see at his store all persons that have found it impossible to get Glasses that were adapted to their sight, as the most difficult cases are easily fitted upon a fair trial, if the sight is not so far gone as to make it impossible to be benefited by glasses. Any person purchasing Spectacles at his store, can exchange if not well suited at any time within three months, without extra charge. The subscriber has also on hand a LARGE ASSORTMENT OF SILVER spoons, Fruit Knives, Silver Pencils, plain gold, Silver and Steel chains, ear rings, breast pins, cuff pins, lockets, finger rings, silver-plated, plain and threaded table, preserve, tea, and salt Spoons, plated Forks, &c.

Nov. 2. 1y

MW. H. DEGROOT'S
New-York OAK-HALL.

Cash Tailoring & Clothing Warehouse, 81 & 83 Fulton, Extending through to 47 & 49 Gold-St.

THE GRAND EXHIBITION!

Consisting of an extensive assortment of

Fall and Winter Clothing.

Made in a superior manner, of the best materials, and at prices as low as to Challenge the World.

The cheapness and elegance for which these garments are renowned, present a strong claim to the attention of those who study

Economy and Comfort.

In the CUSTOM DEPARTMENT are employed the most skilful artists, and all garments are guaranteed to fit.

REMEMBER WM. H. DEGROOT'S OAK-HALL,
Nos. 81 & 83 Fulton-Street,
Extending through to 47 and 49 Gold-Street.
Nov. 2, 1852.—3m

A CARD.

NOTICE is hereby given that on and after the first day of November next, we, the undersigned, intend closing our stores at 8 o'clock in the evening, to continue the ensuing winter.

Henry A. Coey,
Robert Anderson,
Webster & Marsh,
James M. Dunn,
Hoop & Sheppard,
John V. Arrowsmith,
Jacob Lyon,
Daniel Bullman,
Laing & Webster,
Ira Pruden,
A. D. & E. B. Titsworth,
I. S. Dunham & Co.,
Oliver Runyon,
Titsworth, Dunn & Co.,
William Dunn & Co.
John C. Boice,
Silas Wilson.

Dated Plainfield, Oct. 6th. 1852.—1m

BARAIGE DELAINES—a few pieces Just Received and selling off cheap.
Calicoes fast colors, for 6 cents per yard.
May 8, 1852 JAS. M. DUNN.

New York Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Wheat Flour,	$4,69 to 4,81
Rye Flour,	4,37 to 4,50
Indian Meal, Jersey,	3,62 to 3,63
Grain—Wheat,	1,06 to 1,10
Rye,	"85 to 88
Corn,	75 to 76
Oats, Jersey.	42 to 43

Thousands of parents who use Vermifuge compound of Castor oil, Calomel, &c., are unaware, that while they appear to benefit the patient, they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of sight, weakness of limbs, &c.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Hobensack's Medicines, to which we ask the attention of all directly interested in the crown as well as their children's health. In Liver Complaints and disorders arising from those of a bilious type, should make use of the only genuine medicine, Hobensack's Liver Pills.

☞ "Be not deceived," but ask for Hobensack's Worm Syrup and Liver Pills, and observe that each has the signature of the Proprietor, J. N. HOBENSACK, as none else are genuine.

It should be universally known.—For it is strictly true that indigestion is the parent of a large proportion of the fatal diseases. Dyspepsy, Diarrhœa, cholera infantus, liver complaint, and many other diseases enumerated in the city inspector's weekly catalogue of deaths, are generated by indigestion alone. Think of that dyspeptics! think of it all ye who suffer from disordered stomachs, and if you are willing to be guided by advice founded upon experience, resort at once (don't delay a day) to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, which, as an alterative, curative, and invigorant, stands alone and unapproached. Generated post, 120 Arch street. We have tried them, and know that they are excellent for the diseases specified above.

—Philadelphia City Item.

Dr. Sherman's Lozenges.—Dr. Sherman's Cough Lozenges, Worm Lozenges, and Camphor Lozenges, have been in constant use for many years, and have given much satisfaction. They are also pleasant to the taste, and readily taken by children.

For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

TO LET.

The Dwelling part of the House owned and occupied by the subscriber, suitable for a store, a number of shops. Possession given on the 1st of April or before.
Oct. 26, 1852. M. L. CUSHING.

THE ROAD TO HEALTH!

Holloway's Pills.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirton, Chemist, 7, Market Place, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer, to whom I can safely recommend for any complaint, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver, and bad digestion. On the last occasion of an attack the virulence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflammation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her not being able to bear up under it. Fortunately she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you very many cases, but the above, from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure, I think, speaks most highly for your astonishing Pills. (Signed) R. W. KIRKUS.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN VAN DIEMAN'S LAND

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart Town Courier, of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Walsh.

Margaret Flanagan, Tasmanian, years of age, residing at New Town, had been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs, and she was carried about in the arms of her fellow servants, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's Sarsaparilla Pills which he considered to do and in an incredible short space of time they effected a perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON 84 YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. Thos & Son, Proprietors of the Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement.

August 2nd, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severly from a pain and tightness in the stomach which was also accompanied with a bad cough. This pain I attributed at last from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I am now free from pain, and have made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before I used them.

HENRY COE, North Street, Lynn, Norfolk.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficious in the following complaints:

Ague	Dropsy	Inflammation	Sore Throats
Asthma	Dysentery	Jaundice	Stone & Gravel
Bilious	Erysipelas	Liver Com-	Secondary
Complaints	Female Irre-	plaints	symptoms
Blotches on	gularities	Lumbago	Tic Douloureux
the Skin	Fevers of all	Piles	Tumours
Bowel com-	kinds	Rheumatism	Venereal Af-
plaints	Fits	Retention of	fections
Colics	Gout	Urine	Worms of all
Constipation	Headache	Scrofula, or	kinds
of the Bowels	In fluenza,	King's Evil	Wounds, from
Consumption	Cough,	Sore Throats,	whatever
Debility			cause, &c.&c

Sold at the Establishment of Professor HOLLOWAY, 244, Strand, (near Temple Bar,) London, and by all respectable Druggists and dealers in Medicines throughout the British Empire, and of those of the United States, in Boxes at 37 1-2c., 87c., and $1 50c. each. Wholesale by Messrs. A. B. & D. SANDS, New York, and by Messrs. A. B. & D. SANDS New York.

☞ There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Box.

Oct. 19, 1852.—ly

Lamps, Girandoles, and Chandeliers.

THE subscriber wishes to direct public attention to his large and extensive assortment of Lamps, Girandoles, Chandeliers and Candlabras; Solar, Lard, Camphene, Burning Fluid and Phosgene Lamps, of the latest improvements and elegant patterns. Also a large assortment of Hall, Suspending and Bracket Lamps for Churches, Hotels, steamboats, public buildings, &c. &c. Pure sperm, solar and lard Oils, also new articles of Camphene, Burning Fluid, and any article connected with the trade.

The trade supplied on the most reasonable terms.

Country merchants would do well to call before purchasing elsewhere. SOLOMON S. BELLY,

No. 155 Canal st. corner of Laight; No. 3 Cayuga st. corner of Bedford; No. 157 Greenwich corner of Courtlandt; No. 248 Canal street, corner of Orchard.

Camphene Distillery, corner of 5th Avenue and Gansevort st. New York. Oct. 26, 1852.—3m

DISSOLUTION.

THE Co-partnership heretofore existing between the subscribers under the name of Johnson & Lyon, is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

CHARLES JOHNSON.
JACOB LYON.

Oct. 17 1852.

The business will be continued at the old stand by the subscriber, where every thing in the Grocery line will be sold cheap for Cash.

N. B. All persons indebted to the late firm are requested to call and settle without delay, as the accounts where the Books are left, and the subscriber is desirous to settle the same. JACOB LYON.

Plainfield, Oct. 4, 1852—tsl.

Post Pods in New Jersey.—

ing on the upper Belleville road, [illegible] few nights since, as he returning fr[om] in his wagon, by two men, one of wh[om] stopping him, placed a pistol to his hea[d] fired. Fortunately the ball only pierced hi[s] though his face was considerably burned. [The] ruffians then fled, but search was made for them during the night, and they were discovered and committed by Justice Lloyd, of Nellville.—Newark paper.

A correspondent of the Cecil Democrat predicts that the approaching winter will be a hard one, for the reason that the past winter was a very severe one, and one cold season is generally followed by another. It was so in '30, '31, and '36, '37.

The Boston Atlas says a boy named John Roberts, 12 years of age, was sentenced by Justice Rogers, on the 2d, to 6 months imprisonment in the House of Reformation, for being a confirmed truant from school.

A man who would fear God and sleep well, should have as little to do with politics as possible. Remember this and stop at home with your wife; and if you have not got one, why go and court some girl that is willing to be one.

On Tuesday week, the first locomotive ever seen in Upper Canada was put in motion on the Northern Railroad, which is to run from Toronto to Lake Huron. The locomotive was made in Portland, Me.

Sin and sorrow are inseparable.

Case of a Humor of 30 years' Standing.

ORIENT, April 16th, 1852.

Messrs. S. A. WEAVER & Co.,

Gentlemen—I am requested by a friend to state to you what I have been, and what I am now, in regard to health. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you and your medicine, which has relieved me from a great deal of suffering. I have been been afflicted for 30 years and over with Salt Rheum; I have tried to find relief from medicine, but never found it. I have dieted and taken medicine enough to float a pretty large boat, but all has done me no good. I commenced taking your medicine about twelve months ago. Previous to taking your medicine, for about twelve months I was so badly off that I had to take a bath every night, to wash the filth and scabs that would collect every day. My bath usually was from three to five pails of water and after I got through, the water would be near the color of milk; so you may judge that there was a good deal of filth in my flesh. I am now quite free from scabs and pains, though I have a little of it hanging about me. As yet I hardly dare say what I would like to say. I have taken 20 bottles of the medicine, and used, I believe, seven bottles of the Cerate. I intend to continue taking your Syrup.

I am requested to give a description of my situation before taking your Syrup. My flesh was hard and crusty, swollen, very sore—could hardly get about, having to use one and sometimes two canes. Some of the time I could not undress myself or dress, restless nights, many a night having to set in a chair all of the night. I had almost despaired of ever doing any better, but your wonderful medicine has, I feel, done wonders for me. I commenced taking the Syrup one year from this date, April 19th, 1851. The first bottle I took in eight or nine days; the second in ten or twelve days, but found before I got through the second, I was getting worse pretty fast; still I continued to take the Syrup, though not as freely. The Cerate I found rather harsh at first, my flesh being so sore. I reduced it with lard for a while, but before I got through the third bottle I was in a pitiful condition, the filth and matter that would gather and discharge on the surface was astonishing. At times it would be the thickness of a fifty cent piece, the most loathsome and filthy of the combination that by enabling the system to gradually begin to get better, my flesh began to soften, the itching and burning seemed to come to an end, so that by the first of October I could undress and go to bed, and sleep without an ache or pain. I am now able to work and sweat if it is necessary and not feel any worse for it, and my neighbors say I am the smartest man in the neighborhood, since I have experienced its benefits. I recommended it to many who were suffering with humors; a good many have been induced to use your invaluable medicine, and have been benefitted.

Were it necessary, I could get a hundred that would testify to what I have written.

After writing thus far, my wife takes up and reads what I have written, and says I have not exaggerated; but it was worse than I have written, sitting in my chair night and day for two or three weeks, and not dressing at all. Very respectfully yours,

ELIAS LATHAM.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

I. S. Dunn, Esq. $6,02; O. M. Hetfield, Short Hills, 3,50; Jonah Vail, Green Brook, 2,05; Charles Adams, Martinville, 1,25. E. Chapon, Warren, 1,00; Isaac Brokaw, 1,00; J. Pound, 1,00; A. DeBord, 50.

DIED.

At Elizabethtown, on the 20th inst. after a short illness, Martha, wife of Levi Lyon, in the 67th year of her age.

A DISCOVERY.

THE citizens of this city and vicinity have recently found it greatly to their advantage to make their purchases of Jewelry at the Park Jewelry Store, 198 Broad street, where they can select from a large, rich and choice assortment of the most fashionable styles of imported and American Jewelry, at prices so reasonable that purchasers are perfectly satisfied that they get their money's worth, and convinced that Miller's store is the place to get good Jewelry at a fair price. The secret of their being able to buy so as to sell on such satisfactory and advantageous terms is, that the proprietors are both practical Jewellers and understand their business, which enables them not only to buy cheap, but to select the spurious and soft ordered Jewelry which now floods the market, and to select that which they know to be genuine, and will prove satisfactory to their patrons. Also a fine assortment of Watches, Silver Ware, Spectacles, Flutes, Flutinas, Melodeons, &c.

A. B. & J. W. MILLER, Park Jewelry Store,
198 Broad street, Newark.

Nov. 2, 1852.—1w.

House and Lot For Sale.

OWNED and occupied by the subscriber on the upper part of Fourth Street. The House is in good repair, a story and a half high. The Lot contains 1-4 of an acre of Land, well fenced, stocked with grafted Fruit Trees, with a good well of water.

Plainfield, Oct. 16, 1852. WILLIAM POUND.

House and Lot,

FOR SALE.

Situated in the lower part of Second Street, Plainfield, within ten minutes walk of the depot. The House is nearly new, built in modern style, 2 stories high, containing seven finished rooms, with a good cellar. The lot contains 1-4 acre of land, well stocked with fruit trees, with a good well. Also, a very desirable residence for New Yorkers and others. Terms cash, or will be exchanged for property in Newark.

Apply to the subscriber, 14 Franklin Place, Newark, or to Joseph Drayton, Plainfield.

Oct. 29, 1852.—3m. PETER B. RUNYON.

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments, carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street.

Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

Boots and Shoes.—A. D. GALE,

MANUFACTURER and Wholesale Dealer, invites Country Merchants to call and examine his large stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, sold extremely low for Cash or short credit for notes. Call and see

A. D. GALE, 225 Pearl street, corner of Platt.

New York, Aug. 30, 1852.—3m.

FRESH DRIED PLUMS, very fine, for sale by May 1, 1852. JAS. M. DUNN.

Going! Now is the time!

SUMMER Stock at cost! Must and shall be sold, to make room for Fall and Winter Goods. Call and look before buying elsewhere. I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

Hosiery and

No. 292 Gre[enwich]

CORNER OF CHAMBERS,

The subscriber invites the [attention] his Fall stock of

UNDER-CLO[THING]

CONSISTING

Lamb's Wool, Merino, Cashmere, Silk & Cotton	Shirts & Drawers	Un[derwear]

ALSO

Fine Shaker shirts & drawers, Shaker knitted half Hose, Woolen Hose and Half Hose.	Fine Dress Shirts	Col[lars] Stock[s] Mus[lin]

☞ Fine Dress Shirts made to order in the [most] provel style.

Persons about to proceed to California, will find a good assortment of MACKINAW BLANKETS, TRAV[ELLING] BAGS, MONEY BELTS, &c.

☞ Terms Cash—and One Price Only. ☜

THOMAS McLAUGHLIN,

292 Greenwich St., cor. Chambers.

One block west of Hudson River Railroad Station. New York, Oct. 4, 1852.—3m.

First Premium Millinery Establishment,

564 Broadway, one door below Prince st. near the Metropolitan Hotel, NEW YORK.

MRS. W. SIMMONS respectfully announces to her numerous patrons and strangers visiting the city, that she has a handsome assortment of Paris Fall and Winter Millinery; in addition to a large assortment of her own manufacture, of the latest Fall fashions. Also just received by the last steamers, a large invoice of Paris Satins, Silks, Velvets, Ribbbons, Feathers, Artificial Flowers, &c. Merchants and Milliners supplied by the case or single Bonnet, as usual. Mrs. S. kindly solicits, a call. Oct. 12-3m

NEW FALL GOODS.

ROCAP & SHEPPARD,

ARE now receiving their stock of Fall Goods to which they invite the attention of all who are in want of desirable goods.

SILKS.—Very superior black dress and mantilla silks, rich changeable and plaid silks; Florence silks, all colors

CASHMERES.—A splendid article, all wool, plain and figured, rich and new styles.

DELAINES.—Plain, all wool, different colors, fancy delaines, every variety of style and color, Mousclin delaines, good and cheap.

POPLINS.—Plain and fancy, new style of plaid, also others, different grades and prices.

GINGHAMS.—Scotch, French, Lancaster and domestic, all colors.

PRINTS.—Merrimac, Cochice, British madder and Manchester prints, every variety of color and style.

Brocade and Satin de Laines, flounceings, edgings and insertings, also silk for fancy embroidering.

Gloves.—White, black and fancy Kid, also silk, Lisle, and other gloves.

Shawls.—Brochie, Bay State, cashmere, new styles of rich palm leaf, and others, a good variety.

Together with a general assortment of new goods, all of which will be sold very low, and to which the attention of ladies is particularly invited.

We have also received a good stock of Clothes, casemeres, satinets, Kentucky jeans, vestings, flannels, muslins, domestics of every grade, which will be sold low. A good lot of Ready made clothing, pantaloons, sacks, vests, frock and over coats, shirts, collars, and every variety of men's wear, which customers are requested to call and examine.

☞ Clothing cut and made to order and warranted to give satisfaction.

Now ladies and gentlemen call and see us (we mean our goods) and we will satisfy you that we can and will sell them right, for we are determined to do it.

Plainfield, Oct. '52. ROCAP & SHEPPARD.

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment, AT Less than New York prices, for sale by July 12, 1852. WM. S. WOOD.

Oils! Oils! M. RILEY,

MANUFACTURER OF

MACHINE, WOOL, PAINT AND TANNERS' OILS.

Oil Works, Stapleton, Staten Island.

Office, 34 Broadway, (up stairs,) New York.

Kiberal commission allowed on all orders through Express Agents. e27 3m

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of I. S. Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with silver ware of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry, repaired and warranted to give satisfaction. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and Wood taken in exchange for Clocks.

Plainfield, April 13, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

House and Lot,

FOR SALE.

The HOUSE and Lot lately owned and occupied by David Freeman, dec'd, on Second street, next the corner of Cherry, is offered for sale. The House is a story and a half high, about 15 years old and convenient. There are on the premises a Barn, Wood House, Well, Fruit Trees, &c. &c. The Lot contains a quarter of an acre of Land. Apply to

Oct. 4, 52-3w* CALEB FREEMAN, Executor.

FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale his Dwelling House and Lot, situated very pleasantly on Second-st. in the village of Plainfield, and convenient to the business parts of the place. The house is in good order and newly painted for two families. There is a number of fruit trees on the lot. Also choice fruit trees of various kindsen the lot. He also offers for sale five shares of stock in the Building Loan and Saving Fund Society of Plainfield.

Sept. 27, 1852. WASHINGTON MARSH.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE, SADDLE & HARNESS MAKER.

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Tilsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods in his line. He also

Is determined that he is at all times happy to receive and ready to execute all orders in all the branches of the above business, as well, as quick and as cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge for yourselves.

May 17, 1852.—tf

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st., next door to John B. Brown's Wagon S[hop] and opposite French's Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, slugie and Double Harness, Whips, Collars, &c. Constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

☞ Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 6, 1852.—3m.

ENG[LISH]

No. [illegible]

(Ever[illegible]

D. M. KNIGHT,

A. E. HORNER,

COMBS—Shell, Ivo[ry]

great variety; twist,

Buttons. Steel, gilt, [illegible] metal, silk, thread, agate, &c.;

Brushes, Hose, Tools, Nail, &c.;

Linen Thread, Spool Cotto[n]

Hooks and Eyes, Hair Pins, Elastics, Wh[ite]

and Cotton Tapes, Linen and Cotton Bobbi[n]

Thimbles, and a great variety of Fancy Goo[ds]

&c., all cheap for cash.

Sept. 6, 1852.—3m.

FALL IMPORTATIONS.

Peterson & Humphrey,

IMPORTERS OF

Carpeting and Oil Cloths,

379 Broadway, corner of White-St., New York

HAVE JUST RECEIVED, PER LATE ARRIVALS from Europe, their usual supply of rich and elegant Carpeting, consisting of

RICH AXMINSTER and MOSAIC CARPETS, in one ENTIRE CARPET, with rich BORDER to enlarge it to any sized room.

RICH VELVET CARPETS—Patterns entirely new, imported expressly for city retail Fall Trade

TAPESTRY and BRUSSELS CARPETS—An elegant assortment, surpassing the richness of COLORS and SHADING, any before imported.

TAPESTRY and INGRAIN CARPETS, our stock will be constantly supplied with the latest and most desirable patterns manufactured.

OIL CLOTHS.—Our arrangements with the ENGLISH and AMERICAN manufacturers enables us to offer at RETAIL the best assortment, at less price, than any store in the Union.

MEDALLION DRUGGETS, RUGS, TABLE and PIANO-COVERS, MATS of all kinds, MATTINGS, &c., land all other goods found in first-class carpet stores, for sale, on the most reasonable terms.

PETERSON & HUMPHREY,
379 Broadway, cor. White-st., N. Y

Sept. 18-3m

Coffee, Spices, Mustard, &c.

WITHINGTON & WILDE,

Nos. 7 and 9 Dutch street, (between Fulton and John streets,) NEW-YORK,

KEEP constantly on hand a large and well assorted stock of COFFEES, green, roasted and ground; Cinnamon, Nutmegs, Cloves, Pepper, Allspice, Ginger, Mustard, Mace, &c., &c., whole and ground, all of the best quality, and put up in the best style. Also superior RICE Flour and Cocoa, equal to any manufactured.

Having been favorably known in this business for the past twenty years, we are confident that we can give purchasers perfect satisfaction, as to the quality and manufacture of our articles, and our goods being bought mostly for cash, the prices will be found as favorable as those of any House in the Trade.

New York, August 16, 1852.—3m

Notice to the Ladies of This Place.

Ladies wishing Boots and Shoes for the Fall and Winter season can find at HILLER'S in Canal st., a large and splendid assortment, consisting of black and colored Gaiter Boots, plain and full fronts, both single and double soles; Cloth Button boots lined with chinchilla leather, soft and warm for Winter; Quilted Silk Boots and Buskins, a Beautiful article; Ladies' and Gentlemen's Toilet Slippers, suitable Holiday presents for both sexes; White Satin and Linen Gaiters; white and black Satin, bronze and black French Kid Slippers; Slippers for Balls and Parties; Misses' and Children's Gaiter Boots and Shoes, of all the various styles and prices with Ladies,' Misses' and Children's india Rubber Boots, Gaiter Boots, and Shoes, Gloves, &c., the largest assortment of any store in New York. Ladies will please call and examine if for themselves.

n20 J. B. MILLER, No. 124 Canal st., N. Y.

WILLIAM HOVEY'S PATENT

Spiral Straw Cutter, 1844, improved, 1852.

These Celebrated Machines will be kept constantly for sale by RALPH & CO. at their

AGRICULTURAL WAREHOUSE,

No. 23 Fulton street.

They are the sole agents for the City of New York, and will sell those machines at the following reduced prices; still, and will make a liberal discount to dealers in or out of the city, who purchase to sell again:

No. 0, 4 knives, length of knife 5 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inch, $6,00 With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $6,50
No. 1, 4 knives, length 5 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $7,00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $7,50
No. 2, 4 knives, length 6 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $8,00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, $8,50.
No. 3, 4 knives, length 7 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $10.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 10,50.
No. 4, 4 knives, length 8 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $12,00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 12,50.
No. 5, 4 knives, length 9 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $16.00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 16,50.
No. 6, 4 knives, length 10 1-4 inches, cut 1 1-4 inches, $18,00. With 6 knives, cut 1 inch, 20,00.

Nos. 5 and 6 can be used by power.

Examine closely this list and compare the length of the knives with the list prices of other Cylinder Cutters without regard to the No. marked on the machine, and you will find that those Cutters are less in price than any other Cylinder Cutters in the market. Look well to this, as NOs are deceptive and serve to mislead and confuse the purchaser. WM. HOVEY & LASELL.

RALPH & Co., No. 23 Fulton Street,
Aug. 16 -3mos New-York.

Chairs! Chairs! Chairs!

PARLOR, Black Walnut, Curled Maple Squaes and Round Past, Fancy Rush, Common do Rockers, nd Children's Chairs; A'so,

Wash and Toilet Stands, Hobby Horses, Towel do.

March 22, 1853. For Sale by D. BULLMAN.

BISHOFF'S Double Re-fined Powdered Saleratus
" Chemical Yeast Powder in 6lb boxes.
" Celebrated Soap Powder.

For sale by JAMES M. DUNN.

FRENCH LANGUAGE.

NEW TESTIMONY TO THE MERITS OF
FASQUELLE'S NEW METHOD
OF LEARNING THE
FRENCH LANGUAGE.

Embracing both the Analytical and Synthetical Modes of Instruction.

In one volume. Price $1 25 retail.

FIFTH EDITION.

Published by
NEWMAN & IVISON, 199 Broadway, New York.

From N. W. Howard, Newcastle, Ky.

I was so convinced of its superiority to all other textbooks on the same subject, that have fallen under my notice, that I immediately caused it to be procured by a class of thirty young ladies, whom I was about to commence instructing. The progress they have made in three months has highly gratified themselves, their parents, and their teacher, and I attribute it with justice to the systematic and practical, yet simple plan of the work.

From Cyrus Knowlton, Principal of the Hughes High School, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Fasquelle's grammar satisfies me. It is evidently the work of a thorough teacher as well as thorough scholar

From the New York Day Book.

We never saw a more finished treatise on that polite language.

From the New York Evangelist.

A very philosophical and complete christomathy in this much-coveted language.

From the New York Courier & Enquirer.

The book presents every facility the French learner can ever reasonably hope for.

From P. N. Legendre, New Haven, Ct.

Never has a work come under my notice that blends so happy and harmoniously the great rival elements of the language. My pupils study it with pleasure.

From Zion's Herald.

It presents the true method of study, and seems to us scarcely capable of an improvement.

From the Literary World.

Its classifications are minute and painstaking, carefully labeling the various obstacles.

From the Mirror.

One of the very best arranged books that we have ever seen.

From the Methodist Quarterly Review.

The work is done every where with conscientious thoroughness.

From the New Haven Palladium.

The book is exceedingly valuable, and will have an immense sale.

From the Detroit: Free Press.

It seems to us most decidedly superior to any work of its kind ever published.

☞ Teachers who wish to examine the work can have a copy sent by mail, postage paid, in flexible cover, by sending Postoffice stamps to the amount of 63 cents.

Just published a New Edition of
"TELEMAQUE,"
IN FRENCH,
From the most approved Text; with Notes and Grammatical References.
BY LOUIS FASQUELLE, L. L. D.,
Professor of Modern Language in the University of Michigan.

1 vol. 12mo. on fine paper, and neatly bound.

NEWMAN & IVISON,
SCHOOL BOOK PUBLISHERS,
Sept. 20.3m 199 Broadway, New York.

CARHART & NEEDHAM.

Original Manufacturers of Carhart's Patent

MELODEONS,

With Recent Important Improvements.

Price from $60 to $200.

No. 75 East Thirteenth Street,
J. Carhart. } NEW YORK
E. P. Needham. }

N. B. 2nd Reeds constantly on hand. 3m
Nov. 10, 1851.-1y

ROSE MEDICINES—A Full assortment for sale by Aug. 16.-tf I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

Central Rail Road of N. J.

The cars will run as follows until further notice,

Leave Pier No. 1 North River, New York, at 8, A. M.; 12, M.; 2,45 and 5, P. M. for Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield for New York, at 6,35 and 8,25, A. M. 1,05 and 5,30, P. M.

Leave Plainfield for Easton, Pa. at 9,40, A. M. 1,55 and 5,30, P. M; and for Somerville at 6,50, P. M.

Aug. 2, 1852.

Notice.—Wm. Lynch, Late of 515 Pearl-Sirect, New York.

Wishes to inform his friends and old customers, that he will open his Wholesale & Retail Grocery Store, at 223 Greenwich st., corner of Duane st., on 22 April, with a new fresh stock of goods, such as Teas, sugars, molasses, coffees and spices, butter, cheese, lard, flour, beef and pork, &c., which he offers cheap for cash. Families, boarding house keepers, and bakers, are invited to call and examine his goods and his prices, as they can save a very large percentage, call and see for yourselves.—Country merchants purchasing goods for cash, are particularly requested to call and examine his goods and the prices before purchasing elsewhere. N. B.—Goods delivered on board of steamboats, railroads, barges, sloops, and any part of the city, free of charge.

WM. LYNCH, 223 Greenwich street, New York

DOCTOR Jayne's Vermifuge and Expectorant. do. Sanative Pills. do. Carminative Balsam.

Atwood's Vegetable Jaundice Bitters. do. Dysentary Drops. These drops are an agreeable, effectual remedy for Dysentary, Dysentary, Cholera, Cholic, Cramps, pains in the Stomach or Bowels. Atwood's Spinal Elixir for the spine disease. Also, Hunt's Liniment, for sore throat, &c. Also Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, for Scalds, Burns, cuts, sores, &c. For sale by

April 29, 1852. JAMES M. DUNN.

IRA PRUDEN,

WOUD Inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, at his old stand, and has on hand a

Large Assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning-Fluid, &c. which he will sell at a small profit, as usual.

June 14, 1852.

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES FACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, at 25 cents a piece, (using the walls and paste included.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to 75 per piece. A good paper for 12½ cents.

J. F & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers,

Plainfield, N. J. May 26, 1852 wbstorys

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pectoral Expectorant,	Depurative Syrup,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Heart Corrector,
Anti-dyspepsic Mixture	Humor Corrector,
Nervine,	Cough & Catarrh Pills
Vermifuge,	Female Pills,
	Specific

Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil,
Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Bilious Disease, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, Piles, &c.

Dr. Fitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Plated Steel Spring Shoulder Brace.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF Consumption! Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to an old age.

This Book should be in every families. To the Consumptive it points out the only REASONABLE hope for relief. To sufferers, the directions is given for the cure and education of children are invaluable. 75,000 copies of this Book have passed through the press, and the sale of thirteen editions attested.

For Sale by S. S. FITCH & CO., 762 Broadway, New York, and by A. J. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agent.

"JOY"

TO I, FOR THE AFFLICTED!!!

MARSH'S SUPERIOR PAIN RELIEVER.

The Undersigned take pleasure in recommending Marsh's superior Pain Reliever as a Medicine possessing astonishing healing properties, which is adapted to a larger class of diseases, in its ability to arrest pain, than any remedy we have ever used. As a Bowel Medicine, and for Coughs and Colds, we doubt if it has an equal; it is very good for Burns, Scalds, Sprains and Rheumatism, Head, Ear and Tooth Ache, Chilblains, Worms, Ague and Fever; as a Sailors prevention or remedy it cannot be surpassed. Any one can appreciate the worth of this excellent medicine, till they have used the same. We have used it with great success, and do most cheerfully recommend it to those that are or may be afflicted, as safe and harmless remedy. It is highly approved of by many respectable physicians.

Rev. Jas. L. Hodge, Brooklyn, John Comstock, Br'klyn
" H. T. Hopkins, Newark. John Rickbuck, Engineer
" Prof. Whiting, Wmsburgh, Steamboat "Warren,"
Hon. G L. Martence, Br'klyn, Reverend Mann, Br'klyn
S. Sprague, Ex-Mayor, " Jordan Wooley, L. Branch
Aldermen A. L. Husted " David B. Sallers, Bergen.
H.C Conkling, Ex-P.M., " Aaron Kingsland, Br'klyn.
J. Dorland, ferry master " Addison Jayne, New York.
David Travis, Somerstown, John McCollick, W. Market
A. Wise, Bullshead hotel. Jacinto D. Hicox, " Peter Haswell. T.'s Ferry, E. Packer, "
Joseph Chedick, W. Market, Rainer S. Yeldran. "

I am well acquainted with most of the persons whose names are subscribed to the above certificate. Any statement made by them can be fully relied on.

FRANCIS R. STRYKER,
Late Mayor of the City of Brooklyn.

Prepared by the proprietor, 194 Walker Street, one door from the Bowery, and sold by M. F. CUSHING.

Jan. 2, 1852

DR. DE LANEY'S CELEBRATED Curative Instrument.

The only infallible cure for that dreadful disease known as SPERMATORRHŒA or Involuntary Nocturnal Emissions,

So harassing and destructive, and productive of so much mischief to the nervous system, incapacitating the man for business, society, and matrimony.

This Instrument is simple, comprehensive, and never-failing, and may be used without the slightest inconvenience or the knowledge of the most intimate friend. It is to be used externally, producing no pain or injury whatever, nor preventing any one from attending to his business; & while in use not a single emission can take place, invigorating the organs, in a short time, to such an extent that they REGAIN FIRMNESS and VIGOR or RETENTION, the loss of which, caused by early abuse, is the disease in question, and the cause of the thousand concomitant complaint viz.: Nervousness, Prostration, Dyspepsia, Pain in the Head and Diseased Vision, Weakness of the Back and Lower Extremities, Affections of the Eyes, Impotence, Pimples of the Face, Premature Decline of Virility, Weakness of Memory unfitting her for Mental Application, Dejection, Aversion to Society, Timidity, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, &c. All those complaints invariably disappear as soon as the source or spring from which they emanated is dried up.

This Instrument has been examined and approved of by the highest authorities in Europe and America, is recommended by the most prominent Physicians of all countries, as the only certain remedy for these fearful complaints, and has now completely superseded the use of drugs, the bougie, cauterization, &c., not to mention the thousand and one nostrums of the day, as quackeries, substitutes, &c., &c. It constitutes at the same time the safest, the most pleasant and by far the cheapest treatment ever offered to the afflicted, a fair price being allowed for the Instrument after the desired effect has been attained.

He it also remembered, that these complaints are but little understood by the profession in general, and that all the medicine in the world never has, and never will, stop those losses, which, if allowed to continue unchecked, are sure to produce the most distressing consequences.

It has been a matter of surprise to some, that any one of respectability and of professional attainments should devote his attention to diseases of a class which every description pretend to cure so easily. It, however, but one thousandth part of the miseries these people bring upon society were known, a different opinion would be formed. And it is not only the present misery and dejection, preying on the mind as well as the body, that is deplored, but some are of such a nature as to affect posterity, and even to destroy the procreative faculty, altogether. It is a fact that, when not properly treated, they may remain so dormant in the constitution as to appear in no other way than in their effects upon posterity; yet, if properly understood, are most easily and speedily removed. The above, so ingeniously contrived instrument, will, doubtless, in a great measure, contribute to check the evils of quackery, so prevalent in this class of diseases, throughout the Union.

The price of the complete instrument, carefully secured against all observation in a box, is only $10. It can be sent, by express, to any address in any part of the United States, Canada &c., according to order, accompanied by full directions, and important advice to the married and single, the ingenuous, even to the remotest verge of the country, being very trifling.

The unexampled success this Instrument has obtained since its introduction in America has induced some unprincipled persons in New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Boston, &c. to get up some ridiculous things called "instruments," which, however, bear not the slightest resemblance, neither in form nor principle to my own invented, long tried, and universally approved instruments, and which are as similar to them as night is to light. Every attempt to sell such Instruments for mine will meet with the fullest exposure of the law, living not willing to connect the well and honestly earned reputation of my inventions with quacks and their worthless productions. No Instrument is genuine and can be warranted as such unless signed by myself.

All applications and remittances must be directed (post paid) to the Doctor himself, by express or agencies established but in London and Paris.

Address, post paid, Dr. De Laney, 51 Lispenard St., New York. Office hours, daily, from 8 A. M. to 3 P. M. and from 7 to 8, P. M. the Sabbath excepted.

N. B. The undersigned respectfully assures, that the above mentioned Instrument is not only constructed on scientific principles, but that from its use, the happiest results may always, with confidence, be anticipated, save being the case of incurable diseases, NO OTHER CERTAIN REMEDY EXTANT.

HENRY S. KELLER, M. D.
ON. GORTZE, M. D. 90 Chambers street,
C. ECKHARDT, M. D. 24 Howard St. New York

Dr. De Laney is prepared to execute all orders for surgical apparatus, viz.: Artificial Arms and legs, which move like natural members; Apparatus for Luxations; for contracted Legs; for curvatures of the Spine and Waist; for False Joints of the Arms and Knees; for Paralytic Legs; for Club Foot; for Lachrymal Fistules; for fallings of the Uterus, Hypogastric Rupture and Chains for Sick Persons; Crutches, Trusses, &c. Orthopedic Corsets, &c. &c. All work warranted. Letters must be post paid, containing a proper statement of case or city reference.

Oct. 25, 3m.

---

52. CHEAPER YET!

At Oliver Russon's Cheap Dry Goods and GROCERY STORE.

Gentlemen and Ladies please call and examine my stock of Goods for yourselves. I would say to my friends and customers that my stock is constantly changing, as I replace with new goods adapted to suit the different seasons of trade.

Handsome Barege DeLaines from 1s. 6d. 2s. per yard. Lawn from 9c to 25c. Black Alpaces from 2 to 75. yd. Prints any variety from 4c to 1s. French Calico from 1s.6d to 2s.6d. Plain Barege from 25 to 35c. Bleached muslin from 4c to 1s.6d. Cambric, Jaconet, Book and Swiss muslin, plain and figured. Bishop Lawn 8c to 4c. Black and colored gloves for gents and ladies from 10 to 75c. Black Reeds Veils, Crape and Bombazine for scarfs, Summer Goods of every style and quality. Cloths, Cassimers, Doeskins, Satinets, cords, jeans, muslin, linen and cotton Edgings, Lace buttons, Hosiery of all kinds, also a good assortment of Leghorn and Straw Hats from 1s. to 7s. each.

GROCERIES

A good article of Green and Black Tea from 4s. to 8s. per lb. Molasses 2s to 3s. Brown sugar 5c. 6d. to 6c. 6d. Coffee crushed 6c. 6d. to 8c. Crushed and pounded Sugar, Raisins 8c to 1s. Coffee, Rice, Vinegar, hominy, and every thing in the Grocery line.

CROCKERY and GLASS WARE, a Good Assortment constantly on hand. Please call and examine for yourselves. Also,

PROVISIONS.—Salt Pork, Shoulders, Hams. Dried beef, Lard, butter, cheese, fish by half barrels, fine salt by the sack, coarse salt, &c.

BOOTS and SHOES, for men and boys, Ladies', gaiters, buskins, slippers, morocco, patent leather and cloth Buskins, at low prices.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

Linseed oil, boiled oil, lamp oils, Furniture and coach varnish, white lead, yellow ochre, Venitian red, chrome yellow, red lead, Paris green, lamp black, litharge, brown japan, fire-proof Paint, putty, glass, &c. &c.

FLOUR, fine and coarse, Meal, ground feed, wheat bran, and grain, constantly on hand.

Goods delivered free of charge any where in the Village.

N. B. All kinds of produce, rags, and in fact every thing you can eat, drink or wear, taken in exchange for goods. OLIVER RUNYON.

Plainfield, July 26, 1852

PAINT STORE, AND PAINTING.

FRAZEE MARSH returns thanks to his numerous patrons for the liberal patronage and prompt pay during the past year, and in order to accommodate his many friends he has enlarged his stock of Paints, and taken into partnership his son, Washington Marsh, and business will be continued at the old stand, opposite the Second Presbyterian Church, where will be kept constantly on hand Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Gold Leaf Bronze Colors, Glass, Putty, &c., &c., as cheap as the cheapest. They will also attend to House, Sign and Ornamental Painting, Gilding, Glazing, &c. Paper Hanging, Painting in imitation of Wood or Marble done in the latest style, with neatness and despatch.

PUNCTUALITY IN ALL CASES.

Mixed Paint constantly on hand. Advice gratis.

Jan. 3, 1852. F. MARSH & SON.

BUILDING LOTS

FOR SALE by the Subscriber at low prices, a number of Building Lots in Plainfield, N. J. containing from one quarter to one and a quarter acres of land lying on 2d, 3d, 4th, Main, Liberty and Willow sts. also a good sized lot with a Dwelling House built expressly for the accommodation of two families, and is a valuable location, very nigh the centre of the business part of the town, on the corner of Exchange and Second sts. a short distance from Tiswouth, Dunn & Co's Store

Jan. 19 1852.—tf BENJAMIN STELLE.

PAINTS, &C.

AMERICAN PATENT ATOMIC DRIER, Grinding COLORS—Anti-friction Paste, Gold Size, Zinc Drier, Steve Polish, and Black Varnish for Iron Work.

QUARTERMAN & SON,
Painters & Chemists,
114 John-Street, New York.

March 9, 1852.—1y.

AFFLICTED READ!

Medical House established Fifteen Years ago, by

DR. AINKELIN,

N. W. corner of 3d and Union Sts. between Spruce and Pine Streets, Philadelphia.

15 Years of uninterrupted and extensive practice spent in that city have rendered Dr. K. the most expert and successful practitioner far and near in the treatment of all diseases of a private nature. Persons afflicted with ulcers upon the body, throat or legs; also in the head or bones, mercurial rheumatism, strictures, diseases arising from youthful excesses or impurities of the blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled are all treated with success.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. K. may religiously confide in him as honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE!

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in—a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately. Weakness and constitutional debility, loss of muscular energy, physical lassitude and general prostration, irritability and all nervous affections, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, and every disease connected in any way with the disorder if the procreative functions cured, and full vigor restored

READ YOUNG MANHOOD!

A Vigorous Life, or a Premature Death.

Kinkelin on Self Preservation Only 25 Cents

This Book is filled with useful information on the infirmities and diseases of the Generative Organs. It addresses itself alike to Youth, Manhood and Old Age, and should be read by all. The valuable advice and impressive warning it gives will prevent years of misery and suffering and save annually thousands of lives. Parents by reading it will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children.

A remittance of 25 cents, enclosed in a letter addressed to Dr. Kinkelin, N. W. corner of 3d and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, will secure a book, under envelope, per return of mail. Persons at a distance may address Dr. K. by letter, post-paid, and be cured at home. Packages of Medicines, Directions, &c. forwarded by sending a remittance, and put up secure from damage or curiosity.

Book-sellers, News Agents, Pedlars, canvassers, and all others supplied with the above book at very low rates.

Sept. 2, 1852.—1y

"ATTENTION, BATTALION!"

Dr. Ainkelin's Medical Corps, Battalion Drill.

"ATTENTION, BATTALION!"

Dr. Ainkelin's Medical Corps, Battalion Drill.

"ATTENTION, BATTALION!"

Dr. Ainkelin's Medical Corps, Battalion Drill.

Great Bargains. Cheap Goods Forever.

Come young, come old, come short, come tall,
I. S. DUNHAM & CO. sells to all,
Goods on our counter now do lie,
To suit the mind, to please the eye.
We paid the cash to buy them cheap,
We'll sell them right to sell a heap.
Ginghams and Muslins, Combs and Cords,
The newest styles New York affords;
Delaines and Gaiters, Calicoes too,
Colors of which we'll warrant true,
Cloths and Cassimeres, Hats and Shoes,
And all the goods which men do use;
Together with a good supply
Of groceries good which will defy
A class of men who live with us,
And twice a year make quite a fuss,
To go to Brunswick with their trade
Of store at home they are afraid.
We'll sell to them and all the rest,
For cheapest sum what suits them best
With Brunswick prices we'll compete,
And also shall remain in the heat;
So come and see, come short, come tall
I. S DUNHAM & CO. sells to all.
Plainfield, May 13, 1850

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

THE taxable inhabitants of Plainfield are hereby informed that they can save the amount of their additional tax, as imposed by the new tax law, by coming to Plainfield to purchase their clothing at the Clothing Store of Wm. Dunn & Co., where you may find at all times ready made clothing of every style and description, as cheap and as good, or cheaper and better than elsewhere; thereby saving all unnecessary expense. We also have constantly on hand a choice and well selected assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, of all qualities, styles and prices which may be made up to order at brief notice. A good fit is invariably warranted or no sale. Also on hand a good assortment of all kinds of tailor's trimmings at a low price—also constantly for sale, Shirts, Bosoms, Collars, Cravats, Suspenders, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. &c., in fact everything comprising a gentleman's wearing apparel.

Friends will you favor us with a call before purchasing elsewhere, and consider for yourselves?

Cutting, trimming, and making done at the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. WM. DUNN & CO.

Next door below the old stand of T. Dunn & Co.

Plainfield, Dec. 1.

New Store and New Goods!

THE subscriber has opened a new Store in Jacob Thorn's new building in Cherry-st., 2nd below Dr. Craig's office, and solicits the patronage of his friends and the vicinity of Plainfield to call and examine his stock of goods for themselves, which are all fresh and new, consisting of

DRY GOODS,

Bleached and unbleached Muslins, Linen, Prints, Lawns DeLaines, Kid and other Gloves, Hosiery of all kinds. A good assortment of new Summer Goods, Colonades, Nankeens plain and fancy, &c.

GROCERIES.

Green and Black Teas, Sugars, New Orleans Molasses, fresh Pork, Cheese, Hams and Shoulders. Smoked Beef, &c. Dried Apples and Peaches, very nice.

Hollow and Wooden Ware,

Tubs, Baskets, Pails, Washing Machines, Brooms, wisks shoe brushes, whitewash brushes, &c.

FLOUR AND FEED.

Indian Meal, Wheat Shorts, Wheat Bran, &c.

LIME, Rhode Island and Glens Falls.

Egg. All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for Goods. JAMES M. DUNN.

April 20, 1852.—1y.

THE N. YORK JOURNEYMEN SCALE MAKERS CO.

Depot removed to 83 Fulton street,

Manufacture every description of

RAIL-ROAD, WAREHOUSE, Hay, Floor and Portable Platform, Bank, Gold and Counter Scales, Patent Balances, &c.

Weights Graduated to Foreign Standards.

Every Scale made by them is correct, and warranted not liable to get out of order.

Manufactory 39 Greene street, New York.

Also For Sale at 297 Canal street.

Where every description of Scales may be obtained, and all orders promptly attended to.

Repairing done at short notice.

A. B. DUBOIS, } MANAGERS. } J. BONDSON.

Nov. 24, 1851.—1y

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices, now selling off at I. S. DUNHAM & CO.'s

Sept. 2, 1852.—2y

Dodd & Benton, 352 Broad Street, Newark,

Manufacturers and Dealers

HATS & CAPS, at wholesale & retail,

Where may be found an extensive assortment of Men's Boys' and Youth's Hats and Caps of all kinds, fine and coarse, comprising all the qualities usually wanted for the city and country trade, all of which are made at our own manufactory in this city under our own particular direction. Purchasers who may select or order can rely upon being fairly dealt with, and obtain their goods as favorably as at any establishment in the country. 352 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

May 24, 1852. DODD & BENTON.

MARBLE & STONE YARD.

THE subscriber would respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity, that he has commenced the above business at the corner of Cherry and Second streets, where he is prepared to furnish

HEAD STONES, MONUments, Marble Mantles, Wall Plates,

Fonts and Vases, Table Tops, &c.

Together with every variety of work in this line of business. I have also a beautiful Free Stone Quarry, from which I will furnish to order every variety of stone for building purposes, ornamental or plain, All of which I will execute with the utmost neatness and dispatch; and at prices as low as they can be had elsewhere. Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Aug. 12, 1851.—1y. ANDREW VANDERBEEK.

HOWS IMPROVED LINIMENT,

And unequaled preparation for the cure of

	[IN MEN]
Rheumatism,	Sprains,	Weakness in the
Burns, Bruises,	Cuts, Sores,	Back, Breast,
Sore Throat,	Frosted Feet,	Limb & Joint.
	[IN HORSES]
Bruises, Sprains,	Ringbone,	Poll Evil, and all
Warbles, Splints,	Spavin, Fistula, diseases of Horses,
Curb, Scratches,	Thoroughpin,	where an Embrocation can be used.
Windgall,	Saddle Galls,

Prepared only by

HENRY K. HOW, CHEMIST,
No 38 Albany st., New Brunswick,
(Nearly opposite Hall's City Hotel.)

REFERENCES.

We, the undersigned, have used How's Improved Liniment, and recommend it as an excellent remedy, having proved its efficacy to our satisfaction.

Isaac Mouru, John Degraw, Freeman Campbell, Barney McCherry, Ralph Stout, John Jenkins, Samuel R. Walker, James Forman, New Brunswick. Alexander M. Cummings, Capt. P. V. Degraw, Princeton. Joseph Hammitt, John J. Weart, Trenton. A. W. Brown, South Amboy. Henry Campbell, Metuchen. Jonathan Cook, Allentown, Pa.

Sold in Plainfield by M. F. CUSHING, and Dr. LEWIS CRAIG In Somerville by Culver Barcalow. In New Brunswick at all the Drug Stores. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

Feb. 24, 1852.—1y.

Removal.

New Store and New Goods!

THE Subscriber having removed to his New Store, near the corner of Front & Somerset streets, Elizabethtown, (a short distance from the depot,) would invite his former friends, and all who are in want of a good article of clothing at a low price, to give him a call.

His stock comprises some of the most desirable articles in the market, and he warrants all clothing made to order to fit or no charge.

Terms Cash. Prices 10 to 15 per cent lower than any other establishment in town or city, in consequence of having no rent to pay. JOHN ENGEL.

April 20, 1852 41-y.

Hoover's Black Ink.

THE Best in use. For Sale by M. F. CUSHING.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any thing we can eat, or do anything with, taken in exchange for goods, I. S. DUNHAM & CO.

PLAINFIELD UNION.

Volume XVI.—No. 52. Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday, December 23, 1862. Whole Number 830.

BY MILTON P. CUSHING, AT TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISING AT THE USUAL RATES. ADVERTISEMENTS SENT WITHOUT ORDERS, WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL FORBIDDEN AND CHARGED ACCORDINGLY

WM. H. DEGROOT'S

New-York OAK-HALL

Cash Tailoring & Clothing Warehouse, 84 & 86 Fulton, Extending through to 47 & 49 Gold-St.

THE GRAND EXHIBITION!

Consisting of an extensive assortment of

Fall and Winter Clothing.

Made in a superior manner, of the best materials, and at prices as low as to Challenge the World.

The cheapness and elegance for which these garments are renowned, presented a busy scene to the attention of those who study

Economy and Comfort.

In the CUSTOM DEPARTMENT are employed the most skillful artists, and all garments are warranted to fit.

REMEMBER WM. H. DEGROOT'S OAK-Hall, Nos. 84 and 86 Fulton-Street, Extending through to 47 and 49 Gold-Street.

Nov 2. 1852—3m

HATS AND CAPS,

No. 252 Greenwich Street, between Murray and Robinson, New York.

J. P. LANDSDOWN, Manufacturer, respectfully invites an examination of his stock of his HATS and CAPS, which for quality and cheapness he is confident cannot be surpassed among other establishments.

His rent and expenses are very moderate, and being a practical Hatter, devoting his personal attention to the business, and making no extensive display, there is no reason why he should not supply his customers in the most satisfactory manner.

His facilities for manufacturing are complete, and no efforts are spared to retain his reputation for making the very best article. Doing an entire cash business, he is enabled to reduce the price of

The Finest Hats to $3,50.

And warrants them fully equal to many of the $4 and $5 Hats sold elsewhere.

He keeps an assortment of Hats at $3, and others at still lower prices.

Also a choice assortment of Boys' and Children's Fancy Hats and Caps, of the latest styles. Also, Umbrellas, Canes, Carpet-Bags, &c.

Please observe the address and make a note of it.

LANDSDOWN'S 252 Greenwich st. N. Y.

Oct. 26, 1852.—3m

Lyon's Kathairon,

For the Growth and Embellishment of the Hair, to Prevent its falling off and Turning Gray.

Awarded the Highest Premium by the States of New York, Maryland and Michigan at their annual Fairs of 1851.

THE Kathairon neutralizes the effect of disease, climate and old age, in Preserving and Restoring the Human Hair, even after a Baldness of twenty years; cleanses the scalp from Scurf and Dandruff; will cure the Nervous Headache, Sudden Attacks of Spells, Diseases of the Skin, &c. and it is the Most desirable

TOILET ARTICLE

For Ladies or Gentlemen in the world. Its perfumes equals Lubin's Delicate Extracts, and being free from all offensive oils or coloring properties, it is the Most Genteel clean, bright, soft, lively appearance, and preservative.

The use of the Kathairon is adopted by the first physicians in Europe and America, and has a puttonage and sale unprecedented by any other toilet article ever offered. Its world wide superfluous, a trial only can attest its real virtue, as millions certify. To be had throughout North and South America, Europe and the Islands of the Ocean, in Bottles of Three Sizes.

M. F. CUSHING.

Sole Proprietor.

July 19, 1852.—6m

R. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF

Pure Jamaica Ginger.

"Dear Sir,—I speak from a general knowledge of the virtues of Ginger, and particularly of your preparation of Jamaica Ginger, having used it three years in my practice. For Spasmodic Cholic, Summer complaints, Fever and Ague, Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, General Weakness, &c. it is unquestionably the best article in the world. I have found it to be a specific in subduing the system in three of the most distress of all kinds so usual during warm weather, makes it invaluable to every family. It wisely use would prevent nine-tenths of the protracted sickness during the summer season.

Yours truly. R. M. CHILSON, M. D.,

133 Bond-Street, New York."

This article, peculiarly adapted to this climate, and which is so universally used, can be had in Plainfield of

July 19, 1852. M. F. CUSHING.

R. THOMAS LYON, 161 Broadway, New York.

JOTHAM D. FRAZEE,

SADDLE & HARNESS

MAKER

Continues at the Old Stand in Exchange Alley, in the rear of Titsworth, Dunn & Co's Store, where he will be happy to see his patrons, and show them a good assortment of goods in his line. He also Informs all concerned that he is at all times happy to receive and respond to orders to work in all the branches of the above business, as well, as quick and as cheap as can be done elsewhere. Try us, gentlemen, and judge for yourselves.

May 17, 1852.—tf

Something New!!

The subscriber having rented the shop in Somerset st. next door to John R. Brown's Wagon Shop and opposite Fiesch's Mill, would respectfully inform the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity that he is prepared to manufacture every description of Harness to order, at short notice. Also, single and Double Harness, Whips, Collars &c. constantly on hand.

All work made of the best material and well done.

All persons wishing to purchase any article in his line would do well to call.

Repairing done at short notice, and on reasonable terms. THOMAS WORTH.

Plainfield, April 6, 1852.—3m.

MANNING VERMEULE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

Main Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Is prepared to furnish articles in his line at the most reasonable prices, and in any variety and quantity.

He receives the Latest Fashions from the city as soon as they are issued; and by prompt attention to orders he hopes to merit the liberal patronage already received, and to extend it further.

The public are invited to call and are assured that they can be provided with as handsome and service-able a hat as they can buy in New York or Philadelphia, and half a dollar each cheaper.

N. B. Moleskin or Silk Hats made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

Sept. 28, 1851.—ly

PAINTING!

THE subscriber having removed to the shop formerly occupied by P. Mosher, in Exchange Alley, will be happy to supply orders in the above line, such as

House, Sign and Ornamental Painting!

PAPER HANGING, all of which will be promptly and honestly executed, on the most reasonable terms. The undersigned hereby returns thanks for the liberal patronage the past season, and by faithfulness to merit and attention to business, hopes to receive a continuance of their favors.

Orders may be left at the Plainfield Union office.

The following story has been told before, but it is good enough to tell again;

It is well known that Mr. Webster was a keen sportsman. When he went out running it was his frequent practice to wander along in search of birds to a considerable distance from home, and to places where he was quite unknown. On one of these occasions, as he was shooting on a piece of ground covered with a swamp, and with many creeks running through it, two dandy sportsmen thus accosted him: "Here, old chap, we can't get over this creek; if you'll carry us over on your back we'll give you a quarter apiece."—"Done," said the person thus accosted; and forthwith he carried them across, one after the other. "There's your money," said one of them, "you seem a smart fellow, what's your name?"—"Daniel Webster," was the reply. The youths looked at him, saw such was the case, and apologized. "Never mind," remarked Daniel, "you're not the first fools I've got out of difficulty, but I'll keep your quarters as a curiosity." And it is said they form a portion of the private cabinet of curiosities at Marshfield.

A SHEEP STORY.—The editor of the Cleveland Herald is responsible for the following which we commend to the particular attention of farmers and breeders:—

Among beasts there is a language, one, too, that speaks, though in silence, with "most miraculous organ," one though "dumb to us" in its expression, yet in action most impressing, however wonderful and mysterious. "Actions (do indeed) speak louder than words," and never fail to call forth our admiration or censure, while "preaching without practice" never fails to draw out our contempt.

On a visit to the country recently, while sojourning, mid the farm of a friend, and not doubting, mind you, the gentleman's word, "you are a poor creter" and quistly went her way.

We call that true courage, or perhaps, more properly true faith. "With a conscience void of offence," she knew that she had nothing to fear, that she was, in truth, a mate for his betters.

FOUR CROPS IN NINE MONTHS.—I harvested in nine months of the present year, from about 1 1-2 acres of ground, four good crops, as follows:—100 lbs. sugar, and some gallons of molasses from the good sugar weed, together with some oak and chesnut rails; 18 cart-loads good cheese pumpkins; 11 cart-loads good sound corn. Can the rich and productive prairies of the West compete with this?

J. F. RANDOLPH.

New Milton, Doddridge Co., Va., Dec. 1852.

CROSSING THE ISTHMUS.—When an initiated traveller crosses the Isthmus of Panama, he is likely to be well fleeced unless he possesses more than ordinary shrewdness and nerve. As a specimen of the charges made upon such occasions, we give from the Panama Echo, the following experience of a small party who recently made the trip:

"At their first stopping place, without bread and without meat, they drank five cups of coffee and four eggs. For this they paid $5 50. The party consisted of two gentlemen, a lady and 2 boys. At their second stopping place, where they were indeced to stay by being falsely told that the next stream was not fordable, they had scarcely dismounted and began to arrange for supper, when they were saluted by a party who had just forded the stream with ease. They, however, concluded to remain, and among their party, which was now seven, they bought three chickens for $7. Having brought these to the ranch where they were stopping, they had them stewed, and took seven cups of coffee, they paid $12. For two bottles of inferior brandy, they paid $5. For lodging they were compelled to pay $5 50 for six persons, and $2 50 for the privilege of the lady sleeping with the Mexican women of the proprietor of the ranch, $3 50 for a pair of tiny pants borrowed for the night, and $2 50 for a pair of stockings was charged, but they were not paid for. After leaving the said house, twelve miles this side of Gorgona, on endeavoring to ford the aforesaid stream, it was deemed necessary to extend a bridge of trees, by falling the same. But these were too feeble to be had, and they were compelled to borrow an axe at the house where they stopped, for the use of which they paid $4. While nearing the tree which he was to cut, the person who had the axe slipped, and catching hold of a sappling, broke it. For this he was obliged to pay, and at the termination of the fording, the negroes stood to collect the toll for passing over said bridge."

ALL TRUE.—There is nothing in honor, or fame, or fortune, which is not vanity when the time of death approaches—nothing real, nothing substantial, nothing worth having, but the hope of God's pardon, and the consolation of His religion.

A Mr. Hyan, in New York, has invented a new pavement of glass and iron by which underground apartments are made as pleasant as the habitations above. Good light and ventilation are among the advantages secured by its adoption. The illuminating portion of the pavement is made up of sections, each section being a cast iron grating, all the interstices of each grating being fitted with glasses to correspond. If one glass might be destroyed, and a safe foot path still remain; every glass might be destroyed, and burglary be still prevented.

Something for Marksmen to Practice on.—Last week Mr. Henry Hollenbeck, of this city having seen a statement in the papers of the wonderful performance of an English marksman concluded to try his hand. He accordingly took his gun, loaded and laid it upon the ground; he then took up a potatoe threw it up in the air, turned a somersett, took up the gun, fired and hit the potatoe before it reached the ground. This feat he performed four times.—Hudson Gazette.

CURIOUS HISTORY OF A LARK.

An English book, lately published, tells the following interesting story of an English skylark: Henry Patterson and his wife, Charley, sailed from London in the year 1839, as emigrants on board a vessel heavily laden with passengers, and bound for Quebec. Patterson was an intimate friend of a noted bird-catcher in London, named Charley Nash. Nash had determined to make his friend a present of a good sky-lark to take to Canada, but not having what he called a "real good one" among his collection, he went out into the fields on purpose to trap one. He caught a fine one, and when giving it to his friend he said, "If this bird sings as well in a foreign country as in the air, it will be the best bird in Canada, I'll be bound." Patterson immediately christened the bird Charley, in remembrance of his friend Charley Nash. Now, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence the vessel was wrecked; almost everything was lost, and the lives of the crew and passengers were accordingly when Patterson, with his wife and child, landed safely even upon the rocky shore, nothing heavily on his arm, landed in a state of destitute of everything except the bird Charley, whom he had saved from the wreck, and afterwards kept for three days in the bottom of an old stocking. After some few days' rest, Patterson and his family, with some little time, Patterson obtained employment in the province of Toronto, Canada, in the present city of Toronto, then a mere collection of log huts, in the town, where he worked as a gardener. His shop had a southern aspect, and he had a nail into the outside of his shop, on which early every morning, just before he went to work, he hung his cage containing the bird, on a small stool to commence his daily song. He had hung upon this nail a small looking-glass, which had a solid back to it, and was fixed in a small wire orchestra, at the bottom of which there was a little cup, in which water or it could be procured. The floor of the shop was covered with green turf. As Charley's wife was often left alone to look after her husband's interests, and to attend to him in this prison, the only wholesome exercise he could take was by hopping on and off his little stage; and this sometimes he would continue to do most cheerfully for hours, stopping only occasionally to dip his bill into a small earthen box of water suspended on one side of the cage, and then to raise it for a second or two to the sky. As soon, however, as Charley had caught his spirit moved him, this feathered songster would gain hopped upon his stage, and, throwing back his little neck extended, his head slightly turned, his drooping wings quivering, and his bright black eyes intently fixed upon the glass, he would pour forth a flood of melody so loud, so deep, so full, so unprecedented in a bird of his size, that it seemed impossible that such a mere speck of animated nature could produce such a volume of sound. It was probably the most magnificent morning prayer that ever was poured forth by a bird. The effect of this performance upon his self-imposed audience, can probably be imagined by those who have ever been charmed by adversity have ever been relieved from their mother country. Patterson declared that he had often stopped in the middle of his day's work, while riding, driving, walking, or even during business, or sauntering carelessly about his employment, as if by word of command, and, like a dog when bound, to listen, for more than an hour, to the bird's inspired warbling, to the total forgetfulness of his own business, and of everything else. Even the common homely-dressed females would stop in their own that, although they were always in the habit of hearing Charley's motley notes, they could not help acknowledging, as he stood with his head stretched out, his neck looking towards heaven, and his bill pointing to all events for his size—that they had never before heard such a thorough melodist. I had almost forgotten to say that Patterson received many offers for his bird, even before he left the vessel. Three times as much as he had given for it was offered by a shoe sole, yet hammered away at his shoe soles, as if he were trying in purgatory before he could get to heaven, waxed thread in each hand, and with his elbows like a pair of compasses extending on each side of him. Many times was he interrupted in his work by persons who stood in front of his shop, separately offered him a sovereign for the bird; but the honest farmer repeatedly refused the tempting offers made for him; and a gentleman who had become so much interested in the bird's singing, was so imprudently as to offer to buy the whole of the shop, bird and all, for the sum of £5. This proposition was, however, declined with the same decision and promptness as the previous offers had been. Patterson would sell the shop, he said, but he would not part with the bird. Charley was the best thing in the world to attract customers to the shop, he declared, and he would not sell him for any sum that could be offered for him. All he would do was to let any person who was desirous of purchasing a shop with a good business, have the bird with it. Patterson would sell the shop, he said, but he would not part with the bird. Charley was the best thing in the world to attract customers to the shop, he declared, and he would not sell him for any sum that could be offered for him. All he would do was to let any person who was desirous of purchasing a shop with a good business, have the bird with it. The widow of the former proprietor of the shop, who had died, was also offered for him all sorts of things, but her husband's bird was sacred, and no consideration would induce him to open his lips to any person who offered him money for

THE UNION

Plainfield, N. J. December 28, 1852.

A PRAYER.

Oh holy Father take me home,
From this dark world of grief and woe;
Let gentle Angels quickly come,
And gladly hence from earth I'll go.

Oh take me home, my soul is sad,
And fainting in the toilsome way;
The joys that cheered life's morn are fled,
And all their charms have known decay.

Though but few years have o'er me passed,
I've seen the star of hope decline—
Watched the last beams its setting cast
O'er Love's deserted, wasted shrine.

Oh, take me to Thine own abode—
Where all is joy, and peace, and love:
I'm weary of this tiresome road,
And long to reach my home above.

The friends I trusted must have changed,
And turned away their love from me;
Those once so dear are now estranged,
Their cheering smiles no more I see.

Oh take me home, yes, let me die—
And calmly yield my fleeting breath;
To sleep with those loved ones who lie
In the embrace of silent Death.

The flowers that bloomed around my way,
And made Earth seem as Eden fair,
Are faded, blighted by a ray,
A withering glance from cold Despair.

Oh take me home, the cup of bliss
That sparkled once with joy and mirth,
Is turned to gall and bitterness,
And lost all charm of seeming worth.

I long to rest my weary head
In the deep silence of the grave,
No more my heart would have to dread
The tossings on life's treacherous wave.

There earthly sorrows have an end,
And toils and trials all are o'er—
No lurking snares and fears attend,
And pain and grief disturb no more.

There let me rest from care and woe,
Nor deem me longer here to roam,
Where naught but happiness bestow,
Oh Heavenly Father take me home.
Illinois. B.

ENGLISH TASTE.

The plate on the Duke of Wellington's coffin bears the following inscription: "The most high, mighty, and noble Prince Arthur, Duke and Marquis of Wellington, Marquis Douro, Earl of Wellington, Viscount Wellington of Talavera and of Wellington, and Baron Douro of Wellesley; Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Knight Grand Cross of the most Honourable Order of the Bath, one of her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, and Field-Marshal and Commander-in-Chief of her Majesty's Forces. Born 1st May, 1779; died 14th September, 1852."

To our mind the nobler and better inscription would have been, "Wellington," without a single prefix or addition.

FLAGRANT OUTRAGE.—Five farmers from Somerset Co. who came to Newark yesterday with produce, were insulted last night by about twenty-five rowdies, who intended to commit highway robbery, and severely bruised and dragged them in the mud. They had sold their produce and left their horses at Doyle's Passaic Hotel. About 9 o'clock they went to Charles P. Bunch's grocery store, corner of River-st. and the Canal, to receive their money. The rowdies were standing near, and before the farmers were aware, they were knocked down, and in the scuffle their clothes were much torn. Two colored men who were standing near, interfered, and with their assistance the rowdies were put to flight. No police was of course on hand, as the watch is not employed in that part of the city, and the farmers were greatly incensed at the brutal treatment they received, and declare that they will not again bring their produce here. Visiters from neighboring counties, and indeed the citizens themselves are beginning to fear for their own personal safety, while our police are so inadequate to the duty of protecting life and property.—Newark Adv. of Tuesday.

INGENIOUS DEVICE.

A traveller on his way to California not long since, saw alongside of the road what purported to be a grave, prepared with more than usual care, having a headboard on which was painted the name and age of the deceased, the time of death, and the part of the country from which he came. He afterwards ascertained that this was only a ruse to conceal the fact, that the grave, instead of containing the mortal remains of a human being, had been made a safe receptacle for divers casks of brandy which the owner could carry no further. He afterwards sold his liquor to some traders further on, who, by the description of its locality, found it without difficulty.

Do you see the Point?—The most effectual cure for moths, so common in stores of goods, is said to be a moderate dose of newspaper advertisements—in papers having a large and general circulation.

A man was last week fined to the amount of $15 (with the costs) for riding over the Previdence Railroad to Foxboro', on a ticket purchased for Canton, with intent to defraud.

The trotting horse, "Tawny," which has made the greatest time of any trotting horse, is put at a figure [illegible] contents are best au-

Agent.—V. B. Palmer is our authorized Agent to obtain Advertisements and Subscriptions, and to collect dues, for the Plainfield Union, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and elsewhere.

Local Matters.

FIRE.—On Wednesday morning the buildings belonging to Mr. P. M. French, over Green Brook, adjoining the stone bridge in Somerset street, near his mill, were burnt down. The new part comprised a blacksmith's shop on the lower floor, then unoccupied, and a carpenter shop above, occupied by Mr. John King; an old house adjoining was used by Mr. French for storing. The fire caught in the carpenter shop from shavings, was discovered at 7 o'clock, and by 8, both buildings with most of their contents were entirely consumed. Mr. French's loss we suppose must be from five to seven hundred dollars, and Mr. King's $250, in tools and finished work. Neither were insured.

☞ Messrs. Webster & Marsh's Tailoring Establishment, just opened, on the corner opposite our office, deserves a more extended notice than we were able to give last week. The building is of brick, with red sand-stone sills, three stories high above the basement, about 25 feet on Main street, and 70 on Somerset street. To begin at the foundation: First there is a well just dug, with a pump, for the accommodation of the whole army of employees, then the cellar under the rear part of the building only, with ventilators to carry off the foul air. Then comes the basement, in three apartments, a shoe store on Main street, a Grocery on Somerset street, and the middle one will be occupied by themselves. The Dry Goods Sales Room occupies the first floor, communicating with Main street by three large doors, and with Somerset street, by one, having in the rear an office railed off with mahogany. On the whole, it makes one of the most convenient and handsomest store-rooms in the country, and is connected with the Grocery Department by a bread and very easy flight of stairs, of some half a dozen steps. The second floor is used for receiving and giving out work, all in one room, well lighted by ten large windows. The third floor is occupied by eight cutters, and is similar to the second. Both of these floors are provided with iron wheeled wagons to tote about the heavy boxes of goods, which are raised and lowered by a wheel near the top. Both floors are connected with the office by voice-pipes. No pains or expense have been spared to have every convenience suitable for the business, and to save labor; and the mason and carpenter work, and tin roofing, have all been done in the very best manner. With its thick solid walls, it will stand hundreds of years, and costly as it has been, we doubt not it will pay for itself many times over.

The firm are doing an immense business, and the building is just such as they needed, and both business and conveniences for doing it, confer much honor on the place and on the proprietors; and we doubt not will prove as profitable os it is creditable to both.

On Monday, the 20th inst. Messrs. William Laing and Wallace Vail, of this place, sailed for California in the steamship, Northern Light. Mr. Laing has been there before.

The present number concludes the Sixteenth Volume of the Plainfield Union, and is our last issue for the year 1852. The year now closing has been one of very general prosperity thro'out the country, in which our beautiful village has participated, and the Plainfield Union has had its share. The crops, with the exception of grass, have been fair, farmers' produce very high, the reception of gold abundant, money plenty, and business of all kinds uncommonly brisk. The same state of things is likely to continue for the ensuing year.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Canada arrived at Halifax Wednesday morning, with a week's later news, from Liverpool.

A small decline in cotton is rep ted; Bread stuffs had advanced. Nothing else of interest to our readers.

Godey.—We have seen the first number of the Ladies' Magazine for the year 1853, and we see Godey is determined to continue to publish the best and most popular Magazine in America, as his 22 years of experience, and his ample resources, well enables him to do. The January number is as usual of late a double [illegible] and contains seven full page engravings illustrative of [illegible] size illustrative of the contents are

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The steamer United States, from Aspinwall Dec. 9th, arrived at NewYork on the 19th inst. with 193 passengers and about $400,000 in gold dust, with 2 days' later news to Nov. 18.

The news is of little moment. Sacramento was rapidly rising from its ruins.

The papers say millions of acres will be sown with wheat in California this year. There is a great opening there for millers.

Hon. Wm. R. King, on account of sickness has resigned the Presidency of the U. S. Senate. His health is said to be improving.

The Passaic River at Newark is closed by ice for the season.

Imported Butter.—The steamer Niagara recently arrived at Boston from Liverpool, brought 1,083 firkins of Irish butter, of excellent quality. It sells at auction at about 27 cents a lb.

A private correspondent at Paris says, that Louis Napoleon's progress through the provinces, which lasted thirty days, cost him a million dollars per day. The expense of many of the entertainments, supposed to have been given by the towns was borne by himself, i. e. by the French Treasury.

Productiveness of California.—A patch of cotton has been matured in the Sacramento valley, in 92 days. Mr. Colby, who raised it, will in February sow a large field, and make it a permanent business. Tea, sugar-cane, figs, rice, and cotton, have been raised thus far, by experiment, proving that the soil and climate are adapted to the culture of each of them.

A lot of land in Dock Square, Boston, was sold a few days since, at the low rate of a trifle over $30 a foot.

Stewart, it is said, sells eight millions of dollars worth of dry goods a year, as a profit of six hundred thousand dollars. Large as his business is, it continues to increase with rapidity from season to season.

Annexation.—The English journals are almost unanimous in the demand that Burmah be added to the British Empire In India.

War in India.—The long and desolating war between the English and natives is about drawing to a close. The natives have been driven from many of their strong holds, and numbers of them are said to be in a starving condition.

The important ship canal which is to unite Lakes Superior and Michigan will soon be begun. The canal will be a little less than a mile long. The law of congress provides that the locks shall be at least 250 feet long and 60 wide, and the Michigan legislature has power to enlarge the dimensions.

A locomotive of the largest size, requires a hundred gallons of oil a year to keep it greased.

Irving first, recommended James to embrace authorship.

Louis Napoleon tells the French that the empire he has given them is an "immense signification." For signification read swindle, and you will have the truth at once.

Mr. Longworth, wine-grower, of Hamilton county, Ohio, pays more taxes now than all the inhabitants did in 1823.

A good fat sheep is gold, the papers say, in Mexico, for only 25 cents!

Flour is selling in many parts of California for thirty cents per pound. Whew!

Louis Napoleon is universally acknowledged to be one of the best horsemen in Europe.

Good American apples sell in London for $17 per barrel.

Henry the Eighth died of carbuncles, fat and fury, so says a writer.

Fifteen hundred barrels of ale are brewed daily in the city of Albany, N. Y.

The gold mines of Russia yield nearly $20,000,000 revenue to the country.

$3,000,000 a week is said to be the yield of the Australian diggings.

England could pay her debt of four billions of dollars in fourteen years, if she would take the pledge, and devote all the money now spent in intoxicating drinks to its liquidation.

The Mormons say that the reason why the people of the United States do not adopt the system of a plurality of wives, is that they are too avaricious and pusurious to support large families.

A successful trial of the "table experiment" was made on Saturday evening. Four or five persons rubbed their hands together rapidly, and then each person put one hand on the table, and the other on the hand of his next neighbor, so as to form a connection between the whole party. Glass was also put under the feet. In a very few minutes the table began to walk off. A gentleman who was looking on attempted to hold the table to the floor, but could not do it, although he put forth his whole strength. —Trenton Gazette

The Delaware and Raritan Canal Company advertise for 4000 laborers.

The Trenton Gazette says that at the meeting of the stockholders of the Camden and Amboy Railroad, on Monday, it was resolved to order a considerable number of new locomotive engines for next year. It is intended to multiply the number of lines, diminish the size and weight of the trains, and increase their rapidity.

The Vermont liquor law provides that any intoxicated man may be arrested and put into prison until he is in a condition to tell where he got his liquor; and if he refuses to divulge, is locked up till he relents. This law is to be voted upon by the people, and their adverse decision is to operate only for its postponement one year.

The Ohio papers assert that a well has been sunk in Stocking Valley, in that State, to the depth of 600 feet, for the purpose of obtaining salt water. The object of the enterprising individuals has been fully accomplished, a supply of water having been reached which requires but 53 gallons to make a bushel of salt. The water rises spontaneously to the surface, and flows at the rate of 4 to 5000 gallons per day.

The Paris correspondent of the St. Louis Republican says that the Monks of St. Bernard after exercising so long and so nobly the rites of hospitality among the snows of their lofty solitudes, are preparing to abandon their convent, which will shortly be rendered useless by the opening of the tunnel of Mo[illegible]

ELEGANT GIFTS FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—It affords us pleasure to inform our young readers that Mr. Tuttle, whose establishment is celebrated for the great variety of fancy articles it contains, was never better prepared for the holidays. His assortment this year is very large, and includes everything the fancy can imagine. Among other curiosities he has received 1000 carrying bubbles! Think of that, misses, and hurrying to secure one of these most wonderful toys. The announcement of these extraordinary novelties has already caused a rush, and if you do not hasten you may fail to secure one of the greatest curiosities the ingenuity of man has ever produced.

Mr. Tuttle has also for sale 500 games for children, among which will be found everything that is celebrated for its novelty. We need hardly insure intelligent children that this gentleman is widely known for his admirable taste in selecting articles of the most novel and beautiful designs. His emporium is a perfect fairy palace, crowded with every thing which can please the eye and gladden the heart. We designed to speak of some of the more important novelties to be found at this depository of the beautiful and useful, but the mind becomes bewildered in looking around on the gorgeous show, and words fail to convey an idea of a collection of articles as curious as they are numerous.

We urge all who design purchasing elegant and curious articles for the holidays, to call at this magnificent emporium, and we are confident that they will agree with us in saying that the proprietor deserves the patronage of all who wish to purchase elegant articles. The collection is offered to the public at wholesale and retail. Mr. Tattle's emporium is at 345 Broadway, New York.

Quarterman's Stove Polish.

One box will do as much polishing as four papers of British Lustre, and gives a better polish with less than half the labor. It has no smell, creates no dust and resists heat a long time. It is abapted to both sheet and cast iron stoves. The sides of grates, hearth stones, &c, can also be polished. The compound is perfectly free from acids and anything of a poisonous nature. Warranted to give satisfaction. Price 12 cents a box. For sale by M. F. Cushing, Printer, Main-street, Plainfield.

Universal Generosity.

THE time is at hand for our free hearted and generous citizens to select the presents they contemplate bestowing among their friends on the ensuing Holidays. A few shillings cannot be more suitably, usefully or satisfactorily appropriated than by making a few presents. A small gift presented to a friend as a token of your regard, will be prized a thousand times above its value, and render still stronger the ties of true friendship and reciprocal attachment. Those who would like to select something appropriate as a present, but which combines usefulness, durability, neatness, elegance and intrinsic excellence, will find at the Park Jewelry Store, 198 Broad-Street, Newark, a large assortment of fine Gold and Silver Watches; Gold Lockets; Gold Pencils; Gold Fob, Vest and Curb Chains; Gold Watch Seals and Keys; over a hundred patterns of Ladies Breast Pins; between 400 and 500 Gold Finger Rings; over 100 patterns of Gold Ear Rings; with a variety of other kinds of Jewelry to numerous to mention, comprising altogether the most elegant and fashionable patterns, which, in their design exhibit the most artistic skill, and have been made by the most experienced and skilful workmen. Also, a large assortment of Gold, Silver and Steel Spectacles, Gold and Silver Thimbles, sterling Silver Ware, heavy silver plated Cake Baskets and Castors, Flutes, Flutinas, Accordeons, &c

H. & J. W. TALLEY,
198 Broad-street, Newark,
opposite the Military Commvn.

N. B. All our goods have been greatly reduced in their prices for the special benefit of those who wish to make presents.
Dec. 27, 1852.—8m

WEBSTER & MARSH,

WOULD respectfully announce to the citizens of Plainfield and its vicinity that they have removed their business in to their

New Store,

On the corner of Main and Somerset streets, where they are prepared to offer a general assortment of Dry Goods, Groseries, Crockery, &c.

Having ample accommodations for an Extensive Sooek,

We shall endeavor in this respect to meet the wants of our growing community. Our frequent and almost constant intercourse with the city, combined with our extensive facilities for business, will enable us, we trust, to furnish goods as NEW YORK PRICES.

LADIES DRESS GOODS.

In this Department great pains will be taken to select such styles as are most desirable, including the usual varieties which the trade demands.

Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods.

A complete assortment will be constantly kept on hand; also, a large and carefully selected stock of Bread Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, &c.

An experienced Cutter is connected with this Department, and the latest Reports of Fashion, regularly received, thus enabling us to furnish a garment with a complete outfit, equal in style and workmanship to the best productions of the city, and at prices far below them.

Country Produce taken in exchange for goods.
Dec. 20, 1852.

Sheriff's Sale.

Between Ira Prudes, Complainant, and
Jackson Pound and George R. Pound, Defendants.
Fi. Fa. for sale of Mortgaged Premises.

BY Virtue of the [illegible] above stated writ of Fieri Facias, to me directed, I shall expose for sale at public vendue, at the Court House in the city of Newark, on Friday, the 21st day of January next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. All that certain lot of Land and premises, being in Plainfield, Essex Co. N. J. Beginning at a stone in the Main St. running through Plainfield, and is Smith Vail's corner, then along his line and Randolph Dunham's line, S. 49 1-4 deg. E. 2 chains 90 links to a stone and Smith Vail's corner, thence S. W. about 60 feet to Randolph Dunham's corner, thence along his line S. E. 2 chains 60 links to the middle of Somerset street, then along Second Street N. E 2 chains 32 links to a stone and Daniel Bullman's corner, then along his line N. 40 deg. W. 2 chains 62 links to a stone, then along Bullman's line S. 41 3-4 deg. W. 1 chain 6 links to a stone thence N. 49 deg. W. 33 links to a stone and Ira Prudden's corner, then along his line S. 78 deg. W. 25 links to a stone, thence S. W. 9 links, thence N. 48 1-4 deg. W. 80 links to a stone, thence N. 46 3-4 deg. W. 1 chain 48 links to a stone in the Main street and Ira Prudden's corner, then along the said street S. 41 3-4 deg. W. 56 links to the place of beginning, containing about seven-eighths of an acre of land, reserving the privilege of a lane to the said Ira Prudden, adjoining him, for horses and wagons to pass over and through the same.

Newark, Nov. 8, 1852. W. PIERSON, Sheriff.

Piano Fortes!

THE subscriber would respectfully inform those who wish to purchase a Piano Forte, that he has selected an assortment from some of the best manufactories in New York and Boston, which he offers at the following prices, viz:

Octave Pianos, from	$186 to $200.
6 1-2 Octave,	from $226 to $250.
6 3-4 Octave,	from $225 to $265.
7 "	from $300 to $350.

The above prices will be found from ten to twenty-five dollars less than New York prices.

Second hand Pianos at $95, $45, $66, $75 and $150.

Also a general assortment of Melodions and Seraphines.

194 Broad st.
[illegible]ELLER.

New York Prices Current, corrected weekly.

Wheat Flour,	$5 06 to 5,56
Rye Flour	4,45 to 4,50
Indian Meal, Jersey,	3,93 to 4,00
Grain—Wheat,	1,16 to 1,30
Rye,	,90 to ,93
Corn,	70 to 90
Oats, Jersey.	50 to 80

Thousands of parents who use Vermifuge composed of Castor oil, Calomel, &c., are not aware, that while they appear to benefit the patient, they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of sight, weakness of limbs, &c.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Holcomsack's Medicines, to which we ask that attention of all directly interested in their own as well as their Children's health. In Liver Complaint and the disorders arising from those of a bilious type, should make use of the only genuine medicine, Holcomsack's Liver Pills.

☞ "Be not deceived," but ask for Holcomsack's Worm Syrup and Liver Pills, and observe that each has the signature of the Proprietor, J. N. HOLCOMBACK, as none else are genuine.

Dr. Weaver's Medicines—Their effects on Canker and Salt Rheum.

Paw Paw, Mich., Nov. 8, 1851.

Messrs. S. A. Weaver & Co.—Gentlemen: My daughter has been troubled with Canker and Salt Rheum for the last year, and it increased day after day to that extent that myself and friends became so alarmed that we thought there must be something done for her, for she came of fire we tried many kinds of Medicines, but nothing did her any good, but she rather grew worse. She kept about till last May, and said she must give up, go to bed and die: there was no help for her. The most skilful Physicians of the place attended her, and no help could she receive from their aid. If she took any nourishment it would produce vomiting, and her whole system became covered with sores, her strength had worn away, our friends and neighbors gave her up to die, and physicians too said there was no help for her; they could not do her any good. I would not hear to my daughter's dying with that distressing complaint, although I must say I was almost discouraged myself. Hearing of your Canker and Salt Rheum Syrup, we had her get one bottle of your agent, F. Smith & Co., of this place. About the middle of August she commenced using it according to the directions, and I must say the first dose she took after the bottle was down, she stopped her vomiting, and in five days she could walk the room with a little help. She continued the use of your medicine, and in a few days the canker came from her mouth. I purchased one bottle of your Canker Cure and applied it to the Canker, which soon disappeared. The Cerate she used freely on her sores, which soon cured them. She shortly began to eat hearty, and began to increase in strength. Four bottles of your Syrup have saved my daughter's life. She is now very fleshy, and appears well. I owe it all to Dr. S. A. Weaver's Canker and Salt Rheum Syrup. I believe this medicine has done what nothing else could do, and we most cheerfully recommend it to all who may be troubled with that complaint.

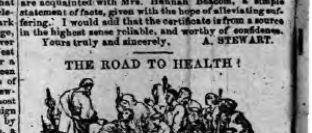
Dr S. A. Weaver:—Sir: If you think this information worthy of your notice, you are at full liberty to publish it to the world.

Yours respectfully, Mrs. HANNAH BEACOM, daughter of Wm. Tanner.

Dr. S. A. Weaver.—Dear Sir:—It gives me pleasure to say that the above will be considered by all who are acquainted with Mrs. Hannah Beacom, as simple statement of facts, given with the hope of alleviating suffering. I would add that the certificate is from a source in the highest sense reliable, and worthy of confidence.

Yours truly and sincerely, A. STEWART.

THE ROAD TO HEALTH!



Holloway's Pills.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist, 7, Prescot Street, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer, to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver, and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the virulence of the attack was unusually severe. The inflammation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her not being able to bear up under it; fortunately, she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she felt great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but the above, from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure, I think, speaks much in favour of your astonishing Pills. (Signed) R. W. KIRKUS

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN THE WEST INDIAS.

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Herbert Town Courier, of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Walsh.

Margaret M'Cannigan, nineteen years of age, residing at New Town, was severely suffering from a rheumatic fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs; during this period she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hamilton's New Town, and was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills which she consented to do, and in an incredible short space of time they effected a perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON 84 YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. Thew & Son, Proprietors of the Lynn Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement.

August 2nd, 1851.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented it from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I am desirous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now restored, by their means, to comparative health and can exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before. (Signed)

HENRY COE, North Street, Lynn, Norfolk.

These celebrated Pills are strongly recommended in the following complaints:

Ague	Dropsy	Inflammation	Sore Throats
Asthma	Dysentery	Jaundice	Stone & Gravel
Bilious	Erysipelas	Liver Com-	Secondary
complaints	Female Irre-	plaints	symptoms
Blotches on	gularities	Lumbago	Tic Doulereux
the Skin	Fevers of all	Piles	Tumours
Bowel com-	kinds	Rheumatism	Venereal Af-
plaints	Fits	Retention of	fections
Colics	Gout	Urine	Worms of all
Constipation	Headaches	Scrofula, or	kinds
of the Bowels	Indiges-	King's Evil	Wounds, of
Consumption	tion	Sore Throats	whatever
Debility			nature, &c.

Sold at the Establishment of Professor Holloway, 244, Strand, (near Temple Bar, London), and by respectable Druggists and dealers in Medicines throughout the British Empire, and of those of the United States, in Boxes at 67 1-2c., 87c., and $1 45c. and Wholesale by the principal Drug houses in the United and by Messrs. A. B & D. Sands, New York.

☞ There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Box.

Oct. 19, 1852.—eowly

Stoves and Ranges.

WM. H. DRUMMOND, NO. 65 MARKET STREET,

TIN, COPPER AND SHEET IRON WORKER,

THE subscriber has now on hand a complete assortment of Parker, Chichering and other Stoves and Ranges, of the most approved and desirable patterns, which will be sold on reasonable terms. Also, Stoves are hired or sold and taken in exchange for old ones.

Dec. 20, 1852.—3m

[illegible] DELAINES—4 to

F. Marsh & Son, $15,50; ... Kelly, 1,58; J. O. Maurice, 1,38; David Smalley, Warren, 1,12; John Ling, .75.

MARRIED,

At ... county, on the 23d inst. by the Rev. Joseph M. Ogden Mr. A. O. Bonnel, of Plainfield, to Miss Elisa L., Daughter, of Isaac H. Bruen, of Union Hill.

DIED,

On the 11th inst. Wm. C. Toms, of Railway, to Elizabeth Clark, of Scotch Plains.

STORE HOUSE to LET.

Possession given immediately.

THE Building occupied for the last 12 years by the subscribers. It is conveniently-fitted up for Dry Goods or Groceries. The Store Room 17 by 26 feet, back room 15 by 36 feet. It is also well calculated for a shoe store with a manufacturing room attached

Dec. 27, 1852. WEBSTER & MARSH.

Annual Statement

Of the Plainfield Building Loan and Saving's Fund Association,

Submitted December 6, 1852.

Cash received during the year for month's installments,	Amount invested in Loans, upon good security,	$14,500 00
Received for interest and premiums,	Expenses during the year,	227 96
	Balance in Treasurer's hands,	41 43
		$14,769 39

Net gain during the year, 18 3-4 per cent, on the amount invested.

No stock forfeited, and but few fines incurred.

The officers of last year were all re-elected, viz: President, Zachariah Webster; Vice President, Oliver Runyon; Secretary and Treasurer, Elston Marsh; Directors, David Coon, Henry A. H. Martin, Joseph Perrine, James T. Dunn, Joseph W. S. Martin, William Dunn and James Leonard. ZACHARIAH WEBSTER, President.

ELSTON MARSH, Secretary.

Something New Comes Every Day.

AMONG the rest is J. W. COREY'S new Hat, Cap and Fur store, 222 BROAD-STREET NEWARK, where you can find a first-rate assortment of the above named articles.

GENTS' HATS of all kinds.

CAPS for BOYS of all kinds and sizes.

FANCY HATS and CAPS for Infants.

LADIES FURS, Victorines, Cuffs and every article pertaining to the trade. Call and see

J. W. COREY.

Dec. 20.

DR. J. C. LEE, No. 175 Spring street, NEW YORK —four blocks west of Broadway—respectfully informs his numerous country friends and the public, that he will continue at the above place, where he may be consulted at all seasonable hours in the various branches of Surgery and Medicine.

Having for the last six years been connected with the New York Dispensary, where upwards of Fifty Thousand Patients have been prescribed for during the last year, he is familiar with all forms of Disease to which the human frame is liable.

☞ He pays particular attention to DISEASES OF FEMALES.

☞ Patients wishing to remain in the City, under his care, will be directed to comfortable lodgings, convenient to him, at moderate rates for the accommodations required

New York, Nov. 9, 1852.—1y

Central Rail Road of N. J.

...owes until further notice, Commencing Monday, November 15, 1852.

Leave Prior No. 1, North River, for Plainfield, at 8, A. M; 12, M.; 3.45 and 4.45, P. M.

Leave Plainfield for New York, at 7.29, 8.20 and 11, 45, A. M., and 3.30, P. M.

Leave Plainfield for Easton, Pa., at 9.50, A. M.; 1.50 and 5.30, P. M.; and for Somerville at 6.55, P. M.

Nov. 15, 1852.

Look at This!

THE Citizens of Plainfield and this vicinity are respectfully notified that the subscriber is ... cent to engage in the HOTTENESS, on this ... Village, and on and after Tuesday, the 30th day of November inst. will be happy to wait on his friends and customers at their residences, or at his meat shop under Mr. James M. Dunn's Store, in Thorn's building in Cherry street. He is determined to sell meat of all kinds as low as can be afforded in town. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

OGDEN M. HETFIELD.

Plainfield, Nov. 29, 1852.—5w

Plainfield TIN and STOVE STORE.

Opposite the Post Office.

JAMES M. C. SMITH offers for sale to the ... who wish to buy cheap or cash, an assortment of Cooking, Parlor, office & shop stoves; Also Tin Ware, Zinc ove" buckets, Coal Sifters & other articles usually found in stove stores. Nov. 29, 1852.—5 tw.

Young's Premium & Cheap Fur Store,

92 Bowery, one door from Hester st. New York.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his customers and the public in general, that he is now manufacturing and will have constantly on hand, a splendid assortment of comprising almost every article in the line. And he flatters himself, that from purchasing early and having his stock manufactured under his personal superintendence, he will be able to suit the most fastidious and economical, both in superior work and low prices.

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC FURS,

Nov. 2, 1852.—3m.

French and Music.

The public are respectfully informed that the best practical instruction is given to young Ladies and Gentlemen in French and Instrumental Music, at the Central English and Classical Institute, and is solicited to avail themselves of the opportunities offered.

Mr. JEAN OCTAVE MAURIAC,

Teacher of French.

Miss LOUISA HEALY, Teacher of Music.

Nov. 22, 1852 —3w

It should be universally known—For it is strictly true —that indigestion is the parent of a large proportion of the fatal diseases. Dysentery, diarrhœa, cholera morbus, liver complaint, and many other diseases enumerated in the city Inspector's weekly catalogue of deaths are generated by indigestion alone. Think of that dyspeptics! think of it all who suffer from disordered stomachs—and if you are willing to be quickly cured, and defended upon experience, instead of death (don't delay a day) to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, which, as an alterative, curative, and invigorating stands alone and unapproached. Depot 120 Arch street. We have tried these Bitters, and know that they are excellent for the diseases specified above —Philadelphia City Item.

DEPOT FOR THE SALE OF

Rosin Oil, and Lamps, at

JAS. M. ... W. BENEET.

...T.

...and occupied ... a number of ... April be ... CUSHING.

Ink.

...COSSINS.

PRINCE & CO.'S

Improved Patent Melodeon

The subscriber, having taken the Agency for the sale of George A. Prince & Co's Melodeons, would invite the public to call and examine some of their Manufactute. Many improvements applied are exclusive y their own, and being the original Manufacturers their experience has enabled them to produce Instruments which is discerning public have unanimously pronounced superior to anything of the kind hitherto manufactured.

Many of the most eminent Musicians of New York and Boston have voluntarily given testimonials as to the high character of their Instruments.

For QUALITY OF TONE AND PROMPTNESS OF TOUCH, or action of the reeds, by which quick passages may be performed with certain and distinct articulation of tones, they are unexcelled.

Specimens of the various sizes, 4 Octave, 4 1-2 Octave, and 5 Octave, Piano style, a splendid parlor Instrument, on hand, and for sale at the manufacturers' prices, ranging from $45 to $100

RICHARD T. CRANE, 589 Broad St.

Principal Agent for Newark.

A lso Violins, Flutes, &c. at New York prices.

Nov. 23, 1852.—1y

Gold Medal.

THE First Premium, a gold medal, was awarded to J. Gurney of No. 180 and 182 Broadway for his superior Daguerreotypes, at the late Fair of the American Institute. The Report of the Premium Committee on Daguerreotypes reads thus: "They are the best specimens that have ever been exhibited, and show by their distinct outline, clearness of light and shadow, rotundity and relief, with artistical arrangement, the perfect state to which the Daguerrian art has arrived in this country. His stereoscopic pictures are also very fine." These specimens together with a large collection of portraits of distinguished persons may be seen at his large and magnificent Gallery, 349 Broadway. Also, a large collection of views of California, embracing all the principal cities, towns, bays, rivers, gold regions, &c. &c. Admittance Free.

All the Chemicals used in the art, of a superior quality, prepared by Gurney & Pitch, for artistic use, for sale by J. GURNEY, 349 Broadway.

Nov. 23, 1852.

Notice to the Ladies of This Place.

Ladies wishing Boots and Shoes for the Fall and Winter season can find at MILLER'S in Canal st., a large and splendid assortment, consisting of black and colored Gaiter Boots, plain and tipped, both single and double soles; Cloth Button boots lined with chamois leather, soft and warm for Winter; Quilted Silk Boots and Buskins, a Beautiful article; Ladies' and Gentlemen's Toilet Slippers, suitable Holiday presents for both sexes; White Satin and Linen Gaiters; white and black Satin, bronze and black French Kid Slippers; Slippers for Balls and Parties; Misses, and Children's Gaiter Boots and Shoes, of all the various styles and prices with Ladies,' Misses' and Children's india Rubber Boots, Gaiter Boots, and Shoes, Gloves, &c., the largest assortment of any store in New York. Ladies will please call and examine for themselves.

620 J. B. MILLER, No. 134 Canal st., N. Y.

Cheap Paper Hangings!

10 Cents a Piece!

JAMES PACKRELL & SON beg to state that they are ready to hang Paper Hangings at the shortest notice, and to execute a genteel job at a cheap rate (if not cheaper than can be obtained.) Marble, Granite and Oak for Halls, &c. Satin, Plain ground and Pulp Gold and Velvet papers from 10 cents to $4 per piece. Orders per mail will be done in 4 hours.

J. F. & SON, Decorative Paper Hanging Manufacturers, N. J. May 10, 1852.

FRENCH LANGUAGE.

NEW TESTIMONY TO THE MERITS OF PASQUELLE'S NEW METHOD OF LEARNING THE FRENCH LANGUAGE.

Embracing both the Analytical and Synthetical Modes of Instruction;

In one volume. Price $1 25 retail.

FIFTH EDITION.

Published by

NEWMAN & IVISON, 199 Broadway, New York.

From N. W. Howard, Newcastle, Ky.

I was so convinced of its superiority to all other textbooks on the same subject, that have fallen under my notice, that I immediately caused it to be procured by a class of young ladies, which I was about to commence instructing. The progress they have made in three months has highly gratified themselves, their parents, and their teacher, and I attribute it with justice to the systematic and practical, yet simple plan of the work.

From Cyrus Knowlton, Principal of the Hughes High School, Cincinnati, Ohio,

Pasquelle's grammar satisfies me. It is evidently the work of a thorough teacher as well as thorough scholar.

From the New York Day Book.

We never saw a more finished treatise on that polite language.

From the New York Evangelist.

A very philosophical and complete christomathy in this much-desired language.

From the New York Courier & Enquirer.

The most eminently facility the French learner can ever reasonably hope for.

From P. N. Legemier, New Haven, Ct.

Never has a work come under my notice that blends so happy and harmoniously the practical elements of the language. My pupils study it with pleasure.

From Zion's Herald.

It presents the true method of study, and seems to us scarcely capable of improvement.

From the Literary World.

Its elucidations are minute and painstaking, carefully labeling tee various obstacles.

From the Mirror.

One of the very best arranged books that we have ever seen.

From the Methodist Quarterly Review.

The work is done every where with conscientious thorough knees.

From the New Haven Palladium.

The book is exceedingly valuable, and will have an immense sale.

From the Detroit Free Press.

It seems to us most decidedly superior to any work of its kind ever published.

☞ Teachers who wish to examine the work can have a copy sent by mail, postage paid, in flexible cover, by sending Postoffice stamps to the amount of 62 cents.

Just published a New Edition of

"TELEMAQUE,"

IN FRENCH,

From the most approved Text; with Notes and Grammatical References.

BY LOUIS PASQUELLE, L. L. D.,

Professor of Modern Language in the University of Michigan.

1 vol. 12mo. on fine paper, and neatly bound.

NEWMAN & IVISON,

SCHOOL BOOK PUBLISHERS,

Sept. 26,3m 199 Broadway, New York.

The Last Call.

ALL Persons indebted to the late firm of Runyon & & Webster, on Book account, are hereby notified that if their accounts are not paid by the 1st of December next; they will be left in the hands of a magistrate for collection. OLIVER RUNYON.

November 20th, 1852.

E. KIRKPATRICK,

MASTER IN CHANCERY

DEEDS, Mortgages and other Legal Instruments carefully drawn and acknowledged.

Call at his office, opposite Cherry Street, Plainfield, Feb. 14th, 1852.

Gold Spectacles, a Good Assortment, at ... Less than New York prices, formula by ... 13,1852. WM. S. WOOD.

First Premium Millinery, Establishment,

564 Broadway, one door below Prince st. near the Metropolitan Hotel, New York.

MRS. W. SIMMONS respectfully announces to her numerous patrons and strangers visiting the city, that she has a handsome assortment of Paris Pall and Winter Millinery; in addition to a large assortment of her own manufacture, of the latest Fall fashions. Also just received by the last steamers, a large invoice of Paris Bonnets, Silks, Velvets, Ribbbons, Feathers, Artificial Flowers, &c. Merchants and Milliners supplied by the case or single Bonnet, as usual. Mrs. S kindly solicits a call.

Oct. 12-3m

New Hat and Cap Store,

232 BROAD-STREET, NEWARK.

THE subscriber has just opened a new and splendid stock consisting of Hats, which for elegance of style, in durability, cannot be surpassed. Caps of all kinds for Men and Boys Also Children's Fancy Hats and Caps, all to be had at very low prices. All wishing a good article for cash will do all and examine for themselves before purchasing elsewhere.

Dec. 13, 1852. J. W. COREY.

JOHN PRICE,

OPTICIAN, AND MANUFACTURER OF

Gold and Silver Spectacles,

NEWARK, N. J.

WOULD respectfully inform his friends and the public generally, that he has lately enlarged and refitted his store, and that he has on hand and he intends keeping a first rate assortment of

Gold, Silver and Steel Spectacles,

Of every discription, set with the most superior Lenses in use, either in this country or Europe, also Gold, Silver and Tortoise Shell Frame Reading Glasses, hand, quizzing, opera and magnifying Glasses, in great variety, Microscopes, Telescopes, Perspectives, Goggles, Eye Protectors, Double Concave Lenses for Short sighted persons, fine English ground Colored, Convex and Concave Lenses, Cataract Lenses, &c. Particular attention is called to

Price's Premium Periscopic and CAPE AT CROWN LENSES,

Being made of the finest materials, which, through their high polish and true ground, produce the purest vision, and are recommended by competent judges as being decidedly the best and most natural in their effect of all others for preserving and improving the sight in continued reading, writing &c.

Reference might be given to hundreds in this city and vicinity, who have used these lenses for the last four or five years with the most perfect satisfaction, but it is unnecessary as they are so well known from the reputation which they have gained for themselves since they have been introduced by the subscriber.

Persons with weak eyes can be fitted with Glasses which will greatly benefit, and not injure the sight.—Short-sighted persons, and such as have been operated upon for Cataract, can also suited.

J. P. would further say to one at his store all persons that have found it impossible to get Glasses, that were adapted to their sight, as the most difficult cases are easily fitted upon a fair trial, if the sight is not so far gone as to make it impossible to be benefitted with glasses. Any person purchasing Spectacles at his store, can exchange if not well suited at any time within three months, without any charge. The subscriber has also so on hand a LARGE ASSORTMENT of silver spoons, Prince Albert, threaded, and plain patterns, butter knives, sugar shovels, soup ladles, salt spoons, tea spoons, &c. Also heavy silver thimbles, fine gold guard and vest chains, ear rings, breast pins, cuff pins, lockets, finger rings, silver-plated, plain and threaded table, dessert, tea, and salt Spoons, plated Forks, &c.

Nov. 2. 1-y

SHERIFF'S SALE.

Essex Circuit Court.

Levi Hetfield vs. Randolph Drake, Nathaniel Drake, and Ezra Drake. Pl. Fa. for sale, &c.

Same Court.

Rahway Bank vs. Randolph Drake and Nathaniel Drake Fi. Fa. for sale, &c.

Essex Common Pleas.

Ezra Drake who sues, &c. vs. Nathaniel Drake. Fi. Fa. for sale, &c.

By virtue of the above stated writs of fieri facias, to me directed I shall expose for sale at public vendue at the Court House in the city of Newark, on Tuesday the 11th day of January next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. All that tract or parcel of land and premises, situate, lying and being in the township of New Providence in the county of Union, and bounded and described as follows, viz: Beginning at the N. W. corner of Jas. C. Lyon's lot, thence running S. 69 deg. W. 16 ch. 88 links to a white oak tree being a corner; thence S. 21 deg. 30 min. thence S. 52 1-4 deg. W. 2 ch. 96 links, thence still with his line S. 69 1-4 deg. E. 23 ch. 86 links to the side of the road that leads to Fall Mills, thence by the road N. 44 deg. E. 10 ch. 13 links to the S. W. corner of the C. Lyon's land, thence along his line N. 34 deg W. 25 ch. 10 links to beginning, containing by estimation 43 acres, more or less, excepting so much of the above described property as lies out of the county of Essex.

Newark, Oct. 29, 1852. W. PIERSON, Sheriff.

Middlesex Orphan's Court.

Special Term, 1852.

New Brunswick, November 20, A. D. 1852.

In matter of William S. Dunham, Administrator of Ass F. Randolph, dec'd.

Petition to Sell Lands.

The said administrator having exhibited, on oath a just and true account of the personal estate of the said deceased, and of the debts, &c. as far as can discover the same, by which it appears that the personal estate of the said deceased is insufficient to pay debts; therefore, on application of the said Administrator setting forth that the lands of the said deceased did descend to the heirs in the county of Middlesex, and praying the aid of this court in the premises:

It is ordered by the COURT, That all persons interested in the real estate of said deceased, do appear before this court on Tuesday, the 25th day of January next at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Court House in this county, to show cause if any they have, why the said real estate of the said deceased, or so much thereof as shall be necessary for the payment of debts and expenses yet unpaid, should not be sold.

THOS. M. HOLCOMBE, Clerk.

Nov. 23d, 1852. 4t 8w

Oils! Oils! M. RILEY,

MANUFACTURER OF

MACHINE, WOOL, PAINT AND TANNERS' OILS.

Oil Works, Stapleton, Staten Island.

Office, 34 Broadway, (up stairs,) New York.

Liberal commission allowed on all orders through Express Agents. 227 Pine

Agency of DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED MEDICINES.

Pulmonary Balsam,	Depurative Syrup,
Pectoral Expectorant,	Heart Corrector,
Pulmonary Liniment,	Humor Corrector,
Anti-dyspeptic Mixture	Cough & Cathar. Pills
Nervine,	Female
Vermifuge,	Female Specific

Pure and Medical Cod Liver Oil,

Used by him constantly and with unprecedented success in the treatment of

Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, Piles, &c.

Dr. Pitch's unequalled Patent Silver Plated Abdominal Supporters.

Dr. Fitch's Improved Plated Steel Spring Shoulder Brace.

Dr. Fitch's Silver Inhaling Tube.

DR. FITCH'S CELEBRATED SIX LECTURES ON THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF

Consumption, Asthma, Diseases of the Heart, &c., and on the method of preserving Health and Beauty to an old age.

This Book should be in every family. To the consumptive it points out tee only REASONABLE hope for relief. To mothers, the directions it gives for the care and education of children are invaluable. 75,000 copies of this Book have passed through the press, and the sale continues unabated.

For sale by S. FITCH & CO., 707 Broadway, New York; and by M. F. CUSHING, only Agent for Plainfield.

Dr. Fitch's Guide to Invalids, or directions to persons using his Remedies, to be had gratis of the agents.

EGGS, Butter, Rags, Corn, Oats, and in fact any ... thing we can sell ... anything with, taken into ... goods. ... 13,1852.

Æolian Piano Fortes.

T. GILBERT & CO.'S CELEBRATED PIANO FORTES,

with and without the Æolian.

The subscriber, who is sole agent in this city for the sale of these Instruments, (the reputation of which has become world-wide) is now prepared to offer them at prices which to those wishing to purchase, cannot fail to be satisfactory. Possessing facilities for obtaining Pianos unsurpassed if equalled by those of any other house in the city, he does not hesitate to say that he can present instruments to buyers not to be found elsewhere. He has constantly on hand an extensive assortment of second-hand Pianos, at bargains, which he fearlessly asserts will defy competition. Gilbert's Elegant Boudoir or cottage pianos, suitable for small rooms; also Melodeons of Prince's and Carhart's patent. Pianos to Rent, Tuned and other Pianos to let.

HORACE WATERS, 333 Broadway, corner of Anthony, (up-stairs) N. Y.

Sept. 27, 1852.—3m

Hosiery and Shirt store,

No. 202 GREENWICH STREET,

CORNER OF CHAMBERS, NEW YORK.

The subscriber invites the attention of the public to his Fall stock of

UNDER-CLOTHING,

CONSISTING OF

Lamb's Wool, Merino, Cashmere, & Silk & Cotton	Shirts & Drawers	The Tevlot Wool Undergarment so highly recommended by physicians.

ALSO

The Shaker shirts & drawers, Shaker knitted half Hose, Woolen Hose and Half Hose,

Wholesale & Retail

Collars, cravats, Stocks, Gloves, Mufflers, handkerchiefs, &c.

☞ These SHAKER SHIRTS made to order in the most approved style.

Persons about to proceed to California, will find a good assortment of MACKINAW BLANKETS, TRAVELING BAGS, RUBBER BELTS, &c.;

☞ Terms Cash ... One Price Only. ☜

THOMAS McLAUGHLIN.

222 Greenwich St., cor. Chambers,

One block west of Hudson River Railroad Station.

New York, Oct. 4, 1852.—3m

THOMAS G. STEARNS,

IMPORTER AND DEALER IN

Silks, Millinery, and Fancy Goods,

162 Broadway, New York,

Has now in Store and daily receiving and offering at the Lowest Prices, a complete and carefully selected Assortment of Goods in his line, comprising all the various styles and designs, consisting in part of the following:

Plain and Fancy SILKS,

MARCELINES, FLORENCES, SHAWLS; TRIMMINGS, Bonnet Ribbons, Taffeta, and Satin Ribbons, EMBROIDERIES,

French and English Crapes, Crape Lisses,

Silk Cravats, GLOVES of all kinds,

SILK LACE MITTS, DRESS TRIMMINGS of all kinds, Bareges, Laces, White Goods,

Hosiery, L. C. Handkerchiefs.

The undersigned would invite the attention of his friends and the trade generally. He will offer great inducements to

Cash and Short Time Buyers,

and would respectfully solicit an examination of his Stock before purchasing elsewhere.

THOMAS G. STEARNS, 162 Broadway,

Between Liberty st. and Maiden Lane.

New York, Sept. 27, 1852.—3m

WEAVER'S CANKER & SALT RHEUM SYRUP

CANKER CURE & CERATE,

WARRANTED A CURE FOR

Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Scrofulous Humors, Liver Complaints, Canker, and all Diseases arising from Impure Blood.

THESE preparations are scientific productions of a regularly educated physician (who is now extensively engaged in the practice of his profession), They have become deservedly popular in all sections of the country where they have been introduced, from the fact that they have never failed to effect a cure where they have been used according to direction.

THE CANKER AND SALT RHEUM SYRUP

is an article differing entirely from sarsaparilla or Dock Syrups, or any other preparation ever offered to the public. It can be positively relied on for the effectual cure of all Scrofulous Humors, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Canker in the Mouth, Stomach or Bowels, Female weaknesses, and all humors arising from an impure state of the blood. It is a complete renovator, effecting a complete and radical cure, eradicating disease and restoring to healthy action every part of the system.

THE CERATE

In all cases of humors, and especially for Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, is a valuable accompaniment to the Syrup, as it will effectually destroy every vestige of disease, and will in all cases heal the sore. Price 50 cts.

use of the Syrup. It is one of the most valuable external applications ever known for Burns, Scalds, Scald Head, Old Sores, Piles, Barber's Itch, and all other eruptions on the skin. And far surpasses all other external applications.

THE CANKER CURE.

Is the desideratum so long sought for the relief and cure of certain diseases to which all others have failed, to relieve. It is warranted a positive cure for Nursing Sore Mouths, in those cases it has never failed. Thousands have tried it, and been cured also, for Canker in the Mouth, Stomach and Bowels, and obstinate dysentery it has effected cures after tried remedies had failed. For Ulcers and all diseases proceeding from cankerous humors in the system this is useful and is a valuable accompaniment to the Syrup in all cases of Canker.

Neither of the above articles are genuine without the signature of S. A. WEAVER & Co., on the outside wrapper.

Manufactured at New London, Conn., by S. A. Weaver & Co., sole proprietors, to whom all orders must be addressed.

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for Plainfield.

I refer to the following Markets: C. Barcalow, Somerville; A. C. Watson, Rahway; R. McDonald & Son, New Brunswick; A. W Miller, Elizabethtown.

For sale by Wholesale Druggists generally in New York. Oct. 11.—3m

R. R. R.

TO THE PUBLIC—A CARD. A PUBLIC INVITATION TO ALL WHO SUFFER PAIN.

If there is a man or woman who is in how suffering pain, we care not what the cause may be, we guarantee that Radway's Ready Relief will give you ease in one minute, you entirely in a few minutes after using it. Call upon the agent, whose name you will find in this paper, and if you are suffering any kind of pain, we will warrant that Radway's Ready Relief will stop it before you leave the store.

It will cure Rheumatism after all other remedies have failed—it is the only sure cure for Neuralgia. It will cure Sick or Nervous Headache, and stops the most painful throbs in a few minutes. It will relieve the most distressing pains of diarrhœa. Spasms, &c.

R. R. R.—CHILLS AND FEVER.

We guarantee that Radway's Ready Relief will remove this distressing plague. It stops the chills in a few minutes, and its warming, cleansing, and invigorating influence thrills through every portion of the system. It will expel every impurity from the blood, it forces it into circulation, it keeps the stomach free from acid, & to neutralize the poisonous miasma of aque fits, it is the only sure remedy.

It should be applied externally to stop the pains—to give renewed action to the functions of the skin—the joints and ligaments, the nerve and muscles—to vivify and refresh the senses, from stupor, sleep, or drowsiness.

Let every individual bear this important fact in mind —Radway's Ready Relief will check the chills in a few minutes, and stop the pain instantly. It cures Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colic, Nervous, Choleric, Diarrhoic Pains in a few minutes. It never fails in relieving the patient from pain. Nov. 9—3w

New Carpet Warehouse.

HITCHCOCK & LEADBETTER,

No. 347 Broadway, corner of Leonard st. New York,

HAVE RECEIVED THEIR NEW FALL IMPORTATIONS, and are daily,

PURCHASING AT AUCTION

every variety of choice and desirable Fall and Winter FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS;

and are prepared to offer their customers a very extensive and rich variety of

PLAIN, CHANGEABLE AND FIGURED SILKS,

of every variety of shade and color. Also, striped plaid and checked, and every kind, in fast, of French and India Silks, including a large assortment of the celebrated

BISCHOP'S BLACK SILKS,

the handsomest, best, and most durable manufactured.

SHAWLS, LONG AND SQUARE,

of every variety and kind, such as Broche, plain and figured Cashmere, Woollen, Plaid, Rob Roy, and the

CELEBRATED BAY STATE SHAWLS,

All which they can sell at the very lowest rates.

FRENCH MERINOES AND CASHMERES

A large assortment, of every desirable color.

FRENCH MOUSELINE DE LAINES,

and Winter Cashmeres, of the most desirable patterns.

PLAID GOODS OF EVERY KIND

A choice and large assortment of elegant, rich and neat,

Every Kind of Ladies' Dress Goods,

suitable for the Fall and Winter season; and a splendid assortment of goods of various kinds,

Suitable for Children's Wear.

They would also invite attention to their stock of

Housewife or Family Goods,

as plain Linen and Cotton Goods of every kind,

Table Damasks, Napkins, Towels,

Woolen Blankets, Quilts

Flannels, Canton Flannels, Diapers, Towellings,

Laces and Needle Draperies,

Juan's Celebrated Kid Gloves,

the best article brought to this market, at 62 1-2 cts. a pair

Ribbons—A Splendid Assortment!

which Ladies and Milliners will find worthy their attention

Mourning Goods of Every Kind,

including Black Bombazines, Alpacas, Canton Cloths, Canton Crapes, Challies, Barages, De Deines, plain and figured. and every article in fact, requisite for a

Ladies' Mourning Wardrobe,

Wide Velvets, French Cloths,

and every kind of goods for Ladies' Cloakings

Gentlemen's Furnishings

of every kind, as Fur, Silk, Merino and Cotton Under Shirts, and Drawers, Scarfs, Cravats, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, &c., full 30 per cent. less than at the gentils' man's Furnishing Stores

Terms—Cash on Delivery!

Merchants from abroad will be able to select many articles from our stock which will enable them to "work up" their stock to advantage. 1jun21

CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

THE subscriber announces to the citizens of Plainfield and the adjoining villages, that he has opened an establishment opposite the store of T. S. Dunham & Co., where he has an assortment of the above articles, together with silver work of all kinds. People generally are invited to call and examine his stock.

Clocks, Watches and Jewelry, carefully and warranted to give satisfaction. Coffin plates kept on hand, and engraved at the shortest notice.

N. B. Grain and Wool taken in exchange for Clocks

Plainfield, April 18, 1852.—tf. WM. S. WOOD.

FALL AND WINTER CAMPAIGN OPENED

1852-3.

G. C. PHILLIPS,

No. 2 Commerce st.

NEWARK,

Encouraged by the past and long confidence ture, has late... of the most comp... assortments of new and desirable styles of

Parlor, Store and Cooking Stoves,

Ever offered to the Newark public, comprising some entirely new patterns, never before introduced in this city, and which for elegrance and utility of design are unsurpassed. He therefore solicits a call to examine his assortment before purchasing elsewhere, which consists of eke

Saratoga Coal Burner,

This is a new and elegant Parlor Stove, but recently brought into use, which received the most enthusiastic approval of all who have used it. It has been pronounced equal, if not superior to the celebrated Star Coal Burner, and can be furnished at about one-half its cost.

The Rip Van Winkle,

This is a new and unique and novel Parlor Stove, for either wood or coal, designed after the celebrated story of Washington Irving.

The New Republic,

This Stove has now been in use more than 18 months, and has been subject to the most severe trials, and received the most unqualified approval of thousands. As a Cooking Stove, for either wood or coal, it has no superior, and is the best baking Stove now in use.

"Vesuvius" Cooking Stove,

This celebrated Stove has been in use by several families in this city for the past two years, satisfactor from whom will be furnished on application to the subscriber, they will agree in pronouncing it the very best stove in use, for economy in fuel, and the various purposes for which it *may be applied. It is so arranged as to con*duct the heat to different parts of the ...

Hays Patent Tabular Range.

This Range is constructed on the most scientific principles, with the idea of performing all its offices with the least possible fuel, and possesses merits for surpassing any range ever before offered. One of them may be seen in operation at the subscriber's store.

The elevated Oven Parlor Rotary Top Cylinder, and Cracton (Cooking Stove) Parlor Grates, &c. &c., also on hand.

The subscriber also keeps constantly on hand a large supply of Tin and Sheet Iron, Lead Pipe, Hollow and Pokers, brass and Iron Kettles, Cooking Utensils, of all kinds, &c. &c.

☞ Stoves delivered and put up with care in any part of the city. Thankful for past favors the subscriber requests, and will endeavor to merit a continuance of the same. G. C. PHILLIPS,

Newark, Sept. 20 —tf No. 2Commerce st.

Lamps, Girandoles, and Chandeliers.

THE subscriber wishes to direct public attention to his large and extensive assortment of Lamps, Girandoles, Chandiciers and Candlabras; Solar, Lard, Camphene, Burning Fluid, and Portable Lamps of the latest improvements and select patterns. Also, a large assortment of Hall, Suspending and Bracket Lamps for Clutches, Hotels, steamboats, public buildings, &c. Pure Sperm, Whale and Lard Oils, also a new article of Camphene and Burning Fluid, and every article connected with the trade.

The trade supplied on the most reasonable terms.

Country merchants would do well to call before purchasing elsewhere. SOLOMON S. REILLY,

No. 125 Canal st corner of Laight; No. 51 Carmine st. corner of Bedford; No. 167 Greenwich, corner of Courtlandt; No. 218 Canal street, near Hudson. Camphene Distillery, corner of 9th Avenue and Canal street New York. Oct. 26, 1852.—3m

HOPE'S EXPRESS.

M. F. CUSHING, Agent for ...

Leaves Plainfield for New York at 8 1-2, A. M. Somerville, at 6 1-2 P. M.

Arrives at Plainfield from New York at 5 1-2 P. M. From Easton, &c. 8 1-2 A. M.

All business entrusted to us will be punctually attended to, without delay, at under, & charges, for cash.

DISSOLUTION.

THE Co-partnership heretofore existing between the subscribers under the name of ... & Lyon, is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

CHARLES JOHNSON.

JACOB LYON.

Oct. 1, 1852.

The business will be continued at the old stand by the subscriber, who will keep every thing in the Grocery line will be sold cheap for Cash.

N. B. All persons indebted to the late firm are requested to call and settle without delay, at the store, where the Books are left, and the subscriber is authorized to settle the same. JACOB LYON.

Plainfield, 1st. 4, 1852.—tf.

Great Inducements.

READY MADE CLOTHING, at reduced prices ... selling of 50, 8 P. SUDMAN & SON'S.

...COMPLAINT...

...Nervous, Dyspeptic, Chronic or Nervous ...Disease of the Kidneys, and Diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, Deficiency of perspiration, Yellowness of the skin and eyes, Pain in the side, back, limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of heat, Burning in the Flesh, constant Imaginings of evil and Great depression of spirits, can be effectually cured by

DR. HOOFLAND'S

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

PREPARED BY

DR. C. M. JACKSON,

At the German Medicine Store, 120 Arch St. Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled if equalled—by any other preparation in the United States, as theever attest, in many cases after all physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids Possessing great power over the diseases of diseases of the Liver and lower glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are what the nation and physicians.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

From the "Boston Bee."

The editor said, Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. They have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure Liver Complaints from the use of them. We are convinced of the truth of these statements, for the article constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be administered to the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances.—We are speaking from experience, and to be afflicted we advise their use.

"The Weekly," one of the best literary papers published, said Aug. 25—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are how recommended by some of the most prominent members of the family as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save many painful sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

MORE EVIDENCE

The Hon. C. D. Ihseline, Mayor of the City of Camden, N. J., says:

"Hoofland's German Bitters.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were led to purchase it, and can say we found it specific in its action upon the causes of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is surprising. It assists and strengthens the nerves, bringing on a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

"Hoofland's German Bitters.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were led to purchase it, and can say we found it specific in its action upon the causes of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is surprising. It assists and strengthens the nerves, bringing on a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

"Hoofland's German Bitters is now more generally used, we are sat isfied, and he less sickness, as from the stomach, nervous system and the great majority of the cases of chronic diseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition, and you can bid defiance to epidemic generally. This article is worthy the notice of all, and our friends who are not all indisposed, to give a trial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit.

Evidences upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor, is that there is more of it used with the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined. A fact which cannot be established, and truthfully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, when used according to directions, it is not specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to exhaust in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. It is a combination, and will be found efficacious with safety and reliable benefit at any time.

Look well to the marks of the genuine

They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.

For sale Wholesale and Retail at the GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

No. 120 Arch street, an door below Sixth, Philadelphia; also, and by respectable dealers generally through the country.

Trees Reduced.

To enable all classes of invalids to enjoy the advantages of their great restorative powers.

Single Bottle 75 cents.

For sale in Plainfield, by M. F. CUSHING.

Sept. 26, 1853.—ly

J. A. WOODLAND,

HOUSE, SIGN AND

DECORATIVE PAINTER,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

The above is prepared to execute all orders in his line, particularly in the Graining, Marbling and Painting of Rooms in imitation of Rosewood, Mahogany, Satinwood and Oak. Also, Gilding, Bronzing, Whitening and Coloring Ceilings, Fancy Scrolls, Flowers, &c. Shop on Fourth Street, near Cherry.

March 23, 1852.

Cheap, cheap store!!

THE subscriber invites the attention of the people to his large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Hardware, Queensware, Glass Ware, also Boots and Shoes. My stock has been selected with great care, and an eye to cheap ness, as well as to quality of the goods, and particularly a adapted to spring and summer trade, viz:

Prints,	Ginghams,	Cassimers,
Mousselin de Lane,	Gloves,	Summerstuffs,
Linens,	Hosiery,	Fustians, &c.

And all styles of goods, adapted to Ladies, Men's and Boy's wear. Muslins bleached and unbleached, colored cambrics, shirtings, sheetings, buttons, thread, cotton batts, &c.

GROCERIES.

Teas,	Rice,	Segars,	Candles, Fish
Coffee,	Corn Starch,	Soap,	Indian Meal

PROVISIONS—Butter, Lard, Smoked Beef, Pepper, Spices, Cheese; Hams, Pork, &c.

Paper mates, Honey, brushes, brooms, pails, &c.

All of which will be sold low for cash or approved country produce. Invite one and all both old and young, to call and see goods and prices, being satisfied that I can suit to the second time.

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!

The subscriber has also on hand a good assortment of black silks, which will be sold cheap.

May 3, 1853. JAY. ARROWSMITH.

SARA PRUDEN.

WOULD inform the public that he is still in Plainfield, and has on hand a large assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries,

Crockery, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning Fluid, &c.

Which he will sell at a small profit for cash, or approved country produce.

Plainfield, June 14, 1852.

Dry Goods, Groceries, Provisions, Crockery and Queensware, Hardware, Tinware, Paints & Oils, Boots & Shoes, Camphene, Burning Fluid, &c. Also, Patent Medicines, such as Dr. Peterson's Celebrated Bitters, Dr. Spalding's Compound Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound, Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, Dr. Jayne's Carminative Balsam, Dr. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge, Dr. Jayne's Sanative Pills, Dr. Jayne's Hair Tonic